☆ Ginger Rogers, Ray Milland, Barbara Eden, Walter Abel, Cecil Kellaway, Elliott Gould, Michael Ansara, David Hurst Quick Millions ★★

US 1931 69m bw
Fox

An ambitious truck driver becomes a ruthless racketeer.
Fast-moving, otherwise naïve early gangster melodrama notable for Tracy's first star performance.
w Courteney Terrett, Rowland Brown, John Wray d Rowland Brown ph Joseph August ☆ Spencer Tracy, Marguerite Churchill, Sally Eilers, Robert Burns, John Wray, George Raft

'This film is in the money. Ranks with the best of the gangster items.' – Variety

Quicker than the Eye
France/Switzerland 1989 92m Fujicolour
Condor/Crocodile/SRG/ZDF/ORF/Paul-Boris Lobadowsky/William Hartman (Peter-Christian Fueter) original title: Passe-Passe

In Switzerland, a gang of ruthless assassins, hired to kill the president of an African country, plan to use an American magician as their cover.
Uninteresting and uninvolving thriller, with a cast coasting through the convolutions of the plot.
w Joseph Morhaim, Nicolas Gessner novel Claude Cueni d Nicolas Gessner ph Wolfgang Treu m George Garvarentz pd Max Stubenrauch ed Daniela Roderer
☆ Ben Gazzara, Mary Crosby, Jean Yanne, Robert Linesol, Catherine Jarrett, Eb Lottimer, Wolfram Berger, Dinah Hinz, Ivan Desny

The Quiet American ★★
US 1957 122m bw
UA/Figaro (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)

An American in Saigon has naïve ideas for ending the war; he saves the life of a journalist who for various reasons becomes jealous and is duped into betraying the American to the communists.
Semi-successful excursion into the territory of Graham Greene, who as in Brighton Rock has allowed his ironic ending to be totally re-emphasized, here making the film anti-communist instead of anti-American.
wd Joseph L. Mankiewicz novel Graham Greene ph Robert Krasker m Mario Nascimbene
☆ Michael Redgrave, Audie Murphy, Claude Dauphin, Giorgia Moll, Bruce Cabot, Fred Sadoff, Richard Loo
♪ Michael Caine

'In war, the most powerful weapon is seduction.'

The Quiet American ★★★
US/Germany 2002 101m Atlab Panavision
Buena Vista/Mirage/Saga/IMF (William Horberg, Staffan Ahrenberg)

In Vietnam in the early 50s, a tired and cynical British journalist and an idealistic American agent clash over love and politics.
True to the spirit of Greene's novel, one that seems to have become more than ever relevant, this film superbly captures its account of political and personal betrayal, the danger of do-gooders and the corruption of spirit that weariness with the world can bring.
w Christopher Hampton, Robert Schenkkan d Phillip Noyce
ph Christopher Doyle m Craig Armstrong pd Roger Ford ad Ian Gracie ed John Scott cos Norma Moriceau
☆ Michael Caine (Thomas Fowler), Brendan Fraser (Alden Pyle), Do Thi Hai Yen (Phuong), Rade Sherbedgia (Inspector Vigot), Tzi Ma (Hinh), Robert Stanton (Joe Tunney), Holmes Osborne (Bill Granger), Pham Thi Mai Hoa (Phuong's Sister), Quang Hai (The General)

'Greene's lifelong concern with moral ambiguity gives this film a texture and complexity that movies don't usually achieve.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'Reveals itself to be not so much a historical allegory as an Iliad of the heart. It's sad and smart and beautiful and true.' – Shawn Levy, Oregonian

Quiet Days in Clichy
France/Italy/Germany 1989 100m colour
ItalFrance (Lawrence Schiller)

original title: Jours Tranquilles à Clichy
An elderly American writer recalls the sexual encounters of his youth.
Curiously passionless and unconvincing movie set in an art director's idea of decadent pre-war Paris, not helped by the casting of the bland McCarthy as Miller; it is better on politics than sex.
w Ugo Leonzio, Claude Chabrol novel Henry Miller d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Matthieu Chabrol, Luigi Ceccarelli, Jean-Michel Bernard ad Marco Dentici ed Monique Fardoulis
☆ Andrew McCarthy, Nigel Havers, Barbara de Rossi, Stephanie Cotter, Isolde Barth, Eva Grimaldi, Anna Galiena, Stephane Audran, Elide Melli

The Quiet Earth ★★
New Zealand 1985 94m colour
Cinepro/Pillsbury Films (Sam Pillsbury, Don Reynolds)

After an experiment goes disastrously wrong, a suicidal scientist wakes to discover that he appears to be the only person left alive in the world.
An intriguing and often witty exercise in apocalyptic science fiction, with an unconventional approach.
w Bill Baer, Bruno Lawrence, Sam Pillsbury novel Craig Harrison d Geoff Murphy ph James Bartle m John Charles pd Josephine Ford ed Michael Horton ☆ Bruno Lawrence, Alison Routledge, Peter Smith

The Quiet Man ★★★
US 1952 129m Technicolor
Republic/Argosy (John Ford, Merian C. Cooper)

An Irish village version of The Taming of the Shrew, the tamer being an ex-boxer retired to the land of his fathers and in need of a wife. Archetypal John Ford comedy, as Irish as can be, with everything but leprechauns and the Blarney Stone on hand.
Despite some poor sets the film has a gay swing to it, much brawling vigour and broad comedy, while the actors all give their roistering best.
w Frank Nugent story Maurice Walsh d John Ford ph Winton C. Hoch, Archie Stout m Victor Young ad Frank Hotaling ed Jack Murray

☆ John Wayne (Sean Thornton), Maureen O'Hara (Mary Kate Danaher), Barry Fitzgerald (Michaeleen Flynn), Victor McLaglen (Red Will Danaher), Ward Bond (Fr. Peter Lonergan), Mildred Natwick (Mrs. Sarah Tillane), Francis Ford (Dan Tobin), Arthur Shields (Rev. Cyril Playfair), Eileen Crowe (Mrs. Elizabeth Playfair), Sean McClory (Owen Glynn), Jack MacGowran (Feeney)

'Ford's art and artifice ... are employed to reveal a way of life – stable, rooted, honourable, purposeful in nature's way, and thereby rhythmic. Everyone is an individual, yet everyone and everything has a place.' – Henry Hart, Films in Review

† A Region 1 collector's edition DVD release has commentary by Maureen O'Hara and a documentary on the making of the film.

Oscar John Ford; Winton C. Hoch, Archie Stout

Oscar best picture; Frank Nugent; Victor McLaglen

A Quiet Place to Kill: see Paranoia

Quiet Please, Murder ★

US 1943 70m bw
TCF (Ralph Dietrich)

Nazis and art thieves cause a high death rate in a public library.

Unusual, stylish second feature.

wd John Larkin ph Joe MacDonald m Arthur Lange md Emil Newman

☆ George Sanders, Kurt Katch, Gail Patrick, Richard Denning, Lynne Roberts, Sidney Blackmer, Byron Foulger

SAMPLES OF QUIRKY DIALOGUE: PATRICK TO SANDERS: 'How many butterflies did you torture since lunch, hoping one would turn on you?'

SANDERS: 'I am a punishment in your life. Your conscience demands it. The unconscious instinct to punish ourselves sometimes becomes self-destructive. The way we live is a constant threat to our own security. We love it. Giving and taking pain.'

PATRICK: 'You hate because you fear love – and the thought of desiring.'

Quiet Wedding ★★★

GB 1940 80m bw
Paramount/Conqueror (Paul Soskin)

Middle-class wedding preparations are complicated by family guests.

A semi-classic British stage comedy is admirably filmed with a splendid cast.

w Terence Rattigan, Anatole de Grunwald play Esther McCracken d Anthony Asquith ph Bernard Knowles m Nicholas Brodszky ad Paul Sheriff ed Reginald Beck

☆ Margaret Lockwood (Janet Royd), Derek Farr (Dallas Chaytor), A. E. Matthews (Arthur Royd), Marjorie Fielding (Mildred Royd), Athene Seyler (Aunt Mary), Peggy Ashcroft (Flower Lisle), Margaretta Scott (Marcia Royd), Frank Cellier (Mr. Chaytor), Roland Culver (Boofy Ponsonby), Jean Cadell (Aunt Florence), David Tomlinson (John Royd), Bernard Miles (PC)

'A completely unpretentious and charming film, the components of which are as delicately balanced as the mechanism of a watch.' – New York Times

'No subtlety of glance, movement or dialogue has been missed, no possible highlight omitted.' – MFB

† Production was halted five times when bombs fell on the studio.

†† Remade as Happy is the Bride (qv).

Quiet Weekend

GB 1946 92m bw
Associated British (Warwick Ward)

The Royds spend a weekend at their country cottage and get involved with poachers.

Trivial and poorly-made sequel, not up to the standard of Quiet Wedding as a comic study of British types.

w Victor Skutezky play Esther McCracken d Harold French ph Eric Cross

☆ Derek Farr, Marjorie Fielding, George Thorpe, Frank Cellier

Quigley Down Under

US 1990 120m colour Panavision
UIP/Pathe (Stanley O'Toole, Alexandra Rose)

In 1860s Australia, an American hired gun is outlawed after quarrelling with his employer, a violent British cattle rancher.

Apart from its outback setting, a conventional and unoriginal Western, given perfunctory treatment.

w John Hill d Simon Wincer ph David Eggby m Basil Poledouris pd Ross Major ed Peter Burgess

☆ Tom Selleck, Laura San Giacomo, Alan Rickman, Chris Haywood, Ron Hadrick, Tony Bonner, Jerome Ehlers, Conor McDermottroe, Roger Ward, Ben Mendelsohn, Steve Dodd

'Potters along for two hours juggling cardboard figures and contrived situations that might have strayed in from some Hollywood potboiler of the 50s.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

† The script was originally written in the 1970s for Steve McQueen.

The Quiller Memorandum ★

GB 1966 105m Eastmancolor Panavision
Rank/Ivan Foxwell/Carthay

A British secret service man is sent to Berlin to combat a neo-Nazi organization.

Disappointingly thin but smooth and watchable spy story.

w Harold Pinter novel The Berlin Memorandum by Adam Hall (Elleston Trevor) d Michael Anderson ph Erwin Hillier m John Barry

☆ George Segal, Max von Sydow, Alec Guinness, Senta Berger, George Sanders, Robert Helpmann, Robert Flemyng

'In disposing of most of the storyline Pinter has virtually thrown out the baby with the bathwater; all that remains is a skeleton plot which barely makes sense and is totally lacking in excitement.' – Brenda Davies

'Harold Pinter wrote the screenplay and for each word of dialogue there has to be a separate scene involving several different camera angles, which is perhaps why they asked him to do it as the story is pretty thin.' – J. A., Illustrated London

'Meet the Marquis de Sade. The pleasure is all his.'

Quills ★

US 2000 123m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Industry Entertainment/Walrus/Hollywood Partners (Julia Chasman, Nick Wechsler, Peter Kaufman)

The Marquis de Sade, incarcerated in Charenton asylum, defies all attempts to prevent him from writing.

A fantasia on de Sade as an icon of subversion and victim of institutional repression, given a spurious power by the quality of the acting.

w Doug Wright play Doug Wright d Philip Kaufman ph Rogier Stoffers m Stephen Warbeck pd Martin Childs ed Peter Boyle cos Jacqueline West

☆ Geoffrey Rush (Marquis de Sade), Kate Winslet (Madeleine), Joaquin Phoenix (Coulmier), Michael Caine (Royer-Collard), Billie Whitelaw (Madame LeClerc), Patrick Malahide (Delbene), Amelia Warner (Simone), Jane Menelaus (Renee Pelagie), Stephen Moyer (Prouix)

'A botch, crude in its ironies and its debate.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times

'The film's basic trouble is not the departure from fact, it is the intrinsic conflict between the movie-ness of the screenplay and the frenzied anti-cliché directorial style.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

† In reality, at the time De Sade was imprisoned in Charenton, he was extremely fat and had already written his greatest works. The asylum's director Coulmier, the role played by Joaquin Phoenix, was four feet tall and deformed. De Sade died in his sleep.

Oscar Geoffrey Rush; art direction (Martin Childs, Jill Quertier); Jacqueline West

The Quince Tree Sun ★★

Spain 1992 137m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Maria Moreno

original title: El Sol del Membrillo
aka: Dream of Light

Painter Antonio López meticulously prepares a canvas and his subject: a tree of yellow, ripening quinces in the morning sun. The documentary then follows his progress through ten weeks, struggling against the fading light and unsympathetic weather, reminiscing and talking to friends, eventually abandoning his original oil painting and making a drawing instead.

A slow but absorbing examination of the process of artistic creation.

d Victor Erice ph Javier Aguirresarobe, Angel Luis Fernéndez m Pascal Gaigne ed Juan Ignacio San Mateo

'What might have proven a poignant statement on life and art unfortunately runs so long impact is diluted.' – Variety

Quingchun Ji: see Sacrificed Youth

Quintet

US 1979 118m DeLuxe
TCF/Lions Gate (Robert Altman)

In an icebound city of the future, citizens play a death game and a survivor hunts down a killer who plays for real.

Dismayingly pretentious claptrap which did its star's career no good at all.

w Frank Barhydt, Robert Altman, Patricia Resnick d Robert Altman ph Jean Boffety m Tom Pierson pd Leon Ericksen

☆ Paul Newman, Vittorio Gassman, Fernando Rey, Bibi Andersson, Brigitte Fossey, Nina Van Pallandt

'I find it mysterious, exciting, tenacious.' – Dilys Powell, Punch

'Paralyzingly stupid.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'Fifty million people watched, but no one saw a thing.'

Quiz Show ★★

US 1994 132m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Wildwood/Baltimore (Robert Redford, Michael Jacobs, Julian Krainin, Michael Nozik)

In the 50s, the producers of TV's most popular quiz show fix the results in search of higher ratings and are exposed.

A smart and gripping drama of media corruption, based on fact and revealing inequities of class and culture that retain their power today.

w Paul Attanasio book Remembering America: A Voice from the Sixties by Richard N. Goodwin d Robert Redford ph Michael Ballhaus m Mark Isham pd Jon Hutman ed Stu Linder

☆ John Turturro, Ralph Fiennes, Rob Morrow, Paul Scofield, David Paymer, Hank Azaria, Christopher McDonald, Griffin Dunne, Mira Sorvino, Martin Scorsese

'It hums along like a well-constructed farce, and its crazy momentum carries it over the bumps of social significance.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

'Something that's fast becoming a rarity: an entertaining, funny, intelligent studio picture.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

Oscar best picture; Robert Redford; Paul Scofield; Paul Attansio

BAFTA Paul Attansio

'In making this film, MGM feel privileged to add something of permanent value to the cultural treasure house of mankind...'

'Ancient Rome is going to the dogs, Robert Taylor is going to the lions, and Peter Ustinov is going crazy!'

Quo Vadis ★★

US 1951 171m Technicolor
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)

A Roman commander under Nero falls in love with a Christian girl and jealous Poppea has them both thrown to the lions.

Spectacular but stagey and heavy-handed Hollywood version of a much-filmed colossus which shares much of its plot line with The Sign of the Cross. Three hours of solemn tedium with flashes of vigorous acting and a few set-pieces to take the eye; but the sermonizing does not take away the bad taste of the emphasis on physical brutality.

w John Lee Mahin, S. N. Behrman, Sonya Levien novel Henryk Sienkiewicz d Mervyn Le Roy ph Robert Surtees, William V. Skall m Miklos Rozsa ad Cedric Gibbons, Edward Carfagno, William Horning ed Ralph E. Winters

☆ Robert Taylor, Deborah Kerr, Peter Ustinov, Leo Genn, Patricia Laffan, Finlay Currie, Abraham Sofaer, Marina Berti, Buddy Baer, Felix Aylmer, Nora Swinburne, Ralph Truman, Norman Wooland

Oscar best picture; Robert Surtees, William V. Skall; Miklos Rozsa; Peter Ustinov; Leo Genn; art direction; editing

Quo Vadis, Baby? ★ (4)

Italy 2005 105m
Yume/Medusa/Colorado Film (Maurizio Totti)

A tough private detective investigates the suspicious suicide of her sister, upsetting her father in the murky process.

An uninspiring stab at film noir Italian style, it focuses on dark psychological layers more than the core mystery.

w Gabriele Salvatores, Fabio Scamori novel Grazia Vcrasani d Gabriele Salvatores ph Italo Petriccione m Ezio Bosso ad Rita Rabassini ed Claudio Di Mauro sp Massimo Contini

☆ Angela Baraldi (Giorgia Cantini), Gigio Alberti (Andrea Berti), Claudia Zanella (Ada Cantini), Elio Germano (Lucio), Andrea Renzi (Commissario Bruni)

'Irritatingly smug and self-satisfied.' – Andrew Pulver, Guardian

† The film's title comes from a line of dialogue in Last Tango in Paris (1972)

RPM (Revolutions Per Minute)

US 1970 97m colour
Columbia/Stanley Kramer

At an American college, a middle-aged professor teachès liberal ideas.
Dim, thankfully forgotten addition to the Strawberry Statement cycle.
w Erich Segal d Stanley Kramer
ph Michel Hugo, Perry Botkin Jnr m Barry de Vorzon
☆ Anthony Quinn, Ann-Margret, Gary Lockwood, Paul Winfield, Alan Hewitt

'On A Family Vacation, No One Can Hear You Scream.'

R.V. ③

US 2006 98m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Relativity/Red Wagon/Intermedia/IMF (Lucy Fisher, Douglas Wick)

A harassed soft-drinks company executive, his neglected wife and obnoxious children take a family vacation together.
Corny, noisy, derivative road movie that relies on lavatorial jokes for its feeble attempts at humour.
w Geoff Rodkey d Barry Sonnenfeld ph Fred Murphy m James Newton Howard pd Michael Bolton ed Kevin Tent ☆ Robin Williams (Bob Munro), Jeff Daniels (Travis Gornicke), Cheryl Hines (Jamie Munro), Kristin Chenoweth (Mary Jo Gornicke), Joanna 'JoJo' Levesque (Cassie Munro), Josh Hutcherson (Carl Munro), Will Arnett (Todd Mallory)
'Workmanlike family comedy with enough pratfalls and poo jokes for tykes and enough sentimentality for parents.' – Jordan Harper, Village Voice

RX Murder

GB 1958 85m bw Cinemascope
TCF
aka: Family Doctor

The doctor of a small seaside resort has had four wives die on him. Could it be murder?
Modest mystery with an obvious outcome.
wd Derek Twist novel The Deeds of Dr Deadcert by Joan Fleming ph Arthur Grant m John Wooldridge
☆ Marius Goring, Rick Jason, Lisa Gastoni, Mary Merrall, Vida Hope, Phyllis Neilson-Terry, Frederick Leister, Nicholas Hannen

'A sex toy story.'

Rabbit Fever ②

UK 2006 82m
Maiden Voyage Pictures/Rabbit Reproductions/Starfield Productions (Matt Heiman, Stephen Raphael)

A revolutionary vibrator turns mild-mannered women into masturbation addicts.
Strained mock-documentary peppered with self-conscious cameos, offering a series of skits on the same tasteless theme.
w Stephen Raphael d Ian Denyer
ph Andy Muggleton m Nick Ryan pd Paul Frost ed Justin Krish, Paul Machliss ☆ Julian Rhind-Tutt (Rupert), Flora Montgomery (Georgia), Sienna Guillory (Newsreader), Stefanie Powers (Georgia's Mum), Tom Conti (Professor Rosenberg), Germaine Greer (Herself), Lisa Barbuscia (Nicky)
'Inventive little comedy with perhaps one too many risque puns.' – Ian Freer, Empire

'Three years ago Rabbit Angstrom ran out to buy his wife cigarettes. He hasn't come back yet...'

Rabbit, Run

US 1970 94m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Howard Kreitsek)

A man leaves his pregnant wife for a prostitute.
Uninteresting sex melodrama without any of the wit which distinguishes the book; hard to sit through.
w Howard B. Kreitsek novel John Updike d Jack Smight ph Philip Lathrop m Ray Burton, Brian King
☆ James Caan, Anjanette Comer, Arthur Hill, Jack Albertson, Carrie Snodgress

Rabbit Test

US 1978 84m colour
Avco Embassy (Edgar Rosenberg)

A man becomes pregnant.
Dreary and tasteless film, the nadir of comedy.
w Jay Redack, Joan Rivers d Joan Rivers ph Lucien Ballard m Peter Carpenter, Mike Post ad Robert Kinoshita
ed Stanford C. Allen
☆ Billy Crystal, Joan Prather, Alex Rocco, Doris Roberts, Edward Ansara, Imogene Coca, Jane Connell, Keene Curtis, Roddy McDowall, Sheree North, Joan Rivers

The Rabbit Trap ★

US 1959 76m bw
UA/Canon (Harry Kleiner)

A hardworking draughtsman finally defies his boss and completes his holiday with his family.
Watchable minor drama just about marking the end of Hollywood's infatuation with TV plays which had begun with Marty*; the moral and family problems of ordinary people were beginning to prove a shade lacking in excitement.*
w J. P. Miller TV play J. P. Miller d Philip Leacock ph Irving Glassberg m Jack Marshall ad Edward Carrere ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Ernest Borgnine, Bethel Leslie, David Brian, Kevin Corcoran, June Blair, Christopher Dark

'A Daring Escape. An Epic Journey. The True Story Of 3 Girls Who Walked 1500 Miles To Find Their Way Home...'

Rabbit-Proof Fence ★★★

Australia/GB 2002 94m Atlab Panavision
Buena Vista/AFFC/Hanway (Phillip Noyce, Christine Olsen, John Winter)

In the early 30s, three young girls of mixed race escape after they are taken away from their aboriginal mother and sent to a special school to be trained as servants for whites.
Engrossing true story of fierce determination, shot against a spare desert landscape; it is a startling insight into the human cost of an Australian government policy that continued until the 1970s.
w Christine Olsen book Follow the Rabbit-Proof Fence by Doris Pilkington Garimara
d Phillip Noyce ph Christopher Doyle
m Peter Gabriel pd Roger Ford ad Laurie Faen ed John Scott, Veronika Jenet ☆ Everlyn Sampi (Molly Craig), Tianna Sansbury (Daisy Craig), Laura Monaghan (Gracie Fields), David Gulpilil (Moodoo), Kenneth Branagh (A. O. Neville), Deborah Mailman (Mavis), Jason Clarke (Constable Riggs), Ningali Lawford (Molly's Mother)
'Bold in concept and inspirational in intent.' – David Stratton, Variety
'It has real beauty and feeling.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent † Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by Phillip Noyce with Peter Gabriel, Kenneth Branagh, Christine Olsen and Pilkington Garimara.

'Pray it doesn't happen to you.'

Rabid

Canada 1976 91m colour
Alpha/Cinepix/Dibar/Famous Players (Dan Goldberg)

aka: Rage

After extensive intestinal surgery, a woman develops a taste for human blood, infecting her victims with a form of rabies.
Gory though stylish horror about predatory sexuality that features a star of pornographic movies and has gained a cult following.
wd David Cronenberg ph René Verzier
m Ivan Reitman ad Claude Marchand
ed Jean Lafleur sp Art Griswold
☆ Marilyn Chambers, Frank Moore, Joe Silver, Howard Ryshpan, Patricia Gage, Susan Roman

Rabid Grannies

Belgium/US 1988 88m colour
Troma/Star Pictures Nr 1 (James Desert, Jonathan Rambert)

Two elderly aunts (there is not a granny to be seen) invite their family to a birthday celebration and, under demonic influence, proceed to murder them.
Exceptionally silly and unpleasant, gore-filled horror.
wd Emmanuel Kervyn ph Hugo Labye
m Pierre-Damien Castelain, Jean-Bruno Castelain pd Luc Bertrand ed Philippe Ravoet ☆ Elie Lison, Catherine Aymerie, Jacques Mayar, Françoise Moens, Robert du Bois, Florine Elslande, Guy Van Riet, Françoise Lamoureux

Race for the Yankee Zephyr

New Zealand/Australia 1981 108m
Eastmancolor Panavision
Enterprise/Hemdale/Pact/First City (David Hemmings, Antony I. Ginnane, John Barnett)

Adventurers discover an American aircraft wrecked in 1944, and argue over the loot without knowing that it contains a 50-million-dollar payroll.
Very moderate adventure story distinguished only by good locations.
w Everett de Roche d David Hemmings ph Vincent Monton m Brian May ☆ Ken Wahl, Lesley Ann Warren, Donald Pleasence, George Peppard, Bruno Lawrence, Robert Bruce

Race Gang: see The Green Cockatoo

Race with the Devil

US 1975 88m DeLuxe
TCF/Saber/Maslansky (Wes Bishop)

Holidaymakers witness a black mass and are pursued by the diabolists.
Silly melodrama which resolves into a wild car chase and much violence.
w Lee Frost, Wes Bishop d Jack Starrett
ph Robert Jessup m Leonard Rosenman
☆ Peter Fonda, Warren Oates, Loretta Swit, Lara Parker, R. G. Armstrong

'Why do you need a woman when death is your mistress every afternoon?'
'A love story that hurtles full speed across the barriers of convention!'

The Racers

US 1955 112m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Julian Blaustein)
GB title: Such Men Are Dangerous

A Monte Carlo Rally contestant is financed by an attractive lady gambler.
Routine racing car melodrama, totally unmemorable but impersonally efficient.
w Charles Kaufman novel Hans Ruesch
d Henry Hathaway ph Joe MacDonald
m Alex North
☆ Kirk Douglas, Bella Darvi, Gilbert Roland, Cesar Romero, Lee J. Cobb, Katy Jurado, Charles Goldner, George Dolenz

Rachel and the Stranger ★

US 1948 92m bw
RKO (Richard H. Berger)

A widowed farmer first feels real love for the new wife he bought when an attractive stranger seems likely to take her away from him.
Modestly appealing romantic drama in a Western setting.
w Waldo Salt stories Rachel; Neighbor Sam by Howard Fast d Norman Foster ph Maury Gertsman m Roy Webb
m/ly Roy Webb, Waldo Salt md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S D'Agostino, Walter E. Keller, Jack Okey
ed Les Milbrook cos Edith Head
☆ Loretta Young (Rachel), Robert Mitchum (Jim Fairways), William Holden

(Big Davey Harvey), Gary Gray (Little Davey), Tom Tully (Parson Jackson), Sara Haden (Mrs Jackson), Frank Ferguson (Mr Green), Walter Baldwin (Callus)
♫ Just Like Me; Oh He, oh Hi, oh Ho; Summer Song; Along Came A Tall Dark Stranger; Foolish Pride; Rachel

The Rachel Papers

GB 1989 95m colour
Virgin/Initial Film and Television/Longfellow Pictures (Andrew S. Karsch)

A would-be Oxford University student has an on-and-off affair with an American girl.
Bungled attempt at a contemporary comedy of manners.
wd Damian Harris novel Martin Amis ph Alex Thomson m Chaz Jankel, David Storrs pd Andrew McAlpine ed David Martin ☆ Dexter Fletcher, Ione Skye, Jonathan Pryce, James Spader, Bill Paterson, Shirley Anne Field, Michael Gambon, Lesley Sharp, Jared Harris, Aubrey Morris

Rachel, Rachel ★★

US 1968 101m Eastmancolor
Warner/Kayos (Paul Newman)

Events in the life of a middle-aged schoolmistress in a small New England town.
Appealing and freshly observed study of a limited personality in a small community.
w Stewart Stern novel A Jest of God by Margaret Laurence d Paul Newman
ph Gayne Rescher m Jerome Moross
☆ Joanne Woodward, Estelle Parsons, James Olson, Kate Harrington, Donald Moffat, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Bernard Barrow
'It could all very easily degenerate into a woman's weepy; and the fact that it doesn't is due largely to Newman's refusal to treat Manawaka as another Peyton Place.' – Jan Dawson
'It tends to verge on dullness, but something always saves it.' – John Simon
§ best picture; Stewart Stern; Joanne Woodward; Estelle Parsons

Rachel River

US 1987 90m DuArt
American Playhouse/Marx/Smolan (Timothy Marx)

A radio journalist tries to cope with an impoverished life in a small Minnesota town with her two children and an unhelpful ex-husband.
Unpretentious, folksy drama dealing with everyday happenings in an undemandingly nostalgic manner.
w Judith Guest stories Carol Bly d Sandy Smolan ph Paul Elliott m Arvo Pärt pd David Wasco ed Susan Crutcher
☆ Pamela Reed, Viveca Lindfors, Zeljko Ivanek, James Olson, Craig T. Nelson, Alan North, Jo Henderson, Jon DeVries

'His stripes made him an outcast. His heart made him a hero.'

Racing Stripes ★ ④

US 2005 101m Technicolor
Warner/Alcon (Andrew A. Kosove, Broderick Johnson, Ed McDonnell, Lloyd Phillips)

A zebra achieves his dream of racing against thoroughbred horses.
An equine variation on Babe, with much less charm and a few horse-laughs along the way.
w David F. Schmidt, Steven P. Wegner, Kirk DeMicco, Frederik Du Chau d Frederik Du Chau ph David Eggby m Mark Isham ed Tom Finan
☆ voices of: Frankie Muniz (Stripes), Mandy Moore (Sandy), Michael Clarke Duncan (Clydesdale), Jeff Foxworthy (Reggie), David Spade (Scuzz), Dustin Hoffman (Tucker), Whoopi Goldberg (Franny)
'Slows to a mediocre canter right out of the starting gate.' – Desson Thomson, Washington Post

Racing with the Moon

US 1984 108m Movielab
Paramount/Jaffe-Lansing (Alain Bernheim, John Kohn)

In 1942 California, two young men await induction into the Marines and say goodbye to their girlfriends.
Disappointing flashback by people who fail to capture the spirit of the time, and replace it by conventional boy–girl teenage antics.
w Steven Kloves d Richard Benjamin ph John Bailey m Dave Grusin pd David L. Snyder
☆ Sean Penn, Elizabeth McGovern, Nicolas Cage, John Karlen, Max Showalter

The Rack

US 1956 100m bw
MGM (Arthur M. Loew Jnr)

A veteran of the Korean War is courtmartialled for collaborating with the enemy under torture.
Dullish courtroom melodrama overstretched from a TV play.
w Stewart Stern play Rod Serling
d Arnold Laven ph Paul Vogel m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Paul Newman, Walter Pidgeon, Edmond O'Brien, Lee Marvin, Cloris Leachman, Wendell Corey

The Racket ★

US 1951 88m bw
RKO/Edmund Grainger

Police break up the empire of a powerful gangster.
Oddly timed and rather weak remake of the 1928 film; glossy but very old-fashioned in treatment.
w William Wister Haines play Bartlett Cormack d John Cromwell ph George E. Diskant md Constantin Bakaleinikoff
☆ Robert Ryan, Robert Mitchum, Ray Collins, Lizabeth Scott, William Talman

Racket Busters

US 1938 71m bw
Warner (Samuel Bischoff)

A gangster aiming to take over a trucking enterprise is opposed by the special prosecutor's office.
Routine cops and robbers, still very watchable but also forgettable.
w Robert Rossen, Leonardo Bercovici
d Lloyd Bacon ph Arthur Edeson
m Adolph Deutsch
☆ George Brent, Humphrey Bogart, Gloria Dickson, Allen Jenkins, Walter Abel, Penny Singleton, Henry O'Neill

Rackety Rax

US 1932 65m bw
Fox

Gangster methods are applied to college football.
Stiff burlesque which didn't transfer well from the printed page.
w Ben Markson, Lou Breslow novel Joel Sayre d Alfred Werker ☆ Victor McLaglen, Greta Nissen, Nell O'Day, Alan Dinehart, Allen Jenkins

'His courage made them champions.'

Radio ③

US 2003 109m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Revolution (Mike Tollin, Brian Robbins, Herbert W. Gains)

In a small Carolina town in the mid 70s, the coach of the local football team transforms the life of a mentally retarded young man he befriends.
An admirable true life story is turned into a cloying, mawkish movie.
w Mike Rich d Mike Tollin ph Don Burgess m James Horner pd Clay A. Griffith ed Chris Lebenzon, Harvey Rosenstock
☆ Cuba Gooding Jnr (Radio), Ed Harris (Coach Jones), Alfre Woodard (Principal Daniels), S. Epatha Merkerson (Maggie), Brent Sexton (Honeycutt), Chris Mulkey (Frank), Debra Winger (Linda)
'Though probably well-intentioned, Radio comes off as manipulative of its audience and exploitative of the mentally challenged.' – Claudia Puig, USA Today

Radio City Revels

US 1938 90m bw
RKO

A songwriter can work only in his sleep.
A wisp of plot is the peg for a very moderate revue.
w Matt Brooks, Eddie Davis, Anthony Veiller, Mortimer Offner d Ben Stoloff ph J. Roy Hunt md Victor Baravalle ch Hermes Pan
☆ Bob Burns, Jack Oakie, Kenny Baker, Victor Moore, Ann Miller, Milton Berle, Helen Broderick, Jane Froman, Buster West, Richard Lane
'Should do well at b.o., but no smash.' – Variety

Radio Days ★★

US 1987 85m DuArt
Orion (Robert Greenhut)

At the beginning of World War II, families near New York are affected by what they hear on the radio.
Shapeless montage of funny bits, best appreciated by those who lived through the time at somewhere near the place.
wd Woody Allen ph Carlo di Palma
pd Santo Loquasto ed Susan E. Morse m/ed Dick Hyman ☆ Mia Farrow, Dianne Wiest, Seth Green, Julie Kavner, Josh Mostel, Michael Tucker, Wallace Shawn
'One of his most purely entertaining pictures.' – Daily Variety
§ best original screenplay; art direction (Speed Hopkins) Ⓑ Santo Loquasto

'Powered By Imagination.'

Radio Flyer

US 1992 113m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Stonebridge Entertainment (Lauren Schuler-Donner)

A father tells his sons how, when he was young, he and his small brother decided to build a flying machine in an attempt to escape from their increasingly violent stepfather.
An uneasy mix of fantasy and reality that remains stolidly earthbound.
w David Mickey Evans d Richard Donner ph Laszlo Kovacs m Hans Zimmer ad J. Michael Riva ed Stuart Baird, Dallas Puett ☆ Lorraine Bracco, John Heard, Elijah Wood, Joseph Mazello, Adam Baldwin, Ben Johnson, Tom Hanks (uncredited)
'A film one would like to like more.' – Variety † Originally, David Mickey Evans was assigned to direct with Rosanna Arquette playing the mother, but that production was abandoned. The film was released direct to video in Britain.

Radio On

GB 1979 101m bw
BFI/Road Movies (Keith Griffiths)

A disc-jockey in a biscuit factory makes a haphazard journey from London to Bristol to discover the circumstances of his brother's death.
Inconsequential road movie that can barely summon up any interest in its characters; it is much influenced by the films of Wim Wenders, who was its associate producer.
wd Christopher Petit ph Martin Schafer
ad Susannah Buxton ed Anthony Sloman
☆ David Beames, Lisa Kreuzer, Sandy Ratcliff, Andrew Byatt, Sue Jones, Sting
'For all its German and American antecedents, however, Radio On remains peculiarly English in its concerns and atmosphere. It is in fact one of the most distinguished attempts by a native film-maker to contain all those influences and emerge with a firm sense of its own identity.' – Richard Combs

Radio Parade of 1935

GB 1934 96m bw (colour sequence)
BIP (Walter C. Mycroft)

US title: Radio Follies
Amateur talent makes it big for a radio station.
Historically interesting revue which unfortunately requires its comic lead to play straight.
w Jack Davies, Paul Perez, Arthur Woods, James Bunting d Arthur Woods
ph Claude Friese-Greene
☆ Will Hay, Helen Chandler, Clifford Mollison, Davy Burnaby, The Western Brothers, Alfred Drayton, Lily Morris, Nellie Wallace, Clapham and Dwyer, Claude Dampier, Ronald Frankau, Ted Ray, Beryl Orde, Stanelli

Radio Stars on Parade

US 1945 69m bw
RKO/Ben Stoloff

Agents fix up a show despite threats from gangsters.
Slim excuse for a revue including talent popular at the time.
w Robert E. Kent, Monte Brice d Leslie Goodwins
☆ Wally Brown, Alan Carney, Frances Langford, Don Wilson, Tony Romano, Rufe Davis, Sheldon Leonard, Ralph Edwards, Skinnay Ennis and his band

Radioland Murders

US 1994 108m Rank Colour
Universal/Lucasfilm (Rick McCallum, Fred Roos)

In 1939, a series of murders disrupts the opening night of a new radio network and an attempt by a writer to win back his estranged wife.
Fitfully engaging exercise in nostalgia, but as easy to switch off as it is to switch on.
w Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz, Jeff Reno, Ron Osborn story George Lucas d Mel Smith ph David Tattersall m Joel McNeely pd Gavin Bocquet ed Paul Trejo

☆ Mary Stuart Masterson, Brian Benben, Ned Beatty, George Burns, Brion James, Michael McKean, Christopher Lloyd, Scott Michael Campbell, Stephen Tobolowsky, Corbin Bernsen, Michael Lerner, Bobcat Goldthwait

'A well-intentioned but annoying shrill exercise virtually devoid of romance, suspense or wit.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

Rafferty and the Gold Dust Twins

US 1975 92m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Gruskoff-Venture-Linson

A drifter encounters two female vagrants who force him at gunpoint to drive them to New Orleans and get him into various adventures.

Indulgent and unattractive 'road' movie which despite occasional amusing incident gets nowhere very slowly.

w John Kaye d Dick Richards ph Ralph Woolsey m Artie Butler

☆ Alan Arkin, Sally Kellerman, MacKenzie Phillips, Alex Rocco, Charlie Martin Smith, Harry Dean Stanton, John McLiam

Raffles ★

US 1930 72m bw
UA/Samuel Goldwyn

A gentleman thief decides to go straight, but then agrees to carry out a final robbery to save a suicidal schoolfriend from disgrace.

Colman's performance adds a touch of elegance to a staid but still entertaining, wittily scripted light-hearted drama.

w Sidney Howard novel The Amateur Cracksman by E. W. Hornung d Harry D'Abbadie D'Arrast, George Fitzmaurice ph George S. Barnes, Gregg Toland ad W. Cameron Menzies, Park French ed Stuart Heisler

☆ Ronald Colman, Kay Francis, David Torrence, Frederick Kerr, Bramwell Fletcher, John Rogers, Wilson Benge, Alison Skipworth, Frances Dade

† The film's on-screen credits do not include the name of its director. Harry D'Arrast was fired by Goldwyn because he was playing the scenes too fast for the producer's liking and was replaced by Fitzmaurice. The film made a profit of $200,000.

Raffles ★

US 1939 72m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

Raffles the famous cricketer is also a compulsive and daring amateur thief.

Slight, modernized version of the turn-of-the-century stories; very palatable, but it could have been better.

w John Van Druten, Sidney Howard novel Raffles the Amateur Cracksman by E. W. Hornung d Sam Wood ph Gregg Toland m Victor Young

☆ David Niven, Olivia de Havilland, Dudley Digges, May Whitty, Douglas Walton, Lionel Pape, E. E. Clive, Peter Godfrey

'Fair remake ... moderate b.o. potential.' – Variety

† This was virtually a scene-for-scene remake of the 1930 Goldwyn version starring Ronald Colman, Kay Francis and Alison Skipworth. It was written by Sidney Howard and George Fitzmaurice.

Rag Doll

GB 1960 67m bw
Mancunian (Tom Blakeley)
US title: Young, Willing and Eager

A 17-year-old runs away to Soho, where she gets a job as a waitress in a shady club and falls in love with a singer.

A melodramatic cautionary tale, given a little life by the playing of some expert character actors propping up the young leads.

w Brock Williams, Derry Quinn d Lance Comfort ph Basil Emmott m Martin Slavin ad John Earl ed Peter Pitt

☆ Jess Conrad, Christina Gregg, Hermione Baddeley, Kenneth Griffith, Patrick Magee, Patrick Jordan, Michael Wynne

Ragan

Spain 1968 90m Movielab
Westside International (Sidney Pink)

An American pilot, a former mercenary, is hired to help overthrow the government of a small country.

Glossy but dull thriller, a low-budget, low-talent attempt at a Bond-style entertainment.

w Howard Berk, Sidney Pink d Gilbert Lee Kay ph Antonio Macasoli m Nico Fidenco, G. Dell'orso ed Tony Ramirez

☆ Ty Hardin, Antonella Lualdi, Gustavo Rojo, Jack Stewart, Rossella Como, Joe Caffarell, Dick Palace

La Ragazza dal Pigiama Giallo: see The Pajama Girl Case

Rage

US 1966 103m Technicolor
Columbia/Joseph M. Schenck/Cinematografico Jalisco (Gilberto Gazcon)

A drunken doctor finds a new will to live during a difficult journey to avert a rabies epidemic.

Pattern melodrama with no surprises, but gripping most of the way.

w Teddi Sherman, Gilberto Gazcon, Fernando Mendez d Gilberto Gazcon ph Rosalio Solano m Gustavo Cesar Carreon

☆ Glenn Ford, Stella Stevens, David Reynoso, Armando Silvestre

Rage

US 1972 99m DeLuxe Panavision
Warner (Fred Weintraub)

A father takes revenge when his son dies after a chemical warfare accident.

Well-meaning but turgid and boring melodrama.

w Philip Friedman, Dan Kleinman d George C. Scott ph Fred Koenekamp m Lalo Schifrin

☆ George C. Scott, Richard Basehart, Martin Sheen, Barnard Hughes, Stephen Young

'Sluggish, tired and tiring.' – Variety

Rage at Dawn

US 1955 86m Technicolor
RKO/Nat Holt

Detectives stage a fake train robbery to attract the evil Reno brothers.

Very moderate Western programmer.

w Horace McCoy d Tim Whelan ph Ray Rennahan m Paul Sawtell

☆ Randolph Scott, Forrest Tucker, J. Carrol Naish, Mala Powers, Edgar Buchanan, Ray Teal

'Looks Can Kill.'

The Rage: Carrie 2

US 1999 101m DeLuxe/bw
MGM/UA/Red Bank (Paul Monash)

A teenage girl who is humiliated at school discovers that she has appalling telekinetic powers.

A sequel that recycles the original movie with no understanding of what made it effective.

w Rafael Moreu d Katt Shea ph Donald M. Morgan m Danny P. Harvey pd Peter Jamison ed Richard Nord

☆ Emily Bergl, Jason London, Dylan Bruno, J. Smith-Cameron, Amy Irving, Zachery Ty Bryan, John Doe, Gordon Clapp, Rachel Blanchard, Charlotte Ayanna, Justin Urich

'An uninspired update with video cameras, sexual frankness, margaritas and tattoos.' – Anita Gates, New York Times

'Abysmal' – Variety

A Rage in Harlem ★★

GB 1991 108m DeLuxe
Palace/Miramax (Stephen Woolley, Kerry Boyle)

In 1950s Harlem, a gullible undertaker's assistant gives refuge to a gangster's mistress with a trunkful of gold.

Lively, entertaining, fast-paced tongue-in-cheek thriller.

w John Toles-Bey, Bobby Crawford novel Chester Himes d Bill Duke ph Toyomichi Kurita m Elmer Bernstein pd Steven Legler ed Curtis Clayton

☆ Forest Whitaker, Gregory Hines, Robin Givens, Zakes Mokae, Danny Glover, Badja Djola, John Toles-Bey, Ron Taylor, Samm-Art Williams

'Many will be turned off by the excessive bloodshed, but the fine cast keeps the pic watchable.' – Variety

'Enjoyable though it is, Bill Duke's mix of brisk action, sexy innuendo and cameo-studded comedy takes considerable liberties with the spirit of Himes' Harlem.' – Jonathan Romney, Sight and Sound

Rage in Heaven

US 1941 82m bw
MGM (Gottfried Reinhardt)

An unstable millionaire becomes jealous of his wife and arranges his own death so that her supposed lover will be suspected.

Stilted melodrama with the stars more or less at sea.

w Christopher Isherwood, Robert Thoeren novel James Hilton d W. S. Van Dyke II ph Oliver T. Marsh m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Robert Montgomery, Ingrid Bergman, George Sanders, Lucile Watson, Oscar Homolka, Philip Merivale, Matthew Boulton, Aubrey Mather

'Nothing happens but the obvious, and that only after a long and confused struggle.' – Otis Ferguson

† Directors Robert Sinclair and Richard Thorpe also worked on the film, which was sabotaged by Robert Montgomery giving a deliberately monotonous performance because he felt affronted by not being consulted over the script. The writers added a speech by a psychiatrist commenting on the listlessness of Montgomery's character in order to explain his acting.

'Placid Lake isn't your usual rebel. He wants to work in insurance.'

The Rage in Placid Lake

Australia/GB 2002 90m Atlab color Panavision
Guerilla/AFFC/Showtime/NSW Film and TV/Rapacious (Marian Macgowan)

A misfit teenager with eccentric New Age parents decides after an accident to be conservative and work for an insurance company.

A satire on various kinds of conformity that wants to be loved and so lacks bite or bile; Placid's rage is of the kind that could pass for calm.

wd Tony McNamara play The Cafe Latte Kid by Tony McNamara ph Ellery Ryan m Cezary Skubiszewski pd Roger Ford ed Lee Smith

☆ Ben Lee (Placid Lake), Rose Byrne (Gemma Taylor), Miranda Richardson (Sylvia Lake), Garry McDonald (Doug Lake), Christopher Stollery (Joel), Claire Danes (Girl at Seminar)

'Meandering film, short on laughs, somewhat arch in its deadpan manner and, at crucial junctures, implausible, even on its own terms.' – Philip French, Observer

The Rage of Paris ★

US 1938 78m bw
Universal (B. G. de Sylva)

Confidence tricksters invest their money in a French girl who is out to nail a millionaire.

If memory serves right, an amusingly amoral trifle in the best style of its year.

w Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson d Henry Koster

☆ Danielle Darrieux, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Louis Hayward, Mischa Auer, Helen Broderick, Harry Davenport, Samuel S. Hinds, Mary Martin

'Smart comedy of first-run calibre ... a finished and polished job.' – Variety

'The names and the places didn't matter – only when!'

A Rage to Live

US 1965 101m bw Panavision
UA/Mirisch (Lewis J. Rachmil)

The unhappy college and married life of a nymphomaniac.

Well made but deliberately 'daring' case history which becomes too obvious and silly.

w John T. Kelley novel John O'Hara d Walter Grauman ph Charles Lawton m Nelson Riddle

☆ Suzanne Pleshette, Bradford Dillman, Ben Gazzara, Peter Graves, Bethel Leslie, James Gregory, Ruth White

'Stuff like this needs the exuberance of grand opera; sadly, all it gets here is a blue note.' – MFB

Raggedy Ann and Andy ★

US 1977 85m Movielab
Panavision
Lester Osterman (Richard Horner)

Toys come to life and have their own adventures while their owner is absent.

Attractive fully animated cartoon feature in which only the central story is lacking in pace and humour.

w Patricia Thackray, Max Wilk stories Johnny Gruelle d Richard Williams m Joe Raposo

Raggedy Man

US 1981 94m Technicolor
Universal/William D. Wittliff, Burt Weissbourd

In 1944, a small-town switchboard operator and her two children are protected by a mysterious stranger.

Curious and quite unnecessary melodrama of some skill but very dubious appeal.

w William D. Wittliff d Jack Fisk ph Ralf Bode m Jerry Goldsmith ed Edward Warschilka

☆ Sissy Spacek, Eric Roberts, Sam Shepard, William Sanderson, Tracey Walter, R. G. Armstrong

'Despite the casual, unhurried pace of the film, it doesn't seem to observe much.' – Richard Combs, MFB

The Raggedy Rawney ★

GB 1987 103m Technicolor
Virgin/HandMade (Bob Weis)

An army deserter disguises himself as a woman and joins a group of wandering gypsies.
Downbeat rural tale, providing cold comfort.
w Bob Hoskins, Nicole de Wilde d Bob Hoskins ph Frank Tidy m Michael Kamen pd Jiri Matolin ed Alan Jones
☆ Bob Hoskins, Dexter Fletcher, Zoe Nathenson, Zoe Wanamaker, David Hill, Ian Dury, Ian McNeice, Veronica Clifford, Gawn Grainger, Jim Carter

Raging Bull ★★★★

US 1980 119m bw/colour
UA/Chartoff-Winkler

The rise to fame of an unlikeable middle-weight boxer, based on the autobiography of Jake La Motta.
Tough, compelling, powerfully made ringside melodrama. A poll of American critics voted it the best movie of the 1980s.
w Paul Schrader, Mardik Martin d Martin Scorsese ph Michael Chapman m from library sources pd Gene Rudolf ad Kirk Axtell, Sheldon Haber, Alan Manser ed Thelma Schoonmaker
☆ Robert De Niro (Jake LaMotta), Cathy Moriarty (Vickie LaMotta), Joe Pesci (Joey), Frank Vincent (Salvy), Nicholas Colasanto (Tommy Como)
'Scorsese makes pictures about the kind of people you wouldn't want to know.' – Variety
'A bravura display of cinematic skill.' – Daily Mail editing (Thelma Schoonmaker); Robert De Niro best film; best direction; Cathy Moriarty; Joe Pesci; Michael Chapman; sound (Donald O. Mitchell, Bill Bicholson, David J. Kimball, Les Lazarowitz) editing; Joe Pesci

The Raging Moon ★

GB 1970 111m Technicolor
EMI (Bruce Cohn Curtis)

aka: Long Ago Tomorrow
A love affair develops between two inmates of a home for the physically handicapped.
Appealing romantic drama which nearly became a big commercial success.
wd Bryan Forbes novel Peter Marshall
ph Tony Imi m Stanley Myers ☆ Malcolm McDowell, Nanette Newman, Georgia Brown, Bernard Lee, Gerald Sim, Michael Flanders

The Raging Tide

US 1951 93m bw
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)

A San Francisco gangster stows away on a fishing trawler and redeems himself when he perishes saving the life of a fisherman.
Fearfully old-fashioned seafaring melodrama, rather well made.
w Ernest K. Gann novel Fiddler's Green by Ernest K. Gann d George Sherman ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner ad Hilyard Brown, Bernard Herzbrun
ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Richard Conte, Charles Bickford, Shelley Winters, Stephen McNally, Alex Nicol, Jesse White, John McIntire

Raging Waters: see Green Promise

Una Ragione per Vivere e Una per Morire: see A Reason to Live, a Reason to Die

The Ragman's Daughter

GB 1972 94m Technicolor
TCF/Penelope (Harold Becker)

A Nottingham layabout falls in love with an exciting middle-class girl; they fail to overcome parental opposition and she is killed in a road accident.
Wispy drama framed in pointless flashbacks; done on the cheap, it never seems to get anywhere and even fails to use its locations to advantage.
w Alan Sillitoe story Alan Sillitoe
d Harold Becker ph Michael Seresin
m Kenny Clayton
☆ Simon Rouse, Victoria Tennant, Patrick O'Connell, Leslie Sands

'What a time it was, an incredible time, a good time, a bad time...'

Ragtime ★

US 1981 155m Technicolor Todd-AO
Ragtime/Sunley (Dino de Laurentiis)

Just before World War I, various Americans are affected by world events, and a chapter of accidents turns a placid Negro into a revolutionary.
The fascinating patchwork of the novel has been virtually abandoned in favour of its least interesting episode, which is even further drawn out by the decision to bring on the aged James Cagney as a comic turn not in the novel. The early sequences show what might have been.
w Michael Weller novel E. L. Doctorow
d Milos Forman ph Miroslav Ondricek
m Randy Newman ad John Graysmark, Patrizia von Brandenstein, Anthony Reading ☆ James Olson, Mary Steenburgen, James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Elizabeth McGovern, Howard E. Rollins Jnr, Brad Dourif, Moses Gunn, Kenneth McMillan, Donald O'Connor
'It's limp ... it always seems to be aiming about halfway toward the effects that Doctorow achieved in his literary extravaganza.' – New Yorker
'The book, despite its defects, was funny, radical and angry. The film, despite its virtues, is solemn, liberal and passive.' – Sunday Times
† The film cost 32 million dollars and took eleven.
screenplay; Miroslav Ondricek; Randy Newman; Elizabeth McGovern (supporting actress); Howard E. Rollins Jnr; art direction; song 'One More Hour'

The Raid ★

US 1954 83m Technicolor
TCF (Robert L. Jacks)

In 1864 six confederate soldiers escape from a union prison, and from a Canadian refuge carry out a revenge raid on a small Vermont town.
Interesting little action drama, crisply characterized and plotted, and based on a historical incident.
w Sydney Boehm story Affair at St Albans by Herbert Ravenal Sass d Hugo Fregonese ph Lucien Ballard m Roy Webb
☆ Van Heflin, Anne Bancroft, Richard Boone, Lee Marvin, Tommy Rettig, Peter Graves, Douglas Spencer, Will Wright, John Dierkes

Raid on Rommel

US 1971 99m Technicolor
Universal (Harry Tatelman)

In North Africa during World War II, a British officer releases prisoners of war and leads them in an assault on Tobruk.
Dispirited low-budget actioner apparently first intended for television.
w Richard Bluel d Henry Hathaway
ph Earl Rath m Hal Mooney
☆ Richard Burton, John Colicos, Clinton Greyn, Wolfgang Preiss

The Raiders: see Riders of Vengeance (1952)

The Raiders

US 1964 75m Technicolor
Revue/Universal

Cattle drovers enlist the aid of famous Western characters to persuade the railroad company to extend its line through dangerous country.
Slightly oddball Western with endearing moments amid the miscalculations.
w Gene L. Coon d Herschel Daugherty ph Bud Thackery m Morton Stevens
☆ Robert Culp (Wild Bill Hickok), Judi Meredith (Calamity Jane), James McMullan (Buffalo Bill Cody), Brian Keith, Alfred Ryder, Simon Oakland

Raiders of the Lost Ark ★★★

US 1981 115m Metrocolor
Panavision
Paramount/Lucasfilm (Frank Marshall)

In the thirties, an American archaeologist and explorer beats the Nazis to a priceless artefact, the magical box containing fragments of the stones on which God wrote his laws.
Commercially very successful, this attempted wrap-up of the Saturday morning serials of two generations ago spends a great deal of money and expertise on frightening rather than exciting us. Second time round, one can better enjoy the ingenious detail of the hero's exploits; still, there are boring bits in between, and the story doesn't make a lot of sense.
w Lawrence Kasdan d Steven Spielberg
ph Douglas Slocombe m John Williams pd Norman Reynolds ad Leslie Dilley
ed Michael Kahn
☆ Harrison Ford (Indiana Jones), Karen Allen (Marion Ravenwood), Ronald Lacey (Toht), Paul Freeman (Belloq), John Rhys-Davies (Sallah), Denholm Elliott (Brody), Wolf Kahler (Dietrich), Anthony Higgins (Gobler), Alfred Molina (Satipo)
'Both de trop and not enough.' – Sight and Sound
'Children may well enjoy its simple-mindedness, untroubled by the fact that it looks so shoddy and so uninventive.' – Observer
'Kinesthetically, the film gets to you, but there's no exhilaration, and no surge of feeling at the end.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'An out of body experience, a movie of glorious imagination and breakneck speed that grabs you in the first shot, hurtles you through a series of incredible adventures, and deposits you back in reality two hours later – breathless, dizzy, wrung-out, and with a silly grin on your face.' – Roger Ebert
† Tom Selleck was the first choice for the lead, but was tied up with his TV series Magnum.
†† It was followed by two sequels: Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom and Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade (qqv).
editing (Michael Kahn); visual effects best picture; Steven Spielberg; Douglas Slocombe; John Williams Norman Reynolds

Railroaded ★

US 1947 72m bw
Charles F. Reisner/Eagle Lion

A detective is on the trail of a ruthless mobster.
A new post-war toughness was evident in this sharply made second feature.
w John C. Higgins, Gertrude Walker
d Anthony Mann ph Guy Roe m Alvin Levin
☆ John Ireland, Sheila Ryan, Hugh Beaumont, Jane Randolph, Ed Kelly, Charles D. Brown

Rails into Laramie

US 1954 81m Technicolor
Universal-International

Railway construction is hampered in Laramie by a salon keeper who keeps the workers too happy.
Solid co-feature Western, quite enjoyable.
w D. D. Beauchamp, Joseph Hoffman
d Jesse Hibbs ph Maury Gertsman
m Frederick Herbert, Arnold Hughes md Joseph Gershenson ed Ted J. Kent
☆ John Payne, Dan Duryea, Mari Blanchard, Barton MacLane, Harry Shannon, Lee Van Cleef, Joyce MacKenzie, Ralph Dumke

'A film for adults to take their children, too!'

The Railway Children ★★★

GB 1970 108m Technicolor
EMI (Robert Lynn)

Three Edwardian children and their mother move into Yorkshire when their father is imprisoned as a spy, and have adventures on the railway line while helping to prove his innocence.
Fresh and agreeable family film with many pleasing touches to compensate for its meandering plot.
wd Lionel Jeffries novel E. Nesbit ph Arthur Ibbetson m Johnny Douglas ad John Clark ed Teddy Darvas
☆ Dinah Sheridan, William Mervyn, Jenny Agutter, Bernard Cribbins, Iain Cuthbertson, Gary Warren, Sally Thomsett
'There are passages in Mr Jeffries' deliberately nostalgic film which may appeal more to sensitive parents than to their bloodthirsty offspring. But everybody, I hope, will enjoy the playing.' – Dilys Powell

Rain ★

US 1932 92m bw
UA/Art Cinema Corporation (Joseph Schenck)

Stranded passengers in Pago Pago during an epidemic include a prostitute and a missionary who lusts after her.
Early talkie version of a much filmed story; interesting but not very entertaining now that the sensational aspects have worn off.
w Maxwell Anderson play John Colton, Clemence Randolph story W. Somerset Maugham d Lewis Milestone ph Oliver T. Marsh m Alfred Newman
☆ Joan Crawford, Walter Huston, William Gargan, Beulah Bondi, Matt Moore, Guy Kibbee, Walter Catlett
'A b.o. disappointer. Only the play's rep and Joan Crawford's personal pull will save it.' – Variety
† Other versions: Sadie Thompson (1928) with Gloria Swanson; Miss Sadie Thompson (1953) (qv).

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Rain Man ★★

US 1988 133m DeLuxe
UIP/United Artists/Guber-Peters (Mark Johnson)

A fast-talking salesman discovers, on his father's death, that he has an autistic elder brother.
An intelligent road movie, but one that does not move far enough from more conventional buddy-buddy movies.
w Ronald Bass, Barry Morrow d Barry Levinson ph John Seale m Hans Zimmer pd Ida Random ed Stu Linder, Thomas R. Moore ☆ Dustin Hoffman, Tom Cruise, Valeria Golino, Jerry Molen, Jack Murdock, Michael D. Roberts, Ralph Seymour, Lucinda Jenney, Bonnie Hunt best picture; best director; best original screenplay; Dustin Hoffman best original score; best cinematography; best film editing; best art direction

Rain or Shine ★

US 1930 90m bw
Columbia (Harry Cohn)

A circus performer puts on a one-man show in an attempt to stop it from closing.
A musical comedy translated to the screen without its songs as a showcase for the acrobatic, slack-wire and juggling talents of its star, a Broadway comedian famous for his wide smile and nonsense patter.
w Jo Swerling, Dorothy Howell musical comedy James Gleason, Maurice Marks d Frank Capra ph Joe Walker md Bakaleinikoff ed Maurice Wright ☆ Joe Cook, Louise Fazenda, Joan Peers, William Collier Jnr, Tom Howard

The Rain People

US 1969 101m Technicolor
Warner/American Zoetrope (Bart Patton, Ronald Colby)

A depressed housewife leaves home, drives across country, and picks up a mentally retarded hitch-hiker who tries to protect her.
Slow, pretentious character drama which strains after art but only presents an unedifying study of failure.
wd Francis Ford Coppola ph Wilmer Butler m Ronald Stein
☆ Shirley Knight, James Caan, Robert Duvall, Tom Aldredge, Marya Zimmet
'The rain people are people made of rain and when they cry they disappear because they cry themselves away.' – sample dialogue

The Rainbow ★

GB 1988 111m Technicolor
Vestron (Ken Russell)

Determined to be independent, a farmer's daughter rejects her lover to go to university.
Over-simplified version of the novel, but watchable enough.
w Ken Russell, Vivian Russell novel D. H. Lawrence d Ken Russell ph Billy Williams m Carl Davis pd Luciana Arrighi ed Peter Davies
☆ Sammi Davis, Paul McGann, Amanda Donohoe, Christopher Gable, David Hemmings, Glenda Jackson, Dudley Sutton, Jim Carter, Judith Paris, Ken Colley

Rainbow

GB/Canada 1995 101m Technicolor/bw Digital High Definition
First Independent/Winchester (Rainbow)/Filmline/Screen Partners (Robert Sidaway, Nicolas Clermont)

Children steal gold from a rainbow, which causes colour to drain from the world with disastrous results.
Heavy-handed, didactic children's film that strives for a fairy-tale quality, but too frequently falls flat.
w Ashley Sidaway, Robert Sidaway d Bob Hoskins ph Freddie Francis m Alan Reeves pd Claude Paré ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Bob Hoskins, Dan Aykroyd, Saul Rubinek, Jacob Tierney, Willy Lavenda, Jonathan Schuman, Eleanor Misrahi
'It would be hard to find a more charmless fable than this leaden patience-tester which gets everything wrong from the whimsical atmosphere striven for to the light touch so desperately needed to make the completely hopeless humour work.' – Alan Jones, Film Review
† It is the first film to be shot in Digital High Definition video.

'The siren of the sarongs is calling you!'

Rainbow Island

US 1944 95m Technicolor
Paramount (I. D. Leshin)

A white girl brought up by her doctor father on a Pacific island is pursued by three sailors escaping from the Japanese.
Cheerful spoof of the sarong cycle with the star seeing the joke; otherwise a silly service farce with South Sea trimmings.
w Walter de Leon, Seena Owen, Arthur Phillips d Ralph Murphy ph Karl Struss m Roy Webb songs Burton Lane, Ted Koehler ☆ Dorothy Lamour, Eddie Bracken, Gil Lamb, Barry Sullivan, Forrest Orr, Anne Revere, Reed Hadley, Marc Lawrence

The Rainbow Jacket

GB 1954 99m Technicolor
Ealing (Michael Relph)

A boy jockey is blackmailed into losing a big race.
Disappointing racecourse drama which packs in all the expected ingredients.
w T. E. B. Clarke d Basil Dearden ph Otto Heller m William Alwyn ☆ Kay Walsh, Bill Owen, Edward Underdown, Robert Morley, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Charles Victor, Honor Blackman, Sidney James
'Probably the best racing film ever made.' – C. A. Lejeune

Rainbow on the River

US 1936 83m bw
Sol Lesser (RKO)

After the Civil War, an orphan is brought up by a Black mammy and later discovered to be rich.
Sentimental drama with songs from its boy star; not much, but popular.
w Earle Snell, William Hurlbut story Mrs C. V. Jamison d Kurt Neumann ☆ Bobby Breen, May Robson, Charles Butterworth, Louise Beavers, Alan Mowbray, Benita Hume, Henry O'Neill
'Phoney and over-sugared sentimentality.' – Variety

Rainbow round My Shoulder

US 1952 78m Technicolor
Columbia

A society girl breaks into show business.
Agreeable light musical for the easily pleased.
w Blake Edwards, Richard Quine
d Richard Quine
☆ Frankie Laine, Billy Daniels, Charlotte Austin, Arthur Franz, Ida Moore, Lloyd Corrigan Raining Stones ★★

GB 1993 91m colour
First Independent/Parallax/Channel 4 (Sally Hibbin)

An unemployed Catholic father tries to raise the money to buy a communion dress for his seven-year-old daughter.
A realistic drama about working-class lives, absorbing, richly detailed and welcome as one of the few British films of recent years to concern itself with contemporary, everyday life and its problems.
w Jim Allen d Ken Loach ph Barry Ackroyd m Stewart Copeland pd Martin Johnson ed Jonathan Morris ☆ Bruce Jones, Julie Brown, Gemma Phoenix, Ricky Tomlinson, Tom Hickey, Mike Fallon, Ronnie Ravey, Lee Brennan
'The film contains more truth and humor than many a large-screen picture, and is sure to captivate audiences who seek it out.' – Variety

The Rainmaker

US 1956 121m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis (Paul Nathan)

In 1913 Kansas, a fake rainmaker has more success melting the heart of a confirmed spinster.
Such a whimsical play is too talky to make a good movie, especially as the actors are over-age, their performances are mannered, the dialogue seems interminable and the production is too stagey.
w N. Richard Nash play N. Richard Nash d Joseph Anthony ph Charles Lang Jnr m Alex North ☆ Katharine Hepburn, Burt Lancaster, Wendell Corey, Lloyd Bridges, Earl Holliman, Cameron Prud'homme, Wallace Ford
Alex North; Katharine Hepburn

The Rainmaker: see John Grisham's The Rainmaker (1997)

The Rainmakers

US 1935 79m bw
RKO

Fake rainmakers are chased by midwestern farmers to California, where they get involved in an irrigation scheme.
Slow-paced comedy with a train chase finale which comes too late.
w Grant Garrett, Leslie Goodwins d Fred Guiol
☆ Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Dorothy Lee, Berton Churchill, George Meeker
'May appeal mildly to their fans, but won't make new business.' – Variety

The Rains Came ★★★

US 1939 103m bw
TCF (Harry Joe Brown)

High-class parasites in India during the Raj redeem themselves when a flood disaster strikes.
Wholly absorbing disaster spectacular in which the characterization and personal plot development are at least as interesting as the spectacle, and all are encased in a glowingly professional production.
w Philip Dunne, Julien Josephson novel Louis Bromfield d Clarence Brown ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman ad George Dudley, William Darling ed Barbara McLean sp Fred Sersen
☆ Myrna Loy (Lady Edwina Esketh), George Brent (Tom Ransome), Tyrone Power (Maj. Rama Safti), Brenda Joyce (Fern Simon), Maria Ouspenskaya (Maharani), Joseph Schildkraut (Mr. Bannerjee), H. B. Warner (Maharajah), Nigel Bruce (Albert Lord Esketh), Mary Nash (Miss MacDaid), Jane Darwell (Aunt Phoebe Smiley), Marjorie Rambeau (Mrs. Simon), Henry Travers (Rev. Homer Smiley)
'A big box-office picture with the advantage of a new locale.' – Variety
'It would be difficult to improve on the direction, the outbreak of the monsoon, a lamp casting the shadow of lattice work against white silk, servants scattering for cover...' – Charles Higham, 1972
'Slick Hollywood film-making at its professional best.' – Channel 4, 1982
† Myrna Loy was third choice after Dietrich and Lamarr; Brent second choice after Ronald Colman.
Alfred Newman; editing

The Rains of Ranchipur

US 1955 104m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF (Frank Ross)

Dismal remake of The Rains Came, with bored actors and inferior production, all the character of the original being wiped out by badly processed wide-screen spectacle.
w Merle Miller d Jean Negulesco ph Milton Krasner m Hugo Friedhofer ☆ Lana Turner, Fred MacMurray, Richard Burton, Joan Caulfield, Eugenie Leontovich, Michael Rennie

Raintree County

US 1957 166m Technicolor Panavision (Camera 65)
MGM (David Lewis)

During the Civil War a Southern belle gets the man she thinks she wants, but subsequently finds life as a schoolmaster's wife boring.
Dreary attempt by MGM to out-do Gone with the Wind, with neither characters nor plot one third as interesting and the production values merely expensive.
w Millard Kaufman novel Ross Lockridge d Edward Dmytryk ph Robert Surtees m Johnny Green ad William A. Horning, Urie McCleary
☆ Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor, Eva Marie Saint, Nigel Patrick, Lee Marvin, Rod Taylor, Agnes Moorehead, Walter Abel, Jarma Lewis, Tom Drake, Gardner McKay, Rhys Williams
Johnny Green; Elizabeth Taylor; art direction

Rainy Dog ★

Japan 1998 94m colour
Daiei (Tsuchikawa Tsutomu, Kimura Toshiki, Zhang Huakun)

original title: Gokudo Kuro Shakai

In Taiwan, a glum, exiled Japanese hitman goes on the run from another killer, together with a prostitute and a mute, abandoned boy.
Downbeat study of alientation and betrayal, set in Taipei at a time of incessant rainfall; the city's back streets, shot in muted blues and greys, reflect the movie's melancholy mood.
w Inoue Seigo d Takashi Miike ph Li Sixu m Sound Kids ed Shimamura Taiji ☆ Aikawa Sho, Gao Mingjun, Chen Xianmei, He Jianxian, Li Liqun, Zhang Shi, Taguchi Tomoro
'Yet another lonely hit man staggers his way through inclement weather in ... an arty meditation on violence and loyalty' – Ken Eisner, Variety

Raise Ravens ★

Spain 1975 115m colour
Elias Querejeta

original title: Cria Cuervos aka: Cria!

A woman remembers her life as a child, when she may have caused the death of her philandering father.

Elliptical story of childhood and of women trapped in a world dominated by men; it is never less than watchable, but its meaning, possibly obliquely political, remains obscure.

wd Carlos Saura ph Teo Escamilla m Federico Mompoli ad Rafael Palmero ed Pablo G. del Amo

☆ Geraldine Chaplin, Monica Randall, Florinda Chico, Ana Torrent, Conchi Perez, Maite Sanchez, Josefina Diaz, German Cobos, Hector Alterio, Mirta Miller

'Saura has succeeded in conjuring up, with many nice touches, a picture of childhood which is finely balanced between reality and sentimentality.' – John Pym, MFB

† The film won the Special Jury Prize at the 1976 Cannes Film Festival.

'China, 1920's. One master, four wives ... One fate.'

Raise the Red Lantern ★★★

Hong Kong 1991 125m Eastmancolor
Palace/Era/China Film (Chiu Fu-Sheng)

original title: Dahong Denglong Gaogao Gua

A young woman, who has become the fourth wife of a rich merchant, finds herself in competition with his other wives for her husband's favour.

Cool study of sexual politics and the subjugation of women.

w Ni Zhen story Su Tong d Zhang Yimou ph Zhao Fei m Zhao Jiping ad Cao Jiuping, Dong Huamiao ed Du Yuan

☆ Gong Li (Songlian), Ma Jingwu (Master Chen Zuoqian), He Caifei (Meishan), Cao Cuifeng (Zhuoyun), Jin Shuyuan (Yuru), Kong Li (Yan'er), Ding Weimin (Mother Song), Cui Zhigang (Doctor Gao), Chu Xiao (Feipu)

best foreign film
best foreign film

Raise the Roof

GB 1930 77m bw
BIP

An actress is bribed to sabotage a touring show.

Early talkie which retains surprising freshness.

w Walter Summers, Philip MacDonald d Walter Summers

☆ Betty Balfour, Maurice Evans, Jack Raine, Sam Livesey, Ellis Jeffreys

† Credited as the first British musical.

Raise the Titanic!

US 1980 122m DeLuxe
Lord Grade/Martin Starger (William Frye)

Assorted Americans try to recover rare minerals from the wreck of the ship which sank in the North Atlantic in 1912.

Heavy-going exploiter with little action and even less plot.

w Adam Kennedy, Eric Hughes novel Clive Cussler d Jerry Jameson ph Matthew F. Leonetti m John Barry pd John F. DeCuir second unit ph Rex Metz underwater ph Bob Steadman

☆ Jason Robards, Richard Jordan, Alec Guinness, David Selby, Anne Archer, J. D. Cannon

'Hits new depths hitherto unexplored by the worst of Lew Grade's overloaded ark melodramas. This one wastes a potentially intriguing premise with dull scripting, a lacklustre cast, laughably phony trick work and clunky direction that makes Voyage of the Damned seem inspired by comparison.' – Variety

'The longer it all goes on, the more one hopes that, if they ever do raise the Titanic, they'll heave the film overboard to replace it.' – Guardian

'Right boat, wrong direction!' – Michael McKean

† The film cost $40m and took $7m. As Sir Lew Grade commented, 'It would have been cheaper to lower the Atlantic.'

'Don't hold back. Don't give up.'

Raise Your Voice ③

US 2004 103m FotoKem
New Line/FilmEngine/ChickFlicks/Brookwell McNamara (Sean McNamara, Sara Risher, David Brookwell, A.J. Dix, Anthony Rhulen)

A small town girl defies her father's disapproval to attend a performing arts summer school in Los Angeles.

This formulaic movie is determined to embrace every available cliché in a dull and lachrymose drama about a teenager discovering her talent and individuality.

w Sam Schreiber story Mitch Rotter d Sean McNamara ph John R. Leonetti m Machine Head pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Jeff W. Canavan

☆ Hilary Duff (Terri Fletcher), Rita Wilson (Frances Fletcher), David Keith (Simon Fletcher), Jason Ritter (Paul Fletcher), Oliver James (Jay), James Avery (Mr Gantry), Rebecca De Mornay (Aunt Nina)

'Parents surely want a family film they can take their young daughters to – but not one so bland and colorless.' – Robert K. Elder,Chicago Tribune

A Raisin in the Sun ★

US 1961 128m bw
Columbia/Paman – Doris (David Susskind, Philip Rose)

The life of a struggling black family in a cramped Chicago flat.

Earnest but claustrophobic play-on-film which long outstays its welcome but contains good performances.

w Lorraine Hansberry play Lorraine Hansberry d Daniel Petrie ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Laurence Rosenthal

☆ Sidney Poitier, Ruby Dee, Claudia McNeil, Diana Sands, Ivan Dixon, John Fiedler, Lou Gossett

Raising a Riot

GB 1955 90m Technicolor
British Lion/Wessex (Ian Dalrymple, Hugh Perceval)

With his wife away, a naval officer tries to cope with his three lively children while staying with his elderly father in a derelict windmill.

Sentimental domestic comedy that goes for easy laughs and misses most of them.

w Ian Dalrymple, Hugh Perceval novel Alfred Toombs d Wendy Toye ph Christopher Challis m Bruce Montgomery md Muir Mathieson ad Joseph Bato ed Albert Rule

☆ Kenneth More, Shelagh Fraser, Ronald Squire, Olga Lindo, Jan Miller, Nora Nicholson, Lionel Murton, Mandy, Gary Billings, Fusty Bentine, Robin Brown

Raising Arizona ★

US 1987 94m DuArt
Circle Films/TCF

In the American heartlands, a petty crook falls for the lady cop who regularly checks him into jail.

Zany collection of incidents which scarcely welds itself into a story but offers a few laughs along the way.

w Ethan and Joel Coen d Joel Coen ph Barry Sonnenfeld m Carter Burwell

☆ Nicolas Cage, Holly Hunter, Trey Wilson, John Goodman, William Forsythe

'When Jenny cheated on her husband, he didn't just leave ... he split.'

Raising Cain

US 1992 92m colour
UIP/Universal (Gale Anne Hurd)

A psychologist develops multiple personalities, including that of a murderous twin brother.

Risible thriller, stuffed full of shock moments that hamper the narrative flow, and growing increasingly ridiculous throughout; it fails to repay its huge debt to Peeping Tom and to Hitchcock.

wd Brian de Palma ph Stephen H. Burum m Pino Donaggio pd Doug Kraner ed Paul Hirsch, Bonnie Koehler, Robert Dalva

☆ John Lithgow, Lolita Davidovich, Steven Bauer, Frances Sternhagen, Gregg Henry, Tom Bower, Mel Harris, Teri Austin, Gabrielle Carteris

'Scandalously prodigal with its loose ends and red herrings, and scandalously unfair with its narrative let-outs.' – Sight and Sound

'A superficial, often risible, exercise in pure aesthetics that's likely to turn off mainstream audiences, spelling a fast flop.' – Variety

Raising the Wind

GB 1961 91m colour
GHW/Anglo Amalgamated (Peter Rogers)

US title: Roommates

Misadventures of students at a music academy.

A Carry On in all but name, from the same stable; good moments among the dross.

w Bruce Montgomery d Gerald Thomas ph Alan Hume m Bruce Montgomery

☆ James Robertson Justice, Leslie Phillips, Kenneth Williams, Sidney James, Paul Massie, Liz Fraser, Eric Barker, Jennifer Jayne, Geoffrey Keen, Esma Cannon

Raising Victor Vargas ★★ ⑧

US/France 2002 87m Duart
Momentum/StudioCanal/Forensic/Wild Bunch (Peter Sollett, Alain de la Mata, Robin O'Hara)

aka: Long Way Home

In New York's Lower East Side, a 16-year-old boy struggles to come to terms with sex and his strict, religious grandmother who rules the family.

Using a non-professional cast, Sollett creates an authentic-feeling coming-of-age story, concentrating on an adolescent who learns that tenderness can be more effective than street-smart, macho swaggering.

wd Peter Sollett ph Tim Orr m Roy Nathanson, Brad Jones pd Judy Becker ed Myron Kerstein

☆ Victor Rasuk (Victor Vargas), Judy Marte (Judy Ramirez), Melonie Diaz (Melonie), Altagracia Guzman (Grandma), Silvestre Rasuk (Nino Vargas), Krystal Rodriguez (Vicki Vargas), Kevin Rivera (Harold), Wilfree Vasquez (Carlos)

'A small sweet picture that is brightened by its genuine feeling for emotional truth and human nature,' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Rake's Progress ★

GB 1945 123m bw
GFD/Individual (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)
US title: Notorious Gentleman

The career of a cheerful ne'er-do-well playboy of the thirties.

The road to ruin played for light comedy, with silly endpapers in which, quite out of character, the rake becomes a war hero. Generally good production, witty script.

w Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat story Val Valentine d Sidney Gilliat ph Wilkie Cooper m William Alwyn pd David Rawnsley

☆ Rex Harrison, Lilli Palmer, Margaret Johnston, Godfrey Tearle, Griffith Jones, Guy Middleton, Jean Kent, Marie Lohr, Garry Marsh, David Horne, Alan Wheatley

'Bright, witty and finished.' – Richard Winnington

† In the American version Harrison crowned the Martyrs' Memorial not with a chamber pot but with a top hat.

Rally Round the Flag Boys

US 1958 106m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Leo McCarey)

A small community protests at the siting nearby of a missile base.

Raucous service and sex comedy which becomes frenetic without ever being very funny.

w Claude Binyon, Leo McCarey novel Max Shulman d Leo McCarey ph Leon Shamroy m Cyril Mockridge

☆ Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Joan Collins, Jack Carson, Dwayne Hickman, Tuesday Weld, Gale Gordon, Murvyn Vye

'She has been quite promiscuous since early childhood. She has absolutely no control over her sexual impulses. Miss Rosebud has arrived!'

Rambling Rose ★★

US 1991 112m DuArt/DeLuxe
Guild/Carolco (Renny Harlin)

During the Depression, a boy becomes infatuated with a sexually-free young woman who comes to work at his home.

Gripping domestic drama that gains from its period setting.

w Calder Willingham novel Calder Willingham d Martha Coolidge ph Johnny E. Jensen m Elmer Bernstein pd John Vallone ed Steven Cohen

☆ Laura Dern, Robert Duvall, Diane Ladd, Lukas Haas, John Heard, Kevin Conway, Robert Burke, Lisa Jakub, Evan Lockwood, Matt Sutherland

'A quiet, unassertive picture, very literary in the memories it evokes, full of universal insights into family life, and performed with delicacy by all concerned.' – Philip French, Guardian

Laura Dern; Diane Ladd

Rambo: First Blood Part Two

US 1985 92m Technicolor Panavision
Anabasis Investments NV/Buzz Feitshans

A special ops veteran is sent to spring POWs in Vietnam.

Absurdly overwrought comic strip action which shamefully caught the mood of America at the time of its release.

w Sylvester Stallone, James Cameron d George Pan Cosmatos ph Jack Cardiff m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Sylvester Stallone, Richard Crenna,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Charles Napier, Julia Nickson, Steven Berkoff

'One mounting fireball ... risible production, comic book heroics.' – Variety

Rambo III

US 1988 101m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Carolco (Buzz Feitshans)

Rambo invades Afghanistan to rescue a friend captured by the Soviet forces.
More ludicrously melodramatic heroics, with Stallone as a one-man army defeating the massed forces of the enemy.
w Sylvester Stallone, Sheldon Lettich
d Peter MacDonald ph John Stanier
m Jerry Goldsmith pd Bill Kenney
ed James Symons, Andrew London, O. Nicholas Brown, Edward Warschilka
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Richard Crenna, Marc de Jonge, Kurtwood Smith, Spiros Focas, Sasson Gabai
† Russel Mulcahy began directing the film but left after a few days. It was the most expensive film made to that date, costing in excess of $60 million.

Ramona

US 1936 90m Technicolor
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)

A half-breed girl and an Indian chief's son combat the greed of white pioneers.
Old-fashioned, stuffy adventure romance, much filmed in silent days.
w Lamar Trotti novel Helen Hunt Jackson
d Henry King ph William Skall, Chester Lyons m Alfred Newman ☆ Loretta Young, Don Ameche, Kent Taylor, Pauline Frederick, Jane Darwell, Katherine de Mille, Victor Kilian, John Carradine

Rampage

US 1963 98m Technicolor
Warner Seven Arts/Talbot (William Fadiman)

Two white hunters love the same girl; one releases a tiger to harm the other, but it escapes.
Silly, unconvincing, old-style melodrama in which even the animals seem to overact.
w Robert Holt, Marguerite Roberts novel Alan Caillou d Phil Karlson ph Harold Lipstein m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Robert Mitchum, Jack Hawkins, Elsa Martinelli, Sabu, Emile Genest

Rampage ★

Australia 2006 108m
Revelation/Gittoes & Dalton Productions/Film Finance Corp.Australia (George Gittoes, Gabrielle Dalton)

A year in the life of three young black American brothers in violent inner-city Miami, contrasted with the life of the eldest sibling doing military duty in Iraq.
Angry and barbed story in which a young soldier can find serving in Baghdad something of a respite after the random murders that routinely occur in his home neighbourhood.
d George Gittoes ph George Gittoes
ed Nick Meyers
☆ Elliott Lovett, Denzell Lovett, Marcus Lovett

The Ramparts We Watch ★

US 1940 87m bw
RKO/Louis de Rochemont

A typical American family exemplifies the need for military preparedness.
A feature acted by amateurs, produced by the March of Time unit; interesting rather than influential, as it still took Pearl Harbor to bring the Americans into the war.
w Robert Richards, Cedric B. Worth
d Louis de Rochemont

'It enters the fray with frankness in its favour.' – Variety

'A woman is soft and warm ... and deadlier than steel!'

Ramrod

US 1947 94m bw
(MGM) Enterprise (Harry Sherman)

A predatory lady ranch owner hires a tough foreman and her ruthlessness causes several deaths and a stampede.
Ho-hum minor Western with fading stars. w Jack Moffitt, Graham Baker, Cecile Kramer story Luke Short d André de Toth ph Russell Harlan m Adolph Deutsch
pd Lionel Banks ed Sherman A. Rose ☆ Veronica Lake, Joel McCrea, Preston Foster, Charles Ruggles, Donald Crisp, Arleen Whelan, Lloyd Bridges

Ran ★★★★

Japan 1985 161m colour
Herald-Ace/Nippon-Herald/Greenwich (Masato Hara, Serge Silberman)

A Japanese version of King Lear, with three sons instead of three daughters.
Predictable bloodshed and tremendous style are evident in this oriental epic from a master hand at the age of 75.
w Akira Kurosawa, Hideo Oguni, Masato Ide d Akira Kurosawa ph Takao Saito
m Toru Takemitsu ad Yoshiro Muraki
ed Akira Kurosawa
☆ Tatsuya Nakadai (Lord Hidetora Ichimonji), Satoshi Terao (Tarotakatora Ichimonji), Jinpachi Nezu (Jiromasatora Ichimonji), Daisuke Ryu (Saburonaotora Ichimonji), Peter (Kyoami)

'Prepare to be astonished ... a towering achievement in any language.' – People costumes (Emi Wada) direction, photography, art direction
best foreign film

Rancho De Luxe

US 1974 95m DeLuxe
UA/EK (Anthony Ray)

Cheerful cattle rustlers go on a binge and end up in prison.
Modern anti-everything Western; it's anti-entertainment as well.
w Thomas McGuane d Frank Perry
ph William A. Fraker m Jimmy Buffett
☆ Sam Waterston, Jeff Bridges, Elizabeth Ashley, Charlene Dallas, Clifton James, Slim Pickens

'Where anything goes ... for a price!'

Rancho Notorious

US 1952 89m Technicolor
RKO/Fidelity (Howard Welsch)

A cowboy seeking revenge for his girlfriend's murder follows a clue to a lonely ranch run by a saloon singer.
Curious Western which seems to have been intended as another Destry Rides Again but is made in a hard inflexible style which prevents it from appealing.
w Daniel Taradash d Fritz Lang ph Hal Mohr m Hugo Friedhofer md Emil Newman
☆ Marlene Dietrich, Arthur Kennedy, Mel Ferrer, Gloria Henry, William Frawley, Jack Elam

'Every quality you might ask of a western is in lavish supply – except entertainment value.' – Alton Cook

'Those In The Know, Know.'

Rancid Aluminium

GB 2000 91m colour Super 35
Entertainment/Fiction Factory (James Hawes, Mike Parker, Mike Thomas)

When his close friend inherits the family business, an envious accountant decides to take over the company with the financial aid of Russian gangsters.
Rancid it is, so bad that it won't even become a cult movie.
w James Hawes d Ed Thomas ph Tony Imi m John Hardy pd Hayden Pearce
ed Chris Lawrence
☆ Joseph Fiennes (Sean Deeny), Rhys Ifans (Pete Thompson), Tara Fitzgerald (Masha), Sadie Frost (Sarah), Stephen Berkoff (Mr Kant), Keith Allen (Dr Jones), Dani Behr (Charlie), Andrew Howard (Trevor), Nick Moran (Harry), Barry Foster (Doctor)

'A stupid, unfunny and self-satisfied film that should be avoided at all costs.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'By universal consent, it is the worst film ever made in the UK. People who have seen it belong to an exclusive club. They cannot speak about the film, they simply shudder at its mention.' – Jacques Perretti, Guardian

The Randolph Family: see Dear Octopus

Random Harvest ★★★

US 1942 126m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

A shell-shocked officer in the 1914–18 war escapes from an asylum, marries a music hall singer and is idyllically happy until a shock makes him remember that he is the head of a noble family. His wife, whom he does not now remember, dutifully becomes his secretary and years later another shock brings memory and happiness back.
A silly enough story works remarkably well in this rather splendid, no holds barred, roses round the door romance in Hollywood's best style with incomparable stars. A triumph of the Peg's Paper syndrome, and hugely enjoyable because it is done so enthusiastically.
w Claudine West, George Froeschel, Arthur Wimperis novel James Hilton d Mervyn Le Roy ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons, Randall Duell
ed Harold F. Kress
☆ Ronald Colman (Charles Rainier), Greer Garson (Paula), Susan Peters (Kitty), Philip Dorn (Dr. Jonathan Benet), Reginald Owen ("Biffer"), Henry Travers (Dr. Sims), Margaret Wycherly (Mrs. Deventer), Bramwell Fletcher (Harrison), Arthur Margetson (Chetwynd)

'I would like to recommend this film to those who can stay interested in Ronald Colman's amnesia for two hours and who could with pleasure eat a bowl of Yardley's shaving soap for breakfast.' – James Agee
'A strangely empty film ... its characters are creatures of fortune, not partisans in determining their own fates.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
'It is cast with pearly players in every part. Its pedigreed plot is savoured with just the right mixture of ups and downs, ecstasy and well-bred anguish, implausibility and psyche. And it moves towards its climax with the measured tread and nicely timed emotional bumps of a Hearst Cosmopolitan serial. It is perhaps the clearest example of the year of how a studio possessing lion's shares of movie-making capital and ingratiating talent can mate these two to synthesize a magnificent neuter, which will predictably bring in vast box office returns with which to produce more neuters.' – John McManus, PM

best picture; script; Mervyn Le Roy; Herbert Stothart; Ronald Colman; Susan Peters; art direction

'In a perfect world, they never would have met.'

Random Hearts

US 1999 133m DeLuxe
Columbia/Rastar/Mirage (Sydney Pollack, Marykay Powell)

When his wife is killed in a plane crash, a cop discovers that she was with her lover, and goes to meet the widow of the man with whom she was having an affair.
Run-of-the-mill romance of an odd couple, thrown together by chance; it is difficult to summon up much interest in their doings.
w Kurt Luedtke, Darryl Ponicsan novel Warren Adler d Sydney Pollack ph Philippe Rousselot m Dave Grusin
pd Barbara Ling ed William Steinkamp
☆ Harrison Ford (Dutch Van Den Broeck), Kristin Scott Thomas (Kay Chandler), Charles S. Dutton (Alcee), Bonnie Hunt (Wendy Judd), Dennis Haysbert (Det George Beaufort), Sydney Pollack (Carl Broman), Richard Jenkins (Truman Trainor), Paul Guilfoyle (Dick Montoya), Susanna Thompson (Peyton Van Den Broeck), Peter Coyote (Cullen Chandler), Dylan Baker (Richard Judd)

'An ideal rainy day matinee attraction for well-to-do ladies of a certain age.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Dismal.' – Times

Randy Rides Alone

US 1934 53m bw
Monogram/Lone Star (Paul Malvern)

An undercover agent unmasks a murdering outlaw, who is disguised as a dumb storekeeper, Matt the Mute. He also gets the girl.
Quickie Western with some of the trappings of a detective story, including secret hiding places and a portrait whose eyes move.
w Lindsley Parsons d Harry Fraser
ph Archie Stout ed Carl Pierson
☆ John Wayne, Alberta Vaughn, George Hayes, Yakima Canutt, Earl Dwire

Rangers of Fortune

US 1940 79m bw
Paramount (Dale Van Every)

Three amiable gun-runners clean up a south-west town.
Good reliable Western with star appeal.
w Frank Butler d Sam Wood
☆ Fred MacMurray, Albert Dekker, Gilbert Roland, Patricia Morison, Joseph Schildkraut, Dick Foran, Betty Brewer

Ranghe Khoda: see The Colour of Paradise

Rango

US 1931 70m bw
Paramount

An old man and a boy in Sumatra go about their business of killing tigers.
Faded semi-documentary by the man who was about to direct King Kong.
wd Ernest B. Schoedsack
☆ Claude King, Douglas Scott

Rangoon: see Beyond Rangoon

'He faced a decision that someday may be yours to make!'

Ransom ★

US 1955 104m bw
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)

A rich man takes desperate measures to rescue his son from a kidnapper.

Solid but overlong suspenser, virtually a vehicle for a star at his twitchiest and most dogged.

w Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum d Alex Segal ph Arthur E. Arling m Jeff Alexander

☆ Glenn Ford, Donna Reed, Leslie Nielsen, Juano Hernandez, Robert Keith

Ransom ★

GB 1975 98m Eastmancolor
Lion International (Peter Rawley)

aka: The Terrorists

A British ambassador to Scandinavia is kidnapped by terrorists and a Norwegian security chief gives chase.

Topical but unconvincing action thriller with unfamiliar detail; builds up to exciting sequences but is quickly forgotten.

w Paul Wheeler d Caspar Wrede ph Sven Nykvist m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Sean Connery, Ian McShane, Norman Bristow, John Cording, Isabel Dean, William Fox, Robert Harris

'Someone Is Going To Pay.'

Ransom ★

US 1996 120m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Brian Grazer, Scott Rudin, B. Kipling Hagopian)

Realizing that his kidnapped son is unlikely to be returned to him alive, a millionaire offers the ransom money as a reward for the capture of the criminals.

A moderately tense psychological thriller, competently made but only passably interesting.

w Richard Price story Alexander Ignon d Ron Howard ph Piotr Sobocinski m James Horner pd Michael Corenblith ed Dan Hanley, Michael Hill

☆ Mel Gibson, Rene Russo, Gary Sinise, Delroy Lindo, Lili Taylor, Liev Schreiber, Evan Handler, Donnie Wahlberg, Dan Hedaya

'A crackerjack thriller with some unusually tasty plot twists.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Watchable, made with a highly professional gloss, has a decent performance from a major star, and is pretty forgettable.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† It is a remake of the 1956 film written by Cyril Hume and Richard Maibum, starring Glenn Ford, Donna Reed and Leslie Nielsen, and directed by Alex Segal, who had previously directed it as a TV play.

Rapa Nui ★

US 1994 107m Technicolor Panavision
Entertainment/Majestic/Tig/Newcomm (Kevin Costner, Jim Wilson)

In the 1680s, on what was later known as Easter Island, antagonism between warring clans and the island's two classes – nobles and labourers – flares during a dangerous annual race in which young men swim through shark-infested waters to bring back an egg from a nearby island.

Unconvincing, exotic epic which dithers between being a conventional love story and a conventional ecological fable; it looks splendid but is let down by its often banal dialogue and varying styles of acting.

w Tim Rose Price, Kevin Reynolds d Kevin Reynolds ph Stephen Windon m Stewart Copeland pd George Liddle ed Peter Boyle

☆ Jason Scott Lee, Esai Morales, Sandrine Holt, George Henare, Zac Wallace, Nathaniel Lees, Eru Potaka-Dewes, Pete Smith, Rawiri Paratene

'Looks very much like an act of cinematic folly, a wacky anthropological adventure staged on a grand scale and filmed in obviously difficult and inhospitable circumstances. It's more of a guilty pleasure than a satisfying movie experience.' – Variety

'Almost no movie last year was more unintentionally funny, nor more wrongheaded.' – Stephen Rebello, Movieline

† The movie, despite its lack of expensive stars, cost more than $20m. Filming on the remote Easter Island was, said Kevin Reynolds, 'a nightmare'.

Rape Me: see Baise-Moi

The Rape of Malaya: see A Town Like Alice

Rapid Fire

US 1992 95m DeLuxe
TCF (Robert Lawrence)

After a Chinese college student is witness to a mob murder he has no alternative but to help the FBI bust two international drugs rings.

Cliché-ridden action movie whose only point of interest is that it stars Bruce Lee's son, although he has yet to acquire his father's charisma.

w Alan McElroy story Cindy Cirile, Alan McElroy d Dwight H. Little ph Ric Waite m Christopher Young pd Ron Foreman ed Gib Jaffe

☆ Brandon Lee, Powers Boothe, Nick Mancuso, Raymond J. Barry, Kate Hodge, Tzi Ma, Tony Longo, Michael Paul Chan, Dustin Nguyen

'A clumsily plotted, clumsily choreographed and clumsily acted attempt at combining a hard-nosed cop thriller with an old-fashioned martial arts fable.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

Rapture

US/France 1965 104m bw
International Classics/TCF (Christian Ferry)

A mentally unstable girl has a tragic romance with a fugitive murderer.

Gloomy all the way, and if it's art it needs explaining.

w Stanley Mann novel Rapture in My Rags by Phyllis Hastings d John Guillermin ph Marcel Grignon

☆ Patricia Gozzi, Dean Stockwell, Melvyn Douglas, Gunnel Lindblom

The Rapture ★★

US 1991 100m DeLuxe
Electric/New Line/Wechsler/Tenenbaum/Parker

Tiring of her empty and promiscuous life, a telephone operator turns to fundamentalist religion and, claiming she has received a message from God, heads for the desert with her young daughter to await the Second Coming.

A clever and thought-provoking movie which overturns expectations – the apparently mad and neurotic turn out to be right in their predictions – but finally seems to side with an individual's right to justice at all costs.

wd Michael Tolkin ph Bojan Bazelli m Thomas Newman pd Robert Standefer ed Suzanne Fenn

☆ Mimi Rogers, David Duchovny, Patrick Bauchau, Kimberly Cullum, Terri Hanauer, Dick Anthony Williams, James Le Gros

'The film is long on empathy, short on insight.' – Philip French, Observer

'A complex and intellectual horror story tackling a thorny subject in a manner simply guaranteed to offend almost everyone at some point.' – Kim Newman, Empire

The Rare Breed

US 1966 97m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (William Alland)

An English bull is taken by its woman owner to St Louis to breed with American longhorns, and various frictions are caused among the ranchers.

Amusing Western idea which misses fire by not coming down firmly as either drama or comedy; it does however pass the time amiably enough.

w Ric Hardman d Andrew V. McLaglen ph William H. Clothier m Johnny Williams

☆ James Stewart, Maureen O'Hara, Brian Keith, Juliet Mills, Don Galloway, David Brian, Jack Elam, Ben Johnson

Rascals

US 1938 77m bw
TCF

A rich young man and a girl suffering from amnesia join a gypsy troupe.

Absurdly cast and plotted semi-musical with a certain liveliness to keep it going.

w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan d H. Bruce Humberstone

☆ Jane Withers, Borrah Minevitch and his Rascals, Robert Wilcox, Rochelle Hudson, Steffi Duna

'In the main amusing and entertaining.' – Variety

Rashomon ★★★★

Japan 1951 83m bw
Daiei (Jingo Minoura)

aka: In the Woods

In medieval Japan, four people have different versions of a violent incident when a bandit attacks a nobleman in the forest.

Indescribably vivid in itself, and genuinely strange (one of the versions is told by a ghost), Rashomon reintroduced Japanese films to the world market and was remade (badly) in Hollywood as The Outrage.

wd Akira Kurosawa stories In a Grove; Rashomon by Ryunosuke Akutagawa ph Kazuo Miyagawa m Fumio Hayasaka ad So Matsuyama

☆ Toshiro Mifune (The bandit), Machiko Kyo (Masago, the samurai's wife), Masayuki Mori (The samurai), Takashi Shimura (The woodcutter), Minoru Chiaki (The priest)

'A masterpiece, and a revelation.' – Gavin Lambert, MFB

'An artistic achievement of such distinct and exotic character that it is difficult to estimate it alongside conventional story films' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

† The Region 1 DVD release includes commentary by Japanese film historian Donald Richie.

best foreign film
art direction

Raskolnikov ★

Germany 1923 80m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Neumann (Robert Wiene)

A student kills a pawnbroker and is hounded by a police inspector until he confesses.

Interesting adaptation of Crime and Punishment with some of the expressionist aspects of the same director's The Cabinet of Dr Caligari.

wd Robert Wiene ph Willy Godberger ad Andre Andreyev

☆ Gregory Khmara, Michael Tarkhanov, Pavel Pavlov, Vera Toma

The Raspberry Reich

Germany 2004 90m colour
Jürgen Bruning FilmProduktion

In Berlin, a group of would-be terrorists, led by a tough woman, kidnap a rich industrialist's son for ransom, only to discover that he has been disowned by his father because he is gay.

Explicit sex scenes are intermingled with revolutionary slogans flashed on the screen in this rude and often crude assault on both the repressive power of everyday society and the romantic fantasies of middle-class revolutionaries.

wd Bruce La Bruce ph James Carman m Konstantin König, The Raymakers ad Stefan Dickfeld ed Jörn Hartmann

☆ Susanne Sachsse (Gudrun), Daniel Bätscher (Holger), Andreas Rupprecht (Patrick), Dean Stathis (Andreas), Anton Z. Risan (Clyde), Daniel Fettig (Che)

'Revolting and hilarious satire, which puts the man back in manifesto. (The faint-hearted should be warned: Mr. La Bruce shows the fullest of Monties.)' – Ned Martel, New York Times

Rasputin: see Agony

Rasputin and the Empress ★

US 1932 133m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

GB title: Rasputin the Mad Monk

The story of the last years of the Russian court, when a sinister monk gained influence over the empress.

An unhappy film which was besieged by lawsuits and never generated much drama of its own despite starring the three Barrymores, who all seemed to be acting in separate rooms. Production values are the most impressive thing about it.

w Charles MacArthur d Richard Boleslawski ph William Daniels m Herbert Stothart ad Cedric Gibbons, Alexander Toluboff ed Tom Held

☆ John Barrymore (Prince Paul Chegodieff), Ethel Barrymore (Empress Alexandra), Lionel Barrymore (Rasputin), Diana Wynyard (Natasha), Ralph Morgan (Emperor Nikolai), C. Henry Gordon (Grand Duke Igot), Edward Arnold (Doctor), Jean Parker, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Anne Shirley

† The lawsuit was by Prince Youssoupoff (portrayed as Chegodieff), who claimed that although he did kill Rasputin his wife was never raped. He was awarded one million dollars.

Charles MacArthur

Rasputin the Mad Monk: see Rasputin and the Empress (1932)

Rasputin the Mad Monk

GB 1966 92m DeLuxe CinemaScope
Warner-Pathé/Hammer/7 Arts (Anthony Nelson-Keys)

A recapitulation of well-known events with fictional trimmings.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · ♫Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Dreary excuse for its star to go berserk.
w John Elder d Don Sharp ph Michael Reed m Don Banks pd Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Roy Hyde ☆ Christopher Lee, Barbara Shelley, Richard Pasco, Francis Matthews, Renee Asherson

The Rat ★
GB 1937 72m bw
Herbert Wilcox/Imperator
A Parisian thief takes the blame for murder, but is saved by the socialite who loves him.
Rather smart talkie version of a well-worn theatrical hit, previously filmed in 1925 as a silent, with Ivor Novello as star.
w Hans Rameau, Marjorie Gaffney, Miles Malleson and Romney Brent play Ivor Novello, Constance Collier d Jack Raymond ☆ Anton Walbrook, Ruth Chatterton, Rene Ray, Beatrix Lehmann, Felix Aylmer, Mary Clare

Le Rat des Villes et le Rat des Champs ★★
France 1927 14m bw
Tobis Klangfilm
A country rat visits Paris and finds life too hectic for his rural tastes.
Witty exercise in stop-motion animation, brilliantly done for its time and notable for its ballet danced by two rats.
wd Ladislaw Starewicz m Georges Tzipine ad Jacques Natanson
† The film has been released on video with the feature-length The Tale of the Fox (qv) and four other shorts under the title Ladislaw Starewicz: Selected Films.

The Rat Race ★
US 1960 105m Technicolor
Paramount/Perlberg-Seaton
A young jazz musician and a dance hall hostess share a flat and face the adversities of New York.
A kind of sour fairy tale of the big city which has neither enough jokes nor enough incident but purveys the kind of charm that grows on one despite oneself.
w Garson Kanin play Garson Kanin
d Robert Mulligan ph Robert Burks
m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Tony Curtis, Debbie Reynolds, Jack Oakie, Kay Medford, Don Rickles
'The New Yorkers of The Rat Race – noisy soft-hearted landlady, philosophical bartender, backchatting taxi driver – are as familiar as the settings of shabby apartment house and quiet little bar across the street. Film makers no longer need to invent here – they simply move in for a few weeks.' – Penelope Houston

Rat Race
US 2001 112m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Fireworks/Alphaville/Zucker (Jerry Zucker, Janet Zucker, Sean Daniel)
Las Vegas smalltime gamblers race to be the first to find $2m hidden in a railway station in New Mexico, not realising that other gamblers are betting on the outcome of their race.
A chase movie in the style of It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World, and even more mean-spirited.
w Andy Breckman d Jerry Zucker
ph Thomas Ackerman m John Powell
pd Gary Frutkoff ed Tom Lewis
☆ Rowan Atkinson (Enrico Pollini), John Cleese (Donald Sinclair), Whoopi Goldberg (Vera Baker), Cuba Gooding Jnr (Owen Templeton), Seth Green (Duane Cody), Jon Lovitz (Randy Pear), Breckin Meyer (Nick Schaffer), Kathy Najimy (Bev Pear)
'Chooses to rehash the worst aspect of Mad, Mad World, downgrading the experience from mindless to dreadful.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
'Rowdy, bouncy, and acceleratingly funny.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

Ratboy
US 1986 104m Technicolor
Warner/Malpaso
A half-rodent alien gets the anticipated rough treatment when he visits Earth.
Clint Eastwood's favourite co-star was given leave to make the film of her choice, but the choice is inexplicable in the wake of so many other E.T. imitations.
w Rob Thompson d Sondra Locke
ph Bruce Surtees m Lennie Niehaus
☆ Sondra Locke, Robert Townsend, Christopher Hewett, Larry Hankin

Ratcatcher ★★
GB/France 1999 93m colour
Pathé (Gavin Emerson)
In 1970s Glasgow, a boy feels guilty about causing the death of a friend by drowning, and dreams of moving from his tenement slum to a new housing estate on the edge of the city.
Glum drama of family life enlivened by a lyrical visual approach.
wd Lynne Ramsay ph Alwin Küchler
m Rachel Portman pd Jane Morton
ed Lucia Zucchetti
☆ William Eadie (James), Tommy Flanagan (Da), Mandy Matthews (Ma), Michelle Stewart (Ellen), Lynne Ramsay Jnr (Anne Marie), Leanne Mullen (Margaret Anne), John Miller (Kenny), Jackie Quinn (Mrs Quinn)
'A must-see: a wonderful film from a brilliant director.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
Ⓑ Lynne Ramsay (best newcomer)

Rationing
US 1943 93m bw
MGM (Orville Dull)
A small-town shopkeeper is frustrated by wartime restrictions.
Amiable comedy for established stars.
w William Lipman, Grant Garrett, Harry Ruskin d Willis Goldbeck ☆ Wallace Beery, Marjorie Main, Donald Meek, Howard Freeman, Connie Gilchrist

Raton Pass
US 1951 84m bw
Warner (Saul Elkins)
GB title: Canyon Pass
A greedy wife swindles her husband out of his share in their ranch.
Unusual Western melodrama; quite entertaining.
w Tom Blackburn, James Webb d Edwin L. Marin ph Wilfred M. Cline m Max Steiner
☆ Dennis Morgan, Patricia Neal, Steve Cochran, Scott Forbes, Dorothy Hart

Rattle of a Simple Man
GB 1964 95m bw
Sydney Box (William Gell)
A shy football supporter in London spends the night with a tart for a bet.
Archetypal farcical situation with sentiment added to string it out to twice its proper length. Production values modest but adequate.
w Charles Dyer play Charles Dyer
d Muriel Box ph Reg Wyer m Stanley Black ☆ Harry H. Corbett, Diane Cilento, Thora Hird, Charles Dyer
'Having barely made the grade as a tiny, one-set, three-character play, it ought never have been blown up into a movie with many sets and a dozen or so characters.' – Brendan Gill, New Yorker

'The Edgar Allan Poe Mystery Show!'

The Raven ★
US 1935 61m bw
Universal
A doctor obsessed by Poe-inspired torture devices transforms a gangster on the run into a hideous mutant.
Silly but quite effective horror film with memorable sequences.
w David Boehm d Lew Landers
ph Charles Stumar md Gilbert Kurland ☆ Bela Lugosi, Boris Karloff, Samuel S. Hinds, Irene Ware, Lester Matthews
'Maintains Universal's high batting average with the shockers ... should come through with nice grosses.' – Variety

The Raven: see Le Corbeau (1943)

The Raven ★
US 1963 86m Pathécolor Panavision
AIP/Alta Vista (Roger Corman)
Two 15th-century conjurors fight a deadly duel of magic.
The rather splendid duel is a long time coming; the preliminaries are largely confined to chat in a single set, and the random jokes do not quite atone for the boredom.
w Richard Matheson d Roger Corman
ph Floyd Crosby m Les Baxter
☆ Vincent Price, Peter Lorre, Boris Karloff, Hazel Court, Jack Nicholson
'Edgar Allan Poe might turn over in his grave at this nonsensical adaptation of his immortal poem, but audiences will find the spooky goings-on a cornpop of considerable comedic dimensions.' – Variety

Ravenous
US 1999 100m DeLuxe 'Scope
TCF/Fox 2000/ (Adam Fields, David Heyman)
In the mid-19th century, an isolated army outpost is commanded by a cannibal who initiates others in the addictive eating of human flesh.
Grisly drama that veers between black comedy and horror while remaining an unappetizing stew.
w Ted Griffin d Antonia Bird ph Anthony B. Richmond m Michael Nyman, Damon Albarn pd Bryce Perrin
ed Neil Farrell
☆ Guy Pearce, Robert Carlyle, Jeremy Davies, Jeffrey Jones, John Spencer, Stephen Spinella, Neal McDonough, David Arquette
'A bigger mystery than anything in the plot is why fine actors like Guy Pearce and Robert Carlyle chose this shoddy vehicle as a showcase.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline † Directors Milcho Manchevski and Raja Gosnell both worked on the film before Antonia Bird became involved.

Raw Courage
US 1984 90m colour
Adams Apple/Sandy Howard (Ronny Cox, Robert L. Rosen)
aka: Courage
Three long-distance runners are attacked by a fanatical group of would-be soldiers in the New Mexican desert.
A land-locked, brain-dead variation on Deliverance, notably short on thrills.
w Ronny Cox, Mary Cox d Robert L. Rosen ph F. Pershing Flynn m Johnny Harris pd Don Nunley ed Steven Polivka ☆ Ronny Cox, Art Hindle, M. Emmet Walsh, Tim Maier, Lois Chiles, William Russ, Lisa Sutton

Raw Deal
US 1948 78m bw
Reliance/Eagle Lion
A convict is helped by his girlfriend to escape, and the police chase them across country.
Fairly violent crime melodrama which holds the attention.
w Leopold Atlas, John C. Higgins
d Anthony Mann
☆ Dennis O'Keefe, Claire Trevor, Marsha Hunt, John Ireland, Raymond Burr

Raw Deal
US 1986 106m Technicolor JDC Wide Screen
De Laurentiis/International (Martha Schumacher)
An ex-FBI man is recruited to infiltrate Chicago's biggest mob.
Violent crime hokum with momentary amusements.
w Gary M. DeVore, Norman Wexler
d John Irvin ph Alex Thomson
m Cinemascore
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Kathryn Harrold, Sam Wanamaker, Paul Shenar, Ed Lauter, Darren McGavin, Joe Regalbuto
'Comic book crime meller suffers from an irredeemable script' – Variety

Raw Edge
US 1956 76m Technicolor
Universal-International (Albert Zugsmith)
A rancher's workers plan to kill him.
Tense, fairly adult Western.
w Harry Essex, Robert Hill d John Sherwood ph Maury Gertsman
ad Alexander Golitzen ☆ Rory Calhoun, Yvonne de Carlo, Mara Corday, Rex Reason, Neville Brand

'Kill... Or Be Killed.'

Raw Justice
US 1994 95m Image Transform colour
West Side (David Winters)
aka: Good Cop Bad Cop
An ex-cop is hired to tail an innocent man framed for murder, and discovers that a killer is after both of them.
Cliché-ridden thriller that recycles the corniest images and dumbest dialogue from every bad cop movie ever made.
wd David A. Prior ph Carlos Gonzalez
m William Stromberg, Lennie Moore, David Keith ed Tony Malanowski
☆ David Keith (Mace), Robert Hays (Mitch McCullum), Pamela Anderson (Sarah), Leo Rossi (Atkins), Charles Napier (Stiles), Javi Mulero (Gordo), Stacy Keach (Jenkins)

Raw Meat: see Death Line

Raw Wind in Eden
US 1958 93m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
U-I (William Alland)
A model is stranded on a Sardinian island, and falls in love with a mysterious American who turns out to be a disillusioned millionaire.

Wish-fulfilment woman's picture with the occasional relief of a smart line.
w Elizabeth and Richard Wilson d Richard Wilson ph Enzo Serafin m Hans Salter
☆ Esther Williams, Jeff Chandler, Carlos Thompson, Rossana Podesta, Eduardo de Filippo, Rik Battaglia

'He's Pure Evil. Pure Power. Pure Terror.'

Rawhead Rex
US 1987 86m colour
Empire/Alpine/Paradise/Green Man (Kevin Attew, Don Hawkins)

In Ireland a farmer unwittingly releases a primitive demon, which immediately goes on the rampage.
Ineffectual, low-budget horror.
w Clive Barker d George Pavlou ph John Metcalfe ad Lee Huntingford ed Andy Horvitch
☆ David Dukes, Kelly Piper, Ronan Wilmot, Niall Toibin, Heinrich von Schellendoft, Niall O'Brian

Rawhide ★★
US 1950 86m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

TV title: Desperate Siege
Four escaped convicts terrorize a stagecoach stop.
Good suspense Western with excellent technical credits.
w Dudley Nichols d Henry Hathaway ph Milton Krasner m Sol Kaplan
☆ Tyrone Power, Susan Hayward, Hugh Marlowe, Jack Elam, Dean Jagger, George Tobias, Edgar Buchanan, Jeff Corey

The Rawhide Years
US 1956 85m Technicolor
Universal International (Stanley Rubin)
A poor but honest riverboat gambler clears himself of a murder charge with the aid of a con man.
Run-of-the-mill but amiable-enough Western, with Curtis more convincing as a card sharp than as a cowboy.
w Earl Felton, Robert Presnell Jnr, D. D. Beauchamp novel Norman A. Fox d Rudolph Maté ph Irving Glassberg m Frank Skinner, Hans J. Salter md Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, Richard H. Riedel ed Russell Schoengarth ☆ Tony Curtis (Ben), Colleen Miller (Zoe), Arthur Kennedy (Rick Harper), William Demarest (Brand Comfort), William Gargan (Marshal Sommers), Peter Van Eyck (Andre Boucher), Minor Watson (Matt Comfort), Donald Randolph (Carrico), Robert Wilke (Neal)

'The extraordinary life story of Ray Charles. A man who fought harder and went farther than anyone thought possible.'

Ray ★★★
US 2004 153m Technicolor
Universal/Bristol Bay/Anvil (Howard Baldwin, Karen Baldwin, Taylor Hackford, Stuart Benjamin)

Biopic of blind singer and pianist Ray Charles, who learned the hard way the business end of show business.
Jamie Foxx's performance brings to vivid life Ray Charles' intense struggle to escape from poverty and deprivation and achieve success and acclaim. The film reveals Charles' darker side as well as providing evidence of his talent through a generous helping of his music.
w James L. White d Taylor Hackford ph Pawel Edelman m Craig Armstrong pd Stephen Altman ed Paul Hirsch
☆ Jamie Foxx (Ray Charles), Kerry Washington (Della Bea Robinson), Regina King (Margie Hendricks), Clifton Powell (Jeff Brown), Aunjanue Ellis (Mary Ann Fisher), Harry Lennix (Joe Adams), Terrence Dashon Howard (Gossie McKee), Larenz Tate (Quincy Jones), Bokeem Woodbine (Fathead Newman)
'The movie would be worth seeing simply for the sound of the music and the sight of Jamie Foxx performing it. That it looks deeper and gives us a sense of the man himself is what makes it special.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
Jamie Foxx; visual effects (John Dykstra, Scott Stokdyk, Anthony LaMolinara, John Frazier); sound mixing (Scott Millan, Greg Orloff, Bob Beemer, Steve Cantamessa)
film; Taylor Hackford; Paul Hirsch; Sharen Davis

Raye Makhfi: see Secret Ballot

Le Rayon Vert: see The Green Ray

Razorback
Australia 1984 95m colour Panavision
UAA/Western (Hal McElroy)

In a small outback town a man is tried for the murder of his grandson, actually carried off by a wild boar.
Grim images of Australian life pepper this cross between Jaws and the dingo baby case. Not, as they say, for the squeamish.
w Everett de Roche novel Peter Brennan d Russell Mulcahy ph Dean Semler m Iva Davies pd Bryce Walmsley ed William Anderson
☆ Gregory Harrison, Arkie Whiteley, Bill Kerr, Chris Haywood

'Between love and hatred there is a line as sharp as a razor's edge!'

The Razor's Edge ★
US 1946 146m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A well-to-do young man spends the years between the wars first idling, then looking for essential truth.
The novel was an empty parable with amusing trimmings. In the film the trimmings seem less amusing, but the presentation is glossy.
w Lamar Trotti novel W. Somerset Maugham d Edmund Goulding ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman ad Richard Day, Nathan Juran
☆ Tyrone Power, Gene Tierney, Clifton Webb, Herbert Marshall, John Payne, Anne Baxter, Lucile Watson, Frank Latimore, Elsa Lanchester, Fritz Kortner
'I like Somerset Maugham when he's looking through keyholes or down cracks, not at vistas.' – Richard Winnington
'Almost as irresistibly funny and terrible as The Fountainhead.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
† Maugham has a different source for his title, in the shape of an Oriental proverb, probably invented: 'The sharp edge of a razor is difficult to pass over; thus the wise say that the path to salvation is hard.'
Anne Baxter
best picture; Clifton Webb; art direction

The Razor's Edge
US 1984 128m colour
Columbia (Robert P. Marucci, Harry Benn)

A man searches for the meaning of life.
An unlikely remake which came into being because the star persuaded the studio to do it, then failed in his attempt to convey the necessary spirituality. As for the rest, the time is out of joint (except for Denholm Elliott).
w John Byrum, Bill Murray d John Byrum ph Peter Hannan m Jack Nitzsche pd Philip Harrison ed Peter Boyle
☆ Bill Murray, Denholm Elliott, Theresa Russell, Catherine Hicks, James Keach, Peter Vaughan, Faith Brook

'Death is just the beginning!'

Re-Animator
US 1985 86m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Empire International (Brian Yuzna)

When a crazy scientist brings people back to life, they come back violent.
Gross and grisly horror comic which amused some critics.
w Dennis Paoli, William J. Norris, Stuart Gordon story Herbert West – Re-animator by H. P. Lovecraft d Stuart Gordon ph Mac Ahlberg, Stephen Sealy m Richard Band ad R. A. Burns, Charles Nixon ed Lee Percy ☆ Jeffrey Combs, Bruce Abbott, Barbara Crampton, David Gale
'For those with a strong sense of humour, and a stomach stronger still.' – Sunday Times
'A cheap smell of excess.' – Observer

'Date. Mate. Re-animate.'

Re-Animator 2
US 1989 96m colour
Medusa/Wildstreet (Paul White, Keith Walley, Hidetaka Konno)

aka: Bride of Re-Animator
A scientist, building himself a woman from spare parts, is attacked by the re-animated remnants of his previous experiments.
The mixture much as before, and gaining nothing from the repetition.
w Woody Keith, Rick Fry story H. P. Lovecraft d Brian Yuzna ph Rick Fichter m Richard Band pd Philip J. C. Duffin ed Peter Teschner
☆ Bruce Abbott, Claude Earl Jones, Fabiana Udenio, David Gale, Kathleen Kinmont, Jeffrey Combs, Mel Stewart, Michael Strasser, Irene Forrest
'Yet another example of a sequel that is content to rehash all the ingredients of the first film without ever gelling in the way that made the original work.' – MFB

Reach for Glory ★
GB 1962 86m bw
Columbia/Blazer (John Kohn, Jud Kinberg)
During World War II, evacuee boys play war games and a German refugee is accidentally killed.
Grim and unpalatable parable, competently rather than excitingly made.
w John Rae novel The Custard Boys by John Rae d Philip Leacock ph Bob Huke m Bob Russell ☆ Kay Walsh, Harry Andrews, Michael Anderson Jnr, Oliver Grimm, Alexis Kanner, Martin Tomlinson, Richard Vernon

Reach for the Sky ★
GB 1956 135m bw
Rank/Pinnacle (Daniel M. Angel)

Douglas Bader loses both legs in a 1931 air crash, learns to walk on artificial limbs and flies again in World War II.
Box-office exploitation of one man's personal heroism, adequately but not inspiringly put together with many stiff upper lips and much jocular humour.
wd Lewis Gilbert book Paul Brickhill ph Jack Asher m John Addison ☆ Kenneth More (Douglas Bader), Muriel Pavlow (Thelma Bader), Lyndon Brook (Johnny Sanderson), Lee Patterson (Stan Turner), Alexander Knox (Mr Joyce), Dorothy Alison, Sydney Tafler, Howard Marion Crawford
'It is least successful in what should be exciting action.' – Dilys Powell
British film

Reaching for the Moon
US 1931 90m bw
United Artists (Douglas Fairbanks)

On a transatlantic liner, a new cocktail has a sensational effect on a mild-mannered hero.
Very flimsy comedy with songs and some athletic stunts for its hero.
wd Edmund Goulding ph Ray June song Irving Berlin
☆ Douglas Fairbanks, Bebe Daniels, Edward Everett Horton, Claud Allister, Jack Mulhall, Bing Crosby
'Not a smash entry, but should do moderately and perhaps a little better than that.' – Variety

'You'll love them as much as they love each other!'

Reaching for the Sun
US 1941 90m bw
Paramount

A clam digger who needs an outboard motor goes to work in a Detroit car plant.
Easygoing comedy, too muted to recommend itself widely.
w W. L. River novel Wessel Smitter d William Wellman
☆ Joel McCrea, Ellen Drew, Eddie Bracken, Albert Dekker

Read My Lips: see Sur Mes Lèvres

'They're Headed For The Big Time...Face First!'

Ready to Rumble
US 2000 107m Technicolor
Warner/Bel Air/Outlaw/Tollin/Robbins (Bobby Newmyer, Jeffrey Silver)

Two World Championship Wrestling fans decide to revive the career of a defeated champion.
Braindead movie that is even less entertaining than wrestling itself, and as crude and overblown in its approach.
w Steven Brill d Brian Robbins ph Clark Mathis m George S. Clinton pd Jaymes Hinkle ed Ned Bastille, Cindy Mollo
☆ David Arquette (Gordie Boggs), Oliver Platt (Jimmy King), Scott Caan (Sean Dawkins), Bill Goldberg (Himself), Rose McGowan (Sasha), Diamond Dallas Page (Himself), Richard Lineback (Mr Boggs), Chris Owen (Isaac), Steve 'Sting' Borden (Himself), Joe Pantoliano (Titus Sinclair), Martin Landau (Sal)
'Truly atrocious, lame-brained comedy.' – Steve Grant, Sunday Times

'Sing! Swing! Youth Has Its Fling!'

Ready Willing and Able
US 1937 93m bw
Warner (Samuel Bischoff)

Two songwriters import an English leading lady for their new show.
Lightweight star musical with no outstanding qualities except a number in which girls dance on the keys of a huge typewriter.
w Sig Herzig, Jerry Wald, Warren Duff d Ray Enright ph Sol Polito m/ly Johnny Mercer, Richard Whiting ch Bobby

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Connolly songs Johnny Mercer, Richard Whiting

☆ Ruby Keeler (Jane Clarke), Ross Alexander (Barry Granville), Lee Dixon (Pinky Blair), Winifred Shaw (Jane Clarke), Jane Wyman (Dot), Allen Jenkins (Jay Van Courtland), Louise Fazenda (Clara Heineman), Carol Hughes (Angie)

'Too many numbers and a slow script.' – Variety

♫ 'Too Marvellous for Words'; 'Sentimental and Melancholy'; 'Just a Quiet Evening'

Bobby Connolly

The Real Blonde ★

US 1997 105m colour
Paramount/Lakeshore (Marcus Viscidi, Tom Rosenberg)

Two struggling actors in troubled relationships make good at work and home.
Enjoyable satire on such easy targets as fashion photographers and TV soap opera stars.
wd Tom DiCillo ph Frank Prinzi m Jim Farmer pd Christopher A. Nowak ed Camilla Toniolo
☆ Matthew Modine, Catherine Keener, Daryl Hannah, Maxwell Caulfield, Elizabeth Berkley, Marlo Thomas, Bridgette Wilson

'Winds up a cartoonish satire on a cartoonish world – form and content in perfect unison.' – Xan Brooks, Sight and Sound

Real Genius

US 1985 104m Metrocolor Panavision
TriStar/Delphi III (Brian Grazer)

A 15-year-old scientific prodigy joins a think-tank of whizz kids who are being unwittingly exploited by the military.
Slickly directed youth movie that abandons any seriousness in favour of anarchic slapstick comedy; its message appears to be that too much intelligence is bad for you.
w Neal Israel, Pat Proft, Peter Torokvei d Martha Coolidge ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Thomas Newman pd Josan F. Russo ed Richard Chew ☆ Val Kilmer, Gabe Jarret, Michelle Meyrink, William Atherton, Patti D'Arbanville, Robert Prescott

'Always outnumbered! Never outfought!'
'One of the most stunning dramas of love and courage ever brought to the screen!'

The Real Glory ★

US 1939 96m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

Soldiers of fortune help the American Army to quell a terrorist uprising in the Philippines just after the Spanish-American War.
Well made Gunga Dinnery.
w Jo Swerling, Robert R. Presnell d Henry Hathaway ph Rudolph Maté m Alfred Newman ad James Basevi
☆ Gary Cooper, David Niven, Broderick Crawford, Andrea Leeds, Reginald Owen, Kay Johnson, Russell Hicks, Vladimir Sokoloff

'Moro uprisings, guerrilla warfare, cholera epidemics, and fancy exhibitions of inhuman cruelty are the frame against which an innocuous melodramatic yarn is told.' – Variety
'The same sort of picture as Gunga Din.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'Recommended to adolescents of all ages.' – New Statesman
'In times like these, we question the wisdom of rattling the bones in Yankee imperialism's closet.' – Daily Worker

The Real Howard Spitz ★

GB/Canada 1997 101m colour
The Mob/Metrodome/Images/TMN (Paul Brooks, Christopher Zimmer)

A child-hating author finds success when he writes a book about a cow detective with the aid of a young girl in search of her father.
Pleasant children's film with a light, comic touch.
w Jurgen Wolff d Vadim Jean ph Glen Macpherson m David A. Hughes, John Murphy pd Chris Townsend ed Pia Di Ciaula
☆ Kelsey Grammer, Amanda Donohoe, Joseph Rutten, Patrick McKenna, Genevieve Tessier, Kay Tremblay

'A worthy small-scale alternative to summer heavyweights.' – Empire

Real Life ★

US 1979 99m colour
Paramount (Penelope Spheeris)

A self-centred film-maker moves in with an average family in order to make a documentary about them.
Clever satire on a certain style of television programme, but the joke is over-stretched.
w Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson, Harry Shearer d Albert Brooks ph Eric Saarinen m Mort Lindsay ad Linda Marder, Linda Spheeris ed David Finfer
☆ Albert Brooks, Charles Grodin, Frances Lee McCain, J. A. Preston, Matthew Tobin, Jennings Lang

Real Life

GB 1983 92m colour
Entertainment/The Real Life Partnership (Mike Dinseen)

An estate agent's assistant with a vivid imagination becomes involved in thefts.
Clumsy, witless comedy which quickly bores.
w Francis Megahy, Bernie Cooper d Francis Megahy ph Peter Jessop m David Mindel pd John White ed Peter Delfgou
☆ Rupert Everett, Cristina Raines, Norman Beaton, Warren Clarke, Isla Blair, James Faulkner

'Try as one may to look sympathetically on this brand of independent British venture, the resolute lack of wit or style wipes the indulgent smile from one's lips early on, and it never returns.' – Guardian

'She's the only one who can break into a bank that holds $18m, but it's not for the money.'

The Real McCoy

US 1993 101m Technicolor
Capella (Martin Bregman, Willi Baer, Michael S. Bregman)

A reluctant cat burglar is forced to rob a bank by a gangster who kidnaps her young son.
There is nothing original here, merely a competent director and cast going through familiar routines with moderate enthusiasm.
w William Davies, William Osborne d Russell Mulcahy ph Denis Crossan m Brad Fiedel pd Kim Colefax ed Peter Honess
☆ Kim Basinger, Val Kilmer, Terence Stamp, Gailard Sartain, Zach English, Raynor Scheine

'Provides scant suspense, and the final bank job doesn't blaze any trails for anyone who's seen caper movies. Similarly, the payoff may satisfy the undemanding, but most viewers will have seen it coming a mile off.' – Variety

Real Men

US 1987 96m Metrocolor
United Artists (Martin Bregman)

An unpredictable CIA agent recruits a timid insurance clerk to deliver a message to friendly aliens while rival agents attempt to kill them both.
Dim though frenetic comedy that provides nothing but tedium.
wd Dennis Feldman ph John A. Alonzo m Miles Goodman ad William J. Cassidy, James Allen ed Malcolm Campbell, Glenn Farr
☆ James Belushi, John Ritter, Barbara Barrie, Bill Morey, Isa Andersen, Gale Barle, Mark Herrier

'Real women take chances, have flaws, embrace life...'

Real Women Have Curves ★

US 2002 93m colour
Optimum/HBO (George LaVoo, Effie T. Brown)

In Los Angeles, an 18-year-old Mexican-American girl has to choose between family pressure to get a job or following her dream of studying at Columbia University.
Some attractive performances grace an otherwise mundane domestic drama, the outcome of which is never in doubt.
w George LaVoo, Josefina Lopez play Josefina Lopez d Patricia Cardoso ph Jim Denault m Emma Garcia De Mantilla pd Brigitte Broch ed Sloane Klevin ☆ America Ferrera (Ana), Lupe Ontiveros (Carmen), Ingrid Oliu (Estela), George Lopez (Mr Guzman), Brian Sites (Jimmy)

'Effervescent and satisfying, a crowd pleaser that does not condescend.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'A Comedy About Love In The '90s.'

Reality Bites ★

US 1994 99m colour
Universal/Jersey (Danny DeVito, Michael Shamberg)

Four friends, newly graduated, try to survive in the real world in Houston; one makes a video documentary of their lives and becomes emotionally involved with another, an articulate rock musician, and with an ambitious TV executive.
Up-to-the-minute details of life among the recently 20, but so timely in its references it already seems old-fashioned; its love story is very familiar, though it may seem new to the recently adult.
w Helen Childress d Ben Stiller ph Emmanuel Lubezki m Karl Wallinger pd Sharon Seymour ed Lisa Churgin ☆ Winona Ryder, Ethan Hawke, Ben Stiller, Janeane Garofalo, Steve Zahn, Swoosie Kurtz, Joe Don Baker, John Mahoney, Harry O'Reilly, Barry Sherman

'Patchy stuff at the best of times and irritatingly off-the-wall at its worst. Reality only occasionally bites, and then with none too sharp teeth.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'The old, old love triangle tangle, dressed by Gap and styled by MTV.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

'Man against terrifying monster – in the most spectacular underwater scenes ever filmed!'

Reap the Wild Wind ★★

US 1942 124m Technicolor
Paramount/Cecil B. de Mille

Seafaring salvage engineers fight over a Southern belle.
Georgia-set period adventure; intended as another Gone with the Wind, it simply doesn't have the necessary, but on its level it entertains solidly, climaxing with the famous giant squid fight.
w Alan le May, Jesse Lasky Jnr, Charles Bennett d Cecil B. de Mille ph Victor Milner, Dewey Wrigley, William V. Skall m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Roland Anderson
☆ Ray Milland, John Wayne, Paulette Goddard, Raymond Massey, Robert Preston, Lynne Overman, Susan Hayward, Charles Bickford, Walter Hampden, Louise Beavers, Martha O'Driscoll, Hedda Hopper

'The essence of all his experience, the apogee of all his art, and as jamfull a motion picture as has ever played two hours upon a screen.' – Howard Barnes, New York Herald Tribune

† The underwater scenes were filmed in the Santa Monica Pan Pacific Marine Museum, which had a pool 100 feet long and 50 feet wide. The 50-foot giant squid was operated by a 24-button electronic keyboard photography; art direction

'What hath God wrought?'

The Reaping ★ (2)

US/Australia 2007 99m
Warner Bros./Dark Castle Entertainment (Robert Zemeckis, Joel Silver, Susan L. Levin, Herb Gains)

A non-believer searches for rational scientific explanations when a bayou backwater community starts suffering the ten Old Testament plagues.
A visually superior Satanist shocker building mioody atmosphere until it reveals its recycled debts to older faith-based classic horrors. All creepy menace is then lost in a pile-up of bog-standard scares, dream-versus-reality clichés and plagiaristic confusion.
w Carey Hayes, Chad Hayes, Brian Rousso d Stephen Hopkins ph Peter Levy m John Frizzell pd Graham 'Grace' Walker ad Scott Ritenour ed Colby Parker Jr sp KNB EFX Group
☆ Hilary Swank (Katherine Winter), David Morrissey (Doug), Idris Elba (Ben), AnnaSophia Robb (Loren McConnell), Stephen Rea (Father Costigan), William Ragsdale (Sheriff Cade)

'Revisiting the book of Exodus in a feverish Southern-gothic context, this lurid, often ludicrously entertaining slab of Biblesploitation builds an earnest case for spirituality in a sceptical age.' – Justin Chang, Variety

Rear Window ★★★★

US 1954 112m Technicolor
Paramount/Alfred Hitchcock

A news photographer, confined to his room by a broken leg, sees a murder committed in a room on the other side of the court.
Artificial but gripping suspenser of an unusual kind; with such restricted settings, all depends on the script and the acting, and they generally come up trumps.
w John Michael Hayes novel Cornell Woolrich d Alfred Hitchcock ph Robert Burks m Franz Waxman ad Joseph MacMillan Johnson, Hal Pereira ed George Tomasini
☆ James Stewart (L.B. "Jeff" Jeffries), Grace Kelly (Lisa Carol Fremont), Raymond Burr (Lars Thorwald), Judith Evelyn (Miss Lonely Hearts), Wendell Corey (Det. Thomas J. Doyle), Thelma Ritter (Stella)

John Michael Hayes; Alfred Hitchcock; Robert Burks

A Reason to Live, a Reason to Die (dubbed)

Italy/France/Spain 1972 96m colour Scope
K-Tel/Sancrosiap-Terza/Europrodis/Atlantida/Corona (Michael Billingsley)

original title: Una Ragione per Vivere e Una per Morire

In the American Civil War, a Union colonel recruits seven desperadoes, all due to be executed, for a daring raid to recapture a Confederate fort.

An unexciting cut-rate variation on The Dirty Dozen.

w Tonino Valerii, Ernesto Gastaldi d Tonino Valerii ph Alejandro Ulloa m Riz Ortolani ed Franklin Boll

☆ James Coburn, Telly Savalas, Bud Spencer (Carlo Pedersoli), Ralph Goodwin, Joseph Mitchell, Robert Burton, William Spofford

'A colourless, perfunctory gloss on a text that the director and scriptwriters might assume their audiences to know by heart.' – MFB

† The film was cut to 91m on its British release.

A Reasonable Man ★

South Africa/France 1999 103m colour
Pandora/Moviworld/AME/M-Net (Paul Raleigh, Gavin Hood)

A white lawyer is forced to reconsider his values when he defends a Zulu herd-boy who killed a baby that he thought was an evil spirit..

Effective courtroom drama, though it raises more questions than it answers.

wd Gavin Hood ph Buster Reynolds m Neill Solomon pd Robert Van der Coolwijk ed Avril Beukes

☆ Gavin Hood (Sean Raine), Nigel Hawthorne (Judge Wendon), Janine Eser (Jennifer Raine), Nandi Nyembe (Sangoma Rachel Ndlovu), Ian Roberts (Chris Van Rooyen), Vusi Kunen (Prosecutor Linde), Ken Gampu (Headman), Graham Hopkins (Professor MacKenzie), Loyiso Gxwala (Sipho)

'The shadow of this woman darkened their love.'

Rebecca ★★★

US 1940 130m bw
David O. Selznick

The naïve young second wife of a Cornish landowner is haunted by the image of his glamorous first wife Rebecca.

The supreme Hollywood entertainment package, set in Monte Carlo and Cornwall, with generous helpings of romance, comedy, suspense, melodrama and mystery, all indulged in by strongly-drawn characters, and directed by the English wizard from a novel which sold millions of copies. It really couldn't miss, and it didn't.

w Robert E. Sherwood, Joan Harrison novel Daphne du Maurier d Alfred Hitchcock ph George Barnes m Franz Waxman ad Lyle Wheeler ed Hal C. Kern

☆ Laurence Olivier (Maxim de Winter), Joan Fontaine (Mrs. de Winter), George Sanders (Jack Favell), Judith Anderson (Mrs. Danvers), Nigel Bruce (Maj. Giles Lacy), Gladys Cooper (Beatrice Lacy), Florence Bates (Mrs. Van Hopper), Reginald Denny (Frank Crawley), C. Aubrey Smith (Col. Julyan), Melville Cooper (Coroner), Leo G. Carroll (Dr. Baker), Leonard Carey (Ben)

NARRATOR: 'Last night I dreamed I went to Manderley again...'

FAVELL (GEORGE SANDERS) TO MRS DE WINTER: 'I say, marriage with Max is not exactly a bed of roses, is it?'

MRS DANVERS (JUDITH ANDERSON): 'You're overwrought, madam. I've opened a window for you. A little air will do you good. Why don't you go? Why don't you leave Manderley? He doesn't need you. He's got his memories. He doesn't love you – he wants to be alone again with her. You've nothing to stay for. You've nothing to live for, have you, really? Look down there. It's easy, isn't it? Why don't you? Go on, go on. Don't be afraid...'

MAXIM (LAURENCE OLIVIER): 'You thought I loved Rebecca? You thought that? I hated her. Oh, I was carried away by her – enchanted by her, as everyone was – and when I was married, I was told I was the luckiest man in the world. She was so lovely, so accomplished, so amusing. "She's got the three things that really matter in a wife," everyone said, "breeding, brains and beauty." And I believed them completely. But I never had a moment's happiness with her. She was incapable of love, or tenderness, or decency.'

'A carefully considered trying out of the superior technical resources now at Hitchcock's disposal.' – George Perry, 1965

'Hitchcock fans will have to put up with a surprising lack of the characteristic Hitchcock improvisations in the way of salty minor personages and humorous interludes, and satisfy themselves with a masterly exhibition of the Hitchcock skill in creating suspense and shock with his action and his camera.' – National Board of Review

'Riveting and painful – a tale of fear and guilt, class and power.' – Time Out, 1988

'Hitch kept me off balance, much to his own delight ... he would constantly tell me that no one thought I was very good except himself.' – Joan Fontaine

† Original casting thoughts, all rejected, were Ronald Colman, William Powell and Leslie Howard for Maxim; Anne Baxter, Margaret Sullavan, Loretta Young, Vivien Leigh and Olivia de Havilland (for the second Mrs de Winter).

†† A Region 1 two-disc DVD release includes commentary by film scholar Leonard J. Leff.

best picture; George Barnes script; Alfred Hitchcock; Franz Waxman; Laurence Olivier; Joan Fontaine; Judith Anderson; Lyle Wheeler; Hal C. Kern

Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm

US 1932 75m bw
Fox

A rural glad girl wins over her dour aunt and reforms an atheist.

Routine sound remake of the children's classic in a 1921 silent version in which Mary Pickford starred.

w S. N. Behrman, Sonya Levien novel Kate Douglas Wiggin and Charlotte Thompson d Alfred Santell

☆ Marian Nixon, Ralph Bellamy, Mae Marsh, Louise Closser Hale, Alan Hale, Charlotte Henry

Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm

US 1938 80m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

A child performer becomes a pawn in the fight to exploit her talents on radio.

Unrecognizable revamping of a famous story makes a very thin star vehicle.

w Karl Tunberg, Don Ettlinger novel Kate Douglas Wiggin and Charlotte Thompson d Allan Dwan ph Arthur Miller m Arthur Lange songs various

☆ Shirley Temple, Randolph Scott, Jack Haley, Gloria Stuart, Phyllis Brooks, Helen Westley, Slim Summerville, Bill Robinson

'More fitting title would be Rebecca of Radio City ... a weak story, indifferently directed and acted.' – Variety

Rebecca's Daughters ★

GB/Germany 1991 97m colour
Mayfair/Palace/Rebecca's Daughters/Astralma Erste Filmproduktions/Delta/BBC Wales/British Screen (Chris Sievernich)

In the 19th century, Welsh farmers form gangs dressed in women's clothes to protest against unfair toll-gate charges imposed by the local aristocracy.

Ramshackle caper, ripely performed and occasionally amusing.

w Guy Jenkin, Karl Francis story based on a screenplay by Dylan Thomas d Karl Francis ph Russ Walker m Rachel Portman pd Ray Price ed Roy Sharman

☆ Peter O'Toole, Paul Rhys, Joely Richardson, Keith Allen, Simon Dormandy, Dafydd Hywel, Sue Roderick

'An irresistible period romp.' – Variety

The Rebel ★

GB 1960 105m Technicolor
Associated British (W. A. Whitaker)

US title: Call Me Genius

A suburban businessman goes to Paris to become an artist.

A kind of farcical The Moon and Sixpence, insufficiently well tailored to the requirements of a very specialized comic, but occasionally diverting none the less.

w Alan Simpson, Ray Galton d Robert Day ph Gilbert Taylor m Frank Cordell

☆ Tony Hancock, George Sanders, Paul Massie, Margit Saad, Grégoire Aslan, Dennis Price, Irene Handl, Mervyn Johns, Peter Bull, John Le Mesurier, Nanette Newman, Oliver Reed, John Wood

'The more prosaic the setting, the funnier Hancock seems; transplanted into a conventionally silly screen art world, he is submerged among the other grotesques.' – Penelope Houston

Rebel

Australia 1985 89m colour
Village Roadshow (Phillip Emanuel)

In wartime Sydney, a singer shelters a deserter from the US Marines.

Dim romance, punctuated by some dull song and dance routines.

w Michael Jenkins, Bob Herbert play No Names, No Pack Drill by Bob Herbert d Michael Jenkins ph Peter James m Chris Neal m/ly Peter Best pd Brian Thomson ed Michael Honey

☆ Matt Dillon, Debbie Byrne, Bryan Brown, Bill Hunter, Ray Barrett, Julie Nihill

Rebel in Town

US 1956 78m bw
Bel Air/UA

A bank robber accidentally kills a small boy and is hunted down by the father.

Surprisingly stark Western with no particular merit.

w Danny Arnold d Alfred Werker ph Gordon Avil m Les Baxter

☆ John Payne, John Smith, Ruth Roman, J. Carrol Naish, Ben Cooper

The Rebel Nun: see Flavia the Heretic

Rebel Rousers

US 1969 78m colour
Paragon International (Martin B. Cohen)

An architect and his pregnant lover are terrorized by a gang of bikers in a small Arizona town.

Typical low-budget biker movie, lacking any originality but peopled by actors who went on to better films later.

w Abe Polsky, Michael Kars, Martin B. Cohen d Martin B. Cohen ph Leslie Kouvacs, Glen Smith m William Loose ed Thor Brooks

☆ Cameron Mitchell, Diane Ladd, Bruce Dern, Jack Nicholson, Harry Dean Stanton, Neil Burstyn, Lou Procopo, Earl Finn, Phil Carey

'The bad boy from a good family!'

Rebel without a Cause ★★★

US 1955 111m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner (David Weisbart)

The adolescent son of a well-to-do family gets into trouble with other kids and the police.

The first film to suggest that juvenile violence is not necessarily bred in the slums, this melodrama also catapulted James Dean to stardom as the prototype fifties rebel.

w Stewart Stern story Nicholas Ray d Nicholas Ray ph Ernest Haller m Leonard Rosenman ad Malcolm Bert ed William Ziegler

☆ James Dean (Jim), Natalie Wood (Judy), Jim Backus (Jim's Father), Sal Mineo (Plato), Ann Doran (Jim's Mother), Dennis Hopper (Goon)

original story (Nicholas Ray); Natalie Wood; Sal Mineo

Rebound

US 1931 88m bw
RKO-Pathe

A woman tries to forgive her husband when he is jilted by a girlfriend.

A sophisticated stage comedy presented with the minimum of alteration.

w Horace Jackson play Donald Ogden Stewart d Edward H. Griffith

☆ Ina Claire, Robert Williams, Robert Ames, Myrna Loy, Hedda Hopper, Louise Closser Hale

'A splendidly made picture which will delight smart audiences.' – Variety

'Saving The World One Playground At A Time.'

Recess: School's Out

US 2000 83m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Disney (Paul Germain, Joe Ansolabehere, Stephen Swofford)

School kids foil a plan to make it winter all year long.

Based on a TV show that Britain is thankfully spared, this is a dull story, simply animated and unlikely to keep the restive young quiet for more than a few minutes.

w Jonathan Greenberg story Joe Ansolabehere, Paul Germain, Greenberg d Chuck Sheetz m Denis M. Hannigan ad Eric Keyes ed Nancy Frazen, Tony Mizgalski

☆ voices of: Rickey D'Shon Collins, Jason Davis, Ashley Johnson, Andy Lawrence, Courtland Mead, Pam Segall, Dabney Coleman, Robert Goulet, James Woods

'The animation is remedial; the script lacks pep.' – Guardian

'The biggest musical show of the century, with a throbbing love story as exciting as its title!'

Reckless

US 1935 96m bw
MGM (David O. Selznick)

A theatrical agent loves the glamorous star he represents, but she marries a drunken millionaire.
Remarkably flat backstage melodrama with music, based on the life of Libby Holman.
w P. J. Wolfson d Victor Fleming ph George Folsey md Edward Ward songs various ☆ Jean Harlow, William Powell, Franchot Tone, May Robson, Ted Healy, Nat Pendleton, Rosalind Russell, Henry Stephenson

'Several sets of dramatic premises are established and then permitted to wander aimlessly, making the 93 minutes seem much longer than that.' – Variety

Reckless Kelly

Australia 1993 94m Eastmancolor Panavision
Warner/Yahoo Serious

A modern Ned Kelly battles to save his home from bankers and greedy developers.
A rambling but enjoyable anti-British comedy.
w Yahoo Serious, David Roach, Warwick Ross, Lulu Serious d Yahoo Serious ph Kevin Hayward m Tommy Tycho ed David Roach, Robert Gibson, Antony Gray
☆ Yahoo Serious (Ned Kelly), Melora Hardin, Alexei Sayle, Hugo Weaving, Tracy Mann, Kathleen Freeman

'Full of ideas and nonsense but short on genuine laughs and zest.' – Variety
† The British video release ran for 76m.

The Reckless Moment ★

US 1949 82m bw
Columbia (Walter Wanger)

A woman accidentally kills her daughter's would-be seducer, and is then trailed by a blackmailer.
Uninteresting melodrama electrified by Ophuls's direction, which might have been applied to something more worthwhile.
w Henry Garson, R. W. Soderborg novel The Blank Wall by Elizabeth Sanxay Holding d Max Ophüls ph Burnett Guffey m Hans Salter md Morris Stoloff
☆ Joan Bennett, James Mason, Geraldine Brooks, Henry O'Neill, Shepperd Strudwick

'Swift, sure narrative and solidly pleasurable detail.' – Richard Winnington
† It was remade in 2001 as The Deep End (qv).

The Reckoning ★★

GB 1969 108m Technicolor
Columbia/Ronald Shedlo (Hugh Perceval)

A tough London executive with a Liverpool-Irish background has a brutal streak and a self-destructive urge, but goes on narrowly averting misfortune.
Interesting melodrama of a man disgusted with both bourgeois and working-class values; slickly made and fast-moving.
w John McGrath novel The Harp That Once by Patrick Hall d Jack Gold ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Malcolm Arnold ☆ Nicol Williamson, Rachel Roberts, Paul Rogers, Zena Walker, Ann Bell, Gwen Nelson, J. G. Devlin

'The truth shall come to light.'

The Reckoning

US/Spain 2001 110m DeLuxe
Renaissance/Kanzaman/MDA (Caroline Wood)

In 14th-century Britain, a runaway priest and a group of travelling players help solve a murder by staging a play about it.
A medieval mystery movie that makes high claims for the power of art that it cannot live up to.
w Mark Mills novel Morality Play by Barry Unsworth d Paul McGuigan ph Peter Sova m Mark Mancina, Adrian Lee pd Andrew McAlpine ed Andrew Hulme
☆ Paul Bettany (Nicholas), Willem Dafoe (Martin), Brian Cox (Tobias), Gina McKee (Sarah), Ewen Bremner (Simon Damian), Vincent Cassel (Lord De Guise), Elvira Minguez (Martha)

'Like watching the Royal Court on Stone Age wheels.' – James Christopher, Times

Recollections of the Yellow House

Portugal 1989 119m colour
Invicta (João Pedro Bénard, Joaquim Pinto) original title: Recordacões da Casa Amarela
Life in a Lisbon boarding house, where a middle-aged voyeur and fetishist goes slowly mad.
Despite its billing as 'a Portugeuse comedy', a drawn-out, downbeat movie that strives too hard for significance.
wd João César Monteiro ph José Antonio Loureiro m Schubert, Vivaldi ad Luis Monteiro ed Helena Alvez, Claudio Martinez
☆ Manuela de Freitas, João César Monteiro, Sabina Sacchi, Teresa Calado, Ruy Furtado, Henrique Viana, Luis Miguel Cintra

Record of a Tenement Gentleman ★★

Japan 1947 72m bw
Shochiku

original title: Nagaya Shinshiroku
A widow reluctantly takes care of a homeless boy, whom she gradually comes to love while trying to find his father.
A film old-fashioned in style though, at the time, up-to-date in dealing with the struggle for survival in the aftermath of Japan's defeat in World War II; its portrait of a woman becoming unselfishly open to new possibilities is a moving one.
w Yasujiro Ozu, Tadao Ikeda d Yasujiro Ozu ph Yuharu Atsuta m Ichiro Saito ad Tatsuo Hamada ed Yoshi Sugihara
☆ Choko Iida (Otane), Hohi Aoki (Kohei), Eitarô Ozawa (Father), Mitsuko Yoshikawa (Kikuko), Sokichi Kawamura (Tamekichi), Hideko Mimura (Ukiko), Chishu Ryu (Tashiro)

Recordacões da Casa Amarela: see Recollections of the Yellow House

'Trust. Betrayal. Deception. In the C.I.A. nothing is what it seems.'

The Recruit ★

US 2003 115m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Spyglass (Roger Birnbaum, Jeff Apple, Gary Barber)

A new undercover agent falls for a a female recruit and then is told by his mentor to investigate her for stealing a CIA computer virus.
Despite an oft repeated mantra 'nothing is what it seems', a half-alert audience will be ahead of the agents in working out the villain of this paranoid thriller that begins well before succumbing to the usual conspiracy theories.
w Roger Towne, Kurt Wimmer, Mitch Glazer d Roger Donaldson ph Stuart Dryburgh m Klaus Badelt pd Andrew McAlpine ed David Rosenbloom
☆ Al Pacino (Walter Burke), Colin Farrell (James Clayton), Bridget Moynahan (Layla), Gabriel Macht (Zack), Karl Pruner (Dennis Slayne), Eugene Lipinski (Husky Man)

'The whole picture may be hokey, but the first part is agreeably so, the second part not. At the very least, one comes away with a new appreciation of the difficulty of inter-office romance at the CIA.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Truly abysmal.' – Guardian

The Red Badge of Courage ★★

US 1951 69m bw
MGM (Gottfried Reinhardt)

A youth called up during the Civil War gets his first taste of battle.
Fresh, poetic, but dramatically unsatisfactory filming of a classic American novel. The story of its production is fascinatingly told in Picture, a book by Lillian Ross.
wd John Huston novel Stephen Crane ph Harold Rosson m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Audie Murphy, Bill Mauldin, Douglas Dick, Royal Dano, John Dierkes, Andy Devine, Arthur Hunnicutt

Red Ball Express

US 1952 83m bw
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)

A supply column runs from the Normandy beachhead to Patton's army on the outskirts of Paris.
Standard war adventure, not too convincingly mounted but providing the usual excitements.
w John Michael Hayes d Budd Boetticher ph Maury Gertsman
☆ Jeff Chandler, Sidney Poitier, Alex Nicol, Judith Braun, Hugh O'Brian, Jack Kelly, Jack Warden

The Red Balloon ★★★★

France 1955 34m Technicolor
Films Montsouris

A lonely boy finds a balloon which becomes his constant companion and finally lifts him to the skies.
Absorbing and quite perfectly timed fantasy, one of the great film shorts.
wd Albert Lamorisse ph Edmond Sechan m Maurice Le Roux ed Pierre Gillette ☆ Pascal Lamorisse (Pascal)
best original screenplay

The Red Baron: see Von Richthofen and Brown

Red Beard ★

Japan 1965 165m bw Tohoscope
Toho-Kurosawa

original title: Akahige
Problems of a 19th-century doctor. Almost a Japanese version of The Citadel: Kurosawa himself called it 'a monument to goodness in man'.
Rather heavy-going, but sporadically compelling.
w Masato Ide, Hideo Oguni, Akira Kurosawa novel Shugoro Yamamoto d Akira Kurosawa ph A. Nakai, T. Saito m M. Sato
☆ Toshiro Mifune, Yuzo Kayama

'A three-hour excursion into nineteenth-century hospital soap opera; a mediocre enough script, but beautifully directed and flawlessly acted.' – John Simon

The Red Beret

GB 1953 88m Technicolor
Warwick (Irving Allen, Albert R. Broccoli)
US title: Paratrooper
In 1940, an American with a guilt complex joins the British paratroopers.
Routine war action flagwaver; good battle scenes, rubbish in between.
w Richard Maibaum, Frank Nugent book Hilary St George Saunders screen adaptation Sy Bartlett d Terence Young ph John Wilcox m John Addison md Muir Mathieson ad Edward Carrick ed Gordon Pilkington cos Julie Harris ☆ Alan Ladd (Canada), Susan Stephen (Penny Gardner), Leo Genn (Major Snow), Harry Andrews (RSM), Donald Houston (Taffy), Anthony Bushell (General Whiting), Patric Doonan (Flash), Stanley Baker (Breton), Lana Morris (Pinky), Tim Turner (Rupert), Michael Kelly (Dawes), Anton Diffring (The Pole), Thomas Heathcote (Alf), Carl Duering (Rossi), Harry Locke (Medical Orderly) and also Michael Balfour (American Sergeant)

Red Canyon

US 1949 82m Technicolor
Universal (Leonard Goldstein)
A cowboy drifter sets out to corral a famous wild stallion.
Old-fashioned family Western.
w Maurice Geraghty novel Zane Grey d George Sherman ph Irving Glassberg m Walter Scharf
☆ Howard Duff, George Brent, Ann Blyth, Edgar Buchanan, John McIntire, Chill Wills, Jane Darwell, Lloyd Bridges

The Red Circle (dubbed) ★★★

France/Italy 1970 102m colour
Corona (Robert Dorfmann)

original title: Le Cercle Rouge
An ex-convict teams up with a criminal on the run and a former police marksman to steal jewels from a shop equipped with a high-tech security system.
Dark, grim thriller with downbeat ending, enlivened by the central set-piece of the robbery itself.
wd Jean-Pierre Melville ph Henri Decae m Eric de Marsan ad Theo Meurisse ed Marie-Sophie Dubus
☆ Alain Delon (Corey), André Bourvil (Le Commissaire Mattei), Gian-Maria Volonte (Vogel), Yves Montand (Jansen), Paul Crauchet (Le Receleur), François Périer (Santi)
† A restored version running for 140m was released in 2003.

Red Corner ②

US 1997 122m DeLuxe
MGM (Jon Avnet, Jordan Kerner, Charles B. Mulvehill, Rosalie Swedlin)

While trying to set up a television satellite deal in China, an American lawyer is framed for murder.
Unconvincing mix of courtroom thriller and action-man antics, despite its footage secretly shot in Beijing.
w Robert King d Jon Avnet ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m Thomas Newman pd Richard Sylbert ed Peter E. Berger
☆ Richard Gere, Bai Ling, Bradley Whitford, Byron Mann, Peter Donat, Robert Stanton, Tsai Chin, James Hong

'A ludicrous but humourless anti-Chinese diatribe thriller ... self important tosh.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

The Red Danube

US 1950 119m bw
MGM (Carey Wilson)

In occupied Vienna, citizens are being returned to Russia against their will.

Tedious and silly Red-baiting cold war charade.

w Gina Kaus, Arthur Wimperis novel Vespers in Vienna by Bryan Marshall d George Sidney ph Charles Rosher m Miklos Rozsa ad Cedric Gibbons, Hans Peters

☆ Ethel Barrymore, Walter Pidgeon, Janet Leigh, Peter Lawford, Francis L. Sullivan, Angela Lansbury, Louis Calhern, Melville Cooper

art direction

'In our time, no foreign army has ever occupied American soil. Until now.'

Red Dawn

US 1984 114m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/Valkyrie (Buzz Feitshans, Barry Beckerman)

Russians lead a violent invasion into Colorado and are wiped out by the locals.

Ludicrous and somewhat dangerous Cold War throwback with little entertainment value to commend it. Violent teenage nonsense.

w Kevin Reynolds, John Milius d John Milius ph Ric Waite m Basil Poledouris pd Jackson de Govia ed Thom Noble

☆ Patrick Swayze, C. Thomas Howell, Lea Thompson, Charlie Sheen, Darren Dalton, Jennifer Grey, Ben Johnson, Harry Dean Stanton, Ron O'Neal, Vladek Sheybal, Powers Boothe

The Red Desert ★

Italy/France 1964 116m Eastmancolor
Duemila/Federiz (Angelo Rizzoli)

original title: Il Deserto Rosso

A wife suffers from depression, and a brief affair with her husband's friend doesn't help.

Elongated character study, very talkative but rather decoratively designed with the same subtle use of colour in an urban landscape as was seen later in Blow Up.

w Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra d Michelangelo Antonioni ph Carlo di Palma m Giovanni Chionetti

☆ Monica Vitti, Richard Harris, Carlos Chionetti

'The beauty is stationary, painterly; and the arresting image precisely arrests and retards the already moribund thrust of the film.' – John Simon

'Boredom in Ravenna, and it seeps into the viewer's bones.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker, 1984

'Before the Silence, there was the Dragon.'

Red Dragon ★

US/Germany 2002 124m DeLuxe
Panavision
Universal/MGM (Dino De Laurentiis, Martha De Laurentiis)

An FBI agent seeks the help of a imprisoned murderer, a former psychiatrist, to help him catch a serial killer.

A remake that didn't need to be made, other than as a source of profit and to allow Hopkins to perform his gustatory routine as Hannibal Lecter; it's slickly done, but might have been better left undone.

w Ted Tally novel Thomas Harris d Brett Ratner ph Dante Spinotti m Danny Elfman pd Kristi Zea ed Mark Helfrich

☆ Anthony Hopkins (Hannibal Lecter), Edward Norton (Will Graham), Ralph Fiennes (Francis Dolarhyde), Harvey Keitel (Jack Crawford), Emily Watson (Reba McClane), Mary-Louise Parker (Molly Graham), Philip Seymour Hoffman (Freddy Lounds), Anthony Heald (Dr Chilton), Bill Duke (Police Chief)

'An intense, unnerving experience.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Red Dragon's formula is so risible and rote by now that the natural reaction to scenes of peril, torture, and suffering is flippant laughter.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice

† The novel was first filmed in 1986 as Manhunter (qv), directed by Michael Mann.

†† It took $93m at the US box-office.

'He treated her rough – and she loved it!'

Red Dust ★★★

US 1932 86m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

On a rubber plantation in Indo-China, the overseer is pursued by his engineer's bride but himself falls for a stranded prostitute.

Vigorous romantic melodrama with echoes of Rain; remade as Congo Maisie (1940) and Mogambo (1954).

w John Lee Mahin play Wilson Collison d Victor Fleming ph Harold Rosson

☆ Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Mary Astor, Gene Raymond, Donald Crisp, Tully Marshall, Forrester Harvey

'Lots of pash, sex and undress ... an exhib's delight and a cinch for fancy takings. Done so expertly it almost overcomes the basic script shortcomings.' – Variety

'Gable and Harlow have full play for their curiously similar sort of good-natured toughness.' – Time

† The Gable role was first announced for John Gilbert.

†† Scenes showing the shooting of Red Dust are included in Bombshell.

'Fear Takes Flight'

Red Eye ★★ 6

US 2005 85m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/Benderspink (Chris Bender, Marianne Maddalena)

On a night flight from Dallas to Miami, a woman is told by the man in the next seat that if she fails to help him kill a government minister, her father will be murdered.

Tense, exciting thriller that doesn't waste a second of its running time.

w Carl Ellsworth d Wes Craven ph Robert Yeoman m Marco Beltrami pd Bruce Alan Miller ed Stuart Levy, Patrick Lussier

☆ Rachel McAdams (Lisa Reisert), Cillian Murphy (Jackson Rippner), Brian Cox (Joe Reisert), Jayma Mays (Cynthia), Jack Scalia (Charles Keefe)

'The gripping, seat-clutching suspense in this baby will pin you to your seat.' – Peter Traeus, Rolling Stone

'An Explosive Love Story'

Red Firecracker, Green Firecracker ★★

China/Hong Kong 1993 115m colour
Electric/Yung/Xi'an Studio/Beijing Salon (Chan Chun-Keung, Yong Naiming)

original title: Paoda Shuang Deng

An artist begins an affair with a young woman who is also head of a thriving family business, making fireworks – but before he can marry her, he has to compete in a firework contest with a rival suitor.

An enjoyably exotic story of romance and thwarted love, colourful and exciting and visually arresting.

w Da Ying novel Feng Jicai d He Ping ph Yang Lun m Zhao Jiping ad Qian Yunxiu ed Yuan Hong

☆ Ning Jing, Wu Gang, Zhao Xiaorui, Gao Yang, Xu Zhengyum, Zhao Liang

'A beguilingly mad tale of illicit passion and sacrifice.' – Lizzie Francke, Guardian

Red Garters ★★

US 1954 91m Technicolor
Paramount (Pat Duggan)

Various familiar types congregate in the Western town of Paradise Lost, and settle matters by the Code of the West.

Amusing Western musical spoof slightly deadened by its pretty but finally boring theatrically stylized scenery. Songs are catchy, performances good natured.

w Michael Fessier d George Marshall ph Arthur E. Arling m Joseph J. Lilley ad Hal Pereira, Roland Anderson songs Jay Livingston, Ray Evans

☆ Rosemary Clooney, Guy Mitchell, Gene Barry, Jack Carson, Pat Crowley, Cass Daley, Frank Faylen, Reginald Owen

'A musical of considerable freshness and gaiety.' – MFB

art direction

Red Headed Woman ★

US 1932 74m bw
MGM (Albert Lewin)

A shopgirl marries the boss but is rejected in his social circles.

Unconvincing but occasionally entertaining melodrama.

w Anita Loos novel Katharine Brush d Jack Conway ph Harold Rosson

☆ Jean Harlow, Chester Morris, Lewis Stone, Leila Hyams, Una Merkel, Henry Stephenson, Charles Boyer, May Robson

'Gingery treatment of a controversial subject that is bound to engage femme interest.' – Variety

Red Heat ★

US 1988 104m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Carolco/Lone Wolf/Oak (Walter Hill, Gordon Carroll)

A Russian and a Chicago cop team up against an international gang of drug smugglers.

Fast-moving action movie, but one that offers only a minor variation on the standard plot of ill-assorted partners.

w Harry Kleiner, Walter Hill, Troy Kennedy Martin d Walter Hill ph Matthew F. Leonetti pd John Vallone ed Freeman Davies, Carmel Davies, Donn Aron

☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, James Belushi, Peter Boyle, Ed O'Ross, Larry Fishburne, Gina Gershon, Richard Bright, J. W. Smith, Brent Jennings

The Red House ★

US 1947 100m bw
(UA) Thalia (Sol Lesser)

A moody farmer's guilty obsession with an old house in the woods is that he murdered his parents in it.

Psycho-like suspense melodrama, too extended for comfort and too restricting for the actors, but effective in spurts.

wd Delmer Daves novel George Agnew Chamberlain ph Bert Glennon m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Judith Anderson, Lon McCallister, Allene Roberts, Rory Calhoun, Julie London, Ona Munson

The Red Inn ★

France 1951 95m bw
Memnon

original title: L'Auberge Rouge

In 1833, stagecoach travellers stay at a remote inn, where the owners intend to rob and murder them.

Extreme black farce which manages to be pretty funny for those who can take this kind of thing: even the survivors of the night's massacre fall down a ravine.

w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost d Claude Autant-Lara ph André Bac m René Cloërc ad Max Douy

☆ Fernandel, Françoise Rosay, Carette, Grégoire Aslan

Red Kiss: see Rouge Baiser

The Red Light

US 1949 83m bw
UA/Pioneer (Roy Del Ruth)

An industrialist tracks down his brother's murderer.

Competent routine detection piece with engaging clues.

w George Callahan, Charles Grayson story This Guy Gideon by Donald Barry d Roy Del Ruth ph Bert Glennon m Dimitri Tiomkin ad F. Paul Syles ed Richard Heermance

☆ George Raft, Virginia Mayo, Raymond Burr, Gene Lockhart, Henry Morgan, Arthur Franz, Barton MacLane, Ken Murray

Red Lights ★★

France 2004 106m colour
Alicéléo/France 3/Gimages (Patrick Godeau)

original title: Feux Rouges

On a long journey to collect their children, a heavy-drinking husband and wife quarrel and separate with terrifying results.

Clever, creepy thriller of a man in the shadow of his more successful wife finding through violence a way from self-loathing to self-respect.

w Cédric Kahn, Laurence Ferreira-Barbosa, Gilles Marchand novel Georges Simenon d Cédric Kahn ph Patrick Blossier m Claude Debussy pd François Abelanet ed Yann Dedet

☆ Jean-Pierre Darroussin (Antoine), Carole Bouquet (Hélène), Vincent Deniard (Hitchhiker), Carline Paul (Waitress), Jean-Pierre Gos (Inspector)

'Captures the claustrophobic terror of an unstable driver and hostile passenger trapped in a speeding vehicle. It also conjures a primal dread of violence lurking in the night in strange territory.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Red Line 7000

US 1965 110m Technicolor
Paramount/Laurel (Howard Hawks)

The career and loves of a stock car racer.

Very routine romantic actioner full of the director's favourite situations but failing to find any fresh slant.

w George Kirgo d Howard Hawks ph Milton Krasner m Nelson Riddle

☆ James Caan, Laura Devon, Gail Hire, Charlene Holt, John Robert Crawford

'Vulgar, witless and outrageously ponderous.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'I just messed it up. It's as simple as that.' – Howard Hawks

Red Lips: see Sadisterotica

The Red Menace

US 1949 87m bw
Republic

GB title: The Enemy Within

A discontented war veteran is preyed on by communists.

An odd piece of anti-Red propaganda to come from an action studio, but it had some effect on thinking at the time.

w Albert DeMond, Gerald Geraghty d R. G. Springsteen ph John MacBurnie m Nathan Scott

☆ Robert Rockwell, Hanne Axman, Shepard Menken

'It waves the flag at the proper times and is an okay melodrama on other points.' – Variety

† The cast was deliberately chosen from unknowns.

Red Mountain

US 1951 84m Technicolor
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

A Confederate captain joins Quantrell's Raiders but is horrified by their brutality.

Fast-moving action Western.

w John Meredyth Lucas, George W. George, George F. Slavin d William Dieterle ph Charles Lang Jnr m Franz Waxman

☆ Alan Ladd, Lizabeth Scott, Arthur Kennedy, John Ireland, Jeff Corey, James Bell

'Not A Sound. Not A Warning. Not A Chance. Not Alone.'

Red Planet

US 2000 106m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV (Mark Canton, Bruce Berman, Jorge Saralegui)

In 2050, a small band of astronauts run into trouble after they land on Mars to prepare the planet for colonisation.

Dreary science-fiction, with the actors inhibited by their space-suits; nothing interesting happens very slowly.

w Chuck Pfarrer, Jonathan Lemkin d Antony Hoffman ph Peter Suschitzky m Graeme Revell pd Owen Paterson ed Robert K. Lambert, Dallas S. Puett

☆ Val Kilmer (Gallagher), Carrie-Anne Moss (Bowman), Tom Sizemore (Burchenal), Benjamin Bratt (Santen), Simon Baker (Pettengil), Terence Stamp (Chantilas)

'As dull and arid as a hike through the desert, which is essentially what the film documents.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'The World Torn Asunder By A Threat From Outer Space!'

Red Planet Mars

US 1952 87m bw
UA/Donald Hyde, Anthony Veiller

Americans and Russians both tune in to Mars and learn that it is a powerful Christian planet; the news causes first panic, then a religious revival and a determination to live more harmoniously on Earth.

Lunatic farrago that has to be seen to be believed.

w Anthony Veiller, John L. Balderston d Harry Horner ph Joseph Biroc m Mahlon Merrick md David Chudnow ad Charles D. Hall

☆ Herbert Berghof, Peter Graves, Andrea King, Marvin Miller

The Red Pony

US 1949 88m Technicolor
Republic (Lewis Milestone)

When his pet pony dies after an illness, a farmer's son loses faith in his father.

Sincere but rather obvious little fable which although capably made does not make inspiring film drama.

w John Steinbeck d Lewis Milestone ph Tony Gaudio m Aaron Copland pd Nicolai Remisoff

☆ Myrna Loy, Robert Mitchum, Peter Miles, Louis Calhern, Shepperd Strudwick, Margaret Hamilton

'Full of Hollywood clichés, murky motivations and standard Technicolor views.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

Red River ★★★

US 1948 133m bw
UA/Monterey (Howard Hawks)

How the Chisholm Trail was developed as a cattle drive.

Brawling Western, a bit serious and long drawn out but with splendid action sequences.

w Borden Chase, Charles Schnee d Howard Hawks ph Russell Harlan m Dimitri Tiomkin ad John Datu Arensma ed Christian Nyby

☆ John Wayne (Tom Dunson), Montgomery Clift (Matthew Garth), Joanne Dru (Tess Millay), Walter Brennan (Groot Nadine), Coleen Gray (Fen), John Ireland (Cherry Valance), Noah Beery Jnr (Buster McGee), Harry Carey Jnr (Dan Latimer)

† It was remade as a TV film in 1988, directed by Richard Michaels and starring James Arness, Bruce Boxleitner and Gregory Harrison.

original story (Borden Chase); editing

Red Road ★★ (8)

UK/Denmark 2006 113m
Verve/Zoma/Zentropa/BBC Films/Scottish Screen/Glasgow Film Office/UK Film Counci; (Carrie Comerford)

Jackie, a Glasgow woman who works as a CCTV operator, is shocked to see a man on camera who instigated a dreadful episode in her past. Obsessively, she tracks him down.

Grim, utterly uncompromising viewing – including a sex scene of remarkable explicitness that turns out to be crucial to the plot. The narrative, gripping and propulsive for much of the film, loses focus towards the end. But this ravaged inner-city quarter is shot with brilliance and honesty, and Arnold announces herself as a possible inheritor to Ken Loach's realist crown. In the lead role, deadpan Kate Dickie is mesmerising.

wd Andrea Arnold characters developed by Lone Scherfig, Anders Thomas Jensen ph Robbie Ryan pd Helen Scott ed Nicholas Chaudeurge

☆ Kate Dickie (Jackie), Tony Curran (Clyde), Martin Compston (Stevie), Natalie Press April

'A slow-burning but enticing thriller, it captures its working-class Glaswegian setting in absorbing detail.' – Anna Smith, Empire

'Sensual, dark in every sense, but a touch derivative, Red Road reps an impressive feature debut for.....Andrea Arnold.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

Most promising newcomer (Andrea Arnold)

'Death is a $10,000 Bullet.'

Red Rock West ★

US 1992 98m DeLuxe
Rank/Red Rock (Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Steve Golin)

A drifter who arrives in a small town is mistaken for a hitman and hired by both a husband and a wife to kill the other.

Enjoyable, blackly comic thriller with plenty of twists and turns.

w John Dahl, Rick Dahl d John Dahl ph Marc Reshovsky m William Olvis pd Robert Pearson ed Scott Chestnut

☆ Nicolas Cage, Lara Flynn Boyle, Dennis Hopper, J. T. Walsh, Craig Reay, Vance Johnson, Robert Apel

'Though it vaguely resembles a droll Buñuel construction, it owes more to the hard-boiled thrillers of the 1940s, albeit with a very large tongue-in-cheek quotient.' – Variety

'Very entertaining, doesn't detain you long, and has total confidence in its cinematic convictions.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Red Salute ★

US 1935 78m bw Reliance (Edward Small) aka: Runaway Daughter
GB title: Arms and the Girl

A college girl with communist leanings takes a cross country trip with an American soldier.

Odd little romantic comedy modelled on It Happened One Night; it was picketed for its inconsequential attitude to politics.

w Humphrey Pearson, Manuel Seff d Sidney Lanfield ph Robert Planck

☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Young, Hardie Albright, Cliff Edwards, Ruth Donnelly, Gordon Jones, Henry Kolker

'Tepid comedy romance wrapped up in a preachment against campus agitators who oppose militarism.' – Variety

Red Scorpion

US 1989 102m DeLuxe
Shapiro Glickenhaus (Jack Abramoff)

A Russian agent's assignment is to assassinate the leader of a group of African terrorists.

Incompetent action movie that staggers from one dull moment to another with a complete lack of conviction.

w Arne Olsen d Joseph Zito ph João Fernandes m Jay Chattaway pd Ladislav Wilheim ed Daniel Loewenthal sp John Evans; make-up: Tom Savini

☆ Dolph Lundgren, M. Emmet Walsh, Al White, T. P. McKenna, Carmen Argenziano, Alex Cohen, Brion James

Red Scorpion 2

US 1994 90m colour
August/Northwood (Robert Malcolm)

A government agent recruits an élite group of soliders to recover the legendary spear of destiny, which is in the possession of a neo-fascist businessman and his gang of violent skinheads.

Frenetic action film, drawing some of its inspiration from The Dirty Dozen, though it operates on a far lower level.

w Troy Bolotnick, Barry Victor d Michael Kennedy ph Curtis Petersen m George Blondheim pd Brent Thomas ed Gary Zubeck

☆ Matt McColm, John Savage, Jennifer Rubin, Michael Ironside, Michael Covert, Real Andrews, George Touliatos

'Contains almost non-stop fights, explosions, shooting and general mayhem, certainly enough to keep the action crowd moderately happy.' – Variety

'The Ninja Movie'

Red Shadow Akakage

Japan 2001 108m colour 'scope
Toei (Shigeyuki Endo, Toshio Zushi, Yutaka Okawa, Nobuyuki Tohya)

Three young ninjas, members of a shadowy clan that works in silence, rescue the princess that they are meant to assassinate.

A film that does for the ninja genre what Young Guns did for the Western, turning it into a teenage fantasy. Hiroyuki Nakano emphasises his background in music video by using a similar approach here, with an attractive cast in leather gear accompanied by rock music with meaningless camera flourishes and a narrative in which the young rebel against an older generation.

w Hiroshi Saito, Masatoshi Kimura story Mitsuteru Yokoyama d Hiroyuki Nakano ph Hideo Yamamoto m Toshiyuki Kishi, Tomoyasu Hotei action director Daisuke Nakata

☆ Masanobu Ando (Akakage), Megumi Okino (Koto-Hime), Jun Murakami (Aokage), Fumiya Fujii (Ranmaru), Shuuhei Mainoumi (Rickimaru), Kei Tani (Roushi)

† The Region 1 DVD from Media Blasters includes audio commentary by Hiroyuki Nakano, Kumiko Aso and Pierre Taki, and a second disc containing outtakes, features on the film's making.

The Red Shoes ★★★★

GB 1948 136m Technicolor
GFD/The Archers (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger)

A girl student becomes a great ballet star but commits suicide when torn between love and her career.

Never was a better film made from such a penny plain story so unpersuasively written and performed; the splendour of the production is in the intimate view it gives of life backstage in the ballet world with its larger-than-life characters. The ballet excerpts are very fine, and the colour discreet; the whole film is charged with excitement.

wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger ph Jack Cardiff m Brian Easdale pd Hein Heckroth ad Arthur Lawson, Hein Heckroth ed Reginald Mills

☆ Anton Walbrook (Boris Lermontov), Moira Shearer (Victoria Page), Marius Goring (Julian Craster), Robert Helpmann (Ivan Boleslawsky), Albert Basserman (Sergei Ratov), Frederick Ashton, Leonide Massine (Grischa Ljubov), Ludmilla Tcherina (Irina Boronskaja), Esmond Knight (Livy)

'In texture, like nothing the British cinema has ever seen.' – Time Out, 1981

Brian Easdale; Hein Heckroth

best picture; original story (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger); editing

The Red Siren

France 2002 115m colour
Haut & Court/StudioCanal/France 2 (Simon Arnal-Szlovak, Carole Scotta)

original title: La Sirène Rouge

After she accuses her rich and ruthless mother of murder, a 12-year-old girl goes on the run, and is helped by a guilt-ridden mercenary.

Ludicrously pretentious thriller, filmed in an over elaborate style that detracts from the action.

w Norman Spinrad, Robert Conrath, Alain Berliner, Olivier Megaton novel Maurice G. Dantec d Olivier Megaton ph Denis Rouden m Nicolas Bikialo pd Herve Leblanc ed Yann Herve

☆ Jean-Marc Barr (Hugo), Asia Argento (Anita), Frances Barber (Eva), Andrew Tiernan (Koesler), Alexandra Negrao (Alice), Edouard Montoute (Oliveira), Vernon Dobtcheff (Vitali)

'A genre piece bereft of pacing or any compelling raison d'etre.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

Red Skies of Montana

US 1952 99m Technicolor
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)
aka: Smoke Jumpers

Tension among firefighting crews in the mountains of Montana.

Adequate, routine action melodrama with semi-documentary touches.

w Harry Kleiner d Joseph M. Newman ph Charles G. Clarke m Sol Kaplan

☆ Richard Widmark, Jeffrey Hunter, Constance Smith, Richard Boone, Richard Crenna

'A man's desperation – a woman's passion – a boy's awakening – a girl's desire!'

Red Sky at Morning

US 1970 113m Technicolor
Universal/Hal Wallis

During World War II the family of an officer on active service find life in New Mexico not what they've been used to.

Peyton Place by any other name, well produced but of little real interest.

w Marguerite Roberts novel Richard Bradford d James Goldstone ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Billy Goldenberg

☆ Claire Bloom, Richard Thomas, Richard Crenna, Catherine Burns, Desi Arnaz Jnr, John Colicos, Harry Guardino

Red Sonja

US 1985 89m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/Thorn EMI (Christian Ferry)

In the times of sword and sorcery, Sonja avenges her sister's death and deposes an evil queen.

Absolute comic strip nonsense: even the monsters look mechanical.

w Clive Exton, George MacDonald Fraser stories Robert E. Howard d Richard Fleischer ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Ennio Morricone pd Danilo Donati ed Frank J. Urioste

☆ Brigitte Nielsen, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Sandahl Bergman, Paul Smith, Ronald Lacey

Red Sorghum ★★★

China 1987 92m Eastmancolor
Palace/Xi'an Film Studio (Li Changqing)

original title: Hong Gaoliang

A man recalls his grandparents' love affair and violent times.

Exuberant tragi-comic folk tale, told with immense panache.

w Chen Jianyu, Zhu Wei, Mo Yan d Zhang Yimou ph Gu Changwei m Zhao Jiping ad Yang Gang ed Du Yuan

☆ Gong Li (Nine, the Grandmother), Jiang Wen (Yu, the Grandfather), Teng Rujun (Luohan), Liu Ji (Their Son), Qian Ming, Ji Chunhua (Sanpao, the Bandit Chief), Zhai Chunhua

'A rough, proletarian belch of a film, a gleeful assertion of peasant vitality, founded on amoral (but fully justified) acts of transgression' – Tony Rayns, MFB

The Red Squirrel ★★

Spain 1993 114m colour
Sogetel (Ricardo Garcia Arrojo)

original title: La Ardilla Roja

A suicidal rock musician invents a new identity as her lover for a woman who crashes her motorcycle and, as a result, apparently loses her memory.

An intriguing playful comedy of identity and commitment, memory and imagination, directed with a light touch.

wd Julio Medem ph Gonzalo Fernandez Berridi m Alberto Iglesias ed Maria Elena Sainz de Rozas

☆ Emma Suarez, Nancho Novo, Maria Barranco, Karra Elejalde, Carmelo Gomez, Cristina Marcos, Monica Molina, Ana Gracia

'A pleasingly complex film – it's a love story, a mystery, a comedy – which is an unnerving, thought-provoking mix of the commonplace and the surreal, the sinister and the comic.' – Yvette Huddleston, Empire

Red Sun

France/Italy/Spain 1971 108m Eastmancolor
Corona/Oceania/Balcazar (Robert Dorfman)

In 1870 Arizona, an outlaw is forced to accompany a Japanese samurai to recover a ceremonial sword which his partner has stolen.

Unusual but generally ineffective Western with a fashionable international cast.

w Laird Koenig, D. B. Petitclerc, W. Roberts, L. Roman d Terence Young ph Henri Alekan m Maurice Jarre

☆ Charles Bronson, Toshiro Mifune, Alain Delon, Ursula Andress, Capucine

'A nice exotic item ruined by suburban direction.' – Sight and Sound

Red Sundown

US 1956 81m Technicolor
Universal-International (Albert Zugsmith)

A gunslinger becomes a deputy and tames a lawless town.

Elementary Western action piece, not unentertaining.

w Martin Berkeley story Black Trail by Lewis B. Patten d Jack Arnold ph William Snyder m Hans J. Salter

☆ Rory Calhoun, Martha Hyer, Dean Jagger, Robert Middleton, James Millican, Grant Williams

'Drug Dealing... Gang Warfare... Can Love Survive?'

Red Surf

US 1990 104m colour
Arrowhead/Greg H. Sims (Richard C. Weinman)

Two smalltime drug dealers run into trouble with the ruthless local gang boss.

Routine teen flick, aimed at an audience who may enjoy its barely competent mix of noise, sex, drugs and violence.

w Vincent Robert, H. Gordon Boos story Brian Gamble, Jason Hoffs d H. Gordon Boos ph John Schwartzman m Sasha Matson pd Lynda Burbank ed Dennis Dolan

☆ George Clooney (Remar), Doug Savant (Attila), Dedee Pfeiffer (Rebecca), Rick Najera (Calavera), Philip McKeon (True Blue), Gene Simmons (Doc)

'Who is killing the serial killers?'

Red Team

Canada 1999 90m colour
Flashpoint/Regent (Paul Colichman, Mark R. Harris)

video title: The Crimson Code

An FBI agent discovers that an elite team within the agency is killing serial killers instead of bringing them to trial.

Predictable by-the-numbers paranoid drama, short of thrills or suspense.

w Alex Metcalf d Jeremy Haft ph Ian Elkin m Ken Williams ad Gord Wilding ed Neila Benson

☆ Patrick Muldoon (Jason Chandler), Cathy Moriarty (Stephanie Dobson), C. Thomas Howell (J.B. Gaines), David Millbern (Reed), David Beecroft (Garcia), Tim Thomerson (William Heywood), Fred Ward (Randall Brooks)

The Red Tent ★

Italy/USSR 1970 121m Technicolor
Paramount/Vides/Mosfilm (Franco Cristaldi)

The story of General Nobile's ill-fated 1928 expedition by dirigible to the Arctic.

Stiffly-conceived international spectacular with one striking sequence but not much good cheer.

w Ennio de Concini, Richard Adams d Mikhail Kalatozov ph Leonid Kalashnikov m Ennio Morricone

☆ Peter Finch, Sean Connery, Hardy Kruger, Claudia Cardinale, Mario Adorf, Massimo Girotti

Red Tomahawk

US 1967 80m Technicolor
A. C. Lyles/Paramount

The small town of Deadwood is caught up in the aftermath of Little Big Horn.

Talkative Western filled with old faces, as is this producer's wont.

w Steve Fisher d R. G. Springsteen ph W. Wallace Kelley m Jimmie Haskell

☆ Howard Keel, Joan Caulfield, Broderick Crawford, Scott Brady, Wendell Corey, Richard Arlen, Tom Drake

The Red Violin ★

Canada/Italy 1998 130m colour
Film4/New Line/Téléfilm Canada/Rhombus Media/Mikado/Sidecar (Niv Fichman)

A violin, which was the last work of a master craftsman, travels through various hands until the present time, when it is the star attraction in an auction.

An episodic movie on the power of music that holds the interest for the most part, though a romantic and miscast interlude in England nearly ruins the pleasure it provides.

w Don McKellar, François Girard d François Girard ph Alain Dostie m John Corigliano pd François Séguin ed Gaëtan Huot

☆ Samuel L. Jackson, Don McKellar, Carlo Cecchi, Irene Grazioli, Jean-Luc Bideau, Christoph Koncz, Jason Flemyng, Greta Scacchi, Sylvia Chang, Liu Zi Feng, Colm Feore, Monique Mercure

'Fails on a number of counts, mostly because the individual stories aren't very gripping.' – David Stratton, Variety

♟ John Corigliano

Red Wagon

GB 1933 107m bw
BIP (Walter C. Mycroft)

Passions mount in a travelling circus. Gypsies and jealousies are the ingredients of a melodrama aimed at the international market.

It failed.

w Roger Burford, Edward Knoblock, Arthur Woods novel Lady Eleanor Smith d Paul Stein ph Jack Cox md Kurt Schroeder ed Leslie Norman

☆ Charles Bickford, Raquel Torres, Greta Nissen, Don Alvarado, Anthony Bushell, Paul Graetz, Jimmy Hanley, Frank Pettingell, Francis L. Sullivan

Redemption

US 1930 82m bw
MGM

A man thought dead commits suicide rather than interrupt his wife's new life.

Elaborate but unsuccessful talkie début of a waning star; very hard going.

w Dorothy Farnum, Edwin Justus Mayer novel The Living Corpse by Leo Tolstoy d Fred Niblo

☆ John Gilbert, Renee Adoree, Eleanor Boardman, Conrad Nagel

The Redhead: see Poil de Carotte

The Redhead from Wyoming

US 1953 81m Technicolor
Universal-International (Leonard Goldstein)

An ambitious businessman provokes a range war so that he can become governor of Wyoming and the state's biggest cattle-rustler.

Energetic drama, with the fiery O'Hara as a saloon-owner trying to keep the peace between warring factions; it is let down by the script's reliance on over-familiar situations.

w Polly James, Herb Meadow d Lee Sholem ph Winton Hoch md Joseph Gershenson ad Bernard Herzbrun, Hilyard Brown ed Milton Carruth cos Edward Stevens

☆ Maureen O'Hara (Kate Maxwell), Alex Nicol (Stan Blaine), William Bishop (Jim Averell), Robert Strauss ('Knuckles' Hogan), Alexander Scourby (Reece Duncan), Palmer Lee (Hal Jessup), Jack Kelly (Sandy), Jeanne Cooper (Myra), Dennis Weaver (Matt Jessup), Stacy Harris (Chet Jones)

Redneck

Italy/GB 1972 87m colour
Crawford/CIAC/Sterle (Michael Lester, Silvio Narizzano)

original title: Senza Ragione

Two crooks on the run steal a car and discover that it contains a teenage boy.

Dull chase film that wanders around the Italian countryside to little effect.

w Win Wells, Masolino D'Amico story Rafael Sanchez Campoy d Silvio Narizzano ph Giorgio Tonti m Maurizio Catalano ad Arrigo Equini ed Thom Noble

☆ Franco Nero, Telly Savalas, Mark Lester, Ely Galleani, Duilio Del Prete, Maria Michi

'Not since Gone with the Wind has there been a great romantic epic like it!'

Reds ★★★

US 1981 196m Technicolor
Paramount (Warren Beatty)

The last years of John Reed, an American writer who after stormy romantic vicissitudes goes with his wife to Russia and writes Ten Days That Shook the World.

Interminably long but full of quality, this immensely detailed work was a most unlikely project to succeed in the eighties, but its very strangeness enabled it to break even.

w Warren Beatty, Trevor Griffiths d Warren Beatty ph Vittorio Storaro m Stephen Sondheim pd Richard Sylbert ad Simon Holland ed Dede Allen, Craig McKay

☆ Warren Beatty (John Reed), Diane Keaton (Louise Bryant), Edward Herrmann (Max Eastman), Jerzy Kosinski (Grigory Zinoviev), Jack Nicholson (Eugene O'Neill), Maureen Stapleton (Emma Goldman), Paul Sorvino (Louis Fraina)

♟ Warren Beatty (as director); Vittorio

Storaro; Maureen Stapleton (supporting actress) best picture; screenplay; editing (Dede Allen, Craig McKay); Warren Beatty (as actor); Diane Keaton; Jack Nicholson best supporting actor (Jack Nicholson); best supporting actress (Maureen Stapleton)

Reducing

US 1931 73m bw
MGM
The proprietress of a beauty parlour sends for an old family servant to help her.
Loosely plotted comedy consisting largely of slapstick in a Turkish bath.
w Willard Mack, Beatrice Banyard
d Charles F. Reisner
☆ Marie Dressler, Polly Moran, Anita Page, Lucien Littlefield, Sally Eilers
'Rough and tumble hoke comedy addressed to the banana peel sense of humour.' – Variety

Reed – México Insurgente **

Mexico 1971 106m bw
Salvador Lopez/Ollin y Asociados
Reporting the Mexican revolution in 1913, American journalist John Reed learns to identify with the oppressed.
A low-key documentary-style account of Reed's conversion to political action, eschewing mock-heroics and enhanced by sepia photography.
wd Paul Leduc ph Alexis Grivas
☆ Claudio Obregón, Ernesto Gómez Cruz, Eduardo López Rojas, Juan Angel Martinez, Carlos Castañón

Reefer and the Model *

Ireland 1988 93m Technicolor
Metro/Berber Films (Lelia Doolan)
A former IRA man, his trawler-owning friends, and a pregnant girl he picks up, attempt a bank robbery to raise money.
Raffishly enjoyable thriller, though its attempt to explain the political context of modern Ireland lacks resonance.
wd Joe Comerford ph Breffni Byrne m Johnny Duhan pd John Lucas ed Sé Merry ☆ Ian McElhinney, Eve Watkinson, Carol Scanlan, Birdy Sweeney, Sean Lawlor, Ray McBride

The Reef ④

South Korea/US 2006 78m
Warner Bros/Digi Art/FX Digital/Wonderworld Studios (Mark A Z Dippe, Young-ki Lee, Ash R Shah)
US Title: Shark Bait
Korean Title: Pi Story
An orphaned fish learns to stand up for himself against a bullying shark and win the girl of his breams.
Derivative and unimaginative computer animation without even good-looking visuals to recommend it.
d Howard E Baker, John Fox
m Christopher Lennertz ed Tom Sanders ☆ Voice cast: Freddie Prinze Jr (Pi), Evan Rachel Wood (Cordelia), Rob Schneider (Nerissa), Donal Logue (Troy), John Rhys-Davies (Thornton), Fran Drescher (Pearl)
'Forget about scraping the bottom of the barrel, this is a case of dragging the ocean floor. The setting and story will be familiar to anyone who has seen Finding Nemo or Shark Tale.' – Wendy Ide, The Times

Reefer Madness

US 1936 67m bw
Motion Picture Ventures/G & H (George A. Hirliman) aka: The Burning Question
aka: Tell Your Children
Clean-cut kids tread the downward path to fast cars, sex and murder after smoking marijuana.
Direly made, low-budget, unsophisticated, sensational exposé that reveals much about attitudes of the period; as a film its value is nil, though the maniacal acting may provide some amusement.
w Arthur Hoerl, Paul Franklin story Lawrence Meade d Louis Gasnier ph Jack Greenhalgh md Abe Meyer
ad Robert Priestley ed Carl Pierson
☆ Dorothy Short, Kenneth Craig, Lillian Miles, Dave O'Brien, Thelma White, Carleton Young, Warren McCullom, Pat Royale, Joseph Royale
† The film opens with the foreword: 'The motion picture you are about to witness may startle you. It would not have been possible, otherwise, to sufficiently emphasize the frightful toll of the new drug menace which is destroying the youth of America in alarmingly-increasing numbers. Marihuana is that drug – a violent narcotic – an unspeakable scourge – The Real Public Enemy Number One! Its first effect is sudden, violent, uncontrollable laughter; then come dangerous hallucinations – space expands – time slows down, almost stands still ... fixed ideas come next, conjuring up monstrous extravagances – followed by emotional disturbances, the total inability to direct thoughts, the loss of all power to resist physical emotions ... leading finally to acts of shocking violence ... ending often in incurable insanity. In picturing its soul-destroying effects no attempt was made to equivocate. The scenes and incidents, while fictionalized for the purposes of this story, are based upon actual research into the results of Marihuana addiction. If their stark reality will make you think, will make you aware that something must be done to wipe out this ghastly menace, then the picture will not have failed in its purpose ... Because the dreaded Marihuana may be reaching forth next for your son or daughter ... or yours ... or YOURS!'

'Evil is in the air.'

Reeker * ⑥

US 2005 91m
Pathe/The Institution/Primal Pictures (Dave Payne, Amanda Klein, Tina Illman)
Five students stranded at a desert motel are preyed upon by a creature in a gas mask who emits a foul smell.
Within this genre, a smarter, more clever film than it first appears.
wd Dave Payne ph Michael Mickens
m Dave Payne pd Paul Greenstein ad Mara Spear ed Daniel Barone
sp Daniel Barone
☆ Devon Gummersall (Jack), Derek Richardson (Nelson), Tina Illman (Gretchen), Scott Whyte (Trip), Eric Mabius (Radford), Michael Ironside (Henry)
'There is a whiff of desperation about the contrived, predictable ending.' – Nigel Floyd, Time Out

'He took them hostage. They drove him crazy.'

The Ref

US 1994 93m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Don Simpson/Jerry Bruckheimer (Ron Bozman, Richard LaGravenese, Jeff Weiss)
GB title: Hostile Hostages
At Christmas, a bad-tempered cat burglar on the run takes hostage an argumentative yuppie couple whose marriage is in difficulties.
Misfiring black comedy; what might have been a bracing alternative to It's a Wonderful Life, a sort of What a Lousy Existence, too often leaves a sour taste, although it has a few moments.
w Richard LaGravenese, Marie Weiss
d Ted Demme ph Adam Kimmel
m David A. Stewart pd Dan Davis
ed Jeffrey Wolf
☆ Denis Leary, Judy Davis, Kevin Spacey, Robert J. Steinmiller Jnr, Glynis Johns, Richard Bright, Raymond J. Barry
'Unrelenting rough language, bitter, caustic humor and unbearable grotesqueries in place of characters seem unlikely elements to generate feel-good numbers for Simpson-Bruckheimer's first production for Disney.' – Variety

'It's all part of the American Dream.'

The Reflecting Skin

GB 1990 95m Technicolor
Virgin/Fugitive Features/BBC Films/British Screen/Zenith (Dominic Anciano, Ray Burdis)
A young boy suspects a strange woman of having killed his friends.
Grotesque, death-obsessed movie, directed at a somnambulistic pace, though it found admirers at several film festivals.
wd Philip Ridley ph Dick Pope m Nick Bicat ad Rick Roberts ed Scott Thomas ☆ Viggo Mortensen, Lindsay Duncan, Jeremy Cooper, Sheila Moore, Duncan Fraser, David Longworth, Robert Koons, David Bloom
'The film strains for poetic resonance: a puffed-up frog trying to pass as a prince.' – Independent
'This is American Grand Guignol orchestrated by a foreigner with a frightening idea of how the mysteries of the adult world seem to the highly imaginative but still relatively innocent young.' – Guardian

Reflection of Fear

US 1971 90m Eastmancolor
Columbia (Howard B. Jaffe)
A retarded teenage girl kills her mother and her grandmother.
Psycho thriller of little interest or suspense.
w Edward Hume, Lewis John Carlino novel Go to Thy Deathbed by Stanton Forbes d William A. Fraker ph Laszlo Kovacs m Fred Myrow ☆ Robert Shaw, Mary Ure, Signe Hasso, Sondra Locke, Mitch Ryan

Reflections in a Golden Eye *

US 1967 108m Technicolor
Warner Seven Arts (Ray Stark)
Repressions at a peacetime army camp in Georgia. A private soldier rides nude on horseback, a major has the hots for him, the major's wife has an affair with their neighbour, whose wife has cut off her nipples with garden shears.
A film as idiotic as its story line, but smoothly marshalled so that at least it's more amusing than boring.
w Chapman Mortimer, Gladys Hill novel Carson McCullers d John Huston ph Aldo Tonti m Toshiro Mayuzumi
pd Stephen Grimes
☆ Marlon Brando, Elizabeth Taylor, Brian Keith, Julie Harris, Robert Forster, Zorro David
'One feels trapped in a huge overheated hothouse containing nothing but common snapdragons. Pedestrian, crass, and uninvolving to the point of repellence.' – John Simon
'Nothing more than nutty people and pseudo porn.' – Judith Crist

The Reformer and the Redhead *

US 1950 90m bw
MGM (Norman Panama, Melvin Frank)
A small-town reform candidate abandons his crooked protector and wins under his own steam, helped by the daughter of the zoo superintendent.
Scatty sub-Capra comedy with a lightweight script but good production and playing.
wd Norman Panama, Melvin Frank
ph Ray June m David Raksin
☆ Dick Powell, June Allyson, Cecil Kellaway, David Wayne, Ray Collins, Robert Keith, Marvin Kaplan

'Somewhere in America a woman is being terrorized by a major domestic appliance.'
'Just when you thought it was safe to go back into the kitchen.'

The Refrigerator

US 1991 86m colour
Avenue D (Christopher Oldcorn)
Two newlyweds move from Ohio to New York and rent an apartment with a carnivorous refrigerator.
Camp horror movie, satirizing suburban domesticity and consumerism, but done without any wit or style.
w Nicholas Jacobs, Christopher Oldcorn, Philip Dolin d Nicholas Jacobs ph Paul Gibson m Don Peterkofsky, Adam Roth, Chris Burke pd Therese Deprez ed P. J. Pesce, Suzanne Pillsbury, Christopher Oldcorn, Nicholas Jacobs
☆ David Simonds, Julia McNeal, Phyllis Sanz, Angel Caban, Nena Segal, Jaime Rojo, Alex Trisano
'Smart, quirky horror spoof. Slick-looking production delivers its thrills with enough laughs to promise a cult following.' – Variety

Regain: see Harvest

Regalo di Natale: see Christmas Present

Regarde les Hommes Tomber: see See How They Fall

Regarding Henry

US 1991 108m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Scott Rudin, Mike Nichols)
A tough lawyer, who loses most of his faculties in a shooting, becomes a much nicer person as he recovers.
Sentimental fable that fails to convince.
w Jeffrey Abrams d Mike Nichols
ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Hans Zimmer
pd Tony Walton ed Sam O'Steen
☆ Harrison Ford, Annette Bening, Bill Nunn, Mikki Allen, Donald Moffat, Aida Linares, Elizabeth Wilson, Robin Bartlett, Bruce Altman, Rebecca Miller

Regeneration **

GB/Canada 1997 110m colour
Artificial Eye/Norstar/Telefilm Canada/SFPF/GFF (Allan Scott, Peter R. Simpson)
In 1917, in order to nullify his growing opposition to the war, the poet Siegfried Sassoon is sent to a Scottish psychiatric hospital treating shell-shocked officers.

Excellently acted, sensitively directed drama of the impact of war; but there is a stilted quality to the script that keeps it earthbound.
w Allan Scott novel Pat Barker d Gillies MacKinnon ph Glen MacPherson m Mychael Danna pd Andy Harris ed Pia di Ciaula
☆ Jonathan Pryce, James Wilby (Siegfried Sassoon), Jonny Lee Miller, Stuart Bunce (Wilfred Owen), Tanya Allen, John Neville
'Dignified but uninvolving.' – Variety

'A Couple... A Secret... A Nightmare.'

Regina Roma

Germany/Italy 1982 86m colour
Genesis/Bognor/Curiator Spiritus/Galia (David Amiri, Serge Roux)

video title: Regina
When her son brings home the shy girl he wants to marry, his mother tries to break up the romance.
Curious over-heated domestic drama that was Ava Gardner 's last movie, one that was hardly released. The direction is tentative and the acting variable.
w Pierre Rey d Jean-Yves Prate ph Serge Haignere m Lorin Maazel ed Roberto Silvi ☆ Ava Gardner (Mama), Ray Sharkey (Cary), Anna Karina (Regina), Anthony Quinn (Papa)

La Règle du Jeu ★★★★

France 1939 113m bw
La Nouvelle Edition Française (Claude Renoir)

aka: The Rules of the Game
A count organizes a weekend shooting party which results in complex love intrigues among servants as well as masters.
Celebrated satirical comedy with a uniquely bleak outlook.
w Jean Renoir, Carl Koch d Jean Renoir ph Jean Bachelet, Alain Renoir m Joseph Kosma, Roger Desormières ad Eugène Lourié, Max Douy ed Marguerite Renoir, Marthe Huguet
☆ Marcel Dalio (Robert de la Chesnaye), Nora Gregor (Christine de la Chesnaye), Jean Renoir (Octave), Mila Parély (Genevieve de Marrast), Julien Carette (Marceau), Gaston Modot (Schumacher), Roland Toutain (Andre Jurieu)
'It is a question of panache, of preserving a casual indifference to the workings of fate.' – The Times
'How brilliantly Renoir focuses the confusion! The rather fusty luxury of the chateau, the constant mindless slaughter of wild animals, the minuets of adultery and seduction, the gavottes of mutual hatred or mistrust...' – Basil Wright, 1972
† The film was originally banned as indicting the corruption of France, and during the war the negative was destroyed during an air raid; but eventually a full version was pieced together from various materials.

Regular Lovers ★★ (5)

France 2005 183m bw
Artificial Eye/Maia Films/ARTE France (Gilles Sandoz)

French theatrical: Les amants réguliers
In 1968 Paris, a student revolutionary and his friends throw bombs, have free-wheeling sex, recite poetry and dodge military service in an effort to keep the real world at bay.
Director Philippe Garrel, the main actor Louis's father, pays authentic homage to the New Wave in this overlong, monochrome attempt to recapture the heady spirit of the times. It improves with perseverance.
w Philippe Garrel, Marc Cholodenko, Arlette Langmann d Philippe Garrel ph William Lubtchansky m Jean-Claude Vannier pd Nikos Meletopoulos, Mathieu Menut ed Francoise Collin, Philippe Garrel
☆ Louis Garrel (François), Clotilde Hesme (Lilie), Julien Lucas (Antoine)
† Louis Garrel, who has become one of the rising stars of new French cinema, played a similar role in Bernardo Bertolucci's The Dreamers, also about the events in Paris of May 1968.

'Fight Fire With Fire.'

Reign of Fire

US 2002 101m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Spyglass (Richard D. Zanuck, Lili Fini Zanuck, Gary Barber, Roger Birnbaum)

In the near future, an American rallies a small group of survivors in a Britain devastated by fire-breathing dragons that emerged from a new tunnel under London.
Muscle-bound heroics dominate in this B feature, which is all brawn and no brain.
w Gregg Chabot, Kevin Peterka, Matt Greenberg d Rob Bowman ph Adrian Biddle m Edward Shearmur pd Wolf Kroeger ed Thom Noble sp Richard R. Hoover ☆ Christian Bale (Quinn), Matthew McConaughey (Denton Van Zan), Izabella Scorupco (Alex), Gerald Butler (Creedy), Scott James Moutter (Jared Wilke), David Kennedy (Eddie Stax), Alexander Siddig (Ajay), Ned Dennehy (Barlow), Alice Krige (Karen Abercromby)
'Mesmerizing junk.' – New Yorker
'A slick, sleek and periodically scary piece of work.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Reign of Terror: see The Black Book

'Let in the unexpected.'

Reign Over Me ★★ (6)

US 2007 124m
Sony/Mr.Madison/Sunlight (Jack Binder)

A man who lost his family in the 9/11 attacks and is shattered by grief, reunites with an old college room-mate who helps him rebuild his life.
A real surprise: the clownish Adam Sandler, whose calling cards are broad, insufferable low-IQ comedies, is outstanding here as the devastated Charlie. So is the reliably splendid Don Cheadle as the affluent but unhappy Alan. The key to the story is the mutually liberating friendship between the two characters; Charlie's indifference to the customs of polite society rubs off on Alan and his joyless life. This is a ramshackle, rambling film, but a satisfying one. Along with The Upside of Anger (qv), it confirms a return from long years in the wilderness for writer-director Binder, who scripted Coupe de Ville (qv).
wd Mike Binder ph Russ Alsobrook m Rolfe Kent pd Christian Wintter ad Greg Berry, David Swayze ed Steve Edwards, Jeremy Roush
☆ Adam Sandler (Charlie Fineman), Don Cheadle (Alan Johnson), Jada Pinkett Smith (Janeane Johnson), Liv Tyler (Angela Oakhurst), Saffron Burrows (Donna Remar), Donald Sutherland (Judge Raines), Robert Klein (Jonathan Timpleman), Melinda Dillon (Ginger Timpleman), Mike Binder (Bryan Sugarman)
'This film manages to be not just bearable, but on occasion quite affecting.' – Sukhdev Sandhu, Daily Telegraph
'It's a courageous, moving, organically funny picture.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun
† The title is adapted from Love Reign O'er Me by the Who, which is heard on the soundtrack.

The Reincarnation of Peter Proud

US 1974 104m Technicolor
Avco Embassy/Bing Crosby (Frank P. Rosenberg)

A history professor is troubled by recurring dreams of his former existence.
Hysterical psychic melodrama which pretty well ruins its own chances by failing to explain its plot.
w Max Ehrlich novel Max Ehrlich d J. Lee-Thompson ph Victor J. Kemper m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Michael Sarrazin, Jennifer O'Neill, Margot Kidder, Cornelia Sharpe, Paul Hecht
'It may well be the silliest approach to the subject in any medium ... all flashbacks trampling the action with the finesse of a rogue elephant.' – Tom Milne

'The Trap Is Set. The Game Is On.'

Reindeer Games

US 2000 104m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/Dimension (Marty Katz, Bob Weinstein, Chris Moore)

GB title: Deception
A petty crook becomes involved with a beautiful woman and a gang of murderous but incompetent thieves.
Fast-paced thriller that despite the occasional striking moment (five dead Santa Clauses lying in the snow) has little to recommend it; its narrative twists grow increasingly silly.
w Ehren Kruger d John Frankenheimer ph Alan Caso m Alan Silvestri pd Barbara Dunphy ed Tony Gibbs, Michael Kahn cos May Routh
☆ Ben Affleck (Rudy Duncan), Gary Sinise (Gabriel), Charlize Theron (Ashley), Dennis Farina (Jack Bangs), James Frain (Nick), Donal Logue (Pug), Danny Trejo (Jumpy), Isaac Hayes (Zook), Gordon Tootoosis (Old Governor), Dana Stubblefield (The Alamo), Clarence Williams III (Merlin)
'A breathlessly paced potboiler that's a "thriller" in name only.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'It's not a really bad movie, just so mediocre–the visual equivalent of aeroplane food.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
† The film cost $36m and took $23m at the US box-office.

'She was the daughter of a King, the sister of a King, the wife of a King ... and the lover of an enemy.'

La Reine Margot ★★

France/Germany/Italy 1994 162m colour
Guild/Renn/France 2/DA/NEF/Degeto/RCS

In 1572, the sister of the Catholic King of France reluctantly agrees to marry the Protestant Duke of Navarre, an event that leads to the Saint Bartholomew's Day Massacre of Protestants and causes turmoil in the kingdom.
Engagingly vivid account of power struggles on personal, political and religious levels, involving bloodshed, poison, lust and betrayal.
w Danièle Thompson, Patrice Chereau novel Alexandre Dumas d Patrice Chéreau ph Philippe Rousselot m Goran Bregovic pd Richard Peduzzi, Olivier Radot ed François Gédiger, Hélène Viard
☆ Isabelle Adjani, Daniel Auteuil, Jean-Hugues Anglade, Vincent Perez, Virna Lisa, Dominique Blanc, Pascal Greggory, Asia Argento, Jean-Claude Brialy
'A tempestuous, lavish and intelligently thought-out account of the Saint Bartholomew's Day Massacre and its aftermath, marinated in gore and lovingly trimmed with the finest brocade.' – Jonathan Romney, Guardian
costume design

Reise der Hoffnung: see Journey of Hope

The Reivers ★

US 1969 111m Technicolor Panavision
Cinema Center/Duo/Solar (Irving Ravetch)

In Mississippi at the turn of the century a hired hand borrows the new family auto for a trip into Memphis with the grandson of the family and a black stablehand.
Pleasant but insubstantial yarn of more gracious days; most attractive to look at, it entertains gently without ever reaching a point.
w Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jnr novel William Faulkner d Mark Rydell ph Richard Moore m John Williams ☆ Steve McQueen, Sharon Farrell, Will Geer, Rupert Crosse, Mitch Vogel, Michael Constantine, Juano Hernandez, Clifton James
John Williams; Rupert Crosse

'A Comedy Of Discriminating Taste And Dirty Little Secrets.'
'A family comedy in a class of its own.'

Relative Values

GB/US 2000 87m colour
Alliance Atlantis/Midsummer/IOMFC (Christopher Millburn)

An English countess is concerned when her son arrives at the family estate with his unsuitable fiancée, a Hollywood actress.
A play that was old-fashioned when it first arrived on the stage makes an even more old-fashioned film that is well-enough done but somewhat pointless; its impeccable construction provides some amusement.
w Paul Rattigan, Michael Walker play Noël Coward d Eric Styles ph Jimmy Dibling m John Debney pd Humphrey Jaeger ed Caroline Limmer cos Nic Ede
☆ Julie Andrews (Felicity), Sophie Thompson (Moxie), Edward Atterton (Nigel), Jeanne Tripplehorn (Miranda Frayle), William Baldwin (Don Lucas), Colin Firth (Peter), Stephen Fry (Crestwell), Anwen Carlisle (Alice), Gaye Brown (Lady Hayling), Michael Culkin (Lord Ludmurrey), Katy Stephens (Caroline), Stephanie Beacham (Elizabeth)
'Individual performances and Coward's neatly turned dialogue just about make the pic go the distance, triumphing over unimaginative direction and an awkward screenplay.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Relentless

US 1948 93m Technicolor
Columbia (Eugene B. Rodney)

A cowboy framed for murder must clear himself before the posse catches up with him.
Brisk Western copy of The 39 Steps.
w Winston Miller d George Sherman ph Edward Cronjager m Marlin Skiles
☆ Robert Young, Marguerite Chapman, Willard Parker, Barton MacLane, Will Wright

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Relentless
US 1989 93m Foto-Kem
New Line (Howard Smith)

The son of a disgraced LA cop turns serial killer.
A formulaic thriller with occasional moments that lift it out of the very mundane.
w Jack T. D. Robinson d William Lustig ph James Lemmo m Jay Chattaway pd Gene Abel ed David Kern
☆ Judd Nelson, Robert Loggia, Meg Foster, Leo Rossi, Patrick O'Brien, Ken Lerner, Mindy Seeger

'Some Things Are Best Left Undiscovered.'

The Relic
US 1997 110m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Cloud Nine/Pacific Western (Sam Mercer, Gale Anne Hurd)

Crates shipped from the Brazilian jungle to a Chicago museum contain a brain-eating monster.
A standard monster movie, done with a certain amount of relish but no originality.
w Amy Jones, John Raffo, Rick Jaffa novel Douglas Preston, Lincoln Child d Peter Hyams ph Peter Hyams m John Debney pd Philip Harrison ed Steven Kemper sp Stan Winston; VIFX ☆ Penelope Ann Miller, Tom Sizemore, Linda Hunt, James Whitmore, Clayton Rohner, Chi Muoi Lo, Lewis Van Bergen

'A B-movie shocker in an expensive suit.' – George Perry

The Reluctant Astronaut
US 1967 101m Technicolor
Universal (Edward J. Montagne)

By a series of accidents a man with vertigo becomes an astronaut.
Feeble vehicle for a comedian briefly popular.
w Jim Fritzell, Everett Greenbaum d Edward J. Montagne ph Rexford Wimpey m Vic Mizzy
☆ Don Knotts, Leslie Nielsen, Joan Freeman, Jesse White, Jeanette Nolan, Arthur O'Connell

The Reluctant Débutante *
US 1958 96m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM/Avon (Pandro S. Berman)

A noble couple have difficulty in steering their American-educated daughter through the intricacies of the London season.
A slight but pleasing British comedy has become a rather strident example of lend-lease, but still affords minor pleasures.
w William Douglas Home play William Douglas Home d Vincente Minnelli ph Joseph Ruttenberg md Eddie Warner ad Jean d'Aubonne
☆ Rex Harrison, Kay Kendall, Sandra Dee, Peter Myers, Angela Lansbury, John Saxon, Diane Clare

The Reluctant Dragon **
US 1941 72m Technicolor
Walt Disney

A tour of the Disney Studios affords some glimpses of how cartoons are made.
*Amiable pot-pourri of cartoon shorts (*Baby Weems, How to Ride a Horse and the title story) linked by a studio tour of absorbing interest.
w various d Alfred Werker (live action), various ☆ Robert Benchley, Frances Gifford, Nana Bryant

Reluctant Heroes *
GB 1951 80m bw
Byron (Henry Halstead)

Comedy of national servicemen and their misdemeanours.
Simple-minded army farce which was popular for years as play and film.
w Colin Morris play Colin Morris d Jack Raymond ph James Wilson ☆ Brian Rix, Ronald Shiner, Derek Farr, Christine Norden, Larry Noble

The Reluctant Widow
GB 1950 91m bw
Rank/Two Cities (Gordon Wellesley)

During the Napoleonic wars a governess is co-opted as a spy.
Thin romantic drama which despite nice art direction never really sparks into life.
w Gordon Wellesley, J. B. Boothroyd novel Georgette Heyer d Bernard Knowles ph Jack Hildyard ad Carmen Dillon
☆ Jean Kent, Guy Rolfe, Kathleen Byron, Paul Dupuis, Lana Morris, Julian Dallas, Peter Hammond, Andrew Cruickshank

The Remains of the Day **
GB/US 1993 134m Technicolor
Columbia/Merchant Ivory (Ishmail Merchant, Mike Nichols, John Calley)

A butler comes to realize that his lifelong respect for, and loyalty to, his aristocratic master was misplaced.
An artful, nicely composed study in repressed emotions, stiff upper lips and class attitudes; in the final analysis, though, it seems no more than P. G. Wodehouse re-played as tragedy.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala novel Kazuo Ishiguro d James Ivory ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Richard Robbins pd Luciana Arrighi ed Andrew Marcus
☆ Anthony Hopkins, Emma Thompson, James Fox, Christopher Reeve, Peter Vaughan, Hugh Grant, Michel Lonsdale, Tim Piggot-Smith, Patrick Godfrey

'Continuously absorbing, but lacks the emotional resonance that would have made it completely satisfying.' – Variety
'This luxuriously mounted and often brilliantly engineered adaptation ... could well be the producer and director team Merchant Ivory's most comprehensive success. It unquestionably deserves to be.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Anthony Hopkins; Emma Thompson; James Ivory; best picture; Ruth Prawer Jhabvala; Richard Robbins; Luciana Arrighi; costume design (Jenny Beavan, John Bright)
BAFTA Anthony Hopkins

Remains to Be Seen
US 1953 88m bw
MGM (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

The manager of an apartment house finds a dead body, and before the police arrive someone sticks a knife into it.
Flabby comedy-thriller giving the cast little to work on.
w Sidney Sheldon play Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse d Don Weis ph Robert Planck md Jeff Alexander ☆ June Allyson, Van Johnson, Angela Lansbury, Louis Calhern, John Beal, Dorothy Dandridge

'By thunderation, I'll show America how to get tough!'

The Remarkable Andrew *
US 1942 80m bw
Paramount (Richard Blumenthal)

A young municipal bookkeeper is framed by local politicians but helped by the ghost of Andrew Jackson and friends.
Pleasant, rather faded, whimsical comedy which also managed to be propaganda for the war effort.
w Dalton Trumbo d Stuart Heisler ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Victor Young ☆ William Holden, Ellen Drew, Brian Donlevy, Rod Cameron, Richard Webb, Porter Hall, Frances Gifford, Nydia Westman, Montagu Love

'About all that comes through in the juxtaposition of these lithograph characters over modern Shale City is Franklin's delight over the electric light and Jackson's alarm over the radio.' – John McManus, PM

The Remarkable Mr Kipps: see Kipps

The Remarkable Mr Pennypacker
US 1958 87m Technicolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Charles Brackett)

A Pennsylvania businessman leads two lives with two separate families.
Feeble and obvious period comedy of bigamy; very few laughs.
w Walter Reisch play Liam O'Brien d Henry Levin ph Milton Krasner m Leigh Harline
☆ Clifton Webb, Dorothy McGuire, Charles Coburn, Ray Stricklyn, Jill St John, Ron Ely, David Nelson

Rembrandt ****
GB 1936 85m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)

Episodes in the life of the 17th-century painter.
Austerely comic, gently tragic character piece, superbly staged and photographed, with a great performance at its centre.
w Lajos Biro, June Head, Carl Zuckmayer d Alexander Korda ph Georges Perinal, Richard Angst m Geoffrey Toye ed William Hornbeck, Francis D. Lyon
☆ Charles Laughton (Rembrandt van Rijn), Elsa Lanchester (Hendrickje Stoffels), Gertrude Lawrence (Geertje Dirx), Edward Chapman (Fabrizius), Walter Hudd (Banning Cocq), Roger Livesey (Beggar Saul), Herbert Lomas (Miller Harmen van Rijn), Allan Jeayes (Dr. Tulp), Sam Livesey (Auctioneer), Raymond Huntley (Ludvig), John Clements (Gavaert Flink)

'Never exciting, and only partly believable ... a feature film without a story plot.' – Variety
'Amazingly full of that light which the great master of painting subdued to his supreme purpose.' – James Agate
'The film is ruined by lack of story and continuity: it has no drive. Like The Private Life of Henry the Eighth it is a series of unrelated tableaux.' – Graham Greene

Remember?
US 1939 83m bw
MGM (Milton Bren)

A newly married couple do not get on, so a friend gives them a potion which makes them lose their memories and fall in love all over again.
Silly, witless comedy which did no good for anyone concerned.
w Corey Ford, Norman Z. McLeod d Norman Z. McLeod ph George Folsey m Edward Ward
☆ Robert Taylor, Greer Garson, Lew Ayres, Billie Burke, Reginald Owen, George Barbier, Henry Travers, Richard Carle, Laura Hope Crews, Halliwell Hobbes, Sig Rumann

'Many bright episodes contrast with some bumpy and over-dialogued stretches.' – Variety

Remember Last Night? **
US 1936 80m bw
Universal

Socialites with hangovers find that murder was committed during their party.
Ingenious but overlong mixture of styles: farce, Thin Man comedy, murder mystery, satire, fantasy. Very well worth looking at.
w Harry Clork, Dan Totheroh, Doris Malloy novel The Hangover Murders by Adam Hobhouse d James Whale ph Joseph Valentine m Franz Waxman ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Robert Young, Edward Arnold, Arthur Treacher, Constance Cummings, Robert Armstrong, Sally Eilers, Reginald Denny, Ed Brophy, Jack La Rue, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Gregory Ratoff

'It will be hard to sell because it is hard to understand ... the basic story can scarcely be followed, while the superficial gloss of phoney sophistication neither fits a narrative in which four murders and two suicides are recorded, nor carries conviction of itself.' – Variety
'Parodying the detective thriller in a dazzling cascade of gags, this brilliant divertissement eventually takes off into pure surrealism.' – Tom Milne, MFB, 1974

Remember Me?
GB 1997 81m Metrocolor
Film Four/Talisman (Alan Shallcross, Alan Wright)

A suburban couple's life is turned upside down when they are visited by the wife's former boyfriend, a charmer who is being hounded by his creditors.
A limp sitcom that looks and sounds as if it were quick-frozen in the 50s and now partially thawed out.
w Michael Frayn d Nick Hurran ph David Odd m Michael Kamen, Ed Shearmur pd Christopher Bradshaw ed John Wilson
☆ Robert Lindsay, Rik Mayall, Imelda Staunton, Brenda Blethyn, James Fleet, Haydn Gwynne, Natalie Walker, Tim Matthews

'It's a disaster: a prehistoric burial mound of farcical clichés beyond even this talented cast's power to excavate.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Remember My Name *
US 1978 94m DeLuxe
Columbia/Lion's Gate (Robert Altman)

After twelve years in prison, a woman takes calm revenge on the man who allowed her to take the blame for his crime.
Basically reminiscent of a Barbara Stanwyck vehicle of the forties, this interesting film is finally too concerned to strike on all levels, including satire, social awareness and fashionable pessimism.
wd Alan Rudolph ph Tak Fujimoto ed Thomas Walls, William A. Sawyer songs Alberta Hunter
☆ Geraldine Chaplin, Anthony Perkins, Moses Gunn, Berry Berenson, Jeff Goldblum

Remember That Face: see The Mob

Remember the Day *
US 1941 86m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

An elderly schoolteacher recollects her past life.
Pleasant sentimental drama, very well mounted.

w Tess Schlesinger, Frank Davis, Allan Scott play Philo Higley d Henry King ph George Barnes m Alfred Newman
☆ Claudette Colbert, John Payne, Shepperd Strudwick, Jane Seymour, Anne Revere, Frieda Inescort

'For those who like wghat is popularly known as "a good cry" this hour-and-a-half of undiluted sob-stuff will please.' – James Agate

Remember the Night ★

US 1940 94m bw
Paramount (Mitchell Leisen)

An assistant district attorney takes a lady shoplifter home with him for Christmas.
Eccentric but winning blend of comedy, romance and drama, deftly mixed by master chefs.
w Preston Sturges d Mitchell Leisen ph Ted Tetzlaff m Frederick Hollander
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Fred MacMurray, Beulah Bondi, Elizabeth Patterson, Sterling Holloway, Paul Guilfoyle, Willard Robertson

'Rarely has such a theme been so smoothly advanced and so pleasantly played out to so sensible and credible a conclusion.' – New York Times

'History is written by the winners.'

Remember the Titans

US 2000 113m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Technical Black (Jerry Bruckheimer, Chad Oman)

In Virginia in the 1970s, a new black coach makes his racially-integrated high-school football team into champions and eases racial tensions in the community.
Deeply sentimental and shamelessly manipulative drama, based on a true story but so platitudinous in its telling that any feeling for the period or in its truth is soon lost.
w Gregory Allen Howard d Boaz Yakin ph Philippe Rousselot m Trevor Rabin pd Deborah Evans ed Michael Tronick cos Judy Ruskin Howell
☆ Denzel Washington (Herman Boone), Will Patton (Bill Yoast), Donald Faison (Petey Jones), Wood Harris (Julius 'Big Ju' Campbell), Ryan Hurst (Gerry Bertier), Ethan Suplee (Lewis Lastik), Nicole Ari Parker (Carol Boone), Hayden Panettiere (Sheryl Yoast), Kip Pardue (Ronnie 'Sunshine' Bass), Craig Kirkwood (Jerry 'The Rev' Harris), Kate Bosworth (Emma Hoyt)

'An earnest, bombastic feelgood movie in which the issue of racial harmony is treated as rougly being equal in importance to the holy game of football.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'The movie is heartfelt, yes, and I was moved by it, but it plays safe.' – Roger Ebert

Remembrance

GB 1982 117m Eastmancolor
Channel 4/Colin Gregg

Young sailors in Plymouth enjoy a last night's leave before a six-month tour of duty with the NATO forces.
A few slices of what in the eyes of film-makers passes for realism these days: boozing, violence and bad language. The film seems to make no point and certainly doesn't entertain, though the components are slickly enough assembled.
w Hugh Stoddart d Colin Gregg ph John Metcalfe m various pop performances ed Peter Delfgou
☆ John Altman, Al Ashton, Martin Barrass, Nick Dunning, Sally Jane Jackson, David John, Peter Lee-Wilson, Kenneth Griffith

'A clear and disheartening case of ambition exceeding grasp.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

Remo Williams: The Adventure Begins

US 1985 121m DeLuxe
Orion/Dick Clark, Larry Spiegel, Mel Bergman

GB title: Remo: Unarmed and Dangerous

A New York cop is recruited by the CIA to learn martial arts which will help him to fight an evil arms manufacturer.
Po-faced and oddly unlikeable, this elaborate adventure movie never really finds a style, and is dislocated by a middle section in which our hero is taught by an elderly Korean.
w Christopher Wood novels Destroyer series by Richard Sapir, Warren Murphy d Guy Hamilton ph Andrew Laszlo m Craig Safan pd Jackson de Govia
☆ Fred Ward, Joel Grey, Wilford Brimley, J. A. Preston, Charles Cioffi, Kate Mulgrew, George Coe

Remorques ★

France 1941 80m bw
MAIC

US title: Stormy Waters

A tugboat captain falls in love with a mysterious woman but remains faithful to his invalid wife.
Effective, minor, romantic melodrama.
w Jacques Prévert, André Cayatte novel Roger Vercel d Jean Grémillon ph Armand Thirard, Louis Née m Roland Manuel ☆ Jean Gabin, Michèle Morgan, Madeleine Renaud, Fernand Ledoux

'Paris 2054. Live forever or die trying.'

Renaissance ★ (3)

France/Luxembourg/UK 2006 105m Black and White/Colour
Pathe/Onyx Films/Millimages/Luxanimation/Timefirm (Roch Lener, Aton Soumache, Alexis Vonarb)

In the totalitarian Paris of 2054, youth and beauty are the most sought after genetically modified commodities.
Manga anime design meets Dick Tracy film noir comic strip. An innovatively rendered dystopian fable, more enervating than entertaining.
w Alexandre de la Patelliere, Mathieu Delaporte, Jean Bernard Pouy, Patrick Raynal d Christian Volckman ph Thierry Arbogast m Nicholas Dodd ad Pascal Valdes ed Pascal Tosi
☆ Daniel Craig – Patrick Floersheim (French version) (Barthelemy Karas), Catherine McCormack – Laura Blanc (Bislane Tasuiev), Romola Garai – Virginie Mery (Ilona Tasuiev), Jonathan Pryce – Gabriel Le Doze (Paul Dellenbach), Ian Holm – Marc Cassot (Jonas Muller)

'Constantly amazes in a "How did they do that?" sort of way.' – Philip French, The Observer

Renaissance Man

US 1994 129m Technicolor
Guild/Cinergi (Sara Colleton, Elliot Abbott, Robert Greenhut)

An out-of-work ad-man is employed to teach some of the army's dimmest recruits and gives them a sense of self-esteem.
Soft-centred comedy that marches along predictable tracks and has little to do with the realities of teaching or army service; as recruiting propaganda, it no doubt serves a purpose.
w Jim Burnstein d Penny Marshall ph Adam Greenberg m Hans Zimmer pd Geoffrey Kirkland ed George Bowers, Battle Davis
☆ Danny DeVito, Gregory Hines, James Remar, Cliff Robertson, Stacey Dash, Lillo Brancato Jnr, Kadeem Hardison, Richard T. Jones, Mark Wahlberg

'Warm-hearted humanism is glopped all over Renaissance Man in the hopes we won't notice that the story makes no sense.' – Richard Schickel, Time † Mark Wahlberg is better known as rapper Marky Mark.

Rendez-Vous ★★

France 1985 83m colour
Cannon/T Films/A2 (Alain Terzian)

A provincial actress, trying for success in Paris, becomes involved with a self-destructive actor.
Stylish drama of young hopefuls that won the best director award at the Cannes Film Festival in 1985.
w André Téchiné, Olivier Assayas d André Téchiné ph Renato Berta m Philippe Sarde pd Jean-Pierre Kohut Svelko ed Martine Giordano
☆ Juliette Binoche, Lambert Wilson, Wadeck Stanczak, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Dominique Lavanant

Rendez-vous in Paris ★

France 1995 98m colour
Artificial Eye/Mayfair/Compagnie Eric Rohmer/Canal (Françoise Etchegaray)

Three tales of meetings: in the first, a law student discovers that her boyfriend is seeing another woman; in the second, a man tries to persuade a woman to leave her lover for him; in the third, an artist, showing a tourist around Paris, is attracted by a woman in one of the galleries
Three casual accounts of accidental meetings between men and women and the impossibility of successful relationships between them; the stories are deceptively slight, conveying more than at first appears wd Eric Rohmer ph Diane Baratier ed Mary Stephen ☆ Clara Beller, Antoine Basler, Mathias Megard, Judith Chancel, Malcolm Conrath

'Far from his greatest, but still has his familiar gracenotes.' – Sunday Times

Rendezvous

US 1935 106m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

A decoding expert breaks an enemy spy ring.
Agreeable light romantic comedy drama with an espionage plot.
w Bella and Samuel Spewack novel Black Chamber by Herbert Yardley d William K. Howard ph William Daniels m William Axt
☆ William Powell, Rosalind Russell, Binnie Barnes, Lionel Atwill, Cesar Romero, Samuel S. Hinds, Henry Stephenson, Frank Reicher

'Another chill-and-chuckle play aiming at the Thin Man trade and scoring a bull's-eye.' – Variety

Rendezvous 24

US 1946 70m bw
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)

American secret agents track down post-war Nazis who are working on atomic explosions from a remote base in the Harz mountains.
Routine thick ear despite claims of timeliness; as such, quite tolerable.
w Aubrey Wisberg d James Tinling
☆ William Gargan, Maria Palmer, Pat O'Moore, David Leonard, Kurt Katch, Herman Bing

Rendezvous at Midnight

US 1935 60m bw
Universal

A police commissioner investigates the murder of his predecessor.
Modest mystery co-feature which wastes time up front on a fashion show.
w Gladys Unger play The Silver Fox by Gaetano Sazlo d Christy Cabanne
☆ Ralph Bellamy, Valerie Hobson, Catherine Doucet, Irene Ware, Helen Jerome Eddy

'The woeful lack of action drags it down.' – Variety

Rendezvous de Juillet ★★

France 1949 110m bw
UGC-SNEG (René G. Vuattoux)

A group of young people in post-war St Germain-des-Prés plan an expedition to the Congo.
Highly likeable series of impressions of interesting people, a little indeterminate and possibly dated now, but in its time extremely fresh and vital.
wd Jacques Becker ph Claude Renoir m Jean Wiener, Mezz Mezzrow
☆ Daniel Gelin, Maurice Ronet, Brigitte Auber, Pierre Trabaud, Nicole Courcel

Les Rendezvous du Diable ★★

France 1958 80m colour
Union Générale Cinématographique/Jacques Constant/Haroun Tazieff

aka. Volcano

Adventures of a Belgian volcanologist.
Daring exploits on the rims of the world's most active volcanoes, including Etna and Stromboli in eruption. Fascinating footage is urbanely presented.
m Marius-François Gaillard wd/ph Haroun Tazieff

'Beauty blends with horror, romantic grandeur with fear.' – MFB

Rendezvous with Annie

US 1946 89m bw
Republic

An American soldier in England goes absent without leave to see his wife in New York, an exploit which later nearly loses him a fortune.
An engaging comedy idea filmed with insufficient wit, this gets by on charm.
w Mary Loos, Richard Sale d Allan Dwan
☆ Eddie Albert, Faye Marlowe, C. Aubrey Smith

Réne La Canne ★

France/Italy 1977 98m Telecolor
Président/Rizzoli (Jacques-Eric Strauss)

During the Second World War a French policeman and a thief defy the Germans; after it, they find themselves in friendly rivalry.
Broad and sometimes blackish farce which amuses mainly by the expert and stylized comedy performances of the two male leads.
w Jacques Rouffio, Francis Girod novel Roger Borniche d Francis Girod ph Aldo Tonti m Ennio Morricone ad Jean-Jacques Caziot ed Eva Zora
☆ Gérard Depardieu, Sylvia Kristel, Michel Piccoli, Stefano Patrizi, Riccardo Garrone, Jacques Jouanneau, Jean Rigaux, Orchidea de Santis, Venantino Venantini, Valerie Mairesse, Jean Carmet

Renegade

Italy 1987 90m colour
Paloma/Cinecitta (Lucio Bompani)

A modern-day itinerant cowboy promises to look after the knowing 14-year-old son of an imprisoned friend.

Comic Western that ambles in an easy-going, unmemorable manner from one mild joke, usually involving a punch-up, to another. Its only novelty is that, instead of the cavalry, Hells Angels ride to the rescue.

w Mark Barboni d E. B. Clucher (Enzo Barboni) ph Alfio Contini m Mauro Paoluzzi pd Carlo Simi ed Eugene Alabiso

☆ Terence Hill (Mario Girotti), Robert Vaughn, Ross Hill, Norman Bowler, Beatrice Palme, Lisa Ann Rubin, Donal Hodson

Renegade

US 1993 95m Foto-Kem
Cannell Entertainment

An ex-cop turned bounty hunter joins an organization that stages fights to the death in order to discover what happened to his brother, who disappeared 17 years earlier.

Risible action adventure with muscle-bound acting and dialogue, and padded out with some irrelevant scenes of love-making between extras.

w Stephen J. Cannell, Nick Corea d Ralph Hemecker, R. Marvin ph Kenneth L. Gibb m Roger Neill ad Michel Levesque ed John W. Carr, Skip Robinson

☆ Lorenzo Lamas, Branscombe Richmond, Kathleen Kinmont, Charles Napier, Madison Mason, Stephen J. Cannell, Marjean Holden, Danny Wells, Mitchell Ryan, Martin Kove

Renegade Girls: see Caged Heat

Renegades

US 1930 84m bw
Fox

A disgraced French officer becomes a hero of the Foreign Legion.

Satisfying romantic melodrama of its period.

w Jules Furthman novel André Armandy d Victor Fleming

☆ Warner Baxter, Myrna Loy, Bela Lugosi, Noah Beery, C. Henry Gordon, Gregory Gaye

'Everyone in the picture dies in the last few feet.' – Variety

Renegades

US 1946 88m Technicolor
Columbia

An outlaw's son tries in vain to go straight.

Unsurprising but efficient bill-topping Western of its day.

w Melvin Levey, Francis Faragoh d George Sherman

☆ Evelyn Keyes, Larry Parks, Willard Parker, Edgar Buchanan

Renegades

US 1989 105m colour
Virgin/Morgan Creek/Interscope Communications (David Madden)

A cop and an Indian team up to recover a stolen sacred lance.

Run-of-the-mill action movie in which nothing memorable occurs.

w David Rich d Jack Sholder ph Phil Meheux m Michael Kamen pd Carol Spier ed Caroline Biggerstaff

☆ Kiefer Sutherland, Lou Diamond Phillips, Jami Gertz, Rob Knepper, Bill Smitrovich, Peter MacNeill

Reno

US 1939 72m bw
RKO

As Reno becomes a great city for gambling and divorce, a lawyer becomes a gambling hall proprietor.

Mildly interesting romantic drama in a flashback format.

w John Twist, Ellis St Joseph d John Farrow

☆ Richard Dix, Gail Patrick, Anita Louise, Paul Cavanagh, Laura Hope Crews, Louis Jean Heydt, Hobart Cavanaugh, Charles Halton

'Capable handling of an interesting story against a colourful background.' – Variety

Reno 911!: Miami ③

US 2007 80m
Paramount/High Sierra Carpeting/Jersey Films/Double Feature Films (Danny DeVito, Stacey Sher, Michael Shamberg, John Landgraf)

Bumbling cops from Nevada find themselves running law enforcement in Miami.

Juvenile pratfalls in the Police Academy mould, largely improvised and lazily presented.

w Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon, Kerri Kenney-Silver TV series Reno 911! by Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon, Kerri Kenney-Silver d Robert Ben Garant ph Joe Kessler m Craig Wedren ed John Refoua

☆ Carlos Alazraqui (Deputy James Garcia), Mary Birdsong (Deputy Cherisha Kimball), Robert Ben Garant (Deputy Travis Junior), Kerri Kenney-Silver (Deputy Trudy Wiegel), Thomas Lennon (Lieutenant Jim Dangle), Wendi McLendon-Covey (Deputy Clementine Johnson)

'A disappointingly sloppy affair that feels as if it had been thrown together with little more than spit.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

'It isn't enough to call this astonishingly witless cop comedy the poor man's Police Academy. It's the poor man's Police Academy VII: Mission to Moscow.' – Tim Robey, Telegraph

Rent ★ ⑤

US 2005 135m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Revolution/1492 Pictures/Tribeca (Jane Rosenthal, Robert De Niro, Chris Columbus)

In New York's bohemian East Village, people live, love and die.

Rock treatment of La Bohème with AIDS replacing consumption as the spectre at the feast; on film, it doesn't work well, not in this unrhythmic and flaccid treatment.

w Stephen Chbosky musical Jonathan Larson d Chris Columbus ph Stephen Goldblatt m/ly Jonathan Larson md Rob Cavallo ch Keith Young pd Howard Cummings ed Richard Pearson

☆ Anthony Rapp (Mark Cohen), Adam Pascal (Roger Davis), Rosario Dawson (Mimi Marquez), Jesse L. Martin (Tom Collins), Wilson Jermaine Heredia (Angel Dumont Schunard), Idina Menzel (Maureen Johnson), Tracie Thoms (Joanne Jefferson), Taye Diggs (Benjamin Coffin III)

'Is it really only 10 years since this feast of cheese was regarded as radical?' – Nicholas Barber, Indepndent

'One of the best film musicals in years – exuberant, sexy and life-affirming in equal measure.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter

† Rent's creator, Jonathan Larson died at the age of 35 on the night of the stage musical's final dress rehearsal. The show went on to become one of Broadway's longest running musicals.

Rent-a-Cop

US 1988 96m colour
Kings Road (Raymond Wagner)

A tough policeman, who loses his job when a drug arrest goes wrong, teams up with a prostitute to track down a vicious killer.

Dull and violent thriller, in which Reynolds's laid-back cop and Minnelli's hyper-active hooker fail to achieve any noticeable rapport.

w Dennis Shryack, Michael Blodgett d Jerry London ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Jerry Goldsmith pd Tony Masters ed Robert Lawrence

☆ Burt Reynolds, Liza Minnelli, James Remar, Richard Masur, Dionne Warwick, Bernie Casey, Robby Benson, John Stanton

Rentadick

GB 1972 94m Eastmancolor
Rank/Paradine/Virgin (Ned Sherrin)

Incompetent private eyes become involved in the battle for a deadly nerve gas.

Ineffective crazy comedy which never takes shape, preferring to aim barbs of satire in all directions.

w John Wells, John Fortune d Jim Clark ph John Coquillon m Carl Davis

☆ James Booth, Richard Briers, Julie Ege, Donald Sinden

Repeat Performance ★

US 1947 93m bw
Eagle Lion/Aubrey Schenck

People in trouble find they can repeat the previous year.

Adequate flashback fantasy, very dated now.

w Walter Bullock d Alfred L. Werker ph Lew O'Connell m George Antheil

☆ Louis Hayward, Joan Leslie, Tom Conway, Richard Basehart, Virginia Field

Repentance ★★★

USSR 1984 155m colour
Cannon/Sovexportfilm/Gruziafilm

original title: Pokjaniye, Monanieba

A woman explains to a court why she keeps exhuming the body of the town's long-serving and much respected mayor.

A bleak and blackly humorous account of a society's complicity in a rule of terror; Abuladze uses dreams and other non-realistic techniques to create a biting allegory of the corruption of a society by Stalinism.

w Nana Djanelidze, Tengiz Abuladze, Rezo Kveselava d Tengiz Abuladze ph Mikhail Agranovich m Nana Djanelidze pd Georgy Mikeladze ed Guliko Omadze

☆ Avtandil Makharadze (Varlam Aravidze/Abel Aravidze), Ia Ninidze (Guliko, Varlam's Daughter-in-law), Merab Ninidze (Tornike, Varlam's Grandson), Zeinab Botsvadze (Katevan Barateli, Sandro's Daughter), Ketevan Abuladze (Nino Baratelli, Sandro's Wife), Edisher Giorgobiani (Sandro Baratelli, Painter), Kakhi Kavsadze (Mikhail Korisheli), Nino Zakariadze (Elena Korisheli)

'its significance as a social and historical document far outstrips its value as art.' – Washington Post

† The film did not receive a release until 1987. It was the third part of a trilogy that began with The Plea (1968) and The Wishing Tree (1976).

'Kill Or Be Replaced.'

The Replacement Killers

US 1998 86m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/WCG (Brad Grey, Bernie Brillstein)

A Chinese hitman, hired by an Asian gangster in New York to kill the young son of a cop, becomes a target himself when he decides that it is one death too many.

A not-too-successful attempt to make an American star out of a Hong Kong one, which is not helped by his rudimentary grasp of English, and action sequences that are less effective than those of his home-grown movies.

w Ken Sanzel d Antoine Fuqua ph Peter Lyons Collister m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Naomi Shohan ed Jay Cassidy

☆ Chow Yun-Fat, Mira Sorvino, Michael Rooker, Jürgen Prochnow, Kenneth Tsang, Til Schweiger, Danny Trejo

'This mechanical effort is studied rather than heartfelt and will disappoint aficionados and thwart potential fans.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

'Pros on strike. Everyday guys get to play.'

The Replacements

US 2000 118m Technicolor
Warner/Bel Air (Dylan Sellers)

When his millionaire American footballers go on strike, their team owner recruits a retired coach to find a team of replacement players.

Lowbrow, slapstick comedy that does not travel well outside the USA.

w Vince McKewin d Howard Deutch ph Tak Fujimoto m John Debney pd Dan Bishop ed Bud Smith, Seth Flaum cos Jill Ohanneson

☆ Keanu Reeves (Shane Falco), Gene Hackman (Jimmy McGinty), Orlando Jones (Clifford Franklin), Jon Favreau (Bateman), Brooke Langton (Annabelle Farrell), Rhys Ifans (Nigel Gruff), Jack Warden (Edward O'Neil), Faizon Love (Jamal), Michael 'Bear' Taliferro (Andre), Ace Yonamine (Fumiko), Troy Winbush (Walter Cochran), Keith David (Lindell)

'Most of the smooth moves come from a well-thumbed playbook, and no key player bothers to go outside the lines while tackling his stereotypical role.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Repo Man ★

US 1984 92m DeLuxe
Universal/Edge City (Peter McCarthy, Jonathan Wacks)

A repossessor of cars finds himself on the run from all manner of dangers.

Nightmarish film noir with nods to many predecessors and some elements of black fantasy.

wd Alex Cox ph Robby Müller m Tito Larriva, Steven Hufsteter

☆ Harry Dean Stanton, Emilio Estevez, Tracey Walter, Olivia Barash, Sy Richardson, Susan Barnes

'The saltiest, sweetest, most sublimely sleazy tickle in the Los Angeles ribs. If it doesn't convulse you with belly laughs, then you're a stiff.' – Carrie Rickey, Boston Herald

Report from the Aleutians ★★

US 1943 45m colour
US Signal Corps

American forces live under tough conditions on a group of Arctic islands from which they raid Japanese bases.

Simple and somewhat overlong, but still one of the better US documentaries to come out of World War II.
wd and narrated by John Huston; additional narration by Walter Huston

Report to the Commissioner

US 1974 112m Metrocolor
UA/M. J. Frankovich

GB title: Operation Undercover
A policeman's son follows in father's footsteps but finds life around Times Square dismaying.
Realistic, concerned crime melodrama with nothing very new to say.
w Abby Mann, Ernest Tidyman novel James Mills d Milton Katselas ph Mario Tosi m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Michael Moriarty, Yaphet Kotto, Susan Blakely, Hector Elizondo, Tony King, Michael McGuire
'A clear also-ran in the police thriller stakes.' – Verina Glaessner
'A bit too full of sweat and frenzy.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Repossessed

US 1990 84m CFI color
Guild/First Class films (Steve Wizan)

Attempting an exorcism on television, a priest struggles to control a demon intent on possessing the entire viewing audience.
Raucous parody of The Exorcist, crammed with jokes, most of them juvenile.
wd Bob Logan ph Michael D. Margulies m Charles Fox pd Shay Austin ed Jeff Freeman
☆ Linda Blair, Ned Beatty, Leslie Nielsen, Anthony Starke, Thom J. Sharp, Lana Schwab
'Clunking, but the jokes are just about numerous enough to stifle the groans.' – Sight and Sound

Reprieve: see Convicts Four

The Reptile ★

GB 1966 90m Technicolor
Warner-Pathé/Hammer (Anthony Nelson-Keys)

A Cornish village is terrified by several mysterious and unpleasant deaths; it turns out that the daughter of the local doctor, victim of a Malayan sect, periodically turns into a deadly snake.
Silly horror story most effectively filmed as a mixture of chills, detection and good characterization.
w John Elder d John Gilling ph Arthur Grant m Don Banks pd Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Roy Hyde
☆ Noel Willman, Jennifer Daniel, Ray Barrett, Jacqueline Pearce, Michael Ripper, John Laurie, Marne Maitland

'The nightmare world of a virgin's dreams becomes the screen's shocking reality!'

Repulsion ★★★

GB 1965 105m bw
Compton/Tekli (Gene Gutowski)

A Belgian manicurist in London is driven by pressures into neurotic withdrawal; terrified above all by sex, she locks herself up in her gloomy flat and murders her boyfriend and landlord when they try to approach her.
Weird, unmotivated but undeniably effective Grand Guignol in the form of a case history; little dialogue, which is just as well as the director at that time clearly had no ear for the language.
w Roman Polanski, Gerard Brach d Roman Polanski ph Gilbert Taylor m Chico Hamilton ad Seamus Flannery ed Alastair McIntyre
☆ Catherine Deneuve (Carol Ledoux), Ian Hendry (Michael), John Fraser (Colin), Patrick Wymark (Landlord), Yvonne Furneaux (Helen Ledoux)
'An unashamedly ugly film, but as a lynx-eyed view of a crumbling mind it is a masterpiece of the macabre.' – Daily Mail

Reputation: see Lady with a Past

Requiem ★★★ (8)

Germany 2006 93m
Soda Pictures/23/5 Filmproduktion Gmbh (Hans-Christian Schmid)

A teenage epileptic is convinced she is possessed by a demonic spirit.
Inspired by a real-life case, an evocatively dispassionate study in psychological breakdown with a brilliant central performance by Sandra Huller.
w Bernd Lange d Hans-Christian Schmid ph Bogumil Godfrejow pd Christian Goldbeck ed Berns Schlegel, Hansjorg Weibrich sp Lutz Lemke
☆ Sandra Huller (Michaela Klingler), Burghart Klausner (Karl Klingler), Imogen Kogge (Marianne Klingler), Anna Blomeier (Hanna Imhof), Nicholas Reinke (Stefan Weiser), Jens Harzer (Exorcist Martin Borchert)
'Just as haunting as a horror film, but far more heartrending.' – Gene Seymour, Newsday † Inspired by the same 1976 events dramatized in The Exorcism of Emily Rose (2005).

Requiem for a Dream ★★

US 2000 102m DeLuxe
Artisan/Thousand Words (Eric Watson, Palmer West)

Like her ineffectual, junkie son, a Coney Island mother becomes hooked on drugs.
Grim, unrelenting drama of desolation and despair, in which the energy comes from a visual style that effectively mimics the disjointed and distorted effects of drug-taking.
w Hubert Selby Jnr, Darren Aronofsky novel Hubert Selby Jnr d Darren Aronofsky ph Matthew Libatique m Clint Mansell (string quartets performed by Kronos Quartet) pd James Chinlund ed Jay Rabinowitz cos Laura Jean Shannon ☆ Ellen Burstyn (Sara Goldfarb), Jared Leto (Harry Goldfarb), Jennifer Connelly (Marion Silver), Marlon Wayans (Tyrone C. Love), Christopher McDonald (Tappy Tibbons), Louise Lasser (Ada), Keith David (Little John), Sean Gullette (Arnold the Shrink)
'It's technically striking filmmaking, to be sure, but what it's presenting is nothing that many people will want to look at.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A bleak tour de force of technique.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times
♗ Ellen Burstyn

Requiem for a Heavyweight ★

US 1962 87m bw
Columbia (David Susskind)
GB title: Blood Money
The last bouts of a prizefighter who will not realize his career is over.
Tough, effective melodrama, extremely well acted.
w Rod Serling TV play Rod Serling
d Ralph Nelson ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Laurence Rosenthal
☆ Anthony Quinn, Jackie Gleason, Mickey Rooney, Julie Harris, Stan Adams, Madame Spivy, Jack Dempsey, Cassius Clay

Requiem for a Vampire (dubbed)

France 1971 95m colour
Les Films A.B.C. (Jean Rollin)

original title: Requiem pour un Vampire
aka: Virgins and Vampires
Two young gun-toting girls on the run from killers take refuge in a ruined chateau where vampires live.
Stylish, dreamlike fantasy, with little dialogue, intermingled with scenes of sex and sadism that have no connection to the main narrative; the music is unpleasantly obtrusive.
wd Jean Rollin ph Renan Polles m Pierre Raph ed Michel Patient
☆ Marie-Pierre Castel, Mireille D'Argent, Philippe Gasté, Dominique, Louise Dhour, Paul Bisciglia
'You will get more out of this if you abandon all foolish misconceptions of discovering a coherent plotline and any form of characterisation. Rollin makes these things up as he goes along and to enjoy them you have to get into the same "anything goes" spirit. I always find a stiff drink helps fortify the critical faculties.' – The Dark Side
† The British video release runs for 78m.

Requiem for Dominic: see Requiem für Dominic

Requiem für Dominic ★★

Austria 1990 90m
Terra Film/OFF/ORF (Norbert Blecha)

aka: Requiem for Dominic
An exiled Romanian scientist returns to his home town of Timisoara to investigate the death of a friend accused of mass murder.
Based on a true story and filmed where the events happened, the documentary style thriller achieves a horrific truth by incorporating actual footage of the accused man as he lay dying.
w Michael Kohlmeier, Felix Mitterer d Robert Dorhelm ph Hans Selikovsky m Harald Kloser ed Ingrid Koller
☆ Felix Mitterer, Viktoria Schubert, August Schmolzer, Angelica Schutz, Antonia Rados, Nikolas Vogel, Georg Hoffman-Ostenhorf, Werner Prinz, Georg Metzenrad
'The most remarkable political thriller since Z ... nail-biting cinema' – Variety

Requiescant: see Kill and Pray

La Resa dei Conti: see The Big Gundown

The Rescue

US 1988 98m colour
Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners III (Laura Ziskin)

A group of American teenagers in South Korea set out to rescue their fathers, imprisoned in North Korea as spies.
Ludicrous film, of a quite stupifying banality, which even its intended audience of gung-ho 13-year-olds are likely to treat with the derision it deserves.
w Jim Thomas, John Thomas d Ferdinand Fairfax ph Russell Boyd m Bruce Broughton pd Maurice Cain ed David Holden, Carroll Timothy O'Meara
☆ Kevin Dillon, Christine Harnos, Marc Price, Ned Vaughn, Ian Giatti, Charles Haid, Edward Albert, Mel Wong

The Rescuers ★

US 1977 77m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)

The Mouse Rescue Aid Society volunteers to bring back a girl lost in a swamp.
Feature-length cartoon which, while by no means as bad as some of Disney's very routine seventies product, still seems light years away from his classics of the thirties.
w Larry Clemmons, Ken Anderson stories Margery Sharp d Wolfgang Reitherman, John Lounsbery, Art Stevens m Artie Butler
☆ Featuring the voices of Bob Newhart, Eva Gabor, Geraldine Page, Joe Flynn, Jim Jordan, John McIntire
'The people who really need rescuing are the Disney animators and cameramen.' – Time Out
'It's no Snow White but there are long moments when its inventiveness and skill are entirely captivating. I have only this one lingering doubt: if you are going to put this amount of effort into a movie shouldn't you have more at the end than a snappy collection of 330,000 drawings and a bill for six million dollars?' – Barry Took, Punch
♪ song 'Someone's Waiting for You' (m Sammy Fain, ly Carol Conners, Ayn Robbins)

The Rescuers Down Under ★★

US 1990 77m Technicolor
Warner/Walt Disney/Silver Screen Partners IV (Thomas Schumacher)

The mouse Rescue Aid Society goes to help a trapped eagle and a boy in Australia.
Slick, lively and enjoyable animated feature, an improvement on the original.
w Jim Cox, Karey Kirkpatrick, Byron Simpson, Joe Ranft d Hendel Butoy, Mike Gabriel m Bruce Broughton ad Maurice Hunt ed Michael Kelly, Mark Hester
☆ Featuring the voices of Bob Newhart, Eva Gabor, John Candy, Tristan Rogers, Adam Ryen, George C. Scott, Wayne Robson, Douglas Seale, Frank Walker, Peter Firth, Billy Barty
'Comes on like an Indiana Jones movie which has been reconceived as animation and then proceeded to push back that medium's technical boundaries.' – Sight and Sound

Reserved for Ladies: see Service for Ladies

'Let's go to work.'

Reservoir Dogs ★★★

US 1991 99m colour
Rank/Live America/Dog Eat Dog (Lawrence Bender)

While one of their number bleeds to death after a bungled robbery, the rest of the gang, hiding out in a warehouse, try to discover what went wrong.
Brilliant, if sometimes repellent, gangster movie; notably violent, it is also a tense and exciting examination of male egos on a collision course.
wd Quentin Tarantino ph Andrzej Sekula pd David Wasco ed Sally Menks
☆ Harvey Keitel (Mr. White/Larry), Tim Roth (Mr. Orange/Freddy), Michael Madsen (Mr. Blonde/Vic), Chris Penn (Nice Guy Eddie), Steve Buscemi (Mr. Pink), Lawrence Tierney (Joe Cabot), Randy Brooks (Holdaway), Kirk Baltz (Marvin Nash), Eddie Bunker (Mr. Blue), Quentin Tarantino (Mr. Brown)
'An astute mix of wit and cynicism which

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♗ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

washes down its melodramatic excesses with sly satire on the blood-and-guts elements of the crime movie, this is a film of considerable acuity and power.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

'Undeniably juicy, with its salty talk and gunplay, this film is nihilistic but not resonantly so, giving it no meaning outside the immediate story and characters. Pic is impressive, but impossible to love.' – Variety

'No one should go to see Reservoir Dogs without prior thought. But what they will see is a riveting treatment on the theme of betrayal set in an urban wasteland that murders hope and makes redemption virtually impossible.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† Quentin Tarantino has acknowledged that the film was influenced by Hong Kong director Ringo Lam's City on Fire, as well as by Stanley Kubrick's The Killing and Joseph Sargent's The Taking of Pelham 123.

'A secret experiment. A deadly virus. A fatal mistake.'

Resident Evil

GB/Germany/France 2002 100m colour
Pathé/Screen Gems/Constantin/New Legacy/Davis/Impact (Bernd Eichinger, Samuel Hadida, Jeremy Bolt, Paul W. S. Anderson)

A virus turns workers in a vast, underground laboratory into flesh-eating zombies.

Frenetic, frantic, mindless action movie that offers much less enjoyment than the computer game on which it is based.

wd Paul W. S. Anderson ph David Johnson m Marco Beltrami, Marilyn Manson pd Richard Bridgland ed Alexander Berner

☆ Milla Jovovich (Alice), Michelle Rodriguez (Rain), Eric Mabius (Matt), James Purefoy (Spence), Colin Salmon (One), Martin Crewes (Kaplan), Michaela Dicker (Red Queen)

'The movie has a frantic staccato style that is more game-oriented than cinematic. The action begins immediately, and there's no letup from the pounding barrage.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'The evil continues...'

Resident Evil Apocalypse

Canada/GB/US 2004 94m DeLuxe 'Scope
Columbia TriStar/Screen Gems/Davis Films/Impact/Constantin/ (Jeremy Bolt, Paul W.S. Anderson, Don Carmody)

In the near future, as zombies ravage a city, a woman with superhuman powers battles against a mutant killer.

A loud, silly, critic-proof sequel that will doubtless appeal to those who saw the first film; they have my sympathy.

w Paul W.S. Anderson Capcom Videogame Resident Evil d Alexander Witt ph Christian Sebaldt, Derek Rogers m Jeff Danna pd Paul Denham Austerberry ed Eddie Hamilton

☆ Milla Jovovich (Alice), Sienna Guillory (Jill Valentine), Oded Fehr (Carlos Olivera), Thomas Kretschmann (Major Cain), Sophie Vavasseur (Angie Ashford), Raz Adoti (Sgt Peyton Wells), Jared Harris (Dr Ashford), Mike Epps (L.J.)

'As unnecessary a sequel as ever got made.' – Philip French, Observer

'A dead zone, a film without interest, wit, imagination or even entertaining violence and special effects.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Respiro ★ 6

Italy/France 2002 96m colour
Metro Tartan/Fandango/Films de Tournedos/Roissy/Medusa (Domenico Procacci)

On a small Sicilan island, a self-willed woman upsets her husband and the local community by her behaviour.

Dishevelled melodrama in a seductive setting.

wd Emanuele Crialese ph Fabio Zamarion m John Surman ad Beatrice Scarpato ed Didier Ranz

☆ Valeria Golino (Grazia), Vincenzo Amato (Pietro), Francesco Casisa (Pasquale), Veronica D'Agostino (Marinella), Filippo Pucillo (Filippo)

'Merely a succession of odd events. But those events are interesting, and the texture of the village's life is full-fashioned.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

Restless: see The Beloved

'Torn from the blazing pages of Texas history!'

The Restless Breed

US 1957 81m Eastmancolor by Pathé National Pictures (Edward L. Alperson)

The son of a secret service agent arrives in a frontier town to avenge his father's death.

Standard star Western full of expected elements.

w Steve Fisher d Allan Dwan ph John Boyle m Edward L. Alperson Jnr

☆ Scott Brady, Anne Bancroft, Jay C. Flippen, Jim Davis, Rhys Williams

Restless Natives

GB 1985 89m Technicolor
Thorn EMI/Oxford Film Company (Rick Stevenson)

Two young idlers set up as modern highwaymen, robbing American visitors on coach tours; to their surprise, they become a tourist attraction.

Irritatingly patchy and amoral comedy which wastes a potentially interesting idea.

w Ninian Dunnett d Michael Hoffman ph Oliver Stapleton m Stuart Adamson pd Adrienne Atkinson ed Sean Barton

☆ Vincent Friell, Joe Mullaney, Teri Lally, Ned Beatty, Robert Urquhart

The Restless Years

US 1959 86m bw Cinemascope
Universal-International

A small-town dressmaker tries to prevent her daughter from discovering that she is illegitimate.

Antediluvian sudser with second-string talent.

w Edward Anhalt play Teach Me How to Cry by Patricia Joudry d Helmut Kautner

☆ John Saxon, Sandra Dee, Margaret Lindsay, Luana Patten, Virginia Grey Restoration ★

US 1996 118m colour
Buena Vista/Segue/Avenue/Oxford Film Company (Cary Brokaw, Andy Paterson, Sarah Ryan Black)

A young doctor falls out of favour with Charles II when he agrees to an unconsummated marriage with one of the king's mistresses but then desires her.

A sumptuous costume drama of one man's redemption, set against the excesses of the 1660s and such events as the Plague and the Great Fire of London. Underlying it, though, is a puritanical dislike of sex. (And, in reality, Charles II was happy to share his many mistresses with all-comers.)

w Rupert Walters novel Rose Tremain d Michael Hoffman ph Oliver Stapleton m James Newton Howard pd Eugenio Zanetti ed Garth Craven

☆ Robert Downey Jnr, Sam Neill, David Thewlis, Polly Walker, Meg Ryan, Ian McKellen, Hugh Grant, Ian McDiarmid, Mary Macleod

Eugenio Zanetti; costume design (James Acheson)

Resurrected ★

GB 1989 92m colour
Hobo/St Pancras Films/Film Four International/British Screen (Tara Prem, Adrian Hughes)

A soldier believed killed in the Falklands War turns up alive after the fighting is over and is accused of being a deserter.

Effective and dramatic examination of patriotism and the aftermath of battle.

w Martin Allen d Paul Greengrass ph Ivan Strasburg m John Keane pd Chris Burke ed Dan Rae

☆ David Thewlis, Tom Bell, Rita Tushingham, Michael Pollitt, Rudi Davies, William Hoyland, Ewan Stewart, Christopher Fulford, David Lonsdale

Resurrection

US 1931 81m bw
Universal

In 1870s Russia, a peasant girl is seduced by a prince and bears his child.

Unremarkable version of a much-filmed melodrama.

w Finis Fox novel Leo Tolstoy d Edwin Carewe ph Robert B. Kurrle, Al Green m Dimitri Tiomkin

☆ Lupe Velez, John Boles, Nance O'Neil, William Keighley, Rose Tapley

† See also: We Live Again.

Resurrection

US 1980 103m Technicolor
Universal (Renee Missel, Howard Rosenman)

A woman who has escaped death in a car crash finds herself miraculously able to heal others.

Curious modern parable with nowhere to go; even religious reactionaries may find it rather boring.

w Lewis John Carlino d Daniel Petrie ph Mario Tosi m Maurice Jarre

☆ Ellen Burstyn, Sam Shepard, Richard Farnsworth, Eva LeGallienne, Roberts Blossom, Clifford David

Ellen Burstyn; Eva LeGallienne (supporting actress)

'Be afraid. For he is coming.'

Resurrection

US 1999 108m DeLuxe
Interlight/Baldwin/Cohen/Resurrection (Howard Baldwin, Christopher Lambert, Patrick Choi, Nile Niami)

A Chicago detective goes after a serial killer who is removing body parts from his victims in order to reconstruct the body of Christ in time for Easter.

Slickly-made, gruesome thriller that recycles familiar elements – a maverick cop traumatised by a private grief, a clever, obsessional killer given to macabre rituals – as it languishes in the shadow of Seven.

w Brad Mirman d Russell Mulcahy ph Jonathan Freeman m James McGrath pd Tim Boyd ed Gordon McClellan

☆ Christopher Lambert (John Prudhomme), Barbara Tyson (Sara Prudhomme), Rick Fox (Scholfield), Leland Orser (Det. Andrew Hollinsworth), David Cronenberg (Father Rousell), Jonathan Potts (Det. Moltz), Peter Macneill (Captain Whippley), Philip Williams (Rousch)

'Get right to the source of the fear.'

Resurrection Man ★

GB 1998 102m Rank Colour
Polygram/Revolution (Andrew Eaton)

In Belfast in the mid-70s, a psychopath leads a gang of Loyalists on a Catholic killing spree.

Grim and bloody portrait of a born killer who is as much influenced by James Cagney's gangster antics as by any political convictions; the film, too, is shackled by movie conventions.

w Eoin McNamee novel Eoin McNamee d Marc Evans ph Pierre Aim m David Holmes, Gary Burns, Keith Tenniswood pd Mark Tildesley ed John Wilson

☆ Stuart Townsend, Geraldine O'Rawe, James Nesbitt, Brenda Fricker, John Hannah, James Ellis, Sean McGinley, Derek Thompson, Zara Turner, B. J. Hogg

'The film leaves you with a feeling of having been on an occasionally unguided tour of an abattoir.' – Richard Falcon, Sight and Sound

Le Retour de Martin Guerre: see The Return of Martin Guerre

Le Retour du Grand Blond: see Return of the Tall Blond

Retreat, Hell!

US 1952 95m bw
(Warner) United States (Milton Sperling)

Adventures of a Marine unit in the Korean War.

Standard war film.

w Milton Sperling, Ted Sherdeman d Joseph H. Lewis ph Warren Lynch m William Lava

☆ Frank Lovejoy, Richard Carlson, Anita Louise, Russ Tamblyn Retribution

US 1988 108m colour
Medusa/Unicorn/Renegade (Guy Magar)

A shy artist is possessed by the vengeful spirit of a murderer.

Gory, predictable and fussily frenetic horror movie.

w Guy Magar, Lee Wasserman d Guy Magar ph Gary Thieltges m Alan Howarth pd Robb Wilson King ed Guy Magar

☆ Dennis Lipscomb, Leslie Wing, Suzanne Snyder, Jeff Pomerantz, George Murdock, Pamela Dunlap, Susan Peretz

The Return ★★

Russia 2003 110m colour
REN TV (Dmitri Lesnevsky)

original title: Vozvrashcheniye

Two boys go on a fishing trip with the stern father they hardly know when he returns home after an absence of twelve years.

An elusive drama that leaves much unexplained, including the father's sudden reappearance and the real reason for his trip with his sons, but maintains a disquieting atmosphere of dread.

w Vladimir Moiseenko, Alexandre Novototsky d Andrei Zvyagintsev ph Mikhail Krichman m Andrei Dergachev pd Janna Pakhomova ed Vladimir Mogilevsky

☆ Ivan Dobronravov (Ivan), Vladimir Garin (Andrei), Konstantin Lavronenko (Father), Natalia Vdovina (Mother)

'Seems canonical, as if it has been there all along: an old-fashioned, satisfying piece of storytelling which looks languorously beautiful, while at the same time fastening itself to your attention like the bite of a snake.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† It won the Golden Lion for best film at the 2003 Venice Film Festival.

†† 16 year-old Vladimir Garin was drowned in an accident soon after filming was completed.

'The past never dies... it kills!'

The Return ③

US 2006 85m
Rogue Pictures/Intrepid Pictures (Aaron Ryder, Jeffrey Silver)

A travelling sales rep finds she is haunted by nightmare visions of an unsolved murder.
A tedious slog through terror clichés. Neither gripping nor scary enough.
w Adam Sussman d Asif Kapadia ph Roman Osin m Dario Marianelli pd Therese DePrez ad Steve Joyner, Jeff Knipp ed Claire Simpson sp Joe DiGaetano
☆ Sarah Michelle Gellar (Joanna Mills), Sam Shepard (Ed Mills), Adam Scott (Kurt), J C MacKenzie (Griff & Young Griff), Frank Ertl (Ambrose Miller)

'Mellow — nay, snoozy — atmospherics trump actual scares, and it makes almost zero sense.' – Entertainment Weekly – Gregory Kirshling

Return from the Ashes ★

GB 1965 104m bw Panavision
UA/Mirisch (J. Lee-Thompson)

A woman returns from Dachau to find that her husband is living with her step-daughter and that they plan to murder her.
Broken-backed thriller melodrama, the first half of which is quite irrelevant to the second. The whole is modestly inventive for those who don't mind a mixture of Enoch Arden, Psycho and Dial M for Murder with a touch of the concentration camps and a background of post-war misery.
w Julius J. Epstein novel Hubert Monteilhet d J. Lee-Thompson ph Christopher Challis m Johnny Dankworth
☆ Ingrid Thulin, Maximilian Schell, Samantha Eggar, Herbert Lom

Return from the River Kwai

GB 1988 101m colour
Rank/Screenlife Establishment (Kurt Unger)

An American pilot teams up with a British officer to try to prevent the Japanese taking prisoners of war back to Japan.
Rambling adventure movie that has no connection, other than its title, with The Bridge on the River Kwai.
w Sargon Tamini, Paul Mayersberg book Joan Blair, Clay Blair Jnr d Andrew V. McLaglen ph Arthur Wooster m Lalo Schifrin pd Michael Stringer ed Alan Strachan
☆ Edward Fox, Denholm Elliott, Christopher Penn, Tatsuya Nakadai, George Takei, Nick Tate, Timothy Bottoms, Michael Dante, Richard Graham

Return from Witch Mountain

US 1978 93m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller, Jerome Courtland)

A brother and sister from outer space come back to Earth for a vacation and are used by crooks for their own purposes.
Acceptable sequel to Escape from Witch Mountain, with improved special effects.
w Malcolm Marmorstein d John Hough ph Frank Phillips m Lalo Schifrin sp Eustace Lycett, Art Cruickshank, Danny Lee ☆ Bette Davis, Christopher Lee, Ike Eisenmann, Kim Richards, Jack Soo

Return Home

Australia 1989 90m colour
Musical Films/Film Victoria/Australian Film Commission (Cristina Pozzan)

Unhappy with his life, a successful insurance broker returns to his home town to visit his brother who runs a garage.
Amiable domestic drama that comes to few conclusions slowly.
wd Ray Argall ph Mandy Walker ad Kerith Holmes ed Ken Sallows
☆ Dennis Coard, Frankie J. Holden, Ben Mendelsohn, Micki Camilleri

The Return of a Man Called Horse ★

US 1976 125m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Sandy Howard/Richard Harris

The English nobleman of A Man Called Horse goes back to the West to save his adopted Indian tribe from extinction.
Another 'realistic' action adventure with torture highlights; nicely made, but not for the squeamish.
w Jack de Witt d Irvin Kershner ph Owen Roizman m Laurence Rosenthal ☆ Richard Harris, Gale Sondergaard, Geoffrey Lewis, Bill Lucking, Jorge Luke

'Maintains a tidy balance between nausea and boredom.' – Judith Crist

† At 17 minutes, this pre-title sequence must be the longest so far.

Return of a Stranger

GB 1937 69m bw
Sun/Premier
US title: The Face Behind the Scar

A chemist's elopement with his boss's daughter runs into problems when he is accused of murder.
Stilted melodrama, both in performance and direction; too often it suggests a view from the stalls of a provincial repertory theatre.
w Reginald Long, Akos Tolnay play Rudolf Lothar d Victor Hanbury ph James Wilson m Jack Beaver ad Jack Hallward, Philip Balcombe ed Ralph Thomas ☆ Ellis Jeffreys, Athole Stewart, Cecil Ramage, Griffith Jones, Rosalyn Boulter, Sylvia Marriot, James Harcourt, Tarver Penna

The Return of Bulldog Drummond

GB 1934 71m bw
BIP

Drummond forms a society to oust crooked foreigners from Britain.
Thin Drummond exploit with traces of the original Fascism.
wd Walter Summers novel The Black Gang by 'Sapper' ph Jack Parker ad John Mead
☆ Ralph Richardson, Ann Todd, Francis L. Sullivan, Claud Allister, Joyce Kennedy, Pat Aherne

The Return of Captain Invincible

Australia 1982 91m Eastmancolor Panavision
Seven Keys/Willarra

An American superhero is discovered in the back streets of Sydney, a down-and-out drunk; but his skills are needed for the fight against Mr Midnight.
Occasionally agreeable spoof which for most of its length is too frantic.
w Steven E. de Souza, Andrew Gaty d Philippe Mora ☆ Alan Arkin, Christopher Lee, Kate Fitzpatrick, Bill Hunter, Michael Pate, John Bluthal

The Return of Count Yorga

US 1971 97m Movielab
AIP/Peppertree (Michael Macready)

Count Yorga falls in love with an orphan while killing most of the orphanage's other inhabitants.
A second instalment that is as amateurish as the first, though also suffering from the belief that a great deal of screaming is automatically scary; its tempo remains so somnambulistic that it is closer to a zombie movie than a conventional tale of vampires.
w Bob Kelljan, Yvonne Wilder d Bob Kelljan ph Bill Butler m Bill Marx ed Fabien Tordjmann, Laurette Odney
☆ Robert Quarry, Mariette Hartley, Roger Perry, Yvonne Wilder, Tom Toner, Rudy DeLuca, Philip Frame, George Macready, Walter Brooke

Return of Daimajin: see Daimajin Gyakushu

The Return of Dr X ★

US 1939 62m bw
Warner (Bryan Foy)

A modern vampire terrorizes the city.
Minor thriller which doesn't get going till the last reel; only notable for Bogart's appearance as the monster. Nothing to do with Dr X.
w Lee Katz novel The Doctor's Secret by William J. Makin d Vincent Sherman ph Sid Hickox m Bernhard Kaun
☆ Dennis Morgan, Rosemary Lane, Wayne Morris, Humphrey Bogart, Olin Howland, John Litel

The Return of Dracula ★

US 1958 77m bw
UA/Gramercy (Jules V. Levy, Arthur Gardner)
GB title: The Fantastic Disappearing Man

A European vampire makes his way to an American small town in the guise of a refugee Iron Curtain painter.
Quite nicely made low-budget horror film with a good balance of the supernatural and the ordinary.
w Pat Fielder d Paul Landres ph Jack MacKenzie m Gerald Fried ☆ Francis Lederer, Norma Eberhardt, Ray Stricklyn, Jimmy Baird, John Wengraf

The Return of Frank James ★

US 1940 92m Technicolor
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A sequel to Jesse James (qv).
Moody, nicely photographed Western in which Jesse's brother avenges his murder.
w Sam Hellman d Fritz Lang ph George Barnes, William V. Skall m David Buttolph
☆ Henry Fonda, Gene Tierney, Jackie Cooper, Henry Hull, John Carradine, J. Edward Bromberg, Donald Meek, Eddie Collins, George Barbier

'I doubt if any character was ever as lily white as that of Frank James here, but that is a present from the Hays Office to you, and anyway the part is played by Henry Fonda. Durn if I don't like that boy.' – Otis Ferguson

The Return of Martin Guerre ★

France 1982 123m Fujicolour
Palace/Marcel Dassault/SFP

original title: Le Retour de Martin Guerre

In the 16th century, a man comes to a French village claiming to be the one who left his wife and child eight years before. Complaints are laid that he is an impostor.
Mildly intriguing story which falls apart because one is never sure where the film's sympathies lie.
w Jean-Claude Carrière, Daniel Vigne d Daniel Vigne ph André Neau m Michel Portal ad Alain Negre ed Denise de Casabianca ☆ Gérard Depardieu, Nathalie Baye, Sylvie Meda, Maurice Barrier

'By far the most enigmatic film seen in London this year.' – Sunday Times
'A plodding, confusing narrative that neither does proper justice to the story nor really teases out the complex historical, moral and psychological issues which it raises.' – Observer

The Return of Monte Cristo ★

US 1946 92m bw
Columbia/Edward Small-Grant Whytock
GB title: Monte Cristo's Revenge

The grandson of the original count is framed and sent to Devil's Island, but escapes.
Very tolerable action romp of its time, with a fair troupe of actors enjoying themselves.
w George Bruce, Alfred Neumann, Kurt Siodmak d Henry Levin ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Lucien Moraweck
☆ Louis Hayward, Barbara Britton, George Macready, Una O'Connor, Henry Stephenson, Steve Geray, Ray Collins, Ludwig Donath, Ivan Triesault

The Return of October

US 1948 89m Technicolor
Columbia
GB title: A Date with Destiny

A girl's inheritance is contested on the grounds that she thinks a horse is the reincarnation of her Uncle Willie.
Thin whimsy which leaves its stars with egg on their faces.
w Norman Panama, Melvin Frank d Joseph H. Lewis ph William Snyder m George Duning
☆ Glenn Ford, Terry Moore, Dame May Whitty, James Gleason, Albert Sharpe

'Rather furiously whimsical, but worth an occasional smile.' – New Yorker

The Return of Peter Grimm

US 1935 82m bw
RKO

A strong-minded family man returns as a ghost to see how his family is getting on without him.
Fairly satisfying fantasy with good performances.
w Francis Edward Faragoh play David Belasco d George Nicholls Jnr ☆ Lionel Barrymore, Helen Mack, Edward Ellis, Donald Meek

'Sombre fantasy ... pretty dull and boresome.' – Variety

† Previously filmed in 1926 with Alec B. Francis and Janet Gaynor.

The Return of Ringo (dubbed) ★★

Italy/Spain 1965 96m Eastmancolor
Golden Era/Mediterranee/Rizzoli/Balcàzar (Alberto Pugliese, Luciano Ercoli) original title: Il Ritorno di Ringo

Returning home after the Civil War, a man discovers that the town, including his family and home, have been taken over by a Mexican bandit.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Superior spaghetti Western that allows room for character development among the usual baroque touches.
w Duccio Tessari, Fernando Di Leo d Duccio Tessari ph Francisco Marin
m Ennio Morricone ad Juan Alberto Soler
ed Lucia Quaglia
☆ Giuliano Gemma, Fernando Sancho, Hally Hammond (Lorella de Luca), Nieves Navarro, Antonio Casas, Pajarito, Jorge Martin
† The movie was a sequel to A Pistol for Ringo (qv).

Return of Sabata (dubbed)

Italy/France/West Germany 1971 88m Technicolor Techniscope
UA/PEA/Artistes Associés/Artemis (Alberto Grimaldi)

original title: E Tornato Sabata ... Hai Chiuso un'Altra Volta
The gunfighter Sabata is double-crossed by an old friend in his search for gold but emerges victorious as usual.
Almost a repeat of the original film, except that it now lacks the element of surprise and has little else to offer.
w Renato Izzo, Gianfranco Parolini
d Frank Kramer (aka Gianfranco Parolini) ph Sandro Mancori m Marcello Giombini ad Luciano Puccini ed Gianfranco Parolini, Salvatore Aventario
☆ Lee Van Cleef (Sabata), Reiner Schöne (Clyde), Annabella Incontrera (Maggie), Gianni Rizzo (Jeremy Sweeney), Gianpiero Albertini (McIntock), Pedro Sanchez (aka Ignazio Spalla) (Bronco), Nick Jordan (aka Aldo Canti) (Angel), Jacqueline Alexandre (Jackie)
'Fairly run-of-the-mill Spaghetti Western, with the usual quota of menacing close-ups and modish camera angles.' – Alistair Whyte, MFB
† The film was a sequel to Sabata (qv). It was originally released in Italy at 107m.

Return of Superfly

US 1990 95m colour
Crash Pictures (Sig Shore, Anthony Wisdom)

A former drug-dealer decides to destroy his old gang.
Dull and violent sequel that hits a new low.
w Anthony Wisdom d Sig Shore
ph Anghel Decca m Curtis Mayfield
pd Jeremie Frank ed John Mullen
☆ Nathan Purdee, Margaret Avery, Leonard Thomas, Christopher Curry
'Shore brings no style or humor to a routine portrayal of New York's drug underground.' – Variety

Return of the Ape Man: see The Ape Man

The Return of the Bad Men

US 1948 90m bw
RKO (Nat Holt)

A farmer tries to reform the female leader of a terrorist outlaw gang, but she is killed in a bank raid.
Standard, well-shot Western which contrives to introduce a number of well-known historical bandits.
w Charles O'Neal, Jack Natteford, Luci Ward d Ray Enright ph J. Roy Hunt
m Roy Webb md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ☆ Randolph Scott, Robert Ryan, Anne Jeffreys, Jacqueline White, Steve Brodie
'Riding to greater glory as the gay O. Henry hero!'

The Return of the Cisco Kid

US 1939 70m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

The Kid escapes a Mexican firing squad into Arizona and defeats swindlers.
Modest Western with plenty of zip.
w Milton Sperling d Herbert I. Leeds
☆ Warner Baxter, Lynn Bari, Cesar Romero, Henry Hull, Kane Richmond, C. Henry Gordon, Robert Barrat
'Substantial fare for adventure audiences.' – Variety

The Return of the Corsican Brothers: see Bandits of Corsica

Return of the Dragon: see The Way of the Dragon

The Return of The Evil Dead

Spain 1973 91m Eastmancolor
London International/Ancla Century (Roman Plana)

original title: El Ataque de los Muertos sin Ojos
Devil-worshipping Knights Templar, blinded and killed by villagers in the Middle Ages, rise from their graves to slaughter the locals and a visiting American.
Gruesome but dull horror movie, one of a series featuring the dead Knights.
wd Amando de Ossorio ph Miguel F. Mila
m Tony Abril ed Joseph Anthony ☆ Tony Kendal, Fernando Sancha, Esther Rey, Lone Fleming, Frank Blake

'Blood-Curdling Giant Fly-Creature Runs Amok!'
'Scream At The Human Terror Created By Atoms Gone Wild!'
'Scream At Ghastly Fly Monster As He Keeps A Love Tryst!'
'Scream At The Desperate Search For The Fly With A Heart Of A Man!'

Return of the Fly

US 1959 80m bw
TCF (Bernard Glasser)

The son of the original fly man meets the same fate as his father.
Cheerless follow-up.
wd Edward Bernds ph Brydon Baker
m Paul Sawtell, Bert Shefter
☆ Vincent Price, Brett Halsey, John Sutton, David Frankham, Dan Seymour

Return of the Jedi: see Star Wars: Episode VI – Return of the Jedi

'They're back – and they're hungry!'

The Return of The Living Dead

US 1985 90m DeLuxe
Tom Fox/Hemdale/Orion

The army is called in to repel a zombie onslaught.
Cult horror movie hailed by some as a black comedy, but likely to repel most audiences.
wd Dan O'Bannon story Rudy Ricci, John Russo, Russell Streiner ph Jules Brenner
m Matt Clifford pd William Stout
ed Robert Gordon
☆ Clu Gulager, James Karen, Don Calfa, Thom Mathews

'Back From The Dead And Hungry For More.'

Return of The Living Dead III

US 1993 105m Foto-Kem
Trimark/Bandai Visual/Ozla (Gary Schmoeller, Brian Yuzna)

A youth who spies on an experiment to revive the dead decides to bring his girlfriend back to life when she is killed in a motorcycle accident.
A Romeo and Juliet for the splatter generation: an extremely gory movie of flesh-eating zombies, aimed unerringly at the teens and twenties with its narrative of young love gone awry; it is slickly done, though its scenes with blood-spattered, mutilated bodies and decaying corpses are not for the squeamish.
w John Penney d Brian Yuzna ph Gerry Lively m Barry Goldberg pd Anthony Tremblay ed Christopher Roth sp Steve Johnson, Tim Ralston, Kevin Brennan, Christopher Nelson, Wayne Toth ☆ Mindy Clarke, J. Trevor Edmond, Kent McCord, Sarah Douglas, James T. Callahan, Mike Moroff, Sal Lopez, Basil Wallace
'A pedestrian and gruesome, but never really scary, story.' – Variety
'The best of the series so far, with a back-to-basics scenario that goes for solid scares rather than splatter spoofery ... one of the best zombie movies since the glory days of George Romero.' – The Dark Side
† The film was released direct to video in Britain in an uncut version. For the American cinema release, which runs for 97m, some of the bloodier scenes were removed.

Return of The Living Dead Part II

US 1987 89m Photolab
Guild/Lorimar/Greenfox (Tom Fox)

Brain-eating zombies attack a small town.
Dismal horror movie, unable to raise chills or laughs.
wd Ken Widerhorn ph Robert Elswit m J. Peter Robinson, Vladimir Horunzhy ad Dale Allan Pelton ed Charles Bornstein
☆ James Karen, Thom Mathews, Dana Ashbrook, Marsha Dietlein, Suzanne Snyder, Philip Bruns, Michael Kenworthy, Thor Van Lingen, Jason Hogan
'The film is typical of the juvenile, enervating would-be comic approach adopted by too many horror movies in the late 80s.' – Kim Newman, MFB

Return of the Magnificent Seven: see Return of the Seven

The Return of the Musketeers

GB/France/Spain 1989 101m colour
Entertainment/Timoth Burrill Productions/Fildebroc-Cine 5/Iberoamericana (Pierre Spengler)

The daughter of Milady de Winter vows vengeance on the Musketeers who were responsible for her mother's execution.
A sequel to The Four Musketeers, it is a lacklustre affair of four middle-aged failures attempting to redeem themselves.
w George MacDonald Fraser novel Vingt Ans Après by Alexandre Dumas d Richard Lester ph Bernard Lutic m Jean-Claude Petit pd Gil Parrondo ed John Victor Smith
☆ Michael York, Oliver Reed, Frank Finlay, C. Thomas Howell, Kim Cattrall, Geraldine Chaplin, Roy Kinnear, Christopher Lee, Philippe Noiret, Richard Chamberlain, Eusebio Lazaro, Alan Howard, Jean-Pierre Cassel
'The Return should never have been made.' – Christopher Lee

The Return of the Pink Panther ★

GB 1974 113m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Jewel/Pimlico/Mirisch/Geoffrey (Blake Edwards)

When the Pink Panther diamond – national treasure of the Eastern state of Lugash – is once again stolen, bungling Inspector Clouseau is called in.
Rehash of jokes from The Pink Panther (qv), not bad in parts but a rather tedious whole.
w Frank Waldman, Blake Edwards d Blake Edwards ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Henry Mancini
☆ Peter Sellers, Christopher Plummer, Herbert Lom, Catherine Schell, Peter Arne, Peter Jeffrey, Grégoire Aslan, David Lodge, Graham Stark
'The film never comes fully to the boil, but simmers in a series of self-contained, self-destructing little set pieces.' – Richard Combs
'The first film in history to be upstaged by its own credit titles.' – Benny Green, Punch

The Return of the Scarlet Pimpernel ★

GB 1937 94m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda, Arnold Pressburger)

Sir Percy Blakeney saves his wife and other French aristos from the guillotine.
Predictable, stylish revolutionary romance, much thinner in plot and performance than its predecessor.
w Lajos Biro, Arthur Wimperis, Adrian Brunel d Hans Schwarz ph Mutz Greenbaum m Arthur Benjamin ☆ Barry K. Barnes, Sophie Stewart, Margaretta Scott, James Mason, Henry Oscar, Francis Lister, Anthony Bushell

Return of the Seven

US 1966 95m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Mirisch/CB (Ted Richmond)

aka: Return of the Magnificent Seven
The seven gunmen, slightly reconstituted, fight again to rescue some kidnapped farmers.
The mixture as before (see The Magnificent Seven*); adequate but scarcely inspired.*
w Larry Cohen d Burt Kennedy ph Paul Vogel m Elmer Bernstein ☆ Yul Brynner, Robert Fuller, Julian Mateos, Warren Oates, Claude Akins, Virgilio Teixeira, Emilio Fernandez, Jordan Christopher, Fernando Rey
♪ Elmer Bernstein

The Return of the Soldier ★

GB 1982 102m Technicolor
Brent Walker/Barry R. Cooper (Ann Skinner, Simon Relph)

In 1916, a shellshocked soldier returns home, able to remember his old sweetheart but not his wife.
Overcast and heavy-handed treatment of a classy novella.
w Hugh Whitemore novel Rebecca West
d Alan Bridges ph Stephen Goldblatt
m Richard Rodney Bennett pd Luciana Arrighi ☆ Alan Bates, Ann-Margret, Julie Christie, Glenda Jackson, Jeremy Kemp, Edward de Souza, Frank Finlay, Jack May, Ian Holm
'The film has nowhere to go except into rhetorical bluster about class distinctions.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Return of the Swamp Thing

US 1989 85m DeLuxe
Medusa/Lightyear Entertainment/J & M Entertainment (Benjamin Melniker, Michael E. Uslan)

A mad scientist is thwarted from using his step-daughter in genetic experiments by a vegetable monster.
Ineffectual and relentlessly jokey approach to a comic-book hero.
w Derek Spencer, Grant Morris d Jim Wynorski ph Zoran Hochstatter m Chuck Cirino pd Robb Wilson King ed Leslie Rosenthal
☆ Louis Jourdan, Heather Locklear, Sarah Douglas, Dick Durock, Joey Sagal, Ace Mask, Chris Doyle, Daniel Taylor

Return of the Tall Blond ★

France 1974 89m colour
Fox-Rank/Gaumont/De la Gueville (Alain Poiré, Yves Robert)

original title: Le Retour du Grand Blond
A violinist is once again caught up in rivalry between the police and the secret service.
Enjoyable, gently humorous sequel that lives up to the original.
w Francis Veber, Yves Robert d Yves Robert ph René Mathelin m Vladimir Cosma pd Guy Blanc ed Ghislaine Desjonquières, Françoise London
☆ Pierre Richard, Mireille Darc, Jean Carmet, Jean Rochefort, Michel Duchaussoy, Paul Le Person, Colette Castel
'The film never loses its light-hearted humour.' – MFB
† A sequel to Le Grand Blond avec une Chaussure Noire.

The Return of the Terror

US 1934 65m bw
Warner

A scientist feigns insanity to avoid prosecution for murder, and escapes to his old sanatorium, where murder strikes again.
Barnstorming murder mystery borrowing its title and nothing else from Edgar Wallace.
w Eugene Solow, Peter Milne d Howard Bretherton
☆ John Halliday, Mary Astor, Lyle Talbot, Frank McHugh, Irving Pichel, J. Carrol Naish
'Formula mystery, but speedy.' – Variety

'Terrifying! Paralysing! Horrifying!'

The Return of the Vampire ★

US 1943 69m bw
Columbia (Sam White)

Dracula reappears amid the London blitz.
Surprisingly well made and complexly plotted horror film; it looks good and only lacks humour. The wolf man, however, is a regrettable intrusion.
w Griffin Jay d Lew Landers ph John Stumar, L. J. O'Connell m Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco md Morris Stoloff
☆ Bela Lugosi, Nina Foch, Frieda Inescort, Miles Mander, Matt Willis, Roland Varno, Ottola Nesmith

Return to Boggy Creek

US 1977 87m colour
Bayou (Bob Gates)

An hairy ape-like swamp creature helps save children who get lost during a storm.
Mild monster fantasy for children, not well done.
w Dave Woody d Tom Moore ph Robert Bethard ed Jerry Caraway
☆ Dawn Well (Jolene), Dana Plato (Evie Jo), Marcus Claudel (T-Fish), David Sobiesk (John Paul), John Hofeus (Grandpa), Jim Wilson (Uncle Bo)

Return to Glennascaul ★

Eire 1951 23m bw
Dublin Gate Theatre

Orson Welles gives a man a lift and is told a gentle ghost story.
Neither very satisfying nor very well done, this little film deserves a niche in history because of the talents involved. It was apparently made during one of the many intervals in the filming of Othello.
wd Hilton Edwards narrator Orson Welles short film

Return to Macon County

US 1975 89m Movielab
AIP/Macon Service Company (Eliot Schick)

In the fifties, two wandering youths pick up a waitress and have serious trouble with a manic policeman in America's unfriendliest area.
Slam-bang sequel to Macon County Line, rather unintentionally comic.
wd Richard Compton ph Jacques Marquette m Robert O. Ragland ☆ Nick Nolte, Don Johnson, Robin Mattson, Robert Viharo

'A comedy straight from the heart.'

Return to Me

US 2000 113m DeLuxe
MGM/JLT (Jennie Lew Tugend)

A widower discovers that the waitress he is dating had a heart transplant from his dead wife.
Slight and sentimental romantic comedy that trundles along in an obvious way to its feel-good ending.
w Bonnie Hunt, Don Lake d Bonnie Hunt ph Laszlo Kovacs m Nicholas Pike pd Brent Thomas ed Garth Craven cos Lis Bothwell
☆ David Duchovny (Bob Rueland), Minnie Driver (Grace Briggs), Carroll O'Connor (Marty O'Reilly), Robert Loggia (Angelo Pardipillo), Bonnie Hunt (Megan Dayton), David Alan Grier (Charlie Johnson), Joely Richardson (Elizabeth Rueland), Eddie Jones (Emmett McFadden), James Belushi (Joe Dayton), Marianne Muellerleile (Sophie), William Bronder (Wally Jatczak)
'Harmless but unexciting confection.' – Variety

'Faith, trust and pixie dust.'

Return to Never Land ★

US 2002 72m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Christopher Chase, Michelle Robinson, Dan Rounds)

The daughter of Wendy, who only half-believes her mother's tales of Peter Pan, is kidnapped by Captain Hook and taken to Never Land.
Another of Disney's sequels to better films of half a century ago; it's lively enough, but seems sadly dated.
w Temple Mathews, Carter Crocker d Robin Budd, Donovan Cook m Joel McNeely ad Wendell Luebbe ed Anthony F. Rocco ☆ voices of: Harriet Owen (Jane/Young Wendy), Blayne Weaver (Peter Pan), Corey Burton (Captain Hook), Jeff Bennett (Smee/Pirates), Kath Soucie (Wendy), Andrew McDonough (Danny)
'A bright and energetic animated comedy, with all the slick polish we expect from Disney, but it's not much more.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Return to Oz

US 1985 110m Technicolor
Walt Disney/Silver Screen Partners (Paul Maslansky)

Dorothy has traumas because of her Oz experiences, and suffers further nightmares under shock treatment.
A weird way to treat a children's classic, the result being a movie which appealed strongly to nobody except, possibly, the producer. The Disney people should have known better.
w Walter Murch, Gill Dennis d Walter Murch ph David Watkin m David Shire ☆ Fairuza Balk, Jean Marsh, Nicol Williamson, Piper Laurie, Matt Clark, Emma Ridley
'Astonishingly sombre, melancholy, and sadly unengaging.' – Variety
'Without musical numbers this narrative seems a perilously thin journey with no particular purpose.' – Time Out

Return to Paradise ★

US 1953 109m Technicolor
UA/Aspen (Theron Warth)

A peace seeker settles on a tiny South Sea island and leaves when his wife dies; he returns after World War II with his daughter.
Curious idyll, slow but not displeasing.
w Charles Kaufman novel James Michener d Mark Robson ph Winton Hoch m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Gary Cooper, Barry Jones, Roberta Haynes, Moira MacDonald

'Give up three years of their lives or give up the life of their friend. They have eight days to decide.'

Return to Paradise

US 1998 111m colour
Polygram/Propaganda/Tetragram (Alain Bernheim, Steve Golin)

Two American men, who discover that their friend is about to be executed for drug offences in Malaysia, have to choose between letting him die or returning to testify, and facing possible imprisonment themselves.
A drama of total predictability; it raises moral issues only to avoid resolving them.
w Wesley Strick, Bruce Robinson screenplay Pierre Jolivet, Olivier Schatzky d Joseph Ruben ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Mark Mancina pd Bill Groom ed Andrew Mondshein, Craig McKay
☆ Vince Vaughn, Anne Heche, Joaquin Phoenix, David Conrad, Vera Farmiga, Nick Sandow, Jada Pinkett Smith
'Disappointingly conventional treatment of an intriguing story that could have used either more narrative zing or greater thematic complexity.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† It is a remake of the 1989 French film Force Majeure (qv).

Return to Peyton Place ★

US 1961 122m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/API (Jerry Wald)

Constance Mackenzie's daughter writes a novel about Peyton Place and falls in love with the publisher.
More closets are unlocked, more skeletons fall out; for addicts, the sequel does not disappoint, and it's all very glossy.
w Ronald Alexander d José Ferrer ph Charles G. Clarke m Franz Waxman ☆ Jeff Chandler, Carol Lynley, Eleanor Parker, Mary Astor, Robert Sterling, Luciana Paluzzi, Brett Halsey, Tuesday Weld
'Enough soap suds to pollute the Mississippi along with the mind.' – Judith Crist, 1973

Return to Snowy River

Australia 1988 97m colour Panavision
Burrowes Film Group/Hoyts

aka: The Man from Snowy River Part II
aka: The Untamed
Returning home with a herd of horses, a restless young rancher finds that he is resented by the more conventional settlers, who plan to dispossess him of his land.
Stolid sequel to a local success; an uninspired drama which does not have much to offer other than a great many horses.
w John Dixon, Geoff Burrowes d Geoff Burrowes ph Keith Wagstaff m Bruce Rowland pd Leslie Binns ed Gary Woodyard
☆ Tom Burlinson, Sigrid Thornton, Brian Denneby, Nicholas Eadie, Bryan Marshall, Mark Hembrow, Rhys McConnochie, Peter Cummins

Return to the Blue Lagoon

US 1991 98m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Price (William A. Graham)

A mother, her daughter and an orphaned boy are washed up on a desert island; the girl and boy grow to adulthood and fall in love.
A sequel that, once it has disposed of the adult, is virtually a remake of the 1980 version and no better the second time around.
w Leslie Stevens novel The Garden of God by Henry de Vere Stacpoole d William A. Graham ph Robert Steadman m Basil Poledouris pd Jon Dowding ed Ronald J. Fagan ☆ Milla Jovovich, Brian Krause, Lisa Pelikan, Courtney Phillips

Reuben, Reuben ★

US 1982 101m CFI color
Saltair/Taft (Walter Shenson)

A drunken British poet upsets a New England community.
Oddball comedy at which one laughs without much enthusiasm.
w Julius J. Epstein play Spofford by Herman Shumlin novel Peter de Vries d Robert Ellis Miller ph Peter Stein m Billy Goldenberg pd Peter Larkin
☆ Tom Conti, Kelly McGillis, Roberts Blossom, Cynthia Harris, Joel Fabiani
Tom Conti; adaptation

Reunion

US 1936 83m bw
Darryl Zanuck/TCF
GB title: Hearts in Reunion

When a doctor retires, the townsfolk reunite him with many of the children he has brought into the world.
Tiresome second attempt to cash in on the Dionne Quintuplets, who make several appearances.
w Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, Sonya Levien d Norman Taurog
☆ Jean Hersholt, Rochelle Hudson, Helen Vinson, Slim Summerville, J. Edward Bromberg, Sara Haden
'Too episodic to command interest or supply suspense.' – Variety
† A sequel to The Country Doctor.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Reunion
France/West Germany/GB 1989 110m colour
Rank/Les Films Ariane/FR3/NEF/CLG/TAC (Anne Françoise)

original title: L'Ami Retrouvé
Returning to Germany as an old man, a Jewish lawyer recalls a schoolboy friendship destroyed by the Nazis' anti-Semitism.
Minimally scripted, ploddingly directed and lacking in emotional weight.
w Harold Pinter novel Reunion by Fred Uhlman d Jerry Schatzberg ph Bruno de Keyzer m Philippe Sarde pd Alexandre Trauner ed Martine Barraque
☆ Jason Robards, Christien Anholt, Samuel West, Françoise Fabian, Maureen Kerwin, Barbara Jefford, Dorothea Alexander, Frank Baker, Tim Barker
'A tedious re-exploration of already over-charted territory.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'We're all whores and pimps. Some of us just get a better corner to work!'

The Reunion
US 1998 84m bw/colour
Asylum/Esquire (Paul Corvino, Leticia Gomez, Dallas Hartnett)

Remembering the manner in which he was humiliated at school eighteen years earlier, at a class re-union a man takes his former tormentors hostage in order to get revenge.
Claustrophobic psychological thriller in which a small group of people are forced to examine their past and present behaviour; its dramatic contrivances never quite convince and it lacks tension.
w Paul Corvino d Larry Eudene ph Pat Capone m Kirsten Vogelsang pd Zeljka Pavlinovic ed Robert Fitzgerald, Glenn Conte cos Deirdra Govan
☆ Timothy Devlin (Louis Witkowski), Mimi Langeland (Caroline Coleman), Jack Mulcahy (Hal Coleman), Elizabeth P. McKay (Felicia Witowski), Patrick Ferraro (Joey Tucci), Kristopher Medina (Standard), Leila Sbitani (Ashley), Edouard DeSoto (Santiago)
† The film won an award as best thriller, and Timothy Devlin as best actor, at the New York International Independent Film & Video Festival in 1998.

Reunion in France
US 1942 104m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)

GB title: Mademoiselle France
A selfish Parisian dress designer gradually realizes that her world has changed when the Nazis invade and she is asked to help an American flyer.
Action flagwaver which tries also to be a woman's picture and goes pretty soppily about it.
w Jan Lustig, Marvin Borowsky, Marc Connelly story Ladislas Bus-Fekete d Jules Dassin ph Robert Planck m Franz Waxman
☆ Joan Crawford, John Wayne, Philip Dorn, Reginald Owen, Albert Basserman, John Carradine, Ann Ayars, J. Edward Bromberg, Henry Daniell, Moroni Olsen, Howard da Silva
'Miss Crawford isn't making all the sacrifices implied in the script ... Dressing like a refugee is certainly not in her contract.' – New York Herald Tribune

Reunion in Vienna ★
US 1933 100m bw
MGM
A long-exiled nobleman tries to take up an old romance even though the lady is married.
Lacklustre adaptation of a play which must have style; the performances remain interesting.
w Ernest Vajda, Claudine West play Robert E. Sherwood d Sidney Franklin ph George Folsey m William Axt
☆ John Barrymore, Diana Wynyard, Frank Morgan, May Robson, Eduardo Ciannelli, Una Merkel, Henry Travers 'Unlikely money film outside a few of the larger cities.' – Variety
George Folsey

Reveille With Beverly ★
US 1943 78m bw
Columbia (Sam White)
A girl disc jockey runs a programme for soldiers.
Thin excuse for a musical, but the result was pretty popular.
w Howard J. Green, Jack Henley, Albert Duffy d Charles Barton ☆ Ann Miller, William Wright, Dick Purcell, Franklin Pangborn, Tim Ryan, Larry Parks

Revelation
GB 2001 109m DeLuxe 'Scope
Miracle/Romulus/Cyclops Vision (Jonathan Woolf, Stuart Urban)

A millionaire tycoon and his son search for a box containing the nails from Christ's crucifixion, chased by a satanist who plans to use it to create an anti-Christ.
Deliriously bizarre occult thriller that will confuse the brain but may tickle the funny-bone.
wd Stuart Urban idea Frank Falco ph Sam McCurdy m Edmund Butt pd James Merifield ed Julian Rodd
☆ Terence Stamp (Magnus Martel), James D'Arcy (Jake Martel), Natasha Wightman (Mira), Udo Kier (The Grand Master), Liam Cunningham (Father Ray Connolly), Ron Moody (Sir Isaac Newton), Derek Jacobi (The Librarian), Heathcote Williams (The Tourist), Celia Imrie (Harriet Matrel)
'Curiously watchable despite its lackluster dialogue, acting by numbers and frequent disregard for normal continuity.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Revenge
GB 1971 89m Eastmancolor
Rank/Peter Rogers Productions (George H. Brown)
When children are raped and murdered in a north country town, two men take the law into their own hands.
Crude melodrama set in Cold Comfort Farm country; efficient but unrewarding.
w John Kruse d Sidney Hayers ph Ken Hodges m Eric Rogers
☆ Joan Collins, Sinead Cusack, James Booth, Ray Barrett, Kenneth Griffith

Revenge: see Blood Feud (1979)

Revenge
US 1989 124m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Raster (Hunt Lowry, Stanley Rubin)

Left for dead by a jealous husband, a former pilot seeks revenge and reunion with his lover.
Brutal, shallow thriller that is too predictable to be enjoyable.
w Jim Harrison, Jeffrey Fiskin novel Jim Harrison d Tony Scott ph Jeffrey Kimball m Jack Nitzsche pd Michael Seymour, Benjamin Fernandez ed Chris Lebenzon, Michael Tronick
☆ Kevin Costner, Anthony Quinn, Madeleine Stowe, Tomas Milian, Joaquin Martinez, James Gammon, Jesse Corti, Sally Kirkland, Miguel Ferrer

Revenge Is My Destiny
US 1971 95m colour
Gold Key (Toby Ross)
A one-eyed hero returns from Vietnam to discover that his hated wife is missing; he goes looking for her.
Drab thriller with less than adequate script, direction and performances.
w Mardik Martin d Joseph Adler ph Ares Parshalis Demertzis m Stu Phillips, Richard Markowitz ad Paul Moore ed Joseph Adler, Charles Carrubba
☆ Chris Robinson, Sidney Blackmer, Elisa Ingram, Joe E. Ross, John Lodge, Patricia Rainier, Willie Pastrano

Revenge of Billy the Kid
GB 1992 87m Colour
Powerhouse Pictures/Montage (Tim Dennison)

A carnivorous monster, the offspring of a goat and a farmer, kills off his father's family.
Grotesque and disgusting low-budget horror comedy, obsessed with rape, bestiality and the nastier bodily functions. A credit for 'Flatulence Artists' sets the tone.
w Tim Dennison, Jim Groom, Richard Matthews d Jim Groom ph David Read m Tony Flynn
☆ Michael Balfour, Samantha Perkins, Jackie D. Broad, Trevor Peake, Bryan Heeley, Norman Mitchell, Dean Williamson, Michael Ripper
'Amateurish horror spoof made on a tiny budget and with even less wit or intelligence.' – Sight and Sound

'If you go alone – you'll find yourself running all the way home!'

The Revenge of Frankenstein
GB 1958 89m Technicolor
Columbia/Hammer (Anthony Hinds)
Baron Frankenstein evades the guillotine and makes a new creature with the brain of a homicidal dwarf.
Dullish horror farrago with a few indications of quirkish humour.
w Jimmy Sangster, Hurford Janes d Terence Fisher ph Jack Asher m Leonard Salzedo pd Bernard Robinson ed James Needs, Alfred Cox
☆ Peter Cushing, Michael Gwynn, Oscar Quitak, Francis Matthews, Eunice Gayson, John Welsh, Lionel Jeffries, Richard Wordsworth, Charles Lloyd Pack, John Stuart, Arnold Diamond
† This second Hammer Frankenstein set the tone for the rest; see The Curse of Frankenstein.

Revenge of the Blood Beast: see She Beast

Revenge of the Dead: see Night of the Ghouls

Revenge of the Gladiators: see Fire over Rome

Revenge of the Nerds
US 1984 90m DeLuxe
TCF/Interscope (Ted Field, Peter Samuelson)

College freshmen decide to fight back when they are evicted from their dormitories and mocked by the football team and rejected by the fraternities.
Raucous comedy for the intellectually challenged.
w Steve Zacharias, Jeff Buhai story Tim Metcalfe, Miguel Tejada-Flores d Jeff Kanew ph King Baggot m Thomas Newman pd James L. Schoppe ed Alan Balsam
☆ Robert Carradine, Anthony Edwards, Ted McGinley, Bernie Casey, Julia Montgomery, John Goodman
† It was followed by two lesser sequels: Revenge of the Nerds II: Nerds in Paradise, directed by Joe Roth in 1987; Revenge of the Nerds III: The Next Generation, directed for TV by Roland Mesa in 1992.

Revenge of the Pink Panther
US 1978 98m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Blake Edwards

Inspector Clouseau tracks down a drug-smuggling industrialist.
Feeble addition to a series which was always too pleased with itself.
w Frank Waldman, Ron Clark, Blake Edwards d Blake Edwards ph Ernie Day m Henry Mancini
☆ Peter Sellers, Herbert Lom, Robert Webber, Dyan Cannon, Burt Kwouk, Paul Stewart, Robert Loggia, Graham Stark

Revenge of the Vampire: see Mask of Satan

Revenge of the Zombies
US 1943 61m bw
Lindsley Parsons/Monogram
A Nazi scientist in Mexico tries to convert an army of the dead for Hitler's use.
Unpersuasive horror cheapie.
w Edmund Kelso, Van Norcross d Steve Sekely
☆ John Carradine, Robert Lowery, Gale Storm, Veda Ann Borg, Mantan Moreland

The Revengers
US 1972 108m DeLuxe Panavision
Cinema Center/Martin Rackin
A rancher gathers a posse to hunt down the Indians who have allegedly murdered his wife and family.
Standard major Western with a dismal script which echoes The Dirty Dozen and The Wild Bunch: sometimes repulsive, seldom exciting.
w Wendell Mayes d Daniel Mann ph Gabriel Torres m Pino Calvi
☆ William Holden, Ernest Borgnine, Susan Hayward, Woody Strode, Roger Hanin

The Revengers' Comedies
GB/France 1997 82m Technicolor
J&M/BBC/Arts Council/France 2/Artisan/IMA (Simon Bosanquet)
Two suicidal strangers agree to take revenge on each other's nemesis.
Despite the efforts of an accomplished cast, this is a lumpy comedy of a dull man who finds himself ill-at-ease in eccentric, upper-middle-class society.
wd Malcolm Mowbray plays Alan Ayckbourn ph Romain Winding m Alexandre Desplat pd Stuart Walker ed Barrie Vince
☆ Sam Neill, Helena Bonham-Carter, Kristin Scott Thomas, Rupert Graves, Martin Clunes, Steve Coogan, John Wood, Liz Smith, Anita Dobson, Charlotte Coleman

Revengers Tragedy

GB 2002 109m colour
Metro Tartan/Film Council/Northcroft/Bard/Exterminating Angel (Margaret Matheson, Tod Davies)

In a ruined Liverpool in 2011, a man returns to the city to take revenge on the ruling Duke, who poisoned his bride because she refused to sleep with him.
Flawed treatment as a modern day black comedy of a Jacobean play that has been a template for many revenge dramas. Where is Takashi Miike when you need him?
w Frank Cottrell Boyce play Thomas Middleton d Alex Cox ph Len Gowing m ChumbaWumba pd Cecilia Montiel ed Ray Fowlis cos Monica Aslanian
☆ Christopher Eccleston (Vindici), Eddie Izzard (Lussurioso), Derek Jacobi (The Duke), Diana Quick (The Duchess), Carla Henry (Castiza), Andrew Schofield (Carlo), Antony Booth (Lord Antonio)
'Much of the acting is below par and the complex intrigue makes little sense in the realistic context of a decaying, once grand Liverpool.' – Philip French, Observer

Reversal of Fortune ★★

US 1990 111m Technicolor
Warner/Shochiku Fuji/Sovereign Pictures/Edward R. Pressman, Oliver Stone

A European aristocrat, found guilty of attempting to murder his wealthy American wife, hires a brilliant lawyer to mount an appeal against the sentence.
Based on a true story, it combines the appeal of court-room drama with a prurient curiosity about the lives of the very rich.
w Nicholas Kazan book Alan Dershowitz d Barbet Schroeder ph Luciano Tovoli m Mark Isham pd Mel Bourne ed Lee Percy ☆ Glenn Close, Jeremy Irons, Ron Silver, Annabella Sciorra, Uta Hagen, Fisher Stevens, Christine Baranski, Jack Gilpin, Stephen Mailer
'A classy piece of filmmaking.' – Variety
Jeremy Irons
Barbet Schroeder; Nicholas Kazan

The Revolt of Job

Hungary 1983 98m colour
Mafilm Tarsulas Filmstudio/Hungarian TV/ZDF

original title: Jób Lázadása
A young Christian orphan is adopted by a Jewish farmer and his wife, who fear the coming of the Nazis.
Touching, understated film, told from the perspective of the child, which gives a freshness and poignancy to a familiar theme.
w Katalin Petényi, Imre Gyöngyössi, Barna Kabay d Imre Gyöngyössi, Barna Kabay ph Gábor Szabó m Zoltán Jeney ☆ Ference Zenthe, Hédi Temessy, Gábor Fehér, Péter Rudolf, Leticia Cano, Gregor Henry
best foreign-language film

The Revolt of Mamie Stover

US 1956 93m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Buddy Adler)

A dance hall girl leaves San Francisco for Honolulu, makes money there but reforms for love of a rich novelist.
Absurdly bowdlerized and boring film version of a novel about a sleazy prostitute; hardly worth making at all in this form, especially as the cast seems well capable of a raunchier version.
w Sydney Boehm novel William Bradford Huie d Raoul Walsh ph Leo Tover m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Jane Russell, Agnes Moorehead, Richard Egan, Joan Leslie
'Good looks are hardly enough to make this foolishness palatable.' – John McCarten, New Yorker

The Revolt of the Praetorians

(dubbed)
Italy 1964 90m Technicolor
Techniscope
FIA

original title: La Rivolta dei Pretoriani
The leader of the Praetorian guard doubles as the Red Wolf, the masked leader of a revolt against the vicious and autocratic rule of the emperor Domitian.
Typical undistinguished sword-and-sandals historical romp.
w Gianpaolo Callegari d Alfonso Brescia ph Pierludovico Pavoni m Carlo Franci ad Piervittorio Marchi ed Nella Nannuzzi
☆ Richard Harrison, Moira Orfei, Giuliano Gemma, Piero Lulli, Aldo Cecconi, Paola Pitti
† The film's American star, Richard Harrison, turned down the lead in A Fistful of Dollars, which went to Clint Eastwood instead.

Revolution

US 1985 125m Technicolor
Warner/Goldcrest/Viking (Irwin Winkler)

A trapper becomes involved in the American War of Independence and with the aristocratic daughter of a loyalist.
A mouse of a movie, despite its epic pretensions; the narrative has been swallowed by incoherent set-pieces and the period setting falters under the Method acting of its star.
w Robert Dillon d Hugh Hudson ph Bernard Lutic m John Corigliano pd Assheton Gorton ed Stuart Baird
☆ Al Pacino, Donald Sutherland, Nastassja Kinski, Joan Plowright, Dave King, Steven Berkoff, John Wells, Annie Lennox, Dexter Fletcher, Richard O'Brien
'Hudson has thrown what doubtless started as a perfectly straightforward script to the winds and marched off in search of images that would somehow galvanise the whole show into life. But as his camera stumbles through the smoke, fire, and mobs of expensively costumed extras it's clear he's not going to find them.' – David Ehrenstein

The Revolutionary

US 1970 101m Technicolor
(UA) Pressman-Williams (Edward R. Pressman)

Episodes in the life of a revolutionary, from distributing leaflets to attempted assassination.
A rather casual study of one man's radicalism, in no particular time or place; no doubt of great interest to other revolutionaries.
w Hans Königsberger d Paul Williams ph Brian Probyn m Michael Small ☆ Jon Voight, Jennifer Salt, Robert Duvall

'The greatest trick you ever pulled was making him believe he is you.'

Revolver

GB/France 2005 115m colour
Technovision
EuropaCorp/Revolver/Toff Guy/IoM (Luc Besson, Virginie Silla)

After seven years in solitary confinement, a gangster leaves prison to become involved in a complex con game with his former nemesis.
Boring, pretentious gangster movie that is deliberately obfuscating; its action may be taking place inside the protagonist's head, which is a bad place to be.
wd Guy Ritchie adapted by Luc Besson ph Tim Maurice Jones m Nathaniel Mechaly pd Eve Stewart ed James Herbert, Ian Differ, Romesh Aluwihare
☆ Jason Statham (Jake Green), Ray Liotta (Dorothy Macha), Vincent Pastore (Zack), Andre Benjamin (Avi), Terrence Maynard (French Paul), Andrew Howard (Billy), Francesca Annis (Lily Walker)
'Tedious where it should be tense and garrulous where it should be eloquent.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'Lands on cinema-goers' collective head like a sack of wet sand.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Stodgy, expensive revenge movie with a pompous belief in its own brilliance.' – James Christopher, Times

The Revolving Doors

France/Canada 1988 102m colour
Gala/Malofilm/Canal Plus (Rene Malo, Francyne Morin)

original title: Les Portes Tournantes
A dying woman recalls her earlier life, marriage and musical ambitions.
Slight but quite enjoyable bout of nostalgia, heavy on period charm.
w Jacques Savoie, Francis Mankiewicz d Francis Mankiewicz ph Thomas Vamos m François Dompierre ad Anne Pritchard ed André Corriveau ☆ Monique Spaziani, Gabriel Arcand, Miou-Miou, François Methe, Jacques Penot, Françoise Faucher, Jean-Louis Roux, Remy Girard, Charles Reiner
'This lumbering tale of thwarted mother-love seems even more bereft of sense than sensibility.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Reward

US 1965 92m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Aaron Rosenberg

A mixed group of adventurers set out across the desert to capture a murderer; but thieves fall out.
Pretentious and talky melodrama which quickly scuttled its director's chances in Hollywood. Little action, obvious outcome, attractive Death Valley locations.
w Serge Bourgignon, Oscar Mullard novel Michael Barrett d Serge Bourgignon ph Joe MacDonald m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Max von Sydow, Efrem Zimbalist Jnr, Yvette Mimieux, Gilbert Roland, Emilio Fernandez, Henry Silva

'Emotions clash in a crescendo of drama!'

Rhapsody

US 1954 116m Technicolor
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

A wealthy woman affects the lives of two quite different musicians, each of whom has his weakness.
Tedious romantic drama which vainly attempted a smart veneer but boasted a splendid musical soundtrack.
w Fay and Michael Kanin novel Maurice Guest by Henry Handel Richardson d Charles Vidor ph Robert Planck md Johnny Green, Bronislau Kaper piano Claudio Arrau violin Michael Rabin ☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Vittorio Gassman, John Ericson, Louis Calhern, Michael Chekhov, Barbara Bates, Celia Lovsky, Richard Hageman

Rhapsody in August ★

Japan 1990 97m colour
Palace/Shochiku/Akira Kurosawa

original title: Hachigatsu-no-Kyoshikyoku
A grandmother, prompted by her grandchildren and a visit from her Japanese-American nephew, recalls the death of her husband when the atomic bomb was dropped on Nagasaki.
A small-scale but ponderous plea for an understanding of the past.
wd Akira Kurosawa novel Nabe-no-Naka by Kiyoko Murata ph Takao Saito, Masaharu Ueda m Shinichiro Ikebe ad Yoshiro Muraki ed Akira Kurosawa
☆ Richard Gere, Sachiko Murasé, Hisashi Igawa, Narumi Kayashima, Tomoko Ohtakara, Mitsunori Isaki, Toshié Negishi, Choichiro Kawarasaki, Hidetaka Yoshioka, Mié Suzuki

Rhapsody in Blue ★★

US 1945 139m bw
Warner (Jesse L. Lasky)

The life story of composer George Gershwin.
No more trustworthy on factual matters than other Hollywood biopics of its era, this rather glum saga at least presented the music and the performers to excellent advantage.
w Howard Koch, Elliot Paul story Sonya Levien d Irving Rapper ph Sol Polito (musical numbers: Ernest Haller, Merritt B. Gerstad) md Leo Forbstein, Max Steiner ch Le Roy Prinz ad Anton Grot, John Hughes
☆ Robert Alda, Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith, Charles Coburn, Julie Bishop, Albert Basserman, Oscar Levant, Herbert Rudley, Rosemary de Camp, Morris Carnovsky, Al Jolson, Paul Whiteman, George White, Hazel Scott
'With no story at all, this two-hour concert of Gershwin music would be well worth the price of admission' – Daily Mail † Joan Leslie's songs were dubbed by Louanne Hogan.
Ray Heindorf, Max Steiner

Rhinestone

US 1984 111m DeLuxe
TCF/Howard Smith, Marvin Worth

A night-club singer bets her obnoxious employer that she can turn a cab driver into a star.
Crude and witless Pygmalion variation with unsympathetic leads.
w Phil Alden Robinson, Sylvester Stallone d Bob Clark ph Timothy Galfas m Dolly Parton ☆ Dolly Parton, Sylvester Stallone, Richard Farnsworth, Ron Leibman, Tim Thomerson
'You'd have thought we all got together and decided how we could fastest ruin our careers.' – Sylvester Stallone

Rhino

US 1964 91m Metrocolor
MGM/Ivan Tors (Ben Chapman)

A scientist working with white rhinos is joined by an unscrupulous big game hunter.
Inoffensive African adventure.
w Art Arthur, Arthur Weiss d Ivan Tors ph Sven Persson, Lamar Boren m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Harry Guardino, Robert Culp, Shirley Eaton

Rhinoceros

US 1974 101m Eastmancolor
AFT/American Express/Cinevision/Ely Landau
In an American town, an alcoholic clerk is horrified to see his friends all turning into rhinoceroses.
An unsuccessful absurdist play about the pressures of conformity has become a somewhat absurd movie, though there is a little pleasure to be found in the comic interaction of Mostel and Wilder.
w Julian Barry play Eugene Ionesco d Tom O'Horgan ph James Crabe m Galt MacDermot pd Jack Martin Smith ed Bud Smith
☆ Gene Wilder, Zero Mostel, Karen Black, Joe Silver, Robert Weil, Marilyn Chris, Lou Cutell

Rhodes: see Rhodes of Africa

Rhodes of Africa ★

GB 1936 91m bw
Gaumont (Geoffrey Barkas)
US title: Rhodes
A rough-hewn diamond miner becomes Prime Minister of Cape Colony.
Heavy-going but generally interesting historical drama shot on location.
w Michael Barringer, Leslie Arliss, Miles Malleson book Sarah Millin d Berthold Viertel ph Bernard Knowles m Hubert Bath
☆ Walter Huston, Oscar Homolka, Basil Sydney, Peggy Ashcroft, Frank Cellier, Bernard Lee, Lewis Casson
'One of the better English-made pictures ... should do all right even if it doesn't get the women.' – Variety
'Solid, worthy, humourless, it unrolls its eleven well-bred reels with all the technical advantages of 1936.' – Graham Greene

Rhubarb

US 1951 94m bw
Paramount (Perlberg-Seaton)
A millionaire leaves his fortune, including a baseball team, to a wild ginger cat, which means problems for his publicity agent.
Typical scatty farce of the early fifties, held together by the splendid performance of the disdainful feline in the title role rather than by any special merit in the handling.
w Dorothy Reid, Francis Cockrell novel H. Allen Smith d Arthur Lubin ph Lionel Lindon m Van Cleave
☆ Ray Milland, Jan Sterling, Gene Lockhart, William Frawley

Rhubarb

GB 1969 37m Technicolor
ABPC/Avalon
Various village notables congregate on the golf course.
Virtually silent comedy (nobody says anything but 'rhubarb') which could have been very funny with better jokes. A TV remake in 1979 was however much worse.
wd Eric Sykes
☆ Harry Secombe, Eric Sykes, Jimmy Edwards, Hattie Jacques, Gordon Rollins, Graham Stark, Kenneth Connor

Rhythm of the Islands

US 1943 60m bw
Universal (Bernard Burton)
A rather dull South Sea island sets itself up to attract tourists.
Moderate musical programmer, one of many from this studio during the war.
w Oscar Brodney, M. M. Musselman d Roy William Neill ☆ Allan Jones, Jane Frazee, Andy Devine, Ernest Truex, Marjorie Gateson, Mary Wickes
'Acceptably fulfils its purpose of providing an hour's diverting footage for dual support in the general runs.' – Variety

Rhythm on the Range ★

US 1936 87m bw
Paramount (Benjamin Glazer)
A hired hand saves the boss's daughter when she is kidnapped by local badmen.
Easy-going musical comedy with a Western background, later remade as Pardners (qv).
w John C. Moffett, Sidney Salkow, Walter de Leon, Francis Martin d Norman Taurog ph Karl Struss songs various ☆ Bing Crosby, Martha Raye, Frances Farmer, Bob Burns, Lucile Watson, Samuel S. Hinds, George E. Stone, Warren Hymer
'Bing Crosby as a cowboy; Bing Crosby crooning a prize bull to sleep on a freight car; Bing Crosby more than ever like Walt Disney's Cock Robin; it needs some stamina to be a film reviewer.' – Graham Greene

Rhythm on the River ★

US 1940 92m bw
Paramount (William Le Baron)
A song writer employs 'ghosts' to produce his music and lyrics; they discover this fact and go into business for themselves.
Cheerful musical with strong billing.
w Dwight Taylor, Billy Wilder, Jacques Théry d Victor Schertzinger ph Ted Tetzlaff m Johnny Burke, James V. Monaco ☆ Bing Crosby, Mary Martin, Basil Rathbone, Oscar Levant, Oscar Shaw, Charley Grapewin, William Frawley
♫ song 'Only Forever'

Rhythm Romance: see Some Like It Hot (1939)

Rhythm Serenade

GB 1943 87m bw
Columbia British (Ben Henry)
During the Second World War, a teacher who starts a day nursery so that mothers can work in a munitions factory falls in love with a commando recovering from a breakdown.
Sentimental little flag-waver with a few songs thrown in.
w Basil Woon, Marjorie Deans d Gordon Wellesley ph Erwin Hillier, Geoffrey Faithfull md Harry Bidgood ad George Provis ed Alan Jaggs
☆ Vera Lynn, Peter Murray-Hill, Julien Mitchell, Charles Victor, Jimmy Jewel, Ben Warris, Irene Handl, Jimmy Clitheroe, Joan Kemp Welch

Rhythm Thief

US 1994 88m bw
Film Crash (Jonathan Starch)
A hustler who makes a living on the streets selling bootleg tapes is pursued by violent punk rockers and a girl who was in a mental home with his mother.
There is talent on show here, but in the unloveliest of settings and among blank, alienated, strung-out, drugged denizens of the streets, whose horizons are limited to getting through the day.
w Matthew Harrison, Christopher Grimm d Matthew Harrison ph Howard Krupa m Danny Brenner, Hugh O'Donovan, John L. Horn, Kevin Okerlund ad Daniel Fisher ed Matthew Harrison
☆ Jason Andrews, Eddie Daniels, Kevin Corrigan, Kimberly Flynn, Sean Hagerty, Mark Alfred, Christopher Cooke, Bob McGrath
'No-budget New York item gets stronger as it moves confidently forward, weaving together the lives of some very desperate Lower East Siders before reaching a quietly devastating close.' – Ken Eisner, Variety
† The film was shot in 11 days.

Rice People ★

Cambodia/France 1994 130m colour
Gala/JBA/Thelma/La Sept/TSR (Jacques Bidou) original title: Neak Sre
aka: Les Gens de la Rizière
When her husband dies suddenly, the wife of a Cambodian rice farmer tries to tend the crops as well as looking after her seven daughters.
Elegantly shot, low-key drama that can be rewarding if you submit to its slow, seasonal rhythms.
w Rithy Panh, Eve Deboise novel Ranju Sepanjang Jalan by Shahnon Ahmad d Rithy Panh ph Jacques Bouquin m Marc Marder ad Nhean Chamnaul ed Andrée Davanture, Marie-Christine Rougerie ☆ Peng Phan, Mom Soth, Chhim Naline, Va Simorn, Meas Daniel, Phang Chamroeun, Sophy Sodany, Muong Danyda
'Hard to enthuse about so much noble suffering. But it's occasionally fascinating, all the same, as a window on a very different world.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'From the very beginning, they knew they'd be friends to the end. What they didn't count on was everything in between!'

Rich and Famous

US 1981 117m Metrocolor
MGM/Jaquet/William Allyn
Two girlfriends meet again years after college; one has become a famous highbrow novelist, and with her help the other becomes a lowbrow one.
Unattractively sexed-up remake of Old Acquaintance, with even more talk than the original, and much less style.
w Gerald Ayres d George Cukor ph Don Peterman, Peter Eco m Georges Delerue pd Jan Scott ed John F. Burnett
☆ Candice Bergen, Jacqueline Bisset, David Selby, Hart Bochner, Steven Hill, Meg Ryan
'A sadly dispiriting occasion ... a jumbled conflation of The Group and a female version of Carnal Knowledge.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB
† The director was 82 when the film was shot, which must be some kind of record.

Rich and Strange ★

GB 1931 83m bw
BIP (John Maxwell)
US title: East of Shanghai
A young couple come into money and take a trip around the world.
Slight, agreeable early talkie with a few Hitchcock touches.
w Alma Reville, Val Valentine, Alfred Hitchcock novel Dale Collins d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox, Charles Martin m Hal Dolphe
☆ Henry Kendall, Joan Barry, Percy Marmont, Betty Amann, Elsie Randolph
'Hitchcock, being Britain's D. W. Griffith, according to the press agents around here, usually gets a rave as his pictures take the screen. Here's one where the admirers will have difficulty knowing what to say.' – Variety
'Perhaps his bravest failure.' – George Perry, 1965

The Rich Are Always with Us

US 1932 73m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
A socialite determines on a divorce but her new love is annoyed by her concern for her ex-husband.
Cocktail drama of a kind which totally disappeared from the screen.
w Austin Parker novel E. Pettit d Alfred E. Green ph Ernest Haller m W. Franke Harling
☆ Ruth Chatterton, George Brent, John Miljan, Bette Davis, Adrienne Dore, Mae Madison, Robert Warwick
'Chiefly a femme picture ... the title's appropriateness is as obscure as the wisdom of so metaphoric a label for a flicker.' – Variety

The Rich Full Life: see Cynthia

Rich in Love

US 1992 105m DeLuxe Panavision
UPI/MGM (Richard D. Zanuck/Lili Fini Zanuck)
A teenage schoolgirl tries to keep the family together as her father begins to disintegrate after her mother leaves home suddenly, and her pregnant sister arrives with her new husband.
Meandering domestic drama, an attempt at a character study which fails because its participants distinctly lack character, cleaving only to the obvious and expected.
w Alfred Uhry novel Josephine Humphreys d Bruce Beresford ph Peter James m Georges Delerue pd John Stoddart ed Mark Warner
☆ Albert Finney, Jill Clayburgh, Kathryn Erbe, Kyle MacLachlan, Piper Laurie, Ethan Hawke, Suzy Amis, Alfre Woodard
'It could play on television tomorrow, and no-one would find anything amiss, save perhaps the ratings dropping precipitously as the audience drifted away in search of something more than genteel good taste.' – John Harkness, Sight and Sound

Rich Kids

US 1979 96m Technicolor
Lion's Gate/UA (George W. George, Michael Hausman)
An adolescent boy and girl are mildly corrupted by the behaviour of their parents.
Spasmodically interesting comedy-drama which seems ill at ease among the rich and alternates between exploitation, satire and whimsy.
w Judith Ross d Robert M. Young ph Ralf D. Bode m Craig Doerge ☆ Trini Alvarado, Jeremy Levy, Kathryn Walker, John Lithgow, Terry Kiser, David Selby

Rich Man, Poor Girl

US 1938 72m bw
MGM
Consternation takes a white-collar family when a millionaire takes a fancy to one of its daughters.
Unexciting comedy-drama vaguely modelled on You Can't Take It With You.
w Joseph Fields, Jerome Chodorov play Edith Ellis d Reinhold Schünzel ☆ Lew Ayres, Ruth Hussey, Robert Young,

Don Castle, Guy Kibbee, Lana Turner, Rita Johnson

'Lightweight in marquee strength but should build through word of mouth.' – Variety

Rich Man's Folly

US 1931 80m bw
Paramount

A rich man has no time for his children.

Curious updating of Dickens's Dombey and Son; not really a success.

w Grover Jones, Edward Paramore Jnr d John Cromwell ph David Abel

☆ George Bancroft, Frances Dee, Robert Ames, Juliette Compton, Dorothy Peterson

'Splendid cast and serviceable product anywhere.' – Variety

The Rich Man's Wife

US 1996 94m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Caravan (Roger Birnbaum, Julie Bergman Sender)

An unhappily married woman discovers that her lover had her husband killed by an unstable stranger.

Predictable thriller, told in flashback, that never carries conviction.

wd Amy Holden Jones ph Haskell Wexler m John Frizzell, James Newton Howard pd Jeannine Oppewall ed Wendy Greene Bricmont

☆ Halle Berry, Christopher McDonald, Clive Owen, Peter Greene, Charles Hallahan, Frankie Faison, Clea Lewis

'A lady-and-the-psycho yarn so generic it might have been constructed by computer printout.' – Godfrey Cheshire, Variety

Rich, Young and Deadly: see Platinum High School

Rich, Young and Pretty

US 1951 95m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

A Texas rancher takes his young daughter to Paris, where she meets her real mother.

Moderate musical.

w Dorothy Cooper, Sidney Sheldon d Norman Taurog ph Robert Planck m Nicholas Brodszky ch Nick Castle ly Sammy Cahn

☆ Danielle Darrieux, Wendell Corey, Jane Powell, Fernando Lamas, Vic Damone

♫ song 'Wonder Why'(m Nicholas Brodszky, ly Sammy Cahn)

Richard III ★★★

GB 1955 161m Technicolor Vistavision
London Films (Laurence Olivier)

Shakespeare's play about Richard Crookback, his seizure of the throne and his defeat at Bosworth.

Theatrical but highly satisfying filming of a splendidly melodramatic view of history. Interesting but not fussy camera movement, delightful sets (followed by a disappointingly 'realistic' battle) and superb performances.

w William Shakespeare (adapted by Laurence Olivier, Alan Dent, with additions) d Laurence Olivier ph Otto Heller m William Walton pd Roger Furse ad Carmen Dillon ed Helga Cranston

☆ Laurence Olivier (King Richard III), Claire Bloom (Lady Anne), Ralph Richardson (Buckingham), Cedric Hardwicke (King Edward IV), Stanley Baker (Henry Tudor), Alec Clunes (Hastings), John Gielgud (Clarence), Mary Kerridge (Queen Elizabeth), Pamela Brown (Jane Shore), Michael Gough (Dighton), Norman Wooland (Catesby), Helen Haye (Duchess of York), Patrick Troughton (Tyrell), Clive Morton (Rivers), Andrew Cruickshank (Brankenbury)

'Wherever the play was loose-jointed or ill-fitting, Sir Laurence has been its tinker and its tailor, but never once its butcher.' – Paul Dehn, News Chronicle

† A Region 1 two-disc set includes commentary by Russell Lees and John Wilders, and a BBC interivew, Great Acting: Laurence Olivier.

♫ Laurence Olivier

BAFTA film; British film; Laurence Olivier

'I can smile ... and murder while I smile.'

Richard III ★★★

GB 1995 105m Technicolor
UA/British Screen/First Look (Liza Katselas Pare, Stephen Bayly)

In a fascist England of the 30s, the King's younger brother murders his way to the throne and attempts to hold it as civil war rages.

A fast-moving, pared-down version of Shakespeare that remains true to much of the play's poetry, concentrating on political manoeuvre and successfully translating the action to a modern setting.

w Ian McKellen play William Shakespeare stage production Richard Eyre d Richard Loncraine ph Peter Biziou m Trevor Jones pd Tony Burrough ad Richard Bridgland, Choi Ho Man ed Paul Green

☆ Ian McKellen (Richard III), Annette Bening (Queen Elizabeth), Jim Broadbent (Buckingham), Robert Downey Jnr (Earl Rivers), Nigel Hawthorne (Clarence), Kristin Scott Thomas (Lady Anne), Maggie Smith (The Duchess of York), John Wood (King Edward IV), Adrian Dunbar (Corporal James Tyrell), Dominic West (Richmond)

'A superb political thriller in an England that is a subtly distorting mirror of reality – or a reality adjacent to our own.' – Peter Holland, TLS

'A fast, exuberant, violent ride.' – Variety

♫ Tony Burrough; costume design (Shuna Harwood)

Richer than the Earth: see The Whistle at Eaton Falls

The Richest Girl in the World

US 1934 80m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A millionairess changes places with her secretary to find a man who will love her for herself.

Rose-coloured romance, remade in 1944 as Bride by Mistake.

w Norman Krasna d William A. Seiter ph Nick Musuraca md Max Steiner

☆ Miriam Hopkins, Joel McCrea, Fay Wray, Henry Stephenson, Reginald Denny, Beryl Mercer

'Eighty minutes of unerring entertainment ... a pip picture for Miriam Hopkins.' – Variety

♫ Norman Krasna

'Five buddies, one butler, and a dog on an adventure so big ... Even the world's richest kid can't afford to miss it.'

Richie Rich

US 1994 95m colour
Warner/Silver Pictures/Davis Entertainment (Joel Silver, John Davis)

A wealthy 12-year-old, aided by his poorer friends, saves his parents when they are threatened by a murderous employee.

Unexceptional entertainment aimed at a young audience; it might keep them quiet for half an hour or so.

w Tom S. Parker, Jim Jennewein story Neil Tolkin, based on characters appearing in Harvey Comics d Donald Petrie ph Don Burgess m Alan Silvestri pd James Spencer ed Malcolm Campbell

☆ Macaulay Culkin, John Larroquette, Edward Herrmann, Jonathan Hyde, Christine Ebersole, Michael McShane

'Decently crafted but oddly charmless.' – Variety

'He's a cop accused of murder. The only person who knows he's innocent is the psycho who wants him dead.'

'This is one case that's going to be settled out of court.'

Ricochet

US 1991 102m colour
First Independent/Summit/Silver (Joel Silver, Michael Levy)

Seeking revenge, a murderer sets out to frame the one-time cop, now an assistant district attorney, who put him inside.

Depressingly violent and unpleasant thriller.

w Steven E. de Souza story Fred Dekker, Menno Meyjes d Russell Mulcahy ph Peter Levy m Alan Silvestri pd Jay Hinkle ed Peter Honess

☆ Denzel Washington, John Lithgow, Ice T, Kevin Pollak, Lindsay Wagner, Mary Ellen Trainor, Josh Evans, Victoria Dillard

'If you don't flinch when power tools are being abused and can swallow ridiculous plot points if more dynamite action is only a minute away, then this is a good bet for an entertaining night out.' – Kim Newman, Empire

The Riddle of the Sands ★

GB 1978 102m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Rank/Worldmark (Drummond Challis)

In 1901 a British yachtsman in the North Sea hits upon a German trial invasion.

Rather too placid adaptation of a semi-classic adventure story in which too little happens to make a rousing action film; points of interest along the way, though.

w Tony Maylam, John Bailey novel Erskine Childers d Tony Maylam ph Hazel Peiser m Howard Blake

☆ Michael York, Simon MacCorkindale, Jenny Agutter, Alan Badel, Jurgen Andersen

The Riddle of the Stinson ★

Australia 1988 95m colour
Kennedy Miller (Terry Hayes, George Miller, Doug Mitchell)

In 1937, a farmer goes to the rescue of survivors of a plane crash in inaccessible country.

A pleasant period picture, based on fact and told in direct and simple manner.

w Tony Morphett d Chris Noonan ph Geoffrey Simpson m Jim Conway, Colin Watson pd Owen Paterson ed Frans Vandenburgh

☆ Norman Kaye, Richard Roxburgh, Helen O'Connor, Esben Storm, Huw Williams, Susan Lyons

Ride a Crooked Mile ★

US 1938 70m bw
Paramount (Jeff Lazarus)

An ex-Cossack cattle hijacker is disappointed when jailed to find that his son will not help him escape.

Lively crime melodrama with an unusual twist.

w Ferdinand Reyher, John C. Moffitt d Alfred E. Green

☆ Akim Tamiroff, Leif Erickson, Frances Farmer, Lynne Overman, John Miljan, Vladimir Sokoloff

'Fine melodrama, handicapped by lack of cast strength and so-so title.' – Variety

Ride a Crooked Trail

US 1958 88m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Universal-International (Howard Pine)

A crook takes refuge in a small town and becomes its honest marshal.

One we've heard before, and seen better done.

w Borden Chase d Jesse Hibbs ph Harold Lipstein

☆ Audie Murphy, Walter Matthau, Gia Scala, Henry Silva

The Ride Back ★

US 1957 79m bw
UA/Associates and Aldrich (William Conrad)

A lawman arrests an outlaw wanted for murder, but has the problem of getting him back to base.

Slightly offbeat low-budget Western, well enough done if it had to be done at all.

w Anthony Ellis d Allen H. Miner ph Joseph Biroc m Frank de Vol

☆ Anthony Quinn, William Conrad, George Trevino, Lita Milan

Ride beyond Vengeance

US 1966 100m Technicolor
Columbia/Tiger/Goodson/Todman/Sentinel/Fenady

A young Westerner, accused of cattle rustling and branded, vows revenge.

Dourly brutal but studio-bound and very padded Western; if there is any entertainment value it doesn't emerge for more than a few moments.

w Andrew J. Fenady novel The Night of the Tiger by Al Dewlen d Bernard McEveety ph Lester Shorr m Richard Markowitz

☆ Chuck Connors, Michael Rennie, Kathryn Hays, Claude Akins, Bill Bixby, Paul Fix, Gary Merrill, Joan Blondell, Gloria Grahame, Ruth Warrick, Arthur O'Connell, Frank Gorshin, James MacArthur

† Probably intended as a TV movie and found too violent.

Ride Clear of Diablo

US 1954 80m Technicolor
Universal-International (John W. Rogers)

A young man seeking vengeance on his father's murderer becomes deputy to a sheriff hired to kill him too.

Lively enough star Western.

w George Zuckerman d Jesse Hibbs ph Irving Glassberg m Joseph Gershenson

☆ Audie Murphy, Dan Duryea, Susan Cabot, Abbe Lane, Russell Johnson, Paul Birch, Jack Elam

Ride 'Em Cowboy

US 1941 82m bw
Universal (Alex Gottlieb)

Two hot dog vendors find themselves working on an Arizona dude ranch.

Slick but routine comedy star vehicle with no outstanding sequences.

w True Boardman, John Grant d Arthur Lubin ph John W. Boyle m Frank Skinner songs Don Raye, Gene de Paul

☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Dick Foran, Anne Gwynne, Samuel S. Hinds, Richard Lane, Johnny Mack Brown, Ella Fitzgerald

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Ride Him Cowboy

US 1932 55m bw
Warner

GB title: The Hawk

A cowboy saves Duke, a temperamental horse, from being shot for murder, tames the beast and tracks down the real killer.
Enjoyable, fast-moving low-budget Western, the first in which Wayne displayed star quality.
w Scott Mason story Kenneth Perkins d Fred Allen
☆ John Wayne, Ruth Hall, Otis Harlan, Henry B. Walthall, Harry Gribbon, Duke
† The film was a remake of the silent The Unknown Cavalier, made in 1926 and starring Ken Maynard.

Ride in the Whirlwind ★

US 1965 82m colour
Jack H. Harris/Proteus (Jack Nicholson, Monte Hellman)

Three cowhands are mistaken for outlaws by a vengeful posse.
Grim and talkative Western about lives trapped by circumstance.
w Jack Nicholson d Monte Hellman ph Gregory Sandor m Robert Drasnin
ad James Campbell
☆ Cameron Mitchell, Millie Perkins, Jack Nicholson, Katherine Squire, George Mitchell, Rupert Crosse, Harry Dean Stanton

Ride Lonesome

US 1959 73m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
Columbia

A bounty hunter catches a killer as bait to trap the criminal's brother against whom he plots vengeance.
Mildly suspenseful Western, rather lost on the wide screen.
w Burt Kennedy d Budd Boetticher
ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Randolph Scott, Karen Steele, Pernell Roberts, James Best, James Coburn, Lee Van Cleef

Ride Out for Revenge

US 1957 79m bw
Bryna/UA (Norman Retchin)

Gold is discovered on land to which the army is moving Indians, and this causes second thoughts.
Low-key, rather brooding Western which aims to be different.
w Norman Retchin d Bernard Girard
ph Floyd Crosby m Leith Stevens ☆ Rory Calhoun, Lloyd Bridges, Gloria Grahame, Joanne Gilbert, Vince Edwards

Ride the High Country ★★★

US 1962 94m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Richard E. Lyons)

GB title: Guns in the Afternoon

Two retired lawmen help transport gold from a mining camp to the bank, but one has ideas of his own.
Thoughtful Western graced by ageing star presences; generally well done.
w N. B. Stone Jnr d Sam Peckinpah
ph Lucien Ballard m George Bassman ad George W. Davis, Leroy Coleman
ed Frank Santillo
☆ Joel McCrea (Steve Judd), Randolph Scott (Gil Westrum), Edgar Buchanan (Judge Tolliver), Mariette Hartley (Elsa Knudsen), James Drury (Billy Hammond)

'A nice little conventional unconventional Western.' – Stanley Kauffmann

'The movie that rocked the debutantes – down to their last martini!'

Ride the High Iron

US 1957 74m bw
Columbia (William Self)

A war veteran gets into the seamier side of public relations.
Curious little urban melodrama with a high moral tone, like a cut-price Sweet Smell of Success.
w Milton Gelman d Don Weis ph Joe Novak m Melvyn Leonard ☆ Don Taylor, Raymond Burr, Sally Forrest
† Originally made for TV.

Ride the Man Down

US 1952 90m Trucolor
Republic

The death of a rancher sets off a bitter fight for his lands.
Flat and uninteresting Western melodrama.
w Mary McCall Jnr story Luke Short
d Joseph Kane ph Jack Marta m Ned Freeman
☆ Brian Donlevy, Ella Raines, Rod Cameron, Forrest Tucker, Barbara Britton, James Bell, Chill Wills, J. Carrol Naish, Jim Davis

Ride the Pink Horse ★

US 1947 101m bw
U-I (Joan Harrison)

An ex-serviceman visits a New Mexican town in search of the gangster who killed his buddy.
Dour, complex melodrama with a certain amount of style but not enough substance.
w Charles Lederer novel Dorothy B. Hughes d Robert Montgomery ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner
☆ Robert Montgomery, Wanda Hendrix, Andrea King, Thomas Gomez, Fred Clark, Art Smith

'One of a kind: no one in his right mind would imitate it.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Thomas Gomez

Ride the Wild Surf

US 1964 101m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Jana (Jo and Art Napoleon)

Surf riders go to Hawaii and find romance.
Pleasant, overlong, open air fun and games.
w Jo and Art Napoleon d Don Taylor
ph Joseph Biroc m Stu Phillips
☆ Fabian, Shelley Fabares, Tab Hunter, Barbara Eden

The Ride to Hangman's Tree

US 1967 90m Technicolor
Universal (Howard Christie)

Three bandits never quite manage to reform.
Easy-going Western, played on the light side in a vein later developed in Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid.
w Luci Ward, Jack Natteford, William Bowers d Alan Rafkin ph Gene Polito
m Frank Skinner md Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, John F. McCormack
ed Gene Palmer
☆ Jack Lord, James Farentino, Don Galloway, Melodie Johnson, Richard Anderson

Ride, Vaquero

US 1953 90m Anscocolor
MGM (Stephen Ames)

Ranchers settling in New Mexico after the Civil War cause some natives to turn bandit; one of them has a mysterious American associate called Rio.
Very mildly interesting Western with the stars rather swamping a humourless script.
w Frank Fenton d John Farrow
ph Robert Surtees m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Robert Taylor, Ava Gardner, Howard Keel, Anthony Quinn, Charlita

'In a No-man's Land between North and South, You didn't fight for the Blue or the Grey... You fought for your friends and family.'

Ride With The Devil ★★

US 1999 138m DeLuxe Panavision
Entertainment/Universal/Good Machine (Ted Hope, Robert Colesberry, James Schamus)

In Missouri in the 1860s, a youth goes with his friends to join the Southern irregular forces and participates in the massacre of the Kansas town of Lawrence.
Dour, beautifully photographed semi-western, a harsh drama of idealism corrupted and redeemed; it ably shows the futility of war, as both sides commit atrocities and betrayals, but might have benefitted from a maturer point of view than that of its youthful participants.
w James Schamus novel Woe to Live On by Daniel Woodrell d Ang Lee ph Frederick Elmes m Mychael Danna pd Mark Friedberg ed Tim Squyres cos Marit Allen ☆ Skeet Ulrich (Jack Bull Chiles), Tobey Maguire (Jake Roedel), Jewel (Sue Lee Shelley), Jeffrey Wright (Daniel Holt), Simon Baker (George Clyde), Jonathan Rhys Meyers (Pitt Mackeson), James Caviezel (Black John), Thomas Guiry (Riley Crawford), Tom Wilkinson (Orton Brown), Jonathan Brandis (Cave Wyatt), Matthew Faber (Turner Rawls), Stephen Mailer (Babe Hudspeth), John Ales (Quantrill)

'A masterpiece that is also one of the finest films touching on the Civil War.' – Philip French, Observer
'The focus is diffused among too many characters, some of them so poorly defined as to be indistinguishable.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

Le Rideau Cramoisi: see The Crimson Curtain

Rider from Tucson

US 1950 60m bw
RKO (Herman Scholm)

Two rodeo performers ride to Colorado to be at a friend's wedding and find that they must first rescue his bride-to-be.
Standard second-feature Western that jogs along in an unmemorable manner.
w Ed Earl Repp d Lesley Selander ph Nicholas Musuraca m Paul Sawtell ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Walter E. Keller
ed Robert Swink
☆ Tim Holt, Richard Martin, Elaine Riley, Douglas Fowley, Veda Ann Borg, Robert Shayne

Rider on the Rain

France/Italy 1969 119m colour
Joseph E. Levine, Serge Silberman

original title: Passager de la Pluie

A woman shoots her rapist and then tries to conceal the crime.
Routine, fairly implausible thriller that owes much to Hitchcock.
w Sebastien Japrisot d René Clément ph Andreas Winding m Francis Lai
ad Pierre Guffroy
☆ Charles Bronson, Marlène Jobert, Annie Cordy, Jill Ireland, Gabriele Tinti, Jean Gaven, Jean Piat, Corinne Marchand

Riders in the Sky

US 1949 70m bw
Columbia/Gene Autry (Armand Schaefer)

A former investigator for a county attorney, who decides to become a rancher, finds himself pitted against the ruthless boss of a small town.
Built around a hit song (for Vaughn Monroe), a leisurely minor Western of no particular interest.
w Gerald Geraghty story Herbert A. Woodbury d John English ph William Bradford md Mischa Bakaleinikoff
ad Harold MacArthur ed Henry Batista
☆ Gene Autry, Champion, Pat Buttram, Gloria Henry, Mary Beth Hughes, Robert Livingston, Steve Darrell, Alan Hale Jnr, Tom London

Riders of Destiny

US 1933 54m bw
Monogram/Lone Star (Paul Malvern)

An undercover agent goes West to investigate small ranchers being swindled out of their water rights.
A dramatically crude and inert Western, with Wayne looking decidedly uncomfortable when strumming a guitar on horseback as the heroic 'Singin' Sandy'.
wd Robert N. Bradbury ph Archie Stout
ed Carl Pierson
☆ John Wayne, Cecilia Parker, Forrest Tucker, George Hayes, Al St John, Heinie Conklin, Yakima Canutt, Earl Dwire
† Wayne's singing was dubbed by Jack Kirk.

Riders of the Purple Sage

US 1931 58m bw
Fox

A rootin', tootin' cowboy traps a villain and weathers a stampede and an avalanche.
Good standard Western previously filmed in 1918 with William Farnum and in 1925 with Tom Mix. This version was premièred on the wide screens of the period.
novel Zane Grey d Hamilton McFadden
☆ George O'Brien, Marguerite Churchill, Noah Beery, Yvonne Pelletier, Stanley Fields

'Still a good Western and okay outside the de luxers.' – Variety

Riders of Vengeance

US 1952 80m Technicolor
Universal-International (William Alland)

GB title: The Raiders

During the California gold rush, a prospector takes revenge on a local dictator.
Standard Western themes against a colourful background.
w Polly James, Lillie Hayward d Lesley Selander ph Carl Guthrie ☆ Richard Conte, Barbara Britton, Viveca Lindfors, Hugh O'Brian, Morris Ankrum, William Reynolds, Dennis Weaver

Riders to the Stars ★

US 1954 81m Color Corporation
UA/Ivan Tors

Rocket scientists investigate the problems of cosmic bombardment.
Enjoyably straightforward science fiction with no monsters or political problems; it has decided historic interest as a record of what scientists in 1954 thought rocket travel would be like.
w Curt Siodmak d Richard Carlson
ph Stanley Cortez m Harry Sukman
☆ Richard Carlson, Herbert Marshall, William Lundigan, Dawn Addams, Martha Hyer, Robert Karnes, Lawrence Dobkin

Ridicule

**

France 1996 103m colour
Electric/Epithète/Cinéa/France 3 (Gilles Legrand, Frédérick Brillion/Philippe Carcassonne)

In the 1780s, a minor aristocrat arrives at the court of Louis XVI at Versailles seeking help to improve his peasants' lives, only to discover that the only quality valued is the exercise of wit.

Enjoyable period extravaganza on the power of language to make and break careers, and a portrait of a corrupt culture in its final decadence.

w Remi Waterhouse, Michel Fessler, Eric Vicaut d Patrice Leconte ph Thierry Arbogast m Antoine Duhamel pd Ivan Maussion ed Joëlle Hache

☆ Fanny Ardant, Charles Berling, Bernard Giraudeau, Judith Godrèche, Jean Rochefort, Carlo Brandt

'Resplendent and terrific entertainment.' – Film Review

foreign-language film

foreign film

'It's a rootin', tootin', six-gun shootin' musicalallapalooza!'

Riding High

US 1943 88m Technicolor
Paramount (Fred Kohlmar)
GB title: Melody Inn

A burlesque queen goes home to Arizona and helps ranchers by performing at a dude ranch.

Dim formula musical with exuberance but neither wit nor style.

w Walter de Leon, Arthur Phillips, Art Arthur play Ready Money by James Montgomery d George Marshall ph Karl Struss, Harry Hallenberger md Victor Young

☆ Dorothy Lamour, Dick Powell, Victor Moore, Gil Lamb, Cass Daley, Bill Goodwin, Rod Cameron, Glenn Langan, Andrew Tombes, Tim Ryan, Douglas Fowley, Milt Britton and his Band

Riding High

*

US 1950 112m bw
Paramount (Frank Capra)

An easygoing racing man forsakes the chance of wealth to train his beloved horse for the Imperial Derby.

The director's familiar ingredients – farce, sentimentality, fast cutting, nice people and a lot of noise – seem a shade too tried and tested in this remake of his 1934 success Broadway Bill. Despite the cast, the result is only moderately entertaining.

w Robert Riskin d Frank Capra ph George Barnes, Ernest Laszlo m James Van Heusen ly Johnny Burke

☆ Bing Crosby, Coleen Gray, Charles Bickford, Raymond Walburn, James Gleason, Oliver Hardy, Frances Gifford, William Demarest, Ward Bond, Clarence Muse, Percy Kilbride, Harry Davenport, Margaret Hamilton, Douglass Dumbrille, Gene Lockhart

'The story of a girl who did everything wrong, but got everything right.'

Riding In Cars With Boys

US 2001 DeLuxe
Columbia/Gracie (James L. Brooks, Julie Ansell, Richard Sakai, Sara Colleton, Laurence Mark)

A woman rises above the troubles in her life – marriage at 15 to a feckless drug addict who gets her pregnant – to become a novelist.

Domestic drama of redemption, based on a true story, but never seeming more than fraudulent uplift.

w Morgan Upton Ward book Beverly Donofrio d Penny Marshall ph Miroslav Ondricek m Hans Zimmer, Heitor Pereira pd Bill Groom ed Richard Marks, Lawrence Jordan cos Cynthia Flynt

☆ Drew Barrymore (Beverly Donofrio), Steve Zahn (Ray Hasek), Brittany Murphy (Fay Forrester), Adam Garcia (Jason Donofrio), Lorraine Bracco (Mrs Donofrio), James Woods (Mr Donofrio), Sara Gilbert (Tina), Desmond Harrington (Bobby)

'It's almost sinister, this remorseless diminution of human experience to the acceptable contours of a punch-line.' – Peter Matthews, Sight & Sound

'A film with honesty, sincerity and a great big heart.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer

Riding Shotgun

US 1954 75m Warnercolor
Warner

A shotgun stagecoach guard carries on a long vendetta against an outlaw.

Routine Western excitements, played mainly indoors.

w Tom Blackburn d André de Toth ph Bert Glennon m David Buttolph

☆ Randolph Scott, Wayne Morris, Joan Weldon, Joe Sawyer, James Millican, Charles Bronson, James Bell

Rien Ne Va Plus

France/Switzerland 1997 106m colour
Artificial Eye/MK2/TF1/CAB/CDE

A couple of confidence tricksters have a love-hate relationship with one another.

Casual, slightly comic movie that Chabrol has called autobiographical, though he must have led a more interesting life than the ones that he here puts on the screen.

wd Claude Chabrol ph Eduardo Serra m Matthieu Chabrol ad Françoise Benoît-Fresco ed Monique Fardoulis

☆ Isabelle Huppert, Michel Serrault, François Cluzet, Jean-François Balmer, Jackie Berroyer, Jean Benguigui, Mony Dalmes, Thomas Chabrol

'There's little mystery, and surprisingly little humanity either, in a film that's finally as dead and dated as the wretched pop chanson that ends it.' – Jonathan Romney, Sight and Sound

Riff Raff

*

US 1935 90m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

A con man and his wife end up on the wrong side of the law.

Modest comedy drama that never quite sparks.

w Frances Marion, H. W. Haneman, Anita Loos d J. Walter Ruben ph Ray June m Edward Ward

☆ Jean Harlow, Spencer Tracy, Joseph Calleia, Una Merkel, Mickey Rooney, Victor Kilian, J. Farrell MacDonald

'It ain't art, but it's box office.' – Variety

Riff Raff

*

US 1947 80m bw
RKO (Nat Holt)

A dying man hands a Panama City con man a map to valuable oil deposits, and various shady people are after it.

Rather heavy but well made comedy-drama with some striking scenes.

w Martin Rackin d Ted Tetzlaff ph George E. Diskant m Roy Webb

☆ Pat O'Brien, Walter Slezak, Anne Jeffreys, Percy Kilbride, Jerome Cowan

'Those that live on the edge sometimes fall.'

Riff-Raff

**

GB 1990 95m colour
BFI/Parallax (Sally Hibbin)

Labourers on a building site take revenge on their employers when one of them is killed in an accident.

Successful blend of wit and naturalism, although the overlapping dialogue in many regional accents can be hard to follow at times.

w Bill Jesse d Ken Loach ph Barry Ackroyd m Stewart Copeland pd Martin Johnson ed Jonathan Morris

☆ Robert Carlyle, Emer McCourt, Jimmy Coleman, George Moss, Ricky Tomlinson, David Finch, Richard Belgrave, Ade Sapara, Derek Young, Bill Moores

'A wonderfully entertaining account of life on the margins in London that combines laughter and tears, delivering its message in an intimate and subtle way.' – Screen International

† The film was turned down by Britain's major distributors. It received a limited release after winning an award as the best European film of the year and receiving the International Critics Prize at the Cannes Film Festival.

Rififi

**

France 1955 116m bw
Indus/Pathé/Prima

original title: Du Rififi chez les Hommes

After an elaborate raid on a jewellery store, thieves fall out and the caper ends in bloodshed.

*A film with much to answer for, in the form of hundreds of imitations showing either detailed accounts of robberies (Topkapi, Gambit) or gloomy looks at the private lives of criminals. At the time it seemed crisp and exciting, and the 25-minute silent robbery sequence is quite something.*

w René Wheeler, Jules Dassin, Auguste le Breton novel Auguste le Breton d Jules Dassin ph Philippe Agostini m Georges Auric

☆ Jean Servais, Carl Mohner, Robert Manuel, Marie Sabouret, Perlo Vita (Jules Dassin)

'I sometimes ask myself whether so much of the film is silent because of my own lack of French.' – Jules Dassin

† Several 'sequels' were made using the word rififi (criminal argot for 'trouble') in the title, but in plot terms they were entirely unrelated.

The Rift: see La Grieta

Riget: see The Kingdom

The Right Approach

US 1961 92m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Oscar Brodney)

A Hollywood opportunist tries to make it as a star.

A potentially witty Hollywood story is sabotaged by a style which is as naïve as it is dismal; and Mr Vaughan's hopes of stardom unfairly ended right here.

w Fay and Michael Kanin play Garson Kanin d David Butler ph Sam Leavitt m Dominic Frontière

☆ Frankie Vaughan, Martha Hyer, Juliet Prowse, Gary Crosby, David MacLean, Jesse White, Jane Withers

Right At Your Door

* (2)

US 2006 96m
Lionsgate/Thousand Words (Jonah Smith, Palmer West)

When dirty bombs explode in Los Angeles, an unemployed musician is forced to seal his house and stay in, although his wife is trapped outside in the fatal chemical fallout.

Low-budget disaster movie that loses suspense by staying focused on two character points-of-view, notwithstanding a shocking finale.

wd Chris Gorak ph Tom Richmond m tomandandy pd Ramsey Avery ad Patricio M. Farrell ed Jeffrey M. Werner sp Pete Novitch

☆ Rory Cochrane (Brad), Mary McCormack (Lexi), Tony Perez (Alvaro), Scotty Noyd Jr (Timmy)

'Grabs the viewer by the throat in the first few minutes, but quickly fritters away involvement.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Right Cross

US 1950 90m bw
MGM (Armand Deutsch)

A boxing champion injures his hand and has to abandon his career.

Rather dull sporting melodrama with a Mexican background, saved by good production values.

w Charles Schnee d John Sturges ph Norbert Brodine m David Raksin

☆ Dick Powell, June Allyson, Lionel Barrymore, Ricardo Montalban

The Right Stuff

*

US 1983 193m Technicolor
Warner/Ladd (Irwin Winkler, Robert Chartoff)

Test pilots are recruited and trained as astronauts.

A reasonably factual account of the Mercury programme: extremely well made but somehow too brash and inhuman to provide much entertainment. An unexpected commercial flop.

wd Philip Kaufman book Tom Wolfe ph Caleb Deschanel m Bill Conti pd Geoffrey Kirkland ed Glenn Farr, Lisa Fruchtman, Stephen A. Rotter, Douglas Stewart, Tom Rolf

☆ Sam Shepard, Scott Glenn, Ed Harris, Dennis Quaid, Fred Ward, Barbara Hershey, Kim Stanley, Veronica Cartwright

Bill Conti; editing; sound; sound editing best picture; Sam Shepard; Caleb Deschanel

The Right to Live

US 1935 75m bw
Warner
GB title: The Sacred Flame

Someone in the family mercifully kills a crippled war hero.

Uninspired rendering of Somerset Maugham's play The Sacred Flame, previously filmed under its own title in 1929 (with Pauline Frederick, Henrietta Crosman).

w Ralph Block d William Keighley

☆ George Brent, Colin Clive, Josephine Hutchinson, Peggy Wood, C. Aubrey Smith, Leo G. Carroll, Halliwell Hobbes

The Right to Love

*

US 1930 79m bw
Paramount

A mother has a strong affinity with her illegitimate daughter who is a missionary on the other side of the world.

Curious mystic melodrama which adds a twist to the popular mother-love devices. Technically it introduced the Bell light valve which improved sound reproduction, and also the Dunning process which improved the presentation of dual roles. (The star played mother and daughter.)

w Zoe Akins novel Brook Adams by Susan Glaspell d Richard Wallace ph Charles Lang ☆ Ruth Chatterton, Paul Lukas, David Manners, Irving Pichel, George Baxter
'A profound and thoughtful romantic drama treated with utmost refinement of sophistication and still possessing elements which will appeal to the broadest kind of screen audience.' – Variety
♪ Charles Lang

The Right to Love: see Brainwashed (1972)

Rikky and Pete
Australia 1988 107m colour
UA/Cascade (Nadia Tass, David Parker)
An irresponsible, cop-hating inventor and his sister, a singer and geologist, leave home and head for a remote mining town, pursued by an obsessive policeman.
Unsuccessful comedy, over-elaborate and heavy-handed with its jokes, and seemingly uncertain as to its point.
w David Parker d Nadia Tass ph David Parker m Eddie Rayner m/ly Philip Judd pd Josephine Ford ed Ken Sallows ☆ Stephen Kearney, Nina Landis, Tetchie Agbayani, Bill Hunter, Bruno Lawrence, Bruce Spence, Lewis Fitz-Gerald, Dorothy Alison

The Ring: see Ringu

The Ring ★
GB 1927 116m approx bw
BIP (John Maxwell)
Two boxers vie for the love of a woman.
Early Hitchcock that shows his already developed skill for deft story-telling; it was the first of his films to reveal his individuality as a director.
w Alfred Hitchcock, Alma Reville, Eliot Stannard d Alfred Hitchcock ph John J. Cox ad C. Wilfred Arnold
☆ Carl Brisson, Lilian Hall Davis, Ian Hunter, Forrester Harvey, Harry Terry, Gordon Harker, Billy Wells
'Succeeds in that very rare accomplishment of being the purest film art and a fine popular entertainment.' – Evening News
† The version released on video runs for 73m.

The Ring
US 1952 79m bw
King Brothers
A young Mexican becomes a prizefighter in the hope of winning greater respect for Mexican-Americans.
Well-meant low-budget programmer.
w Irving Shulman d Kurt Neumann ph Russell Harlan m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ Gerald Mohr, Lalo Rios, Rita Moreno, Robert Arthur

'Before you die, you see the ring.'
The Ring
US 2002 115m Eastmancolor
DreamWorks (Walter F. Parkes, Laurie MacDonald)
A reporter investigates the death of teenagers who died a week after watching a videotape and receiving a phone call.
A remake of the Japanese movie Ringu (qv) that at least produced a slight other-wordly frisson in its story of a vengeful ghost; translated to an American setting, it seems no more than feeble.
w Ehren Kruger novel Koji Suzuki d Gore Verbinski ph Bojan Bazelli m Hans Zimmer pd Tom Duffield ed Craig Wood ☆ Naomi Watts (Rachel Keller), Martin Henderson (Noah), David Dorfman (Aidan), Brian Cox (Richard Morgan), Jane Alexander (Dr Grasnik), Lindsay Frost (Ruth), Amber Tamblyn (Katie), Rachael Bella (Becca), Daveigh Chase (Samara)
'This incoherent mess...contemptible catchpenny.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'Comes across in muted fashion, with uninvolving characters and lack of genuine excitement or fright creating a second-rate, second-hand feel.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† The film cost around $45m and took more than $128m at the US box office.

Ring 0: The Birthday: see Ringu 0: Basudei

The Ring 2: see Ringu 2

Ring of Bright Water ★
GB 1969 107m Technicolor
Palomar/Brightwater (Joseph Strick)
A civil servant buys a pet otter and moves to a remote cottage in the western Highlands.
Disneyesque fable for animal lovers, from a bestselling book.
w Jack Couffer, Bill Travers book Gavin Maxwell d Jack Couffer ph Wolfgang Suschitsky m Frank Cordell
☆ Bill Travers, Virginia McKenna, Peter Jeffrey, Roddy McMillan, Jameson Clark

Ring of Fear
US 1954 88m Warnercolor
Cinemascope
Warner/Wayne-Fellows (Robert M. Fellows)
A homicidal maniac returns to the circus where he used to work and causes various 'accidents.'
Tediously predictable circus melodrama with a curious but not very likeable cast.
w Paul Fix, Philip MacDonald, James Edward Grant d James Edward Grant ph Edwin DuPar m Emil Newman, Arthur Lange ☆ Clyde Beatty, Pat O'Brien, Mickey Spillane, Sean McClory, Marian Carr, John Bromfield, Pedro Gonzalez Gonzalez, Emmett Lynn

Ring of Fire
US 1961 90m Metrocolor
MGM/Andrew and Virginia Stone
An Oregon sheriff is kidnapped by teenage delinquents but manages to lead them into both a police trap and a forest fire.
Outdoor action thriller with a plot which is ludicrously unconvincing in detail, though the fire scenes impress.
wd Andrew L. Stone ph William H. Clothier m Duane Eddy
☆ David Janssen, Joyce Taylor, Frank Gorshin, Joel Marston

Ring of Spies ★
GB 1963 90m bw
British Lion (Leslie Gilliatt)
US title: Ring of Treason
How the Portland spy ring was tracked down.
Documentary drama, rather less intriguing, somehow, than the actual facts; but the sheer thought of spies in the suburbs keeps interest going.
w Frank Launder, Peter Barnes d Robert Tronson ph Arthur Lavis
☆ Bernard Lee, Margaret Tyzack, David Kossoff, Nancy Nevinson, William Sylvester

Ring of Treason: see Ring of Spies

'Fear comes full circle.'
The Ring Two
US 2005 110m Technicolor
UIP/DreamWorks (Walter F. Parkes, Laurie MacDonald)
Fleeing the horror she experienced in Seattle, a journalist and her young son move to a small seaside town, only to discover they have not escaped the evil.
A sequel to the American version of The Ring that bears little relationship to its Japanese original and fails to chill.
w Ehren Kruger novel The Ring by Koji Suzuki film The Ring d Hideo Nakata ph Gabriel Beristain m Henning Lohner, Martin Tillman pd Jim Bissell ed Michael N. Knue ☆ Naomi Watts (Rachel Keller), Simon Baker (Max Rourke), David Dorfman (Aidan), Elizabeth Perkins (Dr Emma Temple), Gary Cole (Martin Savide), Sissy Spacek (Evelyn)
'A perplexing compound of the silly and the glum.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Ring Up the Curtain: see Broadway to Hollywood

The Ringer ★
GB 1952 78m bw
BL/London (Hugh Perceval)
A dangerous criminal known only as The Ringer threatens to kill the crooked lawyer responsible for his sister's death.
Artful old-fashioned mystery, quite well restaged, and in fact the best extant example of filmed Wallace.
w Val Valentine play and novel Edgar Wallace d Guy Hamilton ph Ted Scaife m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Donald Wolfit, Mai Zetterling, Herbert Lom, Greta Gynt, William Hartnell, Norman Wooland
† The play was also filmed in 1931 with Patric Curwen, Franklin Dyall and Gordon Harker; and in 1938 as The Gaunt Stranger (qv).

'Only a jackass would fix the Special Olympics.'
The Ringer ④
US/Germany 2004 94m DeLuxe
TCF/Conundrum (Peter Farrelly, Bradley Thomas, Bobby Farrelly)
Hoping to pay off his many debts, an able-bodied man becomes a contestant in the Special Olympics by posing as retarded.
By turns obnoxious and sentimental, a comedy that eulogises the Special Olympics and disabled competitors while allowing Knoxville to pull silly faces and dribble to indicate that he is mentally challenged.
w Ricky Blitt d Barry W. Blaustein ph Mark Irwin m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Arlan Jay Vettier ed George Folsey Jnr
☆ Johnny Knoxville (Steve Barker), Brian Cox (Gary Barker), Katherine Heigl (Lynn Sheridan), Geoffrey Arend (Winston), Edward Barbanell (Billy), Bill Chott (Thomas)
'More than predictable. It plods along with the inevitability of a doomed soldier going off to war.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

'Thanksgiving is about sharing ... blow by blow.'
Ringmaster
US 1998 90m DeLuxe
Artisan/Kushner-Locke (Steve Stabler, Gary Goldstein, Jerry Springer, Brad Jenkel, Gina Rugolo-Judd)
Fans of a trashy TV talk show petition to appear on the programme, to expose the sexual misbehaviour of those close to them.
With the host of a trashy TV talk show playing a similar fictional creation, this seems a completely redundant movie; it is certainly not a watchable one.
w John Bernstein d Neil Abramson ph Russell J. Lyster m Kennard Ramsey pd Dorian Vernacchio, Deborah Raymond ed Suzanne Hines
☆ Jerry Springer, Jaime Pressly, William McNamara, Molly Hagan, John Capodice, Wendy Raquel Robinson, Michael Jai White, Michael Dudikoff
'As Springer well knows, however, you can't go broke overestimating the bad taste of the American public, so perhaps paying customers do exist who will find this feature funner 'n' a lesbian mud-wrestling match.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Ringo and His Golden Pistol
(dubbed)
Italy 1966 88m Eastmancolor
MGM/Sanson (Joseph Fryd)
original title: Johnny Oro
A Mexican bounty hunter is chased across the border to a small law-abiding town by bandits and Apaches seeking revenge.
Stylish spaghetti Western, though its invincible hero comes near to being a bore.
w Adriano Bolzoni, Franco Rossetti d Sergio Corbucci ph Riccardo Pallottini m Carlo Savina ad Carlo Simi ed Otello Colangeli
☆ Mark Damon, Valeria Fabrizi, Franco Derosa, Giulia Rubini, Loris Loddi, Ettore Manni
† For its US release, the name of the original was changed to take advantage of the success of Duccio Tessari's A Pistol for Ringo (qv).

Rings on Her Fingers ★
US 1942 85m bw
TCF (Milton Sperling)
The front girl for a couple of confidence tricksters falls in love with their first victim.
Lively comedy which drags into drama in its second half.
w Ken Englund d Rouben Mamoulian ph George Barnes m Cyril Mockridge ☆ Gene Tierney, Henry Fonda, Laird Cregar, Spring Byington, Shepperd Strudwick, Frank Orth, Henry Stephenson, Marjorie Gateson

Ringside Maisie
US 1941 96m bw
MGM (J. Walter Ruben)
GB title: Cash and Carry
A showgirl becomes involved with a reluctant boxer and his manager.
Bright, slight comedy that slides unconvincingly into melodrama and never recovers.
w Mary C. McCall Jnr d Edwin L. Marin ph Charles Lawton m David Snell ad Cedric Gibbons
☆ Ann Sothern, George Murphy, Robert Sterling, Virginia O'Brien, Natalie Thompson, Margaret Moffat, Maxie Rosenbloom

R

Ringu ★

Japan 1998 98m colour
Kadokawa/Pony Canyon/Imagica/Asmik-Ace/Omega (Shinya Kawai, Takashige Ichise, Takenori Sento)

GB title: The Ring

A TV reporter investigates the death of a schoolgirl, who died after watching a video and then receiving a mysterious phone message; when the reporter watches the video, she also gets a phone call...

A ghost story that was a big hit in Japan, though it seems too mild to create the same effect elsewhere.

w Hiroshi Takahashi novel Koji Suzuki d Hideo Nakata ph Junichiro Hayashi m Kinji Kawai pd Iwao Saito ed Nobuyuki Takahashi

☆ Nanako Matsushima (Reiko Asakawa), Miki Nakatani (Mai Takano), Hiroyuki Sanada (Ryuji Takayama), Yuko Takeuchi (Tomoko Oishi), Hitomi Sato (Masami Kurahashi), Yoichi Numata (Takashi Yamamura), Yutaka Matsushige (Yoshino), Katsumi Muramatsu (Koichi Asakawa), Rikiya Otaka (Yoichi Asakawa), Masako (Shizuko Yamamura)

'Riveting amalgam of modern urban myth and ancient eastern legend.' – Mark Kermode, Sight & Sound

Ringu 0: Basudei

Japan 2001 99m colour
Toho/Asmik Ace/Ring 0 (Shinji Ogawa, Masao Nagai, Takashige Ichise)

GB title: Ring 0: The Birthday

A reporter investigates a young woman with strange psychic powers who leaves a trail of death behind her.

Effective prequel to the first two films in the Ring cycle, conjuring up an atmosphere of dread.

w Hiroshi Takahashi novels Koji Suzuki d Norio Tsuruta ph Takahide Shibanushi ad Osamu Yamaguchi ed Hiroshi Sunaga sp Hajime Matsumoto, Nobuaki Sugiki

☆ Yukie Nakama (Sadako), Seiichi Tanabe (Toyama), Kumiko Aso (Etsuko Tachihara), Yoshiko Tanaka (Akiko Miyaji)

'Wraps up the whole story without delivering the skin-crawling psycho-horror of the initial, and best, movie.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Ringu 2

Japan 1999 92m colour
Kadokawa Shoten (Masato Hara)

GB title: The Ring 2

Investigations continue into a mysterious videotape that brings death to those who watch it.

A sequel that is likely to confuse those who haven't seen the first, and superior, movie; this is less effective, merely tidying up, and cashing in on, the original.

w Hiroshi Takahashi novel Koji Suzuki d Hideo Nakata ph Hideo Yamamoto m Kenji Kawai ed Nobuyuki Takahashi sp Hajime Matsumoto

☆ Miki Nakatani (Mai), Daisuke Ban (Dr Heihachiro Ikuma), Nanako Matsushima (Reiko Asakawa), Kyoko Fukada (Kanae Sawaguchi), Kenjiro Ishimaru (Omuta), Hiroyuki Sanada (Ryuji Takayama), Yoichi Numata (Takashi Yamamura), Hitomi Sato (Masami Kurahashi)

'A few moments of shock and a reasonably sustained creepy atmosphere do not compensate for the lackadaisical plotting.' – Neil Norman, London Evening Standard

Rio

US 1939 78m bw
Universal

A crooked financier escapes from Devil's Island to join his wife in Rio, only to find she has been unfaithful.

Modest but well made melodrama.

w Stephen Morehouse Avery, Frank Partos, Edwin Justus Mayer, Aben Kandel, Jean Negulesco d John Brahm ph Hal Mohr m Frank Skinner md Charles Previn

☆ Basil Rathbone, Victor McLaglen, Sigrid Gurie, Robert Cummings, Leo Carrillo, Billy Gilbert, Irving Bacon, Irving Pichel

'A fair programmer with a blend of romance and adventure ... should stand up satisfactorily as a top dualler in most situations.' – Variety

Rio Bravo ★★

US 1959 141m Technicolor
Warner/Armada (Howard Hawks)

A wandering cowboy and a drunken sheriff hold a town against outlaws.

Cheerfully overlong and slow-moving Western in which everybody, including the director, does his thing. All very watchable for those with time to spare, but more a series of revue sketches than an epic.

w Jules Furthman, Leigh Brackett d Howard Hawks ph Russell Harlan m Dimitri Tiomkin

☆ John Wayne, Dean Martin, Ricky Nelson, Angie Dickinson, Walter Brennan, Ward Bond, John Russell, Pedro Gonzalez-Gonzalez, Claude Akins, Harry Carey Jnr, Bob Steele

'After we finished we found we could have done it a lot better ... and that's why we went ahead and made El Dorado.' – Howard Hawks

† More or less remade in 1966 as El Dorado and in 1970 as Rio Lobo.

Rio Conchos ★

US 1964 107m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (David Weisbart)

Two thousand rifles are stolen from an army command post and traced to the hide-out of a former Confederate colonel who wants to continue the Civil War.

Good standard Western which shares much of its story line with The Comancheros.

w Clair Huffaker, Joseph Landon novel Clair Huffaker d Gordon Douglas ph Joe MacDonald m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Richard Boone, Edmond O'Brien, Stuart Whitman, Tony Franciosa

Rio Grande ★

US 1950 105m bw
Republic/Argosy (John Ford, Merian C. Cooper)

A Cavalry unit on the Mexican border in the 1880s conducts a vain campaign against marauding Indians.

Thin Ford Western on his favourite theme, with too many pauses for song, too many studio sets, and too little plot. Aficionados, however, will find much to admire.

w James Kevin McGuinness story James Warner Bellah d John Ford ph Bert Glennon m Victor Young

☆ John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara, Ben Johnson, Claude Jarman Jnr, Harry Carey Jnr, Chill Wills, J. Carrol Naish, Victor McLaglen

Rio Lobo ★

US 1970 114m Technicolor
Cinema Center (Howard Hawks)

A Union colonel near the end of the Civil War recovers a gold shipment and exposes a traitor.

Rambling Western with traces of former glory, enjoyable at least for its sense of humour.

w Leigh Brackett, Burton Wohl d Howard Hawks ph William Clothier m Jerry Goldsmith pd Robert Smith ed John Woodcock

☆ John Wayne (Capt. Cord McNally), Jorge Rivero (Lt Pierre Cordona), Jennifer O'Neill (Shasta), Jack Elam (Phillips), Victor French (Ketcham), Chris Mitchum (Tuscarora), Mike Henry (Sheriff Hendricks), Sherry Lansing (Amelita), Susana Dosamantes (Maria Carmen)

'Too peevish to qualify as tragic, and only occasionally funny.' – Jonathan Rosenbaum, Chicago Reader

'Hawks' direction is as listless as the plot.' – Variety

'I didn't think it was any good.' – Howard Hawks

Rio Rita

US 1929 135m bw and Technicolor
RKO (William Le Baron)

Romance on a ranch near the Mexican border.

Very early talkie version of a popular Broadway operetta of the twenties; historical interest only.

w Luther Reed, Russell Mack book Guy Bolton, Fred Thomson, as produced by Florenz Ziegfeld d Luther Reed ph Robert Kurrk, Lloyd Knechtel md Victor Baravalle songs Harry Tierney, Joe McCarthy

☆ Bebe Daniels, John Boles, Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Dorothy Lee, Don Alvarado, George Renavent

Rio Rita

US 1942 91m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

Flat-footed remake bringing in Nazi spies.

Poor comedy even by Abbott and Costello standards.

w Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman d S. Sylvan Simon ph George J. Folsey m Herbert Stothart

☆ Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, John Carroll, Kathryn Grayson, Tom Conway, Barry Nelson

Riot

US 1968 98m Technicolor
Paramount/William Castle

While the warden is away, thirty-five convicts take over a state penitentiary and are violently subdued.

Strikingly bloody melodrama set in an actual prison in Arizona; well made, but less entertaining than Cagney and Raft used to be.

w James Poe novel Frank Elli d Buzz Kulik ph Robert B. Hauser m Christopher Komeda

☆ Gene Hackman, Jim Brown, Ben Carruthers, Mike Kellin, Gerald O'Loughlin, Clifford David

Riot in Cell Block Eleven ★

US 1954 80m bw
Allied Artists/Walter Wanger

In a big American prison three convicts seize their guards, free the other prisoners and barricade themselves in their block.

Socially concerned low-budgeter, quite nicely made and persuasive of the need for prison reform.

w Richard Collins d Don Siegel ph Russell Harlan m Herschel Burke Gilbert

☆ Neville Brand, Emile Meyer, Frank Faylen, Leo Gordon, Robert Osterloh, Paul Frees, Don Keefer

'As a compassionate, angry, unsensational account of an episode of violence it makes considerably more impact than many of the overblown melodramas currently in fashion.' – Penelope Houston

'Older. Wiser. More talented.'

Ripley's Game ★

Italy/GB 2002 110m Fujicolor
Entertainment/Baby/Cattleya/Mr Mudd (Ileen Maisel, Simon Bosanquet, Riccardo Chimenz, Russell Smith, Mark Ordesky)

In Italy, an American criminal recruits a terminally ill neighbour to carry out a murder, with unexpected consequences.

Moderately entertaining thriller with a slightly odd tone, and an eccentric performance from Malkovich as a lisping psychopath.

w Charles McKeown, Liliana Cavani novel Patricia Highsmith d Liliana Cavani ph Alfio Contini m Ennio Morricone pd Francesco Frigeri ed Jon Harris

☆ John Malkovich (Tom Ripley), Dougray Scott (Jonathan Trevanny), Ray Winstone (Reeves), Lena Headey (Sarah Trevanny), Chiara Caselli (Luisa Ripley)

'Manages to be enjoyable and ridiculous in a ratio of about one to three: a mix which isn't quite right.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Les Ripoux: see Le Cop

Ripoux contre ripoux: see Le Cop 2

Riptide ★

US 1934 90m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

A British diplomat weds a Manhattan chorus girl, but she later falls for an old flame.

Elegantly set, star-packed drawing-room drama which somehow didn't click.

wd Edmund Goulding ph Ray June m Herbert Stothart

☆ Norma Shearer, Robert Montgomery, Herbert Marshall, Mrs Patrick Campbell, Skeets Gallagher, Ralph Forbes, Lilyan Tashman, Helen Jerome Eddy, George K. Arthur, Halliwell Hobbes

'Has all the earmarks of box office ... a commendable job all round.' – Variety

Riri Shushu No Subete: see All About Lily Chou-Chou

The Rise and Fall of Legs Diamond

US 1960 101m bw
Warner/United States (Milton Sperling)

The career of a New York hoodlum of the twenties.

Inspired, like King of the Roaring Twenties, by the TV success of The Untouchables, this was part of a brief attempt by Warner to recapture its pre-war gangster image. Alas, stars and style were equally lacking.

w Joseph Landon d Budd Boetticher ph Lucien Ballard m Leonard Rosenman

☆ Ray Danton, Karen Steele, Elaine Stewart, Jesse White, Simon Oakland, Robert Lowery, Warren Oates, Judson Pratt

The Rise and Rise of Michael Rimmer

GB 1970 101m Technicolor
Warner/David Frost (Harry Fine)

An efficiency expert takes over an advertising agency and is soon an MP, a cabinet minister, and PM.

Satirical comedy which quickly goes overboard and is only occasionally funny; it does, however, mark the final death throes of the swinging sixties, and the changeover to Monty Python.

w Peter Cook, John Cleese, Kevin Billington, Graham Chapman d Kevin Billington ph Alex Thomson m John Cameron

☆ Peter Cook, John Cleese, Arthur Lowe, Denholm Elliott, Ronald Fraser, Vanessa Howard, George A. Cooper, Harold Pinter, James Cossins, Roland Culver, Dudley Foster, Julian Glover, Dennis Price, Ronnie Corbett

The Rise of Catherine the Great: see Catherine the Great

The Rise of Helga: see Susan Lenox, Her Fall and Rise

The Rise of Louis XIV ★★

France 1966 100m Eastmancolor
ORTF (Pierre Gout)

original title: La Prise de Pouvoir par Louis XIV

The young King of France asserts his power through the use of fashion, style and spectacle.

A complex study of power, shot in a direct, semi-documentary manner, with much use of a zoom lens.

w Jean Gruault story Philippe Erlanger d Roberto Rossellini ph Georges Leclerc, Jean-Louis Picavet ad Maurice Valay ed Armand Ridel

☆ Jean-Michel Patte, Raymond Jourdan, Silvagni, Katharine Renn, Dominique Vincent, Pierre Barrat

'Even the fact that it was made as a spectacular for French television does not quite justify its singular vapidity and pointlessness.' – John Simon

† The film was first shown on French TV before being given a cinema release.

Rising Damp

GB 1980 98m colour
ITC/Black Lion (Roy Skeggs)

The amorous and conniving landlord of a slum boarding house develops a passion for one of his tenants.

A useful reminder of a TV sitcom worth remembering, but handicapped by restriction of action, paucity of plot and the overlength usual in film versions of such things, not to mention the premature death of its original co-star Richard Beckinsale.

w Eric Chappell d Joe McGrath ph Frank Watts m David Lindup

☆ Leonard Rossiter, Frances de la Tour, Don Warrington, Denholm Elliott, Christopher Strauli

'Unforgettably John Ford's finest film!'

The Rising of the Moon

Eire 1957 81m bw
Warner/Four Provinces (Lord Killanin)

Three Irish short stories.

Curiously dull John Ford portmanteau with the Abbey players.

w Frank Nugent stories Frank O'Connor, Malcolm J. McHugh, Lady Gregory d John Ford ph Robert Krasker m Eamonn O'Gallagher narrator Tyrone Power

☆ Maureen Connell, Eileen Crowe, Cyril Cusack, Maureen Delany, Donal Donnelly, Frank Lawton, Edward Lexy, Jack MacGowran, Denis O'Dea, Jimmy O'Dea, Noel Purcell

'A collision of East and West. A conspiracy of seduction and murder. A battle between tradition and power. Business is war.'

Rising Sun

US 1993 129m DeLuxe
TCF (Peter Kaufman)

Two cops, one an expert in Japanese culture, investigate the murder of a prostitute in the boardroom of a Japanese corporation's new Los Angeles headquarters.

Turgid thriller, revealing paranoid feelings about the Japanese in America but not much else to engage the interest.

w Philip Kaufman, Michael Crichton, Michael Backes novel Michael Crichton d Philip Kaufman ph Michael Chapman m Toru Takemitsu, Richard Marriott pd Dean Tavoularis ed Stephen A. Rotter, William S. Scharf

☆ Sean Connery, Wesley Snipes, Harvey Keitel, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Kevin Anderson, Mako, Ray Wise, Stan Egi, Stan Shaw, Tia Carrere, Steve Buscemi

'The myth in Rising Sun is that found in most late 20th-century boysy genre films – the battle to prove white (or sometimes these days, black) male superiority in a world in which extreme male violence is constant, natural, and inevitable ... one sits in the cinema feeling spattered by something false and degrading' – Marilyn French

'Even if the director was keen on doing a thriller exercise, his creative instincts don't seem to have been fully ignited.' – Variety

Risky Business

US 1939 67m bw
Universal

A crusading radio columnist tracks down a kidnapper.

Tolerable crime programmer.

w Charles Grayson from a previous script by William Anthony McGuire d Arthur Lubin

☆ George Murphy, Dorothea Kent, Eduardo Ciannelli, Leon Ames, El Brendel, John Wray

'It will garner nice business in city spots, where they like their melodrama realistic.' – Variety

'Joel was a perfectly ordinary high-school virgin with two perfectly ordinary obsessions: SEX and MONEY'

Risky Business

US 1983 99m Technicolor
Tisch-Avnet/Geffen

A 17-year-old is left in charge of his parents' house and fills it with pimps and prostitutes ... a lucrative business.

Would-be outrageous teenage comedy which is pretty well made but soon wears out its welcome.

wd Paul Brickman ph Reynaldo Villalobos, Bruce Surtees m Tangerine Dream pd William J. Cassidy ed Richard Chew

☆ Tom Cruise, Rebecca de Mornay, Joe Pantoliano, Richard Masur, Bronson Pinchot, Curtis Armstrong, Nicholas Pryor

Riso Amaro: see Bitter Rice

Rita, Sue and Bob Too ★

GB 1987 95m Eastmancolor
Mainline/Umbrella/British Screen/Film Four (Sandy Lieberson)

Schoolgirl babysitters are introduced to sex by their employer on the way home.

Raunchy yet appealing study of British attitudes to sex, in the tradition of Letter to Brezhnev.

w Andrea Dunbar plays The Arbour and Rita, Sue And Bob Too by Andrea Dunbar d Alan Clarke ph Ivan Strasburg m Michael Kamen pd Len Huntingford ed Stephen Singleton

☆ Michelle Holmes, Siobhan Finneran, George Costigan, Lesley Sharp

'The secrets some men keep can be killers.'

Rites of Passage ★

US 1999 92m FotoKem
World International (J. Todd Harris, Pierre David)

A heated family confrontation in a remote lakeside cabin between a father and his two sons, one of them gay, is interrupted by two escaped prisoners.

An intense drama on masculine identity and attitudes that is overwhelmed by the contrivances of its thriller-like narrative.

wd Victor Salva ph Don E. Fauntleroy m Bennett Salvay pd William J. Perretti ed Ed Marx

☆ Dean Stockwell (Del Farraday), Jason Behr (Campbell Farraday), Robert Glen Keith (D.J. Farraday), Jaimz Woolvett (Red), James Rer ıar (Frank)

'Constantly wavers across a line between dead seriousness and hyperbolic near-silliness.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Il Ritorno di Ringo: see The Return of Ringo

Los Ritos Sexuales del Diablo: see Black Candles

Ritual dos Sadicos

Brazil 1969 91m bw/colour
Fotocena (José Mojica Marins, Giorgio Attili, George Michel Serkeis)

aka: O Despertar da Besta
aka: Awakening of the Beast

Four drug addicts watch a film featuring the horror figure Coffin Joe and, after apparently taking LSD, experience the horrors of their existence.

Cheap, incoherent, misogynistic, self-aggrandising exploitation movie, done in a documentary style as a TV talk show debate, which provides an excuse to show grainy sex and nudity.

w José Mojica Marins, Rubens F. Lucchetti d José Mojica Marins ph Giorgio Attili ad Graveto ed Luis Elias

☆ José Mojica Marins, Sérgio Hingst, Ozualdo Candeias, Andreia Bryan, Lurdes Ribas, Mário Lima, Annik Malvil, Itala Nandi

† The film was banned by the Brazilian censors.

The Ritz ★

US 1976 90m Technicolor
Warner/Courtyard (Denis O'Dell)

A comedy of mistaken identities in a gay New York turkish bath.

An adaptation of a stage success which doesn't seem nearly as funny as it thinks it is; but some of it does work.

w Terrence McNally play Terrence McNally d Richard Lester ph Paul Wilson m Ken Thorne pd Phillip Harrison

☆ Jack Weston, Rita Moreno, Jerry Stiller, Kaye Ballard, Bessie Love, George Coulouris, F. Murray Abraham, Treat Williams

The River ★

India 1951 87m Technicolor
Oriental/International/Theatre Guild (Kenneth McEldowney)

Episodes in the life of a small English community living on the banks of the Ganges.

A slight and surprising work from this director, superbly observed and a pleasure to watch but dramatically very thin.

w Rumer Godden, Jean Renoir novel Rumer Godden d Jean Renoir ph Claude Renoir m M. A. Partha Sarathy pd Eugene Lourié

☆ Nora Swinburne, Esmond Knight, Arthur Shields, Adrienne Corri

† Renoir's assistant was Satyajit Ray.

The River

US 1984 122m Technicolor
Universal/Edward Lewis

The Garveys battle flood waters to save the family farm.

Old-fashioned rural drama, at times reminiscent of Way Down East plus a dash of symbolism. A surprise in 1984, and not a very pleasant one, despite or because of its political awareness.

w Robert Dillon, Julian Barry d Mark Rydell ph Vilmos Zsigmond m John Williams pd Charles Rosen ed Sidney Levin

☆ Mel Gibson, Sissy Spacek, Shane Bailey, Becky Jo Lynch, Scott Glenn, Billy Green Bush

♙ Sissy Spacek; photography; music; sound

The River ★

Taiwan 1997 115m colour
BFI/Central (Hsu Li-Kong, Chiu Shun-Ching)

original title: Heliu

In Taipei, a youth becomes ill after playing the part of a drowned corpse in a movie and seeks treatment in vain.

A downbeat account of a family emotionally distant from one another; nothing much happens for most of the film, and audiences will either go with the slow-moving flow or find its lack of resolution intensely irritating.

w Tsai Ming-Liang, Yang Pi-Ying, Tsai Yi-Chun d Tsai Ming-Liang ph Lao Pen-Jung pd Tony Lan ed Chen Sheng-Chang, Lei Chen-Ching

☆ Miao Tian, Li Kangsheng, Lu Xiaolin, Ann Hui, Chen Xiangqi

'It's a film that requires a tremendous amount of patience and concentration from the viewer, taking its leave from inaction, not movement. Occasionally tiresome, meaning is very much left to personal interpretation.' – James Mottram, Film Review

† The film won the Silver Bear at the Berlin Film Festival.

River of No Return ★

US 1954 91m Technicolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Stanley Rubin)

During the California gold rush a widower and his 10-year-old son encounter a saloon singer with a gold claim.

Cheerful, clichéd star Western designed to exploit the splendours of early Cinemascope, and very adequate for this purpose.

w Frank Fenton d Otto Preminger

ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge md Lionel Newman
☆ Robert Mitchum, Marilyn Monroe, Tommy Rettig, Rory Calhoun, Murvyn Vye

The River Rat
US 1984 93m Technicolor
Paramount/Sundance/Larson Rickman (Bob Larson)
During a river journey on a raft to escape from a dishonest parole officer, a just-released convict tries to form a relationship with the young daughter he has never known.
A domestic drama that is never more than moderately effective.
wd Tom Rickman ph Jan Kiesser m Mike Post pd John J. Lloyd ed Dennis Virkler ☆ Tommy Lee Jones, Nancy Lea Owen, Brian Dennehy, Martha Plimpton

A River Runs through It ★
US 1992 123m Technicolor
Guild/Allied Filmmaker/Columbia (Robert Redford, Patrick Markey)
Two brothers, whose relationship with each other is often troubled, find shared pleasure in fly-fishing.
A soothingly nostalgic movie, often graceful but more often sluggish.
w Richard Friedenberg story Norman Maclean d Robert Redford ph Philippe Rousselot m Mark Isham pd Jon Hutman ed Lynzee Klingman, Robert Estrin
☆ Craig Sheffer, Brad Pitt, Tom Skerritt, Brenda Blethyn, Emily Lloyd, Edie McClurg, Stephen Shellen, Nicole Burdette, Susan Traylor
'Old-fashioned, literary and restrained ... but its concerns are too refined, gentle and, finally, unexciting to stir the masses.' – Variety
'Cool, allusive and, in the best sense, poetic movie, rich in unforced metaphors and feelings.' – Richard Schickel, Time
'As a film, it has all the virtues except tension, which is unfortunately like saying that a watch would be a good timekeeper if the mainspring wasn't bust.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
Philippe Rousselot
Richard Friedenberg; Mark Isham

'The vacation is over.'

The River Wild ★
US 1994 111m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Turman-Foster (David Foster, Lawrence Turman)
A family on a white-water rafting expedition is forced to help armed robbers escape their pursuers.
Predictable action drama, made with some skill but too obvious in its plotting to create much suspense.
w Denis O'Neill d Curtis Hanson ph Robert Elswit m Jerry Goldsmith pd Bill Kenney ed Joe Hutshing, David Brenner
☆ Meryl Streep, Kevin Bacon, David Strathairn, Joseph Mazzello, John C. Reilly, Benjamin Bratt
'So formulaic that the picture is never more than moderately exciting; you can see round every bend in this river.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
'Streep goes down-market and down-river ... The things Hollywood stars have to do to get back into the mainstream sometimes.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Riverboat Rhythm
US 1946 65m bw
RKO
A Mississippi riverboat captain is financially embarrassed.
Very mild comedy with the star in dual roles.
w Robert Faber, Charles Roberts d Leslie Goodwins ☆ Leon Errol, Walter Catlett, Glenn Vernon, Marc Cramer, Jonathan Hale, Joan Newton

The River's Edge
US 1956 87m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Benedict Bogeaus)
A fugitive bank robber forces a farmer to guide him over the mountains into Mexico.
Sluggish open-air character melodrama.
w Harold J. Smith d Allan Dwan ph Harold Lipstein m Lou Forbes ☆ Ray Milland, Anthony Quinn, Debra Paget, Byron Foulger

River's Edge ★★
US 1986 99m Metrocolor
Palace/Hemdale (Sarah Pillsbury, Midge Sanford)
After a teenager murders his girlfriend, his friends wonder what action they should take.
A gripping drama of teenage alienation.
w Neal Jimenez d Tim Hunter ph Frederick Elmes m Jurgen Knieper pd John Muto ed Howard Smith, Sonya Sones ☆ Crispin Glover, Keanu Reeves, Ione Skye, Daniel Roebuck, Dennis Hopper, Joshua Miller
'An unusually downbeat and depressing youth pic.' – Variety
'This brilliant, messy little picture, another triumph for the independent film movement, should cause people to argue and celebrate for years – argue over how it could have been done better, celebrate that it was done at all.' – David Denby, New York

River's End
US 1930 74m bw
Warner
A Mountie dies chasing his man, who then impersonates him.
Popular, contrived, outdoor thriller, previously filmed in 1922 with Lewis Stone, and subsequently in 1940 with Dennis Morgan (this version became known as Double Identity*).*
w Charles Kenyon story James Oliver Curwood d Michael Curtiz
☆ Charles Bickford, Evalyn Knapp, J. Farrell MacDonald, ZaSu Pitts, David Torrence

La Rivière du Hibou: see Incident at Owl Creek

'Evil rises to new heights'

Les Rivières Pourpres
France 2000 103m colour
Legende/Gaumont/TF1/Canal+ (Alain Goldman)
GB and US title: The Crimson Rivers
Two detectives investigating different crimes discover that they are after the same crypto-Nazi perpetrator.
Gruesomely ludicrous and overwrought thriller in thrall to the worst excesses of Hollywood movies.
w Jean-Christophe Grange, Mathieu Kassovitz d Mathieu Kassovitz ph Thierry Arbogast m Bruno Coulais ad Thierry Flamand ed Maryline Monthieux cos Sandrine Follet, Julie Mauduech
☆ Jean Reno (Pierre Niemans), Vincent Cassel (Max Kerkerian), Nadia Fares (Fanny Ferreira), Dominique Sanda (Sister Andrée), Karim Belkhadra (Capt. Dahmane), Jean-Pierre Cassel (Dr Cherneze)
'A breathtaking exercise in the macabre... even when the movie is perfect nonsense, it's so voluptuous that you're grateful to be watching it anyway.' – Roger Ebert

Rize ★★ (7)
US/GB 2005 86m colour
Lions Gate/HIS/Dark Fibre (David LaChapelle, Marc Hawker, Ellen Jacobson-Clarke, Richmond Talauega, Tone Talauega)
Documentary on krumping, the hyper-kinetic post-hip-hop dance movement in Los Angeles.
Fashion photographer LaChapelle catches the intense energy of the dancers in the poor South Central district of the city, providing a release to their everyday problematic lives.
d David LaChapelle ph Morgan Susser m Red Ronin Prods, Amy Marie Beauchamp, Jose Cancella ed Fernando Villena
☆ Tommy the Clown, Lil Tommy, Dragon, El Nino, Tight Eyez
'The film is most effective when it allows the performers to tell their own story through their extraordinary athleticism.' – Howard Swains, Times

The Road: see La Strada

Road Agent
US 1941 69m bw
Universal
Three cowboys are released from jail so that they can capture an outlaw gang.
Feeble 'B'-movie Western with a couple of forgettable songs thrown in.
w Morgan Cox, Arthur Strawn, Maurice Tombragel story Sherman Lowe, Arthur St Clare d Charles Lamont ph Jerome Ash md H. J. Salter ad Jack Otterson ed Frank Gross ☆ Dick Foran, Leo Carillo, Andy Devine, Anne Gwynne, Samuel S. Hinds, Richard Davis, Anne Nagel, Morris Ankrum

The Road Back ★★
US 1937 105m bw
Universal (James Whale)
After World War I, German soldiers go home to problems and disillusion.
A major work, intended as a sequel to All Quiet on the Western Front. Despite impressive sequences, it doesn't quite reach inspiring heights.
w R. C. Sherriff, Charles Kenyon novel Erich Maria Remarque d James Whale ph John Mescall, George Robinson m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Charles D. Hall ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Richard Cromwell, John King, Slim Summerville, Andy Devine, Barbara Read, Louise Fazenda, Noah Beery Jnr, Lionel Atwill, John Emery, Etienne Girardot, Spring Byington, Laura Hope Crews
'Big and frequently effective, but a let-down in toto ... does not compare with All Quiet in quality or power.' – Variety
'They call it an all-star cast and that means there isn't a single player of any distinction to be picked out of the herd ... It might be funny if it wasn't horrifying. This is America seeing the world in its own image.' – Graham Greene
† The film is said to have been extensively reshot after protests from the German consul in Los Angeles. No 35mm negative now exists, as it reverted to Remarque and was lost.

Road Games
Australia 1981 110m colour
Avco Embassy/Barber International/Quest (Richard Franklin)
A long-distance truck-driver unwittingly picks up a murderer on the run.
Tolerable but overlong road thriller.
w Everett de Roche d Richard Franklin ph Vincent Monton m Brian May pd John Dowding ed Edward McQueen-Mason
☆ Stacy Keach, Jamie Lee Curtis, Marion Edwards, Grant Page

Road Gang
US 1936 60m bw
First National
GB title: Injustice
Penal corruption and brutality in a Southern state is exposed by the Chicago Sun.
A rough ride over familiar ground.
w Abem Finkel, Dalton Trumbo, Harold Buckley d Louis King
☆ Donald Woods, Carlyle Moore Jnr, Kay Linaker, Harry Cording, Marc Lawrence

The Road Home
US 1989 116m colour
Rank/Orion (Howard Rosenman, Thomas Baer)
aka: Lost Angels
A rebellious youth is sent to a private institution for the problem children of the wealthy.
Confused and unconvincing picture of teenage traumas.
w Michael Weller d Hugh Hudson ph Juan Ruiz-Anchia m Philippe Sarde pd Assheton Gorton ed David Gladwell
☆ Donald Sutherland, Adam Horovitz, Amy Locane, Don Bloomfield, Celia Weston, Graham Beckel, Patricia Richardson, Ron Frazier, Joseph d'Angerio
'What is wrong with it, apart from a rather overblown style which is never hard-edged enough, is the depiction of the rebellion itself which seems too predicated on adult perfidy to be entirely true.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Road Home ★★
China 2000 89m bw/colour
Columbia/Guangxi Film Studio/Beijing New Picture (Zhao Yu)
original title: Wo De Fu Qin Mu Qin
Returning home for the funeral of his father, a businessman remembers his parents' courtship.
Simply told, a straightforward romance, a story of patience and fidelity, that also reasserts the worth of traditional values over crass materialism.
w Bao Shi novel Remembrance by Bao Shi d Zhang Yimou ph Hou Yong m San Bao ad Cao Jiuping ed Zhai Ru cos Dong Huamiao
☆ Zhang Ziyi (Young Zhao Di), Sun Honglei (Luo Yusheng), Zheng Hao (Luo Changyu), Zhao Yuelin (Old Zhao Di), Li Bin (Grandmother), Chang Guifa (Old Mayor), Sung Wencheng (Mayor), Liu Qi (Old Carpenter Xia), Ji Bo (Carpenter Xia), Zhang Zhongxi (Crockery Repairman)
'At heart just another shallow and sentimental love story.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'Deeply engaging, directed and performed with sweetness and humanity.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Road House ★

US 1948 95m bw
TCF (Edward Chodorov)
A road house owner is jealous of his manager and frames him for murder.
Dated but watchable film noir of its era, with all characters cynical or homicidal.
w Edward Chodorov d Jean Negulesco ph Joseph LaShelle m Cyril Mockridge ☆ Richard Widmark, Ida Lupino, Cornel Wilde, Celeste Holm

Road House ★

US 1989 114m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/United Artists/Star Partners II/Silver Pictures (Joel Silver)
A kung fu expert, who is hired to clean up a saloon, incurs the enmity of a local racketeer.
Rowdy action movie that provides unthinking enjoyment.
w David Lee Henry, Hilary Henkin d Rowdy Herrington ph Dean Cundey ad William J. Durrell Jnr ed Frank J. Urioste, John F. Link
☆ Patrick Swayze, Kelly Lynch, Sam Elliott, Ben Gazzara, Marshall Teague, Julie Michaels, Red West, Sunshine Parker, Jeff Healey
'Very nearly a perfect exploitation movie.' – MFB

Road Kill

US 1993 93m DeLuxe
RicMar/Faultline (T. Michael, Rebecca Taylor, Marcie Lestz Jastrow, Richard Jastrow)
A failing LA film student persuades his neighbour, a female assassin, to let him make a documentary about her final assignment in Miami.
Quirky low-budget thriller.
wd Matthew Leutwyler ph Steven Gainer m Mark Bonilla pd Grant Fenning ed Matthew Leutwyler ☆ Jennifer Rubin (Blue), Erik Palladino (Alex), Billy Jayne (Lars), Tony Denison (Mr Z), Jon Polito (Jelly), Richard Portnow (Mr Charboneau), Brian Vander Ark (Joey)
'Pic's humorous awareness of its poor-cousin status on the paid-assassin food chain proves sufficiently disarming to permit enjoyment of its inventive, oddball riffs on familiar material.' – Todd McCarthy

The Road Killers: see Roadflower

Road Show ★

US 1941 86m bw
Hal Roach
A young man wrongly committed to an insane asylum escapes with another inmate and joins a travelling circus.
Engaging scatty comedy on familiar Roach lines which suffers from lame pacing but manages some likeable moments.
w Arnold Belgard, Harry Langdon, Mickell Novak novel Eric Hatch d Gordon Douglas ph Norbert Brodine m George Stoll
☆ John Hubbard, Adolphe Menjou, Carole Landis, Patsy Kelly, George E. Stone Road to Bali ★

US 1952 91m Technicolor
Paramount (Harry Tugend)
In and around the South Seas, with colour making the sets obvious and the gags only tediously funny.
The team's zest was also flagging.
w Frank Butler, Hal Kanter, William Morrow d Hal Walker ph George Barnes md Joseph J. Lilley songs Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen
☆ Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Murvyn Vye, Peter Coe

The Road to Corinth: see La Route de Corinthe

The Road to Denver

US 1955 90m Trucolor
Republic
An honest ranch hand gets into trouble when he tries to help his lawless brother.
Uninspired Western which just about passes the time.
w Horace McCoy, Allen Rivkin story Bill Gulick d Joseph Kane ph Reggie Lanning m R. Dale Butts
☆ John Payne, Lee J. Cobb, Skip Homeier, Mona Freeman, Ray Middleton, Andy Clyde, Lee Van Cleef

'They came for the gold. They stayed for the adventure.'

The Road to El Dorado ★

US 2000 89m Technicolor
DreamWorks (Bonne Radford, Brooke Breton)
In 1519, two conmen, who are seeking the golden city of El Dorado, are taken for Gods after they are washed up on the shores of Mexico.
An animated film very much in the Disney mould and tipping its hat to the Bing Crosby-Bob Hope Road comedies of the 40s, but lacking both a memorable story and hummable songs.
w Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio d Eric Bergeron, Don Paul m Hans Zimmer, John Powell m/ly Elton John, Tim Rice pd Christian Schellewald ed John Carnochan, Dan Molina, Vicki Hiatt ☆ voices of: Kevin Kline (Tulio), Kenneth Branagh (Miguel), Rosie Perez (Chel), Armand Assante (Tzekel), Edward James Olmos (Chief), Elton John (Narrator)
'A movie that misfires at every turn.' – Empire

The Road to Frisco: see They Drive by Night

The Road to Glory ★

US 1936 103m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
Adventures of a French regiment in World War I.
Meticulously produced war movie which bears comparison with All Quiet on the Western Front.
w Joel Sayre, William Faulkner d Howard Hawks ph Gregg Toland m Louis Silvers ☆ Fredric March, Warner Baxter, Lionel Barrymore, June Lang, Gregory Ratoff, Victor Kilian, John Qualen, Julius Tannen, Leonid Kinskey

Road to Hong Kong

GB 1962 91m bw
UA/Melnor (Melvin Frank)
Curious, slightly dismal-looking attempt to continue the series in a British studio and on a low budget.
A few good gags, but it's all very tired by now, and the space fiction plot makes it seem more so.
w Norman Panama, Melvin Frank d Norman Panama ph Jack Hildyard m Robert Farnon pd Roger Furse
☆ Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Joan Collins, Robert Morley, Walter Gotell, Felix Aylmer, David Niven, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Jerry Colonna, Peter Sellers

The Road to Hope: see Il Cammino della Speranza

Road to Koktebel: see Koktebel

The Road to Life ★

USSR 1930 100m bw
Mejrabpom
Moscow street children are rounded up and reformed.
A kind of Russian prequel to the Dead End Kids, presented with much style.
wd Nikolai Ekk
☆ Mikhail Zharov, Maria Gonfa, Tsifan Kyrla
'Judged purely as entertainment the film recedes quickly, as do most Russian films.' – Variety

'Where the human wreckage of the seven seas foregather, this powerful tale of love and intrigue is told!'

Road to Mandalay

US 1926 77m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM
Two eastern planters quarrel over a girl.
Potboiling star vehicle.
w Elliott Clawson, Herman Mankiewicz d Tod Browning
☆ Lon Chaney, Lois Moran, Owen Moore, Henry B. Walthall

Road to Morocco ★

US 1942 83m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
Two shipwrecked Americans are taken to an Arab princess, who is determined to marry one of them to lift an ancient curse.
Hollywood Arab palaces, topical gags and talking camels provide a little amusement..
w Frank Butler, Don Hartman d David Butler ph William C. Mellor md Victor Young songs Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen
☆ Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Anthony Quinn, Dona Drake
'A bubbly spontaneous entertainment without a semblance of sanity.' – Variety
'It would be difficult to find a screen pantomime with better wartime credentials.' – Kine Weekly
'This is the screwiest picture I've ever been in.' – Camel
script

'Every Father Is A Hero To His Son.'

Road to Perdition ★★

US 2002 116m Technicolor Panavision
TCF/DreamWorks (Richard D. Zanuck, Dean Zanuck, Sam Mendes)
After his wife and son are killed, a Chicago hitman plans revenge while going on the run to save the life of his surviving son.
Visually splendid crime thriller, with a balletic finale in the rain; but the approach is too ponderous to be entirely engaging and Hanks makes an unconvincing killer.
w David Self graphic novel Max Allan Collins, Richard Piers Rayner d Sam Mendes ph Conrad L. Hall m Thomas Newman pd Dennis Gassner ed Jill Bilcock
☆ Tom Hanks (Michael Sullivan), Paul Newman (John Rooney), Jude Law (Maguire), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Annie Sullivan), Stanley Tucci (Frank Nitti), Daniel Craig (Connor Rooney), Tyler Hoechlin (Michael Sullivan Jnr), Liam Aiken (Peter Sullivan), Dylan Baker (Alexander Rance), Ciaran Hinds (Finn McGovern)
'A solemnly beautiful art concept – which is not quite the same thing as a great movie.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'A wonderful movie – powerfully moving, majestically thrilling, a consummate work of movie-making art.' – Jonathan Ross, Daily Mirror
'Rarely do you see a film that takes on so many big themes and has so little of substance to say about any of them.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
Conrad L. Hall
Paul Newman; Thomas Newman; Dennis Gassner (with Nancy Haigh); sound (Scott Millan, Bob Beemer, John Pritchett); sound editing (Scott Hecker)
Conrad L. Hall; Dennis Gassner

The Road to Reno

US 1938 69m bw
Universal
A rancher won't give his wife the divorce she thinks she wants.
Combination comedy, drama, romance and horse opera which doesn't gel.
w Roy Chanslor, Adele Comandini, Brian Marlow novel I. A. R. Wylie d S. Sylvan Simon ☆ Randolph Scott, Hope Hampton, Glenda Farrell, Helen Broderick, Alan Marshal, Samuel S. Hinds

Road to Rio ★★

US 1947 100m bw
Paramount (Daniel Dare)
Guest stars are given their head, plot intrudes again in the shape of a hypnotized heiress, and the style is more constrained (but still funny).
w Edmund Beloin, Jack Rose d Norman Z. McLeod ph Ernest Laszlo md Robert Emmett Dolan songs Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen
☆ Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Gale Sondergaard, Frank Faylen, the Wiere Brothers, the Andrews Sisters
'Enough laughs to pass the time easily and to remind you how completely, since sound came in, the American genius for movie comedy has disintegrated.' – James Agee
Robert Emmett Dolan

Road to Ruin

US/France 1992 90m colour
Chrysalide/Canal+/Movie Group/RTBF (Monique Annaud)
After he pretends to be poor in order to test a model's love for him, a millionaire businessman is bankrupted by his partner and sets out to regain his fortune and the woman's love.
Slick, glossy, extremely shallow romantic comedy that prefers implausibility to reality.
w Eric Anjou story Richard Gitelson, Eric Freiser d Charlotte Brandstrom ph Jean-Yves Le Mener m John Goldstein ad Bertrand Seitz ed Michele Robert-Lauliac
☆ Peter Weller, Carey Lowell, Michel Duchaussoy, Nathalie Auffret

The Road to Salina

France/Italy 1971 96m colour Panavision
Robert Dorfmann
original title: Quando il Sola Scotta
The proprietress of a roadside café recognizes a drifter as her long-lost son.

Boring emotional drama stymied by the multi-language problem.
w Georges Lautner, Pascal Jardin, Jack Miller novel Maurice Cury d Georges Lautner ph Maurice Fellons m Bernard Gérard, Ian Anderson ☆ Rita Hayworth, Mimsy Farmer, Robert Walker Jnr, Ed Begley, Sophie Hardy

Road to Singapore
US 1931 70m bw
Warner
A doctor's wife is caught with her lover, and her life falls to pieces.
Tensions among the oriental upper crust: very dated and not very convincing.
w J. Grubb Alexander play Roland Pertwee d Alfred E. Green ☆ William Powell, Louis Calhern, Doris Kenyon, Marian Marsh, Alison Skipworth

Road to Singapore ★
US 1940 84m bw
Paramount (Harlan Thompson)
Two rich playboys swear off women until they quarrel over a Singapore maiden.
The first Hope-Crosby-Lamour 'road' picture is basically a light romantic comedy and quite forgettable; the series got zanier as it progressed.
w Don Hartman, Frank Butler story Harry Hervey d Victor Schertzinger ph William C. Mellor m Victor Young ☆ Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Charles Coburn, Judith Barrett, Anthony Quinn, Jerry Colonna
'A deft blend of romance and comedy, songs and fisticuffs.' – Picture Show
'Two of the most congenially harmonized performances caught by the camera in recent years.' – Motion Picture Herald
† The script was originally designed for Fred MacMurray and Jack Oakie, who weren't available; then for Burns and Allen, who turned it down.

Road to Utopia ★★
US 1945 89m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
The Klondike gold rush, with all the previous gag styles in good order, capped by a cheeky epilogue and constant explanatory narration by Robert Benchley.
w Norman Panama, Melvin Frank d Hal Walker ph Lionel Lindon m Leigh Harline songs Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen
☆ Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Douglass Dumbrille, Hillary Brooke, Jack La Rue Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

'A Comedy Of The Heart And Other Organs.'

The Road to Wellville ★
US 1994 120m Technicolor
J&M/Beacon/Dirty Hands (Alan Parker, Armyan Bernstein, Robert Colesberry)
In the early 1900s, a couple whose marriage is in difficulties visit a famous sanatarium, run by Dr Kellogg, in a town full of get-rich-quick merchants hoping to cash in on the fad for healthy living and invented foods, such as cornflakes.
A film quite unlike any other in its exuberant account of the quirky methods of the health industry; Hopkins brings toothy menace to the role of Kellogg, but the screenplay fatally softens the darkly satirical tone of its source, bringing it closer in spirit to a Carry On movie.
wd Alan Parker novel T. Coraghessen Boyle ph Peter Biziou m Rachel Portman pd Brian Morris ed Gerry Hambling
☆ Anthony Hopkins, Bridget Fonda, Matthew Broderick, John Cusack, Dana Carvey, Michael Lerner, Colm Meaney, John Neville, Lara Flynn Boyle
'Amusing without being particularly funny, and not especially involving in terms of its characters or melodrama, Alan Parker's unzipped cereal comedy is more something to gape at in wonderment, so persistently odd and unusual are its setting and tone.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'One of the most intricately tiresome movies ever made.' – David Denby, New York
'Like its hero, it's possessed of an awesome oddity that is finally rather endearing. In an era of Big Mac movies, the occasional nut cutlet can come as a tonic relief.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent
'It just didn't work. It was a terrible movie but I don't think it's anyone's fault.' – Matthew Broderick

Road to Zanzibar ★★
US 1941 92m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
The trio on safari in Africa, with Hellzapoppin gags breaking in and an anything-goes atmosphere.
w Frank Butler, Don Hartman d Victor Schertzinger ph Ted Tetzlaff m Victor Young songs Johnny Burke, Jimmy Van Heusen
☆ Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Una Merkel, Eric Blore, Luis Alberni, Douglass Dumbrille
'The funniest thing I've seen on the screen in years. Years.' – Otis Ferguson

'The Greatest College Tradition Of All.'

Road Trip
US 2000 94m Technicolor
DreamWorks/Montecito (Daniel Goldberg, Joe Medjuck)
After a student videotapes sex with an acquaintance and accidentally mails it to his girlfriend, he sets out with three friends to recover it.
Tasteless and dislikeable youth comedy.
w Todd Phillips, Scot Armstrong d Todd Phillips ph Mark Irwin m Mike Simpson pd Clark Hunter ed Sheldon Kahn cos Peggy Stamper
☆ Breckin Meyer (Josh), Seann William Scott (E.L.), Amy Smart (Beth), Paulo Costanzo (Rubin), D.J. Qualls (Kyle), Rachel Blanchard (Tiffany), Anthony Rapp (Jacob), Fred Ward (Earl Edwards), Tom Green (Barry), Andy Dick (Motel Clerk), Ethan Suplee (Ed)
'A pretty broad, crude, charmless movie.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Road Warrior: see Mad Max 2

Roadblock ★
US 1951 73m bw
RKO (Lewis J. Rachmil)
An insurance investigator plans a million-dollar robbery after falling for a woman who wants a rich life.
Minor film noir, about the corruption of an honest man, with slick dialogue ('Happiness can't buy you money') and an effective finale along the Los Angeles riverbed.
w Steve Fisher, George Bricker story Richard Landau, Geoffrey Homes d Harold Daniels ph Nicholas Musuraca m Paul Sawtell md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ad Albert D'Agostino, Walter E. Keller ed Robert Golden ☆ Charles McGraw, Joan Dixon, Lowell Gilmore, Louis Jean Heydt, Milburn Stone, Joseph Crehan

'The highway to hell.'

Roadflower
US 1993 89m DeLuxe Panavision
Miramax/Silver Lion (John Flock, Lance Hool) video title: The Road Killers
On a remote Nevada desert road, a mild-mannered man is left for dead and his family kindnapped by a violent psychopath and his retarded accomplices.
Nasty, meretricious thriller, with a turgid script, which requires everyone to behave very stupidly; the cast compensate by overacting.
w Tedi Sarafian d Deran Sarafian ph James L. Carter m Les Hooper pd Jonathan Carlson ed Peck Prior ☆ Christopher Lambert (Jack), Craig Sheffer (Cliff), David Arquette (Bobby), Josh Brolin (Tom), Michelle Forbes (Helen), Michael Greene (Sherrif Hodes), Alexondra Lee (Ashley), Christopher McDonald (Glen), John Pyper-Ferguson (Hauser), Richard Sarafian (Trucker), Adrienne Shelly (Red)

Roadhouse 66
US 1984 90m colour
Atlantic (Scott M. Rosenfelt, Mark Levinson)
A motorist and his down-at-heel hitchhiker are stuck in a small town when their car breaks down.
Uninteresting drama, lacking verve and originality.
w Galen Lee, George Simpson d John Mark Robinson ph Tom Ackerman m Gary Scott pd Chester Kaczenski ed Jay Lash Cassidy
☆ Willem Dafoe, Judge Reinhold, Karen Lee, Kate Vernon, Stephen Elliott

Roadhouse Nights ★
US 1930 71m bw
Paramount
A reporter exposes a gangster operating from a country night-club.
Experimental mingling of elements which later become very familiar.
w Garrett Fort story Ben Hecht d Hobart Henley ph William Steiner
☆ Helen Morgan, Charles Ruggles, Fred Kohler, Jimmy Durante, Fuller Mellish Jnr

Roadkill: see Joy Ride

Roadside Prophets
US 1992 96m CFI color
Electric/New Line (Peter McCarthy, David Swinson)
A biker sets off across country to scatter the ashes of his friend in a place where he had been happy.
A punkish road movie, mainly peopled by the sort of eccentrics you would take back-roads to avoid; an Easy Rider for the 90s it isn't.
wd Abbe Wool story David Swinson ph Tom Richmond m Pray For Rain, John Doe pd J. Rae Fox ed Nancy Richardson
☆ John Doe, David Anthony Marshall, Adam Horovitz, Barton Heyman, John Cusack, Jennifer Balgobin, Ellie Raab, David Carradine, Timothy Leary, Arlo Guthrie
'With its unfashionable adherence to the idealism of 60s drop-out cinema and occasional deadpan belly laughs, this is well worth travelling along with for an hour and a half.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Roald Dahl's Matilda
US 1996 100m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Jersey (Danny DeVito, Michael Shamberg, Stacey Sher, Liccy Dahl)
aka: Matilda
The precocious daughter of horrid parents uses her powers of telekinesis to frighten her headmistress.
Sour little black comedy, celebrating childish wish-fulfilment; adults may find it tough going.
w Nicholas Kazan, Robin Swicord novel Roald Dahl d Danny DeVito ph Stefan Czapsky m David Newman pd Bill Brzeski ed Lynzee Klingman, Brent White ☆ Danny DeVito, Rhea Perlman, Embeth Davidtz, Pam Ferris, Mara Wilson, Paul Reubens, Tracey Walter, Brian Levinson
'This is strongish stuff, funny and bitter in turn and not entirely softened by its feel-good ending.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Roar ★
US 1981 102m colour
Panavision
Noel Marshall/Banjiro Uemura
A research biologist lives in the African bush with assorted wild animals. He is expecting his family, but they arrive a day early when he is out
A rather silly story takes in some of the most remarkable animal photography on record, and there is a sub-plot involving villainous game hunters.
wd Noel Marshall ph Jan de Bont m Dominic Frontière
☆ Noel Marshall, Tippi Hedren, and family
† The Marshalls live with their 150 lions and other wild animals in a ranch near Los Angeles. During production the film, which eventually cost 17 million dollars, was halted by flood, fire, epidemic and injury.

Roar of the Dragon
US 1932 70m bw
Radio
Passengers in a Chinese river boat are menaced by bandits.
Curious water-set version of Shanghai Express, with a good cast its best recommendation.
w Howard Estabrook story George Kibbee Turner, Merian C. Cooper, Jane Bigelow d Wesley Ruggles ph Edward Cronjager md Max Steiner
☆ Richard Dix, Edward Everett Horton, Gwili Andre, ZaSu Pitts, Arline Judge, Dudley Digges, C. Henry Gordon

'The land of the free gone wild! The heyday of the hotcha! The shock-crammed days G-men took ten whole years to lick!'

The Roaring Twenties ★★★
US 1939 106m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)
A World War I veteran returns to New York, innocently becomes involved in bootlegging, builds up an empire and dies in a gang war.
Among the last of the Warner gangster cycle, this was perhaps the best production of them all, despite the familiar plot line: stars and studio were in cracking form.
w Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay, Robert Rossen story Mark Hellinger d Raoul Walsh, Anatole Litvak ph Ernest Haller m Heinz Roemheld ad Max Parker ed Jack Killifer ☆ James Cagney (Eddie Bartlett), Humphrey Bogart (George Hally), Priscilla

Lane (Jean Sherman), Jeffrey Lynn (Lloyd Hart), Gladys George (Panama Smith), Frank McHugh (Danny Green), Paul Kelly (Nick Brown), Elizabeth Risdon (Mrs. Sherman)

'Story and dialog are good. Raoul Walsh turns in a fine directorial job; the performances are uniformly excellent.' – Variety

† The James Cagney character was based on Larry Fay, who was Texas Guinan's partner, and Gladys George is clearly Guinan herself.

†† Walsh replaced Litvak as director during filming.

'Honour made him a man. Courage made him a hero. History made him a legend.'

Rob Roy ★★

US 1995 139m DeLuxe
UIP/UA/Talisman (Peter Broughan, Richard Jackson)

In the early 1700s, Rob Roy McGregor turns outlaw rather than act dishonourably, as the English demand.

Enjoyably old-fashioned adventure among the heather, though it is the villains who get the best lines.

w Alan Sharp d Michael Caton-Jones ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m Carter Burwell pd Assheton Gorton ed Peter Honess

☆ Liam Neeson, Jessica Lange, John Hurt, Tim Roth, Eric Stoltz, Andrew Keir, Brian Cox, Brian McCardie, Gilbert Martin, Vicki Masson

'Gives more pleasure than you think you might get, despite its length and empty patches. It's an epic that at least tries for some sort of authenticity and rises to the main occasion with some bravura.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Profoundly mediocre.' – Empire

♙ Tim Roth

♈ Tim Roth

Rob Roy the Highland Rogue

GB 1953 81m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Perce Pearce)

After the defeat of the clans in the 1715 rebellion, their leader escapes and after several adventures is granted a royal pardon.

A kind of Scottish Robin Hood, so stiffly acted and made that it might as well – or better – be a cartoon.

w Lawrence E. Watkin d Harold French ph Guy Green m Cedric Thorpe Davie

☆ Richard Todd, Glynis Johns, James Robertson Justice, Michael Gough, Finlay Currie, Geoffrey Keen, Archie Duncan

Robbers' Roost

US 1955 82m DeLuxe
UA (Leonard Goldstein)

An honest cowboy is employed by cattle rustlers and strives to clear his name.

Fair Western programmer.

w John O'Dea, Sidney Salkow, Maurice Geraghty novel Zane Grey d Sidney Salkow ph Jack Draper m Paul Dunlap

☆ George Montgomery, Richard Boone, Sylvia Findley, Bruce Bennett, Peter Graves, Warren Stevens, William Hopper Robbery ★

GB 1967 113m Eastmancolor
Joseph E. Levine/Oakhurst (Michael Deeley, Stanley Baker)

Criminals conspire to rob the night mail train from Glasgow.

Heavy-going fictionalized account of the famous train robbery of 1963; best seen as standard cops and robbers, with some good chase sequences.

w Edward Boyd, Peter Yates, George Markstein d Peter Yates ph Douglas Slocombe m Johnny Keating

☆ Stanley Baker, James Booth, Frank Finlay, Joanna Pettet, Barry Foster, William Marlowe, Clinton Greyn, George Sewell

Robbery under Arms

GB 1957 99m Eastmancolor
Rank (Joe Janni)

In 19th-century Australia, two farming brothers join the notorious outlaw Captain Starlight.

Howlingly dull film version of a semi-classic adventure novel; a rambling story with no unity of viewpoint is saved only by excellent photography.

w Alexander Baron, W. P. Lipscomb novel Rolf Boldrewood d Jack Lee ph Harry Waxman m Matyas Seiber

☆ Peter Finch, David McCallum, Ronald Lewis, Maureen Swanson, Jill Ireland, Laurence Naismith, Jean Anderson

Robbery under Arms

Australia 1985 141m colour
Jock Blair/South Australia Film Corporation

Adventures of two young followers of the highwayman Captain Starlight.

Uninteresting cut-down of a TV mini-series; earlier versions were made in 1907, 1911, 1920 and 1957 (above).

w Graeme Koetsveld, Tony Morphett novel Rolf Boldrewood d Ken Hannam, Donald Crombie

☆ Sam Neill, Steven Vidler, Christopher Cummins, Liz Newman, Ed Devereaux

'The miracle story of all time!'

The Robe ★★

US 1953 135m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF (Frank Ross)

Followers and opponents of Jesus are affected by the robe handed down by him at his crucifixion.

The first film in Cinemascope was, surprisingly, a biblical bestseller, but the crowded Roman sets hid most of the flaws in the process. The film itself was competent and unsurprising in the well-tried Sign of the Cross manner.

w Philip Dunne, Albert Maltz adaptation Gina Kaus novel Lloyd C. Douglas d Henry Koster ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, George W. Davis

☆ Richard Burton, Jean Simmons, Michael Rennie, Victor Mature, Jay Robinson, Torin Thatcher, Dean Jagger, Richard Boone, Betta St John, Jeff Morrow, Ernest Thesiger, Dawn Addams

'The film, then, is the usual vulgarising stuff; and to judge CinemaScope on this evidence would be unfair. The weaknesses of the system are obvious.' – Dilys Powell † Tyrone Power was originally cast in the Burton role, and Burt Lancaster in Mature's.

†† Screenwriter Albert Maltz was excluded from the film's original credits because he was blacklisted at the time.

♟ art direction

♙ best picture; Leon Shamroy; Richard Burton

Robert A. Heinlein's The Puppet Masters: see The Puppet Masters

Roberta ★

US 1935 105m bw (Technicolor sequence)
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

An American inherits a Parisian fashion house.

Thin and remarkably flatly-handled musical romance of the old school, charged only by the occasional appearances in supporting roles of Astaire and Rogers, then on the brink of stardom.

w Jane Murfin, Sam Mintz, Allan Scott play Otto Harbach book Alice Duer Miller by Gowns by Roberta d William A. Seiter ph Edward Cronjager m Jerome Kern md Max Steiner ch Fred Astaire ad Van Nest Polglase

☆ Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Randolph Scott, Helen Westley, Claire Dodd, Victor Varconi, Torben Meyer

'Musical picture-making at its best – fast, smart, good-looking and tuneful.' – Variety

† Remade as Lovely to Look At (qv).

♙ song 'Lovely to Look At' (m Jerome Kern, ly Dorothy Fields, Jimmy McHugh)

Roberto Succo ★★

France 2001 125m colour
Artificial Eye/Agat/CIE/Diaphana/Ex Nihilo/France3/Gimages (Gilles Sandoz, Patrick Sobelman)

An Italian who murdered his parents escapes from a hospital for the criminally insane and begins a two-year spree of rape and murder.

Cool thriller, based on a true story, of a mad killer on the loose, with a chilling performance from the non-professional Cassetti in the title role. Although it was condemned in France for glamourising Succo, its approach is objective and detached, and thus all the more horrific.

wd Cedric Kahn book Je te tue: Histoire vraie de Roberto Succo by Pascal Froment ph Pascal Marti m Julien Civange pd François Abelanet ed Yann Dedet

☆ Stefano Cassetti (Kurt), Isild Le Besco (Lea), Patrick Dell'Isola (Thomas), Vincent Deneriaz (Denis), Vincent Deneriaz (Denis), Aymeric Chauffert (Delaunay), Viviana Aliberti (Swiss schoolteacher), Estelle Perron (Celine)

'Succo is a tyrant without portfolio, a mini-megalomaniac rantingly presiding over his mental landscape. He is a revolting and very unglamorous villain in one of the most compelling films of the year.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Robin and Marian ★

US 1976 107m Technicolor
Columbia/Rastar (Dennis O'Dell)

Robin Hood returns from the Crusades and finds conditions in Britain depressing; he finally conquers the evil Sheriff but dies in the attempt.

A kind of serious parody of medieval life, after the fashion of The Lion in Winter but much glummer; in fact, nothing to laugh at at all.

w James Goldman d Richard Lester ph David Watkin m John Barry pd Michael Stringer

☆ Sean Connery, Audrey Hepburn, Robert Shaw, Ronnie Barker, Nicol Williamson, Richard Harris, Denholm Elliott, Kenneth Haigh, Ian Holm, Bill Maynard, Esmond Knight, Peter Butterworth

'Surface realism only hides a core of mush, suddenly revealed when the hero and heroine settle down for love-making in a field of corn.' – Geoff Brown

'Whimsical jokiness is a bit hard to reconcile with the final plunge into sacrificial romance.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Robin and the Seven Hoods ★

US 1964 123m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/PC (Howard W. Koch, William H. Daniels)

A spoof of the Robin Hood legend set in gangland Chicago of the twenties.

Too flabby by far to be as funny as it thinks it is, this farrago of cheerful jokes has effective moments and lively routines, but most of them are nearly swamped by flat treatment and the wide screen.

w David Schwartz d Gordon Douglas ph William H. Daniels m Nelson Riddle songs Sammy Cahn, James Van Heusen

☆ Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Bing Crosby, Sammy Davis Jnr, Peter Falk, Barbara Rush, Edward G. Robinson, Victor Buono, Barry Kelley, Jack La Rue, Allen Jenkins, Sig Rumann, Hans Conried

♙ Nelson Riddle; song 'My Kind of Town' (m James Van Heusen, ly Sammy Cahn)

Robin Hood ★★

US 1922 127m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Douglas Fairbanks

Robin Hood combats Prince John and the Sheriff of Nottingham.

An elaborate version of the legend which featured some of Hollywood's most celebrated sets and allowed the star to perform a selection of exhilarating stunts.

w Douglas Fairbanks d Allan Dwan ph Arthur Edeson ad Wilfrid Buckland, Irvin J. Martin

☆ Douglas Fairbanks, Wallace Beery, Alan Hale, Enid Bennett

'The high water mark of film production. It did not grow from the bankroll, it grew from the mind.' – R. E. Sherwood

'A story book picture, as gorgeous and glamorous a thing in innumerable scenes as the screen has yet shown ... thrilling entertainment for the whole family group.' – National Board of Review

† See also The Adventures of Robin Hood and The Story of Robin Hood and his Merrie Men.

Robin Hood

US 1973 83m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Wolfgang Reitherman)

Alarmingly poor cartoon feature with all the characters 'played' by animals; songs especially dim and treatment quite lifeless.

w Larry Clemmons, Ken Anderson, others d Wolfgang Reitherman

☆ Featuring the voices of Brian Bedford, Peter Ustinov, Terry-Thomas, Phil Harris, Andy Devine, Pat Buttram

♙ song 'Love' (m George Bruns, ly Floyd Huddleston)

Robin Hood

US 1991 104m colour
TCF/Working Title (Sarah Radclyffe, Tim Bevan)

Condemned for saving a poacher, a Saxon nobleman, Robert Hode, becomes the outlaw Robin Hood.

Dully facetious re-telling of a familiar tale.

w Mark Allen Smith, John McGrath d John Irvin ph Jason Lehel m Geoffrey Burgon pd Austen Spriggs ed Peter Tanner

☆ Patrick Bergin, Uma Thurman, Jurgen Prochnow, Edward Fox, Jeroen Krabbé,

Owen Teale, David Morrissey, Alex North, Gabrielle Reidy

'The film increasingly comes to resemble a 1960s Hammer cheapie.' – Sight and Sound

Robin Hood: Men in Tights

US 1993 102m DeLuxe
TCF/Brooksfilms/Gaumont (Mel Brooks)

Robin Hood escapes from prison in the Holy Land to return to England and fight against the tyranny of the Sheriff of Rottingham with the help of his merry men, including Will Scarlett O'Hara and Rabbi Tuckman.

An uninventive parody of Kevin Costner's commercially successful outing as the outlaw of Sherwood Forest; the Costner version is the funnier.

w Mel Brooks, J. David Shapiro, Evan Chandler d Mel Brooks ph Michael D. O'Shea m Hummie Mann pd Roy Forge Smith ed Steven E. Rivkin cos Dodie Shepard

☆ Cary Elwes, Richard Lewis, Roger Rees, Amy Yasbeck, Tracey Ullman (Latrine), Mel Brooks, Dom DeLuise, Dick Van Patten, Isaac Hayes, Patrick Stewart

'A return to the wild anarchic scatological comedies that made Mel Brooks a marquee name around the world.' – Variety

'Doesn't so much lampoon Prince of Thieves as try to rise on its jerkin-tails – what is it that he thinks he is adding when he takes off a film?' – Adam Mars-Jones

'To say it's feeble would be to give it the benefit of quite a few doubts. It's very feeble indeed.' – Derek Malcolm

Robin Hood of El Dorado ★

US 1936 86m bw
MGM

Joaquin Murieta turns bandit to avenge himself on the men who killed his wife.

Whitewashed biopic of a notorious Western desperado, played mainly for action and light relief.

w William Wellman, Melvin Levy, Joseph Calleia d William Wellman

☆ Warner Baxter, Bruce Cabot, Margo, Eric Linden, J. Carrol Naish, Ann Loring

Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves ★

US 1991 143m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek (John Watson, Pen Densham, Richard B. Lewis)

Returning from the Crusades to discover that his father has been killed by the Sheriff of Nottingham, Robin of Locksley becomes an outlaw to get his revenge.

A glum version, with little sense of community among the outlaws and an odd mix of acting styles. But it found great favour with the public, becoming one of the most commercially successful films of the year.

w Pen Densham, John Watson d Kevin Reynolds ph Douglas Milsome m John Blakeley pd John Graysmark ed Peter Boyle

☆ Kevin Costner, Morgan Freeman, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Christian Slater, Alan Rickman, Sean Connery (uncredited), Geraldine McEwan, Michael McShane, Brian Blessed, Michael Wincott, Nick Brimble

♫ song '(Everything I Do) I Do For You' (m Michael Kamen, ly Bryan Adams, Robert John Lange)

Ⓑ Alan Rickman

Robinson Crusoe: see The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe

Robinson Crusoe and the Tiger

Mexico 1969 110m Eastmancolor
Avant/Avco Embassy

Simple but extremely handsome version of the famous story, with the addition of a tiger which Crusoe takes as a pet.

w Mario Marzac, Rene Cardona Jnr novel Daniel Defoe d Rene Cardona Jnr ph Alex Phillips, Luis Medina m Raul Lavista

☆ Hugo Stieglitz, Ahui

Robinson Crusoe on Mars ★★

US 1964 110m Techniscope
Paramount/Devonshire (Aubrey Schenck)

An astronaut lands on Mars and learns to survive until rescue comes.

Remarkably close to Defoe (Man Friday being a refugee in an interplanetary war) this is an absorbing, entertaining and well-staged piece of science fiction, strikingly shot in Death Valley.

w Ib Melchior, John C. Higgins d Byron Haskin ph Winton C. Hoch m Van Cleave ad Hal Pereira, Arthur Lonergan sp Lawrence Butler

☆ Paul Mantee, Adam West, Vic Lundin

'Here comes a pleasant surprise, a piece of science fiction based on valid speculation modest yet provocative.' – Time

Robinson Crusoeland

France/Italy 1950 98m bw
Sirius/Franco-London/Fortezza

aka: Atoll K
aka: Escapade; Utopia

Stan and Ollie inherit an island in the Pacific, but uranium is discovered on it.

Laurel and Hardy's last film is a dispiriting mess, and the less said about it the better.

w John Klorer, Frederick Kohner, Rene Wheeler, Pierro Tellini d Leo Joannon, John Berry ph Armand Thirard, Louis Née m Paul Misraki ad Roland Quignon ed Raymond Isnardon

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Suzy Delair, Max Elloy

Robinson in Space ★

GB 1997 81m colour
BBC/BFO/Koninck (Keith Griffiths)

A man is commissioned to make a study of the problem of present-day Britain.

A film that consists of a sequence of carefully framed shots of Britain's less enticing sights – run-down factories, motorways and the detritus of industrial life – with an oblique commentary, on the relationship between the narrator and the man he accompanies on his travels, which gains its effect by often having little direct connection with what is shown.

wd Patrick Keiller ph Patrick Keiller ed Larry Sidor

☆ Paul Scofield (narrator)

'Like leafing through a picture album with someone bombarding you with facts over your shoulder.' – Derek Elley, Variety

† The film is a continuation of the director's London (qv).

'Part man. Part machine. All cop.'

Robocop ★★★

US 1987 103m DuArt
Rank/Orion (Arne Schmidt)

Detroit in the future: a badly injured cop is reconstructed by science, and defeats the forces of evil.

Gleefully dark vision of the future, directed with flair, although the violence goes over the top towards the end. It gained a best director award at the Sitges Film Festival and a special award for excellence at the 16th Fantasy Film Festival at Avoriaz.

w Edward Neumeier, Michael Miner d Paul Verhoeven ph Jost Vacano m Basil Poledouris pd William Sandell ad Gayle Simon ed Frank J. Urioste

☆ Peter Weller (Alex J. Murphy/Robocop), Nancy Allen (Anne Lewis), Ronny Cox (Richard "Dick" Jones), Kurtwood Smith (Clarence J. Boddicker), Dan O'Herlihy (The Old Man), Miguel Ferrer (Robert Morton)

'The greatest science-fiction film since Metropolis' – Ken Russell

'A comic book film that's definitely not for kids.' – Daily Variety

'Very violent and very funny.' – Time Out

'Essentially, it's just a hipper, more bam-bam version of the law-and-order hits of the seventies ... The picture keeps telling you that its brutishness is a terrific turn-on, and maybe it is if you're hooked on Wagnerian sci-fi comic books.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

† A Region 2 special edition DVD includes the original theatrical version and the director's cut, and commentary by Paul Verhoeven and Ed Neumeier.

♫ editing (Frank J. Urioste)

Robocop 2

US 1990 118m DuArt
Rank/Orion (Jon Davison)

Robocop goes into battle against Robocop 2, a vicious cyborg with the brain of a criminal drug-addict.

Stupefyingly frenetic sequel with none of the panache or wit of the original.

w Frank Miller, Walon Green d Irvin Kershner ph Mark Irwin m Leonard Rosenman pd Peter Jamison ad Pam Marcotte ed William Anderson

☆ Peter Weller, Nancy Allen, Dan O'Herlihy, Belinda Bauer, Tom Noonan, Gabriel Damon, Felton Perry, Willard Pugh

'The level of constant violence, with noisy sound effects, explosions and hundreds of thousands of rounds fired by automatic weaponry, is at first arresting but ultimately numbing and boring.' – Variety

'If you like to stagger away from a film feeling numb and slightly sick, this one's for you.' – Empire

Robocop 3

US 1993 104m DuArt
Orion (Patrick Crowley)

Robocop is caught in a fight between a controlling Japanese corporation and the poor it is trying to evict to build a new city.

Inspiration is sadly lacking here in a film aimed at an audience of early teens; all that can be said in its favour is that it contains less violence than its predecessor.

w Frank Miller, Fred Dekker d Fred Dekker ph Gary B. Kibbe m Basil Poledouris pd Hilda Stark ed Bert Lovitt sp Jeff Jarvis

☆ Robert John Burke, Nancy Allen, Rip Torn, John Castle, Jill Hennessy, Mako, Robert DoQui

'A cluttered, nasty exercise that seems principally intent on selling action figures.' – Variety

† A Robocop television series followed in 1994.

Robots ★

US 2005 90m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox Animation/Blue Sky (Jerry Davis, John C. Donkin, William Joyce)

A robot inventor goes to the big city to save his family and friends from becoming scrap metal.

Noisy, colourful animation with some inventive moments, but let down by a script assembled from spare parts and the inevitable fart jokes.

w David Lindsay-Abaire, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d Chris Wedge, Carlos Saldanha m John Powell pd William Joyce ed John Carnochan

☆ voices of: Ewan McGregor (Rodney Copperbottom), Halle Berry (Cappy), Robin Williams (Fender), Greg Kinnear (Ratchet), Mel Brooks (Bigweld), Drew Carey (Crank Casey), Jim Broadbent (Madame Gasket), Piper Pinwheeler (Amanda Bynes)

'Hollow and mechanical, an echo chamber of other movies and an awkward attempt to turn the intrinsically scary sensitive-robot theme into something heartwarming and cute.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'This movie wears its inventiveness lightly. Its combination of weightiness and weightlessness gives it a dizzying charm.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun

Rocco and His Brothers ★★★

Italy/France 1960 180m bw
Titanus/Les Films Marceau (Goffredo Lombardo)

A peasant family moves into Milan, and each of its five brothers has his problems.

Massive portmanteau of realistic stories, a bit hard to take despite its undoubted brilliance.

w Luchino Visconti, Suso Cecchi d'Amico, Vasco Pratolini d Luchino Visconti ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Nino Rota ad Mario Garbuglia ed Mario Serandrei

☆ Alain Delon (Rocco Parondi), Renato Salvatori (Simone Parondi), Annie Girardot (Nadia), Katina Paxinou (Rosaria Parondi), Roger Hanin (Morini), Paolo Stoppa (Boxing Impresario), Suzy Delair (Luisa), Claudia Cardinale (Ginetta)

'Joins the band of films which, these last months, have given one new hope for the cinema.' – Dilys Powell

'Alcatraz. Only one man has ever broken out. Now five million lives depend upon two men breaking in.'

The Rock

US 1996 136m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Don Simpson, Jerry Bruckheimer)

A top agent and a convict combine forces to break into Alcatraz, where a renegade general threatens to destroy San Francisco.

Ludicrously over-the-top thriller, filmed and edited in frenetic bursts of action for those with short attention spans; the narrative lacks logic, with explosions used to distract attention from its shortcomings.

w David Weisberg, Douglas S. Cook, Mark Rosner d Michael Bay ph John Schwartzman m Nick Glennie-Smith, Hans Zimmer pd Michael White ed Richard Francis-Bruce sp Dream Quest Images

☆ Sean Connery, Nicolas Cage, Ed Harris, Michael Biehn, William Forsythe, David Morse, John Spencer, John C. McGinley

'Hollywood appears to have developed a

Ⓓ Digital Video Disc Region 2 Ⓓ Digital Video Disc Region 1 ♫ Soundtrack released on compact disc ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance † Points of interest ♫ Notable songs ♟ Academy Award ♟ Academy Award nomination Ⓑ BAFTA

new definition of the comedy thriller: not a thriller that's also funny, but one with a plot so stupid that it can only be played for laughs.' – John Wrathall, Sight and Sound

'The movie is so relentless and assaultive it runs roughshod over its own characters.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

† The film was among the box-office successes of 1996, taking more than $134m at the US box-office and a further $195m worldwide.

†† Apart from the credited screenwriters, Dick Clement and Ian La Frenais worked on Connery's dialogue, and Jonathan Hensleigh, Aaron Sorkin and Quentin Tarantino also contributed to the script.

sound

Rock a Bye Baby

US 1958 107m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount (Jerry Lewis)

A film star asks her devoted schoolday admirer to look after her triplets by a secret marriage.

Tasteless jazzing-up of The Miracle of Morgan's Creek by talents distinctly unsympathetic.

wd Frank Tashlin ph Haskell Boggs m Walter Scharf

☆ Jerry Lewis, Marilyn Maxwell, Reginald Gardiner, Salvatore Baccaloni, Hans Conried, Isobel Elsom, James Gleason, Ida Moore, Connie Stevens

Rock All Night

US 1957 65m bw
AIP (Roger Corman)

Two gangsters hide out in a pub and hold its customers hostage.

Talky, cheap rock movie, with some occasionally bright dialogue, and a single set in which heavy drinkers philosophise and listen to a few indifferent musical numbers; at least, it doesn't take itself too seriously.

w Charles B. Griffith wd Richard Corman story David P. Harmon ph Floyd Crosby md Buck Ram ad Robert Kinosenta ed Frank Sullivan

☆ Dick Miller, Russell Johnson, Abby Dalton, Jeanne Cooper, Robin Morse, Mel Welles, Richard Cutting, Chris Alcaide, Jonathan Haze, Bruno Ve Sota, The Platters, The Blockbusters, Nora Hayes

♫ I'm Sorry; He's Mine; Rock All Night; I Wanna Rock Now; Rock and Roll Guitar; The Great Pretender; I Guess I Won't Hang Around Here Any More

Rock around the Clock ★

US 1956 74m bw
Columbia (Sam Katzman)

A band playing a new form of music – rock 'n' roll – becomes a nationwide sensation.

A cheap second feature with guest artists, this cheerful little movie deserved at least a footnote in the histories because it spotlights the origins and the leading purveyors of rock 'n' roll. It also caused serious riots in several countries. A sequel in 1957, Don't Knock the Rock, was merely cheap.

w Robert E. Kent, James B. Gordon d Fred F. Sears ph Benjamin H. Kline

☆ Bill Haley and the Comets, the Platters, Little Richard, Tony Martinez and his Band, Freddie Bell and the Bellboys, Johnny Johnston, Alan Freed, Lisa Gaye, Alix Talton

Rock Hudson's Home Movies ★★

US 1992 63m video
Mark Rappaport

A semi-documentary, in which an actor playing the role of Rock Hudson comments on film clips of the real Hudson, looking at his performances from a gay perspective.

A witty deconstruction of Hudson's masculine and heterosexual screen image and the constraints and evasions of Hollywood movies in the 1950s and 60s.

wd Mark Rappaport ph Mark Daniels ed Mark Rappaport

☆ Eric Farr (Rock Hudson)

'Shatters the false image of the movies so completely that you wonder how it ever lasted so long.' – Premiere

Rock 'n' Roll Cop

Hong Kong 1994 90m colour
Sky Point
original title: Sang Gong Yatho Tungchap Fan

Two incompatible cops – a guitar-playing loner from Hong Kong and an uptight disciplinarian from mainland China – combine forces to go after a violent gang that divides its time between the two territories.

Frenetically violent action movie, frequently incoherent and often unpleasantly sadistic, that looks forward to the absorption of Hong Kong into China in 1997; despite the heroics, both police forces here seem remarkably incompetent at catching criminals.

w Lou Bing d Che Kirk Wong ph Ko Tsiu-lam m Tsung Ding-yat ad Eddie Ma ed Kam Ma

☆ Anthony Wong, Wu Hsing-Kuo, Yu Wing-kwong, Carrie Ng, Chan Ming-tsing

'The action sequences deliver.' – Variety

Rock 'n' Roll High School ★

US 1979 93m colour
New World (Michael Finnell)

High-school students rebel against an oppressive principal.

A tongue-in-cheek, sometimes self-conscious update of a 1950s rock movie, retaining and enjoying every cliché.

w Russ Dvonch, Joseph McBride, Richard Whitley story Allan Arkush, Joe Dante d Allan Arkush ph Dean Cundey m The Ramones ad Marie Kordus ed Larry Bock, Gail Werbin

☆ P. J. Soles, Vincent Van Patten, Clint Howard, Dey Young, Mary Woronov, Paul Bartel, Dick Miller, Grady Sutton

'Just Like Their Music... Their Lives Are Their Very Own!'

Rock Pretty Baby

US 1956 bw
U-I (Edmond Chevie)

Against his parents' wishes, a high school student forms a rock band.

Typical low-budget teen exploitation movie, now looking and sounding very dated. Fay Wray leaves the screaming to Shelley Fabares.

w Herbert Margolis, William Raynor d Richard Bartlett ph George Robinson m Henry Mancini, Bobby Troup ad Alexander Golitzen, Phil Barber ed Frederick Y. Smith

☆ Sal Mineo (Angelo Barrato), John Saxon (Jimmy Daley), Luana Patten (Joan Wright), Edward C. Platt (Dr Daley), Fay Wray (Beth Daley), Rod McKuen ('Ox' Bentley), Shelley Fabares (Twinkey Daley)

♫ 'Rock, Pretty Baby', 'Can I Steal a Little Love', 'Happy is a Boy Named Me', What's It Gonna Be', Rock-a-Bye Lullaby Blues', Picnic by the Sea'.

Rock Rock Rock

US 1957 83m bw
Vanguard (Max J. Rosenberg, Milton Subotsky)

Two girls are rivals for the love of a high-school rock singer.

Poorly written and ineptly acted low-budget movie exploiting the popularity of rock 'n' roll. It consists mainly of a series of performances that have nothing to do with the narrative, which are either by second-string performers – the appalling Ivy Schulman, Cirino and The Bowties, Jimmy Cavallo and His House Rockers, The Three Chuckles, The Moonglows – or better ones such as Chuck Berry, The Flamingos, Frankie Lymon and LaVern Baker performing second-rate material.

w Milton Subotsky d Will Price ph Morris Hartzband md Milton Subotsky ad Paul M. Heller ed Blandine Hafela

☆ Tuesday Weld, Teddy Randazzo, Jacqueline Kerr, Ivy Schulman, Alan Freed, Fran Manfred, Jack Collins, Carol Moss

† Rock singer Johnny Burnette (1934–64) is featured in his only screen performance.

†† Connie Francis dubbed Tuesday Weld's two songs.

'The story of a wannabe who got to be.'

Rock Star

US 2001 105m Technicolor Super 35
Warner/Bel-Air/Maysville (Robert Lawrence, Toby Jaffe)

A photocopier repairman, who sings in a heavy metal tribute band, is hired to replace the rock singer he imitates.

Although based on a true story, this has little sense of reality about it, and is merely an uninteresting update of the familiar showbiz tale of the understudy who becomes a star.

w John Stockwell d Stephen Herek ph Ueli Steiger m Trevor Rabin m/ly Sammy Hagar, Peter Beckett, Steve Plunkett, Twiggy Ramirez, Desmond Childs, Jay Popoff, Jeremy Topan, Brian Vander Ark pd Mayne Berke ed Trudy Ship

☆ Mark Wahlberg (Chris Cole), Jennifer Aniston (Emily Poule), Jason Flemyng (Bobby Beers), Timothy Olyphant (Rob), Timothy Spall (Mats), Dominic West (Kirk Cuddy), Dagmara Dominczyk (Tania), Matthew Glave (Joe Jnr)

'Hits all the trite notes.' – Rolling Stone

'Every rock'n'roll cliché is here.' – Observer

Rock-a-Doodle

GB 1990 74m Technicolor
Rank/Goldcrest/Sullivan Bluth (Don Bluth, Gary Goldman, John Pomeroy, Robert Enrietto)

A farmboy, transformed into a cat by a wicked owl, travels to the big city to persuade a rock-singing rooster to return home and make the sun shine again.

Excellent animation is rendered pointless by a poor and confusing narrative.

w David N. Weiss story Don Bluth, David N. Weiss, John Pomeroy, T. J. Kuenster, David Steinberg, Gary Goldman d Don Bluth m Robert Folk, T. J. Kuenster pd David Goetz ed Bernard Caputo, Fiona Trayler, Lisa Dorney, Joe Gall

☆ Featuring the voices of Phil Harris, Glen Campbell, Eddie Deezen, Kathryn Holcomb, Toby Scott Ganger, Stan Ivar, Christian Hoff, Jason Marin, Christopher Plummer, Sandy Duncan

Rockabye

US 1932 70m bw
Radio

A great actress who has scratched her way up is unhappy because of frustrated mother love.

One of many tearjerkers of its type produced in the first three years of the thirties: it doesn't travel well across the decades.

w Jane Murfin, Kubec Glasmon play Lucia Bronder d George Cukor

☆ Constance Bennett, Joel McCrea, Paul Lukas, Walter Pidgeon, Jobyna Howland, Walter Catlett

'Moderate grosser, best for the neighbourhood mats.' – Variety

Rockers

Jamaica 1978 100m colour
Jesse Burton Stone (Patrick Hulsey)

A hard-up Rastafarian reggae drummer plans an elaborate revenge when big-city gangsters steal the motorbike that was going to make his fortune.

There's an air of authenticity about this slight and often charming narrative of life on the streets of Jamaica, frequently interrupted for music, but it is also casual to the point of amateurishness.

wd Theodoros Bafaloukos ph Peter Sova m Kiddus-I, Jacob Miller and the Inner Circle, Burning Spear, Gregory Isaacs, Peter Tosh, Rockers All Stars ad Lilly Kilvert ed Susan Steinberg

☆ Leroy (Horsemouth) Wallace, Richard Hall, Monica Craig, Marjorie Norman, Jacob Miller, Gregory Isaacs, Winston Rodney, Frank Dowding

† The credits include 'Keeper of The Peace'.

The Rocket Man

US 1954 79m bw
TCF

A visitor from outer space gives a magic ray gun to an orphan boy and tells him to use it only for good.

Elementary fantasy with amusing moments.

w Lenny Bruce, Jack Henley d Oscar Rudolph ph John F. Seitz m Lionel Newman

☆ Charles Coburn, George 'Foghorn' Winslow, Spring Byington, Anne Francis, John Agar

Rocket to the Moon: see Cat Women of the Moon

The Rocketeer

US 1991 108m Technicolor Panavision
Walt Disney/Silver Screen Partners IV (Lawrence Gordon, Charles Gordon, Lloyd Levin)

In 1938 a racing pilot finds a one-man rocket pack which he uses to foil a Nazis' attempt at world domination.

Tame attempt at a period adventure that never gets off the ground.

w Danny Bilson, Paul de Meo graphic novel Dave Stevens d Joe Johnston ph Hiro Narita m James Horner pd Jim Bissell ed Arthur Schmidt sp Jon G. Belyeu

☆ Bill Campbell, Jennifer Connelly, Alan Arkin, Timothy Dalton, Paul Sorvino, Terry O'Quinn, Ed Lauter, James Handy

'This high-octane, high-flying, live-action comic strip has been machine-tooled into agreeable lightweight summer fare.' – Variety

'He's just taking up space.'

Rocketman

US 1997 93m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Caravan (Roger Birnbaum)

An accident-prone spaceship designer goes to Mars as part of a two-man, one-woman and a chimpanzee team.
A mix of fart jokes, slapstick and science-fiction heroics, so silly that it raises the occasional smile.
w Craig Mazin, Greg Erb d Stuart Gillard ph Steven Poster m Michael Tavera pd Roy Forge Smith ed William D. Gordean
☆ Harland Williams (Fred Z. Randall), Jessica Lundy (Julie Ford), William Sadler ('Wild Bill' Overbeck), Jeffrey DeMunn (Paul Wick), James Pickens Jnr (Ben Stevens), Don Lake (Flight Surgeon), Peter Onorati (Gary Hackman), Beau Bridges (Bud Nesbitt), William Arthur Jenkins (Mission Controller), Ken Farmer (Mission Controller), Raven (Ulysses)
'A dimwitted juvenile comedy.' – New York Times

Rockets Galore

GB 1958 94m Technicolor
Rank (Basil Dearden)

US title: Mad Little Island
The Scottish island of Todday resists the installation of a rocket-launching site.
Amiable but disappointingly listless sequel to Whisky Galore.
w Monja Danischewsky novel Compton Mackenzie d Michael Relph ph Reg Wyer m Cedric Thorpe Davie
☆ Jeannie Carson, Donald Sinden, Roland Culver, Noel Purcell, Ian Hunter, Duncan Macrae, Jean Cadell, Carl Jaffe, Gordon Jackson, Catherine Lacey

Rocketship X-M ★

US 1950 79m bw
Lippert (Kurt Neumann)

An expedition to the moon lands by accident on Mars.
The first post-war space adventure is sheer hokum, quite likeable for its cheek though not for its cheap sets.
wd Kurt Neumann ph Karl Struss
m Ferde Grofe
☆ Lloyd Bridges, Osa Massen, John Emery, Hugh O'Brian
'The message of Rocketship X-M is clear: never take a lady as your fuel expert on a trip into interstellar space.' – C. A. Lejeune

The Rocking Horse Winner ★

GB 1949 90m bw
Rank/Two Cities (John Mills)

A boy discovers he can predict winners while riding an old rocking horse; his mother's greed has fatal results.
A very short story is fatally over-extended and becomes bathetic; but the production is solid and the film deserves a mark for trying.
wd Anthony Pelissier story D. H. Lawrence ph Desmond Dickinson m William Alwyn ad Carmen Dillon
☆ John Mills, Valerie Hobson, John Howard Davies, Ronald Squire, Hugh Sinclair, Cyril Smith
'Fails as an interpretation of D. H. Lawrence. But as a skilful piece of narrative with excellent technical qualities it is well worth a visit.' – Dilys Powell, Britain Today

'His whole life was a million-to-one shot!'

Rocky ★★★

US 1976 119m Technicolor
UA/Chartoff-Winkler (Gene Kirkwood)

A slightly dimwitted Philadelphia boxer makes good.
Pleasantly old-fashioned comedy-drama with rather unattractive characters in the modern manner. Despite the freshness, on the whole Marty is still preferable.
w Sylvester Stallone d John G. Avildsen ph James Crabe m Bill Conti pd Bill Cassidy ad James H. Spencer ed Scott Conrad, Richard Halsey
☆ Sylvester Stallone (Rocky Balboa), Burgess Meredith (Mickey), Talia Shire (Adrian), Burt Young (Paulie), Carl Weathers (Apollo Creed), Thayer David (Miles Jergens) † Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by John Avildsen, producer and cast.
best picture; John G. Avildsen
Sylvester Stallone (as writer); song 'Gonna Fly Now' (m Bill Conti, ly Carol Connors, Ayn Robbins); Sylvester Stallone (as actor); Burgess Meredith; Talia Shire; Burt Young

'It ain't over 'til it's over.'

Rocky Balboa ⑥

US 2006 102m
TCF/MGM/Columbia Pictures/Revolution Studios/Chartoff-Winkler Productions (Billy Chartoff, Kevin King, Charles Winkler, David Winkler)

Newly widowed and close to 60, Rocky comes out of retirement to test his mettle against a boxer half his age.
Nostalgic affection for the old palooka goes a long way in a belated swansong that's closer in tone to the first Rocky than its inferior sequels. Age hasn't made Stallone a better director though.
wd Sylvester Stallone ph Clark Mathis
m Bill Conti pd Franco-Giacomo Carbone ad Michael Atwell, Jesse Rosenthal ed Sean Albertson ☆ Sylvester Stallone (Rocky Balboa), Burt Young (Paulie), Antonio Tarver (Mason Dixon), Geraldine Hughes (Marie), Milo Ventimiglia (Robert Jr.), Tony Burton (Duke)
ROCKY: 'It ain't about how hard you hit, it is about how hard you can get hit and keep moving forward.'
'Mock Stallone all you want. I want to also, but I can't. He understands that the character is much bigger than himself, an American emblem that will long outlive him.' – Kyle Smith, New York Post
'Well, whadda ya know? It looks like you can teach an old underdog new tricks.' – Michael Rechtshaffen, Hollywood Reporter

The Rocky Horror Picture Show ★★★

GB 1975 100m Eastmancolor
TCF (Michael White)

A couple, whose car breaks down on a dark and stormy night, take refuge in an old, dark mansion where a mad scientist is trying to make the perfect man.
A spoof of horror and science-fiction movies, based on a hit musical, and notable mainly for the high-energy performance of Tim Curry, repeating his stage success as a transvestite transsexual from Transylvania.
w Richard O'Brien, Jim Sharman play The Rocky Horror Show by Richard O'Brien
d Jim Sharman ph Peter Suschitzky
m Richard O'Brien pd Brian Thomson
ed Graeme Clifford
☆ Tim Curry, Susan Sarandon, Barry Bostwick, Richard O'Brien, Patricia Quinn, Little Nell, Jonathan Adams, Peter Hinwood, Meatloaf, Charles Gray
'A self-consciously slick rendition of the original material, shorn of the song reprises, staged and performed with evident delight in having larger and more lavish sets to move around in.' – Tony Rayns, MFB
'A quite wonderful mixture of spoof horror and sci-fi.' – Empire
† The film was a failure on its first release but later became a cult phenomenon at midnight screenings, with audiences dressed as the characters and chanting their dialogue.

Rocky II

US 1979 119m Technicolor
UA/Irwin Winkler, Robert Chartoff

After success comes failure; then Rocky marries his sweetheart and works for another big fight.
Over-inflated but under-nourished sequel with absolutely nothing new to offer.
wd Sylvester Stallone ph Bill Butler m Bill Conti
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Talia Shire, Burt Young, Carl Weathers, Burgess Meredith

'A Fighter. A Lover. A Legend. The Greatest Challenge.'

Rocky III

US 1982 99m Technicolor
United Artists/Chartoff-Winkler (James D. Brubaker)

Rocky is challenged by a brutal slugger who beats him at the first match ..
Unnecessary regurgitation of bits and pieces from the first two Rocky movies.
wd Sylvester Stallone ph Bill Butler m Bill Conti pd William J. Cassidy ed Don Zimmerman, Mark Warner ☆ Sylvester Stallone, Talia Shire, Burt Young, Burgess Meredith, Carl Weathers, Tony Burton, Mr T, Hulk Hogan
'The time has surely come for Rocky Balboa to take the final count.' – Tom Milne, MFB
'The first Rocky was primitive in a relatively innocent way. This picture is primitive too, but it's also shrewd and empty and inept.' – New Yorker original song 'Eye of the Tiger' by Jim Peterik and Frankie Sullivan III

Rocky IV

US 1985 91m Metrocolor
MGM/UA/Winkler-Chartoff

Rocky takes on a Russian champion.
Hilarious, hysterical, would-be allegorical, this is the pits; but it took a lot of money.
wd Sylvester Stallone ph Bill Butler
m Vince DiCola, Bill Conti pd Bill Kenney ed Don Zimmerman, John W. Wheeler ☆ Sylvester Stallone, Dolph Lundgren, Carl Weathers, Talia Shire, Burt Young, Brigitte Nielsen
'Ludicrous rubbish, but efficient with it.' – Shaun Usher, Daily Mail

Rocky Mountain

US 1950 83m bw
Warner (William Jacobs)

A Confederate horseman gets involved in an Indian war.
Routine star Western with unusual tragic ending.
w Winston Miller, Alan le May d William Keighley ph Ted McCord m Max Steiner ☆ Errol Flynn, Patrice Wymore, Scott Forbes, Guinn Williams, Slim Pickens

Rocky Mountain Mystery

US 1935 64m bw
Paramount

An engineer solves a number of murders at a radium mine.
Routine whodunnit in an unfamiliar setting. Mrs Leslie Carter provides a rare screen appearance, and just as well to judge from her performance
w Edward E. Paramore Jnr novel Golden Dreams by Zane Grey d Charles Barton ☆ Randolph Scott, Charles Chic Sale, Mrs Leslie Carter, Kathleen Burke, Ann Sheridan
'Good entertainment in spite of minor shortcomings.' – Variety

'Where does a champion go when he takes off the gloves?'

Rocky V

US 1990 104m DeLuxe
UIP/United Artists/Star Partners III (Robert Chartoff, Irwin Winkler)

Rocky, suffering, unsurprisingly, from brain-damage, takes on a young protégé.
The series continues its steep, downward spiral into insipid nonsense.
w Sylvester Stallone d John G. Avildsen ph Steven Poster m Bill Conti pd William J. Cassidy ed John G. Avildsen, Michael N. Knue
☆ Sylvester Stallone, Talia Shire, Burt Young, Sage Stallone, Burgess Meredith, Tommy Morrison, Richard Gant, Tony Burton
† Stallone's original ending had Rocky dying in his moment of final triumph.

Roger & Me ★★

US 1989 90m DuArt
Warner/Dog Eat Dog Films/Michael Moore

A journalist attempts to interview the chairman of General Motors about his decision to close its factory in the town where the company began and so put thousands of people out of work.
Entertaining, blackly comic (though not always accurate) documentary on the human cost of big business.
wd Michael Moore ph Christopher Beaver, John Prusak, Kevin Rafferty, Bruce Schermer ed Wendy Stanzler, Jennifer Beman
'A fascinating account of blue collar life unable to come to terms with the clouding of the American Dream they are perpetually adjured to believe in.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Sex is everywhere.'

Roger Dodger ★★ ⑦

US 2002 106m Technicolor
Optimum/Holedigger (Anne Chaisson, George VanBuskirk, Dylan Kidd)

In New York, a cynical copywriter and would-be womaniser gives practical lessons in dating to his 16 year-old nephew.
Slick, witty comedy of sexual exploitation, with an effortlessly glib performance from Scott as a bitter loser in his war with women.
wd Dylan Kidd ph Joaquin Baca-Asay m Craig Wedren pd Stephen Beatrice ed Andy Kier
☆ Campbell Scott (Roger), Jesse Eisenberg (Nick), Isabella Rossellini (Joyce), Elizabeth Berkley (Andrea), Jennifer Beals (Sophie)
'A little too programmed in its despair, but it coasts along on the jagged music of the modern lothario's song.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'There are times when the movie's entertainment value verges on the scandalous.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Roger Touhy, Gangster

US 1944 73m bw
TCF
GB title: The Last Gangster
An associate of Al Capone is finally cornered by the FBI.
Unsurprising, competent cops-and-robbers melodrama, based more or less on fact.
w Crane Wilbur, Jerry Cady d Robert Florey ☆ Preston Foster, Victor McLaglen, Lois Andrews, Kent Taylor, Anthony Quinn, Henry Morgan

Rogue Cop

US 1954 92m bw
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)
A police detective is on the payroll of a crime syndicate.
Uncompelling star melodrama.
w Sydney Boehm novel William P. McGivern d Roy Rowland ph John Seitz m Jeff Alexander ☆ Robert Taylor, George Raft, Janet Leigh, Steve Forrest, Anne Francis
'Another of the sour, disillusioned crime stories which have recently been coming into fashion.' – Penelope Houston
Ⓐ John Seitz

'Renegade Justice!'

Rogue Force

US 1998 90m colour
New City/Triple Peak (Alan Schechter)
aka: Counterforce
An FBI agent and a female cop team up to investigate a gang of disaffected cops who are murdering pornographers and gangsters.
Loud and implausible action movie that indulges in overkill; its fascination with the tactics of SWAT teams overwhelms what might have been a nervy drama.
w Rick Bloggs, Alan Schechter d Martin Kunert ph Adam Kane m Patrick Griffin pd Scott Swank ed Kert Vander Meulen
☆ Michael Rooker (Special Agent Matt Cooper), Robert Patrick (Sgt Jake Macilroy), Diane DiLascio (Detective Helen Simms), Louis Mandylor (Officer Peter Roth), James Kisicki (Frank), Darnell Suttles (Detective Westbrook), Charles Brown (Santana), Jeff Blanchard (FBI Tactician)

'He'll risk everything to beat the system!'

Rogue Trader

GB/US 1998 101m colour
Pathé/Granada/Newmarket/David Paradine (James Dearden, Paul Raphael, Janette Day)
An English merchant banker, working in Singapore, gains a reputation as a financial genius while losing millions of dollars.
A biopic, of a man who ruined one of London's most venerable merchant bankers, that should have made a perfect morality play on modern day values, but instead settles for a tabloid approach that explains and illumines nothing.
wd James Dearden book Rogue Trader: How I Brought Down Barings Bank and Shook the Financial World by Nicholas Leeson and Edward Whitley ph Jean-François Robin m Richard Hartley pd Alan MacDonald ed Catherine Creed ☆ Ewan McGregor (Nick Leeson), Anna Friel (Lisa Leeson), Yves Beneyton (Pierre Bonnefoy), Betsy Brantley (Brenda Granger), Caroline Langrishe (Ash Lewis), Nigel Lindsay (Ron Baker), Tim McInnerney (Tony Hawes), Irene Ng (Bonnie Lee), Lee Ross (Danny Argyropoulos), Simon Shepherd (Peter Norris), John Standing
'Truly awful.' – Guardian

Rogue's March

US 1953 84m bw
MGM (Leon Gordon)
A British army officer is unjustly accused of espionage but becomes a hero in India.
Victorian comedy adventure set on a never-never frontier. Not much.
w Leon Gordon d Allan Davis ph Paul C. Vogel m Alberto Colombo
☆ Peter Lawford, Richard Greene, Janice Rule, Leo G. Carroll, John Abbott, Patrick Aherne

Rogues of Sherwood Forest ★

US 1950 80m Technicolor
Columbia (Fred M. Packard)
Robin Hood's son helps the barons to force the signing of Magna Carta.
Satisfactory action adventure.
w George Bruce d Gordon Douglas ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Heinz Roemheld, Arthur Morton
☆ John Derek, Diana Lynn, George Macready, Alan Hale, Paul Cavanagh, Lowell Gilmore, Billy House

Rogues' Regiment

US 1948 86m bw
Universal-International (Robert Buckner)
An intelligence man joins the French Foreign Legion in Saigon to track down an ex-Nazi.
Keen but rather muddled actioner.
w Robert Buckner d Robert Florey ph Maury Gertsman m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Dick Powell, Marta Toren, Vincent Price, Stephen McNally

Le Roi Danse

France/Germany/Belgium 2000 114m colour
Cinéfrance/K-Star/France2/MMC/RTL-1/K-Dance/K2 (Dominique Janne)
aka: The King is Dancing
On his deathbed Lully, court composer and ballet master to Louis XIV, recalls the king's love of dancing in his spectacular productions.
Ludicrously overblown melodrama of the rivalry between Lully and Molière, with much pouting and petulance by its cast. Pretty sets and costumes, though.
w Eve de Castro, Andrée Corbiau, Gérard Corbiau, Didier Decoin novel Lully ou le musicien du soleil by Philippe Beaussant d Gérard Corbiau ph Gérard Simon md Reinhard Goebel pd Hubert Pouillé ed Ludo Troch, Philippe Ravoet cos Olivier Beriot ☆ Benoit Magimel (Louis XIV), Boris Terral (Jean-Baptiste Lully), Tchéky Karyo (Molière), Colette Emmanuelle (Anne of Austria), Cécile Bois (Madeleine), Claire Keim (Julie), Johan Leysen (Cambert), Idwig Stéphane (Prince de Conti)
'Watching this... is like inhaling pomade.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Le Roi de Coeur: see King of Hearts

Rojin Z: see Roujin Z

Rokugatsu No Hebi: see A Snake of June

Roller Boogie

US 1979 103m colour
United Artists (Bruce Cohn Curtis)
With the help of an expert roller-skater, a poor little rich girl foils a crooked businessman who is trying to take over the local roller disco.
A silly and trivial attempt to cash in on a teenage craze, with much skating to unmemorable songs; it has nothing to recommend it, least of all the leading performances.
w Barry Schneider story Irwin Yablans d Mark L. Lester ph Dean Cundey m Bob Esty m/ly Bob Esty, Michele Aller, Michael Brooks ad Keith Michl ed Howard Kunin ☆ Linda Blair, Jim Bray, Beverly Garland, Roger Perry, James Van Patten, Kimberly Beck, Sean McClory, Mark Goddard

Rollerball ★

US 1975 129m Technicolor Scope
UA/Norman Jewison
In the 21st century an ultra-violent game is used to release the anti-social feelings of the masses.
A one-point parable, and an obvious point at that, is stretched out over more than two hours of violence in which the rules of the game are not even explained. A distinctly unlikeable film.
w William Harrison d Norman Jewison ph Douglas Slocombe md André Previn pd John Box
☆ James Caan, John Houseman, Ralph Richardson, Maud Adams, John Beck, Moses Gunn
'A classic demonstration of how several millions of dollars can be unenjoyably wasted.' – Jonathan Rosenbaum
Ⓐ John Box

'Get In The Game.'

Rollerball

US 2002 98m DeLuxe Panavision
MGM (Charles Roven, Beau St Clair, John McTiernan)
In 2005, an American athlete gets involved in a violent sport where the only rule is survival.
Loud, incoherent, near-incomprehensible, totally inept remake.
w Larry Ferguson, John Pogue story and screenplay William Harrison d John McTiernan ph Steve Mason m Eric Serra ch Marty Kudelka, Teresa Estinosa pd Norman Garwood, Dennis Bradford ed John Wright sp Pixel Magic, Panopoly, Riot, digital.art.media, Pacific Title and Art Studio
☆ Chris Klein (Jonathan), Jean Reno (Petrovich), LL Cool J (Marcus Ridley), Rebecca Romijn-Stamos (Aurora), Naveen Andrews (Sanjay), Oleg Taktarov (Denekin), David Hemblen (Serokin), Janet Wright (Coach Olga)
'Chaos on wheels, a hysterically edited jumble that defies belief at nearly every juncture.' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'This oddly scrambled new version eventually falls apart so badly you feel embarrassed for the people who made it.' – Jonathan Foreman, New York Post

Rollercoaster

US 1977 118m Technicolor Panavision Sensurround
Universal (Jennings Lang)
A saboteur blows up rollercoasters if his blackmail demands are not met.
Limp, unsuspenseful, would-be spectacular in which a stalwart cast struggles with inane dialogue and situations.
w Richard Levinson, William Link d James Goldstone ph David M. Walsh m Lalo Schifrin
☆ George Segal, Timothy Bottoms, Richard Widmark, Susan Strasberg, Harry Guardino, Henry Fonda

Rollin with the Nines

GB 2005 96m colour
Framework/Maiden Voyage/Flakjacket (Geoff Austin, James Hutchins, Alexander Rofaila, Pikki)
After she is beaten and raped by her brother's murderer, a woman gets her revenge and takes over the killer's cocaine business.
Brutal thriller about London low-life, where the cops are as crooked as the gangstas and the dialogue never leaves the gutter.
w Julian Gilbey, William Gilbey idea Pikki & Biggs d Julian Gilbey ph Ali Asad m Sandy McLelland pd Nataasha Van Kampen ed Julian Gilbey, William Gilbey ☆ Vas Blackwood (Finny), Robbie Gee (Pushy), Naomi Taylor (Hope), Terry Stone (Andy White), Roffem Morgan (Rage), George Calil (Newmyer)
'The action sequences are well handled, the acting is often barely acceptable and there should have been some retakes.' – Philip French, Variety

Rolling Thunder

US 1977 94m DeLuxe
AIP (Norman T. Herman)
A former prisoner of war in Vietnam seeks revenge on the killers of his wife and son.
Moderate action thriller, although its use of the Vietnam War seems opportunistic rather than apposite.
w Heywood Gould, Paul Schrader d John Flynn ph Jordan Cronenweth m Barry DeVorzon ad Steve Burger ed Frank P. Keller
☆ William Devane, Tommy Lee Jones, Linda Haynes, Lisa Richards, Dabney Coleman, James Best

Rollover

US 1981 115m Technicolor Panavision
Orion/IPC (Bruce Gilbert)
The widow of a murdered bank president exposes various kinds of financial chicanery on an international scale.
So complexly plotted as to be virtually unintelligible, this slick romantic melodrama was caviare to the general despite its stars.
w David Shaber d Alan J. Pakula ph Giuseppe Rotunno, William Garroni m Michael Small ☆ Jane Fonda, Kris Kristofferson, Hume Cronyn, Josef Sommer, Bob Gunton

Roma: see Fellini's Roma

Roma, Città Aperta: see Open City

Le Roman de Renard: see The Tale of the Fox

Le Roman d'un Tricheur ★

France 1936 83m bw Cinéas
aka: The Story of a Cheat

A reformed elderly cardsharp writes his memoirs.

First person singular comedy, a tour de force in which only the narrator speaks, the rest use pantomime only.

wd Sacha Guitry ph Marcel Lucien

☆ Sacha Guitry, Marguerite Moreno, Serge Grave

Roman Holiday ★★

US 1953 118m bw
Paramount (William Wyler)

A princess on an official visit to Rome slips away incognito and falls in love with a newspaperman.

Wispy, charming, old-fashioned romantic comedy shot in Rome and a little obsessed by the locations; one feels that a studio base would have resulted in firmer control of the elements. The stars, however, made it memorable.

w Ian McLellan Hunter, John Dighton d William Wyler ph Franz Planer, Henri Alekan m Georges Auric ad Hal Pereira, Walter Tyler ed Robert Swink

☆ Gregory Peck, Audrey Hepburn, Eddie Albert, Hartley Power, Harcourt Williams

'While Capra, or in a different way Lubitsch, could have made something wholly enjoyable from it, it would seem that Wyler's technique is now too ponderously inflexible for such lightweight material.' – MFB

† Dalton Trumbo, then a blacklisted writer, was the actual author of the original story, although Ian McLellan Hunter received the credit for it.

original story (Ian McLellan Hunter); Audrey Hepburn; costumes (Edith Head) picture; script; William Wyler; Franz Planer, Henri Alekan; Eddie Albert; art direction; editing

Audrey Hepburn

Roman Scandals ★★

US 1933 93m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A troubled young man dreams himself back in ancient Rome.

Musical farce which is not only pretty entertaining on its own account but remains interesting for a number of reasons; as its star's best vehicle, for its Depression bookends, as a spoof on The Sign of the Cross and the inspiration of scores of other comedies in which the heroes dreamed themselves back into other times. Note also the musical numbers, the chariot race finale, and the rare appearance of Ruth Etting.

w William Anthony McGuire, George Oppenheimer, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin story George S. Kaufman, Robert E. Sherwood d Frank Tuttle ph Gregg Toland m Alfred Newman ch Busby Berkeley chariot sequence Ralph Cedar songs Harry Warren (m), Al Dubin, L. Wolfe Gilbert (ly)

☆ Eddie Cantor, Gloria Stuart, Ruth Etting, Edward Arnold, Alan Mowbray, Verree Teasdale

'An extraordinary rigmarole containing everything from chariot races to a torch song.' – Time

The Roman Spring of Mrs Stone ★

GB 1961 104m Technicolor
Warner Seven Arts/AA (Louis de Rochemont)

A widowed American actress in Rome begins to drift into lassitude and moral decline.

Vivien Leigh gets degraded again in this rambling novella complete with mysterious dark stranger waiting at the end. Nice to look at, and occasionally compelling, but unsuccessful as a whole.

w Gavin Lambert novel Tennessee Williams d José Quintero ph Harry Waxman m Richard Addinsell pd Roger Furse ad Herbert Smith

☆ Vivien Leigh, Warren Beatty, Lotte Lenya, Jeremy Spenser, Coral Browne, Ernest Thesiger

'The slightly sweet smell of decay hovers over everything. Although its very subject matter limits this film and smothers it slightly, it is quietly and sincerely made.' – New York Herald Tribune

Lotte Lenya

Romance ★

US 1930 76m bw
MGM

A clergyman falls in love with the opera singer mistress of an industrialist.

Simple-minded romantic drama with the star not at her best; but an interesting example of 'high class' romance of the time.

w Bess Meredyth, Edwin Justus Mayer play Edward Sheldon d Clarence Brown ph William Daniels

☆ Greta Garbo, Lewis Stone, Gavin Gordon, Elliott Nugent, Clara Blandick, Florence Lake, Henry Armetta

'A first-run hit of the sort that won't miss.' – Variety

Clarence Brown; Greta Garbo

Romance ★★

France 1999 99m colour
Blue Light/Flach/CB/ARTE (Jean-François Lepetit)

Frustrated by her partner's refusal to make love to her, a schoolteacher embarks on a series of affairs.

A movie that caused controversy because of its scenes of explicit sexual activity, some of which involved the well-endowed porn star Siffredi; otherwise it is one of those films, typical of France, in which a woman's search for sexual emancipation causes her to be abused by men. Finally, it becomes a twisted drama of revenge.

wd Catherine Breillat ph Yorgos Arvanitis m Raphael Tidas, DJ Valentin pd Frédérique Belvaux ed Agnès Guillemot

☆ Caroline Ducey (Marie), Sagamore Stévenin (Paul), François Berléand (Robert), Rocco Siffredi (Paolo), Reza Habouhossein (Man on stairs), Fabien de Jomaron (Claude), Emma Colberti (Charlotte), Ashley Wanninger (Ashley)

'What makes the film as a whole so odd is that the sexual acts are the only realistic things in it. If this is a landmark in cinema, it's strangely stranded.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times

'A Savage Musical.'

Romance & Cigarettes ★

US/GB 2005 106m DeLuxe
Icon/UA/Joel & Ethan Coen/GreeneStreet/Janus (John Penotti, John Turturro)

A working man's wife and daughters turn against him when they discover he is having an affair.

Using familiar songs, some sung and some mimed to, Turturro has made what he calls "a down and dirty musical love story", but when the music stops, interest wanes.

wd John Turturro ph Tom Stern m Paul Chihara ch Tricia Brook, Margie Gillis pd Donna Zakowska ed Ray Hubley

☆ James Gandolfini (Nick Murder), Susan Sarandon (Kitty), Kate Winslet (Tula), Steve Buscemi (Angelo), Christopher Walken (Cousin Bo), Mary-Louise Parker (Constance), Barbara Sukowa (Gracie), Elaine Stritch (Nick's Mother)

'The sad result is a karaoke nightmare.' – Hollywood Reporter

Romance and Riches: see The Amazing Quest of Ernest Bliss

Romance for Three: see Paradise for Three

Romance in Flanders

GB 1937 73m bw
Franco-London/British Lion
US title: Romance on the Western Front

Two sergeants fall for a Belgian farmer's daughter; she marries the one she doesn't love, thinking the other is dead.

Rose-coloured romantic hokum, of no sustaining interest.

w Harold Simpson book Mario Fort, Ralph E. Vanloc d Maurice Elvey

☆ Paul Cavanagh, Marcelle Chantal, Garry Marsh, Olga Lindo, Alastair Sim

Romance in Manhattan

US 1934 78m bw
RKO

A New York girl helps a Czech immigrant to find work in the metropolis.

Slim, sentimental movie novelette without a touch of sophistication.

w Jane Murfin, Edward Kaufman d Stephen Roberts

☆ Ginger Rogers, Francis Lederer, Arthur Hohl, J. Farrell MacDonald, Eily Malyon, Donald Meek

Romance in the Dark

US 1938 78m bw
Paramount

A famous baritone helps a singing servant to get famous.

Musical romance for the carriage trade, with apparently more comedy asides than were originally intended.

w Frank Partos, Anne Morrison Chapin d H. C. Potter

☆ Gladys Swarthout, John Boles, John Barrymore, Claire Dodd, Fritz Field, Curt Bois

'Biz will be good, if no wow. Boles and Barrymore will give some tug to the tide against the turnstiles.' – Variety

Romance is Sacred: see The King and the Chorus Girl

Romance of a Horse Thief

US/Yugoslavia 1971 100m Technicolor
Allied Artists/Jadran/Emmanuel L. Wolf (Gene Gutowski)

In a Polish village in 1904 there is dismay when horses are commandeered by Cossacks for service in the Russo-Japanese war.

Nostalgic Jewish drama which ends up rather like Fiddler on the Roof without the music.

w David Opatoshu, based on his father Joseph's novel d Abraham Polonsky ph Piero Portalupsisic m Mort Shuman

☆ Yul Brynner, Eli Wallach, Jane Birkin, Oliver Tobias, Lainie Kazan, David Opatoshu

The Romance of Rosy Ridge

US 1947 103m bw
MGM (Jack Cummings)

After the Civil War, farmers make their own peace.

Mild period romance with everything settled by a betrothal.

w Lester Cole novel Mackinlay Kantor d Roy Rowland ph Sidney Wagner m George Bassman

☆ Van Johnson, Thomas Mitchell, Janet Leigh, Selena Royle, Marshall Thompson, Dean Stockwell

'Rustic charm spread through it like molasses.' – Douglas Eames

Romance on the High Seas ★

US 1948 99m Technicolor
Warner (Alex Gottleib, George Amy)

GB title: It's Magic

Various romances mesh on an ocean voyage.

Lightweight musical which introduces Doris Day and generally manages to keep afloat.

w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein, I. A. L. Diamond d Michael Curtiz ph Elwood Bredell m Ray Heindorf songs Jule Styne, Sammy Cahn

☆ Jack Carson, Janis Paige, Don Defore, Doris Day, Oscar Levant, S. Z. Sakall, Eric Blore, Franklin Pangborn, Fortunio Bonanova

Ray Heindorf; song 'It's Magic' (m Jule Styne, ly Sammy Cahn)

Romancing the Stone ★

US 1984 106m DeLuxe
Panavision
TCF/El Corazon (Michael Douglas)

A best-selling lady romance novelist gets more than she bargained for when she tries to find her kidnapped sister in Colombia.

Spoof adventure thriller which takes too long to get going and then finds it has nowhere to go. But commercial...

w Diane Thomas d Robert Zemeckis ph Dean Cundey m Alan Silvestri pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Donn Cambern, Frank Morriss

☆ Michael Douglas, Kathleen Turner, Danny DeVito, Zack Norman, Alfonso Arau

'The picture has a bravura opening and a jolly kind of movement, but it becomes too slambang.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Donn Cambern, Frank Morriss

Romanoff and Juliet ★

US 1961 103m Technicolor
U-I/Pavla (Peter Ustinov)

Both Americans and Russians woo the tiny country of Concordia, and war threatens while the ambassadors' children fall in love.

Despite the author's wit this pattern comedy became something of a bore as a stylized stage piece, and the film is not smartly enough handled to be anything but a yawn; the humour never becomes cinematic.

wd Peter Ustinov play Peter Ustinov ph Robert Krasker m Mario Nascimbene ad Alexander Trauner

☆ Peter Ustinov, Sandra Dee, John Gavin, Akim Tamiroff, Tamara Shayne, John Phillips, Alix Talton, Peter Jones

The Romantic Age

GB 1949 86m bw
Pinnacle – Rank
US title: Naughty Arlette

A precocious French student sets her cap at the art teacher.

Fluffy farce in which all the adults behave like children; not well regarded.
w Edward Dryhurst, Peggy Barwell novel Serge Weber d Edmond T. Gréville ph Hone Glendining m Charles Williams
☆ Mai Zetterling, Hugh Williams, Margot Grahame, Petula Clark, Carol Marsh, Raymond Lovell, Paul Dupuis

Romantic Comedy

US 1983 102m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/Taft Entertainment/The Mirisch Corporation (Walter Mirisch, Morton Gottlieb)

A Broadway playwright and a New England schoolteacher have a creative partnership that is more personal than professional.
Tedious film version of a play which wallows in autobiography.
w Bernard Slade play Bernard Slade
d Arthur Hiller ph David M. Walsh
m Marvin Hamlisch pd Alfred Sweeney
☆ Dudley Moore, Mary Steenburgen, Frances Sternhagen, Janet Eilber, Robyn Douglass, Ron Leibman

'When a movie's production notes wax lyrical about the pile of the living room carpet, one senses that they're in trouble.' – Nick Roddick, MFB

The Romantic Englishwoman ★

GB 1975 116m Eastmancolor
Dial/Meric-Matalon (Daniel M. Angel)

A discontented woman, holidaying at Baden Baden, falls in love with a stranger while her husband completes a novel on the same theme.
Almost as ambiguous as Last Year in Marienbad, this annoying film wastes good actors in a script which hovers uncertainly between fantasy, melodrama and reality, intending one supposes to make humourless and obvious comparisons between romance and life.
w Tom Stoppard, Thomas Wiseman novel Thomas Wiseman d Joseph Losey ph Gerry Fisher m Richard Hartley
☆ Glenda Jackson, Michael Caine, Helmut Berger, Marcus Richardson, Kate Nelligan, René Kolldehoff, Michel Lonsdale

'The central trio bite off their lines, play deviously with hypocrisies and humiliations, and seem slightly aware that they're creations by artifice out of artificiality.' – Penelope Houston
'An itsy-bitsy, fragmented film that seems less than the sum of its parts.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Romanzo Criminale ★★ (8)

Italy/France/UK 2005 152m
Icon/Cattleya/Crime Novel Films/Babe/Aquarius (Riccardo Tozzi, Giovanni Stabilini, Marco Chimenz)

In 1970s Rome, a group of small-time criminals, friends since childhood, plot to take over the city's underworld.
An old-fashioned, action-packed story about gangsters on the rise, packaged sleekly, and looking terrific. Despite its long running length, the narrative rarely falters, and the large cast of characters are economically but interestingly drawn. Hugely satisfactory within the limits it sets itself.
w Stefano Rulli, Sandro Petraglia, Giancarlo de Cataldo novel Giancarlo de Cataldo
d Michele Placido ph Luca Bigazzi
m Paolo Buonvino ad Paolo Comencini
ed Esmeralda Calabria
☆ Kim Rossi Stuart (Freddo ('Ice')), Anna Mougialis (Patrizia), Pierfrancesco Favino (Lebanese), Claudio Santamaria (Dandy), Riccardo Scamarcio (Nero)

'An ambitious, bloody and engrossing work.' – Alan Morrison, Empire

Rome Adventure

US 1962 119m Warnercolor
Warner

GB title: Lovers Must Learn
A pretty American librarian goes to Rome to learn about love, and does.
Sluggish and overstretched travelogue with dollops of arch romance; hard to take.
wd Delmer Daves novel Irving Fineman
ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Max Steiner
☆ Suzanne Pleshette, Troy Donahue, Angie Dickinson, Rossano Brazzi, Constance Ford, Chad Everett

Rome Express ★★★

GB 1932 94m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

Thieves and blackmail victims are among the passengers on an express train.
Just a little faded now as sheer entertainment, this remains the prototype train thriller from which The Lady Vanishes, Murder on the Orient Express and a hundred others are all borrowed; it also spawned a myriad movies in which strangers are thrown together in dangerous situations. Technically it still works very well, though the script needs modernizing.
w Clifford Grey, Sidney Gilliat, Frank Vosper, Ralph Stock d Walter Forde
ph Gunther Krampf ad Andrew Mazzei
ed Frederick Y. Smith, Ian Dalrymple
☆ Conrad Veidt (Zurta), Gordon Harker (Tom Bishop), Esther Ralston (Asta Marvelle), Joan Barry (Mrs. Maxted), Harold Huth (Grant), Cedric Hardwicke (Alistair McBane), Donald Calthrop (Poole), Hugh Williams (Tony), Finlay Currie (Publicist), Frank Vosper (M. Jolif), Muriel Aked (Spinster), Eliot Makeham (Mills)
HARKER: 'Discretion is the better part of Wagons Lits.'

'A first class craftsman's job.' – Basil Wright
'Technically, and in a sense intellectually speaking, this film puts Forde into Class A1.' – Cinema Quarterly † Remade 1948 as Sleeping Car to Trieste (qv).

Rome, Open City: see Open City

'The greatest love drama, the mightiest entertainment of our time.'

Romeo and Juliet ★

US 1936 127m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

Hollywood Shakespeare with a super production and a rather elderly cast.
Not entertaining in the strict sense, but full of interest.
w Talbot Jennings play William Shakespeare d George Cukor ph William Daniels m Herbert Stothart ch Agnes De Mille ad Cedric Gibbons, Frederic Hope, Edwin B. Willis ed Margaret Booth cos Adrian, Oliver Messel
☆ Leslie Howard (Romeo), Norma Shearer (Juliet), John Barrymore (Mercutio), Basil Rathbone (Tybalt), Edna May Oliver (Nurse), Henry Kolker (Friar Laurence), C. Aubrey Smith (Lord Capulet), Violet Kemble-Cooper (Lady Capulet), Robert Warwick (Lord Montague), Virginia Hammond (Lady Montague), Reginald Denny (Benvolio), Ralph Forbes (Paris), Andy Devine (Peter), Conway Tearle (Prince of Verona)

'Unimaginative, coarse-grained, a little banal, it is frequently saved – by Shakespeare – from being a bad film.' – Graham Greene
'It is impossible to realize how bad this film was unless you reflect on how good it might have been.' – Alberto Cavalcanti
'For unspeakable vulgarity, appalling hammery and utter silliness, I have seen nothing worse.' – John Gielgud † Fredric March, Robert Donat and Robert Montgomery all refused the lead before Leslie Howard accepted. best picture; Norma Shearer; Basil Rathbone; art direction

Romeo and Juliet

GB 1954 138m Technicolor
Rank/Verona (Joe Janni, Sandro Ghenzi)

Good-looking but extremely boring version shot on Italian locations with quite unacceptable leads.
wd Renato Castellani ph Robert Krasker
m Roman Vlad
☆ Laurence Harvey, Susan Shentall, Aldo Zollo, Enzo Fiermonte, Flora Robson, Mervyn Johns, Sebastian Cabot, Lydia Sherwood, Giulio Garbinetti, Nietta Zocchi, Bill Travers, Norman Wooland, John Gielgud (Prologue speaker)

Romeo and Juliet ★

GB 1968 152m Technicolor
Paramount/BHE/Verona/Dino de Laurentiis (Anthony Havelock-Allan, John Brabourne, Richard Goodwin)

The with-it version for modern youngsters.
Unfortunately the admirably rapid style does not suit the verse, and long before the much-deferred end the thing becomes just as tiresome as the other versions.
w Franco Brusati, Masolino D'Amico
d Franco Zeffirelli ph Pasquale de Santis
m Nino Rota
☆ Leonard Whiting, Olivia Hussey, John McEnery, Michael York, Pat Heywood, Milo O'Shea, Paul Hardwick, Natasha Parry, Antonio Pierfederici, Esmeralda Ruspoli, Bruce Robinson, Roberto Bisacco, Laurence Olivier as prologue speaker

'A large gold watch should be tossed to Zeffirelli for his part in reversing the movies' reputation for emasculating the classics.' – Newsweek
Pasquale de Santis; costumes (Danilo Donati) best picture; Franco Zeffirelli

Romeo and Juliet: see William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet (1996)

Romeo in Pajamas: see Parlor, Bedroom and Bath

Romeo Is Bleeding

US 1993 108m DeLuxe
Rank/Polygram/Working Title (Hilary Henkin)

A cop, who takes bribes from the crooks he investigates while trying to keep his wife and his mistress happy, is assigned to protect a sexy hitwoman on the run from his gangster friends; it proves to be a recipe for mayhem.
Hectic, delirious thriller in which violence takes precedence over character and plot.
w Hilary Henkin d Peter Medak ph Dariusz Wolski m Mark Isham
pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Walter Murch
☆ Gary Oldman, Lena Olin, Annabella Sciorra, Juliette Lewis, Roy Scheider, David Proval, Will Patton

'This heavy dose of ultra-violent neo-noir gives Gary Oldman a face-first trip through the gutter that would make Mickey Rourke drool, but the far-fetched plotting eventually goes so far over the top that pic flirts with inventing a new genre of film noir camp.' – Variety

'The Word On The Street Is...'

Romeo Must Die

US 2000 115m Technicolor
Warner (Joel Silver, Jim Van Wyck)

A former cop escapes from a Hong Kong jail and goes to America to avenge the death of his brother, who was killed in a gang war.
Some spectacular moments of martial arts combat are not enough to save this dull and confused action movie.
w Eric Bernt, John Jarrell story Mitchell Kapner d Andrzej Bartkowiak ph Glen MacPherson m Stanley Clarke, Timbaland
pd Michael Bolton ed Derek G. Brechin martial arts sup Corey Yuen
☆ Jet Li (Han Sing), Aaliyah (Trish O'Day), Isaiah Washington (Mac), Russell Wong (Kai), DMX (Silk), Delroy Lindo (Isaak O'Day), Henry O (Ch'u Sing), D. B. Woodside (Colin), Edoardo Ballerini (Vincent Roth), Jon Kit Lee (Po Sing), Anthony Anderson (Maurice)

'Dire... will have thousands of despairing cinemagoers attempting to karate-chop themselves to death in the auditorium.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Romero

US 1989 105m DeLuxe
Warner/Paulist Pictures (Ellwood E. Kieser)

An apolitical priest is transformed by events into an archbishop who vigorously opposes El Salvador's government-sanctioned death squads.
Low-key biopic that tends to pussyfoot around its subject.
w John Sacret Young d John Duigan
ph Geoff Burton m Gabriel Yared ad Francisco Magallon ed Frans Vandenburg
☆ Raul Julia, Richard Jordan, Ana Alicia, Eddie Velez, Alejandro Bracho, Tony Plana, Harold Gould, Lucy Reina

Rommel, Desert Fox: see The Desert Fox

Romper Stomper ★

Australia 1992 92m Eastmancolor
Seon/Australian Film Commission/Film Victoria (Daniel Scharf, Ian Pringle)

In Melbourne, Nazi-loving skinheads battle with a Vietnamese gang.
A violent excursion into Australian low-life and one that refrains from any implied comment on the anti-social action it presents.
wd Geoffrey Wright ph Ron Hagen
m John Clifford White pd Steven Jones-Evans ed Bill Murphy
☆ Russell Crowe, Daniel Pollock, Jacqueline McKenzie, Alex Scott, Leigh Russell

'Swiftly turns into another from the seemingly endless conveyor belt of debut moviemakers who use street violence as their calling card and a hand-held camera to conceal their other deficiencies of talent, imagination or personal vision.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard
'Art house patrons are likely to be turned off by the brutally depicted violence and dominant antisocial behaviour ... Pic is well acted and directed with a certain slickness, but rarely has there been such a disturbing, essentially misconceived pic.' – Variety

R

Romuald et Juliette ★

France 1989 112m colour
Gala/Cinéa/Eniloc/FR3 (Jean-Louis Piel, Philippe Carcassonne)

A managing director, whose business is being sabotaged by disgruntled colleagues, is saved by his cleaner.
Amusing comedy of ineffectual men and strong women.
wd Coline Serreau ph Jean-Noël Ferragut ad Jean-Marc Stehle ed Catherine Renault
☆ Daniel Auteuil, Firmine Richard, Pierre Vernier, Maxime Leroux, Gilles Privat, Muriel Combeau, Catherine Salviat

Romy and Michele's High School Reunion

US 1997 91m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Bungalow 78 (Laurence Mark)

Two flatmates in their 20s, who have missed out on success, decide to go to their high-school reunion and pretend to be rich and famous.
A movie about humiliation at school and undeserved success after, which is too rooted in American rituals and manners to mean much anywhere else.
w Robin Schiff d David Mirkin ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Steve Bartek pd Mayne Berke ed David Finfer
☆ Mira Sorvino, Lisa Kudrow, Janeane Garofalo, Alan Cumming, Julia Campbell, Mia Cottet, Kristen Bauer

'Desperately uncertain in tone and able to generate only sporadic laughs, pic decks out its meager story of revenge and comeuppance with a vulgar, flashy shimmer that will no doubt attract teenage girls.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Ronda Nocturna: see Night Watch

La Ronde ★★★

France 1950 100m bw
Sacha Gordine

In 1900 Vienna, an elegant compère shows that love is a merry-go-round: prostitute meets soldier meets housemaid meets master meets married woman meets husband meets midinette meets poet meets actress meets officer meets prostitute meets soldier ...
Superb stylized comedy with a fine cast, subtle jokes, rich decor and fluent direction; not to mention a haunting theme tune.
w Jacques Natanson, Max Ophüls novel Arthur Schnitzler d Max Ophüls ph Christian Matras m Oscar Straus ad Marpaux, M. Frederix, Jean d'Eaubonne ed Leonide Azar, S. Rondeau
☆ Anton Walbrook (Master of Ceremonies), Simone Signoret (Leocadie, the Prostitute), Serge Reggiani (Franz, the Soldier), Simone Simon (Marie, the Chambermaid), Daniel Gélin (Alfred, the Young Man), Danielle Darrieux (Emma Breitkopf, the Married Lady), Fernand Gravey (Charles, the Husband), Odette Joyeux (The Grisette), Jean-Louis Barrault (Robert Kuhlenkampf, the Poet), Isa Miranda (The Actress), Gérard Philipe (The Count)

'One of the most civilized films to have come from Europe in a long time.' – Gavin Lambert, MFB

'A film that drags on and on by what seems like geometric progression.' – John Simon, 1968
Jacques Natanson, Max Ophuls (script) film

La Ronde

France 1964 110m Eastmancolor Franscope
Robert and Raymond Hakim

Vulgarization of the above, reset in Paris in 1913.
The lack of a compère vastly reduces the number of jokes.
w Jean Anouilh d Roger Vadim ph Henri Decaë m Michel Magne
☆ Marie Dubois, Claude Giraud, Anna Karina, Jean-Claude Brialy, Jane Fonda, Maurice Ronet, Catherine Spaak, Bernard Noel, Francine Bergé, Jean Sorel

'Loyalty Is Bought. Betrayal Is A Way Of Life...'

Ronin

US 1998 121m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/FGM (Frank Mancuso Jnr)

Six undercover agents, who are recruited to steal a briefcase by Irish revolutionaries, betray one another.
Involved and implausible thriller, though there's some pleasure to be gained from watching the cast out-tough one another.
w J. D. Zeik, Richard Weisz (David Mamet) d John Frankenheimer ph Robert Fraisse m Elia Cmiral pd Michael Z. Hanan ed Tony Gibbs
☆ Robert de Niro, Jean Réno, Natascha McElhone, Stellan Skarsgard, Sean Bean, Skipp Sudduth, Michael Lonsdale, Jan Triska, Jonathan Pryce

'Can be watched as appreciatively for its hard-boiled performances as for its visceral excitement.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

Rooftops

US 1989 95m DeLuxe
Fox/New Vision/Koch Company (Howard W. Koch)

Teenagers living on the roofs of an old tenement building combine to fight a vicious drug dealer.
Uninteresting teen movie, involving unlikeable characters.
w Terence Brennan story Allan Goldstein d Robert Wise ph Theo Van de Sande m Michael Kamen pd Jeannine C. Oppewall ed William Reynolds
☆ Jason Gedrick, Troy Beyer, Eddie Velez, Tisha Campbell, Alexis Cruz, Allen Payne, Steve Love, Rafael Baez, Jaime Tirelli

'Words fail me where this absurd piece of tuppence-coloured fantasy is concerned.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Rookery Nook ★★

GB 1930 107m bw
British and Dominions (Herbert Wilcox)

A nervous husband on holiday tries to hide a runaway girl who has asked for protection against her stepfather.
Primitive talkie technique cannot entirely conceal the brilliance of the original Aldwych farce team in their most enduring vehicle.
w Ben Travers play Ben Travers d Tom Walls ph Dave Kessan
☆ Ralph Lynn, Tom Walls, Robertson Hare, Winifred Shotter, Mary Brough, Ethel Coleridge, Griffith Humphreys, Margot Grahame

'As a talker it is the best specimen so far made on this side.' – Variety

'He took a new kid and made a hero out of him.'

The Rookie

US 1990 121m Technicolor
Warner/Malpaso (Howard Kazanjian, Steven Siebert, David Valdes)

Ageing cop teaches his new young partner how to act tough.
Dreary, amoral and cliché-ridden slog through all-too-familiar territory.
w Boaz Yakin, Scott Spiegel d Clint Eastwood ph Jack N. Green m Lennie Niehaus ed Joel Cox
☆ Clint Eastwood, Charlie Sheen, Raul Julia, Sonia Braga, Tom Skerritt, Lara Flynn Boyle, Pepe Serna, Marco Rodriguez, Pete Randall

'Overlong, sadistic and stale even by the conventions of the buddy pic genre.' – Variety
'Clint Eastwood has forgotten how to make popular entertainment.' – Philip French, Observer

'It's never too late to believe in your dreams.'

The Rookie

US 2002 127m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Gran Via (Gordon Gray, Mark Ciardi, Mark Johnson)

In Texas, a baseball coach is persuaded by the success of his high school team to try for the major league.
Deft, sentimental tale of winners that seems too good to be true, though it is apparently based on fact.
w Mike Rich d John Lee Hancock ph John Schwartzman m Carter Burwell pd Barry Robison ed Eric L. Beason
☆ Dennis Quaid (Jim Morris), Rachel Griffiths (Lorri Morris), Jay Hernandez (Joaquin 'Wack' Campos), Beth Grant (Olline), Angus T. Jones (Hunter), Brian Cox (Jim Snr), Rick Gonzalez (Rudy Bonilla), Chad Lindberg (Joe David West)

'An unapologetically emotional film that doesn't make you gag, one that manages to be sentimental without turning into a shameless wallow.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'Demonstrates that a skillful movie need not be good.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Rookie of the Year

US 1993 103m Technicolor
TCF (Robert Harper)

A young boy, who can throw a ball at great speed after an accident to his arm, becomes a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs baseball team, turning them from losers to winners.
A soft-centred wish-fulfilment fantasy for young baseball fans that offers little to those not enraptured by the sport.
w Sam Harper d Daniel Stern ph Jack N. Green m Bill Conti pd Steven Jordan ed Donn Cambern, Raja Gosnell
☆ Gary Busey, Thomas Ian Nicholas, Albert Hall, Amy Morton, Dan Hedaya, Eddie Bracken, Daniel Stern, Bruce Altman, John Candy (uncredited)

'Rife with humor and sentimentality but is just one run away from the game-winning score.' – Variety

Rookies

US 1927 75m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

Army adventures of a tough sergeant and a bumbling recruit.
Popular comedy of its day which established a new team of Dane and Arthur.
w Byron Morgan d Sam Wood
☆ Karl Dane, George K. Arthur, Marceline Day, Louise Lorraine, Tom O'Brien

Rookies: see Buck Privates (1941)

Rookies Come Home: see Buck Privates Come Home

'A savage story of lust and ambition.'

Room at the Top ★★★

GB 1958 117m bw
Remus (John and James Woolf)

An ambitious young clerk causes the death of his real love but manages to marry into a rich family.
Claimed as the first British film to take sex seriously, and the first to show the industrial north as it really was, this melodrama actually cheats on both counts but scene for scene is vivid and entertaining despite a weak central performance.
w Neil Paterson novel John Braine d Jack Clayton ph Freddie Francis m Mario Nascimbene ad Ralph Brinton ed Ralph Kemplen
☆ Laurence Harvey (Joe Lampton), Simone Signoret (Alice Aisgill), Heather Sears (Susan Brown), Donald Wolfit (Mr. Brown), Ambrosine Philpotts (Mrs. Brown), Donald Houston (Charles Soames), Raymond Huntley (Mr. Hoylake), John Westbrook (Jack Wales), Allan Cuthbertson (George Aisgill), Hermione Baddeley (Elspeth), Mary Peach (June Samson)

'A drama of human drives and torments told with maturity and precision.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Neil Paterson; Simone Signoret picture; Jack Clayton; Laurence Harvey; Hermione Baddeley film; British film; Simone Signoret

Room for One More

US 1952 95m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
aka: The Easy Way

A married couple adopt several underprivileged children.
Slightly mawkish family movie redeemed by star performances.
w Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson d Norman Taurog ph Robert Burks m Max Steiner ☆ Cary Grant, Betsy Drake, Lurene Tuttle, Randy Stuart, George Winslow

A Room for Romeo Brass ★ 6

GB 1999 87m Technicolor
Alliance Atlantis/BBC/Arts Council/Company /Big Arty (George Faber, Charles Pattinson)

The rapport between two 13-year-old boys, next door neighbours in a working-class Nottingham suburb, is threatened when one of them is befriended by an unbalanced adult.
At times an engaging, well-observed study of childhood and domestic disruptions, but hampered by the increasing implausibility of the central relationships.
w Paul Fraser, Shane Meadows d Shane Meadows ph Ashley Rowe m Nick Hemming pd Crispian Sallis ed Paul Tothill
☆ Andrew Shim (Romeo Brass), Ben Marshall (Knock Knock), Paddy Considine (Morell), Frank Harper (Joe Brass), Julia Ford (Sandra Woolley), James Higgins (Bill Woolley), Vicky McClure (Ladine Brass), Ladene Hall (Carol Brass), Bob Hoskins (Steven Laws)

'For much of the time, the movie is a chucklesome portrait of fractionally offbeat types, dryly observed and not straying far from the British realist tradition.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Room of Words

Italy 1989 97m Kodak Color
Filmirage/Wind Film

Anaïs Nin falls in love with writer Henry Miller and his wife June.

Inept on every level, lacking any sense of period or place (despite a streetcar named Desire) and concentrating on artfully shot lesbian love scenes. It is also saddled with an obtrusive and unsympathetic score and the near incomprehensible English of Martine Brochard as Anaïs Nin.

w Franco Molè play Franco Molè d Joe D'Amato ph Giancarlo Ferrando m Gianni Silano ed Kathleen Stratton

☆ Martine Brochard, David Brandon, Linda Carol, Ron Gural, Colette de La Croix Room Service ★

US 1938 78m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

Penniless theatricals find ways of staying in a hotel until they can find a backer.

Claustrophobic Broadway farce unsuitably adapted for the Marx Brothers, who are constrained by having to play characters with a passing resemblance to human beings.

w Morrie Ryskind play John Murray, Allen Boretz d William A. Seiter ph Russell Metty m Roy Webb

☆ Groucho Marx, Chico Marx, Harpo Marx, Lucille Ball, Donald MacBride, Frank Albertson, Ann Miller, Philip Loeb

'A natural for the box office ... the change of pace is a good idea.' – Variety

'It should also be noted ... that there is a scene in which a turkey is chased around a room. Not everybody will care for this.' – MFB

† Remade as Step Lively (qv).

Room to Rent

GB/France 2000 95m colour
UIP/Film Consortium/Canal+/IMA (Ildiko Kemeny)

About to be deported from Britain, a young Egyptian would-be screenwriter works in odd jobs and is offered marriage by a Marilyn Monroe impersonator and by an elderly blind woman.

Slight whimsy that ignores the realities of immigrant life for a parade of English eccentricity.

w Khaled Al Haggar, Amanda Mackenzie Stuart d Khaled Al Haggar ph Romain Winding m Safy Boutella pd Eli Bo ed John Richards

☆ Said Taghmaoui (Ali), Juliette Lewis (Linda), Rupert Graves (Mark), Anna Massey (Sarah Stevenson), Clementine Celarie (Vivienne), Karim Belkhadra (Ahmed)

'Competently made, but totally without edge.' – Alexander Walker

† The film was banned in Egypt.

A Room with a View ★★★

GB 1985 115m colour
Merchant Ivory/Goldcrest (Ismail Merchant)

An innocent Edwardian girl travelling in Italy has her eyes opened to real life and romance.

Competent, unexciting equivalent of a television classic mini-series which so perfectly filled a need as to become a runaway commercial success.

w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala novel E. M. Forster d James Ivory ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Richard Robbins pd Gianna Quaranta, Brian Ackland-Snow ed Humphrey Dixon

☆ Maggie Smith (Charlotte Bartlett), Denholm Elliott (Mr. Emerson), Helena Bonham Carter (Lucy Honeychurch), Julian Sands (George Emerson), Daniel Day-Lewis (Cecil Vyse), Simon Callow (Rev. Beebe), Judi Dench (Miss Lavish), Rosemary Leach (Mrs. Honeychurch), Rupert Graves (Freddy Honeychurch)

'Quality-starved filmgoers will welcome it.' – Variety

♟ art direction; adapted screenplay; costumes (Jenny Beavan, John Bright)

♙ James Ivory as director; Tony Pierce-Roberts; best picture; Maggie Smith; Denholm Elliott

🏆 best picture; production design; Maggie Smith; Judi Dench

Roommates

US 1995 108m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Polygram/Interscope (Ted Field, Scott Kroopf, Robert W. Cort)

A young doctor learns the important lessons of life through his grandfather, a retired baker, who moves in with him.

Low-key domestic soap opera, strong on charm but outstaying its welcome.

w Max Apple, Stephen Metcalfe d Peter Yates ph Mike Southon m Elmer Bernstein pd Dan Bishop ed John Tintori

☆ Peter Falk, D. B. Sweeney, Julianne Moore, Jan Rubes, Frankie Faison, Noah Fleiss, Joyce Reehling, Ellen Burstyn

'Goes down painlessly but hasn't much flavor or substance.' – Variety

Rooney ★

GB 1958 88m bw
Rank (George H. Brown)

Adventures of a bachelor Irish dustman.

Moderately charming, though unconvincing, Dublin comedy.

w Patrick Kirwan novel Catherine Cookson d George Pollock ph Christopher Challis m Philip Green

☆ John Gregson, Barry Fitzgerald, Muriel Pavlow, June Thorburn, Noel Purcell, Marie Kean, Liam Redmond, Jack MacGowran, Eddie Byrne

'Caution...If They Bite You...Kill Yourself'

The Roost

US 2004 81m bw/colour
Revolver/Glass Eye Pix/ECR (Susan Leber)

Four young friends on their way to a wedding are trapped in a barn by vampire bats.

Cheap but effective zombie horror.

wd Ti West ph Eric Robbins m Jeff Grace pd David Bell ed Ti West

☆ Tom Noonan (The Horror Host), Wil Horneff (Elliott), Karl Jacob (Trevor), Vanessa Horneff (Allison), Sean Reid (Brian)

'Proceeds with such youthful enthusiasm that its rawness is more charming than annoying.' – Jeannette Catsoulis, New York Times

Rooster Cogburn ★

US 1975 108m Technicolor
Panavision
Universal (Paul Nathan)

An elderly marshal after a gang of outlaws is helped by the Bible-thumping daughter of a priest.

Disappointing Western too obviously patterned after True Grit and The African Queen. Having had the idea for outrageous star casting, the producers obviously decided erroneously that the film would make itself.

w Martin Julien d Stuart Millar ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Laurence Rosenthal

☆ John Wayne, Katharine Hepburn, Anthony Zerbe, Richard Jordan, John McIntire, Strother Martin

'Like one of those infuriating exhibition bouts in which two resilient old pros bob, weave and spar without ever landing any punches.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

† 'Martin Julien' allegedly covers the writing talents of Hal Wallis, his wife Martha Hyer, and some friends.

The Root of All Evil

GB 1946 110m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Harold Huth)

A jilted woman becomes unscrupulous in business in order to get even with her ex-boyfriend.

Incredible farrago with a star ill at ease.

wd Brock Williams novel J. S. Fletcher ph Stephen Dade m Bretton Byrd md Louis Levy ad John Bryan ed Charles Knott

☆ Phyllis Calvert (Jackie Farnish), Michael Rennie (Charles Mortimer), John McCallum (Joe Bartle), Moore Marriott (Scholes), Brefni O'Rorke (Farnish), Hazel Court (Rushie Farnish), Rory McDermot (Overthwaite), Arthur Young (George Grice), Hubert Gregg (Albert Grice), Diana Decker (Pam), George Carney (Bowser), Reginald Purdell (Perkins), George Merritt (Landlord)

The Roots of Heaven ★

US 1958 125m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF/Darryl F. Zanuck

A white man in central Africa dedicates himself to prevent the slaughtering of elephants.

Curiously patchy version of a novel which was a strange choice for filming; so many side issues are introduced that at times it takes on the look of another jolly safari adventure.

w Romain Gary, Patrick Leigh-Fermor novel Romain Gary d John Huston ph Oswald Morris m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Trevor Howard, Juliette Greco, Errol Flynn, Eddie Albert, Orson Welles, Paul Lukas, Herbert Lom, Grégoire Aslan, Friedrich Ledebur, Edric Connor

'The Huston who did Sierra Madre would have lighted his cigar with this script.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Roozi Khe Zan Shodam ★★

Iran 2000 78m colour
Artificial Eye/Mohsen Makhmalbaf

aka: The Day I Became A Woman

Three stories about women's existence on the island of Kish: a girl reaches the age of nine, and, now she is a woman, can no longer play with boys; a cyclist taking part in a race ignores demands from her husband, father, village elders, and brothers that she stop; a old woman spends a fortune buying everything she has ever wanted.

Powerful drama about female oppression, ranging from the social to the surreal; no definite conclusion is reached in any of the stories, but they are told with passion and humour.

w Mohsen Makhmalbaf, Marziyeh Meshkini d Marziyeh Meshkini ph Ebrahim Ghafori, Mohammad Ahmadi m Ahmad Reza Darvishi ad Akbar Meshkini ed Maysam Makhmalbaf, Shahrzad Poya

☆ Fatemeh Cherag Akhar (Hava), Shabnam Toloui (Cyclist), Azizeh Sedighi (Elderly Woman)

'The film is not a very exciting one but it has a purity of vision and lyricism that should reward all discerning film-goers.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

Rope ★★

US 1948 80m Technicolor
Transatlantic (Sidney Bernstein, Alfred Hitchcock)

Two homosexuals murder a friend for the thrill of it and conceal his body in a trunk from which they serve cocktails to a party including his father and girlfriend.

An effective piece of Grand Guignol on the stage, this seemed rather tasteless when set in a New York skyscraper, especially when the leading role of the investigator was miscast and Hitch had saddled himself with the ten-minute take, a short-lived technique which made the entire action (set in one room) cinematically continuous (and dizzy-making). Of considerable historic interest, nevertheless.

w Arthur Laurents play Patrick Hamilton d Alfred Hitchcock ph Joseph Valentine, William V. Skall md Leo F. Forbstein theme Francis Poulenc

☆ James Stewart, John Dall, Farley Granger, Joan Chandler, Cedric Hardwicke, Constance Collier, Edith Evanson, Douglas Dick

'It was a limiting use of the medium, and parts of the film are unbearably tedious.' – George Perry, 1965

'A mighty story of savage greed and sultry love!'

Rope of Sand ★

US 1949 105m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)

Various factions seek hidden diamonds in a prohibited South African area.

Ham-fisted adventure story which suggests at times that a violent parody of Casablanca was intended. The stars carry it through.

w Walter Doniger d William Dieterle ph Charles Lang m Franz Waxman

☆ Burt Lancaster, Paul Henreid, Claude Rains, Peter Lorre, Corinne Calvet, Sam Jaffe

Rory O'Shea Was Here: see Inside I'm Dancing

Rosa Luxemburg ★★

West Germany 1986 112m colour
Bioskop/Pro-Jekt/Regina Ziegler/Bärenfilm (Eberhard Junkersdorf)

Biopic of the Polish-born socialist revolutionary and martyr (1871–1919) who was involved in political activity in Germany, including founding its Communist party, imprisoned for her activities, and murdered by the militia in Berlin.

Impressive, well-acted account, from a feminist viewpoint, of an impassioned life, based on Rosa Luxemburg's own writings, which limits its historical perspective but brings into sharp focus her own beliefs and feelings in reaction to the events of her time.

wd Margarethe von Trotta ph Franz Rath m Nicolas Economou ad Bernd Lepel, Karel Vacek ed Dagmar Hirtz

☆ Barbara Sukowa, Daniel Olbrychski, Otto Sander, Doris Schade, Hannes Jaenicke, Adelheid Arndt, Jürgen Holtz

'Often comes close to a conventional biopic which traces a star's career from success to tragic decline.' – MFB

† Barbara Sukowa's performance won her the award for best actress at the Cannes Film Festival in 1986.

'The entertainment world is ablaze!'

Rosalie ★

US 1937 118m bw
MGM (William Anthony McGuire)

A college football hero falls for an incognito Balkan princess.

Ambitious light musical with a wispy plot but satisfying numbers.

w William Anthony McGuire play William Anthony McGuire, Guy Bolton d W. S. Van Dyke ph Oliver T. Marsh m Herbert Stothart songs Cole Porter

☆ Nelson Eddy, Eleanor Powell, Frank Morgan, Ray Bolger, Ilona Massey, Reginald Owen, Edna May Oliver, Jerry Colonna

'The most lavish, ornate, tinselled and glittering production which has come from Hollywood.' – Variety

Rosalie Goes Shopping

West Germany 1989 93m colour
Mainline/Pelemele (Percy Adlon, Eleonore Adlon)

A German housewife, living in Arizona with her large family, uses credit card frauds to keep them supplied with the good things of life.

Slight comedy of consumerism that relies too heavily on the charm of its performers.

w Percy Adlon, Eleonore Adlon, Christopher Doherty d Percy Adlon ph Bernd Heinl ad Stephen Lineweaver ed Heiko Hinders

☆ Marianne Sägebrecht, Brad Davis, Judge Reinhold, William Harlander, Erika Blumberger, Patricia Zehentmayr, John Hawkes, Alex Winter, Courtney Kraus

The Rosary Murders

US 1987 105m colour
Laurel-Mihalich/Samuel Goldwyn

In Detroit, murders are committed by someone with a grudge against the Catholic Church.

Lax thriller with a priest detective.

w Elmore Leonard, Fred Walton d Fred Walton

☆ Donald Sutherland, Charles Durning, Josef Sommer, Belinda Bauer

'She gave ... and gave ... and gave ... until there was nothing left to give!'

The Rose

US 1979 134m DeLuxe
TCF (Tony Ray)

Drink and drugs cause the decline and death of a famous rock singer.

An unattractive, hysterical, foul-mouthed show business biopic roughly based on Janis Joplin, this does afford an undisciplined night-club talent a role to get her teeth into.

w Bill Kerby, Bo Goodman d Mark Rydell ph Vilmos Zsigmond md Paul A. Rothchild pd Richard MacDonald

☆ Bette Midler, Alan Bates, Frederic Forrest, Harry Dean Stanton, Barry Primus

Frederic Forrest; Bette Midler

The Rose and the Sword: see Flesh and Blood (1985)

The Rose Garden

US/West Germany 1989 112m Eastmancolor
MGM/Pathé/CCC/Cannon/ZDF/FFA/FKT/BMI (Artur Brauner, Yoram Globus, Christopher Pearce)
aka: Der Rosengarten

A female lawyer with marital problems defends a concentration camp survivor who attacked an elderly man at an airport, but refuses to explain why.

Some powerful performances give a little impetus to this drama of a Nazi atrocity, and state complicity in a cover-up; the problem is that its mix of thriller and courtroom confrontation lacks reality, despite the factual basis of its narrative.

w Paul Hengge d Fons Rademakers ph Gernot Roll m Egisto Macchi pd Jan Schlubach ed Kees Linthorst

☆ Liv Ullmann (Gabriele), Maximilian Schell (Aaron), Peter Fonda (Herbert), Jan Niklas (Paessler), Hanns Zischler (Eckert), Kurt Hübner (Krenn), Georg Matischika (Brinkmann), Gila Almagor (Ruth), Katerina Lena Müller (Tina), Nicolaus Sombart (Judge)

Rose Marie ★

US 1936 113m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

A Canadian Mountie gets his man – and a lady.

Backwoods romance from a stage success, filmed mostly on location and quite successfully.

w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Alice Duer Miller play Otto Harbach, Oscar Hammerstein II d W. S. Van Dyke ph William Daniels m Rudolf Friml md Herbert Stothart songs various

☆ Nelson Eddy, Jeanette MacDonald, James Stewart, Reginald Owen, Allan Jones, Gilda Gray, George Regas, Alan Mowbray, Robert Greig, Una O'Connor, David Niven, Herman Bing

'An operatic honey with MacDonald and Eddy for the tungstens.' – Variety

† Previously filmed in 1928 – and see below.

Rose Marie

US 1954 115m Technicolor Cinemascope
MGM (Mervyn Le Roy)

Dull remake with stodgy handling and poor sets.

w Ronald Millar d Mervyn Le Roy ph Paul C. Vogel md Georgie Stoll ch Busby Berkeley

☆ Howard Keel, Ann Blyth, Fernando Lamas, Bert Lahr, Marjorie Main, Ray Collins

Rose of the Rancho

US 1935 83m bw
Paramount (William LeBaron)

Spanish settlers in California fight landgrabbers.

Romantic musical with interesting if seldom-used talent.

w Frank Partos, Charles Brackett, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin, Harlan Thompson, Brian Hooker play Richard Walton Tully, David Belasco d Marion Gering

☆ John Boles, Gladys Swarthout, Willie Howard, Charles Bickford, Herb Williams, H. B. Warner

'A fandango mustang meller ... a tango version of a bronc opera.' – Variety

'Song by song ... scene by scene ... the thrill grows greater!'

Rose of Washington Square ★★

US 1939 86m bw
TCF (Darryl Zanuck)

Tribulations of a Broadway singer in love with a worthless husband.

Revamping of the Fanny Brice story; smartly done, but the material interpolated for Jolson is what makes the film notable.

w Nunnally Johnson story John Larkin, Jerry Horwin d Gregory Ratoff ph Karl Freund m Louis Silvers songs various

☆ Alice Faye, Tyrone Power, Al Jolson, Hobart Cavanaugh, William Frawley, Joyce Compton, Louis Prima and his band

'This is Jolson's picture ... the rest is also-ran.' – Variety

'Jolson's singing is something for the memory book.' – New York Times

† Fanny Brice sued TCF for 75,000 dollars for invasion of privacy; the defendants settled.

'The boldest story of love you have ever been permitted to see!'

The Rose Tattoo

US 1955 117m bw Vistavision
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

A Sicilian woman on the gulf coast is tormented by the infidelity of her dead husband, but a brawny truckdriver makes her forget him.

Heavily theatrical material, unsuited to the big screen for all the powerful acting (or perhaps because of it).

w John Michael Hayes play Tennessee Williams d Daniel Mann ph James Wong Howe m Alex North ad Hal Pereira, Tambi Larsen ed Warren Low

☆ Anna Magnani, Burt Lancaster, Marisa Pavan, Ben Cooper, Virginia Grey, Jo Van Fleet

James Wong Howe; Anna Magnani; art direction

picture; Alex North; Marisa Pavan; editing

Anna Magnani

Roseanna McCoy

US 1949 89m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

In old Virginia the Hatfields and the McCoys continue their feud with tragic results.

Hillbilly Romeo and Juliet saga, a shade too cornfed despite the credits.

w John Collier d Irving Reis ph Lee Garmes m David Buttolph

☆ Joan Evans, Farley Granger, Charles Bickford, Raymond Massey, Richard Basehart, Aline MacMahon

'A romantic comedy about the things we do for love'

Roseanna's Grave

US/GB 1996 98m Technicolor Panavision
Polygram/Fine Line/Spelling (Paul Trijbits, Alison Owen, Dario Poloni)
aka: For Roseanna

As the last plots in the graveyard of an Italian town are filled, a husband is anxious to secure one for his dying wife by ensuring that everyone else stays alive.

Moribund comedy that dithers between sentimentality and farce, and finally settles for soft-centred romance.

w Saul Turteltaub d Paul Weiland ph Henry Braham m Trevor Jones pd Rod McLean ed Martin Walsh

☆ Jean Reno (Marcello), Mercedes Ruehl (Roseanna), Polly Walker (Cecilia), Mark Frankel (Antonio), Luigi Diberti, Roberto della Casa, Giovanni Pallavicino, Jorge Krimer

'A lightweight movie that constantly finds itself balancing between genuine whimsy and forced comedy.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

Les Roseaux Sauvages ★★

France 1993 102m colour
Gala/Ima/Alain Sarde

aka: The Wild Reeds

In the early 60s, as the Algerian War comes to an end, provincial French schoolboys experiment with sex and political action.

A stylish evocation of adolescence, sensitively handled.

w André Techiné, Gilles Taurand, Olivier Massart d André Techiné ph Jeanne Lapoirie pd Pierre Soula ed Martine Giordano

☆ Élodie Bouchez, Gaël Morel, Stephane Rideau, Frederic Gorny, Michele Moretti

'Politics and post-pubescent sex are the interlocking elements in this well-crafted and sober study of provincial French youth in the early 1960s.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Rosebud

US 1975 126m Eastmancolor Panavision
UA/Otto Preminger

Five girls of wealthy families are kidnapped by the Palestine Liberation Army.

Overlong topical suspenser which goes awry by not being very suspenseful, and by packing in too many irrelevant satirical jibes.

w Erik Lee Preminger novel Joan Hemingway, Paul Bonnecarrere d Otto Preminger ph Denys Coop m Laurent Petitgirard titles Saul Bass

☆ Peter O'Toole, Richard Attenborough, Cliff Gorman, Claude Dauphin, John V. Lindsay, Peter Lawford, Raf Vallone, Adrienne Corri

Roseland ★

US 1977 103m colour
Cinema Shares/Merchant Ivory (Ismail Merchant)

Generation after generation, the lonely and the loving come to a New York ballroom.

Pleasantly intentioned slice-of-life drama which is rather slackly written and handled, with unprofessionalism showing through at several points.

w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala d James Ivory ph Ernest Vincze m Michael Gibson

☆ Geraldine Chaplin, Teresa Wright, Lou Jacobi, Don de Natale, Louise Kirkland, Helen Gallagher, Joan Copeland, Conrad Janis, Lilia Skala, Christopher Walken

'Typically discreet and dull film from Merchant-Ivory ... what one might call over-decorous.' – Time Out, 1984

Roselyne and the Lions ★★

France 1989 137m colour
Palace/Cargo Films/Gaumont (Jean-Jacques Beineix)

original title: Roselyne et les Lions

Two trainee lion tamers fall in love and run away to join a circus.

Charming, dreamlike boy-meets-girl romance.

w Jean-Jacques Beineix, Jacques Forgeas, Thierry Le Portier d Jean-Jacques Beineix ph Jean-François Robin m Reinhardt Wagner ad Carlos Conti ed Marie Castro-

Brechignac, Annick Baly, Danielle Fillios, Oswald Bargero

☆ Isabelle Pasco, Gérard Sandoz, Philippe Clevenot, Gunter Meisner, Wolf Harnisch, Gabriel Monnet, Jacques Le Carpentier, Dimitro Furdui

Rosemary's Baby ★★

US 1968 137m Technicolor
Paramount/William Castle

After unwittingly becoming friendly with diabolists, an actor's wife is impregnated by the Devil.

Seminal gothic melodrama which led in due course to the excesses of The Exorcist; in itself well done in a heavy-handed way, the book being much more subtle.

wd Roman Polanski novel Ira Levin
ph William Fraker m Krzysztof Komeda pd Richard Sylbert ed Sam O'Steen, Bob Wyman sp Farciot Edouart

☆ Mia Farrow (Rosemary Woodhouse), John Cassavetes (Guy Woodhouse), Ruth Gordon (Minnie Castevet), Sidney Blackmer (Roman Castevet), Patsy Kelly (Laura-Louise), Ralph Bellamy (Dr Sapirstein), Maurice Evans (Hutch), Angela Dorian (Terry Fionoffrio), Elisha Cook (Mr Nicklas), Charles Grodin (Dr Hill)

'It may not be for the very young, and perhaps pregnant women should see it at their own risk.' – Motion Picture Herald

'Tension is sustained to a degree surpassing Alfred Hitchcock at his best.' – Daily Telegraph

† William Castle, the producer, is glimpsed outside a phone booth.

†† A TV sequel followed: Look What Happened to Rosemary's Baby.

Ruth Gordon
Roman Polanski (as writer)

Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead ★

US 1990 118m Technicolor
Hobo/Brandenburg (Michael Brandman, Emanuel Azenburg)

Two courtiers are summoned to Elsinore by the King of Denmark to discover why Prince Hamlet is behaving so strangely.

A celebrated stage play, and gloss on Shakespeare, transfers awkwardly to the screen.

wd Tom Stoppard play Tom Stoppard
ph Peter Biziou m Stanley Myers
pd Vaughan Edwards ed Nicolas Gaster

☆ Gary Oldman, Tim Roth, Richard Dreyfuss, Joanna Roth, Iain Glen, Donald Sumpter, Joanna Miles, Ljubo Zecevic, Ian Richardson, Sven Medvesck

'Stoppard's adaptation, at a shade under two hours, is too long, too slow, and ponderous when it is trying to be humorous.' – Sight and Sound

Rosetta ★★★

Belgium/France 1999 94m colour
Artificial Eye/Les Films du Fleuve/RTBF/ARP (Luc and Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Michele and Laurent Petin)

In a Belgian industrial town, a young unemployed woman, living on a caravan site with her alcoholic mother, dreams of leading a normal life.

Intense, gritty drama concentrating almost entirely on a woman's desperate search for some small acceptance from a hostile world; it gains immeasurably from its unforced central performance.

wd Luc and Jean-Pierre Dardenne
ph Alain Marcoen m Jean-Pierre Cocco
ad Igor Gabriel ed Marie-Hélène Dozo

☆ Emilie Dequenne (Rosetta), Fabrizio Rongione (Riquet), Anne Yernaux (Rosetta's mother), Olivier Gourmet (Boss)

'A stunning and remarkable achievement... It is a film whose grace and lyricism has earned it, simply, the status of classic: something of real greatness.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'An unforgiving piece of hard-boiled cinéma-vérité...desperately moving and desperately depressing.' – James Christopher, Times

† At the 1999 Cannes Film Festival, the film won the Palme d'Or , and Emilie Dequenne was awarded the prize for best actress.

†† A Region 2 collector's edition two-disc DVD includes an interview with Luc & Jean-Pierre Dardenne, and their feature film La Promesse.

'In 1923, a black town was burned to the ground, its people hunted and murdered because of a lie. This film is for them.'

Rosewood ★★

US 1997 140m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Peters/New Deal

In 1923, a white lynch mob in a small Florida town goes on the rampage against the prosperous black population on the basis of a false rumor of rape.

Based on a true story, the movie begins impressively as an indictment of racial bigotry and intolerance, but its later reliance on stereotypical situations dissipates much of its power.

w Gregory Poirier d John Singleton ph Johnny E. Jensen m John Williams pd Paul Sylbert ed Bruce Cannon cos Ruth E. Carter

☆ Jon Voight (Jon Wright), Ving Rhames (Mann), Don Cheadle (Sylvester Carrier), Bruce McGill (Duke), Loren Dean (James Taylor), Esther Rolle (Aunt Sarah), Elise Neal (Scrappie), Sheriff Walker (Michael Rooker), Robert Patrick (Lover), Catherine Keller (Fanny Taylor), Akusua Busia (Jewel), Paul Benjamin (James Carrier), Badja Djola (John Bradley), Jaimz Woolvett (Deputy Earl)

'A well-made film that tells a gripping, important story.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Rosie

US 1967 98m Techniscope
Universal/Ross Hunter (Jacque Mapes)

A rich woman spends wildly and her daughters try to have her committed to safeguard their inheritance.

Hopelessly muddled comedy drama which flits from one mood to the other without making a success of either.

w Samuel Taylor play Ruth Gordon French original Les Joies de la Famille by Philippe Heriat d David Lowell Rich ph Clifford Stine m Lyn Murray

☆ Rosalind Russell, Brian Aherne, Sandra Dee, Vanessa Brown, Audrey Meadows, James Farentino, Leslie Nielsen, Margaret Hamilton, Reginald Owen, Juanita Moore, Virginia Grey

'A mawkish mixture of Auntie Mame and King Lear.' – MFB

Rosie Dixon, Night Nurse

GB 1997 88m colour
Columbia (Davina Belling, Clive Parsons)

A student nurse discovers that hospital doctors expect her to give her all on the job.

Dismal, witless farce with the emphasis on titillation.

w Christopher Wood, Justin Cartwright novel Confessions of a Night Nurse by Rosie Dixon d Justin Cartwright ph Alex Thomson m Ed Welch pd Albert Witherick ed Geoffrey Foot

☆ Debbie Ash (Rosie), Caroline Argyle (Penny), Beryl Reid (Matron), John Le Mesurier (Sir Archibald), Arthur Askey (Arkwright), Liz Fraser (Mrs Dixon), John Junkin (Mr Dixon), Lance Percival (Jake Fletcher), Bob Todd (Buchanan), Christopher Ellison (Quint), Peter Mantle (Richmond), Ian Sharp (MacSweeney), Jeremy Sinden (Fishlock), David Timson (Geoffrey), Leslie Ash (Natalie) and also Harry Towb (Phillips)

Rosie the Riveter

US 1944 75m bw
Armand Schaefer/Republic

GB title: In Rosie's Room

Warplant workers have to share rooms in a boarding house.

Easy-going wartime comedy.

w Jack Townley, Aleen Leslie story Dorothy Curnow Handley d Joseph Santley

☆ Jane Frazee, Frank Albertson, Vera Vague, Frank Jenks, Lloyd Corrigan, Frank Fenton, Maude Eburne, Carl 'Alfalfa' Switzer

Rote Lippen: see Sadisterotica

Rotten to the Core

GB 1965 88m bw Panavision
BL-Tudor (Roy Boulting)

Ex-convicts plan an army payroll robbery.

Routine caper comedy, unsuitably widescreened, with a few good jokes along the way.

w Jeffrey Dell, Roy Boulting, John Warren, Len Heath d John Boulting ph Freddie Young m Michael Dress ad Alex Vetchinsky ed Teddy Darvas

☆ Anton Rodgers (The Duke), Thorley Walters (Chief Constable), Eric Sykes (Hunt), Kenneth Griffith (Lenny), Charlotte Rampling (Sara Capell), Ian Bannen (Lt Vine), Avis Bunnage (Countess de Wett (Matron)), Dudley Sutton (Jelly), Peter Vaughan (Sir Henry Capell), Victor Maddern (Anxious O'Toole), James Beckett (Scapa)

† The original title, Rotten to the Corps, was more apt but plainly seemed too subtle.

'Eat. Sleep. Fetch. Kill.'

Rottweiler

GB/Spain 2005 95m colour
Filmax/Future Films/Fantastic Factory/Castelao (Carlos Fernandez)

In Spain, an escaped illegal immigrant is hunted down by a half-robotic killer dog.

Routine and unoriginal 'B' feature chase movie.

w Alberto Vazquez Figueroa, Miguel Tejada-Flores novel The Dog by Alberto Vazquez Figueroa d Brian Yuzna ph Javier Salmones m Mark Thomas pd Balter Gallart ed Andy Horvitch

☆ William Miller (Dante), Irene Montala (Ula), Paulina Galvez (Alyah), Lluis Homer (Borg)

'Pic is basically a Western.' – Variety

Rouge ★★

Hong Kong 1987 93m colour
ICA/Golden Harvest/Golden Way (Jackie Chan)

original title: Yanzhi Kou

More than 50 years after she killed herself in the mid-30s, the ghost of a courtesan enlists the aid of a journalist to search for the lover with whom she made a suicide pact.

An exotic, bitter-sweet romance of a lost past and its contrast with a radically altered present, acted with style and directed with visual panache.

w Lee Bihua, Qiu-Dai Anping novel Lee Bihua d Stanley Kwan ph Bill Wong m Michael Lai ad Piao Ruomu, Horace Ma ed Peter Cheung

☆ Anita Mui, Leslie Cheung, Alex Man, Emily Chu, Irene Wan, Patrick Tse, Wang Yu

'Seems assured of its status as a classic.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound

Rouge Baiser ★

France/Germany 1985 112m Fujicolour
Stephan/A2/Farena/C&H/Aldo Lado
aka: Red Kiss

A 15-year-old Jewish girl growing up in 50s Paris has her faith in Communism shaken but begins to appreciate the power of love.

One of the rare films to take politics seriously, as it follows one person's disillusionment with ideology.

w Vera Belmont, Guy Konopnicki, David Milhaud d Vera Belmont ph Raymond Suarez m Jean-Marie Senia ed Martine Giordano

☆ Charlotte Valandrey, Lambert Wilson, Marthe Keller, Laurent Terzieff, Gunther Lamprecht, Laurent Arnal, Elsa Lunghini

Le Rouge et le Noir ★

France/Italy 1954 170m approx
Eastmancolor
Franco London/Documento
aka: Scarlet and Black

A carpenter's son becomes a private tutor, seduces his master's wife and is sent to study for the priesthood ...

Massive attempt to conquer an unfilmable novel. Some enjoyable scenes and décor are the best it can offer.

w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, Claude Autant-Lara novel Stendhal d Claude Autant-Lara ph Michel Kelber m René Cloërc ad Max Douy

☆ Gérard Philipe, Danielle Darrieux, Antonella Lualdi, Jean Martinelli

The Rough and the Smooth

GB 1959 99m bw
Renown (George Minter)
US title: Portrait of a Sinner

An archaeologist about to marry the niece of a press lord falls for a mysterious nymphomaniac.

Preposterous melodrama about unreal people; its very excesses become enjoyable for those who can stay the course.

w Audrey Erskine-Lindop, Dudley Leslie novel Robin Maugham d Robert Siodmak ph Otto Heller m Douglas Gamley md Muir Mathieson

☆ Tony Britton, Nadja Tiller, William Bendix, Natasha Parry, Norman Wooland, Donald Wolfit, Tony Wright, Adrienne Corri, Joyce Carey

'The script is never even on nodding terms with life, and tries to make up for this deficiency by a candidly explosive vocabulary which gives the production a weirdly old-fashioned air.' – MFB

Rough Company: see The Violent Men

Rough Cut

US 1980 112m Movielab
Paramount/David Merrick

A retiring Scotland Yard inspector spars with a jewel thief and finally changes sides.

Dated comedy which required a much lighter touch in all departments.
w Francis Burns novel Touch the Lion's Paw by Derek Lambert d Don Siegel ph Frederick Young m Nelson Riddle, from Duke Ellington themes pd Ted Haworth ☆ Burt Reynolds, Lesley-Anne Down, David Niven, Timothy West, Patrick Magee, Joss Ackland
'All surface smartness without a single structural idea.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Rough Diamonds
Australia 1994 88m colour
ITC/Forest Home/AFFC/Film Queensland/Beyond/Southern Star (Damien Parer)
A rancher and a country and western singer fall in love after she helps him win an award with his champion bull.
Dreary little star vehicle for Donovan, though even his fans may have difficulty in staying awake until the end.
w Donald Crombie, Christopher Lee d Christopher Lee ph John Stokes pd Georgina Greenhill ed Wayne Le Clos ☆ Jason Donovan, Angie Milliken, Peter Phelps, Max Cullen, Jocelyn Gabriel, Hayley Toomey, Kit Taylor, Lee James
'Probably pitched at undemanding early teens but it's hard to tell; it's the sort of film where jolly banjo music breaks out whenever a fist fight does.' – Jonathan Romney, Guardian
'Donovan fans will probably enjoy this fluff, and they are welcome to it.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

Rough Magic
GB/France 1995 105m Technicolor
TCF/UGC/Recorded Picture (Laurie Parker, Delan Baldwin)
A reporter, hired by a millionaire to find his missing fiancée, who has magic powers, tracks her down to Mexico and falls in love with her.
An odd fantasy, in which a fire-breathing heroine vomits up her heart and turns an adversary into a sausage; its absurdities do not hold the attention for long.
w Robert Mundy, William Brookfield, Clare Peploe novel Miss Shumway Waves a Wand by James Hadley Chase d Clare Peploe ph John J. Campbell m Richard Hartley pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Suzanne Fenn
☆ Bridget Fonda, Russell Crowe, Jim Broadbent, D. W. Moffet, Paul Rodriguez, Euva Anderson
'A peculiar and often uncomfortable mixture of romantic caper, farce and film noir.' – Empire

Rough Night in Jericho
US 1967 97m Technicolor Techniscope
Universal (Martin Rackin)
A stagecoach man rids a cattle town of a villain.
Totally uninteresting star Western with glum performances.
w Sidney Boehm, Marvin H. Albert novel The Man in Black by Marvin H. Albert d Arnold Laven ph Russell Metty m Don Costa ad Alexander Golitzen, Frank Arrigo ed Ted J. Kent
☆ George Peppard (Dolan), Dean Martin (Alex Flood), Jean Simmons (Molly Lang), John McIntire (Ben Hickman), Slim Pickens (Yarbrough), Don Galloway (Jace), Brad Weston (Torrey)

Rough Shoot ★
GB 1952 86m bw
Raymond Stross
US title: Shoot First
A retired US officer in Dorset thinks he has shot a poacher – but the dead man is a spy, and someone else shot him.
Minor Hitchcock-style thriller with a climax in Madame Tussaud's. Generally efficient and entertaining.
w Eric Ambler novel Geoffrey Household d Robert Parrish ph Stan Pavey md Hans May ☆ Joel McCrea, Evelyn Keyes, Marius Goring, Roland Culver, Frank Lawton, Herbert Lom

Rough, Tough and Ready
US 1945 64m bw
Alexis Thurn-Taxis/Columbia
Two members of the Army engineers' port repair service fall out over a girl.
A faint echo of the old Flagg and Quirt comedies.
w Edward T. Lowe d Del Lord
☆ Victor McLaglen, Chester Morris, Veda Ann Borg, Jean Rogers

Roughly Speaking ★
US 1945 117m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
Oddball, overlong domestic drama about father's wild and impractical schemes.
w Louise Randall Pierson book Louise Randall Pierson d Michael Curtiz ph Joseph Walker m Max Steiner
☆ Rosalind Russell, Jack Carson, Robert Hutton, Jean Sullivan, Alan Hale, Donald Woods, Andrea King, Ray Collins, Kathleen Lockhart

Roughshod
US 1949 88m bw
RKO (Richard H. Berger)
Two cowboys journeying to California with a herd of horses come up against villains intent on revenge.
Likeable old-fashioned Western.
w Geoffrey Homes, Hugo Butler d Mark Robson ph Joseph F. Biroc m Roy Webb
☆ Robert Sterling, Gloria Grahame, Claude Jarman Jnr, John Ireland, Jeff Donnell, Martha Hyer

Roujin Z ★
Japan 1991 80m colour
Manga/Tokyo Theaters/TV Ashahi/Sony (Yasuhito Nomura, Yasuku Kazama, Yoshiaki Motoya) original title: Rojin Z
A robotic bed becomes possessed by the spirit of the dead wife of an elderly man chosen to test it and develops a will of its own.
An odd, satirical animated film, written by the creator of Akira, about the effect of technology and the dangers of militarism. The animation is sometimes poor, but the themes give it an interest beyond anime's usual teenage audience.
w Katsuhiro Otomo d Kiroyuki Kitakubo m Fumi Itakura ad Hiroshi Sasaki ed Eiko Nishiide
☆ Featuring the voices of Allan Wagner, Toni Barry, Barbara Barnes, Adam Henderson, Jana Carpenter, Ian Thompson
'Shot through with wry humour, genuine tenderness and inventive action.' – Manga Mania

Round Midnight ★★
France 1986 133m Eastmancolor
Warner/Little Bear/PECF (Irwin Winkler)
A black American jazz musician spends his last days in Paris.
A jazz buff's tribute to Bud Powell and Lester Young; acclaimed by the critics but essentially a film for minorities.
w Bertrand Tavernier, David Rayfiel d Bertrand Tavernier ph Bruno de Keyzer m Herbie Hancock md Herbie Hancock pd Alexandre Trauner
☆ Dexter Gordon, François Cluzet, Gabrielle Haker, John Berry, Martin Scorsese Herbie Hancock
Dexter Gordon

The Rounders
US 1965 85m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Richard E. Lyons)
Two modern cowboys mean to settle down but never get around to it.
Pale comedy Western which never gets going.
wd Burt Kennedy novel Max Evans ph Paul C. Vogel m Jeff Alexander ☆ Henry Fonda, Glenn Ford, Chill Wills, Sue Ane Langdon, Edgar Buchanan
'One of those utterly relaxed comedies that make ideal entertainment because there's tender loving care every step of the way and no sweat.' – Judith Crist

Rounders
US 1998 121m DeLuxe 'Scope
Buena Vista/Miramax/Spanky (Joel Stillerman, Ted Demme)
The ups and downs, in love and cards, of a young poker player.
A romantic thriller on predictable lines that is unable to make playing cards seem a life-or-death situation.
w David Levien, Brian Koppelman d John Dahl ph Jean-Yves Escoffier m Christopher Young pd Rob Pearson ed Scott Chestnut ☆ Matt Damon, Edward Norton, John Turturro, Famke Janssen, Gretchen Moll, John Malkovich, Martin Landau
'As dull and mechanical as poker itself is to the uninitiated.' – Edward Yardley, Sight and Sound

Roustabout
US 1964 101m Techniscope
Hal B. Wallis
A wandering tough guy joins a travelling carnival.
Dreary star vehicle momentarily salvaged by its co-star.
w Allan Weiss, Anthony Lawrence d John Rich ph Lucien Ballard m Joseph L. Lilley ☆ Elvis Presley, Barbara Stanwyck, Sue Ane Langdon, Joan Freeman, Leif Erickson

La Route de Corinthe ★
France/Italy/Greece 1967 90m Eastmancolor
La Boëtie/CGFC/Orion (André Génovès)
aka: The Road to Corinth
The wife of a secret agent, accused of killing her husband in Greece, goes in search of the real killer.
Engaging, lightweight thriller, a parody of the espionage genre, which is stylishly shot against some superb Greek locations.
w Claude Brûlé, Daniel Boulanger novel Claude Rank d Claude Chabrol ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen ed Jacques Gaillard
☆ Jean Seberg, Maurice Ronet, Christian Marquand, Michel Bouquet, Saro Urzi, Antonio Passalia, Claude Chabrol
'Flimsy, forgettable stuff.' – Sight and Sound

A Row of Crows: see A Climate for Killing

Rowing with the Wind ★
Spain/Norway 1987 94m colour
Ditirambo (Andres Vincente Gomez)
Mary Shelley recalls her elopement with Shelley, their meeting with Byron and her creation of Frankenstein.
A glossy death-haunted romantic melodrama, with Frankenstein's monster popping up throughout as a reminder of mortality; a few startling images, such as a meeting between a giraffe and a cardinal in a Venetian palace, spice the familiar story.
wd Gonzalo Suarez ph Carlos Suarez m Alejandro Masso ad Wolfgang Burman ed José Salcedo
☆ Hugh Grant, Lizzy McInnerny, Valentine Pelka, Elizabeth Hurley, José Luis Gomez, Virginia Mataix, Ronan Vibert, José Carlos Rivas, Bibi Andersen
† Other films on a similar theme include Gothic, Haunted Summer and Frankenstein Unbound (qqv).

Roxanne ★
US 1987 107m DeLuxe
Columbia/Michael Rachmil, Daniel Melnick
An ugly man writes love letters for his friend . but true love will find a way.
Zany modernization of Rostand's Cyrano de Bergerac, funny in spots but way overlong.
w Steve Martin d Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Bruce Smeaton pd Jack DeGovia
☆ Steve Martin, Daryl Hannah, Rick Rossovich, Shelley Duvall, John Kapelos, Fred Willard, Michael J. Pollard

'The low down story of a high class gal!'

Roxie Hart ★★
US 1942 72m bw
TCF (Nunnally Johnson)
A twenties showgirl confesses for the sake of publicity to a murder of which she is innocent.
Crowded Chicago burlesque which now seems less funny than it did but is full of smart moments.
w Nunnally Johnson play Chicago by Maurine Watkins d William Wellman ph Leon Shamroy m Alfred Newman
☆ Ginger Rogers, George Montgomery, Adolphe Menjou, Lynne Overman, Nigel Bruce, Spring Byington, Sara Allgood, William Fawley
'A masterpiece of form, of ensemble acting, of powerhouse comedy and scripting.' – NFT, 1974
'Why then, am I not in the aisles all the time? Is it possible that Ginger Rogers, by overplaying the brainless little creature, destroys some of the plausibility and therefore some of the fun? Maybe; I can offer no other explanation of my moments of repose, straight-faced and in my stall.' – Dilys Powell
† The play was also filmed in 1927 under its original title, with Phyllis Haver.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Royal African Rifles

US 1954 75m Cinecolor
Allied Artists
GB title: Storm over Africa
In British East Africa in 1914, a lieutenant tracks down a consignment of stolen guns.
Mini-budgeted Boy's Own Paper heroics; quite enjoyable on its level.
w Dan Ullman d Lesley Selander ph Ellis Carter m Paul Dunlap
☆ Louis Hayward, Veronica Hurst, Michael Pate, Angela Greene, Steve Geray, Bruce Lester

The Royal Bed

US 1931 74m bw
RKO
GB title: The Queen's Husband
The king and queen of a European country lead their own private lives.
Insufficient wit graces this would-be daring romantic drama from a Broadway hit.
w J. Walter Ruben play The Queen's Husband by Robert E. Sherwood d Lowell Sherman ☆ Mary Astor, Lowell Sherman, Nance O'Neil, Anthony Bushell, Robert Warwick

Royal Cavalcade

GB 1935 104m bw
BIP
A chronicle of the events of the reign of King George V.
Thoroughly embarrassing jubilee tribute, of historical interest only.
w Marjorie Deans, Val Gielgud, Eric Maschwitz, Holt Marvel d Marcel Varnel, Thomas Bentley, Herbert Brenon, Norman Lee, Walter Summers, Will Kellino ph Brian Langley, Leslie Rowson, Phil Grindrod, Jack Cox, Horace Wheddon md Idris Lewis
☆ Marie Lohr, Hermione Baddeley, Esme Percy, John Mills, Reginald Gardiner, Syd Walker, Seymour Hicks, Owen Nares, Matheson Lang, George Robey, Florrie Forde, many others

A Royal Divorce

GB 1938 85m bw
Herbert Wilcox/Imperator
Napoleon Bonaparte in 1809 marries a widow whose reputation isn't exactly spotless.
Heavy comedy or light drama, take your pick; not exactly riveting as either.
w Miles Malleson novel Josephine by Jacques Thery d Jack Raymond ☆ Pierre Blanchar, Ruth Chatterton, Frank Cellier, Carol Goodner, George Curzon, John Laurie, Jack Hawkins

The Royal Family of Broadway ★

US 1930 82m bw
Paramount
GB title: Theatre Royal
The off-stage escapades of a famous family of actors.
Fairly funny lampoon of the Barrymores, primitively staged and very talky but still entertaining for those in the joke.
w Herman J. Mankiewicz, Gertrude Purcell play George S. Kaufman, Edna Ferber d George Cukor, Cyril Gardner ph George Folsey ☆ Fredric March, Henrietta Crosman, Ina Claire, Mary Brian, Charles Starrett, Frank Conroy
'Lionel does not come into the burlesque at all, and I can quite believe that he is the most damaged of the entire family.' – James Agate
'Stagebound and awkward, but great fun anyway.' – New Yorker, 1977
Fredric March

Royal Flash

GB 1975 118m Technicolor
TCF/Two Roads (David V. Picker, Denis O'Dell)
A Victorian bully and braggart has various adventures in Europe and Ruritania.
A rather unsatisfactory romp which takes pot shots at every 19th-century person and object in the encyclopaedia, but is never as funny as it intends to be.
w George Macdonald Fraser novel George Macdonald Fraser d Richard Lester ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Ken Thorpe pd Terence Marsh
☆ Malcolm McDowell, Oliver Reed, Alan Bates, Florinda Bolkan, Britt Ekland, Lionel Jeffries, Tom Bell, Joss Ackland, Leon Greene, Richard Hurndall, Alastair Sim, Michael Hordern

Royal Flush: see Two Guys from Milwaukee

The Royal Hunt of the Sun

GB 1969 121m Technicolor
Security Pictures (Eugene Frenke, Philip Yordan)
How the Spanish soldier Pizarro on his South American trek overcame the Inca god-king Atahualpa.
Deadly literal rendering with nothing to replace the play's theatrical splendour, resembling nothing so much as an opera without the music.
w Philip Yordan play Peter Shaffer d Irving Lerner ph Roger Barlow m Marc Wilkinson
☆ Robert Shaw, Christopher Plummer, Nigel Davenport, Michael Craig, Leonard Whiting, Andrew Keir, James Donald, Percy Herbert, Alexander Davion

A Royal Scandal

US 1945 94m bw
TCF (Ernst Lubitsch)
GB title: Czarina
The illicit loves of Catherine the Great.
Censored romps around some chilly court sets; very few moments of interest, and none of the style of the silent version Forbidden Paradise.
w Edwin Justus Mayer play Lajos Biro, Melchior Lengyel d Otto Preminger ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman
☆ Tallulah Bankhead, Charles Coburn, Anne Baxter, William Eythe, Vincent Price, Mischa Auer, Sig Rumann, Vladimir Sokoloff
'Nothing is one-tenth well enough done, and all the laughs are played for at their cheapest, far down the ramp.' – James Agee

'Family Isn't A Word... It's A Sentence.'

The Royal Tenenbaums ★

US 2001 Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/American Empirical (Wes Anderson, Barry Mendel, Scott Rudin)
A disgraced lawyer attempts to return to his family of precocious geniuses fallen on hard times.
The fun here lies in the details – dalmatian-spotted mice, battered taxicabs, the elegant pages of an imaginary book – rather than in the disjointed narrative, which sets the scene deftly and then collapses.
w Wes Anderson, Owen Wilson d Wes Anderson ph Robert Yeoman m Mark Mothersbaugh pd David Wasco ed Dylan Tichenor cos Karen Patch
☆ Gene Hackman (Royal Tenenbaum), Anjelica Huston (Etheline Tenenbaum), Ben Stiller (Chas Tenenbaum), Gwyneth Paltrow (Margot Tenenbaum), Luke Wilson (Richie Tenenbaum), Owen Wilson (Eli Cash), Danny Glover (Henry Sherman), Bill Murray (Raleigh St Clair), Seymour Cassel (Dusty), Kumar Pallana (Pagoda), Alec Baldwin (Narrator)
'Merely fiddles around with its people and their eccentricities for a while, apparently in the belief that just to be fey is enough.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic
'Sweet and funny, doggedly oddball if bordering precious.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice
Wes Anderson, Owen Wilson (screenplay)

Royal Wedding

US 1951 93m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)
GB title: Wedding Bells
Journalists congregate in London for the royal wedding.
Thin musical with acceptable numbers.
w Alan Jay Lerner d Stanley Donen ph Robert Planck md Johnny Green songs Alan Jay Lerner, Burton Lane
☆ Fred Astaire, Jane Powell, Sarah Churchill, Peter Lawford, Keenan Wynn song 'Too Late Now' (m Burton Lane, ly Alan Jay Lerner)

Ruba al Prossimo Tua: see A Fine Pair

Ruby

US 1992 DeLuxe
Rank/Propaganda (Sigurjon Sighvatsson, Steve Golin)
A shady night-club owner kills Lee Harvey Oswald, assassin of President Kennedy, in order to expose a plot by the Mafia and the CIA to murder the President.
Muddled, small-scale, mainly fictional conspiracy movie that confuses the issues it attempts to explain.
w Stephen Davis play Love Field by Stephen Davis d John MacKenzie ph Phil Meheux m John Scott pd David Brisbin ed Richard Trevor ☆ Danny Aiello, Sherilyn Fenn, Frank Orsatti, Jeffrey Nordling, Jane Hamilton, Maurice Bernard, Joe Viterelli, Robert S. Telford

Ruby and Rata

New Zealand 1990 113m colour
Preston-Laing/NZFC
An uneasy relationship develops between an elderly woman and her tenant, an unemployed would-be rock singer with a small son.
Uninteresting domestic drama, presumably intended as a comedy.
w Graeme Tetley d Gaylene Preston ph Leon Narbey m Jonathan Crayford pd Robert Gillies ed Paul Sutorius
☆ Yvonne Lawley, Vanessa Rare, Lee Mete-Kingi, Simon Barnett

Ruby Cairo

US 1992 111m Technicolor
Entertainment/Majestic (Lloyd Phillips)
After her husband is reported killed in a car crash, his hard-up wife discovers that he had a fortune hidden in bank accounts across the world.
Dull thriller, which doubles as an attractive travelogue.
w Robert Dillon, Michael Thomas d Graeme Clifford ph Laszlo Kovacs m John Barry pd Richard Sylbert ed Caroline Biggerstaff ☆ Andie MacDowell, Liam Neeson, Viggo Mortensen, Jack Thompson, Paul Spencer, Chad Power, Monica Mikala
'An old-fashioned Yank-in-Europe mystery-adventure that squanders an interesting cast.' – Variety
'Nothing but a plot and the plot nothing but predictable.' – Sight and Sound

'Dangerous ... destructive ... deadly to love!'

Ruby Gentry

US 1952 82m bw
Joseph Bernhard/King Vidor
A tempestuous girl, brought up as a boy in the Carolina swamps, has a love-hate relationship with a local aristocrat, revenges herself on the people who scorn her, loses her lover in a swamp shooting, and becomes a sea captain.
Richly absurd sex melodrama typical of its director and star yet not very entertaining.
w Silvia Richards d King Vidor ph Russell Harlan m Heinz Roemheld ad Dan Hall
☆ Jennifer Jones, Charlton Heston, Karl Malden, Josephine Hutchinson

Ruby in Paradise

US 1993 114m DuArt
Mainline/Ruby in Paradise/A Full Crew/Say Yea
A young woman leaves home to seek life and love and ends up in an out-of-season holiday resort.
A deliberately small-scale movie, focussing its attention on minor matters and the frequently dull intricacies of everyday living.
wd Victor Nuñez ph Alex Vlacos m Charles Engstrom pd John Iacovelli ed Victor Nuñez
☆ Ashley Judd, Todd Field, Bentley Mitchum, Allison Dean, Dorothy Lyman, Betsy Douds, Felicia Hernandez, Sharon Lewis
'Very well played, very well set and directed with a sharp eye for detail.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Two hippies come back from 1969 to get the bad news...'

Rude Awakening

US 1989 101m Technicolor
Rank (Aaron Russo)
Two hippies return to New York after twenty years in Central America.
Weak ecological and political farce.
w Neil Levy, Richard LaGravenese d Aaron Russo, David Greenwalt ph Tom Sigel m Jonathan Elias pd Mel Bourne ed Paul Fried ☆ Cheech Marin, Eric Roberts, Julie Hagerty, Robert Carradine, Buck Henry, Louise Lasser, Cindy Williams

Rude Boy

UK 1980 120m colour
Michael White/Buzzy (Jack Hazan, David Mingay)
An unemployed young South Londoner becomes a roadie for the rock group The Clash at the time of their 'rock against racism' tour...
Uneasy mix of documentary footage and fictional story, interspersed with performances from the Clash; it does provide a flavour of the times.
w David Mingay, Ray Gange, Jack Hazan d Jack Hazan, David Mingay m Joe Strummer, Mick Jones

R

☆ Ray Gange (Rude Boy), Joe Strummer (Himself), Mick Jones (Himself), Paul Simonon (Himself), Nicky Headon (Himself)

Rudy

US 1993 116m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (Robert N. Fried, Cary Woods)

An undersized youth is determined to play football for the University of Nötre Dame.
Based on a true story, a likeable, though predictable and overly sentimental, story of success against the odds.
w Angelo Pizzo d David Anspaugh ph Oliver Wood m Jerry Goldsmith pd Robb Wilson King ed David Rosenbloom
☆ Sean Astin, Ned Beatty, Charles Dutton, Lili Taylor, Jason Miller, Robert Prosky, Greta Lind, Jon Favreau

'A film that hits all the right emotional buttons, it's an intelligent, sentimental drama that lifts an audience to its feet cheering.' – Leonard Klady, Variety
'Appears to confirm the basic premise of the American dream – that you can do anything if you try hard enough. Its appeal is almost incomprehensible out of America.' – Nick Hasted, Sight and Sound

Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Book: see The Jungle Book (1942)

Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Book ★

US 1994 111m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Edward S. Feldman, Raju Patel)

The adventures of Mowgli, an Indian boy brought up by jungle animals.
Enjoyable children's adventure, closer to Indiana Jones than to Kipling, but with enough action and animals to keep it interesting.
w Stephen Sommers, Ronald Yanover, Mark D. Geldman d Stephen Sommers ph Juan Ruiz Anchia m Basil Poledouris pd Allan Cameron ed Bob Ducsay
☆ Jason Scott Lee, Cary Elwes, Lena Headey, Sam Neill, John Cleese, Jason Flemyng, Stefan Kalipha, Ron Donachie

'An engrossing, bloodthirsty family fable that's an edge-of-the-seater for all over-tens.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review

Rudyard Kipling's The Second Jungle Book: Mowgli and Baloo

US 1997 88m FotoKem Technovision
TriStar/MDP (Raju Patel)

aka: The Second Jungle Book: Mowgli and Baloo
aka: Jungle Book 2: Mowgli and Baloo
In India, in 1890, a ten-year-old wolf boy is chased through the jungle by apes and by hunters from Barnum's circus.
Low budget, unmemorable adventure with occasional moments of charm, though the comic relief, in the form of a cowardly Indian trickster, is hard to take.
w Bayard Johnson, Matthew Horton stories The Second Jungle Book; Kaa's Hunting by Rudyard Kipling d Duncan McLachlan ph Adolfo Bartoli m John Scott pd Errol Kelly ed Marcus Manton sp Cinemagic
☆ Roddy McDowall (King Murphy), Bill Campbell (Harrison), Jamie Williams (Mowgli), David Paul Francis (Chuchundra), Gulshan Grover (Buldeo), Dyrk Ashton (Karait)

Rue Cases Nègres ★★

France 1983 106m Fujicolour
Artificial Eye/Orion Classics/Su Ma Fa/Orca/NEF Diffusion (Jean-Luc Ormieres)

US title: Sugar Cane Alley
aka: Black Shack Alley
In Martinique in the 1930s, a woman sacrifices herself so that her grandson can escape from poverty through education.
Moving and evocative account of colonial life, tinged with nostalgia but marked by some full-blooded performances.
wd Euzhan Palcy novel Joseph Zobel ph Dominique Chapuis m Groupe Malavoi ad Hoang Thanh At, Romul Eloise ed Marie-Joseph Yoyotte
☆ Garry Cadenat, Darling Legitimus, Douta Seck, Joby Bernabe, Francisco Charles, Marie-Jo Descas, Marie-Ange Farot

Rue de l'Estrapade ★

France 1953 95m bw
Cinephonic/SGGC/Filmsonor
aka: Françoise Steps Out
A young Parisienne suspects her husband of having an affair.
Lightly likeable domestic comedy in the vein of Edouard et Caroline, but not quite up to its standard.
w Annette Wademant d Jacques Becker ph Marcel Grignon m Georges Van Parys, Marguerite Monnot
☆ Louis Jourdan, Anne Vernon, Daniel Gelin, Jean Servais, Micheline Dax

'Five comedy stars in a five-star comedy!'

Ruggles of Red Gap ★★

US 1935 90m bw
Paramount (Arthur Hornblow Jnr)

A British butler has a startling effect on the family of an American rancher who takes him out west.
A famous comedy which seemed hilarious at the time but can now be seen as mostly composed of flat spots; the performances however are worth remembering.
w Walter de Leon, Harlan Thompson, Humphrey Pearson novel Harry Leon Wilson d Leo McCarey ph Alfred Gilks
☆ Charles Laughton, Mary Boland, Charles Ruggles, ZaSu Pitts, Roland Young, Leila Hyams, James Burke, Maude Eburne, Lucien Littlefield

'Plenty of marquee strength, and dynamite on the inside. An A1 comedy.' – Variety
'A sane, witty, moving and quite unusual picture of Anglo-American relations.' – C. A. Lejeune
'The most heart-warming comedy of the season ... there is about it a sympathetic and even a patriotic quality which is touching.' – Literary Digest
'The archetypal film they don't make any more, partly because comedy has now grown too raucous to favour the quiet drollery of players like Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland, partly because even McCarey himself had trouble after the thirties separating sentiment from sentimentality.' – Time Out, 1980 † Remade as Fancy Pants (qv).
best picture

'The family vacation just went overboard.'

Rugrats Go Wild! ③

US 2003 81m DeLuxe
Paramount/Nickelodeon (Arlene Klasky, Gabor Csupo)

A holidaying family are wrecked on a tropical island, where they are rescued by a TV naturalist and his family.
Increasingly loud, shrill and frenetic cartoon that provides not a moment of stillness, bringing together Nickelodeon's two TV series with diminishing returns.
w Kate Boutilier d Norton Virgien, John Eng m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Dima Malanitchev ed John Bryant, Kimberly Rettberg
☆ voices of: Bruce Willis (Spike the Dog), Chrissie Hynde (Siri the Leopard), Nancy Cartwright (Chuckie Finster), Kath Soucie (Betty DeVille/Phil and Lil DeVille), Cheryl Chase (Angelica Pickles), Tim Curry (Sir Nigel Thornberry), Lacey Chabert (Eliza Thornberry), Danielle Harris (Debbie Thornberry)

'One more assault on the notion that young American audiences might be expected to enjoy films with at least some subtlety and depth and pacing and occasional quietness.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
† At some screenings the movie was presented in Odorama, i.e. audiences were given cards containing six scents to scratch and sniff at the appropriate moments.

'France never had a chance!'

The Rugrats in Paris: The Movie ★

US/Germany 2000 79m DeLuxe
Paramount/Nickelodeon (Arlene Klasky, Gabor Csupo)

A gang of kids wreak havoc in Paris, accompanying the father of one of them, who is attempting to repair a robot dinosaur in a Japanese theme park.
Lively infantile fun at the expense of Disney that will please the many fans of the little monsters' TV series, though adults may weary before the end.
w J. David Stem, David N. Weiss, Jill Gorey, Barbara Herndon, Kate Boutilier d Stig Bergqvist, Paul Demeyer m Mark Mothersbaugh pd Dima Malanitchev ed John Bryant
☆ voices of: E.G. Daily (Tommy Pickles), Christine Cavanaugh (Chuckie Finster), Michael Bell (Drew Pickles), Susan Sarandon (Coco LaBouche), Cheryl Chase (Angelica Pickles), Julia Kato (Kira Watanabe), Jack Riley (Stu Pickles), Melanie Chartof (Didi Pickles), Tara Charendoff (Dil Pickles), Kath Soucie (BettyLil/Phil Deville), John Lithgow (Jean-Claude), Lisa McClowry (Princess), Debbie Reynolds (Lulu Pickles), Mako (Mr Yamaguchi)

'A sequel that proves to be superior on every level to the first effort.' – Variety

The Rugrats Movie ★★

US 1999 79m DeLuxe
Paramount/Nickelodeon (Arlene Klasky, Gabor Csupo)

A gang of small children, attempting to return the new baby brother of their leader to hospital, become lost in a forest which is full of unfriendly animals.
Fast-moving, lively animated feature, based on a TV series, that takes to extremes an infant's-eye view of the adult world.
w David N. Weiss, J. David Stem d Norton Virgien, Igor Kovalyov m Mark Mothersbaugh ad Dima Malanitchev ed John Bryant
☆ Featuring the voices of: E. G. Daily, Christine Cavanaugh, Kath Soucie, Cheryl Case, Tara Charendoff, Melanie Chartoff, Jack Riley, Joe Alaskey, Phil Proctor, Cree Summer, Michael Bell, Tress MacNeille, Busta Rhymes, Whoopi Goldberg, David Spade

'Witty, sophisticated and, in its depiction of very young children as a wild bunch with bad attitude and faces like over-boiled potatoes, it's hard to fault.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Rulers of the Sea ★

US 1939 96m bw
Paramount (Frank Lloyd)

Problems surround the first steamship voyage across the Atlantic.
Well-made period action drama.
w Talbot Jennings, Frank Cavett, Richard Collins d Frank Lloyd ph Theodor Sparkuhl, Archie Stout m Richard Hageman ☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Margaret Lockwood, Will Fyffe, Montagu Love, George Bancroft, Mary Gordon, Alan Ladd

'Timely in content and grand for exploitation. In the British Empire it will be greeted as inspirational entertainment.' – Variety

'There Are No Rules'

Rules of Attraction ★

US/Germany 2002 110m DeLuxe
Icon/Lions Gate/Kingsgate/Roger Avary (Greg Shapiro)

A rich young man partakes of, and deals in, drugs and sex at a New England college.
A story of callow students indulging in fleshly pleasures; tricked out with a narrative that goes backwards (as sometimes does the film) and other gimmicks, it's like experiencing the day after the night before in a hungover flashback.
wd Roger Avary novel Brett Easton Ellis ph Robert Brinkman m tomandandy pd Sharon Seymour ed Sharon Rutter
☆ James Van Der Beek (Sean Bateman), Ian Somerhalder (Paul Denton), Shannyn Sossamon (Lauren Hynde), Jessica Biel (Lara), Kip Pardue (Victor), Thomas Ian Nicholas (Mitchell), Kate Bosworth (Kelly), Fred Savage (Marc), Eric Stoltz (Mr Lance Lawson), Clifton Collins Jnr (Rupert), Faye Dunaway (Mrs Denton), Swoosie Kurtz (Mrs Jared)

'Sex, drugs and rack 'n' ruin: pretty people doing nasty things to one another...honestly, what more could you want in a movie?' – Richard Corliss, Time
'The harder the movie tries to shock, the shriller it rings. Too much of the time, its tone suggests the harangue of a spoiled brat trying to fluster Mommy and Daddy by waving snapshots from the orgy room.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'A hero should never have to stand alone.'

Rules of Engagement

US/Germany 2000 127m CFI Panavision
Paramount/Seven Arts (Richard D. Zanuck, Scott Rudin)

An American army officer is tried for murder after he orders his men to fire on demonstrators beseiging the US Embassy in the Yemen.
Jingoistic court-room drama of the kind to give patriotism a bad name, with a screenplay that keeps its thumb firmly jammed on the scales of justice.
w Stephen Gaghan story James Webb d William Friedkin ph Nicola Pecorini, William Fraker m Mark Isham pd Robert Laing ed Augie Hess sp Digital Domain cos Gloria Gresham

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Tommy Lee Jones (Col Hays Hodges), Samuel L. Jackson (Col Terry Childers), Guy Pearce (Maj Mark Biggs), Bruce Greenwood (National Security Adviser William Sokal), Blair Underwood (Capt Lee), Philip Baker Hall (Gen H. Lawrence Hodges), Anne Archer (Mrs Mourain), Ben Kingsley (Ambassador Mourain), Mark Feuerstein (Capt Tom Chandler), Dale Dye (Major Gen Perry)

'What the film argues, without ever articulating it, is that the life of a US marine is more valuable than that of some "raghead" protester.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

'This shrill, belligerent, reactionary nonsense is lazily plotted, grotesquely dishonest, and dripping with a creepy strain of Islamophobia.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Rules of the Game: see La Règle du Jeu

The Ruling Class ★★★

GB 1972 155m DeLuxe
Keep Films (Jules Buck, Jack Hawkins)

The fetishistic Earl of Gurney is succeeded by his mad son Jack who believes he is God.
An overlong satirical play with brilliant patches is hamfistedly filmed but boasts some bright performances. The hits are as random as the misses, however.
w Peter Barnes play Peter Barnes d Peter Medak ph Ken Hodges m John Cameron ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Peter O'Toole (Jack, 14th Earl of Gurney), Harry Andrews (13th Earl of Gurney), Arthur Lowe (Tucker), Alastair Sim (Bishop Lampton), Coral Browne (Lady Claire Gurney), Michael Bryant (Dr. Herder)

'This irritating and unsatisfying film is worth being irritated and unsatisfied by.' – Stanley Kauffmann
Peter O'Toole

'This is the dance of love!'

Rumba ★

US 1935 71m bw
Paramount (William Le Baron)
A society girl has a yen for a Broadway hoofer.
Streamlined star vehicle which attempts to recapture the success of Bolero (qv).
w Howard J. Green d Marion Gering ph Ted Tetzlaff
☆ Carole Lombard, George Raft, Margo, Lynne Overman, Monroe Owsley, Iris Adrian, Gail Patrick, Samuel S. Hinds, Jameson Thomas

Rumble Fish

US 1983 94m bw (with colour inserts)
Universal/Zoetrope (Fred Roos, Douglas Claybourne)

A Tulsa teenager survives local gang violence and while working in a petshop sees himself in the rumble fish, which fights even its own image in a glass.
Glum piece of self-absorption by a director going rapidly downhill.
wd Francis Ford Coppola novel S. E. Hinton ph Stephen H. Burum m Stewart Copeland pd Dean Tavoularis ed Barry Malkin ☆ Matt Dillon, Mickey Rourke, Diane Lane, Dennis Hopper, Diana Scarwid

Rumble in the Bronx

Hong Kong 1995 105m colour
Golden Harvest (Leonard K. C. Ho)

In New York, a Hong Kong cop helps a Chinese woman whose supermarket is threatened by a biker gang.
Moderate martial arts action with a few comic moments; the film is calculated to appeal to Western audiences, though Chan always seems at his best on his home ground.
w Edward Tang story Stanley Tong, Ma Mei-ping d Stanley Tong ph Jingle Ma m J. Peter Robinson ad Oliver Wong ed Peter Cheung
☆ Jackie Chan, Anita Mui, Bill Tung, Yip Fong-wa, Bai Cheun-wai

'An enjoyable comedy-actioner whose ooh-aah moments are mostly confined to the last few reels.' – Variety

'Based on a true rumor.'

Rumor Has It... ②

Germany/US/Australia 2005 97m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/Section Eight/Spring Creek (Paula Weinstein, Ben Cosgrove)

A woman discovers that her family was the inspiration for the book and the film The Graduate and her father may have been the young man seduced by her grandmother.
Uneasy romantic drama that never settles down into anything interesting.
w T.M. Griffin d Rob Reiner ph Peter Deming m Marc Shaiman pd Tom Sanders ed Robert Leighton
☆ Jennifer Aniston (Sarah Huttinger), Kevin Costner (Beau Burroughs), Shirley MacLaine (Katherine Richelieu), Mark Ruffalo (Jeff Daly), Richard Jenkins (Earl Huttinger), Christopher McDonald (Roger McManus), Mena Suvari (Annie Huttinger)

'From the start it misfires on all cylinders, plays with sterility and incest, and collapses.' – Philip French, Observer
† Screenwriter Ted Griffin was replaced as director in the early days of the shoot by Rob Reiner.

Run

US 1990 91m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Raymond Wagner)

An accident-prone law student is hunted by crooked cops and robbers when he accidentally causes the death of a gangster's son.
Inane thriller, with a less than sympathetic protagonist, that amounts to little more than a series of car chases and crashes.
w Dennis Shryack, Michael Blodgett d Geoff Burrowes ph Bruce Surtees m Phil Marshall pd John Willett ed Jack Hofstra
☆ Patrick Dempsey (Charlie Farrow), Kelly Preston (Karen Landers), Ken Pogue (Halloran), James Kidnie (Sammy), Sean McCann (Marv)

Run for Cover ★

US 1955 92m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount (William H. Pine)
An ex-convict becomes innocently involved in a train robbery.
Adequate star Western.
w William C. Thomas story Harriet Frank Jnr, Irving Ravetch d Nicholas Ray ph Daniel Fapp md Howard Jackson
☆ James Cagney, Viveca Lindfors, John Derek, Jean Hersholt, Grant Withers, Ernest Borgnine, Jack Lambert

Run for the Sun

US 1956 99m Technicolor Superscope
UA/Russ-Field (Harry Tatelman)
Crashlanding in the Mexican jungle, a disillusioned author and a lady journalist find themselves at the mercy of renegade Nazis.
Tame remake of The Most Dangerous Game with Count Zaroff replaced by Lord Haw-Haw. Sluggish plot development mars the action.
w Dudley Nichols, Roy Boulting d Roy Boulting ph Joseph LaShelle m Fred Steiner ☆ Richard Widmark, Jane Greer, Trevor Howard, Peter Van Eyck

A Run for Your Money ★

GB 1949 83m bw
Ealing (Leslie Norman)
Welsh Rugby supporters have various adventures on their one day in London.
Slight, bright, British chase comedy with characterizations as excellent as they are expected.
w Richard Hughes, Charles Frend, Leslie Norman d Charles Frend ph Douglas Slocombe m Ernest Irving ☆ Alec Guinness, Meredith Edwards, Moira Lister, Donald Houston, Hugh Griffith, Clive Morton, Joyce Grenfell

Run Lola Run ★★★

Germany 1998 80m colour
Columbia TriStar/Bavaria/German Independents/X Filme/ (Stefan Arndt)

original title: Lola Rennt
A girl has 20 minutes in which to save her boyfriend from death, after he loses a bag of money belonging to a drug dealer.
Exhilarating, speedy thriller which provides three alternative versions of events, depending on tiny incidents which precipitate different consequences; it's a witty demonstration of the vagaries of cause and effect and the unpredictability of life.
wd Tom Tykwer ph Frank Griebe m Tom Tykwer, Johnny Klimek, Reinhold Hei ad Alexander Manasse ed Mathilde Bonnefoy ☆ Franka Potente (Lola), Moritz Bleibtreu (Manni), Herbert Knaup (Lola's Father), Armin Rohde (Mr Schuster), Joachim Krol (Nortbert von Au), Nina Petri (Jutta Hansen), Heino Ferch (Ronnie)

'That Tykwer maintains our flow of empathy while demonstrating and exploiting the potential of interactive cinema manqué is, in itself, an awesome achievement.' – Richard Falcon, Sight and Sound

'This stylish, hugely likeable bit of adrenaline-pumped Euro-nonsense should shatter the illusions of those convinced that all subtitled fare is musty, wordy and dull.' – Caroline Westbrook, Empire

'A Rebel's Hate ... A Woman's Undying Love!'

Run of the Arrow ★

US 1957 85m Technicolor RKOscope
Global (Samuel Fuller)

An ex-Civil War soldier is captured by Indians and accepted by them, but sickened by their violence.
Bloody little Western in the accustomed Fuller vein.
wd Samuel Fuller ph Joseph Biroc m Victor Young ad Albert S.D'Agostino, Jack Okey ed Gene Fowler Jnr
☆ Rod Steiger (O'Meara), Sarita Montiel (Yellow Mocassin), Charles Bronson (Blue Buffalo), Tim McCoy (Gen Allen), Ralph Meeker (Lt Driscoll), Jay C. Flippen (Walking Coyote)

'Just an ordinary cavalry-Indian film, conspicuous for a lot of raw blood-letting.' – Bosley Crowther

'Sometimes, the most daring step to freedom is out the front door.'

The Run of the Country

GB/Ireland 1995 108m Technicolor Panavision
Rank/Castle Rock/One Two Nine (Peter Yates, Ruth Boswell)

An Irish policeman in a small town near the border with Northern Ireland has problems with his teenage son.
A domestic drama that skirts round the Irish troubles but uses them as a backdrop to an unilluminating account of young love and its aftermath.
w Shane Connaughton novel Shane Connaughton d Peter Yates ph Mike Southon m Cynthia Millar pd Mark Geraghty ed Paul Hodgson
☆ Albert Finney, Matt Keeslar, Victoria Smurfit, Anthony Brophy, David Kelly, Dearbhla Molloy

'A bog-standard rite-of-passage film.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

A Run on Gold: see Midas Run

Run Silent Run Deep ★

US 1958 93m bw
UA/Hecht-Hill-Lancaster (William Schorr)

Antagonisms flare up between the officers of a US submarine in Tokyo Bay during World War II Competent, unsurprising war actioner trading on its stars.
w John Gay d Robert Wise ph Russell Harlan m Franz Waxman
☆ Clark Gable, Burt Lancaster, Jack Warden, Brad Dexter, Nick Cravat, Joe Maross, H. M. Wynant

'Mostly good sea fights. Otherwise it's damn the torpedoes, half speed ahead.' – Time

Run Wild, Run Free ★

GB 1969 98m Technicolor
Columbia/Irving Allen (John Danischewsky)

A mute boy living on Dartmoor gains self-confidence through the love of animals.
Rather vaguely developed family film with agreeable sequences.
w David Rook novel The White Colt by David Rook d Richard C. Sarafian ph Wilkie Cooper m David Whitaker
☆ John Mills, Sylvia Syms, Mark Lester, Bernard Miles, Gordon Jackson, Fiona Fullerton

Runang Rak Noi Nid Mahasan: see Last Life in the Universe

The Runaround ★

US 1946 100m bw
Universal (Joseph Gershenson)
Two rival detectives are hired to find a missing heiress.
Peripatetic comedy on the lines of It Happened One Night; unexpectedly enjoyable.
w Arthur T. Horman, Sam Hellman d Charles Lamont ph George Robinson m Frank Skinner ad Robert Clatworthy, Jack Otterson ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Rod Cameron, Broderick Crawford, Ella

Raines, Samuel S. Hinds, Frank McHugh, George Cleveland

Runaway

US 1984 100m Metrocolor Panavision
Tri-Star/Michael Crichton (Michael Rachmil)

An electronics wizard sets a half-perfected robot on the rampage.
Simple-minded comedy-melodrama which feels as though it ought to have been played entirely for laughs.
wd Michael Crichton ph John A. Alonzo m Jerry Goldsmith pd Douglas Higgins ed Glenn Farr ☆ Tom Selleck, Cynthia Rhodes, Gene L. Simmons, Kirstie Alley, Stan Shaw

'Catch her if you can.'

Runaway Bride ★

US 1999 116m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Touchstone/Interscope/Lakeshore (Ted Field, Tom Rosenberg, Scott Kroopf, Robert Cort)

A sacked newspaper columnist goes to find the thrice-bolting bride who cost him his job.
A romantic comedy in search of a better script; this one manages to make both of its protagonists unsympathetic.
w Josann McGibbon, Sara Parriott d Garry Marshall ph Stuart Dryburgh m James Newton Howard pd Mark Friedberg ed Bruce Green cos Albert Wolsky
☆ Julia Roberts (Maggie Carpenter), Richard Gere (Ike Graham), Joan Cusack (Peggy Flemming), Hector Elizondo (Fisher), Rita Wilson (Ellie), Paul Dooley (Walter), Christopher Meloni (Bob Kelly), Donal Logue (Brian Norris)
'Director Garry Marshall specialises in this kind of schmaltz. This time, though, the trademark warm glow only highlights the script's awesome deficiences.' – Andrew O'Hagan, Daily Telegraph
'An ultracommercial mainstream romantic comedy that delivers all the laughs and smiles it intends to.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† The film grossed more than $155m at the US box-office.

The Runaway Bus ★

GB 1954 78m bw
Eros/Conquest-Guest (Val Guest)

Passengers at London Airport are fogbound, and a relief bus driver takes some of them to Blackbushe. Incognito among them are robbers and detectives...
Vaguely plotted variation on The Ghost Train, with fair production, a good smattering of jokes, and a hilarious view of a great airport in its earlier days.
wd Val Guest ph Stan Pavey m Ronald Binge ☆ Frankie Howerd, Margaret Rutherford, George Coulouris, Petula Clark, Terence Alexander, Toke Townley, Belinda Lee

Runaway Daughter: see Red Salute

'Trials are too important to be decided by juries.'

Runaway Jury ★ (5)

US 2003 127m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/New Regency (Arnon Milchan, Gary Fleder, Christopher Mankiewicz)

An unscrupulous jury consultant is determined to get the 'not guilty' verdict that his client wants.
Moderately enjoyable, if implausible, melodrama of jury tampering.
w Brian Koppelman, David Levien, Rick Cleveland, Matthew Chapman novel John Grisham d Gary Fleder ph Robert Elswit m Christopher Young pd Nelson Coates ed William Steinkamp
☆ John Cusack (Nick Easter), Gene Hackman (Rankin Fitch), Dustin Hoffman (Wendall Rohr), Rachel Weisz (Marlee), Bruce Davison (Durwood Cable), Bruce McGill (Judge Harkin), Jeremy Piven (Lawrence Green), Nick Searcy (Doyle), Jennifer Beals (Vanessa Lembeck)
'It rattles along efficiently but it feels belated and contrived.' – Sean Macaulay, Times
'The closest cinematic approximation to a beach novel that money and skill can buy.' – Ty Burr, Boston Globe

'Once it starts, nothing can stop it!'

Runaway Train ★

US 1985 111m Rank Colour
Cannon/Northbrook (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)

Prison breakers escape into the Alaskan wilderness and commandeer a train which can't stop.
Violent, foul-mouthed melodrama with no interest beyond breathtaking photography of the speeding train. Its general pretentiousness, perhaps, is also something to experience.
w Djordje Milicevic, Paul Zindel, Edward Bunker, from screenplay by Akira Kurosawa d Andrei Konchalovsky ph Alan Hume
m Trevor Jones pd Stephen Marsh
☆ Jon Voight, Eric Roberts, Rebecca DeMornay, Kyle T. Heffner
'The most exciting epic since The Road Warrior.' – Variety
'Nervy, exciting violence; immaculate, metallic camerawork; unstoppable pace.' – Sight and Sound
♗ Jon Voight; Eric Roberts (supporting actor); editing

The Rundown ★ (6)

US 2003 104m DeLuxe
Universal/Columbia/WWE/Strike/IM3 (Kevin Misher, Marc Abraham, Karen Glasser)

GB title: Welcome to the Jungle
Sent to Brazil to bring back the boss's son, a retrieval expert for the Los Angeles Mob encounters a ruthless mine owner who is searching for a priceless antique.
A vehicle intended as an easy ride for a new action star; it runs smoothly enough and The Rock charms when he is not beating up the opposition.
w R.J. Stewart, James Vanderbilt d Peter Berg ph Tobias Schliessler m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Tom Duffield ed Richard Pearson
☆ The Rock (Beck), Seann William Scott (Travis), Rosario Dawson (Mariana), Christopher Walken (Hatcher), Ewen Bremner (Declan), Jon Gries (Harvey), William Lucking (Walker), Stuart Wilson (Swenson)
'Harmless escapism at its best.' – Daily Mirror

The Runner

Iran 1984 94m colour
Electric/Studio of the Voice and Portrait of the Islamic Revolution of Iran (Fatholah Dalili) original title: Dawandeh

A 13-year-old orphan makes his living on the streets of a Gulf port while learning to outdistance his peers.
Unsparing but repetitious account of childhood poverty.
w Amir Naderi, Behruz Gharibpur d Amir Naderi ph Firuz Malekzadeh pd Gholam Reza Ramezani ed Bahram Beyza'i ☆ Majid Nirumand, Musa Torkizadeh, A. Gholamzadeh, Reza Ramezani

The Runner Stumbles

US 1979 110m CFI color
Melvin Simon Productions (Stanley Kramer)

In the mid-twenties, a Catholic priest is accused of the murder of a nun for whom he had felt a strong romantic attraction.
Musty exhumation of a genuine case which has little dramatic interest and even less wider significance. Good acting does not atone.
w Milan Stiff play Milan Stiff d Stanley Kramer ph Laszlo Kovacs m Ernest Gold pd Alfred Sweeney Jnr ☆ Dick Van Dyke, Kathleen Quinlan, Maureen Stapleton, Ray Bolger, Tammy Grimes, Beau Bridges
'The reanimated corpse of middlebrow Hollywood pretension ... funereal pacing, portentous low angles and symbolic overkill.' – Paul Taylor, MFB

Runners

GB 1983 106m colour
Goldcrest (Barry Hanson)

Distraught parents try to trace their missing children in London.
Heavy-going realistic drama with apparent inner meanings which are not brought to the surface.
w Stephen Poliakoff d Charles Sturridge ph Howard Atherton m George Fenton pd Arnold Chapkis ☆ James Fox, Kate Hardie, Jane Asher, Eileen O'Brien, Ruti Simon

Running

Canada 1979 103m colour
Universal (Robert Cooper, Ronald Cohen)

A man in his 30s who has failed in his work and marriage decides that he can succeed as an Olympic marathon runner.
Slight drama with rather too much footage of our hero running through city streets to the accompaniment of syrupy music to maintain any interest in its conventional and sentimental narrative.
wd Steven Hilliard Stern ph Laszlo George m André Gagnon pd Roy Forge Smith ed Kurt Kirschler
☆ Michael Douglas, Susan Anspach, Lawrence Dane, Eugene Levy, Charles Shamata, Philip Akin, Jim McKay

Running Brave

US 1983 106m colour
ITC/Englander Productions

A young Sioux from the reservation faces the pressures of the white world and becomes an Olympic runner.
The terrible punning title is the best thing in this very predictable piece of do-goodery, which would just about have passed muster as a TV movie.
w Henry Bean, Shirl Hendryx d D. S. Everett ph François Protat m Mike Post pd Carol Spier ed Tony Lower, Earle Herden
☆ Robby Benson, Pat Hingle, Claudia Cron, Jeff McCracken
'This is in essence a propaganda film for the American way, masked as a piece of liberal sentiment, and I distrust it thoroughly.' – Observer

Running Cool

US 1993 106m colour
Paramount (Beverly Sebastian)

Two bikers go to help a wildlife-loving friend in a small South Carolina town, whose swampland is threatened by the reckless son of a ruthless developer.
Overlong, cliché-ridden action movie with an environmental message, providing you can accept that 400 bikers improve an environment.
w Ferd & Beverly Sebastian d Ferd Sebastian ph Ferd Sebastian m Robert Etoll ed Ralph Clemente ☆ Andrew Divoff, Tracy Sebastian, Dedee Pfeiffer, James Gammon, Paul Gleason, Arlen Dean Snyder, Bubba Baker

'Time is running out for him!'

The Running Man ★

GB 1963 103m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Peet (Carol Reed, John R. Sloan)

A private airline pilot fakes an accident and disappears, leaving his wife to collect the insurance and meet him in Spain.
Flabby, expensive suspenser; both plot and character take a back seat to scenic views.
w John Mortimer novel The Ballad of the Running Man by Shelley Smith d Carol Reed ph Robert Krasker m William Alwyn
☆ Laurence Harvey, Alan Bates, Lee Remick, Felix Aylmer, Eleanor Summerfield, Allan Cuthbertson
'There seems to be something about the panoramic screen that seduces film-makers into filling it with irrelevant local colour and drawing the whole proceedings out to a length that matches its width.' – Brenda Davies

The Running Man

US 1987 101m colour
Rank/Braveworld (Tim Zinnemann, George Linder)

In the future, a convict, framed on a murder charge, takes part in a TV game show in which he is hunted through Los Angeles by expert killers.
Fast-moving action movie, full of violence and some dubious jokes.
w Steven E. de Souza novel Stephen King d Paul Michael Glaser ph Thomas Del Ruth m Harold Faltermeyer pd Jack T. Collis ed Mark Roy Warner, Edward A. Warschilka, John Wright
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger, Maria Conchita Alonso, Yaphet Kotto, Jim Brown, Jesse Ventura, Erland Van Lidth, Marvin J. McIntyre, Mick Fleetwood, Richard Dawson

Running on Empty

US 1988 116m Technicolor
Warner/Lorimar/Double Play (Amy Robinson, Griffin Dunne)

A teenager, whose parents are long-time political activists on the run from the FBI, tries to live his own life as a budding musician.
Mundane family drama that fails to illuminate the problems it describes.
w Naomi Foner d Sidney Lumet ph Gerry Fisher m Tony Mottola pd Philip Rosenberg ed Andre Mondshein
☆ Christine Lahti, River Phoenix, Judd Hirsch, Jonas Abry, Martha Plimpton, Ed Crowley, L. M. Kit Carson, Steven Hill, Augusta Dabney, David Margulies
♗ best original screenplay; River Phoenix

Running Out of Time ★

Hong Kong 1999 92m colour
Win's Entertainment/Milky Way Image (Johnnie To)

original title: Aau Chin

A terminally-ill thief involves a workaholic cop in his plans to ruin a ruthless gangster.
Playful thriller of a cat and mouse game, slickly made with comic as well as violent moments.
w Julien Carbon, Laurent Courtiaud, Yau Nai Hoi d Johnnie To ph Cheng Siu Keung m Raymond Wong ad Jerome Fung ed Chang Chi Wai sp Mastersfx
☆ Andy Lau (Cheung), Lau Ching Wan (Inspector Ho Sheung-sang), Yoyo Mung (Leung Yuen Ting), Ruby Wong (Head of Interpol), Hui Shiu Hung (Chief Inspector Wong), Lam Suet (Gangster), Waise Lee (Baldy)

Running Scared

GB 1972 98m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Wigan/Hemmings/O'Toole (Gareth Wigan)

A university student is generally condemned for allowing his friend to commit suicide; eventually he takes his own life.
Depressing and rather pointless exercise in death wish complicated by a doomed love affair.
w Clive Exton, David Hemmings novel Gregory MacDonald d David Hemmings ph Ernest Day m Michael J. Lewis
☆ Robert Powell, Gayle Hunnicutt, Barry Morse, Stephanie Bidmead, Edward Underdown, Maxine Audley, Georgia Brown

Running Scared

US 1986 106m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM-UA/Turman-Foster (Peter Hyams)

Accident-prone Chicago cops nevertheless succeed in getting their man.
Crime comedy-melodrama of a type seen far too often before.
w Gary DeVore, Jimmy Huston d Peter Hyams ph Peter Hyams m Rod Temperton pd Albert Brenner
☆ Gregory Hines, Billy Crystal, Steven Bauer, Joe Pantoliano, Tracy Reed, Darlanne Fluegel

'Ready. Aim. Run.'

Running Scared

Germany/US 2006 122m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Media 8/True Grit/VIP/MDP (Michael Pierce, Brett Ratner, Sammy Lee)

A minor hoodlum attempts to retrieve an incriminating gun stolen by a young boy.
Frenetic, foul-mouthed descent into a sleazy underworld of mobsters, whores, pimps, crooked police and murderous paedophiles, in which every conversation is shrieked rather than spoken and few end without violence.
wd Wayne Kramer ph James Whitaker m Mark Isham pd Toby Corbett ed Arthur Coburn
☆ Paul Walker (Joey Gazelle), Cameron Bright (Oleg Yugorsky), Vera Farmiga (Teresa Gazelle), Karel Roden (Anzor Yugorsky), Johnny Messner (Tommy 'Tombs' Perello), Ivana Milicevic (Mila Yugorsky), Chazz Palminteri (Detective Rydell)

'Even a talented lead couldn't save Mr. Kramer from himself. As a writer, he may have fashioned a genre-busting screenplay, one that has its postmodern cake and eats it, too, but as a director he proves himself as blood simple, if generally less adept, as any Hollywood hire.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

Running With Scissors ④

US 2006 121m
Sony/TriStar/Plan B (Ryan Murphy, Dede Gardner, Brad Pitt, Brad Grey)

In young Augusten Burrough's dysfunctional teenage years, his alcoholic father and unstable mother separate, and he is shunted off to the chaotic home of his mother's unethical psychiatrist.
Adapted from a sprightly 'misery memoir' with a camp teenager surveying bizarre human eccentricities and the wreckage of human relationships all around him. The cast is top-notch, but director Murphy, whose taste for visual garishness certainly complements the story's mood, fails to catch Augusten's trenchant, bitchy voice. The film leaves in its wake a sense of opportunities wasted.
wd Ryan Murphy novel/memoir Augusten Burroughs ph Christopher Baffa m James S. Levine pd Richard Sherman ad Lorin Flemming ed Byron Smith
☆ Annette Bening (Deirdre Burroughs), Brian Cox (Dr. Finch), Joseph Fiennes (Neil Bookman), Evan Rachel Wood (Natalie Finch), Alec Baldwin (Norman Burroughs), Jill Clayburgh (Agnes Finch), Joseph Cross (Augusten Burroughs), Gwyneth Paltrow (Hope Finch)

'The royally screwed-up adolescence of Augusten Burroughs has made it to the big screen with several nips, tucks and a noticeably duller edge.' – Justin Chang, Variety
'A reasonable facsimile of a perversely funny book whose odd characters are given life by a terrific cast.' – Jack Mathews, New York Daily News

Rupan Sansei: Kariosutoro No Shiro: see The Castle of Cagliostro

La Rupture ★

Belgium/France/Italy 1970 125m Eastmancolor Contemporary/Films de la Boetie (André Genoves)

aka: The Breakup

A mother who wants custody of her young son after she divorces her drug-addicted husband finds herself in conflict with her ruthless and powerful father-in-law.
Enjoyable thriller in which innocence triumphs over experience.
wd Claude Chabrol novel Charlotte Armstrong ph Jean Rabier m Pierre Jansen ☆ Stéphane Audran, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Michel Bouquet, Jean-Claude Drouot, Annie Cordy, Jean Carmet, Michel Duchaussoy, Catherine Rouvel

'The director, who can indubitably be very subtle if he chooses, is pleased this time to wallow in the obvious, but to do so with a fine cinematic judgement.' – Gordon Gow, Films and Filming

'How far do they go before they've gone too far?'

Rush ★

US 1992 120m DeLuxe Panavision
MGM/Zanuck (Richard D. Zanuck)

In the 1970s two undercover narcotics cops become drug addicts.
Unrelenting, though skilfully made, tale of degradation and despair.
w Pete Dexter book Kim Wozencraft d Lili Fini Zanuck ph Kenneth MacMillan m Eric Clapton pd Paul Sylbert ed Mark Warner ☆ Jason Patric, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Sam Elliott, Max Perlich, Gregg Allman, Tony Frank

'Downbeat nature of this addiction saga may be too intense and draining for general audiences, but resounding implications of the subject are bound to touch a nerve.' – Variety

'The Fastest Hands in the East versus the Biggest Mouth in the West.'

Rush Hour ★

US 1998 98m DeLuxe
New Line (Arthur Sarkissian, Roger Birnbaum, Jonathan Glickman)

A Chinese detective joins a disgraced LA cop in tracking down a master criminal.
A movie designed to package Chan for US audiences, in which it succeeds, providing some sharply written exchanges along with his usual blend of comedy, fights and extraordinary stunts.
w Jim Kouf, Ross Lamanna d Brett Ratner ph Adam Greenberg m Lalo Schifrin pd Robb Wilson King ed Mark Helfrich
☆ Jackie Chan, Chris Tucker, Tom Wilkinson, Elizabeth Peña, Philip Baker Hall, Mark Rolston, Tzi Ma, Rex Linn, Ken Leung, Chris Penn, Julia Hsu

'A frankly formulaic but raucously entertaining action comedy.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

'Get Ready For A Second Rush!'

Rush Hour 2 ★

US 2001 90m DeLuxe Panavision
Entertainment/New Line (Arthur Sarkissian, Roger Birnbaum, Jay Stern, Jonathan Glickman)

In Hong Kong, an American and a Chinese cop go after a gangster who has bombed the US consulate.
Amiable sequel that makes little demands on its audience, other than lie back and enjoy the fights and racial bickering between the two leads.
w Jeff Nathanson d Brett Ratner ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Lalo Schifrin pd Terence Marsh ed Mark Helfrich
☆ Jackie Chan (Lee), Chris Tucker (Carter), John Lone (Ricky Tan), Zhang Ziyi (Hu Li), Roselyn Sanchez (Isabella), Harris Yulin (Agent Sterling), Alan King (Steven Reign), Kenneth Tsang (Captain Chin)

'The very model of the limber, transnational Hollywood action comedy.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

'All's fair when love is war.'

Rushmore ★

US 1998 93m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/American Empirical (Barry Mendel, Paul Schiff)

A precocious 15-year-old student and a wealthy businessman compete for the attentions of a school teacher.
Quirky comedy of adolescent ambition and adult resignation that has its moments, but loses its way long before the end.
w Wes Anderson, Owen Wilson d Wes Anderson ph Robert Yeoman m Mark Mothersbaugh pd David Wasco ed David Moritz
☆ Jason Schwartzman (Max Fischer), Bill Murray (Herman Blume), Olivia Williams (Rosemary Cross), Seymour Cassel (Bert Fischer), Brian Cox (Dr Guggenheim), Mason Gamble (Dirk Calloway), Sara Tanaka (Margaret Yang), Stephen McCole (Magnus Buchan), Ronnie McCawley (Ronny Blume), Keith McCawley (Donny Blume), Connie Nielsen (Mrs Calloway), Kim Terry (Mrs Blume)

'A genre-defying marvel, switching between outrageous humour and genuine pathos at a moment's notice.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Made to be treasured: it feels like an immediate American classic.' – Richard Kelly, Sight and Sound

The Russia House ★

US 1990 123m Technicolor
UIP/Pathé Entertainment (Paul Maslansky, Fred Schepisi)

A publisher, acting as a go-between for western intelligence and a Soviet scientist, finds life complicated by love.
Intelligent but sluggish thriller with few surprises.
w Tom Stoppard novel John Le Carré d Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Jerry Goldsmith pd Richard MacDonald ad Roger Cain ed Peter Honess
☆ Sean Connery, Michelle Pfeiffer, Roy Scheider, James Fox, John Mahoney, Michael Kitchen, J. T. Walsh, Ken Russell, David Threlfall, Klaus Maria Brandauer

'An absorbing but muted yarn of romance and political intrigue.' – Variety

'The first live-action one-take feature film ever made.'

Russian Ark ★★

Russia/Germany 2002 99m colour
Artificial Eye/Hermitage Bridge/Egoli Tossell (Andrei Deriabin, Jens Meurer, Karsten Stoter)

An unseen ghost and a French diplomat from the 19th century wander through time around the Hermitage gallery in St Petersburg, encountering famous figures from the past and present and examining the paintings.
Technically, a virtuoso performance as the video camera glides through 33 rooms, eavesdropping on history and taking in more than 2,000 actors in period costumes, including a ballroom scene with full orchestra and the floor crowded with dancers – all filmed in one long take. There is a dreamlike quality to the action, though it can be difficult to discover precisely what is happening; in the end, it resembles a superlative son et lumière, a tourist's eye view of pre-revolutionary Russian history.
w Anatoly Nikiforov, Alexander Sokurov, Boris Khaimsky, Svetlana Proskurina d Alexander Sokurov ph TilmanButtner m Sergei Yevtushenko pd Yelena Zhukova, Natalia Kochergina ed Sergey Ivanov ☆ Sergei Dreiden (The Marquis), Maria Kuznetsova (Catherine the Great), Leonid Mozgovoy (Spy), David Giorgobiani (Orbeli), Alexander Chaban (Boris Piotrovsky), Maxim Sergeyev (Peter the Great)

'By the time of the closing shot – twists of fog rising like spectres from a leaden sea – even the most stubborn viewer will be lying back in a state of happy hypnosis.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker
'A magnificent conjuring act, an eerie historical mirage evoked in a single sweeping wave of the hand.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
'As pageant it's impressive, but as drama it's lightweight, and the trance one falls into may not be entirely inspired by awe.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

† The DVD release includes a documentary on the making of the film and a short film by Sokurov.

R

Russian Roulette

US 1975 90m Eastmancolor
ITC/Elliott Kastner/Bulldog

Real and fake secret agents shoot it out when the Russian premier is about to visit Vancouver.

Fast-moving but impossible to follow location thriller which resolves itself into a series of chases.

w Tom Ardies, Stanley Mann, Arnold Margolin novel Kosygin is Coming by Tom Ardies d Lou Lombardo ph Brian West m Michael J. Lewis

☆ George Segal, Gordon Jackson, Denholm Elliott, Cristina Raines, Richard Romanus, Louise Fletcher, Nigel Stock

'A stale, mechanical espionage caper that wastes its star.' – Kevin Thomas

'Why the crazy title? If we told you, you'd only laugh!'

The Russians Are Coming, The Russians Are Coming ★

US 1966 126m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch (Norman Jewison)

Russian submariners make a forced landing on a Connecticut holiday island and cause panic.

'Daring' cold war comedy which turns out to be of the most elementary and protracted nature, saved from boredom only by a few cameos.

w William Rose novel The Off-Islanders by Nathaniel Benchley d Norman Jewison ph Joseph Biroc m Johnny Mandel

☆ Carl Reiner, Eva Marie Saint, Alan Arkin, John Phillip Law, Paul Ford, Tessie O'Shea, Brian Keith, Jonathan Winters, Theodore Bikel, Ben Blue

'Rather amiable, though the film, like its title, seems to repeat most things twice.' – Sight and Sound

best picture; William Rose; Alan Arkin

Russicum

Italy 1987 112m colour Cinemascope
Columbia TriStar/TigerCinematographica/RAI/Mario Cecchi Gori, Vittorio Cecchi Gori

Investigating the death of an American nun in Rome, a diplomat discovers a plot to prevent the Pope visiting Russia.

Dull, lifeless thriller in which it becomes difficult to discover who is doing what to whom.

w Valerio Riva, Robert Balchus, Pasquale Squitieri novel I Mertedi del Diavolo by Enzo Russo d Pasquale Squitieri ph Giuseppe Tinelli m Renato Serio ad Emilio Baldelli ed Mauro Bonanni

☆ F. Murray Abraham, Treat Williams, Danny Aiello, Rita Rusic, Luigi Montini, Robert Balchus, Nigel Court, Leopoldo Mastelloni, Rossano Brazzi

'Clearly destined to drop straight into the dustiest oubliette in film history.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Rustler's Rhapsody ★

US 1985 88m Metrocolor Panavision
Paramount/Impala/Tesauro (David Giler, Walter Hill)

A 'B' Western hero of 1940s movies copes with a more modern and colourful world where life is no longer a matter of simple black and white.

An affectionate parody of cowboy clichés, though the joke begins to wear thin before the final shoot-out.

wd Hugh Wilson ph José Luis Alcaine m Steve Dorff pd Gil Parrondo ed John Victor Smith

☆ Tom Berenger, G. W. Bailey, Marilu Henner, Fernando Rey, Andy Griffith, Sela Ward

'Love betrayed them – power destroyed them!'

Ruthless ★

US 1948 104m bw
Eagle Lion/Arthur S. Lyons

A conniver breaks several lives on his way to the top.

Rich melodrama with some entertaining moments.

w S. K. Lauren, Gordon Kahn novel Prelude to Night by Dayton Stoddert d Edgar G. Ulmer ph Bert Glennon m Werner Janssen

☆ Zachary Scott, Sydney Greenstreet, Diana Lynn, Louis Hayward, Martha Vickers, Lucille Bremer, Edith Barrett, Raymond Burr, Dennis Hoey

'Beginning pictures at the end
Is, I'm afraid, the modern trend.
But I'd find Ruthless much more winning
If it could end at the beginning.' – C. A. Lejeune

Ruthless People ★

US 1986 93m DeLuxe
Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners II/Wagner-Lancaster

Comic kidnappers find they have on their hands a troublesome woman whose husband won't pay for her return.

Raucous comedy which packs a few good laughs before wearing out its welcome.

w Dale Launer d Jim Abrahams, David and Jerry Zucker ph Jan DeBont m Michel Colombier

☆ Danny DeVito, Bette Midler, Judge Reinhold, Helen Slater, Anita Morris, Bill Pullman

Ryan's Daughter ★★

GB 1970 206m Metrocolor Panavision 70
MGM/Faraway (Anthony Havelock-Allan)

1916 Ireland: a village schoolmaster's wife falls for a British officer.

A modestly effective pastoral romantic melodrama, stretched on the rack of its director's meticulous film-making technique and unnecessarily big budget. A beautiful, impressive, well-staged and well-acted film but not really four hours' worth of drama.

w Robert Bolt d David Lean ph Frederick A. Young m Maurice Jarre pd Stephen Grimes (who created an entire village)

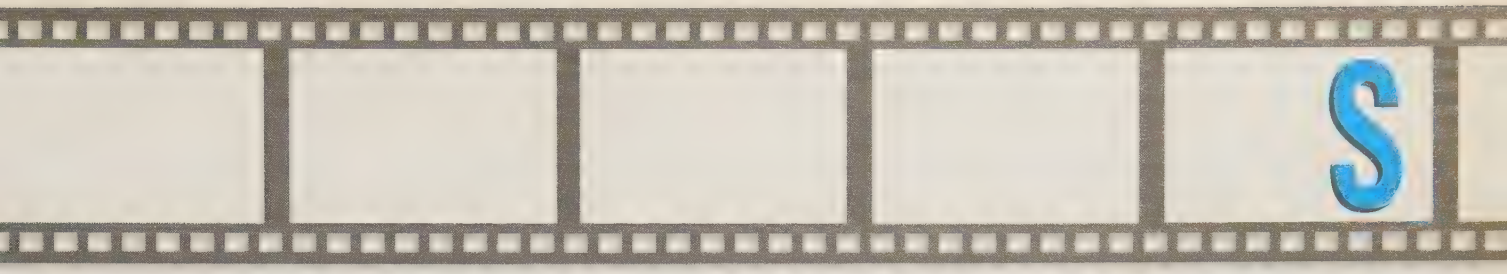
☆ Sarah Miles, Robert Mitchum, Chris Jones, John Mills, Trevor Howard, Leo McKern

'Instead of looking like the money it cost to make, the film feels like the time it took to shoot.' – Alexander Walker

'Gush made repectable by millions of dollars tastefully wasted.' – Pauline Kael

Frederick A. Young; John Mills

Sarah Miles



S Club Seeing Double

GB/Spain 2003 91m colour
Columbia TriStar
aka: Seeing Double

SER ★

USSR 1989 75m colour
Artificial Eye/Mosfilm (Victor Trakhtenberg)
aka: Freedom is Paradise

A boy escapes from reform school to find his father who is also a prisoner.
Simple, understated and gripping account of the dispossessed.
wd Sergei Bodrov ph Yuri Skirtladze m Alexander Raskatov pd Velery Kostrin ed Valentina Kulagina ☆ Volodya Kozyrev, Alexander Bureyev, Svetlana Gaitan, Vitautas Tomkus

'It may not be too great a hope to see in its spare approach a hitherto under-explored way forward for Russian, or even Soviet, cinema.' – Verina Glaessner, MFB

S.F.W. ★

US 1994 96m Eastmancolor
Rank/A&M/Propaganda (Dale Pollock)

A fast-food chef becomes a celebrity because of his cool reaction to surviving being taken hostage by a terrorist group: 'So fucking what?'
Sharp and cynical drama of empty lives and the media that consume them.
w Danny Rubin, Jefery Levy d Jefery Levy ph Peter Deming m Graeme Revell pd Eve Cauley ed Lauren Zuckerman
☆ Stephen Dorff, Reese Witherspoon, Jake Busey, Joey Lauren Adams, Pamela Gidley, David Barry Gray

'Levy's message creaks with typical Generation X griping. But as contrived as it may be, he hits many of the right buttons.' – Empire

S.I.S. – Extreme Justice: see Extreme Justice

SLC Punk!

US/Australia 1999 98m colour
Panavision
Columbia TriStar/Beyond/Blue Tulip (Sam Maydew, Peter Ward)

In Salt Lake City, a clever student gives up being a punk to go to Harvard.
Aimless movie, directed in a frenetic style, of failed rebellion and middle-class conformity, with an unsympathetic protagonist who won't stop talking.
wd James Merendino ph Greg Littlewood pd Charlotte Malmloff ed Esther P. Russel
☆ Matthew Lillard (Stevo), Michael Goorjian (Bob), Annabeth Gish (Trish), Jennifer Lien (Sandy), Christopher McDonald (Father), Devon Sawa (Sean), Jason Segel (Mike), Summer Phoenix (Brandy), James Duval (John the Mod), Til Schweiger (Mark), Adam Pascal (Eddie), Chiara Barzini (Jennifer), Kevin Breznahan (Chris)

'Thematically barren, visually bland and stylistically bland, SLC Punk! is, no bones about it, a bad movie.' – Rupert Laight, Film Review

S.O.B.

US 1981 121m Metrocolor Panavision
Lorimar/Geoffrey (Blake Edwards, Tony Adams)

A Hollywood director goes bananas when his much-touted epic is a fiasco, and decides to remake it as a sex picture.
Tasteless, vulgar and unfunny comedy, with everybody shouting at once and most of the jokes about vomiting, farting and funerals. Julie Andrews, who is made to bare her breasts, could surely use it as grounds for divorce.
wd Blake Edwards ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Henry Mancini
☆ Julie Andrews, Richard Mulligan, Robert Preston, William Holden, Robert Vaughn, Robert Webber, Larry Hagman, Shelley Winters, Marisa Berenson, Loretta Swit, Craig Stevens, Robert Loggia

'One feels that this in-house comedy was in some way intended as a purge and not an entertainment.' – John Pym, MFB
'At best the humour is cheap and at worst unnecessarily vulgar.' – Margaret Hinxman, Daily Mail

† S.O.B., it seems, stands no longer for Son of a Bitch but for Standard Operational Bullshit.

SOS Iceberg ★

US 1933 117m bw
Universal

A young scientist seeks to recover the records of the lost Wegener expedition to the Arctic.
At the time this was a spectacular semi-documentary, but it did no business.
w Tom Reed, Edwin H. Knopf d Tay Garnett
☆ Rod la Rocque, Leni Riefenstahl, Sepp Rist, Gibson Gowland

† The production was begun in Berlin and taken over by Universal when the producers ran out of money.

SOS Pacific ★

GB 1959 91m bw
Rank/Sydney Box (John Nasht, Patrick Filmer-Sankey)

Survivors of a Pacific plane crash await rescue on a small island which is the site of an imminent H-bomb test.
Satisfactory open-air thick ear with strongly deployed types and a suspense climax.
w Robert Westerby d Guy Green ph Wilkie Cooper m Georges Auric
☆ Eddie Constantine, Pier Angeli, John Gregson, Richard Attenborough, Eva Bartok, Clifford Evans, Jean Anderson, Cec Linder

SPL

Hong Kong 2005 92m colour
Abba Movies/1618 Action (Carl Chang)
aka: Sha Po Lang

A terminally-ill police inspector and his team are prepared to murder and concoct evidence in order to bring to justice a powerful and violent gangster.
Brutal action thriller with some terrific fight sequences strung on a thin, derivative and unlikely narrative.
w Szeto Kam-yuen, Ng Wai-lun d Wilson Yip ph Lam Wah-chuen m Chan Kwong-wing pd Kenneth Mak ed Chueng Ka-fai action director Donnie Yen
☆ Donnie Yen (Ma), Sammo Hung (Po), Simon Yam (Chan), Wu Jing (Jet), Liu Kai-chi, Danny Summer, Ken Chang

'An all-star smackdown that will get fans salivating.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

S.W.9: see South West Nine

S1m0ne

US 2002 117m DeLuxe Panavision
Entertainment/New Line (Andrew Niccol)

aka: Simone

A washed-up film director finds himself overwhelmed by his own secret creation, a computer-generated actress who becomes a superstar.
A variation on the Frankenstein myth, about a man pursued by a monster he has made: we have to take on trust Simone's qualities as what we see on screen has little star appeal, but it has some fun at Hollywood's self-absorption and fear of the future.
wd Andrew Niccol ph Edward Lachman m Carter Burwell pd Jan Roelfs ed Paul Rubell
☆ Al Pacino (Viktor Taransky), Catherine Keener (Elaine Christian), Pruitt Taylor Vince (Max Sayer), Jay Mohr (Hal Sinclair), Jason Schwartzman (Milton), Stanley Anderson (Frank Brand), Evan Rachel Wood (Lainey Christian), Daniel Von Bargen (Chief Detective), Rachel Roberts (Simone)

'Such a tedious Hollywood farce, so unpleasantly glib and relentlessly shallow, that Pacino's excessive performance is not even the worst thing about it.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'Funny, smart, improbably successful satire on contemporary celebrity obsessions, the waning summer's most delirious comedy.' – Richard Shickel, Time

Saadia

US 1953 87m Technicolor
MGM (Albert Lewin)

A young French doctor in the Sahara has trouble with the local witch doctor.
Pretentious and ill-considered multi-national romance from the champion of Omar's Rubaiyat.
wd Albert Lewin novel Echec au Destin by Francis D'Autheville ph Christopher Challis m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Cornel Wilde, Mel Ferrer, Rita Gam, Michel Simon, Wanda Rotha, Cyril Cusack, Marcel Poncin, Peter Bull

Sabata (dubbed) ★

Italy 1969 106m Technicolor
Techniscope
UA/PEA/Delphos (Alberto Grimaldi)

original title: Ehi, Amico ... C'e Sabata, Hai Chiuso

An inventive bounty hunter attempts to find the brains behind a bank robbery.
Stylish over-the-top spaghetti Western.
w Gianfranco Parolini, Renato Izzo d Frank Kramer (Gianfranco Parolini) ph Sandro Mancori m Marcello Giombini ad Carlo Simi ed Edmondo Lozzi
☆ Lee Van Cleef, William Berger, Franco Ressel, Linda Veras, Pedro Sanchez (Ignazio Spalla), Gianni Rizzo

'A certain cold-blooded ingenuity provides a substitute for inspiration in this colourful but extended anthology of Italian Western clichés.' – Richard Combs, MFB

† The film was followed by two sequels, The Bounty Hunters and Return of Sabata (qqv).

Sabotage ★★★

GB 1936 76m bw
Gaumont British (Michael Balcon, Ivor Montagu)

US title: A Woman Alone

The proprietor of a small London cinema is a dangerous foreign agent.
Unattractively plotted but fascinatingly detailed Hitchcock suspenser with famous sequences and a splendidly brooding melodramatic atmosphere.
w Charles Bennett, Ian Hay, Helen Simpson, E. V. H. Emmett novel The Secret Agent by Joseph Conrad d Alfred Hitchcock ph Bernard Knowles md Louis Levy ed Charles Frend
☆ Oscar Homolka (Karl Verloc), Sylvia Sidney (Sylvia Verloc), John Loder (Sgt. Ted Spencer), Desmond Tester (Steve), Joyce Barbour (Renee), Matthew Boulton (Supt. Talbot)

'Tightly packed, economical, full of invention and detail.' – NFT, 1961
'The cleverest picture Alfred Hitchcock has made since the arrival of the talkies. It is also, to me, the least likeable of them all ... Discreet directors don't kill schoolboys and dogs in omnibuses. Believe me, it isn't done.' – C. A. Lejeune

Sabotage

Canada 1996 99m colour
Imperial/Applecreek (Andy Emilio)

An FBI agent and a bodyguard discover corruption and cover-ups when they investigate the murder of a senator.
Routine action fodder, with a typically paranoid plot that makes little sense but provides opportunities for gunfights and explosions.
w Rick Filon, Michael Stokes d Tibor Takacs ph Curtis Petersen m Guy Zerafa pd Ian Hall ed Craig Nisker ☆ Mark Dasascos, Carrie Anne Moss,

Graham Greene, Tony Todd, John Neville, Heidi Von Palleske, James Purcell

Saboteur ★★★

US 1942 108m bw
Universal (Frank Lloyd, Jack H. Skirball)

A war worker unjustly suspected of sabotage flees across the country and unmasks a spy ring.
Flawed Hitchcock action thriller, generally unsatisfactory in plot and pace but with splendid sequences at a ball, in Radio City Music Hall, and atop the Statue of Liberty.
w Peter Viertel, Joan Harrison, Dorothy Parker story Alfred Hitchcock d Alfred Hitchcock ph Joseph Valentine m Frank Skinner md Charles Previn ad Jack Otterson ed Otto Ludwig ☆ Robert Cummings (Barry Kane), Priscilla Lane (Patricia Martin), Otto Kruger (Charles Tobin), Alan Baxter (Freeman), Alma Kruger (Mrs. Henrietta Sutton), Norman Lloyd (Frank Fry)
'It throws itself forward so rapidly that it allows slight opportunity for looking back.' – New York Times
'The drama of a nation stirred to action, of a people's growing realization of themselves and their responsibilities.' – Motion Picture Herald
† Hitchcock wanted for the three leading roles Gary Cooper, Barbara Stanwyck and Harry Carey, but all refused or were unavailable.

'World War II espionage adventure and human lives have never before been combined so explosively!'

The Saboteur, Code Name Morituri ★

US 1965 122m bw
TCF/Arcola/Colony (Aaron Rosenberg)

aka: Morituri
aka: The Saboteur
In 1942 a German pacifist working for the allies is actually a German spy.
Dreary as a whole, suspenseful in snatches, this shipboard melodrama is full of irrelevancies and is in any case played much more seriously than the matter demands.
w Daniel Taradash novel Werner Jeorg Kosa d Bernhard Wicki ph Conrad Hall m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Yul Brynner, Marlon Brando, Trevor Howard, Janet Margolin
Conrad Hall

The Sabre and the Arrow: see Last of the Comanches

Sabre Jet

US 1953 96m Cinecolor
Krueger Productions/UA
A US Air Force colonel in Korea has trouble with his career-hunting wife as well as with the enemy.
Propaganda cheapie with a few stirring aerial moments.
w Dale Eunson, Katherine Albert d Louis King ph Charles Van Enger m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ Robert Stack, Coleen Gray, Richard Arlen, Julie Bishop, Leon Ames, Amanda Blake

Sabrina ★

US 1954 113m bw
Paramount (Billy Wilder)

GB title: Sabrina Fair
The chauffeur's daughter is wooed by both her brother employers.
Superior comedy, rather uneasily cast.
w Billy Wilder play Samuel Taylor d Billy Wilder ph Charles Lang Jnr m Frederick Hollander ad Hal Pereira, Walter Tyler ed Arthur Schmidt cos Edith Head
☆ Humphrey Bogart (Linus Larrabee), William Holden (David Larrabee), Audrey Hepburn (Sabrina Fairchild), Walter Hampden (Oliver Larrabee), John Williams (Thomas Fairchild), Martha Hyer (Elizabeth Tyson), Joan Vohs (Gretchen Van Horn), Marcel Dalio (Baron)
'This is never less than a glittering entertainment, but somehow a certain measure of lead has found its way into the formula.' – Time † Cary Grant was sought for the role played by Bogart.
Edith Head
Billy Wilder (as writer and director); Charles Lang Jnr; Audrey Hepburn; art direction

'You are cordially invited to the most surprising merger of the year.'

Sabrina

US 1995 127m DeLuxe
UIP/Paramount/Constellation/Mirage/Sandollar (Sydney Pollack, Scott Rudin)

A chauffeur's daughter is loved by both a playboy and his workaholic millionaire brother.
A waste of effort for all concerned: the story seems tired, the performances are inferior, the romance and comedy have been dissipated, and there is very little left to engage the attention, other than to wonder why anyone should want to remake the Wilder version.
w Barbara Benedek, David Rayfiel play Samuel Taylor d Sydney Pollack ph Giuseppe Rotunno m John Williams pd Brian Morris ed Frederic Steinkamp
☆ Harrison Ford, Julia Ormond, Greg Kinnear, Nancy Marchand, John Wood, Richard Crenna, Angie Dickinson, Lauren Holly, Fanny Ardant
'Has plenty of innocent pleasure to impart in a time when movies tend to appeal to our basic instincts, and satisfyingly fills in the emotional holes left by the original.' – Ian Nathan, Empire
John Williams; song 'Moonlight' (m John Williams, ly Alan and Marilyn Bergman)

Sabrina Fair: see Sabrina

The Sacred Flame: see The Right to Live

The Sacrifice ★

Sweden 1986 149m Eastmancolor/bw Swedish Film Institute/SVT2/Film Four/Argos/Sandrew/Josephson & Nykvist (Katinka Farago)

original title: Offret
A writer, who dreams that a nuclear war has begun, promises God that he will renounce his home, his family and speech if the world can return to normal.
A brilliantly filmed but obscure and confusing parable that does not easily yield its meaning.
wd Andrei Tarkovsky ph Sven Nykvist m J. S. Bach, folk music ad Anna Asp ed Andrei Tarkovsky, Michel Leszczylowski ☆ Erland Josephson, Susan Fleetwood, Valerie Mairesse, Allan Edwall, Gudrün Gísladóttir, Sven Wollter, Filippa Franzén
best foreign film

Sacrificed Youth ★

China 1985 96m colour
Artificial Eye/Peking Youth Studio (Zhao Yamin)
original title: Quingchun Ji
During the Cultural Revolution, a young student is sent from her family in the city to work on a remote farm.
Touching, quietly elegant account of a girl growing to adulthood.
wd Zhang Nuanxin story There Was That Beautiful Place by Zhang Manling ph My Deyuan, Deng Wei m Liu Suola, Qu Xiaosong pd Li Yonxin, Wang Yanjin ed Zhao Qihua ☆ Li Fengxu, Feng Yuanzheng, Song Tao, Guo Jianguo, Yu Da

The Sad Sack

US 1957 98m bw Vistavision
Paramount (Paul Nathan)

Adventures of an army misfit.
Resistible star comedy.
w Edmund Beloin, Nate Monaster cartoon George Baker d George Marshall ph Loyal Griggs m Walter Scharf
☆ Jerry Lewis, David Wayne, Phyllis Kirk, Peter Lorre, Joe Mantell, Gene Evans, George Dolenz, Liliane Montevecchi, Shepperd Strudwick

'If you're sad, and like beer, I'm your lady.'

The Saddest Music in the World ★★

Canada 2003 99m bw/colour
Rhombus Media/Buffalo Gal/Ego Film Arts (Niv Fichman, Jody Shapiro)

In Winnipeg, the capital of sorrow during the Depression of the 1930s, a legless beer baroness stages a competition to find the world's saddest music.
An unusual, individual, fanciful musical that harks back to the styles of early cinema to create something strange and new.
w Guy Maddin, George Toles screenplay Kazuo Ishiguro d Guy Maddin ph Luc Montpellier m Christopher Dedrick pd Matthew Davis ed David Wharnsby
☆ Mark McKinney (Chester Kent), Isabella Rossellini (Lady Port-Huntly), Maria de Medeiros (Narcissa), David Fox (Fyodor), Ross McMillan (Roderick Kent)

Saddle the Wind ★

US 1958 84m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Armand Deutsch)

A reformed gunman's young brother gets into bad company.
Modestly effective, humourless Western drama.
w Rod Serling d Robert Parrish ph George J. Folsey m Elmer Bernstein ad William J. Horning, Malcolm Brown ed John McSweeney Jnr
☆ Robert Taylor, John Cassavetes, Julie London, Donald Crisp, Charles McGraw, Royal Dano, Richard Erdman

Saddle Tramp

US 1950 76m Technicolor
Universal-International
A wandering cowboy adopts four orphan children and after various adventures marries the eldest of them.
Mild family Western for star-fanciers.
w Harold Shumate d Hugo Fregonese ph Charles Boyle m Joseph Gershenson ☆ Joel McCrea, Wanda Hendrix, John Russell, John McIntire, Jeanette Nolan, Russell Simpson

Sadie McKee ★

US 1934 88m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)

A maid at various times loves her master, a young ne'er-do-well, and a middle-aged millionaire.
Solidly carpentered millgirl's romance of the period.
w John Meehan story Vina Delmar d Clarence Brown ph Oliver T. Marsh m William Axt
☆ Joan Crawford, Franchot Tone, Gene Raymond, Edward Arnold, Esther Ralston, Jean Dixon, Leo Carrillo, Akim Tamiroff
'The stuff the fans cry for.' – Hollywood Reporter

Sadie Thompson ★

US 1928 95m (24 fps) bw silent
Gloria Swanson

In the South Seas, a fire-and-brimstone missionary is attracted to a prostitute.
Steamy, much-filmed melodrama (see Rain, Miss Sadie Thompson*). This version has long been unavailable for revaluation.*
w C. Gardner Sullivan story Rain by W. Somerset Maugham d Raoul Walsh ph George Barnes, Robert Kurrle ad William Cameron Menzies
☆ Gloria Swanson, Lionel Barrymore, Blanche Frederici, Charles Lane, Florence Midgley, Raoul Walsh
'It's stirring and ironic and funny. You couldn't ask more.' – Photoplay
George Barnes; Gloria Swanson

Sadisterotica (dubbed)

Germany/Spain 1967 80m colour
Aquila/Montana (Adrian Hoven)

aka: Red Lips
aka: Rote Lippen
A female private detective, hired to find a missing woman, discovers that her disappearance is linked to a reclusive artist.
Ridiculous thriller, poorly acted and directed, and badly dubbed; the disjointed narrative may be caused by cuts to remove some of its moments of nudity or could be due to the director's usual incompetence.
w Luis Revenga, Jesús Franco d Jesús Franco ph Jorge Herrero, Franz Hofer m Jerry Van Rooyen ad Carlos Viudes, Graf Pilati ☆ Janine Renault, Rossana Yanni, Chris Howland, Alexander Engel, Marcello Arriota, Manuel Otero, Adrian Hoven

Safar é Ghandehar ★★

Iran/France 2001 85m colour
ICA/Bac/Mohsen Makhmalbaf

aka: Kandahar
An exiled Afghanistan journalist returns to the country to seek her suicidal sister, who is tired of life under the Taliban.
Impassioned semi-documentary of the oppression of women and the hazards of life under a rigid Muslim regime in a country long torn apart by war; its surreal tone, though, sometimes jars.
wd Mohsen Makhmalbaf ph Ebrahim Ghafouri m M. R. Darvishi ed Mohsen Makhmalbaf ☆ Niloufar Pazira (Nafas), Hassan Tantai (Tabib Sahid), Sadou Teymouri (Khak), Hayatalah Hakimi (Hayat)
'The dubbing is poor; the non-professional performances are stiff and monotonously declarative... but it communicates a certain urgency and at times a powerful sense of the absurd.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Safari
GB 1956 91m Technicolor Cinemascope
Warwick (Adrian Worker)
A white hunter falls in love with the wife of his employer and luckily the latter is killed by the Mau Mau.
Feeble adventure story exploiting political tensions.
w Anthony Veiller d Terence Young ph John Wilcox, Fred Ford, Ted Moore m William Alwyn
☆ Victor Mature, Janet Leigh, Roland Culver, John Justin, Earl Cameron, Liam Redmond, Orlando Martins

'In the 21st Century Nobody Is...'

Safe ★★
US 1995 118m colour
Metro Tartan/American Playhouse/Chemical/Good Machine/Kardana/Channel 4/Arnold Semler (Christine Vachon, Lauren Zalaznick)
A house-proud housewife begins to develop allergies to most aspects of modern life and moves to a New Age desert refuge for the chemically sensitive.
A studiously detached account of the effects on an individual of a mysterious ailment, which may simply be life itself; beneath its placid surface, it packs an unexpected power.
wd Todd Haynes ph Alex Nepomniaschy m Ed Tomney pd David Bomba ed James Lyons ☆ Julianne Moore, Xander Berkeley, Dean North, Julie Burgess, Ronnie Farer, Jodie Markell
'The film's neutral tone isn't easy, but it makes for a movie that is exceptional in both style and content and it addresses pressing problems with very considerable intelligence and skill.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Safe Conduct: see Laissez-Passer

Safe Men
US 1998 88m Technicolor
UIP/Andell/Blue Guitar (Andrew Hauptman, Ellen Bonfman, Jeffrey Clifford, Jonathan Cohen)
Gangsters recruit two layabouts, mistaking them for expert safe-breakers.
A jokey blend of crime caper and romantic comedy, lightweight but occasionally amusing.
wd John Hamburg ph Michael Barrett m Theodore Shapiro pd Anthony Gasparro ed Suzanne Pillsbury, Scott Smith
☆ Sam Rockwell, Steve Zahn, Mark Ruffalo, Josh Pais, Paul Giamatti, Michael Schmidt, Christina Kirk, Harvey Fierstein, Michael Lerner
'Tepid tangle of half-baked buffoonery.' – Alan Jones, Film Review

Safe Passage
US 1994 96m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Pacific Western (Gale Anne Hurd)
Six sons and their estranged father gather at their mother's home when they fear that their brother, a Marine, may have been killed in an explosion in the Sinai Desert.
A domestic drama that follows a familiar and well-trodden path, really never rising above the level of soap opera, though the cast do their best to make it all seem fresh and original.
w Deena Goldstone novel Ellyn Bache d Robert Allan Ackerman ph Ralf Bode m Mark Isham pd Dan Bishop ed Rick Shaine
☆ Susan Sarandon, Sam Shepard, Robert Sean Leonard, Sean Astin, Marcia Gay Harden, Nick Stahl, Jason London, Matt Keeslar, Philip Bosco
'Aside from a few nicely tetchy scenes, there is nothing in this lugubrious film worth committing to.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

The Safecracker
GB 1958 96m bw
MGM/Coronado (David E. Rose)
A safecracker is released to help in a commando raid during World War II.
One-twelfth of a dirty dozen, with a long indecisive lead-up and not much pull as drama or comedy.
w Paul Monash story Rhys Davies d Ray Milland ph Gerald Gibbs m Richard Rodney Bennett ed Ernest Walter ☆ Ray Milland, Barry Jones, Jeanette Sterke, Victor Maddern, Ernest Clark, Cyril Raymond, Melissa Stribling

Safety Last ★★★
US 1923 70m (24 fps) bw silent
Harold Lloyd
A small-town boy goes to the big city and to impress his girlfriend enters a contest to climb a skyscraper.
Marvellous star comedy which set a new standard not only in sight gags but in the comedy-thrill stunts which became Lloyd's stock-in-trade.
w Harold Lloyd, Sam Taylor, Tim Whelan, Hal Roach d Sam Taylor, Fred Newmeyer ph Walter Lundin ad Fred Guiol ed T.J. Crizer
☆ Harold Lloyd (Harold, The Boy), Mildred Davis (Mildred, The Girl), Noah Young (The Law)

The Safety of Objects
US/GB 2001 120m colour 'Scope
Entertainment/Clear Blue Sky/Renaissance/Infilm/Killer (Dorothy Berwin, Christine Vachon)
The lives of four suburban families, each dealing with tragedies or disappointments, are interlinked.
Downbeat collection of miserable stories about dead-end lives, told in a monotonous manner.
wd Rose Troche stories A.M. Homes ph Enrique Chediak m Emboznik pd Andrea Stanley ed Geraldine Peroni
☆ Glenn Close (Esther Gold), Dermot Mulroney (Jim Train), Jessica Campbell (Julie Gold), Patricia Clarkson (Annette Jennings), Joshua Jackson (Paul Gold), Moira Kelly (Susan Train), Robert Klein (Howard Gold), Timothy Olyphant (Randy)
'Ensemble tragicomedies of American suburbia don't come more anaemic, more listless, more derivative or more plain tiresome than this.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'A succession of story snippets that keep interrupting one another.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

Sag-haye Velgard: see Stray Dogs

The Saga of Anatahan
Japan 1953 90m bw
Daiwa
During the Pacific war, castaways on a remote island kill each other for the sake of one woman.
A curious footnote to its director's career, this mannered film is entirely in Japanese with English commentary, and does not recommend itself to western audiences.
m Akira Ifukube wd/ph Josef von Sternberg

The Saga of Hemp Brown
US 1958 80m colour CinemaScope
Universal (Gordon Kay)
A blameless cavalry lieutenant, dishonourably discharged from the army, sets out to track down the man who caused his disgrace.
Unoriginal western in which the confrontation between hero and villain is re-staged several times to diminishing effect.
w Bob Williams story Bernard Girard d Richard Carlson ph Philip Lathrop m Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, Robert E. Smith ed Tony Martinelli ☆ Rory Calhoun (Hemp Brown), Beverly Garland (Mona Langley), John Larch (Jed Givens), Russell Johnson (Hook), Fortunio Bonanova (Serge Bolanos), Allan Lane (Sheriff), Morris Ankrum (Bo Slauter)

Sagebrush Trail
US 1933 58m bw
Monogram/Lone Star (Paul Malvern)
Falsely imprisoned for murder, a cowboy escapes from jail to discover the real killer.
Routine Western with the occasional spectacular stunt.
w Lindsley Parsons d Armand Schaefer ph Archie Stout ed Carl Pierson ☆ John Wayne, Nancy Shubert, Lane Chandler, Yakima Canutt, Henry Hall, Wally Wales, Bob Burns

Sahara ★★
US 1943 97m bw
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)
During the retreat from Tobruk a group of men of mixed nationality find water for themselves and harass the Nazis.
Good, simple war actioner with a realistic feel and strong characters deployed in melodramatic situations.
w John Howard Lawson, Zoltan Korda story Philip MacDonald d Zoltan Korda ph Rudolph Maté m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Humphrey Bogart, Bruce Bennett, Lloyd Bridges, Rex Ingram, J. Carrol Naish, Dan Duryea, Kurt Kreuger
'It borrows, chiefly from the English, a sort of light-alloy modification of realism which makes the traditional Hollywood idiom seem as obsolete as a minuet.' – James Agee
'The tank keeps rolling, picking up strays along the way until it has a full Hollywood ethnic complement.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
Rudolph Maté; J. Carrol Naish

Sahara
US 1984 111m Metrocolor
MGM-UA/Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)
In the 1920s, an heiress who competes in a trans-Sahara rally in a car made by her father's company is kidnapped by a lecherous Arab sheik.
Laughably bad and unoriginal romantic adventure, given a perfunctory treatment by all concerned.
w James R. Silke d Andrew V. McLaglen ph David Gurfinkel, Armando Nannuzzi m Ennio Morricone ad Luciano Spadoni ed Michael Duthie ☆ Brooke Shields, Lambert Wilson, Horst Buchholz, John Rhys-Davies, Ronald Lacey, John Mills, Steve Forrest
'Lamentably low on excitement, laughs and passion.' – Variety

'Adventure has a new destination.'

Sahara
US 2005 124m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount/Bristol Bay (Howard Baldwin, Karen Baldwin, Mace Neufeld, Stephanie Austin)
An adventurer goes in search of a cargo of gold on a Confederate ironclad ship that was last seen in West Africa.
Energetic, rousingly absurd, old-fashioned, gung-ho adventure that offers few thrills and tries too hard to be topical about environmental catastrophe.
w Thomas Dean Donnelly, Joshua Oppenheimer, John C. Richards, James V. Hart d Breck Eisner ph Seamus McGarvey m Clint Mansell pd Allan Cameron ed Andrew MacRitchie
☆ Matthew McConaughey (Dirk Pitt), Steve Zahn (Al Giordano), Penelope Cruz (Ana Rojas), Lambert Wilson (Yves Massarde), Dr Frank Hopper (Glynn Turman), Delroy Lindo (Carl), William H. Macy (Admiral Sandecker)
'It might have all been done before, but Sahara is such great fun, you really won't care.' – David Edwards, Daily Mirror
'It is not a movie. It is the skull-splitting cacophony of 21 producers and four screenwriters (that we know about, anyway) standing in the same room shouting into their cell phones.' – Jessica Winter, Village Voice
† The film cost in excess of $100m and took $68m at the US box-office.

Said O'Reilly to McNab
GB 1937 83m bw
Gainsborough
US title: Sez O'Reilly to McNab
A rich Scot is afflicted by an Irish con man.
Lively ethnic comedy, a good vehicle for two stars.
w Leslie Arliss, Marriott Edgar story Howard Irving Young d William Beaudine ph Arthur Crabtree ☆ Will Mahoney, Will Fyffe, Ellis Drake, Sandy McDougal
'Most hinterland exhibs have the quakes and headaches when it comes time on their sked to play a British film, but here's one, if sold along American lines, which may be found acceptable to the patrons in most places.' – Variety

'It's dynamite – when these two come together in the powderkeg city of the Far East!'

Saigon
US 1947 93m bw
Paramount (P. J. Wolfson)
Veteran airmen in Saigon are offered half a million to help in a robbery.
Tired studio-set star actioner.
w P. J. Wolfson, Arthur Sheekman d Leslie Fenton ph John Seitz m Robert Emmett Dolan
☆ Alan Ladd, Veronica Lake, Douglas Dick, Wally Cassell, Luther Adler, Morris Carnovsky, Mikhail Rasumny

Saigon
US 1988 102m colour
Fox (Alan Barnette)
aka: Off Limits
Two cops in Saigon track down a mass murderer of Vietnamese prostitutes.
Violent thriller for those with a boredom threshold as high as the body count.
w Christopher Crowe, Jack Thibeau

d Christopher Crowe ph David Gribble m James Newton Howard pd Dennis Washington ed Douglas Ibold ☆ Willem Dafoe, Gregory Hines, Fred Ward, Amanda Pays, Scott Glenn, Kay Tong Lim, David Alan Grier

Saikaku Ichidai Onna: see The Life of Oharu

Sail a Crooked Ship
US 1961 88m bw
Columbia/Philip Barry Jnr
A shipowner unwittingly takes on a crew of crooks intending to use the boat as a getaway after a bank robbery.
Flimsy comedy sustained by a star comedian.
w Ruth Brooks Flippen, Bruce Geller novel Nathaniel Benchley d Irving Brecher ph Joseph Biroc m George Duning
☆ Robert Wagner, Ernie Kovacs, Dolores Hart, Carolyn Jones, Frank Gorshin

Sailing Along
GB 1938 90m bw
Gaumont-British (Michael Balcon)
A girl barge hand meets an impresario and becomes a dancing star.
Rather deadly British musical romance with the star not at her best, the supporting talents wasted, and a generally heavy hand in evidence.
wd Sonnie Hale ph Glen MacWilliams m/ly Arthur Johnston, Maurice Sigler ad Alfred Junge
☆ Jessie Matthews, Roland Young, Barry Mackay, Jack Whiting, Noel Madison, Alastair Sim, Athene Seyler, Frank Pettingell

Sailor Beware
US 1952 103m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis
Martin and Lewis in the navy.
Unlovable star antics.
w James Allardice, Martin Rackin play Kenyon Nicholson, Charles Robinson d Hal Walker ph Daniel L. Fapp m Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Corinne Calvet, Marion Marshall, Robert Strauss, Leif Erickson

Sailor Beware! ★
GB 1956 80m bw
Romulus (Jack Clayton)
US title: Panic in the Parlor
A young sailor has trouble with his mother-in-law-to-be.
Plain but adequate film version of a successful lowbrow stage farce about an archetypal female dragon.
w Philip King, Falkland L. Cary play Philip King, Falkland L. Cary d Gordon Parry ph Douglas Slocombe m Peter Akister
☆ Peggy Mount (Emma Hornett), Esma Cannon (Edie Hornett), Cyril Smith (Henry Hornett), Shirley Eaton (Shirley Hornett), Ronald Lewis (Albert Tufnell), Joy Webster (Daphne), Gordon Jackson (Carnoustie Bligh), Thora Hird (Mrs Lack), Geoffrey Keen (Rev Purefoy), Jack MacGowran (Toddy)
'It's the music-hall mother-in-law joke inflated to gigantic proportions.' – Times

The Sailor from Gibraltar
GB 1967 89m bw
Lopert (Oscar Lewenstein, Neil Hartley)
A mysterious woman searching for her lost lover meets a man determined to abandon his mistress.
A dry and unimaginative movie, with a good cast seemingly all at sea.
w Christopher Isherwood, Don Magner, Tony Richardson novel Marguerite Duras d Tony Richardson ph Raoul Coutard m Antoine Duhamel ad Marilena Aravantinou ed Antony Gibbs
☆ Jeanne Moreau, Ian Bannen, Vanessa Redgrave, Zia Moyheddin, Hugh Griffith, Orson Welles, Eleanor Bron, John Hurt

Sailor of the King: see Single-Handed

The Sailor Takes a Wife
US 1945 91m bw
MGM
A sailor on leave gets married and finds he has acquired a few problems.
Rather self-consciously cute sentimental comedy, proficiently staged.
w Anne Chapin, Whitfield Cook play Chester Erskine d Richard Whorf
☆ June Allyson, Robert Walker, Reginald Owen, Hume Cronyn, Eddie Anderson, Audrey Totter, Gerald Oliver Smith

'He gave his soul to the sea and his heart to a woman! Their love will arouse you – their story will disturb you – the ending will startle you!' 'Like the act of love, this film must be experienced from beginning to end!'

The Sailor Who Fell from Grace with the Sea
GB 1976 105m Technicolor
AVCO/Sailor Company (Martin Poll)
A precocious boy interferes with his widowed mother's affair with a sailor by castrating the latter.
Weird and unattractive sex fantasy set in Dartmouth of all places and not helped by tiresome sex scenes.
wd Lewis John Carlino novel Gogo No Eiko by Yukio Mishima ph Douglas Slocombe m John Mandel
☆ Sarah Miles, Kris Kristofferson, Jonathan Kahn, Margo Cunningham, Earl Rhodes
'This everyday tale of torture, scopophilia, copulation, masturbation, dismemberment and antique dealing deserves to be traded back to the Japs and made required viewing for timorous kamikaze pilots.' – Benny Green, Punch

The Sailor's Return
GB 1978 100m colour
Euston Films
A Victorian seaman returns to his native village with a black bride, and opens a pub.
Lame-paced and highly predictable yarn of prejudice and doomed love, assembled with almost no cinematic flair.
w James Saunders novel David Garnett d Jack Gold ☆ Tom Bell, Shope Sodeinde, Elton Charles, Mick Ford, Clive Swift
† As a theatrical film it found no takers, and in GB was first shown on television in 1980.

Sailors Three ★★
GB 1940 86m bw
Ealing (Culley Forde)
US title: Three Cockeyed Sailors
Drunken sailors capture a German battleship by mistake.
Low service comedy which keeps moving, is brightly played and reaches a good standard.
Sequel: Fiddlers Three (qv).
w Angus Macphail, John Dighton, Austin Melford d Walter Forde ph Gunther Krampf md Ernest Irving
☆ Tommy Trinder, Claude Hulbert, Michael Wilding, Carla Lehmann, Jeanne de Casalis, James Hayter, John Laurie

The Saint
Leslie Charteris's famous character, the reformed British gentleman crook who becomes a Robin Hood of crime, has been most popular in the long-running sixties TV series starring Roger Moore.
The film series (qqv) which featured him never seemed to hit quite the right note, and now seem slow. All were made for RKO, who later switched allegiance to THE FALCON (qv).
1938 The Saint in New York
1939 The Saint Strikes Back, The Saint in London
1940 The Saint's Double Trouble, The Saint Takes Over
1941 The Saint in Palm Springs, The Saint's Vacation, The Saint Meets the Tiger
1953 The Saint's Return (US: The Saint's Girl Friday)
Louis Hayward played the role in the first and last; Hugh Sinclair in Vacation and Tiger; George Sanders in the rest. In 1997, Val Kilmer starred in a big-budget remake, The Saint (qv), though the alienated character he portrayed bore little resemblance to Charteris's original.

'Cunning. Devious. Dangerous. Treacherous.'

The Saint ②
US 1997 116m Rank Colour
Paramount/Rysher (David Brown, Robert Evans, William J. MacDonald, Mace Neufeld)
A millionaire crook, sent to obtain a formula for cheap energy, falls in love with the female research scientist who discovered it.
An action adventure that commits the unforgivable sin of being dull. There are attempts to reposition Charteris's suave hero as a man with a troubled past, in the manner of the modern version of Batman, and to turn him into another James Bond. Both fail, for while Kilmer's Saint is described as 'a master of disguise', he seems more a ham actor in search of a role.
w Jonathan Hensleigh, Wesley Strick d Phillip Noyce ph Phil Meheux m Graeme Revell pd Joseph Nemec III ed Terry Rawlings
☆ Val Kilmer, Elisabeth Shue, Rade Serbedzija, Valery Nikolaev, Henry Goodman, Alun Armstrong, Michael Byrne, Evgeny Lazarev, Irena Apeximova, Lev Prigunov, Charlotte Cornwell
'One unholy mess.' – Sunday Times
'With his array of comic voices and false moustaches, Kilmer would be more suited to a summer season at the Southend Cliffs Pavilion than a Hollywood movie.' – Ryan Gilbey, Independent

St Benny the Dip
US 1951 79m bw
Danzigers
GB title: Escape If You Can
Gamblers learn to escape the law by dressing as priests, but circumstance converts them to good works.
Unfunny comedy notable only for its cast.
w John Roeburt d Edgar G. Ulmer ph Don Malkames m Robert Stringer ☆ Freddie Bartholomew, Roland Young, Dick Haymes, Lionel Stander, Nina Foch

'The passion burns deep!'

St Elmo's Fire
US 1985 108m Metrocolor
Columbia/Lauren Shuler
A group of college graduates drift apart as realities impinge on their lives.
Nobody explained why audiences should want to interest themselves in such a group of objectionable people; and they didn't.
w Joel Schumacher, Carl Kurlander d Joel Schumacher ph Stephen H. Burum m David Foster
☆ Rob Lowe, Demi Moore, Andrew McCarthy, Judd Nelson, Ally Sheedy, Emilio Estevez, Mare Winningham, Martin Balsam

The Saint in London
US 1939 72m bw
RKO (William Sistrom)
The Saint exposes a gang of forgers.
Amiable thriller, with Sanders coasting along on his charm.
w Lynn Root, Frank Fenton story The Million Pound Day by Leslie Charteris d John Paddy Carstairs ph Claude Friese-Greene m Harry Acres ad Wilfred Arnold ed Douglas Robertson
☆ George Sanders, Sally Gray, David Burns, Gordon McLeod, Athene Seyler, Henry Oscar, John Abbott, Ballard Berkeley

The Saint in New York ★
US 1938 71m bw
RKO (William Sistrom)
New York police ask the Saint for help in dealing with a crime wave.
Slick, enjoyable programmer, the success of which led to the series of films featuring the Saint, though Hayward only returned to the role for the last film in the sequence.
w Charles Kaufman, Mortimer Offner novel Leslie Charteris d Ben Holmes ph Joseph August, Frank Redman ad Van Nest Polglase, Perry Ferguson ed Harry Marker
☆ Louis Hayward, Kay Sutton, Sig Rumann, Jonathan Hale, Jack Carson, Paul Guilfoyle, Frederick Burton, Ben Welden

The Saint in Palm Springs
US 1941 65m bw
RKO (Howard Benedict)
The Saint, wanted for murder and in possession of some rare stamps, turns the tables on a criminal gang.
Undistinguished time-waster, with cast and director showing only scant enthusiasm for their tasks.
w Jerry Cady story Leslie Charteris d Jack Hively ph Harry Wild m Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase ed George Hively
☆ George Sanders, Wendy Barrie, Jonathan Hale, Paul Guilfoyle, Linda Hayes, Ferris Taylor, Harry Shannon, Eddie Dunn

'He's clean! He's mean! He's the go-between!'

St Ives
US 1976 93m Technicolor
Warner (Pancho Kohner, Stanley Canter)
An ex-police reporter gets involved in a complex murder puzzle.
Soporific suspenser with every tired situation in the book.
w Barry Beckerman novel The Procane Chronicle by Oliver Bleeck d J. Lee-Thompson ph Lucien Ballard m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Charles Bronson, Harry Guardino, John Houseman, Jacqueline Bisset, Maximilian Schell, Harris Yulin, Dana Elcar, Elisha Cook Jnr
'Much cross-cutting of the sort where the only events you care less about than the ones you cut from are the ones you cut to.' – John Simon

'People make love for so many crazy reasons – why shouldn't money be one of them?'

Saint Jack

US 1979 115m colour
New World/Shoals Creek/Playboy/Copa de Oro (Roger Corman)

An American wanderer in Singapore finds his metier as a pimp.
Whimsical, loquacious black comedy which failed to set its wavering director back on the firm ground he needed.
w Peter Bogdanovich, Howard Sackler, Paul Theroux novel Paul Theroux d Peter Bogdanovich ph Robby Muller m various ☆ Ben Gazzara, Denholm Elliott, James Villiers, Joss Ackland, Rodney Bewes, Mark Kingston, Lisa Lu, George Lazenby, Peter Bogdanovich

Saint Joan

GB 1957 110m bw
Wheel (Otto Preminger)

Glumly assembled screen version of the brilliantly argumentative play about the Maid of Orleans.
Plenty of talent, but neither wit nor style.
w Graham Greene play Bernard Shaw d Otto Preminger ph Georges Périnal m Mischa Spoliansky pd Roger Furse ☆ Jean Seberg, Anton Walbrook, Richard Widmark, John Gielgud, Felix Aylmer, Harry Andrews, Richard Todd

St John's Wort

Japan 2001 85m Imagica
Asmik Ace/Suncent (Shinji Ogawa, Takenori Sento)

original title: Otogiriso
A graphic artist visits an old, dark house she has inherited from her father, whom she never knew.
A horror movie as video game; alternating between grainy black and white video and moments shot with lurid filters, this switches from a haunted house to a high-tech studio where programmers create a game based on gruesome events there. Such devices distance viewers from the action, which may exist only in the perfervid imaginations of the protagonists.
w Goro Nakajima, Takenori Sento novel Shukei Nagasaka d Ten Shimoyama ph Kazuhiko Ogura m Asako Yoshida pd Toshihiro Isomi ed Shogo Hirasawa ☆ Megumi Okina (Nami/Naomi), Yoichiro Saito (Kohei), Koji Okura (Shinichi), Reiko Matsuo (Toko), Minoru (Kaizawa Soichi)

St Louis Blues ★

US 1939 92m bw
Paramount (Jeff Lazarus)

A Broadway musical star finds new fame down south.
Moderate star entertainment with good guest artists.
w John C. Moffitt, Malcolm Stuart Boylan, Frederick Hazlitt Brennan d Raoul Walsh ph Theodor Sparkuhl songs Frank Loesser, Burton Lane
☆ Dorothy Lamour, Lloyd Nolan, Tito Guizar, Jerome Cowan, Jessie Ralph, William Frawley, the King's Men, Matty Melneck and his Orchestra
'It doesn't quite jell but will suffice as passable divertissement.' – Variety

St Louis Blues

US 1958 93m bw VistaVision
Paramount (Robert Smith)

W. C. Handy, son of a black Memphis preacher, becomes a blues composer.
Unsurprising biopic with some good music and the usual strained plot about father's disapproval of the new music.
w Robert Smith, Ted Sherdeman d Allen Reisner ph Haskell Boggs md Nelson Riddle ☆ Nat King Cole, Eartha Kitt, Pearl Bailey, Cab Calloway, Mahalia Jackson, Ruby Dee, Juano Hernandez, Ella Fitzgerald

The St Louis Kid

US 1934 67m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
GB title: A Perfect Weekend

A hot-headed truck driver takes the side of milk farmers in a trade dispute.
Modest star action comedy with a fair amount to amuse.
w Seton I. Miller, Warren Duff story Frederick Hazlitt Brennan d Ray Enright ph Sid Hickox md Leo F. Forbstein ad Jack Okey ed Clarence Kolster
☆ James Cagney, Patricia Ellis, Hobart Cavanaugh, Spencer Charters, Addison Richards
'Jimmy in another slugger role, with results this time not so satisfactory.' – Variety

St Martin's Lane ★

GB 1938 85m bw
Mayflower (Erich Pommer)

US title: Sidewalks of London
A middle-aged busker falls in love with a brilliant girl dancer who becomes a star.
Well-made romantic drama with star performances and interesting theatrical background.
w Clemence Dane d Tim Whelan ph Jules Kruger m Arthur Johnston
☆ Charles Laughton, Vivien Leigh, Rex Harrison, Tyrone Guthrie, Larry Adler, Gus MacNaughton
'In its choice of subject, its overwhelming interest in character and its introspective, uncompromising treatment, it is experimental in a courageous fashion.' – Film Weekly

The Saint Meets the Tiger

US 1943 70m bw
RKO

The Saint is pitted against a resourceful gangster and gold smuggler.
Feeble little thriller with Sinclair proving an inadequate substitute for Sanders in the title role.
w Leslie Arliss, Wolfgang Wilhelm, James Seymour novel Meet the Tiger by Leslie Charteris d Paul L. Stein ph Robert Krasker ad Paul Sheriff ed Ralph Kemplen
☆ Hugh Sinclair, John Slater, Gordon McLeod, Clifford Evans, Wylie Watson, Charles Victor

The Saint of Fort Washington

US 1993 108m Technicolor
(David V. Picker, Nessa Hyams)

Two homeless people, a young schizophrenic drifter and a black Vietnam veteran, help each other survive on the streets.
A well-meaning but bland piece of escapism, romanticizing the dispossessed.
w Lyle Kessler d Tim Hunter ph Frederick Elmes m James Newton Howard pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Howard Smith
☆ Danny Glover, Matt Dillon, Rick Aviles, Nina Siemaszko, Joe Seneca, Ving Rhames
'The sort of worthy project big-name stars tackle to earn artistic and social brownie points between megabuck sequels.' – Kim Newman, Empire

The Saint Strikes Back

US 1939 67m bw
RKO (Robert Sisk)

The Saint goes to San Francisco to save the father of a female friend from being framed for murder.
Enjoyable minor thriller, which made the most of Sanders's world-weary charm.
w John Twist novel Angels of Doom by Leslie Charteris d John Farrow ph Frank Redman md Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase, Albert S. D'Agostino ed Jack Hively
☆ George Sanders, Barry Fitzgerald, Wendy Barrie, Jonathan Hale, Jerome Cowan, Edward Gargan

The Saint Takes Over

US 1940 69m bw
RKO (Howard Benedict)

The Saint comes to the aid of his friend, Inspector Fernack, who has been framed by crooked gamblers.
Pleasant, fast-moving, though undistinguished, little thriller.
w Lynn Root, Frank Fenton d Jack Hively ph Frank Redman md Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase ed Desmond Marquette
☆ George Sanders, Wendy Barrie, Jonathan Hale, Paul Guilfoyle, Morgan Conway

The St Valentine's Day Massacre

US 1967 99m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Los Altos (Roger Corman)

The twenties gang war between Al Capone and Bugs Moran.
The director's first big studio film is disappointing; stagey, poorly developed, unconvincing-looking and overacted.
w Howard Browne d Roger Corman ph Milton Krasner m Fred Steiner md Lionel Newman
☆ Jason Robards Jnr, George Segal, Ralph Meeker, Jean Hale, Clint Ritchie, Joseph Campanella, Richard Bakalyan, David Canary, Bruce Dern, Harold J. Stone, Kurt Kreuger, John Agar, Alex D'Arcy

'You'll love every illegal inch of 'em!'

The Sainted Sisters

US 1948 89m bw
Paramount (Richard Maibaum)

Two New York con girls find themselves taken in by the inhabitants of the small town in which they are hiding out.
Unfunny period comedy which misses on all cylinders.
w Harry Clork d William D. Russell ph Lionel Lindon m Van Cleave ☆ Veronica Lake, Joan Caulfield, Barry Fitzgerald, William Demarest, George Reeves, Beulah Bondi, Chill Wills, Darryl Hickman
'Lake, Caulfield, and a swarm of clichés, pleasantly kidded in a manner derived from Preston Sturges.' – James Agee

Saints and Sinners

GB 1948 85m bw
London Films/BLPA (Leslie Arliss)

An ex-convict comes back to his home town to prove that those who condemned him were fools or knaves.
Curious slice of Irish whimsy mixed with Ealing comedy; not very satisfactory.
w Paul Vincent Carroll, Leslie Arliss d Leslie Arliss ph Osmond Borradaile m Philip Green ad Wilfred Shingleton ed David Newhouse ☆ Kieron Moore, Christine Norden, Sheila Manahan, Michael Dolan, Maire O'Neill, Noel Purcell

The Saint's Double Trouble

US 1940 68m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)

The Saint discovers that a jewel thief is his double.
Lacklustre thriller that fails to make much of Sanders playing both sides of the law.
w Ben Holmes story Leslie Charteris d Jack Hively ph J. Roy Hunt md Roy Webb ed Theron Warth
☆ George Sanders, Helene Whitney, Jonathan Hale, Bela Lugosi, Thomas W. Ross

The Saint's Girl Friday: see The Saint's Return

The Saint's Return

GB 1954 73m bw
RKO/Royal/Hammer (Anthony Hinds, Julian Lesser)
US title: The Saint's Girl Friday

The Saint goes after a gang of gamblers who have murdered a former girlfriend.
Effective programmer, though the concept was beginning to seem more than a little dated and old-fashioned.
w Allan MacKinnon d Seymour Friedman ph Walter Harvey m Ivor Slaney ad J. Elder Wills ed James Needs
☆ Louis Hayward, Naomi Chance, Sydney Tafler, Charles Victor, Jane Carr, Harold Lang, Diana Dors
† The US release ran for 68m.

The Saint's Vacation

US 1941 60m bw
RKO (William Sistrom)

Holidaying in Switzerland, the Saint outwits spies searching for a secret code.
Moderate thriller, though missing the piquancy that Sanders's personality added to the routine nature of the enterprise.
w Leslie Charteris, Jeffrey Dell novel Getaway by Leslie Charteris d Leslie Fenton ph Bernard Knowles md Bretton Byrd ad Paul Sheriff ed Al Barnes
☆ Hugh Sinclair, Sally Gray, Cecil Parker, Arthur Macrae, Leueen MacGrath, Felix Aylmer, Ivor Barnard

La Saison des Hommes ★★

France/Tunisia 2000 123m colour
ICA/Losange/Maghrebfilms Carthage/Arte France (Margaret Menegoz, Mohamed Tlatli) aka: The Season of Men

A wife asserts her independence from her overbearing husband by returning to the abandoned family home with her unhappy daughters and autistic son.
Deft interweaving of past and present gives shape and bulk to this drama of women escaping from male dominance and finding their own satisfactions.
w Moufida Tlatli, Nouri Bouzid d Moufida Tlatli ph Youssef Ben Youssef m Anouar Brahem pd Khaled Joulak, Claude Bennys ed Isabelle Devinck
☆ Rabiaa Ben Abdallah (Aicha), Sabah Bouzouita (Zeineb), Ghalia Ben Ali (Meriem), Hend Sabri (Emna), Ezzedine Gennoun (Said), Mouna Noureddine (Matriarch)
'A relentless cri du coeur eviscerating a sexual ethos so repressive that at least one woman is nearly driven crazy by a gut-gnawing mixture of fear, shame and desire.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Saiyu-ki: see Alakazam the Great

Salaam Bombay! ★★★

India/France/GB 1988 114m colour
Mainline/Mirabai Films/NFDC/Cadrage/La SEPT/Channel 4 (Mira Nair)

Street life in an Indian city among pimps, prostitutes, drug peddlers and addicts, as seen by a tea-boy abandoned by his mother.
Poignant, well-observed narrative of small treacheries and smaller hope, acted by a mainly amateur cast.
w Sooni Taraporevala d Mira Nair
ph Sandi Sissel m L. Subramaniam
pd Mitch Epstein ed Barry Alexander Brown ☆ Shafiq Syed (Krishna/Chaipau), Raghubir Yadav (Chillum), Nana Patekar (Baba), Irshad Hasni, Aneeta Kanwar (Rekha), Hansa Vithal (Manju)
'A notable debut.' – MFB

Le Salaire de la Peur: see The Wages of Fear

The Salamander

US/GB/Italy 1981 101m colour
Grade/William R. Foreman (Paul Maslansky)

A colonel in army intelligence thwarts a fascist takeover of Italy.
Lurid melodrama with an inane script.
w Robert Katz, Rod Serling novel Morris West d Peter Zinner ph Marcello Gatti
m Jerry Goldsmith pd Giantito Burchiellaro ed Claudio Cutry
☆ Franco Nero, Anthony Quinn, Martin Balsam, Sybil Danning, Christopher Lee, Cleavon Little, Paul Smith, John Steiner, Claudia Cardinale, Eli Wallach

'For this woman men would commit every sin every sacrilege.'

Salambo

Italy 1959 95m DeLuxe Cinemascope
Fidès/Stella
aka: The Loves of Salammbo

The love affair between the daughter of a Carthaginian general and the leader of a mercenary army does not run smoothly.
A cut-price epic with an inadequate central performance.
w John Blamy, Barbara Schmers novel Salammbo by Gustave Flaubert
d Sergio Grieco ph Piero Portalupi
m Alexandre Derenevsky
☆ Jeanne Valérie, Edmund Purdom, Jacques Sernas, Arnoldo Foà, Kamala Devi, Charles Fawcett, Ricardo Garrone
† After the fiasco of Cleopatra, 20th Century-Fox abandoned its plans to produce a film of Flaubert's novel starring Gina Lollobrigida, and instead bought the rights to this production, which it released in 1962 in a version cut to 72m.

Salem's Lot: The Movie ★

US 1979 112m colour Panavision
Warner/Serendipity Productions (Richard Kobritz)

A writer returns to his small hometown to discover that it is being taken over by vampires.
Effective horror movie, cut from a 200 minute two-part TV mini-series.
w Paul Monash novel Stephen King
d Tobe Hooper ph Jules Brenner
m Harry Sukman pd Mort Rabinowitz
ed Carol Sax, Tom Pryor
☆ David Soul, James Mason, Lance Kerwin, Bonnie Bedelia, Lew Ayres, Julie Cobb, Elisha Cook, George Dzundza, Ed Flanders, Kenneth McMillan Salesman ★★

US 1969 95m bw
Maysles Films

A team of salesmen, urged on by their aggressive manager, sell Bibles door to door to Catholics mostly reluctant to buy.
Fascinating cinema-verité documentary, especially in the contrast between the sales convention, with its sanctimonious hyperbole, and the actual experiences on the road.
d Albert and David Maysles, Charlotte Zwerin ph Albert Maysles ed David Maysles, Charlotte Zwerin
'The film tries to be at once tough and sentimental, mocking and sympathetic They have stumbled onto something much bigger than they realize: a condemnation – however fragmented, fortuitous, and even inept – of the human condition, of man himself; but also of a society plagued by superstition, idiotic competitiveness, and stultifying materialism.' – John Simon

Sally

US 1930 90m Technicolor
Warner

A waitress makes it to the lights of Broadway.
Lightweight musical play, previously filmed in 1925 with Colleen Moore and Leon Errol, here the basis of an elaborate colour production with its original star, who however did not take too kindly to the camera.
w Waldemar Young play Guy Bolton, Jerome Kern d John Francis Dillon
ph Dev Jennings, E. E. Schoenbaum
ch Larry Ceballos ad Jack Okey ☆ Marilyn Miller, Joe E. Brown, Alexander Gray, T. Roy Barnes, Pert Kelton, Ford Sterling
Jack Okey

Sally and St Anne

US 1952 90m bw
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

When an Irish-American family is threatened with eviction, the daughter appeals to St Anne for help.
Whimsical comedy, quite nimbly performed.
w James O'Hanlon, Herb Meadow
d Rudolph Maté ph Irving Glassberg
m Frank Skinner
☆ Ann Blyth, Edmund Gwenn, Hugh O'Brian, John McIntire, Jack Kelly

Sally in Our Alley ★

GB 1931 77m bw
ATP/Basil Dean

Poor girl loves wounded soldier.
Early talkie drama with music which made Gracie Fields a star and gave her a theme song.
w Miles Malleson, Archie Pitt, Alma Reville play The Likes of 'Er by Charles McEvoy d Maurice Elvey ph Robert G. Martin, Alex Bryce ☆ Gracie Fields, Ian Hunter, Florence Desmond, Ivor Barnard
'The songs are just numbers, the general standard nothing to shout about.' – Variety

Sally, Irene and Mary

US 1938 86m bw
TCF (Gene Markey)

Three girls try to break into show business.
Simple-minded romantic comedy-musical, well enough done.
w Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen d William A. Seiter ph Peverell Marley md Arthur Lange ☆ Alice Faye, Tony Martin, Fred Allen, Jimmy Durante, Gregory Ratoff, Joan Davis, Marjorie Weaver, Gypsy Rose Lee
'Palatable light entertainment that is no Pulitzer prizer but prize b.o.' – Variety

Sally of the Sawdust

US 1925 78m (24 fps) bw silent
Paramount/United Artists

A circus juggler and faker tries to prevent his daughter from discovering that she is adopted.
Silent version of the stage hit Poppy, remade under its own title in 1936 (qv). In both versions W. C. Fields takes over the whole show (not to one's entire satisfaction) and the director's name in this case should not lead one to expect a film of significance, as he seems to have been glad of the work.
w Forrest Halsey play Dorothy Donnelly
d D. W. Griffith
☆ W. C. Fields, Carol Dempster, Alfred Lunt, Effie Shannon, Erville Alderson

Salmonberries

Germany 1991 95m DeLuxe
Electric/PeleMele (Eleonore Adlon)

A mysterious and parentless young woman is attracted to a middle-aged German woman, working as a librarian in a small Alaskan mining town.
A somewhat glum and claustrophobic account of thwarted lives.
w Percy Adlon, Felix O. Adlon d Percy Adlon ph Tom Sigel m Bob Telson pd Amadeus Capra ed Conrad Gonzalez
☆ k. d. lang, Rosel Zech, Chuck Connors, Jane Lind, Oscar Kawagley, Wolfgang Steinberg, Christel Merian
'An exhaustingly slow-moving tale which makes for trying viewing.' – Empire

Salo: see 120 Days of Sodom

Salome

US 1923 80m (24 fps) bw silent
Nazimova

Almost unendurable as an entertainment, this stylized silent provided a famous role for its star against backgrounds in Aubrey Beardsley style, and is much illustrated in film histories. The New Yorker commented on a 1980 revival: 'The movie looks better in stills than when one actually sees it, but a folly like this should probably be experienced.'
play Oscar Wilde drawings Aubrey Beardsley d Charles Bryant ad Natacha Rambova cos Natacha Rambova ☆ Nazimova, Mitchell Lewis, Nigel de Brulier

'The supreme screen achievement of our time!'

Salome

US 1953 103m Technicolor
Columbia/Beckworth (Buddy Adler)

Princess Salome of Galilee eludes her licentious stepfather, falls in love with a secret Christian, and leaves home when her dancing fails to save the life of John the Baptist.
Distorted biblical hokum with an interesting cast frozen into unconvincing attitudes.
w Harry Kleiner, Jesse Lasky Jnr d William Dieterle ph Charles Lang m George Duning md Daniele Amfitheatrof
ad John Meehan
☆ Rita Hayworth, Charles Laughton, Stewart Granger, Judith Anderson, Cedric Hardwicke, Alan Badel, Basil Sydney, Maurice Schwartz, Rex Reason, Arnold Moss
'Pomp and splendour are paraded across the screen as a background to the story's combination of sex and religion.' – Variety

Salome Where She Danced ★

US 1945 90m Technicolor
Universal (Walter Wanger, Alexander Golitzen)

During the Austro-Prussian war a dancer is suspected of being a spy and flees to Arizona, where she affects the lives of the citizenry.
Absurdly plotted and stiffly played romantic actioner whose sheer creakiness made it a minor cult film.
w Laurence Stallings story Michael J. Phillips d Charles Lamont ph Hal Mohr, W. Howard Green m Edward Ward
☆ Yvonne de Carlo, Rod Cameron, Albert Dekker, David Bruce. Walter Slezak, Marjorie Rambeau, J. Edward Bromberg, Abner Biberman, John Litel, Kurt Katch
'I gratefully salute it as the funniest dead-pan parody I have ever seen.' – James Agee

Salome's Last Dance

GB 1987 90m Technicolor
Vestron/Jolly Russell Productions (Penny Corke)

Oscar Wilde watches a production of his banned play, Salome, acted by prostitutes in a brothel.
Coarse and clumsy treatment, all excess and no moderation, though some found it entertaining.
wd Ken Russell play Salome by Oscar Wilde ph Harvey Harrison md Richard Cooke, Ray Beckett ad Michael Buchanan
ed Timothy Gee
☆ Glenda Jackson, Stratford Johns, Nickolas Grace, Douglas Hodge, Imogen Millais-Scott, Denis Lill, Ken Russell
'An outstanding film marking a new career bent for film-maker Russell.' – Variety

Salon Kitty

France/Germany/Italy 1978 127m colour
TCF/Coralta/S.R.L./Cinema Seven (Giulio Barigia, Ermanno Donati)

In 1939, a Nazi army officer takes over a Berlin brothel and installs spying devices and prostitutes loyal to the party to report on their clients.
A voyeuristic movie with a gloating nastiness about it that is thoroughly dislikeable.
w Ennio de Concini, Maria Pia Fusco, Tinto Brass d Tinto Brass ph Silvano Ippoliti
m Fiorenzo Caspi pd Ken Adam
ed Luciana di Russo, Fiorenza Muller
☆ Helmut Berger, Ingrid Thulin, Teresa Ann Savoy, Bekim Fehmiu, John Ireland, Tina Aumont

Saloon Bar ★

GB 1940 76m bw
Ealing (Michael Balcon)

A murder is solved during an evening in a pub.
Amusing, well-made little suspenser from a West End success.
w Angus MacPhail, John Dighton play Frank Harvey d Walter Forde ph Ronald Neame md Ernest Irving
☆ Gordon Harker, Elizabeth Allen, Mervyn Johns, Joyce Barbour, Anna Konstam, Judy Campbell, Norman Pierce, Alec Clunes,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Felix Aylmer, Mavis Villiers, Torin Thatcher, O. B. Clarence

'The detail has been sought lovingly and with exactitude ... this is a modest and endearing film.' – New Statesman

Salsa

US 1988 99m TVC Color
Cannon/Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus

A motor mechanic is determined to become the best salsa dancer.

A few energetic dance routines break up a weak narrative and some sub-standard acting.

w Boaz Davidson, Tomas Benitez, Shepherd Goldman story Boaz Davidson, Eli Tabor d Boaz Davidson ph David Gurfinkel pd Mark Hastings ed Alain Jakubowicz

☆ Robby Rosa, Rodney Harvey, Magali Alvarado, Miranda Garrison, Moon Orona, Angela Alvarado, Loyda Ramos, Valente Rodriguez

Salt and Pepper

GB 1968 101m DeLuxe
UA/Chrislaw/Tracemark (Milton Ebbins)

Soho night-club proprietors solve a murder.

Infuriating throwaway star vehicle set in the dregs of swinging London. The two stars teamed up again in an even worse film, One More Time (1970).

w Michael Pertwee d Richard Donner ph Ken Higgins m Johnny Dankworth

☆ Sammy Davis Jnr, Peter Lawford, Michael Bates, Ilona Rodgers, John Le Mesurier, Graham Stark, Ernest Clark

Salt on Our Skin

Germany/France/Canada 1992 106m colour
Warner/Neue Constantin/Torii/Telescene/RTL Plus/Canal (Bernd Eichinger, Martin Moszkowicz)

A sophisticated half-French woman remembers a youthful love affair in Scotland with the son of a local farmer, which she resumed a decade later.

A dull romantic drama of minimal interest and credibility.

w Andrew Birkin, Bee Gilbert novel Les Vaisseaux du Coeur by Benoîte Groult d Andrew Birkin ph Dietrich Lohmann m Klaus Doldinger pd Jean-Baptiste Tard, Robert Laing ed Dagmar Hirtz

☆ Greta Scacchi, Vincent D'Onofrio, Anais Jeanneret, Hanns Zischler, Barbara Jones, Rolf Illic, Petra Berndt, László Kish, Claudine Auger

'An old-fashioned weepie.' – Variety

Salt to the Devil: see Give Us This Day

'If You're Looking For The Truth, You've Come To The Wrong Place.'

The Salton Sea

US 2002 103m Technicolor
Warner/Castle Rock/Darkwoods/Humble Journey (Frank Darabont, Eriq LaSalle, Ken Aguado, Butch Robinson)

A jazz musician doubles as a drug addict and dealer and police informer in order to discover the identity of his wife's killer.

Sleazy movie that enjoys its descent into the gutter, which here is full of grotesque characters and incidents, including a noseless dealer who recreates the Kennedy assassination with the aid of pigeons in model cars.

w Tony Gayton d D. J. Caruso ph Amir Mokri m Thomas Newman pd Tom Southwell ed Jim Page cos Karyn Wagner

☆ Val Kilmer (Danny/Tom), Vincent D'Onofrio (Pooh-Bear), Adam Goldberg (Kujo), Luis Guzman (Quincy), Doug Hutchison (Morgan), Anthony LaPaglia (Garcetti), Glenn Plummer (Bobby), Peter Sarsgaard (Jimmy The Finn), Deborah Kara Unger (Colette), Chandra West (Liz), B. D. Wong (Bubba), R. Lee Ermey (Verne Plummer), Shirley Knight (Nancy Plummer), Bo (Meat Loaf)

'It's not clear when and how watching women getting brutalized and seeing a starved, rabid badger taking realistic swipes at a terrified man' s private parts added up to mass entertainment, but that's the world we're living in now.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

'An edgy, triple-twist neo-noir thriller with a brutally cynical sense of humor and an erotically charged atmosphere of danger.' – Joe Leydon, San Francisco Examiner

† It was released direct to video in Britain.

Saltwater ★

Ireland/GB/Spain 1999 96m colour
Artificial Eye/Treasure (Robert Walpole)

As their own lives go awry, the two sons of an Irish-Italian café-owner try to come to the aid of their debt-ridden father.

Pleasing, if unambitious, feature debut from a noted Irish playwright, investigating masculine attitudes, especially in their relationships with women.

wd Conor McPherson ph Oliver Curtis m Plague Monkeys, Carol Keogh, Donal O'Mahony pd Luana Hanson ed Emer Reynolds cos Kathy Strachan

☆ Peter McDonald (Frank Beneventi), Brian Cox (George Beneventi), Conor Mullen (Dr Raymond Sullivan), Laurence Kinlan (Joe Beneventi), Brendan Gleeson ('Simple' Simon McCurdie), Eva Birthistle (Deborah McCeever), Valerie Spelman (Carmel Beneventi), David O'Rourke (Damien Fitzgibbon), Caroline O'Boyle (Tara), Gina Moxley (Sgt Duggan)

'An affable, pawky comedy.' – Sight and Sound

Salty O'Rourke

US 1945 100m bw
Paramount/E. D. Leshin

A racetrack con man is reformed by a schoolteacher.

Very moderate and overlong star vehicle.

w Milton Holmes d Raoul Walsh ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Robert Emmett Dolan

☆ Alan Ladd, Gail Russell, William Demarest, Bruce Cabot, Spring Byington, Stanley Clements

♗ Milton Holmes

Saludos Amigos ★

US 1943 43m Technicolor
Walt Disney

Donald Duck has various South American adventures with a parrot named Joe Carioca.

Basically a naïve implementation of the good neighbour policy, but with flashes of brilliant animation and some mingling of live-action with cartoon.

production supervisor Norman Ferguson

'Self-interested, belated ingratiation embarrasses me, and Disney's famous cuteness, however richly it may mirror national infantilism, is hard on my stomach.' – James Agee

♗ music (Edward H. Plumb, Paul J. Smith, Charles Wolcott); title song (m Charles Wolcott, ly Ned Washington)

Salut Cousin! ★

France/Belgium/Algeria/Luxembourg 1996 100m colour
Les Films Du Roseau/JBA/La Sept/Artémis/RTFB/Flashback/Samsa/Clea (Jacques Bidou)

The adventures of an Algerian innocent, who visits his cousin, a would-be singer, in Paris.

An engaging fable of an immigrant community, of would-be sophisticates adrift in a big city.

w Merzak Allouache, Caroline Thivel d Merzak Allouache ph Pierre Aim, Georges Diane m Safy Boutella ad Olivier Raoux ed Denise de Casabianca

☆ Gad el Maleh, Mess Hattou, Magaly Berdy, Ann-Gisel Glass, Jean Beguigui, Xavier Maly, Cheik Doukoure, Mohamed Ourdache

Salut l'Artiste (dubbed) ★★

France/Italy 1973 97m Eastmancolor
Gaumont/De La Guéville/Euro-Internazionale (Alain Poiré, Yves Robert)

GB title: The Bit Player

After his mistress walks out, an unsuccessful actor tries to return to his wife and children but finds life too complicated.

Adroit and witty comedy, performed with insouciant skill.

w Jean-Loup Dabadie, Yves Robert d Yves Robert ph Jean Penzer m Vladimir Cosma ad Theo Meurisse ed Ghislaine Desjonquières

☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Françoise Fabian, Jean Rochefort, Carla Gravina, Xavier Gelin, Evelyne Buyle

Salute for Three

US 1943 75m bw
Paramount

An all-girl orchestra opens a canteen for servicemen.

Modest, middling propaganda musical with minimum talents.

w Davis Anderson, Curtis Kenyon, Hugh Wedlock Jnr and Howard Snyder d Ralph Murphy

☆ Betty Jane Rhodes, Macdonald Carey, Dona Drake and her orchestra, Marty May, Lorraine and Rognan

Salute John Citizen

GB 1942 98m bw
British National (Wallace Orton)

A clerk and his family suffer cheerfully through the blitz.

Modest, competent propaganda piece.

w Clemence Dane, Elizabeth Baron novel Mr Bunting at War by Robert Greenwood d Maurice Elvey ph James Wilson

☆ Edward Rigby, Stanley Holloway, George Robey, Mabel Constanduros, Jimmy Hanley, Dinah Sheridan, Peggy Cummins, Stewart Rome

The Salute of the Jugger

Australia 1989 91m Technicolor
Virgin/Handistrom/Kamisha Corporation/Kings Road Entertainment

In the future, a group of outcasts challenges a big city team to a violent sports contest.

Derivative and pallid low-budget science fiction movie of little interest.

wd David Peoples ph David Eggby m Todd Boekelheide pd John Stoddart ed Richard Francis-Bruce

☆ Rutger Hauer, Delroy Lindo, Anna Katarina, Vincent Phillip D'Onofrio, Gandhi McIntyre, Justin Monju, Aaron Martin, Joan Chen

Salute to the Marines

US 1943 101m Technicolor
MGM (John Considine Jnr)

A sergeant-major struggles to get his family out of the Philippines when the Japs attack.

Recruiting poster heroics with comedy interludes.

w Wells Root, George Bruce story Robert Andrews d S. Sylvan Simon ph Charles Schoenbaum, W. Howard Green m Lennie Hayton

☆ Wallace Beery, Fay Bainter, Marilyn Maxwell, William Lundigan, Keye Luke, Reginald Owen, Ray Collins, Noah Beery, Russell Gleason

Salvador ★

US 1986 123m colour
Hemdale/Gerald Green, Oliver Stone

Adventures of an American photo-journalist in Central America.

Drama torn from the headlines; it should perhaps have stayed there, as few people proved to be interested in paying to see it. One cannot, however, deny its brilliant if superficial technical command.

w Oliver Stone, Richard Boyle d Oliver Stone ph Robert Richardson m Georges Delerue

☆ James Woods, James Belushi, Michael Murphy, John Savage

'As raw, difficult, compelling, unreasonable, reckless and vivid as its protagonist.' – Variety

♗ best original screenplay; James Woods

The Salvation Hunters ★★

US 1925 65m (24 fps) bw silent
Academy Photoplays (Josef von Sternberg, George K. Arthur)

Among the mud flats of San Pedro, a boy wins his girl from a brute.

Mini-budgeted minor classic whose very artiness and pretentiousness were keys to its director's later development.

wd Josef von Sternberg ph Josef von Sternberg, Edward Gheller

☆ George K. Arthur, Georgia Hale, Bruce Guerin

'Audience reaction was: even our lives are not so drab as this, and if they are we don't want to know about it. Asked to comment on the failure of a film he had praised so highly, Chaplin said, "Well, you know I was only kidding. They all take everything I say so seriously. I thought I'd praise a bad picture and see what happened."' – Richard Griffith and Arthur Mayer, The Movies

Salvation Nell

US 1931 83m bw
Tiffany

A wronged girl sinks lower and lower until she joins the Salvation Army.

One thinks it must have been meant as a spoof, but apparently not.

w Selma Stein, Walter Woods play Edward Sheldon d James Cruze

☆ Helen Chandler, Ralph Graves, Sally O'Neil, Jason Robards, Dewitt Jennings

'It probably will be livelier in the States, where the Mme Cloquette scene is not cut out.' – Variety

Salvatore Giuliano ★★★

Italy 1961 125m bw
Lux/Vides/Galatea (Franco Cristaldi)

The bullet-ridden body of key Sicilian Mafia leader Giuliano triggers flashbacks to his complex and brutal career.

Vivid, sometimes obscure, politically oriented melodrama based on fact. Undoubtedly a local classic, but not an easy film to appreciate.
w Francesco Rosi, Suso Cecchi d'Amico, Enzo Provenzale, Franco Solinas
d Francesco Rosi ph Gianni di Venanzo
m Piero Piccioni ad Carlo Egidi, Sergio Canevari ed Mario Serandrei
☆ Frank Wolff (Gaspare Pisciotta), Salvo Randone (President of Viterbo Assize Court), Federico Zardi (Pisciotta's Defense Counsel)

'Epic reportage in the twentieth-century manner of a society reminiscent of some backward corner of the nineteenth century.' – Peter John Dyer, MFB

The Salzburg Connection

US 1972 93m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Ingo Preminger)

An American lawyer on holiday in Salzburg finds himself suspected by spies of both sides.
Turgid, routine action thriller with attractive locations.
w Oscar Millard novel Helen MacInnes
d Lee H. Katzin ph Wolfgang Treu md Lionel Newman
☆ Barry Newman, Anna Karina, Klaus-Maria Brandauer, Karen Jensen, Wolfgang Preiss

'So dull you can't tell the CIA agents from the neo-Nazis or double agents – or the inept actors from the blocks and stones in the handsome Austrian locales.' – Judith Crist

Sam Whiskey

US 1969 96m DeLuxe
UA/Brighton (Jules Levy, Arthur Gardner, Arnold Laven)

An itinerant gambler is paid to recover a fortune in gold bars from the bottom of a Colorado river.
Easy-going but rather slackly handled Western.
w William W. Norton d Arnold Laven
ph Robert Moreno m Herschel Burke Gilbert
☆ Burt Reynolds, Clint Walker, Ossie Davis, Angie Dickinson, Rick Davis, William Schallert

Samba Traoré

Burkina Faso/France 1992 85m colour
De La Plaine/De L'Avenir/Waka/A2 (Christophe Chesson, Joseph Traoré)

After robbing a petrol station, a man returns to his village and marries, but cannot escape the consequences of his act.
A pleasant but undramatic tale of strong women and weak men, told in a leisurely fashion.
w Idrissa Ouédraogo, Jacques Arhex, Santiago Amigoréna d Idrissa Ouédraogo ph Pierre Laurent Chenieux, Mathieu Vadepied m Faton Cahen, Lamine Konté ad Yves Brover ed Joelle Dufour
☆ Bakary Sangaré, Mariam Kaba, Irene Tassembedo, Abdoulaye Komboudri, Moumouri Compaoré, Sibidou Ouédraogo

Same Old Song

France/Switzerland/Italy/GB 1997 122m colour
Pathé/Arena/Camera One/France 2/Vega/Greenpoint Films (Bruno Pesery)

original title: On Connaît la Chanson

Six characters in search of love and luxury apartments.
Claiming inspiration from the work of English playwright Dennis Potter, this has the cast expressing their feelings by lip-synching to popular songs or, at any rate, songs popular in France; it gives a little lift to an otherwise conventional romantic comedy.
w Agnes Jaoui, Jean-Pierre Bacri d Alain Resnais ph Renato Berta m Bruno Fontaine ad Jacques Saulnier ed Hervé de Luze
☆ Pierre Arditi, Sabine Azema, Jean-Pierre Bacri, André Dussollier, Agnes Jaoui, Lambert Wilson, Jane Birkin, Jean-Paul Roussillon

'A comedy that's amiable enough but nothing exceptional.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

'The story of the longest-run date in the history of non-marriage!'

Same Time, Next Year ★

US 1978 119m colour
Universal/Walter Mirisch, Robert Mulligan

An illicit affair is carried on for twenty-five years, the couple confining themselves to one annual meeting in a hotel.
Careful film version of a smash Broadway comedy; the flimsiness of the premise is well concealed, but it remains a one-set play.
w Bernard Slade play Bernard Slade
d Robert Mulligan ph Robert Surtees
m Marvin Hamlisch pd Henry Bumstead
☆ Ellen Burstyn, Alan Alda
♗ Bernard Slade; Robert Surtees; Ellen Burstyn; song 'The Last Time I Felt Like This' (m Marvin Hamlisch, ly Alan and Marilyn Bergman)

Sammy and Rosie Get Laid ★

GB 1987 100m colour
Cinecom/Film Four (Tim Bevan, Sarah Radclyffe)

A young Pakistani accountant in London is confused by the return of his long-lost father, and vice versa.
Those who liked the harsh conflicts of My Beautiful Laundrette will get similar frissons from this; others will be as confused as the characters.
w Hanif Kureishi d Stephen Frears ph Oliver Stapleton m Stanley Myers
ed Mick Audsley
☆ Shashi Kapoor, Claire Bloom, Ayub Khan Din, Frances Barber, Roland Gift

'This is a film standing on important territory, confronting important issues, and trying to say important things. But its supreme failure as a film is that, frankly, I don't give a damn whether Sammy and Rosie get laid.' – Judith Williamson, New Statesman

Sammy Going South ★

GB 1963 128m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Bryanston (Hal Mason)
US title: A Boy Ten Feet Tall

A 10-year-old boy is orphaned in Port Said and hitch-hikes to his aunt in Durban.
Disappointing family-fodder epic in which the mini-adventures follow each other too predictably.
w Denis Cannan novel W. H. Canaway
d Alexander Mackendrick ph Erwin Hillier m Tristram Cary ☆ Fergus McClelland, Edward G. Robinson, Constance Cummings, Harry H. Corbett

Samourais

France/Spain/Germany 2002 90m colour
Pathé/Fidelite/M6/ (Marc Missonnier, Olivier Delbosc)
aka: Samourai

A Japanese cop goes to Paris in search of his daughter, who is pregnant with the reincarnation of a 500-year-old demon that was brought into the world by his ancestor.
Lively martial arts fantasy that incorporates a video game into the action.
w Matt Alexander, Giordano Gederlini
d Giordano Gederlini ph Pierre Aim
m Kenji Kawai ad Philippe Chiffre
ed Scott Stevenson fight choreographer Philip Kwok ☆ Cyril Mourali (Marco), Mai Anh Le (Akemi), Yasuaki Kurata (Fujiwara), Said Serrari (Nader), Santi Sudaros (Kodeni)

'Peppy, neatly plotted and consistently watchable cross-cultural martial arts romp that borrows as much as it invents.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

'A story as timeless and tumultuous as the violent age it spreads before you!'

Samson and Delilah

US 1949 128m Technicolor
Paramount/Cecil B. de Mille

Delilah, rejected by religious strong man Samson, cuts his hair and delivers him to his enemies.
Absurd biblical hokum, stodgily narrated and directed, monotonously photographed and edited, and notable only for the 30-second destruction of the temple at the end.
w Jesse L. Lasky Jnr, Fredric M. Frank d Cecil B. de Mille ph George Barnes
m Victor Young ad Hans Dreier, Walter Tyler ☆ Hedy Lamarr, Victor Mature, Angela Lansbury, George Sanders, Henry Wilcoxon, Olive Deering, Fay Holden, Russ Tamblyn

'To ignore so enormous, over-coloured, over-stuffed, flamboyant an "epic" would be almost as absurd as taking it seriously.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'Perhaps de Mille's survival is due to the fact that he decided in his movie nonage to ally himself with God as his co-maker and get his major scripts from the Bible, which he has always handled with the proprietary air of a gentleman fondling old love letters.' – New Yorker

♟ art direction
♗ George Barnes; Victor Young

The Samurai ★★★

France 1967 95m colour
Filmel/CICC/Fida (Raymond Borderie, Eugene Lepicier)

original title: Le Samourai
US title: The Godson

A hired assassin who lives by a code of self-sufficiency betrays himself by falling in love with the woman who witnessed his murder of a night-club owner.
Moodily atmospheric, engrossing, low-key thriller with minimal dialogue, shot in tones of greys and blues.
wd Jean-Pierre Melville ph Henri Decaë
m François de Roubaix pd Georges Casati
ad François de Lamothe ed Monique Bonnot, Yo Maurette
☆ Alain Delon (Jef Costello), François Périer (The Inspector), Nathalie Delon (Jan Lagrange), Caty Rosier (Valerie), Jacques Le Roy (The Gunman), Michel Boisrond (Wiener), Robert Favart (Barman)
† A dubbed version released in Britain in 1971 ran for 86m.

Samurai Assassin ★★★

Japan 1965 123m bw Tohoscope
Toho/Mifune (Tomoyuki Tanaka)

In the late 1850s, a group of anti-shogunate assassins suspect that one of their group, the illegitimate son of a nobleman, is a traitor.
Tragic account of a man exploiting a situation to discover his personal identity, only to find that he has been exploited by others, and that his actions bring an end to his dreams.
w Shinobu Hashimoto book Samurai Nippon by Jiromasa Gunji d Kihachi Okamoto ph Hiroshi Murai m Masaru Sato ad Iwao Akune ed Yoshitami Kuroiwa fight choreographer Ryuu Kuze ☆ Toshiro Mifune (Tsuruchiyo Niino), Keiju Kobayashi (Kurihara Einosuke), Michiyo Aratama (Okiku/Kukuhime), Yunosuke Ito (Hoshino Kenmotsu), Eijiro Touno (Kisoya Masagoro)

Samurai I: Musashi Miyamoto ★★★

Japan 1954 93m colour
Toho (Kazuo Takimura)

An ambitious young man goes in search of fame and fortune in a civil war, but returns home a sadder man before becoming pupil to a Buddhist monk.
The first episode of a trilogy about the legendary swordsman Musashi Miyamoto (c 1584-1645), told in a resolutely high-romantic style, often beautifully composed. It is a story of love, betrayal and valour that leaves an audience wanting to know what happens next.
w Hiroshi Inagaki, Tokuhei Wakao play Hideji Hojo novel Musashi by Eiji Yoshikawa d Hiroshi Inagaki ph Jun Yasumoto m Ikuma Dan ad Makoto Sono, Kisaku Ito ed Hideshi Ohi
☆ Toshirô Mifune (Takezo Musashi), Rentaro Mikuni (Matahachi), Kuroemon Onoe (Takuan), Kaoru Yachigusa (Otsu), Mariko Okada (Akemi), Mitsuko Mito (Oko), Eiko Miyoshi (Osugi), Akihiko Hirata (Seijuro Yoshioka)
♟ foreign film

Samurai II: Duel at Ichijoji Temple ★★★

Japan 1955 103m colour
Toho (Kazuo Takimura)

A master swordsman learns that it is not enough to be strong; he also needs to learn humility and chivalry.
The second instalment of the trilogy shows Musashi growing in wisdom and determined not to succumb to either of the two women who love him; it culminates in a betrayal that leaves him ambushed by 80 swordsmen.
w Hiroshi Inagaki, Tokuhei Wakao play Hideji Hojo novel Musashi by Eiji Yoshikawa d Hiroshi Inagaki ph Jun Yasumoto m Ikuma Dan ad Kisaku Ito, Makoto Sono ed Hirokazu Iwashita
☆ Toshiro Mifune (Musashi Miyamoto), Koji Tsuruta (Kojiro Sasaki), Kaoru Yachigusa (Otsu), Michiko Saga (Omitsu), Mariko Okada (Akemi), Michiyo Kogure (Lady Yoshino), Mitsuko Mito (Oko), Akihiko Hirata (Seijuro), Daisuke Kato (Toji), Kuroemon Onoe (Takuan)

Samurai III: Duel at Ganryu Island ★★★

Japan 1956 104m colour
Toho (Kazuo Takimura)

A warrior who has learned what it means to be a samurai is faced with a deadly opponent who kills for pleasure.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The concluding part of the trilogy, less action-packed than the first two films but displaying the same artistry.
w Hiroshi Inagaki, Tokuhei Wakao play Hideji Hojo novel Eiji Yoshikawa d Hiroshi Inagaki, ph Kazuo Yamada m Ikuma Dan ad Hiroshi Ueda, Kisaku Ito ed Hirokazu Iwashita
☆ Toshiro Mifune (Musashi Miyamoto), Koji Tsuruta (Kojiro Sasaki), Kaoru Yachigusa (Otsu), Michiko Saga (Omitsu), Mariko Okada (Akemi), Takashi Shimura (Court official)

Samurai Rebellion ★★★

Japan 1967 128m bw TohoScope
Toho/Mifune (Tomoyuki Tanaka)
original title: Joi-uchi
In the 1720s, a samurai obeys his lord's decision that his son should marry the lord's discarded mistress, but objects when the lord changes his mind.
Gripping , stylized, moral drama of individuals rebelling against autocratic rule and suffering the consequences.
w Shinobu Hashimoto novel Yasuhiko Takiguchi d Masaki Kobayashi ph Kazuo Yamada m Toru Takemitsu ad Yoshiro Muraki
☆ Toshiro Mifune (Isaburo Sasahara), Yoko Tsukasa (Lady Ichi), Go Kato (Yogoro Sasahara), Shigeru Koyama (Steward Takahashi), Masao Mishima (Chamberlain Yanase), Isao Yamagata (Shobei Tsuchiya), Tatsuya Nakadai (Tatewaki Asano)
'It is the feudal concept that is at fault, and not the men who seemingly control it but are actually controlled by it . . . Such human qualities as love, dignity, self-realization are – as a matter of course – crushed beneath the weight of this terrifying, if man-made, machine.' – Donald Richie, Japan Times

Samurai Trilogy: see Samurai I: Musashi Miyamoto; Samurai II: Duel at Ichijoji Temple; Samurai III: Duel at Ganryu Island

San Antone

US 1952 90m bw
Republic
During the Civil War a Texas rancher antagonizes an army lieutenant.
Very routine, competent Western without any moment of inspiration.
w Steve Fisher novel Golden Herd by Curt Carroll d Joseph Kane ph Bud Thackery, m R. Dale Butts ☆ Rod Cameron, Forrest Tucker, Arleen Whelan, Katy Jurado, Rodolfo Acosta

San Antonio ★

US 1945 109m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Buckner)
A cowboy incurs the jealousy of a saloon owner.
Typically thinly plotted Warner star Western which works well enough sequence by sequence, climaxing with a fight in the deserted Alamo.
w Alan le May, W. R. Burnett d David Butler ph Bert Glennon m Max Steiner ad Ted Smith
☆ Errol Flynn, Alexis Smith, Paul Kelly, Victor Francen, S. Z. Sakall, John Litel, Florence Bates, Robert Shayne, Monte Blue, Robert Barrat
♫ song 'Some Sunday Morning' (m Ray Heindorf, M. K. Jerome, ly Ted Koehler); Ted Smith

San Demetrio London ★

GB 1943 105m bw
Ealing (Robert Hamer)
In 1940, the survivors of a crippled tanker bring it back home.
Rather flat and dated propaganda piece which seemed much more vivid at the time.
w Robert Hamer, Charles Frend story F. Tennyson Jesse d Charles Frend ph Ernest Palmer, Roy Kellino m John Greenwood
☆ Walter Fitzgerald, Mervyn Johns, Ralph Michael, Robert Beatty, Charles Victor, Frederick Piper, Gordon Jackson
'In many ways a model for war films.' – Dilys Powell

San Diego I Love You ★

US 1944 83m bw
Universal (Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano)
A family travels to San Diego to promote father's inventions.
Pleasing, easy-come-easy-go comedy full of memorable incident and characterization.
w Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano
d Reginald Le Borg ph Hal Mohr m Hans Salter ☆ Louise Allbritton, Edward Everett Horton, Jon Hall, Eric Blore, Buster Keaton, Irene Ryan

'She fell in love with the toughest guy on the toughest street in the world!'

San Francisco ★★★

US 1936 117m bw
MGM (John Emerson, Bernard Hyman)
The loves and career problems of a Barbary Coast saloon proprietor climax in the 1906 earthquake.
Incisive, star-packed, superbly-handled melodrama which weaves in every kind of appeal and for a finale has some of the best special effects ever conceived.
w Anita Loos story Robert Hopkins d W. S. Van Dyke ph Oliver T. Marsh m Edward Ward md Herbert Stothart ad Harry McAfee, Arnold Gillespie, Cedric Gibbons ed Tom Held montage John Hoffman title song Bronislau Kaper
☆ Clark Gable (Blackie Norton), Spencer Tracy (Father Tim Mullin), Jeanette MacDonald (Mary Blake), Jack Holt (Jack Burley), Jessie Ralph (Maisie Burley), Ted Healy (Matt), Shirley Ross (Trixie), Al Shean (Professor), Harold Huber (Babe)
'Prodigally generous and completely satisfying.' – Frank S. Nugent
♫ best picture; Robert Hopkins; W. S. Van Dyke; Spencer Tracy

San Francisco Docks

US 1940 64m bw
Marshall Grant/Universal
A man accused of killing a crooked politician proves he didn't do it.
Curiously pretentious melodrama with suggestions of Group Theater style; not for the action buffs, or anybody else.
w Stanley Crea Rubin, Edmund L. Hartmann d Arthur Lubin ☆ Burgess Meredith, Irene Hervey, Raymond Walburn, Barry Fitzgerald, Robert Armstrong, Lewis Howard

'Between the sea and the Sierras stood the brawling gateway to gold!'

The San Francisco Story ★

US 1952 90m bw
Warner/Fidelity-Vogue (Howard Welsch)
In 1856, a wanderer bound for China stops in San Francisco to get involved in politics.
Lively melodrama with good period feel.
w D. D. Beauchamp novel Richard Summers d Robert Parrish ph John Seitz m Paul Dunlap md Emil Newman
☆ Joel McCrea, Yvonne de Carlo, Sidney Blackmer, Florence Bates

San Quentin ★

US 1937 70m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
A convict's sister loves the warden.
Standard tough prison melodrama, competently done.
w Peter Milne, Humphrey Cobb story John Bright, Robert Tasker d Lloyd Bacon ph Sid Hickox m Heinz Roemheld, David Raksin
☆ Pat O'Brien, Ann Sheridan, Humphrey Bogart, Barton MacLane, Joseph Sawyer, Veda Ann Borg 'Fairly good appeal but will need pushing.' – Variety

Sanctuary

US 1960 90m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Richard D. Zanuck)
The governor's daughter is seduced by a bootlegger, and her life goes from one tragedy to another.
Confused adaptation of unadaptable material, full of pussyfoot daring but little sense.
w James Poe novel William Faulkner d Tony Richardson ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Alex North ☆ Lee Remick, Bradford Dillman, Yves Montand, Odetta, Harry Townes, Howard St John, Reta Shaw, Strother Martin

'This is the story of the men on the USS San Pablo who disturbed the sleeping dragon of China as the world watched in breathless terror.'

The Sand Pebbles ★

US 1966 193m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Argyle/Solar (Robert Wise)
In 1926 an American gunboat patrolling the Yangtze river gets involved with Chinese warlords.
Confused action blockbuster with Vietnam parallels for those who care to pick them up; pretty thinly stretched entertainment despite the tons of explosive.
w Robert Anderson novel Richard McKenna d Robert Wise ph Joseph MacDonald m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Steve McQueen, Candice Bergen, Richard Attenborough, Richard Crenna, Marayat Andriane, Mako, Larry Gates, Simon Oakland
'If it had been done twenty years ago, it would have been fast and unpretentious, with some ingeniously faked background shots ... and we would never have asked for larger historical meanings.' – Pauline Kael
♫ best picture; Joseph MacDonald; Jerry Goldsmith; Steve McQueen; Mako

Sanders: see Death Drums along the River

Sanders of the River ★

GB 1935 98m bw
London (Alexander Korda)
US title: Bosambo
Problems of a British colonial servant in keeping peace among the tribes.
Much-caricatured African adventure of the very old school, helped by Robeson's personality.
w Lajos Biro, Jeffrey Dell stories Edgar Wallace d Zoltan Korda ph Georges Perinal, Osmond Borrodaile, Louis Page m/ly Mischa Spoliansky, Arthur Wimperis md Muir Mathieson ed Charles Crichton
☆ Leslie Banks, Paul Robeson, Nina Mae McKinney, Robert Cochran, Martin Walker, Richard Grey
'It will interest those who are sincerely interested in the cinema as an art form, but it will suffer the hazards of all pioneers.' – Variety
† The film's opening credits included the description: 'Africa ... Tens of millions of natives under British rule, each tribe with its own chieftain, governed and protected by a handful of white men whose everyday work is an unsung saga of courage and efficiency. One of them was Commissioner Sanders.'

The Sandlot

US 1993 101m colour
TCF/Island World
GB title: The Sandlot Kids
In the early 60s, an 11-year-old boy makes new friends with kids playing baseball in a sandlot and passes a personal test of courage by retrieving a valuable ball from a fearsome dog.
Pleasant, undemanding entertainment for the young, a nostalgic evocation of an idealized time.
w David Mickey Evans, Robert Gunter d David Mickey Evans ph Anthony B. Richmond m David Newman pd Chester Kaczenski ed Michael A. Stevenson
☆ Tom Guiry, Mike Vitar, Patrick Renna, Marty York, Chauncey Leopardi, Denis Leary, Karen Allen, James Earl Jones, Art La Fleur
'It leaves the odd impression of not only starring 12-year-olds, but being made by one.' – Nick Hasted, Sight and Sound

Sandokan against the Leopard of Sarawak

Italy 1964 94m Eastmancolor
Totalscope
Liber (Ottavio Poggi)
Three years after recovering his kingdom of Sarawak, Sandokan rescues his bride-to-be after she is kidnapped by the ambitious son of the former ruler.
A gaudy, plodding, low-brow adventure, short on thrills and likely to irritate many with its insistence that men have stronger wills than women.
w Deriso Arpad, Luigi Capuano novel Emilio Salgari d Luigi Capuano ph Adalberto Albertini m Carlo Rustichelli ad Giancarlo Bartolini Salimbeni, Ernest Kronberg ed Antonietta Zita
☆ Ray Danton, Guy Madison, Franca Bettoja, Mario Petri, Alberto Farnese, Mino Doro, Giulio Marchetti, Aldo Bufi-Landi
† It was a sequel to Sandokan Fights Back (qv).

Sandokan Fights Back

Italy/West Germany 1964 96m colour
Liber/Eichberg (Ottavio Poggi)
A Malaysian pirate discovers that he is the rightful Rajah of Sarawak and decides to regain his kingdom.
Inept and trivial adventure, devoid of thrills.
w Arpad de Riso, Luigi Capuano novel Emilio Salgari d Luigi Capuano ph Adalberto Albertini ed Antonietta Zita
☆ Ray Danton, Guy Madison, Franca Bettoja, Mino Doro

† It was followed by a sequel, Sandokan against the Leopard of Sarawak (qv).

Sandokan the Great

Italy/France/Spain 1963 114m Techniscope
Filmes/CCF/Ocean

The son of the Sultan of Borneo wages jungle war against the oppressive British.
A curious mixture of Tarzan and Robin Hood, this character appeared in several adventures before expiring; the first chapter is the best, or least worst.
w Fulvio Gicca, Umberto Lenzi novel Emilio Salgari d Umberto Lenzi ph Aurelio Gutierrez Larraya, Angelo Lotti
m Giovanni Fusco
☆ Steve Reeves, Genevieve Grad, Rik Battaglia, Andrea Bosic

The Sandpiper

US 1965 116m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Filmways (John Calley)

An artist lives with her illegitimate son in a Monterey beach shack; when she is forced to send the boy to school he attracts the attention of the minister in charge.
Absurd novelettish love story basically copied from The Garden of Allah; pretty seascapes are the most rewarding aspect.
w Dalton Trumbo, Michael Wilson
d Vincente Minnelli ph Milton Krasner
m Johnny Mandel
☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton, Eva Marie Saint, Charles Bronson, Robert Webber
'Straight Louisa May Alcott interlarded with discreet pornographic allusions.' – John Simon
'Sex-on-the-sand soap opera.' – Robert Windeler
♪ song 'The Shadow of Your Smile' (m Johnny Mandel, ly Paul Francis Webster)

'My name is Stryker. Sgt John M. Stryker. You're gonna be my squad!'

Sands of Iwo Jima ★

US 1949 109m bw
Republic (Edmund Grainger)

During World War II in the Pacific, a tough sergeant of marines moulds raw recruits into fighting men but is himself shot by a sniper.
Celebrated star war comic, still quite hypnotic in its flagwaving way.
w Harry Brown, James Edward Grant
d Allan Dwan ph Reggie Lanning
m Victor Young ed Richard L. Van Enger
☆ John Wayne, John Agar, Adele Mara, Forrest Tucker, Arthur Franz, Julie Bishop, Richard Jaeckel
'The battle sequences are terrifyingly real ... but the personal dramatics make up a compendium of war-picture clichés.' – Variety
'Say what you like about the sentimental flavour of war pictures such as this, there's no denying they keep you in your seat.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
♪ Harry Brown (original story); John Wayne; editing

Sands of the Desert

GB 1960 92m Technicolor
Associated British

A diminutive travel agent goes out to investigate a desert holiday camp which has suffered from sabotage.
Limp star comedy with poor studio work and meandering script.
wd John Paddy Carstairs ph Gilbert Taylor
m Stanley Black
☆ Charlie Drake, Peter Arne, Sarah Branch, Raymond Huntley, Peter Illing, Harold Kasket

Sands of the Kalahari

GB 1965 119m Technicolor Panavision
Pendennis (Cy Endfield, Stanley Baker)

Survivors of a plane crash trek across the desert and are menaced by baboons and each other.
Hysterical melodrama with predictable heebie-jeebies by all concerned and the baddie finally left to the mercy of the monkeys. For hardened sensationalists.
wd Cy Endfield novel William Mulvihill
ph Erwin Hillier m Johnny Dankworth
☆ Stanley Baker, Stuart Whitman, Harry Andrews, Susannah York, Theodore Bikel, Nigel Davenport, Barry Lowe

The Sandwich Man ★

GB 1966 95m Eastmancolor
Rank/Titan (Peter Newbrook)

In the course of a walking day around London a sandwich man encounters many of his eccentric acquaintances.
Spurned when it was first released, this comedy variety show, mostly in mime, can now be seen to be of a kind popularized by TV, and may have been simply ahead of its time. It certainly seems funnier than it did.
w Michael Bentine, Robert Hartford-Davis
d Robert Hartford-Davis ph Peter Newbrook m Mike Vickers
☆ Michael Bentine, Dora Bryan, Suzy Kendall, Norman Wisdom, Harry H. Corbett, Bernard Cribbins, Ian Hendry, Stanley Holloway, Alfie Bass, Diana Dors, Ron Moody, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Donald Wolfit, Max Bacon, Fred Emney and also Frank Finlay, Peter Jones, Michael Medwin, Ronnie Stevens, John Le Mesurier, Sydney Tafler, John Junkin, Warren Mitchell

Sandy Gets Her Man

US 1940 65m bw
Universal (Burt Kelly)

A councilman's baby gets involved in the rival claims of police and fire departments for the best funding.
Rather complex excuse for a slight family comedy.
w Sy Bartlett, Jane Storm d Otis Garrett, Paul Gerard Smith
☆ Baby Sandy, Stuart Erwin, Edgar Kennedy, Una Merkel, William Frawley, Edward Brophy

Sandy Is a Lady

US 1940 62m bw
Universal (Burt Kelly)

A baby is responsible for her father's promotion.
Third of a series featuring the gurgling infant introduced in East Side of Heaven. (The others: Little Accident, Unexpected Father, Sandy Gets Her Man.) This one is an excuse for slapstick comedy situations.
w Charles Grayson d Charles Lamont
☆ Baby Sandy, Butch and Buddy, Eugene Pallette, Nan Grey, Tom Brown, Mischa Auer, Billy Gilbert, Edgar Kennedy

Sandy Takes a Bow: see Unexpected Father

Le Sang d'un Poète: see The Blood of a Poet

Sang Gong Yatho Tungchap Fan: see Rock'N'Roll Cop

Sangaree

US 1953 95m Technicolor 3-D
Paramount/Pine-Thomas

Trouble ensues when a plantation owner wills his wealth to the son of a slave.
Period skulduggery rather hammily presented.
w David Duncan novel Frank G. Slaughter
d Edward Ludwig ph Lionel Lindon, W. Wallace Kelley m Lucien Cailliet ☆ Fernando Lamas, Arlene Dahl, Patricia Medina, Francis L. Sullivan, Charles Korvin, Tom Drake, John Sutton, Willard Parker, Lester Matthews

Sanger Fran Andra Vaningen ★★★

Sweden/France/Denmark/Norway/Germany 2000 99m colour
ICA/Roy Andersson/Sveriges TV/Danmarks Radio/Norsk Rikskringkasting/Arte France/SPDP/Essential/Easy/ZDF/La Sept (Lisa Alwert)

aka: Songs From the Second Floor

In a European city, financial experts fiddle with unlikely solutions to an economic crisis, while individuals suffer.
An extraordinary work, a surrealist satire on modern society that proceeds by discontinuous scenes, filmed in a vividly individual way; there is no other film quite like it.
wd Roy Andersson ph Istvan Borbas, Jesper Klevenas m Benny Andersson ed Roy Andersson cos Leontine Arvidsson ☆ Lars Nordh (Kalle), Stefan Larsson (Stefan), Torbjörn Fahlström (Pelle Wigert), Sten Andersson (Lasse), Lucio Vucino (Magician), Hanna Eriksson (Mia), Peter Roth (Tomas), Tommy Johansson (Uffe), Sture Olsson (Sven)
'Rapidly wears out its welcome after the first few reels to finish up as a perplexing objet d'art.' – Derek Elley, Variety
'Here is a film to try the patience of the non-believer, but astonish everyone else. Some might find it a curate's egg of strangeness. But it's one of the Fabergé variety.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Audacious, offensive, original.' – Roger Ebert

Sango Malo ★

Cameroon/Burkina Faso 1991 93m colour
Les Films Terre Africaine/Cameroun Radio and TV/FODIC/DIPROCI (Emmanuel Toko)

An idealistic schoolteacher in his first job angers village leaders and his punitive and conservative headmaster by ignoring traditional ways and putting the emphasis on practical education.
A tough and complex view of Cameroonian village life, in which there are no heroes.
wd Bassek Ba Kobhio novel Sango Malo – Le Maître du Canton by Bassek Ba Kobhio
ph Joseph Guerin m Francis Bebey
ad François Bollo ed Marie-Jeanne Kanyala ☆ Jérome Bolo, Marcel Mvondo II, Edwige Ntongon è Zock, Jean Minguele, Jimmy Biyong, Henriette Fenda
'Offers a valuable look at the harsh realities of life in this little-seen land. But despite a relatively lively script, pic is unable to sustain its initially fast pace.' – Variety

Sangre de Virgenes

Argentina 1967 72m Eastmancolor
Associated Argent (Oreste Trucco)
aka: Blood of the Virgins

On a dark and stormy night, tourists take refuge in a deserted farmhouse that is said to be haunted.
Low budget soft-core porn masquerading as a vampire movie; by any standards, it is inept and extremely dull.
wd Emilio Vieyra ph Anibal Gonzales Paz
m Victor Buchino ed Oscar Ronet sp Martin Best
☆ Ricardo Bauleo, Gloria Prat, Raoul Monroy, Walter Kliche, Susan Beltran, Mitlon Ghio, Mariella Albano, Jiustin Martin

Sanjuro ★★

Japan 1962 96m bw Tohoscope
Toho/Kurosawa (Tomoyuki Tanaka, Ryuzo Kikushima)

original title: Tsubaki Sanjuro

A ronin, or wandering samurai, inspires some young and rebellious warriors to fight against corruption.
Deftly enjoyable drama, spiced with wit and humanity, and tinged with sadness for its lone and homeless hero.
w Ryuzo Kikushima, Hideo Oguni, Akira Kurosawa novel Shugoro Yamamoto
d Akira Kurosawa ph Fukuzo Koizumi
m Masaru Sato ad Yoshio Muraki
☆ Toshiro Mifune, Tatsuya Nakadai, Yuzo Kayama, Akihiko Hirata, Kunie Tanaka
'The most autumnal of Kurosawa's Japanese Westerns.' – Nigel Andrews
† Despite the change in name, the ronin played by Mifune is the same character who appeared in the earlier Yojimbo (qv).

Sans Lendemain ★

France 1940 83m bw
Gregor Rabinovitch/Cine Alliance

A night-club hostess with a mysterious past is troubled when an old lover turns up.
Moody melodrama in the Quai des Brumes tradition.
w Jean Wilhelm, Max Colpet d Max Ophüls
☆ Edwige Feuillère, Georges Rigaud, Georges Lannes, Paul Azais

Sans Toit ni Loi: see Vagabonde

Sansho the Bailiff ★★★

Japan 1954 132m bw
Daiei (Masaichi Nagata)

original title: Sansho dayu

In medieval Japan, a provincial governor is exiled for trying to protect the peasants from exploitation; following him seven years later, his wife is forced into prostitution and his son and daughter bought as slaves by the ruthless Sansho.
A tough tale of oppression and injustice, sacrifice and redemption, told simply but with great skill, the beauty of its images alleviating some of the narrative's harshness, but not its power.
w Fuji Yahiro, Yoshikata Yoda novel Ogai Mori d Kenji Mizoguchi ph Kazuo Miyagawa m Fumio Hayasaka ad Kasaku Ito ed Mitsuji Miyata
☆ Eitaro Shindo (Sansho), Kinuyo Tanaka (Tamaki), Yoshiaki Hanayagi (Zushio), Kyoko Kagawa (Anju), Akitaka Kono (Taro), Keiko Enami (Anju as a Girl), Masahiko Kato (Young Zushio)
† The film was awarded a Silver Lion at the Venice Film Festival in 1955.

Santa Claus

GB 1985 112m Rank Colour Panavision
Alexander Salkind (Ilya Salkind, Pierre Spengler)

An old woodcutter is given immortality by the elves and turned into Santa Claus; in modern times, he goes to New York to rescue a discontented elf from the clutches of a demon toymaker.

Utterly charmless treatment of an extremely vague legend, with the two halves entirely failing to coalesce and the level of invention low throughout.
w David Newman d Jeannot Szwarc ph Arthur Ibbetson m Henry Mancini pd Anthony Pratt ed Peter Hollywood
☆ David Huddleston, Dudley Moore, John Lithgow, Judy Cornwell, Christian Fitzpatrick, Burgess Meredith
'For children of all ages, but it skews best towards infancy or senility.' – Variety

The Santa Clause

US 1994 95m colour
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Brian Reilly, Jeffrey Silver, Robert Newmyer)
When Santa Claus falls off the roof of his house, an advertising executive takes over and discovers he is stuck with the job.
A pleasant though far from hilarious comedy that seems uncertain whether it's intended for kids or adults and is unlikely to prove memorable for either audience.
w Leonard Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick d John Pasquin ph Walt Lloyd m Michael Convertino pd Carol Spier ed Larry Bock
☆ Tim Allen, Judge Reinhold, Wendy Crewson, Eric Lloyd
'Allen can mug with the best of them, but his straight material is found wanting. Like a latter-day Bob Hope, he can't transcend his popular persona.' – Denis Seguin, Screen International

The Santa Clause 2

2002 104m Technicolor
Buena Vista
American adman-turned-Santa-Claus discovers that he must find a wife before Christmas Eve and returns from the North Pole in search of one.
Amiable, eminently forgettable comedy of suburban life.
w Don Rhymer, Cinco Paul, Ken Daurio, EdDecter, John J. Strauss story Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick d Michael Lembeck ph Adam Greenberg m George S. Clinton pd Tony Burrough ed David Finfer
☆ Tim Allen (Scott Calvin/Santa/Toy Santa), Elizabeth Mitchell (Carol), David Krumholtz (Bernard), Eric Lloyd (Charlie Calvin), Judge Reinhold (Neil Miller), Wendy Crewson (Laura Miller), Spencer Breslin (Curtis), Liliana Mumy (Lucy Miller)
'You might find the syllables bah, hum, and bug dancing on your lips.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'His time at the North Pole is about to go South.'

Santa Clause 3 The Escape Clause

USA 2006 91m Technicolor
Buena Vista International UK/Disney/Outlaw/Boxing Cat (Brian Reilly)
Santa unwisely allows the malevolent Jack Frost to help him prepare for Christmas.
Entirely unwelcome addition to the series, with a story that shamelessly plunders its climax from It's A Wonderful Life.
w Ed Decter, John J. Strauss d Michael Lembeck ph Robbie Greenberg m George S. Clinton pd Richard J. Holland ad Charlie Daboub ed David Finfer sp David Yrisarri
☆ Tim Allen (Santa/Calvin), Elizabeth Mitchell (Mrs. Claus/Carol), Judge Reinhold (Neil Miller), Wendy Crewson (Laura Miller), Ann-Margret (Sylvia Newman), Martin Short (Jack Frost)
'The whole film is plagued by a sense of false, desperate cheerfulness.' – TV Guide

Santa Fe

US 1951 89m Technicolor
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)
After the Civil War, the eldest of four westbound brothers tries to prevent the others from becoming outlaws.
Regulation star Western, with action sequences a little under par.
w Kenneth Gamet d Irving Pichel ph Charles Lawton Jnr m Paul Sawtell ☆ Randolph Scott, Jerome Courtland, Janis Carter, Peter Thompson, John Archer, Warner Anderson, Roy Roberts

Santa Fe Passage

US 1955 89m Trucolor
Republic
An Indian-hating scout with a bad record is hired to transport arms to Santa Fe.
Rough-and-ready brawling Western with very little going for it.
w Lillie Hayward d William Witney ph Bud Thackery m R. Dale Butts ☆ John Payne, Rod Cameron, Faith Domergue, Slim Pickens, Leo Gordon

'The thundering story that challenges all filmdom to match its excitement!'

Santa Fe Trail ★★

US 1940 110m bw
Warner (Robert Fellows)
A cavalry officer is responsible for the final capture of John Brown.
The most solemn Western from star or studio has impressive patches amid routine excitements.
w Robert Buckner d Michael Curtiz ph Sol Polito m Max Steiner ad John Hughes ed George Amy ☆ Errol Flynn (Jeb Stuart), Olivia de Havilland ('Kit Carson' Holliday), Raymond Massey (John Brown), Ronald Reagan (George Custer), Alan Hale (Tex Bell), Van Heflin (Rader), Gene Reynolds (Jason Brown), Henry O'Neill (Cyrus Holliday), William Lundigan (Bob Holliday), Guinn 'Big Boy' Williams (Windy Brody), Alan Baxter (Oliver Brown), John Litel (Martin), Moroni Olsen (Robert E. Lee), Ward Bond (Townley)

'Forget everything you have ever seen!'

Santa Sangre

Italy 1989 123m colour
Mainline/Produzioni Intersound (Claudio Argento)
An armless, but far from harmless, mother forces her demented son to use his arms and hands as substitutes for her own, severed by her jealous husband.
Phantasmagoria of images of death and mutilation that, despite their occasional visual flamboyance, signify very little.
w Robert Leoni, Alejandro Jodorowsky, Claudio Argento d Alejandro Jodorowsky ph Daniele Nannuzzi m Simon Boswell pd Alejandro Luna ed Mauro Bonanni
☆ Axel Jodorowsky, Blanca Guerra, Guy Stockwell, Thelma Tixou, Sabrina Dennison, Adan Jodorowski, Faviola Elenka Tapia, Teo Jodorowsky
† A two-disc Region 2 DVD release includes commentary by Jodorowsky , a documentary La Constellation Jodorowsky, and deleted scenes.

Santee

US 1972 93m colour
Vagabond (Deno Paoli, Edward Platt)
A boy goes west to find his father and befriends the bounty hunter who has killed him.
Personable, violent Western with adequate style and performances.
w Brand Bell d Gary Nelson ph Donald Morgan m Don Randi
☆ Glenn Ford, Michael Burns, Dana Wynter, Jay Silverheels, Harry Townes, John Larch

Santiago

US 1956 92m Warnercolor
Cinemascope
Warner (Martin Rackin)
GB title: The Gun Runner
A Mississippi paddle-boat sets out for Cuba with a consignment of guns for the rebels.
Stiff period actioner of no particular merit.
w Martin Rackin, John Twist d Gordon Douglas ph John Seitz m David Buttolph
☆ Alan Ladd, Rossana Podesta, Lloyd Nolan, Chill Wills, Paul Fix, L. Q. Jones, Frank de Kova

The Saphead ★

US 1920 70m (24 fps) bw silent
Metro/Buster Keaton
A shy young man reads a manual on how to win the modern girl.
Interesting early star comedy: quite winning in its way, but without the spectacular moments which were a feature of his later films.
w June Mathis play The New Henrietta by Winchell Smith, Victor Mapes d Herbert Blache ph Harold Wenstrom
☆ Buster Keaton, Beula Booker, William H. Crane, Irving Cummings

Sapphire ★★

GB 1959 92m Eastmancolor
Rank/Artna (Michael Relph)
Scotland Yard solves the murder of a black music student.
Efficient police thriller with a strong race angle.
w Janet Green d Basil Dearden ph Harry Waxman m Philip Green ☆ Nigel Patrick, Michael Craig, Yvonne Mitchell, Paul Massie, Bernard Miles, Olga Lindo, Earl Cameron, Gordon Heath, Robert Adams
'A dandy murder mystery – taut, tantalizing and beautifully done.' – Judith Crist, 1980
British film

Saps at Sea

US 1940 60m bw
Hal Roach
Ollie needs a rest after working in a horn factory, so he and Stan take a boating holiday but are kidnapped by a gangster.
Disappointing star comedy with gags too few and too long drawn out.
w Charles Rogers, Harry Langdon, Gil Pratt, Felix Adler d Gordon Douglas ph Art Lloyd m Marvin Hatley
☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Dick Cramer, Ben Turpin

Saraband: see Saraband for Dead Lovers

Saraband for Dead Lovers ★

GB 1948 96m Technicolor
Ealing (Michael Relph)
US title: Saraband
The tragic love affair of Konigsmark and Sophie Dorothea, wife of the Elector of Hanover who later became George I of England.
Gloomy but superb-looking historical love story; it just misses being a memorable film.
w John Dighton, Alexander Mackendrick novel Helen Simpson d Basil Dearden, Michael Relph ph Douglas Slocombe m Alan Rawsthorne ad Jim Morahan, William Kellner, Michael Relph
☆ Stewart Granger, Joan Greenwood, Françoise Rosay, Flora Robson, Peter Bull
'Suspense, romance, interest and excitement in full measure.' – MFB
art direction

The Saracen Blade

US 1954 76m Technicolor
Columbia (Sam Katzman)
In the 13th century a young Italian crusader devotes himself to avenging the murder of his father.
Cut-price swashbuckler full of unintentional laughs and therefore quite watchable.
w DeVallon Scott, George Worthing Yates novel Frank Yerby d William Castle ph Henry Freulich m Mischa Bakaleinikoff ☆ Ricardo Montalban, Betta St John, Rick Jason, Carolyn Jones, Michael Ansara

'The Sound of Freedom.'
'Her story will move you. Her struggle will change you. Her spirit will inspire you.'

Sarafina!

South Africa 1992 116m
Agfacolor
Warner/Ideal/Distant Horizon/Videovision/Ariane/VPI/BBC (Anant Singh, David M. Thompson)
A South African schoolgirl in Soweto realizes she has to fight for freedom, following the example of her history teacher and her mother – and learning from her own experiences when she is imprisoned and tortured.
An odd mix of musical and near-documentary realism that obstinately fails to comes to life on the screen.
w William Nicholson, Mbongeni Ngema musical Mbongeni Ngema d Darrell James Roodt ph Mark Vincente m Stanley Myers ch Michael Peters, Mbongeni Ngema ed Peter Hollywood, Sarah Thomas ☆ Leleti Khumalo, Whoopi Goldberg, Miriam Makeba, John Kani, Dumisani Diamini, Mbongeni Ngema, Sipho Kunene
'If one is prepared to forgive it its large measure of amateurishness and naivety, and is braced for the distress inherent in the subject matter, this can be cautiously recommended as a vivid testament to the unacceptable circumstances in which too many children grow up.' – Angie Errigo, Empire

Sarah and Son

US 1930 85m bw
Paramount (David O. Selznick)
A widow seeks the baby her husband took away from her.
Mother love saga; soppy but with good credits.
w Zoe Akins novel Timothy Shea d Dorothy Arzner ph Charles Lang

☆ Ruth Chatterton, Fredric March, Fuller Mellish Jnr, Gilbert Emery, Doris Lloyd

'Madame X with a slightly varied theme. Photography and recording par.' – Variety

Ruth Chatterton

Saratoga ★

US 1937 102m bw
MGM (Bernard H. Hyman)

A bookmaker helps the daughter of a horse breeder.

Forgettable racetrack drama notable chiefly as the last film of Jean Harlow who died before it was completed.

w Anita Loos, Robert Hopkins d Jack Conway ph Ray June m Edward Ward

☆ Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Lionel Barrymore, Frank Morgan, Walter Pidgeon, Una Merkel, Cliff Edwards, George Zucco, Jonathan Hale

'Glib, forthright, knowing and adroit.' – Time

'Surefire box office, and tastefully produced.' – Variety

'Their times were violent – and so was their love!'

Saratoga Trunk ★

US 1943 135m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

A notorious woman comes back to New Orleans and falls for a cowboy helping a railroad combine against their rivals.

Curious, unsatisfactory, miscast and overlong film version of a bestseller; there are enjoyable sequences, but it simply fails to come alive.

w Casey Robinson novel Edna Ferber d Sam Wood ph Joseph St Amaad m Max Steiner

☆ Ingrid Bergman, Gary Cooper, Flora Robson, Jerry Austin, Florence Bates, John Warburton, John Abbott, Curt Bois, Ethel Griffies

'It lacks a logical pattern of drama and character ... a piece of baggage labelled solely for the stars.' – Bosley Crowther

Flora Robson

Sarineui Chueok: see Memories of Murder

Sarraounia ★

Burkina Faso 1986 121m Fujicolour Technovision
Les Films Soleil (Med Hondo)

An African warrior queen resists white colonization of her country.

Based on actual events in the 1890s in what is now Nigeria, an ambitious, if flawed, attempt at an epic of repression and power politics.

w Med Hondo, Abdoulaye Mamani, Abdoul War book Abdoulaye Mamani d Med Hondo ph Guy Famechon m Pierre Akendengue pd Jacques D'Ovidio ed Marie-Therese Boiché

☆ Ai Keïta, Jean-Roger Milo, Feodor Atkine, Didier Sauvegrain, Roger Mirmont, Luc-Antoine Diquaro, Jean-Pierre Castaldi, Tidjani Ouedraogo

'An alternative to mainstream cinema which is both exhilarating and accessible ... cinema-goers will be surprised how much they enjoy it.' – Judith Williamson, New Statesman

Sartana

Italy/West Germany 1968 97m Telecolor Paris-Etoile/Widescreen (Aldo Addobbati)

A mysterious stranger thwarts the plans of gangs of ruthless killers and gains a fortune in gold.

Uninteresting spaghetti Western with an invulnerable hero, notable only for its high body count and its contrived yet clichéd details, ranging from an eccentric coffin-maker to a cackling villain, deaths accompanied by the sound of a tinkling, musical watch, and a gunfighter who shoots a four-barrelled pistol.

w Renato Izzo, Gianfranco Parolini, Werner Hauff story Luigi de Santis, Fabio Piccioni, Adolfo Cagnacci d Frank Kramer (Gianfranco Parolini) ph Sandro Mancori m Piero Piccioni ad Giorgio Desideri ed Edmundo Lozzi

☆ John Garko (Gianni Garko), William Berger, Sydney Chaplin, Klaus Kinski, Gianni Rizzo, Fernando Sancho, Andrew Scott, Carlo Tamberlani, Franco Pesce, Heidi Fisher

Saskatchewan

US 1954 87m Technicolor
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)
GB title: O'Rourke of the Royal Mounted

A mountie helps the lady survivor of an Indian attack.

Standard star actioner.

w Gil Doud d Raoul Walsh ph John Seitz m Hans Salter

☆ Alan Ladd, Shelley Winters, J. Carrol Naish, Hugh O'Brian, Robert Douglas, Richard Long, Jay Silverheels

The Satan Bug ★

US 1965 114m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch/Kappa (John Sturges)

At a top-secret desert research station, one scientist is a traitor, and a deadly virus has been stolen for use by a mad millionaire.

Slow-moving, portentous, gadget-filled actioner which looks good but seldom stimulates.

w James Clavell, Edward Anhalt novel Alistair MacLean d John Sturges ph Robert Surtees m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ George Maharis, Richard Basehart, Anne Francis, Dana Andrews, Ed Asner

Satan Met a Lady ★

US 1936 74m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

Various crooks and a private detective pursue a rare artifact.

Perversely rewritten version of The Maltese Falcon (qv). Fascinating but not really successful.

w Brown Holmes d William Dieterle ph Arthur Edeson m Leo F. Forbstein

☆ Bette Davis, Warren William, Alison Skipworth, Arthur Treacher, Wini Shaw, Marie Wilson, Porter Hall

'One lives through it in constant expectation of seeing a group of uniformed individuals appear suddenly from behind the furniture and take the entire cast into protective custody.' – Bosley Crowther

Satan Never Sleeps

US/GB 1962 126m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Leo McCarey
GB title: The Devil Never Sleeps

In the late forties in China, Catholic missionaries defy the communists.

Failed anti-Red imitation of Inn of the Sixth Happiness with the priests from Going My Way. Has to be seen to be believed.

w Claude Binyon, Leo McCarey d Leo McCarey ph Oswald Morris m Richard Rodney Bennett

☆ Clifton Webb, William Holden, France Nuyen, Weaver Lee, Athene Seyler, Martin Benson

'For all its superficial smirk of piety, this is just a prurient, soft-soapy and holy water version of the spicy story about the lonely missionary and the beautiful native girl.' – Time

The Satanic Rites of Dracula

GB 1973 88m Technicolor
Hammer (Roy Skeggs)

US title: Count Dracula and His Vampire Bride

When vampires infest London, a property speculator proves to be Dracula himself.

Intriguingly plotted screamer with more mystery than horror.

w Don Houghton d Alan Gibson ph Brian Probyn m John Cacavas ad Lionel Couch ed Chris Barnes sp Les Bowie

☆ Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Michael Coles, William Franklyn, Freddie Jones, Richard Vernon, Patrick Barr

'Shot with the kind of flashy anonymity that one expects of a TV series.' – David Pirie, MFB

Satan's Skin: see Blood on Satan's Claw

Satan's Sword 3: The Final Chapter ★

Japan 1961 93m bw
Daiei (Masaichi Nagata)

Haunted by ghosts from his past, a blinded samurai continues with his capricious murders.

A faster-paced finish to the trilogy, which dispenses with the political subplot and comes to a satisfyingly dramatic conclusion amid storm and floods.

w Teinosuke Kinugasa novel Kaizan Nakazato d Issei Mori ph Shozo Honda m Tetsuo Tsukahara

☆ Raizo Ichikawa (Tsukue Ryunosuke), Tamao Nakamura (Otoyo), Kojiro Hongo (Uzuki Hyoma), Katsuhiko Kobayashi

Satan's Sword: Great Buddha Pass ★

Japan 1960 106m colour
Daiei (Masaichi Nagata)

original title: Daibosatsu Toge

A ruthless and unbalanced samurai ruins the lives of two women – one by raping an opponent's wife and later killing her after she gives birth to their son, the other by killing her grandfather and leaving her destitute.

A somewhat inert samurai movie, the first part of a trilogy, hampered by its studio-bound production and often stilted approach. The film ends on a cliff-hanger, with the beginning of a duel.

w Teinosuke Kinugasa novel Kaizan Nakazato d Kenji Misumi m Seiichi Suzuki ad Akira Naito

☆ Raizo Ichikawa (Tsukue Ryunosuke), Tamao Nakamura (Otoyo), Kojiro Hongo (Uzuki Hyoma), Fujiko Yamamoto (Omatsu), Chiezo Kataoka

† It was remade by Kihachi Okamoto in 1966 as Sword of Doom (qv).

'Never told till now! The world's most guarded secret!'

Satellite in the Sky

GB 1956 85m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner/Tridelta/Danziger

A rocketship is ordered to lose a tritonium bomb in space, but the device attaches itself to the side of the ship.

Boringly talkative low-budget science fiction with ideas beyond its station but not enough talent to put them over.

w John Mather, J. T. McIntosh, Edith Dell d Paul Dickson ph Georges Périnal m Albert Elms

☆ Kieron Moore, Lois Maxwell, Donald Wolfit, Bryan Forbes, Jimmy Hanley, Alan Gifford

Satisfaction

US 1988 96m DeLuxe
TCF/NBC (Aaron Spelling, Alan Greisman)

aka: The Girls of Summer

A rock band – three women, one man – win a summer residency and find romance, or sex, at a smart club.

Inconsequential teen drama providing no entertainment and sub-standard rock.

w Charles Purpura d Joan Freeman ph Thomas Del Ruth m Michel Colombier ed Joel Goodman

☆ Justine Bateman, Liam Neeson, Trini Alvarado, Scott Coffey, Britta Phillips, Julia Roberts, Debbie Harry

'Will they go all the way?'

Satreelex

Thailand 2000 104m colour
ICA/Tai Entertainment
GB and US title The Iron Ladies

Tired of rejection, some Thai transsexuals, transvestites and gay men form a volleyball team that wins the national championships.

Based on a true story of the volleyball champions of 1996, this deliriously camp account is played for easy laughs, and may amuse audiences in an indulgent mood.

w Visuthichai Boonyakarinjana, Jira Maligool, Yongyoot Thongkongtoon d Yongyoot Thongkongtoon ph Jira Maligool m Wild at Heart ad Narucha Vijitvarit ed Sunit Assavinikul

☆ Chaichan Nimpoonsawas (Jung), Sahaparp Virakamin (Mon), Giorgio Maiocchi (Nong), Gokgorn Benjathikul (Pia), Jessdaporn Pholdee (Chai), Siridhana Hongsophon (Coach Bee), Ekachai Burnanapanit (Wit)

'A giddy feel-good comedy...as flimsy and manipulative as the shallowest Hollywood fantasy.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

† The film became the second highest-grossing Thai film so far.

'A South Seas Shangri-La of Romance and Adventure...'

Saturday Island

GB 1951 102m Technicolor
Coronado (David E. Rose)
US title: Island of Desire

In 1943 a supply boat is torpedoed and a Canadian nurse finds romance on a desert island with a US marine and a one-armed RAF pilot.

Unlikely, conversational, old-fashioned love story.

w Stephanie Nordli novel Hugh Brooke d Stuart Heisler ph Arthur Ibbetson m William Alwyn ad John Howell ed Russell Lloyd

☆ Linda Darnell (Elizabeth Smythe), Tab Hunter (Michael J. 'Chicken' Dugan), Donald Gray (William Peck), John Laurie (Grimshaw), Sheila Chong (Tukua)

Saturday Night and Sunday Morning ★★★★

GB 1960 89m bw
Bryanston/Woodfall (Harry Salzman, Tony Richardson)

A Nottingham factory worker is dissatisfied with his lot, gets into trouble through an affair with a married woman, but finally settles for convention.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Startling when it emerged, this raw working-class melodrama, with its sharp detail and strong comedy asides, delighted the mass audience chiefly because of its strong central character thumbing his nose at authority. Matching the mood of the times, and displaying a new attitude to sex, it transformed British cinema and was much imitated.
w Alan Sillitoe novel Alan Sillitoe d Karel Reisz ph Freddie Francis m Johnny Dankworth ad Ted Marshall ed Seth Holt
☆ Albert Finney (Arthur Seaton), Shirley Anne Field (Doreen Gretton), Rachel Roberts (Brenda), Bryan Pringle (Jack), Norman Rossington (Bert), Hylda Baker (Aunt Ada)
'Here is a chance for our own new wave.' – Evening Standard
'This study of working-class energies and frustrations has been overdirected.' – Pauline Kael
† Warwickshire never showed the film because the producers refused to delete two love scenes. David Kingsley of British Lion said: 'We are not prepared to agree that a film of outstanding importance and merit should be re-edited by the Mrs Grundys of the Warwickshire County Council. It is fortunate for the world that Warwickshire's greatest and often bawdy son, William Shakespeare, was not subject in his day to the restrictions of prim and petty officialdom.'
†† A Region 2 DVD release includes commentary from film historian Robert Murphy, Alan Sillitoe and Freddie Francis.
BAFTA best British film; Albert Finney; Rachel Roberts

Saturday Night at the Palace *

South Africa 1987 90m colour
Intertrade (Robert Davies)
An embittered, unemployed white vents his anger on the black manager of an all-night diner.
Tough drama of racial antagonism, based on a true story, with a slow start and a rousing, if overly theatrical, conclusion.
w Paul Slabolepszy, Bill Flynn play Paul Slabolepszy d Robert Davies ph Robert Davies ad Wayne and Sandy Attrill ed Lena Farugia, Carla Sandrock
☆ Bill Flynn, John Kani, Paul Slabolepszy

Saturday Night Fever ***

US 1977 119m Movielab
Paramount/Robert Stigwood (Milt Felsen)
Italian roughnecks in Brooklyn live for their Saturday night disco dancing, and one of them falls in love with a girl who makes him realize there are better things in life.
Foul-mouthed, fast-paced slice of life which plays like an updated version of Marty except that all the characters seem to have crawled from under stones. The slick direction, fast editing and exciting dance numbers do something to take away the sour taste.
w Norman Wexler story Nik Cohn d John Badham ph Ralf D. Bode m David Shire ch Lester Wilson (Lorraine Fields) pd Charles Bailey ed David Rawlins songs Barry, Robin and Maurice Gibb (and others), performed by the Bee Gees
☆ John Travolta (Tony Manero), Karen Lynn Gorney (Stephanie), Barry Miller (Bobby C.), Joseph Cali (Joey), Paul Pape (Double J), Bruce Ornstein (Gus)
'A stylish piece of contemporary anthropology, an urban safari into darkest America, a field study of the mystery cults among the young braves and squaws growing up in North Brooklyn.' – Alan Brien, Sunday Times † Regions 1 and 2 DVDs include a commentary by John Badham.
†† John Avildsen was sacked as director just before shooting began, on the day he was nominated for an Oscar, which he later won, for Rocky.
Academy John Travolta

Saturday Night Out

GB 1963 96m bw
Compton-Tekli
Five sailors spend an overnight leave in London.
Portmanteau drama in which all elements are equally uninteresting.
w Donald and Derek Ford d Robert Hartford-Davis ph Peter Newbrook m Robert Richards
☆ Bernard Lee, Heather Sears, John Bonney, Francesca Annis, Erika Remberg, Colin Campbell, David Lodge

Saturday's Children

US 1940 101m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)
An impractical young inventor marries an ambitious young woman, but depressed finances lead to discord.
Glum, dated rehash of a 1929 silent; watchable but not compelling.
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein play Maxwell Anderson d Vincent Sherman ph James Wong Howe
☆ John Garfield, Claude Rains, Anne Shirley, Lee Patrick, George Tobias, Roscoe Karns, Elizabeth Risdon, Berton Churchill
† The story was also made in 1935 as Maybe It's Love, with Ross Alexander, Henry Travers and Gloria Stuart; William McGann directed without flair.

Saturday's Hero

US 1951 110m bw
Columbia (Sidney Buchman)
GB title: Idols in the Dust
A poor boy wins a football scholarship but finds his value to the college is purely commercial and he isn't given time to learn anything.
A spirited attack on the American sporting system, but a dull and overlong film.
w Millard Lampell, Sidney Buchman novel The Hero by Millard Lampell d David Miller ph Lee Garmes m Elmer Bernstein
☆ John Derek, Donna Reed, Sidney Blackmer, Alexander Knox, Elliott Lewis, Howard St John

Saturn 3

GB 1980 87m colour
ITC/Transcontinental (Stanley Donen)
A maniac builds a robot on a remote space station, and they both go berserk.
Rather unpleasant blend of space fiction, horror and suspense, with some nasty detail and a general feeling that the actors wish they were elsewhere.
w Martin Amis story John Barry d Stanley Donen ph Billy Williams m Elmer Bernstein pd Stuart Craig
☆ Kirk Douglas, Farrah Fawcett, Harvey Keitel, Ed Bishop

Satyricon ***

Italy/France 1969 129m DeLuxe
Panavision
UA/PAA/PEA (Alberto Grimaldi)
aka: Fellini Satyricon
Two Roman students, both attracted to a pretty slave boy, wander through the ancient world, surviving a series of unexpected encounters.
Fellini at his most self-indulgent, as he is here, is still more interesting than most of his rivals. In a free adaptation of Petronius's incomplete novel. he vividly creates the decadence and brutality of Rome during the reign of Nero, when the sexual abandon of those times seemed peculiarly modern.
w Federico Fellini, Bernardino Zapponi d Federico Fellini ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Nino Rota, Ilhan Mimaroglu, Tod Dockstader, Andrew Rudin pd Danilo Donati ad Giorgio Giovannini, Luigi Scaccianoce ed Ruggero Mastroianni
☆ Martin Potter (Encolpius), Hiram Keller (Ascyltus), Salvo Randone (Eumolpus), Max Born (Giton)
'A picaresque satire in fragments ... a series of tableaux which carry the poetry visually at the price of coherence.' – Mike Wallington, MFB
'Part of the gradual decomposition of what once was one of the greatest talents in film history ... a gimcrack, shopworn nightmare.' – John Simon
Academy Federico Fellini (as director)

Le Sauvage

France/Italy 1978 107m Eastmancolor
Lira/PAI (Raymond Danon)
A business executive has opted out of life to be alone on a desert island, but on his last night in the city accidentally helps a runaway heiress who follows him.
A promising and amusing start is squandered in the tedious island sequences of this patchy romantic comedy, which does however leave one with a sense of freshness and optimism rare in the cinema of the seventies.
w Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Elizabeth Rappeneau, Jean-Loup Dabadie d Jean-Paul Rappeneau ph Pierre Lhomme m Michel Legrand
☆ Yves Montand, Catherine Deneuve, Luigi Vannucchi, Dana Wynter

Sauve Qui Peut (La Vie) *

France/Switzerland 1980 87m colour
Sara/MK2/Saga/Sonimage/CDIC/ZDF/SSR/ORF
aka: Slow Motion
US title: Every Man for Himself
The lives of three people cross: a country girl who becomes a prostitute in the city, a woman leaving the city for a rural life, and her lover, who is not sure where he wants to be.
Godard's return to more commercial cinema is intermittently interesting, but lacks the challenge and playfulness of his best work.
w Anne-Marie Miéville, Jean-Claude Carrière d Jean-Luc Godard ph William Lubtchansky, Renato Berta, Jean-Bernard Menoud m Gabriel Yared ad Romain Goupil ed Anne-Marie Miéville, Jean-Luc Godard
☆ Isabelle Huppert, Jacques Dutronc, Nathalie Baye, Roland Amstutz, Anna Baldaccini, Fred Personne

The Savage

US 1952 95m Technicolor
Paramount (Mel Epstein)
A white boy grows up with Indians and later suffers from divided loyalties.
Solemn, rather tedious but well produced Western.
w Sydney Boehm novel L. L. Foreman d George Marshall ph John F. Seitz m Paul Sawtell ☆ Charlton Heston, Susan Morrow, Peter Hanson, Joan Taylor, Richard Rober, Don Porter

The Savage Eye *

US 1959 68m bw
City Film Corporation (Ben Maddow, Joseph Strick, Sidney Meyers)
An unhappily married young woman takes a jaundiced view of life around her in Los Angeles.
The wisp of plot is merely an excuse to present a documentary exposé of the seamier side of life in America's most eccentric city, with its faith healers and revellers. Much of it is fascinating, though the film is not a cohesive whole and the would-be poetic commentary falls on its face.
ph Jack Couffer, Haskell Wexler, Helen Levitt m Leonard Rosenman wd/ed Ben Maddow, Joseph Strick, Sidney Meyers
☆ Barbara Baxley, Gary Merrill, Herschel Bernardi
'The picture is funny, pathetic, cruel, terrible; and it is worth going miles to see.' – Dilys Powell, Sunday Times

Savage Hearts

GB 1996 111m colour
August/Wavepower Navigation/Bratton (Keith Hayley)
Told she has six months to live, a young woman steals £2m from an aristocratic drug dealer and goes on a spending spree, aided and hampered by a con man and a prostitute.
Drearily incompetent thriller, poorly acted, scripted and directed; the narrative twists and turns without going anywhere interesting.
wd Mark Ezra ph James Aspinall m Dominic Crawford-Collins, Basil Moore-Asfouri pd Jenny Chartres ed Andrea MacArthur
☆ Jamie Harris, Maryam D'Abo, Myriam Cyr, Richard Harris, Stephen Marcus, Angus Deayton, Jerry Hall, Julian Fellowes

The Savage Innocents

GB/France/Italy 1960 107m SuperTechnirama 70
Joseph Janni/Magic Film/Playart/Gray Films (Maleno Malenotti)
aka: Ombre Bianchi
Trials of an Eskimo and his wife in Canada's frozen north.
Conscientious, determined and very boring account of Eskimo life played by actors talking pidgin English. Not a success despite the magnificent photography.
w Nicholas Ray novel Top of the World by Hans Ruesch d Nicholas Ray, Baccio Bandini ph Aldo Tonti, Peter Hennessy m Angelo Lavagnino
☆ Anthony Quinn, Yoko Tani, Marie Yang, Peter O'Toole, Carlo Justini, Anna May Wong, Lee Montague, Ed Devereaux
† The Anna May Wong in the cast is not the famous silent star.

'Don't Bother To Hide ... He's Already Inside.'

The Savage Intruder

US 1973 90m Movielab
Congdon Films (Donald Wolfe)
A former Hollywood star hires as a nurse a psychopathic killer who dismembers middle-aged women.
Gruesome thriller, which borrows from Night

Must Fall and Sunset Boulevard and is inept when it is not unpleasant.
wd Donald Wolfe ph John A. Morrill
m Stu Phillips pd Norman Houlé
ed Hatwig Deeb
☆ Miriam Hopkins, John David Garfield, Gale Sondergaard, Florence Lake, Lester Matthews, Riza Royce, Joe Besser, Minta Durfee, Virginia Wing
† The film was cut to 85m for its British video release.

Savage Islands

New Zealand 1983 94m colour
Paramount (Lloyd Phillips, Rob Whitehouse)
On the morning of his execution, a pirate recalls rescuing a beautiful Englishwoman from a rival brigand.
Standard adventure fare, given a slight novelty by being set in the era of steam warships.
w John Hughes, David Odell story Lloyd Phillips d Ferdinand Fairfax ph Tony Imi m Trevor Jones pd Maurice Cain ed John Shirley ☆ Tommy Lee Jones, Michael O'Keefe, Max Phipps, Jenny Seagrove, Bruce Allpress, Grant Tilley

Savage Messiah ★

GB 1972 103m Metrocolor
MGM/Russ-Arts (Ken Russell)
The life together (1910–14) of the 18-year-old painter Gaudier and 38-year-old Sophie Brzeska.
Intense, fragmentary art film about two eccentrics; would have better suited TV.
w Christopher Logue book H. S. Ede
d Ken Russell ph Dick Bush m Michael Garrett pd Derek Jarman ☆ Dorothy Tutin, Scott Anthony, Helen Mirren, Lindsay Kemp, Michael Gough, John Justin

'1986. Passion, Rage, Liberty and Love.'

Savage Nights ★

France 1992 126m colour
Banfilm Ter/La Sept/Erre/Canal/Sofinergie II/CNC (Nella Banfi)
original title: Les Nuits Fauves
A bisexual cameraman begins an affair with a 17-year-old girl without telling her he is HIV positive; she finds it impossible to share him with others.
A rawly emotional film about sex, love and death and rootless, excitement-seeking young people, often hysterical in tone and curiously uninvolving.
wd Cyril Collard novel Les Nuits Fauves by Cyril Collard ph Manuel Téran m Cyril Collard and others ed Lise Beaulieu ☆ Cyril Collard, Romane Bohringer, Carlos Lopez, Corine Blue, Claude Winter, René-Marc Bini, Maria Schneider, Clémentine Célarié
'The movie finally confounds everyone's best intentions, including the audience's. It is both sensational and sentimentalized. It ricochets from one lurid fresco to another.' – Richard Corliss, Time † Cyril Collard died of AIDS in 1993, four days before his film won French César awards for best film, best first film, best female newcomer (Romane Bohringer) and best editing.

Savage Pampas

Spain/Argentina/US 1967 108m
Eastmancolor Superpanorama
Jaime Prados-Dasa-Sam Bronston
In 19th-century Argentina the commander of an isolated fort finds that a bandit is bribing his men to desert.
Densely plotted semi-Western, sometimes good to look at but slow and lugubrious.
w Hugo Fregonese, John Melson d Hugo Fregonese ph Marcel Berenguer m Waldo de los Rios
☆ Robert Taylor, Ron Randell, Ty Hardin, Rosenda Monteros, Marc Lawrence

Savage Princess: see Aan

Savage Sam ★

US 1962 104m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Anderson)
The youngest son of a homesteading family has a troublesome dog which redeems itself by tracking down Apaches.
Folksy boy-and-dog Western, good of its kind, with adequate suspense and scenery.
w Fred Gipson, William Tunberg
d Norman Tokar ph Edward Colman
m Oliver Wallace
☆ Brian Keith, Tommy Kirk, Kevin Corcoran, Dewey Martin, Jeff York
'A cadet edition of the best of Ford.' – MFB

Savage Wilderness

US 1956 98m Technicolor
Cinemascope
Columbia (William Fadiman)
GB title: The Last Frontier
An Indian-hating fort commander puts himself and his charges in jeopardy.
Standard Western with good performances and excellent action scenes.
w Philip Yordan, Russell S. Hughes novel The Gilded Rooster by Richard Emery Roberts d Anthony Mann ph William Mellor m Leigh Harline ☆ Victor Mature, Robert Preston, Guy Madison, Anne Bancroft, James Whitmore, Peter Whitney

Savages

US 1972 106m colour
Angelika/Merchant-Ivory (Joseph Saleh)
Forest wanderers take over a deserted mansion and begin to feel its civilizing influence.
Mild fable which needed a Buñuel to do it justice; a few lively moments.
w George Swift Trow, Michael O'Donoghue
d James Ivory ph Walter Lassally m Joe Raposo
☆ Lewis J. Stadlen, Anne Francine, Thayer David, Salome Jens, Neil Fitzgerald
'Adds up to a disappointing and indigestible blend of flip anthropological metaphor, sophomoric gags and intentional or unintentional visual nods to other directors.' – Nigel Andrews, MFB

Savannah Smiles

US 1983 107m CFI
Embassy/Hal Clifford/Mark Miller, Donald J. Williams (Clark L. Paylow)
An escaped convict and his partner inadvertently kidnap a millionaire's young daughter Tedious and clumsy romp, in which a strong willed child turns the tables on two hardened criminals.
w Mark Miller d Pierre De Moro
ph Stephen W. Gray m Ken Sutherland
pd Charles Sewart ed Eva Ruggiero
☆ Mark Miller (Alvie), Donovan Scott (Boots), Bridgette Andersen (Savannah), Peter Graves (Harland Dobbs), Chris Robinson (Richard Driscoll), Michael Parks (Lt Savage), Barbara Stanger (Joan Driscoll), Pat Morita (Father O'Hara), Philip Abbott (Chief Pruitt)

Save the Green Planet

South Korea 2003 118m colour
CJ Entertainment/Sidus (Cha Seung-jae, Noh Jong-yun) original title: Jigureul Jikyeora!
A confused killer kidnaps and tortures a businessman, believing that he is an alien planning an invasion of Earth.
Demented, violent science-fiction that seems to have come from another planet.
wd Jun-hwan Jeon ph Hong Gyeong-pyo
m Michael Staudacher ad Jang Geun-yeong, Kim Gyeong-heui ed Park Gok-ji sp Jeong Do-an, Jang Seong-ho
☆ Shin Ha-gyun (Lee Byeong-gu), Baek Yun-shik (Kang Man-shik), Hwang Jung-min (Sun-i), Lee Jae-yong (Chu)
'It drags on for a good 30 minutes longer than it needs to, bolstered by a montage of humanity's worst atrocities — somewhat disingenuous in a film that presents torture as entertainment.' – Wendy Ide, Times

'The Only Person You Need To Be Is Yourself.'

Save The Last Dance

US 2001 112m DeLuxe
Paramount/MTV (Robert W. Cort, David Madden)
A white girl who wants to be a ballet dancer moves to a new school in Chicago, where she learns to love hip-hop and the black youth who shows it to her.
A 'teen romance with a little grit and a modicum of charm that went down well with its target audience.
w Duane Adler, Cheryl Edwards
d Thomas Carter ph Robbie Greenberg
m Mark Isham ch Fatima, Randy Duncan
pd Paul Eads ed Peter E. Berger
☆ Julia Stiles (Sara), Sean Patrick Thomas (Derek), Kerry Washington (Chenille), Fredro Starr (Malakai), Terry Kinney (Roy), Bianca Lawson (Nikki), Vince Green (Snookie), Garland Whitt (Kenny)
'The setup promises clichés, but the development is intelligent, the characters are more complicated than we expect, and the ending doesn't tie everything up in a predictable way.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'The film has a lot of surface complication but no attention span; it's a centimeter deep.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'Juggle the books. Set fire to the factory. Supply women for the clients. Harry Stoner will do anything to get one more season.'

Save the Tiger ★

US 1973 100m Movielab
Paramount/Jalem/Filmways/Cirandinha (Steve Shagan)
A middle-aged businessman regrets the slack morality of modern America.
Self-adulatory drama which really has little point but gets a few marks for meaning well and for vivid scenes.
w Steve Shagan d John G. Avildsen
ph Jim Crabe m Marvin Hamlisch
☆ Jack Lemmon, Jack Gilford, Laurie Heineman, Norman Burton, Thayer David
'A scathing indictment of the US, of materialism, war, marriage – the works. Wordy, literate and deeply felt.' – NFT, 1974
'Not a very good movie but it's rather a brave one, a serious-minded examination of some of the least interesting aspects of the failed American Dream.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
Jack Lemmon
Steve Shagan; Jack Gilford

'Heaven Help Us.'

Saved! ★

US 2004 92m DeLuxe
MGM/UA/Single Cell/Infinity (Michael Stipe, Sandy Stern, Michael Ohoven, William Vince)
A devoutly religious high school girl becomes pregnant while attempting to convert her boyfriend to heterosexuality.
Mild satire of religious fundamentalism that runs out of jokes at the halfway mark and, as if frightened of its own daring, retreats into a soggy sentimentality.
w Brian Dannelly, Michael Urban d Brian Dannelly ph Bobby Bukowski
m Christophe Beck pd Tony Devenyi
ed Pamela Martin
☆ Jena Malone (Mary), Mandy Moore (Hilary Faye), Macaulay Culkin (Roland), Patrick Fugit (Patrick), Heather Matarazzo (Tia), Eva Amurri (Cassandra), Martin Donovan (Pastor Skip), Mary-Louise Parker (Lillian)
'The satire loses its edge a little through repetition, and the picture settles for a worthy but slightly bland message of tolerance.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Saving Grace

US 1986 112m Technicolor
Technovision
Columbia/Embassy (Herbert F. Solow)
A Pope escapes from office to meet the real people.
The trouble with this movie is, he learns nothing by doing so.
w Joaquin Montana novel Celia Gittelson
d Robert M. Young ph Reynaldo Villalobos ☆ Tom Conti, Fernando Rey, Erland Josephson, Giancarlo Giannini, Donald Hewlett
'More sleeping draught than balm for the spirits.' – Sight and Sound

'Take the high road to a comedy that truly lights up.'

Saving Grace

GB 1999 94m DeLuxe
TCF/Portman/Sky/Wave/Homerun (Mark Crowdy)
A hard-up widow resorts to growing marijuana to make ends meet.
Genial comedy that stretches its one joke, of genteel drug dealers and users, further than it can go.
w Craig Ferguson, Mark Crowdy d Nigel Cole ph John de Borman m Mark Russell
pd Eve Stewart ed Alan Strachan
☆ Brenda Blethyn (Grace), Craig Ferguson (Matthew), Martin Clunes (Dr Bamford), Tcheky Karyo (Jacques), Jamie Forman (China), Bill Bailey (Vince), Valerie Edmond (Nicky), Tristan Sturrock (Harvey), Clive Merrison (Quentin), Leslie Phillips (Vicar), Diana Quick (Honey), Phyllida Law (Margaret)
'We're left with a promising idea for a comedy, which arrives at some laughs but never finds its destination.' – Roger Ebert
'A spiritedly daft and droll gem of straight-faced lunacy...harvests a bumper crop of laughs.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

'The mission is a man.'

Saving Private Ryan ★★★

US 1998 169m Technicolor
Paramount/Amblin/Mutual (Steven Spielberg, Ian Bryce, Mark Gordon, Gary Levinsohn)
After surviving the D-Day landings, eight soldiers are sent on a special mission to bring back a private, the only survivor of four brothers, who is somewhere behind enemy lines.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Two battles, the opening sequence on the Omaha beach and a later one in a ruined town, are virtuoso demonstrations of the director's art; in between, though, the film settles for a standard platoon-in-peril routine familiar from other war movies.
w Robert Rodat d Steven Spielberg
ph Janusz Kaminski m John Williams
pd Tom Sanders ad Alan Tomkins, Tom Brown, Daniel T. Dorrance, Ricky Eyres, Chris Seagers ed Michael Kahn
☆ Tom Hanks (Captain Miller), Edward Burns (Private Reiben), Tom Sizemore (Sergeant Horvath), Jeremy Davies (Corporal Upham), Vin Diesel (Private Caparzo), Adam Goldberg (Private Mellish), Barry Pepper (Private Jackson), Giovanni Ribisi (T/4 Medic Wade), Matt Damon (Private Ryan), Dennis Farina (Lieutenant Colonel Anderson), Ted Danson (Captain Hamill), Harve Presnell (General Marshall), Harrison Young (Ryan as Old Man)
'As powerful, devastating, memorable and moving as movies get.' – Ian Freer, Empire
'One of the greatest war movies ever made.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review
† The film took more than $460m at the box-office worldwide.
Steven Spielberg; Janusz Kaminski; Michael Kahn; sound; sound effects editing best picture; Tom Hanks; Robert Rodat; John Williams; Tom Sanders; make-up visual effects; sound

'2 Best Friends + 1 Girlfriend = War'
Saving Silverman
US/Australia/Canada 2001 90m DeLuxe Super 35
Columbia TriStar/Village Roadshow/NPV/Original (Neal H. Moritz)
GB title: Evil Woman
Two friends kidnap the uptight fiancée of their oldest buddy so that he will be reunited with his childhood sweetheart, who plans to become a nun.
Tired, trivial movie about the members of a Neil Diamond tribute band, with even an appearance by Diamond himself, which is about as funny as it gets.
w Hank Nelken, Greg DePaul d Dennis Dugan ph Arthur Albert m Mike Simpson pd Michael Bolton ed Debra Neil-Fisher
☆ Jason Biggs (Darren Silverman), Steve Zahn (Wayne), Jack Black (J. D.), Amanda Peet (Judith), R. Lee Ermey (Coach), Amanda Detmer (Sandy), Neil Diamond (Himself), Lillian Carlson (Mother Superior)
'It manages to be nasty, cynical and dull at the same time.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Really stinks. No, really. It's bad. Awful.' – Desson Howe, Washington Post
† The movie was budgeted at around $22m; it took less than $20m at the US box office.

'Hope is worth fighting for.'
'He's fighting a war he doesn't believe in, hoping to find something he does.'
Savior
US 1998 103m DeLuxe Panavision
First Independent/Initial Entertainment (Oliver Stone, Janet Yang)
An American mercenary, fighting for the Serbians in Bosnia, helps deliver the baby of a woman raped by Muslims and tries to get them both to safety, while threatened by both sides in the civil war.
Topical and melodramatic war movie that simplifies a complex situation in order to make an obvious point.
w Robert Orr d Peter Antonijevic ph Ian Wilson m David Robbins pd Vladislav Lasic ed Ian Crafford, Gabriella Cristiani
☆ Dennis Quaid, Nastassja Kinski, Stellan Skarsgard, Natasa Ninkovic, Sergej Trifunovic, Nebojsa Glogovac, Vesna Trivalic
'Grim but engrossing pic ... has little going for it commercially but is an impressive addition to the war-as-existential-battlefield genre that dates back to the '50s.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Saviour of the Soul
Hong Kong 1992 90m colour
Team Work (Andy Lau)
In the 21st century, a city soldier tries to protect the woman he loves from a ruthless criminal, Silver Fox, who has supernatural powers.
A movie in comic-book style, with little in the way of comprehensible narrative; it relies instead on immature notions of romantic love, and outbursts of spectacular, well-choreographed and violent action to compensate for its paper-thin characterizations.
w Kar-Wai Wong d Yuen Kwai, David Lai
☆ Andy Lau, Anita Mui, Aaron Kwok
'The Water Margin is crossed with manga and Blade Runner in this imaginative sci-fi action movie.' – Sight and Sound
† The English subtitles are often in a language all their own: 'We'll treat him some nutrious soup'; 'It's useless to have force, but should have brain!'; and 'I think you are guest so I give you some face.'

'Every piece has a puzzle'
Saw ★
US 2004 102m colour
Entertainment/Lions Gate/Evolution (Oren Koules, Mark Burg, Gregg Hoffman)
The 'Jigsaw Killer', a games-playing serial murderer, chains a doctor and a photographer in a basement from which only one can survive – by sawing off a limb in order to reach a gun and kill the other.
Gruesome, well-made horror that revels in its sadistic nastiness but does not allow its audience to care what happens to its many victims.
w Leigh Whannell d James Wan
ph David Armstrong m Charlie Clouser
pd Julie Berghoff ed Kevin Greutert
☆ Cary Elwes, Danny Glover, Monica Potter, Michael Emerson, Tobin Bell
'Gripping exploitation, laughing off claims to seriousness while giving its audience a more pungent ride than recent mainstream offerings.' – Andrew Osmond, Sight and Sound

'We Dare You Again...'
Saw II
US/Canada 2005 93m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Twisted (Gregg Hoffman, Oren Koules, Mark Burg)
A sadist traps his victims in a torture-machine filled cellar, from which they can only escape by damaging themselves.
Even bloodier than its predecessor – the opening has a man trapped in a steel collar, which needs to be opened by a key stuck behind his eyeball – and a great deal nastier.
w Darren Lynn Bousman, Leigh Whannell d Darren Lynn Bousman ph David A. Armstrong m Charlie Clouser pd David Hackl ed Kevin Greutert
☆ Tobin Bell (Jigsaw/John), Shawnee Smith (Amanda), Donnie Wahlberg (Eric Matthews), Erik Knudsen (Daniel Matthews), Franky G (Xavier)
'Repels, morally and aesthetically, and while some – including the filmmakers, perhaps – may take this as a compliment, it isn't intended as one.' – Christopher Orr, LA Weekly

'This Halloween, he's pulling out all the stops.'
Saw III ③
US/Canada 2006 108m
Lionsgate/Twisted (Mark Burg, Gregg Hoffman, Oren Koules)
A dying serial killer orders a kidnapped doctor to keep him alive long enough to see another of his victims negotiate a booby-trapped prison.
More unpleasantness for those with the stomach for it; this time, however, there seems no logic whatsoever behind the grisly set-pieces.
w Leigh Whannell d Darren Lynn Bousman ph David A. Armstrong m Charlie Clouser pd David Hackl ad Anthony Ianni ed Kevin Greutert
☆ Tobin Bell (Jigsaw/John), Shawnee Smith (Amanda), Angus MacFadyen (Jeff), Bahar Soomekh (Lynn), Dina Meyer (Kerry), Mpho Koaho (Tim)
'For those who have made a Saw screening part of their annual Halloween tradition, the enjoyment of the frighteningly unexpected might mean less at this point than the limited pleasures of the reliably predictable.' – Tim Grierson, Screen International

Sawdust and Tinsel ★
Sweden 1953 95m bw
Svensk Filmindustri
aka: The Naked Night
original title: Gycklarnas Afton
The owner of a travelling circus leaves his mistress for his separated wife, and is challenged to fight by the mistress's new lover.
Powerfully-made yet rather pointless melodrama about unpleasant people.
wd Ingmar Bergman ph Sven Nykvist
m Karl-Birger Blomdahl
☆ Harriet Andersson, Ake Grönberg, Hasse Ekman, Annika Tretow
'One of the extremely rare instances of a film's elements all blending perfectly.' – John Simon

Sax Rohmer's The Blood of Fu Manchu
GB/Germany/Spain 1969 92m colour
Udastex (Harry Alan Towers)
aka: Fu Manchu and the Kiss of Death
US title: Kiss and Kill
Fu Manchu infects ten beautiful women with a deadly poison and sends them out into the world to kill his enemies by kissing them.
Feeble and inchorent adventure; despite Lee's top billing he pops up only occasionally as a passive figure, with the action depending upon the rest of the mostly inadequate cast and its cackling villains.
w Peter Welbeck (Harry Alan Towers)
d Jess Franco ph Manuel Merino
m Daniel White ed Alan Morrison
☆ Christopher Lee (Fu Manchu), Tsai Chin (Lin Tang), Maria Rohm (Ursula), Howard Marion Crawford (Dr Petrei), Frances Kahn (Carmen), Isaura De Oliveira (Yuma), Richard Greene (Nayland Smith), Gotz George (Carl), Ricardo Palacios (Sanco), Shirley Eaton 'Fundamentally, the weakness of the series was lack of trust in Sax Rohmer.' – Christopher Lee

The Saxon Charm
US 1948 88m bw
Universal (Joseph Sistrom)
A Broadway impresario dominates the lives of those around him.
Rather heavy-going comedy drama which could have done with more malicious wit; allegedly based on Jed Harris.
wd Claude Binyon novel Frederick Wakeman ph Milton Krasner m Walter Scharf
☆ Robert Montgomery, Susan Hayward, John Payne, Audrey Totter, Henry Morgan, Harry von Zell, Cara Williams, Chill Wills, Heather Angel

'To know Lloyd Dobler is to love him. Diane Court is about to know Lloyd Dobler.' Say Anything... ★
US 1989 100m DeLuxe
TCF (Polly Platt)
A student whose ambition it is to become a kick-boxer dates a beautiful and brainy girl, to the distress of her father.
Better than average teenage romance, deft and sometimes witty.
wd Cameron Crowe ph Laszlo Kovacs
m Richard Gibbs, Anne Dudley, Nancy Wilson pd Mark Mansbridge ed Richard Marks
☆ John Cusack, Ione Skye, John Mahoney, Lili Taylor, Amy Brooks, Pamela Segall, Jason Gould, Joan Cusack, Lois Chiles
'One of the best films of 1989 – a film that is really about something, that cares deeply about the issues it contains – and yet it also works wonderfully as a funny, warmhearted romantic comedy.' – Roger Ebert

'My husband has a memory that you can never share – he can remember me when I was nineteen'
Say Hello to Yesterday
GB 1970 92m Eastmancolor
Josef Shaftel (William Hill)
A middle-aged married woman goes to London for shopping and is pursued by a strange young man whom she allows to seduce her.
Unattractive 'with it' romantic drama with a swinging London setting, a long way after Brief Encounter.
w Alvin Rakoff, Peter King d Alvin Rakoff
ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Riz Ortolani ☆ Jean Simmons, Leonard Whiting, Evelyn Laye, John Lee, Jack Woolgar

Say It in French
US 1938 67m bw
Paramount
A golf champion marries a French girl, but on his return, in order to help his father's finances, has to pretend to be marrying a rich girl, so his wife pretends to be a maid.
Thin comedy which has a job to sustain its short running time.
w Frederick Jackson play Jacques Deval
d Andrew L. Stone
☆ Ray Milland, Olympe Bradna, Irene Hervey, Janet Beecher, Mary Carlisle, Holmes Herbert, Erik Rhodes
'The harder it strives for hare-brained badinage, the more laboured it becomes.' – Variety

Say It Isn't So

US 2001 96m DeLuxe
TCF/Conundrum (Bobby Farrelly, Bradley Thomas, Peter Farrelly)

An orphan makes love to a hairdresser and then discovers that she may be his sister.
Infantile comedy that does its feeble best to shock with gross jokes; even its target adolescent audience must by now be tiring of such witless, poorly constructed stuff.
w Peter Gaulke, Gerry Swallow d J. B. Rogers ph Mark Irwin m Mason Daring pd Sidney J. Bartholomew Jnr ed Larry Madaras cos Lisa Jensen
☆ Chris Klein (Gilly Noble), Heather Graham (Jo Wingfield), Orlando Jones (Dig McCaffey), Sally Field (Valdine Wingfield), Richard Jenkins (Walter Wingfield), John Rothman (Larry Falwell), Jack Plotnick (Leon Pitofsky), Eddie Cibrian (Jack Mitchelson)

'Heavy-handed comedy of the very worst kind. Has the gross-out teen sex comedy bubble burst? On this evidence, please God, say it is so...' – Chris Hewitt, Empire
'An uninspired dud.' – New York Times

Say It with Flowers (A Human Story) ★

GB 1934 71m bw
Real Art (Julius Hagen)

Traders in a London street market rally round when a flower-seller becomes too ill to work.
A mix of music-hall jokes and a documentary on Cockney life which, for all its caricatures, reveals more about the everyday life of its time than many more ambitious films. It has not only acquired the fascination of a social document but also gives a rare glimpse of several music-hall performers: Charles Coburn (singing 'The Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo'), Marie Kendall (singing 'Did Your First Wife Ever Do That?' and 'Just Like the Ivy'), and Florrie Forde (reprising her hits 'Lassie from Lancashire', 'Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?', 'Hold Your Hand Out Naughty Boy', 'Oh, Oh Antonio' and 'Down at the Old Bull and Bush').
w H. Fowler Mear story William Orton d John Baxter ph Sydney Blythe md Colin Wark ad James A. Carter ed Michael C. Chorlton
☆ Mary Clare, Ben Field, George Carney, Mark Daly, Edgar Driver, Freddie Watts, Edwin Ellis, Wilson Coleman

Say It with Songs

US 1929 89m bw
Warner

A radio singer accidentally kills a man and is jailed for manslaughter.
Miscalculated star vehicle with a few good moments among the sentiment and melodrama.
w Darryl F. Zanuck, Joseph Jackson, Harvey Gates d Lloyd Bacon ph Lee Garmes
☆ Al Jolson, Davey Lee, Marian Nixon, Fred Kohler, Holmes Herbert
† Though Jolson was paid half a million dollars to do it, the film was a tremendous flop. The songs were again by De Sylva, Brown and Henderson, but 'Little Pal' was not another 'Sonny Boy'.

Say One for Me

US 1959 117m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Bing Crosby (Frank Tashlin)

Adventures of a parish priest in New York's theatrical quarter.
Unconvincing, unattractive imitation of Going My Way which counters bad taste with religiosity.
w Robert O'Brien d Frank Tashlin ph Leo Tover md Lionel Newman songs Sammy Cahn, James Van Heusen
☆ Bing Crosby, Robert Wagner, Debbie Reynolds, Ray Walston, Les Tremayne, Connie Gilchrist, Frank McHugh, Joe Besser, Sebastian Cabot

'Tasteless and disturbing.' – Variety
♗ Lionel Newman

'I am not allowed to love. But I will love you if that is your desire!'

Sayonara ★★

US 1957 147m Technirama
Goetz Pictures-Pennebaker (William Goetz)

An American air force major in Tokyo after the war falls in love with a Japanese actress.
A lush travelogue interrupted by two romances, one tragic and one happy. A great success at the time, though mainly of interest to Americans; now vaguely dated.
w Paul Osborn novel James A. Michener d Joshua Logan ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Franz Waxman ad Ted Haworth ed Arthur P. Schmidt, Philip W. Anderson
☆ Marlon Brando, Miyoshi Umeki, Miiko Taka, Red Buttons, Ricardo Montalban, Patricia Owens, Kent Smith, Martha Scott, James Garner
♗ Miyoshi Umeki; Red Buttons; art direction ♘ best picture; Paul Osborn; Joshua Logan; Ellsworth Fredericks; Marlon Brando; editing

Scalawag

US/Italy 1973 93m Technicolor
Bryna/Inex-Oceania (Anne Douglas)

Mexico 1840: a one-legged pirate and a boy try to trace a hidden treasure.
Flagrant reworking of Treasure Island, heavily overdone by stars and rhubarbing extras alike.
w Albert Maltz, Sid Fleischman d Kirk Douglas ph Jack Cardiff m John Cameron ☆ Kirk Douglas, Mark Lester, Neville Brand, Don Stroud, Lesley-Anne Down, Phil Brown

The Scalphunters ★

US 1968 102m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Bristol/Norlan (Levy-Gardner-Laven)

An old cowboy and a black ex-slave track down a gang who kill Indians for their scalps.
Vigorous, aimless, likeable comedy Western with the emphasis on brawling.
w William Norton d Sydney Pollack ph Duke Callaghan, Richard Moore m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Burt Lancaster, Ossie Davis, Telly Savalas, Shelley Winters, Nick Cravat, Paul Picerni

'It is the sort of frolic where bodies litter the ground, but you know they'll get up and draw their pay. And where even a villain can crack a joke without losing face.' – Robert Ottaway

The Scamp

GB 1957 90m bw
Minter/Renown (James H. Lawrie)

A couple decide to adopt a lovable but mischievous boy.
Amiable minor film, a vehicle for a child actor who had made an impression in Smiley (qv) the year before, a success he was never to recapture.
wd Wolf Rilla play Charlotte Hastings ph Freddie Francis m Francis Chagrin ad Elven Webb ed Bernard Gribble
☆ Colin Petersen, Richard Attenborough, Dorothy Alison, Terence Morgan, Jill Adams, Sam Kydd, Margaretta Scott, Geoffrey Keen, Charles Lloyd Pack Scandal ★

GB 1988 115m Fujicolour
Palace/Miramax/British Screen (Stephen Woolley)

A showgirl's sexual relationships with a leading British politician and a Russian diplomat cause a major upset.
Leaden account of the British scandal of the 1960s involving Christine Keeler, osteopath Stephen Ward and John Profumo, a Conservative Minister.
w Michael Thomas d Michael Caton-Jones ph Mike Molloy m Carl Davis pd Simon Holland ed Angus Newton
☆ John Hurt, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Ian McKellen, Bridget Fonda, Leslie Phillips, Britt Ekland, Daniel Massey, Roland Gift, Jeroen Krabbé

Scandal at Scourie

US 1953 90m Metrocolor
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)

The wife of the Protestant reeve of a Scottish-Canadian Protestant community adopts a Catholic child.
Sentimental whimsy with no holds barred, but with rather jaded acting and production.
w Norman Corwin, Leonard Spigelgass, Karl Tunberg d Jean Negulesco ph Robert Planck m Daniele Amfitheatrof ☆ Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Agnes Moorehead, Arthur Shields, Philip Ober, Donna Corcoran

A Scandal in Paris ★

US 1946 100m bw
UA/Arnold Pressburger
aka: Thieves' Holiday

Adventures of Vidocq, a 19th-century rogue who became Paris chief of police.
The actors look uneasy in their costumes, and the sets are cardboard, but there is fun to be had from this light comedy-drama.
w Ellis St Joseph d Douglas Sirk ph Guy Roe m Hanns Eisler ☆ George Sanders, Signe Hasso, Carole Landis, Akim Tamiroff, Gene Lockhart

Scandal Sheet

US 1931 77m bw
Paramount

A newspaper editor with principles prints scandal involving his wife.
Dated star drama.
w Vincent Lawrence, Max Marcin d John Cromwell
☆ George Bancroft, Kay Francis, Regis Toomey, Clive Brook

Scandal Sheet

US 1939 67m bw
Columbia

A ruthless publisher sacrifices himself to save his son.
Uninteresting star quickie.
w Joseph Carole d Nick Grinde
☆ Otto Kruger, Ona Munson, Edward Norris

Scandal Sheet

US 1952 81m bw
Columbia (Edward Small)
GB title: The Dark Page

An editor has to allow his star reporter to expose a murderer – himself.
Obvious, reasonably holding melodrama with familiar characters.
w Ted Sherdeman, Eugene Ling, James Poe novel Samuel Fuller d Phil Karlson ph Burnett Guffey m George Duning ☆ Broderick Crawford, John Derek, Donna Reed, Rosemary de Camp, Henry O'Neill, Henry Morgan

Scandal Street

US 1938 63m bw
Paramount

The arrival in a small town of an innocent young girl causes gossip which leads to murder.
Satisfactory mini-drama for the easily pleased.
w Bertram Millhauser, Eddie Welch story Vera Caspary d James Hogan ☆ Lew Ayres, Louise Campbell, Roscoe Karns, Porter Hall, Virginia Weidler, Edgar Kennedy, Elizabeth Patterson

'A curiously beguiling little hodge-podge.' – Variety

Le Scandale: see The Champagne Murders

Scandalous!

GB 1984 92m Technicolor
Hemdale/Raleigh/Angeles Cinema Investors (Arlene Sellers, Alex Winitsky)

A TV reporter becomes involved with two con artists, who seem to have some connection with the murder of his wife.
Frantic black comedy which never even begins to be funny.
w Rob Cohen, John Byrum d Rob Cohen ph Jack Cardiff m Dave Grusin pd Peter Mullins
☆ Robert Hays, John Gielgud, Pamela Stephenson, M. Emmet Walsh, Nancy Wood, Jim Dale

Scandalous John

US 1971 117m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Walsh)

The elderly owner of a derelict ranch resists all efforts to close him up.
Unsatisfactory Disney attempt to capture a more adult audience than usual; overlong, repetitious and dreary.
w Bill Walsh, Don da Gradi novel Richard Gardner d Robert Butler ph Frank Phillips m Rod McKuen ☆ Brian Keith, Alfonso Arau, Michele Carey, Rick Lenz, Henry Morgan, Simon Oakland

Scanner Cop

Canada 1993 94m FotoKem
Image (Pierre David)

When ordinary citizens begin to murder policemen, a young cop applies his dangerous telepathic abilities to solve the crime.
An attempt to take the Scanner series away from horror into another action genre and a more character-driven narrative; it is unfortunate that the characters on display are not very interesting.
w George Saunders, John Bryant story Pierre David d Pierre David ph Jacques Haitkin m Louis Febre pd Deborah Richmond, Dorian Vernacchio ed Julian Semilian sp John Carl Buechler; Magical Media cos Yana Syrkin
☆ Daniel Quinn (Samuel Stazlak), Darlanne Fluegel (Dr Joan Alden), Richard Grove (Cdr Peter Harrigan), Mark Rolston

(Lt Brown), Hilary Shepard (Zena), James Horan (Melvin), Gary Hudson (Damon Pratt), Cyndi Pass (Sara Kopek), Luca Bercovici (Dr Krench), Christopher Kriesa (Riley), Brion James (Dr Hampton), Richard Lynch (Glock)

'What does a Scanner see?'

A Scanner Darkly ★ ⑦

US 2006 100m
Warner Bros./Warner Independent Pictures/Section Eight/Detour (Anne Walker-McBay, Tommy Pallotta, Palmer West, Jonah Smith, Erwin Stoff)

In the near future, an undercover cop is assigned to surveillance duty on his friends addicted to the designer drug Substance D. Becoming a junkie too, he enters a paranoid universe of blurred identities, loyalties and conspiracies when ordered to spy on himself.

A curiously uninvolving head-trip, swamped by philosophical babbling and static painted-over animation.

wd Richard Linklater novel Philip K. Dick ph Shane F. Kelly m Graham Reynolds pd Bruce Curtis ed Sandra Adair sp Steve Krieger, Randy E. Moore

☆ Keanu Reeves (Fred/Bob Arctor), Robert Downey Jr (James Barris), Rory Cochrane (Charles Freck), Winona Ryder (Donna Hawthorne), Woody Harrelson (Ernie Luckman)

'The most literal of Dick adaptations and also, in a perverse way, the most literary.' – J. Hoberman – The Village Voice

† The voice of director David Cronenberg can be heard as the doctor at the rehab centre. He is uncredited.

'Their thoughts can kill!'

Scanners

Canada 1980 103m Eastmancolor
Filmplan International (Claude Heroux)

Certain people are found to be telepathic 'scanners' able to lock at will into other people's nervous systems. This has the occasional result of blowing apart the other people's heads.

Overlong science fiction which concentrates on the nastier elements.

wd David Cronenberg ph Mark Irwin m Howard Shore

☆ Jennifer O'Neill, Patrick McGoohan, Stephen Lack, Lawrence Dane, Michael Ironside

Scanners II: The New Order

Canada 1991 104m colour
Malofilm (René Malo)

A corrupt police chief attempts to use people with frightening telepathic powers for his own ends.

Effective sequel with several exploding heads.

w B. J. Nelson d Christian Duguay ph Rodney Gibbons m Marty Simon pd Richard Tassé ed Yves Langlois sp Michael Smithson

☆ David Hewlett, Yvan Ponton, Deborah Raffin, Isabelle Majias, Raoul Trujillo, Tom Butler, Vlasta Vrana

'A first class imitation of the mind-blowing original.' – Variety

Scanners III: The Takeover

Canada 1992 101m colour
Republic/Malofilm (Rene Malo)

An experimental drug turns a female scanner into a power-hungry killer.

The intriguing notion of the first film has now become an excuse for a horror movie indistinguishable from, and no more distinguished than, a hundred others.

w B. J. Nelson, Julie Richard, David Preston, Christian Duguay d Christian Duguay ph Hughes de Haeck m Marty Simon pd Michael Joy ed Yves Langlois sp Mike Maddi

☆ Liliana Komorowska, Valerie Valois, Steve Parrish, Colin Fox, Daniel Pilon, Michel Perron, Harry Hill

'A technically slick, relatively mindless thriller.' – Variety

The Scapegoat ★

GB 1959 92m bw
MGM/Du Maurier-Guinness (Dennis Van Thal)

A quiet bachelor on a French holiday is tricked into assuming the identity of a lookalike aristocrat who wants to commit a murder.

Disappointing adaptation of a good story, with much evidence of re-cutting and an especially slack middle section.

w Gore Vidal, Robert Hamer novel Daphne du Maurier d Robert Hamer ph Paul Beeson m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Alec Guinness, Bette Davis, Irene Worth, Nicole Maurey, Pamela Brown, Geoffrey Keen

'A disaster.' – Daphne du Maurier

The Scar

US 1948 83m bw
Eagle-Lion (Bryan Foy, Paul Henreid)

aka: Hollow Triumph

A fugitive kills his psychoanalyst double and takes his place, but is caught for the double's crimes.

Cheap suspense thriller with no suspense and no surprises.

w Daniel Fuchs novel Murray Forbes d Steve Sekely ph John Alton m Sol Kaplan

☆ Joan Bennett, Paul Henreid, Eduard Franz, Leslie Brooks, John Qualen, Mabel Paige, Herbert Rudley

Scaramouche ★★

US 1952 115m Technicolor
MGM (Carey Wilson)

A young man disguises himself as an actor to avenge the death of his friend at the hands of a wicked marquis.

Cheerful swashbuckler set in French revolutionary times, first filmed in the twenties with Ramon Novarro. MGM costume production at somewhere near its best.

w Ronald Millar, George Froeschel novel Rafael Sabatini d George Sidney ph Charles Rosher m Victor Young ad Cedric Gibbons, Hans Peters

☆ Stewart Granger, Mel Ferrer, Eleanor Parker, Janet Leigh, Henry Wilcoxon, Nina Foch, Lewis Stone, Robert Coote, Richard Anderson

† The sword fight, at 6½ minutes, is credited with being the longest in cinema history.

Scarecrow ★

US 1973 112m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Robert M. Sherman)

Two of the world's losers hitch-hike across America.

Well-shot but eventually dreary parable of friendship, a pedestrian Easy Rider.

w Garry Michael White d Jerry Schatzberg ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Fred Myrow

☆ Gene Hackman, Al Pacino

'Here's a picture that manages to abuse two American myths at once – the Road and the Male Pair.' – Stanley Kauffmann

The Scarecrow ★

New Zealand 1981 88m colour
Oasis/New Zealand National Film Unit (Rob Whitehouse)

In a small town in the early fifties, a strange chain of events is set in motion by the disappearance of six chickens.

A curious mix of sinister atmosphere which seems mystical and sinister events which are all too real. Interesting but unsatisfying, both as a murder mystery and as a study in evil.

w Michael Heath, Sam Pillsbury novel Ronald Hugh Morrieson d Sam Pillsbury ph James Bartle m Schtung

☆ John Carradine, Tracy Mann, Jonathan Smith, Daniel McLaren, Denise O'Connell, Anne Flannery

'They're making a spook-tacle of themselves!'

Scared Stiff

US 1953 108m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)

Night-club entertainers get involved with a girl who has inherited a spooky castle off the Cuban coast.

Stretched-out remake of The Ghost Breakers; the last half hour, being closest to the original, is the most nearly funny.

w Herbert Baker, Walter de Leon, Ed Simmons, Norman Lear d George Marshall ph Ernest Laszlo md Joseph J. Lilley

☆ Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Lizabeth Scott, Carmen Miranda, George Dolenz, Dorothy Malone, William Ching, Jack Lambert

Scared to Death

US 1947 65m Cinecolor
Golden Gate

A corpse explains how it came to be dead.

Eccentric mystery set in a sanatorium presided over by a mad doctor; the green-tinged colour adds to the atmosphere.

w Walter Abbott d Christy Cabanne ph Marcel Le Picard m Carl Hoefle ad Harry Reif ed George McGuire

☆ Bela Lugosi, Douglas Fowley, Joyce Compton, George Zucco, Nat Pendleton, Angelo Rossitto, Molly Lamont

† It was released on DVD together with Devil Bat (qv).

The Scarf

US 1951 86m bw
UA/Gloria (I. G. Goldsmith)

A man escapes from a lunatic asylum and proves himself innocent of the crime for which he was committed.

Glum and pretentious murder mystery with a pictorial style to match its flowery dialogue.

wd E. A. Dupont ph Franz Planer m Herschel Burke Gilbert

☆ John Ireland, Mercedes McCambridge, Emlyn Williams, James Barton, Lloyd Gough, Basil Ruysdael

'I'm going to run the whole works. There's only one law: do it first, do it yourself, and keep doing it!'

Scarface ★★★

US 1932 99m bw
Howard Hughes

aka: The Shame of a Nation

The life and death of a Chicago gangster of the twenties.

Obviously modelled on Al Capone, with an incestuous sister thrown in, this was perhaps the most vivid film of the gangster cycle, and its revelling in its own sins was not obscured by the subtitle, The Shame of a Nation.

w Ben Hecht, Seton I. Miller, John Lee Mahin, W. R. Burnett, Fred Pasley novel Armitage Trail d Howard Hawks ph Lee Garmes, L. W. O'Connell m Adolph Tandler, Gus Arnheim ed Edward Curtiss

☆ Paul Muni (Tony Camonte), Ann Dvorak (Cesca Camonte), George Raft (Guino Rinaldo), Boris Karloff (Gaffney), Osgood Perkins (Johnny Lovo), Karen Morley (Poppy), C. Henry Gordon (Inspector Guarino), Vince Barnett (Angelo), Henry Armetta (Pietro), Edwin Maxwell (Commissioner)

'Presumably the last of the gangster films, on a promise, it is going to make people sorry that there won't be any more. Should draw wherever it can play.' – Variety

'More brutal, more cruel, more wholesale than any of its predecessors.' – James Shelley Hamilton

'Because it was so close to the actual events, it possesses a kind of newsreel quality which cannot be recaptured or imitated. It vibrates with the impact of things that were real and deeply felt.' – National Film Theatre programme, 1961

† On original release added scenes showed Tony tried, convicted and hanged, though since Muni is never seen, it appears that they were an afterthought made when he was not available.

'He loved the American Dream. With a vengeance.'

Scarface

US 1983 170m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Martin Bregman)

The rise and fall of a Cuban immigrant who becomes a big-time drug dealer.

Absurdly brutalized remake, with detailed violence and a superabundance of foul language; the film seems to want to make a political statement.

w Oliver Stone d Brian de Palma ph John A. Alonzo m Giorgio Moroder ad Ed Richardson ed Jerry Greenberg, David Ray

☆ Al Pacino (Tony Montana), Steven Bauer (Manny Ray), Michelle Pfeiffer (Elvira), Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio (Gina), Robert Loggia (Frank Lopez), Paul Shenar (Alejandro Sosa), Harris Yulin (Bernstein), F. Murray Abraham (Omar)

Tony Montana: 'In this country, you gotta make the money first. Then when you get the money, you get the power. Then when you get the power, then you get the woman.'

'An efficient gangster picture, a good nasty entertainment.' – Terrence Rafferty, Sight and Sound

'The picture is peddling macho primitivism and at the same time making it absurd.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

† Sidney Lumet was signed to direct the movie, but left after disagreements over the script.

The Scarface Mob ★

US 1958 96m bw
Desilu (Quinn Martin)

Al Capone's empire thrives while he is in Alcatraz, and prohibition agent Eliot Ness recruits a tough squad to fight the gangsters.

Though released theatrically, this was in effect a pilot film for the successful TV series The Untouchables, well enough done within its limits.

w Paul Monash novel The Untouchables by

Eliot Ness d Phil Karlson ph Charles Straumer m Wilbur Hatch
☆ Robert Stack, Neville Brand, Keenan Wynn, Barbara Nichols, Joe Mantell, Pat Crowley, Bruce Gordon, Paul Picerni, Abel Fernandez

Scarlet and Black: see Le Rouge et le Noir

Scarlet Angel
US 1952 81m Technicolor
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)
A saloon hostess presents herself to a wealthy family as their dead son's wife.
Modest, satisfactorily plotted picture with action interludes.
w Oscar Brodney d Sidney Salkow ph Russell Metty md Joseph Gershenson ad Robert Clatworthy, Bernard Herzbrun ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Yvonne de Carlo, Rock Hudson, Richard Denning, Henry O'Neill, Amanda Blake

The Scarlet Blade ★
GB 1963 82m Technicolor
Hammerscope
Hammer (Anthony Nelson-Keys)
US title: The Crimson Blade
In 1648, a Cromwellian colonel plans to hang every royalist rebel.
Adequate swashbuckler.
wd John Gilling ph Jack Asher m Gary Hughes pd Bernard Robinson ed John Dunsford ☆ Lionel Jeffries, Oliver Reed, Jack Hedley, June Thorburn, Duncan Lamont

The Scarlet Buccaneer: see Swashbuckler

The Scarlet Claw ★★
US 1944 74m bw
Universal (Roy William Neill)
Grisly revenge murders take place in the fog-bound Canadian village of Le Mort Rouge.
Possibly the best of the modernized Sherlock Holmes series, with a plot hastily borrowed from The Hound of the Baskervilles.
w Edmund L. Hartmann, Roy William Neill d Roy William Neill ph George Robinson m Hans Salter md Paul Sawtell
☆ Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Miles Mander, Gerald Hamer, Paul Cavanagh, Kay Harding, Arthur Hohl

The Scarlet Coat
US 1955 99m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)
During the American War of Independence, an American officer deserts to the British in order to unmask a traitor.
Rather talky historical actioner with too much time spent on friendship and romance.
w Karl Tunberg d John Sturges ph Paul C. Vogel m Conrad Salinger ☆ Cornel Wilde, Michael Wilding, George Sanders, Anne Francis, Robert Douglas, Bobby Driscoll, John McIntire

Scarlet Dawn ★
US 1932 76m bw
Warner (Hal Wallis)
During the Russian revolution, an exiled aristocrat loves a serving maid.
Heavy-going romantic drama distinguished by stylish direction and sets.
w Niven Busch, Erwin Gelsey, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr novel Revolt by Mary McCall Jnr d William Dieterle ph Ernest Haller ad Anton Grot
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Nancy Carroll, Lilyan Tashman, Guy Kibbee, Sheila Terry, Frank Reicher
'The story starts off to get somewhere but fails to arrive.' – Variety

'Based on a private diary of Catherine the Great!'
'The screen's reigning beauty in a wild pageant of barbaric splendour!'
'A cavalcade of fury led by a woman of fire!'

The Scarlet Empress ★★★
US 1934 109m bw
Paramount
A fantasia on the love life of Catherine the Great.
A marvellous, overwhelming, dramatically insubstantial but pictorially brilliant homage to a star; not to everyone's taste, but a film to remember.
w Manuel Komroff d Josef von Sternberg ph Bert Glennon md W. Franke Harling, John M. Leipold, Milan Roder ad Hans Dreier, Peter Ballbusch, Richard Kollorsz ed Josef von Sternberg cos Travis Banton
☆ Marlene Dietrich (Sophia Frederica), John Lodge (Count Alexei), Sam Jaffe (Grand Duke Peter), Louise Dresser (Empress Elizabeth), C. Aubrey Smith (Prince August), Gavin Gordon (Gregory Orloff), Jameson Thomas (Lt. Ostvyn)
'She's photographed behind veils and fishnets, while dwarfs slither about and bells ring and everybody tries to look degenerate.' – New Yorker, 1975
'A ponderous, strangely beautiful, lengthy and frequently wearying production.' – Mordaunt Hall, New York Times

The Scarlet Hour
US 1955 93m bw Vistavision
Paramount (Michael Curtiz)
A bored wife persuades her lover to turn thief; her husband misconstrues the situation and is accidentally killed.
Complex suspenser designed to introduce new talent; rather too smooth, and pretty boring.
w Rip van Ronkel, Frank Tashlin, Meredyth Lucas d Michael Curtiz ph Lionel Lindon m Leith Stevens ☆ Carol Ohmart, Tom Tryon, James Gregory, Jody Lawrance, E. G. Marshall, Elaine Stritch

The Scarlet Letter ★
US 1926 90m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM/Jury
In Puritan New England, the mother of an illegitimate child wears the scarlet A (for adulteress) for years rather than reveal that her lover was the village priest.
Celebrated 17th-century melodrama, quite powerfully made in the best silent tradition, but of little intrinsic interest for modern audiences.
w Frances Marion novel Nathaniel Hawthorne d Victor Sjostrom ph Henrik Sartov ad Cedric Gibbons
☆ Lillian Gish, Lars Hanson, Karl Dane, Henry B. Walthall
† Other versions include the following: US 1910, US 1911, US 1913, US 1917, US 1920, GB 1922, US 1934, Germany 1971, US (TV) 1979.

The Scarlet Letter
US 1934 70m bw
Darmour/Majestic
A lightened version with an attempt at comedy relief.
Not in any way remarkable.
w Leonard Fields, David Silverstein d Robert G. Vignola
☆ Colleen Moore, Hardie Albright, Henry B. Walthall, William Farnum, Alan Hale
'When intimacy is forbidden and passion is a sin, love is the most defiant crime of all.'

The Scarlet Letter
US 1995 135m Technicolor
Entertainment/Hollywood/Lightmotive/Allied Stars/Cinergi/Moving Pictures (Roland Joffé, Andrew G. Vajna)
In 17th-century Massachusetts, a settler's wife gives birth to an illegitimate daughter but refuses to name the father of her child.
Hilariously bad period drama, loosely based on Hawthorne's original, with little sense of history or decorum; it respresents Hollywood at its most crass and unthinking.
w Douglas Day Stewart novel Nathaniel Hawthorne d Roland Joffé ph Alex Thomson m John Barry pd Roy Walker ed Thom Noble
☆ Demi Moore, Gary Oldman, Robert Duvall, Robert Prosky, Edward Hardwicke, Joan Plowright, Roy Dotrice, Dana Ivey, Lisa Joliff-Andoh
'A campy period piece of pseudo-erotica. It should wear a brand mark all right – but not the letter "A" (for adulteress, and the accompanying spiritual penance). More appropriate would be the letter "V" (for video, which is its only hope of earthly salvation).' – Alexander Walker
'Provides all the usual incidental pleasures to be had from Hollywood's frequent bear hugs with great literature – unmappable migrations of thees and thines, an extra with an arrow through his neck who simply will not drop out of sight until he has caught the camera's eye, and – my favourite, this – a proud young Indian beauty with bikini marks. Absolute bliss.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
'A ponderously overstuffed package. Moore brandishes her scarlet letter snootily, as if she'd been forced to wear something from last year's fashion collections.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
† The film was not given a press show when it opened in Britain.

The Scarlet Pimpernel ★★★
GB 1934 98m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda)
In the early days of the French revolution, an apparently foppish Englishman leads a daring band in rescuing aristocrats from the guillotine.
First-class period adventure with a splendid and much imitated plot, strong characters, humour and a richly detailed historical background.
w Robert E. Sherwood, Sam Berman, Arthur Wimperis, Lajos Biro novel Baroness Orczy d Harold Young ph Harold Rosson m Arthur Benjamin ed William Hornbeck ☆ Leslie Howard (Sir Percy Blakeney), Merle Oberon (Lady Marguerite Blakeney), Raymond Massey (Chauvelin), Nigel Bruce (The Prince of Wales), Bramwell Fletcher (The Priest), Anthony Bushell (Sir Andrew Ffoulkes), Joan Gardner (Suzanne de Tournay), Walter Rilla (Armand St. Just)
'Excellent British import that will do business.' – Variety
'One of the most romantic and durable of all swashbucklers.' – New Yorker, 1976
'A triumph for the British film world.' – Sunday Times
† Some scenes were directed by Alexander Korda, others by Rowland Brown, whom Korda replaced after a few days.
†† The story was remade as The Elusive Pimpernel (qv) in 1982 in a TV version starring Anthony Andrews, and in 1998 in a TV version starring Richard E. Grant. See also The Return of the Scarlet Pimpernel.

'I've been wanting to laugh in your face ever since I met you. You're old and ugly and I'm sick of you – sick, sick, sick!'

Scarlet Street ★★
US 1945 103m bw
Universal/Diana (Fritz Lang)
A prostitute is murdered by her client and her pimp is executed for the crime.
Daring but rather gloomy Hollywood melodrama, the first in which a crime went unpunished (though the culprit was shown suffering remorse). Interesting and heavily Teutonic, but as entertainment not a patch on the similar but lighter The Woman in the Window, which the same team had made a year previously.
w Dudley Nichols play La Chienne by George de la Fouchardière (filmed by Jean Renoir in 1932) d Fritz Lang ph Milton Krasner m Hans Salter ad Alexander Golitzen, John B. Goodman ed Arthur Hilton ☆ Edward G. Robinson (Christopher Cross), Joan Bennett (Kitty March), Dan Duryea (Johnny Prince), Jess Barker (Janeway), Margaret Lindsay (Millie), Rosalind Ivan (Adele Cross), Samuel S. Hinds (Charles Pringle), Arthur Loft (Dellarowe)
'The director unerringly chooses the right sound and image to assault the spectator's sensibilities.' – C. A. Lejeune

The Scarlet Thread
GB 1950 84m bw
Nettlefold/Butcher
Jewel thieves take refuge in a Cambridge college.
Flabby melodrama featuring emergent young talent.
w A. R. Rawlinson play A. R. Rawlinson, Moie Charles d Lewis Gilbert ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Kenneth D. Morrison ☆ Kathleen Byron, Laurence Harvey, Sydney Tafler, Arthur Hill, Dora Bryan

The Scarlet Tunic
GB 1998 91m Fujicolour
Indy/Scarlet/Bigger Picture/Scorpio (Zygi Kamasa, Daniel Figuero)
An English farmer's daughter falls for a handsome German cavalry officer, who is planning to desert from his regiment.
A mundane period romantic drama, worthy but dull.
w Mark Jenkins, Colin Clements, Stuart St Paul story The Melancholy Hussar of the German Legion by Thomas Hardy d Stuart St Paul ph Malcolm McLean m John Scott pd Richard Elton ed Don Fairservice
☆ Jean-Marc Barr, Emma Fielding, Simon Callow, Jack Shepherd, John Sessions, Lynda Bellingham, Thomas Lockyer
'A nicely made film with no surprises.' – Guardian
† The film was made for £500,000.

Scars of Dracula
GB 1970 96m Technicolor
Hammer/EMI (Aida Young)
A young man on the run finds himself an unwitting guest of Count Dracula.
Overpadded vampire saga, its few effective moments stemming directly from the original novel.
w John Elder d Roy Ward Baker ph Moray Grant m James Bernard ad Scott MacGregor ed James Needs

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Christopher Lee, Dennis Waterman, Christopher Matthews, Jenny Hanley, Patrick Troughton, Michael Gwynn, Bob Todd

'No mercy. No shame. No sequel.'

Scary Movie

US 2000 88m DeLuxe
Dimension/Wayans Bros/Gold-Miller and Brad Grey (Eric L. Gold, Lee R. Mayes)

A killer murders high school students.
With more scriptwriters than jokes, this smuttily feeble spoof of the Scream series of horror movies inexplicably found a mass audience for its tired routines.
w Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Buddy Johnson, Phil Beauman, Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer d Keenen Ivory Wayans ph Francis Kenny m David Kitay ad Lawrence F. Pevec ed Mark Helfrich cos Darryle Johnson
☆ Shawn Wayans (Ray), Marlon Wayans (Shorty), Cheri Oteri (Gail Hailstorm), Shannon Elizabeth (Buffy), Anna Faris (Cindy Campbell), Jon Abrahams (Bobby), Lochlyn Munro (Greg), Regina Hall (Brenda), Dave Sheridan (Doofy), Dan Joffre (Kenny)
'The grossest mainstream Hollywood movie of the year... will be an instant must-see for the biggest cinema-going demographic in the world – the teenage boy.' – Mike Goodridge, Screen International † The film cost $20m to make and took $157m at the US box office and another $120m in the rest of the world.

'No More Mercy. No More Shame. No More Sequels – Honest! – We Lied.'

Scary Movie 2

US 2001 83m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Miramax/Dimension/Wayans Bros (Eric L. Gold)

A psychology professor invites his class to spend a weekend in a haunted house.
A movie with more writers than jokes, which, apart from an Exorcist spoof, are recycled from the first feeble effort; this is even feebler, if that were possible.
w Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Alyson Fouse, Greg Grabiansky, Dave Polsky, Michael Anthony Snowden, Craig Wayans d Keenen Ivory Wayans ph Steven Bernstein pd Cynthia Charette ed Peter Teschner, Tom Nordberg, Richard Pearson
☆ Shawn Wayans (Ray), Marlon Wayans (Shorty), Anna Faris (Cindy), Regina Hall (Brenda), Chris Masterson (Buddy), Kathleen Robertson (Theo), David Cross (Dwight), James Woods (Father McFeely), Tim Curry (The Professor), Tori Spelling (Alex), Chris Elliott (Hanson)
'Never less than pitiful.' – Andrew Pulver, Guardian

'Great trilogies come in threes.'

Scary Movie 3 ③

US 2003 84m colour
Buena Vista/Brad Grey Pictures (Robert K. Weiss)

A TV reporter senses a connection between the deaths of people who watch a video tape and alien invasions of a farm.
This is less a movie and more a succession of gags at the expense of recent horror movies; some work, many don't and the slapstick becomes tiresome before the end.
w Craig Mazin, Pat Proft d David Zucker ph Mark Irwin m James L. Venable pd William Elliot ed Malcolm Campbell, Jon Poll
☆ Anna Faris (Cindy), Anthony Anderson (Mahalik), Leslie Nielsen (President Harris), Camryn Manheim (Trooper Champlin), Simon Rex (George), George Carlin (The Architect), Queen Latifah (Aunt ShaNeequa), Denise Richards (Annie), Charlie Sheen (Tom)
'A deeply silly and trivial entertainment cheerfully devoid of any nutritional or calorific value whatever.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'The fourth and final chapter of the trilogy.'

Scary Movie 4 ④

US 2006 83m colour
Buena Vista/Dimension/Miramax/Brad Grey Pictures (Robert K. Weiss, Craig Mazin)

A new nurse arrives to care for an elderly woman who lives in a house haunted by the ghost of a child.
This provides the usual grab bag of jokes and parodies of recent movies, with most missing their broad targets.
w Craig Mazin, Jim Abrahams, David Zucker d David Zucker ph Thomas Ackerman m James Venable pd Holger Gross ed Craig Herring, Tom Lewis
☆ Anna Faris (Cindy Campbell), Regina Hall (Brenda Meeks), Craig Bierko (Tom Ryan), Simon Rex (George), Anthony Anderson (Mahalik), Carmen Electra (Holly), Leslie Nielsen (President Harris), Bill Pullman (Henry Hale), Cloris Leachman (Mrs Norris), Michael Madsen (Oliver), Charlie Sheen (Tom)
'It's funny, then cringe-inducing, then funny again. I laughed, quite a bit.' – Tim Robey, Daily Telegraph
'Worse than Scary Movies 1 through 3... And they were terrible.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Scattergood Baines

US 1941 69m bw
RKO

The new owner of a small-town hardware store takes an interest in his fellow men.
First of several second features featuring the exploits of a likeable busybody.
w Michael L. Simmons, Edward T. Lowe stories Clarence Budington Kelland d Christy Cabanne
☆ Guy Kibbee, Carol Hughes, John Archer, Emma Dunn
† The succeeding episodes were as follows: Scattergood Pulls the Strings, 1941; Scattergood Meets Broadway, 1941; Scattergood Rides High, 1942; Scattergood Survives a Murder, 1942; Cinderella Swings It, 1943.

Scavenger Hunt

US 1979 116m DeLuxe
TCF/Melvin Simon

A rich man leaves a fortune to the member of his family who can collect most of the useless objects in a list provided.
Depressing cheapjack imitation of Kramer's It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World, which itself was not free from fault.
w Steven A. Vail, Henry Harper d Michael Schultz ph Ken Lamkin m Billy Goldenberg
☆ Richard Benjamin, James Coco, Scatman Crothers, Cloris Leachman, Cleavon Little, Roddy McDowall, Robert Morley, Richard Mulligan, Tony Randall, Dirk Benedict, Vincent Price
'Loud, obnoxious, and above all unfunny.' – Variety

Lo Sceicco Bianco: see The White Sheik

A Scene at the Sea ★

Japan 1991 101m colour
ICA/Totsyu/Office Kitano (Masayuki Mori, Takio Yoshida)

original title: Ano Natsu, Ichiban Shizukana Umi
A deaf and dumb garbage collector tries to become a champion surfer, with the aid of his girlfriend, who is also a deaf-mute.
A restrained, heartfelt movie of momentary redemption; it is austere throughout, and its ambiguous ending leaves a sense of loss.
wd Takeshi Kitano ph Katsumi Yanagishima m Joe Hishaishi ed Takeshi Kitano ☆ Kurodo Maki, Hiroko Oshima, Sabu Kawahara
'A 'miniature' with huge emotional and even philosophical resonance.' – Tony Rayns, Sight and Sound

Scener Ur Ett äktenskap: see Scenes from a Marriage

Scenes from a Mall

US 1990 87m DuArt Panavision
Warner/Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners IV (Paul Mazursky)

Preparing to celebrate their sixteenth wedding anniversary, a Los Angeles couple confess their recent affairs while on a shopping spree.
An unsuccessful comic teaming in a wordy celebration of conspicuous consumption.
w Roger L. Simon, Paul Mazursky d Paul Mazursky ph Fred Murphy m Marc Shaiman pd Pato Guzman ed Stuart Pappé
☆ Bette Midler, Woody Allen, Bill Irwin, Daren Firestone, Rebecca Nickels, Paul Mazursky Scenes from a Marriage ★★★

Sweden 1973 168m colour
Cinematograph (Ingmar Bergman)

original title: Scener Ur Ett äktenskap
After ten years of marriage, a husband announces to his wife that he is leaving her because he has fallen in love with someone else; over the next ten years they continue to meet and examine their relationship.
Bergman edited the film into feature length from six 50-minute episodes made for television, and the structure of the original remains, with each episode given its own title, moving from Innocence and Panic, with an apparently happy marriage on display, to In the Middle of the Night in a Dark House Somewhere in the World, with the couple, by now remarried to other partners, seeking solace with each other. The time-span gives the characters room to develop: the husband from complacency to wry understanding, the wife from subservience to individuality. It is an unsparing and detailed examination of a relationship, marked by more pain than pleasure, but reaching a hopeful conclusion; it is also, despite its claustrophobic style, of a succession of close-ups of talking heads, rivetting cinema.
wd Ingmar Bergman ph Sven Nykvist m none ad Björn Thulin ed Siv Lundgren
☆ Liv Ullmann (Marianne), Erland Josephson (Johan), Bibi Andersson (Katarina), Jan Malmsjö (Peter), Gunnel Lindblom (Eva), Anita Wall (Mrs. Palm)
'Shows how habit and conciliatory effort erode communication. But it is ultimately an optimistic film, suggesting that beyond the hell of a return to zero, the knowledge of one's absolute separateness from others can lead through despair to a glowing fulfilment.' – Jan Dawson, MFB

Scenes from the Class Struggle in Beverly Hills

US 1989 103m CFI color
Rank/North Street Films/Cinecom Entertainment (Amir J. Malin, Ira Deutchman)

Two servants bet that they can seduce the other's mistress, both of whom have sexual problems of their own.
Bed-hopping black-tinged comedy that never goes quite far enough to be funny.
w Bruce Wagner story Paul Bartel, Bruce Wagner d Paul Bartel ph Steven Fierberg m Stanley Myers pd Alex Tavoularis ed Alan Toomayan ☆ Jacqueline Bisset, Ray Sharkey, Mary Woronov, Robert Beltran, Ed Begley Jnr, Wallace Shawn, Arnetia Walker, Paul Bartel, Paul Mazursky, Rebecca Schaeffer

'Seven couples, seven stories, one common ground...'

Scenes of a Sexual Nature ⑤

UK 2006 91m
Miracle Communications/Tin Pan Films (Ed Blum)

Love blooms for various city dwellers during an afternoon on London's Hampstead Heath.
Desperately uneven collage of unconnected storylines that succeeds best as a showcase for British acting talent.
w Aschlin Ditta d Ed Blum ph David Meadows m Dominik Scherrer ad Gordon Grant ed Joe McNally ☆ Eileen Atkins (Iris), Hugh Bonneville (Gerry), Adrian Lester (Pete), Ewan McGregor (Billy), Sophie Okonedo (Anna), Catherine Tate (Sara)
'Despite its come-hither title, Scenes of a Sexual Nature features nothing more shocking than a bare male bottom and some smutty talk.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety

'Col. Frank Slade has a very special plan for the weekend. It involves travel, women, good food, fine wine, the tango, chauffeured limousines and a loaded forty-five. And he's bringing Charlie along for the ride.'

Scent of a Woman ★

US 1992 157m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal/City Lights (Martin Brest)

A blind former soldier shows a high-school student how to enjoy life.
Sentimental drama showcasing a flamboyant over-the-top performance from Pacino.
w Bo Goldman d Martin Brest ph Donald E. Thorin m Thomas Newman pd Angelo Graham ed William Steinkamp
☆ Al Pacino, Chris O'Donnell, James Rebhorn, Gabrielle Anwar, Philip S. Hoffman, Richard Venture
'Essentially a two-character piece that goes on nearly an hour too long, Martin Brest's latest boasts good writing, filmmaking and performances, but far too much of each.' – Variety
† The film was suggested by the Italian movie Profumo di Donna, directed in 1974 by Dino Risi from the novel Il Buio e il Miele by Giovanni Arpino.
Al Pacino
Best picture; Martin Brest; Bo Goldman

The Scent of Green Papaya ★★

France 1993 104m colour
Artificial Eye/Lazennec/La Sept/Canal

original title: Mùi Du Du Xanh

In Saigon in the 50s, a young village girl grows up as she works as a maid for a family where the mother struggles to bring up her sons in the absence of their father.
Gentle, well-observed domestic drama, crafted with care and visual style.
wd Tran Anh Hung ph Benoit Delhomme m Tiêt Ton-That ad Alain Nègre ed Nicole Dedieu, Jean-Pierre Roques
☆ Yên-Khê Tran Nu, Man San Lu, Thi Lôc Truong, Anh Hoa Nguyen, Hoa Hôi Vuong, Ngoc Trung Tran
'Although visually more rigorous, Hung's movie in some ways recalls the early works of Indian helmer Satyajit Ray in its portrayal of childhood dreams and the invisible walls between kids and adults.' – Variety
'Marries nature and artifice, taking the graceful shape of an Oriental character that grows, like a cherry tree, into ever larger meaning as pen-strokes are slowly added.' – Kathleen Murphy, Film Comment
best foreign film

'First they moved (1895)! Then they talked (1927)! Now they smell!'

Scent of Mystery ★
US 1959 125m Technicolor Cinerama (70mm)
Cinerama/Mike Todd Jnr
aka: Holiday in Spain
An Englishman on holiday in Spain protects a mysterious girl.
More of a travelogue than a thriller, but worth a note as the cinema's first 'smellie'. A process called Smell-o-Vision released appropriate odours throughout the auditorium...
w William Rose d Jack Cardiff ph John von Kotze m Mario Nascimbene ☆ Denholm Elliott, Peter Lorre, Beverly Bentley, Paul Lukas, Liam Redmond, Leo McKern, Peter Arne, Mary Laura Wood, Elizabeth Taylor
† The first film to credit its providers of shoe polish.

Scent of Passion (dubbed)
Italy 1990 84m Telecolor
Film 90
A choreographer, dissatisfied by his relationships with dancers, decides to find a woman he can mould to his taste and picks up a vagrant from the streets.
Glossy, silly and empty movie that uses the trappings of culture – the work of a classic writer and the ballet – for a great deal of macho posturing and, by the women, breast-baring; not so much a vision of Gautier's belief in art for art's sake as an example of soft porn for money's sake.
w Leandro Lucchetti novel Violette by Theophile Gautier d Pasquale Fanetti ph (uncredited) m Donimak, Lindok ad Vlado Perkovic ed Cesare Bianchini
☆ Malú, Angeles Lopez Barea, Giancarlo Teodori, Zvonco Zrncic, Suada Herak, Melita Turisic, Mircea Hurdubea

Die Schaukel: see The Swing

'The List Is Life. The Man Was Real. The Story Is True.'

Schindler's List ★★★★
US 1993 195m bw/colour
Universal/Amblin (Steven Spielberg, Gerald R. Molen, Branko Lustig)
During the Second World War, an Austrian businessman persuades the Nazis to let him use Jewish slave labour in his factory; and then, with the money he earns, bribes a brutal SS commandant to save 1,100 Jews from the concentration camps.
A brilliantly realized, fiercely controlled and restrained treatment of a true story, using monochrome photography for the most part to achieve a documentary feel; harsh and compassionate, it avoids sentimentality until the end. It marks not only a notable achievement, but Spielberg's coming of age as an adult film-maker.
w Steven Zaillian novel Thomas Keneally d Steven Spielberg ph Janusz Kaminski m John Williams pd Allan Starski ad Ewa Tarnowska, Maciej Walczak, Ryszard Melliwa, Grzegorz Piatkowski ed Michael Kahn
☆ Liam Neeson (Oskar Schindler), Ben Kingsley (Itzhak Stern), Ralph Fiennes (Amon Goeth), Caroline Goodall (Emilie Schindler), Jonathan Sagalle (Poldek Pfefferberg), Embeth Davidtz (Helen Hirsch), Malgosha Gebel (Victoria Klonowska), Shmulik Levy (Wilek Chilowicz), Mark Ivanir (Marcel Goldberg)
'Evinces an artistic rigor and unsentimental intelligence unlike anything the world's most successful filmmaker has demonstrated before.' – Variety
'The elevated downer of the decade.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'He captures images of experience that most of us thought we would never see represented adequately on the screen. This is by far the finest, fullest dramatic (i.e. nondocumentary) film ever made about the Holocaust.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
'Indiana Jones in the Cracow Ghetto.' – Will Tremper, Die Welt
best film; Steven Spielberg; Steven Zaillian; Janusz Kaminski; Michael Kahn; John Williams; Allan Starski Liam Neeson; Ralph Fiennes; costume design (Anna Biedrzycka-Sheppard); make-up best film; adapted screenplay; Steven Spielberg; Ralph Fiennes; Janusz Kaminski; John Williams

'Schizophrenia...When the left hand doesn't know who the right hand is killing.'

Schizo
GB 1976 109m Technicolor
Columbia-Warner/Pete Walker aka: Amok
aka: Blood of the Undead
A series of bloody murders result when a famous ice-skater announces that she is to be married.
An unsuccessful attempt at a slick and surprising thriller; the twist in the plot is obvious from the beginning.
w David McGillivray d Peter Walker ph Peter Jessop m Stanley Myers ad Chris Burke ed Alan Brett
☆ Lynne Frederick, John Leyton, Stephanie Beacham, John Fraser, Jack Watson, Queenie Watts, John McEnery, Colin Jeavons
'Deprived of any support from the script this time, Pete Walker's direction, all thump, scream and cut as shadows lurk and doorknobs turn – with each cliché heralded by a triumphant tremolo or bass boom from the score – reduces the whole thing to risible absurdity.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Die Schlangengrube und das Pendel: see The Blood Demon

School for Husbands
GB 1937 71m bw
Wainwright (Richard Wainwright)
A romantic novelist annoys the husbands of his adoring fans.
Would-be champagne comedy which bubbles pretty well for most of its length.
w Frederick Jackson, Gordon Aherry, Austin Melford play Frederick Jackson
d Andrew Marton ph Phil Tannura
☆ Rex Harrison, Henry Kendall, Romney Brent, Diana Churchill, June Clyde

The School for Scandal
GB 1930 73m Raycol Colour
Albion Film Syndicate
Two brothers have characters opposite to their appearances.
Doomed attempt to film the famous 18th-century comedy of manners.
w Jean Jay play Richard Brinsley Sheridan
d Maurice Elvey
☆ Madeleine Carroll, Basil Gill, Henry Hewitt, Ian Fleming
'Its value in the States looks like exactly nothing.' – Variety

School for Scoundrels ★
GB 1960 94m bw
ABP/Guardsman (Hal E. Chester)
A failure reports to the College of One-Upmanship and his life is transformed.
Amusing trifle, basically a series of sketches by familiar comic actors.
w Patricia Mayes, Hal E. Chester books Stephen Potter d Robert Hamer
ph Erwin Hillier m John Addison ☆ Ian Carmichael, Alastair Sim, Terry-Thomas, Janette Scott, Dennis Price, Peter Jones, Edward Chapman, John Le Mesurier
† Cyril Frankel directed some scenes uncredited after Hamer was too drunk to continue.

'Life's a game. Learn how to play.'
'Nice guys graduate last.'

School for Scoundrels (2)
US 2006 101m
Paramount/Dimension Films/Picked Last/Media Talent Group (Daniel Goldberg, J Geyer Kosinski, Todd Phillips)
A put-upon weakling joins an assertiveness class, only to find himself competing with his teacher for the affections of his pretty neighbour.
Brash American remake of a sprightly British original that feels heavy-handed and coarse by comparison.
w Scott Armstrong, Todd Phillips d Todd Phillips ph Jonathan Brown
m Christophe Beck pd Nelson Coates
ad Scott Meehan, David Stein ed Leslie Jones, Daniel Schalk
☆ Billy Bob Thornton (Dr P), Jon Heder (Roger), Jacinda Barrett (Amanda), Michael Clarke Duncan (Lesher), Horatio Sanz (Diego), Todd Louiso (Eli)
DR P: 'Lie, lie, and lie some more.'
'An inert and muddled mash-up of romantic comedy and theatre of stupid cruelty.' – Sheri Linden, Hollywood Reporter † Neither the original film nor the books on which it was based are credited.

School for Secrets
GB 1946 108m bw
Rank/Two Cities (George H. Brown, Peter Ustinov)
US title: Secret Flight
The boffins who invented radar find themselves in a little war action of their own.
An unsatisfactory entertainment which, with the best intentions, shuffles between arch comedy, character drama, war action and documentary, doing less than justice to any of these aspects.
wd Peter Ustinov ph Jack Hildyard
m Alan Rawsthorne
☆ Ralph Richardson, Raymond Huntley, Richard Attenborough, Marjorie Rhodes, John Laurie, Ernest Jay, David Tomlinson, Finlay Currie

'One is not born a woman, one becomes one.'

School for Seduction
GB 2004 104m colour
Redbus/Ipso Facto/UKFS 5 (Steve Bowden, Christine Alderson, Angad Paul)
An Italian woman sets up a Seduction School in Newcastle.
Hapless comedy, devoid of amusement.
w Sue Heel, Martin Herron d Sue Heel
ph Tony Imi m Daymon Britton
pd Suzanne Field, Ash Wilkinson ed David Martin, Sean Barton
☆ Kelly Brook (Sophia Rosselini), Emily Woof (Kelly), Dervla Kirwan (Clare), Margi Clarke (Irene), Jessica Johnson (Donna), Tim Healy (Derek)

School for Unclaimed Girls: see The Smashing Bird I Used to Know

'We don't need no education.'

School of Rock ★★ (8)
US/Germany 2003 110m DeLuxe
Paramount/MFP/New Century/SOR (Scott Rudin)
A failed rock musician impersonates a teacher at a posh school and turns a class of ten-year-olds into a successful band.
Boisterous, amiable comedy in an old-fashioned 'let's put on a show' style, enlivened by a few modern twists.
w Mike White d Richard Linklater
ph Rogier Stoffers m Craig Wedren
pd Jeremy Conway ed Sandra Adair
☆ Jack Black (Dewey Finn), Joan Cusack (Rosalie Mullins), Mike White (Ned Schneebly), Sarah Silverman (Patty Di Marco), Joey Gaydos Jnr (Zack), Robert Tsai (Lawrence), Maryam Hassan (Tomika), Kevin Clark (Freddy Jones)
'The most unlikely great movie of the year.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

School Ties ★
US 1992 107m DeLuxe
Paramount (Stanley R. Jaffe, Sherry Lansing)
In the mid-1950s a Jewish boy conceals his religion when he wins a scholarship to an exclusive school rife with anti-Semitism.
A slickly directed, well-acted, moderately gripping drama.
w Dick Wolf, Darryl Ponicsan d Robert Mandel ph Freddie Francis m Maurice Jarre pd Jeannine Claudia Oppewall
ed Jerry Greenberg, Jacqueline Cambas
☆ Brendan Fraser, Matt Damon, Chris O'Donnell, Randall Batinkoff, Andrew Lowery, Amy Locane, Ed Lauter
'Gives a multifaceted, nuanced look at the roots of prejudice and self-denial.' – Variety

Das Schreckliche Mädchen: see The Nasty Girl

Schtonk!
Germany 1992 111m colour
Artificial Eye/Bavarian Film/WDR (Gunter Rohrbach, Helmut Dietl)
A forger decides to fake Hitler's diaries to sell to a collector of Nazi memorabilia and enlists the aid of a journalist.
The heavy-handed farcical treatment of an hilarious true story provides little amusement,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

although it was a great success in its home country.
w Helmut Dietl, Ulrich Limmer d Helmut Dietl ph Xaver Schwarzenberger m Konstantin Wecker ad Götz Weidner, Benedikt Herforth ed Tanja Schmidbauer
☆ Götz George, Uwe Ochsenknecht, Christiane Hörbiger, Rolf Hoppe, Dagmar Manzel, Veronica Ferres, Rosemarie Fendel
'This crude, overacted account of the Hitler diaries scandal is largely of sociological interest, an occasion for sporadic chuckles rather than sustained laughter.' – Philip French, Observer
foreign language film

Schweik's New Adventures
GB 1943 84m bw
Eden Films
An unassuming Czechoslovakian writer gently kids the Nazi occupiers and manages to save some of his friends from the concentration camp.
Curious English attempt to film a popular Czechoslovakian character; it made mildly effective wartime propaganda, though few went to see it.
w Karel Lamac, Con West novel Jaroslav Hasek d Karel Lamac
☆ Lloyd Pearson, George Carney, Julien Mitchell, Richard Attenborough, Margaret McGrath

Schwestern oder die Balance des Glücks: see Sisters or the Balance of Happiness

'Close your eyes. Open your heart.'
The Science of Sleep ★ ⑦
France/Italy 2006 105m
(Georges Bermann, Michel Gondry, Frederic Junqua)
A young man with artistic ambitions arrives in Paris, stays in his mother's apartment, takes a humdrum job and lives his life through his imaginative dreams.
One may choose to be charmed or irritated by Gondry's confection, an obvious tribute to the wonder of the dream state. Bernal certainly has charm to burn, but the fanciful, whimsical tone of the story overstays its welcome. The most interesting facet of Stephane's character, the notion that he's an unhinged individual, more comfortable in his fantasy world than in real life, is insufficiently explored.
wd Michel Gondry ph Jean-Louis Bompoint m Jean-Michel Bernard pd Stéphane Rozenbaum, Pierre Pell ed Juliette Welfling
☆ Gael Garcia Bernal (Stéphane Miroux), Charlotte Gainsbourg (Stéphanie), Alain Chabat (Guy), Miou-Miou (Christine Miroux)
'It only works about half the time, but it's an interesting half.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune
'Gondry always manages to maintain a child-like wonder in the magic of creating a moving image, and never is it more evident than in this film.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Sciuscià: see Shoeshine

'Throughout The Ages, One Hero Has Cowered Above The Rest.'
Scooby-Doo
US 2002 86m Technicolor
Warner/Mosaic Media (Charles Roven, Richard Suckle)
Members of a defunct crime-fighting gang re-united to discover who is brain-washing tourists on Spooky Island.
A live-action version of the TV cartoons about amateur detectives and their cowardly dog that always seemed over-stretched in a running time of half-an-hour. The movie version is over-stretched in half that time.
w James Gunn characters created by Hanna-Barbera Prods d Raja Gosnell ph David Eggby m David Newman pd Bill Boes ed Kent Beyda sp Peter Crosman
☆ Freddie Prinze Jnr (Fred), Sarah Michelle Gellar (Daphne), Matthew Lillard (Shaggy), Linda Cardellini (Velma), Rowan Atkinson (Mondavarious), Isla Fisher (Mary Jane), Miguel A. Nunez Jnr (Voodoo Maestro), Steven Grives (N'Goo Tuana)
'Incredibly leaden and unutterably boring.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Get out your pooper-scoopers.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone
† It cost $85m and took $153m at the US box-office.

'They came. They saw. They ran.'
Scooby-Doo 2: Monsters Unleashed
US 2004 93m Technicolor
Warner/Mosaic (Charles Roven, Richard Suckle)
A masked villain creates monsters that take over Scooby-Doo's home town.
Drear and feeble-minded movie that, unlike the shorter TV cartoons, does not have an 'off' switch.
w James Gunn d Raja Gosnell ph Oliver Wood m David Newman pd Bill Boes ed Kent Beyda
☆ Freddie Prinze Jnr (Fred), Sarah Michelle Gellar (Daphne), Matthew Lillard (Shaggy), Linda Cardellini (Velma), Seth Green (Patrick), Peter Boyle (Old Man Wickles), Tim Blake Nelson (Jacobo), Alicia Silverstone (Heather), Neil Fanning (Scooby-Doo Voice)
'The law of diminishing returns has caught up with this franchise.' – Variety
'Themes of self-acceptance and inner strength seem a little out of place in a movie featuring a hound farting at phantasms.' – Nick DeSemlyn, Empire
† It took $82.5m at the US box-office.

'How many tellers does it take to rob a bank?'
Scorched
US/GB 2002 94m FotoKem
Content/Neverland (Al Corley, Eugene Musso, Bart Rosenblatt)
Three disillusioned cashiers separately decide to rob their bank on the same day.
Feeble farce in which the cast fail to give any life to a moribund script.
w Joe Wein, Max Wein d Gavin Grazer ph Bruce Douglas Johnson m John Frizzell pd Patti Podesta ed Kathryn Himoff
☆ Alicia Silverstone (Sheila Rilo), Rachael Leigh Cook (Shmally), Woody Harrelson (Jason 'Woods' Valley), John Cleese (Charles Merchant), Paulo Costanzo (Stuart Stein), David Krumholtz (Max)
'A bigger and more disagreeable waste of time than rolling an enormous ball of solid ordure up a steep hill.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† The film was unreleased for three years after it was made.

Scorchers
US 1991 82m colour
Rank/Goldcrest/FilmWorks (Morrie Eisenman, Richard Hellman)
In a sleazy bar, a prostitute sorts out a wife's marital problems while nearby a newly-wed couple have troubles of their own.
Risibly decadent movie, set in a town of misfits.
wd David Beaird play David Beaird ph Peter Deming m Carter Burwell pd Bill Eigenbrodt ed David Garfield ☆ Faye Dunaway, Denholm Elliott, James Earl Jones, Emily Lloyd, Jennifer Tilly, James Wilder, Anthony Geary, Leland Crooke, Luke Perry
'An uncomfortable mix of melodrama, sentimentality and failed farce.' – Empire

Scorching Winds: see Garm Hava

Score
Japan 1996 87m colour
Bandai/Shochiku (Yoshihisa Nakagawa, Hitoshi Ozawa)
After a jewel robbery goes wrong, the gang responsible fight among themselves and against other killers.
Violent thriller that is much under the influence of Tarantino's Reservoir Dogs and Hong Kong action movies; it provides bloody action but little narrative or interest.
w Atsushi Muroga, Toshimichi Ohkawa d Atsushi Muroga ph Takeshi Koga m Torsten Rasch ☆ Hitoshi Ozawa (Chance), Shu Ehara (Tequila), Ryuji Minakami (Right), Masahiro Yamashita (Peking Duck), Kazuyoshi Ozawa (TJ), Miyuki Takano (Sara)

'There are no partners in crime.'
The Score ★
US/Germany 2001 124m DeLuxe
Panavision
Pathé/Mandalay/Horseshoe Bay (Gary Foster, Lee Rich)
A veteran thief is persuaded by his old partner and a cocky newcomer to do one last robbery.
A stellar cast render this familiar narrative watchable, but do little to lift it above the ordinary.
w Kario Salem, Lem Dobbs, Scott Marshall Smith d Frank Oz ph Rob Hahn m Howard Shore pd Jackson De Govia ed Richard Pearson cos Aude Bronson-Howard
☆ Robert De Niro (Nick), Edward Norton (Jack/Brian), Marlon Brando (Max), Angela Bassett (Diane), Gary Farmer (Burt), Paul Soles (Danny)
'If you're not too demanding, it's an easy film to go along with: an "old times' sake" caper, and doubly welcome for its avoidance of violence.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Score 2: The Big Fight
Japan 1999 85m colour
Bandai/Shochiku-Dai-Ichi Kogyo/LA Trinidad/Digex (Hiroshi Onishi, Kuniaki Komori)
Pursued by corrupt cops, a gang of six quarrelling crooks search for the proceeds of a bank robbery that has been hidden in a fairground.
Mindless, over the top action movie that is little more than a prolonged gun fight. The cast take to heart the movie's epigraph – ' He who laughs last, laughs most' – by cackling away throughout.
wd Hitoshi Ozawa ph Akira Sako m Torsten Rasch ed Kunihiko Ukai, Hitoshi Ozawa
☆ Kazuyoshi Ozawa (Spade), Shu Ehara (Club), Aya Nakamura (Queen), Hitoshi Ozawa (Jack), Gouta Tate (King), Hiroshi Miyasaka (Diamond), Takashi Ukaji (Anan)

'When Scorpio wants you, there is nowhere to hide!'
Scorpio
US 1972 114m Technicolor
UA/Scimitar (Walter Mirisch)
CIA agents doublecross each other.
Incredibly complex spy thriller in which it's difficult to know, or care, who's following whom. The brutalities, however, are capably staged.
w David W. Rintels, Gerald Wilson d Michael Winner ph Robert Paynter m Jerry Fielding ☆ Burt Lancaster, Alain Delon, Paul Scofield, John Colicos, Gayle Hunnicutt, J. D. Cannon
'Strictly zoom and thump.' – Sight and Sound
'Relying on moments of violence for effect, Winner directs with typically crass abandon.' – Time Out, 1984

'Warrior. Legend. King.'
The Scorpion King
US 2002 91m FotoKem Panavision
Universal/WWF/Alphaville (Stephen Sommers, Sean Daniel, James Jacks, Kevin Misher)
In ancient times, the leader of a band of assassins, who is hired to overthrow a local tyrant, decides to become king himself.
Thick slice of witless, incoherent Hollywood hokum, starring a ponderously muscular wrestler whose sobriquet fits his approach to acting.
w Stephen Sommers, William Osborne, David Hayter d Chuck Russell ph John R. Leonetti m John Debney pd Ed Verreaux ed Michael Tronick, Greg Parsons sp CFX/Das Werk
☆ The Rock (The Scorpion King/Mathayus), Steven Brand (Memnon), Michael Clarke Duncan (Balthazar), Kelly Hu (Sorceress), Bernard Hill (Philos), Grant Heslov (Arpid), Peter Facinelli (Takmet), Ralf Moeller (Thorak), Branscombe Richmond (Jesup), Roger Rees (King Pheron), Sherri Howard (Queen Isis)
'It's like having several garbage cans clogged with stale pizza, lukewarm cola, soggy French fries and greasy, ketchup-stained napkins emptied over your head.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
'Crude and prosaic, a storming-the-cardboard-castle potboiler with reasonably vigorous sword fights served up every 15 minutes or so, like commercials.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

Scorsese x 4: see The Big Shave, ItalianAmerican, It's Not Just You Murray!, What's A Nice Girl Like You Doing in a Place Like This?

'Protection Is The Job, Justice Is The Goal, Death Is The Price.'
La Scorta ★★
Italy 1993 92m Technicolor
Claudio Bonivento
aka: The Escort
Following the assassination by the Sicilian Mafia of a judge, a team of carabinieri is assigned to protect his replacement.
Tough, timely and suspenseful thriller about political corruption in Italy, based on truth and close in style to American gangster movies.
w Graziano Diana, Simona Izzo d Ricky Tognazzi ph Alessio Gelsini m Ennio Morricone ad Mariangela Capuano ed Carla Simoncelli ☆ Claudio Amendola, Enrico Lo Verso, Carlo Cecchi, Ricky Memphis, Tony

Sperandeo, Francesca D'Aloja, Angelo Infanti, Leo Gullotta

'This finds a gripping, even uplifting, human story inside its depiction of oppressive and omnipresent evil.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Scotch on the Rocks: see Laxdale Hall

Scotland Yard

US 1941 68m bw
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)

The Nazis capture a London banker and use his double to turn funds over to them.

Outlandish spy melodrama which certainly keeps the interest.

w Samuel G. Engel, John Balderston play Deniston Clift d Norman Foster ph Virgil Miller m Emil Newman

☆ Nancy Kelly, Edmund Gwenn, Henry Wilcoxon, John Loder, Melville Cooper, Gilbert Emery, Norma Varden

Scotland Yard Investigator

US 1945 68m bw
Republic (George Blair)

Frenchmen attempt to steal the Mona Lisa from its wartime home in the National Gallery.

Very passable programme filler with stalwart actors enjoying themselves.

w Randall Faye d George Blair

☆ Sir Aubrey Smith, Erich von Stroheim, Stephanie Bachelor, Forrester Harvey, Richard Fraser, Frederick Worlock

Scott of the Antarctic ★★

GB 1948 111m Technicolor
Ealing (Sidney Cole)

After long preparation, Captain Scott sets off on his ill-fated 1912 expedition to the South Pole.

The stiff-upper-lip saga par excellence; inevitable knowledge of the end makes it pretty downbeat, and the actors can only be sincere; but the snowscapes, most of them artificial, are fine.

w Ivor Montagu, Walter Meade, Mary Hayley Bell d Charles Frend ph Geoffrey Unsworth, Jack Cardiff, Osmond Borradaile m Ralph Vaughan Williams

☆ John Mills, James Robertson Justice, Derek Bond, Harold Warrender, Reginald Beckwith, Kenneth More, James McKechnie, John Gregson

Scott Walker: 30 Century Man ⑨

UK/US 2007 95m
Verve Pictures/Missing in Action Films/Plastic Palace (Mia Bays, Stephen Kijak, Elizabeth Rose)

A profile of enigmatic musician Scott Walker as he records his first album in a decade.

Reverent documentary on a reclusive figure whose work is the very definition of an acquired taste; its only agenda, it seems, is to preach to the converted.

d Stephen Kijak ph Grant Gee m Scott Walker pd Graham Wood ed Grant Gee, Mat Whitecross

☆ Scott Walker, Damon Albarn, David Bowie, Jarvis Cocker, Alison Goldfrapp, Sara Kestelman (Narrator)

'Pretty much everything you could possibly want from a music doc.' – Trevor Johnston, Time Out

'The proof of the pig is in the pounding: it sounds good.' – Kevin Harley, Total Film

The Scoundrel ★★

US 1935 74m bw
Paramount (Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur)

A famous writer dies; his ghost comes back to find the meaning of love.

Unique thirties supernatural melodrama with barbs of dated wit despatched by a splendid cast. Nonsense, but great nonsense.

wd Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur ph Lee Garmes m George Antheil

☆ Noël Coward, Alexander Woollcott, Julie Haydon, Stanley Ridges, Eduardo Ciannelli

'Good Hotel Algonquin literati stuff, but not for the Automat trade.' – Variety

'An unmistakable whiff from a gossip column world which tries hard to split the difference between an epigram and a wisecrack.' – William Whitebait

'Practically flawless drama. It's arty, but if this is art, let us have more of it.' – Photoplay

'An impudent work ... but there are brains in it, and observation, and even a kind of stunted poetry.' – Observer

† Helen Hayes and Edna Ferber made cameo appearances.

♟ original story

The Scoundrel ★

France/Italy/Rumania 1971 100m
Eastmancolor
Cinecenta/Gaumont/Rizzoli/BFP (Alain Poiré)

original title: Mariés de L'An Deux

The adventures in the 1790s of a Frenchman who returns from America to divorce his wife and then decides he wants to stay married.

Enjoyable and hectic swashbuckling period romp in which true love triumphs after a great number of death-defying moments.

w Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Claude Sautet, Maurice Clavel, Daniel Boulanger d Jean-Paul Rappeneau ph Claude Renoir
m Michel Legrand ad Alexandre Trauner, Will Holt ed Pierre Gillette

☆ Jean-Paul Belmondo, Marlène Jobert, Michel Auclair, Sami Frey, Laura Antonelli, Pierre Brasseur

Scram! ★

US 1932 20m bw
Hal Roach

Two vagrants are ordered out of town but by a series of misadventures are found drunk with the judge's wife.

Generally sprightly star comedy culminating in a marathon laughing session.

w H. M. Walker d Ray McCarey
ed Richard Currier

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Arthur Housman, Rychard Cramer, Vivien Oakland

Scream ★

US 1996 110m CFI color Panavision
Buena Vista/Miramax/Dimension (Cary Woods, Cathy Konrad)

A serial killer with an extensive knowledge of horror movies begins to murder teenage girls.

A knowing romp through the conventions of slasher movies, but one that also manages to scare as well; it is most likely to appeal to those familiar with the genre, who will appreciate its parodies.

w Kevin Williamson d Wes Craven
ph Mark Irwin m Marco Beltrami
pd Bruce Alan Miller ed Patrick Lussier sp Frank Seglia; make-up: Robert Kurtzman, Greg Nicotero, Howard Berger

☆ Drew Barrymore, Neve Campbell, Skeet Ulrich, Courteney Cox, Rose McGowan, David Arquette

'An ingeniously unsettling tribute to the splatterific teen horror films of the '80s.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'Just about every effect in the picture is predictable.' – Herschell Gordon Lewis

'Someone has taken their love of sequels one step too far.'

Scream 2 ★ ⑦

US 1997 120m Foto Kem Panavision
Miramax/Dimension/Konrad (Cathy Konrad, Marianne Maddalena)

Attending the première of a movie based on their experiences with a serial killer, two students become the first victims of a copycat murderer.

Another dose of knowing, self-referential horror movie lore that finally twists back on itself with a killer who claims to have been corrupted by movies; it's very ingenious, but it's still junk.

w Kevin Williamson d Wes Craven
ph Peter Deming m Marco Beltrami
pd Robert Ziembicki ed Patrick Lussier

☆ David Arquette, Neve Campbell, Courteney Cox, Sarah Michelle Gellar, Jamie Kennedy, Jerry O'Connell, Jada Pinkett, Liev Schreiber, David Warner, Laurie Metcalf

'Visceral, witty and appropriately redundant, the sequel has a winning commercial recipe that's certain to cook up excellent returns in all areas.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

'The Third and Final chapter in the trilogy that made you laugh, and made you Scream.'

Scream 3

US 2000 116m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Konrad (Cathy Konrad, Kevin Williamson, Marianne Maddalena)

The cast of a horror film Stab 3 are killed off one by one.

A sequel so self-referential that audiences who have not seen the first two movies in the series will be at a loss to understand what is happening; but, then those who didn't see the earlier Screams will want to miss this one, too.

w Ehren Kruger d Wes Craven ph Peter Deming m Marco Beltrami pd Bruce Alan Miller ed Patrick Lussier

☆ David Arquette (Dewey Riley), Neve Campbell (Sidney Prescott), Courteney Cox Arquette (Gale Weathers), Patrick Dempsey (Mark Kincaid), Scott Foley (Roman Bridger), Lance Henriksen (John Milton), Matt Keeslar (Tom Prinze), Jenny McCarthy (Jenny McCarthy), Emily Mortimer (Angelina Tyler), Parker Posey (Jennifer Jolie), Deon Richmond (Tyson Fox), Liev Schreiber (Cotton Weary), Heather Matarazzo (Martha Meeks), Carrie Fisher (Bianca Burnette), Kevin Smith (Silent Bob) and also Roger Corman

'So tediously knowing that it ceases to be an entertainment. It becomes simply an extended raft of film references, as chilling as a draughty lavatory seat and as sexy as number crunching.' – James Christopher, Times

Scream ... and Die!

GB 1973 99m Eastmancolor
Variety/Blackwater (Diana Daubeney)
aka: Psycho Sex Fiend

A model fears that she may be murdered after witnessing an unidentifiable man in black stab a girl to death in a remote country mansion.

Trivial thriller that sets out to titillate, but fails miserably.

w Derek Ford d Joseph Larraz (José Ramón Larraz) ph Trevor Wrenn m Terry Warr ad John Hoesli ed Roy Deverell

☆ Andrea Allan, Karl Lanchbury, Maggie Walker, Peter Forbes-Robertson, Judy Matheson, Annabella Wood, Alex Leppard

'At heart just another sexploitation film posing as a thriller.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'Triple distilled horror ... as powerful as a vat of boiling acid!'

Scream and Scream Again ★

GB 1969 94m Eastmancolor
AIP/Amicus (Milton Subotsky, Max J. Rosenberg)

Murders are traced to superhuman composite beings created by a mad scientist.

Energetic and well-staged though rather humourless shocker.

w Christopher Wicking novel The Disorientated Man by Peter Saxon
d Gordon Hessler ph John Coquillon
m David Whittaker ad Don Mingaye

☆ Vincent Price, Christopher Lee, Peter Cushing, Alfred Marks, Anthony Newlands, David Lodge, Peter Sallis

Scream, Blacula, Scream

US 1973 96m Movielab
Gala/AIP (Joseph T. Naar)

A 19th-century African vampire is brought back to life.

Routine horror movie of little interest, a lacklustre sequel to Blacula (qv).

w Joan Torres, Raymond Koenig, Maurice Jules d Bob Kelljan ph Isodore Mankofsky
m Bill Marx ad Alfeo Bocchicchio
ed Fabian Tordjmann sp Jack de Bron

☆ William Marshall, Pam Grier, Don Mitchell, Michael Conrad, Richard Lawson, Lynne Moody, Beverly Gill, Bernie Hamilton

'Will excite only the most undemanding audiences.' – MFB

Scream for Help

US 1984 90m colour
Miracle/Lorimar/Videoform (Michael Winner)

A teenager becomes convinced that her stepfather is trying to murder her mother.

Crude splatter movie which the director presumably undertook as a joke.

w Tom Holland d Michael Winner
ph Robert Paynter, Dick Kratina
m Howard Blake ad Tony Reading
ed Christopher Barnes

☆ Rachael Kelly, David Brooks, Marie Masters, Rocco Sisto, Lolita Lorre

'Over the moronic characterization, daft dialogue, inept performances and opportunistic camerawork, music has been poured like a constant stream of cold gravy, making a sound that on occasion resembles, not inappropriately, a growling stomach.' – Philip Strick, MFB

Scream of Fear: see Taste of Fear

Scream of Stone ★

Germany/France/Canada 1991 105m colour
SERA/A2/Les Films Stock/ZDF/Canal Plus/Telefilm Canada/Lucky Red/RAI2 (Walter Saxer)

A young climber challenges an older one to tackle the most difficult mountain in the world in Patagonia.

Spectacular photography compensates for a muddled narrative about obsessive people.

w Hans-Ulrich Klenner, Walter Saxer story Reinhold Messner d Werner Herzog ph Rainer Klausmann, Herbert Raditschnig
m Ingram Marshall, Alan Lamb pd Juan Santiago ed Suzanne Baron

☆ Vittorio Mezzogiorno, Mathilda May, Stefan Glowacz, Brad Dourif, Donald Sutherland

'While it does feature some spectacular mountain photography in an area of the world few will ever see first-hand, the dramatic and psychological aspects remain so obscure as to become silly.' – Variety

Screamers ★

US/Canada/Japan 1996 107m colour
Triumph/Fuji Eight/Fries/Allegro (Tom Berry, Franco Battista)

In 2078, on the planet Sirius 6B, an alliance of mine-workers and scientists invents killer robots to win a war against a corrupt and authoritarian mining corporation.
Paranoid science fiction, bleak in tone but interesting in its speculations about intelligent machines and violent people; judging by the soundtrack song, rock music will regress in the future.
w Dan O'Bannon, Miguel Tejada-Flores story Second Variety by Philip K. Dick d Christian Duguay ph Rodney Gibbons m Normand Corbeil pd Perri Gorrara ed Yves Langlois sp Ernest Faring; Richard Ostiguy
☆ Peter Weller, Roy Dupuis, Jennifer Rubin, Andy Lauer, Ron White, Charles Powell, Liliana Komorowska
† Dick's original story, published in 1953, was set on Earth, with a war between UN forces and the Soviet Union.

The Screaming Dead: see Dracula – Prisoner of Frankenstein

Screaming Mimi

US 1958 79m bw
Sage/Columbia (Harry Joe Brown, Robert Fellows)

After being sexually assaulted a dancer comes to believe she has committed murder ... and later we learn that she has.
Sub-Freudian melodrama on the comic strip level.
w Robert Blees book Frederic Brown d Gerd Oswald ph Burnett Guffey md Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ Anita Ekberg, Phil Carey, Harry Townes, Gypsy Rose Lee, Romney Brent, Alan Gifford, Red Norvo

'Everyone gets it in the end.'

Screwed

US 2000 81m DeLuxe
Universal (Robert Simonds)

A servant's plan to kidnap and ransom his employer's pet dog goes disastrously wrong.
Broad and slapstick comedy by a cast with no obvious talent for the genre.
wd Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski ph Robert Brinkman m Michael Colombier pd Mark Freeborn ad Sandi Tanaka ed Michael Jablow ☆ Norm Macdonald (Willard Fillmore), Dave Chappelle (Rusty P. Hayes), Elaine Stritch (Miss Crock), Danny DeVito (Grover Cleaver), Daniel Benzali (Detective Tom Dewey), Sherman Hemsley (Chip Oswald), Sarah Silverman (Hillary), Malcolm Stewart (Roger)
'A confusedly misconceived hybrid of interracial buddy comedy and imitation Marx Brothers farce.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Scrooge ★

GB 1935 78m bw
Twickenham (Julius Hagen)

A miser reforms after ghosts haunt him on Christmas Eve.
Acceptable unambitious version with interesting performances.
w Seymour Hicks, H. Fowler Mear novel Charles Dickens d Henry Edwards ph Sidney Blythe, William Luff
☆ Seymour Hicks (Ebenezer Scrooge), Donald Calthrop (Bob Cratchit), Athene Seyler, Oscar Asche, Barbara Everest, Maurice Evans, C. V. France, Marie Ney
† Seymour Hicks starred in a silent version in 1913.

Scrooge ★★★

GB 1951 86m bw
Renown (Brian Desmond Hurst)

US title: A Christmas Carol
A miser discovers the error of his ways after being haunted by the ghosts of his past, present and future life.
By far the best available version of the classic parable; casting, art direction, pace and general handling are as good as can be.
w Noel Langley d Brian Desmond Hurst ph C. M. Pennington-Richards m Richard Addinsell ad Ralph Brinton ed Clive Donner ☆ Alastair Sim (Scrooge), Mervyn Johns (Bob Cratchit), Kathleen Harrison (Mrs. Dilber), Jack Warner (Mr. Jorkins), Michael Hordern (Jacob Marley), Hermione Baddeley (Mrs. Cratchit), George Cole (Scrooge as Young Man), Miles Malleson (Old Joe)

Scrooge ★

GB 1970 113m Technicolor Panavision
Cinema Center/Waterbury (Robert H. Solo)

Dim musical version, darkly coloured and quite lost on the wide screen; but it has its macabre moments of trick photography.
d Ronald Neame ph Oswald Morris pd Terry Marsh w/m/ly Leslie Bricusse
☆ Albert Finney, Michael Medwin, Alec Guinness, Edith Evans, Kenneth More, David Collings, Laurence Naismith, Kay Walsh
† Richard Harris and Rex Harrison were both sought before Finney was signed.
♪ song 'Thank You Very Much' (m/ly Leslie Bricusse); original score; art direction; costume design (Margaret Furse)

Scrooged ★

US 1988 101m Technicolor
Paramount/Mirage (Richard Donner, Art Linson)

Updated version of Dickens's A Christmas Carol, centring on the president of a New York television company.
Energetic and sometimes genuinely scary seasonal entertainment for modern kids.
w Mitch Glazer, Michael O'Donoghue d Richard Donner ph Michael Chapman m Danny Elfman pd J. Michael Riva
☆ Bill Murray, Karen Allen, John Forsythe, Robert Mitchum, John Houseman, Lee Majors

Scrubbers

GB 1982 93m Eastmancolor
Handmade (Don Boyd)

Sensational events in a girls' borstal.
Wild-eyed melodrama which seems to serve no sort of purpose and is certainly not entertaining.
w Roy Minton, Jeremy Watt, Mai Zetterling d Mai Zetterling ph Ernest Vincze m Michael Hurd
☆ Amanda York, Chrissie Cotterill, Elizabeth Edmonds, Kate Ingram, Honey Bane, Eva Motley

Scudda Hoo, Scudda Hay

US 1948 98m Technicolor
TCF (Walter Morosco)
GB title: Summer Lightning

A farmer's son is less interested in girls than in the welfare of his two mules.
Antediluvian rural romance for the simple-minded.
wd F. Hugh Herbert novel George Agnew Chamberlain ph Ernest Palmer m Cyril Mockridge ☆ June Haver, Lon McCallister, Walter Brennan, Anne Revere, Natalie Wood, Robert Karnes, Henry Hull, Tom Tully, Marilyn Monroe

Scum ★

GB 1979 97m Eastmancolor
GTO/Berwick Street Films (Clive Parsons, Davina Belling)

Injustices in a Borstal institution lead to a riot.
Gorily overstated view of boys' prison life from the inside, with the camera gloating over each violent close-up. (The original TV play had been made, then banned, by the BBC.)
w Roy Minton d Alan Clarke ph Phil Meheux ad Judith Lang ed Mike Bradsell ☆ Ray Winstone, Mick Ford, Julian Firth, John Blundell

The Sea: see El Mar

The Sea Bat

US 1930 69m bw
MGM

Mexican fishermen compete to kill a deadly sting-ray.
The Jaws of its time; box-office hokum.
w Bess Meredyth and John Howard Lawson d Wesley Ruggles
☆ Charles Bickford, Raquel Torres, Nils Asther, John Miljan, Gibson Gowland, Boris Karloff

The Sea Beast ★

US 1926 125m approx bw silent
Warner

In this version of Moby Dick, Ahab gets to settle down at the end with his lady love.
Memorable sea scenes and a star performance.
w Bess Meredyth d Millard Webb
☆ John Barrymore, Dolores Costello, George O'Hara, Mike Donlin, Sam Baker

The Sea Chase ★

US 1955 117m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner (John Farrow)

In 1939 a German freighter tries to make it from Sydney harbour back to Germany.
Unusual but not very compelling naval melodrama, chiefly because the leads are miscast.
w James Warner Bellah, John Twist novel Andrew Geer d John Farrow ph William Clothier m Roy Webb
☆ John Wayne, Lana Turner, David Farrar, Lyle Bettger, Tab Hunter, James Arness, Dick Davalos, John Qualen
'A film compounded of monotonously familiar ingredients.' – Penelope Houston

Sea Devils

US 1937 88m bw
RKO

Exploits of the ice patrols of the US Coast Guard.
Flagwaving action hokum for popular stars.
w Frank Wead, John Twist, P. J. Wolfson d Ben Stoloff ph J. Roy Hunt, Joseph August md Roy Webb
☆ Victor McLaglen, Preston Foster, Ida Lupino, Donald Woods

Sea Devils

GB 1953 90m Technicolor
Coronado (David E. Rose)

Spies prevent Napoleon's invasion of England.
Cheerful, forgettable swashbuckler.
w Borden Chase d Raoul Walsh ph Wilkie Cooper m Richard Addinsell
☆ Yvonne de Carlo, Rock Hudson, Maxwell Reed, Denis O'Dea, Michael Goodliffe, Bryan Forbes, Ivor Barnard, Arthur Wontner

Sea Fury

GB 1958 97m bw
Rank (Benjamin Fisz)

Rivalry strikes up between an old and a young sailor on tugboats plying between Spain and England.
Shapeless, leery melodrama with strong performances and an exciting storm-at-sea climax.
w John Kruse, Cy Endfield d Cy Endfield ph Reg Wyer m Philip Green ☆ Stanley Baker, Victor McLaglen, Luciana Paluzzi, Grégoire Aslan, Francis de Wolff, David Oxley, Rupert Davies, Robert Shaw

'They stand side by side. Young and old. Rich and poor. They gather together for a single purpose. Survival.'

The Sea Gull ★

GB 1968 141m Technicolor
Warner/Sidney Lumet

Loves and hates on a 19th-century Russian estate.
Rather heavily star-studded, but certainly proficient film version of a Chekhov favourite.
w Moura Budberg play Anton Chekhov d Sidney Lumet ph Gerry Fisher m none pd Tony Walton
☆ James Mason, Simone Signoret, Vanessa Redgrave, David Warner, Harry Andrews, Ronald Radd, Eileen Herlie, Kathleen Widdoes, Denholm Elliott, Alfred Lynch
'The camera cannot capture the hollowness of space, the oppressive immovableness of a seemingly harmless enclosure, stasis settling on everything like a fine, corrosive dust.' – John Simon

'If you miss it, you will owe yourself an apology!'

The Sea Hawk ★★★

US 1940 122m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis, Henry Blanke)

Elizabeth I encourages one of her most able captains to acts of piracy against the Spanish.
Wobbly-plotted but stirring and exciting seafaring actioner, with splendid battle and duel scenes.
w Seton I. Miller, Howard Koch d Michael Curtiz ph Sol Polito m Erich Wolfgang Korngold ad Anton Grot ed George Amy ☆ Errol Flynn (Capt. Geoffrey Thorpe), Flora Robson (Queen Elizabeth), Brenda Marshall (Donna Maria Alvarez de Cordoba), Henry Daniell (Lord Wolfingham), Claude Rains (Don Jose Alvarez de Cordoba), Donald Crisp (Sir John Burleson), Alan Hale (Carl Pitt), Una O'Connor (Martha), James Stephenson (Abbott), Gilbert Roland (Capt. Lopez), William Lundigan (Danny Logan)
'Endless episodes of court intrigue tend to diminish the effect of the epic sweep of the high seas dramatics.' – Variety
♪ Erich Wolfgang Korngold; Anton Grot

The Sea Inside ★

Spain 2004 125m colour
Sogepaq/Sogecine/Himenoptero/TVE/Canal+
(Fernando Bovaira, Alejandro Amenabar)

original title: Mar Adentro

A middle-aged former sailor, paralysed from the neck down in his twenties by a diving accident, fights for the right to die.

Based on a true story, the movie too often skirts around its subject-matter, a plea for euthanasia from its embittered protagonist, relying on a virtuoso performance from Javier Bardem to convey a vigorous sense of a life worth living.

w Alejandro Amenabar, Mateo Gil d Alejandro Amenabar ph Javier Aguirresarobe m Alejandro Amenabar ad Benjamin Fernandez ed Alejandro Amenabar

☆ Javier Bardem (Ramon Sampedro), Belen Rueda (Julia), Lola Duenas (Rosa), Mabel Rivera (Manuela), Celso Bugallo (Jose), Clara Segura (Gene), Joan Dalmau (Joaquin)

'A profound and decidedly awkward meditation on what it means to be alive.' – James Christopher, Times

'An absorbing and almost unbearably poignant tour de force.' – Jonathan Holland, Variety

† Javier Bardem's performance won him the best actor award at the Venice Film Festival in 2004.

†† Ramon Sampedro died in 1998 at the age of 55 by drinking cyanide, helped by ten others. His death was videotaped and shown on Spanish television.

foreign film
make-up (Jo Allen, Manolo Garcia)

The Sea is Watching ★

Japan 2002 119m colour
TriStar/Nikkatsu (Masaya Nakamura)

original title: Umi Wa Miteita

In a brothel in Edo, a young prostitute, after a doomed affair with a samurai, gets the chance to begin life anew.

Soft-centred, soft focus, nostalgic romance, from an unproduced script by Akira Kurosawa, though the directorial approach is very different.

w Akira Kurosawa stories Shugoro Yamamoto d Kei Kumai ph Kazuo Okuhara m Teiz Matsumura pd Takeo Kimura ed Osamu Inoue

☆ Misa Shimizu (Kikuno), Nagiko Tohno (O-Shin), Masatoshi Nagase (Ryosuke), Hidetaka Yoshioka (Fusanosuke)

'An idealized, late-in-life tenderness runs through this story.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'A man who loved as ruthlessly as he ruled. A woman whose indiscretions cost a lifetime of happiness!'

The Sea of Grass

US 1947 131m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

A cattle tycoon is so obsessed by his work that he alienates his family.

Brooding, overlong semi-Western with an unexpected cast.

w Marguerite Roberts, Vincent Lawrence novel Conrad Richter d Elia Kazan ph Harry Stradling m Herbert Stothart

☆ Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Melvyn Douglas, Phyllis Thaxter, Robert Walker, Edgar Buchanan, Harry Carey, Ruth Nelson, James Bell

'In spite of all the sincerity and talent involved, an epically dreary film.' – Time

'The only film I ever made that I'm truly ashamed of.' – Elia Kazan

Sea of Lost Ships

US 1953 85m bw
Republic

The US Coast Guard saves a passenger ship from an iceberg.

Scrappy, semi-documentary account punctuated by rough action highlights.

w Steve Fisher d Joseph Kane ph Reggie Lanning m R. Dale Butts

☆ Walter Brennan, John Derek, Wanda Hendrix, Richard Jaeckel, Barton MacLane, Darryl Hickman

Sea of Love ★★

US 1989 112m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal (Martin Bregman, Louis A. Stroller)

A New York cop, suffering a mid-life crisis, falls in love with the chief suspect of a series of murders of men advertising in lonely hearts columns.

Effective urban thriller, though the emphasis is more on the romance than in discovering whodunnit.

w Richard Price d Harold Becker ph Ronnie Taylor m Trevor Jones pd John Jay Moore ed David Bretherton

☆ Al Pacino, Ellen Barkin, John Goodman, William Hickey, Michael Rooker, Richard Jenkins

Sea of Sand

GB 1958 98m bw
Rank/Tempean (Robert Baker, Monty Berman)

US title: Desert Patrol

Just before Alamein an Eighth Army desert group plans to destroy one of Rommel's last petrol dumps.

Good standard war suspenser.

w Robert Westerby d Guy Green ph Wilkie Cooper m Clifton Parker

☆ Richard Attenborough, John Gregson, Vincent Ball, Percy Herbert, Michael Craig, Barry Foster, Andrew Faulds, Dermot Walsh

Sea of Silence: see La Mer Cruelle

The Sea Shall Not Have Them

GB 1954 93m bw
Eros/Daniel M. Angel

Survivors of a seaplane crash await rescue in a dinghy.

Rather dim computerized compendium of flashback mini-dramas.

w Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris d Lewis Gilbert ph Stephen Dade m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Dirk Bogarde, Michael Redgrave, Bonar Colleano, Jack Watling, Anthony Steel, Nigel Patrick, James Kenney, Sydney Tafler, George Rose

The Sea Wall: see This Angry Age

'One of the most challenging stories of faith ever told! What happened out there ... in the surging vastness of the Indian Ocean?'

Sea Wife

GB 1957 82m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Sumar (André Hakim)

Survivors of a shipwreck near Singapore in 1942 are rescued, not before the bosun has fallen in love with the only lady, not knowing she is a nun.

Flashbacked, uncertain, intermittently effective film of a popular minor novel.

w George K. Burke novel Sea Wyf by J. M. Scott d Bob McNaught ph Ted Scaife m Kenneth V. Jones, Leonard Salzedo

☆ Richard Burton, Joan Collins, Basil Sydney, Cy Grant

The Sea Wolf ★★

US 1941 90m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

Survivors of a ferry crash in San Francisco Bay are picked up by a psychopathic freighter captain who keeps them captive.

Much filmed action suspenser which in this version looks great but overdoes the talk.

w Robert Rossen novel Jack London d Michael Curtiz ph Sol Polito m Erich Wolfgang Korngold

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Alexander Knox, Ida Lupino, John Garfield, Gene Lockhart, Barry Fitzgerald, Stanley Ridges, David Bruce, Howard da Silva

'A Germanic, powerful work almost devoid of compromise.' – Charles Higham, 1972

† Other versions appeared in 1913, with Hobart Bosworth; in 1920, with Noah Beery; in 1925, with Ralph Ince; in 1930, with Milton Sills; in 1950 (as Barricade, turned into a Western), with Raymond Massey; in 1958 (as Wolf Larsen), with Barry Sullivan; and in 1975 (Italian), as Wolf of the Seven Seas, with Chuck Connors.

The Sea Wolves ★

GB/US/Switzerland 1980 122m
Eastmancolor
Richmond-Lorimar-Varius (Euan Lloyd)

In 1943, elderly British territorials living in India dispose of a Nazi transmitter in neutral Goa.

Mildly larkish Boy's Own Paper adventure with a somewhat geriatric air; an interesting 1980 throwback to the films of 1950.

w Reginald Rose novel Boarding Party by James Leasor d Andrew McLaglen ph Tony Imi m Roy Budd

☆ Gregory Peck, Roger Moore, Trevor Howard, David Niven, Barbara Kellerman, Patrick Macnee, Patrick Allen, Bernard Archard, Faith Brook, Martin Benson, Allan Cuthbertson, Kenneth Griffith, Donald Houston, Glyn Houston, Percy Herbert and also Patrick Holt, Terence Longdon, John Standing, Michael Medwin

'As a genre – the arterio-sclerotic war movie – it'll never catch on.' – Time Out

† The film was dedicated to Earl Mountbatten after his assassination.

'The True Story Of A Longshot Who Became A Legend'

Seabiscuit ★★

US 2003 141m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/DreamWorks/Spyglass (Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall, Gary Ross, Jane Sindell)

With the aid of a one-eyed jockey and an over-the-hill cowboy trainer, an unfancied horse becomes a champion.

Based on fact, a relentlessly sentimental, feelgood story of the triumph of the underdog that apparently cheered America during the Depression; the races are staged with great aplomb and Macy's radio commentator adds welcome moments of eccentricity.

wd Gary Ross book Laura Hillenbrand ph John Schwartzman m Randy Newman pd Jeannine Oppewall ed William Goldenberg cos Judianna Makovsky

☆ Tobey Maguire (Red Pollard), Jeff Bridges (Charles Howard), Chris Cooper (Tom Smith), Elizabeth Banks (Marcela Howard), Gary Stevens (George Woolf), William H. Macy ('Tick-Tock' McGlaughlin), Kingston DuCoeur (Sam), Eddie Jones (Samuel Riddle)

'Aesop endowed animals with human traits to teach us lessons. Seabiscuit almost does the reverse. By means of Ross's adroit shooting and editing, we ourselves pound bravely along the track.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

'Respectable when it should be thrilling, honorable when it should be rough and ready.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

† Another movie on the same theme was The Story of Seabiscuit, 49, starring Shirley Temple.

picture; Gary Ross (as screenwriter); John Schwartzman; William Goldenberg; art direction; Judianna Makovsky; sound

Seagulls over Sorrento

GB 1954 92m bw
MGM (John Boulting)
US title Crest of the Wave

Life on a naval research station on a small Scottish island.

A long-running British service comedy has been Americanized to little effect, but it remains just about watchable.

w Frank Harvey, Roy Boulting play Hugh Hastings d Roy Boulting ph Gilbert Taylor m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Gene Kelly, John Justin, Bernard Lee, Sidney James, Jeff Richards, Patric Doonan, Patrick Barr

Seal Island: see The Living Desert

Sealed Cargo ★

US 1951 90m bw
RKO (Warren Duff)

In 1943, an American fishing-boat captain, sailing to Newfoundland, becomes suspicious of the captain of a wrecked schooner he discovers.

Enjoyable and atmospheric wartime thriller, maintaining its sense of mystery and suspense to the end.

w Dale Van Every, Oliver H. P. Garrett, Roy Huggins novel The Gaunt Woman by Edmund Gilligan d Alfred Werker ph George E. Diskant m Roy Webb pd J. McMillan Johnson ad Albert S. D'Agostino ed Ralph Dawson

☆ Dana Andrews, Carla Balenda, Claude Rains, Philip Dorn, Onslow Stevens, Skip Homeier, Eric Feldary, J. M. Kerrigan, Arthur Shields, Morgan Farley

Sealed Lips: see After Tonight

'What is the truth about fraternization?'

Sealed Verdict

US 1948 83m bw
Paramount (Robert Fellows)

An American officer in Germany falls in love with the ex-girlfriend of a Nazi war criminal.

Routine melodrama, as boring as it sounds.

w Jonathan Latimer novel Lionel Shapiro d Lewis Allen ph Leo Tover m Hugo Friedhofer

☆ Ray Milland, Florence Marly, Broderick Crawford, John Hoyt, John Ridgely, Ludwig Donath

Seance on a Wet Afternoon ★

GB 1964 121m bw
Rank/Allied Film Makers (Richard Attenborough, Bryan Forbes)

A fake medium persuades her husband to kidnap a child so that she can become famous by revealing its whereabouts in a trance.

Overlong character melodrama in which the suspense is better than the psychopathology. A mannered performance from the lady, a false nose from the gentleman, and a general air of gloom.

wd Bryan Forbes ph Gerry Turpin m John Barry
☆ Kim Stanley, Richard Attenborough, Nanette Newman, Patrick Magee 'Not only a psychological suspense thriller but also a top-notch crime-and-detection tale and, above all, a horror film.' – Judith Crist
Kim Stanley
Richard Attenborough

The Search ★
US/Switzerland 1948 105m bw
MGM/Praesens Film (Lazar Wechsler)

An American soldier in Germany cares for a war orphan.
Vivid semi-documentary post-war drama which falls down in its elementary dramatics but sent audiences home wiping away tears.
w Richard Schweizer, David Wechsler, Paul Jarrico d Fred Zinnemann ph Emil Berna m Robert Blum ☆ Montgomery Clift, Aline MacMahon, Ivan Jandl, Wendell Corey
'Far and away the most touching film we have seen for years.' – C. A. Lejeune original story (Richard Schweizer, David Wechsler); Ivan Jandl (special award for outstanding juvenile performance) script; Fred Zinnemann; Montgomery Clift

'You never saw so many skins you'd like to touch!'

Search for Beauty
US 1934 77m bw
Paramount

A physical culture magazine sponsors an international contest for beauties of both sexes.
Mildly amusing extravaganza staking its popularity on girls in bathing dress.
w Claude Binyon, Sam Hellman, Frank Butler and others play Schuyler E. Gray, Paul R. Milton d Erle C. Kenton
☆ Larry 'Buster' Crabbe, Ida Lupino, Toby Wing, James Gleason, Robert Armstrong, Gertrude Michael, Roscoe Karns
'A couple of years ago so many girls in abbreviated dress would have been enough for one picture ... but they've seen massed pulchritude quite often lately, so the girls here are just trimmings.' – Variety

The Search for Bridey Murphy★
US 1956 84m bw Vistavision
Paramount (Pat Duggan)

A Colorado businessman and amateur hypnotist finds a lady neighbour so good a subject that he is able to delve into her previous incarnation as a long-dead Irish peasant.
Adequately presented with alienation effects, but mainly consisting of two-shots and fuzzy flashbacks, this treatment of an actual case (subsequently discredited) works up to a fine pitch of frenzy when the subject seems unable to come back from her previous life.
wd Noel Langley book Morey Bernstein ph John F. Warren m Irvin Talbot ☆ Teresa Wright, Louis Hayward, Kenneth Tobey, Nancy Gates, Richard Anderson

'He had to find her ... he had to find her...'

The Searchers ★★★★
US 1956 119m Technicolor Vistavision
Warner/C. V. Whitney (Merian C. Cooper)

A Confederate war veteran tracks down the Indians who have slaughtered his brother and sister-in-law and carried off their daughter.
Disturbing Western of obsession and racism which has become Ford's most influential film, in which Wayne gives his most ambiguous performance, being no longer a simple gung-ho hero, but a tormented loner out of step with his society. Its themes of loss and reconciliation are echoed in many films that followed.
w Frank S. Nugent novel Alan le May d John Ford ph Winton C. Hoch m Max Steiner ad Frank Hotaling, James Basevi ed Jack Murray
☆ John Wayne (Ethan Edwards), Jeffrey Hunter (Martin Pawley), Natalie Wood (Debbie Edwards), Vera Miles (Laurie Jorgensen), Ward Bond (Capt. Rev. Samuel Clayton), John Qualen (Lars Jorgensen), Henry Brandon (Chief Scar), Antonio Moreno (Emilio Figueroa)
'You can read a lot into it, but it isn't very enjoyable.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
'A ripsnorting Western, as brashly entertaining as they come.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times

Searching for Bobby Fischer
US 1993 110m DeLuxe
Paramount/Mirage (Scott Rudin, William Horberg)

GB title: Innocent Moves
A father discovers that his seven-year-old son is a chess prodigy.
An off-beat film that concentrates on the father–son relationship, although it does attempt the impossible of making chess games visually exciting and accessible to non-players.
wd Steven Zaillian book Fred Waitzkin ph Conrad L. Hall m James Horner pd David Gropman ed Wayne Wahrman
☆ Joe Mantegna, Max Pomeranc, Ben Kingsley, Joan Allen, Laurence Fishburne, Michael Nirenberg, Robert Stephens, David Paymer
'Earnest and well-acted.' – Variety
Conrad L. Hall

'What strange power could drive this man from the lips of the woman he married to the arms of the woman he loved?'

The Searching Wind ★
US 1946 107m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)

Affairs of an American diplomat in Europe during the thirties.
Earnest melodrama which would have been better timed six years earlier. Excellent production, though.
w Lillian Hellman play Lillian Hellman d William Dieterle ph Lee Garmes m Victor Young ad Hans Drier, Franz Bachelin
☆ Robert Young, Sylvia Sidney, Ann Richards, Douglas Dick, Dudley Digges, Albert Basserman, Dan Seymour

The Seashell and the Clergyman ★
France 1928 30m approx (24 fps) bw silent
(Producer unknown)

A clergyman is afflicted by sexual torments.
Celebrated surrealist short with memorable images and a great deal of confusion.
w Antonin Artaud d Germaine Dulac ph Paul Guichard ☆ Alix Allin
† In GB the film was banned by the censor with the famous comment: 'It is so cryptic as to have no apparent meaning. If there is a meaning, it is doubtless objectionable.'

Seaside Swingers: see Every Day's a Holiday

The Season of Men: see La Saison des Hommes

Season of Passion: see Summer of the Seventeenth Doll

Season of the Witch
US 1973 89m colour
Latent Image (Nancy M. Romero)

aka: Jack's Wife
aka: Hungry Wives
A housewife, bored by the sameness of her domestic routine, turns to witchcraft, which leads in turn to murder.
A low-budget satirical take on the horrors of suburbia, often imaginatively photographed and edited, but fatally sabotaged by its rudimentary acting and frequently naïve script.
wd George A. Romero ph George A. Romero m Steve Gorn ed George A. Romero
☆ Jan White, Ray Laine, Anne Muffly, Joedda McClain, Virginia Greenwald, Bill Thunhurst, Neil Fisher, Shirlee Strasser
'A strange experimental film, with an unmistakeable (but amateurish) aura of Bergman.' – David Pirie, Time Out
† The British video release in 1994 ran for 104m.

The Seaweed Children: see Malachi's Cove

Sebastian
GB 1968 100m Eastmancolor
Paramount/Maccius (Herb Brodkin, Michael Powell)

An Oxford professor and code expert is appointed to the secret service.
Mildly spoofy spy yarn: style but not much substance.
w Gerald Vaughan-Hughes story Leo Marks d David Greene ph Gerry Fisher m Jerry Goldsmith pd Wilfred Shingleton ☆ Dirk Bogarde, John Gielgud, Lilli Palmer, Susannah York, Janet Munro, Margaret Johnston, Nigel Davenport, Ronald Fraser
'One of the problems with this kind of movie is the enormous pressure put on the audience to have a good time over practically nothing.' – Renata Adler

Sebastian
Norway/Sweden 1995 84m colour
Mefistofilm/Miramar/Nordisk (Peter Vennerod, Hansi Mandoki, Lars Kolvig)

A 16-year-old boy has problems coming to terms with his homosexuality.
A no-problem movie, about a boy whose lifestyle is accepted without many qualms by those around him; the lack of real conflict leads to blandness.
w Svend Wam, Peter Vennerod, Hansi Mandoki, Per Källberg novel Svart Cayal by Per Knutsen d Svend Wam ph Per Källberg m various ad Crispin Gerholt ed Einar Egeland ☆ Hampus Björck, Nicolai Cleve Broch, Ewa Fröling, Helge Jordal, Rebecka Hamse, Lena Olander

Sebastiane ★
GB 1976 86m colour
Megalovision/Cinegate/Disctac (James Waley, Howard Malin)

Sebastian, a soldier and former favourite banished to a remote outpost by the Emperor Diocletian, is executed by his commander when he refuses his sexual advances.
Unusual semi-improvised feature in which the dialogue is in Latin with English subtitles. It was the first British film to deal openly with homosexual desire.
w Derek Jarman, James Waley d Derek Jarman, Paul Humfress ph Peter Middleton m Brian Eno pd Derek Jarman ed Paul Humfress
☆ Leonardo Treviglio, Barney James, Neil Kennedy, Richard Warwick, Donald Dunham, Ken Hicks, Lindsay Kemp
'The most promising sign of new film life in independent narrative cinema in this country in many, many years.' – Tony Rayns, MFB

Second Best
GB/US 1994 105m Technicolor
Warner/Regency/Alcor/Fron/Monarchy (Sarah Radclyffe)

An introverted Welsh postman adopts a young boy with problems.
Small-scale domestic drama of male bonding that remains too inert to engage attention.
w David Cook novel David Cook d Chris Menges ph Ashley Rowe m Simon Boswell pd Michael Howells ed George Akers
☆ William Hurt, Chris Cleary Miles, Keith Allen, Prunella Scales, Jane Horrocks, Alan Cumming, John Hurt, Alfred Lynch, Doris Hare, Nerys Hughes, Jodhi May
'So modest in its aim and achievement that it will be exceedingly difficult to drum up much audience interest in seeing it.' – Variety

Second Best Bed
GB 1938 74m bw
Capitol

A magistrate is suspected of adultery.
Cheerful star comedy with a touch of sophistication.
w Ben Travers d Tom Walls ph Jack Cox md Van Phillips
☆ Tom Walls, Jane Baxter, Veronica Rose, Carl Jaffe, Greta Gynt

The Second Best Secret Agent in the Whole Wide World: see Licensed to Kill

Second Chance
US 1953 82m Technicolor 3-D
RKO (Edmund Grainger)

In South America, a professional killer stalks a gangster's moll.
Comic strip antics with a climax on a stalled cable car.
w Oscar Millard, Sydney Boehm story D. M. Marshman Jnr d Rudolph Maté ph William Snyder m Roy Webb
☆ Robert Mitchum, Linda Darnell, Jack Palance, Reginald Sheffield, Roy Roberts

Second Chorus
US 1940 84m bw
Paramount (Boris Morros)

Two trumpeters and their lady manager hit Broadway.
Mild musical.
w Elaine Ryan. Ian Mclellan Hunter, Frank Cavett d H. C. Potter ph Theodor Sparkuhl m Artie Shaw songs various ☆ Fred Astaire, Burgess Meredith, Paulette Goddard, Charles Butterworth, Artie Shaw and his Band, Frank Melton, Jimmy Conlin
Artie Shaw; song 'Love of my Life' (m Artie Shaw, ly Johnny Mercer)

Second Class Mail
GB 1984 4m colour
NFTS

A woman sends away by mail order for an inflatable husband.

A delightful joke, told at the perfect length.
wd Alison Snowden
♗ animated short

'The greatest combination of talent ever gathered in one show!'

Second Fiddle
US 1939 86m bw
TCF (Gene Markey)

A Minnesota skating schoolteacher goes to Hollywood and becomes a star.
Routine star vehicle.
w Harry Tugend d Sidney Lanfield ph Leon Shamroy md Louis Silvers songs Irving Berlin
☆ Sonja Henie, Tyrone Power, Edna May Oliver, Rudy Vallee, Mary Healy, Lyle Talbot, Alan Dinehart
♗ song 'I Poured My Heart into a Song' (m/ly Irving Berlin)

The Second Greatest Sex
US 1955 87m Technicolor Cinemascope
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)

Western women emulate Lysistrata to stop their men from feuding.
Flat attempt to cash in on Seven Brides for Seven Brothers; some good acrobatic dancing but no style.
w Charles Hoffman d George Marshall ph Wilfrid M. Cline md Joseph Gershenson ch Lee Scott
☆ Jeanne Crain, George Nader, Bert Lahr, Kitty Kallen, Paul Gilbert, Keith Andes, Mamie Van Doren, Tommy Rall

Second Honeymoon
US 1937 79m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

A man tries to win back his ex-wife.
Moderate star romantic comedy.
w Kathryn Scola, Darrell Ware story Philip Wylie d Walter Lang ph Ernest Palmer m David Buttolph
☆ Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Stuart Erwin, Claire Trevor, Marjorie Weaver, Lyle Talbot, J. Edward Bromberg

The Second Mrs Tanqueray
GB 1952 75m bw
Vandyke (Roger Proudlock)

A Victorian society widower marries a notorious lady.
Stiff-backed penny-pinching version of an interestingly antiquated play.
play Arthur Wing Pinero d Dallas Bower ph Gerald Gibbs
☆ Pamela Brown, Hugh Sinclair, Ronald Ward, Virginia McKenna, Andrew Osborn

Second Skin: see Segunda Piel

Second Thoughts
US 1982 98m Movielab
Turman-Foster/EMI

A lady lawyer gets into complex trouble when she bails out her inconsiderate lover from a Santa Fe jail.
An absurd series of situations is played for drama rather than comedy, and the feminist flag is frequently waved. The result is an unlikeable muddle.
w Steve Brown d Lawrence Turman ph King Baggot m Henry Mancini ☆ Lucie Arnaz, Craig Wasson, Ken Howard, Anne Schedeen

'Alternately dull and risible.' – Chris Auty, MFB

The Second Time Around
US 1961 99m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Cummings/Harman (Jack Cummings)

In 1912 Arizona, a widow stands for sheriff and has plenty of choice for a husband.
Light-hearted Western fun mixed with family sentimentality.
w Oscar Saul, Cecil Van Heusen novel Richard Emery Roberts d Vincent Sherman ph Ellis W. Carter m Gerald Fried ☆ Debbie Reynolds, Steve Forrest, Andy Griffith, Juliet Prowse, Thelma Ritter, Ken Scott, Isobel Elsom

'Keep a lemon handy for sucking to ward off an attack of the terminal cutesies.' – Judith Crist, 1973

The Second Victory
GB 1986 112m Rank Colour
Lelaleuka/J and M (Gerald Thomas)

In Austria after World War II, British occupation forces try to keep order in face of unrest following the murder of a sergeant.
Curiously timed return to the Third Man era, with a plotline unlikely to appeal to modern filmgoers; technical resources adequate rather than inspired.
w Morris West novel Morris West d Gerald Thomas ☆ Anthony Andrews, Helmut Griem, Max von Sydow, Mario Adorf, Birgit Doll

The Second Woman
US 1950 91m bw
United Artists/Cardinal (Mort Briskin)

GB title: Ellen

An architect, apparently paranoic, is proved to be the victim of a revenge plot.
Tolerable semi-star melodrama with a deliberate film noir look.
w Robert Smith d James V. Kern ph Hal Mohr md Nat Finston
☆ Robert Young, Betsy Drake, John Sutton, Florence Bates, Morris Carnovsky, Henry O'Neill

The Second-Floor Mystery
US 1930 56m bw
Warner

Correspondents through an agony column find themselves enmeshed in mystery and murder.
Burlesque whodunnit which seemed a smart trick at the time.
w Joseph Jackson novel The Agony Column by Earl Derr Biggers d Roy del Ruth ☆ Loretta Young, Grant Withers, H. B. Warner, Claire McDowell, John Loder

Secondhand Lions
US 2003 108m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Digital Domain/Avery/David Kirschner

An introverted city boy goes to stay with two elderly and eccentric uncles in rural Texas.
An exercise in nostalgic whimsy that amounts to very little.
wd Tim McCanlies ph Jack N. Green m Patrick Doyle pd David J. Bomba ed David Moritz
☆ Michael Caine (Garth), Robert Duvall (Hub), Haley Joel Osment (Walter), Kyra Sedgwick (Mae), Nicky Katt (Stan), Emmanuelle Vaugier (Princess Jasmine), Christian Kane (Young Hub), Kevin Michael Haberer (Young Garth)

'Secondhand rubbish is more like it. This icky, folksy little yarn is too infantile for grown-ups, and too humourless and condescending for kids.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian † 21 seconds were cut from the movie for its UK release.

Seconds
★★
US 1966 106m bw
Paramount/Joel/Gibraltar (Edward Lewis)

A secret organization sells a special service to the jaded rich; apparent death followed by physical rejuvenation.
An intriguing half-hour is followed by a glum new life for our hero, capped by a horrifying finale in which, dissatisfied, he learns he is to become one of the corpses necessary to the organization's continuance.
w Lewis John Carlino novel David Ely d John Frankenheimer ph James Wong Howe m Jerry Goldsmith titles Saul Bass
☆ Rock Hudson, John Randolph, Will Geer, Salome Jens, Jeff Corey, Richard Anderson, Murray Hamilton, Wesley Addy

'A really horrifying piece of science fiction that burns its way into your mind like a gnawing headache.' – Sunday Express
'An ending that is one of the most terrifying episodes I have ever seen on the screen.' – Daily Express
♗ James Wong Howe

Le Secret
★
France 2000 107m colour
Optimum/Bagheera/France3/Diaphana (François Marquis)

aka: The Secret

A married encyclopedia saleswoman decides to have an affair with a visiting American dancer.
Engaging account of an impulsive, intense relationship with nowhere to go, one that hints at past, and future, disappointments.
w Virginie Wagon, Erick Zonca d Virginie Wagon ph Jean-Marc Fabre m Mercury Rev, Chuck Berry pd Brigitte Brassart ed Yannick Kergoat
☆ Anne Coesens (Marie), Michel Bompoil (François), Tony Todd (Bill), Quentin Rossi (Paul), Jacqueline Jehanneuf (Marie's mother)

'A powerful, impossible-to-forget picture.' – Variety

'A nursery crime of epic proportions...'

The Secret Adventures of Tom Thumb
★★
GB 1993 60m colour
Bolex Brothers/BBC Bristol/La Sept/Manga/Lumen (Richard 'Hutch' Hutchison)

A freakish tiny child, taken from his parents to a laboratory full of mutants, escapes into a rubbish dump inhabited by small people much like himself.
A squalid, predatory and unlovely universe is brilliantly created using a mix of live action, pixilation and stop-motion animation. The images are of decay and dissolution and disturbing in their detail (a laboratory technician's rubber gloves covered in bristles, a crucified Father Christmas, a man catching and eating a moth). The overall effect is of a wayward originality.
wd Dave Borthwick ph Dave Borthwick, Frank Passingham m John Paul Jones, Startled Insects pd Dave Borthwick ed Dave Borthwick
☆ Nick Upton, Deborah Collard, Frank Passingham, John Schofield, Mike Gifford, Robert Heath, George Brandt

'Brilliantly achieved but not one for the delectation of the feelgood brigade.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Secret Agent
★★
GB 1936 83m bw
Gaumont British (Michael Balcon, Ivor Montagu)

A reluctantly recruited spy is ordered to kill a man.
Unsatisfactory in casting and writing, this Hitchcock suspenser nevertheless has many typically amusing moments.
w Charles Bennett play Campbell Dixon story Ashenden by Somerset Maugham d Alfred Hitchcock ph Bernard Knowles md Louis Levy
☆ John Gielgud, Robert Young, Peter Lorre, Madeleine Carroll, Percy Marmont, Lilli Palmer, Florence Kahn

'As uncommon as it is unsentimentally cruel.' – Peter John Dyer, 1964
'Many sequences which show Hitchcock at his very best: the fake funeral, the murder on the mountainside, the riverside café, and the climax in a chocolate factory.' – NFT, 1961
'How unfortunate it is that Mr Hitchcock, a clever director, is allowed to produce and even to write his own films, though as a producer he has no sense of continuity and as a writer he has no sense of life. His films consist of a series of small "amusing" melodramatic situations: the murderer's button dropped on the baccarat board; the strangled organist's hands prolonging the notes in the empty church; the fugitives hiding in the bell tower when the bell begins to swing. Very perfunctorily he builds up to these tricky situations ... and then drops them.' – Graham Greene
'Hitch said he was offering me Hamlet in modern dress. But when we came to make it, all the psychological interest was dissipated.' – John Gielgud

The Secret Agent
GB 1996 95m Technicolor
Fox/Capitol (Norma Heyman)

aka: Joseph Conrad's The Secret Agent

In Victorian London, a double agent is ordered by his Russian masters to commit a terrorist act: blowing up the Greenwich Observatory.
Wan, drably understated version of Conrad's novel of small-time revolutionaries.
wd Christopher Hampton novel Joseph Conrad ph Denis Lenoir m Philip Glass pd Caroline Amies ed George Akers
☆ Bob Hoskins, Patricia Arquette, Gérard Depardieu, George Spelvin, Jim Broadbent, Christian Bale, Eddie Izzard, Elizabeth Spriggs, Peter Vaughan, Julian Wadham, Robin Williams (uncredited)

'Appropriately gloomy and grim, but these are not qualities that will recommend it to most audiences.' – Variety † Conrad's novel was also filmed by Alfred Hitchcock as Sabotage (qv).

The Secret Agent Club
US 1996 90m Foto-Kem
Marquee/Starlight/Secret Agent/Hit (Brian Shuster, James Ian Lifton)

A gang of kids led by the son of a secret agent defeat the baddies who steal a deadly laser gun.
Dismal action film for a young audience, which tones down the violence somewhat, but remains as morally dubious as its adult counterparts.
w Rory Johnson d John Murlowski ph S. Douglas Smith m Jan Hammer pd James Scanlon ed Leslie Rosenthal

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Hulk Hogan, Richard Moll, Matthew McCurley, Edward Albert, Lyman Ward, James Hong, Barry Bostwick, Lesley-Anne Down

'A film with few pretentions to quality and scant interest in stimulating or engaging grown-ups.' – Sight and Sound

Secret Ballot ★★

Iran/Italy/Canada/Switzerland 2001 105m colour
Artificial Eye/Fabrica/Payam/SharmshirRAI/RTSI (Marco Muller, Babak Payami)

original title: Raye Makhfi

On the island of Kish a female election agent orders a soldier to accompany her to collect the scattered inhabitants' votes.

Gentle, absurdist comedy of isolation and male-female tensions, thyough its attitude to the democratic process is more ambivalent and sometimes mocking.

wd Babak Payami idea Mohsen Makhmalbaf ph Farzad Jodat m Michael Galasso pd Mandana Masoudi ed Babak Karimi

☆ Nassim Abdi (Girl), Cyrus Abidi (Soldier)

'A precious bit of ethnographic essence for moviegoers who can appreciate political irony for its own sake.' – Andrew Sarris, New York Observer

'Behind a locked door – the relentless evil of his past!'

Secret Beyond the Door

US 1948 98m bw
Universal/Walter Wanger (Fritz Lang)

An heiress marries a moody millionaire with a death fixation, and comes to think of herself as his next potential victim.

Silly melodrama with much chat and little suspense.

w Silvia Richards story Rufus King d Fritz Lang ph Stanley Cortez m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Joan Bennett, Michael Redgrave, Anne Revere, Barbara O'Neil, Natalie Schafer, Paul Cavanagh

'A dog-wagon Rebecca with a seasoning of psychiatrics.' – Otis L. Guernsey Jnr

'Lang gets a few wood-silky highlights out of this sow's ear, but it is a hopeless job and a worthless movie.' – James Agee

The Secret Bride

US 1935 63m bw
Warner

GB title: Concealment

A District Attorney is secretly married to the daughter of the politician he is trying to convict.

Dismal melodrama, tritely scripted.

w Tom Buckingham, F. Hugh Herbert, Mary McCall Jnr play Concealment by Leonard Ide d William Dieterle ph Ernest Haller

☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Warren William, Glenda Farrell, Grant Mitchell, Arthur Byron, Henry O'Neill, Douglass Dumbrille

'Fast moving melodrama, well above average.' – Variety

Secret Ceremony

GB 1969 109m Eastmancolor
Universal/World Films/Paul M. Heller (John Heyman, Norman Priggen)

A prostitute mothers a young girl with a strange past.

Nuthouse melodrama for devotees of the director.

w George Tabori short story Marco Denevi d Joseph Losey ph Gerry Fisher m Richard Rodney Bennett

☆ Elizabeth Taylor, Robert Mitchum, Mia Farrow, Pamela Brown, Peggy Ashcroft

'This piece of garbage is so totally ridiculous that I can't imagine why anyone would want to be in it, let alone see it.' – Rex Reed

Secret Command

US 1944 92m bw
Columbia (Phil L. Ryan)

An ex-foreign correspondent goes undercover at a shipyard to track down saboteurs.

Routine wartime thick ear.

w Roy Chanslor story The Saboteurs by John and Ward Hawkins d A. Edward Sutherland ph Franz Planer m Paul Sawtell

☆ Pat O'Brien, Carole Landis, Chester Morris, Ruth Warrick, Barton MacLane, Tom Tully, Wallace Ford, Howard Freeman

Secret Défense

France/Switzerland/Italy 1997 173m colour
Artificial Eye/La Sept/T&C (Martine Marignac, Christian Lambert)

A scientist's investigation into the death of her father leads to more deaths, accidental and deliberate.

An overlong, over-complicated thriller of tangled relationships.

w Pascal Bonitzer, Emmanuelle Cuau, Jacques Rivette d Jacques Rivette ph William Lubtchansky m Hesperion XX ad Manu de Chavigny ed Nicole Lubtchansky

☆ Sandrine Bonnaire, Jerzy Radziwilowicz, Laure Marsac, Grégoire Colin, Bernadette Giraud, Micheline Herzog, Sara Louis, Mark Saporta

'Patience is needed to watch the film and some may argue is not rewarded by the conclusion. My reply: watch more the unfurling than the answer.' – James Mottram, Film Review

Secret Flight: see School for Secrets

The Secret Four: see The Four Just Men (1939)

The Secret Four: see Kansas City Confidential (1952)

Secret Friends

GB 1991 97m Metrocolor
Feature/Whistling Gypsy/Film Four (Rosemarie Whitman)

On a train journey an artist hovers between dreams and reality as he imagines that his wife is a killer and that he has murdered his mistress.

Confusing account of a mid-life crisis in which it is difficult to separate fantasy from real life and hardly worth the effort of working out which is which.

wd Dennis Potter novel Ticket to Ride by Dennis Potter ph Sue Gibson m Nicholas Russell-Pavier pd Gary Williamson ed Clare Douglas

☆ Alan Bates, Gina Bellman, Frances Barber, Tony Doyle, Joanna David, Colin Jeavons, Rowena Cooper

'A tough ride for a very small return: the cramped and narcissistic anguish of a middle-aged male as seen in Potter passim.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'It is time that Potter pulled the communication cord on this particular train of thought.' – Jonathan Romney, Sight and Sound

The Secret Fury

US 1950 86m bw
RKO (Jack H. Skirball, Bruce Manning)

A successful pianist is deliberately driven insane by her fiancé.

Derivative melodrama of no great interest.

w Lionel House d Mel Ferrer ph Leo Tover m Roy Webb md Constantin Bakaleinikoff

☆ Claudette Colbert, Robert Ryan, Jane Cowl, Paul Kelly, Philip Ober, Elizabeth Risdon, Doris Dudley

The Secret Game: see Les Jeux Interdits

The Secret Garden ★

US 1949 92m bw (Technicolor sequence)
MGM (Clarence Brown)

An orphan girl goes to stay with her moody uncle and brightens up the lives of those around her.

Subdued, richly produced, rather likeable Victorian fable with the same moral as The Bluebird and The Wizard of Oz: happiness is in your own back yard.

w Robert Ardrey novel Frances Hodgson Burnett d Fred M. Wilcox ph Ray June m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Margaret O'Brien, Herbert Marshall, Gladys Cooper, Elsa Lanchester, Dean Stockwell, Brian Roper

'Uneven, but oddly and unexpectedly interesting.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'Let's have more pictures in this kindly vein.' – Picturegoer

'The timeless tale of a special place where magic, hope and love grow.'

The Secret Garden ★★

US 1993 101m Technicolor
Warner/American Zoetrope (Fred Fuchs, Fred Roos, Tom Luddy)

A young, lonely, orphaned girl, sent to live with her aristocratic uncle, helps her invalid cousin back to life.

A charming version of the classic children's story, deftly made, though its appeal may be too tame for today's audiences.

w Caroline Thompson novel Frances Hodgson Burnett d Agnieszka Holland ph Roger Deakins m Zbigniew Preisner pd Stuart Craig ed Isabelle Lorente

☆ Maggie Smith, Kate Maberly, Heydon Prowse, Andrew Knott, Laura Crossley, John Lynch, Walter Sparrow, Irene Jacob

'Executed to near perfection in all artistic departments, this superior adaptation of the perennial favorite novel will find its core public among girls but should prove satisfying enough to a range of audiences.' – Variety

The Secret Heart

US 1946 97m bw
MGM (Edwin H. Knopf)

A widow has problems with her emotionally disturbed daughter.

Old-fashioned woman's picture.

w Whitfield Cook, Anne M. Chapin story Rose Franken, William Brown Meloney d Robert Z. Leonard ph George Folsey m Bronislau Kaper

☆ Claudette Colbert, Walter Pidgeon, June Allyson, Robert Sterling, Marshall Thompson, Elizabeth Patterson, Richard Derr, Patricia Medina

'"There are three things you can't hide," says Walter Pidgeon in one of his bantering moments; "love, smoke, and a man riding a camel." I would add a fourth – that old MGM touch.' – Richard Winnington

Secret Interlude: see Private Number (1936)

Secret Interlude: see The View From Pompey's Head (1955)

'The daring plan – the staggering odds – the incredible five!'

The Secret Invasion

US 1964 98m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/San Carlos (Gene Corman)

During World War II five convicted criminals become commandos.

Cut price Dirty Dozen, quite well made and exciting.

w R. Wright Campbell d Roger Corman ph Arthur E. Arling m Hugo Friedhofer

☆ Stewart Granger, Raf Vallone, Henry Silva, Mickey Rooney, Edd Byrnes, William Campbell, Peter Coe

The Secret Laughter of Women ★

GB 1998 99m Rank Film colour
Optimum/Paragon/HandMade/ECF/BSkyB/Arts Council/Elba (O.O. Sagay, Jon Slan)

In France, a successful, married science-fiction writer begins a tenative romance with an exiled Nigerian single mother, who is also courted by her priest who insists that Satan is white.

A romantic comedy that provides some pleasure in its depiction of a culture clash between Africans and English; otherwise it relies on its protagonists behaving in unbelievable ways.

w O.O. Sagay d Peter Schwabach ph Martin Fuhrer m Yves Laferriere pd Christopher J. Bradshaw ed Michael Pacek cos Louise Stjernsward

☆ Colin Firth (Matthew Field), Nia Long (Nimi Da Silva), Dan Lett (John), Joke Silva (Nene), Ariyon Bakare (Reverend Fola), Joy Elias-Rilwan (Mama Fola), Hakeem Kae-Kazim (Doctor Ade), Bella Enahoro (Madame Rosa), Oluwafisayo Roberts (Sammy), Rakie Ayola (Talking Drum), Caroline Goodall (Jenny Field), Ellen Thomas (Bitter Leaf), Thomas Baptiste (Papa Fola)

'Rambling and slight it may be. But it's also surprisingly endearing.' – James Christopher, Times

The Secret Life of an American Wife ★★

US 1968 92m DeLuxe
TCF/Charlton (George Axelrod)

A bored suburban housewife sets out to seduce a movie star.

Sympathetic comedy of sixties suburban manners.

wd George Axelrod ph Leon Shamroy m Billy May

☆ Walter Matthau, Anne Jackson, Patrick O'Neal, Edy Williams

'Both a first-class satire on American mores and a compassionate study of wish-fulfilment.' – NFT, 1970

The Secret Life of Sergei Eisenstein ★★

Italy/GB 1987 58m bw/colour
Polivideo/SSR-RTSI/BFI

Documentary on the life and work of the great Russian director.

Told in the first person, and drawing on Eisenstein's own words, this is a revealing portrait of a revolutionary artist in a hurry, one that gains from using excerpts from the films to illustrate the events of his life.

w Gian Carlo Bertelli, Pier Marco De Santi writings of Sergei M.Eisenstein d Gian Carlo Bertelli m Graziano Mandozzi ed Pedro Del Rey
☆ Paul Vaughan (Narrator)

The Secret Life of Walter Mitty ★★

US 1947 110m Technicolor
Samuel Goldwyn

A mother's boy dreams of derring-do, and eventually life catches up with fiction.
This pleasantly remembered star comedy, though it never had much to do with Thurber, can now be seen to have missed most of its opportunities, though the nice moments do tend to compensate.
w Ken Englund, Everett Freeman story James Thurber d Norman Z. McLeod ph Lee Garmes m David Raksin
☆ Danny Kaye, Virginia Mayo, Boris Karloff, Florence Bates, Fay Bainter, Thurston Hall, Ann Rutherford, Gordon Jones, Reginald Denny

Secret Meeting: see Marie Octobre

Secret Mission

GB 1942 94m bw
GFD/Marcel Hellman/Excelsior

During World War II four British Intelligence officers are landed in occupied France to discover the truth about German defences.
Stilted war suspenser.
w Anatole de Grunwald, Basil Bartlett, Terence Young d Harold French ph Bernard Knowles m Mischa Spoliansky
☆ Hugh Williams, Carla Lehmann, James Mason, Roland Culver, Nancy Price, Michael Wilding, Percy Walsh

Secret Motive: see The London Blackout Murders

The Secret of Blood Island

GB 1964 84m Technicolor
U-I/Hammer (Anthony Nelson Keys)

A girl parachutist secret agent is smuggled into a Japanese POW camp and out again.
Absurd blood and thunder, almost perversely enjoyable – but not quite.
w John Gilling d Quentin Lawrence ph Jack Asher m James Bernard ☆ Barbara Shelley, Jack Hedley, Charles Tingwell, Bill Owen, Lee Montague

The Secret of Convict Lake ★

US 1951 83m bw
TCF (Frank P. Rosenberg)

In the 1870s, escaped convicts take over a California town.
Brooding, snowy, set-bound Western melodrama; predictable but watchable.
w Oscar Saul d Michael Gordon ph Leo Tover m Sol Kaplan md Lionel Newman ☆ Glenn Ford, Gene Tierney, Ann Dvorak, Ethel Barrymore, Zachary Scott, Barbara Bates, Cyril Cusack, Jeanette Nolan, Ruth Donnelly

The Secret of Madame Blanche

US 1933 85m bw
MGM

The woman who takes the blame for murder committed by a young man is the mother he never knew.
Or, Madame X unofficially revisited: all-stops-out melodrama very typical of its time.
w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett play The Lady by Martin Brown d Charles Brabin ☆ Irene Dunne, Phillips Holmes, Lionel Atwill, Douglas Walton, Jean Parker, Una Merkel

The Secret of My Success

GB 1965 105m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Andrew and Virginia Stone

A village policeman follows his mother's dictum that he should not think ill of others, and accidentally goes from success to success.
Flabby portmanteau comedy full of in-jokes and flat-footed farce; satire is not evident.
wd Andrew L. Stone ph David Boulton m Lucien Cailliet and others md Roland Shaw
☆ James Booth, Lionel Jeffries, Amy Dalby, Stella Stevens, Honor Blackman, Shirley Jones, Joan Hickson

The Secret of My Success ★

US 1987 110m DeLuxe
Universal/Rastar (Herbert Ross)

A country cousin in New York is determined to hit the big time.
An amiable melange of familiar situations with just a touch of Midnight Cowboy and a sharp edge to some of the writing; but not enough to keep its star at the top.
w Jim Cash, Jack Epps, A. J. Carothers d Herbert Ross ph Carlo Di Palma m David Foster
☆ Michael J. Fox, Helen Slater, Richard Jordan, Margaret Whitton, John Pankow, Christopher Murney

> 'A bedroom farce with a leaden touch, a corporate comedy without teeth.' – Daily Variety

The Secret of Nimh ★

US 1982 82m Technicolor
Aurora/Don Bluth

Forced out of her cosy field, a widowed mouse seeks the help of Nicodemus, king of the rat pack.
Animated cartoon by Disney artists who rejected that company's declining standards and set up their own factory. Alas, though they have the skills, the narrative they have chosen needed refining.
w Don Bluth, John Pomeroy, Gary Foldman, Will Finn novel Mrs Frisby and the Rats of Nimh by Robert C. O'Brien d Don Bluth m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Featuring the voices of: Elizabeth Hartman, Derek Jacobi, Dom DeLuise, John Carradine, Peter Strauss, Aldo Ray, Edie McClurg, Wil Wheaton

> 'Vintage techniques are proudly invoked, but the story desperately needs loving care.' – Sight and Sound

'Between Land And Sea There Is A Place Where Myths Are Real...'

The Secret of Roan Inish

US 1993 102m DuArt
Metro Tartan/Skerry/Jones Entertainment (John Sloss, Glenn R. Jones, Peter Newman)

In Ireland, a young girl persuades her family to move to a seal-haunted island off the Donegal coast, where their ancestors once lived.
A Celtic myth, of loss and salvation, told with some sensitivity; but it is likely to leave modern audiences unmoved.
wd John Sayles novel Secret of the Ron Mor Skerry by Rosalie K. Fry ph Haskell Wexler m Mason Daring pd Adrian Smith ed John Sayles
☆ Mick Lally, Eileen Colgan, John Lynch, Jeni Courtney, Richard Sheridan, Cillian Byrne

> 'Hard to get through even as myth and even harder to contemplate as a contribution to any relevant form of Irish culture.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Secret of St Ives

US 1949 76m bw
Columbia

During the Napoleonic War, a French prisoner-of-war escapes from Edinburgh Castle, only to be accused of murder.
Modest swashbuckler with a somewhat lacklustre atmosphere.
w Eric Taylor story Robert Louis Stevenson d Phil Rosen ph Henry Freulich m Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ Richard Ney, Vanessa Brown, Henry Daniell, Aubrey Mather

The Secret of Santa Vittoria ★

US 1969 140m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Stanley Kramer

In 1945 an Italian village hides its wine from the occupying Germans.
Expected, exhausting epic comedy with everyone talking at once.
w William Rose, Ben Maddow novel Robert Crichton d Stanley Kramer ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Ernest Gold
☆ Anthony Quinn, Anna Magnani, Virna Lisi, Hardy Kruger, Sergio Franchi, Renato Rascel

> 'A brainless farrago of flying rolling pins and rotten vegetables, filled with the kind of screaming, belching, eye-rolling fictional Italians only Stanley Kramer could invent.' – Rex Reed

♗ Ernest Gold

The Secret of Stamboul

GB 1936 93m bw
Wainwright
reissue title: The Spy in White

An English adventurer foils a Turkish revolution.
Pale rendering of a full-blooded best-seller.
w Richard Wainwright, Howard Irving Young, Noel Langley novel The Eunuch of Stamboul by Dennis Wheatley d Andrew Marton
☆ Valerie Hobson, Frank Vosper, James Mason, Kay Walsh, Peter Haddon

The Secret of the Blue Room

US 1933 66m bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

An heiress's three suitors all volunteer to spend the night in the haunted room of her mansion.
Murderous malarkey without the courage of its convictions.
w William Hurlbut d Kurt Neumann ph Charles Stumar m Heinz Letton ad Stanley Fleischer ed Philip Cahn
☆ Lionel Atwill, Gloria Stuart, Paul Lukas, Edward Arnold, Onslow Stevens, Robert Barrat, Elizabeth Patterson

> 'Americanization of a German mystery yarn which ought to do well in the smaller spots.' – Variety

† Remade in 1938 as The Missing Guest and in 1944 as Murder in the Blue Room.
†† It was filmed on the sets built for The Old Dark House.

The Secret of the Incas

US 1954 101m Technicolor
Paramount (Mel Epstein)

Various adventurers seek a priceless Inca jewel.
Boys' Own Paper yarn which sounds a good deal more exciting than it is: too much talk and a few choice studio backcloths drop the tension alarmingly, and the script lacks humour and conciseness.
w Ranald MacDougall, Sydney Boehm story Legend of the Incas by Sydney Boehm d Jerry Hopper ph Lionel Lindon m David Buttolph ad Hal Pereira, Tambi Larsen ed Eda Warren
☆ Charlton Heston, Robert Young, Thomas Mitchell, Nicole Maurey, Yma Sumac, Glenda Farrell, Michael Pate

The Secret of the Loch

GB 1934 80m bw
ABFD/Bray Wyndham

A diver thinks he finds a prehistoric monster in Loch Ness.
Mildly amusing exploitation item following the 1934 rebirth of interest in the old legend.
w Charles Bennett, Billie Bristow d Milton Rosmer ph Jimmy Wilson m Peter Mendoza
☆ Seymour Hicks, Nancy O'Neil, Gibson Gowland, Frederick Peisley, Rosamund John, Ben Field

'Run for your life! You must find the secret before it finds you!'

The Secret Partner ★

GB 1961 91m bw
MGM (Michael Relph)

A blackmailing dentist is visited by a mysterious hooded stranger who forces him to rob one of his businessman victims.
Complex puzzle thriller, neatly made in sub-Hitchcock style.
w David Pursall, Jack Seddon d Basil Dearden ph Harry Waxman m Philip Green ☆ Stewart Granger, Haya Harareet, Bernard Lee, Hugh Burden, Melissa Stribling, Norman Bird, Conrad Phillips

The Secret People ★

GB 1951 96m bw
Ealing (Sidney Cole)

European refugees in London during the thirties become members of a ring of anarchists.
Downbeat political melodrama which pleased neither the masses nor the highbrows, despite plaudits for sensitive direction and performances.
w Thorold Dickinson, Wolfgang Wilhelm d Thorold Dickinson ph Gordon Dines m Roberto Gerhard ☆ Valentina Cortese, Serge Reggiani, Audrey Hepburn, Charles Goldner, Megs Jenkins, Irene Worth, Athene Seyler, Reginald Tate

> 'The tension and power of the film make it one of the most remarkable British productions for some time.' – Penelope Houston

> 'That Secret People, despite the creative agonies recorded by Mr Lindsay Anderson [in a book on the making of the film] should turn out to be a confused, uncoordinated spy thriller concealing a tentative message deep down below some strained effects of style is another tragedy of British film hopes.' – Richard Winnington

Secret Places

GB 1984 98m Eastmancolor
Rank/Skreba/Virgin (Simon Relph, Ann Skinner)

At the beginning of the Second World War an English schoolgirl forms a close relationship with another boarder, a refugee from Germany.

Psychological drama that is too sensitive for its own good, so that it seems more attenuated than intense.
wd Zelda Barron novel Janice Elliott ph Peter MacDonald m Michel Legrand ed Laurence Mery-Clark
☆ Marie-Therese Relin, Tara MacGowran, Claudine Auger, Jenny Agutter, Cassie Stuart, Anne-Marie Gwatkin, Klaus Barner, Sylvia Coleridge

The Secret Rapture ★

GB 1993 96m colour
Oasis/Greenpoint/Channel 4 (Simon Relph)

Following the death of their father, two sisters become deadly rivals.
An only partially successful adaptation of a stage play, one that softens the political aspects of the original to concentrate on the personal, a melodramatic study of self-destruction.
w David Hare play David Hare d Howard Davies ph Ian Wilson m Richard Hartley pd Barbara Gosnold ed George Akers
☆ Juliet Stevenson, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Penelope Wilton, Alan Howard, Neil Pearson, Robert Stephens, Hilton McRae, Robert Glenister

'A relentless, humourless movie – and one that ultimately fails to move.' – Robin Brooks, Empire

Secret Service

US 1931 67m bw
RKO

During the Civil War a Yankee officer goes behind enemy lines and falls in love with a Southern girl.
Sluggish romantic adventure.
w Bernard Schubert play William Gillette d J. Walter Ruben ☆ Richard Dix, Shirley Grey, William Post Jnr, Gavin Gordon

'Dix does a good character. It's all the picture has.' – Variety

Secret Service of the Air

US 1939 61m bw
Warner

A government agent tracks down smugglers.
Serial-like thrills and comedy, adequately presented.
w Raymond Schrock d Noel Smith
☆ Ronald Reagan, Eddie Foy Jnr, John Litel, Ila Rhodes, James Stephenson

'No marquee names, but a better than average story of its kind.' – Variety

A Secret Sin: see The Locusts

The Secret Six ★

US 1931 83m bw
MGM

A syndicate of businessmen finance two reporters to get evidence against a gang of bootleggers.
Solidly carpentered gangster thriller.
w Frances Marion d George Hill ph Harold Wenstrom
☆ Wallace Beery, Lewis Stone, Clark Gable, John Mack Brown, Jean Harlow, Marjorie Rambeau, Paul Hurst, Ralph Bellamy, John Miljan

'A gangster talker too rough, crude and familiar. In big cities it may pull the roughneck trade ... but the vocalized expression for it will be adverse.' – Variety

'It's not who you con – it's how you do it!'

The Secret War of Harry Frigg

US 1967 109m Techniscope
Universal/Albion (Hal E. Chester)

In 1943 a private engineers the escape of five captured generals.
Unattractive war comedy; slow, uninventive and overlong.
w Peter Stone, Frank Tarloff d Jack Smight ph Russell Metty m Carlo Rustichelli
☆ Paul Newman, John Williams, Sylva Koscina, Andrew Duggan, Tom Bosley, Charles D. Gray, Vito Scotti, James Gregory

The Secret Ways ★

US 1961 112m bw
U-I/Heath (Richard Widmark)

An American reporter is recruited to rescue a scholar from communist Hungary.
Pretentious Iron Curtain melodrama, quite good to look at but overlong and no Third Man.
w Jean Hazelwood novel Alistair MacLean d Phil Karlson ph Max Greene m Johnny Williams
☆ Richard Widmark, Sonja Ziemann, Charles Regnier, Walter Rilla, Howard Vernon, Senta Berger

Secret Wedding ★★

Argentina/Netherlands 1989 95m colour
Allarts/Cogurccio/Cinéphile (Lujan Pflaum) original title: Boda Secreta

Returning home after 13 years unjustly imprisoned in Buenos Aires, a man discovers that no one is prepared to recognize him, not even the woman he loves.
A gripping tale of political persecution, underscored by an unhappy romance.
wd Alejandro Agresti ph Ricardo Rodriguez m Paul Michael Van Brugge pd Juan Collini ed Rene Wiegmans ☆ Tito Haas, Mirtha Busnelli, Sergio Poves Campos, Nathan Pinzon, Flora Bloise, Elio Marchi

'Some windows should never be opened.'

Secret Window

US 2004 96m DeLuxe Super 35
Columbia TriStar/Pariah (Gavin Polone)

A novelist, living alone after his marriage breaks up, is accused of plagiarism by a violent stranger.
Depp valiantly attempts to keep alive this hand-me-down thriller, but his portrait of an author as a seedy slob isn't enough.
wd David Koepp novella Secret Window, Secret Garden by Stephen King ph Fred Murphy m Philip Glass pd Howard Cummings ed Jill Savitt
☆ Johnny Depp (Mort Rainey), John Turturro (Shooter), Maria Bello (Amy Rainey), Timothy Hutton (Ted Miner), Charles S. Dutton (Ken Karsch), Len Cariou (Sheriff Dave Newsome)

'A suspense thriller whose only suspense comes from an audience wondering if the picture will hit its promised 97-minute running time.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times

'A comedy for everybody who's been tied up at work.'

Secretary ★★

US 2002 111m colour
Metro Tartan/SloughPond/Double A/Twopoundbag (Steven Shainberg, Andrew Fierberg, Amy Hobby)

A troubled secretary begins a sado-masochistic sexual relationship with her new boss.
A quirky romantic story that isn't as painful as it sounds; there is a wry wit about its odd couple and their pleasures.
w Erin Cressida Wilson story Mary Gaitskill d Steven Shainberg ph Steven Fierberg m Angelo Badalamenti pd Amy Danger ed Pam Wise, Jay Rabinowitz
☆ James Spader (E. Edward Grey), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Lee Holloway), Jeremy Davies (Peter), Patrick Bauchau (Dr Twardon), Stephen McHattie (Burt Holloway), Oz Perkins (Jonathan), Jessica Tuck (Tricia O'Connor), Amy Locane (Lee's Sister), Lesley Ann Warren (Joan Holloway)

'In its own sick way, this has fervour and warped, erotic rapture. And it's very funny.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

† The leading role was turned down by, among others, Claire Danes, Kate Hudson, Juliette Lewis, Sarah Polley, Christina Ricci and Reese Witherspoon.
††† The DVD includes commentary by the director and screenwriter.

Secrets ★

US 1933 85m bw
UA (Mary Pickford)

A pioneering couple sticks together despite the husband's infidelities.
Curiously mixed-up star vehicle, part romantic comedy, part Western, part sob-stuff. Interesting rather than entertaining.
w Frances Marion play Rudolf Besier, May Edgington d Frank Borzage ☆ Mary Pickford, Leslie Howard, C. Aubrey Smith, Blanche Friderici, Doris Lloyd, Ned Sparks

'Singularly uneven ... but at least the story is given fine production and interesting playing.' – Variety.
'You can be sure you won't make any mistake by taking the family to see it.' – Photoplay

† Norma Talmadge starred in a 1923 silent version.

Secrets

Australia/New Zealand 1992 91m colour/bw
Victorian International/Avalon/NFU (Michael Pattinson)

In 1964, at the beginning of the Beatles' tour of Australia, five teenagers become trapped in the basement of the group's hotel.
A 'teen movie stretched beyond its limits; the director does not seem to know what to do with his ill-assorted group, once they are stuck in a cramped setting, other than let them talk too much.
w Jan Sardi d Michael Pattinson ph David Connell m Dave Dobbyn pd Kevin Leonard-Jones ed Peter Carrodus
☆ Beth Champion, Malcolm Kennard, Dannii Minogue, Willa O'Neill, Noah Taylor

'Pleasurable low-key entertainment.' – Variety

'Roxanne drives her mother crazy. Maurice never speaks to his niece. Cynthia has a shock for her family. Monica can't talk to her husband. Hortense has never met her mother.'

Secrets and Lies ★★★

GB 1995 141m Metrocolor
Film Four/CiBy 2000/Thin Man/Channel 4 (Simon Channing-Williams)

A successful black woman goes in search of her real mother, and discovers that she is white, unmarried and working-class.
Deft and sometimes moving portrait of a family finding redemption through the sharing of its secrets, though some of the performances teeter on the edge of caricature; it was much admired, particularly away from Britain, where audiences gave it less attention than it deserved.
wd Mike Leigh ph Dick Pope m Andrew Dickson pd Alison Chitty ed Jon Gregory
☆ Timothy Spall (Maurice), Phyllis Logan (Monica), Brenda Blethyn (Cynthia), Claire Rushbrook (Roxanne), Marianne Jean-Baptiste (Hortense), Elizabeth Berrington (Jane), Michele Austin (Dionne), Lee Ross (Paul)

'A beautifully constructed sentimental melodrama, with none of the rough edges that Mike Leigh has insisted on in the past. The only mystery is that Leigh should have come up with so classic a humanist product after proclaiming for so long that things could never be so simple.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent
'The movie, for all its appeal, is naggingly sanctimonious. It's Guess Who's Coming to Dinner for the culturally correct '90s.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

† It won the Palme d'Or, and Brenda Blethyn received the best actress award, at the Cannes Film Festival in 1996.
best picture; Mike Leigh (as writer and director); Brenda Blethyn; Marianne Jean-Baptiste best British film; Mike Leigh (as writer); Brenda Blethyn

Secrets of a Soul ★★

Germany 1926 95m (24 fps) bw silent
UFA/Hans Neumann

A chemist develops a knife phobia, has hallucinations, and tries to cut his wife's throat.
A lesson in elementary psychology which was innovatory at the time and survives as cinema for its stylish and impressionist use of visual techniques.
w Colin Ross, Hans Neumann, G. W. Pabst d G. W. Pabst ph Guido Seeber, Curt Oertel, Robert Lach
☆ Werner Krauss, Jack Trevor, Ruth Weyher, Pawel Pawlow

Secrets of an Actress

US 1938 70m bw
Warner

A star actress falls for one of her backers, a married architect.
High-life suffering of a familiar kind: it satisfied the Peg's Paper audience.
w Milton Krims, Rowland Leigh, Julius J. Epstein d William Keighley ☆ Kay Francis, George Brent, Ian Hunter, Gloria Dickson, Isabel Jeans, Peggy Singleton

'Miss Francis may be able to live up to all requirements except an acrobatic dance on the toes, but it's no use hitching race horses to milk wagons.' – Variety

Secrets of G32: see Fly By Night

Secrets of Scotland Yard

US 1944 68m bw
Republic (George Blair)

A British secret service man is impersonated by his Nazi twin brother.
Likeable absurdities with a strong cast.
w Denison Clift novel Room 40, O.B. by Denison Clift d George Blair
☆ C. Aubrey Smith, Edgar Barrier, Stephanie Bachelor, Lionel Atwill, Henry Stephenson, John Abbott, Walter Kingsford, Martin Kosleck

Secrets of the French Police

US 1932 55m bw
RKO

The Sûreté tracks down a hypnotist and murderer.
Rather wildly-imagined suspenser with points of interest.
w Samuel Ornitz, Robert Tasker d A. Edward Sutherland

☆ Gwili André, Frank Morgan, Gregory Ratoff, Murray Kinnell, John Warburton

'Hodge-podge of melodramatics ... hardly enough for the de luxers.' – Variety

Secrets of the Heart ★★

Spain/France/Portugal 1997 108m colour
Metrodome/Aiete/Ariane/DMVB/Fabrica de Imagens (Imanol Uribe, Andres Santana)

In Spain in the early 1960s, two boys dare each other to explore a deserted house, and also seek answers to the family secrets that seem to haunt the adults.

A sensitive child's-eye-view of adult desires and passions, made with skill and understanding.

wd Montxo Armendariz ph Javier Aguirresarobe m Bingen Mendizabal pd Felix Murcia ed Rori Sainz de Rozas cos Josune Lasa

☆ Andoni Erburu (Javi), Carmelo Gomez (Uncle), Charo Lopez (Aunt Maria), Silvia Munt (Mother), Vicky Pena (Aunt Rosa), Alvaro Nagore (Juan), Inigo Garces (Carlos)

'Ultimately suffers from its all too familiar subject, while the palpable sense of discovery becomes little more than a palpable sense of boredom.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

♗ foreign film

Secrets of the Phantom Caverns

GB 1984 90m colour
Adams Apple (Sandy Howard, Robert D. Bailey)
aka: What Waits Below

Anthropologists and soldiers exploring a cave system in Latin America discover a lost albino tribe living underground.

Totally inept fantasy from beginning to end.

w Christy Marx, Robert Vincent O'Neil story Ken Barnett d Don Sharp ph Virgil Harper m Michael Rubini, Denny Jaeger ad Stephen Marsh ed John R. Bowey

☆ Robert Powell, Lisa Blount, Richard Johnson, Anne Heywood, A. C. Weary, Timothy Bottoms

Secrets of the Underground

US 1943 70m bw
Republic

The proprietor of a fashionable gown shop is a Nazi agent.

Nifty second feature on predictable wartime lines.

w Robert Tasker, Geoffrey Homes d William Morgan

☆ John Hubbard, Virginia Grey, Lloyd Corrigan, Miles Mander, Ben Welden

Secrets of Women: see Waiting Women

'Satan has chosen his victims. The battle with evil has begun.'

The Sect ★

Italy 1991 115m Technicolor
Penta/ADC (Mario and Vittorio Cecchi Gori, Dario Argento)

original title: La Setta

A schoolteacher becomes accidentally involved with a group of devil worshippers who practise ritual human sacrifice.

Elegant, eerie and suspenseful horror with some gruesome moments.

w Dario Argento, Giovanni Romoli, Michele Soavi d Michele Soavi ph Raffaele Mertes m Pino Donaggio pd M. Antonello Geleng ed Franco Fraticelli

☆ Kelly Curtis, Herbert Lom, Tomas Arana, Maria Angela Giordano, Michel Adatte, Carla Cassola, Angelika Maria Boeck, Giovanni Lombardo Radice, Niels Gullov

'Soavi's dreamlike direction and enticing eye for design lend an air of gravitas to an otherwise workaday storyline, while a few choice moments of grisly gore ensure that diehard horror fans will not be disappointed.' – Sight and Sound

Secuestro Express ★ ④

Venezuela. 2005 88m
Buena Vista International/Tres Malandros (Sandra Condito, Eduardo Jakubowicz, Jonathan Jakubowicz)

An upper-class couple abducted by a trio of brutal kidnappers are taken on a hellish journey through the mean streets of Caracas.

An unappealing, clumsy wallow in pointless degradation and gleeful sadism posing as social commentary.

wd Jonathan Jakubowicz ph David Chalker m Angelo Milli ad Andres Zawisza ed Ethan Maniquis

☆ Mia Maestro (Carla), Ruben Blades (Carla's father), Carlos Julio Molina (Trece), Pedro Perez (Budu), Carlos Madera (Niga Sibilino)

'The constant threat of rape and violence is difficult to endure.' – Laura Kern, The New York Times

† The highest-grossing film in Venezuelan history, surpassing Titanic.

Sedmikrasky: see Daisies

Seducing Dr Lewis ⑦

Canada 2003 109m
Dogwoof/Alliance Atlantis/Max Films (Roger Frappier, Luc Vandal)

Canadian title: La Grande Seduction

Inhabitants of a remote Quebec island try to lure a jaded big-city medic to be their doctor, deceiving him about the community to clinch his employment.

Amusing in part, but a little quirky for its own good, and utterly predictable. Pale descendant of Ealing comedies, with wily bumpkins galore to outwit an urban sophisticate.

w Ken Scott d Jean-Francois Pouliot ph Allen Smith m Jean-Marie Benoit pd Normand Sarrazin ed Dominique Fortin

☆ Raymond Bouchard (Mayor Lesage), David Boutin (Dr. Christopher Lewis), Benoit Briere (Henri Giroux), Lucie Laurier (Eve Beauchemin)

'No more than a TV sitcom stretched to feature length. All that's missing is the laugh track.' – V.A. Musetto, New York Post

'There are many ways to be seduced. Fame power ... love!'

The Seduction of Joe Tynan ★

US 1979 107m Technicolor
Universal (Martin Bregman)

A young senator alienates his wife when he sacrifices his principles for advancement.

Fairly arresting political character drama with strong narrative and acting.

w Alan Alda d Jerry Schatzberg ph Adam Holender m Bill Conti

☆ Alan Alda, Barbara Harris, Meryl Streep, Melvyn Douglas, Rip Torn, Carrie Nye, Charles Kimbrough

The Seduction of Julia: see Adorable Julia

Seduction: The Cruel Woman

West Germany 1985 84m colour
Out on a Limb/Hyäne (Elfi Mikesch, Monika Treut)

original title: Verführung: die Grausame Frau

A dominatrix displays varieties of sado-masochistic sex in public and private.

Elegant, subversive film of limited appeal which ignores more normal sexuality for exotic and fetishistic variations, but the subject is treated with an obsessiveness that can seem risible to those who do not share its concerns.

wd Elfi Mikesch, Monika Treut novel Venus in Furs by Leopold von Sacher-Masoch ph Elfi Mikesch m Maran Gosov ad Manfred Blosser, Klaus Weinrich ed Renata Merck

☆ Mechthild Grossmann, Udo Kier, Sheila McLaughlin, Carola Regnier, Peter Weibel, Georgette Dee

'A dark and disturbing movie.' – Sight and Sound

See America Thirst

US 1930 71m bw
Universal

Two hoboes become involved with rum runners.

Poorly constructed talkie début for a silent comedian who never made it.

w Edward Luddy, Vin Moore, C. J. Horwin d W. J. Craft

☆ Harry Langdon, Slim Summerville, Bessie Love, Mitchell Lewis, Stanley Fields

'Direction shows silent technique throughout, and is unmindful of the talkie advent. Rub is that this system got reversed in the important sequences.' – Variety

See Here Private Hargrove ★

US 1944 102m bw
MGM (George Haight)

Adventures of a raw recruit in the US army.

Standard transcription of a humorous bestseller which did its best to make the war painless for Americans.

w Harry Kurnitz book Marion Hargrove d Wesley Ruggles ph Charles Lawton m David Snell

☆ Robert Walker, Donna Reed, Robert Benchley, Keenan Wynn, Bob Crosby, Ray Collins, Chill Wills, Grant Mitchell

† Sequel 1945: What Next, Corporal Hargrove?

See How They Fall ★★

France 1993 100m colour 'Scope
MIHK/Bloody Mary/France3/CEC (Didier Haudepin)

original title: Regarde les Hommes Tomber

A crippled con man teaches criminal ways to an amoral young protégé who betrays him.

Dark, deftly made thriller with more than a hint of Jean Genet about it in its concentration on homosexual desire, degradation and death.

w Alain Le Henry, Jacques Audiard novel Triangle by Terry White d Jacques Audiard ph Gérard Sterin m Alexandre Desplat pd Jacques Rouxel ed Juliette Welfling

☆ Jean-Louis Trintignant, Jean Yanne, Mathieu Kassovitz, Bulle Ogier, Christine Pascal, Yvon Back

See How They Run

GB 1955 84m bw
Winwell (BL)

A country vicarage gets lively when several miscreants pretend to be the vicar.

Reliable stage farce which doesn't get the laughs on screen.

w Leslie Arliss, Roy Miller, Val Valentine play Philip King d Leslie Arliss ph Ken Talbot m John Bath

☆ Ronald Shiner, Greta Gynt, James Hayter, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Dora Bryan, Richard Wattis, Viola Lyel

See My Lawyer

US 1945 67m bw
Universal

Comedians try to get out of a night-club commitment by insulting the customers.

Thin vehicle for a team that wasn't going anywhere: too many variety acts got in their way.

w Edmund L. Hartmann, Stanley Davis d Edward F. Cline

☆ Ole Olsen, Chic Johnson, Grace McDonald, Franklin Pangborn, Alan Curtis, Noah Beery Jnr, Ed Brophy

See No Evil: see Blind Terror

See No Evil, Hear No Evil

US 1989 102m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (Marvin Worth)

Suspected of murder, two friends, one deaf and the other blind, go in pursuit of the real killer.

Halting comedy that is not worth watching.

w Earl Barret, Arne Sultan, Eliot Wald, Andrew Kurtzman, Gene Wilder d Arthur Hiller ph Victor J. Kemper m Stewart Copeland pd Robert Gundlach ed Robert C. Jones

☆ Richard Pryor, Gene Wilder, Joan Severance, Kevin Spacey, Alan North, Anthony Zerbe, Louis Giambalvo, Kirsten Childs

'The Smart One Isn't Wearing Any Pants.'

See Spot Run

US/Australia 2001 97m Technicolor
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV (Robert Simonds, Tracey Trench, Andrew Deane)

A slow-witted postman babysits a six-year-old boy and adopts an FBI dog on the run from gangsters.

A comedy with more writers than jokes, dumb, dim and witless.

w George Gallo, Gregory Poirier, Chris Faber, Danny Baron adaptation Stuart Gibbs, Craig Titley d John Whitesell ph John Bartley m John Debney pd Mark Freeborn ed Cara Silverman

☆ David Arquette (Gordon), Michael Clarke Duncan (Agent Murdoch), Leslie Bibb (Stephanie), Joe Viterelli (Gino), Angus T. Jones (James), Steven R. Schirripa (Arliss), Anthony Anderson (Benny), Paul Sorvino (Sonny), Bob (Agent 11)

'Seldom have movie co-stars been ordered to stoop so low in a film's sorry quest for laughs.' – Variety

See You in Hell Darling: see An American Dream

See You in the Morning

US 1988 119m Metrocolor
Warner/Lorimar (Alan J. Pakula)

A divorced psychiatrist begins an affair with an insecure widow with two young children.

Enjoyable, though hardly memorable, study of confused relationships.

wd Alan J. Pakula ph Donald McAlpine m Michael Small pd George Jenkins ed Evan Lottman

☆ Jeff Bridges, Alice Krige, Farrah Fawcett, Drew Barrymore, Lukas Haas, David Dukes, Frances Sternhagen, George Hearn, Theodore Bikel, Macaulay Culkin

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Seed

US 1931 96m bw
Universal

A husband leaves his family to become a novelist, but returns ten years later.
Long-drawn-out domestic drama whose few virtues have not weathered the years.
w Gladys Lehman novel Charles G. Norris d John Stahl ph Jackson Rose ed Ted J. Kent ☆ John Boles, Genevieve Tobin, Lois Wilson, Raymond Hackett, Bette Davis, ZaSu Pitts

'Good woman's picture that will strike generous b.o. anywhere.' – Variety

'Deliver us some evil.'

Seed of Chucky

US/GB/Romania 2004 86m DeLuxe
Momentum/Rogue/La Sienega/Focus (David Kirschner, Corey Sienega)

In Hollywood, two dolls, possessed by the spirits of serial killers, are brought back to life by their son so that they can continue on their murdering way.
Jokey but uninteresting horror that attempts some feeble humour at the expense of the film industry and actresses willing to take the casting couch route to stardom.
wd Don Mancini ph Vernon Layton m Pino Donaggio pd Peter James Russell, Cristian Niculescu ed Chris Dickens
☆ Jennifer Tilly (Herself/Voice of Tiffany), Brad Dourif (Voice of Chucky), Billy Boyd (Voice of Glen/Glenda), Redman (Himself), Hannah Spearritt (Joan), John Waters (Pete Peters), Keith-Lee Castle (Psychs), Steve Lawton (Stan)

'Worn-out succession of gory, meaningless, hard-to-enjoy deaths, and too much of the running time is given over to puppets arguing with each other.' – Kim Newman, Empire

† It was a sequel to Bride of Chucky (qv).

'She never doubted his innocence. Now she'll pay for his freedom.'

Seeds of Doubt

Canada 1996 DeLuxe
Libra/Split Image (Craig Pryce)

A journalist campaigns for the release of an artist she claims was wrongly convicted of murder; after gaining his release, she begins an affair with him, and the killings begin again.
Dull thriller in which the audience is likely to be several steps ahead of the police in solving the crimes.
w David Wiechorek d Peter Foldy ph Thom Best m Barron Abramovitch pd Jennifer Carroll ed David Ransley
☆ Peter Coyote (Henry Dexter), Alberta Watson (Jennifer Kingsley), Joe Lando (Raymond Crawford), Colin Fox (David Golden), Frank Moore (Lester Crowley), Brooke Johnson (Mary Grimes), David Storch (Vincent Grimes), Tony Rosato (Nick Brand)

Seeing Double: see S Club Seeing Double

The Seekers

GB 1954 90m Eastmancolor
GFD/Fanfare (George H. Brown)

US title: Land of Fury

In 1820 a British sailor and his family emigrate to New Zealand.
Stilted epic which never gains the viewer's sympathy or interest.
w William Fairchild d Ken Annakin ph Geoffrey Unsworth m William Alwyn
☆ Jack Hawkins, Glynis Johns, Inia Te Wiata, Noel Purcell, Kenneth Williams, Laya Raki

Seemabadha: see Company Limited

Seems Like Old Times ★

US 1980 102m Metrocolor
Columbia/Ray Stark

An innocently involved bank robber takes refuge with his ex-wife, a lady lawyer married to the district attorney.
Nostalgic farce which doesn't quite live up to the old skills and often bogs down in talk. Funny moments, though.
w Neil Simon d Jay Sandrich ph David M. Walsh m Marvin Hamlisch pd Gene Callahan ed Michael A. Stevenson
☆ Goldie Hawn, Chevy Chase, Charles Grodin, Robert Guillaume, Harold Gould, George Grizzard

Il Segno di Zorro: see The Mark of Zorro (1963)

Segunda Piel

Spain 1999 106m colour Panavision
Gala/Lolafilms/Via Digital/ Antena 3 (Andres Vicente Gomez)
aka: Second Skin

In Madrid, a wife discovers that her husband is having an affair with another man.
Bland drama of adultery, with an undeveloped and uninteresting character at its centre.
w Angeles Gonzalez-Sinde d Gerardo Vera ph Julio Madurga m Roque Banos ad Ana Alvargonzalez ed Nick Wentworth ☆ Javier Bardem (Diego), Jordi Molla (Alberto), Ariadna Gil (Elena), Cecilia Roth (Eva), Javier Albala (Rafa), Mercedes Sampietro (Elena's Mother), Adrian Sac (Manuel)

'The movie is quiet, modest and sympathetic almost to a fault; its scenes of emotional discord, accompanied by a swooning, sniffling score, seem best suited to cable television.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Sei Donne per l'Assassino: see Blood and Black Lace

Sei Sei Vivo, Spara!: see Django, Kill!

Seize the Day ★

US 1986 93m colour
Learning in Focus (Chiz Schultz)

In the mid-50s a salesman who quits his job meets rejection and disillusion at every turn.
A movie faithful to the book, but its relentless portrait of a man's disintegration and humiliation is much less easy to bear on the screen than it was on the page.
w Ronald Ribman novel Saul Bellow d Fielder Cook ph Eric Van Haren Noman m Elizabeth Swados pd John Robert Lloyd ed Sidney Katz, Rachel Igel
☆ Robin Williams, Joseph Wiseman, Jerry Stiller, Glenne Headly, William Hickey, Tony Roberts, Tom Aldredge

† The film was made for TV. Saul Bellow has a walk-on role as a man in a hotel corridor.

Sélect Hotel

France 1996 82m colour
MIHK/Climax (Francisco Guiterrez)

Some denizens of a Parisian flophouse – a drug-addicted prostitute, her thieving brother and pimp – go about their miserable lives.
A depressing portrait of hopeless lives, lived on the edge of danger, which are viewed with sympathy and a disdain for conventional existence.
wd Laurent Bouhnik ph Gilles Henry m Jérôme Coullet ad Isabelle Millet ed Jacqueline Mariani, Clémence Bielov
☆ Julie Gayet, Jean-Michel Fête, Serge Blumental, Sabine Bail, Eric Aubrahn, Emmannuelle Rozes, Michel Gondoin

'Hardly a comfortable night at the pictures, this is an extraordinarily powerful but utterly draining piece of cinema.' – Giala Murray, Empire

'The story of a girl who had the spirit to believe in a dream and the courage to make it come true.'

Selena ②

US 1997 127m Technicolor
Warner/Q (Moctesuma Esparza, Robert Katz)

Biopic of the short life of the Mexican-American singer, who was murdered in 1995 just as she was on the brink of international stardom.
A bland drama that does not deviate from a familiar, stereotyped, showbiz format; its appeal will be mainly to fans of the singer, though it is enlivened by Jennifer Lopez's performance.
wd Gregory Nava ph Edward Lachman m Dave Grusin pd Cary White ed Nancy Richardson
☆ Jennifer Lopez (Selena Quintanilla), Edward James Olmos (Abraham Quintanilla), Jon Seda (Chris Perez), Constance Marie (Marcela Quintanilla), Jacob Vargas (Abie Quintanilla), Lupe Ontiveros (Yolanda Saldivar), Jackie Guerra (Suzette Quintanilla), Rebecca Lee Meza (Young Selena)

A Self-Made Hero ★★★

France 1995 106m colour
Artificial Eye/Alicélo/Lumière/France 3/M6/Initial (Patrick Godeau)

original title: Un Héros Très Discret

After the liberation of France, a cowardly and simple-minded fantasist reinvents himself as a hero of the Resistance.
Sharply political comedy of assumed identity and innocence – imagine a cross between Candide and The Captain of Kopenick – which casts a beady and entertaining eye over French attitudes to the recent past.
w Alain Le Henry, Jacques Audiard novel Jean-François Deniau d Jacques Audiard ph Jean-Marc Fabre m Alexandre Desplat ad Michel Vandestien ed Juliette Welfling ☆ Mathieu Kassovitz (Albert Dehousse), Anouk Grinberg (Servane), Sandrine Kiberlain (Yvette), Jean-Louis Trintignant (Albert, Present), Albert Dupontel (Dionnet), Nadia Barentin (Madame Louvier/Madame Revuz/The General's Wife), Bernard Bloch (Ernst)

'Half comic and half in deadly earnest – a political film seemingly determined to cause offence by questioning both orthodox history and those who made it.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Selling of America: see Beer

The Sellout

US 1951 82m bw
MGM (Nicholas Nayfack)

A newspaper exposes a corrupt administration.
Competent melodrama with no surprises.
w Charles Palmer d Gerald Mayer ph Paul Vogel m David Buttolph
☆ Walter Pidgeon, John Hodiak, Audrey Totter, Thomas Gomez, Everett Sloane, Cameron Mitchell, Karl Malden, Paula Raymond

The Sellout

GB/Italy 1975 102m colour
Warner/Oceanglade/Amerifilm (Josef Shaftel)

Russians and Americans lure a double agent to Jerusalem in order to eliminate him.
Unsmiling spy melodrama with a complex plot, a bagful of clichés and some unnecessarily unpleasant violence.
w Judson Kinberg, Murray Smith d Peter Collinson ph Arthur Ibbetson m Mike Green, Colin Frechter
☆ Richard Widmark, Oliver Reed, Gayle Hunnicutt, Sam Wanamaker, Vladek Sheybal, Ori Levy, Assaf Dayan

La Semana del Asesino: see Cannibal Man

Semi-Tough ★

US 1977 107m DeLuxe
UA/David Merrick

The manager's daughter decides between two star members of a football team.
Rambling satiric comedy which takes jabs at various states of mind in America today, notably the fashionable forms of self-help therapy. Much of it comes off quite well.
w Walter Bernstein novel Dan Jenkins d Michael Ritchie ph Charles Rosher Jnr m Jerry Fielding ☆ Burt Reynolds, Kris Kristofferson, Jill Clayburgh, Bert Convy, Robert Preston, Lotte Lenya, Roger E. Mosley

Seminole

US 1953 86m Technicolor
Universal-International (Howard Christie)

A West Point graduate goes to Florida to make peace with the Indians.
Slightly unusual but not very interesting semi-Western with the usual clichés.
w Charles K. Peck Jnr d Budd Boetticher ph Russell Metty md Joseph Gershenson ☆ Rock Hudson, Anthony Quinn, Barbara Hale, Richard Carlson, Hugh O'Brian, Russell Johnson, Lee Marvin, James Best

Sen to Chihiro - No Kamikakushi: see Spirited Away

The Senator Was Indiscreet ★

US 1947 95m bw
U-I (Nunnally Johnson)

GB title: Mr Ashton Was Indiscreet

A foolish politician determines to become president and hires a press agent.
Satirical political farce which hurls its shafts wide and doesn't seem to mind how few of them hit.
w Charles MacArthur story Edwin Lanham d George S. Kaufman ph William Mellor m Daniele Amfitheatrof
☆ William Powell, Ella Raines, Peter Lind Hayes, Ray Collins, Arleen Whelan, Allen Jenkins, Hans Conried, Charles D. Brown

Send Me No Flowers ★

US 1964 100m Technicolor
U-I/Martin Melcher (Harry Keller)

A hypochondriac mistakenly thinks he is dying and tries to provide another spouse for his wife.
A timeworn farcical situation is handled in the glossy Doris Day manner; it all starts quite brightly but gradually fizzles out.

w Julius Epstein play Norman Barrasch, Carroll Moore d Norman Jewison ph Daniel Fapp m Frank de Vol
ad Alexander Golitzen, Robert Clatworthy
☆ Doris Day, Rock Hudson, Tony Randall, Paul Lynde, Clint Walker, Hal March, Edward Andrews

The Seniors

US 1977 87m Metrocolor
CSI (Stanley Shapiro, Carter de Haven)

Four college students discover a way to become rich by making prostitution respectable.
Exploitative comedy, mixing teenage wish-fulfilment with black but unfunny farce.
w Stanley Shapiro d Rod Amateau
ph Robert Jessup ed Guy Scarpitta
☆ Jeffrey Byron, Gary Imhoff, Dennis Quaid, Lou Richards, Rocky Flintermann, Priscilla Barnes, Alan Reed

La Señora ★

Spain 1987 103m colour
ICA/Virginia (Jonni Bassiner)

Sexually frustrated by a loveless marriage, an aristocratic woman finds temporary happiness with her gardener.
Moderately engrossing melodrama of sex and class.
w Jordi Cadena, Silvia Tortosa novel Antoni Mus d Jordi Cadena ph José G. Galisteo m J. M. Pagan pd Joseph Maria Espada ed Amat Carreras ☆ Silvia Tortosa, Hermann Bonnin, Luis Merlo, Fernando Guillén-Cuervo, Jeaninne Mestre, Alfonso Guirao

Sensation

GB 1936 67m bw
BIP (Walter Mycroft)

A village barmaid is murdered and only our reporter hero sees the wider implications.
Presentable murder mystery.
w Dudley Leslie, Marjorie Deans, William Freshman play Murder Gang by Basil Dean, George Munro d Brian Desmond Hurst
ph Walter Harvey
☆ John Lodge, Diana Churchill, Francis Lister, Joan Marion, Margaret Vyner, Athene Seyler, Richard Bird

'The genuine situation is lost in false trials, in an absurd love story, in humour based on American films, and in the complete unreality of the "murder gang".' – Graham Greene

Sensations of 1945

US 1944 87m bw
Andrew L. Stone

Father and son disagree over the handling of their publicity agency.
Slim plot holds together a ragbag of variety acts, some quite choice.
w Dorothy Bennett d Andrew L. Stone ph Peverell Marley, John Mescall md Mahlon Merrick
☆ Eleanor Powell, W. C. Fields, Sophie Tucker, Dennis O'Keefe, Eugene Pallette, C. Aubrey Smith, Lyle Talbot, Dorothy Donegan, Cab Calloway and his band, Woody Herman and his band
Mahlon Merrick

Sense and Sensibility ★★★

GB/US 1995 136m Technicolor
Columbia/Mirage (Lindsay Doran)

Two sisters hope for suitable husbands when they, their younger sister and widowed mother lose their home and money and are forced to move into a small cottage.
A high-spirited romance that is a joy to watch; Emma Thompson's casting as Elinor (who is a 19-year-old in the book) slightly undermines Austen's intent, but does not reduce the pleasure the film provides.
w Emma Thompson novel Jane Austen
d Ang Lee ph Michael Coulter m Patrick Doyle pd Luciana Arrighi ad Philip Elton ed Tim Squyres
☆ Emma Thompson (Elinor Dashwood), Alan Rickman (Colonel Brandon), Kate Winslet (Marianne Dashwood), Hugh Grant (Edward Ferrars), James Flett (John Dashwood), Harriet Walter (Fanny Dashwood), Gemma Jones (Mrs. Dashwood), Elizabeth Spriggs (Mrs. Jennings), Robert Hardy (Sir John Middleton), Greg Wise (John Willoughby), Hugh Laurie (Mr. Palmer), Imelda Staunton (Charlotte Palmer), Imogen Stubbs (Lucy Steele), Emile François (Margaret Dashwood)

'Luminously brings to life Austen's vision of the dance of the sexes. The final romantic epiphany is a stunner, at once rapturous and funny.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'It is still a pleasant shock to see a film so divested of precious charm in favour of humour, dramatic force and the kind of romance that isn't merely sentimental.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† It won the Golden Bear as the best film at the 1996 Berlin Film Festival.
†† Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by Emma Thompson and Lindsay Doran, and by Ang Lee and James Schamus, and deleted scenes.
Emma Thompson (adapted screenplay) best picture; Emma Thompson (as actress); Kate Winslet; Michael Coulter; Patrick Doyle; costume design (Jenny Beavan, John Bright) best film; Emma Thompson (as actress); Kate Winslet

'A Secret Experiment... With Hilarious Side Effects!'

Senseless

US 1998 93m DeLuxe
Mandeville/Gold/Miller (David Hoberman)

A college student is the subject of an experiment that enhances his five senses.
Madcap comedy with a succession of hit-or-miss gags; most miss.
w Greg Erb, Craig Mazin d Penelope Spheeris ph Daryn Okada m Yello
pd Peter Jamison ed Ross Albert ☆ Marlon Wayans (Darryl Witherspoon), David Spade (Scott Thorpe), Matthew Lillard (Tim LaFlour), Brad Dourif (Dr Wheedon), Tamara Taylor (Janice), Rip Torn (Randall Tyson), Richard McGonagle (Robert Bellweather), Esther Scott (Denise Witherspoon)

'Fairly fast-moving but essentially a collection of slipshod scenes.' – USA Today

Senso ★

Italy 1953 115m Technicolor
Lux

aka: The Wanton Countess (cut version)

In 1866 Venice a noblewoman falls in love with an officer of the invading Austrian army, but finally denounces him.
The melodramatic plot is less important than the portrait of a period, for this is an expensive film in the grand style, often breathtaking to look at.
w Luchino Visconti, Suso Cecchi d'Amico and others story Camilla Botto d Luchino Visconti ph G. R. Aldo, Robert Krasker
m Anton Bruckner ad Ottavio Scotti
☆ Alida Valli, Farley Granger, Massimo Girotti, Christian Marquand

The Sensualist

Japan 1992 54m colour
Ren Usami, Tsunemasa Hatano, Zuza Hagiwara

A merchant, whose life is dedicated to lust, aids a tailor who has wagered his manhood on bedding a courtesan at their first meeting.
A rarity: an animated film intended for an adult audience. The images, based on traditional Japanese woodcuts, are attractive; the inconsequential narrative less so.
w Eiichi Yamamoto novel Saikaku Ihara
d Yukio Abe ph Minoru Fujita m Keiju Ishikawa ad Yukio Abe ed Kenichi Takashima

Sentimental Journey

US 1946 94m bw
TCF (Walter Morosco)

An actress who knows she is dying arranges for a little orphan girl to take her place in her husband's affections.
Hollywood's most incredible three-handkerchief picture; nicely made, but who dared to write it?
w Samuel Hoffenstein, Elizabeth Reinhardt story Nelia Gardner White d Walter Lang
ph Norbert Brodine m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Maureen O'Hara, John Payne, William Bendix, Cedric Hardwicke, Glenn Langan, Mischa Auer, Connie Marshall, Kurt Kreuger

'In twenty years of filmgoing I can't remember being so slobbered at: the apotheosis of the weepie.' – Richard Winnington

'It may not be for the critics, but who are critics? Just a lot of Joes, with passes.' – Variety † Remade as The Gift of Love (qv).

'Doomed to guard the gates of Hell forever!'

The Sentinel

US 1976 92m Technicolor
Universal/Jeffrey Konvitz

A disturbed girl in an old apartment house is haunted by walking corpses: the house turns out to be the gateway to hell and she its appointed sentinel.
Vulgarly modish rip-off of several fashionable themes, notably Rosemary's Baby and The Exorcist.
w Michael Winner, Jeffrey Konvitz novel Jeffrey Konvitz d Michael Winner
ph Dick Kratina m Gil Melle
☆ Chris Sarandon, Cristina Raines, Martin Balsam, John Carradine, José Ferrer, Ava Gardner, Arthur Kennedy, Burgess Meredith, Sylvia Miles, Deborah Raffin, Eli Wallach, Jerry Orbach

'Moral or ironic points are hard to discern in the eye-wrenching flux of a Michael Winner movie, which drifts and zooms across its polished people and places in a continual caressing motion, as crudely excitatory as any sex movie when the climaxes are approaching.' – Richard Combs, MFB

'A man with a face that looks like chicken giblets, a naked whore with a mouse on her thigh, a cat devouring a canary and Sylvia Miles in a tight leotard – these are some of the highlights of The Sentinel, a perfect film for those who like to slow down and look at traffic accidents.' – Janet Maslin, Newsweek

'In 141 years, there's never been a traitor in the Secret Service... until now.'

The Sentinel ③

US 2006 107m
Fox/Fox/Regency Enterprises/Further Films/New Regency Pictures/Dune (Michael Douglas, Marcy Drogin, Arnon Milchan)

Framed for treason, a veteran Secret Service agent goes on the run to foil a presidential assassination plot.
Outdated conspiracy thriller riddled with implausibilities that invites unflattering comparisons with TV show 24.
w George Nolfi novel Gerald Petievich
d Clark Johnson ph Gabriel Beristain
m Christophe Beck pd Andrew McAlpine ad Halina Gebarowicz, Rocco Mateo
ed Cindy Mollo
☆ Michael Douglas (Pete Garrison), Kiefer Sutherland (David Breckinridge), Eva Longoria (Jill Marin), Martin Donovan (William Montrose), Kim Basinger (Sarah Ballentine), David Rasche (President Ballentine)

'A half-hearted exercise in political paranoia.' – Justin Chang, Variety

Senza Ragione: see Redneck

Seom ★

South Korea 2000 89m colour
Metro Tartan/CJ Entertainment/Myung (Lee Eun)

GB title The Isle

A fugitive who killed his wife and her lover hides out on a remote island with the aid of a mysterious mute prostitute.
A strange fable of sexual jealousy and violent lust, where lovers literally reel each other in on fishing lines
wd Kim Ki-duk ph Hwang Suh-shik ad Kim Ki-duk ed Kyung Min-ho
☆ Seoh Jung (Hee-Jin), Kim Yu-seok (Hyun-Shik), Park Sung-hee (Eun-A), Jang Hang-sun (Middle-aged man), Jo Jae-hyun (Mang Chee)

'A gross-out movie in art-house clothing.' – Richard Falcon, Sight and Sound

'A gorgeously restrained, apocalyptically horrifying pas de deux that's notorious for precipitating fainting spells and vomit seizures at press screenings.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice

Separate Lies

GB/US 2005 87m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox Searchlight/Celador (Christian Colson, Steven Clark-Hall)

A lawyer covers up his adulterous wife's involvement in a hit and run killing.
Elegant but stilted drama of English high life; although Balchin's novel has been updated to the present day, the social attitudes on display remain stuck in the 1950s.
wd Julian Fellowes novel A Way Through the Wood by Nigel Balchin ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Stanislas Syrewicz pd Alison Riva ed Alex Mackie, Martin Walsh
☆ Tom Wilkinson (James Manning), Emily Watson (Anne Manning), Rupert Everett (Bill Bule), Linda Bassett (Maggie), David Harewood (Inspector Marshall), John Neville (Lord Rawlston), Hermione Norris (Priscilla)

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'A truly adult film – not because of its content or themes, but because it knows that real drama often lies in the accepted and unspoken realms of life.' – John Anderson, Variety
'Despite the bravura acting, not to be taken nearly as seriously as it wants.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Separate Lives

US 1995 101m colour
Interscope/Trimark (Mark Amin, Diane Nabatoff, Guy Reidel)

A psychology professor with a split personality fears she may have committed a murder.
Dully derivative thriller, offering nothing that has not been done rather better in the past.
w Steven Pressfield d David Madden ph Kees Van Oostrum m William Olvis pd Bernt Capra ed Janice Hampton
☆ James Belushi, Linda Hamilton, Vera Miles, Elisabeth Moss, Drew Snyder, Mark Lindsay Chapman, Marc Poppel, Elizabeth Arlen
'A thinly plotted and tiresomely formulaic drama.' – Variety

Separate Tables ★★

US 1958 98m bw
UA/Hecht-Hill-Lancaster (Harold Hecht)

Emotional tensions among the boarders at a British seaside guest house.
The genteel melodramas seem less convincing on the Hollywood screen than they did on the London stage, but the handling is thoroughly professional.
w Terence Rattigan, John Gay play Terence Rattigan d Delbert Mann ph Charles Lang m David Raksin ☆ Burt Lancaster, Rita Hayworth, David Niven, Deborah Kerr, Wendy Hiller, Gladys Cooper, Cathleen Nesbitt, Felix Aylmer, Rod Taylor, Audrey Dalton, May Hallatt
David Niven; Wendy Hiller best picture; script; Charles Lang; David Raksin; Deborah Kerr

La Séparation ★

France 1994 88m colour
Guild/Renn/France2/DA/MCV/Canal (Claude Berri)

An unmarried couple, who have a young child, begin to drift apart.
A buttoned-up account of the breakdown of a relationship, given intensity by the acting of its two protagonists.
w Dan Franck, Christian Vincent novel Dan Franck d Christian Vincent ph Denis Lenoir m Bach ad Christian Vallerin ed François Ceppi ☆ Isabelle Huppert, Daniel Auteuil, Jerôme Deschamps, Karin Viard, Laurence Lerel, Louis Vincent, Nina Morato

Seppuku ★★★★

Japan 1962 135m bw
Shochiku (Tatsuo Hosoya)

US title: Harakiri
In 1630, a impoverished former samurai seeks permission from a feudal lord to commit ritual suicide, though his real intention is to avenge the humiliating death of his son-in-law at the clan's hands.
Set at a time when the Tokugawa shongunate destroyed local rulers and made thousands of samurai masterless and destitute, this dark, intense and measured drama exposes the hypocrisy and the repressive ritual of a hierarchical society.
w Shinobu Hashimoto novel Yasuhiko Takiguchi d Masaki Kobayashi ph Yoshio Miyajima m Toru Takemitsu ad Junichi Ozumi, Shigemasa Toda ed Hisashi Sagara ☆ Tatsuya Nakadai (Hanshiro Tsugumo), Rentaro Mikuni (Kageyu Saito), Akira Ishihama (Motome Chijiiwa), Shima Iwashita (Miho Tsugumo), Tetsuro Tamba (Hikokuro Omodaka), Masao Mishima (Tango Inaba)

September

US 1987 83m DuArt/DeLuxe
Orion (Jack Rollins, Charles H. Joffe)

Enclosed family drama: Allen in his melancholy Bergman mode.
wd Woody Allen ph Carlo Di Palma
m various ad Speed Hopkins ed Susan E. Morse ☆ Denholm Elliott, Dianne Wiest, Mia Farrow, Elaine Stritch, Sam Waterston
'The debts to Chekhov are everywhere.' – Variety

September Affair

US 1950 104m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)

Two married people fall in love and a plane crash in which they are reported dead gives them their chance.
Turgid romantic melodrama, not very well made despite the background tour of Capri; what made it a hit was the playing of the old Walter Huston record of the title song.
w Robert Thoeren d William Dieterle
ph Charles B. Lang m Victor Young ☆ Joseph Cotten, Joan Fontaine, Françoise Rosay, Jessica Tandy, Robert Arthur, Jimmy Lydon
'A smooth surface mirrors the film's essential superficiality.' – Penelope Houston

September Storm

US 1960 110m DeLuxe Cinemascope 3-D
TCF/Alco (Edward L. Alperson)

A New York model and two adventurers search for sunken treasure off an uncharted Mediterranean island.
Thin actioner originally intended to marry 3-D and Cinemascope, but failed to do so.
w W. R. Burnett novel The Girl in the Red Bikini by Steve Fisher d Byron Haskin ph Jorge Stahl Jnr, Lamar Boren m Edward L. Alperson Jnr ☆ Joanne Dru, Mark Stevens, Robert Strauss

Sequestro di Persona: see Island of Crime

Sequins: see A Common Thread

Sequoia

US 1934 73m bw
MGM

A girl living in the High Sierras defends wild animals from hunters.
Refreshingly unusual outdoor drama with good location photography.
w Ann Cunningham, Sam Armstrong, Carey Wilson d Chester Franklin
ph Chester Lyons
☆ Jean Parker, Russell Hardie, Samuel S. Hinds, Paul Hurst
'It was unlikely that either Miss Parker or the deer would eat the puma, but I hung on hoping that the puma would eat the deer or Miss Parker.' – James Agate

Serena

GB 1962 62m bw
Butcher's (John I. Phillips)

A Scotland Yard detective investigating a murder discovers that the victim is not who he thought it was.
A neat but somewhat plodding mystery with a clever twist at the end.
w Reginald Hearne, Edward and Valerie Abraham d Peter Maxwell ph Stephen Dade m John Gregory ad George Provis ed Allan Morrison
☆ Patrick Holt, Emrys Jones, Honor Blackman, Bruce Beeby, John Horsley, Vi Stevens, Gerry Duggan, Benedicta Leigh, Wally Patch

Serenade: see Broadway Serenade (1939)

Serenade

US 1956 121m Warnercolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A vineyard worker becomes a successful opera singer and is desired by two women.
Cliché success story with plot taking second place to singing.
w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, John Twist novel James M. Cain d Anthony Mann ph Peverell Marley md Ray Heindorf songs Nicholas Brodszky (m), Sammy Cahn (ly)
☆ Mario Lanza, Joan Fontaine, Sarita Montiel, Vincent Price, Joseph Calleia, Harry Bellaver, Vince Edwards, Silvio Minciotti

'Fate–the best matchmaker there is.'
'Can Once In A Lifetime Happen Twice?'

Serendipity

US 2001 90m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Tapestry (Simon Fields, Peter Abrams, Robert L. Levy)

As the date of his marriage looms, a man goes in search of a woman he met briefly years before.
Amiable but empty romantic comedy, so full of coincidence that it becomes risible.
w Marc Klein d Peter Chelsom ph John De Borman m Alan Silvestri pd Caroline Hanania ed Christopher Greenbury
☆ John Cusack (Jonathan Trager), Kate Beckinsale (Sara Thomas), Molly Shannon (Eve), Jeremy Piven (Dean Kansky), John Corbett (Lars Hammond), Bridget Moynahan (Halley Buchanan), Eugene Levy (Bloomingdale's Salesman)
'Will serve as an excellent gauge of any viewer's tolerance level for schmaltzy contrivance and manipulation.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Seres Queridos: see Only Human

The Sergeant

US 1968 108m Technicolor
Warner/Robert Wise (Richard Goldstone)

France, 1952. In a dreary army camp, a tough army sergeant with a guilt complex is brought face to face with his own homosexuality.
Well-made but very ponderous and limited melodrama which could have been told in half the time.
w Dennis Murphy play Dennis Murphy
d John Flynn ph Henri Persin m Michel Mayne ☆ Rod Steiger, John Phillip Law, Frank Latimore, Ludmila Mikael

Sgt Bilko

US 1996 94m DeLuxe
Universal/Imagine/Entertainment (Brian Grazer)

Sergeant Bilko outsmarts an old rival, an army major.
Dull and miscast comedy, one that only makes the original television series seem, in retrospect, better than it was.
w Andy Breckman d Jonathan Lynn ph Peter Sova m Alan Silvestri
pd Lawrence G. Paull ed Tony Lombardo
☆ Steve Martin, Dan Aykroyd, Phil Hartman, Glenne Headly, Daryl Mitchell, Max Casella, Eric Edwards, Dan Ferro
'This misconceived venture could just give a laugh or two to those who have never seen the original, but those who have may curse the day Martin was born.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'A terrible film ... has no visual wit, a pathetically scrappy script and the usual "pop-noodle" soundtrack of disparate songs. Oh, and Dan Aykroyd's Colonel Hall is as much an insult to Paul Ford's magnificent creation as this whole episode is a piss-stain on Phil Silver's pedestal.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound
† The original TV series was first titled You'll Never Get Rich, then was known as The Phil Silvers Show, running from 1955 to 1959, and retitled Sgt Bilko when it was syndicated. Created by Nat Hiken, who named its hero after his favourite baseball player, Steve Bilko, it starred Phil Silvers as Bilko, supported by Paul Ford as his commanding officer and Elisabeth Fraser as his girlfriend.

'The funniest foul-up of the space age!'

Sergeant Deadhead

US 1965 89m CFI color
AIP (James H. Nicholson, Samuel Z. Arkoff)

An army sergeant is accidentally sent into orbit and undergoes a personality change.
Clumsy comedy partially redeemed by its supporting players.
w Louis M. Heyward d Norman Taurog
ph Floyd Crosby m Les Baxter
☆ Frankie Avalon, Deborah Walley, Fred Clark, Cesar Romero, Eve Arden, Gale Gordon, Buster Keaton, Harvey Lembeck, John Ashley

Sergeant Madden

US 1939 78m bw
MGM (J. Walter Ruben)

A policeman's son becomes a gangster.
Routine crime melodrama with sentimental trimmings, quite untypical of its director.
w Wells Root story A Gun in His Hand by William A. Ulman d Josef von Sternberg
ph John Seitz m William Axt
☆ Wallace Beery, Tom Brown, Alan Curtis, Laraine Day, Fay Holden, Marc Lawrence, Marion Martin
'Good programme drama, geared to supply strong support in the key duals.' – Variety

Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band

US 1978 111m Technicolor
Panavision
Universal/Robert Stigwood (Dee Anthony)

A family band finds a new sound despite the activities of villains.
Oddball hotch-potch of middle-aged comedy and youth nostalgia with an American small town setting. Some moments please, but most of it simply doesn't gel.
w Henry Edwards d Michael Schultz

ph Owen Roizman m various (mostly the Beatles) pd Brian Eatwell ☆ Peter Frampton, Barry Gibb, Robin Gibb, Maurice Gibb, George Burns, Frankie Howerd, Donald Pleasence, Paul Nicholas, Sandy Farina, Alice Cooper, Steve Martin, Earth Wind and Fire
'Another of those films which serve as feature-length screen advertising for an album.' – Variety

Sergeant Rutledge ★
US 1960 111m Technicolor
Warner/John Ford (Willis Goldbeck, Patrick Ford)
In 1881 a black army sergeant is on trial for rape and murder, but his defence counsel reveals the real culprit.
Flashback Western; not the director's best, but generally of some interest.
w James Warner Bellah, Willis Goldbeck d John Ford ph Bert Glennon m Howard Jackson ☆ Woody Strode, Jeffrey Hunter, Constance Towers, Willis Bouchey, Billie Burke, Carleton Young, Juano Hernandez, Mae Marsh

Sergeant Steiner
West Germany 1979 115m Eastmancolor Panavision
Palladium/Rapidfilm (Arlene Sellers, Alex Winitsky)
aka: Breakthrough
The German sergeant hero of Cross of Iron survives the Western Front and involvement in an anti-Hitler conspiracy.
Somewhat bloodless though interesting sequel to an exceptionally nasty war film, with an international cast aiming at better box-office.
w Tony Williamson d Andrew McLaglen ph Tony Imi m Peter Thomas ☆ Richard Burton, Robert Mitchum, Curt Jurgens, Rod Steiger, Helmut Griem, Michael Parks

Sergeant York ★★
US 1941 134m bw
Warner (Jesse L. Lasky)
The story of a gentle hillbilly farmer who became a hero of World War I.
Standard real-life fiction given the big treatment; a key Hollywood film of its time in several ways.
w Abem Finkel, Harry Chandler, Howard Koch, John Huston d Howard Hawks
ph Sol Polito m Max Steiner ad John Hughes ed William Holmes ☆ Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie, Walter Brennan, George Tobias, David Bruce, Stanley Ridges, Margaret Wycherly, Dickie Moore, Ward Bond
'I hardly think the effect is any different from that of a parade, with colours and a band; it is stirring and it is too long; there are too many holdups and too many people out of step, and your residue of opinion on the matter is that it will be nice to get home and get your shoes off.' – Otis Ferguson
'It has all the flavour of true Americana, the blunt and homely humour of backwoodsmen and the raw integrity peculiar to simple folk.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
Gary Cooper
best picture; script; Howard Hawks; Sol Polito; Max Steiner; Walter Brennan; Margaret Wycherly; John Hughes; William Holmes

Sergeants Three
US 1961 112m Technicolor Panavision (UA) Essex-Claude (Frank Sinatra)
Just after the Civil War three cavalry sergeants, with the help of an ex-slave bugler, dispose of some hostile Indians.
High-spirited but exhausting parody of Gunga Din, with bouts of unfunny bloodthirstiness separated by tedious slabs of dialogue.
w W. R. Burnett d John Sturges
ph Winton Hoch, Carl Guthrie m Billy May ☆ Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis Jnr, Joey Bishop, Henry Silva, Ruta Lee
'The participants have a better time than the onlookers.' – Judith Crist, 1973

Serial ★
US 1980 91m Movielab
Paramount/Sidney Beckerman
Well-heeled Californians in a high suburban community go in for various cults and fashions.
Amusing satire on everything from Peyton Place to Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice. Just a little late in coming, that's all.
w Rich Eustis, Michael Elias novel Cyra McFadden d Bill Persky ph Rexford Metz m Lalo Schifrin
☆ Martin Mull, Tuesday Weld, Jennifer McAllister, Sam Chew Jnr, Sally Kellerman, Nita Talbot, Bill Macy, Christopher Lee, Pamela Bellwood, Peter Bonerz, Tom Smothers

'A loving mother. A caring wife. A model citizen. So what's the problem?'

Serial Mom ★
US 1994 89m Technicolor
Guild/Savoy/Polar (John Fiedler, Mark Tarlov)
A devoted home-loving wife and mother becomes famous after she murders everyone who upsets her by not behaving as she expects.
Mildly amusing one-sick-joke movie, given a little spark by Turner's comic turn as the killer mother.
wd John Waters ph Robert M. Stevens m Basil Poledouris pd Vincent Peranio ed Janice Hampton, Erica Huggins
☆ Kathleen Turner, Sam Waterston, Ricki Lake, Matthew Lillard, Mary Jo Catlett, Patricia Hearst, Mink Stole, Suzanne Somers (herself)
'There is something insubstantial about Waters' satire of sit-com suburbia.' – Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

'Real People In Real Danger'

Series 7: The Contenders ★★
US 2000 87m colour
Film4/USA/Blow Up/Killer/Open City (Jason Kliot, Joana Vicente, Christine Vachon, Katie Roumel)
In a national lottery for a TV programme, five people are chosen for a contest which only one of them can survive.
Slick, engaging thriller, updating a satirical notion explored by writer Robert Sheckley in The Seventh Victim some 40 years ago, and gaining topicality with the current craze for 'reality TV'.
wd Daniel Minahan ph Randy Drummond m Girls Against Boys
pd Gideon Ponte ed Malcolm Jamieson
☆ Brooke Smith (Dawn), Glenn Fitzgerald (Jeff), Marylouise Burke (Connie), Richard Venture (Franklin), Michael Kaycheck (Tony), Merritt Wever (Lindsay), Angelina Phillips (Doria), Nada Despotovich (Michelle)
'Effectively satiric while still developing and sustaining a rooting interest in its invented story over the course of a smart, short running time.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Serious Charge
GB 1959 99m bw
Alva (Mickey Delamar)
A small-town troublemaker, accused by his priest of being responsible for the death of a young girl, amuses himself by accusing the priest of making homosexual advances.
A sensational play of its time makes a dull film despite earnest performances.
w Guy Elmes, Mickey Delamar play Philip King d Terence Young ph Georges Périnal m Leighton Lucas
☆ Anthony Quayle, Andrew Ray, Sarah Churchill, Irene Browne, Percy Herbert, Cliff Richard

The Serpent
France/Italy/Germany 1974 124m colour
Films La Boetie (Henri Verneuil)
A top KGB official defects to the West.
Complicated, humourless, multi-lingual spy capers.
w Henri Verneuil, Gilles Perrault novel Pierre Nord d Henri Verneuil
ph Claude Renoir m Ennio Morricone
☆ Yul Brynner, Henry Fonda, Dirk Bogarde, Philippe Noiret, Farley Granger, Virna Lisi

The Serpent and the Rainbow
US 1987 98m DuArt
UIP/Universal (David Ladd, Doug Claybourne)
A scientist travels to Haiti to investigate zombies.
Standard horror film, designed to shock, in which it succeeds.
w Richard Maxwell, A. R. Simoun book Wade Davis d Wes Craven ph John Lindley m Brad Fiedel pd David Nichols ed Glenn Farr ☆ Bill Pullman, Cathy Tyson, Zakes Mokae, Paul Winfield, Brent Jennings, Conrad Roberts, Badja Djola, Theresa Merritt, Michael Gough

The Serpent's Egg ★
West Germany/US 1977 120m Eastmancolor
Rialto-Dino de Laurentiis
An American trapeze artist has a hard time in Berlin at the time of Hitler's rise to power.
More of a curate's egg, really, with a poor leading performance and too many lapses into nastiness, but much incidental interest of the kind one associates with the director.
wd Ingmar Bergman ph Sven Nykvist
m Rolf Wilhelm pd Rolf Zehetbauer
☆ David Carradine, Liv Ullmann, Gert Frobe, James Whitmore, Heinz Bennent
'A crackpot tragedy: everything is strained, insufficient, underfelt.' – New Yorker

'She hunts to mate and mates to kill.'

Serpent's Lair
US 1995 90m DeLuxe
Kushner-Locke/WarnerVision/Castel (Vlad Paunescu)
A businessman is seduced by an irresistible and sexually voracious succubus.
Risible exploitation movie, barely competent on any level.
w Marc Rosenberg d Jeffrey Reiner
ph Feliks Parnell m Vinny Golia pd Stuart Blatt ed Virginia Katz ☆ Jeff Fahey, Lisa B., Heather Medway, Anthony Palermo, Kathleen Noone, Jack Kehler, Patrick Bauchau, Taylor Nichols

Serpico ★
US 1973 130m Technicolor
Paramount/Artists Entertainment Complex/Dino de Laurentiis (Martin Bregman)
A New York cop reveals police corruption and is eventually forced to leave the country.
A harrowing true story played with authentic gloom and violence.
w Waldo Salt, Norman Wexler book Peter Maas d Sidney Lumet ph Arthur J. Ornitz m Mikis Theodorakis
☆ Al Pacino, John Randolph, Jack Kehoe, Biff McGuire
'There's nothing seriously wrong with Serpico except that it's unmemorable, and not even terribly interesting while it's going on.' – Stanley Kauffmann script; Al Pacino

The Servant ★★
GB 1963 116m bw
Elstree/Springbok (Joseph Losey, Norman Priggen)
A rich, ineffectual young man is gradually debased and overruled by his sinister manservant and his sexy 'sister'.
Acclaimed in many quarters on its first release, this downbeat melodrama now seems rather naïve and long drawn out; its surface gloss is undeniable, but the final orgy is more risible than satanic.
w Harold Pinter novel Robin Maugham d Joseph Losey ph Douglas Slocombe m Johnny Dankworth ☆ Dirk Bogarde, James Fox, Sarah Miles, Wendy Craig, Catherine Lacey, Richard Vernon
'Moodily suggestive, well acted, but petering out into a trickle of repetitious unmeaningful nastiness.' – John Simon
Dirk Bogarde; James Fox; Douglas Slocombe

Service De Luxe ★
US 1938 85m bw
Universal
Adventures of the members of a super-secretarial agency.
Very tolerable but uninspired comedy which doesn't really allow its acting talent full rein.
w Gertrude Purcell, Leonard Spigelgass
d Rowland V. Lee ph George Robinson
ad Jack Otterson ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Constance Bennett, Vincent Price, Charles Ruggles, Helen Broderick, Mischa Auer, Halliwell Hobbes
'A speedy comedy-drama ... will hold its own as a leadoff attraction in the keys.' – Variety

Service for Ladies
GB 1932 93m bw
Paramount (Alexander Korda)
US title: Reserved for Ladies
A waiter has a way with his rich lady clients.
Tenuous satirical comedy, a variation on the American silent The Grand Duchess and the Waiter.
w Eliot Crawshay-Williams, Lajos Biro novel The Head Waiter by Ernst Vajda
d Alexander Korda m Percival Mackey ad Alfred Junge ed Harold Young ☆ Leslie Howard, George Grossmith,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Benita Hume, Elizabeth Allan, Morton Selten, Cyril Ritchard, Martita Hunt, Merle Oberon

'Too talky and English for general American consumption.' – Variety

'The One Thing That Could Bring Them Together Is Revenge.'

Serving Sara

US/Germany 2002 99m DeLuxe
Paramount/Mandalay1/Illusion/Halsted

A subpoena server double-crosses a Texan millionaire when he is sent to serve divorce papers on the man's unsuspecting wife.
Farcical chase comedy with a coarse line in jokes and little else to recommend it.
w Jay Scherick, David Ronn d Reginald Hudlin ph Robert Brinkmann m Marcus Miller pd Rusty Smith ed Jim Miller
☆ Matthew Perry (Joe Tyler), Elizabeth Hurley (Sara Moore), Bruce Campbell (Gordon Moore), Amy Adams (Kate), Vincent Pastore (Tony), Cedric the Entertainer (Ray Harris), Jerry Stiller (Milton the Cop)

'Little more than a mall movie designed to kill time.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

Set It Off ★

US 1996 122m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/Peak (Dale Pollock, Oren Koules)

In Los Angeles, four women with money and other troubles become bank robbers.
Tough action film in a blaxploitation style updated with female bonding; quite fun in its regressive way.
w Kate Lanier, Takashi Bufford d F. Gary Gray ph Marc Reshovsky m Christopher Young pd Robb Wilson-King ed John Carter sp Tom Bellissimo
☆ Jada Pinkett, Queen Latifah, Vivica A. Fox, John C. McGinley, Kimberly Elise, Blair Underwood, Anna Maria Horsford

'Applies a gender twist to the familiar formula of hold-ups, car chases and shootouts, but makes many sacrifices to plausibility.' – George Perry

The Set Up ★★★

US 1949 72m bw
RKO (Richard Goldstone)

An ageing boxer refuses to throw his last fight, and is beaten up by gangsters.
One of the most brilliant little films noirs of the late forties; thoroughly studio-bound, yet evoking a brilliant feeling for time and place. Photography, direction, editing, acting are all of a piece.
w Art Cohn poem Joseph Moncure March d Robert Wise ph Milton Krasner md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Jack Okey ed Roland Gross
☆ Robert Ryan (Bill "Stoker" Thompson), Audrey Totter (Julie), George Tobias (Tiny), Alan Baxter (Little Boy), Wallace Ford (Gus), Percy Helton (Red)

La Setta: see The Sect

The Settlement

Australia 1983 100m colour
Queensland Film Corporation/Robert Bruning

In Queensland in the 1950s, two drifters outrage locals when they set up house with a prostitute.
Small, enjoyable movie, with the accent on character and humour.
w Ted Roberts d Howard Rubie ph Ernest Clark m Sven Libaek ad John Watson ed Henry Dangar ☆ Bill Kerr, John Jarratt, Lorna Lesley, Tony Barry, Katy Wild, David Downer, Elaine Cusick, Alan Cassell

Seul contre Tous ★

France 1998 81m colour 'Scope
Alliance/Cinémas de la Zone/Lovestreams/CNC (Gaspar Noé)
aka: I Stand Alone

An unemployed butcher beats up his pregnant mistress and returns to his haunts in the slums of Paris to seek work, and to be reunited with the mute daughter he abandoned.
Bleak study in alienation that uses shock tactics – sudden pans or zooms and a percussive soundtrack, a warning towards the end that you have 30 seconds to leave the cinema – to keep its audience alert. It is impressive in demonstrating how much can be achieved with minimal means, but the ending is a cop-out, and, like Zola, Noé piles up the malignancies until they become unintentionally funny.
wd Gaspar Noé ph Dominique Colin
ed Lucille Hadzihalilovic, Gasper Noé
☆ Philippe Nahon, Frankye Pain, Blandine Lenoir, Martine Audrain

'Probes as relentlessly into the psychology of nihilism as any movie has ever attempted.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

'An ultra-widescreen slice of jaundice that creates its own unrelentingly tawdry, hermetic universe.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

† Excerpts from a pornographic film being watched by the protagonist were shown blurred in the UK version.

Seunlau Ngaklau: see Time and Tide

'Seven deadly sins. Seven ways to die.'

Seven ★★★

US 1995 127m DeLuxe Panavision
Entertainment/New Line (Arnold Kopelson, Phyllis Carlyle)

A detective nearing retirement and his temperamental young replacement track down a serial killer who is working his way through the seven deadly sins.
A tense, involving thriller that rises above the somewhat predictable schematics of its screenplay and its central situation to reach a surprisingly downbeat conclusion; it depicts the city as a paradise lost, and its inhabitants as mostly beyond redemption.
w Andrew Kevin Walker d David Fincher ph Darius Khondji m Howard Shore pd Arthur Max ad Gary Wissner ed Richard Francis-Bruce
☆ Brad Pitt (Detective David Mills), Morgan Freeman (Lieutenant William Somerset), Richard Roundtree (Talbot), R. Lee Ermey (Police Captain), John C. McGinley (California), Julie Araskog (Mrs. Gould), Kevin Spacey (John Doe), Gwyneth Paltrow (Tracy)

'Dark, grim and terrific ... this weirdly off-kilter suspenser goes well beyond the usual police procedural or killer-on-the-rampage yarn.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Richard Francis-Bruce

Seven Angry Men ★

US 1954 90m bw
Allied Artists (Vincent M. Fennelly)

In Kansas, John Brown determines to abolish slavery by violence.
Low-budget, intensely felt little biopic of the celebrated 19th-century fanatic and his sons.
w Daniel B. Ullman d Charles Marquis Warren ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Carl Brandt
☆ Raymond Massey, Jeffrey Hunter, Larry Pennell, Debra Paget, Leo Gordon, John Smith, James Best, Dennis Weaver

Seven Beauties ★

Italy 1975 115m Technicolor
Medusa (Lina Wertmuller, Giancarlo Giannini, Arrigo Colombo)

original title: Pasqualino Settebellezze

An incorrigible survivor manages to get through the rigours of World War II and scarcely notices the damage to his honour.
Candide-like mixture of farce and satire with the addition of a good deal of unpleasantness. Less meaningful abroad than on its home ground.
wd Lina Wertmüller ph Tonino Delli Colli m Enzo Jannacci
☆ Giancarlo Giannini, Fernando Rey, Shirley Stoler, Piero di Iorio

'A stunning piece of work. Wertmüller proves here more brilliantly than before she is a somewhat erratic but individual, strong, fierce talent.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Lina Wertmüller (as writer and as director); best foreign film; Giancarlo Giannini

'I now pronounce you – men and wives!'

Seven Brides for Seven Brothers ★★

US 1954 104m Anscocolor Cinemascope
MGM (Jack Cummings)

In the Old West, seven hard-working brothers decide they need wives, and carry off young women from the villages around.
Disappointingly studio-bound Western musical, distinguished by an excellent score and some brilliant dancing, notably the barn-raising sequence.
w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett story Sobbin' Women by Stephen Vincent Benet d Stanley Donen ph George Folsey m Adolph Deutsch, Saul Chaplin ch Michael Kidd ed Ralph E. Winters songs Johnny Mercer, Gene de Paul ☆ Howard Keel, Jane Powell, Jeff Richards, Russ Tamblyn, Tommy Rall, Howard Petrie, Marc Platt, Jacques d'Amboise, Matt Mattox

'It does have a plot, it does have imagination, it fairly explodes into life, and many discerning people will find the dance arrangements – exact, insidious, acrobatic, graceful, slipped in as if they were a natural development of the story – wildly exciting.' – C. A. Lejeune

Adolph Deutsch, Saul Chaplin best picture; script; George Folsey; editing

Seven Chances ★★

US 1925 69m (24 fps) bw silent
Buster Keaton/Joseph M. Schenck

A meek young man finds that he is to inherit seven million dollars if he is married within a few hours.
Slim and rather slow comedy which builds to a fine climax as the hero is pursued first by hordes of women and then by rolling boulders.
w Clyde Bruckman, Jean Havez, Joseph A. Mitchell play Roi Cooper Megrue
d Buster Keaton ph Elgin Lessley, Byron Houck
☆ Buster Keaton, Ruth Dwyer, Ray Barnes, Snitz Edwards

† The rocks sequence, which makes the film, was added only after a disappointing sneak preview.

'The sword and the cross battle for California's soul!'

Seven Cities of Gold ★

US 1955 103m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Robert D. Webb, Barbara McLean)

In 1796, a Spanish expedition sets out from Mexico to annex California, but with it goes Father Junipero Serra ..
A semi-historical, semi-religious Western which ends up not being much of anything but has interesting sequences.
w Richard L. Breen, John C. Higgins novel Isabelle Gibson Ziegler d Robert D. Webb ph Lucien Ballard m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Michael Rennie, Richard Egan, Anthony Quinn, Rita Moreno, Jeffrey Hunter, Eduardo Noriega, John Doucette

Seven Days in May ★★★

US 1964 120m bw
Seven Arts/Joel/John Frankenheimer (Edward Lewis)

An American general's aide discovers that his boss intends a military takeover because he considers the President's pacifism traitorous.
Absorbing political mystery drama marred only by the unnecessary introduction of a female character. Stimulating entertainment.
w Rod Serling novel Fletcher Knebel, Charles W. Bailey II d John Frankenheimer ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Jerry Goldsmith ad Cary Odell ed Ferris Webster
☆ Kirk Douglas (Col. Martin "Jiggs" Casey), Burt Lancaster (Gen. James M. Scott), Fredric March (President Jordan Lyman), Ava Gardner (Eleanor Holbrook), Martin Balsam (Paul Girard), Edmond O'Brien (Sen. Raymond Clark), George Macready (Christopher Todd), John Houseman (Adm. Barnswell)

'A political thriller which grips from start to finish.' – Penelope Houston

'It is to be enjoyed without feelings of guilt, there should be more movies like it, and there is nothing first class about it.' – John Simon

'In the best tradition of the suspense thriller, with the ultimate thrill our awareness of its actual potential.' – Judith Crist

'An entertainment, in Graham Greene's sense of the word, and an intelligent one.' – MFB

† In 1994, it was remade as a TV movie, The Enemy Within, starring Forest Whitaker and Sam Waterston.

Edmond O'Brien

Seven Days Leave

US 1929 83m bw
Paramount (Louis D. Lighton)
GB title: Medals

A London charlady 'adopts' a soldier, and both their lives are changed.
Sentimental melodrama which suited the times and confirmed Cooper's stardom.
w John Farrow, Dan Totheroh play The Old Lady Shows Her Medals by J. M. Barrie
d Richard Wallace ph Charles Lang
☆ Gary Cooper, Beryl Mercer, Daisy Belmore, Nora Cecil, Tempe Piggott, Arthur Hoyt, Basil Radford

Seven Days Leave

US 1942 87m bw
RKO (Tim Whelan)

In order to inherit a hundred thousand dollars, a soldier must marry within a week.

Cheerful frivolity featuring radio stars of the time.
w William Bowers, Ralph Spence, Curtis Kenyon, Kenneth Earl d Tim Whelan ph Robert de Grasse md Roy Webb songs Frank Loesser, Jimmy McHugh ☆ Lucille Ball, Victor Mature, Harold Peary, Mary Cortes, Ginny Simms, Ralph Edwards, Peter Lind Hayes, Marcy McGuire, Wallace Ford

Seven Days to Noon ★★

GB 1950 94m bw
London Films (Roy Boulting)
A professor engaged on atomic research threatens to blow up London unless his work is brought to an end.
Persuasively understated suspense piece which was subsequently much copied, so that it now seems rather obvious.
w Frank Harvey, Roy Boulting, Paul Dehn, James Bernard d John Boulting ph Gilbert Taylor m John Addison ☆ Barry Jones, Olive Sloane, André Morell, Joan Hickson, Sheila Manahan, Hugh Cross, Ronald Adam, Marie Ney
'A first rate thriller that does not pretend to a serious message, but yet will leave a query in the mind.' – Richard Winnington
'A film of great tension and excitement with a climax that is reached after breathless suspense.' – Star
🏆 Paul Dehn, James Bernard (motion picture story)

The Seven Deadly Sins ★

France/Italy 1952 150m bw
Franco London/Costellazione
The master of ceremonies introduces seven stories and an epilogue.
Among the most successful compendiums of its kind, partly because of cast and credits and partly because it came when French naughtiness was appealing to a wide international audience.
w Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, Roberto Rossellini, Leo Joannon, Carlo Rim, Diego Fabbri, Liana Ferri, Eduardo de Filippo, Charles Spaak, Turi Vaselle, René Wheeler d Eduardo de Filippo, Jean Dréville, Yves Allégret, Roberto Rossellini, Carlo Rim, Claude Autant-Lara, Georges Lacombe
☆ Gérard Philipe, Isa Miranda, Eduardo de Filippo, Noel-Noel, Louis de Funès, Viviane Romance, Frank Villard, Henri Vidal, Michèle Morgan, Françoise Rosay

Seven Different Ways: see Quick Let's Get Married

Seven Faces of Dr Lao ★

US 1964 100m Metrocolor
MGM/George Pal
An elderly Chinaman with a penchant for spectacular disguise solves the problems of a Western desert town.
A pleasant idea and excellent production are submerged in a sloppily sentimental and verbose script.
w Charles Beaumont novel The Circus of Dr Lao by Charles G. Finney d George Pal ph Robert Bronner m Leigh Harline make-up William Tuttle
☆ Tony Randall, Arthur O'Connell, John Ericson, Barbara Eden, Noah Beery Jnr, Lee Patrick, Minerva Urecal, John Qualen

Seven Footsteps to Satan

US 1929 70m bw
Warner
A rich recluse plays an elaborate and macabre joke on his niece and nephew.
Richly-designed but dramatically disappointing haunted house spoof.
w Richard Bee d Benjamin Christensen
☆ Thelma Todd, Creighton Hale, Sheldon Lewis, Ivan Christie, Sojin

Seven Golden Men ★

Italy/France/Spain 1965 91m Eastmancolor
Atlantica/PUF/Asfilm/Warner
Seven master criminals plot to rob a bank of its gold.
Simple-minded but slickly handled caper story with many visual pleasures.
wd Marco Vicario
☆ Rossana Podesta, Philippe Leroy, Gastone Moschin, Gabriele Tinti
† A sequel, Seven Golden Men Strike Again, was less successful.

Seven Hills of Rome

US/Italy 1957 104m Technirama
MGM/Titanus (Lester Welch)
An American singer in Italy is pursued by the fiancée with whom he has quarrelled.
Thin travelogue with several halts for the star to sing; production very patchy.
w Art Cohn, Giorgio Prosperi d Roy Rowland ph Tonino Delli Colli md George Stoll ☆ Mario Lanza, Renato Rascel, Marisa Allasio, Peggie Castle

711 Ocean Drive ★

US 1950 102m bw
Columbia (Frank N. Seltzer)
A wireless expert is drawn into the bookie racket.
Overlong but vigorous crime exposé melodrama with excellent location sequences, notably a climax on Hoover Dam.
w Richard English, Francis Swann d Joseph M. Newman ph Franz Planer m Sol Kaplan ☆ Edmond O'Brien, Joanne Dru, Otto Kruger, Don Porter, Sammy White, Dorothy Patrick, Barry Kelley, Howard St John

Seven Keys to Baldpate ★

US 1935 69m bw
RKO
A novelist retiring to a lonely inn for inspiration finds it full of criminals and damsels in distress.
An old theatrical warhorse with a trick ending, also filmed in 1929 (with Richard Dix; Variety said 'it all happens like a synopsis of what might have occurred') and in 1947 with Philip Terry. There was also a horror variation in 1982, House of the Long Shadows (qv). None was as satisfying as a good stage production.
play George M. Cohan story Earl Derr Biggers d William Hamilton, Edward Killy ph Robert de Grasse
☆ Gene Raymond, Margaret Callahan, Eric Blore, Grant Mitchell, Moroni Olsen, Henry Travers
'Too much conversation and too little action.' – Variety
† The 1935 version at least will be found to have lost its trick ending, without which it ends lamely. A curious executive decision.

The Seven Little Foys ★

US 1955 95m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount (Jack Rose)
The story of a family vaudeville act.
Routine showbiz biopic, a little heavy on the syrup.
w Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose d Melville Shavelson ph John F. Warren md Joseph J. Lilley
☆ Bob Hope, Milly Vitale, George Tobias, Angela Clarke, Herbert Heyes, James Cagney (George M. Cohan)
† Milly Vitale's singing was dubbed by Viola Vonn.
🏆 script

Seven Men from Now

US 1956 78m Warnercolor
Batjac (Andrew V. McLaglen, Robert E. Morrison)
A sheriff seeks revenge when his wife is killed by bandits.
Good Western programmer.
w Burt Kennedy d Budd Boetticher ph William H. Clothier m Henry Vars
☆ Randolph Scott, Gail Russell, Lee Marvin, Walter Reed, Don Barry, John Larch

Seven Miles from Alcatraz

US 1942 62m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)
Prison escapees take over an offshore lighthouse.
Compact melodrama with the lifers heroically catching spies.
w Joseph Krumgold, John D. Klorer d Edward Dmytryk
☆ James Craig, Bonita Granville, Frank Jenks, Cliff Edwards, George Cleveland, Tala Birell, John Banner

The Seven Minutes

US 1971 102m DeLuxe
TCF (Russ Meyer)
A bookseller is arrested for distributing an obscene novel, and many people are unexpectedly involved in the court case.
A fascinating piece of old-fashioned hokum, full of 'daring' words and cameo performances.
w Richard Warren Lewis novel Irving Wallace d Russ Meyer ph Fred Mandl m Stu Phillips
☆ Wayne Maunder, Marianne MacAndrew, Yvonne de Carlo, Phil Carey, Jay C. Flippen, Edy Williams, Lyle Bettger, Ron Randell, David Brian, Charles Drake, John Carradine, Harold J. Stone

Seven Nights in Japan

GB/France 1976 104m Eastmancolor
EMI-Marianne (Lewis Gilbert)
The heir to the British throne has shore leave in Tokyo and falls in love with a geisha.
Tediously daring romance with a banal script which seems over impressed by its own barely-existent controversial qualities.
w Christopher Wood d Lewis Gilbert ph Henri Decaë m David Hentschel
☆ Michael York, Hidemi Aoki, James Villiers, Peter Jones, Charles Gray

The Seven Per Cent Solution

US 1976 114m Technicolor
Universal (Herbert Ross)
Dr Watson lures Sherlock Holmes to Vienna so that Professor Freud can cure him of persecution complex and cocaine addiction.
Drearily serious spoof with only a glimmer of the required style and a totally miscast Holmes.
w Nicholas Meyer novel Nicholas Meyer d Herbert Ross ph Oswald Morris m John Addison pd Ken Adam ☆ Nicol Williamson, Robert Duvall, Alan Arkin, Vanessa Redgrave, Laurence Olivier, Jeremy Kemp, Samantha Eggar, Joel Grey, Charles Gray, Georgia Brown, Regine
'Sorrily botched all-star extravaganza.' – Sight and Sound
'Comes into the category of hit and myth ... A heavyweight spoof in which Sherlock Holmes is placed under hypnosis by Sigmund Freud. The audience is then placed under hypnosis by director Herbert Ross.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
🏆 script

The Seven Samurai ★★★★

Japan 1954 155m bw
Toho (Shojiro Motoki)
original title: Shichi-nin no Samurai
16th-century villagers hire samurai to defend their property against an annual raid by bandits.
Superbly strange, vivid and violent medieval adventure which later served as the basis for the Western The Magnificent Seven and the science-fiction film Battle Beyond the Stars.
w Akira Kurosawa, Shinobu Hashimoto, Hideo Oguni d Akira Kurosawa ph Asaichi Nakai m Fumio Hayasaka ad Takashi Matsuyama ed Akira Kurosawa
☆ Toshiro Mifune (Kikuchiyo), Takashi Shimura (Kambei), Kuninori Kodo (Gisaku), Yoshio Inaba (Gorobei), Seji Miyaguchi (Kyuzo), Minoru Chiaki (Heihachi)
'It is as sheer narrative, rich in imagery, incisiveness and sharp observation, that it makes its strongest impact ... It provides a fascinating display of talent, and places its director in the forefront of creative film-makers of his generation.' – Gavin Lambert, Sight and Sound
'This, on the surface, is a work of relentless, unmitigated action, as epic as any film ever made, and, again on the surface, sheer entertainment. Yet it is also an unquestionable triumph of art.' – John Simon
† A Region 1 DVD release has commentary by Japanese film expert Michael Jeck. A Region 2 DVD release has commentary on key scenes by film historian Philip Kemp.
🏆 art direction

Seven Seas to Calais

US/Italy 1962 103m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM/Adelphia (Paolo Moffa)
In 1577, Sir Francis Drake follows the Spanish treasure route.
Ho-hum swashbuckler with a background of schoolboy history.
w Filippo Sanjust d Rudolph Maté ph Giulio Gianini m Franco Mannino ☆ Rod Taylor, Keith Michell, Irene Worth, Anthony Dawson, Basil Dignam

Seven Sinners ★

GB 1936 70m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)
US title: Doomed Cargo
Gunrunners wreck trains to cover traces of murder.
Fascinatingly dated comedy suspenser with excellent sub-Hitchcock sequences, the whole thing having a strong flavour of The 39 Steps.
w Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, L. DuGarde Peach, Austin Melford play The Wrecker by Arnold Ridley, Bernard Merivale d Albert de Courville ph Mutz Greenbaum (Max Greene)
☆ Edmund Lowe, Constance Cummings, Thomy Bourdelle, Henry Oscar, Felix Aylmer, Allan Jeayes, O. B. Clarence

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · 🏆 Academy Award · 🏆 Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Seven Sinners ★

US 1940 86m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)

GB title: Café of Seven Sinners

A cabaret singer is deported from several South Sea islands for causing too many fights among the naval officers.

Ho-hum hokum with an amiable cast and a good-natured final free-for-all.

w John Meehan, Harry Tugend d Tay Garnett ph Rudolph Maté m Frank Skinner ad Jack Otterson ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Marlene Dietrich, John Wayne, Albert Dekker, Broderick Crawford, Mischa Auer, Billy Gilbert, Oscar Homolka, Anna Lee, Samuel S. Hinds

'Nothing to worry about, unless you happen to be in the theatre, watching it go from fairly good to worse than worse.' – Otis Ferguson

Seven Sweethearts

US 1942 98m bw
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Seven daughters must marry in sequence, eldest first.

Period musical frou-frou inspired by Pride and Prejudice. So light it almost floats.

w Walter Reisch, Leo Townsend d Frank Borzage ph George Folsey m Franz Waxman

☆ Kathryn Grayson, Marsha Hunt, Van Heflin, Cecilia Parker, S. Z. Sakall, Peggy Moran, Isobel Elsom, Diana Lewis, Donald Meek, Louise Beavers

Seven Swords ★

Hong Kong/China/South Korea 2005 140m colour
Contender/Beijing Ciwen Film & TV/Boram/City Glory/Film Workshop (Tsui Hark, Lee Joo-ick, Ma Zhongjun, Pan Zhizhong)
original title: Qi Jian

After an imperial decree bans practitioners of martial arts, seven sword-wielding guardians protect a village from a rapacious bounty-hunting general and his army.

Spectacular, bloody martial arts epic; limbs are chopped off with abandon, but interest slackens when the action stops.

w Tsui Hark, Cheung Chi-sing, Chun Tin-nam novel Seven Swordsmen From Mount Tian by Liang Yu-sheng d Tsui Hark ph Keung Kwok-man m Kenji Kawai pd Eddy Wong ed Angie Lam cos Poon Wing-yan fight choreography Tung Wai, Xiong Xinxin, Lau Kar-wing

☆ Donnie Yen (Chu Zhaonan), Leon Lai (Yang Yunchong), Charlie Young (Wu Yuanyin), Sun Honglei (Fire-Wind), Lu Yi (Han Zhibang), Kim So-yeon (Green Pearl)

'Muddled, occasionally gripping but way overlong.' – Derek Elley, Variety

† The version shown at the 2005 Venice Film Festival ran for 151m. The director's cut ran for 180m.

Seven Thieves ★

US 1960 102m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Sidney Boehm)

An elderly crook conceives a last plan to rob the Monte Carlo casino.

Routine caper story, efficiently presented with some humour.

w Sydney Boehm novel Lions at the Kill by Max Catto d Henry Hathaway ph Sam Leavitt m Dominic Frontière

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Rod Steiger, Joan Collins, Eli Wallach, Michael Dante, Alexander Scourby, Berry Kroeger, Sebastian Cabot

'Christ, it was supposed to be a fun film, and Steiger is far, far from having a sense of humour.' – Henry Hathaway

Seven Thunders

GB 1957 100m bw
Rank (Daniel M. Angel)
US title: The Beasts of Marseilles

In wartime Marseilles, escaped POWs are helped by a doctor who turns out to have sinister intent.

Slow chiller which telegraphs its surprises but gets by on good production values.

w John Baines novel Rupert Croft-Cooke d Hugo Fregonese ph Wilkie Cooper m Antony Hopkins

☆ James Robertson Justice, Stephen Boyd, Kathleen Harrison, Anna Gaylor, Tony Wright, Eugene Deckers, Rosalie Crutchley

Seven Waves Away

GB 1956 95m bw
Columbia/Copa (John R. Sloan)
US title: Abandon Ship

After the sinking of a luxury liner, the officer in charge of a lifeboat has to make life or death decisions.

Initially gripping but finally depressing open sea melodrama derived from Souls at Sea and later remade for TV as The Last Survivors.

wd Richard Sale ph Wilkie Cooper m Arthur Bliss

☆ Tyrone Power, Mai Zetterling, Lloyd Nolan, Stephen Boyd, Moira Lister, James Hayter, Marie Lohr, Moultrie Kelsall, Noel Willman, Gordon Jackson, Clive Morton, John Stratton

'Eventually one is bludgeoned into a grudging admiration for the film's staying power.' – Peter John Dyer

'It jabs at your entrails with a cold unrelenting spear.' – New York Times

Seven Ways from Sundown

US 1960 87m Eastmancolor
Universal-International

A Texas Ranger befriends an outlaw, but has twinges of conscience.

Straightforward character Western with the inevitable shootout finale.

w Clair Huffaker d Harry Keller

☆ Audie Murphy, Barry Sullivan, Venetia Stevenson, John McIntire, Kenneth Tobey

'Love, lust, courage and cowardice! Faith, fury and sacrifice!'

Seven Women ★

US 1966 100m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/John Ford/Bernard Smith

In 1935, an isolated Chinese mission staffed by American women is overrun by bandits.

Dusty melodrama which might have appealed in the thirties but was quite out of tune with the sixties. Well enough made and acted, but a strange choice for Ford's last film.

w Janet Green, John McCormick story Chinese Finale by Norah Lofts d John Ford ph Joseph LaShelle m Elmer Bernstein

☆ Anne Bancroft, Flora Robson, Margaret Leighton, Sue Lyon, Mildred Dunnock, Betty Field, Anna Lee, Eddie Albert, Mike Mazurki, Woody Strode, Irene Tsu

The Seven Year Itch ★

US 1955 105m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Charles K. Feldman, Billy Wilder)

A married man has a fling with the girl upstairs.

An amusing theatrical joke, with dream sequences like revue sketches, is really all at sea on the big screen, especially as the affair remains unconsummated, but direction and performances keep the party going more or less.

w Billy Wilder, George Axelrod play George Axelrod d Billy Wilder ph Milton Krasner m Alfred Newman

☆ Tom Ewell, Marilyn Monroe, Sonny Tufts, Evelyn Keyes, Robert Strauss, Oscar Homolka, Marguerite Chapman, Victor Moore

'We didn't really make a very good picture.' – George Axelrod

Seven Years in Tibet ★

US 1997 139m Technicolor Panavision
Entertainment/Mandalay/Reperage and Vanguard/Applecross (Jean-Jacques Annaud, John H. Williams, Iain Smith)

Escaping from a British prisoner-of-war camp in India, an Austrian mountaineer makes it through the Himalayas to the forbidden Tibetan city of Lhasa, where he becomes friends with the Dalai Lama.

Uninvolving epic that looks much better than it sounds.

w Becky Johnston book Heinrich Harrer d Jean-Jacques Annaud ph Robert Fraisse m John Williams pd At Hoang ed Noëlle Boisson

☆ Brad Pitt, David Thewlis, B. D. Wong, Mako, Danny Denzongpa, Victor Wong, Ingeborga Dapkunaite, Jamyang Jamsho Wangchuk

'A glossy, good-natured travelogue with modest philosophical pretensions.' – Mark Kermode, Sight and Sound

'They take the third degree one step further!'

The Seven-Ups

US 1973 103m DeLuxe
TCF/Philip D'Antoni

Gangsters are hunted down by a secret force of the New York police.

Formulary realistic rough stuff in the wake of The French Connection.

w Albert Ruben, Alexander Jacobs d Philip D'Antoni ph Urs Furrer m Don Ellis

☆ Roy Scheider, Victor Arnold, Jerry Leon, Tony Lo Bianco, Richard Lynch

1732 Høtten

Norway/GB 1999 99m colour
United Media/Norsk/Merkurfilm (Tom Remlov)
aka: Bloody Angels

A detective meets with hostility when he goes to a small town to investigate the murder of a teenager suspected of raping and killing a girl with Down's syndrome.

Bleak drama of casual killing as icy at heart as its snowbound setting.

w Kjetil Indegaard d Karin Julsrud ph Philip Ogaard m Kjetil Bjerkestrand, Magne Furuholmen ed Sophie Hesselberg

☆ Reidar Sørensen (Nicholas Ramm), Gaute Skjegstad (Niklas Hartmann), Trond Høvik (Holger), Laila Goody (Victoria), Stig Henrik Hoff (Dwayne Karlson), Simon Norrthon (Cato)

'Crisply made crime thriller that makes excellent use of wintry locations in rural Norway... filled with sardonic humor and sharp observation.' – David Stratton, Variety

1776 ★

US 1972 141m Eastmancolor Panavision
Columbia/Jack L. Warner

The thirteen American colonies prepare to declare their independence of Great Britain.

Plain, low-key filming of the successful Broadway musical showing the domestic lives of the historical figures concerned. Splendid moments alternate with stretches of tedium.

w Peter Stone play Peter Stone d Peter Hunt ph Harry Stradling Jnr m/ly Sherman Edwards md Ray Heindorf ad George Jenkins

☆ William Daniels, Howard da Silva, Ken Howard, Donald Madden, Blythe Danner

♗ Harry Stradling Jnr

Seventh Cavalry

US 1956 75m Technicolor
Columbia (Harry Joe Brown)

An officer accused of cowardice volunteers to bring back General Custer's body after Little Big Horn.

Lively co-feature with a good traditional action climax.

w Peter Packer story Glendon F. Swarthout d Joseph H. Lewis ph Ray Rennahan m Mischa Bakaleinikoff

☆ Randolph Scott, Barbara Hale, Jay C. Flippen, Jeanette Nolan, Frank Faylen

The Seventh Cross ★★

US 1944 112m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

Seven Germans escape from a concentration camp, and the Nazis threaten to execute them all. Just one escapes.

Impressive melodrama, brilliantly limiting its escape/suspense story to studio sets. Old style Hollywood production at its best; but a rather obviously contrived story.

w Helen Deutsch novel Anna Seghers d Fred Zinnemann ph Karl Freund m Roy Webb ad Cedric Gibbons, Leonid Vasian

☆ Spencer Tracy, Signe Hasso, Hume Cronyn, Jessica Tandy, Agnes Moorehead, Felix Bressart, George Macready, George Zucco

♗ Hume Cronyn

The Seventh Curse

Hong Kong 1986 93m colour
Paragon (Leonard K. C. Ho)

A doctor seeks a cure for a deadly curse put upon him by a sorcerer after he saves a woman in Thailand from being sacrificed to a living skeleton.

Risible fantasy that begins as a violent action movie before it settles for a delirious mix of horror and science fiction, with low-budget monsters, lashings of gore and not much sense.

w I. Kuang d Lan Wei-tsang

☆ Chow Yun-Fat, Chin Siu Ho, Maggie Cheung, Dick Wei, Elvis Tsui

The Seventh Dawn

GB 1964 123m Technicolor
UA/Holden/Charles K. Feldman (Karl Tunberg)

In the early fifties a Malayan rubber planter finds that his best friend is a leading terrorist.

Doom-laden romantic adventure drama with a lot of suffering and too little entertainment value.

w Karl Tunberg novel The Durian Tree by Michael Keon d Lewis Gilbert ph Freddie Young m Riz Ortolani

☆ William Holden, Tetsuro Tamba, Capucine, Susannah York, Michael Goodliffe, Allan Cuthbertson, Maurice Denham

'Echoes of The Ugly American, Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing, and many another adventure East of Sumatra, with every character running absolutely true to form.' – MFB

'An interminable melange of political, racial and romantic clichés, with performances and dialogue as overripe as the jungle setting.' – Judith Crist, 1973

Seventh Day, Eighth Night ★★

Czechoslovakia 1969 108m bw
Filmowe Studio Barrandov (Vera Kadlecova) original title: Den Sedmy – Osma Noc

Following the disappearance of the station master, a village is panicked into believing that it is facing danger from an unknown enemy.

Savage, black political farce of intimidation and betrayal that was withheld for several years by the Czech authorities.

w Zdenek Mahler, Evald Schorm d Evald Schorm ph Vaclav Hanus m Jan Klusak pd Karel Lier

☆ Jaroslav Wagner-Kleuka, Jan Kacer, Jana Markova, Kveta Fialova, Ljuba Skorepova, Josef Bek

'Lovers Who Lift Your Heart To The Skies ... In The Tenderest Romance Of Our Time!'

Seventh Heaven ★★

US 1927 93m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Fox (William Fox)

A Paris sewer worker shelters a street waif, marries her and after idyllic happiness goes off to war, returning blinded.

All softness, sweetness and light, a very typical – and attractive – film of its director and a big influence on Hollywood's European period.

w Benjamin Glazer play Austin Strong d Frank Borzage ph Ernest Palmer, J. A. Valentine ad Harry Oliver

☆ Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, Gladys Brockwell, David Butler

Benjamin Glazer; Frank Borzage; Janet Gaynor

best picture; Harry Oliver

Seventh Heaven ★

US 1937 102m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

Dewy-eyed remake; the mood is antediluvian but the production impresses.

w Melville Baker d Henry King ph Merritt Gerstad md Louis Silvers ad William Darling

☆ James Stewart, Simone Simon, Jean Hersholt, Gale Sondergaard, J. Edward Bromberg, Gregory Ratoff, John Qualen, Victor Kilian, Sig Rumann, Mady Christians

'A romance that can stand another telling ... the older element will join in making it a bracer for the box office.' – Variety

The Seventh Seal ★★★★

Sweden 1957 95m bw
Svensk Filmindustri (Allan Ekelund)

original title: Det Sjunde Inseglet

Death comes for a knight, who challenges him to a game of chess while he tries to show illustrations of goodness in mankind: but Death takes them all away in the end.

A modestly budgeted minor classic which, because of its international success and its famous shots, is seldom analysed in detail. It is kept going by its splendid cinematic feel and its atmosphere is that of a dark world irrationally sustained by religion.

wd Ingmar Bergman ph Gunnar Fischer m Erik Nordgren pd P. A. Lundgren ed Lennart Wallen cos Manne Lindholm

☆ Max von Sydow (Antonius Block), Bengt Ekerot (Death), Gunnar Bjornstrand (Jons), Nils Poppe (Jof), Bibi Andersson (Mia), Gunnel Lindblom (Girl)

'The most extraordinary mixture of beauty and lust and cruelty, Odin-worship and Christian faith, darkness and light.' – Alan Dent, Illustrated London News

'You know where they dance along the horizon? We'd packed up for the evening and were about to go home. Suddenly I saw a cloud, and Fischer swung his camera up. Some actors had gone, so grips had to stand in. The whole scene was improvised in ten minutes flat.' – Ingmar Bergman

† A Region 1 DVD release has commentary by film historian Peter Cowie

The Seventh Sign

US 1988 95m colour
Columbia Tri-Star/Interscope (Ted Field, Robert Cort)

A pregnant mother fears that the birth of her baby will signal the end of the world.

Apocalyptic thriller that is too silly to be enjoyable on any level.

w Clifford Green, Ellen Green d Carl Schultz ph Juan Ruiz-Anchia m Jack Nitzsche pd Stephen Marsh ed Caroline Biggerstaff

☆ Jürgen Prochnow, Demi Moore, Michael Biehn, Peter Friedman, John Taylor, John Heard

The Seventh Sin

US 1957 94m bw Cinemascope
MGM (David Lewis)

A faithless wife accompanies her bacteriologist husband to fight a Chinese cholera epidemic, and regains her self-respect.

Tatty remake of a Garbo vehicle which was dated even in 1934. (See The Painted Veil.)

w Karl Tunberg novel The Painted Veil by Somerset Maugham d Ronald Neame ph Ray June m Miklos Rozsa

☆ Eleanor Parker, Bill Travers, George Sanders, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Françoise Rosay

The Seventh Veil ★★

GB 1945 94m bw
Theatrecraft/Sydney Box/Ortus

A concert pianist is romantically torn between her psychiatrist, her guardian, and two other fellows.

A splendid modern melodrama in the tradition of Jane Eyre and Rebecca*; it set the seal of moviegoing approval on psychiatry, classical music, and James Mason, and it is the most utter tosh.*

w Muriel and Sydney Box d Compton Bennett ph Reg Wyer m Benjamin Frankel

☆ James Mason, Ann Todd, Herbert Lom, Albert Lieven, Hugh McDermott, Yvonne Owen, David Horne, Manning Whiley

'An example of the intelligent, medium-priced picture made with great technical polish which has represented for Hollywood the middle path between the vulgar and the highbrow.' – Spectator

'A popular film that does not discard taste and atmosphere.' – Daily Mail

'A rich, portentous mixture of Beethoven, Chopin, Kitsch and Freud.' – Pauline Kael, 1968

'An odd, artificial, best sellerish kind of story, with reminiscences of Trilby and Jane Eyre and all their imitations down to Rebecca.' – Richard Mallett, Punch

'Maybe, with a few veils stripped away, all of us have a fantasist inside who gobbles up this sadomasochistic sundae.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Muriel and Sydney Box

The Seventh Victim ★

US 1943 71m bw
RKO (Val Lewton)

A girl goes to New York in search of her sister, who is under the influence of Satanists.

Much praised but in effect rather boring little thriller, with rather stately acting and ponderous direction and dialogue. Censorship made the plot so obscure that it's difficult to follow.

w Charles O'Neal, De Witt Bodeen d Mark Robson ph Nicholas Musuraca m Constantin Bakaleinikoff

☆ Kim Hunter, Tom Conway, Jean Brooks, Hugh Beaumont, Erford Gage, Isabel Jewell, Evelyn Brent

'It is the almost oppressive mood, the romantic obsession with death-in-life, which dominates the film.' – NFT, 1973

† Note the use in the first scene of the staircase from The Magnificent Ambersons.

The Seventh Voyage of Sinbad ★

US 1958 89m Technicolor
Columbia/Morningside (Charles Schneer)

Sinbad seeks a roc's egg which will restore his fiancée from the midget size to which an evil magician has reduced her.

Lively fantasy with narrative drive and excellent effects.

w Kenneth Kolb d Nathan Juran ph Wilkie Cooper m Bernard Herrmann sp Ray Harryhausen

☆ Kerwin Mathews, Kathryn Grant, Torin Thatcher, Richard Eyer, Alec Mango

Several Interviews on Personal Problems ★★

USSR 1979 94m colour
Gruziafilm

original title: Neskolko Intervyu Po Lichnyam Voprosam

A busy journalist spends her time sorting out other people's problems while failing to solve her own domestic difficulties.

Interspersed with interviews with Soviet women on their lives, it provides a compassionate, witty look at the situation of women in Russia.

w Zaira Arsenishvili, Erlom Akhviediani, Lana Gogoberidze d Lana Gogoberidze ph Nugzar Erkomaishvili m Gia Kanchell

☆ Sofiko Chiaureli, Gia Badridze, Ketevan Orakhelashvili, Janri Lolashvili, Salome Kancheli, Ketevan Bochorishvili, Noutsa Alexi-Meskhshvili

'Another bloody office outing.'

Severance ★★ (6)

UK/Germany 2006 95m
Pathe/Dan Films/Qwerty Films (Jason Newmark)

An employee team-building exercise in Romania goes horribly wrong when arms dealers are savagely hunted down by a war-crazed assailant intent on bloody revenge

A post-modern 'Deliverance' (qv), neatly threading gut-wrenching gore through comic dynamics for offbeat fun and frights.

w James Moran, Christopher Smith d Christopher Smith ph Ed Wild m Christian Henson pd John Frankish ad Lucinda Thomson ed Stuart Gazzard sp Richard Darwin

☆ Toby Stephens (Harris), Andy Nyman (Gordon), Danny Dyer (Steve), Laura Harris (Maggie), Claudie Blakley (Jill), Tim McInnerney (Richard), Babou Ceesay (Billy)

'A lively romp through terrain less travelled than you might think.' – Jeannette Catsoulis – The New York Times

A Severed Head ★

GB 1970 98m Technicolor
Columbia/Winkast (Alan Ladd Jnr)

A wine merchant has a long-standing affair which he thinks is secret, but is annoyed when his wife tries the same game.

Unwisely boisterous screen version of a slyly academic novel; tolerably sophisticated for those who don't know the original.

w Frederic Raphael novel Iris Murdoch d Dick Clement ph Austin Dempster m Stanley Myers pd Richard Macdonald

☆ Lee Remick, Richard Attenborough, Ian Holm, Claire Bloom, Jennie Linden, Clive Revill

Severed Ties

US 1991 90m colour
Fangoria Films (Christopher Webster)

A mad, mother-dominated scientist grows himself a new arm from plasma taken from a serial killer and a lizard, with predictable results.

Unbelievably cheap, would-be comic horror, by far the worst film its two stars have ever made (and they have appeared in some appalling ones), devoid of style or invention, and taking its plot from half a dozen better movies.

w John Nystrom, Henry Dominic story Damon Santostefano, David A. Casci d Damon Santostefano ph Geza Sincovics m Daniel Licht pd Don Day ed Richard Roberts sp KNB Effects

☆ Oliver Reed, Elke Sommer, Garrett Morris, Johnny Legend, Denise Wallace, Roger Perkovich, Bekki Vallin, Billy Morrisette

'Combo of grotesque gore effects and over-the-top acting is a winning one.' – Variety

Sex and Lucia ★

Spain 2001 129m colour
Metro Tartan/Sogecine/Alicia (Fernando Bovaira, Enrique Lopez Lavigne)

aka: Lucia y El Sexo

After her novelist-lover disappears, a waitress visits an island he knew and forms relationships with friends and lovers from his earlier life.

A steamy, overtly sexual movie, married to a sometimes incoherent narrative, all flashbacks and coincidences, that may or may not be the creation of the writer at the centre of a confusion of love affairs; it's best to lie back and think of very little to gain the maximum enjoyment.

wd Julio Medem ph Kiko de la Rica m Alberto Iglesias ad Montse Sanz ed Ivan Aledo

☆ Paz Vega (Lucia), Tristan Ulloa (Lorenzo), Najwa Nimri (Elena), Daniel Freire (Carlos/Antonio), Elena Anaya (Belen), Silvia Llanos (Luna), Javier Camara (Pepe)

'The kind of trifle that date nights were invented for.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

'Medem strains madly for cosmic alliances, fairy-tale imagery, and fated coincidences, but he triumphs only with two hot bodies, a cluttered apartment, and a Shower Massage.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice

Sex and the Single Girl

US 1964 114m Technicolor
Warner/Richard Quine/Reynard (William T. Orr)

A journalist worms his way into the life of a lady sexologist in order to unmask her – but guess what.

Coy sex comedy with noise substituting for wit and style, all pretence being abandoned in a wild chase climax.
w Joseph Heller, David R. Schwartz book Helen Gurley Brown d Richard Quine ph Charles Lang Jnr m Neal Hefti
☆ Natalie Wood, Tony Curtis, Henry Fonda, Lauren Bacall, Mel Ferrer, Fran Jeffries, Edward Everett Horton, Otto Kruger
'For those willing to devote two hours of their lives to a consideration of Natalie Wood's virginity.' – Judith Crist, 1973

Sex and the Vampire: see Le Frisson des Vampires

Sex is Comedy

France 2002 94m colour
Artificial Eye/Flach/CB/Arte France (Jean-Francis Lepetit)

A female director struggles to get a scene of sexual intercourse on film.
Pedantic movie on the subject of sex, a topic which gives Breillat logorrhea.
wd Catherine Breillat ph Laurent Machuel ad Frederique Belveaux ed PascaleChavance
☆ Anne Parillaud (Jeanne), Gregoire Colin (The Actor), Roxane Mesquida (The Actress), Ashley Wanninger (Leo), Dominique Colladant (Willy), Bart Binnema (Director of Photography), Elisabete Piecho (Continuity Girl)
'Introduces a fresh subset of navel-gazing nobody had been clamoring to see.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety
'Profoundly humourless, uncompromisingly pompous.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

sex, lies and videotape ★★

US 1989 100m CFI color
Virgin/Outlaw Productions (Robert Newmyer, John Hardy)

An old college friend, who likes to videotape interviews with women about their sexual experiences, visits a couple whose marriage is in difficulties.
Witty, intelligent conversation piece that won the Palme D'Or for best film at the Cannes Film Festival.
wd Steven Soderbergh ph Walt Lloyd m Cliff Martinez ad Joanne Schmidt ed Steve Soderbergh ☆ James Spader, Andie MacDowell, Peter Gallagher, Laura San Giacomo, Ron Vawter
best original screenplay

Sex Life in a Convent: see Behind Convent Walls

The Sex Life of a Female Private Eye: see Big Zapper

Sex Lives of the Potato Men

GB 2003 82m DeLuxe
Entertainment/UK Film Council/EFDL/Devotion (Anita Overland)

In Birmingham, three men delivering potatoes to chip shops have disastrous sex lives.
The most critically reviled British comedy of modern times may be an accurate reflection of the life many live today, but it's a coarse, unlovely thing for all that, with few jokes and a sniggering attitude to sex.
wd Andy Humphries ph Andy Collins m Super Preachers pd Patrick Lyndon-Stanford, Adam Zoltowski ed Guy Bensley ☆ Johnny Vegas (Dave), Mackenzie Crook (Ferris), Mark Gatiss (Jeremy), Dominic Coleman (Tolly), Julia Davis (Shelley), Lucy Davis (Ruth)
'A masterclass in film-making ineptitude, a squalid waste of lottery money... sump of untreated dung.' – James Christopher, Times
'A film about coitus at its most squalid and undignified, which might be why it stars the fattest man and the thinnest man in British comedy.' – Nicholas Barber, Independent
'I took the stupidity of men and made a stupid cartoon film vision of it... I may be deluding myself, but I think the real reason my film has had so much attention is that it shows the type of bodies and the class of people that are almost never shown having sex in the movies.' – Andy Humphries
† The film found an audience, taking £674,000 at the UK box-office.

'His fantasy was a great idea, until she liked it... a lot.'

The Sex Monster

US 1999 97m colour
Trimark/Sun-Lite (Jack Binder, Scott Stephens)

An LA businessman persuades his wife to try three-in-a-bed and lives to regret it.
A thin farce of a man who gets both more, and less, than he bargained for.
wd Mike Binder ph Keith Smith pd Katie Lipsitt ed Lee Grubin cos Caroline B. Marx
☆ Mariel Hemingway (Laura Barnes), Mike Binder (Marty Barnes), Renee Humphrey (Didi), Taylor Nichols (Billy), Missy Crider (Diva), Stephen Baldwin (Murphy), Christopher Lawford (Dave Pembroke), Joanna Heimbold (Evie Pembroke), Kevin Pollak (Dr Berman)
'A cheesy, obvious farce that is funnier than it has any right to be.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Sex: The Annabel Chong Story ★★

US/Canada 1999 87m
Metrodome/Coffee House/Omni/Greycat (Hugh F. Curry, Dave Whitten, Gough Lewis)

Grace Quek, a student at the University of Southern California works in pornographic films under the name of Annabel Chong and sets a new record by having sex with 251 men in ten hours, while being filmed for a video The World's Biggest Gang Bang. Later, her record is broken by another porn star who has sex with 300 men.
Disturbing documentary, and not so much for its content as for its portrait of a self-deluded and, by the end, unhappy woman who allows herself to be exploited in the belief that her actions will empower her and make her free.
d Gough Lewis ph Jim Michaels, Kelly Morris, Gough Lewis, Tony Morone m Peter Mundinger ed Kelly Morris ☆ Grace Quek/Annabel Chong
'This is art cinema that gets into bed with porn but keeps one foot on the floor.' – Linda Ruth Williams, Sight and Sound

The Sex Thief

GB 1973 89m Eastmancolor
LMG/Ocarina/Drumbeat/Rainbow (Michael Style, Teddy White)

A writer turns cat burglar by night, making love to the women he robs.
Low-budget sex quickie, better acted and with brighter dialogue than average for the genre.
w Edward Hyde (Michael Armstrong) d Martin Campbell ph Grenville Middleton m Mike Vickers ad Anthony Noble ed Rex Graves
☆ David Warbeck, Diane Keen, Terence Edmond, Linda Coombes, Michael Armstrong, Christopher Neil, Christopher Biggins, James Aubrey
'Tawdry, ridiculous fare, only marginally redeemed by its own self-mocking humour.' – Sight and Sound

Sextette ★

US 1978 91m Metrocolor
Briggs and Sullivan (Warren G. Toub)

The honeymoon of a Hollywood film star is interrupted by her previous husbands.
An amazing last stab at her old métier by an 86-year-old ex-star. It doesn't work, of course, and most of it is embarrassing, but the attempt is in itself remarkable.
w Herbert Baker play Mae West d Ken Hughes ph James Crabe m Artie Butler
☆ Mae West, Tony Curtis, Ringo Starr, Dom DeLuise, Timothy Dalton, George Hamilton, Alice Cooper, Rona Barrett, Walter Pidgeon, George Raft

Sexton Blake and the Hooded Terror

GB 1938 70m bw
George King

A millionaire is unmasked as the head of a criminal gang.
Rather unyielding series melodrama, chiefly interesting for the casting of Tod Slaughter as Blake's Moriarty.
w A. R. Rawlinson d George King ph H. M. Glendining md Jack Beaver ad Philip Bawcombe ed John Seabourne
☆ George Curzon, Tod Slaughter, Greta Gynt, Charles Oliver, David Farrar, Tony Sympson
TERROR: 'You little fool! Don't you realise that the game is up? The Black Quorum has seen through your treacheries. I alone can save you from their revenge!'
GIRL: 'I'd rather die.'
† Other Sexton Blake movies, all cheaply made by British independents, include six 1928 two-reelers starring Langhorne Burton: Sexton Blake and the Bearded Doctor and Sexton Blake and the Mademoiselle, both 1935, both with Curzon; Meet Sexton Blake and The Echo Murders, both 1943, both with David Farrar; and Murder on Site Three, 1963 with Geoffrey Toone.

The Sexual Life of the Belgians 1950–1978 ★

Belgium 1994 63m colour
Metro Tartan/Transatlantic (Jan Bucquoy)

original title: La Vie Sexuelle des Belges 1950–1978

The sexual experiences of a Flemish man, from babyhood to a failed marriage and what appears to be his most enjoyable relationship, with an inflatable doll.
An odd little comedy of repression and release that claims to be autobiographical; it is subversive in a downbeat way.
wd Jan Bucquoy ph Michel Baudour m Francis de Smet pd Nathalie André, Nicole Lenoir ed Matyas Veress ☆ Jean-Henri Compère, Noé Francq, Isabelle Legros, Sophie Schneider, Pascale Binneri, Michele Shor
'There's a wonderful sense of abandon to this light, titillating comedy.' – Empire

'Sometimes It's Hard To Say No.'

Sexy Beast ★

GB/Spain/US 2000 88m DeLuxe Super 35
FilmFour/Recorded Picture/Fox Searchlight (Jeremy Thomas)

A London thief who has retired with his wife to an easy life on the Costa del Sol is summoned back to do one last job by a vicious gangster.
Enjoyable thriller that immediately creates an atmosphere of ill-defined menace; but clumsy construction and odd, surreal episodes detract from its overall impact.
w Louis Mellis, David Scinto d Jonathan Glazer ph Ivan Bird m Roque Baños pd Jan Houllevigue ed John Scott, Sam Sneade
☆ Ray Winstone (Gary 'Gal' Dove), Ben Kingsley (Don 'Malky' Logan), Ian McShane (Teddy Bass), Amanda Redman (Deedee), Cavan Kendall (Jackie), Alvaro Monje (Enrique), James Fox (Harry), Darkie Smith (Stan Higgins)
'One of the most purely enjoyable films I've seen for a long time.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'An elaborate riff on not very much' – Variety
Ben Kingsley

Sh! The Octopus

US 1937 54m bw
First National

Lamebrain detectives fight a giant octopus in a lighthouse.
Footling remake of The Gorilla (qv).
w George Bricker d William McGann ph Arthur Todd ed Clarence Kolster ☆ Hugh Herbert, Allen Jenkins, Marcia Ralston, John Eldredge, George Rosener
'This bit of grist for the double-feature mills is so feeble even the actors seem embarrassed.' – Variety

Shack Out on 101 ★

US 1955 80m bw
AA/William F. Broidy

A waitress at a café near a research establishment unmasks two spies.
Modest suspenser which seemed at the time to have some fresh and realistic attitudes.
w Ed and Mildred Dein d Ed Dein ph Floyd Crosby m Paul Dunlap
☆ Frank Lovejoy, Lee Marvin, Keenan Wynn, Terry Moore, Whit Bissell

Shades

Belgium/US 1999 96m colour
Corsan/CEO/Great Cat (Paul Breuls)

An American director and star, both on the way down, encounter problems when they go to Antwerp to make an exploitation movie about a serial killer.
Dull movie about film making that clumsily attempts an exposure of the chaos and moral corruption of the business.
w Guy Lee Thys d Erik Van Looy ph Danny Hiele m Alex Callier, Hooverphonic pd Ludo Volders, Johan Van Essche ed Philippe Ravoet
☆ Mickey Rourke (Paul Sullivan), Gene Bervoets (Max Vogel), Andrew Howard (Dylan Cole), Mireille Leveque (Michelle Miller), Jan Decleir (Freddy Lebecq), Mike Verdrengh (Harry Koning), Hilde Van Mieghem (Catherine), Tom Van Bauwel (Mark Vandenbroeck)

Shadey
GB 1985 106m colour
Larkspur/Otto Plashkes
A bankrupt car mechanic will do almost anything to finance his sex change operation.
Weird, utterly unprovoked and unmotivated black comedy which confounded all comers.
w Snoo Wilson d Philip Saville ph Roger Deakins m Colin Towns
☆ Anthony Sher, Billie Whitelaw, Patrick Macnee, Leslie Ash, Bernard Hepton, Larry Lamb, Katherine Helmond

The Shadow
GB 1933 74m bw
UA/Real Art (Julius Hagen)
A police hunt for a murderous blackmailer leads to the Chief Commissioner's house.
Old-fashioned whodunnit that looks like a stage production transferred intact to the screen.
w H. Fowler Mear, Terence Egan, Donald Stuart d George A. Cooper ph Sydney Blythe ad James A. Carter ed Jack Harris ☆ Henry Kendall, Elizabeth Allan, Felix Aylmer, John Turnbull, Cyril Raymond

'The Glamour. The Mystery. The Danger.'
The Shadow
US 1994 107m DeLuxe
UIP (Martin Bregman, Willi Baer)
In the 30s, a former criminal-turned-vigilante with psychic powers battles in New York against a descendant of Genghis Khan who plans to destroy the city and rule the world.
A dim attempt to revive a forgotten hero of pulp fiction, radio and a little-regarded cinema serial of the 40s; the period setting looks good but the story is thin and the result forgettable.
w David Koepp d Russell Mulcahy ph Stephen H. Burum m Jerry Goldsmith pd Joseph Nemec III ed Peter Honess
☆ Alec Baldwin, Penelope Ann Miller, John Lone, Peter Boyle, Ian McKellen, Tim Curry, Jonathan Winters, Sab Shimono
'A helpful how-to guide for Hollywood producers who are looking to make expensive bad movies.' – Mo Ryan, Cinescape

'Life, liberty, and the pursuit of absolute power.'
Shadow Conspiracy
US 1997 103m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Hollwyood/Cinergi (Terry Collis)
A White House aide is the only person who can save the President from assassination.
Risibly silly chase movie that fails to do more than amuse by its presumption.
w Adi Hasak, Ric Gibbs d George P. Cosmatos ph Buzz Feitshans IV m Bruce Broughton pd Joe Alves ed Robert A. Ferretti
☆ Charlie Sheen, Donald Sutherland, Linda Hamilton, Stephen Lang, Ben Gazzara, Nicholas Turturro, Sam Waterston, Henry Strozier, Theodore Bikel, Gore Vidal
'One of those misfires that is so bad it's funny.' – Variety

Shadow in the Sky
US 1951 78m bw
MGM (William H. Wright)
A shell-shocked marine moves from a psychiatric hospital to live with his sister.
Low-key drama, plainly but quite well done, though of little continuing interest.
w Ben Maddow d Fred M. Wilcox ph George Folsey m Bronislau Kaper ☆ Ralph Meeker, Nancy Davis, James Whitmore, Jean Hagen

Shadow Makers
US 1989 127m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Tony Garnett)
aka: Fat Man and Little Boy
The army and scientists clash when working on a project to develop the first atom bomb.
A significant moment in history is rendered mundane in a damp squib of a film.
w Bruce Robinson, Roland Joffe d Roland Joffé ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Ennio Morricone pd Gregg Fonseca ed Françoise Bonnot
☆ Paul Newman, Dwight Schultz, Bonnie Bedelia, John Cusack, Laura Dern, Ron Frazier, John C. McGinley, Natasha Richardson, Ron Vawter

'The Good Guys Don't Always Wear Black.'
The Shadow Men
US 1997 91m colour
Promark/Spectacor (Steve Beswick)
After a family report an experience with a UFO they are menaced by pale men dressed entirely in black.
A low-budget, low-enterprise reworking of themes from Men in Black and the TV series The X Files, with small rewards.
w Eric Miller, Justin Stanley d Timothy Bond ph Frank Byers pd Cecil Gentry ed Barry Zetlin
☆ Eric Roberts, Sherilyn Fenn, Dean Stockwell

Shadow of a Doubt ★★★
US 1943 108m bw
Universal (Jack H. Skirball)
A favourite uncle comes to visit his family in a small Californian town. He is actually on the run from police, who know him as the Merry Widow murderer.
Hitchcock's quietest film is memorable chiefly for its depiction of small-town life; but the script is well written and keeps the suspense moving slowly but surely.
w Thornton Wilder, Sally Benson, Alma Reville story Gordon McDonell d Alfred Hitchcock ph Joe Valentine m Dimitri Tiomkin ad Robert Boyle, John B. Goodman ed Milton Carruth
☆ Joseph Cotten (Uncle Charlie), Teresa Wright (Young Charlie), Hume Cronyn (Herbie Hawkins), Macdonald Carey (Jack Graham), Patricia Collinge (Emma Newton), Henry Travers (Joseph Newton), Wallace Ford (Fred Saunders)
'Some clever observation of rabbity white-collar life which, in spite of a specious sweetness, is the best since It's a Gift.' – James Agee † Remade in 1959 as Step Down to Terror, with Charles Drake.
†† A lacklustre TV version was made in 1991, starring Mark Harmon and directed by Karen Arthur.
🎗 original story

A Shadow of a Doubt ★★
France 1992 106m colour
CinemaScope
CIBY 2000/TF1 (Patrick Lancelot)
original title: L'Ombre du Doute
An 11-year-old girl claims that her father is sexually abusing her, but he denies it and his wife believes him.
Complex, emotionally charged film that catches the confusion of a child caught between reality and fantasy, in a situation too difficult for her to deal with; it tackles its difficult subject-matter without sensationalism, concentrating on the love-hate relationship between father and daughter and its repercussions on other members of the family.
w Aline Issermann, Martine Fadier-Nisse, Frederique Gruyer d Aline Issermann ph Darius Khondji m Reno Isaac ad Cyr Boitard ed Hervé Schneid
☆ Mireille Perrier, Alain Bashung, Sandrine Blancke, Emmanuelle Riva, Michel Aumont, Luis Issermann, Roland Bertin, Dominique Lavanant, Thierry L'hermitte
'This sensitive and emotionally powerful film does an extremely good job with material that has a good many pitfalls.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Shadow of a Man
GB 1954 69m bw
New Realm (Edwin J. Fancey)
In Hastings, police investigate the death of an unpleasant drunk, while two men vie for the affections of his widow.
Clumsy, melodramatic and inadequate whodunnit that betrays its theatrical origins in every mismanaged scene.
w Paul Erikson, Michael McCarthy play Paul Erikson d Michael McCarthy ph Geoffrey Faithfull m Jackie Brown ad Ivan King ed Monica Kimick
☆ Paul Carpenter (Gene Landers), Rona Anderson (Linda Bryant), Jane Griffiths (Carol Seaton), Tony Quinn (Inspector Gates), Ronald Leigh-Hunt (Norman Farrel), Bill Nagy (Paul Bryant), Jack Taylor (Sgt McBride), Robert O'Neil (Max)

Shadow of Doubt
US 1935 71m bw
MGM
An actress suspected of murder is cleared by the efforts of her fiancé's aunt.
Routine mystery with a strong part for a new character actress from England.
w Wells Root, Arthur Somers Roche d George B. Seitz ☆ Ricardo Cortez, Virginia Bruce, Constance Collier, Arthur Byron, Isabel Jewell, Regis Toomey, Edward Brophy
'Passable murder mystery.' – Variety

Shadow of Fear
GB 1963 60m bw
Butcher's (John I. Phillips)
An American oilman, returning to London from Baghdad, is caught up in espionage.
Mundane and stupid programmer, ploddingly directed.
w Ronald Liles, James O'Connolly story Decoy, Be Damned by T. F. Fotherby d Ernest Morris ph Walter J. Harvey m Martin Slavin ad Wilfred Arnold ed Henry Richardson
☆ Paul Maxwell, Clare Owen, Anita West, John Sutton, John Arnatt, Eric Pohlmann, Alan Tilvern, Reginald Marsh

Shadow of the Cat
GB 1961 79m bw
U-I/BHP (Jon Penington)
A cat appears to wreak vengeance on those who murdered its mistress.
Tolerable old dark house shocker with an amusing theme not too well sustained.
w George Baxt d John Gilling ph Alec Grant m Mikis Theodorakis ☆ André Morell, William Lucas, Barbara Shelley, Conrad Phillips, Alan Wheatley, Vanda Godsell, Richard Warner, Freda Jackson

Shadow of the Eagle
GB 1950 92m bw
Valiant (Anthony Havelock-Allan)
In 1770, a Russian envoy to Venice falls for the princess he is supposed to kidnap.
Limp swashbuckler based on a deservedly shadowy corner of European history.
w Doreen Montgomery, Hagar Wilde d Sidney Salkow ph Erwin Hillier m Hans May ☆ Richard Greene, Valentina Cortese, Greta Gynt, Binnie Barnes, Charles Goldner, Walter Rilla

Shadow of the Vampire ★★
GB/US 2000 93m DeLuxe
Metrodome/Lions Gate/Saturn/Long Shot/BBC/Delux (Nicolas Cage, Jeff Levine)
About to shoot Nosferatu, his rip-off of Dracula, film director F.W. Murnau hires a real vampire, Max Schreck, for the leading role.
An unusual and enjoyable fang-in-cheek twist on vampire and silent movie legend that also manages to be a critique of the film business: it is the director who emerges as the true monster.
w Steven Katz d E. Elias Merhige ph Lou Bogue m Dan Jones pd Assheton Gorton ed Chris Wyatt cos Caroline de Vivaise
☆ John Malkovich (F.W. Murnau), Willem Dafoe (Max Schreck), Cary Elwes (Fritz Wagner), John Aden Gillet (Henrick Galeen), Eddie Izzard (Gustav von Wangerheim), Udo Kier (Albin Grau), Catherine McCormack (Greta Schroeder), Ronan Vibert (Wolfgang Muller)
'The movie often meanders from comedy to terror to chin-stroking intellectualism. Yet though it's often frustrating, the movie lingers in the mind like an especially intense dream.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times
🎗 Willem Dafoe; make-up (Ann Buchanan, Amber Sibley)

Shadow of the Wolf
Canada/France 1993 112m Sonolab Color Cinemascope Vision/Transfilm/Eiffel/Canal (Claude Leger)
aka: Agaguk
In the 1930s, an Eskimo, banished for his hatred of white men, becomes an outcast who has to learn to fend for himself.
Simple-minded rites-of-passage drama of a man pitted against the elements.
w Rudy Wurlitzer, Evan Jones, David Milhaud novel Yves Theriault d Jacques Dorfmann ph Billy Williams m Maurice Jarre pd Wolf Kroeger ed Françoise Bonnot ☆ Lou Diamond Phillips, Toshiro Mifune, Jennifer Tilly, Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu, Donald Sutherland
'Pic is too simple-minded and clichéd for adults, but probably too rough for kids.' – Variety
† The film, which cost around $30 million, was the most expensive Canadian production so far. It was released direct to video in Britain.

The Shadow on the Window
US 1957 73m bw
Columbia (Jonie Taps)
Three teenage thugs break into a lonely house, murder its owner and hold a girl hostage.
Routine crime programmer, rather boringly unravelled.
w Leo Townsend, David Harmon

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · 🎗 Academy Award · 🎗 Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

d William Asher ph Kit Carson m George Duning
☆ Betty Garrett, Phil Carey, John Barrymore Jnr, Corey Allen, Gerald Saracini

Shadow Run

GB 1998 94m colour
Majestic (Geoffrey Reeve)

A veteran criminal teams up with an upper-middle class security expert to rob a van carrying paper for banknotes worth £100m.
Drearily brutal thriller with little narrative coherence and uninteresting performances.
w Desmond Lowden, Robert Morgan novel Desmond Lowden d Geoffrey Reeve ph Eduard van der Enden m Adrian Burch, David Whitaker pd Raymond Hughes ed Terry Warwick
☆ Michael Caine (Haskell), Kenneth Colley (Larcombe), James Fox (Landon-Higgins), Christopher Cazenove (Melchior), Rae Baker (Julie), Leslie Grantham (Liney), Rupert Frazer (Maunder)

Shadow Warrior: see Kagemusha

'He thought that magic only existed in books, and then he met her.'

Shadowlands ★★★

GB 1993 131m colour Scope
UIP/Showlands/Spelling/Pirce/Savoy (Richard Attenborough, Brian Eastman)

The emotionally repressed C. S. Lewis, Oxford don and famous writer of children's books and works of popular theology, enters into a marriage of convenience with an American woman, whom he grows to love, only to learn that she has terminal cancer.
Impeccably acted and directed drama of emotional risk and the pain and joy it can bring.
w William Nicholson play William Nicholson d Richard Attenborough ph Roger Pratt m George Fenton pd Stuart Craig ad Michael Lamont ed Lesley Walker
☆ Anthony Hopkins (Jack Lewis), Debra Winger (Joy Gresham), John Wood (Christopher Riley), Edward Hardwicke (Warnie Lewis), Joseph Mazzello (Douglas Gresham), Julian Fellowes (Desmond Arding), Roddy Maude-Roxby (Arnold Dopliss), Michael Denison ("Harry" Harrington), Peter Firth (Dr. Craig)
'A mature film for grown-ups.' – Variety
'Reticent is the word for Richard Attenborough's film version. But that's a virtue, not a defect, when the setting is English academia (no one has more persuasively captured its manners) and your subject is mortality.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'The picture isn't actually very good; it's just a tearjerker with clumsy interpolations of theology.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker
'A beautifully crafted movie that gleams like a newly-made antique.' – Philip French, Observer
† William Nicholson first wrote the story as a play for BBC TV and then adapted it for the stage before it became a film. Despite Hopkins's Welsh accent, Lewis was an Ulsterman, born in Belfast.
Debra Winger; William Nicholson

Shadowless Sword

South Korea/US 2005 116m colour
CJ Entertainment/New Line/Taewon/Yedang (Park Soo Yun)
original title: Muyeong Geom

In 10th-century Korea, after invading armies conquer the country, a female warrior is summoned to escort to safety the last surviving member of the royal family so that he can become king and rally the resistance.
Lavish martial arts fantasy with spectacular mid-air and underwater action but with an overlong and less-than-engaging narrative of the adventures of a reluctant prince.
w Kim Tai Gwan, Shen Jun Hee d Kim Young Jun ph Seo Kun Hee m Kim Jun Sun pd Ha Sang Ho ed Nam Na Young action director Ma Yuk Sing, Poon Cheung
☆ Lee Seo Jin (Jeong Hyun), Yoon Soy (So Ha), Shin Hyun Joon (Kun), Lee Ki Yong (Mae) Shadows ★

US 1959 81m bw
Cassavetes/Cassel/Maurice McEndree

Two blacks and their sister find their identities in Manhattan.
16mm realistic drama which began a new and essentially dreary trend of grainily true-life pictures with improvised dialogue and little dramatic compression.
w the cast d John Cassavetes ph Erich Kollmar m Charles Mingus ☆ Ben Carruthers, Lelia Goldoni, Hugh Hurd, Rupert Crosse, Anthony Ray
'I don't so much object to its mindlessness as to its formlessness, regardless of the practical excuses that may be advanced for its rambling incoherence.' – William S. Pechter
'A picture of startling immediacy and shocking power.' – Robert Hatch, Nation
'We were improvising ... every scene was very simple. They were predicated on people having problems that were overcome with other problems. At the end of the scene another problem would come in and overlap.' – John Cassavetes

Shadows and Fog ★

US 1991 86m bw
Columbia TriStar/Orion (Jack Rollins, Charles Joffe)

In a town where a circus has come to visit, a timid individual is forced by his neighbours to join vigilantes trying to trap a murderer.
An occasionally witty excursion into the world of German expressionist movies of the 20s.
wd Woody Allen ph Carlo Di Palma m Kurt Weill pd Santo Loquasto ed Susan E. Morse ☆ Woody Allen, Mia Farrow, John Malkovich, Madonna, Donald Pleasence, Lily Tomlin, Jodie Foster, Kathy Bates, John Cusack, Kate Nelligan, Julie Kavner, Fred Gwynne
'Is Allen confronting his inability to treat history, or anything else, as tragedy rather than farce? The film is a serious joke, possibly reflecting on German re-unification, and it has an unpleasant aftertaste.' – Philip French, Observer

Shadows of our Forgotten Ancestors ★

USSR 1964 100m bw/colour
Dovzhenko Film Studios

original title: Teni Zabytykh Predkov
A youth falls in love with the daughter of the rich landowner who killed his father.
A story of a doomed love, told in the form of a folk-tale, episodic and highly coloured.
w Sergo Paradjanov, Ivan Chendei d Sergo Paradjanov ph Y. Ilyenko m M. Sorik
☆ Ivan Nikolaichuk, Larisa Kadochnikova, Tatiana Bestayeva, Spartak Bagashvili

Shadows of the Peacock

Australia 1987 94m colour
Laughing Kookaburra (Jane Scott)

After discovering her husband's infidelity, a politician's wife asserts her independence by going to Thailand and falling for a Balinese dancer.
Slight, bitter-sweet romance, acted and directed at a somnambulistic pace.
w Jan Sharp, Anne Brooksbank d Phillip Noyce ph Peter James m William Motzing pd Judith Russell ed Frans Vandenburg ☆ Wendy Hughes, John Lone, Rod Mullinar, Peta Toppano, Steven Jacobs, Gillian Jones

Shady Lady

US 1945 90m bw
Universal

An elderly cardsharp is persuaded to help the district attorney nab others of his kind.
Poorish comedy which offers its star little support.
w Curt Siodmak, Gerald Geraghty and M. M. Musselman d George Waggner ☆ Charles Coburn, Ginny Simms, Robert Paige, Martha O'Driscoll, Alan Curtis

Shaft ★

US 1971 100m Metrocolor
MGM/Shaft Productions (Joel Freeman)

A black private eye finds himself at odds with a powerful racketeer.
Violent, commercial action thriller which spawned two sequels and a tele-series as well as stimulating innumerable even more violent imitations.
w Ernest Tidyman, John D. F. Black d Gordon Parks ph Urs Furrer m Isaac Hayes ☆ Richard Roundtree, Moses Gunn, Charles Cioffi, Christopher St John
'Relentlessly supercool dialogue, all throwaway colloquialisms and tough Chandlerian wisecracks.' – MFB
♪ title song (m/ly Isaac Hayes)
♪ Isaac Hayes (musical score)

'Still The Man.'

Shaft

US 2000 98m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Scott Rudin, John Singleton)

A black cop quits in disgust over the treatment given to a murder suspect, who is wealthy and white, but continues his investigation.
Quite why anyone should wish to remake Gordon Parks' blaxploitation hit twenty-nine years later is difficult to understand, particularly as the result is a mess: a shrill and violent movie with little to offer.
w Richard Price, John Singleton, Shane Salerno novel Ernest Tidyman d John Singleton ph Donald E. Thorin m David Arnold, Isaac Hayes pd Patrizia Von Brandenstein ed John Bloom, Antonia Van Drimmelen cos Ruth Carter
☆ Samuel L. Jackson (John Shaft), Vanessa Williams (Carmen Vasquez), Jeffrey Wright (Peoples Hernandez), Christian Bale (Walter Wade Jnr), Busta Rhymes (Rasaan), Dan Hedaya (Jack Roselli), Toni Collette (Diane Palmieri), Richard Roundtree (Uncle John Shaft), Ruben Santiago-Hudson (Jimmy Groves), Josef Sommer (Curt Fleming), Lynne Thigpen (Carla Howard), Philip Bosco (Walter Wade Snr), Lee Tergesen (Luger), Mekhi Phifer (Trey Howard)
'Ends up looking cheaper than any big-budget Hollywood entertainment should.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Sight and Sound
'The action set-pieces look decidedly shop-worn... It's not an unmitigated disaster, but it is a disappointment.' – Simon Braund, Empire

Shaft in Africa

US 1973 112m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Shaft Productions (Roger Lewis)

Shaft is kidnapped by an Ethiopian emir who wants him to track down a gang of slavers.
More miscellaneous violence, rather shoddily assembled, with a few good jokes.
w Stirling Silliphant d John Guillermin ph Marcel Grignon m Johnny Pate ad John Stoll ed Max Benedict
☆ Richard Roundtree, Frank Finlay, Vonetta McGee

Shaft's Big Score!

US 1972 105m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Shaft Productions (Richard Lewis, Ernest Tidyman)

Shaft avenges the death of a friend and comes up against the numbers racket.
Violent footage and an incomprehensible plot. No one, least of all the director, shows any interest in the narrative, which is ignored for a succession of action-packed set-pieces, finally settling down into a long chase sequence, in which our hero can dispose of all the villains without anyone trying to make sense of the plot.
w Ernest Tidyman d Gordon Parks ph Urs Furrer m Gordon Parks ad Emanuel Gerard ed Harry Howard ☆ Richard Roundtree, Moses Gunn, Joseph Mascolo, Kathy Imrie, Wally Taylor, Julius W. Harris, Drew Bundini Brown
'Self-conscious, contrived, ambitious and sluggish.' – Variety

Shag

GB 1988 100m colour
Palace/Hemdale (Stephen Woolley, Julia Chasman)

Four girls go to the beach for fun and boys.
Set in the 1960s, it is an attempt, successful enough in its inane way, to revive the style of the teen movies of the time.
w Robin Swicord, Lanier Laney, Terry Sweeney d Zelda Barron ph Peter MacDonald pd Buddy Cone ed Laurence Mery Clark
☆ Phoebe Cates, Scott Coffey, Bridget Fonda, Annabeth Gish, Page Hannah, Robert Rusler, Tyrone Power III, Jeff Yagher

The Shaggy DA

US 1976 92m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)

A magic ring enables a young lawyer to become a talking dog and thus expose corruption.
Rather feeble sequel to The Shaggy Dog, with overtones of Watergate.
w Don Tait d Robert Stevenson ph Frank Phillips m Buddy Baker sp Eustace Lycett, Art Cruickshank, Danne Lee ☆ Dean Jones, Tim Conway, Suzanne Pleshette, Jo Anne Worley, Vic Tayback, Keenan Wynn, Dick Van Patten

The Shaggy Dog ★

US 1959 101m bw
Walt Disney (Bill Walsh)

A small boy turns into a big shaggy dog and catches some crooks.

Simple-minded, overlong Disney comedy for kids and their indulgent parents; good laughs in the chase scenes.
w Bill Walsh, Lillie Hayward novel The Hound of Florence by Felix Salten d Charles Barton ph Edward Colman m Paul Sawtell
☆ Fred MacMurray, Jean Hagen, Tommy Kirk, Cecil Kellaway, Annette Funicello, Tim Considine, Kevin Corcoran, Alexander Scourby

'Tim Allen Living in a Dog's Life'

The Shaggy Dog ④

US 2006 99m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Mandeville/Boxing Cat (David Hoberman, Tim Allen)
Influenced by a 300-year-old Tibetan dog, a lawyer turns into a sheepdog.
In the 36 years since the original film, you might have thought someone would have come up with better jokes for this unkempt remake.
w the Wibberleys, Geoff Rodkey, Jack Amiel, Michael Begler d Brian Robbins ph Gabriel Beristain m Alan Menken pd Leslie McDonald ed Ned Bastille sp animatronics: Stan Winston ☆ Tim Allen (Dave Douglas), Robert Downey Jnr (Dr Kozak), Kristin Davis (Rebecca Douglas), Danny Glover (Ken Hollister), Spencer Breslin (Josh Douglas)
'The latest mutation of a franchise that Disney probably should have had spayed or neutered years ago.' – Justin Chang, Variety

Shake Hands with Murder

US 1944 61m bw
American Productions/PRC
Bailbondsmen get involved in murder.
Tolerable little mystery for the bottom of the bill.
w John T. Neville, Martin Mooney d Albert Herman ph Robert Cline md Lee Zahler ☆ Frank Jenks, Iris Adrian, Douglas Fowley, Jack Raymond

Shake Hands with the Devil *

Eire 1959 110m bw
UA/Troy/Pennebaker (Michael Anderson)
In 1921 Dublin a surgeon is the secret leader of the IRA, and comes to cherish violence as an end rather than a means.
Downbeat action melodrama, politically very questionable but well made.
w Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts novel Rearden Connor d Michael Anderson ph Erwin Hillier m William Alwyn
☆ James Cagney, Glynis Johns, Don Murray, Dana Wynter, Michael Redgrave, Sybil Thorndike, Cyril Cusack, Niall MacGinnis, Richard Harris, Ray McAnally, Noel Purcell

Shake, Rattle & Rock!

US 1956 75m bw
AIP (James H. Nicholson, Samuel Z. Arkoff)
A small-town disc jockey demands a public trial after a vigilante committee is set up to ban rock 'n' roll.
Enjoyable-enough exploitation movie in a familiar groove, notable for the musical performances of Joe Turner ('Lipstick, Powder And Paint') and Fats Domino ('Ain't That A Shame', 'I'm In Love Again'), and Margaret Dumont, Groucho Marx's old adversary, as a killjoy.
w Lou Rusoff d Edward L. Cahn ph Frederick E. West m Alexander Courage ad Don Ament ed Robert S. Eisen, Charles Gross Jnr ☆ Touch Connors, Lisa Gaye, Sterling Holloway, Raymond Hatton, Paul Dubov, Douglass Dumbrille, Clarence Kolb, Margaret Dumont, Frank Jenks, Percy Helton, Tommy Charles, Fats Domino, Annita Ray, Joe Turner

The Shakedown

GB 1959 92m bw
Rank/Alliance/Ethiro (Norman Williams)
A Soho vice boss photographs prominent people in compromising situations and blackmails them.
A semi-remake set in the squalid London so beloved of film makers at the time, before it became 'swinging'. Of no interest or entertainment value.
w Leigh Vance d John Lemont ph Brendan J. Stafford m Philip Green ☆ Terence Morgan, Hazel Court, Donald Pleasence, Bill Owen, Robert Beatty, Harry H. Corbett, Gene Anderson, Eddie Byrne

Shakedown: see Blue Jean Cop (1988)

Shaker Run

New Zealand 1985 90m colour
Laurelwood/Aviscom/Mirage (Igo Kantor, Larry Parr)
Two American stunt car drivers help a girl who for the best political reasons has stolen a deadly virus.
Harebrained excuse for car chases against beautiful scenery; quite exhausting.
w James Kouf Jnr, Henry Fownes, Bruce Morrison d Bruce Morrison ph Kevin Hayward m Stephen McCurdy
☆ Cliff Robertson, Leif Garrett, Lisa Harrow, Shane Briant

'A comedy about the greatest love story almost never told.'

Shakespeare in Love ★★★

US 1998 113m DeLuxe
UIP/Miramax/Universal/Bedford Falls (David Parfitt, Donna Gigliotti, Harvey Weinstein, Edward Zwick, Mark Norman)
Shakespeare, suffering writer's block over his new work, Romeo and Ethel, the Pirate's Daughter, is inspired when he falls in love with a cross-dressing heiress.
If movies be the food of love, then there's an excess of it in this delightful romantic comedy, a clever romp that makes witty use of theatrical conventions and Shakespeare's own works; it is not only in love with love, but with the power of theatre.
w Marc Norman, Tom Stoppard d John Madden ph Richard Greatrex m Stephen Warbeck pd Martin Childs ad Steve Lawrence ed David Gamble
☆ Gwyneth Paltrow (Viola De Lesseps), Joseph Fiennes (Will Shakespeare), Geoffrey Rush (Philip Henslowe), Colin Firth (Lord Wessex), Ben Affleck (Ned Alleyn), Judi Dench (Queen Elizabeth), Rupert Everett (Christopher Marlowe), Simon Callow (Tilney, Master of the Revels), Jim Carter (Ralph Bashford), Martin Clunes (Richard Burbage), Antony Sher (Dr. Moth), Imelda Staunton (Nurse), Tom Wilkinson (Hugh Fennyman), Mark Williams (Wabash)
'A ripely emotional comedy fantasia.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'A great success, bawdy, silly, handsome, brainy and energetic.' – Ian Nathan, Empire
† The day after the Oscar ceremony, its US box-office income increased by 42 per cent.
†† Judi Dench, winner of the Oscar as best supporting actress, was on-screen for eight minutes.
††† Daniel Day-Lewis and Julia Roberts were the first choices for the roles played by Joseph Fiennes and Gwyneth Paltrow.
best picture; Gwyneth Paltrow; Judi Dench; Marc Norman, Tom Stoppard; Stephen Warbeck; Martin Childs; Sandy Powell (costumes)
John Madden; Geoffrey Rush; Richard Greatrex; David Gamble; make-up; sound best film; Judi Dench; Geoffrey Rush; David Gamble

Shakespeare Wallah *

India 1965 125m bw
Merchant Ivory (Ismail Merchant)
A troupe of English actors find their Indian tour interrupted by romance.
Interesting but sluggish drama on an unusual subject. Not by any means a classic, but it set off this partnership on an enduring wave of critical acclaim and public indifference.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, James Ivory d James Ivory ph Subrata Mitra m Satyajit Ray ☆ Felicity Kendal, Shashi Kapoor, Laura Liddell, Geoffrey Kendal, Madhur Jaffrey, Utpal Dutt
'Touched by brilliance, marked throughout by grace, it is a quiet film that allows one to perceive the ironies and the poignancy of a time of transition.' – Judith Crist

Shakha Proshakha: see Branches of the Tree

The Shakiest Gun in the West

US 1967 101m Techniscope
Universal (Edward J. Montagne)
A cowardly dentist becomes a Western hero.
Dreary farce, an unsubtle remake of The Paleface.
w Jim Fritzell, Everett Greenbaum d Alan Rafkin ph Andrew Jackson m Vic Mizzy
☆ Don Knotts, Barbara Rhoades, Jackie Coogan, Don Barry

'Sex. Love. Marriage. Infidelity. Happiness. Success. Friendship. Trust. Babies. Work. Deadlines. Parents. Dreams. Money. Hopes. Fears. Secrets. Growing Up. Hanging Out. Hanging In.'

Shaking the Tree

US 1990 107m Astor Color
Hobo/Reality (Robert J. Wilson)
The lives of a group of old schoolfriends go through changes as they gather for a Christmas reunion.
Tedium sets in early in this examination of the dull lives of uninteresting people.
w Duane Clark, Steven Wilde d Duane Clark ph Ronn Schmidt m David E. Russo ed Martin L. Bernstein ☆ Arye Gross, Gale Hansen, Doug Savant, Steven Wilde, Courteney Cox, Christina Haag
'Lackluster tale of four childhood buddies generates little interest despite competent technical credits all-around and some nice acting turns. The who-cares factor is simply too high.' – Variety

Shalako

GB 1968 118m Technicolor Franscope
Kingston/Dimitri de Grunwald (Euan Lloyd)
New Mexico, 1880: a cowboy acts as guide to European aristocratic big game hunters, but the Indians become annoyed and attack.
A cute idea is given routine treatment; though packed with stars, the action never becomes very exciting despite incidental brutalities.
w J. J. Griffith, Hal Hopper, Scot Finch novel Louis L'Amour d Edward Dmytryk ph Ted Moore m Robert Farnon
☆ Sean Connery, Brigitte Bardot, Jack Hawkins, Stephen Boyd, Peter Van Eyck, Honor Blackman, Eric Sykes, Alexander Knox, Woody Strode, Valerie French

Shall We Dance? ★★

US 1937 116m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)
Dancing partners pretend to be married but are not; until they both get the same idea.
A light musical which was full of good things but nevertheless began the decline of Astaire-Rogers films; repetition was obvious, as was ostentation for its own sake, and the audience was expecting too much.
w Allan Scott, Ernest Pagano d Mark Sandrich ph David Abel m/ly George and Ira Gershwin md Nathaniel Shilkret ad Van Nest Polglase
☆ Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Edward Everett Horton, Eric Blore, Harriet Hoctor, Jerome Cowan, Ketti Gallian, Ann Shoemaker
'Another holdover musical in the Astaire-Rogers string ... it has everything it needs on production.' – Variety song 'They Can't Take That Away From Me'

'He's An Overworked Accountant. She's An Accomplished Dancer. Passion Is About To Find Two Unlikely Partners.'

Shall We Dance? ★★

Japan 1995 119m colour
Buena Vista/Altamura/Daiei/NTV/Hakuhodo/Nippon Shuppan (Yasuyoshi Tokuma)
An office worker, bored by his job and his marriage, joins a ballroom dancing class.
Charming comedy that makes the familiar seem extraordinarily exotic.
wd Masayuki Suo ph Naoki Kayano m Yoshikazu Suo pd Kyoko Heya ed Junichi Kikuchi ☆ Koji Yakusho, Tamiyo Kusakari, Naoto Takenaka, Eriko Watanabe, Akira Emoto, Yu Tokui, Hiromasa Taguchi, Reiko Kasamura, Hideko Hara
'An enormously sweet-tempered comedy.' – Alexander Walker
† It became the most successful Japanese film shown in the USA.

'Step out of the ordinary.'

Shall We Dance ④

US 2004 106m colour
Miramax (Simon Fields)
A conventional lawyer loses his inhibitions when he learns to dance.
Slick but empty exercise; this adaptation of a Japanese original has lost its clash of cultures that made it so engaging.
w Audrey Wells screenplay Masayuki Suo d Peter Chelsom ph John de Borman m Gabriel Yared, John Altman pd Caroline Hanania ed Charles Ireland, Robert Leighton
☆ Richard Gere (John Clark), Jennifer Lopez (Paulina), Susan Sarandon (Beverly Clark), Stanley Tucci (Link), Lisa Ann Walter (Bobbie), Richard Jenkins (Devine)
'Well-groomed, nattily attired, achingly sentimental.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'What's a little murder between friends?'

Shallow Grave ★★

GB 1994 92m colour
Rank/Figment/Channel 4/Glasgow Film Fund (Andrew Macdonald)

Three flatmates, who discover that their new tenant has died leaving a suitcase full of money, decide to dispose of the body and keep the cash.

Energetic, fast-moving thriller that maintains its breathless pace to the end and is done with great panache, almost enough to overlook its faults of unconvincing character shifts, unlikely plot developments and its final burst of insufficiently motivated and gratuitous violence.

w John Hodge d Danny Boyle ph Brian Tufano m Simon Boswell pd Kave Quinn ed Masahiro Hirakubo

☆ Kerry Fox, Christopher Eccleston, Ewan McGregor, Ken Stott, Keith Allen, Colin McCredie

'A British thriller of great assurance and fair accomplishment.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'A masterpiece of creepy terror.' – Stephen Farber, Movieline

best British film

'The Biggest Love Story Ever Told.'

Shallow Hal

US 2001 114m DeLuxe
TCF/Conundrum (Bradley Thomas, Charles B. Wessler, Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly)

A man who judges women on their looks is hypnotised to see only inner beauty, and falls for a 300 lb woman.

A movie that has its cake and eats it several times over, gorging on fat jokes and then adding a syrup of sentimentality to excuse them.

w Sean Moynihan, Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly d Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly ph Russell Carpenter m Ivy pd Sidney J. Bartholomew Jnr ed Christopher Greenbury cos Pamela Withers

☆ Gwyneth Paltrow (Rosemary), Jack Black (Hal), Jason Alexander (Mauricio), Joe Viterelli (Steve Shanahan), Rene Kirby (Walt), Bruce McGill (Reverend Larson), Tony Robbins (Tony Robbins), Susan Ward (Jill)

'Has enough amusing and endearing moments to put it over as a reasonably commercial date movie.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A one-gag film of unplumbable vulgarity. Physical disability is mocked and knocked all through, then hypocritically discounted to permit a happy ending.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

Shame ★★

Australia 1987 94m Eastmancolor
Metro/Barron Films/UAA Films (Damien Parer, Paul D. Barron)

A female lawyer uncovers a series of rapes in a small town.

Powerful indictment of male bonding and aggression.

w Beverly Blankenship, Michael Brindley d Steve Jodrell ph Joseph Pickering m Mario Millo pd Phil Peters ed Kerry Regan

☆ Deborra-Lee Furness, Tony Barry, Simone Buchanan, Gillian Jones, Peter Aanensen, Margaret Ford, David Franklin, Bill McClusky

The Shame of a Nation: see Scarface

Shampoo ★

US 1975 110m Technicolor
Columbia/Persky-Bright/Vista (Warren Beatty)

A Beverly Hills hairdresser seduces his most glamorous clients.

Ugly little sex farce with few laughs but much dashing about and bad language. Its setting on election eve 1968 has made some people think it a political satire.

w Robert Towne, Warren Beatty d Hal Ashby ph Laszlo Kovacs m Paul Simon

☆ Warren Beatty, Julie Christie, Lee Grant, Goldie Hawn, Jack Warden, Tony Bill, Jay Robinson, Carrie Fisher, Brad Dexter

'It has the bursting-with-talent but fuzziness-of-effect aspect of a movie made by a group of friends for their own amusement.' – Richard Combs

Lee Grant

script; Jack Warden

Shamus

US 1972 98m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Robert M. Weitman

A private eye is hired by a wealthy man to recover stolen jewels and find a murderer.

A forties retread with seventies violence; junky stuff, with a few laughs for buffs who can spot the in-jokes.

w Barry Beckerman d Buzz Kulik ph Victor J. Kemper m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Burt Reynolds, Dyan Cannon, John Ryan, Joe Santos, Giorgio Tozzi, Ron Weyland

'Very hectic, very vividly New York and as idiotic as Reynolds' physical resiliency.' – Judith Crist

Shane ★★★

US 1953 118m Technicolor
Paramount (George Stevens)

A mysterious stranger helps a family of homesteaders.

Archetypal family Western, but much slower and statelier than most, as though to emphasize its own quality, which is evident anyway.

w A. B. Guthrie Jnr novel Jack Schaefer d George Stevens ph Loyal Griggs m Victor Young ad Walter Tyler, Hal Pereira ed Tom McAdoo, William Hornbeck

☆ Alan Ladd (Shane), Jean Arthur (Marion Starrett), Van Heflin (Joe Starrett), Jack Palance (Wilson), Brandon de Wilde (Joey), Ben Johnson (Chris), Edgar Buchanan (Lewis), Emile Meyer (Ryker), Elisha Cook Jnr (Torrey), John Dierkes (Morgan)

'A kind of dramatic documentary of the pioneer days of the west.' – MFB

'Westerns are better when they're not too self-importantly self-conscious.' – New Yorker, 1975

'Stevens managed to infuse a new vitality, a new sense of realism into the time-worn story through the strength and freshness of his visuals.' – Arthur Knight

† The Regions 1 and 2 DVD releases include commentary by George Stevens Jnr and Ivan Moffat.

Loyal Griggs

best picture; A. B. Guthrie Jnr; George Stevens; Jack Palance; Brandon de Wilde

Shangai Joe (dubbed)

Italy/West Germany 1974 96m colour
CBA/Divina (Ennio Onorati)

A Chinese stranger protects peasants and townspeople from a crooked businessman and his gang.

Spaghetti Western with the added ingredient of martial arts; together with its broadly comic tone, the combination results in rather too many slapstick punch-ups.

w Bitto Albertini, Carlo Alberto Alfieri story Mariano Caiano, Luigi Russo d Bitto Albertini ph Pier Luigi Santi m Mario Chiara ad Riccardo Domenici ed Fausto Ulisse

☆ Klaus Kinski, Cheen Lie, Karin Field, Tommy Polgar, Claudio Giorgi, Paolo Casella, Tom Felleghy, Fortunato Rena

Shanghai

US 1935 77m bw
(Paramount)

A visiting American lady falls in love with a half caste.

Romantic drama programmer.

w Gene Towne, Graham Baker, Lynn Starling d James Flood ph James Van Trees

☆ Loretta Young, Charles Boyer, Warner Oland, Alison Skipworth, Fred Keating, Charles Grapewin, Walter Kingsford

Shanghai Dreams (2)

China/Hong Kong 2005 121m
Artificial Eye/Stellar Megamedia/Debo/Kingwood/Fortissimo (Pi Li)

Mandarin theatrical title: Qing Hong

A battle of wills between a father who wants to return to his native Shanghai, and his 19-year-old daughter who wishes to remain in their small-town home.

Moderately affecting domestic drama that sheds some light on the victims of a Communist Party diktat that urged them to leave the cities and re-settle in the provinces. But it's not notably memorable.

w Lao Ni, Wang Xiaoshuai d Wang Xiaoshuai ph Wu Di pd Li Huatong ad Zhang Wu ed Yang Hongyu

☆ Gao Yuanyuan (Qing Hong), Li Bin (Honggen), Yan Anlian (Wu Zemin), Tang Yang (Zhou Meifen)

Shanghai Express ★★★

US 1932 84m bw
Paramount

A British officer and his old flame meet on a train which is waylaid by Chinese bandits.

Superbly pictorial melodrama which set the pattern for innumerable train movies to come, though none matched its deft visual quality and few sketched in their characters so neatly. Plot and dialogue are silent style, but refreshingly so.

w Jules Furthman d Josef von Sternberg ph Lee Garmes m W. Franke Harling ad Hans Dreier

☆ Marlene Dietrich (Shanghai Lily), Clive Brook (Capt. Donald "Doc" Harvey), Warner Oland (Henry Chang), Anna May Wong (Hui Fei), Eugene Pallette (Sam Salt), Lawrence Grant (Rev. Carmichael), Louise Closser Hale (Mrs. Haggerty), Gustav von Seyffertitz (Eric Baum)

LILY (MARLENE DIETRICH): 'It took more than one man to change my name to Shanghai Lily.'

'Good programme picture bolstered by the Dietrich name ... Excellent camerawork overcomes really hoke melodramatic story.' – Variety

'A limited number of characters, all meticulously etched, highly atmospheric sets and innumerable striking photographic compositions.' – Curtis Harrington, 1964

Lee Garmes

best picture; Josef von Sternberg

'Shanghai. Where Almost Anything Can Happen . And Does!'

The Shanghai Gesture ★

US 1941 90m bw
Arnold Pressburger (Albert de Courville)

The proprietress of a Shanghai gambling casino taunts her ex-husband by showing him his daughter in a state of degradation; but he proves that the girl is her daughter also.

An ancient theatrical shocker was completely bowdlerized and chopped into nonsense for the screen; but the director's hand showed in the handling of the vast casino set.

w Josef von Sternberg, Geza Herczeg, Karl Vollmoeller, Jules Furthman play John Colton d Josef von Sternberg ph Paul Ivano m Richard Hageman ad Boris Leven

☆ Ona Munson, Victor Mature, Walter Huston, Gene Tierney, Albert Basserman, Phyllis Brooks, Maria Ouspenskaya, Eric Blore, Ivan Lebedeff, Mike Mazurki

'The effect of a descent into a maelstrom of iniquity.' – Curtis Harrington, 1962

'In spite of all the changes necessitated by the Hays Office, seldom have decadence and sexual depravity been better suggested on the screen.' – Richard Roud, 1966

'Hilariously, awesomely terrible.' – New Yorker, 1977

Richard Hageman; Boris Leven

Shanghai Madness

US 1933 63m bw
Fox

A naval officer is cashiered in Shanghai and gets mixed up with Communists.

Weakish melodrama which goes the long way round to a happy ending.

w Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, Austin Parker, Gordon Wellesley d John G. Blystone

☆ Spencer Tracy, Fay Wray, Ralph Morgan, Eugene Pallette, Herbert Mundin

'Okay generally but in big spots will need stage support.' – Variety

'The Classic Western Gets A Kick In The Pants.'
'Western Action. Eastern Flavour. Won Ton Of Adventure.'

Shanghai Noon ★

US/Hong Kong 2000 110m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Spyglass/Jackie Chan Films (Roger Birnbaum, Gary Barber, Jonathan Glickman)

In Nevada, an imperial guard and an incompetent outlaw team up to rescue a kidnapped Chinese princess.

Engaging mix of martial arts and comedy that will pass an agreeable hour or two; its slicker wit is a welcome change to Chan's more usual slapstick comedy.

w Alfred Gough, Miles Millar d Tom Dey ph Dan Mindel m Randy Edelman pd Peter J. Hampton ed Richard Chew

☆ Jackie Chan (Chon Wang), Owen Wilson (Roy O'Bannon), Lucy Liu (Princess Pei Pei), Brandon Merrill (Indian Wife), Roger Yuan (Lo Fong), Xander Berkeley (Van Cleef), Walton Goggins (Wallace), P. Adrien Dorval (Blue), Rafael Baez (Vasquez), Jason Connery (Andrews), Russell Badger (Sioux Chief)

'This enjoyable East-meets-Western likely will succeed on its own terms as a sure-fire, long-legged crowd-pleaser.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Shanghai Surprise

GB 1986 97m Technicolor
HandMade/Vista/John Kohn

A lady missionary hires an adventurer to track down a stack of opium before it falls into the wrong hands.
Astonishingly abysmal adventure romance set rather uncertainly in the 1937 Orient. Nothing matches the so-called talents involved.
w John Kohn, Robert Bentley novel Faraday's Flowers by Tony Kenrick d Jim Goddard ph Ernest Vincze
m George Harrison, Michael Kamen
☆ Madonna, Sean Penn, Paul Freeman, Richard Griffiths

'A silly little trifle which wouldn't even have passed muster as a 1930s programmer.' – Variety

'In 1930's Shanghai violence was not the problem. It was the solution.'

Shanghai Triad ★★

Hong Kong 1995 108m colour
Electric/Shanghai Studio/Alpha/UGC-Images/La Sept (Jean-Louis Piel)

original title: Yao a Yao Yao dao Waipo Qiao
In the 30s, a young country boy goes to work for a gangster's mistress and becomes a witness to a power struggle involving another gang member and a rival triad.
A skilled and colourful account of corruption and betrayal, which avoids on-screen violence for the most part in order to concentrate on its devastating aftermath.
w Bi Feiyu novel Gang Law by Li Xiao d Zhang Yimou ph Lu Yue m Zhang Guangtian pd Cao Jiuping ed Du Yuan ☆ Gong Li, Li Baotian, Wang Xiaoxiao, Li Xuejian, Sun Chun, Fu Biao, Chen Shu, Liu Jiang

'Oozes a confidence that carries the viewer almost without pause to its shocking climax and ironic close.' – Derek Elley, Variety
Lu Yue

Shaolin Martial Arts (dubbed)

Hong Kong 1987 112m colour Shaw Scope
Shaw Brothers/Chang's Film Co. (Run Run Shaw)

Followers of the Shaolin school of kung-fu, feared as rebels, are threatened with extinction by the authorities, with the aid of the rival Manchu faction and their two invincible fighters.
Period action film, somewhat staid and old-fashioned by present-day standards but moderately entertaining, with its succession of grumpy, taciturn old men teaching the young how to fight.
w I Kuang, Chang Cheh d Chang Cheh ph Kung Mu-To ed Kuo Ting-Hung ☆ Fu Sheng, Chi Kuan-Chun, Chen I-Ling, Liu Chia Hui, Tang Yen Tsan, Li Chen-Piao, Liang Chia-Jen, Wang Lung-Wei

'Kick some grass!'

Shaolin Soccer ★ 6

Hong Kong 2001 111m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Star Overseas/Universe (Yeung Kwok-Fai)

A soccer player lamed and betrayed by his best friend gathers together an unlikely team of kung fu monks to challenge for the national soccer championship.
Enjoyable broad slapstick comedy that takes the usual sports movie cliché – of an over-the-hill coach training a team of no-hopers and turning them into winners – and treats it in an infectiously ridiculous manner.
w Stephen Chow, Tsang Ken-cheong d Stephen Chow ph Kwong Ting-wo, Kwen Pak-huen m Raymond Wong ad Ho Kim-hung ed Kai Kit-wai sp Centro Digital action director Ching Sutung martial arts directors Ailen Sit, Wong Ming-kin
☆ Stephen Chow, Zhao Wei, Ng Mang-tat, Patrick Tse, Cecilia Cheung, Karen Mok

'Comedy-action lunacy of a truly high, and endlessly bizarre, order.' – Glenn Kenny, Premiere
† The version released in the US and the UK was cut to 87m and dubbed into English. The DVD release offers the original film with Cantonese dialogue and subtitles and the dubbed version.
†† It took more money at the Hong Kong box-office than any other film before it.

The Shape of Things ★ 5

US 2003 96m FotoKem Panavision
UIP/FocusStudio/Canal/Working Title/Pretty Pictures (Neil LaBute, Gail Mutrux)

An engaged couple begin to wonder about the changes in their friend's life and appearance when he acquires a confident new girlfriend.
Adapted from a stage play, this bleak exercise in cruelty retains its theatrical quality, in which dialogue predominates over action and image.
wd Neil LaBute play Neil LaBute
ph James L. Carter m Elvis Costello
ad Christopher H. Lawrence ed Joel Plotch ☆ Gretchen Mol (Jenny), Paul Rudd (Adam), Rachel Weisz (Evelyn), Frederick Weller (Philip)

'Queasy investigation of male-female relations that ends with a satisfying shudder of recognition at the extreme cruelty possible within human relationships.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

Shark

US/Mexico 1969 88m Eastmancolor
Heritage/Cinematografica Calderon

A gunrunner in the Sudan becomes involved with unscrupulous divers after wrecks.
Tepid adventure yarn allegedly damaged by recutting but showing very little sign of original talent.
w Samuel Fuller, John Kingsbridge novel His Bones Are Coral by Victor Canning d Samuel Fuller ph Raul Martinez Solares m Rafael Moroyoqui ☆ Burt Reynolds, Arthur Kennedy, Barry Sullivan, Silvia Pinal, Enrique Lucero

'There's Blood In The Water.'

Shark Attack

US 1999 100m colour
Nu Image/Nu World (Mandy Branch)

A marine biologist investigates mysterious deaths from sharks in an African port.
Jaws on Valium, a tired, badly-acted drama.
w Scott Devine, William Hooke d Bob Misiorowski ph Lawrence Sher m Serge Colbert pd David Varod ed Gerard Jakubowicz ☆ Casper Van Dien (Steven McKray), Ernie Hudson (Laurence Rhodes), Bentley Mitchum (Dr Miles Craven), Jennifer McShane (Corinne DeSantis), Tony Caprari (Mani), Chris Olley (Police Chief)

'Behind every little fish is a great white lie.'

Shark Tale ★

US 2004 90m Technicolor
UIP/DreamWorks (Bill Damaschke, Janet Healy, Allison Lyon Segan)

A gangster shark, who controls an undersea city, intends to pass on power to his offspring; but his eldest son is a mild-mannered vegetarian.
Brash animated film that stays in the shallows with its dull parody of Mafia movies and its belief that references to other movies (including, inevitably Jaws) are automatically hilarious.
w Michael J. Wilson, Rob Letterman
d Vicky Jenson, Bibo Bergeron, Rob Letterman m Hans Zimmer pd Daniel St. Pierre ed Nick Fletcher ☆ voices of: Will Smith (Oscar), Robert De Niro (Don Lino), Renee Zellweger (Angie), Jack Black (Lenny), Angelina Jolie (Lola), Martin Scorsese (Sykes), Peter Falk (Ira Feinberg), Michael Imperioli (Frankie)

'Full of invention, but under the colorful icing is a slightly stale cake.' – David Ansen, Newsweek
'The odor around this one will result in the wrong kind of B.O.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety animated film.

The Sharkfighters

US 1956 72m Technicolor Cinemascope
(UA) Formosa (Samuel Goldwyn Jnr)

To save the lives of flyers forced down into the sea, navy scientists experiment with a shark repellent.
Straightforward semi-documentary with suspenseful action sequences.
w Lawrence Roman, John Robinson
d Jerry Hopper ph Lee Garmes m Jerome Moross ☆ Victor Mature, Karen Steele, James Olson, Claude Akins

Shark's Treasure ★

US 1974 95m DeLuxe
UA/Symbol (Cornel Wilde)

Treasure hunters seek buried gold in the Caribbean where sharks abound.
Fairly thrilling action hokum.
wd Cornel Wilde ph Jack Atcheler, Al Giddings m Robert O. Ragland ☆ Cornel Wilde, Yaphet Kotto, John Neilson, David Canary, Cliff Osmond

'Wilde maintains his reputation for making the most likeable bad movies around.' – Tom Milne

'Some cops are good at opening a case. Sharky knows how to finish one.'

Sharky's Machine

US 1981 120m Technicolor
Warner/Orion/Deliverance (Hank Moonjean)

A vice squad policeman builds up a new team.
Exceptionally violent cop thriller on the lines of Dirty Harry.
w Gerald Di Pego novel William Diehl
d Burt Reynolds ph William A. Fraker md Al Capps
☆ Burt Reynolds, Vittorio Gassman, Brian Keith, Charles Durning, Earl Holliman, Bernie Casey, Henry Silva, Rachel Ward

Sharpshooters

US 1938 63m bw
TCF

Adventures of a newsreel cameraman who saves a young prince from kidnapping.
Serial-like action and comedy very palatably blended: the first of a short series.
w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan d James Tinling
☆ Brian Donlevy, Lynn Bari, Wally Vernon, John King, Douglass Dumbrille, C. Henry Gordon, Sidney Blackmer

'A standard programmer to entertain, and a natural for the juve trade.' – Variety

Shatter

GB 1974 90m colour
Hammer (Michael Carreras, Vee King Shaw)

US title: Call Him Mr Shatter
A professional assassin is marked for death by his former employer in Hong Kong.
Botched attempt to combine a thriller with the style of a kung fu movie.
w Don Houghton d Michael Carreras ph Brian Probyn, John Wilcox, Roy Ford
m David Lindup ed Eric Boyd-Perkins
☆ Stuart Whitman, Ti Lung, Peter Cushing, Anton Diffring, Lily Li

'Murder Is Never An Accident.'

Shattered ★

US 1991 98m Technicolor
Palace/Capella/Davis Entertainment (Wolfgang Petersen, John Davis, David Korda)

Recovering from a car crash that left him with no memory and facial injuries that required plastic surgery, a property developer hires a private eye to discover more about his past.
Clever, unsettling mystery that keeps an audience guessing until the end.
wd Wolfgang Petersen novel The Plastic Nightmare by Richard Neely ph Laszlo Kovacs m Angelo Badalamenti pd Gregg Fonseca ed Hannes Nikel, Glenn Farr
☆ Tom Berenger, Greta Scacchi, Bob Hoskins, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Corbin Bernsen, Debi A. Monahan, Bert Robario, Scott Getlin, Kellye Nakahara

'A solidly entertaining plot-driven thriller which, although it requires an initial act of faith from its audience, rewards them with an intelligent, satisfying mystery.' – Nigel Floyd, Sight and Sound

'Read between the lies.'

Shattered Glass ★ 6

US 2003 95m DeLuxe 'Scope
Forest Park/Cruise/WagnerBaumgarten/Merims

A young writer becomes a star journalist on New Republic magazine before being exposed as a fantasist.
Fast moving, slightly sanctimonious drama about unbridled ambition, based on a true story about a journalist who made up such stories as a teenager hacker blackmailing a software company.
wd Billy Ray article Buzz Bissinger ph Mandy Walker m Mychael Danna
pd François Seguin ed Jeffrey Ford
☆ Hayden Christensen (Stephen Glass), Peter Sarsgaard (Chuck Lane), Chloe Sevigny (Caitlin Avey), Rosario Dawson (Andie Fox), Melanie Lynskey (Amy Brand), Steve Zahn (Adam Penenberg), Hank Azaria (Michael Kelly), Ted Kotcheff (Marty Peretz)

'Like its subject, the movie is self-important yet insipid.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice
'A bracing aesthetic achievement, creating a fictional version of a factual case that illuminates as it entertains.' – Michael Sragow, Baltimore Sun
† After leaving journalism, Stephen Glass spent time in therapy, graduated from Georgetown Law School and wrote a novel,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Fabulist, about an ambitious young reporter who is a pathological liar.
†† The MGM DVD includes a director's commentary and a 60 Minutes TV feature and interview with Stephen Glass.

'A romantic comedy. With zombies.'

Shaun of the Dead ★

GB/US/France 2004 colour
Universal/StudioCanal/Working Title/WT2/Big Talk (Nira Park)

After flesh-eating zombies arrive in North London, a shop assistant goes to the rescue of his estranged girlfriend, with the aid of his dishevelled best friend.
Amiable send-up of the zombie genre, with some good jokes.
w Simon Pegg, Edgar Wright d Edgar Wright ph David M. Dunlap m Daniel Mudford, Pete Woodhead pd Marcus Rowland ed Chris Dickens sp zombie fx: Stuart Conran ☆ Simon Pegg (Shaun), Kate Ashfield (Liz), Lucy Davis (Di), Nick Frost (Ed), Dylan Moran (David), Bill Nighy (Philip), Penelope Wilton (Barbara), Jessica Stevenson (Yvonne)
'As smart as paint. It's pacily directed, nicely acted and boasts a script crammed with real gags.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Fear can hold you prisoner. Hope can set you free.'

The Shawshank Redemption ★

US 1994 142m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock (Niki Marvin)

A banker, wrongly imprisoned for 20 years, and a murderer serving a life sentence revenge themselves on the prison warden who exploits them.
A melodrama of wasted lives and male bonding with a twist ending, more enjoyable for the performances than the narrative, which veers unpredictably between toughness and sentimentality.
wd Frank Darabont novel Stephen King ph Roger Deakins m Thomas Newman pd Terence Marsh ed Richard Francis-Bruce ☆ Tim Robbins, Morgan Freeman, Bob Gunton, William Sadler, Clancy Brown, James Whitmore, Gil Bellows, Mark Rolston, Jeffrey DeMunn
'The movie burns with dubious ardor. No one could disagree with its point of view. No one is likely to be much interested either.' – David Denby, New York
'An extremely satisfying entertainment.' – Entertainment Weekly best picture; Morgan Freeman; Frank Darabont; cinematography; film editing; Thomas Newman

'Young and beautiful for 500 years – and wicked every one of them!'

She ★

US 1935 89m bw
RKO (Merian C. Cooper)

Ancient papers lead a Cambridge professor and his friends to the lost city where dwells a queen who cannot die – until she falls in love.
The producers have the right spirit for this Victorian fantasy, but tried too hard to emulate the mood of their own King Kong, and it was a mistake to transfer the setting from Africa to the Arctic. One for connoisseurs, though.
w Ruth Rose, Dudley Nichols novel H. Rider Haggard d Irving Pichel, Lansing C. Holden ph J. Roy Hunt m Max Steiner ch Benjamin Zemach
☆ Randolph Scott, Nigel Bruce, Helen Gahagan
'Beautiful production, but story dubious for discriminating adults.' – Variety
'To an unrepentant Haggard fan it does sometimes seem to catch the thrill as well as the childishness of his invention.' – Graham Greene
'A spectacle of magnificent proportions with the decadent effluvium of the tomb period.' – Photoplay
'The stagey décor of Kor is in the art deco style of Radio City Music Hall, and you keep expecting the Rockettes to turn up.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
Benjamin Zemach

She

GB 1965 105m Technicolor Hammerscope
ABP/Hammer (Michael Carreras, Aida Young)

Explorers discover a lost city ruled by an immortal queen.
Flat, uninventive and tedious remake which reverts to Africa but does nothing else right; it ignores the essential Cambridge prologue and all suggestions of fantasy.
w David T. Chantler novel H. Rider Haggard d Robert Day ph Harry Waxman m James Bernard ad Robert Jones, Don Mingaye ed James Needs, Eric Boyd-Perkins
☆ Peter Cushing (Major Horace Holly), Ursula Andress (Ayesha), Christopher Lee (Billali), John Richardson (Leo Vincey), Bernard Cribbins (Job), André Morell (Haumei), Rosenda Monteros (Ustane)

She Beast

Italy 1965 76m Eastmancolor 'Scope
Leith (Paul M. Maslansky) original title: La Sorella di Satana
aka: Sister of Satan/Revenge of the Blood Beast

The spirit of a witch killed in the eighteen century possesses the body of an Englishwoman on her honeymoon in Transylvania.
A powerful opening, set in the past, gives way to a modern horror comedy, which is uncertain in tone and hampered by its low budget.
w Michael Byron (Michael Reeves) d Michael Reeves ph G. Gengarellli m Ralph Ferraro ed Nera Omri
☆ Barbara Steele, John Karlsen, Ian Ogilvy, Mel Welles, Jay Riley, Richard Watson, Ed Randolph, Peter Grippe, Lucrezia Love, Tony Antonelli

She Couldn't Say No

US 1952 89m bw
RKO (Robert Sparks)

GB title: Beautiful But Dangerous
An heiress returns to the town of her childhood to distribute anonymous gifts to those who had helped her.
Moderate Capraesque comedy which doesn't quite come off.
w D. D. Beauchamp, William Bowers, Richard Flournoy d Lloyd Bacon ph Harold J. Wild m Roy Webb
☆ Jean Simmons, Robert Mitchum, Arthur Hunnicutt, Edgar Buchanan, Wallace Ford, Raymond Walburn

She Couldn't Take It ★

US 1935 89m bw
Columbia (B. P. Schulberg)

A rich old reprobate meets a gangster in prison and puts him in charge of his rebellious family.
Little-known crazy comedy with touches of melodrama; not a success, but with interesting elements.
w Gene Towne, Oliver H. P. Garrett story Graham Baker d Tay Garnett ph Leon Shamroy
☆ George Raft, Joan Bennett, Walter Connolly, Billie Burke, Lloyd Nolan, Wallace Ford, Alan Mowbray, Donald Meek

The She Creature

US 1956 77m bw
AIP/Golden State (Alex Gordon)

An evil hypnotist regresses his subject back through time to summon up a murderous prehistoric monster from the sea.
Unusual B movie that concentrates less on the monster and more on its exploitation by a corrupt businessman.
w Lou Rusoff story Jerry Zigmond d Edward L. Cahn ph Frederick E. West m Ronald Stein ad Don Ament ed Ronald Sinclair
☆ Chester Morris, Tom Conway, Cathy Downs, Lance Fuller, Ron Randell, Frieda Inescort, Marla English

She Didn't Say No!

GB 1958 97m Technicolor
GW Films (Sergei Nolbandov)

A young Irish widow has five illegitimate children, each by a different father.
Coyly daring comedy full of stage Oirishisms and obvious jokes, a few of which work.
w T. J. Morison, Una Troy novel We Are Seven by Una Troy d Cyril Frankel ph Gilbert Taylor m Tristram Cary
☆ Eileen Herlie, Jack MacGowran, Perlita Neilson, Niall MacGinnis, Ian Bannen

She Done Him Wrong ★★★

US 1933 68m bw
Paramount (William Le Baron)

A lady saloon keeper of the Gay Nineties falls for the undercover cop who is after her.
As near undiluted Mae West as Hollywood ever came: fast, funny, melodramatic and pretty sexy; also a very atmospheric and well-made movie.
w Mae West play Diamond Lil by Mae West (with help on the scenario from Harry Thew, John Bright) d Lowell Sherman ph Charles Lang ad Robert Usher ed Al Hall songs Ralph Rainger (m), Leo Robin (ly)
☆ Mae West (Lady Lou), Cary Grant (Capt. Cummings), Owen Moore (Chick Clark), Gilbert Roland (Serge Stanieff), Noah Beery (Gus Jordan), David Landau (Dan Flynn), Rafaela Ottiano (Russian Rita), Rochelle Hudson (Sally Glynn), Dewey Robinson (Spider Kane)
DIAMOND LIL (MAE WEST): 'Listen, when women go wrong, men go right after them.'
DIAMOND LIL (MAE WEST): 'Why don't you come up sometime 'n see me? I'm home every evening.'
'Only alternative to a strong drawing cast, nowadays if a picture wants business, is strong entertainment. This one has neither.' – Variety ♫ 'Easy Rider'; 'Mazie'; 'A Guy What Takes His Time'; 'Frankie and Johnnie' best picture

She Freak

US 1967 87m colour
David F. Friedman

aka: Alley of Nightmares
A waitress leaves a diner, joins a carnival, marries a freak-show operator and ends up as a sideshow attraction.
Cheap and feeble exploitation movie that takes what little inspiration it has from Tod Browning's Freaks (qv); much of the film was shot without sound and, despite its brevity, is padded out with a great many irrelevant shots of fairground activities.
w David F. Friedman d Byron Mabe ph Bill Troiano m Billy Allen ed Byron Mabe ☆ Claire Brennen, Lee Raymond, Lynn Courtney, Bill McKinney, Claude Smith, Ben Moore, Felix Silla, Bill Bagdad

She Gets Her Man ★

US 1945 73m bw
Universal (Warren Wilson)

A country girl in New York tracks down a blowgun murderer.
Disarming mystery farce which tries every slapstick situation known to gag writers, and gets away with it.
w Warren Wilson, Clyde Bruckman d Erle C. Kenton ph Jerry Ash
☆ Joan Davis, William Gargan, Leon Errol, Milburn Stone, Russell Hicks

She Got Her Man: see Maisie (Maisie Gets Her Man)

She Has What It Takes

US 1943 66m bw
Colbert Clark/Columbia

A small-time singer masquerades as the long-lost daughter of a famous stage star.
An excuse for musical padding, for indulgent audiences.
w Paul Yawitz d Charles Barton
☆ Jinx Falkenburg, Tom Neal, Constance Worth, Joe King, The Radio Rogues, The Vagabonds

'One heterosexual male. 18 lesbians. His fee $10,000... each.'

She Hate Me

US/France 2004 138m colour
Columbia TriStar/40 Acres and a Mule Filmworks/Rule 8 (Spike Lee, Preston Holmes, Fernando Sulichin)

Fired for revealing a scandal at his biotech firm, a businessman finds other employment impregnating lesbians who want to have children.
A curious mix of corporate skullduggery and sexual politics that, whatever its intentions, has little point or purpose.
w Michael Genet, Spike Lee d Spike Lee ph Matthew Libatique m Terence Blanchard pd Brigitte Broch ed Barry Alexander Brown
☆ Anthony Mackie (John Henry Armstrong), Kerry Washington (Fatima Goodrich), Ellen Barkin (Margo Chadwick), Monica Bellucci (Simona Bonasera), Jim Brown (Geronimo Armstrong), Ossie Davis (Judge Buchanan), Brian Dennehy (Chairman Church), Woody Harrelson (Leland Powell)
'Scabrous, provocative and often funny social satire about the American dream.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

She Killed in Ecstasy

West Germany 1970 86m colour
Cinerama/Tele-Cine (Rudolph Herzog Jnr)

original title: Sie Tötete in Ekstase
The widow of a doctor, who killed himself after being struck off for experimenting on human embryos, takes revenge on those responsible for his expulsion.
A rarity from this director: a movie with an almost coherent narrative; unfortunately, it is an uninteresting one, being merely a peg on which to hang a few unimaginatively shot scenes of female nudity.

wd Frank Hollman (Jesús Franco) ph Manuel Merino m Manfred Hübler, Siegfried Schwab ed Clarissa Ambach
☆ Horst Tappert, Susann Korda, Fred Williams, Paul Müller, Howard Vernon, Ewa Stroemberg

She Knew All the Answers
US 1941 84m bw
Charles R. Rogers/Columbia
Prevented by his uncle from marrying a playboy, a chorine falls for the uncle.
Mildly merry comedy which came and went without being noticed.
w Harry Segall, Kenneth Earl, Curtis Kenyon story Jane Allen d Richard Wallace ☆ Joan Bennett, Franchot Tone, John Hubbard, Eve Arden, William Tracy

She Learned about Sailors
US 1934 82m bw
Fox
In Shanghai, a couple get married so that they will be permitted to leave; back home, they're not sure they want an annulment.
Mild comedy with music.
w William Conselman, Henry Johnson story Randall H. Faye d George Marshall ☆ Alice Faye, Lew Ayres, Harry Green, Frank Mitchell, Jack Durant

'The hi-de-hi of higher education!'
She Loves Me Not ★
US 1934 85m bw
Paramount (Benjamin Glazer)
A showgirl murder witness takes refuge in a men's college.
Larky musical farce later remade as True to the Army and How to be Very Very Popular; this first version is perhaps the most nearly amusing.
w Ben Glazer play Howard Lindsay novel Edward Hope d Elliott Nugent ph Charles Lang songs various ☆ Bing Crosby, Miriam Hopkins, Kitty Carlisle, Edward Nugent, Lynne Overman, Henry Stephenson, Warren Hymer, George Barbier ♪ song 'Love in Bloom' (m Ralph Rainger, ly Leo Robin)

She Married an Artist
US 1938 78m bw
Columbia
A wife becomes jealous of her husband's models.
Very mild romantic comedy.
w Avery Strakosch, Delmer Daves, Gladys Lehman d Marion Gering
☆ John Boles, Frances Drake, Albert Dekker

She Married Her Boss
US 1935 90m bw
Columbia
A secretary marries her boss and finds herself taken for granted.
Pleasant but rather thin romantic comedy with amiable stars.
w Sidney Buchman d Gregory La Cava ph Leon Shamroy ☆ Claudette Colbert, Melvyn Douglas, Raymond Walburn, Edith Fellows, Jean Dixon, Katherine Alexander

She Played with Fire: see Fortune is a Woman

She Shall Have Murder
GB 1950 90m bw
Concanen/IFD
A law clerk helps to solve the murder of an elderly client.
Old-fashioned light comedy whodunnit, the equivalent of reading a Crime Club thriller.
w Allan Mackinnon novel Delano Ames d Daniel Birt ph Robert Navarro m Eric Spear
☆ Rosamund John, Derrick de Marney, Mary Jerrold, Felix Aylmer, Joyce Heron, Beatrice Varley

She Shall Have Music
GB 1935 91m bw
Twickenham (Julius Hagen)
A band leader helps prevent dirty doings at sea.
A story that is no more than an excuse for a series of dull production numbers by Jack Hylton's Band and assorted singers.
w H. Fowler Mear, Arthur Macrae story Paul England d Leslie Hiscott ph Sydney Blythe, William Luff ad James Carter
☆ Claude Dampier, June Clyde, Jack Hylton

She Wanted a Millionaire
US 1932 74m bw
Fox
A girl spurns her childhood sweetheart for a rich man who turns out to be dangerous.
Curious comedy-melodrama which confuses its watchers.
w Sonya Levien story William Anthony McGuire d John G. Blystone ☆ Joan Bennett, Spencer Tracy, James Kirkwood, Una Merkel, Dorothy Peterson

'Beauty or beast? Woman or monster?'
She Wolf of London
US 1946 61m bw
Universal
GB title: The Curse of the Allenbys
A girl thinks she must be the family werewolf.
Risibly inept semi-horror melodrama with a highly implausible solution and poor production.
w George Bricker d Jean Yarbrough
☆ June Lockhart, Don Porter, Sara Haden, Lloyd Corrigan, Dennis Hoey, Martin Kosleck

She Wore a Yellow Ribbon ★★
US 1949 103m Technicolor
RKO/Argosy (John Ford, Merian C. Cooper)
Problems of a cavalry officer about to retire.
Fragmentary but very enjoyable Western with all Ford ingredients served piping hot.
w Frank Nugent, Laurence Stallings story James Warner Bellah d John Ford ph Winton C. Hoch m Richard Hageman
☆ John Wayne, Joanne Dru, John Agar, Ben Johnson, Harry Carey Jnr, Victor McLaglen, Mildred Natwick, George O'Brien, Arthur Shields
♪ Winton C. Hoch

She Wouldn't Say Yes
US 1945 87m bw
Columbia
A lady psychiatrist falls for the subject of an experiment.
Star comedy vehicle which falls rather flat.
w Laszlo Gorog, William Thiele, Virginia Van Upp, John Jacoby, Sarett Tobias d Alexander Hall
☆ Rosalind Russell, Lee Bowman, Charles Winninger, Adele Jergens

She Wrote the Book
US 1946 72m bw
Universal
A lady professor imagines herself to be the glamorous femme fatale heroine of a lurid novel.
Adventures of a female Walter Mitty; one of the star's better comedies.
w Warren Wilson, Oscar Brodney d Charles Lamont ☆ Joan Davis, Mischa Auer, Jack Oakie, Kirby Grant, John Litel, Gloria Stuart, Thurston Hall

She-Devil
US 1989 99m DuArt
Rank/Orion (Jonathan Brett, Susan Seidelman)
An unattractive housewife takes her revenge when her husband leaves her for a glamorous romantic novelist.
Unsuccessful and bland adaptation of the sour comedy of the original.
w Barry Strugatz, Mark R. Burns novel The Life and Loves of a She-Devil by Fay Weldon d Susan Seidelman ph Oliver Stapleton m Howard Shore pd Santo Loquasto ed Craig McKay ☆ Meryl Streep, Roseanne Barr, Ed Begley Jnr, Sylvia Miles, Linda Hunt, Elisebeth Peters, Bryan Larkin, A. Martinez

'Guts As Hard As The Steel Of Their 'Hogs'!'
She-Devils On Wheels
US 1968 83m colour
Mayflower Pictures/Herschell Gordon Lewis
A gang of female bikers indulge in sex and violence, including the decapitation of a rival male biker.
Ineptly written, poorly acted, photographed and directed – a sort of inferior home movie – it reveals that a cult reputation is not necessarily an indication of talent.
w Louise Downe d Herschell Gordon Lewis ph Roy Collodi m Larry Wellington pd Robert Enrietto ed Richard Brinkman ☆ Betty Connell, Nancy Lee Noble, Christie Wagner, Rodney Bedell

The She-Wolf
US 1931 90m bw
Universal
A woman gets rich but neglects her children.
Talkative filmed play, almost redeemed by its star performance.
w Winifred Dunn play Mother's Millions by Winifred Dunn d James Flood ☆ May Robson, James Hall, Lawrence Gray, Frances Dade

'When paradise became a battleground, she led the fight for survival!'
Sheena, Queen of the Jungle
US 1984 115m Metrocolor
Panavision
Columbia/Delphi II (Paul Aratow)
Orphaned when her explorer parents are killed, a white girl is raised by an African tribe.
Female Tarzan stuff from a comic strip, smoothly made but too rough and slightly too sexy for the family audience which must have been intended.
w David Newman, Lorenzo Semple Jnr d John Guillermin ph Pasqualino de Santis m Richard Hartley
☆ Tanya Roberts, Ted Wass, Donovan Scott

The Sheep Has Five Legs ★
France 1954 96m bw
Raoul Ploquin
original title: Le Mouton a Cinq Pattes
A town seeking publicity tries to bring together the five quintuplet grandsons of its oldest inhabitant.
Mildly saucy star vehicle which was in fact most notable for introducing Fernandel to an international audience.
w Albert Valentin d Henri Verneuil ph Armand Thirard m Georges Van Parys ☆ Fernandel, Françoise Arnoul, Delmont, Paulette Dubost, Louis de Funès
♪ original story

The Sheepman ★
US 1958 91m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Edmund Grainger)
A tough sheep farmer determines to settle in a cattle town.
Easy-going Western with humorous moments.
w William Bowers, James Edward Grant d George Marshall ph Robert Bronner m Jeff Alexander ☆ Glenn Ford, Shirley MacLaine, Leslie Nielsen, Mickey Shaughnessy, Edgar Buchanan
♪ script

'When an Arab sees a woman he wants, he takes her!' – ancient Arabian proverb'
'A photoplay of tempestuous love between a madcap English beauty and a bronzed Arab chief!'
The Sheik ★
US 1921 73m (24 fps) bw silent
Famous Players-Lasky/George Melford
An English heiress falls for a desert chieftain.
Archetypal romantic tosh which set the seal on Valentino's superstardom.
w Monte M. Katterjohn novel E. M. Hull d George Melford ph William Marshall ☆ Rudolph Valentino, Agnes Ayres, Adolphe Menjou, Walter Long, Lucien Littlefield † Son of the Sheik, released in 1926, was even more popular.

The Sheik Steps Out
US 1937 68m bw
Republic (Herman Schlom)
A modern sheik has a riotous time in the big city.
Uninventive spoof of the Valentino myth.
w Adele Buffington, Gordon Kahn d Irving Pichel ph Jack Marta md Alberto Colombo ☆ Ramon Novarro, Lola Lane, Gene Lockhart, Kathleen Burke, Stanley Fields
'Novarro in a comeback start. An action picture of the desert for the lower half of the duals.' – Variety

Sheitan Ⓢ
France 2006 92m
Tartan/120 Films / La Chauve-Souris / Studio Canal (Vincent Cassel / Eric Névé)
UK theatrical: Satan
After Bart is hit over the head with a bottle, Eve invites Yasmine, Thai, Ladj and Bart to leave a dance club and drive to her farmhouse in the country. Joseph appears strangely enthusiastic about Bart while Joseph's unseen wife is very pregnant. And it's Christmas Eve, although all the guests are non-believers.
The classic ingredients for this contemporary horror film include a young woman, a trio of horny guys, a creepy rural manse and a slightly demonic caretaker. The camera work mostly is hand-held and contributes to the sense of unease and foreboding although finally it doesn't all add up.

w Kim Chapiron, Christian Chapiron
d Kim Chapiron ph Alex Lamarque
m Nguyen Le pd Marie-Helène Sulmoni
ed Benjamin Weill
☆ Olivier Barthelemy (Bart), Leila Bekhti (Yasmine), Roxane Mesquida (Eve), Nico Le Phat Tan (Thai), Ladj Ly (Ladj), Vincent Cassel (Joseph)

She'll Be Wearing Pink Pajamas

GB 1985 90m Eastmancolor
Virgin/Pink Pajamas/Film Four International (Tara Prem, John Goldschmidt)

Women go on an outdoor survival course.
Basically an excuse for a lot of female nattering; it might have seemed more appealing under a more sensible title.
w Eva Hardy d John Goldschmidt
ph Clive Tickner m John Du Prez
pd Colin Pocock ed Richard Key ☆ Julie Walters, Anthony Higgins, Jane Evers, Janet Henfrey, Paula Jacobs

She'll Have to Go

GB 1962 90m bw
Anglo-Amalgamated/Asher Brothers
US title: Maid to Murder

Two brothers plan to murder the woman who has inherited their home; when they meet her, both decide to marry her.
A ponderous farce: instead of the needed lightness of touch, there is a great deal of mugging from its cast, who are all determined to let the audience know it's meant to be funny.
w Ian Stuart Black, John Waterhouse play We Must Kill Toni by Ian Stuart Black d Robert Asher ph Jack Asher m Philip Green ed Gerry Hambling ☆ Bob Monkhouse, Alfred Marks, Hattie Jacques, Anna Karina, Dennis Lotis, Clive Dunn, Peter Butterworth, Graham Stark, Hugh Lloyd, Harry Locke

'A woman's dangerous and erotic journey beneath...'

The Sheltering Sky ★★

GB/Italy 1990 138m Technicolor Technovision
Palace/Sahara Company/TAO Film/Recorded Picture Company/Aldrich Group (Jeremy Thomas)

An American couple wander through North Africa in search of themselves.
Austere, stunningly photographed movie that yields rewards if approached on its own terms.
w Mark Peploe, Bernardo Bertolucci novel Paul Bowles d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Vittorio Storaro m Ryuichi Sakamoto, Richard Horowitz pd Gianni Silvestri
ed Gabriella Cristiani
☆ Debra Winger, John Malkovich, Campbell Scott, Jill Bennett, Timothy Spall, Eric Vu-An, Amina Annabi, Philippe Morier-Genoud, Paul Bowles

'It refuses to indulge those who believe movies should be easy and edifying, with characters worth snuggling up to.' – Richard Corliss, Time

Shen Jing Dao Yu Fei Tian Mao: see Flying Dagger

Shenandoah ★★

US 1965 105m Technicolor
Universal (Robert Arthur)

How the American Civil War affected the lives of a Virginia family.
Surprisingly hard-centred and moving semi-Western for the family; excellent performances and well-controlled mood.
w James Lee Barrett d Andrew V. McLaglen ph William Clothier m Frank Skinner md Joseph Gershenson
☆ James Stewart, Rosemary Forsyth, Doug McClure, Glenn Corbett, Katharine Ross, Philip Alford

Shepherd of the Hills ★

US 1941 98m Technicolor
Paramount/Jack Moss

Ozarkian backwoodsmen enjoy their lifestyle except for the intrusions of the revenue men and a mysterious stranger.
Early colour adaptation of a long-favourite American story, deliberately styled for rural audiences.
w Grover Jones, Stuart Anthony novel Harold Bell Wright Jnr d Henry Hathaway ph Charles Lang Jnr, W. Howard Greene m Gerard Carbonara
☆ John Wayne, Betty Field, Harry Carey, Beulah Bondi, James Barton, Samuel S. Hinds, Marjorie Main, Ward Bond, Marc Lawrence, John Qualen, Fuzzy Knight

Shergar

GB/US 2000 93m DeLuxe
Nu Image/Blue Rider/Morlaw/IoMFC (Brian Agnew, Jeff Geoffray, Walter Josten)

A stable lad cares for a famous racehorse kidnapped by the IRA and runs away with the animal when the IRA ordered it killed.
A fiction based on the factual disappearance of Shergar in 1983; it never breaks into a gallop.
wd Denis C. Lewiston ph David Lewis
m John Scott pd Brian Ackland-Snow
ed Alan Strachan
☆ Ian Holm (Joseph Maguire), David Warner (Garritty), Mickey Rourke (Gavin O'Rourke), Andrew Connolly (Concannon), Laura Murphy (Kate), Tom Walsh (Kevin Doherty), Alan Barker (Elliott Smyth), Billy Boyle (Carrigan)

'There's something almost endearing about the film's eager embrace of every available narrative cliché.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound
† The film was shot in 1998.

The Sheriff of Fractured Jaw

GB 1958 103m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF/Daniel M. Angel

A London gunsmith in the old west accidentally becomes a hero.
Tame, predictable comedy with a clear lack of invention.
w Arthur Dales (Howard Dimsdale) story Jacob Hay d Raoul Walsh ph Otto Heller m Robert Farnon ☆ Kenneth More, Jayne Mansfield, Robert Morley, Ronald Squire, David Horne, Henry Hull, Eynon Evans, Bruce Cabot, William Campbell
† Howard Dimsdale wrote the script under a pseudonym because of the blacklist.

Sherlock Holmes

The innumerable Sherlock Holmes films are noted in Filmgoer's Companion, and in this volume the appropriate films are listed under their own titles including the modernized dozen made in the forties by Universal, starring Basil Rathbone as Holmes and Nigel Bruce as Watson. These followed on from Fox's two period pieces, The Hound of the Baskervilles and The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes (qv). The series started and ended somewhat lamely but several of the episodes remain highly enjoyable, for performances and dialogue rather than plot or pacing. All but the first were directed by Roy William Neill.
1942 Sherlock Holmes and the Voice of Terror (d John Rawlins, with Reginald Denny, Thomas Gomez), Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Weapon (L* (with Lionel Atwill as Moriarty)
1943 Sherlock Holmes in Washington (V* (with Henry Daniell, George Zucco), Sherlock Holmes Faces Death (V, L) (with Halliwell Hobbes, Dennis Hoey)
1944 Sherlock Holmes and the Spider Woman (V) (with Gale Sondergaard, Dennis Hoey), The Scarlet Claw (with Gerald Hamer), The Pearl of Death (with Miles Mander, Dennis Hoey, Rondo Hatton)
1945 The House of Fear* (with Aubrey Mather, Dennis Hoey), The Woman in Green (L* (with Henry Daniell as Moriarty), Pursuit to Algiers (with Martin Kosleck) 1946 Terror by Night (V* (with Alan Mowbray), Dressed to Kill (GB title: Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Code (V); with Patricia Morison)

Sherlock Holmes ★

US 1932 68m bw
Fox

Moriarty brings Chicago gangsters into London.
Interesting but rather unsatisfactory Holmes adventure.
w Bertram Milhauser d William K. Howard ph George Barnes
☆ Clive Brook, Reginald Owen, Ernest Torrence, Miriam Jordan, Alan Mowbray, Herbert Mundin

'Old-fashioned artificial stage play with modern trimmings that only muddle it. The interpolated modern gangster angle will mystify the mugs who go for underworld and it's a late day to offer the Conan Doyle thing straight to educated clienteles.' – Variety

Sherlock Holmes: see The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes (1939)

Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Code: see Dressed to Kill (1946)

Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Weapon ★

US 1942 68m bw
Universal (Howard Benedict)

Sherlock Holmes saves a stolen bombsight from Nazi agents.
Slightly stiff modernized Holmes story with amusing ingredients.
w Edward T. Lowe, W. Scott Darling, Edmund L. Hartmann, vaguely based on The Dancing Men by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle
d Roy William Neill ph Les White
m Frank Skinner
☆ Basil Rathbone (Sherlock Holmes), Nigel Bruce (Dr Watson), Lionel Atwill (Moriarty), Dennis Hoey, Karen Verne, William Post Jnr, Mary Gordon

Sherlock Holmes and the Spider Woman: see Spider Woman

Sherlock Holmes and the Voice of Terror

US 1942 65m bw
Universal (Howard Benedict)

Sherlock Holmes unmasks a Lord Haw Haw in the war cabinet.
Fairly risible first entry in the modernized series, with a Hollywood view of London and a singular haircut for the star.
w Lynn Riggs story His Last Bow by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle d John Rawlins
ph Woody Bredell m Frank Skinner
☆ Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Hillary Brooke, Reginald Denny, Evelyn Ankers, Montagu Love, Thomas Gomez, Mary Gordon

Sherlock Holmes: Dressed to Kill: see Dressed to Kill (1946)

Sherlock Holmes Faces Death ★★

US 1943 68m bw
Universal (Roy William Neill)

Weird murders occur in a convalescent home for retired officers.
One of the better entries in this rather likeable modernized series; fairly close to the original story except that the events don't make a lot of sense.
w Bertram Millhauser story The Musgrave Ritual by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle d Roy William Neill ph Charles Van Enger
m Hans Salter
☆ Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Hillary Brooke, Milburn Stone, Halliwell Hobbes, Arthur Margetson, Dennis Hoey, Gavin Muir, Frederic Worlock, Olaf Hytten, Gerald Hamer, Mary Gordon, Vernon Downing

Sherlock Holmes in Washington ★

US 1943 70m bw
Universal (Howard Benedict)

Sherlock Holmes flies west and prevents Nazi spies from grabbing a microfilmed document concealed in a match folder.
Moderate adventure in the modernized series, with a good beginning and end but a sag in the middle.
w Bertram Millhauser, Lynn Riggs d Roy William Neill ph Lester White m Frank Skinner ☆ Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Henry Daniell, George Zucco, Marjorie Lord, John Archer, Gavin Muir

Sherlock Junior ★★★

US 1924 45m (24 fps) bw silent
Metro/Buster Keaton (Joseph M. Schenck)

A film projectionist, unjustly accused of stealing a watch, has dreams of being a great detective.
Fast-moving, gag-filled comedy which ranks among its star's best.
w Clyde Bruckman, Jean Havez, Joseph Mitchell ph Elgin Lessley, Byron Houck d/ed Buster Keaton ☆ Buster Keaton, Kathryn McGuire, Ward Crane, Joseph Keaton

'There's more to attraction than meets the eye.'

She's All That

US 1999 96m DeLuxe
Miramax/Tapestry/Film Colony (Peter Abrams, Robert L. Levy, Richard N. Gladstein)

Smarting after losing his girlfriend, a high school student bets that he can make even the unlikiest girl into the prom queen.

Familiar variation on Pygmalion, the sort of tale that has been a staple of romantic comedies for generations; all that happens here is that it is combined with equally familiar high-school clichés.
w R. Lee Fleming Jnr d Robert Iscove ph Francis Kenny m Stewart Copeland pd Charles Breen ed Casey O Rohrs
☆ Freddie Prinze Jnr (Zack Siler), Rachael Leigh Cook (Laney Boggs), Matthew Lillard (Brock Hudson), Paul Walker (Dean Sampson), Jodi Lyn O'Keefe (Taylor Vaughan), Kevin Pollak (Wayne Boggs), Anna Paquin (Mackenzie Siler), Kieran Culkin (Simon Boggs), Elden Henson (Jesse Jackson), Usher Raymond (Campus D.J.), Kimberly 'Lil' Kim' Jones (Alex), Gabrielle Union (Katie), Dule Hill (Preston Harrison)
'Feels like it could have been made by a team of septuagenarians from the glory days of American Intl. Pictures. The overall mood is one of condescension to the milieu, the material and teen filmgoers.' – Godfrey Cheshire, Variety

She's Got Everything
US 1937 70m bw
RKO
A young woman in debt meets a stuffed shirt coffee planter.
Mild comedy which never seems to jell despite the talent assembled.
w Harry Segall, Maxwell Shane d Joseph Santley
☆ Ann Sothern, Gene Raymond, Victor Moore, Helen Broderick, Parkyakarkus, Billy Gilbert

She's Gotta Have It
US 1986 84m bw/colour
40 Acres And A Mule Filmworks (Shelton J. Lee)
Three men woo the same woman.
Smart, but ultimately tiresome, comedy as the men explain one-by-one and then together why each would make the perfect lover.
wd Spike Lee ph Ernest Dickerson m Bill Lee pd Wynn Thomas ed Spike Lee ☆ Tracy Camilla Johns, Tommy Redmon Hicks, John Canada Terrell, Raye Dowell, Joie Lee, Spike Lee

She's Out of Control
US 1989 95m CFI color
Columbia TriStar/Weintraub Entertainment (Stephen Deutsch)
A widower follows the advice of a psychiatrist in trying to control the sex life of his teenage daughter.
Lifeless and singularly witless comedy.
w Seth Winston, Michael J. Nathanson d Stan Dragoti ph Donald Peterman m Alan Silvestri pd David L. Snyder ed Dov Hoenig
☆ Tony Danza, Catherine Hicks, Wallace Shawn, Dick O'Neill, Ami Dolenz, Laura Mooney, Derek McGrath, Dana Ashbrook
'The movie begins shakily and ends feebly, but, in between, is often sharp and funny.' – Philip French, Observer

'The story of one outrageous woman. Caught between two men. Both of them certain of one thing...'

She's So Lovely
US/France 1997 97m colour
Miramax/Clyde is Hungry/Hachette (Rene Cleitman)
A wife and mother is forced to choose between her husband and her violent former husband, who has been released from a mental institution after ten years.
An unconvincing triangular love story with overheated performances; the script was written more than 20 years ago and it shows its age.
w John Cassavetes d Nick Cassavetes
ph Thierry Arbogast m Joseph Vitarelli pd David Wasco ed Petra Van Oefflen ☆ Sean Penn, Robin Wright Penn, John Travolta, Harry Dean Stanton, Debi Mazar, James Gandolfini, Gena Rowlands, Kelsey Mulrooney
'A vastly uneven, only intermittently enjoyable film.' – Variety

She's the Man
US 2006 105m Technicolor
Entertainment/DreamWorks/Lakeshore (Lauren Shuler Donner, Ewan Leslie)
A girl pretends to be her twin brother at his new school so that she can join the soccer team.
Feeble comedy that travesties Shakespeare for no good reason.
w Ewan Leslie, Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith inspired by Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare d Andy Fickman
ph Greg Gardiner m Nathan Wang pd David J. Bomba ed Michael Jablow
☆ Amanda Bynes (Viola), Channing Tatum (Duke), Laura Ramsey (Olivia), Vinnie Jones (Dinklage), Robert Hoffman (Justin), Alex Breckinridge (Monique), Julie Hagerty (Daphne)
'There have been some very smart American high school pictures paying homage to Shakespeare: but this notional twist on Twelfth Night is dire.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'There I sit, suffering total numbness of body and brain, no longer having to wonder what it might be like to be buried alive in gooey marshmallow.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

'A film about love, marriage, happiness ... and the little distractions in between.'

She's the One ★
US 1996 96m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Good Machine/Marlboro (Ted Hope, James Schamus, Edward Burns)
Two brothers with marital problems come to blows before they resolve their troubles.
Much in the vein of Burns's first film, The Brothers McMullen (qv), this explores the interaction between members of a family, in which women provide the catalyst for some soul-searching.
wd Edward Burns ph Frank Prinzi m Tom Petty pd William Barclay ed Susan Graef
☆ Jennifer Aniston, Maxine Bahns, Edward Burns, Cameron Diaz, John Mahoney, Mike McGlone, Anita Gillette
'While it is never quite as funny or sassy as its credentials promise, it still makes for an easy going diversion.' – Empire

'She shakes the student body like it's never been shook before!'

She's Working Her Way through College
US 1952 101m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)
A burlesque queen goes to college and brings out the beast in an English professor.
Limp and vulgar musical remake of a well-liked play and film; just about gets by as a lowbrow timekiller.
w Peter Milne play The Male Animal by James Thurber, Elliott Nugent d H. Bruce Humberstone ph Wilfrid Cline md Ray Heindorf ch Le Roy Prinz ad Charles H. Clarke ed Clarence Kolster songs Sammy Cahn, Vernon Duke
☆ Virginia Mayo, Ronald Reagan, Don Defore, Gene Nelson, Phyllis Thaxter, Patrice Wymore † Sequel 1953: She's Back on Broadway.
♫ 'I'll Be Loving You'; 'Love Is Still For Free'; 'The Stuff That Dreams Are Made Of'

Shi Mian Mai Fu: see House of Flying Daggers

Shichi-nin no Samurai: see Seven Samurai

Shidi Chuma: see The Young Master

Shillaeui Dalban: see Kick the Moon

Shiloh
US 1996 93m colour
Utopia/Carl Borack/Zeta (Zane W. Levitt, Dale Rosenbloom)
A young boy takes care of a runaway beagle, owned by a cruel hunter.
Amiable, predictable tale of puppy love.
wd Dale Rosenbloom novel Phyllis Reynolds Naylor ph Frank Byers m Joel Goldsmith pd Amy Ancona ed Mark Westmore
☆ Michael Moriarty, Rod Steiger, Blake Heron, Scott Wilson, Bonnie Bartlett, Ann Dowd

Shimotsuma Monogatari: see Kamikaze Girls

Shin Kanashaki Hitman: see Another Lonely Hitman

Shin Zatoichi Monogatari: see Zaotichi: The Blind Swordsman's Return

Shin Zatoichi Monogatari: Kasama No Chimatsuri: see Zatoichi at the Blood Fest

Shin Zatoichi Monogatari: Oreta Tsue: see Zatoichi in Desperation

Shine ★★★ (9)
Australia/GB 1996 105m Cinevex
Buena Vista/AFFC/Momentum/SAFC/Film Victoria (Jane Scott)
A promising classical pianist, dominated by his anxious and repressive father, suffers a mental breakdown, from which he is eventually rescued by an unexpected love.
Moving, superbly acted drama of tragedy and redemption that brilliantly evokes a man's alienation from his roots and his disintegration, as well as his re-emergence into the world.
w Jan Sardi story Scott Hicks d Scott Hicks ph Geoffrey Simpson m David Hirschfelder pd Vicki Niehus ed Pip Karmel
☆ Geoffrey Rush (David as an Adult), Armin Mueller-Stahl (Peter), Noah Taylor (David as a Young Man), Lynn Redgrave (Gillian), Googie Withers (Katharine Susannah Prichard), Sonia Todd (Sylvia), Nicholas Bell (Ben Rosen), John Gielgud (Cecil Parkes), Chris Haywood (Sam)
'A throwback to the best of old-fashioned Hollywood movies, able to move an audience without insulting it in the process.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
† The film is based on the life of pianist David Helfgott, who embarked on an international concert tour following the film's release, and also played at the Oscars award ceremony in 1997.
†† It won nine Australian Film Institute awards, including best picture, best director, best actor (Geoffrey Rush) and best original screenplay.
Geoffrey Rush
best picture; Scott Hicks (as director and writer); Jan Sardi; Armin Mueller-Stahl; David Hirschfelder; Pip Karmel
Geoffrey Rush

Shine on Harvest Moon ★
US 1944 112m bw (Technicolor sequence)
Warner (William Jacobs)
The life and times of vaudeville singer Nora Bayes.
Standard ragtime biopic, very adequately made.
w Sam Hellman, Richard Weil, Francis Swan, James Kern d David Butler
ph Arthur Edeson md Heinz Roemheld
☆ Ann Sheridan, Dennis Morgan, Jack Carson, Irene Manning, S. Z. Sakall, Marie Wilson, Robert Shayne

Shiner
GB 2000 99m colour 'Scope
Momentum/Wisecroft/Visionview (Geoff Reeve)
A dubious boxing promoter gets into more trouble than he can handle when his son fights for a shot at a world title.
Caine makes a convincing hard man here, and the sensibilities of London's low-life are well caught, but nothing, especially not its variation on Shakespeare's King Lear, can save the movie from its inadequate script.
w Scott Cherry d John Irvin ph Mike Molloy m Paul Grabowsky pd Austen Spriggs ed Ian Crafford
☆ Michael Caine (Billy 'Shiner' Simpson), Frank Spedding (Martin Landau), Frances Barber (Georgie), Claire Rushbrook (Ruth), Frank Harper (Stoney), Andy Serkis (Mel), Matthew Marsden (Eddie 'Golden Boy' Simpson), Gary Lewis (Vic)
'Brutal, hard-edged, unsqueamish...a film that's British to its back teeth. Ones that are not even Hollywood-capped.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'All work and no play make Jack a dull boy...'

The Shining ★
GB 1980 119m colour
Warner/Stanley Kubrick
Under the influence of a desolate hotel where murders had occurred, a caretaker goes berserk and threatens his family.
Uninteresting ghost story sparked by meticulous detail and sets but finally vitiated by overlength and an absurdly over-the-top star performance.
w Stanley Kubrick, Diane Johnson novel Stephen King d Stanley Kubrick ph John Alcott m Bela Bartok (on record)
pd Roy Walker
☆ Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall, Danny Lloyd, Barry Nelson, Scatman Crothers, Philip Stone
'The truly amazing question is why a director of Kubrick's stature would spend his time and effort on a novel that he changes so much it's barely recognizable, taking away whatever originality it possessed while emphasizing its banality. The answer presumably is that Kubrick was looking for a "commercial" property he could impose his own vision on, and Warners, not having learned its lesson with Barry Lyndon, was silly enough to let him do it.' – Variety
'A grandiose horror tale which consumes itself, snake-like, swallowing its own tail in a series of narrowing spirals.' – Sunday Times

The Shining Hour
US 1938 76m bw
MGM

A night-club dancer marries a gentleman farmer, but has trouble with his family.
Overcast melodrama with insufficient basic interest in the characters.
w Ogden Nash, Jane Murfin play Keith Winter d Frank Borzage
☆ Joan Crawford, Melvyn Douglas, Margaret Sullavan, Robert Young, Fay Bainter, Allyn Joslyn, Hattie McDaniel
'A confused jumble of cross-purpose motivations and situations that fail entirely to arouse interest.' – Variety

'He needed to trust her with his secret. She had to trust him with her life.'

Shining Through
US 1992 132m Panavision
TCF/Peter V. Miller Investment Corp/Sandollar (Howard Rosenman, Carol Baum)

A secretary recalls how she fell in love with a lawyer and became an American spy in wartime Berlin.
Glossily romantic thriller, not only soft-centred but also coated in marshmallow.
wd David Seltzer novel Susan Isaacs ph Jan de Bont m Michael Kamen
pd Anthony Pratt ed Craig McKay
☆ Michael Douglas (Ed Leland), Melanie Griffith (Linda Voss), Liam Neeson (Franze-Otto Dietrich), Joely Richardson (Margrete Von Eberstein), John Gielgud (Konrad Friedrichs), Francis Guinan (Andrew Berringer), Sylvia Syms (Linda's Mother), Stanley Beard (Linda's Father)
'Little more than a big, brassy Hallmark card with a World War II backdrop.' – Variety
'Fun, in an extravagant, hopelessly retrograde fashion.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

Shinjuku Dorobo Nikki: see Diary of a Shinjuku Thief

Shinobi: Heart Under Blade
Japan 2006 102m colour
Shochiku/Nippon TV/Eisei Gekuo/Yomiuri Shimbun (Takeo Hisamatsu, Nozomu Enoki, Hiroyuki Sato)

In 1614, lovers from opposing clans of ninjas with supernatural powers are among warriors chosen to fight one another to the death to settle a dispute between the two groups.
With its weak romance, this is a movie that depends upon its action, and that is too full of magic – poison mists and kisses, whirlwinds of leaves and killer rays – to be effective.
w Kenya Hirata story Futaro Yamada
d Ten Shimoyama ph Masashi Chikamori
m Taro Iwashiro ad Toshihiro Isomi
ed sao Kawase
☆ Yukie Nakama (Oboro), Joe Odagiri (Kouga), Tomoka Kurotani (Kagero), Erika Sawajiri (Hotarubi), Kippei Shiina (Yakushiji Tenzen)
'Helming is functional, but cannot fulfill the action ambitions of the piece.' – Variety

Ship Ahoy
US 1942 95m bw
MGM (Jack Cummings)

On a trip to Puerto Rico, a tap dancer is enlisted as a spy.
Tepid musi-comedy.
w Harry Clork d Edward Buzzell ph Leonard Smith md George Stoll
ad Merrill Pye
☆ Eleanor Powell, Red Skelton, Bert Lahr, Virginia O'Brien, William Post Jnr, James Cross

Ship Café
US 1935 65m bw
Harold Hurley/Paramount

A singing stoker wins a rich girl.
Musical star vehicle of the lower class.
w Harlan Thompson, Herbert Fields
d Robert Florey
☆ Carl Brisson, Arline Judge, Mady Christians, William Frawley, Eddie Davis

Ship of Fools ★★★
US 1965 150m bw
Columbia/Stanley Kramer

In 1933 a German liner leaves Vera Cruz for Bremerhaven with a mixed bag of passengers.
Ambitious, serious, quite fascinating slice-of-life shipboard multi-melodrama. Capable mounting, memorable performances and a bravura finale erase memories of padding and symbolic pretensions.
w Abby Mann novel Katherine Anne Porter d Stanley Kramer ph Ernest Laszlo m Ernest Gold ed Robert C. Jones
☆ Vivien Leigh (Mary Treadwell), Simone Signoret (La Condesa), Oskar Werner (Dr. Schumann), Heinz Ruhmann (Lowenthal), José Ferrer (Rieber), Lee Marvin (Tenny), Elizabeth Ashley (Jenny), Michael Dunn (Glocken), George Segal (David), Jose Greco (Pepe), Charles Korvin (Capt. Thiele), Alf Kjellin (Freytag), Werner Klemperer (Lt. Heebner), John Wengraf (Graf), Lilia Skala (Frau Hutten) and also Karen Verne
GLOCKEN (MICHAEL DUNN): 'My name is Karl Glocken, and this is a ship of fools. I'm a fool. You'll meet more fools as we go along. This tub is packed with them. Emancipated ladies and ballplayers. Lovers. Dog lovers. Ladies of joy. Tolerant Jews, Dwarfs. All kinds. And who knows – if you look closely enough, you may even find yourself on board!'
'When you're not being hit over the head with the symbolism, you're being punched in the stomach by would-be inventive camera work while the music score unremittingly fills your nostrils with acrid exhalations.' – John Simon
'There is such wealth of reflection upon the human condition, so subtle an orchestration of the elements of love and hate, that it is not fair to tag this with the label of any other film.' – New York Times
Ernest Laszlo
best picture; Abby Mann; Simone Signoret; Oskar Werner; Michael Dunn

The Ship that Died of Shame
GB 1955 91m bw
Ealing (Michael Relph)

The wartime crew of a motor gunboat buy the vessel and go into postwar business as smugglers.
Thin and rather obvious melodramatic fable.
w John Whiting, Michael Relph, Basil Dearden novel Nicholas Monsarrat
d Basil Dearden ph Gordon Dines
m William Alwyn
☆ Richard Attenborough, George Baker, Bill Owen, Virginia McKenna, Roland Culver, Bernard Lee, Ralph Truman, John Chandos
'A sentimental fantasy tacked on to a basically conventional thriller.' – Penelope Houston

A Ship to India ★
Sweden 1947 102m bw
Sveriges Folkbiografer (Lorens Marmstedt) original title: Skepp Till Indialand
aka: The Land of Desire

A hunchbacked sailor, returning after seven years at sea and searching for the woman he loved, recalls how the affair began after his father, a bullying tugboat captain, brought her aboard.
Despite the movie's low-budget origins, a sombre, claustrophobic and complex study of relationships and damaged lives which builds to a hopeful ending.
wd Ingmar Bergman play Martin Soederhjelm ph Goran Strindberg
m Erland von Koch ad O. A. Lundgren
ed Tage Holmberg
☆ Holger Lowenadler (Alexander Blom), Anna Lindahl (Alice Blom), Birger Malmsten (Johannes), Gertrud Fridh (Sally), Naemi Briese (Selma), Hjordis Pettersson (Sofie)

The Ship Was Loaded: see Carry On Admiral

Shipbuilders
GB 1943 89m bw
British National

A cavalcade of the problems of a Clydeside tycoon in the thirties.
Plodding propaganda piece ending with masters and unions working for Britain.
w Gordon Wellesley, Stephen Potter, Reginald Pound d John Baxter ☆ Clive Brook, Morland Graham, Finlay Currie, Maudie Edwards

Shipmates Forever
US 1935 124m bw
Warner

An admiral's son disappoints his dad by preferring song and dance to the navy.
Very stretched light musical without any overpowering talents.
w Delmer Daves d Frank Borzage
☆ Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Lewis Stone, Ross Alexander, Eddie Acuff, Dick Foran

'Dive beneath the surface.'

The Shipping News
US 2001 111m DeLuxe Super 35
Buena Vista/Miramax (Irwin Winkler)

After the death of his promiscuous wife, a timid man finds redemption for himself and his young daughter by returning to his father's old home in Newfoundland.
Weakly-told, sentimental fable that has all the depth and interest of a small puddle.
w Robert Nelson Jacobs novel E. Annie Proulx d Lasse Hallström ph Oliver Stapleton m Christopher Young pd David Gropman ed Andrew Mondshein
☆ Kevin Spacey (Quoyle), Julianne Moore (Wavey Prowse), Judi Dench (Agnis Hamm), Cate Blanchett (Petal), Pete Postlethwaite (Tert Card), Scott Glenn (Jack Buggit), Rhys Ifans (Beaufield Nutbeem), Gordon Pinsent (Billy Pretty), Jason Behr (Dennis Buggit), Larry Pine (Bayonet Melville), Alyssa Gainer/Kaitlyn Gainer/Lauren Gainer (Bunny)
'The final product is soft at the center, a rustic cinematic greeting card.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
'A movie that engrosses, hypnotizes and clings to the memory long after the final frame.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer
'Some novels need to be left alone. Hear that, Hollywood?' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

Ships with Wings ★
GB 1941 103m bw
Ealing (S. C. Balcon)

Aircraft carriers prepare for World War II.
Historically interesting, dramatically insubstantial flagwaver.
w Sergei Nolbandov, Patrick Kirwan, Austin Melford, Diana Morgan d Sergei Nolbandov ph Max Greene, Eric Cross, Roy Kellino, Wilkie Cooper m Geoffrey Wright
☆ John Clements, Leslie Banks, Jane Baxter, Ann Todd, Basil Sydney, Edward Chapman, Hugh Williams, Frank Pettingell, Michael Wilding

Shipyard Sally
GB 1939 79m bw
TCF (Edward Black)

A barmaid persuades a shipyard owner to reopen.
Sub-Ealing style comedy with music which manages to bring in management and man as well as waving a flag or two.
w Karl Tunberg, Don Ettlinger d Monty Banks ph Otto Kanturek ☆ Gracie Fields, Sydney Howard, Morton Selten, Norma Varden, Oliver Wakefield
'This picture has the embarrassment of a charade where you don't know the performers well.' – Graham Greene

Shiqisuide Danche: see Beijing Bicycle

The Shiralee ★
GB 1957 99m bw
Ealing (Jack Rix)

An Australian swagman leaves his wife and takes to the road with his small daughter.
Episodic character comedy-drama throwing a fairly sharp light on the Australian scene.
w Neil Paterson, Leslie Norman novel D'Arcy Niland d Leslie Norman
ph Paul Beeson m John Addison ☆ Peter Finch, Dana Wilson, Elizabeth Sellars, George Rose, Russell Napier, Niall MacGinnis, Tessie O'Shea

Shiri ★ (5)
South Korea 1999 124m colour
Metro Tartan/Samsung/Kang Je-Gyu (Lee Kwan-Hak, Byun Moo-Rim)

South Korean agents track a North Korean sniper and commando unit who steal an experimental explosive.
Slam-bang action movie with an involved love triangle and a plot to unite both Korean countries by blowing one up; it doesn't make much sense but is efficiently made and was a big hit in its home country.
wd Kang Je-Gyu ph Kim Seong-Bok
m Lee Dong-Jun pd Oh Sang-Man
ed Park Gok-Ji
☆ Han Suk-Gyu (Ryu), Song Kang-Ho (Lee), Kim Yun-Jin (Hyun), Choi Min-Sik (Park), Derek Kim (Jung)
'Overlong, engrossing (if not always intelligible) thriller.' – Philip French, Observer
'The movie suffers from all the excesses of the genre: gunfights that go on and on and on, a plot that is almost incomprehensible.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post
† The movie was South Korea's most successful movie, out-grossing Titanic in its homeland.

Shirley Valentine ★★
US 1989 108m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Lewis Gilbert)

A bored housewife abandons her husband to enjoy a holiday romance in Greece.

Enjoyably old-fashioned movie, with some entertaining monologues on her narrow existence from its heroine.
w Willy Russell play Willy Russell
d Lewis Gilbert ph Alan Hune m Willy Russell, George Hatzinassios pd John Stoll ed Lesley Walker
☆ Pauline Collins, Tom Conti, Julia McKenzie, Alison Steadman, Joanna Lumley, Sylvia Syms, Bernard Hill
♗ Pauline Collins; song 'The Girl Who Used to be Me' (m Marvin Hamlisch; l Alan and Marilyn Bergman)
♈ Pauline Collins

Shivers: see The Parasite Murders

Shoah ★★★★

France 1985 566m colour
Aleph/Historia

Massive documentary history of the Holocaust, using survivors' testimony and some reenactment but no historical footage.
d Claude Lanzmann
† Part 1 is 274m, Part 2 292m.

Shock

US 1946 70m bw
TCF

A girl in a hotel sees a murder committed, and an elaborate plan is concocted to silence her.
Flat treatment ruins a good suspense situation.
w Eugene Ling d Alfred Werker ph Glen MacWilliams, Joe MacDonald m David Buttolph
☆ Vincent Price, Lynn Bari, Frank Latimore, Annabel Shaw
'Extreme improbabilities and a general lack of finish.' – MFB

'Beyond This Door The Ever Continuing Cycle of Evil Is About To Occur... Again!'

Shock ★

Italy 1977 95m Eastmancolor
Laser (Turi Vasile)

US title: Beyond the Door II
A young boy is apparently possessed by the vengeful spirit of his dead father.
Slickly made, creepy psychological horror on an unoriginal theme, though it captures well the disintegration of a fragile personality under stress.
w Lamberto Bava, Francesco Barbieri, Paolo Brigenti, Dardano Sacchetti d Mario Bava ph Alberto Spagnoli m I Libra ad Francesco Vanorio ed Roberto Sterbini
☆ Daria Nicolodi (Dora Baldini), John Steiner (Bruno Baldini), David Colin Jnr (Marco), Ivan Rassimov (Dr Aldo Spidini)
† According to Lamberto Bava, he directed many of the scenes at the request of his father.
†† Shock was renamed Beyond the Door II for the US market, though it is no way a sequel to Beyond the Door, which is here listed under its UK title Devil Within Her.

The Shock ★

France 1982 95m colour Panavision
Sara Films/T. Films (Charlotte Fraisse) original title: Le Choc

A professional killer finds himself in trouble with his boss when he decides to retire.
Slick, glossy romantic thriller that is enjoyable providing you can stomach its amorality or believe that Catherine Deneuve could be the wife of a turkey farmer.
w Alain Delon, Dominique Robelet, Claude Veillot, Robin Davis novel La Position du Tireur Couché by Jean-Patrick Manchette
d Robin Davis ph Pierre-William Glenn
m Philippe Sarde ad Serge Douy
ed Thierry Derocles
☆ Alain Delon, Catherine Deneuve, Philippe Leotard, Etienne Chicot, Jean-Louis Richard, Catherine Leprince, François Perrot

Shock Corridor ★★★

US 1963 101m bw (colour sequence)
Leon Fromkess/Sam Firks (Samuel Fuller)

A journalist gets himself admitted to a mental asylum to solve the murder of an inmate.
Sensational melodrama, a cinematic equivalent of the yellow press, and on that level quite lively.
wd Samuel Fuller ph Stanley Cortez
m Paul Dunlap ad Eugene Lourie
ed Jerome Thoms
☆ Peter Breck (Johnny Barrett), Constance Towers (Cathy), Gene Evans (Boden), James Best (Stuart), Hari Rhodes (Trent), Philip Ahn (Dr. Fong)
'A minor masterpiece' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Killing is easy. Getting away with it is murder'

A Shock to the System

US 1990 87m DuArt
Medusa/Corsair (Patrick McCormick)

Passed over for promotion and bored by his wife, a marketing executive turns to murder to resolve his difficulties.
Lacklustre black comedy.
w Andrew Klavan novel Simon Brett
d Jan Egleson ph Paul Goldsmith m Gary Chang pd Howard Cummings ed Peter C. Frank, William A. Anderson
☆ Michael Caine, Elizabeth McGovern, Peter Riegert, Swoosie Kurtz, Will Patton, Jenny Wright, John McMartin, Barbara Baxley, Haviland Morris, Philip Moon
'A study of personal psychosis and corporate ruthlessness that is at once mordantly comic and chillingly controlled.' – Nigel Floyd, MFB

Shock Treatment

US 1964 94m bw
Warner (Aaron Rosenberg)

Murders are committed in a mental institution.
Tasteless thriller, not even very arresting as a yarn.
w Sydney Boehm d Denis Sanders
ph Sam Leavitt m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Lauren Bacall, Roddy MacDowall, Carol Lynley, Ossie Davis, Stuart Whitman, Douglass Dumbrille

'Trust me, I'm a doctor.'

Shock Treatment

GB 1982 95m Technicolor
TCF (John Goldstone)

An innocent young couple are trapped on a bizarre TV game show.
A sort of sequel to The Rocky Horror Show (qv), featuring the same hapless hero and heroine, but lacking any spark of originality. It also failed to attract its predecessor's cult following.
w Richard O'Brien, Jim Sharman d Jim Sharman ph Mike Molloy m Richard Hartley, Richard O'Brien pd Brian Thomson ed Richard Bedford
☆ Jessica Harper, Cliff de Young, Richard O'Brien, Patricia Quinn, Charles Gray, Nell Campbell, Ruby Wax, Barry Humphries, Rik Mayall

Shocker

US 1989 110m Foto-Kem
Guild/Alive Films/Carolco International (Marianne Maddalena, Barin Kumar)

The spirit of a mass murderer survives his execution.
Mundane horror, lacking any spark of originality and obviously patterned on the director's Nightmare On Elm Street.
wd Wes Craven ph Jacques Haitkin
m William Goldstein ad Randy Moore
ed Andy Blumenthal
☆ Michael Murphy, Peter Berg, Cami Cooper, Mitch Pileggi, John Tesh, Heather Langenkamp, Jessica Craven, Richard Brooks

The Shocking Miss Pilgrim

US 1946 85m Technicolor
TCF (William Perlberg)

In 1894 Boston, a lady typist (stenographer) fights for women's rights.
Period comedy with music; not nearly as sharp as it thinks it is.
wd George Seaton ph Leon Shamroy md David Raksin ad James Basevi, Boris Leven songs George and Ira Gershwin ☆ Betty Grable, Dick Haymes, Anne Revere, Allyn Joslyn, Gene Lockhart, Elizabeth Patterson, Arthur Shields, Elizabeth Risdon

The Shoes of the Fisherman ★★

US 1968 157m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (George Englund)

After twenty years as a political prisoner, a Russian bishop becomes Pope.
Predigested but heavy-going picturization of a bestseller; big budget, big stars, big hopes. In fact a commercial dud, with plenty of superficial interest but more dramatic contrivance than religious feeling.
w John Patrick, James Kennaway novel Morris West d Michael Anderson
ph Erwin Hillier m Alex North ad Edward Carfagno, George W. Davis
ed Ernest Walter
☆ Anthony Quinn, David Janssen, Laurence Olivier, Oskar Werner, John Gielgud, Barbara Jefford, Leo McKern, Vittorio de Sica, Clive Revill, Paul Rogers
'A splendidly decorated curate's egg.' – MFB
♗ Alex North

Shoeshine ★★

Italy 1946 90m bw
Alfa (Paolo W. Tamburella)

original title: Sciuscià
In Nazi-occupied Rome two shoeshine boys become involved in black marketeering, with tragic consequences.
Not especially rewarding to watch now, this was a key film in the development of Italian neo-realism.
w Cesare Zavattini, Sergio Amidei, Adolfo Franci, C. G. Viola d Vittorio de Sica
ph Anchise Brizzi, Elio Paccara ☆ Franco Interlenghi, Rinaldo Smordoni
'It is filled in every scene with an awareness of the painful complexity of even simple evil.' – James Agee
♟ special award
♗ script

'He Whips Out His Sword And Relieves His Victims Of Their Heads'
'It's Impossible To Keep A Body Count'

Shogun Assassin ★

Japan/US 1980 86m Fujicolour
Tohoscope
Facelift/Katsu (Shintaro Katsu, Hisaharu Matsubara, David Weisman)

A disgraced shogun executioner seeks revenge for the murder of his wife.
Dubbed and edited for American consumption from the first two films in the Japanese series featuring Lone Wolf (qv), a comic-book character and the hero of some of the goriest martial arts films, it concentrates on the violence and diminishes its original source.
w Kazuo Koike, Robert Houston, David Weisman d Kenji Misumi, Robert Houston
ph Chishi Makiura m Hideakira Sakurai, Mark Lindsay, W. Michael Lewis ad Akira Naito ed Toshio Taniguchi, Lee Percy ☆ Tomisaburo Wakayama, Masahiro Tomikawa, Kayo Matsuo, Minoru Ohki, Shoji Kobayashi, Shia Kishida, Akhiro Tomikawa
'No one bleeds like this unless they have garden hoses for veins.' – Roger Ebert
† See also Lone Wolf and Cub: Sword of Vengeance and Lone Wolf and Cub: Baby Cart at the River Styx.

Shogun Warrior

Japan 1991 105m colour
Sanyo/Sho Productions/Mayeda/Sho Kosugi

US title: Journey of Honor
In the 17th century a samurai travels from Japan to Spain to buy flintlock rifles to give his side the advantage in a clan war to decide the ruler of the country.
Enjoyable, action-filled romp mixing martial arts, swashbuckling, pirates, assassins and a little romance.
w Nelson Gidding, Sho Kosugi d Gordon Hessler ph John Connor m John Scott
pd Adrian Gorton ed Bill Butler
☆ Sho Kosugi, David Essex, Kane Kosugi, Christopher Lee, Norman Lloyd, Ronald Pickup, John Rhys-Davies, Polly Walker, Dylan Kussman, Miwa Takada, Nijiko Kiyokawa, Toshiro Mifune

Shogun's Samurai: The Yagyu Clan Conspiracy ★★

Japan 1977 130m colour
Toei

original title: Yagyu Ichizoku No Inbo
In the mid-1620s, after the Shogun is murdered, his fencing instructor plots to ensure that his eldest son succeeds him.
Epic drama of intrigue and a three-way power struggle between the Emperor and the Shogun's two rival sons; its engaging, if less than historically accurate, narrative of cynical betrayal is interspersed with scenes of fierce action.
w Hiro Matsuda, Tatsuo Nogami, Kinji Fukasaku d Kinji Fukasaku ph Toru Nakajima m Toshiaki Tsushima
ad Norimichi Igawa action directors Kangoro Fujima, Goro Kawakami
☆ Toshiro Mifune (Lord of Owari), Hiroki Matsukata (Iemitsu Tokugawa), Sonny Chiba (Yagyu Jubei), Etsuji Takahashi (Matsudaira Izu), Kinnosuke Nakamura (Yagyu Tajima), Hiroyuki Sanada (Hayate)

Shokutaku No Nai Ie: see The Empty Table

Shoot First: see Rough Shoot

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · ♈ BAFTA

Shoot the Moon ★

US 1981 123m Metrocolor
MGM (Alan Marshall)

The family is affected when well-heeled parents decide to split up.
A halfway decent actors' piece which doesn't really justify its time or leave affectionate memories behind. In essence it adds nothing except noise to what was being done in this field forty years ago.
w Bo Goldman d Alan Parker ph Michael Seresin m no credit pd Geoffrey Kirkland ☆ Albert Finney, Diane Keaton, Karen Allen, Peter Weller, Dana Hill, Leora Dana
'Despite their superficial sophistication, these are immature creatures playing grown-up games which would be thought childish in Bugsy Malone.' – Sunday Times

Shoot the Pianist ★

France 1960 80m bw Dyaliscope
Films de la Pléiade (Pierre Braunberger)

original title: Tirez sur le Pianiste
A bar-room piano player becomes involved with gangsters and his girlfriend is killed.
Fair copy of an American film noir, not especially interesting except for its sharp observation.
w Marcel Moussy, François Truffaut novel Down There by David Goodis d François Truffaut ph Raoul Coutard m Jean Constantin, Georges Delerue
☆ Charles Aznavour, Nicole Berger, Marie Dubois, Michèle Mercier, Albert Rémy
'Pictorially it is magnificent, revealing Truffaut's brilliant control over his images; emotionally, it is all a little jejune.' – John Gillett, MFB

Shoot the Works

US 1934 82m bw
Albert Lewis/Paramount

A band leader and a gossip columnist stage a fake feud.
Anaemic Hollywood version of a rather sharp Broadway play which in this form means less than nothing.
w Howard J. Green, Claude Binyon play The Great Magoo by Ben Hecht, Gene Fowler d Wesley Ruggles ☆ Jack Oakie, Ben Bernie, Dorothy Dell, Arline Judge, Alison Skipworth, Roscoe Karns, William Frawley, Paul Cavanagh, Lew Cody

Shoot to Kill

US 1988 110m colour
Touchstone/Silver Screen Partners III (Ron Silverman, Daniel Petrie Jnr)

UK title: Deadly Pursuit
An FBI agent and a guide track down a killer who is hiding in the mountains.
Moderately suspenseful, though unmemorable, thriller.
w Harv Zimmell, Michael Burton, Daniel Petrie Jnr d Roger Spottiswoode ph Michael Chapman m John Scott pd Richard Sylbert ed Garth Craven, George Bowers
☆ Sidney Poitier, Tom Berenger, Kirstie Alley, Clancy Brown, Frederick Coffin, Richard Masur, Andrew Robinson, Kevin Scannell

The Shooter

US 1994 104m Technicolor
Polygram/Adelson/Muraglia Sladek/Newmarket/Baumgarten (Paul Pompian, Silvio Muraglia)

A US marshal goes to Prague to arrest the hit-woman who killed the Cuban ambassador in New York and falls for her instead.
Risible action film with a narrative that follows familiar patterns of paranoia and conspiracy.
w Yves Andre Martin, Meg Thayer, Billy Ray d Ted Kotcheff ph Fernando Arguelles m Stefano Mainetti pd Brian Eatwell ed Ralph Brunjes
☆ Dolph Lundgren, Maruschka Detmers, Assumpta Serna, Gavan O'Herlihy, John Ashton, Simon Andreu
'A fairly perfunctory post-cold-war exercise with not too much thought expended on plot logic.' – Sunday Times

'Yesterday was about honour. Today is about justice.'

Shooter Ⓢ

US/Canada 2007 125m
Paramount/Di Bonaventura Pictures (Lorenzo Di Bonaventura, Ric Kidney)

A former Marine sniper goes on the run after he is framed for a presidential assassination attempt.
Entertaining if implausible blend of conspiracy thriller and action film that plays like a slightly more cerebral Rambo.
w Jonathan Lemkin novel Point of Impact by Stephen Hunter d Antoine Fuqua ph Peter Menzies Jr. m Mark Mancina pd Dennis Washington ad Jeremy Stanbridge ed Conrad Buff, Eric Sears
☆ Mark Wahlberg (Bob Lee Swagger), Michael Pena (Nick Memphis), Danny Glover (Colonel Isaac Johnson), Kate Mara (Sarah Fenn), Elias Koteas (Jack Payne), Rhona Mitra (Alourdes Galindo), Rade Serbedziga (Michael Sandor), Ned Beatty (Senator Charles F. Meachum)
BOB LEE SWAGGER: 'You don't understand how serious this is. They killed my dog.'
'What Shooter lacks in restraint, it gains in tension, action and intrigue.' – Tony Horkins, Empire
'A heady brew of conspiracy theories, post-9/11 paranoia, non-stop action and improbable heroes and villains.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter
† Hunter, author of the source novel, is a film critic for the Washington Post.

Shooters

GB/Netherlands/US 2000 95m colour
Universal/PFG/Coolbeans/Catapult (Margery Bone)

Let out of prison, a convicted killer is persuaded by his former partner to commit one more crime.
Derivative gangster movie, in which the cast posture in a macho manner and drool over guns.
w Gary Young, Andrew Howard, Louis Dempsey d Colin Teague, Glenn Durfort ph Tom Erisman m Kemal Ultanur pd Robin Tarsnane ed Kevin Whelan
☆ Adrian Dunbar (Max Bell), Andrew Howard (J), Louis Dempsey (Gilly), Gerard Butler (Jackie Junior), Matthew Rhys (Eddie), Emma Fielding (DI Sarah Pryce), Jason Hughes (Charlie Franklin), Ioan Gruffydd (Freddy Guns)
'Despite an ostentatiously wised-up, ironic voiceover, this film looks like a 14-year-old's saucer-eyed fantasy of how grown-up tough guys behave.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

The Shooting

US 1966 82m DeLuxe
Santa Clara (Jack Nicholson, Monte Hellman)

An ex-bounty hunter is trailed by a hired killer.
Simplistic semi-professional Western which achieves some power despite poor technical quality and a deliberately obscure ending.
w Adrien Joyce d Monte Hellman ph Gregory Sandor m Richard Markowitz
☆ Warren Oates, Will Hutchins, Jack Nicholson, Millie Perkins

'1994, 800,000 killed in 100 days. Would you risk your life to make a difference?'

Shooting Dogs ★★

Gb/Germany/France 2005 115m colour
Metrodome/BBC/UKFC/Invicta Capital/Filmstiftung NRW (David Belton, Pippa Cross, Jens Meurer)

An English priest and a teacher attempt to shelter refugees from the genocide in Rwanda.
A documentary approach to its terrible subject matter, using hand-held cameras, adds a rough hewn authenticity to a well-meaning, sometimes moving, account, told from a white perspective.
w David Wolstencroft story Richard Alwyn, David Belton d Michael Caton-Jones ph Ivan Strasburg m Dario Marianelli pd Bertram Strauss ed Christian Lonk
☆ John Hurt (Father Christopher), Hugh Dancy (Joe Connor), Dominique Horwitz (Captain Delon), Louis Mahoney (Sibomana), Nicola Walker (Rachel), Steve Toussaint (Roland)
'There's no way this story could ever have made a bad film, but a script that refuses sentimentality and fine acting elevate it just short of greatness.' – Empire

Shooting Fish ★

GB 1997 109m Technicolor Super 35
Entertainment/Fox/Winchester/Gruber Brothers/Arts Council/Tomboy (Richard Holmes, Glynis Murray)

Two young con men who set out to cheat their way to owning a stately home find love instead.
An engagingly acted, hectic farce that loses its way and becomes increasingly desperate in its search for laughs.
w Stefan Schwartz, Richard Holmes d Stefan Schwartz ph Henry Braham m Stanislas Syrewicz pd Max Gottlieb ed Alan Strachan
☆ Dan Futterman, Stuart Townsend, Kate Beckinsale, Nickolas Grace, Peter Capaldi, Annette Crosbie, Jane Lapotaire, Phyllis Logan, Claire Cox
'An unashamed crowd-pleaser weakened by a third act that suffers from plot overload.' – Derek Elley, Variety

The Shooting Party ★

GB 1984 96m Technicolor
Edenflow/Geoff Reeve (Peter Dolman)

In 1913 Sir Randolph Nettleby invites guests for a weekend at his country estate, but the coming war is foretold in their behaviour.
Mild little symbolic play which provides the expected minor pleasures.
w Julian Bond novel Isabel Colegate d Alan Bridges ph Fred Tammes m John Scott ☆ James Mason, Edward Fox, Dorothy Tutin, John Gielgud, Gordon Jackson, Cheryl Campbell, Robert Hardy

Shooting Stars ★

GB 1928 80m (24 fps) bw silent
British Instructional (H. Bruce Woolf)

The wife of a film star puts real bullets in a prop gun but her lover is killed by mistake.
Late silent drama with comedy touches: its main interest lies in its behind-the-scenes background and in the emergence of a new director.
w John Orton, Anthony Asquith d Anthony Asquith, A. V. Bramble ph Karl Fisher
☆ Annette Benson, Brian Aherne, Donald Calthrop, Wally Patch, Chili Bouchier

'He's got to face a gunfight once more to live up to his legend once more. To win just one more time.'

The Shootist ★★★

US 1976 100m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Frankovich-Self

In 1901, a dying ex-gunfighter arrives in a small town to set his affairs in order.
Impressive semi-Western melodrama, very well written and acted all round; the kind of solidly entertaining and thoughtful movie one imagined they didn't make any more.
w Miles Hood Swarthout, Scott Hale novel Glendon Swarthout d Don Siegel ph Bruce Surtees m Elmer Bernstein ed Douglas Stewart
☆ John Wayne (John Bernard Books), Lauren Bacall (Bond Rogers), James Stewart (Dr. Hostetler), Ron Howard (Gillom Rogers), Bill McKinney (Cobb), Richard Boone (Sweeney), John Carradine (Beckum), Scatman Crothers (Moses), Harry Morgan (Marshall Thibido), Hugh O'Brian (Pulford), Sheree North (Serepta)
'Just when it seemed that the western was an endangered species, due for extinction because it had repeated itself too many times, Wayne and Siegel have managed to validate it once more.' – Arthur Knight
'Watching this film is like taking a tour of Hollywood legends.' – Frank Rich

'Three fast guns against one determined man!'

Shootout

US 1971 94m Technicolor
Universal (Hal B. Wallis)

After seven years in prison, a bank robber seeks out his betrayer.
Routine, flatly-handled revenge Western.
w Marguerite Roberts novel The Lone Cowboy by Will James d Henry Hathaway ph Earl Rath m Dave Grusin
☆ Gregory Peck, Pat Quinn, Robert F. Lyons, Susan Tyrrell, Jeff Corey, James Gregory, Rita Gam

Shootout at Medicine Bend

US 1957 87m bw
Warner

Three ex-soldiers clean up a corrupt community.
Entertaining Western programmer.
w John Tucker Battle, D. D. Beauchamp d Richard Bare ph Carl Guthrie m Roy Webb ed Clarence Kolster ☆ Randolph Scott, James Craig, Angie Dickinson, James Garner, Gordon Jones

The Shop around the Corner ★★

US 1940 97m bw
MGM (Ernst Lubitsch)

In a Budapest shop, the new floorwalker and a girl who dislikes him find they are pen pals.

Pleasant period romantic comedy which holds no surprises but is presented with great style.
w Samson Raphaelson play Parfumerie by Miklos Laszlo d Ernst Lubitsch ph William Daniels m Werner Heymann
☆ James Stewart, Margaret Sullavan, Frank Morgan, Joseph Schildkraut, Sara Haden, Felix Bressart, William Tracy
'It's not pretentious but it's a beautiful job of picture-making, and the people who did it seem to have enjoyed doing it just as much as their audiences will enjoy seeing it.' – James Shelley Hamilton
'An agreeably bittersweet example of light entertainment.' – Charles Higham, 1972
'One of the most beautifully acted and paced romantic comedies ever made in this country.' – New Yorker, 1978
† Remade as In the Good Old Summertime (qv).

The Shop at Sly Corner
GB 1946 92m bw
Pennant (George King)
US title: Code of Scotland Yard
An antique dealer who is also a fence kills a blackmailer in order to shield his daughter.
Competent but stagey version of a West End success, giving full rein to a bravura star performance.
w Katherine Strueby play Edward Percy d George King ph Hone Glendinning m George Melachrino ad Bernard Robinson ed Manuel Del Campo
☆ Oscar Homolka (Descius Heiss), Muriel Pavlow (Margaret Heiss), Derek Farr (Robert Graham), Manning Whiley (Corder Morris), Kenneth Griffith (Archie Fellowes), Kathleen Harrison (Mrs Catt), Garry Marsh (Major Elliot), Irene Handl (Ruby Towser), Johnnie Schofield (Inspector Robinson), Diana Dors

The Shop on Main Street ★
Czechoslovakia 1965 128m bw Ceskoslovensky Film original title: Obchod na Korze
aka: The Shop on the High Street
During the German invasion of Czechoslovakia, a well-meaning carpenter tries to shield an old Jewish lady, but his own rough treatment kills her.
A rather obvious sentimental fable, developed at too great length, but with bravura acting.
w Ladislav Grosman, Jan Kadar, Elmar Klos d Jan Kadar, Elmar Klos ph Vladimir Novotny m Zdenek Liska
☆ Ida Kaminska, Jozef Kroner, Hana Slivkova, Martin Holly
'Overlong, derivative, ploddingly directed.' – John Simon
♟ best foreign film
♙ Ida Kaminska

The Shop on the High Street: see The Shop on Main Street

'Relationships don't always fit like a glove.'

Shopgirl ★★ 6
US/GB 2004 104m CFI
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Hyde Park (Ashok Amritraj, Jon Jashni, Steve Martin)
A Beverly Hills shop assistant is wooed by an older, rich businessman and an uncouth youth.
A movie about the difference between sex and love, slight but often perceptive.
w Steve Martin novella Steve Martin d Anand Tucker ph Peter Suschitzky m Barrington Pheloung pd William Arnold ed David Gamble ☆ Steve Martin (Ray Porter), Claire Danes (Mirabelle Buttersfield), Jason Schwartzman (Jeremy), Bridgette Wilson-Sampras (Lisa Cramer), Sam Bottoms (Dan Buttersfield), Frances Conroy (Catherine Buttersfield), Rebecca Pidgeon (Christie Richards)
'The best of the story is that there isn't much as such. A slice of living is put before us. Some things happen. That's all.' – Stanley Kauffmann, New Republic

'No one leaves without paying...'

Shopping
GB 1994 107m colour
Rank/Channel 4/Polygram/Kazui/WMG/Impact (Jeremy Bolt)
As soon as he leaves prison, a young thief reverts to his old ways of stealing cars, ram-raiding (smash-and-grab raids on stores using a car as a battering-ram) and taunting the police.
An unconvincing drama of urban disaffection, set in the near future and concentrating on action without much attempt at even rudimentary character portrayal; it presents no more than a collection of attitudes posing as rootless teenagers, though it does have energy.
wd Paul Anderson ph Tony Imi m Barrington Pheloung pd Max Gottlieb ed David Stiven
☆ Sadie Frost, Jude Law, Sean Pertwee, Fraser James, Sean Bean, Marianne Faithfull, Jonathan Pryce
'Though the subject is torn from the headlines, this is hardly social realism ... As an all-action carquake, this is flawed by budgetary stinginess. There is also a problem with the cast: Law and Frost look less like homeless desperadoes than slumming models.' – Kim Newman, Empire
'So obsessed with its own hipness that it ends up being totally embarrassing.' – Sight and Sound

Shopworn Angel ★
US 1928 90m approx bw part-talkie
Paramount (Louis D. Lighton)
A showgirl meets a naïve young soldier off to war and forsakes her man about town.
Hard-boiled, soft-centred romantic drama remade as below and later as That Kind of Woman (qv).
w Howard Estabrook, Albert Shelby Le Vino play Private Pettigrew's Girl by Dana Burnet d Richard Wallace ph Charles Lang ☆ Nancy Carroll, Gary Cooper, Paul Lukas, Emmett King

Shopworn Angel ★
US 1938 85m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)
Smooth, close remake of the above.
w Waldo Salt d H. C. Potter ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Edward Ward
montage Slavko Vorkapich
☆ Margaret Sullavan (Daisy Heath), James Stewart (Bill Pettigrew), Walter Pidgeon (Sam Bailey), Hattie McDaniel (Martha), Sam Levene, Nat Pendleton (Dice), Charley Grapewin (Wilson), Charles D. Brown (Mr Gonigle)

Shoreditch
GB 2002 101m DeLuxe
Georgia/Aquarius/Mother Meighan/Movietrack (Malcolm Needs)
A property owner investigates the identity of a skeleton he discovers in a basement jazz club and reveals a guilty secret about his birth.
Poorly acted and directed, an involved and less than interesting drama of adultery that switches between the present and the late 1930s to little purpose.
wd Malcolm Needs ph Zoran Veljkovic m Rick Taylor, Steve Brown pd Andrea Christelis, Johnny Hawkins ed Henry Richardson ☆ Joely Richardson (Butterfly), Glen Murphy (Albert Challis), Shane Richie (Thomas Hickman), Natasha Wightman (Masie Hickman), Jonathan Coy (Karl), Adam Ross (Tom Hickman)
'A strong contender for the worst film of the decade.' – Wendy Ide, Times
† The movie flopped at the box-office. Costing more than £5m to make, it grossed £2,272 in its brief UK run at two cinemas.

Short Circuit ★
US 1986 98m Metrocolor Panavision
Rank/PSO (David Foster, Lawrence Turman)
An electric shock transforms a military robot into a creature with a mind of its own.
Amusing, if predictable comedy that owes much to E.T.
w S. S. Wilson, Brent Maddock d John Badham ph Nick McLean m David Shire ad Dianne Wager ed Frank Morriss ☆ Ally Sheedy, Steve Guttenberg, Fisher Stevens, Austin Pendleton, G. W. Bailey, Brian McNamara, Tim Blaney

Short Circuit 2
US 1988 110m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (David Foster, Lawrence Turman, Gary Foster)
At large in the big city, a robot with human sensibilities is fooled into helping jewel thieves.
Ineffectual sequel, lacking in laughs and bungling the action.
w S. S. Wilson, Brent Maddock d Kenneth Johnson ph John McPherson m Charles Fox pd Bill Brodie ed Conrad Buff ☆ Fisher Stevens, Michael McKean, Cynthia Gibb, Jack Weston, Dee McCafferty, David Hemblen, Tim Blaney

Short Cut to Hell
US 1957 89m bw Vistavision
Paramount (A. C. Lyles)
A racketeer hires a gunman to commit a double murder, then double-crosses him.
Rough and ready remake of This Gun for Hire (qv), less arresting than the original.
w Ted Berkeman, Raphael Blau, W. R. Burnett novel A Gun for Sale by Graham Greene d James Cagney ph Haskell Boggs md Irvin Talbot
☆ Robert Ivers, Georgeann Johnson, William Bishop, Murvyn Vye † Screenwriter Albert Maltz name was removed from the credits because he was blacklisted at the time.

Short Cuts ★★★
US 1993 188m colour Panavision
Artificial Eye/Spelling/Fine Line/Avenue (Cary Brokaw)
In Los Angeles, the lives of nine dysfunctional, suburban couples interwine.
An excellent, continually fascinating examination of people living on the edge, cut off from the truth of their emotions. The complexity of the cross-cutting between one scene and another is brilliantly achieved; what mars the film is its tendency to melodrama, particularly in its treatment of an alcoholic jazz singer and her equally disturbed cello-playing daughter.
w Robert Altman, Frank Barhydt story Raymond Carver d Robert Altman ph Walt Lloyd m Mark Isham pd Stephen Altman ad Jerry Fleming ed Geraldine Peroni ☆ Andie MacDowell (Ann Finnigan), Bruce Davison (Howard Finnigan), Jack Lemmon (Paul Finnegan), Zane Cassidy (Casey Finnigan), Julianne Moore (Marian Wyman), Matthew Modine (Dr. Ralph Wyman), Anne Archer (Claire Kane), Fred Ward (Stuart Kane), Jennifer Jason Leigh (Lois Kaiser), Chris Penn (Jerry Kaiser), Joseph C. Hopkins (Joe Kaiser), Josette Macario (Josette Kaiser), Robert Downey Jnr (Bill Bush), Madeleine Stowe (Sherri Shepard), Tim Robbins (Gene Shepard) and also Lily Tomlin, Tom Waits, Frances McDormand, Peter Gallagher, Annie Ross, Lori Singer, Lyle Lovett, Buck Henry
'Altman has used Carver's stories as a vehicle for presenting a vast panorama of life problems that are humorous, grim and absurd in equal measure. Viewer interest in the goings-on is generated not by artificial melodrama or hyped-up filmmaking technique, but by the recognition factor of the human foibles on display.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'A victory both as a summation of Altman's unflattering, but not unloving, view of American society, and an epic piece of cinema of innate daring and imagination.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'A film with no dud line, flawed performance or slick piece of editing in all its 188 minutes ... Only at a second viewing can one fully appreciate the magnificence of the film's grand design, which is the presentation of life as a mutually shared tragi-comedy.' – Philip French, Observer
♙ Robert Altman (as director)

Short Encounters ★
USSR 1967 95m bw
Odessa Feature Film Studio
original title: Korotkie Vstrechi
Two women, one a bureaucrat, the other a young country girl, recall their love for the same man, a footloose geologist.
An innocuous love story, it was banned for 20 years by the Soviet authorities because of the attitudes it displays towards sex and social misdemeanours.
w Kira Muratova, Leonid Zhukhovitsky d Kira Muratova ph G. Kariuk m Oleg Karavaichuk
☆ Nina Ruslanova, Vladimir Vysotsky, Kira Muratova

A Short Film about Killing ★★★★
Poland 1988 84m colour
Gala/Film Unit 'Tor'/Zespoly Filmowe (Ryszard Chutkowski)
original title: Krótki Film O Zabijaniu
A disenchanted youth who commits a bungled and motiveless murder is defended by an idealistic lawyer opposed to capital punishment.
Powerful and unremittingly bleak, but unforgettable in its condemnation of killing, whether criminal or judicial. It is one of the Decalogues, a series of films on the ten commandments made for television.
w Krzysztof Piesiewicz, Krzysztof Kieslowski d Krzysztof Kieslowski ph Slawomir Idziak m Zbigniew Preisner ad Halina Dobrowolska ed Ewa Small ☆ Miroslaw Baka (Jacek Lazar), Krzysztof Globisz (Piotr Balicki), Jan Tesarz (Waldemar Rekowski), Zbigniew Zapasiewicz (Bar Examiner)

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♙ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'A powerful rebuke to a world that pretends to deter violence through ritualized capital punishment, but dramatizes, sensationalizes and perpetuates it instead.' – Edward Guthmann, San Francisco Chronicle

A Short Film about Love ★★

Poland 1988 87m colour
Gala/Polish Film Producers' Corporation (Ryszard Chutkowski)

original title: Krótki Film O Milosci

A teenager spies on the sexual activities of a woman who lives opposite his flat.

Grim but gripping film on the impossibility of love.

w Krzysztof Piesiewicz, Krzysztof Kieslowski d Krzysztof Kieslowski ph Witold Adamek m Zbigniew Preisner pd Halina Dobrowolska ed Ewa Smal

☆ Grazyna Szapolowska, Olaf Lubaszenko, Stefania Iwinska, Piotr Machalica, Artur Barcis

Short Fuse: see Good to Go

'Getting killed isn't as easy as it looks'

Short Time

US 1987 102m colour
Rank/Gladden Entertainment/Touchstone (Todd Black)

Discovering he has a fatal disease and wanting to die on active service so his family can collect on his insurance policy, an ageing cop volunteers for dangerous assignments.

A comedy suffering from a terminal lack of laughs.

w John Blumenthal, Michael Berry d Gregg Champion ph John Connor m Ira Newborn pd Michael Bolton ed Frank Morriss

☆ Dabney Coleman, Matt Frewer, Teri Garr, Barry Corbin, Joe Pantoliano, Xander Berkeley, Rob Roy

'Voyeurism is Participation.'

Shortbus ★★ 6

US 2006 101m
The Works/Process Productions/Fortissimo (John Cameron Mitchell, Howard Gertler, Tim Perell)

At an underground club where every pansexual activity is indulged, a group of New Yorkers work out their dreams, desires and relationships.

Disarmingly sweet, joyously funny and movingly perceptive despite being highly controversial due to its explicit imagery.

wd John Cameron Mitchell ph Frank G. DeMarco m Yo La Tengo pd Jody Asnes ed Brian A. Kates sp John Bair

☆ Sook-Yin Lee (Sofia), Paul Dawson (James), Lindsay Beamish (Severin), PJ DeBoy (Jamie), Raphael Barker (Rob), Justin Bond (Himself)

'Those of a broad mind will be rewarded by an unusual and often laugh-out-loud funny take on modern romance, performed – in every sense of the word – by a cast of fearless unknowns.' – Sky Movies

Shot in the Dark

GB 1933 53m bw
Real Art (Julius Hagen)

A golfing rector solves the murder of an eccentric who was hated by his relatives.

A country-house melodrama of a very old-fashioned kind, moderately enjoyable as an example of English acting styles of the time.

w George Pearson, Terence Egan novel Gerard Fairlie d George Pearson ph Ernest Palmer ad James A. Carter ed Lister Laurance

☆ Jack Hawkins, Michael Shepley, Dorothy Boyd, O. B. Clarence, Davy Burnaby, Russell Thorndike, Margaret Yarde, A. Bromley Davenport

A Shot in the Dark ★

US 1964 101m DeLuxe Panavision
UA/Mirisch/Geoffrey (Blake Edwards)

A woman is accused of shooting her lover; accident-prone Inspector Clouseau investigates.

Further adventures of the oafish, Tatiesque clodhopper from The Pink Panther; mildly funny for those in the mood for pratfalls.

w Blake Edwards, William Peter Blatty d Blake Edwards ph Christopher Challis m Henry Mancini pd Michael Stringer

☆ Peter Sellers, Elke Sommer, George Sanders, Herbert Lom, Tracy Reed, Graham Stark

Shotgun

US 1954 81m Technicolor
Allied Artists

A deputy marshal avenges the death of his boss.

Rather violent Western with a few unusual angles.

w Clark E. Reynolds, Rory Calhoun d Lesley Selander ph Ellsworth J. Fredricks m Carl Brandt

☆ Sterling Hayden, Zachary Scott, Yvonne de Carlo, Guy Prescott, Robert Wilke

Shouf, Shouf, Habibi!: see Hush, Hush, Baby!

Should Ladies Behave?

US 1933 90m bw
MGM

A young girl falls for her aunt's lover.

Brittle comedy of manners which transferred poorly from Broadway with a star well over the top.

w Sam and Bella Spewack play The Vinegar Tree by Paul Osborn d Harry Beaumont

☆ Alice Brady, Lionel Barrymore, Conway Tearle, Katherine Alexander, Halliwell Hobbes, Mary Carlisle

Should Married Men Go Home?

US 1928 20m bw silent
Hal Roach

Tribulations on the golf course end in a mud-slinging contest.

Goodish star slapstick, but the preliminary domestic scene is the funniest.

w Leo McCarey, James Parrott, H. M. Walker d James Parrott ph George Stevens ed Richard Currier

☆ Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Edgar Kennedy, Kay Deslys

Shoulder Arms ★

US 1918 24m (24 fps) bw silent
Charles Chaplin/First National

A soldier in the trenches dreams of winning the war single-handedly.

A comedy which meant a great deal at the time of its release but now provides precious little to laugh at.

wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh

☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Sydney Chaplin, Henry Bergman, Albert Austin

The Shout ★

GB 1978 87m colour
Rank/Recorded Picture (Jeremy Thomas)

A man who may be mad claims that, like the old Aborigine magicians, he can kill by shouting.

Curiously gripping but ultimately pointless fable, very well done to little purpose.

w Michael Austin, Jerzy Skolimowsky story Robert Graves d Jerzy Skolimowsky ph Mike Molloy m Rupert Hine, Anthony Banks, Michael Rutherford

☆ Alan Bates, Susannah York, John Hurt, Robert Stephens, Tim Curry

'Poorly acted, incoherent and unendurably loud.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Shout

US 1991 89m DeLuxe
Universal (Robert Simonds)

In the early 50s, a rebellious teenager, sent to a strict Texan boys' home, falls for the tough warden's daughter and learns to love rock 'n' roll, as taught by the new music teacher.

Ludicrous teen melodrama that even its target audience is likely to find condescending and immature.

w Joe Gayton d Jeffrey Hornaday ph Robert Brinkmann m Randy Edelman pd William F. Matthews ed Seth Flaum

☆ James Walters, John Travolta, Heather Graham, Richard Jordan, Linda Fiorentino, Scott Coffey, Glenn Quinn, Gwyneth Paltrow

Shout at the Devil ★

GB 1976 147m Technicolor Panavision
Tonav (Michael Klinger)

In 1913 Zanzibar, a hard-drinking American and an old Etonian Englishman join forces to rout a brutal German commissioner who resents their poaching ivory in his territory.

The main characters are respectively repellent, effete, and just plain nasty, but the action scenes are vivid and the production is mainly notable as an expensive old-fashioned British film made at a time when there were few British films of any kind.

w Wilbur Smith, Stanley Price, Alastair Reid novel Wilbur Smith d Peter Hunt ph Mike Reed m Maurice Jarre

☆ Lee Marvin, Roger Moore, Barbara Parkins, René Kolldehoff, Ian Holm, Karl Michael Vogler, Maurice Denham, Jean Kent, Robert Lang, Murray Melvin, George Coulouris

'Elephantine plod through the action highlights of a best seller.' – Sight and Sound

Show Business ★★

US 1944 92m bw
RKO (Eddie Cantor)

The careers of four friends in vaudeville.

Lively low-budget period musical which probably presents the best picture of what old-time vaudeville was really like; a lot of fun when the plot doesn't get in the way.

w Joseph Quillan, Dorothy Bennett d Edwin L. Marin ph Robert de Grasse, Vernon L. Walker m George Duning md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ch Nick Castle

☆ Eddie Cantor, Joan Davis, George Murphy, Constance Moore, Don Douglas, Nancy Kelly

'Bits of archaic vaudeville which give off a moderately pleasant smell of peanuts and cigar smoke.' – James Agee

Show Girl in Hollywood

US 1930 77m bw (colour sequence)
First National

Adventures of a New York girl on the west coast.

Comedy with music; it seems content to wallow in supposed Hollywood glamour without contributing much by way of wit or storyline.

w Harvey Thew, James A. Starr, J. P. McEvoy d Mervyn Le Roy

☆ Alice White, Jack Mulhall, Blanche Sweet, Ford Sterling, John Miljan, Herman Bing

The Show Goes On

GB 1937 93m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)

A mill girl becomes a star singer with the help of a dying composer.

An attempt to turn Gracie Fields into a serious performer, this was not much enjoyed by her fans.

w Austin Melford, Anthony Kimmins, E. G. Valentine d Basil Dean ph Jan Stallich

☆ Gracie Fields, Owen Nares, Edward Rigby, John Stuart, Horace Hodges, Amy Veness, Cyril Ritchard

Show Me Love: see Fucking Amal

A Show of Force

US 1990 93m Technicolor
Paramount/Golden Harvest (John Strong)

In 1978, a TV reporter investigates the death of two left-wingers campaigning for an independent Puerto Rico who were apparently murdered with the connivance of the FBI.

Unconvincing mix of exposé and thriller, for all its supposed basis in fact; its gloss, glibness and reliance on formula film-making render it highly suspect.

w Evan Jones, John Strong book Murder Under Two Flags by Anne Nelson d Bruno Barreto ph James Glennon m Georges Delerue pd William J. Cassidy ed Henry Richardson, Sonya Polansky

☆ Amy Irving, Andy Garcia, Lou Diamond Phillips, Robert Duvall, Kevin Spacey, Erik Estrada, Juan Fernandez

'In Vitaphone, it eclipses the sun in splendour!'

Show of Shows ★★

US 1929 128m Technicolor
Warner (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A big musical show put on by Warner contract artists.

Primitive early talkie, of vital historical interest but mostly photographed from a seat in the stalls.

d John G. Adolfi ph Barney McGill m/ly various ch Jack Haskell, Larry Ceballos

☆ Frank Fay, H. B. Warner, Monte Blue, Lupino Lane, Ben Turpin, Chester Morris, Ted Lewis and his band, Georges Carpentier, Patsy Ruth Miller, Beatrice Lillie, Winnie Lightner, Irene Bordoni, Myrna Loy, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, John Barrymore and also Betty Compson

'Colour photography of the crudest, most garish kind, the resulting impression being that a child of seven has been let loose with a shilling box of paints.' – James Agate

Show People

US 1928 80m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM

A naïve young actress makes it in Hollywood.

Historically important comedy with cameo appearances by many stars of the time.
w Wanda Tuchock, Agnes Christine Johnston, Laurence Stallings d King Vidor
☆ Marion Davies, William Haines

Show Them No Mercy ★

US 1935 76m bw
TCF (Raymond Griffith)

GB title: Tainted Money
Kidnappers are rounded up by G-men.
Lively crime thriller typical of its time.
w Kubec Glasmon, Henry Lehrman d George Marshall ph Bert Glennon m David Buttolph
☆ Rochelle Hudson, Cesar Romero, Bruce Cabot, Edward Norris, Edward Brophy, Warren Hymer

'Direct, surely dramatic, inevitable and full of terror.' – Otis Ferguson

The Show-Off

US 1934 80m bw
MGM

A girl's blundering new husband alienates his in-laws and nearly wrecks his brother-in-law's career.
Surefire satirical comedy-drama from a Broadway staple, this low-budget item gave MGM a new star.
w Herman Mankiewicz play George Kelly d Charles Riesner
☆ Spencer Tracy, Madge Evans, Clara Blandick, Henry Wadsworth, Grant Mitchell, Lois Wilson
† The play had been filmed twice in silent days by Paramount, and turned up again in 1946 as a Red Skelton vehicle.

Showboat ★★★

US 1936 110m bw
Universal (Carl Laemmle Jnr)

Lives and loves of the personnel on an old-time Mississippi showboat.
Great style and excellent performances mark this version, which still suffers from longueurs in the middle followed by the rapid passage of many years to provide a happy ending.
w Oscar Hammerstein II book Oscar Hammerstein II for the Broadway musical novel Edna Ferber d James Whale ph John Mescall m/ly Jerome Kern, Oscar Hammerstein II md Victor Baravalle ch LeRoy Prinz ad Charles D. Hall ed Ted J. Kent, Bernard W. Burton
☆ Irene Dunne (Magnolia Hawks), Allan Jones (Gaylord Ravenal), Helen Morgan (Julie), Paul Robeson (Joe), Charles Winninger (Capt. Andy Hawks), Hattie McDaniel (Queenie, Joe's Wife), Donald Cook (Steve), Sammy White (Frank Schultz)

'For three quarters of its length good entertainment: sentimental, literary, but oddly appealing.' – Graham Greene
† A primitive version of Showboat was made in 1929, which was part-talkie with synchronised sound for the silent sequences. Once thought lost, it survives in a version that lacks some of its sound. Directed by Harry Pollard, it starred Laura La Plante and Joseph Schildkraut.
†† Before Allan Jones was cast, Walter Pidgeon, Robert Taylor, John Boles, Fredric March and Nelson Eddy were all considered.
♫ 'I Have the Room Above Her'; 'Ah Still Suits Me'; 'Gallavantin' Around'; 'Cotton Blossom'; 'Where's The Mate For Me?'; 'Make Believe'; 'Ol' Man River'; 'Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man'; You Are Love'; 'Bill'; 'Goodbye My Lady Love'; 'After the Ball'

Showboat ★★

US 1951 108m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)

Vigorous remake with good ensemble dancing; otherwise inferior to the 1936 version.
w John Lee Mahin, George Wells, Jack McGowan d George Sidney ph Charles Rosher md Conrad Salinger, Adolph Deutsch ch Robert Alton
☆ Kathryn Grayson, Howard Keel, Ava Gardner, William Warfield, Joe E. Brown, Robert Sterling, Marge Champion, Gower Champion, Agnes Moorehead
† Ava Gardner's singing was dubbed by Annette Warren.
Ⓐ Charles Rosher; Conrad Salinger, Adolph Deutsch

The Showdown

US 1950 86m bw
Republic

A trail boss seeks revenge on his brother's killer.
Routine Western with a touch of mystery.
w Richard Wormser and Dan Gordon d Darrell and Stuart McGowan ph Reggie Lanning m Stanley Wilson ☆ Wild Bill Elliott, Marie Windsor, Walter Brennan, Henry Morgan, William Ching, Rhys Williams

Showdown

US 1963 79m Technicolor
Universal

Two wandering cowboys become involved with a criminal.
Below-par Western with little action and rather boring characters.
w Bronson Howitzer d R. G. Springsteen ph Ellis Carter m Hans J. Salter ☆ Audie Murphy, Charles Drake, Harold J. Stone, Kathleen Crowley, Skip Homeier, L. Q. Jones, Strother Martin

Showdown

US 1972 99m Technicolor Todd-AO 35
Universal (George Seaton)

A sheriff finds that his old friend is leader of an outlaw gang.
Routine star Western adequately done.
w Theodore Taylor d George Seaton ph Ernest Laszlo m David Shire ☆ Rock Hudson, Dean Martin, Susan Clark, Donald Moffat, John McLiam

Showdown at Abilene

US 1956 80m Technicolor
Universal-International

A shellshocked Civil War veteran, returning home to find his girl married, reluctantly takes a job as sheriff.
Fairly lively Western remade eleven years later as Gunfight in Abilene.
w Berne Giler novel Gun Shy by Clarence Upson Young d Charles Haas ☆ Jock Mahoney, David Janssen, Martha Hyer, Lyle Bettger, Grant Williams

'One's a warrior. One's a wise ass. They're two L.A. cops going after a gang of drug lords. Feet first.'

Showdown in Little Tokyo

US 1991 77m Technicolor
Warner (Mark L. Lester, Martin E. Caan)

A cop takes revenge on the Japanese gangster who killed his parents.
Cheap, but not particularly cheerful, action nonsense, in which no one seems to have minded that the script was banal, perhaps because the money appears to have been spent on sound effects of bodies being hit and bones breaking.
w Stephen Glantz, Caliope Brattlestreet d Mark L. Lester ph Mark Irwin m David Michael Frank pd Craig Stearns ed Steven Kemper, Robert A. Ferretti ☆ Dolph Lundgren, Brandon Lee, Carey-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Tia Carrere, Toshiro Obata, Philip Tan

'By-the-numbers revenge stuff, although screenplay skips a lot of numbers, the better to focus on nonstop and generally unimaginative action sequences.' – Variety

Shower: see Xizao

Showgirl in Hollywood

US 1930 80m bw and Technicolor
Warner

A girl singer is spotted and trained for movie stardom.
Naïve look behind the studio scenes, historically fascinating but dramatically dull.
w Harvey Thew, James A. Starr novel Hollywood Girl by J. P. McEvoy d Mervyn LeRoy
☆ Alice White, Jack Mulhall, Blanche Sweet, Ford Sterling, John Miljan, Herman Bing

'Leave Your Inhibitions At The Door.'

Showgirls

US 1995 131m Technicolor Clairmont
Guild/United Artists/Chargeurs/Carolco (Alan Marshall, Charles Evans)

A Las Vegas stripper has ambitions to be slightly more than a lap dancer.
A prurient and voyeuristic display that its director apparently saw as an updated version of the Hollywood musical; but the routines on display are invariably tawdry, all the characters are dim, exploited and exploitative, the script is composed of the stalest clichés, and the acting is barely competent.
w Joe Eszterhas d Paul Verhoeven ph Jost Vacano m David A. Stewart pd Allan Cameron ed Mark Goldblatt, Mark Helfrich
☆ Elizabeth Berkley, Kyle MacLachlan, Gina Gershon, Glenn Plummer, Robert Davi, Alan Rachins, Gina Ravera

'A very shallow and ultimately rather silly film.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Beyond teasing, titillation and an abundant display of female flesh in various stages of undress, there is very little reason for Showgirls to exist. The plot is wobbly, the acting one short step ahead of amateurish and what passes for dialogue is a mere collection of turgid lines.' – Anna Maria Bahiana, Screen International
'Akin to being keelhauled through a cesspool, with sharks swimming alongside.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† Only one of the 14 leading British critics, and two out of 34 critics in Chicago, New York and Los Angeles, liked the film. It received an NC-17 certificate in the US, an 18 certificate in Britain with 15 seconds cut, a 12 certificate in France, and was banned in Ireland. Paul Verhoeven recut the film for its US video release.
†† The film flopped at the US box-office, taking around $20m.

Showtime: see Gaiety George

'Lights. Camera. Aggravation.'

Showtime

US 2002 95m Technicolor 'Scope
Warner/Village Roadshow/NPV/Material (Jorge Saralegui, Jane Rosenthal)

Two mismatched cops – a conscientious detective and his partner, a frustrated actor – are forced to star in a reality TV show.
Tired comedy that promises to be a satire of TV's manipulative take on real life, but settles instead for being a poor excuse for an action movie that wastes its stars.
w Keith Sharon, Alfred Gough, Miles Millard story Jorge Saralegui d Tom Dey ph Thomas Kloss m Alan Silvestri pd Jeff Mann ed Billy Weber
☆ Robert De Niro (Mitch Preston), Eddie Murphy (Trey Sellars), Rene Russo (Chase Renzi), Pedro Damian (Vargas), Mos Def (Lazy Boy), Frankie R. Faison (Captain Winship), William Shatner (Himself)

'A lead-balloon caper... the jokes in this movie, if there ever were any, must now be on the cutting-room floor.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

'The greatest fairy tale never told.'

Shrek ★★★

US 2001 89m Technicolor
DreamWorks/PDI (Aron Warner, John H. Williams, Jeffrey Katzenberg)

When his swamp is occupied by exiled fairy-tale characters, an ugly, green ogre agrees to rescue a princess in return for being left alone, and falls in love with her.
Slick computer-generated animation adorns a clever and witty tale that manages both to be true to the conventions of fairy tales and to make fun of them, mainly at the expense of Disney's approach to traditional stories. The result has charm and is as polished as its gleaming animations.
w Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, Joe Stillman, Roger S. H. Schulman book William Steig additional dialogue Cody Cameron, Chris Miller, Conrad Vernon d Andrew Adamson, Vicky Jenson m Harry Gregson-Williams, John Powell pd James Hegedus ad Guillaume Aretos, Douglas Rogers ed Sim Evan-Jones
☆ Mike Myers (Shrek), Eddie Murphy (Donkey), Cameron Diaz (Princess Fiona), John Lithgow (Lord Farquaad), Vincent Cassel (Monsieur Hood)

'An instant animated classic... It offers entertainment equally to viewers from 4 to 104.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety ♟ animated feature film
Ⓐ Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, Joe Stillman, Roger S. H. Schulman
Ⓑ Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, Joe Stillman, Roger S. H. Schulman

'Once upon another time...'

Shrek 2 ★★ (8)

US 2004 92m Technicolor
PDI/DreamWorks (Aron Warner, David Lipman, John H. Williams)

While Shrek and Princess Fiona visit her parents, an angry Fairy Godmother tries to arrange for her son, Prince Charming, to become Fiona's new husband.
Lively sequel that lacks the charm of the first movie, being too dependent for laughs on a series of movie in-jokes and parodies, with references to everything from The Fabulous Baker Boys to The Lord of the Rings.
w Andrew Adamson, Joe Stillman, J. David Stern, David N. Weiss book William Steig d Andrew Adamson, Kelly Asbury, Conrad

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Verno m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Guillaume Aretos ed Michael Andrews, Sim Evan-Jones
☆ voices of: Mike Myers (Shrek), Eddie Murphy (Donkey), Cameron Diaz (Princess Fiona), Julie Andrews (Queen Lillian), Antonio Banderas (Puss in Boots), John Cleese (King Harold), Rupert Everett (Prince Charming), Jennifer Saunders (Fairy Godmother)
'The effects are state-of-the-art, the shading more naturalistic and a cracking script plays fresh tricks on a new batch of fairytale loons.' – James Christopher, Times
♪ animated film; song 'Accidentally in Love' (m Adam Duritz, Charles Gillingham, Jim Bogios, David Immergluck, Matthew Malley, David Bryson l Adam Duritz, Daniel Vickrey)

'Who's ready for Thirds?'

Shrek the Third ★ ⑤

US 2007 92m
Paramount/DreamWorks/PDI (Aron Warner)
Shrek faces the prospect of occupying the throne of Far, Far Away Land – and the possibility of fatherhood.
The grumpy green ogre's appeal seems to be diminishing, judging by this third outing, clearly motivated by financial reward rather than creative need. The pop-culture gags aimed at adults are now even more firmly entrenched, the bodily function jokes that made kiddies giggle are recycled, and a faint air of desperation hangs over the film. It's moderately entertaining, but falls far short of the standard set by its two predecessors; the original delight is long gone.
w Jeffrey Price, Peter S. Seaman, Chris Miler, Aron Warner book Shrek by William Steig d Chris Miller, Raman Hui m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Guillaume Aretos ad Peter Zaslav ed Michael Andrews, Joyce Arrastia
☆ Mike Myers (Shrek), Eddie Murphy (Donkey), Cameron Diaz (Princess Fiona), John Cleese (Frog King), Antonio Banderas (Puss in Boots)
'Much of the bite and a good deal of the wit of the first two films are missing here.' – Kirk Honeycutt, Hollywood Reporter
'A sequel, with rare exceptions, is worse then the film it follows, and sequels of sequels fare even worse. Such is the case with Shrek the Third.' – Peter Rainer, Christian Science Monitor

The Shrieking: see Hex

The Shrike

US 1955 88m bw
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)
A brilliant theatre man has a nervous breakdown because his wife is a vindictive harpy.
Theatrical two-hander, aridly filmed, of little interest except to show that both stars are capable of sustained emotional acting.
w Ketti Frings play Joseph Kramm d José Ferrer ph William Daniels m Frank Skinner titles Saul Bass
☆ José Ferrer, June Allyson, Joy Page, Jacqueline de Wit, Kendall Clark
'The film is unvaryingly paced, the result, one feels, of a respectable but far from invigorating honesty of purpose.' – MFB

Shrunken Heads

US 1994 86m Foto-Kem
Full Moon (Charles Band)
A Haitian witch doctor in America shrinks the heads of three teenagers killed by local thugs and turns them into avenging, flying monsters.
Bizarre comic horror that never quite achieves the atmosphere it needs to work.
w Matthew Bright idea Charles Band d Richard Elfman ph Stephen McNutt m Richard Band, Danny Elfman (title theme) pd Milo ed Charles Simmons sp Alchemy fx; Paul Gentry
☆ Meg Foster, Julius Harris, Aeryk Egan, Becky Herbst
'A promising idea ruined by shoddy production values and an inadequate script.' – Sight and Sound

Shuanglong Hui: see Twin Dragons

Shura-yuki-hime: Urami Renga: see Lady Snowblood 2: Love Song of Vengeance

Shurayuki Hime: see The Princess Blade

'If I kill you will you leave me alone?'

Shut Up and Shoot Me ★★

GB/Czech Republic 2005 86m colour
Storitel/UFO/Peligroso (Paul Sherwood)
aka: Sklapni A Zastrel Me
In Prague, an Englishman with a death wish arranges for his murder by a Czech handyman who will do anything for money in order to keep happy his shopaholic wife.
Enjoyable black comedy about love and death and bureaucracy.
wd Steen Agro ph Howard J. Smith m Frank Gough ad Roman Chochola ed Michal Lansky ☆ Karel Roden (Pavel Zeman), Andy Nyman (Colin Frampton), Anna Geislerova (Liba Zeman), Karel Karlovic (Robert Polo), Klara Low (Maggie Frampton), Denisa Knoblochov (Veronica)
'Tentative yet entertaining proof that Euro-made, English-lingo genre pics, when decently written and astutely cast, can work.' – Eddie Cockrell

'Freedom of speech is fine, as long as you don't do it in public.'

Shut Up & Sing ★★ ⑨

US 2006 93m
Momentum/The Weinstein Company/Cabin Creek Films (David Cassidy, Claude Davies, Barbara Kopple, Cecilia Peck)
aka: Dixie Chicks: Shut Up & Sing
A US country trio is vilified for attacking President George W. Bush on foreign soil.
Compelling look at what can happen when celebs mouth off; though unlikely to appeal beyond the band's depleted fan base, it remains a cut above the usual rockumentary.
d Barbara Kopple, Cecilia Peck
ph Christine Burrill, Joan Churchill, Seth Gordon, Gary Griffin, Luis Lopez m Dixie Chicks ed Bob Eisenhardt, Aaron Kuhn, Emma Morris, Jean Tsien
☆ Natalie Maines, Emily Robison, Martie McGuire, Simon Renshaw, Adrian Pasdar, Rick Rubin
NATALIE: 'Just so you know, we're ashamed the President of the United States is from Texas.'
'A bracingly candid documentary portrait of the artists in a career-defining transition, the film simultaneously offers a unique perspective of a nation at a similarly significant crossroads. It also happens to be a lot of fun.' – Michael Rechtshaffen, Hollywood Reporter

The Shutter ★★

Thailand 2004 95m colour
GMM/Phenomena (Yodphet Sadsawd)
original title: Sutter Kodtid Winyan
video title: Shutter: They Are Around Us
A photographer notices a strange presence on his pictures and investigates the cause as his close friends begin to die.
Atmospheric ghost story that manages to create a genuine chill while gripping with its unfolding mystery.
w Parkpoom Wongpoom, Banjong Pisanthanakun, Sophon Sakdapist d Parkpoom Wongpoom, Banjong Pisanthanakun ph Niramon Ross m Chatchai Pongprapaphan pd Suras Kardeeroj ed Manop Boonwipas, Lee Chatametickool ☆ Ananda Everingham (Ton), Natthaweeranuch Thongmee (Jane), Achita Sikamana (Natre), Unnop Chanpaibool (Tonn), Chachchaya Chalernpho (Tonn's wife)
'Gripping supernatural thriller...a benchmark horror experience.' – Russell Edwards, Variety
† An American remake of the film has been announced.

Shutter ★ ⑥

Thailand 2004 96m
Contender/GMM/Phenomena (Yodphet Sudsawad)
aka: The Shutter
original title: Sutter kodtid winyan
Following a hit-and-run accident, a Bangkok photographer and his girlfriend are stalked by a female ghost who appears to them via his developed prints.
Effective chiller in the J-horror mould; performances and screenplay are accomplished enough, however, to prevent it becoming just another Ringu (qv).
w Parkpoom Wongpoom, Banjong Pisanthanakun, Sophon Sakdapisit d Parkpoom Wongpoom, Banjong Pisanthanakun ph Niramon Ross m Chatchai Pongprapaphan pd Suras Kardeeroj ed Manop Boonwipas, Lee Chatametikool ☆ Ananda Everingham (Tun), Natthaweeranuch Thongmee (Jane), Achita Sikamana (Natre), Unnop Chanpaibool (Tonn), Chachchaya Chalemphol (Tonn's wife), Titikarn Tongprasearth (Jim)
'A taut, inventive ghost story from Thailand that shows the local industry at its best.' – Russell Edwards, Variety
'A film happily demonstrating that it is possible to combine all the familiar staples of the current Japanese-Korean horror boom and still come up with an entertaining picture.' – Patrick Frater, Screen International
† The film was released in Thailand in September 2004 but did not receive UK distribution until June 2007.

The Shuttered Room

GB 1967 110m Technicolor
Warner/Troy-Schenck (Philip Hazelton)
Returning to her childhood home on an island off the New England coast, a girl and her husband are subjected to terror and violence.
Stretched out suspenser which looks good and is carefully made but fails in its effort to combine the menace of teenage yobboes with that of the monster lurking upstairs.
w D. B. Ledrov, Nathaniel Tanchuck story H. P. Lovecraft, August Derleth d David Greene ph Ken Hodges m Basil Kirchin ☆ Gig Young, Carol Lynley, Flora Robson, Oliver Reed, William Devlin

Shy People ★

US 1987 120m colour
Cannon/Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus
A glamorous journalist, who researches into her family, traces some isolated relatives to the bayous of Louisiana.
Off-beat melodrama that has a queasy fascination.
w Gérard Brach, Marjorie David, Andrei Konchalovsky d Andrei Konchalovsky ph Chris Menges m Tangerine Dream pd Stephen Marsh ed Alain Jakubowicz ☆ Jill Clayburgh, Barbara Hershey, Martha Plimpton, Merritt Butrick, John Philbin, Don Swayze, Pruitt Taylor Vince

Une Si Jolie Petite Plage ★

France 1948 91m bw
CICC (Emile Darbon)
aka: Such a Pretty Little Beach
A murderer returns to the small seaside town where he spent his childhood, befriends the maid at the hotel, and after a few days kills himself.
A melancholy anecdote which works both as a character study and pictorially.
w Jacques Sigurd d Yves Allégret ph Henri Alekan m Maurice Thiriet ☆ Gérard Philipe, Jean Servais, Madeleine Robinson, Jane Marken, Carette
'Shows fine craftsmanship and is beautifully sensitive to place and atmosphere.' – Gavin Lambert, MFB

Si Può Fare ... Amigo: see The Big and the Bad

Si Tous les Gars du Monde... ★

France 1956 108m bw
Ariane/Filmsonor/Francinex (Alexandre Mnouchkine)
aka: Race for Life
When members of a French trawler crew fall ill in mid-Atlantic, amateur radio operators around the world arrange rescue.
Well-meaning realistic melodrama with a hands-across-the-sea message.
w Jacques Remy d Christian-Jaque ph Armand Thiraud m Georges Van Parys ☆ Andre Valmy, Jean Gaven, Doudou-Babet, Jean-Louis Trintignant

Si Tutte le Donne del Mondo: see Kiss the Girls and Make Them Cry

'In the battle between man and the universe...back the universe.'

Siam Sunset ★

Australia/GB 1999 92m colour
Panavision
Blue Dolphin/Showtime/Artists Services/AFFC (Al Clark)
A disaster-prone Englishman wins a tour of the Australian outback.
Fitfully amusing, occasionally violent comedy of a busload of misfits, with a little light romance thrown in.
w Max Dann, Andrew Knight d John Polson ph Brian Breheny m Paul Grabowsky pd Steven Jones-Evans ed Nicholas Beauman ☆ Linus Roache (Perry), Victoria Hill (Maree), Danielle Cormack (Grace), Ian Bliss (Martin), Roy Billing (Bill), Alan Brough (Stuart), Rebecca Hobbs (Jane), Terry Kenwrick (Arthur), Deidre Rubenstein (Celia), Peter Hosking (Roy), Victoria Eagger (Rowena), Robert Menzies (Eric), Eliza Lovell (Michelle), Choung Dao (Mr Nguyen)
'The briskly paced, visually lush film deserves to find appreciative audiences

worldwide.' – David Stratton, Variety
'Descends into over-the-top silliness, before spontaneously combusting into utter crappiness.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

Sib: see The Apple (1997)

Siberia

Netherlands/France 1998 87m colour
Metro Tartan/Siberia Experience/Stichting/Cineco (Clea de Koning)
In Amsterdam, two flatmates, who specialise in seducing female backpagers and stealing their money, fall out when one of them falls for a woman from Siberia.
Energetic movie about exploitative youth, which it in turn exploits, filmed in the style of a pop video.
w Robert Jan Westdijk, Jos Driessen d Robert Jan Westdijk ph Bert Pot m Junkie XL ad Anouk Damoiseaux ed Herman P. Koerts cos Ciska Nagel
☆ Hugo Metsers (Hugo), Roeland Fernhout (Goof), Vlatca Simac (Lara), Nicole Eggert (Kristy), Johnny Lion (Freddy), Jessica Stockmann (Beate), Nefeli Anthopoulou (Marina), Alessia Sorvillo (Angela), Francesca Rizzo (Kika), Syan Blake (Maggie), Katja Dreyer (Kate), Bente Jonker (Ute)
'It's impossible to overlook the smug sexism that underpins this unrepentant comedy.' – David Parkinson, Empire

Sibirski Tsiriulnik: see The Barber of Siberia

'It was not sex it was good!'

Sibling Rivalry

US 1990 88m colour
First Independent/Castle Rock/Nelson
Complications ensue after an unhappy wife, advised by her sister to have an affair, goes to bed with her sister's husband.
Broad farce of marital upset that causes an occasional smile.
w Martha Goldhirsh d Carl Reiner ph Reynaldo Villalobos m Jack Elliott pd Jeannine C. Oppewall ed Bud Molin ☆ Kirstie Alley, Bill Pullman, Carrie Fisher, Jami Gertz, Scott Bakula, Frances Sternhagen, John Randolph, Sam Elliott, Ed O'Neill, Paul Benedict
'In opting for romantic comedy rather than the black variety, the picture has grave problems of mood which are never resolved.' – Philip French, Observer

The Sicilian

US 1987 146m Technicolor
Fox/Gladden Entertainment (Michael Cimino, Joann Carelli)
The Sicilian bandit Salvatore Giuliano, who robs the rich in order to give to the poor, is betrayed by his own men.
Over-long and with a cast that lack authenticity as Sicilians, the movie rarely rises above incoherence.
w Steve Shagan novel Mario Puzo d Michael Cimino ph Alex Thomson m David Mansfield pd Wolf Kroeger ed Françoise Bonnot ☆ Christophe Lambert, Terence Stamp, Joss Ackland, John Turturro, Richard Bauer, Barbara Sukowa, Ray McAnally, Aldo Ray

The Sicilian Cross

Italy 1976 92m colour
Aetos (Manolo Bolognini, Luigi Borghese)
US title: Street People
original title: Gli Esecutori
A Mafia investigator and his racing-driver buddy set out to discover the person responsible for double-crossing a gang leader by hiding heroin in a crucifix sent from Sicily to the United States.
Conventional thriller, composed of shoot-outs and car chases, in which it is difficult to remember, or care, who is doing what to whom.
w Ernest Tidyman, Randal Kleiser, Gianfranco Bucceri, Roberto Leoni, Gian Franco Bucceri, Nicola Badalucco, Maurizio Lucidi story Gianfranco Bucceri, Roberto Leoni d Maurizio Lucidi ph Aiace Parolin m Luis Enriquez ad Gastone Carsetti ed Renzo Lucidi
☆ Roger Moore, Stacy Keach, Ivo Garrani, Fausto Tozzi, Ennio Balbo, Rosemarie Lindt, Ettore Manni
'The uneasy pairing of Moore and Stacy Keach suggests, however, that Maurizio Lucidi intended to enter his picture in the even less inspired Starsky and Hutch stakes.' – MFB

Sick: The Life and Death of Bob Flanagan, Supermasochist

US 1997 90m colour
Kirby Dick/Peter Norton/Art Matters
Documentary on Bob Flanagan, an artist and self-styled Supermasochist, who had the incurable disease cystic fibrosis and used suffering as the basis of his life, involved in a sado-masochistic relationship, and work.
Despite Flanagan's joy in life and his humour, this is a painful film to face, not only in his performances but in the final moments of his life, caught on video and still photographs; it remains a curiosity.
d Kirby Dick ph Jonathan Dayton, Kirby Dick, Sheree Rose, Geza Sinkovics m Blake Leyh ed Kirby Dick, Dody Dorn
☆ Bob Flanagan, Sheree Rose

Sid and Nancy

GB 1986, 111m colour
Zenith/Initial (Eric Feliner)
An account of the self-destruction of the leader of a punk rock group and his American girlfriend.
Some have said stimulating, most have preferred revolting. Consensus, an example of the dregs to which cinema has been reduced.
w Alex Cox, Abbe Wool d Alex Cox ph Roger Deakins m The Pogues ☆ Gary Oldman, Chloe Webb, David Hayman
'The dialogue is extremely rough, the settings sordid, the theme of wasted lives depressing.' – Variety
'Relentlessly whingeing performances and a lengthy slide into drugs, degradation and death make this a solemnly off-putting moral tract.' – Sight and Sound

Siddharta

US 1972 94m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Columbia-Warner/Lotus (Conrad Rooks)
A young Brahmin leaves his comfortable home to join a band of itinerant holy men.
Despite its visual charm, a dull, though faithful, version of the book.
wd Conrad Rooks novel Hermann Hesse ph Sven Nykvist m Hemanta Kuma ad Malcolm Golding ed Willy Kemplen
☆ Shashi Kapoor, Simi Garewal, Rommesh Sharma, Pincho Kapoor, Amrik Singh, Zul Vellani, Shanti Hiranand, Kunal Kapoor

Side by Side

GB 1975 84m Technicolor
GTO (Drummond Challis)
When a magistrate orders that one of a town's two rundown night-clubs will have to close in a month, the rival owners search for new acts to boost their chances of remaining open.
A ramshackle comedy mainly designed as a showcase for a succession of bland pop groups; in between the songs, the narrative includes, for no good reason, an old music-hall slapstick routine and some occasionally funny moments from Terry-Thomas as a seedy entrepreneur. Performances from groups such as Fox have also gained a measure of hilarity over the years.
w Garry Chambers, Ron Inkpen, Peter James, Bruce Beresford d Bruce Beresford ph Harvey Harrison m Hello, Mac and Katie Kisson, Bob Kerr's Whoopee Band, Desmond Dekker and the Israelites ad Terry Gough ed Ray Lovejoy
☆ Terry-Thomas, Barry Humphries, Stephanie de Sykes, Billy Boyle, Dave Mount, Frank Thornton, Jennifer Guy
'The exuberant vulgarity which characterised Bruce Beresford's Barry McKenzie movies is wholly absent from this abysmal comedy.' – MFB

Side Out

US 1990 100m colour
Tri-Star/Aurora/Then/Jay Wesson (Gary Foster)
A young would-be lawyer goes to California to work for his uncle, but prefers professional volleyball.
Trivial 'teen picture built around a game that may be fun to play, but is hell to watch.
w David Thoreau d Peter Israelson ph Ron Garcia m Jeff Lorber pd Dan Lomino ed Conrad Buff
☆ C. Thomas Howell, Peter Horton, Courtney Thorne-Smith, Harley Jane Kozak, Christopher Rydell, Terry Kiser
'Anodyne Californian whimsy which celebrates beach culture and the body beautiful.' – Sight and Sound

Side Street

US 1950 83m bw
MGM (Sam Zimbalist)
A petty thief finds himself involved with big-time crooks.
Well-made but rather boring crime melodrama with an excellent car chase finale.
w Sydney Boehm d Anthony Mann ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Lennie Hayton
☆ Farley Granger, Cathy O'Donnell, James Craig, Paul Kelly, Jean Hagen, Edmon Ryan, Paul Harvey

'It's the hottest day in the real New York.'

Side Streets

US 1998 131m Technicolor
First Independent/Merchant Ivory/Cornerstone (Bruce Weiss)
A day in the New York life of five immigrants, who are all struggling to make a living.
Ambitious but meandering account of the diversity of city life on one stifling day; but the characters stubbornly refuse to come to life.
w Lynn Nottage, Tony Gerber d Tony Gerber ph Russell Lee Fine m Evan Lurie pd Stephen McCabe ed Kate Williams
☆ Valeria Golino, Shashi Kapoor, Leon, Art Malik, Shabana Azmi, Mirjana Jokovic, Miho Nikaldo, Marc Tissot, John Ortiz
'Very, very long and dull.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Sidekicks

US 1993 100m colour
Gallery (Don Carmody)
An asthmatic teenager escapes his unhappiness by day-dreams of heroic acts at the side of his hero, Chuck Norris.
A movie for young audiences, who may be able to share the fantasies on offer.
w Don Thompson, Lou Illar d Aaron Norris ph João Fernandes m Alan Silvestri pd Reuben Freed ed David Rawlins, Bernard Weiser
☆ Chuck Norris, Beau Bridges, Jonathan Brandis, Mako, Julia Nickson-Soul, Joe Piscopo, Danica McKellar

Sidewalk Stories ★

US 1989 97m bw
Palm (Charles Lane)
A homeless street artist looks after a little girl after her father is killed by muggers.
Whimsical, almost silent movie with deft musical accompaniment; its lightness of touch almost disguises its underlying anger on behalf of the dispossessed.
wd Charles Lane ph Bill Dill m Marc Marder pd Lyn Pinezich ed Anne Stein, Charles Lane
☆ Charles Lane, Nicole Alysia, Sandye Wilson, Darnell Williams, Trula Hoosier, Michael Baskin, George Riddick

Sidewalks of London: see St Martin's Lane

Sidewalks of New York ★

US 1931 73m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)
The playboy owner of some tenement apartments falls in love with the daughter of one of the tenants.
Interesting rather than wholly successful early sound comedy which marked the beginning of Keaton's decline; he was not allowed full control and the comedy scenes are thinly spaced.
w George Landy, Paul Gerard Smith, Eric Hatch, Robert E. Hopkins d Jules White, Zion Myers ph Leonard Smith
☆ Buster Keaton, Anita Page, Cliff Edwards, Frank Rowan

'In a city of 8 million people, what are the odds the perfect two will meet?'

Sidewalks of New York

US 2001 108m Technicolor
Helkon SK/Marlboro Road Gang/APG/Newmarket (Margot Bridger, Edward Burns, Cathy Schulman, Rick Yorn)
A group of New Yorkers, recovering from failed love affairs, find their lives intertwining in their search for new partners.
Slight, occasionally amusing movie of self-centered seekers of satisfaction who talk a great deal but do not feel at all.
wd Edward Burns ph Frank Prinzi ed David Greenwald cos Catherine Thomas
☆ Edward Burns (Tommy), Rosario Dawson (Maria), Dennis Farina (Carpo), Heather Graham (Annie), David Krumholtz (Ben), Brittany Murphy (Ashley), Stanley Tucci (Griffin), Michael Leydon Campbell (Gio/Harry), Nadia Dajani (Hilary), Callie Thorne (Sue), Aida Turturro (Shari)
'Not just instantly forgettable, but beginning to fade from memory even as its images still play across the screen.' – Scott Foundas, Variety

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'In search of wine. In search of women. In search of themselves.'

Sideways ★★★

US 2004 126m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox Searchlight (Michael London)

Two male friends go on a trip through California: one, a would-be novelist, to try the wines, the other, an unsuccessful actor, to sample the local women before his forthcoming marriage.

Witty and engaging drama of adolescent men and mature women that hints at the possibilities of redemption even for life's apparent losers.

w Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor novel Rex Pickett d Alexander Payne ph Phedon Papamichael m Rolfe Kent ad Jane Ann Stewart ed Kevin Tent

☆ Paul Giamatti (Miles Raymond), Thomas Haden Church (Jack Lopate), Virginia Madsen (Maya), Sandra Oh (Stephanie), Marylouise Burke (Miles' Mother), Jessica Hecht (Victoria)

'Beautifully observed, small-scale study of personal foibles, romantic uncertainty and two sides of the sadly predictable male animal.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

screenplay
film; Alexander Payne; Thomas Haden Church; Virginia Madsen

Sie Tötete in Ekstase: see She Killed in Ecstasy

The Siege

US 1998 116m DeLuxe Super 35
TCF (Lynda Obst, Edward Zwick)

Martial law is declared after Arab terrorists begin to explode bombs in New York.

Hysterical political melodrama, which will leave most audiences outside the USA feeling decidedly queasy.

w Lawrence Wright, Menno Meyjes, Edward Zwick d Edward Zwick ph Roger Deakins m Graeme Revell pd Lilly Kilvert ed Steven Rosenblum

☆ Denzel Washington, Annette Bening, Bruce Willis, Tony Shalhoub, Sami Bouajila, David Proval

'The filmmakers peddle fear and then try to claim the moral high ground; the treatment is foolish, confused and borderline irresponsible.' – David Denby, New Yorker

The Siege at Red River

US 1954 86m Technicolor
TCF/Panoramic (Leonard Goldstein)

During the American Civil War a Confederate agent behind northern lines defeats a treacherous helper and escapes to the South.

Modest, generally watchable, and quite forgettable Western.

w Sydney Boehm d Rudolph Maté ph Edward Cronjager m Lionel Newman

☆ Van Johnson, Joanne Dru, Richard Boone, Milburn Stone, Jeff Morrow, Craig Hill

The Siege of Pinchgut

GB 1959 104m bw
Ealing (Eric Williams)
US title: Four Desperate Men

Escaped convicts take over a small island in Sydney harbour.

Disappointingly obvious location melodrama with routine excitements.

w Harry Watt, Jon Cleary d Harry Watt ph Gordon Dines m Kenneth V. Jones

☆ Aldo Ray, Heather Sears, Neil McCallum, Victor Maddern, Carlo Justini

The Siege of Sidney Street ★

GB 1960 92m bw Dyaliscope
Midcentury (Robert S. Baker, Monty Berman)

An account of the anarchists who infiltrated London in 1912.

Detailed but not dramatically absorbing historical reconstruction with unsatisfactory fictional trimmings.

w Jimmy Sangster, Alexander Baron m Stanley Black d/ph Robert S. Baker, Monty Berman

☆ Peter Wyngarde, Donald Sinden, Nicole Berger, Kieron Moore, Leonard Sachs, Tutte Lemkow

'He used the power of the universe 2,500 years ago to destroy the Roman invaders.'

The Siege of Syracuse

Italy/France 1959 115m Eastmancolor Dyaliscope
Glomer/Galatea/Lyre (Giovanni Laterza, Armando Grottini)
original title: L'Assedio di Siracusa

Scientist meets slave girl, scientist loses slave girl, scientist gets slave girl while saving his city from the Romans.

Colourful epic that successfully mixes action and romance; directed with verve, it is one of the better examples of its kind.

w Pietro Francisci, Giorgio Graziosi, Ennio de Concini d Pietro Francisci ph Carlo Carlini m Angelo Francesco Lavagnino pd Ottavio Scotti ed Nino Baragli

☆ Rossano Brazzi (Archimedes), Tina Louise (Diana), Sylva Koscina (Clio), Enrico Maria Salerno, Gino Cervi, Alberto Farnese

† The film was released in the US in 1962 in a dubbed version that runs for 96m.

The Siege of the Saxons

GB 1963 85m Technicolor
Columbia/Ameran (Jud Kinberg)

When King Arthur is ill, the Saxons plot his overthrow but are foiled by a handsome outlaw.

Comic strip adventure with action highlights borrowed from older and better films.

w John Kohn, Jud Kinberg d Nathan Juran ph Wilkie Cooper, Jack Willis m Laurie Johnson

☆ Ronald Lewis, Janette Scott, Ronald Howard, Mark Dignam, John Laurie, Richard Clarke, Jerome Willis

Sierra

US 1950 83m Technicolor
Universal (Michael Kraike)

A father, accused of a crime he did not commit, hides out in the hills with his son.

Dim Western, routinely directed and with little conviction in the performances.

w Edna Anhalt, Milton Gunzburg novel The Mountains Are My Kingdom by Stuart Hardy d Alfred E. Green ph Russell Metty m Walter Scharf ad Bernard Herzbrun, Robert Boyle ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Wanda Hendrix, Audie Murphy, Dean Jagger, Burl Ives, Richard Rober, Anthony (Tony) Curtis, Sara Allgood, James Arness

'Worth its weight in manure. A really lousy western.' – Clive Hirschhorn, The Universal Story

† It was a remake of Forbidden Valley (qv).

Siesta

US 1987 100m colour
Palace/Lorimar (Gary Kurfirst)

An amnesiac skydiver, visiting her former lover in Spain, is implicated in a murder.

Pretentious, deliberately obscure movie where there is little reward for working out what is happening.

w Patricia Louisianna Knop novel Patrice Chaplin d Mary Lambert ph Bryan Loftus m Miles Davis pd John Beard ed Glen Morgan

☆ Ellen Barkin, Gabriel Byrne, Julian Sands, Isabella Rossellini, Martin Sheen, Alexei Sayle, Grace Jones, Jodie Foster

Il Sigillo di Pechino: see The Peking Medallion

The Sign of Four

GB 1932 75m bw
ATP

Sherlock Holmes clears up a mystery including a hidden fortune, a secret pact, revenge from the east, and a pygmy who blows poison darts through a pipe.

Very acceptable version of the famous story, previously filmed as a silent.

w W. P. Lipscomb, John Paddy Carstairs novel Sir Arthur Conan Doyle d Graham Cutts ph Robert de Grasse, Robert G. Martin md Ernest Irving

☆ Arthur Wontner, Ian Hunter, Isla Bevan, Miles Malleson, Herbert Lomas, Roy Emerton

'A picture which will proudly lead all the entertainments the world has ever seen!'
'Like a shining light – the simple faith that was mightier than a pagan empire!'

The Sign of the Cross ★★★

US 1932 123m bw
Paramount (Cecil B. de Mille)

In the days of Nero, a Roman officer is converted to Christianity.

A heavily theatrical play becomes one of de Mille's most impressive films, the genuine horror of the arena mingling with the debauched humour of the court. A wartime prologue added in 1943 prolongs the film without improving it.

w Waldemar Young, Sidney Buchman play Wilson Barrett d Cecil B. de Mille ph Karl Struss m Rudolph Kopp ed Anne Bauchens

☆ Fredric March (Marcus Superbus), Elissa Landi (Mercia), Charles Laughton (Emperor Nero), Claudette Colbert (Empress Poppaea), Ian Keith (Tigellinus), Harry Beresford (Flavius), Arthur Hohl (Titus), Nat Pendleton (Strabo)

'A beautiful film to watch ... a triumph of popular art.' – Charles Higham, 1972
'However contemptible one may find de Mille's moralizing, it is impossible not to be impressed by The Sign of the Cross.' – John Baxter, 1968
'De Mille's bang-them-on-the-head-with-wild-orgies-and-imperilled-virginity style is at its ripest.' – New Yorker, 1976
'Preposterous, but the laughter dies on the lips.' – NFT, 1974
'This slice of "history" has it all: Laughton's implicitly gay Nero fiddling away while an impressive miniature set burns, Colbert bathing up to her nipples in asses' milk, Christians and other unfortunates thrown to a fearsome menagerie, much suggestive slinking about in Mitchell Leisen's costumes, much general debauchery teetering between the sadistic and the erotic. Not for people with scruples.' – Geoff Brown, Time Out, 1980

Karl Struss

Sign of the Gladiator

Italy/France/West Germany 1959 84m Eastmancolor Dyaliscope
Glomer Film/Lyre-Lux/Tele Film (Rino Merolle) original title: Nel Segno di Roma

Zenobia, Queen of Syria, revolts against Roman rule but falls in love with the consul sent to destroy her.

An early, dull example of Italy's 'sword and sandal' cycle, lacking the genre's saving spectacle

w F. Thellung, F. de Feo, Sergio Leone, G. Mangione, Guido Brignone d Guido Brignone, Riccardo Freda (battle scenes) ph Luciano Trasatti m A. Francesco Lavagnino ad Ottavio Scotti ed Nino Baragli

☆ Anita Ekberg, Georges Marchal, Folco Lulli, Jacques Sernas, Lorella de Luca, Alberto Farnese, Chelo Alonso

'Against his ruthless pagan lusts – the power of a woman's love!'

The Sign of the Pagan

US 1954 92m Technicolor Cinemascope
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)

Attila the Hun is defeated by the Romans.

Historic horse opera, rather cheaply done.

w Oscar Brodney, Barre Lyndon d Douglas Sirk ph Russell Metty m Frank Skinner, Hans Salter ad Alexander Golitzen, Emrich Nicholson ed Milton Carruth, Al Clark

☆ Jeff Chandler, Jack Palance, Rita Gam, Ludmilla Tcherina, Jeff Morrow, George Dolenz, Eduard Franz, Alexander Scourby

The Sign of the Ram

US 1948 84m bw
Columbia (Irving Cummings Jnr)

A selfish invalid interferes in her family's affairs.

Stultifying melodrama in the wake of Guest in the House, devised for the unfortunate Miss Peters who was crippled after an accident. Poor production values don't help.

w Charles Bennett d John Sturges ph Burnett Guffey m Hans Salter

☆ Susan Peters, Alexander Knox, Peggy Ann Garner, May Whitty

Signal 7

US 1983 92m colour
Myron/Taylor/New Front/Alliance

Two middle-aged taxi drivers, with aspirations to be actors, reminisce about their lives and hopes.

Semi-improvised slice of life, although you wouldn't necessarily want to ride in either of the protagonists' cabs.

w Signal 7 Group (Victoria Bennett, Hildy Burns, Steve Burns, Roy Kissin, Sara Morris, Rob Nilsson, David Schickele) d Rob Nilsson ph Geoff Schaaf, Tomas Tucker m Andy Narell ed Richard Harkness

☆ Bill Ackridge, Dan Leegant

Le Signe du Lion ★

France 1959 90m bw
AJYM Films/Claude Chabrol (Jean Cotet)

aka: The Sign of Leo

An American composer living in Paris mistakenly believes he has inherited a fortune and is reduced to penury as a result.

Rohmer's first feature, a lively slice-of-life among French bohemians, but spoiled by its unlikely ending.

w Eric Rohmer, Paul Gegauff d Eric Rohmer ph Nicolas Hayer m Louis Saguer ed Anne- Marie Cotret

☆ Jess Hahn, Michèle Girardon, Van Doude, Paul Bisciglia, Gilbert Edard, Stéphane Audran, Jean Le Poulain

La Signora della Notte: see Lady of the Night

Signore e Signori: see The Birds, the Bees and the Italians

Signpost to Murder

US 1964 74m bw Panavision
MGM/Martin (Lawrence Weingarten)

A convicted murderer escapes after ten years and a lonely wife promises to help him.

Tricksy mystery set in a never-never English village.

w Sally Benson play Monte Doyle
d George Englund ph Paul C. Vogel
m Lyn Murray

☆ Joanne Woodward, Stuart Whitman, Edward Mulhare, Alan Napier, Murray Matheson

'Don't See It Alone'

Signs

US 2002 106m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Blinding Edge (M. Night Shyamalan, Frank Marshall, Sam Mercer)

A lapsed priest regains his faith after an invasion by little green men.

Vapid supernatural thriller that fails to convince on any level, even on the basic one of suspense.

wd M. Night Shyamalan ph Tak Fujimoto
m James Newton Howard pd Larry Fulton
ed Barbara Tulliver sp ILM cos Ann Roth

☆ Mel Gibson (Graham Hess), Joaquin Phoenix (Merrill Hess), Cherry Jones (Officer Caroline Paski), Rory Culkin (Morgan Hess), Abigail Breslin (Bo Hess), Patricia Kalember (Colleen Hess), M. Night Shyamalan (Ray Reddy)

'A wonderful sustained slice of American gothic...top-quality entertainment.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

'the untidy logic of the premise, coupled with the unoriginal plot twists, laboured ending, unbelievable dialogue and predictable concluding shot made me feel cheated and terrifically let down.' – Jonathan Ross, Daily Mirror

'Sitting through the last reel is significantly less charming than listening to a four-year-old with a taste for exaggeration recount his Halloween trip to the Haunted House.' – Jessica Winter, Village Voice

Signs of Life ★

West Germany 1968 90m bw Werner Herzog
original title: Lebenszeichen

During the Second World War, a German soldier, sent to a small Greek island to guard a fortress while he recovers from a wound, is maddened by the peace and boredom of the place.

A coolly dispassionate account of an individual's breakdown when faced with the apparent meaningless of existence.

wd Werner Herzog story Der tolle Invalide auf dem Fort Ratonneau by Achim von Arnim ph Thomas Mauch m Stavros Xarchakos ed Beate Mainke-Jellinghaus, Maxi Mainke

☆ Peter Brogle, Wolfgang Reichmann, Julio Pinheiro, Athina Zacharopoulou, Wolfgang von Ungern-Sternberg, Wolfgang Stumpf

'A limpidly clear meditation on life shrivelling under a self-imposed oppression.' – Richard Combs, MFB

The Silence ★

Sweden 1963 96m bw
Svensk Filmindustri

original title: Tystnaden

Of two women in a large hotel in a foreign city where the military are dominant, one masturbates while the other sleeps with a barman.

Bergman may know what this was all about, but it's a certainty that no one else did: so everyone thought it must be very clever and went to see it. Superficially, as usual, it is careful and fascinating.

wd Ingmar Bergman ph Sven Nykvist
m from Bach

☆ Ingrid Thulin, Gunnel Lindblom

'There is not enough forward thrust, not enough momentum to unite the specific points, the complementary but discrete images. The pearls are there, but the string is too weak to hold them.' – John Simon

The Silence Between Two Thoughts ★

Iran 2003 90m colour
Payam Films/Sharmshir (Babak Payami)
original title: Sokaate Beine Do Feks

After his killing of a virgin is stopped on the grounds that she would go to paradise, an executioner is told to marry the girl and deflower her so that she can then be shot.

A coded attack on religious fundamentalism and those who use it as a means to power, but so slow-moving and murkily shot that it will try the patience of the most sympathetic audience.

wd Babak Payami ph Farzad Jodat
pd Babak Payami ed Jafar Panahi, Babak Karimi

☆ Kamal Naroui (Executioner), Maryam Moghaddam (Virgin)

'Like having a kilo of wet cement injected into your skull. And the tragedy of it is that it comes from a serious and well-regarded film-maker.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian † Iranian authorities confiscated the film's 35mm negative so that only a video version has been seen in the West.

Le Silence est d'Or ★

France 1947 99m bw
Pathé/RKO Radio (René Clair)

In 1906 a comedian becomes a film producer and as a result falls into an affair with a young girl.

Somehow not an important film, but quite a delightful one, especially for its local colour and for the combination of Clair and Chevalier up to their old tricks.

wd René Clair ph Armand Thirard
m Georges Van Parys

☆ Maurice Chevalier, François Périer, Marcelle Derrien

The Silence of Dean Maitland

Australia 1934 97m bw Cinesound (Ken G. Hall)

A clergyman sires an illegitimate baby, kills the girl's father and allows another man to be convicted.

Once sensational stuff which almost caused an Australian scandal.

w Gayne Dexter, Edmund Barclay d Ken G. Hall

☆ John Longden, Charlotte Francis, Jocelyn Howarth, Patricia Minchin

Silence of the Hams

Italy/US 1993 81m Foto-Kem
Polygram/Thirtieth Century Wolf/Berlusconi (Ezio Greggio, Julie Corman)

A woman who steals money from her boss spends the night in a motel, where she is murdered in the shower; an FBI agent and a private eye investigate.

An inept attempt by a popular Italian television comic to cash in on the market for dumb, lazy spoofs of popular movies, though this one harks back to Hitchcock's Psycho, with Balsam sadly parodying his original role, more than to Silence of the Lambs.

wd Ezio Greggio ph Jacques Haitkin
m Parmer Fuller pd Jim Newport
ed Robert Barrere, Andy Horvitch

☆ Ezio Greggio, Dom DeLuise, Billy Zane, Joanna Pacula, Charlene Tilton, Martin Balsam, Stuart Pankin, John Astin, Phyllis Diller, Bubba Smith, Shelley Winters, Henry Silva

'Even if you smirked at the title, don't waste another second of your life.' – Sight and Sound

† Joe Dante, John Carpenter, John Landis and Mel Brooks also appear in cameo roles, poor things.

The Silence of the Lambs ★★★

US 1990 118m Technicolor Panavision
Rank/Orion/Strong Heart/Demme (Edward Saxon, Kenneth Utt, Ron Bozman)

A young female FBI agent seeks the aid of an imprisoned serial killer and psychiatrist, Hannibal 'The Cannibal' Lecter, to track down another mass murderer.

Tense, exciting and sometimes gruesome thriller, suspenseful enough to make you overlook its essential absurdities. Hopkins plays the role of the devious Lecter with lip-smacking relish.

w Ted Tally novel Thomas Harris
d Jonathan Demme ph Tak Fujimoto
m Howard Shore pd Kristi Zea ad Tim Galvin ed Craig McKay

☆ Jodie Foster (Clarice Starling), Anthony Hopkins (Dr. Hannibal Lecter), Scott Glenn (Jack Crawford), Ted Levine (Jame Gumb), Anthony Heald (Dr. Frederick Chilton), Lawrence A. Bonney (FBI Instructor), Kasi Lemmons (Ardelia Mapp), Lawrence J. Wrentz (Agent Burroughs), Frankie Faison (Barney), Roger Corman (FBI Director Hayden Burke)

HANNIBAL LECTER: 'I do wish we could chat longer, but I'm having an old friend for dinner.'

HANNIBAL LECTER: 'A census taker once tried to test me. I ate his liver with some fava beans and a nice chianti.'

'A mesmerizing thriller that will grip audiences from first scene to last.' – Variety

'A sombre masterpiece.' – Sight and Sound

'An exceptionally good film, perhaps this fine director's best, in which the horror genre is elevated into the kind of cinema that can at least be argued about as a treatise for its unsettling times.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† It was followed by Hannibal in 2001 and Red Dragon (qqv) in 2002. An earlier version of Red Dragon was made in 1986 as Manhunter (qv).

Academy Award film; Jonathan Demme; Anthony Hopkins; Jodie Foster; Ted Tally
Academy Award nomination editing; sound
BAFTA Anthony Hopkins; Jodie Foster

Silence of the North

Canada 1981 94m colour
Universal (Canada) (Murray Shostak)

In 1919 a city girl is courted by a trapper and joins him in the north country.

Nicely filmed but utterly predictable romantic melodrama, based on a biography but not carrying much conviction. D. W. Griffith would have liked it.

w Patricia Louisianna Knop book Olive Fredrickson, Ben East d Allan Winton King ph Richard Leiterman m Allan MacMillan

☆ Ellen Burstyn, Tom Skerritt, Gordon Pinsent, Jennifer McKinney

'Follow his secret from bedroom to bedlam, with guns, girls and dynamite!'

The Silencers ★

US 1966 103m Technicolor
Columbia/Irving Allen (Jim Schmerer)

Adventures of a sexy secret agent.

*Or, James Bond sent up rotten. Plenty of fun along the way, with in-jokes and characters like Lovey Kravezit, but the plot could have done with more attention, and the sequels (Murderers Row, The Ambushers, Wrecking Crew) were uncontrolled disaster areas.*

w Oscar Saul novel Donald Hamilton
d Phil Karlson ph Burnett Guffey
m Elmer Bernstein

☆ Dean Martin, Stella Stevens, Victor Buono, Daliah Lavi, Cyd Charisse, Robert Webber, James Gregory, Nancy Kovack

'The dullest, dirtiest thud excreted by the sex-and-sadism spoofs of Bondism.' – Judith Crist

The Silences of the Palace ★

France/Tunisia 1994 127m colour
ICA/Mat/Cinetelefilms/Magfilm (Ahmed Baha, Eddine Attia, Richard Magnien)

A singer returns to the Tunisian palace where she was brought up by her mother, a servant and mistress of the king, and recalls her past life.

A leisurely, careful drama of women trapped within a social system that denies them freedom over their own lives.

wd Moufida Tlatli ph Youssef Ben Youssef
m Anouar Brahem ad Claude Bennys, Mondher Dhrif ed Moufida Tlatli, Camille Cotte, Kerim Hammouda

☆ Ahmel Hedhili, Hend Sabri, Najia Ouerghi, Ghalia Lecroix, Sami Bouajila, Kamel Fazaa

'Honourable, but a little torpid – better on the textures of feudal life than storytelling.' – Kevin Jackson, Independent

'This is, at heart, a Stella Dallas story set in the shimmering reflections of royal life before any revolution.' – Time

The Silent Battle

GB 1939 84m bw
Pinebrook (Anthony Havelock-Allan)

A French agent battles revolutionaries in the Balkans.

Unconvincing spy stuff with an uncertain tone.

w Wolfgang Wilhelm, Rodney Ackland novel Jean Bommart d Herbert Mason

☆ Rex Harrison, Valerie Hobson, John Loder, Muriel Aked, John Salew, George Devine Silent Dust ★

GB 1948 82m bw
ABP/Independent Sovereign (Nat Bronsten)

A baronet builds a memorial to his son who has apparently been killed in action, but the son turns up and proves to be an absolute bounder.

Effective stage melodrama, quite neatly filmed.

w Michael Pertwee play The Paragon by Roland and Michael Pertwee d Lance Comfort ph Wilkie Cooper m Georges Auric

☆ Sally Gray, Derek Farr, Stephen Murray, Nigel Patrick, Seymour Hicks

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

The Silent Enemy

GB 1958 112m bw
Romulus (Bertram Ostrer)

The World War II exploits of a naval frogman in the Mediterranean.
Stereotyped naval underwater adventures, adequately presented.
wd William Fairchild book Commander Crabb by Marshall Pugh ph Egil Woxholt, Otto Heller m William Alwyn
☆ Laurence Harvey, John Clements, Michael Craig, Dawn Addams, Sidney James, Alec McCowen, Nigel Stock

'A Savage Crime. A Silent Witness.'

Silent Fall

US 1994 101m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)

An autistic nine-year-old is the only witness to his parents' brutal murder.
Dull thriller, silly when it is not predictable and cheap in its use of autism for such a trivial end.
w Akiva Goldsman d Bruce Beresford ph Peter James m Stewart Copeland pd John Stoddart
☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Linda Hamilton, John Lithgow, J. T. Walsh, Ben Faulkner, Liv Taylor, Zahn McClarnon

'Nothing could save this film from being mediocre at best.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'For a thriller about the life of the mind, this one is chock-full of cheap thinking.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

The Silent Flute

US 1978 95m colour
Volare (Richard St Johns)

In a martial arts tournament, a hero is chosen to challenge the wizard Zetan.
Curiously mystical adventure allegory with an unhelpful title. Not too bad for those in the mood.
w Stirling Silliphant, Stanley Mann d Richard Moore ph Ronnie Taylor m Bruce Smeaton
☆ Jeff Cooper, David Carradine, Roddy McDowall, Christopher Lee, Eli Wallach

'Enjoy Your Stay.'

Silent Hill ★ ⑤

Canada/ France 2006 127m
Pathe/Davis Films (Samuel Hadida, Don Carmody)

A mother searches for her missing daughter in the haunted town of Silent Hill, cursed by its violently puritanical past.
The excitement of the video game is not replicated in a soulless dud despite featuring all its infamous creatures and ghosts.
w Roger Avary video game Sheep by Konami d Christophe Gans ph Dan Laustsen m Jeff Danna, Akira Yamaoka pd Carol Spier ad Elinor Rose Galbraith, James MacAteer ed Sebastien Prangere sp David Gauthier ☆ Radha Mitchell (Rose Da Silva), Sean Bean (Christopher Da Silva), Laurie Holden (Cybil Bennett), Deborah Kara Unger (Dahlia Gillespie), Alice Krige (Christabella), Jodelle Ferland (Sharon Da Silva/Alessa Gillespie)

'Too much like watching someone else play the game.' – James Dyer, Empire

Silent Movie ★

US 1976 87m DeLuxe
TCF/Crossbow (Michael Hertzberg)

An alcoholic producer gets the idea that a silent movie would be a great novelty, and tries to get stars to take part.
Fairly lively spoof with the talents concerned in variable form. The shortage of laughter made it a hit in the seventies, but at no time does it approach the Keaton or Laurel and Hardy level.
w Mel Brooks, Ron Clark, Rudy de Luca, Barry Levinson d Mel Brooks ph Paul Lohmann m John Morris ☆ Mel Brooks, Marty Feldman, Dom DeLuise, Bernadette Peters, Sid Caesar, Harold Gould, Fritz Feld, Harry Ritz, Henny Youngman
† guest stars Anne Bancroft, Paul Newman, Burt Reynolds, James Caan, Liza Minnelli, Marcel Marceau.
†† Marcel Marceau utters the only word in the movie, which is 'Non'.

Silent Night, Evil Night: see Black Christmas

The Silent Partner

Canada 1978 105m colour
Carolco (Garth H. Drabinsky)

A bank teller foils an attempted raid and steals the money himself.
A suspense thriller of a familiar kind; it might have been entertaining but elects instead to be unpleasant.
w Curtis Hanson novel Think of a Number by Anders Bodelsen d Daryl Duke ph Stephen Katz m Oscar Peterson ☆ Christopher Plummer, Elliott Gould, Susannah York, Celine Lomez, Michael Kirby

The Silent Passenger

GB 1935 75m bw
Phoenix

Lord Peter Wimsey clears a man of a murder charge.
Not an unappealing presentation of Dorothy Sayers's famous detective, though he is presented as too much the silly ass and the story is weak.
w Basil Mason story Dorothy L. Sayers d Reginald Denham ph Jan Stallich
☆ Peter Haddon, John Loder, Mary Newland, Austin Trevor, Donald Wolfit, Leslie Perrins, Robb Wilton

Silent Running ★

US 1971 90m Technicolor
Universal/Michel Gruskoff

Members of a space station crew in 2001 are space gardening to replenish nuclear-devastated Earth.
Sombre futuristic fantasy, well made but slow and muddled in development.
w Deric Washburn, Michael Cimino, Steve Bochco d Douglas Trumbull ph Charles F. Wheeler m Peter Schickele
☆ Bruce Dern, Cliff Potts, Ron Rifkin, Jesse Vint Silent Scream ★

GB 1989 85m
BFI/Film Four International (Paddy Higson)

Jailed for the murder of a bartender, a depressive prisoner, dying from an overdose of drugs, recalls his past life.
Based on the writings and life of Larry Winters, who was transferred to a prison where he was encouraged to be creative, the film's hallucinatory style too often obscures its intentions.
w Bill Beech, Jane Beech d David Hayman ph Denis Crossan m Callum McNair pd Andy Harris ed Justin Krish
☆ Iain Glen, Paul Samson, Andrew Barr, Kenneth Glenaan, Steve Hotchkiss, John Murtagh, Bobby Carlyle, Tom Watson, Julie Graham

'I felt as if someone had handed me a bag of jumbled jigsaw pieces and told me to make up my own picture.' – Philip French, Observer

The Silent Stranger: see Step Down to Terror

'Justice can never be silenced.'

Silent Tongue

US 1993 101m colour
Entertainment/Belbo/Alive (Carolyn Pfeiffer, Ludi Boeken)

A horse-dealer sets out to buy as a new wife for his son the daughter of a alcoholic quack, after her twin sister dies in childbirth; the two girls were born as the result of their father's rape of a mute Indian woman.
A portentous, heavily symbolic melodrama that might have been more effective on the stage or on the page; certainly, the ripe over-acting of the cast is no help to understanding its point.
wd Sam Shepard ph Jack Conroy m Patrick O'Hearn pd Cary White ed Bill Yahraus
☆ Richard Harris, Sheila Tousey, Alan Bates, River Phoenix, Dermot Mulroney, Tantoo Cardinal, Jeri Arredondo

'The whole thing looks like one of those moody philosophical westerns they used occasionally to make before the genre ran out of both ideas and box-office appeal.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Silent Touch

GB/Poland/Denmark 1992 96m colour
Mayfair/Tor/Mark Forstater

A Polish music student goes to Denmark to encourage a composer who has not written a note for 40 years to complete his work.
A curious fable about creativity, which precisely lacks that quality.
w Peter Morgan, Mark Wadlow story Krzysztof Zanussi, Edward Zebrowski d Krzysztof Zanussi ph Jaroslaw Zamojda m Wojciech Kilar pd Ewa Braun ed Mark Denys
☆ Max von Sydow, Lothaire Bluteau, Sarah Miles, Sofie Grabol, Aleksander Bardini, Peter Hesse Overgaard, Lars Lunoe

'A great score, von Sydow's performance and a number of delightful moments do not compensate for the ludicrous plot which fails to fully engage the imagination.' – Empire

'The terms are clear. Kill or be killed.'

Silent Trigger

Canada/GB 1996 96m colour
Algonquin/Filmline (Nicolas Clermont, Silvio Muraglia)

w Sergio Altieri d Russell Mulcahy ph Dave Franco m Stefano Mainetti pd Gilles Aird ed Yves Langlois
☆ Dolph Lundgren (Waxman), Gina Bellman (Clegg), Conrad Dunn (Klein), Christopher Heyerdahl (O'Hara), Emma Stevens (Target Woman), Alexandria Haber (Peasant Girl)

The Silent Village ★★

GB 1943 35m bw
Humphrey Jennings/Ministry of Information

Harrowing depiction, by the members of a Welsh village, of what happened to the Czech population of Lidice after the assassination of Heydrich.
A chilling documentary at the time, this little classic has kept its kick.
wd Humphrey Jennings ed Stewart McAllister

Silent Voice: see Amazing Grace and Chuck

The Silent Voice: see The Man Who Played God (1932)

The Silent Voice: see Paula (1952)

The Silent Witness

US 1932 73m bw
Fox

A man confesses to murder in order to protect his son.
Solid courtroom stuff of its day, built for a new star who never quite made it.
play Jack de Leon and Jack Celestin
d Marcel Varnel, R. L. Hough
☆ Lionel Atwill, Helen Mack, Greta Nissen, Bramwell Fletcher, Alan Mowbray

'A gripping talker that rates well above most of the creep releases.' – Variety

The Silent Woman

France 1989 96m colour
Antenne 2/Son et Lumière

A doctor finds her isolated country home invaded by three assassins, who plan to kill her after she witnesses their murder of a politician, and a lunatic who escapes from a nearby asylum.
Suspenseful, though silly, thriller in which the hitmen behave with surprising stupidity.
w Jean-Claude Carriere, Joyce Bunuel d Joyce Bunuel m François Breant ☆ Marie-Christine Barrault, Véronique Genest, Pierre Clementi

The Silk Hat Kid

US 1935 70m bw
Fox (Joseph Engel)

A settlement housekeeper accepts help from a racketeer.
Thin little drama, perfunctorily played.
w Edward Eliscu, Lou Breslow, Dore Schary story Gerald Beaumont d H. Bruce Humberstone ☆ Lew Ayres, Mae Clarke, Paul Kelly, Ralf Harolde, William Harrigan

'It hasn't the story nor the entertainment weight to lift it out of the double feature classification.' – Variety

Silk Stockings ★

US 1957 116m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Arthur Freed)

A Russian composer in Paris agrees to write music for a Hollywood film; a lady commissar is sent to get him back.
Musical rewrite of Ninotchka via a Broadway show; good moments but generally very stretched.
w Leonard Gershe, Leonard Spigelgass play George S. Kaufman, Leueen McGrath, Abe Burrows original play Melchior Lengyel d Rouben Mamoulian ph Robert Bronner m/ly Cole Porter md André Previn
☆ Fred Astaire, Cyd Charisse, Peter Lorre, Janis Paige, George Tobias, Jules Munshin, Joseph Buloff
† Cyd Charisse's singing was dubbed by Carole Richards.
♫ 'Too Bad'; 'Paris Loves Lovers'; 'Stereophonic Sound'; 'It's a Chemical Reaction, That's All'; 'All of You'; 'Satin and Silk'; 'Without Love'; 'Fated to Be Mated'; 'Josephine'; 'Siberia'; 'Red Blues'; 'The Ritz Rock and Roll'

The Silken Affair

GB 1956 96m bw
Dragon (Fred Feldkamp)

An accountant decides to live it up, and finds himself on trial for manipulating the firm's books.

Unsatisfactory mix of comedy and fantasy, with a dim plot and virtually no comic ideas.

w Robert Lewis Taylor d Roy Kellino ph Gilbert Taylor m Peggy Stuart

☆ David Niven, Genevieve Page, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Ronald Squire, Beatrice Straight, Howard Marion Crawford, Dorothy Alison

Silken Skin **

France 1964 118m bw
Films du Carrosse/SEDIF

original title: La Peau Douce

A middle-aged married man leaves his wife for an attractive young girl, but the latter leaves him and his wife shoots him.

Carefully balanced mixture of comedy and melodrama which rings almost every possible change on the theme of adultery and does so with wit.

w François Truffaut, Jean-Louis Richard d François Truffaut ph Raoul Coutard m Georges Delerue

☆ Jean Desailly, Françoise Dorléac, Nelly Benedetti

'Very funny, very touching, very wise about human beings.' – New York Herald Tribune

Silkwood *

US 1983 131m Technicolor
ABC (Mike Nichols, Michael Hausman)

The true story, more or less, of a girl worker in a nuclear processing plant who mysteriously dies in an accident just before she is going to talk to a reporter about a safety problem.

Despite the historical interest of the case, it is too simple to merit a film of this length, which is filled with pregnant pauses and romantic asides. Nor are the actors quite so charismatic as they think they are.

w Nora Ephron, Alice Arlen d Mike Nichols ph Miroslav Ondricek m Georges Delerue pd Patrizia von Brandenstein

☆ Meryl Streep, Cher, Kurt Russell, Craig T. Nelson, Diana Scarwid, Fred Ward

'A movie with a preordained conclusion but nowhere to go ... it submerges what could have been its most telling points in a kind of concentrated soap opera.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Meryl Streep; Cher; direction; screenplay; editing (Sam O'Steen)

Silver Bears

GB 1977 113m Technicolor
EMI/Raleigh (Arlene Sellers, Alex Winitsky)

A Las Vegas money man invests money in various European outlets and makes a killing.

Extraordinarily complex financial jape which tries the patience of all but financiers.

w Peter Stone novel Paul Erdman d Ivan Passer ph Anthony Richmond m Claude Bolling

☆ Michael Caine, Louis Jourdan, Cybill Shepherd, Stephane Audran, David Warner, Tom Smothers, Martin Balsam, Charles Gray

Silver Blaze

GB 1937 70m bw
Twickenham (Julius Hagen)

US title: Murder at the Baskervilles

Sherlock Holmes clears a racehorse of having killed its trainer.

Not the best of the Holmes series, but this is a very satisfying Holmes.

w Arthur Macrae, H. Fowler Mear story Sir Arthur Conan Doyle d Thomas Bentley ph Sydney Blythe ad James Carter

☆ Arthur Wontner, Ian Fleming, Lyn Harding, Judy Gunn, Lawrence Grossmith, Arthur Macrae

The Silver Brumby

Australia 1993 92m colour
Media World/AFFC (John Tatoulis, Colin J. South)

A foal grows up to become a stallion and leader of a herd of wild horses, only to be hunted by a ruthless man.

Despite some excellent photography, the slight and uninteresting narrative makes it heavy going even for horse lovers.

w John Tatoulis, Jon Stephens, Elyne Mitchell book Elyne Mitchell d John Tatoulis ph Mark Gilfedder m Tassos Ioannides pd Phil Chambers ed Peter Burgess

☆ Caroline Goodall (Elyne), Russell Crowe (The Man), Ami Daemion (Indi), Johnny Raaen (Jock)

'A superbly crafted family film for animal lovers.' – Variety

Silver Bullet

US 1985 95m Technicolor
Paramount/Dino de Laurentiis (Martha Schumacher)

Murders at Tarker's Mill turn out to be the work of a werewolf.

Dreary, unimaginative rendition of a theme that was more entertaining in 1941.

w Stephen King novelette Cycle of the Werewolf by Stephen King d Daniel Attias ph Armando Nannuzzi m Jay Chattaway

☆ Corey Haim, Gary Busey, Megan Follows, Everett McGill

'It's a Stephen King filmette from his novelette which may sell some tickettes but not without regrettes.' – Variety

'I bid you seek the lost silver cup ... for sin is rising like the swollen rivers!'

'Against the broad canvas of history's mad era of splendour and seduction – here is the story of the sacred cup of silver that challenged the iron sword of tyranny – the mighty struggle to possess it – and the loves and the faith that triumphed in humanity's darkest hour!'

The Silver Chalice

US 1954 142m Warnercolor
Cinemascope
Warner (Victor Saville)

Adventures of a slave freed by Luke the apostle to fashion a chalice to hold the cup used at the Last Supper.

Po-faced biblical hokum, slower and deadlier than most, with howlingly bad casting and direction. On reflection, interesting things are being attempted with limbo set design, but in this sea of boredom the attempt only raises an eyebrow.

w Lesser Samuels novel Thomas B. Costain d Victor Saville ph William V. Skall m Franz Waxman pd Rolf Gerard

☆ Paul Newman, Pier Angeli, Jack Palance, Virginia Mayo, Walter Hampden, Joseph Wiseman, Alexander Scourby, Lorne Greene, Michael Pate, E. G. Marshall

William V. Skall; Franz Waxman

Silver City

US 1951 90m Technicolor
Paramount (Nat Holt)
GB title: High Vermilion

A mining assayer helps a farmer and his daughter protect the ore found on their land.

Standard Western programmer with plenty of action

w Frank Gruber story Luke Short d Byron Haskin ph Ray Rennahan m Paul Sawtell

☆ Yvonne de Carlo, Edmond O'Brien, Barry Fitzgerald, Richard Arlen, Gladys George, Laura Elliott, Edgar Buchanan, John Dierkes

Silver City *

Australia 1984 102m Eastmancolor
Artificial Eye/Limelight Productions (Joan Long)

Arriving in Australia in 1949, a Polish woman is sent to a camp where she has an affair with another, married immigrant.

Sharp study of bigotry and hostility undercut by a limp romance.

w Sophia Turkiewicz, Thomas Keneally d Sophia Turkiewicz ph John Seale m William Motzing ad Igot Nay ed Don Saunders

☆ Gosia Dobrowolska, Ivar Kants, Anna Jemison, Steve Bisley, Debra Lawrance, Ewa Brok, Joel Cohen, Tim McKenzie, Dennis Miller, Annie Byron

'Works best as a sociological study of cultural clash.' – Brian McFarlane, Australian Cinema 1970–1985

The Silver Cord

US 1933 74m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A young wife threatens to leave her husband because of his excessive devotion to his mother.

Stilted version of an old theatrical warhorse.

w Jane Murfin play Sidney Howard d John Cromwell ph Charles Rosher

☆ Irene Dunne, Joel McCrea, Laura Hope Crews, Frances Dee, Eric Linden, Helen Cromwell

The Silver Darlings

GB 1947 84m bw
Holyrood (Carl Grune)

Hebridean islanders take to herring fishing as a last chance to avoid emigration.

Uneventful island mood piece which lacks the poetic quality which might have made it memorable.

w Clarence Elder novel Neil Gunn d Clarence Elder, Clifford Evans ph Francis Carver m Clifton Parker md Muir Mathieson ad Ivan King ed Max Brenner

☆ Clifford Evans (Roddy), Helen Shingler (Catrine), Carl Bernard (Angus), Norman Shelley (Hendry), Simon Lack (Don), Hugh Griffith (Packman), Stanley Jay (Bo'sun), Harry Fine (Lieutenant)

Silver Dollar *

US 1932 84m bw
Warner

A poor farmer goes to Colorado for the gold rush, strikes it rich, and learns that money doesn't bring happiness.

Packed biopic of one H. A. W. Tabor, an excellent star vehicle.

w Carl Erickson, Harvey Thew d Alfred E. Green ph James Van Trees m Milan Roder

☆ Edward G. Robinson, Bebe Daniels, Aline MacMahon, Jobyna Howland, Robert Warwick, Russell Simpson

'Historical subject admirably done as to its variety but not so strong on its commercial side.' – Variety

Silver Dream Racer

GB 1980 111m Eastmancolor
Panavision
Rank/David Wickes (Rene Dupont)

A garage mechanic becomes a racing motorcyclist and is killed at the peak of success.

One wonders who can have thought there was any box-office appeal in this cliché-ridden, derivative, flashily made update of the Road to Ruin.

wd David Wickes ph Paul Beeson m David Essex

☆ David Essex, Beau Bridges, Cristina Raines, Harry H. Corbett, Lee Montague, Clarke Peters

'Watching this grotesque hotch-potch of implausible characters being shunted through improbable situations is uncannily akin to being assaulted by a non-stop stream of TV commercials.' – Tom Milne, MFB

The Silver Fleet *

GB 1943 87m bw
GFD/Archers (Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, Ralph Richardson)

In occupied Holland, a shipping magnate destroys his new U-boat and himself and his Nazi mentors with it.

Slow-starting, rather stilted melodrama which when it gets into its stride provides good acting and gripping propaganda.

wd Vernon Sewell, Gordon Wellesley ph Erwin Hillier

☆ Ralph Richardson, Esmond Knight, Googie Withers, Beresford Egan, Frederick Burtwell, Kathleen Byron

Silver Lode

US 1954 80m Technicolor
Benedict Bogeaus/RKO

A respected citizen of Silver Lode proves that the marshal who rides into town on his wedding day to accuse him of murder is a civilian bent on revenge.

Broody little Western melodrama, not half bad.

w Karen de Wolf d Allan Dwan ph John Alton m Louis Forbes

☆ John Payne, Dan Duryea, Lizabeth Scott, Dolores Moran, Emile Meyer, Robert Warwick

Silver Queen

US 1942 80m bw
UA/Harry Sherman

A chivalrous Western gambler rescues a girl from the wiles of a villain.

Standard romantic melodrama mainly set in saloons.

w Bernard Schubert, Cecile Kramer d Lloyd Bacon ph Russell Harlan m Victor Young ad Ralph Berger

☆ George Brent, Priscilla Lane, Bruce Cabot, Lynne Overman, Eugene Pallette, Janet Beecher, Guinn Williams, Roy Barcroft

Victor Young; Ralph Berger

Silver River

US 1948 110m bw
Warner (Owen Crump)

A ruthless gambler becomes powerful but loses everything because of his character defects.

Meandering Western drama with a few good highlights dissipated by long chunks of character building and a rehash of the David and Bathsheba story.
w Stephen Longstreet, Harriet Frank Jnr d Raoul Walsh ph Sid Hickox m Max Steiner ☆ Errol Flynn, Ann Sheridan, Thomas Mitchell, Bruce Bennett, Tom D'Andrea, Barton MacLane, Monte Blue, Alan Bridge

Silver Skates
US 1942 73m bw
Monogram (Lindsley Parsons)
A touring ice revue is lapsing into debt.
Novelties on ice occupy more screen time than the story, which is just as well. Competent small-scale musical filler.
w Jerry Cady d Leslie Goodwins
☆ Kenny Baker, Patricia Morison, Belita, Frick and Frack

The Silver Streak ★
US 1934 85m bw
RKO
A streamlined train makes its first run from Chicago to Boulder Dam, where a victim of infantile paralysis must be got into an iron lung.
Historically interesting melodrama which seldom pauses for breath.
w H. W. Hanemann, Jack O'Donnell, Roger Whately d Tommy Atkins ph J. Roy Hunt md Alberto Colombo
☆ Sally Blane, Charles Starrett, Hardie Albright, William Farnum, Irving Pichel, Arthur Lake, Edgar Kennedy 'Pretty absurd, yet exciting and fast ... there's scarcely a stunt known to the railroad picture formula that hasn't been employed.' – Variety

Silver Streak ★
US 1976 113m DeLuxe
TCF/Martin Ransohoff, Frank Yablans
On a trans-continental train, a young publisher discovers a murder and is at the mercy of the culprits.
Rather like an update of a Bob Hope comedy-thriller with a whiff of sex, this amiable spoof goes on too long, brings in a second comic too late, and ends with fashionable but irrelevant violence.
w Colin Higgins d Arthur Hiller ph David M. Walsh m Henry Mancini pd Alfred Sweeney
☆ Gene Wilder, Jill Clayburgh, Richard Pryor, Patrick McGoohan, Ned Beatty, Clifton James, Ray Walston, Richard Kiel
'Nineteen-seventies performers are trapped in this fake thirties mystery comedy, which is so inept you can't even get angry.' – New Yorker

Silverado ★
US 1985 132m Technicolor Super Techniscope
Lawrence Kasdan
In the 1880s, various pioneers try to establish a future in the west.
Interesting but not wholly successful attempt to revive in one movie various Western myths and legends; a little more conscious humour might have helped.
w Lawrence and Mark Kasdan d Lawrence Kasdan ph John Bailey m Bruce Broughton pd Ida Random ed Carol Littleton
☆ Kevin Kline, Scott Glenn, Kevin Costner, Danny Glover, John Cleese, Rosanna Arquette, Brian Dennehy, Linda Hunt, Jeff Goldblum
'Less like the film westerns of imagination and more like something more common. Maybe it was that way in real life.' – Variety ♪ music

Simba
GB 1955 99m Eastmancolor
GFD/Group Film (Peter de Sarigny)
An English farmer in Kenya fights the Mau Mau.
Savagely topical melodrama which tends to cheapen a tragic situation.
w John Baines d Brian Desmond Hurst ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Francis Chagrin ☆ Dirk Bogarde, Donald Sinden, Virginia McKenna, Basil Sydney, Marie Ney, Joseph Tomelty, Earl Cameron, Orlando Martins

Simon ★
US 1980 97m Technicolor
Warner/Orion (Louis A. Stroller, Martin Bregman)
Corrupt scientists brainwash a psychology professor into thinking he's from another planet.
Solemn comic fantasy which doesn't seem to make much of a point and only superficially entertains, but is well made and well acted.
wd Marshall Brickman ph Adam Holender m Stanley Silverman pd Stuart Wurtzel ☆ Alan Arkin, Madeline Kahn, Austin Pendleton, Judy Graubart, William Finley, Fred Gwynne

Simon and Laura ★
GB 1955 91m Technicolor Vistavision
GFD/Group Films (Teddy Baird)
The actors who play husband and wife in a TV series are married in reality and hate each other, a fact that shows in the live Christmas episode.
Adequate film of a reasonably sophisticated West End comedy; good lines and performances.
w Peter Blackmore play Alan Melville d Muriel Box ph Ernest Steward m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Peter Finch, Kay Kendall, Ian Carmichael, Alan Wheatley, Richard Wattis, Muriel Pavlow, Maurice Denham, Hubert Gregg

Simon Birch
US 1998 113m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Caravan (Laurence Mark, Roger Birnbaum)
A man remembers the diminutive childhood friend who caused the death of his mother and changed his life.
Maudlin tale, manipulative and melodramatic for the most part; its story of loss and redemption never convinces.
wd Mark Steven Johnson suggested by novel A Prayer for Owen Meany by John Irving ph Aaron E. Schneider m Marc Shaiman pd David Chapman ed David Finfer
☆ Ian Michael Smith (Simon Birch), Joseph Mazzello (Joe Wenteworth), Ashley Judd (Rebecca Wenteworth), Oliver Platt (Ben Goodrich), David Strathairn (Rev. Russell), Dana Ivey (Grandmother Wenteworth), Hildie Grove (Beatrice Winde), Jim Carrey (Adult Joe Wenteworth), Jan Hooks (Miss Leavey)
'Though routinely slick, feature grows more irksome as it goes along — the lack of any genuinely felt emotions communicated makes later melodrama come off as shameless contrivance.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety † Unhappy at the adaptation, John Irving insisted that the film's credit should read 'suggested by' his novel, and that the name of his central character should be changed.

'A Haunting Story Of Earthly Reason And Divine Intervention.'
'In an unforgiving land, the fate of a forgotten village rests in his hands.'

Simon Magus
GB/France/Germany/Italy 1999 106m colour
A simple-minded outcast in a village in Silesia is used by an anti-Semitic businessman to try to prevent a land deal that would have benefited the Jewish community.
Described as a magical tale from a vanished world, this odd, slow-moving film does conjure up a long-forgotten way of life, but its intimations of an even worse future are not enough to give it point.
wd Ben Hopkins ph Nic Knowland m Deborah Mollison pd Angela Davies ed Alan Levy
☆ Noah Taylor (Simon), Stuart Townsend (Dovid Bendel), Sean McGinley (Maximillian Hase), Embeth Davidtz (Leah), Amanda Ryan (Sarah), Rutger Hauer (Count Albrecht), Ian Holm (Sirius/Boris/The Devil), Terence Rigby (Bratislav), Ursula Jones (Rebecca), Cyril Shaps (Chaim), David De Keyser (Rabbi)
'There is something rather plodding about this romantic fantasy.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Simon of the Desert ★★
Mexico 1965 45m bw
Gustavo Alatriste
original title: Simón del Desierto
A holy man, following the example of St Simeon Stylites by living at the top of a column in the desert, is tempted by the Devil in the shape of a woman.
Intriguing and amusing fable on the nature of goodness, though it does not come to a satisfactory conclusion.
w Luis Buñuel, Julio Alejandro d Luis Buñuel ph Gabriel Figueroa m Raul Lavista ed Carlos Savage Jnr ☆ Claudio Brook, Silvia Pinal, Enrique Alvarez Felix, Hortensia Santoveña, Francisco Reiguera, Luis Aceves Castañeda, Enrique Garcia Alvarez
'It is Buñuel at his best: stylite and stylist face each other from their respective pedestals.' – John Simon
† The film was intended to be at least twice as long, but many scenes, including a visit from the Emperor of Byzantium, had to be cut when the producer ran out of money. Buñuel has said that it was the reason that the film's ending is somewhat abrupt.

Simon the Swiss: see Le Voyou

Simone: see S1m0ne

'How Much Can Three Friends Share?'

Simpatico ★
US/France 1999 106m DeLuxe
Alliance/Emotion/Canal (Dan Lupovitz, Timm Oberwelland, Jean-Francois Fonlupt)
A multimillionaire racehorse owner discovers that a seedy boyhood friend is about to expose their dubious past.
A muted, melancholy drama of men being overtaken and destroyed by unnecessary guilt; the acting is a pleasure to watch.
w Matthew Warchus, David Nicholls play Sam Shepard d Matthew Warchus ph John Toll m Stewart Copeland pd Amy Ancona ed Pasquale Buba
☆ Nick Nolte (Vinnie), Jeff Bridges (Carter), Sharon Stone (Rosie), Catherine Keener (Cecilia), Albert Finney (Simms), Shawn Hatosy (Young Vinnie), Liam Waite (Young Carter), Kimberly Williams (Young Rosie)
'Thoughtful and appealing entertainment.' – Variety

'There is no such thing as adventure and romance. There's only trouble and desire.'

Simple Men ★
GB/US 1992 105m Technicolor
Metro/Zenith/American Playhouse/Fine Line/Film Four/BIM (Ted Hope, Hal Hartley)
A petty crook and his brother search for their father, a former radical baseball star who has been on the run since the 60s.
Off-beat, occasionally amusing road movie that goes nowhere very interesting. It is too determinedly eccentric to be effective, but incidental pleasures include a fight between a nun and a policeman and a sheriff desperately searching for the meaning of life.
wd Hal Hartley ph Michael Spiller m Ned Rifle pd Daniel Ouellette ed Steve Hamilton
☆ Robert Burke, William Sage, Karen Sillas, Elina Löwensohn, Martin Donovan, Mark Chandler Bailey, Chris Cooke
'Effortlessly manages to encompass social comment and satire as it oscillates between the comic and the absurd with a stylish self-confidence.' – Mark Salisbury, Empire

'Sometimes good people do evil things.'

A Simple Plan ★★★ (8)
US 1998 120m colour
Paramount/Mutual/Savoy (James Jacks, Adam Schroeder)
Outside a small Minnesota town, three friends stumble across a bag containing $4.4m dollars in a crashed plane, and decide to keep the money.
A deft, chilling thriller of corruption and greed, charting an inexorable slide from integrity to betrayal and worse.
w Scott B. Smith novel Scott B. Smith d Sam Raimi ph Alar Kivilo m Danny Elfman pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ad James Truesdale ed Arthur Coburn, Eric L. Beason
☆ Bill Paxton (Hank Mitchell), Billy Bob Thornton (Jacob Mitchell), Bridget Fonda (Sarah Mitchell), Brent Briscoe (Lou Chambers), Gary Cole (Baxter), Becky Ann Baker (Nancy), Chelcie Ross (Carl), Jack Walsh (Mr Pederson)
'Marvellously nuanced and beautifully acted.' – Andrew Sarris
♪ Billy Bob Thornton; Scott B. Smith

'Michael McCann Is About To Find Wealth Beyond His Imagination ... A Real Family.'

A Simple Twist of Fate ★
US 1994 106m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Ric Kidney)
A reclusive and miserly furniture-maker redeems himself when he adopts a small and abandoned girl.
A not entirely successful attempt to make the plot of Eliot's Victorian novel work in a modern setting, but it has its moments.

w Steve Martin novel Silas Marner by George Eliot d Gillies MacKinnon ph Andrew Dunn m Cliff Edelman pd Andy Harris ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Steve Martin, Gabriel Byrne, Laura Linney, Catharine O'Hara, Stephen Baldwin, Byron Jennings, Michael des Barres, Amelia Campbell, Kellen Crosby
'A faithful, heartfelt, somber piece about family and responsibility.' – Variety

A Simple Wish

US 1997 90m DeLuxe
Universal/Bubble Factory (Sid Sheinberg, Bill Sheinberg, Jon Sheinberg)

An incompetent fairy godfather has problems making a child's wish come true.
Sickly whimsy that is over-reliant on special effects.
w Jeff Rothberg d Michael Ritchie ph Ralf Bode m Bruce Broughton pd Stephen Hendrickson ed William Scharf sp Greg Cannom
☆ Martin Short, Kathleen Turner, Mara Wilson, Robert Pastorelli, Amanda Plummer, Francis Capra, Ruby Dee, Teri Garr, Alan Campbell
'A case of talent adrift on an ocean of cutesy kids material.' – Empire

Simply Irresistible

US/Germany 1999 96m DeLuxe
TCF/Monarchy/Regency (John Fiedler, Jon Amiel, Joseph M. Carracciolo Jnr)

An indifferent cook, who suddenly produces great food with the aid of a magic crab, attracts a businessman with an interest in restaurants.
Dire and risible romantic comedy, quite bereft of any magic.
w Judith Roberts, Elisabeth Robinson d Mark Tarlov ph Robert Stevens m Gil Goldstein pd John Kasarda, William Barclay ed Paul Karasick
☆ Sarah Michelle Gellar (Amanda Shelton), Sean Patrick Flanery (Tom Bartlett), Patricia Clarkson (Lois McNally), Dylan Baker (Jonathan Bendel), Larry Gilliard Jnr (Nolan Traynor), Christopher Durang (Gene O'Reilly), Betty Buckley (Aunt Stella), Olek Krupa (Valderon), Amanda Peet (Chris), Alex Draper (François)
'Simply excruciating.' – Empire

Sin: see The Beloved

Sin City

★ 4
US 2005 124m bw/colour
Buena Vista/Troublemaker (Elizabeth Avellan, Frank Miller, Robert Rodriguez)

In corrupt Basin City, three men – an honest cop, a tough ex-convict and a man on the run – try to protect the women they love and suffer for it.
Another technological marvel that re-creates with great brilliance the look and feel of a comic book. The content is another matter, being sub-Mickey Spillane pulp fiction where men are thugs and women are whores and church and state combine in corruption; the characters are one-dimensional, reliant on a rasping voice-over to convey emotion.
graphic novels Sin City by Frank Miller
d Frank Miller, Robert Rodriguez ph Robert Rodriguez m Robert Rodriguez, John Debney, Graeme Revell ad Jeanette Scott, Steve Joyner ed Robert Rodriguez guest director Quentin Tarantino ☆ Jessica Alba (Nancy), Devon Aoki (Miho), Alexis Bledel (Becky), Powers Boothe (Senator Roark), Rosario Dawson (Gail), Benicio Del Toro (Jackie Boy), Michael Clarke Duncan (Manute), Carla Gugino (Lucille), Josh Hartnett (The Man), Rutger Hauer (Cardinal Roark), Jaime King (Goldie/Wendy), Michael Madsen (Bob), Clive Owen (Dwight), Mickey Rourke (Marv), Bruce Willis (Hartigan) and also Elijah Wood, Brittany Murphy
'For all its astronomical body count, Sin City is brazenly, thrillingly alive.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'The sheer force of overkill – the ear-crunching sound level, the disturbingly joyful violence – turns a sequence of horrific events into a stream of unfeeling comedy.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

Sin Compasión

★
Peru/Mexico/France 1994 120m DuArt
Gala/Inca/Aramanta/CiBy 2000 (Francisco J. Lombardi)
aka: No Mercy

A poor, idealistic student confesses murdering a wealthy old woman and her husband to a priest.
An updated version of the original, taken at a too-leisurely pace that allows attention to slacken.
w Augusto Cabada novel Crime and Punishment by Feodor Dostoevsky d Francisco J. Lombardi ph Pili Flores Guerra m Leopoldo La Rosa pd Cecilia Montiel ed Luis Barrios ☆ Diego Bertie, Adriana Davila, Jorge Chiarella, Hernan Romero, Marcello Rivera, Mariells Trejos, Carlos Onetto
'The complicated moral universe inhabited by Dostoevsky's characters seems a long way indeed from this gallery of one-dimensionality.' – Sight and Sound

The Sin Eater: see The Order

The Sin of Harold Diddlebock: see Mad Wednesday

The Sin of Madelon Claudet

US 1931 74m bw
MGM (Harry Rapf)
GB title: The Lullaby

A mother is separated from her illegitimate baby.
Sob stuff for a rising star: hilarious now.
w Charles MacArthur play Edward Knoblock d Edgar Selwyn ☆ Helen Hayes, Robert Young, Neil Hamilton, Lewis Stone, Marie Prevost, Cliff Edwards, Jean Hersholt, Karen Morley
'Natural sobber for women and grosses ... but you don't have to go back as far as Madame X to find a parallel for the plot.' – Variety
Helen Hayes

Sin Town

US 1942 74m bw
Universal (George Waggner)

Two confidence tricksters arrive in a Western town and solve a murder.
Members of the studio repertory company in a passable Western discarded by Marlene Dietrich.
w Gerald Geraghty, W. Scott Darling, Richard Brooks d Ray Enright m Hans Salter
☆ Constance Bennett, Broderick Crawford, Leo Carrillo, Anne Gwynne, Patric Knowles, Andy Devine, Ward Bond, Ralf Harolde

Sinbad and the Eye of the Tiger

GB 1977 113m Metrocolor
Columbia/Andor (Charles H. Schneer, Ray Harryhausen)

Sinbad frees a city from a wicked woman's spell.
Lumpish sequel to a sequel: even the animated monsters raise a yawn this time.
w Beverley Cross d Sam Wanamaker ph Ted Moore m Roy Budd sp Ray Harryhausen
☆ Patrick Wayne, Taryn Power, Jane Seymour, Margaret Whiting, Patrick Troughton

Sinbad: Legend of the Seven Seas

★
US 2003 86m Technicolor
UIP/DreamWorks (Mireille Soria, Jeffrey Katzenberg)

Sinbad sails the seas in search of the Book of Peace that will save his childhood friend from death.
Passable cartoon, with, for the most part, uninteresting animation and a narrative that fails to enchant.
w John Logan d Tim Johnson, Patrick Gilmore m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Raymond Zibach ed Tom Finan ☆ voices of: Brad Pitt (Sinbad), Catherine Zeta-Jones (Marina), Michelle Pfeiffer (Eris), Joseph Fiennes (Proteus), Dennis Haysbert (Kale), Timothy West (Dymas), Adriano Giannini (Rat)
'The high-school comedy dialogue grates, the narrative is perfunctory, the draughtsmanship merely adequate.' – Philip French, Observer

Sinbad the Sailor

US 1947 117m Technicolor
RKO (Stephen Ames)

Sinbad sets off on his eighth voyage to find the lost treasure of Alexander.
Well-staged but humourless Arabian Nights swashbuckler.
w John Twist d Richard Wallace ph George Barnes m Roy Webb
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Walter Slezak, Maureen O'Hara, Anthony Quinn, George Tobias, Jane Greer, Mike Mazurki, Sheldon Leonard
'Is there a public for this twopence-coloured rubbish. For me, it belongs to the Christmas theatre, with a principal boy in tights.' – Stephen Watts, Sunday Express

Since Otar Left...

★★★
France/Belgium 2003 103m colour
Les Films du Poisson/Entre Chien et Loup (Yael Fogiel)

original title: Depuis Qu'Otar Est Parti

In Tbilisi, an elderly and ailing woman, who lives with her daughter and granddaughter, insists on going to Paris to see her son, not knowing that the news of his death has been kept from her.
A simple story of hard lives and minimal hopes is brilliantly told and wonderfully acted by its three protagonists, especially the 90 year-old Esther Gorintin as the indomitable matriarch.
w Julie Bertuccelli, Bernard Renucci, Roger Bohbot d Julie Bertuccelli ph Christophe Pollock pd Emmanuel de Chauvigny ed Emmanuelle Castro
☆ Esther Gorintin (Eka), Nino Khomassouridze (Marina), Temour Kalandadze (Tenguiz), Dinara Droukarova (Ada), Roussoudan Bolkvadze (Roussiko)
'A wonderful film with a love of intimacy, an eye for potent small moments that can go by unobserved and a willingness to explore the emotional complications of family relationships.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

Since You Went Away

★★
US 1944 172m bw
David O. Selznick

When hubby is away at the war, his wife and family adopt stiff upper lips.
Elaborate flagwaving investigation of the well-heeled American home front in World War II, with everyone brimming with goodwill and not a dry eye in the place. Absolutely superbly done, if it must be done at all, and a symposium of Hollywood values and techniques of the time.
w David O. Selznick book Margaret Buell Wilder d John Cromwell ph Stanley Cortez, Lee Garmes m Max Steiner pd William L. Pereira ad Mark-Lee Kirk ed Hal C. Kern, James E. Newcom
☆ Claudette Colbert, Joseph Cotten, Jennifer Jones, Shirley Temple, Agnes Moorehead, Monty Woolley, Lionel Barrymore, Guy Madison, Robert Walker, Hattie McDaniel, Craig Stevens, Keenan Wynn, Albert Basserman, Nazimova, Lloyd Corrigan
PREFACE: 'This is the story of the unconquerable fortress – the American home, 1943.'
'A deft, valid blend of showmanship, humour, and yard-wide Americanism.' – James Agee
'The whole litany of that middle-class synthetic emotionalism, meticulously annotated over a decade by tough and sentimental experts, has been procured for us.' – Richard Winnington
'A rather large dose of choking sentiment.' – Bosley Crowther
'It is not an average US reality. It is an average US dream.' – Time
'Selznick wrote the script himself, intending his story to be moving and simple, along epic lines; the result is pedestrian in a peculiarly grandiose manner.' – Pauline Kael, 70s
† Jennifer Jones's marriage to Robert Walker had broken down just before shooting began, which added awkwardness to their love scenes together, especially as the ever-present Selznick was then busily courting Jones. Cinematographer George Barnes was replaced during filming.
Max Steiner
best picture; Stanley Cortez; Claudette Colbert; Jennifer Jones; Monty Woolley; art direction; editing

Sincerely Yours

US 1955 115m Warnercolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)

A concert pianist goes deaf and retires to his penthouse, but with the help of binoculars lipreads the humble folk below. Helping them anonymously gives him courage to have an operation.
Absurd updating for a modern non-star of a creaky old George Arliss vehicle The Man Who Played God.
w Irving Wallace d Gordon Douglas ph William H. Clothier musical advisor George Liberace
☆ Liberace, Joanne Dru, Dorothy Malone, Alex Nicol, William Demarest

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Drenched in coy bathos to the point of embarrassment.' – Films and Filming
'Given sufficient intoxication, you could find this movie amusing.' – Saturday Review

La Sindrome di Stendhal: see The Stendhal Syndrome

Sinful Davey

GB 1968 95m Eastmancolor Panavision
UA/Mirisch/Webb (William N. Graf)
In 1821 a young Scotsman determines to become a criminal like his father, but falls in love.
Thin imitation of Tom Jones, highly implausible but played with some zest.
w James R. Webb autobiography David Haggart d John Huston ph Ted Scaife, Freddie Young m Ken Thorne pd Stephen Grimes
☆ John Hurt, Pamela Franklin, Nigel Davenport, Ronald Fraser, Robert Morley, Maxine Audley, Noel Purcell

Sing

US 1988 98m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar (Craig Zadan)
Students at a school faced with closure organise a singing and dancing competition.
Dim, cliché-ridden movie that offers little, even for its target audience of the young and undemanding.
w Dean Pitchford d Richard Baskin ph Peter Sova m Jay Gruska pd Carol Spier ed Bud Smith, Jere Huggins, Scott Smith ☆ Lorraine Bracco, Peter Dobson, Jessica Steen, Louise Lasser, George DiCenzo, Patti LaBelle, Susan Peretz
'Remarkably old-fashioned.' – MFB

Sing and Be Happy

US 1937 67m bw
TCF (Milton H. Feld)
A young man is too irresponsible to work in his father's advertising agency.
A wisp of a plot with some wisps of music attached; nothing to remember next day.
w Ben Markson, Lou Breslow, John Patrick d James Tinling
☆ Tony Martin, Leah Ray, Joan Davis, Chick Chandler, Helen Westley, Allan Lane, Berton Churchill
'This musical will require plenty of exploitative pressure by exhibs.' – Variety

Sing As We Go ★★★

GB 1934 80m bw
ATP (Basil Dean)
An unemployed millgirl gets various holiday jobs in Blackpool.
A splendid, pawky star vehicle which is also the best picture we have of industrial Lancashire in the thirties. Great fun.
w J. B. Priestley, Gordon Wellesley d Basil Dean ph Robert G. Martin ad J. Elder Wills ed Thorold Dickinson ☆ Gracie Fields (Gracie Platt), John Loder (Hugh Phillips), Frank Pettingell (Murgatroyd Platt), Dorothy Hyson (Phyllis Logan), Stanley Holloway (Policeman)
'We have an industrial north that is bigger than Gracie Fields running around a Blackpool fun fair.' – C. A. Lejeune

Sing Baby Sing ★

US 1936 87m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
A drunken Shakespearian actor sets his sights on a night-club singer.
Reasonably hilarious take-off on the John Barrymore-Elaine Barrie affair, with several Fox contractees fooling to the top of their bent with the help of good musical numbers.
w Milton Sperling, Jack Yellen, Harry Tugend d Sidney Lanfield ph Peverell Marley md Louis Silvers songs various ☆ Alice Faye, Adolphe Menjou, Gregory Ratoff, Patsy Kelly, Ted Healy, The Ritz Brothers, Montagu Love, Dixie Dunbar ♗ song 'When Did You Leave Heaven?' (m Richard Whiting, ly Walter Bullock)

Sing, Boy, Sing

US 1958 91m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Henry Ephron)
A rock and roll star comes close to a nervous breakdown because of an unscrupulous manager and a revivalist grandfather.
Fairly painless vehicle for a singing star.
w Claude Binyon d Henry Ephron ph William C. Mellor m Lionel Newman ☆ Tommy Sands, Edmond O'Brien, John McIntire, Lili Gentle, Nick Adams, Josephine Hutchinson

Sing Me a Love Song

US 1936 78m bw
Cosmopolitan/First National
A reformed playboy starts at the bottom as a clerk in his father's department store.
Thin but mildly pleasing musical with good comedy support.
w Sig Herzig, Jerry Wald, Harry Sauber d Ray Enright
☆ James Melton, Patricia Ellis, Hugh Herbert, ZaSu Pitts, Allen Jenkins, Nat Pendleton, Ann Sheridan, Walter Catlett, Hobart Cavanaugh, Charles Halton
'Story isn't much and the dialogue fails to sparkle, yet there's a constant stream of laughs.' – Variety

'The god-darnedest family in the whole USA!'

Sing You Sinners ★★

US 1938 88m bw
Paramount (Wesley Ruggles)
The adventures of a happy-go-lucky family and their racehorse.
Cheerful family musical with amiable cast and good tunes.
w Claude Binyon d Wesley Ruggles ph Karl Struss md Boris Morros songs James V. Monaco, Johnny Burke
☆ Bing Crosby, Donald O'Connor, Fred MacMurray, Elizabeth Patterson, Ellen Drew, John Gallaudet
'Homespun, down to earth, and as natural as eggs for breakfast.' – Variety

Sing Your Worries Away

US 1941 71m bw
RKO (Cliff Reid)
A debt-ridden songwriter has a girlfriend unaware of a huge pending inheritance.
Rather ribby comedy material which adds up to very little.
w Monte Brice d A. Edward Sutherland
☆ Bert Lahr, Buddy Ebsen, June Havoc, Patsy Kelly, Sam Levene, Margaret Dumont

'She was back with him... as a stranger.'

Singapore

US 1947 79m bw
Universal (Jerry Bresler)
A sailor and pearl smuggler discovers that the fiancée he thought was dead is alive, but has forgotten him.
Dull story of intrigue and double-cross, flat-footedly directed.
w Seton I. Miller, Robert Thoeren d John Brahm ph Maury Gertsman m Daniele Amfitheatrof md David Tamkin ad Bernard Herzbrun, Gabriel Scognamillo ed William Hornbeck
☆ Fred MacMurray (Matt Gordon), Ava Gardner (Linda), Roland Culver (Michael Van Leyden), Richard Haydn (Chief Inspector Hewitt), Thomas Gomez (Mr Mauribus), Spring Byington (Mrs Bellows)
† It was remade as Istanbul (qv).

Singapore Woman

US 1941 65m bw
Warner (Harlan Thompson)
A slightly fallen woman is redeemed by a plantation owner.
Hasty and uninteresting remake of the Bette Davis vehicle Dangerous.
w Laird Doyle story Hard Luck Dame by Laird Doyle d Jean Negulesco ph Ted McCord ad Charles Novi ed Everett Dodd ☆ Brenda Marshall, David Bruce, Virginia Field, Jerome Cowan, Rose Hobart, Heather Angel

Un Singe en Hiver: see A Monkey in Winter

The Singer Not the Song

GB 1960 132m colour Cinemascope
Rank (Roy Baker)
In an isolated Mexican town a priest defies an outlaw who oddly respects him.
Lengthy character drama with little action or humour but a great deal of moody introspection and a suggestion of homosexuality.
w Nigel Balchin novel Audrey Erskine Lindop d Roy Baker ph Otto Heller m Philip Green
☆ John Mills, Dirk Bogarde, Mylene Demongeot, John Bentley, Laurence Naismith, Eric Pohlmann
'A rewarding film, as startling as a muffled scream from the subconscious.' – Peter John Dyer

'What a Glorious Feeling !'

Singin' in the Rain ★★★★

US 1952 102m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)
When talkies are invented, the reputation of one female star shrivels while another grows.
Brilliant comic musical, the best picture by far of Hollywood in transition, with the catchiest tunes, the liveliest choreography, the most engaging performances and the most hilarious jokes of any musical.
w Adolph Green, Betty Comden d Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen ph Harold Rosson m Nacio Herb Brown md Lennie Hayton ch Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen ad Cedric Gibbons, Randall Duell ed Adrienne Fazan ly Arthur Freed
☆ Gene Kelly (Don Lockwood), Donald O'Connor (Cosmo Brown), Debbie Reynolds (Kathy Seldon), Millard Mitchell (R.F. Simpson), Jean Hagen (Lina Lamont), Rita Moreno (Zelda Zanders), Cyd Charisse (Dancer), Douglas Fowley (Roscoe Dexter)
'Perhaps the most enjoyable of all movie musicals.' – New Yorker, 1975
'All elements in this rainbow program are carefully contrived and guaranteed to lift the dolors of winter and put you in a buttercup mood.' – Bosley Crowther, New York Times
† Debbie Reynolds singing 'Would You' was dubbed by Betty Royce.
†† A Regions 1 and 2 two-disc special edition DVD included commentary by Debbie Reynolds, Donald O'Connor, Cyd Charisse, Kathleen Freeman, Stanley Donen, Betty Comden, Adolph Green, Baz Luhrmann and Rudy Behlmer.
♫ 'Make 'Em Laugh; Moses'; 'Fit as a Fiddle'; 'Singin' in the Rain'; 'All I Do Is Dream of You'; 'I've Got a Feelin' You're Foolin'; 'Should I'; 'You Were Meant For Me'; 'Good Morning'; 'Would You'; 'You Are My Lucky Star'
♗ Lennie Hayton; Jean Hagen

'When it comes to murder, seduction and betrayal he wrote the book. Now he's living it!'

The Singing Detective

US 2003 109m colour
Icon (Mel Gibson, Steven Haft, Bruce Davey)
Ill in hospital, a detective story writer relives the plot of his first novel intermixed with his own life.
Much less successful than the original BBC TV series, this has lost the dark urgency of the original, and its much shorter running time and transfer to an American setting also diminish it.
w Dennis Potter TV series Dennis Potter d Keith Gordon ph Tom Richmond pd Patricia Norris ed Jeff Wishengrad
☆ Robert Downey Jnr (Dan Dark), Robin Wright Penn (Nicola/Nina/ Blonde), Mel Gibson (Dr Gibbon), Jeremy Northam (Mark Binney), Katie Holmes (Nurse Mills), Adrien Brody (First Hood), Jon Polito (Second Hood), Carla Gugino (Betty Dark/ Hooker)
'Lurches when it should glide, shouts when it should whisper and mumbles when it should sing.' – A.O. Scott, New York Times

The Singing Fool ★★

US 1928 110m bw
Warner
A successful singer goes on the skids when his small son dies.
Early talkie musical, a sensation because of its star's personality, but a pretty maudlin piece of drama.
w C. Graham Baker play Leslie S. Barrows d Lloyd Bacon ph Byron Haskin m/ly Lew Brown, Ray Henderson, B. G. de Sylva ch Larry Ceballos
☆ Al Jolson, Davey Lee, Betty Bronson, Josephine Dunn, Arthur Housman
'Obvious and tedious as the climax is, when the black-faced comedian stands before the camera and sings "Sonny Boy" you know the man is greater, somehow, than the situation, the story or the movie.' – Pare Lorentz

The Singing Kid

US 1936 83m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)
A cocky night-club singer takes a talented juvenile under his wing.
Routine star vehicle most notable for a string of standards sung by him right after the credits.
w Warren Duff, Pat C. Flick d William Keighley ph George Barnes md Leo F. Forbstein songs E. Y. Harburg, Harold Arlen
☆ Al Jolson, Sybil Jason, Allen Jenkins, Lyle Talbot, Edward Everett Horton, Beverly Roberts, Claire Dodd

The Singing Marine

US 1937 107m bw
Warner
A marine singer wins a talent contest and success goes to his head.

Light musical of very little interest save two dance sequences by Busby Berkeley.
w Delmer Daves d Ray Enright
☆ Dick Powell, Doris Weston, Jane Darwell, Hugh Herbert, Lee Dixon, Dick Wesson, Allen Jenkins, Jane Wyman, Larry Adler

The Singing Musketeer: see The Three Musketeers (1939)

The Singing Nun

US 1966 98m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Jon Beck)

Adventures of a nun who takes her music to the outside world.
Icky musical drama based on a true character.
w Sally Benson, John Furia d Henry Koster ph Milton Krasner md Harry Sukman songs Soeur Sourire
☆ Debbie Reynolds, Greer Garson, Ricardo Montalban, Agnes Moorehead, Chad Everett, Katharine Ross, Ed Sullivan, Juanita Moore
♗ Harry Sukman

The Singing Sheriff

US 1944 60m bw
Universal (Bernard W. Burton)

A New York singer inadvertently becomes sheriff of a town threatened by the gang of a crooked lawyer.
Bizarre comic minor Western, interspersed with songs and vaudeville acts, culminating in a courtroom scene in which the prosecutor sings a demand for the death penalty: 'Yeah, yeah, hang him on the hickory/Yeah, yeah, rid him of his trickery/Yeah, yeah, hang him on the hickory/We want to see him swing,' goes the chorus, in which all the court joins in.
w Henry Blankford, Eugene Conrad story John Grey d Leslie Goodwins ph Charles Van Enger md Sam Freed Jnr ad John B. Goodman, Abraham Grossman
☆ Bob Crosby, Fay McKenzie, Fuzzy Knight, Iris Adrian, Samuel S. Hinds, Edward Norris, Doodles Weaver, Spade Colley and his Orchestra

A Single Life

Australia 1985 108m colour
AFT (Hugh Rule)

Desperate to have a child, an unmarried woman begins an affair with her married boss.
Unsatisfactory domestic drama in which the characters' actions seem dictated solely by the whims of the authors.
w Mark Poole, John Power d John Power ph Vladimir Osherov m Brett Goldsmith pd Chris Kennedy ed Ian Lang
☆ Tina Bursill, Steven Jacobs, Jane Clifton, Pamela Rabe, Tony Rickards, Esben Storm

'Allie's new roommate is about to borrow a few things without asking. Her clothes. Her boyfriend. Her life.'
'Living with a roommate can be murder.'

Single White Female ★

US 1992 108m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Columbia (Barbet Shroeder)

A young Manhattan businesswoman finds that her new flatmate is taking over her life.
Well-done thriller, but its subject-matter is too familiar from too many recent films to cause much in the way of a frisson.
w Don Roos novel SWF Seeks Same by John Lutz d Barbet Schroeder ph Luciano Tovoli m Howard Shore pd Milena Canonero ed Lee Percy ☆ Bridget Fonda, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Steven Weber, Peter Friedman, Stephen Tobolowsky

'It is saddening to see a fine filmmaker courting the crowds by trashing his talent.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Single-Handed ★

GB/US 1953 83m bw
TCF (Frank McCarthy)
US title: Sailor of the King

The action of a Canadian seaman, who was born as the result of an affair between a naval officer and a woman he meets on a train during the First World War, results in the destruction of a German battleship during World War II.
Deft drama of wartime action, an effective flag-waver with its theme of courage and leadership through the generations.
w Valentine Davies novel Brown on Resolution by C. S. Forester d Roy Boulting ph Gilbert Taylor m Clifton Parker md Muir Mathieson ad Alec Vetchinsky ed Alan Osbiston
☆ Jeffrey Hunter, Michael Rennie, Wendy Hiller, Bernard Lee, Peter Van Eyck, Victor Maddern, John Horsley, Patrick Barr, Robin Bailey
† The film was made with two endings, with the first audiences asked to vote on which they preferred: in one, the most dramatically effective, our hero dies and his mother receives his posthumous medal; in the other, he survives and unknowingly meets his father. The latter version is the most common, though prints showing both endings survive.
†† C. S. Forester's novel was first filmed in 1935 under the title Forever England, directed by Walter Forde with an action sequence directed by Anthony Asquith, and starring John Mills and Betty Balfour.

Singles ★

US 1992 99m Technicolor
Warner/Atkinson/Knickerbocker (Cameron Crowe, Richard Hashimoto)

The young occupants of an apartment block in Seattle fall in and out of love.
A meandering movie of singles attempting to become couples in order to occupy their empty lives; it is slight, but perceptive.
wd Cameron Crowe ph Ueli Steiger m Paul Westerberg pd Stephen Lineweaver ☆ Bridget Fonda, Campbell Scott, Kyra Sedgwick, Sheila Kelley, Jim True, Matt Dillon, Ally Walker, Eric Stoltz, Tom Skerritt

'The movie gets nowhere in particular, but the leading performances are immensely attractive.' – Philip French, Observer
'Superbly scripted, cast and scored, pic is a natural for the partner-hunting twentysomething crowd and should easily cross over to thirtysomething singles or couples primed to laugh at the dating syndrome.' – Variety

Singleton's Pluck: see Laughterhouse

The Sinister Man ★

GB 1961 60m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Merton Park (Jack Greenwood)

The murder of an Oxford scholar is linked to archaeological relics which are coveted for political purposes.
Very tolerable minor thriller in the Edgar Wallace series: short, sharp and snappy.
w Robert Banks Stewart d Clive Donner ph Bert Mason m Charles Blackwell
☆ Patrick Allen, John Bentley, Jacqueline Ellis, Eric Young, Arnold Lee, John Glyn-Jones, William Gaunt, Wilfrid Brambell

'Personal! Powerful! Human! Heroic!'

Sink the Bismarck! ★★

GB 1960 97m bw Cinemascope
TCF/John Brabourne

In 1941, Britain's director of naval operations arranges the trapping and sinking of Germany's greatest battleship.
Tight little personal drama which would have been better on a standard screen, as its ships are plainly models and much of the footage stretched-out newsreel. Nevertheless, a good example of the stiff-upper-lip school.
w Edmund H. North d Lewis Gilbert ph Christopher Challis m Clifton Parker md Muir Mathieson
☆ Kenneth More, Dana Wynter, Karel Stepanek, Carl Mohner, Laurence Naismith, Geoffrey Keen, Michael Hordern, Maurice Denham, Esmond Knight

Sinner Take All

US 1937 74m bw
MGM (Lucien Hubbard, Sam Marx)

Members of a family are murdered one by one.
Moderate puzzler with a reporter sharing solving honours with the police.
w Leonard Lee, Walter Wise novel Murder of a Wanton by Whitman Chambers d Errol Taggart ☆ Bruce Cabot, Margaret Lindsay, Joseph Calleia, Stanley Ridges, Vivienne Osborne, Charley Grapewin, Edward Pawley, George Zucco

'Above the usual whodunit average ... able to make its way alone in the less exacting spots.' – Variety

Sinner's Holiday

US 1930 55m bw
Warner

A fairground barker loves the daughter of a penny arcade owner, but is framed by her brother.
Early talkie quickie using Broadway talent, and introducing James Cagney to the screen. It still has vigour if little else.
w Harvey Thew, George Rosener play Penny Arcade by Marie Baumer d John G. Adolfi ph Ira Morgan
☆ Grant Withers, Evalyn Knapp, James Cagney, Joan Blondell, Lucille La Verne, Warren Hymer, Noel Madison

Sinners' Holiday: see Christmas Eve (1947)

Sinners in Paradise

US 1938 65m bw
Universal (Ken Goldsmith)

Air travellers are wrecked on a South Sea island.
Much ado about very little, and a grave disappointment from its director.
w Lester Cole, Harold Buckley, Louis Stevens d James Whale ☆ Madge Evans, John Boles, Bruce Cabot, Marion Martin, Gene Lockhart, Charlotte Wynters, Nana Bryant

'Melodrama sufficiently lurid to be cut into several parts and released as a serial.' – Variety

Sinners in the Sun

US 1932 69m bw
Paramount

A young couple break up; each has romantic adventures, but eventually they come together again.
Blah comedy-drama with the defects of its period.
w Vincent Lawrence, Waldemar Young, Samuel Hoffenstein, Mildred Cram d Alexander Hall ☆ Carole Lombard, Chester Morris, Adrianne Allen, Alison Skipworth, Walter Byron, Cary Grant

'Only high-powered selling will aid a dull and poorly-handled story.' – Variety

The Sins of Rachel Cade

US 1961 123m Technicolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)

An American missionary nurse in the Belgian Congo falls in love with a crashed flyer and has a baby.
Romantic melodrama which starts like The Nun's Story and ends like Peg's Paper; competent on its level.
w Edward Anhalt novel Charles Mercer d Gordon Douglas ph Peverell Marley m Max Steiner
☆ Angie Dickinson, Roger Moore, Peter Finch, Errol John, Woody Strode, Juano Hernandez, Frederick O'Neal, Mary Wickes

Sins of Rome: see Spartacus (1952)

'Sometimes The Most Dangerous Journey Is Into Your Past'

Sioux City

US 1994 100m Foto-Kem
Cabin Fever/Facet (Brian Rox, Jane Ubell)

GB video title: Ultimate Revenge

A Lakota Indian youth, adopted as a baby by a Jewish couple, investigates the murder of his real mother, who had invited him to visit her, and rediscovers his roots.
Dull thriller on an interesting theme of cultural identity.
w L. Virginia Browne d Lou Diamond Phillips ph James W. Wrenn m Christopher Lindsey pd Rando Schmook ed Christopher Rouse, Mark Fitzgerald ☆ Lou Diamond Phillips, Salli Richardson, Melinda Dillon, Ralph Waite, Bill Allen, Adam Roarke, Gary Farmer

'An undistinguished mystery-thriller that's criminally short on mystery and thrills.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

Sir Henry at Rawlinson End

GB 1980 71m bw
Charisma (Tony Stratton Smith)

A grossly eccentric English aristocrat lays a family ghost.
Weirdly isolated, semi-professional comedy with elements of everything from Ealing to Monty Python.
w Vivian Stanshall, Steve Roberts radio play Vivian Stanshall d Steve Roberts ph Martin Bell m Vivian Stanshall pd Alistair Bowtell ed Chris Rose ☆ Trevor Howard, Patrick Magee, Denise Coffey, J. G. Devlin, Vivian Stanshall

Siren of Atlantis: see L'Atlantide

Siren of Bagdad

US 1953 72m Technicolor
Columbia (Sam Katzman)

A travelling magician helps reinstate a deposed sultan.
Flippant oriental extravaganza aiming at the Hope-Crosby style but falling sadly short of it.
w Robert E. Kent d Richard Quine ph Henry Freulich m Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ Paul Henreid, Patricia Medina, Hans Conried, Charlie Lung

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

La Sirène du Mississippi: see The Mississippi Mermaid

La Sirène Rouge: see The Red Siren

'A Seductive New Comedy.'

Sirens ★

Australia/GB 1994 94m colour
Buena Vista/WGM/AFFC/British Screen/Samson/Sarah Radclyffe (Sue Milliken)

The repressed wife of an English vicar learns to lose her inhibitions when the couple visit the Australian painter Norman Lindsay and his Bohemian entourage of free-living models.
A light-hearted and lightweight summertime clash of attitudes and cultures, enjoyable without being particularly memorable.
wd John Duigan ph Geoff Burton m Rachel Portman pd Roger Ford ed Humphrey Dixon
☆ Hugh Grant, Tara Fitzgerald, Sam Neill, Elle Macpherson, Portia de Rossi, Kate Fischer, Pamela Rabe, Ben Mendelsohn, Mark Gerber, Tom Polson

'A deliciously sexy and hedonistic comedy of morals and manners.' – Variety
'The kind of attractive, fluent period film which those who swear by James Ivory will appreciate.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Sirocco

US 1951 98m bw
Columbia/Santana (Robert Lord)

In 1925 Damascus, an American runs guns for the rebels.
Tedious romantic drama in the Casablanca vein but with none of the magic.
w A. I. Bezzerides, Hans Jacoby novel Coup de Grâce by Joseph Kessel d Curtis Bernhardt ph Burnett Guffey m George Antheil
☆ Humphrey Bogart, Marta Toren, Lee J. Cobb, Everett Sloane, Gerald Mohr, Zero Mostel, Onslow Stevens

'No Sex. No Booze. No Men. No Way.'

Sister Act ★

US 1992 100m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Touchwood Pacific Partners (Teri Schwartz)

A singer on the run from the Mafia takes refuge in a convent and transforms its choir.
Cheerful and modest comedy, though lacking in wit and with a plot that makes little sense. It was the surprise hit of 1992, ranking fourth at the box-office.
w Joseph Howard d Emile Ardolino ph Adam Greenberg m Marc Shaiman pd Jackson DeGovia ed Richard Halsey
☆ Whoopi Goldberg, Maggie Smith, Kathy Najimy, Wendy Makkena, Mary Wickes, Harvey Keitel, Bill Nunn, Robert Miranda, Richard Portnow

'The film isn't a divine comedy, and it's not satisfyingly profane either. But it generates a few laughs. It's got a good beat, and you can dance to it.' – Michael Sragow, New Yorker
'Offers the kind of cute, synthetic uplift usually found in television commercials and casts its nun characters as walking sight gags rather than real people.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times
'A truly awful film, pretending to be audacious but in fact pandering to every facile assumption in the book.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Sister Act 2: Back in the Habit

US 1993 106m Technicolor
Cinemascope
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Scott Rudin, Dawn Steel)

A Las Vegas singer agrees to dress as a nun to teach singing at a ghetto school that is in trouble.
Distressingly dire comedy, sickly and silly; it is smug and patronizing in its attitudes to the problems of inner-city life and not at all amusing.
w James Orr, Jim Cruickshank, Judi Ann Mason d Bill Duke ph Oliver Wood m Miles Goodman pd John DeCuir Jnr ed John Carter, Pem Herring, Stuart Pappé ☆ Whoopi Goldberg, Kathy Najimy, Barnard Hughes, Mary Wickes, James Coburn, Maggie Smith, Wendy Makkena, Lauryn Hill, Sheryl Lee Ralph

'Two trips to the convent is one too many.' – Variety
'If Sister Act 2 is how Hollywood rewards success, how does it punish failure?' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent † Kathy Najimy's singing was dubbed by Andrea Robinson.

Sister Kenny ★

US 1946 116m bw
RKO (Dudley Nichols)

The career of a nurse who instigated treatment for polio.
Standard, well-done biopic.
w Dudley Nichols, Alexander Knox, Mary McCarthy d Dudley Nichols ph George Barnes m Alexander Tansman
☆ Rosalind Russell, Alexander Knox, Dean Jagger, Philip Merivale, Beulah Bondi, Dorothy Peterson † From the autobiography of Australian nurse Mary Kenny: And They Shall Walk.
Rosalind Russell

Sister My Sister ★

GB 1994 104m colour
Arrow/Film Four/British Screen/NFH (Norma Heyman)

In France in the 30s, two sisters who work as maids in the same strict household begin an incestuous affair and start acting strangely.
Claustrophobic upstairs/downstairs tragedy, in which the only escape seems to be through violence.
w Wendy Kesselman play My Sister in This House by Wendy Kesselman d Nancy Meckler ph Ashley Rowe m Stephen Warbeck pd Caroline Amies ed David Stiven
☆ Julie Walters, Joely Richardson, Jodhi May, Sophie Thursfield

'A small-scale film with some powerful moments' – Variety
'A piece of cinema of almost stifling intensity and formidably acted throughout.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
† The same true-life story was the basis of Jean Genet's play The Maids, which was filmed in 1974 (qv).

Sister of Satan: see She Beast

The Sisters ★

US 1938 98m bw
Warner (Hal B. Wallis)

The marriages of three sisters from a small Montana town.
Well-made potboiler for women; it even brings in the San Francisco earthquake, and the star teaming is piquant to say the least.
w Milton Krims novel Myron Brinig d Anatole Litvak ph Tony Gaudio m Max Steiner
☆ Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Anita Louise, Ian Hunter, Donald Crisp, Beulah Bondi, Jane Bryan, Alan Hale, Dick Foran, Henry Travers, Patric Knowles, Lee Patrick, Harry Davenport

'Worth seeing for the adroit period direction and the fragile, pop-eyed acting of Miss Bette Davis.' – Graham Greene

Sisters ★

US 1973 92m colour
British Lion/Pressman-Williams Enterprises (Edward R. Pressman)

GB title: Blood Sisters
A Siamese twin takes on the personality of her deranged and dead sister.
The plots of Alfred Hitchcock's Psycho and Rear Window are both raided for this effective, if derivative, shocker.
w Brian de Palma, Louisa Rose d Brian de Palma ph Gregory Sandor m Bernard Herrmann pd Gary Weist ed Paul Hirsch
☆ Margot Kidder, Jennifer Salt, Charles Durning, Bill Finley, Lisle Wilson, Barnard Hughes

'A long way from being the brilliant thriller the ads say it is, but its limp technique doesn't seem to matter to the people who want their gratuitous gore. The movie supplies it, but why is there so much gratuitous dumbness, too?' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'A distinctly uneasy blend of that brand of unprincipled exploitation that makes horror out of madness and birth abnormality.' – MFB

Sisters ★

US 1988 93m colour
UIP/MGM/Oxford Film Company (Andy Paterson, Mark Bentley)
US title: Some Girls
An American student who goes to spend Christmas with the Catholic family of his girlfriend in Quebec finds himself looking after her dying grandmother.
Mildly amusing comedy of cultural misunderstandings.
w Rupert Walters d Michael Hoffman ph Ueli Steiger m James Newton Howard pd Eugenio Zanetti ed David Spiers
☆ Patrick Dempsey, Jennifer Connelly, Sheila Kelley, Lance Edwards, Lila Kedrova, Florinda Bolkan, Andre Gregory, Ashley Greenfield

Sisters in Law ★★ (9)

UK 2006 104m
ICA/Channel 4/Vixen Films (Kim Longinotto)

Three women working in Cameroon's legal system – a prosecutor, a lawyer and a judge – work to bring sexual equality to the country.
Stirring account of women who help female victims of rape, spousal abuse and abandonment. Fascinating, richly detailed and often amusing, but above all a triumph for human rights in a male-dominated society.
d Florence Ayisi, Kim Longinotto ph Kim Longinotto m D'Gary ed Oliver Huddleston
☆ Vera Ngassa, Veraline, Judge Beatrice Ntuba

'Some cases are harrowing, but the film is never grim. The formidable Ngassa shows such resilience, kindness and common sense that the effect is oddly uplifting.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Guardian

Sisters or The Balance of Happiness ★

West Germany 1979 95m colour
Blue Dolphin/Bioskop Film/WDR (Eberhard Junkersdorf) original title: Schwestern oder Die Balance des Glücks
Two sisters, one an executive secretary, the other a biology student whom she supports and stifles, grow ever more dependent upon each other.
Troubling, claustrophobic study of damaging family relationships.
wd Margarethe von Trotta ph Franz Rath, Thomas Schwan m Konstantin Wecker ad Winifred Hennig ed Annette Dorn
☆ Jutta Lampe, Gudrun Gabriel, Jessica Fruh, Konstantin Wecker, Heinz Bennet

Sisters under the Skin

US 1934 65m bw
Columbia
An older man loses his mistress to a bohemian composer.
Surprise, surprise: and the screenplay does not enliven the situation.
w Jo Swerling, S. K. Lauren d David Burton
☆ Frank Morgan, Elissa Landi, Joseph Schildkraut, Doris Lloyd, Clara Blandick, Samuel S. Hinds

'Mild flicker of obvious triangle story texture.' – Variety

Sitcom

France 1998 79m colour
Alliance/Fidélité/Canal+ (Olivier Delbosc, Marc Missonnier)

After their father brings home a white rat, a family disintegrates; so he apparently kills them all.
A film determined to shock by its stew of seduction and incest; but it is simply silly.
wd François Ozon ph Yorik Le Saux m Eric Neveux ad Angelique Puron ed Dominique Petrot
☆ Evelyne Dandry, François Marthouret, Marina de Van, Adrien de Van, Stephane Rideau, Lucia Sanchez, Julien-Emmanuel Eyoum Deido, Jean Douchet

'This childish film is intended to shock, but is merely tedious.' – Philip French, Observer

Sitting Bull

US 1954 106m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
United Artists/W. R. Frank/Televoz of Mexico

Despite the massacre of Custer's men, a cavalry officer strives to establish a relationship with Sitting Bull.
Sloppy and undernourished Western epic in abysmal colour, not helped by Mexicans pretending to be Indians.
w Jack de Witt, Sidney Salkow d Sidney Salkow ph Charles Van Enger, Victor Herrera m Raoul Kraushaar
☆ Dale Robertson, Mary Murphy, J. Carrol Naish, Iron Eyes Cody, John Litel, William Hopper, Douglas Kennedy (Custer)

Sitting Ducks

US 1978 88m DeLuxe
Sunny Side Up (Meira Atta Dor)

Two men steal a fortune and abscond to Miami with two women who turn out to have a contract on them.
Endlessly talkative sex comedy from a practitioner who scorns built-up gags. The kind of movie that puts people off movies.

wd Henry Jaglom ph Paul Glickman m Richard Romanus
☆ Michael E. Jaglom, Zack Norman, Patrice Townsend, Irene Forrest, Richard Romanus, Henry Jaglom

Sitting in Limbo
Canada 1986 95m colour
NFBC (David Wilson, John N. Smith)
In Montreal, a black teenager discovers she is pregnant and goes to live with her caring but irresponsible boyfriend.
Low-key slice-of-life drama, focusing on the divide between single mothers and the men who father their children, and mainly notable for presenting a black working-class community not often seen in Canadian films.
w David Wilson, John N. Smith d John N. Smith ph Barry Perles, Andreas Poulsson ed David Wilson
☆ Pat Dillon, Fabian Gibbs, Sylvie Clarke, Debbie Grant, Compton McLean, Millicent Dillon, Ronald Lang

Sitting Pretty
US 1933 85m bw
Paramount (Charles R. Rogers)
Two songwriters strike it rich in Hollywood.
Cheerful comedy musical, interesting for its backgrounds.
w Jack McGowan, S. J. Perelman, Lou Breslow d Harry Joe Brown ph Milton Krasner songs Mack Gordon, Harry Revel
☆ Jack Oakie, Jack Haley, Ginger Rogers, Thelma Todd, Gregory Ratoff, Lew Cody, Harry Revel, Mack Gordon 'Should please all over.' – Variety

Sitting Pretty ★★★
US 1948 84m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)
A young couple acquire a most unusual male baby sitter, a self-styled genius who sets the neighbourhood on its ears by writing a novel about it.
Out of the blue, a very funny comedy which entrenched Clifton Webb as one of Hollywood's great characters and led to two sequels, Mr Belvedere Goes to College and Mr Belvedere Rings the Bell (qv).
w F. Hugh Herbert novel Belvedere by Gwen Davenport d Walter Lang ph Norbert Brodine m Alfred Newman ad Leland Fuller, Lyle Wheeler ed Harmon Jones
☆ Clifton Webb (Lynn Belvedere), Robert Young (Harry), Maureen O'Hara (Tacey), Richard Haydn (Mr. Appleton), Louise Allbritton (Edna Philby), Ed Begley (Hammond), Randy Stuart (Peggy), Larry Olsen (Larry)
Clifton Webb

Sitting Target
GB 1972 92m Metrocolor
MGM (Barry Kulick)
A violent killer escapes from jail and seeks revenge on those who 'shopped' him.
Rough, tough action thriller; passes the time for hardened addicts.
w Alexander Jacobs novel Lawrence Henderson d Douglas Hickox ph Ted Scaife m Stanley Myers pd Jonathan Barry
☆ Oliver Reed, Jill St John, Edward Woodward, Frank Finlay, Ian McShane, Freddie Jones, Robert Beatty

Situation Hopeless But Not Serious
US 1965 97m bw
Paramount/Castle (Gottfried Reinhardt)
In 1944, two American flyers are captured by a friendly, lonely mild-mannered German, who keeps them in his cellar and hasn't the heart to tell them when the war is over ...
Flat little comedy which leaves a talented cast no room for manoeuvre.
w Silvia Reinhardt novel The Hiding Place by Robert Shaw d Gottfried Reinhardt ph Kurt Hasse m Harold Byrne ☆ Alec Guinness, Robert Redford, Mike Connors, Anita Hoefer

Six Black Horses
US 1962 80m Eastmancolor
Universal-International (Gordon Kay)
A girl hires a gunslinger and a horse thief to escort her across Indian territory.
Rather glum Western programmer.
w Burt Kennedy d Harry Keller ph Maury Gertsman md Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, Robert Luthardt ed Aaron Stell
☆ Audie Murphy, Dan Duryea, Joan O'Brien, George Wallace, Roy Barcroft, Bob Steele, Henry Wills, Phil Chambers, Charlita Regis, Dale Van Sickel

Six Bridges to Cross
US 1955 96m bw
U-I (Aaron Rosenberg)
The criminal career of a young hoodlum in Boston in the thirties.
Public Enemy reprise with a sentimental veneer, smooth but uninteresting.
w Sydney Boehm novel They Stole Two and a Half Million Dollars and Got Away with It by Joseph F. Dineen d Joseph Pevney ph William Daniels m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Tony Curtis, George Nader, Julie Adams, Jay C. Flippen, Sal Mineo, Jan Merlin

'Are You Who You Think You Are?'

The 6th Day ★
US 2000 124m DeLuxe
Columbia/Phoenix (Mike Medavoy, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Jon Davison)
In a future world, a helicopter pilot is forced to go on the run after he is cloned by an evil genetics tycoon.
An action film that gains from its topical theme; the violence here has been toned down in comparison to that found in Schwarzenegger's earlier movies.
w Cormac Wibberley, Marianne Wibberley d Roger Spottiswoode ph Pierre Mignot m Trevor Rabin pd James Bissell, John Willett ed Mark Conte, Dominique Fortin, Michel Arcand sp Rhythm & Hues Studios cos Trish Keating
☆ Arnold Schwarzenegger (Adam Gibson), Tony Goldwyn (Michael Drucker), Michael Rapaport (Hank Morgan), Michael Rooker (Robert Marshall), Sarah Wynter (Talia Elsworth), Wendy Crewson (Natalie Gibson), Rod Rowland (Wiley), Terry Crews (Vincent), Ken Pogue (Speaker Day), Colin Cunningham (Tripp), Robert Duvall (Dr Griffin Weir)
'A crisp and agreeable futuristic adventure.' – Sight and Sound

Six Day Bike Rider
US 1934 69m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
One of life's failures impresses his girl by entering a cycling contest.
One of the star's stronger comedy vehicles.
w Earl Baldwin d Lloyd Bacon ph Warren Lynch
☆ Joe E. Brown, Maxine Doyle, Frank McHugh, Gordon Westcott

'After This Week In Paradise, They're Going To Need A Vacation.'

Six Days, Seven Nights
US 1998 101m Technicolor Panavision
Touchstone/Caravan/Northern Lights (Ivan Reitman, Wallis Nicita, Roger Birnbaum)
En route to Tahiti, a pilot makes an emergency landing and strands himself and his passenger, a New York fashion editor, on an unknown island.
A romantic comedy so obvious in its outcome that an audience can sleep through most of it without missing anything of interest.
w Michael Browning d Ivan Reitman ph Michael Chapman m Randy Edelman pd J. Michael Riva ed Sheldon Kahn, Wendy Greene Bricmont
☆ Harrison Ford, Anne Heche, David Schwimmer, Temuera Morrison
'Plagued with a hackneyed screenplay (which borrows from so many films you'll lose count), this lame romantic comedy falls to pieces within six minutes and seven seconds.' – Judy Sloane, Film Review

Six Days, Six Nights ★★
France 1994 98m colour
New Light/France 3 (Alexandre Arcady) original title: A la Folie
An unhappily married art teacher envies her sister's success as an artist and her happy new relationship with a boxer.
Deft and intriguing drama of sibling rivalry and destructive passions.
wd Diane Kurys ph Fabio Conversi m Michael Nyman pd Tony Egry ed Luc Barnier ☆ Anne Parillaud, Béatrice Dalle, Patrick Aurignac, Bernard Verley, Alain Chabat, Jean-Claude de Goros, Marie Guillard

'For Paul, every person is a new door to a new world.'

Six Degrees of Separation ★★
US 1993 111m DeLuxe
MGM/Maiden Movies/New Regency (Fred Schepisi, Arnon Milchan)
A young man arrives on the doorstep of a wealthy and sophisticated New York couple claiming to be mugged and convinces them that he is a friend of their children and the son of Sidney Poitier.
Witty, complex, always engrossing study of identity and more; the key moment comes as the con man lectures his captive audience, complacent in their belief in themselves and their understanding of culture, on the death of the imagination – and fools them.
w John Guare play John Guare d Fred Schepisi ph Ian Baker m Jerry Goldsmith pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Peter Honess
☆ Stockard Channing, Will Smith, Donald Sutherland, Mary Beth Hurt, Bruce Davison, Heather Graham, Anthony Michael Hall, Eric Thal, Richard Masur, Ian McKellen
'This is a wonderful play about the capacity of the ever-so-slightly guilty haves to be gulled rotten by those have-nots who have yet got the wit to deceive them. But, being American, it has only the vaguest of ideas about the political implications of what it shows. Which is why the film tails off startlingly at the end, almost disappearing up its own elegant backside.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Always entertains, looks elegant, never mangles its source material, and gives movie audiences that rare commodity: something to think about.' – Geoff Brown, The Times
† The title refers to the belief that each person in the world can trace a connection by friendship or acquaintance to any other person which will involve no more than six intermediary links, that everyone is thus joined by a maximum of six degrees of separation to everyone else.

Six Hours to Live ★
US 1932 78m bw
Fox
A scientist revives a diplomat for six hours so that his murderer can be traced.
Fanciful hokum set at a Geneva peace conference.
w Bradley King story Gordon Morris, Morton Barteaux d William Dieterle ☆ Warner Baxter, John Boles, Miriam Jordan, Irene Ware, George Marion
'A strong box office title which together with an aggressive sales campaign should bring picture into the money.' – Variety

633 Squadron ★
GB 1964 94m Technicolor Panavision
UA/Mirisch (Cecil F. Ford)
In 1944 Mosquito aircraft try to collapse a cliff overhanging a munitions factory in a Norwegian fjord.
Standard war heroics with enough noise and disorder to keep most audiences hypnotized.
w James Clavell, Howard Koch novel Frederick E. Smith d Walter Grauman ph Ted Scaife, John Wilcox m Ron Goodwin
☆ Cliff Robertson, George Chakiris, Maria Perschy, Harry Andrews, Donald Houston, Michael Goodliffe

Six in Paris: see Paris Vu Par ..

Six Inches Tall: see Attack of the Puppet People

Six Lessons from Madame La Zonga
US 1941 62m bw
Universal
A Cuban night-club proprietress causes mix-ups on a pleasure boat.
Witless vehicle for two stars popular at another studio in the Mexican Spitfire series.
w Stanley Rubin, Marion Orth, Larry Rhine, Ben Chapman d John Rawlins ☆ Lupe Velez, Leon Errol, William Frawley, Helen Parrish, Charles Lang, Eddie Quillan, Quinn Williams

'Their first honeymoon was so much funThey're off to have another one!'

Six of a Kind ★
US 1934 69m bw
Paramount
Comic adventures of six people driving across America.
Minor comedy which doesn't come off as a whole but adequately displays the talents of its stars.
w Walter de Leon, Harry Ruskin d Leo McCarey ph Henry Sharp m Ralph Rainger
☆ Charles Ruggles, Mary Boland, W. C. Fields, Alison Skipworth, George Burns, Gracie Allen
'Another pleasing film ... it reminds the Englishman of Three Men in a Boat.' – E. V. Lucas, Punch
'Old-fashioned farce that gets a lot of laughs. Better for duals than de luxers.' – Variety

Six Pack

US 1982 110m DeLuxe
TCF/Lion Share (Michael Trikilis)

A loner stock car driver finds himself fathering six orphan kids.
Old-fashioned family picture built around a country singer.
w Mike Marvin, Alex Matter d Daniel Petrie ph Mario Tosi m Charles Fox ☆ Kenny Rogers, Diane Lane, Erin Gray, Barry Corbin

6,000 Enemies

US 1939 61m bw
MGM (Lucien Hubbard)

A district attorney is framed for a prison stretch and finds himself hated by every convict inside.
Formula support climaxing in a prison break: well enough done.
w Bertram Millhauser d George B. Seitz
☆ Walter Pidgeon, Rita Johnson, Paul Kelly, Nat Pendleton, Harold Huber, Grant Mitchell

'Prison meller with action aplenty.' – Variety

Six Weeks

US 1982 107m Metrocolor
Polygram (Peter Guber, Jon Peters)

A lady cosmetics tycoon whose ten-year-old daughter is dying of leukaemia enlists the aid of a politician to make what's left of her life a triumph.
Icky tearjerker on the lines of The Christmas Tree. Everything is done to make it palatable, but it won't be many people's cup of bromide.
w David Seltzer novel Fred Mustard Stewart d Tony Bill ph Michael D. Margulies m Dudley Moore ad Hilyard Brown ed Stu Linder
☆ Dudley Moore, Mary Tyler Moore, Katherine Healy, Shannon Wilcox, Bill Calvert

'Very sleek and very sickmaking.' – Observer

† Nick Nolte and Audrey Hepburn were originally to have starred. Sylvester Stallone also turned down the lead.

'For a New York cop and his witness, the distance between life and death just got very short.'

16 Blocks

★★ (6)

US/Germany 2006 101m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Alcon/Millennium/Emmett/Furla/Cheyenne/EquityMedienfonds/KG III/Nu Image (Jim Van Wyck, John Thompson, Arnold Rifkin, Avi Lerner, Randall Emmett)

A tired, lame cop has to deliver a witness of police wrongdoing to a Grand Jury without getting himself or his prisoner killed by his fellow officers.
Taut, tense, suspenseful, if implausible, thriller that allows time for a little character development amid the breathless chase sequences.
w Richard Wenk d Richard Donner ph Glen Macpherson m Klaus Badelt pd Arv Greywal ed Steven Mirkovich
☆ Bruce Willis (Jack Mosley), Mos Def (Eddie Bunker), David Morse (Frank Nugent), Jenna Stern (Diane Mosley), Casey Sander (Captain Gruber), Cylk Cozart CQ (Jimmy Mulvey), David Zayas (Robert Torres), Robert Racki (Jerry Shue)

'Does raise the banner for the tradition of the textured urban cop drama, spurred by action but made substantial by characters at crossroads.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

'It seems such a waste to go onto the actual streets of Lower Manhattan and shoot a movie this stupid.' – Stephen Hunter, Washington Post

Sixteen Candles

★

US 1985 95m Technicolor
Universal (Hilton A. Green)

A teenage girl, pursued by one boy and pursuing another, finds her 16th birthday being overlooked by her family.
Mildy amusing comedy of teenage life, from a 'teen's viewpoint, though reaffirming conventional family values.
wd John Hughes ph Bobby Byrne m Ira Newborn pd John W. Corso ed Edward Warschilka
☆ Molly Ringwald, Justin Henry, Michael Schoeffling, Haviland Morris, Gedde Watanabe, Anthony Michael Hall, Paul Dooley, John Cusack, Joan Cusack, Jami Gertz

'It doesn't amount to much, and it's certainly not to be confused with a work of art, but the young writer-director John Hughes has a knack for making you like the high-school-age characters better each time you hear them talk.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Sixteen Years of Alcohol

★

GB 2003 97m colour Digitalscope
Metro Tartan/Scottish Screen/Tartan Works (Hamish McAlpine, Richard Jobson, Mark Burton)

A working-class boy grows up in Edinburgh to become, for a time, a violent drunk.
Serious, sombre study of an alcoholic culture, with a strong central performance, though the cod-poetic voice-over is enough to drive one to drink.
wd Richard Jobson novel Richard Jobson ph John Rhodes m Keith Atack, Malcolm Lindsay pd Adam Squires ed Ioannis Chalkiadakis
☆ Kevin McKidd (Frankie Mac), Laura Fraser (Helen), Susan Lynch (Mary), Stuart Sinclair Blyth (Miller), Jim Carter (Director), Ewen Bremner (Jake)

'A reflective film about memory, the recovery of hope and belief in life, of an emotional thawing.' – Philip French, Observer

Sixth Happiness

★

GB 1997 98m Metrocolor
BFI/BBC/Kennedy Mellor (Tatiana Kennedy)

The autobiography of a boy born with brittle bone disease, growing older in Bombay of the 60s.
With Kanga playing a fictional version of himself from early childhood, this is a necessarily stylized, episodic account of the formative influences of a writer; the tone is lightly confessional, verging on the satirical in its portrait of people maintaining a British way of life against all odds.
w Firdaus Kanga novel Trying to Grow by Firdaus Kanga d Waris Hussein ph James Welland m Dominique Le Gendre pd Lynne Whiteread ed Laurence Méry-Clark ☆ Firdaus Kanga, Souad Faress, Khodus Wadia, Ashen Bhatti, Indira Varma, Nina Wadia, Nisha K. Nahar, Roger Hammond, Sabira Merchant

'Pic has idiosyncratic characters and situations that never come to life thanks to flat-footed execution.' – Dennis Harvey, Variety

'They're lifting the game to a higher level.'

The Sixth Man

US 1997 107m colour
Touchstone/Mandeville (David Hoberman)

The ghost of a dead basketball player comes to the aid of his brother's team.
Trivial comedy which for the most part seems to elevate cheating to the aim of the game; though more unforgivable than its dubious morality is its lack of genuine humour.
w Christopher Reed, Cynthia Carle d Randall Miller ph Michael Ozier m Marcus Miller pd Michael Bolton ed Eric Sears
☆ Marlon Wayans, Kadeem Hardison, David Paymer, Michael Michele, Kevin Dunn, Harold Sylvester, Vladimir Cuk, Travis Ford

'Dim slapstick in a cloying comedy which adds nothing new to a now moribund fornmula.' – Sight and Sound

The Sixth Sense

★★★

US 1999 107m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood/Spyglass (Frank Marshall, Kathleen Kennedy, Barry Mendel)

A child psychologist begins to treat a disturbed young boy, who can see the dead.
Spooky movie with a twist ending that changes the focus of what has gone before; it's both clever and disturbing, maintaining a haunting atmosphere that keeps its audience off-balance.
wd M. Night Shyamalan ph Tak Fujimoto m James Newton Howard pd Larry Fulton ad Philip Messina ed Andrew Mondshein sp make-up fx: Stan Winston Studio; visual fx: Dream Quest Images ☆ Bruce Willis (Malcolm Crowe), Toni Collette (Lynn Sear), Olivia Williams (Anna Crowe), Haley Joel Osment (Cole Sear), Donnie Wahlberg (Vincent Gray), Glenn Fitzgerald (Sean), Mischa Barton (Kyra Collins), Trevor Morgan (Tommy Tammisimo), Bruce Norris (Stanley Cunningham)

'Moody, low-key and semi-pretentious effort is ominous without being scary or suspenseful for most of its running time.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A preposterous piece of work.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times

† The film was a box-office success, taking more than $276m at the US box-office, and earning Willis an estimated $50m.
δ picture; Haley Joel Osment; Toni Collette; M. Night Shyamalan (as director); M. Night Shyamalan (as writer); Andrew Mondshein

'68

US 1988 98m colour
Entertainment/New World (Dale Djerassi, Isabel Maxwell, Steven Kovacs)

A Hungarian immigrant experiences problems with his children as he opens a restaurant in San Francisco in the mid-1960s.
The movie's background, with its emphasis on the political events of the time, overwhelms its insufficiently developed characters.
wd Steven Kovacs ph Daniel Lacambre ad Joshua Koral ed Cari Coughlin ☆ Eric Larsen, Robert Locke, Sandor Tecsi, Anna Dukasz, Neil Young

Sixty Glorious Years

★★

GB 1938 95m Technicolor
Imperator (Herbert Wilcox)
US title: Queen of Destiny

Scenes from the life of Queen Victoria.
A stately pageant apparently composed of material which couldn't be fitted into the previous year's black-and-white success Victoria the Great. Fascinating, though the camerawork is not very nimble.
w Robert Vansittart, Miles Malleson, Charles de Grandcourt d Herbert Wilcox ph Frederick A. Young ☆ Anna Neagle, Anton Walbrook, C. Aubrey Smith, Walter Rilla, Charles Carson, Felix Aylmer, Lewis Casson

'One of the most artistic and expensive films made in England.' – Variety

† The two films were edited together in 1943 to make a new selection called Queen Victoria, and in the process the original negatives were accidentally destroyed, so that both films now have to be printed from unattractive dupes.

Sixty Six

★ (5)

UK/US/France 2006 93m
UIP/Universal/Working Title/Studio Canal/Ingenious (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner, Elizabeth Karlsen)

A London boy's bar mitzvah clashes with the 1966 World Cup Final.
Delightful small-scale story, wryly perceptive about Jewish family life in north London. Only a contrived last-minute dash to the big game disturbs the sense of relaxed enchantment.
w Peter Straughan, Bridget O'Connor d Paul Weiland ph Daniel Landin m Joby Talbot pd Michael Howells, Paul Tothill ad Lynne Hutson ed Paul Tothill
☆ Eddie Marsan (Manny Rubens), Helena Bonham Carter (Esther Rubens), Stephen Rea (Doctor Barrie), Catherine Tate (Auntie Lila), Gregg Sulkin (Bernie Rubens)

'A likeable Jewish comedy.' – Philip French, Observer

† Director Paul Weiland supplied the story, which is loosely based on his own London childhood.

Det Sjunde Inseglet: see The Seventh Seal

Skateboard

US 1977 95m Technicolor
Universal

A small-time theatrical agent in trouble builds up a professional skateboard team.
Unsatisfactory exploitation item which devotes more time to its plot than to its sport.
w Richard A. Wolf, George Gage d George Gage ph Ross Kelsay m Mark Snow
☆ Allen Garfield, Kathleen Lloyd, Leif Garrett, Richard Van Der Wyk

Skepp Till Indialand: see A Ship to India

Sketch Artist

US 1992 86m Foto-Kem
Motion Picture Corp of America (Brad Krevoy, Steve Stabler)

A police artist sketching a witness's description of a murderer finds that he has produced a drawing of his wife.
A slick little thriller, enjoyable enough on its own limited terms.
w Michael Angeli d Phedon Papamichael ph Wally Pfister m Mark Isham pd Phedon Papamichael Snr ed Carole Kravetz
☆ Jeff Fahey, Sean Young, Frank McRae, Tcheky Karyo, James Tolkan, Charlotte Lewis, Drew Barrymore

Sketches of Frank Gehry  ⑦

US 2006 83m
Artificial Eye/American Masters/PBS/WNET-13/Mirage/LM Media (Ultan Guilfoyle)

An exploration of the life and work of the celebrated architect.
Pollack makes no pretence that this is an objective documentary about Gehry, a long-time friend. It's more of an admiring investigation into how he designs buildings. Special emphasis is given to Bilbao's Guggenheim Museum, which Pollack photographs with something approaching awe. The director often appears in shot, filming with Gehry with a small hand-held camera, and the effect is awkward and intrusive. Still, plenty of intriguing material is unearthed here: Gehry's name change (through a fear of anti-Semitism); his years in psychoanalysis; his close association (unusual for an architect) with a group of Los Angeles artists; and his refusal to conform to pre-conceived ideas of architecture's boundaries. A decent account of a complex, sublimely talented man.
d Sydney Pollack ph Ultan Guilfoyle, Sydney Pollack m Sorman & Nystrom ed Karen Schmeer
☆ Frank Gehry, Sydney Pollack, Michael Eisner, Bob Geldof, Barry Diller, Michael Ovitz, Philip Johnson, Julian Schnabel, Dennis Hopper, Ed Ruscha

'Too much of the film is taken up with gushy, self-serving talking-head testimonials.' – Peter Rainer, Christian Science Monitor

'Pray they never have to rescue YOU ... !'

Ski Patrol

US 1989 92m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Epic/Sarlui/Diamant/Paul Maslansky (Phillip B. Goldfine, Donald L. West)

A developer attempts to sabotage the safety record of a ski resort.
Broad farce in the style of the Police Academy series and no funnier.
w Steven Long Mitchell, Craig W. Van Sickle d Richard Correll ph John Stephens m Bruce Miller pd Fred Weiler ed Scott Wallace ☆ Roger Rose, Yvette Nipar, T. K. Carter, Leslie Jordan, Paul Feig, Sean Gregory Sullivan, Corbin Timbrook, George Lopez, Ray Walston

The Ski Raiders

US 1972 90m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Edward L. Rissien)
aka: Snow Job

An alpine ski instructor devises a scheme to rob a bank.
Very medium caper thriller with a breathtaking opening sequence.
w Ken Kolb, Jeffrey Bloom d George Englund ph Gabor Pogany, Willy Bogner m Jacques Loussier
☆ Jean Claude Killy, Cliff Potts, Vittorio de Sica, Daniele Gaubert

Ski School

Canada 1991 88m colour
Movie Store Entertainment/Rose & Ruby (Damian Lee)

Rival groups of skiers try to sabotage each other.
Crass comedy that is mainly an excuse for ski stunts and the cavortings of skimpily clad bimbos.
w David Mitchell d Damian Lee ph Curtis Petersen, Roxanne Di Santo m Steven Hunter ad Craig MacMillan ed Robert Gordon
☆ Dean Cameron, Tom Breznahan, Patrick Laborteaux, Mark Thomas Miller, Darlene Vogel, Charlie Spradling

Skidoo

US 1968 98m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Sigma (Otto Preminger)

Active and reformed gangsters get involved with hippies and preach universal love.
Abysmal mishmash with top talent abused; clearly intended as satirical farce, but in fact one of the most woebegone movies ever made.
w Doran William Cannon d Otto Preminger ph Leon Shamroy m Harry Nilsson ☆ Jackie Gleason, Carol Channing, Groucho Marx, Frankie Avalon, Fred Clark, Michael Constantine, Frank Gorshin, John Phillip Law, Peter Lawford, Burgess Meredith, George Raft, Cesar Romero, Mickey Rooney

'Unspeakable.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

Skin & Bone

US 1995 110m Foto-Kem
Film Research (Claudia Hoover, Gardner Monks)

Hopeful Hollywood actors work as male prostitutes for an escort agency, satisfying the fantasies of their clients.
A relentlessly downbeat slice of violent low life, dimly photographed.
wd Everett Lewis ph Fernando Arguelles m Geoff Harper, Mark Jan Wlodarkiewicz ed Everett Lewis
☆ B. Wyatt, Alan Boyce, Nicole Dillenberg, Garret Scullin, Chad Kula, Susannah Melvoin

'This 16mm production offers hardly any incentives to viewing: one must continually peer through a smog of blurry, underlit cinematography to make out the rudiments of the images, and long stretches of dialogue are rendered semi-inaudible by the traffic noise.' – Peter Matthews, Sight and Sound

Skin Deep

US 1989 101m Technicolor Panavision
Braveworld/Fox/Morgan Creek/BECO (Tony Adams)

A best-selling author devotes his time to booze and women.
Shallow comedy too much in love with its unprepossessing hero.
wd Blake Edwards ph Isidore Mankofsky pd Rodger Maus ed Robert Pergament
☆ John Ritter, Vincent Gardenia, Alyson Reed, Joel Brooks, Julianne Phillips, Chelsea Field, Peter Donat, Don Gordon, Nina Foch

'Edwards' undeniable personal obsessions are winding up as bland, uniform, nothing-in-particular films like this.' – Kim Newman, MFB

The Skin Game

GB 1932 85m bw
BIP (John Maxwell)

A landowner hates his self-made neighbour.
Stiff picturization of a well-known stage play.
w Alfred Hitchcock, Alma Reville play John Galsworthy d Alfred Hitchcock ph Jack Cox
☆ Edmund Gwenn, John Longden, Jill Esmond, C. V. France, Helen Haye, Phyllis Konstam, Frank Lawton

The Skin Game ★

US 1971 102m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Cherokee (Harry Keller)

A white and a black con man have near escapes in many a Western town.
Amusing comedy Western with good pace and a few shafts of wit.
w Peter Stone, Richard Alan Simmons d Paul Bogart ph Fred Koenekamp m David Shire ☆ James Garner, Lou Gossett, Susan Clark, Brenda Sykes, Ed Asner, Andrew Duggan, Henry Jones, Neva Patterson

Skin of Man, Heart of Beast ★

France 1999 98m colour
ICA/Why Not/Arte France/Canal+ (Pascal Caucheteux)
original title: Peau d'Homme, Couer De Bête

Antagonisms arise with his two siblings when a brutal brother returns to the family home after a 15 year absence.
An unblinking portrait of dysfunctional masculinity as seen through children's eyes.
w Hélène Angel, Agnès de Sacy d Hélène Angel ph Isabelle Razavet m Philippe Miller, Martin Wheler ad Mathieu Menut ed Laurent Rouan, Eric Renault
☆ Serge Riaboukine (Francky), Bernard Blancan (Coco), Pascal Cervo (Alex), Maaike Jansen (Marthe), Cathy Hinderchied (Aurelie), Virginie Guinand (Christelle), Jean-Louis Richard (Tac Tac), Guilaine Londez (Annie)

'Although it leaves you with a knot in your stomach, its power is undercut by its own head-banging obviousness.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Skinheads

US 1988 93m colour
Greydon Clark

aka: Skinheads: The Second Coming of Hate
A gang of neo-Nazis hunt down a couple who witnessed their slaughter of a café owner and her customers.
Unpleasant low-budget shocker, badly written, hammily acted and dully directed. Despite his star billing, Connors sensibly makes a brief appearance.
w David Reskin, Greydon Clark d Greydon Clark ph Nicholas von Sternberg m Dan Slider ad Doug Abrahamson ed Travis Clark ☆ Chuck Connors, Barbara Bain, Brian Brophy, Jason Culp, Elizabeth Sagal Skippy ★

US 1931 88m bw
Paramount

The young son of a local health inspector makes friends in the slums.
Standard, blameless family entertainment.
w Joseph L. Mankiewicz, Norman McLeod comic strip Percy Crosby d Norman Taurog ph Karl Struss
☆ Jackie Cooper, Robert Coogan, Mitzi Green, Jackie Searl, Willard Robertson

'A great kid talker, but not for kids only if there is such a thing as being 100% inhuman, only then is it possible for anyone to dislike Skippy as entertainment.' – Variety

♟ Norman Taurog
♙ best picture; script; Jackie Cooper

Skirts Ahoy

US 1952 105m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Three girls join the navy and get their men.
Musical recruiting poster, quite devoid of interest.
w Isobel Lennart d Sidney Lanfield ph William Mellor m Harry Warren ch Nick Castle ly Ralph Blane
☆ Esther Williams, Vivian Blaine, Joan Evans, Barry Sullivan, Keefe Brasselle, Dean Miller, Debbie Reynolds, Bobby Van, Billy Eckstine

Sklapni A Zastrel Me: see Shut Up and Shoot Me

Skrivanci Na Niti: see Larks on a String

'When The Skull Strikes You'll Scream!'

The Skull

GB 1965 83m Techniscope
Paramount/Amicus (Milton Subotsky)

The skull of the Marquis de Sade haunts two antiquarians.
Clodhopping horror with very visible wires.
w Milton Subotsky story Robert Bloch d Freddie Francis ph John Wilcox m Elisabeth Lutyens
☆ Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Patrick Wymark, Jill Bennett, Nigel Green, Michael Gough, George Coulouris

Skullduggery

US 1969 105m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Saul David)

Archaeologists and adventurers clash on a trek in New Guinea.
Fashionable oddball adventure about the discovery of an unspoiled primitive tribe; the elements don't jell.
w Nelson Gidding d Gordon Douglas ph Robert Moreno m Oliver Nelson ☆ Burt Reynolds, Susan Clark, Roger C. Carmel, Paul Hubschmid, Chips Rafferty, Alexander Knox, Edward Fox, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Rhys Williams

'Getting in is easy...getting out is a killer.'

The Skulls

US 2000 107m DeLuxe
Universal/Original/Newmarket (Neal H. Moritz, John Pogue)

A working-class student at an Ivy League university joins a powerful secret society and suspects its members are guilty of murder.
Bland conspiracy drama that plays like a bad TV movie.
w John Pogue d Rob Cohen ph Shane Hurlbut m Randy Edelman pd Bob Ziembicki ed Peter Amundson cos Marie-Sylvie Deveau
☆ Joshua Jackson (Luke McNamara), Paul Walker (Caleb Mandrake), Hill Harper (Will Beckford), Leslie Bibb (Chloe), Christopher McDonald (Martin Lombard), Steve Harris (Detective Sparrow), William Peterson (Ames Levitt), Craig T. Nelson (Litten Mandrake)

'It's nightmarishly bad...Confoundingly clichéd, abrasively overdone, over-the-top on every level.' – Michael Wilmington, Chicago Tribune

Sky Bandits

GB 1986 93m Rank Colour
London Front Ltd (Richard Herland)
aka: Gunbus

Adventures of World War I flyers.
An attempt at a light-hearted Hell's Angels. It misfires on all cylinders.
w Thom Keyes d Zoran Perisic ph David Watkin m Alfie Kabiljo pd Tony Woollard ed Peter Tanner
☆ Scott McGinnis, Jeff Osterhage, Ronald Lacey, Miles Anderson, Valerie Steffen, Ingrid Held, Adrian Dunbar

Sky Bride

US 1932 75m bw
Paramount

An aerial barnstormer loses his nerve after an accident.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♙ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Formula melodrama with aerobatics.
w Joseph L. Mankiewicz, Agnes Brand Leahy, Grover Jones d Stephen Roberts
☆ Richard Arlen, Jack Oakie, Virginia Bruce, Robert Coogan, Charles Starrett
'Lack of romantic interest is somewhat of a handicap to a conventional air plot with a suspensive finish.' – Variety

'Who will save us?'

Sky Captain and the World of Tomorrow ★

US/Italy/GB 2004 107m DeLuxe
Paramount/Jon Avnet, Marsha Oglesby, Sadie Frost, Jude Law (Brooklyn Films II/Riff Raff-Blue Flower/Filmauro)

The leader of an elite group of mercenaries and his ex-wife, a reporter, foil the plans of a German scientist to destroy the world with the aid of robots.
Based on 1930s pulp science fiction, a throwback to the future world of yesterday that, for all its visual cleverness has an inert narrative and cardboard characterization.
wd Kerry Conran ph Eric Adkins m Edward Shearmur pd Kevin Conran ed Sabrina Plisco ☆ Gwyneth Paltrow (Polly Perkins), Jude Law (Sky Captain), Angelina Jolie (Dex), Michael Gambon (Editor Paley), Bai Ling (Mysterious Woman), Dr Totenkopf (Laurence Olivier)
'It's like a film that escaped from the imagination directly onto the screen, without having to pass through reality along the way.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'For its writer-director, Sky Captain was a labour of love. For almost everyone else – including the wooden cast – it's just a labour.' – William Thomas, Empire
† Olivier's performance was created by taking snippets from his roles in other films.
†† It was touted as first studio feature in which actors worked against a blue screen. The backgrounds were added later and created digitally. A similar technique was used in the Japanese science-fiction movie Casshern (qv) and the French futuristic film Immortel (ad vitam) (qv).

Sky Devils

US 1931 89m bw
Caddo/Howard Hughes

Two draft dodgers find themselves heroes of the Army Air Corps in World War I France.
Little-seen but unremarkable adventure comedy in the Flagg and Quirt tradition.
w Joseph Moncure March, Edward Sutherland d A. Edward Sutherland ph Tony Gaudio md Alfred Newman ch Busby Berkeley
☆ Spencer Tracy, William Boyd, Ann Dvorak, George Cooper, Billy Bevan, Forrester Harvey
'A hodge-podge of all the laugh war stuff ... and how they want something to laugh about right now. Psychologically and in a material way, it should do nicely.' – Variety

Sky Full of Moon

US 1952 73m bw
MGM (Sidney Franklin Jnr)

A rodeo cowboy wins money and a showgirl in Las Vegas.
Ambling comedy with an agreeable air of innocence.
wd Norman Foster ph Ray June m Paul Sawtell ☆ Carleton Carpenter, Jan Sterling, Keenan Wynn

Sky High

Japan 2003 123m colour
Amuse/Toei/TV Asahi (Yokichi Osato, Hiroshi Hayakawa)

A billionaire genetics expert attempts to summon the devil to cure his dying wife by using hearts ripped from six young women.
Over-the-top variation on the mad scientist horror genre that mixes a vengeful detective, a psychic photographer, sword fights, ghosts, mediums, religious hocus pocus and the occult into an indigestible stew.
w Isao Kiriyama manga Tsutomu Takahashi d Ryuhei Kitamura m Nobuhiko Morino, Daisuke Yano pd Hidefumi Hanatani ed Shuichi Kakesu
☆ Yumiko Shaku (Mina), Takao Osawa (Tatsuya Kudo), Shosuke Tanihara (Kohei Kanzaki), Eihi Shiina (Izuko)
† The film is a prequel to a Japanese TV series based on the comic-books of Tsutomu Takahashi.

'Brains, Brawn And Beyond.'

Sky High ★ (7)

US 2005 100m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney (Andrew Gunn)

The teenage son of a superhero is worried that he lacks super powers.
Amusing variation on the usual comedies of high school life and coming-of-age, which gets off to a flying start by putting the school in the sky.
w Paul Hernandez, Bob Schooley, Mark McCorkle d Mike Mitchell ph Shelly Johnson m Michael Giacchino pd Bruce Robert Hill ed Paul Amundson
☆ Michael Angarano (Will Stronghold), Kurt Russell (Steve Stronghold/The Commander), Kelly Preston (Josie Stronghold/Jetstream), Danielle Panabaker (Layla), Kevin Heffernan (Ron Wilson), Bruce Campbell (Coach Boomer), Cloris Leachman (Nurse Spex)
'Superb entertainment.' – Empire

Sky Pirates

Australia 1986 89m Colorfilm Panavision
John Lamond Motion Pictures (John Lamond, Michael Hirsh)

A pilot foils a crazed squadron leader attempting to obtain the three parts of an ancient stone that will provide him with unlimited power.
Silly and thrill-free adventure with an over-complicated narrative which amounts to no more than a feeble imitation of the Indiana Jones movies.
w John Lamond d Colin Eggleston ph Garry Wapshott m Brian May pd Kristian Fredrickson ed John Lamond, Michael Hirsh sp Dennis Nicholson
☆ John Hargreaves, Meredith Phillips, Max Phipps, Bill Hunter, Simon Chilvers, Alex Scott

'He'll try anything once ... even if it's impossible!'

Sky Riders ★

US 1976 91m DeLuxe Todd-AO 35
TCF (Terry Morse Jnr)

In Athens, the family of an American businessman is kidnapped by terrorists and rescued by hang-gliders led by a soldier of fortune.
Old-fashioned actioner with new-fashioned political concern.
w Jack de Witt, Stanley Mann, Garry Michael White, Hall T. Sprague, Bill McGaw d Douglas Hickox ph Ousama Rawi m Lalo Schifrin
☆ James Coburn, Susannah York, Robert Culp, Charles Aznavour, Werner Pochath, Kenneth Griffith, Harry Andrews

Sky West and Crooked

GB 1965 102m Eastmancolor
Rank/John Mills (Jack Hanbury) US title: Gypsy Girl

A mentally retarded girl falls in love with a gypsy.
Eccentric rural melodrama with echoes of Cold Comfort Farm and Les Jeux Interdits.
Interesting, but scarcely a runaway success.
w Mary Hayley Bell, John Prebble d John Mills ph Arthur Ibbetson m Malcolm Arnold ☆ Hayley Mills, Ian McShane, Laurence Naismith, Geoffrey Bayldon, Annette Crosbie, Norman Bird
'Behind the overwhelming feyness of it all lurk assumptions which in cold blood look almost sinister.' – MFB

Skyjacked ★

US 1972 101m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Walter Seltzer

A Boeing 707 on a flight from Los Angeles to Minneapolis is forced by a mad bomber to fly to Moscow.
Shamelessly hackneyed aeroplane adventure with quite enjoyable elements.
w Stanley R. Greenberg novel Hijacked by David Harper d John Guillermin ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Perry Botkin Jnr
☆ Charlton Heston, Yvette Mimieux, James Brolin, Claude Akins, Jeanne Crain, Rosey Grier, Walter Pidgeon, Leslie Uggams

Skylark

US 1941 94m bw
Paramount (Mark Sandrich)

A wife decides on her fifth anniversary that she is tired of being secondary to her husband's career, and needs a fling.
Formula matrimonial comedy; plenty of talent but no sparkle.
w Z. Myers play Samson Raphaelson d Mark Sandrich ph Charles Lang m Victor Young ☆ Claudette Colbert, Ray Milland, Brian Aherne, Binnie Barnes, Walter Abel, Grant Mitchell, Mona Barrie, Ernest Cossart

The Sky's the Limit

GB 1937 79m bw
Jack Buchanan

A sacked aircraft designer suddenly finds himself in demand.
Amiable star musical.
w Jack Buchanan, Douglas Furber d Lee Garmes and Jack Buchanan ☆ Jack Buchanan, Mara Loseff, William Kendall, David Hutcheson, H. F. Maltby, Athene Seyler, Sara Allgood

The Sky's the Limit ★

US 1943 89m bw
RKO (David Hempstead)

A flyer on leave meets and falls for a news photographer.
Thin musical with incidental compensations.
w Frank Fenton, Lynn Root d Edward H. Griffith ph Russell Metty m Leigh Harline md Leo F. Forbstein
☆ Fred Astaire, Joan Leslie, Robert Benchley, Robert Ryan, Elizabeth Patterson
† Joan Leslie's singing was dubbed by Sally Sweetland.
♫ Leigh Harline; song 'My Shining Hour' (m Harold Arlen, ly Johnny Mercer)

Skyscraper Souls

US 1932 100m bw
MGM

In an office building, several personal dilemmas interlock.
Portmanteau drama in the Grand Hotel mould, and quite comparable.
w C. G. Sullivan, Elmer Harris book Faith Baldwin d Edgar Selwyn ☆ Warren William, Maureen O'Sullivan, Verree Teasdale, Gregory Ratoff, Jean Hersholt, Norman Foster, Anita Page, George Barbier, Wallace Ford, Hedda Hopper
'The usual portentous jumble about nothing in particular.' – James Agate

Slab Boys ★

GB 1997 97m Technicolor
Channel 4/Skreba/Wanderlust (Simon Relph, Lauren Lowenthal)

In 50s Scotland, three working-class teenagers mixing paints in a carpet factory dream of a better life.
An interesting attempt to find an appropriate visual style for two plays that worked better on the stage; the power and passion are too often dissipated and the result has the quaintness of a period piece.
wd John Byrne plays The Slab Boys and Cuttin' a Rug by John Byrne ph Seamus McGarvey m Jack Bruce pd Luana Hanson ed John Macdonnell
☆ Robin Lang, Duncan Ross, Russell Barr, Bill Gardiner, Louise Berry, Anna Massey, Tom Watson, Moray Hunter, David O'Hara
'A whole lot of energy and visual design going nowhere special.' – Variety

Slacker ★★

US 1991 97m colour
Feature/Detour (Richard Linklater)

In Austin, Texas, young people wandering the streets confide to the camera their odd beliefs and attitudes, including the avoidance of careers.
Leisurely, lackadaisical feature of oddballs that exerts a certain bemused fascination.
wd Richard Linklater ph Lee Daniel m Buffalo Gals, Triangle Mallet Apron, The Texas Instruments ad Debbie Pastor ed Scott Rhodes ☆ Richard Linklater, Rudy Basquez, Jean Caffeine, Jan Hockey, Stephan Hockey, Mark James
'A film of quirky, unpredictable and oddly poetic charm.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound
'One of the freshest independent films to come along in some time, but because of its non-narrative, non-characterization approach, film won't be to all tastes.' – Variety

'Higher Education Just Hit A New Low.'

Slackers

US 2002 87m Technicolor
Momentum/Screen Gems/Alliance Atlantis (Neal H. Moritz, Erik Feig)

An unlovely youth blackmails three friends, who are cheating their way through exams, to get him a date with the school's most popular girl.
Crude, anything goes comedy with some moments to embarrass the audience, if not the cast; it is best to look away when Mamie Van

Doren is on-screen.
w David H. Steinberg d Dewey Nicks ph James Bagdonas m Joey Altruda, Venus Brown & Printz Board, Justin Stanley pd William Arnold ed Tara Timpone
☆ Devon Sawa (Dave), Jason Schwartzman (Ethan), James King (Angela), Jason Segel (Sam), Michael Maronna (Jeff), Mamie Van Doren (Mrs Van Graaf), Joe Flaherty (Mr Leonard), Leigh Taylor Young (Valerie Patton), Cameron Diaz (Movie Star)
'A dirty movie. Not a sexy, erotic, steamy or even smutty movie, but a just plain dirty movie. It made me feel unclean' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'The movie, which suffers from a severe case of attention deficit disorder, is so lazy and slipshod it confuses the mere flashing of kinky soft-core imagery with naughty fun.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
'I laughed until I was thoroughly ashamed of myself.' – Joe Leydon, San Francisco Examiner

Slade: see Jack Slade

Slam ★
US 1998 100m colour
Trimark/Off Line (Henri Kessler, Marc Levin, Richard Stratton)
Thrown into prison, a black poet uses his art to persuade others that violence solves nothing.
Earnest drama, in a semi-documentary style, on the power of rap to change macho attitudes.
w Richard Stratton, Marc Levin, Sonja Sohn, Saul Williams d Marc Levin ph Marc Benjamin ed Emir Luis ☆ Saul Williams, Sonja Sohn, Bonz Malone
'Emotionally powerful and technically innovative.' – Variety

Slam Dunk Ernest
US 1995 92m colour
Emshell (George Horie, Stacy Williams)
A dimwitted handyman becomes a basketball wizard when he puts on some magic shoes.
Dimwitted, heavy-handed slapstick comedy of little appeal.
w John R. Cherry III, Daniel Butler d John Cherry ph David Geddes m Mark Adler pd Chris August ed Craig Bassett, Chris Ellis
☆ Jim Varney, Cylk Cozart, Miguel A. Nunez Jnr, Lester Barrie, Colin Lawrence, Richard Leacock, Jay Brazeau, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar
† The film was released direct to video.

'An erotic thriller. It's not about dancing'

Slamdance
US 1987 99m colour
Zenith Productions/Island Pictures (Rupert Harvey, Barry Opper)
A newspaper cartoonist is framed for a murder by a corrupt cop.
Silly, convoluted mish-mash of a thriller.
w Don Opper d Wayne Wang ph Amie Mokri m Mitchell Froom pd Eugenio Zanetti ed Lee Percy ☆ Tom Hulce, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Virginia Madsen, Millie Perkins, Don Opper, Adam Ant, John Doe, Robert Beltran, Judith Barsi, Harry Dean Stanton

Slander
US 1956 81m bw
MGM (Armand Deutsch)
Revelations about a film star in a scandal magazine lead to blackmail and murder.
Unlikely melodrama, routinely assembled, based on the Confidential Magazine lawsuits.
w Jerome Weidman d Roy Rowland ph Harold J. Marzerati m Jeff Alexander ☆ Van Johnson, Ann Blyth, Steve Cochran, Marjorie Rambeau, Harold J. Stone

'No French People Were Harmed In The Making Of This Film.'

Slap Her, She's French
Germany/US 2001 92m
Winchester/Constantin/Bandeira/Film 2 (Beau Flynn, Jonathan King, Matthias Emcke)
At a small Texan high school, a power struggle erupts between the school's most popular girl and a French exchange student.
Lamentable teen comedy, bereft of laughs and clinging to national stereotypes in its vain hope to amuse.
w Lamar Damon, Robert Lee King d Melanie Mayron ph Charles Minsky m David Michael Frank pd Anne Stuhler, Roswell Hamrick ed Marshall Harvey cos Julia Caston
☆ Piper Perabo (Genevieve LePlouff), Jane McGregor (Starla Grady), Trent Ford (Ed Mitchell), Michael McKean (Monsieur Duke), Julie White (Bootsie Grady), Brandon Smith (Arnie Grady), Jesse James (Randolph Grady)
'Yet one more celebration of dumbness, turn-of-the-century-style, and rarely laugh-out-loud.' – Derek Elley, Variety
† The film's original director Evan Dunsky left after a week's shooting.

Slap Shot ★
US 1977 124m Technicolor
Universal/Robert J. Wunsch, Stephen Friedman
The wily player-coach of a fading ice hockey team finds ways, including dirty play, of keeping it going.
Violent, foul-mouthed comedy which works as it goes but leaves a bad taste in the mouth.
w Nancy Dowd d George Roy Hill ph Victor Kemper, Wallace Worsley md Elmer Bernstein
☆ Paul Newman, Michael Ontkean, Lindsay Crouse, Jennifer Warren, Strother Martin
'Fast, noisy, profane ... gets you laughing, all right, but you don't necessarily enjoy yourself.' – New Yorker
'Both indulgent and moralizing, the self-consciously racy script ends up looking merely opportunistic.' – Time Out

Slattery's Hurricane
US 1949 87m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)
Loves of a storm-spotting pilot with the US Weather Bureau in Florida.
Forgettable programmer with good storm sequences.
w Herman Wouk, Richard Murphy novel Herman Wouk d André de Toth ph Charles G. Clarke m Cyril Mockridge
☆ Richard Widmark, Linda Darnell, Veronica Lake, John Russell, Gary Merrill, Walter Kingsford

Slaughter
US 1972 90m DeLuxe Todd-AO 35
AIP/Slaughter United (Monroe Sachson)
A black Vietnam veteran hunts down the underworld syndicate which killed his mother and father.
Hectic crime yarn with a pitilessly violent hero and not enough style to relieve the unappetizing monotony.
w Mark Hanna, Don Williams d Jack Starrett ph Rosanio Solano m Luchi de Jesus
☆ Jim Brown, Rip Torn, Don Gordon, Cameron Mitchell
'The cast perform their trigger-happy tasks with all the passionate conviction of a team of well-oiled robots.' – Jan Dawson

Slaughter on Tenth Avenue
US 1957 103m bw
U-I (Albert Zugsmith)
The New York DA's office investigates union murders on the docks.
Uninteresting imitation of On the Waterfront.
w Lawrence Roman novel The Man Who Rocked the Boat by William J. Keating, Richard Carter d Arnold Laven ph Fred Jackman m Richard Rodgers
☆ Richard Egan, Jan Sterling, Dan Duryea, Julie Adams, Walter Matthau, Charles McGraw, Sam Levene, Mickey Shaughnessy, Harry Bellaver

Slaughter Trail
US 1951 78m Cinecolor
RKO (Irving Allen)
Three outlaws cause trouble between white man and Indian.
Rough-hewn Western strung together by verses of a ballad.
w Sid Kuller d Irving Allen ph Jack Greenhalgh ad George Van Marter ed Fred Allen ☆ Brian Donlevy, Gig Young, Virginia Grey, Andy Devine, Robert Hutton

Slaughterhouse Five ★
US 1972 104m Technicolor
Universal/Vanadas (Paul Monash)
A suburban optometrist has nightmare space/time fantasies involving Nazi POW camps and a strange futuristic planet.
Interesting but infuriating anti-war fantasy for intellectuals.
w Stephen Geller novel Kurt Vonnegut Jnr d George Roy Hill ph Miroslav Ondricek m J. S. Bach, performed by Glen Gould pd Henry Bumstead
☆ Michael Sacks, Ron Leibman, Eugène Roche, Sharon Gans, Valerie Perrine, Sorrell Booke, John Dehner
'A lot of good makings in this picture; but very little is made.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Slaughter's Big Rip-Off
US 1973 93m Movielab Todd-AO 35
AIP (Monroe Sachson)
Still on the run from gangsters who have killed his best friend, Slaughter violently disposes of a number of adversaries.
More routine black violence, a rampage of senseless brutality against sunny Los Angeles backgrounds.
w Charles Johnson d Gordon Douglas ph Charles Wheeler m James Brown, Fred Wesley ☆ Jim Brown, Ed MacMahon, Brock Peters, Don Stroud

Slave Girl
US 1947 79m Technicolor
U-I (Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano)
In the early 1800s, a diplomat is sent to Tripoli to ransom sailors held by the power-mad potentate.
Criticism would be superfluous; when the film was finished it was obviously so bad that executives ordered the addition of a talking camel and other Hellzapoppin*-type jokes in order to turn it into a comedy.*
w Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano d Charles Lamont ph George Robinson, W. Howard Greene m Milton Rosen
☆ George Brent, Yvonne de Carlo, Albert Dekker, Broderick Crawford, Lois Collier, Andy Devine, Carl Esmond, Arthur Treacher

Slave Girls
GB 1968 74m Technicolor Cinemascope
Hammer (Aida Young)
US title: Prehistoric Women
A hunter seeking white rhinoceros finds himself in a lost valley ruled by a tribe of women.
Feebly preposterous comic strip farrago without the saving grace of humour.
w Henry Younger (Michael Carreras) d Michael Carreras ph Michael Reed m Carlo Martelli ad Robert Jones ed Jim Needs, Roy Hyde ☆ Michael Latimer, Martine Beswick, Edina Ronay, Carol White

'The Highest Love ... The Lowest Men The Seven Seas Have Ever Known.'

Slave Ship ★★
US 1937 100m bw
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
An American slave captain decides to become respectable but finds a mutiny on his hands.
Well-made adventure movie in the old tradition, a model of studio production.
w Sam Hellman, Lamar Trotti, Gladys Lehman novel George S. King story William Faulkner d Tay Garnett ph Ernest Palmer m Alfred Newman
☆ Wallace Beery, Warner Baxter, Elizabeth Allen, Mickey Rooney, George Sanders, Jane Darwell, Joseph Schildkraut, Arthur Hohl, Minna Gombell, Billy Bevan, Francis Ford, Edwin Maxwell, J. Farrell MacDonald, Paul Hurst, Holmes Herbert
'Plenty of action and de luxe scenic trimmings ... good box office blood and thunder.' – Variety

Slave Women of Corinth: see Aphrodite, Goddess of Love

Slaves
US 1969 110m Eastmancolor
Slaves Company/Theatre Guild/Walter Reade (Philip Langner)
In 1850 Kentucky a slave stands up for his rights and plans escape.
Well-meaning but muddled and old-fashioned melodrama, hardly well enough done to raise comparison with Gone with the Wind.
wd Herbert J. Biberman ph Joseph Brun m Bobby Scott ☆ Stephen Boyd, Ossie Davis, Dionne Warwick, Shepperd Strudwick, Nancy Coleman, David Huddleston, Gale Sondergaard

Slaves of New York
US 1989 125m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Hendler-Merchant Ivory/Ismail Merchant, Gary Hendler
Trendy young artists and fashion designers in New York fall in and out of love.
Inconsequential movie that is unable to get to grips with its insubstantial characters.
w Tama Janowitz stories Tama Janowitz d James Ivory ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Richard Robbins pd David Gropman ed Katherine Wenning

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Bernadette Peters, Madeleine Potter, Adam Coleman Howard, Nick Corri, Charles McCaughan, Jonas Abry, Tama Janowitz

Slayground

GB 1983 89m Technicolor
EMI/Jennie and Co. (John Dark, Gower Frost)

A rich man hires an assassin to track down a criminal who accidentally killed his daughter.
One of those tedious and violent films in which the criminal wins out; slickness seems to make it worse.
w Trevor Preston novel Richard Stark d Terry Bedford ph Stephen Smith, Herb Wagreich m Colin Towns pd Keith Wilson
☆ Peter Coyote, Mel Smith, Billie Whitelaw, Philip Sayer, Bill Luhrs
'A disappointingly lame front runner for the new EMI stable.' – Philip Strick, MFB

Sleep My Love ★

US 1948 96m bw
UA/Mary Pickford (Charles 'Buddy' Rogers, Ralph Cohn)

A man plots to murder his wife, but is foiled.
Thin suspenser, rather splendidly photographed in the expressionist manner.
w St Clair McKelway, Leo Rosten novel Leo Rosten d Douglas Sirk ph Joseph Valentine m Rudy Schrager ☆ Claudette Colbert, Don Ameche, Robert Cummings, Rita Johnson, George Coulouris, Hazel Brooks, Keye Luke, Raymond Burr

'After all, what are friends for?'

Sleep with Me ★

US 1994 94m Foto-Kem
First Independent/August/Paribas/Revolution (Michael Steinberg, Roger Hedden, Eric Stoltz)

A couple who have been living together decide to get married; then the wife has a brief affair with their best friend.
An episodic film about self-obsessed young people in social settings, with each section written by a different hand; it offers little that is fresh, apart from Tarantino's monologue on the gay subtext of Top Gun, but there are moments of nice observation along the way.
w Duane Dell'Amico, Roger Hedden, Neal Jimenez, Joe Keenan, Rory Kelly, Michael Steinberg d Rory Kelly ph Andrzej Sekula m David Lawrence pd Randy Eriksen ed David Moritz
☆ Eric Stoltz, Meg Tilly, Craig Sheffer, Todd Field, Dean Cameron, Susan Traylor, Thomas Gibson, Adrienne Shelly, Quentin Tarantino
'A comedy so laid back that at times it faces atrophy.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

'A love story about two people who hate each other!'

Sleeper ★★

US 1973 88m DeLuxe
UA/Jack Rollins, Charles Joffe (Jack Grossberg)

A health food store owner is deep frozen after an operation and wakes two hundred years in the future.
Predictable star vehicle with an agreeable string of bright gags.
w Woody Allen, Marshall Brickman d Woody Allen ph David M. Walsh m Woody Allen pd Dale Hennesy ☆ Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, John Beck, Mary Gregory
'Verbal and visual gags rain down like hailstones.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

The Sleepers: see Little Nikita

'Four friends made a mistake that changed their lives forever.'

Sleepers ⑤

US 1996 147m Technicolor
Polygram/Warner/Propaganda/Baltimore (Barry Levinson, Steve Golin)

With the aid of a journalist and a lawyer, two petty gangsters get away with the murder of a sadistic guard who abused the four of them when they were teenagers in a reform home.
Allegedly based on a true incident, this nevertheless has the insubstantiality of pulp fiction, as just another example of the modern cycle of unexceptional, amoral vigilante thrillers.
wd Barry Levinson book Lorenzo Carcaterra ph Michael Ballhaus m John Williams pd Kristi Zea ed Stu Linder
☆ Kevin Bacon, Robert De Niro, Dustin Hoffman, Bruno Kirby, Jason Patric, Brad Pitt, Brad Renfro, Ron Eldard, Billy Crudup, Vittorio Gassman, Minnie Driver
'Stylish, lurid, yet insubstantial film.' – Sight and Sound
♗ John Williams

The Sleeping Beauty ★

US 1959 75m Technirama 70
Walt Disney (Ken Peterson)

A wicked queen casts a spell on a beautiful princess and puts her to sleep.
Rather stodgy, unwisely Cinemascoped feature cartoon of the old legend; very fashionable and detailed, but somehow lifeless.
d Clyde Geronimi md George Bruns pd Don da Gradi, Ken Anderson
☆ Featuring the voices of Mary Costa, Bill Shirley, Eleanor Audley, Verna Felton, Barbara Jo Allen, Barbara Luddy
'The drawings on the whole suggest a combination of New Yorker, comic horror strip and chocolate box – the special Disney chocolate box assortment with hard centres and soft centres.' – C. A. Lejeune
♗ George Bruns

Sleeping Car

GB 1933 82m bw
Gaumont (Michael Balcon)

A woman on the run pretends to marry a sleeping car attendant, then finds they really are married.
Artificial comedy with interesting cast from London stage.
w Franz Schultz d Anatole Litvak ph Günther Krampf, Glen MacWilliams ☆ Madeleine Carroll, Ivor Novello, Laddie Cliff, Kay Hammond, Claud Allister, Stanley Holloway
'A gay comedy, with a wealth of laughter.' – Sunday Pictorial
'An unhappy attempt at farce.' – Madeleine Carroll

The Sleeping Car Murders ★

France 1965 95m bw Cinemascope
PECF (Julien Derode)
original title: Compartiment Tueurs

When the overnight express from Marseilles reaches Paris, a girl is found dead in the sleeping car.
Rather long-winded whodunnit with an unlikely solution: a good pace helps, however, as do skilful borrowings from American police films of the forties.
wd Costa-Gavras novel Sebastien Japrisot ph Jean Tournier m Michel Magne ☆ Yves Montand, Simone Signoret, Pierre Mondy, Catherine Allégret, Jacques Périn, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Michel Piccoli

Sleeping Car to Trieste ★

GB 1948 95m bw
GFD/Two Cities (George H. Brown)

Spy melodrama, a slow-starting but generally entertaining remake of Rome Express (qv).
w Allan Mackinnon d John Paddy Carstairs ph Jack Hildyard m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Albert Lieven, Jean Kent, David Tomlinson, David Hutcheson, Rona Anderson, Paul Dupuis, Finlay Currie, Alan Wheatley, Derrick de Marney, Grégoire Aslan, Hugh Burden

The Sleeping Cardinal

GB 1931 84m bw
Twickenham (Julius Hagen)

Sherlock Holmes exposes a smuggling ring.
Slow-paced but interesting adaptation, vaguely based on The Empty House.
w Cyril Twyford, H. Fowler Mear stories Sir Arthur Conan Doyle d Leslie Hiscott ☆ Arthur Wontner, Ian Fleming, Norman McKinnel, Jane Welsh, Louis Goodrich

The Sleeping City ★★

US 1950 85m bw
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

A policeman disguises himself as a medical student to learn more about a murder in a general hospital.
A location melodrama of modest excellence.
w Jo Eisinger d George Sherman ph William Miller m Frank Skinner
☆ Richard Conte, Richard Taber, Coleen Gray, John Alexander, Peggy Dow, Alex Nicol

Sleeping Dogs ⑥

US 2006 88m
Tartan/Harebrained Pictures (Marty Pasetta Jr.)

US title: Stay

A young woman's relationships are destroyed when she reveals a sexual aberration in her past.
Neither as funny nor as daring as it seems to think, the film is essentially a single, shocking premise with nowhere to go.
wd Bobcat Goldthwait ph Ian S. Takahashi m Gerald Brunskill pd Melanie Mandl ed Jason Stewart
☆ Melinda Page Hamilton (Amy), Bryce Johnson (John), Geoff Pierson (Dad)
'(The film) far exceeds the limits of how far a one-joke comedy can be extended.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

The Sleeping Tiger

GB 1954 89m bw
Anglo-Amalgamated/Insignia (Victor Hanbury)

A psychiatrist overpowers a criminal and takes him home as a guinea pig; the criminal then falls in love with the psychiatrist's wife.
Turgid and unconvincing melodrama, a thoroughgoing bore.
w Derek Frye (Harold Buchman, Carl Foreman) novel Maurice Moiseiwitsch d Joseph Losey ph Harry Waxman m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Alexander Knox, Alexis Smith, Hugh Griffith, Maxine Audley, Glyn Houston, Billie Whitelaw
'There is a splendour about this film, which has one of the most absurdly extravagant plots on record, and never flinches from it.' – Gavin Lambert
† The script was written under a pseudonym because of the blacklist.

'She changed her name. Her looks. Her life. All to escape the most dangerous man she's ever met. Her husband.'

Sleeping with the Enemy

US 1990 99m DeLuxe
TCF (Leonard Goldberg)

In order to leave her violent husband, a wife fakes her own death and takes a new identity.
Uninvolving thriller that is never original enough to overcome its predictability.
w Ronald Bass novel Nancy Price d Joseph Ruben ph John W. Lindley m Jerry Goldsmith pd Doug Kraner ed George Bowers
☆ Julia Roberts, Patrick Bergin, Kevin Anderson, Elizabeth Lawrence, Kyle Secor, Claudette Nevins, Tony Abatemarco, Marita Geraghty, Harley Venton
'A glossy combination of secondhand showing-off-Julia scenes from Pretty Woman and secondhand scares from The Stepfather.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

'What if someone you never met, someone you never saw, someone you never knew was the only someone for you?'

Sleepless in Seattle ★

US 1993 105m Technicolor
TriStar (Gary Foster)

After his mother dies, an eight-year-old boy confides to a radio phone-in that he wants to find someone for his father to marry; the call is heard by an intrigued journalist, worried about her engagement to a dull man.
Enjoyable romantic comedy, although its overall tone is excessively sweet.
w Nora Ephron, David S. Ward, Jeff Arch d Nora Ephron ph Sven Nykvist m Marc Shaiman pd Jeffrey Townsend ed Robert Reitano
☆ Tom Hanks, Meg Ryan, Ross Malinger, Rita Wilson, Victor Garber, Tom Riis Farrell, Carey Lowell, Bill Pullman
'This shamelessly romantic comedy … delivers ample warmth and some explosively funny moments.' – Variety
♗ Nora Ephron, David S. Ward, Jeff Arch; song 'A Wink and a Smile' (m Marc Shaiman, ly Ramsey McLean)

Sleepwalkers

US 1992 89m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Columbia/ION (Mark Victor, Michael Grais, Nabeel Zahid)

A mother and son, shape-shifting monsters, move into a new community.
Ridiculous horror, lacking suspense, sense or the slightest ability to shock or scare.
w Stephen King d Mick Garris ph Rodney Charters m Nicholas Pike pd John DeCuir Jnr ed O. Nicholas Brown sp Apogee Productions
☆ Brian Krause, Mädchen Amick, Alice Krige, Jim Haynie, Cindy Pickett, Ron Perlman, Lyman Ward, Dan Martin, John Landis, Joe Dante, Stephen King, Clive Barker, Tobe Hooper
'Piffle.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent
'This technically proficient, surprisingly gory but utterly nonsensical movie is billed as the first screenplay written by horror novelist Stephen King expressly for the screen. Unfortunately, this hardly rates as a recommendation.' – Nigel Floyd, Sight and Sound

'Heads will roll.'

Sleepy Hollow ★

US 1999 105m DeLuxe
Paramount/Mandalay/American Zoetrope (Scott Rudin, Adam Schroeder)

An effete New York constable goes to a village to solve a series of beheadings by a mysterious figure.

This is yet another 'B' movie with pretensions, a big-budget Hammer-styled horror. It succeeds only on the level of design and atmosphere; the narrative creaks, and the performances tend to eccentricity for no good purpose.

w Andrew Kevin Walker, Kevin Yagher d Tim Burton ph Emmanuel Lubezki m Danny Elfman pd Rick Heinrichs ed Chris Lebenzon sp Industrial Light & Magic; Kevin Yagher cos Colleen Atwood

☆ Johnny Depp (Ichabod Crane), Christina Ricci (Katrina Van Tassel), Miranda Richardson (Lady Van Tassel/Crone), Michael Gambon (Baltus Van Tassel), Caspar Van Dien (Brom Van Brunt), Jeffrey Jones (Rev Steenwyck), Christopher Lee (Burgomaster), Richard Griffiths (Magistrate Philipse), Ian McDiarmid (Doctor Lancaster), Michael Gough (Notary Hardenbrook), Christopher Walken, Lisa Marie, Steven Waddington (Killian), Claire Skinner (Beth Killian), Alun Armstrong (High Constable)

'As beautifully crafted a film as anyone could ever hope to see.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A film with no theatrical core and no integrity in the writing, acting or storytelling. The jokes aren't funny. The tone is uncertain. It invokes nothing real or fantastic.' – Mick LaSalle, San Francisco Chronicle

Rick Heinrichs
Emmanuel Lubezki; Colleen Atwood
Rick Heinrichs, Colleen Atwood

The Slender Thread ★

US 1965 98m bw
Paramount/Athene (Stephen Alexander)

A volunteer social worker tries to prevent a woman from committing suicide while police track her down from their phone conversations.

Acceptable star melodrama, curiously artificially styled.

w Stirling Silliphant d Sydney Pollack ph Loyal Griggs m Quincy Jones

☆ Anne Bancroft, Sidney Poitier, Steven Hill, Telly Savalas

'Think of the crime ... then go one step further
If it was murder, where's the body? If it was for a woman, which woman? If it's only a game, why the blood?'

Sleuth ★★

GB 1972 139m colour
Palomar (Morton Gottlieb)

A successful thriller writer invents a murder plot which rebounds on himself.

Well-acted version of a highly successful piece of stage trickery; despite hard work all round it seems much less clever and arresting on the screen, and the tricks do show.

w Anthony Shaffer play Anthony Shaffer d Joseph L. Mankiewicz ph Oswald Morris m John Addison

☆ Laurence Olivier, Michael Caine
Joseph L. Mankiewicz; John Addison; Laurence Olivier; Michael Caine

Sliding Doors ★

GB/US 1998 108m Technicolor
Paramount/Miramax (Sydney Pollack, Philippa Braithwaite, William Horberg)

Two possible lives unfold for a public relations executive: in one, she misses the train that would have taken her home in time to discover her boyfriend in their bed with his former girlfriend; in the other, she catches the train.

A formally clever, occasionally charming romance; the problem is that instead of one not very interesting existence, we witness two.

wd Peter Howitt ph Remi Adfarasin m David Hirschfelder pd Maria Djurokovic ed John Smith

☆ Gwyneth Paltrow, John Hannah, John Lynch, Jeanne Tripplehorn, Zara Turner, Douglas McFerran, Paul Brightwell, Nina Young, Virginia McKenna

'Pulls off the rare fusion of a clever, almost philosophical conceit with a comedy-drama which packs a satisfying emotional punch.' – Demetrious Matheou, Premiere
'You're watching two things at the same time: a great idea for a film, and the actual film unfolding in front of you. Who knows? In another life, it could have been great' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

A Slight Case of Murder ★★★

US 1938 85m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)

When a beer baron tries to go legitimate his colleagues attempt to kill him, but end up shooting each other.

Amusing black farce, remade to less effect as Stop, You're Killing Me (qv).

w Earl Baldwin, Joseph Schrank play Damon Runyon, Howard Lindsay d Lloyd Bacon ph Sid Hickox m M. K. Jerome, Jack Scholl ad Max Parker ed James Gibbon

☆ Edward G. Robinson (Remy Marco), Jane Bryan (Mary Marco), Willard Parker (Dick Whitewood), Ruth Donnelly (Mora Marco), Allen Jenkins (Mike), John Litel (Post), Harold Huber (Giuseppe), Edward Brophy (Lefty), Bobby Jordan (Douglas Fairbanks Rosenbloom)

'Nothing funnier has been produced by Hollywood for a long time ... a mirthful and hilarious whimsy.' – Variety
'The complications crazily mount, sentiment never raises its ugly head, a long nose is made at violence and death.' – Graham Greene

Slightly French

US 1948 81m bw
Columbia (Irving Starr)

A film director in trouble passes off a Bowery-born carnival dancer as an exotic French star.

Rather tedious comedy which lively performances can't sustain.

w Karen de Wolf d Douglas Sirk m George Duning

☆ Dorothy Lamour, Don Ameche, Janis Carter, Jeanne Manet, Willard Parker

'Her heart belongs to daddy, and she calls everybody daddy!'

Slightly Honorable

US 1940 85m bw
UA/Walter Wanger (Tay Garnett)

Lawyer partners set out to break a crime syndicate.

Fair crime thriller which can't decide whether it's comedy or drama.

w John Hunter Lay, Robert Tallman, Ken Englund novel Send Another Coffin by F. G. Presnell d Tay Garnett ph Merritt Gerstad m Werner Janssen

☆ Pat O'Brien, Broderick Crawford, Edward Arnold, Eve Arden, Claire Dodd, Ruth Terry, Bernard Nedell, Alan Dinehart, Douglass Dumbrille, Ernest Truex

'The story skips along without deftness between serious drama and comedy, and winds up in the aggregate as a whatisit.' – Variety

Slightly Scarlet

US 1930 72m bw
Paramount

Two jewel thieves outwit a malicious mastermind.

Somewhat effete comedy-drama in a long bygone style.

w Howard Estabrook, Joseph L. Mankiewicz, Percy Heath d Louis Gasnier, Edwin H. Knopf

☆ Clive Brook, Evelyn Brent, Paul Lukas, Eugene Pallette, Helen Ware, Virginia Bruce, Henry Wadsworth, Claud Allister

'Fair general programme feature.' – Variety

Slightly Scarlet

US 1956 92m Technicolor Superscope (RKO)

The mayor's secretary loves the leader of a criminal gang.

Competent but uninteresting crime romance.

w Robert Blees novel James A. Cain d Allan Dwan ph John Alton m Louis Forbes

☆ Arlene Dahl, John Payne, Rhonda Fleming, Kent Taylor, Ted de Corsia

'So complicated that it is difficult to sort out which characters are supposed to be sympathetic.' – MFB

Slim

US 1937 85m bw
Warner

Electric linesmen argue about their work and their women.

A reworking of Tiger Shark which itself later became Manpower; competent action stuff.

w William Wister Haines d Ray Enright

☆ Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, Henry Fonda, Stuart Erwin, J. Farrell MacDonald, Jane Wyman

'A comedy drama which will do all right without setting off fireworks.' – Variety

Slim Carter

US 1957 82m Eastmancolor
Universal-International

A playboy is signed up by a Hollywood studio and required to change his image.

Curious sentimental comedy which might have worked with stronger casting.

w Montgomery Pittman d Richard H. Bartlett ph Ellis Carter m Herman Stein

☆ Jock Mahoney, Julie Adams, Tim Hovey, William Hopper, Ben Johnson, Barbara Hale

'A simple man. A difficult choice.'

Sling Blade ★★ (B)

US 1996 136m CFI color
Miramax/Shooting Gallery (Brandon Rosser, David L. Bushell)

A simple-minded man goes to live with a widow and her unhappy son in a small Southern town, after leaving the mental hospital where he was incarcerated for 25 years for murdering his mother and her lover.

Slow-paced tragedy, notable for some fine, detailed performances, and marred by its remorseless predictability.

wd Billy Bob Thornton ph Barry Markowitz m Daniel Lanois pd Clark Hunter ed Hughes Winborne

☆ Billy Bob Thornton, Dwight Yoakam, J. T. Walsh, John Ritter, Lucas Black, Natalie Canderday, Robert Duvall, Jim Jarmusch

† The film began as a short, Some Call It a Sling Blade, which was directed by George Hickenlooper.

Billy Bob Thornton (as writer)
Billy Bob Thornton (as actor)

'A Tale Of Exploration, Imagination, And Inspiration.'

The Slingshot ★★

Sweden 1993 101m colour
Columbia TriStar/AB/SVT Kanal/Nordisk/SFI (Waldemar Bergendahl)

original title Kadisbellan

A Jewish boy, the son of a crippled socialist, grows up in Stockholm in the 1920s, trying to make money by selling slingshots made from scrap metal and condoms, which his mother sells under the counter in her tobacconist shop, and taking revenge on his sadistic teacher.

A wry and charming story of childhood, family life and resilience, filmed with exuberance, capturing the past in loving detail.

wd Ake Sandgren novel Roland Schutt ph Goran Nilsson m Bjorn Isfalt pd Lasse Westfelt ed Grete Moldrup

☆ Jesper Salen, Stellan Skarsgard, Basia Frydman, Niclas Olund, Ernst-Hugo Jaregard, Reine Brynolifsson

'This is the sort of film that has little real dramatic flow or narrative drive, but relies instead on its slightly picaresque characters and a certain sad but not unfunny charm to carry it through.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

† It won the Swedish Academy award as best picture.

'You'll forget every love story you ever saw – or sang to!'

The Slipper and the Rose ★

GB 1976 146m Technicolor Panavision
Paradine Co-Productions (David Frost, Stuart Lyons)

The story of Cinderella.

The elements are charming, but the treatment is fussy yet uninventive and the film is immensely overlong and lacking in magic and wit. Alas, not the renaissance of the family film that was hoped for.

w Bryan Forbes, Robert and Richard Sherman d Bryan Forbes ph Tony Imi pd Ray Simm songs Robert and Richard Sherman

☆ Richard Chamberlain, Gemma Craven, Kenneth More, Michael Hordern, Edith Evans, Annette Crosbie, Margaret Lockwood, Christopher Gable, Julian Orchard, Lally Bowers, John Turner

'The tunes, I'm afraid, go in one ear and out the other; and, as Dr Johnson said of Paradise Lost, no man wished it a minute longer.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

music; song 'He Danced with Me'

Slipstream

GB 1989 102m Eastmancolor
Entertainment/Entertainment Film Productions (Gary Kurtz)

In a post-holocaust future, an android

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA learns human feelings while being hunted by a policeman and woman.

Futuristic chase movie, a little lacking in imagination.
w Tony Kayden story Bill Bauer d Steven M. Lisberger ph Frank Tidy m Elmer Bernstein pd Andrew McAlpine ed Terry Rawlings ☆ Mark Hamill, Bob Peck, Bill Paxton, Kitty Aldridge, Eleanor David, Ben Kingsley, F. Murray Abraham, Robbie Coltrane

Slither ★

US 1972 96m Metrocolor
MGM/Talent Associates/Jack Sher

An ex-con, some gangsters, and a few mobile homes are involved in a chase across California for some hidden loot.
Wackily with-it comedy-thriller ranging from violence to slapstick, the former always undercut into the latter. Pretty funny, once you get the idea.
w W. D. Richter d Howard Zieff ph Laszlo Kovacs m Tom McIntosh ☆ James Caan, Peter Boyle, Sally Kellerman, Louise Lasser

'What's gotten into you?'

Slither ★★

US 2006 95m
Entertainment/Universal/Gold Circle/Strike Entertainment (Paul Brooks, Eric Newman)

Inhabitants of American small-town are infected by worm-like parasites from outer space.
About as dryly witty as any alien-horror-zombie movie can possibly be. It revels in being repellent and slimy, but James Gunn's cheap, cheerful wit makes it an unexpected treat.
wd James Gunn ph Gregory Middleton m Tyler Bates pd Andrew Neskoromny ad Michael Norman Wong ed John Axelrad sp John Campfens, Adam de Bosch Kemper ☆ Nathan Fillion (Sheriff Pardy), Elizabeth Banks (Starla Grant), Gregg Henry (Jack MacReady), Tania Saulnier (Kylie Strutemeyer), Brenda James (Brenda Gutierrez), Don Thompson (Wally), Michael Rooker (Grant Grant)
'A gross, disgusting but undeniably amusing treat, laden with homages and in-jokes.' – Kevin Crust, Los Angeles Times

'You Like To Watch Don't You.'

Sliver

US 1993 108m DeLuxe
Paramount (Robert Evans)

A woman moves into an apartment block where the tenants are being murdered and discovers that its owner maintains a video surveillance of every room in the building.
A voyeuristic thriller, no doubt intended to be erotic but only succeeding in being dull.
w Joe Eszterhas novel Ira Levin d Phillip Noyce ph Vilmos Zsigmond m Howard Shire pd Paul Sylbert ed Richard Francis-Bruce, William Hoy
☆ Sharon Stone, William Baldwin, Tom Berenger, Polly Walker, Colleen Camp, Amanda Foreman, Martin Landau, C. C. H. Pounder
'All flash and no sizzle.' – Variety

Slow Dancing in the Big City

US 1978 110m Technicolor
UA/CIP (Michael Levee, John G. Avildsen)

A New York newspaper columnist is affected by a dying eight-year-old drug addict and an ailing girl ballet dancer.
Warner in the 30s might have got away with this corn, but in 1978, played against a realistic backdrop, it seems merely silly and indigestible, its title as pretentious as its use of four-letter words.
w Barra Grant d John G. Avildsen ph Ralf D. Bode m Bill Conti
☆ Paul Sorvino, Anne Ditchburn, Nicolas Coster, Anita Dangler
'The earnestness and shamelessness of the director are so awesome that if the picture fails as romance, it succeeds as camp.' – New Yorker

Slow Motion: see Sauve Qui Peut (La Vie)

'Take it from Vivian ... the biggest problem in the country isn't money or drugs. It's breasts.'

Slums of Beverly Hills

US 1998 90m DeLuxe
Fox Searchlight/South Fork (Michael Nozik, Stan Wlodkowski)

In the mid-70s, an adolescent girl observes her hard-up single father's attempts to maintain a family life in Beverly Hills.
Coarse, semi-autobiographical comedy that resembles a TV sitcom with ideas above its station.
wd Tamara Jenkins ph Tom Richmond m Rolfe Kent pd Dena Roth ed Pamela Martin ☆ Alan Arkin, Marisa Tomei, Natasha Lyonne, Kevin Corrigan, Eli Marienthal, David Krumholtz, Jessica Walter, Carl Reiner, Rita Moreno
'Everything is delivered with such a heavy hand that you want to grab the movie and its makers by the shoulders and give them all a good shake.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

Sma Ulykker: see Minor Mishaps

Smack and Thistle ★

GB 1990 90m Technicolor
Channel 4/Working Title (Sarah Cellan Jones, Alison Jackson)

A former convict, chased by police and gangsters after he gains possession of an MP's stolen briefcase containing details of shady deals, falls in love with an upper-class heroin addict.
A fast-paced thriller, with a little romance thrown in, acted and directed with verve.
wd Tunde Ikoli ph Peter Sinclair m Colin Towns pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed Angus Newton
☆ Charlie Cain, Rosalind Bennett, Patrick Malahide, Connie Booth, Rudolph Walker, John Elmes, James Saxon, Geoffrey Palmer, Trevor Laird, Thomas Craig

The Small Back Room ★★

GB 1949 106m bw
London Films/The Archers

US title: Hour of Glory

A bomb expert with a lame foot and a drink problem risks his life dismantling a booby bomb and returns to his long-suffering girlfriend.
Rather gloomy suspense thriller with ineffective personal aspects but well-made location sequences and a fascinating background of boffins at work in post-war London.
wd Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger novel Nigel Balchin ph Christopher Challis m Brian Easdale
☆ David Farrar, Kathleen Byron, Jack Hawkins, Leslie Banks, Robert Morley, Cyril Cusack
'The film as a whole can be recommended as unusually adult entertainment, notable for some admirable writing and acting.' – Campbell Dixon
'An exceptionally well-told story.' – Dilys Powell

Small Change ★

France 1976 105m Eastmancolor
Films du Carosse/Artistes Associés (Marcel Berbert, Roland Thenot)

original title: L'Argent de Poche

Linked incidents affecting a class of small boys in provincial France.
Competent if rather ordinary little portmanteau which one can't imagine adults actually paying to see.
w François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman d François Truffaut ph Pierre-William Glenn m Maurice Jaubert ☆ Geory Desmouceaux, Philippe Goldman, Claudio Deluca
'Aside from the arrant sentimentality of much of Truffaut's text, the picture is depressed by the self-imitation of his film-making: the opening iris-in, the wipes. His eye for color has never been worse.' – Stanley Kauffmann

A Small Circle of Friends

US 1980 112m Technicolor
United Artists

Adventures of Harvard men at the end of the sixties.
Comedy, sex, politics and melodrama are all ploughed into this tiresome and predictable mixture.
w Ezra Sacks d Rob Cohen ph Michael Butler m Jim Steinman
☆ Brad Davis, Karen Allen, Jameson Parker, Shelley Long, John Friedrich
'Sacks' recreation of his college days relies on a mistaken belief that an audience will love his characters as much as they love each other.' – John Pym, MFB

Small Cuts: see Petites Coupures

Small Faces ★★

GB 1995 108m colour
Guild/BBC/Glasgow Film Fund/Skyline (Billy MacKinnon, Steve Clark-Hall)

In the 60s, three Glaswegian brothers become involved in gang warfare.
An involving, toughly humorous drama of dawning maturity, high spirited and rooted in reality.
w Billy MacKinnon, Gillies MacKinnon d Gillies MacKinnon ph John de Borman m John Keane pd Zoe Macleod ed Scott Thomas ☆ Ian Robertson, Joseph McFadden, J. S. Duffy, Laura Fraser, Garry Sweeney, Clare Higgins, Kevin McKidd, Mark McConnochie
'Consummately crafted, surprisingly delicately acted by its young cast, it surely stands alongside Bill Douglas's trilogy and Bill Forsyth's Gregory's Girl as one of the great Scottish evocations of youth.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

Small Hotel

GB 1957 59m bw
Associated British/Welwyn (Robert Hall)

An elderly head waiter at the Jolly Fiddler resists the area manager's attempts to get rid of him.
Mild entertainment enlivened by some expert comedy performances from Harker, Handl and Loder.
w Wilfred Eades play Rex Frost d David MacDonald ph Norman Warwick md Louis Levy ad Terence Verity ed Seymour Logie
☆ Gordon Harker, Marie Lohr, John Loder, Irene Handl, Francis Matthews, Billie Whitelaw, Ruth Trouncer, Frederick Schiller, Derek Blomfield, Janet Munro

The Small Miracle: see Never Take No for an Answer

Small Soldiers ★

US 1998 110m Technicolor Panavision
UPI/DreamWorks/Universal/Amblin (Mike Finnell, Colin Wilson)

Prototypes of toy soldiers, equipped with a redundant military microprocessor, come to life and besiege a family.
A quirky satire on militarism and big business, overwhelmed by its own technological prowess in creating lifelike toys that caricature a liking for violence.
w Gavin Scott, Adam Rifkin, Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio d Joe Dante ph Jamie Anderson m Jerry Goldsmith pd William Sandell ed Marshall Harvey, Michael Thau
☆ Kirsten Dunst, Gregory Smith, Jay Mohr, Phil Hartman, Kevin Dunn, Denis Leary, David Cross, Ann Magnuson, Wendy Schaal, Alexandra Wilson, Dick Miller, Robert Picardo and also the voices of: Tommy Lee Jones, Frank Langella, Ernest Borgnine, Jim Brown, Bruce Dern, George Kennedy, Clint Walker, Christopher Guest, Sarah Michelle Gellar, Christina Ricci
'While pic's sense of a toy store turned upside down, courtesy of dazzling f/x, will draw young viewers, ultimately the film's mean-spiritedness and serious underpinnings will turn off its core audience.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Small Time

US 1991 88m bw
Panorama (Norman Loftis)

A petty criminal tries to survive among the crooks, hustlers and prostitutes of Harlem.
Gritty, downbeat drama of a doomed life, filmed in a documentary style.
wd Norman Loftis ph Michael C. Miller m Arnold Bieber pd Nancy Evangelista ed Marc Cohen
☆ Richard Barboza, Carolyn Kinebrew, Scott Ferguson, Keith Allen, Jane Williams

'They took a bite out of crime.'

Small Time Crooks ★

US 2000 94m Technicolor
DreamWorks/Sweetland (Jean Doumanian)

A former convict tries to rob a bank but strikes it rich in the cookie business.
Allen's return to the broader comedy of his first films is only partly successful; there's an unpleasant snobbery about the jokes aimed at the nouveau riche and those who patronise and exploit them.
wd Woody Allen ph Zhao Fei pd Santo Loquasto ed Alisa Lepselter ☆ Woody Allen (Ray Winkler), Tracey Ullman (Frenchy Winkler), Tony Darrow (Tommy), Hugh Grant (David), George Grizzard (George Blint), Jon Lovitz (Benny), Elaine May (May), Michael Rapaport (Denny), Elaine Stritch (Chi Chi Potter)
'It would be hard to imagine more of a non-event.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times
'Feels like the kind of halway decent film Allen can make without breaking sweat.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Small Town Girl ★

US 1936 90m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

A girl traps a handsome stranger into offering marriage when he's drunk, then sets out to win him when he's sober.

Thin but adequate romantic comedy, a good example of MGM's production line of the mid-thirties, with established star and character players helping upcoming talents.

w John Lee Mahin, Edith Fitzgerald novel Ben Ames Williams d William A. Wellman ph Oliver Marsh, Charles Rosher m Edward Ward

☆ Janet Gaynor, Robert Taylor, James Stewart, Binnie Barnes, Frank Craven, Elizabeth Patterson, Lewis Stone, Andy Devine, Isabel Jewell, Charley Grapewin, Robert Greig, Agnes Ayres

Small Town Girl ★

US 1952 93m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

Musical remake of the above.

Willing hands make the most of it, but the songs are not the best.

w Dorothy Cooper, Dorothy Kingsley d Leslie Kardos ph Joseph Ruttenberg md André Previn ch Busby Berkeley songs Leo Robin, Nicholas Brodszky

☆ Jane Powell, Farley Granger, Bobby Van, Ann Miller, Robert Keith, Billie Burke, S. Z. Sakall, Fay Wray, Nat King Cole

♫ song 'My Flaming Heart'

A Small Town in Texas

US 1976 96m colour
AIP

An ex-convict returns to his home town seeking revenge on those who framed him.

Unpleasant shock thriller with much violence.

w William Norton d Jack Starrett ph Robert Jessup m Charles Bernstein

☆ Susan George, Timothy Bottoms, Bo Hopkins, Art Hindle

The Small Voice ★

GB 1948 83m bw
British Lion/Constellation (Anthony Havelock-Allan)
US title: Hideout

Escaped convicts hold up a playwright and his wife in their country cottage.

Gripping, well-characterized version of a very well worn plot.

w Derek Neame, Julian Orde novel Robert Westerby d Fergus McDonell ph Stan Pavey

☆ James Donald, Valerie Hobson, Howard Keel, David Greene, Michael Balfour, Joan Young

The Small World of Sammy Lee

GB 1962 107m bw
Bryanston/Seven Arts/Ken Hughes (Frank Godwin)

A small-time Soho crook tries desperately to raise money to pay off threatening bookies.

Overlong 'realist' comedy-melodrama based on a TV play and filled with low-life 'characters'; vivid but cursed with a tedious hero.

wd Ken Hughes TV play Ken Hughes ph Wolfgang Suschitsky m Kenny Graham ad Seamus Flannery

☆ Anthony Newley, Julia Foster, Robert Stephens, Wilfrid Brambell, Warren Mitchell, Miriam Karlin, Kenneth J. Warren

The Smallest Show on Earth ★

GB 1957 81m bw
British Lion/Launder and Gilliat (Michael Relph)
US title: Big Time Operators

Two young marrieds inherit a decayed cinema and make it pay.

Amiable caricature comedy with plenty of obvious jokes and a sentimental attachment to old cinemas but absolutely no conviction, little plot, and a very muddled sense of the line between farce and reality.

w William Rose, John Eldridge d Basil Dearden ph Douglas Slocombe m William Alwyn

☆ Bill Travers, Virginia McKenna, Margaret Rutherford, Bernard Miles, Peter Sellers, Leslie Phillips, Francis de Wolff

Smalltime

GB 1996 60m colour
BFI/Big Arty (Shane Meadows)

Two petty crooks – 'we rob from the rich and sell it to the poor, half-price' – attempt to carry out a big robbery in a run-down suburb of a northern city.

A low-budget slice of low life, about a bunch of losers who use a supermarket trolley as their getaway vehicle; entertaining, and occasionally perceptive, in a desultory way.

wd Shane Meadows ph Helene Whitehall m Gavin Clarke ed David Wilson

☆ Mat Hand, Dena Smiles, Shane Meadows, Gena Kawecka, Jimmy Hynd, Leon Lammond, Tim Cunningham, Dominic Dillon

Smalltime Obsession ★

UK 2000 118m colour
Guerilla/Solo/Seventh Twelfth (Piotr Szopiak)

In a South London Polish community, a youth has to decide between taking over his father's shop or following his friends into a life of crime.

Interesting thriller, rooted in a particular community, but one that tries to pack in so much that it loses its focus.

wd Piotr Szkopiak ph Niels Reedtz Johansen m Martin Bell pd Vince Raj ed Piotr Szkopiak

☆ Alex King (Michael), Juliette Caton (Ali), Jason Merrells (Chris), Oliver Young (Steve), Richard Banks (John), Kirsten Parker (Jackie), Andrew Tiernan (Mr Page), Geoff Lawson (Geordie), Giles Ward (Pope), Jurek Jarosz (Mr Korczynski), Teresa Nowakowska (Mrs Korczynski)

'There's some interesting material here, but it's spread way too thin to hold attention on the big screen.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Smart Blonde ★

US 1936 57m bw
Warner

A female reporter beats the cops to the solution of a murder.

Slick second feature, first in the Torchy Blane series.

w Don Ryan, Kenneth Gamet, Frederick Nebel d Frank McDonald

☆ Glenda Farrell, Barton MacLane, Wini Shaw, Craig Reynolds, Addison Richards, Jane Wyman

'Fairly well paced with gunplay, an amount of smart talk, but no mountings to mention.' – Variety

Smart Girl

US 1935 78m bw
Paramount (Walter Wanger)

Girls left orphaned and penniless get their men – each other's.

Very mild comedy.

w Frances Hyland, Wilson Collison d Aubrey Scotto

☆ Ida Lupino, Kent Taylor, Gail Patrick, Joseph Cawthorn, Sidney Blackmer, Pinky Tomlin

Smart Girls Don't Talk

US 1948 81m bw
Warner

A society girl rats on her gangster boyfriend after her brother has been killed.

Flatly handled underworld melodrama, as uninteresting as its cast.

w William Sackheim d Richard Bare ph Ted McCord m David Buttolph ad Stanley Fleischer ed Clarence Kolster

☆ Virginia Mayo, Bruce Bennett, Robert Hutton, Richard Rober, Tom D'Andrea

'A fool in love! A sap for women!'

Smart Money

US 1931 67m bw
Warner

A gambler hits the big time but finally goes to jail.

Rather ordinary crime drama, a distinct letdown for its star after Little Caesar.

w Kubec Glasmon, John Bright story Lucien Hubbard, Joseph Jackson d Alfred E. Green ph Robert Kurrie

☆ Edward G. Robinson, James Cagney, Evalyn Knapp, Ralf Harolde, Noel Francis, Margaret Livingston, Boris Karloff, Billy House

'It will have no trouble upholding its title at the box office.' – Variety

† This film marks the only teaming of Robinson and Cagney.

♙ Lucien Hubbard, Joseph Jackson

Smart Woman

US 1948 93m bw
Monogram (Hal E. Chester)

A crafty lady lawyer becomes romantically involved with a crusading district attorney.

What to Monogram was a high-class production would have been a very routine programmer from anyone else.

w Alvah Bessie, Louis Morheim, Herbert Margolis d Edward A. Blatt ph Stanley Cortez m Louis Gruenberg md Constantin Bakaleinikoff

☆ Constance Bennett, Brian Aherne, Barry Sullivan, Michael O'Shea, James Gleason, Otto Kruger, Isobel Elsom, Taylor Holmes, John Litel

Smash and Grab

GB 1937 76m bw
GFD/Jack Buchanan
US title: Larceny Street

A detective's wife helps him track down a criminal mastermind.

Agreeable star comedy.

w Ralph Spence d Tim Whelan ph Roy Clark, Henry Harris

☆ Jack Buchanan, Elsie Randolph, Arthur Margetson, Antony Holles, Zoe Wynn, Edmund Willard, David Burns

Smash Palace ★

New Zealand 1981 108m colour
Aardvark Films

The owner of a car-wrecking business goes to pieces when his wife leaves him.

Downbeat character study of the kind of psychopath who doesn't arouse much sympathy; but the film is well mounted.

wd Roger Donaldson ph Graeme Cowley m Sharon O'Neill

☆ Bruno Lawrence, Anna Jemison, Keith Aberdein, Greer Robson

'May be the most melodramatic but also the most acutely motivated film yet about divorce.' – Richard Schickel, Time

Smash-up, The Story of a Woman

US 1947 113m bw
Universal-International (Walter Wanger)

GB title: A Woman Destroyed

The story of a lady alcoholic.

Tedious distaff side of The Lost Weekend.

w John Howard Lawson d Stuart Heisler ph Stanley Cortez m Daniele Amfitheatrof ad Alexander Golitzen ed Milton Carruth

☆ Susan Hayward, Lee Bowman, Eddie Albert, Marsha Hunt, Carl Esmond, Carleton Young, Charles D. Brown

♙ original story (Dorothy Parker, Frank Cavett); Susan Hayward

The Smashing Bird I Used to Know

GB 1969 95m colour
Titan (Peter Newbrook)
aka: School for Unclaimed Girls
aka: House of Unclaimed Women

A schoolgirl suffering from guilt over the death of her father is sent to a remand home after stabbing her mother's lecherous boyfriend.

Sensationalist treatment of a trite story.

w John Peacock d Robert Hartford-Davis ph Peter Newbrook m Bobby Richards ad Bruce Grimes ed Don Deacon

☆ Madeline Hinde, Renee Asherson, Dennis Waterman, Patrick Mower, Faith Brook, Janina Faye, David Lodge, Maureen Lipman, Derek Fowlds, Megs Jenkins

'Uncle Sam's Daring T-Men Will Pay Any Price - Even Their Lives.'

Smashing the Money Ring

US 1939 57m bw
First National/Warner (Bryan Foy)

The Secret Service investigates gambling ships.

Fast-moving serial-like action.

w Anthony Coldeway, Raymond Schrock d Terry Morse

☆ Ronald Reagan, Eddie Foy Jnr, Margot Stevenson, Charles D. Brown

Smashing the Rackets

US 1938 69m bw
RKO (B. P. Fineman)

An FBI agent turned special prosecutor cleans up the city.

Lively 'B' movie with a sensational, tabloid approach, though its campaign against slot machines dates it somewhat.

w Lionel Hauser story Forrest Davis d Lew Landers ph Nicholas Musuraca md Frank Tours pd Van Nest Polglase ed Harry Marker

☆ Chester Morris, Frances Mercer, Rita Johnson, Bruce Cabot, Edward Pawley, Joseph de Stefani, Kay Sutton, Ben Welden

Smashing Time

GB 1967 96m Eastmancolor
Paramount/Partisan/Carlo Ponti (Ray Millichip)

Two north country girls have farcical adventures in swinging London, including paint squirting and pie throwing.

Horrendous attempt to turn two unsuitable actresses into a female Laurel and Hardy; plenty of coarse vigour but no style or sympathy.

w George Melly d Desmond Davis ph Manny Wynn m John Addison

☆ Rita Tushingham, Lynn Redgrave, Ian Carmichael, Anna Quayle, Michael York, Irene Handl, Jeremy Lloyd Smile ★★★

US 1975 113m DeLuxe
UA (Michael Ritchie)

A bird's eye view of the Young Miss America pageant in a small California town.
A witty series of sketches in the form of a drama-documentary or satirical mosaic. Highly polished fun for those who can stay the course.
w Jerry Belson d Michael Ritchie ph Conrad Hall m various ed Richard A. Harris
☆ Bruce Dern ("Big Bob" Freelander), Barbara Feldon (Brenda DiCarlo), Michael Kidd (Tommy French), Geoffrey Lewis (Wilson Shears), Nicholas Pryor (Andy DiCarlo)

'A beady, precise, technically skilful movie.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

'A comedy about the inconceivable.'

A Smile Like Yours

US 1997 98m DeLuxe
Paramount/Rysher (David Kirkpatrick, Tony Amatullo)

Without discussing it with her husband, a wife tries hard to have a baby.
Somnolent attempt at a romantic comedy, in which it is difficult to feel much sympathy for either of the leading characters.
w Kevin Meyer, Keith Samples d Keith Samples ph Richard Bowen m William Ross pd Garreth Stover ed Wayne Wahrman
☆ Greg Kinnear, Lauren Holly, Joan Cusack, Jay Thomas, Jill Hennessy, Christopher McDonald, Donald Moffat, France Nuyen, Marianne Muellerleile

'Flat and formulaic, this painfully charmless romantic comedy is destined to disappear quickly after its halfhearted theatrical release.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

† Shirley MacLaine appears uncredited.

Smiles of a Summer Night ★★★★

Sweden 1955 105m bw
Svensk Filmindustri

original title: Sommarnattens Leende

A country lawyer meets again a touring actress who was once his mistress, and accepts an invitation for him and his young wife to stay at her mother's country home for a weekend.
Comedy of high period manners with an admirable detached viewpoint and elegant trappings. It later formed the basis of Stephen Sondheim's A Little Night Music, a stage musical which was later filmed.
wd Ingmar Bergman ph Gunnar Fischer m Erik Nordgren ad P.A. Lundgren ed Oscar Rosander ☆ Gunnar Bjornstrand (Fredrik Egerman), Eva Dahlbeck (Desirée Armfeldt), Ulla Jacobsson (Anne Egerman), Harriet Andersson (Petra), Margit Carlqvist (Charlotte Malcolm), Naima Wifstrand (Madame Armfeldt), Jarl Kulle (Count Carl-Magnus Malcolm)

Smiley ★

GB 1956 97m Technicolor Cinemascope
TCF/London Films (Anthony Kimmins)

An adventurous Australian boy has various adventures and finally gets the bicycle he wants.
An open-air 'William'-type story for children, quite nicely made and generally refreshing.
Smiley Gets a Gun was a less effective sequel.
w Moore Raymond, Anthony Kimmins novel Moore Raymond d Anthony Kimmins ph Ted Scaife, Russ Wood m William Alwyn
☆ Colin Petersen, Ralph Richardson, Chips Rafferty, John McCallum

Smiley Gets a Gun

Australia 1958 90m Technicolor Cinemascope
Canberra Films

Smiley is promised a rifle if he can keep out of trouble.
Unexceptional sequel.
w Anthony Kimmins, Rex Rienits d Anthony Kimmins ph Ted Scaife m Wilbur Sampson ☆ Keith Calvert, Bruce Archer, Sybil Thorndike, Chips Rafferty

Smilin' Through ★

US 1932 97m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)

Three generations of complications follow when a Victorian lady is accidentally killed by a jealous lover on her wedding day.
Archetypal sentimental romantic drama, wholly absorbing to the mass audience and extremely well done; originally a 1922 Norma Talmadge vehicle.
w Ernest Vajda, Claudine West, Donald Ogden Stewart, J. B. Fagan play Jane Cowl, Jane Murfin d Sidney Franklin ph Lee Garmes m William Axt ☆ Norma Shearer, Leslie Howard, Fredric March, O. P. Heggie, Ralph Forbes, Beryl Mercer

'A big women's picture of tear-drawing power, done with satisfying sincerity by a cast which spells money.' – Variety
'A sensitive and beautiful production distinguished by excellent settings and rich photography.' – New York Mirror

best picture

Smilin' Through ★

US 1941 100m Technicolor
MGM (Victor Saville)

Flat but adequate remake of the above.
w Donald Ogden Stewart, John Balderston d Frank Borzage ph Leonard Smith m Herbert Stothart
☆ Jeanette MacDonald, Gene Raymond, Brian Aherne, Ian Hunter, Frances Robinson, Patrick O'Moore

Smiling Along: see Keep Smiling

The Smiling Ghost

US 1941 71m bw
Warner

A girl reporter solves a haunted house mystery.
Moderate comedy chiller with plenty going on.
w Kenneth Gamet d Lewis Seiler ph Arthur Todd ☆ Alexis Smith, Wayne Morris, Brenda Marshall, Alan Hale, Willie Best, David Bruce, Helen Westley, Richard Ainley

'His intimate and roguish romance will break your heart – with love and laughter!'

The Smiling Lieutenant ★★

US 1931 88m bw
Paramount (Ernst Lubitsch)

A Viennese guards officer leaves his mistress to become consort to a visiting princess.
A sophisticated soufflé in Lubitsch's best style, naughty but quite nice, with visual effects largely replacing dialogue.
w Ernest Vajda, Samson Raphaelson operetta A Waltz Dream d Ernst Lubitsch ph George Folsey m Oscar Straus md Adolph Deutsch
☆ Maurice Chevalier, Miriam Hopkins, Claudette Colbert, Charles Ruggles, George Barbier, Elizabeth Patterson

'Will delight smart audiences and figures to be liked well enough by the average fan. A good but not a smash picture.' – Variety
'All the shrewd delights that were promised in The Love Parade all realized with an economy and sureness that give it a luster which no other American-made comedy satire has achieved. One must look to Le Million to find its peer.' – Richard Watts, New York Post

best picture

'Snow covers everything ... except the truth.'

Smilla's Feeling for Snow ★ (2)

Germany/Denmark/Sweden 1997 121m colour Panavision
TCF/Constantin/Greenland/Bavaria (Bernd Eichinger, Martin Moszkowicz)

aka: Smilla's Sense of Snow

In Copenhagen, a woman investigates the apparently accidental death of her neighbour's young son.
A stilted thriller based on a bestselling book; it never quite settles down to deliver on its promise.
w Ann Biderman novel Miss Smilla's Feeling for Snow by Peter Hoeg d Bille August ph Jörgen Persson m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Anna Asp ed Janus Billeskov-Jansen
☆ Julia Ormond, Gabriel Byrne, Richard Harris, Vanessa Redgrave, Robert Loggia, Jim Broadbent, Mario Adorf, Bob Peck, Tom Wilkinson, Emma Croft, Peter Capaldi

'An exceedingly sleek and handsome thriller.' – Variety

Smithereens ★

US 1982 90m colour
Susan Seidelman

Obsessed with becoming manager of a punk rock band, a young girl in New York drifts through a series of unsatisfactory encounters.
Unblinking account of empty lives, well done but ultimately depressing.
w Susan Seidelman, Ron Nyswaner, Peter Askin d Susan Seidelman ph Chirine El Khadem m Glenn Mercer, Bill Million pd Franz Harland ed Susan Seidelman
☆ Susan Berman, Brad Rinn, Richard Hell, Roger Jet

Smoke ★

US 1995 112m DuArt
Miramax/Nippon (Greg Johnson, Peter Newman, Hisami Kuriowa, Kenzo Hurikoshi)

The interlinked lives of customers who frequent a Brooklyn cigar store.
Pleasantly anecdotal and articulate account of lives shifted and altered by chance and coincidence, the way lives are.
w Paul Auster d Wayne Wang ph Adam Holender m Rachel Portman pd Kalina Ivanov ed Maisie Hoy
☆ William Hurt, Harvey Keitel, Forest Whitaker, Harold Perrineau Jnr, Victor Argo, Erica Gimpel, Clarice Taylor, Malik Yoba, Mary Ward, Jared Harris

'Plenty of smoke but not a great deal of fire.' – Variety

† As filming finished, another film in the same style, Blue in the Face (qv), was quickly made, also featuring Keitel as the cigar store owner.

Smoke Jumpers: see Red Skies of Montana

Smoke Signal

US 1955 88m Technicolor
U-I (Howard Christie)

A small band of cavalry, together with their prisoner, an officer accused of treason and murder, attempt to escape maurauding Indians by travelling down a dangerous, uncharted river.
A Western that abandons dry land for boats, but still manages to tell a familiar story of redemption and romance.
w George F. Slavin, George W. George d Jerry Hopper ph Clifford Stine md Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, Richard H. Riedel ed Milton Carruth
☆ Dana Andrews, Piper Laurie, Rex Reason, Milburn Stone, William Talman, Douglas Spencer, Gordon Jones, William Schallert

Smokey and the Bandit ★

US 1977 97m Technicolor
Universal/Rastar (Robert L. Levy)

A Georgia bootlegger on a mission picks up a girl in distress and is chased by her irate sheriff fiancé.
Frantic chase comedy full of car crashes and low lines: a surprise box-office smash.
w James Lee Barrett, Charles Shyer, Alan Mandel d Hal Needham ph Bobby Byrne m Bill Justis, Jerry Reed, Art Feller ☆ Burt Reynolds, Jackie Gleason, Sally Field, Jerry Reed, Mike Henry, Pat McCormick, Paul Williams

Smokey and the Bandit II

US 1980 101m Technicolor
Universal/Rastar/Mort Engelberg

GB title: Smokey and the Bandit Ride Again

A trucker is hired to take a pregnant elephant to the Republican convention.
More mindless chasing and crashing, with even less wit than before and rather more wholesale destruction.
w Jerry Belson, Brock Yates d Hal Needham ph Michael Butler md Snuff Garrett ☆ Burt Reynolds, Jackie Gleason, Sally Field, Jerry Reed, Dom DeLuise, Paul Williams

Smokey and the Bandit III

US 1983 88m Technicolor
Mort Engelberg/Universal

Sheriff Justice mistakes an innocent driver for his old enemy.
A rather random car chase movie, obviously the last of a short line.
w Stuart Birnbaum, David Dashev d Dick Lowry ph James Pergola m Larry Cansler ad Ron Hobbs ed Byron Brandt, David Blewitt, Christopher Greenbury
☆ Jackie Gleason, Jerry Reed, Mike Henry, Pat McCormick, Burt Reynolds (cameo)

'A patchwork of arbitrary mayhem.' – Variety

Smokey and the Bandit Ride Again: see Smokey

Smokey and the Goodtime Outlaws

US 1978 88m CFI color
Howco (Tommy Amato)

Two dim-brained country singers go to Nashville in search of fame.

A stupefying mix of car chases, bar-room brawls and country-and-western music, put together with little evidence of sense or style.

w Frank Dobbs, Bob Walsh story Jesse Turner d Alex Grasshoff m Mauro Bruno ed Geoffrey Rowland

☆ Jesse Turner, Dennis Fimple, Slim Pickens, Diane Sherill, Marcie Barkin, Hope Summers, Don Sherman

'Nobody gets away clean.'
'May the best hitman win.'

Smokin' Aces ③

France/UK/US 2007 108m
Universal/Working Title/StudioCanal/Relativity Media/Scion Films (Tim Bevan, Eric Fellner)

Hired killers descend on Lake Tahoe to despatch a stage magician about to testify against the mob.

Stylised, alienating crime yarn with a fashionably amoral attitude towards sadism and violence.

wd Joe Carnahan ph Mauro Fiore m Clint Mansell pd Martin Whist ad Maria Baker ed Robert Frazen

☆ Ben Affleck (Jack Dupree), Andy Garcia (Stanley Locke), Alicia Keys (Georgia Sykes), Ray Liotta (Donald Carruthers), Jeremy Piven (Buddy 'Aces' Israel), Ryan Reynolds (Richard Messner)

'A smirkingly violent ensemble action-comedy that leaves a very strange taste in the mouth.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

Smoking/No Smoking ★★

France 1993 146m colour
Mainline/Arena/Camera One/France 2 (Bruno Persey, Michel Seydoux)

Happenings to do with love and death in a Yorkshire village, the outcome of which is dependent upon whether or not the wife of the local headmaster decides to give up smoking.

An unusual and engaging cinematic experience, based on a sequence of eight plays which each had two possible endings. Here the two films, which can be watched in any order, provide 12 varying conclusions, dependent upon earlier actions, but each ending in a graveyard. Yorkshire has never looked quite as it does in this French studio re-creation, but the film does provide for some virtuoso acting from its two stars, who play 17 parts between them.

w Jean-Pierre Bacri, Agnes Jaoui play Intimate Exchanges by Alan Ayckbourn d Alain Resnais ph Renato Berta m John Pattison pd Jacques Saulnier ed Albert Jurgenson

☆ Sabine Azéma, Pierre Arediti

'Just about perfect within the boundaries it sets itself.' – Variety

Smoky

US 1946 87m Technicolor
TCF (Robert Bassler)

An especially independent horse virtually runs the ranch on which he lives.

Family saga of the great outdoors, well enough assembled.

w Dwight Cummins, Lillie Hayward, Dorothy Yost novel Will James d Louis King ph Charles Clarke m David Raksin md Emil Newman

☆ Fred MacMurray, Anne Baxter, Burl Ives, Bruce Cabot, Esther Dale

† The story was also made by Fox in 1933 with Victor Jory, and in 1966 with Fess Parker.

Smooth Talk

US 1985 92m colour
Nepenthe/American Playhouse/Goldcrest (Martin Rosen)

A mixed-up 15-year-old girl has a dangerous encounter with a mildly psychopathic male.

Unattractive scenario about thoroughly dislikeable people.

w Tom Cole story Joyce Carol Oates d Joyce Chopra ph James Glennon m Bill Payne, Russ Kunkel, George Massenburg md James Taylor pd David Wasco ed Patrick Dodd

☆ Treat Williams, Laura Dern, Mary Kay Place, Levon Helm

The Smugglers: see The Man Within

Smultronstället: see Wild Strawberries

SNAFU

US 1945 85m bw
Columbia
GB title: Welcome Home

Middle-class parents rescue their difficult 15-year-old son from the army, then wish they hadn't.

Predictable, well-greased comedy of a rebellious teenager.

w Louis Solomon, Harold Buchman play Louis Solomon, Harold Buchman d Jack Moss ph Franz Planer m Paul Sawtell

☆ Robert Benchley, Vera Vague, Conrad Janis, Nanetta Parks

† The title can be bowdlerized as 'Situation Normal, All Fouled Up'.

'A Shocking Movie From The World's Most Sensational Director!'

Snake Eyes

US 1993 104m DeLuxe
Rank/Cecchi Gori/Maverick (Mary Kane)

aka: Dangerous Game

A film director making a movie about a marriage on the rocks, with an abusive husband who berates and beats his wife for abandoning their sex- and drug-filled life, discovers that reality begins to mirror the fiction.

A confused film that swiftly disappears up its own pretensions; it has the air of a semi-improvised piece, but the relentless soul-searchings of the characters, and their identification with the roles they play, seem hardly worthwhile when the film they are making is even worse than the 'reality' the audience is watching; self-indulgent is a polite way of describing the result.

w Nicholas St John d Abel Ferrara ph Ken Kelsch m Joe Delia pd Alex Tavoularis ed Anthony Redman

☆ Harvey Keitel, Madonna, James Russo, Nancy Ferrara, Reilly Murphy

'As long as you go with it, it seduces you into playing along with its circuit of sex, drugs, anger, confusion, fear and deception. If you let go, it becomes easy to ask why you should bother watching these brittle, self-engrossed people whose unmitigated self-disgust is not simply depressing but irritating.' – Amanda Lipman, Sight and Sound

'Another abrasive, confrontational downer likely to appeal only to a marginal audience.' – Variety

'Believe everything except your eyes.'

Snake Eyes ★

US 1998 99m DeLuxe Panavision
Buena Vista/DeBart (Brian de Palma)

A corrupt cop investigates the shooting of a senior politician at a championship boxing match.

An implausible thriller on the theme of surveillance, with broad acting and some impressive directorial flourishes that keep the adrenalin flowing.

w David Koepp d Brian de Palma ph Stephen H. Burum m Ryuichi Sakamoto pd Anne Pritchard ed Bill Pankow sp Industrial Light & Magic

☆ Nicolas Cage, Gary Sinise, John Heard, Carla Gugino, Stan Shaw, Kevin Dunn, Michael Rispoli, Joel Fabiani, Luis Guzman, David Anthony Higgins

'Wispy threads of dramatic plausibility and character involvement unravel completely by the time of the incredibly silly final reel.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Snake Fist Fighter: see Master with Cracked Fingers

A Snake of June ★

Japan 2002 77m bw
Metro Tartan/Kaijyu Theater (Shinya Tsukamoto)

original title: Rokugatsu No Hebi

As rain falls in Tokyo, a psychiatric counsellor finds liberation when she is blackmailed by a former patient into performing provocative sexual acts in public.

Extraordinarily intense psychodrama that is intriguing and repellent and, after the halfway point, increasingly hermetic; only the director knows what it all means, but it is a film not easily forgotten.

wd Shinya Tsukamoto ph Shinya Tsukamoto m Chu Ishikawa ad Shinya Tsukamoto ed Shinya Tsukamoto

☆ Asuka Kurosawa (Rinko), Yuji Koutari (Shigehiko), Shinya Tsukamoto (Igushi)

'For sheer pulverising weirdness, though, it's hard to top, and reconfirms Tsukamoto as some sort of eccentric, extreme cinema pioneer.' – Mark Kermode, Observer

The Snake Pit ★★

US 1948 108m bw
TCF (Anatole Litvak, Robert Bassler)

A girl becomes mentally deranged and has horrifying experiences in an institution.

A headline-hitting film which made a stirring plea for more sympathetic treatment of mental illness. Very well made, and arrestingly acted, but somehow nobody's favourite movie.

w Frank Partos, Millen Brand novel Mary Jane Ward d Anatole Litvak ph Leo Tover m Alfred Newman

☆ Olivia de Havilland, Leo Genn, Mark Stevens, Celeste Holm, Glenn Langan, Leif Erickson, Beulah Bondi, Lee Patrick, Natalie Schafer

'A film of superficial veracity that requires a bigger man than Litvak; a good film with bad things.' – Herman G. Weinberg

† The British censor insisted on a foreword explaining that everyone in the film was an actor and that conditions in British mental hospitals were unlike those depicted.

best picture; script; Anatole Litvak; Alfred Newman; Olivia de Havilland

'Sit back. Relax. Enjoy the fright.'

Snakes on a Plane ★ ⑦

US/Germany 2006 105m
Entertainment/New Line Cinema/Mutual Film Company/Meridan Zweite (Gary Levinsohn, Don Granger, Craig Berenson)

A consignment of poisonous snakes causes havoc on a commercial airliner.

A film that began as a joke ends up having the last laugh: a trashy slice of knowing exploitation with the good sense to acknowledge the banality of its concept.

w John Heffernan, Sebastian Gutierrez d David R. Ellis ph Adam Greenberg m Trevor Rabin pd Jaymes Hinkle ad John Alvarez ed Howard E. Smith

☆ Samuel L. Jackson (Neville Flynn), Julianna Margulies (Claire Miller), Nathan Phillips (Sean Jones), Bobby Cannavale (Hank Harris), Flex Alexander (Three G's), Todd Louiso (Dr. Steven Price)

NEVILLE FLYNN: 'Enough is enough! I have had it with these motherfking snakes on this motherfking plane!'

'An entertaining B-movie gleefully stuffed with bad tough-guy dialogue, obvious stock characters, cheap titillation and lots and lots of snake attacks.' – Tim Grierson, Screen International

'Of its kind, the movie's surprisingly good.' – Philip French, Observer

†† The producers took advantage of pre-release internet interest, inviting suggestions for scenes and dialogue before bringing the cast back for re-shoots. Contrary to expectations, however, the film underperformed at the US box-office, grossing only half of what had been predicted in its opening weekend.

†† Samuel L. Jackson accepted his role without reading the script on the basis of the title alone. When New Line Cinema changed it to Pacific Air Flight 121, he threatened to pull out unless they changed it back.

Snares: see Pièges

Snatch ★

GB/US 2000 103m DeLuxe
Columbia/Ska (Matthew Vaughn)

Groups of London crooks try to retrieve a valuable diamond stolen by an American thief from an Antwerp jeweler.

Chaotic and hectic thriller involving American, Russian and English low-life, Irish gypsies and dodgy boxing promoters; the narrative moves quickly without getting out of the morass, while Brad Pitt goes over the top in a parody of his Fight Club role.

wd Guy Ritchie ph Tim Maurice-Jones m John Murphy pd Hugo Luczyc-Wyhowski ed John Harris, Les Healey

☆ Benicio Del Toro (Franky Four Fingers), Dennis Farina (Avi), Vinnie Jones (Bullet Tooth Tony), Brad Pitt (Mickey O'Neil), Rade Sherbedgia (Boris the Blade), Jason Statham (Turkish), Alan Ford (Brick Top), Mike Reid (Doug the Head), Robbie Gee (Vinny), Lennie James (Sol), Ewen Bremner (Mullet), Jason Flemyng (Darren), Stephen Graham (Tommy)

'One of the very best films of the year.' – Film Review

'We could tell you what it's about. But then, of course, we would have to kill you.'

Sneakers ★★

US 1992 125m DeLuxe
UIP/Universal (Walter F. Parkes, Lawrence Lasker)

A group of oddball experts is hired to recover from a criminal mastermind an electronic device that can penetrate the government's most secure computer systems.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Enjoyable caper that pleasantly passes a couple of hours.
w Phil Alden Robinson, Lawrence Lasker, Walter F. Parkes d Phil Alden Robinson ph John Lindley m James Horner pd Patrizia von Brandenstein ed Tom Rolf
☆ Robert Redford, Dan Aykroyd, Ben Kingsley, Mary McDonnell, River Phoenix, Sidney Poitier, David Strathairn, James Earl Jones, Stephen Tobolowsky
'The mainstream pleasures it affords should appeal to just about all audience segments, save perhaps ultra-sophisticates and low-brow teens.' – Variety
'This isn't really a serious film. It's over-stretched and under-characterised, but watchable for all that if you don't find the techno aspects too depressing.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Sniper ★★

US 1952 87m bw
Columbia/Stanley Kramer (Edna and Edward Anhalt)
A psychopath kills a succession of blondes with a high-powered rifle.
Semi-documentary police drama which was quite startling and influential when released but seems quite routine now.
w Harry Brown d Edward Dmytryk ph Burnett Guffey m George Antheil ☆ Adolphe Menjou, Arthur Franz, Gerald Mohr, Richard Kiley, Frank Faylen, Marie Windsor
🎖 original story (Edna and Edward Anhalt)

Sniper ★

US 1993 98m colour
Columbia TriStar/Baltimore (Robert L. Rosen)
An experienced Marine sniper is joined by a novice on a dangerous assignment in Panama.
Familiar ingredients are expertly mixed to create a tense action picture.
w Michael Frost Beckner, Crash Leyland d Luis Llosa ph Bill Butler m Gary Chang pd Herbert Pinter ed Scott Smith
☆ Tom Berenger, Billy Zane, J. T. Walsh, Aden Young, Ken Radley, Reinaldo Arenas, Carlos Alvarez, Roy Edmonds
'An expertly directed, yet ultimately unsatisfying psychological thriller.' – Variety

Snitch

US 1998 93m colour
Filmline/Phoenician/Clinica Estetico/Tribeca/Spanky/Apostle (Joel Stillerman, Ted Demme, Jim Serpico, Nicolas Clermont, Elie Samaha)
aka: Noose
In Boston, a group of petty crooks discover that there is no honour among thieves.
Gritty drama of dead-end lives, well enough acted but inconsequential.
w Mike Armstrong d Ted Demme ph Adam Kimmel pd Ruth Ammon ed Jeffrey Wolf
☆ Denis Leary, Jason Barry, Billy Crudup, John Diehl, Greg Dulli, Noah Emmerich, Ian Hart, Famke Janssen, Colm Meaney, Martin Sheen, Jean Tripplehorn

The Snorkel

GB 1958 90m bw
Columbia/Hammer (Michael Carreras)
A man murders his wife and is given away by his observant young stepdaughter.
Tenuous suspenser which outstays its welcome.
w Peter Myers, Jimmy Sangster, Anthony Dawson d Guy Green ph Jack Asher ad John Stoll ed James Needs, Bill Lenney
☆ Peter Van Eyck, Betta St John, Mandy Miller, William Franklyn, Grégoire Aslan

'Sometimes stopping is the most important part of the journey...'

Snow Cake ★★ 6

UK/Canada/Netherlands 2006 111m
Momentum Pictures/Revolution Films/Rhombus Media (Gina Carter, Jessica Daniel, Andrew Eaton, Niv Fichman)
A middle-aged British man on a Canadian road trip on finds it hard to leave an autistic woman after informing her of her daughter's death.
A delicate chamber piece with a stand-out performance from Weaver that recalls Dustin Hoffman's in Rain Man.
w Angela Pell d Marc Evans ph Steve Cosens m Broken Social Scene pd Matthew Davies ad Peter Emmink ed Marguerite Arnold
☆ Alan Rickman (Alex Hughes), Sigourney Weaver (Linda Freeman), Carrie-Anne Moss (Maggie), Emily Hampshire (Vivienne Freeman), Callum Keith Rennie (John Neil), James Allodi (Clyde)
'The film's main flaw is that Angela Pell's script, though sometimes pleasantly acidic, often lays on the quirkiness with a trowel.' – Jonathan Romney, Screen International

'Roads closed. Schools shut. Rules were made to be frozen!'

Snow Day

US 2000 89m DeLuxe
Paramount/Nickelodeon (Albie Hecht, Julia Pistor)
A failing weather forecaster and his dysfunctional family have their problems solved during an unexpected fall of snow.
Amiable, unexceptional comedy of family troubles and 'teen love.
w Will McRobb, Chris Viscardi d Chris Koch ph Robbie Greenberg m Steve Bartek pd Leslie McDonald ed David Finfer
☆ Chris Elliott (Snowplowman), Mark Webber (Hal Brandston), Jean Smart (Laura Brandston), Schuyler Fisk (Lane Leonard), Iggy Pop (Mr Zellweger), Pam Grier (Tina), Chevy Chase (Tom Brandston), John Schneider (Chad Symmonz), Zena Grey (Natalie Brandston), Claire Bonner (Emmanuelle Chriqui)
'A family film that's about as fluffy as fresh powder...mixes a cast of familiar faces with bright new talent in an unremarkable, innocuous package.' – Lael Loewenstein, Variety

'Get ready for mush hour!'

Snow Dogs

US 2002 99m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Walt Disney/Galapagos (Jordan Kerner)
Discovering that he was adopted, a dentist goes to Alaska to discover more about his roots.
Lighweight, slapstick comedy of the sort that Disney made in the '60s and then wisely abandoned.
w Jim Kouf, Tommy Swerdlow, Michael Goldberg, Mark Gibson, Philip Halprin suggsted by Winterdance: The Fine Madness of Running the Iditarod by Gary Paulsen
d Brian Levant ph Thomas Ackerman m John Debney pd Stephen Lineweaver ed Roger Bondelli ☆ Cuba Gooding Jnr (Ted Brooks), James Coburn (Thunder Jack), Sisqo (Dr Rupert Brooks), Nichelle Nichols (Amelia Brooks), M. Emmet Walsh (George), Graham Greene (Peter Yellowbear), Brian Doyle-Murray (Ernie), Joanna Bacalso (Barb), Jean-Michel Pare (Olivier), Michael Bolton (Himself)
'Remarkably inept...The pratfalls are so uninventive that they inspire more pity than hilarity.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Snow Falling On Cedars ★

US 1999 126m Alpha Cine Lab Panavision
Universal/Harry J. Ufland/Ron Bass (Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall, Harry J. Ufland, Ron Bass)
In the 1940s, soon after the end of the Second World War, a reporter living in an island community intervenes in the trial of a Japanese-American for the murder of a local fisherman.
A slow-moving drama of smalltown racial prejudice that lingers on landscapes as much as on the individuals caught up in a courtroom drama of a familiar kind.
w Ron Bass, Scott Hicks novel David Guterson d Scott Hicks ph Robert Richardson m James Newton Howard pd Jeannine Oppewall ed Hank Corwin ☆ Ethan Hawke (Ishmael Chambers), James Cromwell (Judge Fielding), Richard Jenkins (Sheriff Art Moran), James Rebhorn (Alvin Hooks), Sam Shepard (Arthur Chambers), Eric Thal (Carl Heine Jnr), Max von Sydow (Nels Gudmundsson), Youki Kudoh (Hatsue Miyamoto), Rick Yune (Kazuo Miyamoto)
'The cinematic equivalent of an arty coffee-table book. It is so busy illustrating the story (with elaborate flashbacks and montage sequences) that it forgets to be dramatic.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times
† The film cost around $45m and took $13m at the US box office.
🎖 Robert Richardson

Snow Job: see The Ski Raiders

Snow Treasure

US 1968 95m Eastmancolor
Sagittarius (Irving Jacoby)
In Nazi-occupied Norway a teenage boy finds gold hidden in the snow; an underground agent helps him get it to safety.
Curiously undernourished but attractively made adventure film.
w Irving Jacoby, Peter Hansen novel Marie McSwigan d Irving Jacoby ph Sverre Bergli m Egil Monn-Iversen
☆ James Franciscus, Paul Anstad, Paoul Oyen, Randi Borch

Snow White: A Tale of Terror

GB/US 1996 100m colour
Polygram/Interscope (Tom Engelman)
A young girl takes refuge with seven gold miners when her wicked stepmother, jealous of her beauty, tries to kill her.
An interesting attempt to take the familiar story of Snow White back to its Gothic and grotesque roots; unfortunately, it is not successful, just something to frighten the children.
w Tom Szollosi, Deborah Serra story The Brothers Grimm d Michael Cohn ph Mike Southon m John Ottman pd Gemma Jackson ed Ian Crafford ☆ Sigourney Weaver, Sam Neill, Gil Bellows, Taryn Davis, David Conrad, Brian Glover, Monica Keena, Anthony Brophy, Frances Cuka
'Cloaked thickly with an oppressive, unsettling atmosphere, the film succeeds by drawing deep, fearful uncertainty from its ambiguity.' – Darren Bignall, Empire

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs ★★★

US 1937 82m Technicolor
Walt Disney
Disney's first feature cartoon was a mammoth enterprise which no one in the business thought would work. The romantic leads were wishy-washy but the splendid songs and the marvellous comic and villainous characters turned the film into a worldwide box-office bombshell which is almost as fresh today as when it was made.
w Ted Sears, Otto Englander, Earl Hurd, Dorothy Ann Blank, Richard Creedon, Dick Richard, Merrill de Maris, Webb Smith, from the fairy tale by the brothers Grimm m Frank Churchill, Leigh Harline, Paul Smith ad Hugh Hennesy, Hazel Sewell, Gustaf Tenggren, Kendall O'Connor, Tom Codrick, Ken Anderson, Terrell Stapp, Charles Philippi, McLaren Stewart, Harold Miles supervising d David Hand
songs Larry Morey, Frank Churchill
☆ Featuring the voices of Adriana Caselotti, Harry Stockwell, Lucille La Verne, Billy Gilbert
'The first full-length animated feature, the turning point in Disney's career, a milestone in film history, and a great film.' – Leonard Maltin
'Sustained fantasy, the animated cartoon grown up.' – Otis Ferguson
'The sort of film that happens once in a generation. It is as necessary a part of our film upbringing as The Birth of a Nation or The Jazz Singer. Crude, tentative, and born of compromise it may be, but it is still history in the making.' – C. A. Lejeune † Adriana Caselotti (1916–97) was the voice of Snow White, chosen after 150 teenagers, including Deanna Durbin, had auditioned for the role. Snow White's appearance was based on dancer Marjorie Belcher, who was later better known as Marge Champion.
♫ 'Bluddle-Uddle-Um-Dum'; 'Heigh Ho'; 'I'm Wishing'; 'One Song'; 'Some Day My Prince Will Come'; 'Whistle While You Work'; 'With a Smile and a Song'
🎖 Special Award to Walt Disney for 'a significant screen innovation'. He was given one Oscar and seven miniature statuettes.
🎖 Frank Churchill, Leigh Harline, Paul Smith

Snow White and the Three Clowns: see Snow White and the Three Stooges

Snow White and the Three Stooges ★

US 1961 107m DeLuxe Cinemascope
(TCF) Chanford (Charles Wick)
GB title: Snow White and the Three Clowns
The old story retold as a vehicle for a champion skater and three veteran clowns.
Surprisingly tolerable as a holiday attraction, once you get over the shock.
w Noel Langley, Elwood Ullman d Walter Lang ph Leon Shamroy m Lyn Murray ad Jack Martin Smith, Maurice Ransford

☆ Carol Heiss, Moe Howard, Larry Fine, Joe de Rita, Edson Stroll, Patricia Medina, Guy Rolfe, Buddy Baer, Edgar Barrier

Snow/Woman

Japan 2000 60m bw/colour
Kokuei

original title: Furin Tsuma Jouen

As his house in enveloped in snow, a man waits for the return of his married lover.

Glum, murkily-shot and mercifully short movie of delusion and desire.

wd Meike Mitsuru ph Konishi Yasumasa
☆ Kawase Yota, Ito Kiyomi, Shimomoto Shiro, Honda Kikuo

Snowball Express

US 1972 99m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)

An insurance accountant inherits a dilapidated skiing hotel in the Colorado Rockies.

Uninspired family comedy with slapstick on the snow slopes.

w Don Tait, Jim Parker, Arnold Margolin novel Château Bon Vivant by Frankie and John O'Rear d Norman Tokar ph Frank Phillips m Robert F. Brunner
☆ Dean Jones, Nancy Olson, Henry Morgan, Keenan Wynn, Mary Wickes, Johnny Whittaker

'As wholesome and bland as that old American favourite the peanut butter and jelly sandwich.' – MFB

Snowbound

GB 1948 87m bw
GFD/Gainsborough

Various people congregate at a ski hut in the Swiss Alps; all are after buried Nazi loot.

A rather foolish story which provides little in the way of action but at least assembles a fine crop of character actors.

w David Evans, Keith Campbell novel The Lonely Skier by Hammond Innes d David MacDonald ph Stephen Dade ad George Provis, Maurice Carter ed Charles Knott ☆ Robert Newton, Dennis Price, Herbert Lom, Stanley Holloway, Marcel Dalio, Mila Parely, Guy Middleton

'Out of one masterpiece, another has been created!'

The Snows of Kilimanjaro ★★

US 1952 117m Technicolor
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

A hunter lies wounded in Africa and while waiting for help looks back over his life and loves.

Hollywood version of a portable Hemingway, with reminiscences of several novels stirred into a lush and sprawling mix of action and romance, open spaces and smart salons. A big popular star film of its time, despite constricted and unconvincing characters.

w Casey Robinson story Ernest Hemingway d Henry King ph Leon Shamroy m Bernard Herrmann ad Lyle Wheeler, John DeCuir
☆ Gregory Peck, Susan Hayward, Ava Gardner, Hildegard Neff, Leo G. Carroll, Torin Thatcher, Marcel Dalio

'A naïve kind of success story with a conventional boy-meets-lots-of-girls plot.' – Karel Reisz

'The succinct and vivid qualities associated with Hemingway are rarely evoked, and what has been substituted is for the most part meandering, pretentious and more or less maudlin romance.' – Newsweek

Leon Shamroy; art direction

Snuff Movie

UK/Romania/USA 2005 93m
Lionsgate/Capitol Films/Enos Rose (Lisa Enos, Donald Kushner, Brad Wyman, Peter Locke)

A legendary horror icon recreates the violent death of his beloved wife for a career comeback.

A cheaply made, messy parody paying slipshod homage to the genre.

wd Bernard Rose ph Bernard Rose m Nigel Holland, Jake Leopold, Matt Schultz ad Tine Mette Bloch Jesperson ed David Gamble sp Proteus Makeup Effects ☆ Jeroen Krabbe (Boris Arkadin), Lisa Enos (Wendy Jones), Hugo Myatt (Leon Bank), Joe Reegan (Jack), Teri Harrison (Pamela)

'Ideas far outstrip execution, an amateur slice of modern-day grand guignol.' – Derek Elley, Variety

So Big ★

US 1932 80m bw
Warner (Lucien Hubbard)

A schoolteacher marries a farmer, has trouble with her son, falls in love with a sculptor.

Watchable, superficial, top-talented adaptation of a best-seller, first filmed in 1925 with Colleen Moore.

w J. Grubb Alexander, Robert Lord novel Edna Ferber d William Wellman ph Sid Hickox m W. Franke Harling
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, George Brent, Dickie Moore, Guy Kibbee, Bette Davis, Hardie Albright

'Too long getting started, and only has moments towards the end ... somewhat of a bore for the major part of its footage.' – Variety

So Big

US 1953 101m bw
Warner (Henry Blanke)

By the time this inflated remake came along, the story was just too corny despite careful production.

w John Twist d Robert Wise ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Max Steiner
☆ Jane Wyman, Sterling Hayden, Richard Beymer, Nancy Olson, Steve Forrest, Elisabeth Fraser, Martha Hyer

So Bright the Flame: see The Girl in White

'Action gets a sexy new twist!'
'Looks can be deceiving.'

So Close ★ (7)

Hong Kong 2002 110m colour
Columbia/Eastern Film (Chui Po-chu)

original title: Chik Yeung Tin Sai

Two sisters, who are assassins for hire, and a policewoman find themselves pitted against a double-crossing businessman.

Enjoyably silly action movie in a sleek, comicbook style, with spectacular, high energy gun- and sword-fights, acrobatically choreographed; it is the sort of film where the heroine's hair waves attractively in the breeze even when she's indoors.

w Jeff Lau d Cory Yuen ph Venus Keung m Sam Kao, Kenji Tan pd Eddy Wong ed Cheung Ka-fai
☆ Shu Qi (Lynn), Zhao Wei (Sue), Karen Mok (Kong Yat-hong), Song Seung-heon (Yan), Michael Wei (Ma Siu Ma), Yasuaki Kurata, Derek Wan

'A martial arts valentine to the power of fighting women.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

'A delirious example of grrrl power, Hong Kong style.' – David Anson, Newsweek

† The Region 1 and 2 DVD releases offer the choice of English subtitles or versions dubbed in other languages, including Cantonese and English.

So Close to Life ★★

Sweden 1958 84m bw
Nordisk Tonefilm original title: Nära Livit
aka: Brink of Life

In a maternity ward of a Stockholm hospital, three women reach a turning point in their lives.

A bleak and austere drama of life and death and the randomness of existence, given vigour and intensity by the acting of the women at its centre.

w Ingmar Bergman, Ulla Isaksson story Det vängila, värdiga by Ulla Isaksson d Ingmar Bergman ph Max Wilén ad Bibi Lindström ed Carl-Olov Skeppstedt
☆ Eva Dahlbeck, Ingrid Thulin, Bibi Andersson, Barbro Hiort af Ornäs, Erland Josephson, Max von Sydow, Gunnar Sjöberg
† Ingmar Bergman won the award as best director, and Eva Dahlbeck, Ingrid Thulin, Bibi Andersson and Barbro Hiort af Ornas were collectively awarded the best actress prize at the 1958 Cannes Film Festival.

So Dark the Night ★

US 1946 71m bw
Columbia

A detective tracks down a murderer whom he finds to be himself.

Smart second feature with a likeable leading performance.

w Aubrey Wisberg, Martin Berkeley, Dwight Babcock d Joseph H. Lewis ph Burnett Guffey m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Steven Geray, Ann Codee, Micheline Cheirel

So Dear to My Heart ★

US 1948 84m Technicolor
Walt Disney

Life on a country farm in 1903

Live action nostalgia with a few cartoon segments; well enough done, but mainly appealing to well brought up children.

w John Tucker Battle novel Midnight and Jeremiah by Sterling North d Harold Schuster ph Winton C. Hoch m Paul Smith ☆ Burl Ives, Beulah Bondi, Harry Carey, Luana Patten, Bobby Driscoll song 'Lavender Blue' (m Eliot Daniel, ly Larry Morey)

So Ends Our Night ★

US 1941 120m bw
UA (David L. Loew, Albert Lewin)

Refugees from Nazi Germany are driven from country to country and meet persecution everywhere.

Worthy but rather drab and unfocused melodrama from the headlines.

w Talbot Jennings novel Flotsam by Erich Maria Remarque d John Cromwell ph William Daniels m Louis Gruenberg ☆ Fredric March, Margaret Sullavan, Glenn Ford, Frances Dee, Anna Sten, Erich von Stroheim, Joseph Cawthorn, Leonid Kinskey, Alexander Granach, Sig Rumann

'It ought to be a great picture but it isn't.' – Archer Winsten, New York Post

Louis Gruenberg

So Evil My Love ★

GB 1948 100m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis)

A missionary's widow is enticed into a life of crime and immorality by a scoundrelly artist.

Curious Victorian melodrama with a Wildean flavour; doesn't quite come off.

w Leonard Spigelgass, Ronald Millar novel Joseph Shearing d Lewis Allen ph Max Greene m Victor Young, William Alwyn
☆ Ray Milland, Ann Todd, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Leo G. Carroll, Raymond Huntley, Martita Hunt, Moira Lister, Raymond Lovell, Muriel Aked, Finlay Currie, Hugh Griffith

'There's only one thing that can keep them apart – the seven-foot thing she's married to!'

So Fine

US 1981 91m Technicolor
Warner/Lobell – Bergman (Mike Lobell)

A professor of literature trying to save his father from gangsters becomes involved in strange adventures.

Weirdly titled action comedy which tries to be far too clever for its own good.

wd Andrew Bergman ph James A. Contner m Ennio Morricone
☆ Ryan O'Neal, Jack Warden, Mariangela Melato, Richard Kiel, Fred Gwynne, Mike Kellin

'A visual insult, crudely lighted and framed, and jumping out at you.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

So Goes My Love

US 1946 88m bw
U-I (Jack H. Skirball, Bruce Manning)
GB title: A Genius in the Family

The domestic life of inventor Hiram Maxim.

Formula period family film with pleasant moments.

w Bruce Manning, James Clifden d Frank Ryan ph Joseph Valentine m Hans Salter ad Lionel Banks ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Myrna Loy, Don Ameche, Rhys Williams, Bobby Driscoll, Richard Gaines

'For Harriet, the honeymoon was her best yet. For Charles, it was a pain in the neck.'

So I Married an Axe Murderer

US 1993 92m Technicolor
TriStar/Fried/Woods Films

A poet suspects that his newly married wife, a butcher, is a serial killer of husbands.

Slight and slightly amusing comedy, parodying Hitchcock with some sophistication and moderate success.

w Robbie Fox d Thomas Schlamme ph Julio Macat m Bruce Broughton pd John Graysmark ed Richard Halsey, Colleen Halsey
☆ Mike Myers, Nancy Travis, Anthony LaPaglia, Amanda Plummer, Brenda Fricker, Matt Doherty, Charles Grodin, Phil Hartman

'A hip slice of life about the dilemma of marital commitment with just a pinch of Hitchcock providing a cutting edge. Fueled by an anarchic style and a winning cast, it looks like an appealing commercial prospect.' – Variety

'An inconsequential, light-hearted black comedy populated by San Francisco eccentrics.' – Philip French, Observer

So Little Time

GB 1952 88m bw
ABP/Mayflower (Aubrey Baring, Maxwell Setton)

In occupied Belgium an aristocratic lady falls in love with a Nazi colonel.
Doomed love story with musical accompaniment; tolerable but slow.
w John Cresswell d Compton Bennett ph Oswald Morris m Robert Gill ☆ Marius Goring, Maria Schell, Gabrielle Dorziat, Barbara Mullen

So Long at the Fair ★
GB 1950 86m bw
Rank/Gainsborough/Sydney Box (Betty E. Box)
During the 1889 Paris Exposition a girl books into a hotel with her brother, and next day finds that he has totally disappeared and his existence is denied by all concerned.
Straightforward version of an old yarn which has turned up in such varied forms as The Lady Vanishes and Bunny Lake is Missing.
This modest production is pleasant enough but badly lacks drive.
w Hugh Mills, Anthony Thorne d Terence Fisher, Anthony Darnborough ph Reginald Wyer m Benjamin Frankel ad Cedric Dawe
☆ Jean Simmons, Dirk Bogarde, David Tomlinson, Marcel Poncin, Cathleen Nesbitt, Honor Blackman, Betty Warren, Felix Aylmer, André Morell

'A foxhole was her honeymoon hotel!'
'The first great story of our women at the fighting front!'

So Proudly We Hail ★
US 1943 125m bw
Paramount (Mark Sandrich)
The self-sacrifice of war nurses in the Pacific.
Fairly harrowing and well-meant but studio-bound and unconvincing flagwaver.
w Allan Scott d Mark Sandrich
ph Charles Lang m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Claudette Colbert, Paulette Goddard, Veronica Lake, George Reeves, Barbara Britton, Walter Abel, Sonny Tufts, John Litel
'Probably the most deadly accurate picture ever made of what war looks like through the lenses of a housewives' magazine romance.' – James Agee
'The stars are devotedly, almost gallantly, deglamorized and dishevelled but they cannot escape the smell of studio varnish.' – Richard Winnington
Allan Scott; Charles Lang; Paulette Goddard

'The flower of southern chivalry dewed with the shining glory of a woman's tears!'

So Red the Rose ★
US 1935 82m bw
Paramount (Douglas MacLean)
The life of a Southern family during the Civil War.
Quiet, pleasing historical romance.
w Laurence Stallings, Maxwell Anderson, Edwin Justus Mayer novel Stark Young d King Vidor ph Victor Milner m W. Franke Harling
☆ Margaret Sullavan, Randolph Scott, Walter Connolly, Elizabeth Patterson, Janet Beecher, Robert Cummings
'Certain to go better in the Dixie belt than north, but okay on average.' – Variety

So This is Africa
US 1933 70m bw
Columbia
Two unemployed lion tamers are hired to take their animals to Africa to make an adventure movie.
Bizarre comedy by a popular team of the time that consists of a string of vaudeville sketches strung together on a non-existent narrative, featuring predatory females, a gorilla and a great deal of cross-dressing.
w Norman Krasna d Edward F. Cline ph Leonard Smith m/ly Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby md Bakaleinikoff ed Maurice Wright
☆ Robert Woolsey (Alexander), Bert Wheeler (Wilbur), Esther Muir (Mrs Johnson-Martini), Raquel Torres (Amazon)
'It outrages every common standard of decency.' – National Board of Review

So This Is London
GB 1939 89m bw
TCF
An American magnate visits his English rival, and romance springs up between their children.
Brightish comedy with a fair scattering of funny lines.
w William Conselman, Ben Travers, Tom Phipps, Douglas Furber d Thornton Freeland ph Otto Kanturek
☆ Robertson Hare, Alfred Drayton, George Sanders, Berton Churchill, Fay Compton, Carla Lehmann, Stewart Granger, Ethel Revnell, Gracie West

So This Is Love
US 1953 101m Technicolor
Warner (Henry Blanke)
GB title: The Grace Moore Story
Events leading up to Grace Moore's debut at the Metropolitan Opera in 1928.
Acceptable musical biopic full of the usual Hollywood contrivances.
w John Monks Jnr autobiography Grace Moore d Gordon Douglas ph Robert Burks md Ray Heindorf, Max Steiner ch Le Roy Prinz ad Edward Carrere
☆ Kathryn Grayson, Merv Griffin, Joan Weldon, Walter Abel, Rosemary de Camp, Jeff Donnell, Douglas Dick, Mabel Albertson, Fortunio Bonanova

So This Is New York ★
US 1948 78m bw
Enterprise/Stanley Kramer
In 1919 some country cousins who have come into money have a big time in the gay city.
Curious, sporadically effective, silent-style comedy which doesn't quite come off.
w Carl Foreman, Herbert Baker novel The Big Town by Ring Lardner d Richard Fleischer ph Jack Russell m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ Henry Morgan, Rudy Vallee, Hugh Herbert, Bill Goodwin, Virginia Grey, Dona Drake, Leo Gorcey

So This Is Paris
US 1954 96m Technicolor
U-I (Albert J. Cohen)
Three American sailors on leave in Paris meet girls and help war orphans.
Very thin imitation of On the Town, bogged down by sentimentality and lack of sparkle. The musical numbers, however, are not bad.
w Charles Hoffman d Richard Quine ph Maury Gertsman md Joseph Gershenson ch Gene Nelson, Lee Scott
☆ Tony Curtis, Gloria de Haven, Gene Nelson, Corinne Calvet, Paul Gilbert, Mara Corday, Allison Hayes

So Well Remembered ★
GB 1947 114m bw
RKO/Alliance (Adrian Scott)
The ambitious daughter of a mill-owner marries a rising politician but almost ruins his life.
Rather routine treatment of a three-decker north country novel; humdrum incident and unsympathetic characters, but full of minor British virtues.
w John Paxton novel James Hilton d Edward Dmytryk ph Frederick A. Young m Hanns Eisler ad L. P. Williams ed Douglas Robertson
☆ John Mills (George Boswell), Martha Scott (Olivia), Trevor Howard (Whiteside), Patricia Roc (Julie), Richard Carlson (Charles), Reginald Tate (Mangin), Beatrice Varley (Annie), Frederick Leister (Channing), Ivor Barnard (Spivey), Juliet Mills (Baby Julie)
'The occasional slackness of narrative is atoned for by a strongly communicated sense of place: the mean streets shining with rain, the sullen suffocated houses.' – Dilys Powell, Sunday Times

Soak the Rich ★
US 1935 74m bw
Paramount (Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur)
A rebellious rich girl is cured when she is rescued from kidnapping.
Smartly written social comedy-melodrama.
wd Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur
ph Leon Shamroy
☆ Walter Connolly, John Howard, Mary Taylor, Lionel Stander, Ilka Chase
'Hecht and MacArthur have not been very successful in their attempts to gauge public opinion ... inadequate entertainment.' – Variety

Soapdish ★
US 1991 97m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Aaron Spelling, Alan Greisman)
A jealous co-star tries to sabotage the popularity of America's most popular star of a daily soap-opera.
Fitfully amusing parody of a TV soap, but one that failed to find much of an audience.
w Robert Harling, Andrew Bergman d Michael Hoffman ph Ueli Steiger m Alan Silvestri pd Eugenio Zanetti ed Garth Craven
☆ Sally Field, Kevin Kline, Robert Downey Jnr, Whoopi Goldberg, Carrie Fisher, Cathy Moriarty, Teri Hatcher, Paul Johansson, Elisabeth Shue, Garry Marshall
'An amiable comedy with enough one-liners to keep the chuckles coming regularly.' – Sight and Sound

'He's a goal crazy mutt with some winning moves and he's on his way to the championship!'

Soccer Dog: The Movie
US 1998 98m FotoKem Panavision
Watershed (John H. Brister)
A lonely, orphaned boy teams up with a runaway dog to form a winning combination on the soccer field.
Slow-paced, uninteresting variation on Air Bud (qv) with some heavy-handed humour; even the dog is ordinary.
w Daniel Forman d Tony Giglio ph Christopher Duddy m Victoria Dolceamore pd Nanette Vanderbilt ed Alan Z. McCurdy
☆ James Marshall (Alden), Olivia D'Abo (Elena), Jeremy Foley (Clay), Sam McMurray (Coach Shaw), Billy Drago (The Dog Catcher), Kyle Gibson (Vince), Evan Cohen (Sonny), Brocker Way (Berger)

Social Register
US 1934 71m bw
Columbia (William de Mille)
A chorus girl fights the prejudices of her in-laws to be.
Dull and obvious romantic drama mainly notable for its cast, and for the star who failed to make a comeback.
w Clara Beranger, Anita Loos, John Emerson d Marshall Neilan ☆ Colleen Moore, Charles Winninger, Pauline Frederick, Alexander Kirkland, Robert Benchley, Ross Alexander
'Good players lost in a trite story.' – Variety

'It's all about fitting in.'

Society
US 1989 99m colour
Medusa/Society Productions/Wild Street Pictures (Keith Walley)
A student discovers that his wealthy parents and friends are shape-shifting monsters who devour the poor.
Weird allegory of class warfare that contains stomach-turning special effects.
w Woody Keith, Rick Fry d Brian Yuzna ph Rick Fichter m Mark Ryder, Phil Davies pd Mathew C. Jacobs ed Peter Teschner sp Screaming Mad George ☆ Bill Warlock, Devin DeVasquez, Evan Richards, Ben Meyerson, Charles Lucia, Connie Danese, Patrice Jennings
'One of the most extraordinary genre debuts of the 80s.' – MFB

Society Doctor
US 1935 63m bw
MGM (Lucien Hubbard)
GB title: After Eight Hours
A doctor's modern ideas incur hostility: he goes into private practice, but returning to the hospital is wounded by a gangster and supervises his own operation under spinal anaesthetic.
Melodramatic hokum with most attention going to the second male lead, the young and rising Robert Taylor.
w Sam Marx, Michael Fessier novel The Harbor by Theodore Reeves d George B. Seitz ph Lester White m Oscar Radin
☆ Chester Morris, Virginia Bruce, Robert Taylor, Billie Burke, Raymond Walburn, Henry Kolker, William Henry

Society Girl
US 1932 72m bw
Fox
A prizefighter falls for a society girl.
Weak melodrama whose best scenes are in the ring.
w Charles Benhan, Elmer Harris play John Larkin Jnr d Sidney Lanfield ☆ James Dunn, Spencer Tracy, Peggy Shannon, Walter Byron, Marjorie Gateson 'Falls short of first-rate classification.' – Variety

Society Lawyer
US 1939 77m bw
MGM (John W. Considine Jnr)
A lawyer is embarrassed by the gratitude of a racketeer.
Tolerable co-feature with class production.
w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Leon Gordon, Hugo Butler d Edwin L. Marin ☆ Walter Pidgeon, Virginia Bruce, Leo Carrillo, Eduardo Ciannelli, Lee Bowman, Herbert Mundin
'Fairish murder mystery with sophisticated background. For duals.' – Variety

Sodom and Gomorrah
Italy/France 1963 154m colour
Titanus/S. N. Pathé (Goffredo Lombardo, Joseph E. Levine)
Lot and the Hebrews become involved in a

Helamite plan to take over the rich sinful cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.
Dreary biblical blood-and-thunder; an international muddle, tedious in the extreme outside a few hilariously misjudged moments.
w Hugo Butler, Giorgio Prosperi d Robert Aldrich ph Silvano Ippoliti, Cyril Knowles m Miklos Rozsa ad Ken Adam ☆ Stewart Granger, Stanley Baker, Pier Angeli, Anouk Aimée, Rossana Podesta

Sofie ★

Denmark/Norway/Sweden 1992 152m colour
Arrow/Nordisk/Norsk/Svensk Filmindustri (Lars Kolvig)

In Copenhagen in the 1890s, a Jewish woman is forced by her family to reject her non-Jewish admirer and move away from the city to marry a cousin who goes slowly mad.
A well-acted, long domestic saga that follows changing attitudes across three generations, from Sofie's parents, anxious to be anonymous in a larger society while preserving their own way of life, to Sofie, wanting to break away but unable to do so, to her son, who rejects the old traditions; it is nevertheless at its most affecting when depicting the pleasures of Sofie's parents rather than the miseries of her own mismatch.
w Liv Ullmann, Peter Poulsen novel Mendel Philipsen and Son by Henri Nathansen d Liv Ullmann ph Jörgen Persson pd Peter Hoimark ed Grete Moldrup ☆ Karen-Lise Mynster, Ghita Norby, Erland Josephson, Jesper Christensen, Torben Zeller, Henning Moritzen, Stig Hoffmeyer, Kirsten Rolffes

'Lurches regrettably towards the gratuitous miserablism of Bergmanesque stereotype.' – Sight and Sound

'The movie with the 6 best Sellers in one!'

Soft Beds, Hard Battles

GB 1973 107m colour
Rank/Charter (John Boulting)

US title: Undercovers Hero
Inhabitants of a Paris brothel help to win World War II.
Ragbag of poor sketches and dirty jokes, with the star in several ineffective roles including Hitler.
w Leo Marks, Roy Boulting d Roy Boulting ph Gil Taylor m Neil Rhoden
☆ Peter Sellers, Lila Kedrova, Curt Jurgens, Gabriella Licudi, Jenny Hanley

Soft Deceit

Canada 1994 91m colour
Chesler/Perlmutter (Lewis B. Chester, T. A. Baird, Jorge Montesi)

A female special agent offers to spring a master thief from prison in an attempt to recover the $6m he stole from the Catholic Church.
Slick, trivial, pulp thriller, with softboiled dialogue and a narrative that is predictably implausible.
w Jorge Montesi, Roy Sallows d Jorge Montesi ph Philip Linzey m Ian Thomas pd Harold Thrasher ed George Roulston
☆ Patrick Bergin, Kate Vernon, John Wesley Shipp, Gwynyth Walsh, Nigel Bennett, Ted Dykstra, Damir Andrei

'A Motorvated Comedy.'
'They're going to make it. Nothing will stop them now...'

Soft Top, Hard Shoulder ★

GB 1992 95m colour
Feature/Road Movie Productions (Richard Holmes)

An unsuccessful Scottish artist living in London has 36 hours to drive to Glasgow in his ancient car so that he can share in the family fortune; on the way he picks up a female hitch-hiker.
Amiable, soft-centred road movie with an affection for eccentricity.
w Peter Capaldi d Stefan Schwartz ph Henry Braham m Chris Rea pd Sonja Klaus ed Derek Trigg
☆ Peter Capaldi, Frances Barber, Catherine Russell, Jeremy Northam, Richard Wilson, Peter Ferninando, Simon Callow, Phyllis Logan

'The initial novelty of this particular roadshow ultimately pales.' – Empire

Soigne Ton Gauche ★

France 1937 12m bw
Cady (Fred Orain)

A boxing training session in a village ends in chaos.
A gentle short comedy from Tati, revealing his pleasure in the eccentric details of life.
w Jean Marie Huard d René Clément m Jean Yatove
☆ Jacques Tati, Max Martell, Robur Cliville
† It was released on video together with L'école des Facteurs and Cours du Soir under the title Tati Shorts.

Sokaate Beine Do Feks: see The Silence Between Two Thoughts

Sol Madrid

US 1968 90m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Gershwin-Kastner (Hall Bartlett)
GB title: The Heroin Gang
An undercover narcotics agent is assigned to track down an elusive Mafia executive.
Humdrum, predictable, brutishly violent international crime caper.
w David Karp novel Fruit of the Poppy by Robert Wilder d Brian G. Hutton ph Fred Koenekamp m Lalo Schifrin
☆ David McCallum, Telly Savalas, Stella Stevens, Ricardo Montalban, Rip Torn, Pat Hingle, Paul Lukas, Perry Lopez, Michael Ansara

Solamente Nero: see The Bloodstained Shadow

Solange Du da bist: see As Long as You're Near Me

Solar Crisis

US/Japan 1992 107m DeLuxe
Trimark/Gakken/NHK (Richard Edlund, James Nelson, Morris Morishima)

A power-crazed industrialist plans to sabotage Earth's last hope: a spaceship carrying an anti-matter bomb to the sun in order to prevent a massive flare from burning up the planet.
Dire science-fiction extravaganza; the banality of the plot is exceeded only by the stupidity of the dialogue.
w Joe Gannon, Crispan Bolt novel Takeshi Kawata d Alan Smithee (Richard Sarafian) ph Russ Carpenter m Maurice Jarre, Michael Boddicker pd George Jenson ed Richard Trevor sp Neil Krepela
☆ Tim Matheson, Charlton Heston, Peter Boyle, Annabel Schofield, Corin 'Corky' Nemec, Tetsuya Bessho, Jack Palance, David Ursin, Brenda Bakke, Paul Williams (voice)
† The movie cost $35 million. It was released direct to video in Britain.

Solar Warriors

US 1986 94m colour
MBM/Brooksfilms (Irene Walzer, Jack Frost Sanders)

US title: Solarbabies
In a future world where water is scarce, a gang of roller-skating teenagers rebel against authority with the aid of a mystic ball.
Ludicrous science fiction adventure that lacks invention, style and plausibility.
w Walon Green, Douglas Anthony Metrov d Alan Johnson ph Peter MacDonald m Maurice Jarre pd Anthony Pratt ed Conrad Buff
☆ Richard Jordan, Jami Gertz, Jason Patric, Lukas Haas, James Le Gros, Claude Brooks, Peter DeLuise, Sarah Douglas, Charles Durning

Solarbabies: see Solar Warriors

'The planet where nightmares come true...'

Solaris ★★★★

USSR 1972 165m Sovcolor 'Scope Mosfilm

A psychologist is sent to investigate the many deaths in a space station orbiting a remote planet.
Heavy-going but highly imaginative space fiction in which the menaces are ghosts materialized from the subjects' guilty pasts. The technology is superbly managed, but the whole thing is rather humourless.
w Andrei Tarkovsky, Friedrich Gorenstein novel Stanislaw Lem d Andrei Tarkovsky ph Vadim Yusov m Eduard Artemyev ad Mikhail Romadin ☆ Natalya Bondarchuk (Harey), Donatas Banionis (Kris), Yuri Yarvet (Snaut), Anatoli Sonlonitsin (Sartorius)

'There are some places man is not ready to go.'

Solaris ★

US 2002 98m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Lightstorm (James Cameron, Rae Sanchini, Jon Landau)

Called to a remote space-station to discover what has happened to its crew, a psychologist is seemingly re-united with his dead wife.
Austere meditation on the difficulties of loving and the attractions of death; shorter than Tarkovsky's version, Soderbergh concentrates on a central relationship in such a cool manner that all emotion is lost.
wd Steven Soderbergh novel Stanislaw Lem ph Peter Andrews (Steven Soderbergh) m Cliff Martinez pd Philip Messina ed Mary Ann Bernard sp Cinesite; Rhythm & Hues
☆ George Clooney (Dr Chris Kelvin), Natascha McElhone (Rheya), Jeremy Davies (Snow), Viola Davis (Dr Helen Gordon), Ulrich Tukur (Gibarian)

'An investigation of primal emotions approached in an entirely cerebral manner.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'As elegant, moody, intelligent, sensuous, and sustained a studio movie as we are likely to see this season.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

Solas ★★

Spain 1999 98m colour
Artificial Eye/Maestranza/Via Digital (Antonio P. Perz)

aka: Alone
An elderly mother finds it hard to adjust to city life when she goes to stay with her unhappy, pregnant, single daughter.
Slow but affecting drama of the hostility of big cities, the disappearance of traditional values, and of two generations of women suffering at the hands of uncaring men.
wd Benito Zambrano ph Tote Trenas m Antonio Meliveo ad Lala Obrero ed Fernando Pardo
☆ María Galiana (Madre), Ana Fernandez (Maria), Carlos Alvarez (Vecino), Antonio Dechent (Doctor), Paco De Osca (Father), Juan Fernandez (Juan), Miguel Alcíbar (El Gordo)

'Skilful, emotionally complex and ultimately life-affirming slice of kitchen sink drama.' – Jim Smith, Film Review

Soldaat Van Oranje: see Soldier of Orange

'Left for dead on a remote planet for obsolete machines and people, a fallen hero has one last battle to fight'

Soldier

US 1998 95m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek/Impact (Jerry Weintraub)

In a rigidly controlled future a discarded soldier, replaced by swifter cyborgs, protects a peace-loving community from obliteration.
Brutal science-fiction, set in a harsh world, with Russell looking grim at all times and uttering only a few monosyllables throughout; the emphasis is on action, as he wages a single-handed war against the modern fighting machines that have replaced him.
w David Webb Peoples d Paul Anderson ph David Tattersall m Joel McNeely pd David L. Snyder ed Martin Hunter sp Ed Jones
☆ Kurt Russell (Todd), Jason Scott Lee (Caine 607), Connie Nielsen (Mace), Michael Chiklis (Jimmy Pig), Jason Isaacs (Col Mekum), Sean Pertwee (Mace), Gary Busey (Church)

'Pic's nonstop mayhem should draw enough indiscriminate action fans to launch this one; thereafter, derivative heroics and done-to-death post-apocalyptic setting will spell a fast slide.' – Glenn Lovell, Variety

The Soldier and the Lady ★

US 1937 85m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)
GB title: Michael Strogoff
In Napoleonic times, a messenger from the Czar sees more trouble than he expected.
Mildly ambitious swashbuckler from a story much remade in Europe; the elements jelled quite well in the Hollywood fashion.
w Mortimer Offner, Anthony Veiller, Anne Morrison Chapin novel Jules Verne d George Nicholls Jnr ph Joseph H. August
☆ Anton Walbrook, Elizabeth Allan, Akim Tamiroff

'Spectacle film lacking strength and names. Will have its troubles.' – Variety † Exteriors were taken from a German/French film of 1936, Courier to the Czar (Der Kurier des Zaren), also starring Anton Walbrook.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'Stained with the blood of the innocent!'

Soldier Blue ★

US 1970 114m Technicolor Panavision
Avco (Gabriel Katzka, Harold Loeb)

A paymaster's detachment of the US cavalry is attacked by Indians seeking gold, and two white survivors trek through the desert.
Extremely violent 'anti-violence' Western with a particularly nauseating climax following clichés all the way. From a director with pretensions.
w John Gay novel Arrow in the Sun by Theodore V. Olsen d Ralph Nelson ph Robert Hauser m Roy Budd
☆ Candice Bergen, Peter Strauss, Donald Pleasence

'One is more likely to be sickened by the film itself than by the wrongs it tries to right.' – Tom Milne

Soldier in the Rain

US 1963 87m bw
AA/Cedar/Solar (Martin Jurow)

Two army sergeants have wild plans for their demob, but one dies.
Curious sentimental tragi-comedy which misfires on all cylinders.
w Blake Edwards, Richlin novel William Goldman d Ralph Nelson ph Philip Lathrop m Henry Mancini
☆ Steve McQueen, Jackie Gleason, Tuesday Weld, Tony Bill, Tom Poston, Ed Nelson, John Hubbard

Soldier of Fortune ★

US 1955 96m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Buddy Adler)

When a photographer disappears in Red China, his wife comes to Hong Kong to institute a search, enlists the aid of an amiable smuggler.
Cheerful Boy's Own Paper adventure romance with attractive locations and some silly anti-Red dialogue.
w Ernest K. Gann novel Ernest K. Gann d Edward Dmytryk ph Leo Tover m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Clark Gable, Susan Hayward, Gene Barry, Alex D'Arcy, Michael Rennie, Tom Tully, Anna Sten, Russell Collins, Leo Gordon

'A very good adventure film but not one of the Gable smashes.' – Hollywood Reporter

Soldier of Fortune (dubbed)

Italy/France 1976 90m colour
Mondial/Cite/J. Leitienne/Labrador/Impexci original title: Il Soldata di Ventura

A wandering Italian soldier and his small troop defeat an invading French army.
Comic epic, a good-natured, though undistinguished, romp through the past.
w Castellano, Pipolo, Franco Verucci, Pasquale Festa Campanile d Pasquale Festa Campanile ph Marcello Masciocchi m Guido and Maurizio de Angelis ad Pier Luigi Pizzi ed Mario Morra
☆ Bud Spencer (Carlo Pedersoli), Franco Agostini, Enzo Cannavale, Frederic de Pasquale, Jacques Dufilho, Andrea Ferreol Soldier of Orange ★★★

Netherlands 1977 colour
(Rob Houwer)

original title: Soldaat Van Oranje

A group of university friends react in different ways after the Nazi invasion of Holland.
Engaging, sprawling war movie about Dutch resistance and collaboration, following the career of a hero and his not always heroic friends.
w Gerard Soeteman, Paul Verhoeven, Kees Holierhoek autobiography Erik Hazelhoff Roelfzema d Paul Verhoeven ph Jost Vacano, Jan De Bont m Rogier Van Otterloo ad Roland De Groot ed Jane Speer ☆ Rutger Hauer (Erik), Jeroen Krabbe (Gus), Peter Faber (Will), Derek De Lint (Alex), Eddy Habbema (Robby), Lex Van Delden (Nico), Edward Fox (Colonel Rafelli), Susan Penhaligon (Susan), Andrea Domburh (Queen Wilhelmina), Belinda Meuldijk (Esther)

'The physical production is impressive, but key plot points are often too obscure for an action film so full of boyish high spirits.' – Vincent Canby, New York Times
'So crowded with character, adventure, intriguing moral quandaries and delightful humor that its two and a half hours fly by without a lull.' – Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times
† The Region 1 DVD release has commentary by Verhoeven.

'The city of lights. A famous American author and the decade that changed a generation ... forever.'

A Soldier's Daughter Never Cries ★

GB 1998 127m Technicolor
Capitol/Merchant Ivory/British Screen (Ismail Merchant)

In the mid-60s, an unhappy young girl grows up in Paris and the USA.
Based on a semi-autobiographical novel by the daughter of writer James Jones, this is a rewarding domestic drama of an out-of-the-ordinary family, coping with their status as outsiders.
w James Ivory, Ruth Prawer Jhabvala novel Kayle Jones d James Ivory ph Jean-Marc Fabre m Richard Robbins pd Jacques Bufnoir, Pat Garner ed Noëlle Boisson
☆ Kris Kristofferson, Barbara Hershey, Leelee Sobieski, Jesse Bradford, Anthony Roth Costanzo, Dominique Blanc, Jane Birkin, Virginie Ledoyen, Samuel Gruen, Luisa Conlon, Isaac de Bankole

'Nicely mounted, superbly acted picture, which should appeal to the art crowd that has supported Merchant Ivory productions over the last two decades.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety

Soldiers of Innocence

South Korea 1989 103m colour
ASCO/Cinevest/CineKor (Dennis H. Christen, Eun Kyong Soe)

A US sergeant, who stays behind while his company retreats, takes shelter in a church where two nuns are attemtping to protect children caught up in the Korean war.
Ineffectual melodrama that has little sense of reality about it.
w Dennis H. Christen, Han Woo Jung d Han Woo Jung ph Ok Hyun Shin m Bob Dee pd Jong Moon Kim, Sang Tae Lee ed Soon Doke Park
☆ Dennis Christen (Sgt Collins), Susan Richardson (Sister Anne), Eun Kyong Soe, Yong Nam Ahn, Greta Blackburn, Hyokee Moon, Gary Wood (Capt Buzz Waters)

Soldiers of the King

GB 1933 80m bw
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

A guards lieutenant causes trouble when he wants to marry a music hall star.
Sprightly star vehicle with all talents in good form.
w J. O. C. Orton, Jack Hulbert, W. P. Lipscomb story Douglas Furber d Maurice Elvey ph Leslie Rowson md Louis Levy ☆ Cicely Courtneidge, Edward Everett Horton, Anthony Bushell, Frank Cellier, Dorothy Hyson, Leslie Sarony

A Soldier's Story ★

US 1984 101m Metrocolor
Columbia/Delphi (Norman Jewison, Patrick Palmer)

In 1944 Louisiana, a hated sergeant at a small army post is shot dead.
Investigative melodrama on the old lines of Boomerang; quite watchable and well acted.
w Charles Fuller play Charles Fuller d Norman Jewison ph Russell Boyd m Herbie Hancock pd Walter Scott Herndon ed Caroline Biggerstaff, Mark Warner
☆ Howard E. Rollins Jnr (Capt. Davenport), Adolph Caesar (Sgt Waters), Art Evans (Pvt. Wilkie), David Alan Grier (Cpl Cobb), David Harris (Pvt Smalls), Denzel Washington (Pfc Peterson), Patti LaBelle (Big Mary), Wings Hauser (Lt Byrd)
♙ best picture; Adolph Caesar (supporting actor); adapted screenplay

A Soldier's Tale

US 1988 94m colour
Mirage/Atlantic (Larry Parr)

A sergeant in the British Army tries to protect a young woman accused of being a collaborator by the French Resistance.
Bleak wartime drama of love and lust that never quite convinces.
w Grant Hindin Miller, Larry Parr novel M. K. Joseph d Larry Parr ph Alun Bollinger m John Charles pd Ivan Maussion ed Mike Horton ☆ Gabriel Byrne, Marianne Basler, Paul Wyett, Maurice Garrel, Benoit Regent, Jacques Mathou, Judge Reinhold

Soldiers Three

US 1951 87m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

Adventures of three roistering British officers on the North-West Frontier.
A kind of unofficial remake of Gunga Din without the title character; one suspects it was meant seriously and found to be so bad that the only way out was strenuously to play it for laughs.
w Marguerite Roberts, Tom Reed, Malcolm Stuart Boylan d Tay Garnett ph William Mellor m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Stewart Granger, David Niven, Robert Newton, Walter Pidgeon, Cyril Cusack, Greta Gynt, Frank Allenby, Robert Coote, Dan O'Herlihy

'Kipling fans will probably have a fit but my guess is that it will have most people in fits of laughter.' – Daily Mail

Il sole anche di notte: see Night Sun

The Solid Gold Cadillac ★★

US 1956 99m bw
Columbia (Fred Kohlmar)

A very minor stockholder upsets the crooked board of a large corporation.
Vaguely Capraesque comedy which begins brightly but peters out; performances sustain passing interest.
w Abe Burrows play George S. Kaufman, Howard Teichmann d Richard Quine ph Charles Lang m Cyril Mockridge ad Ross Bellah
☆ Judy Holliday, Paul Douglas, John Williams, Fred Clark, Hiram Sherman, Neva Patterson, Ralph Dumke, Ray Collins, Arthur O'Connell
♙ art direction

'What would happen if your lover could read your mind?'

Solitaire for Two

GB 1994 106m Eastmancolor
Entertainment/Solitaire (Gary Sinyor, Richard Holmes)

A psychologist dates a woman who is able to read the minds of the men around her, who all seem to be thinking the same thing.
A botched romantic comedy, with neither the wit nor the cast to carry off its underdeveloped central conceit.
wd Gary Sinyor ph Henry Braham m David A. Hughes, John Murphy pd Carmel Collins ed Ewa J. Lind ☆ Mark Frankel, Amanda Pays, Roshan Seth, Jason Isaacs, Maryam D'Abo, Annette Crosbie

'A still-born attempt at a latter-day Hawksian comedy.' – Variety

The Solitaire Man ★

US 1933 68m bw
MGM

Crooks doublecross each other on a Paris-London aeroplane.
Smart little comedy with top talent.
w James Kevin McGuinness play Bella and Samuel Spewack d Jack Conway
☆ Herbert Marshall, Elizabeth Allan, Mary Boland, Lionel Atwill, May Robson, Ralph Forbes

'Diverting crook melodrama in the drawing room manner ... a lot better than the grosses it will probably get.' – Variety

I Soliti Ignoti: see Persons Unknown

'Part Man. Part Machine. Total Weapon.'

Solo

US/Mexico 1996 94m Technicolor
Triumph/Orpheus/Kinema/Van Peebles (Joseph Newton Cohen, John Flock)

The US army decides to destroy the perfect android soldier after he develops a conscience about killing.
Dull action movie that borrows from The Terminator and The Seven Samurai without creating any excitement of its own.
w David L. Corley novel Weapon by Robert Mason d Norberto Barba ph Christopher Walling m Christopher Franke pd Markus Canter ed Scott Conrad ☆ Mario Van Peebles (Solo), Barry Corbin (General Clyde Haynes), William Sadler (Colonel Madden), Adrien Brody (Bill Stewart), Seidy Lopez (Agela), Jaime Gomez (Lorenzo), Abraham Verduzco (Miguel)

'Not one fight is memorable, and the set looks recycled from an Indiana Jones theme park. "So low" is right.' – Susan Wloszczyna, USA Today

'Their tragedy was to fall in love.'

Solomon and Gaenor ★

GB 1998 104m DeLuxe
Film4/S4C/Arts Council/APT (Sheryl Crown)

In the early 1900s, a Jewish salesman and a Welsh woman fall in love, to the dismay of both their families.

A sometimes moving story of star-crossed lovers encountering racial prejudices.

wd Paul Morrison ph Nina Kellgren m Ilona Sekacz pd Hayden Pearce ed Kant Pan

☆ Ioan Gruffudd, Nia Roberts, Sue Jones Davies, William Thomas, Mark Lewis Jones, Maureen Lipman, David Horovitch, Cyril Shaps

'Beautifully photographed and confidently directed, with powerful and affecting performances.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

foreign film

'Only once in 3000 years – anything like it!'

Solomon and Sheba

US 1959 142m Super Technirama 70
UA/Edward Small (Ted Richmond)

When David names his younger son as heir, his older son plots revenge.

Dullish biblical spectacle, alternating between pretentiousness and cowboys and Indians.

w Anthony Veiller, Paul Dudley, George Bruce story Crane Wilbur d King Vidor ph Frederick A. Young m Mario Nascimbene ad Richard Day, Alfred Sweeney

☆ Yul Brynner, Gina Lollobrigida, George Sanders, Marisa Pavan, David Farrar, John Crawford, Laurence Naismith, Alejandro Rey, Harry Andrews

'Penance is due.' – Hollis Alpert

'Watch out it doesn't put you to sleep.' – New York Times

Som and Bank: Bangkok for Sale: see One Take Only

Sombrero

US 1953 103m Technicolor
MGM (Jack Cummings)

Two Mexican villages feud over the burial place of a famous poet.

Rather self-consciously unusual musical which never catches fire but certainly keeps one watching its incredible mixture of music and melodrama.

w Norman Foster, Josefina Niggli novel A Mexican Village by Josefina Niggli d Norman Foster ph Ray June m Leo Arnaud

☆ Ricardo Montalban, Pier Angeli, Yvonne de Carlo, Nina Foch, Cyd Charisse, Rick Jason, Jose Greco, Thomas Gomez, Kurt Kasznar, Walter Hampden, John Abbott

'Staggering is the only word for the hokum of this extraordinary film.' – Gavin Lambert

Some Call It Loving

US 1973 103m Technicolor
Pleasant Pastures/James B. Harris

A young man buys a 'sleeping beauty' at a fair but is sorry when he wakes her up.

Fashionable fantasy, amplified from a slender, winning short story.

wd James B. Harris story Sleeping Beauty by John Collier ph Mario Tosi m Richard Hazard

☆ Zalman King, Carol White, Tisa Farrow, Richard Pryor, Veronica Anderson

Some Came Running

US 1958 136m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM/Sol C. Siegel

A disillusioned writer returns after service to his home town and takes up with a gambler and a prostitute.

Strident and rather pointless melodrama with solid acting and production values.

w John Patrick, Arthur Sheekman novel James Jones d Vincente Minnelli ph William H. Daniels m Elmer Bernstein

☆ Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Shirley MacLaine, Martha Hyer, Arthur Kennedy, Nancy Gates, Leora Dana

song 'To Love and Be Loved' (m James Van Heusen, ly Sammy Cahn); Shirley MacLaine; Martha Hyer; Arthur Kennedy

Some Girls: see Sisters

Some Girls Do

GB 1969 93m Eastmancolor
Rank/Ashdown (Betty E. Box)

Bulldog Drummond traces the sabotage of a supersonic airliner to a gang of murderous women.

Abysmal spoof melodrama in the swinging sixties mould; a travesty of a famous character.

w David Osborn, Liz Charles-Williams d Ralph Thomas ph Ernest Steward m Charles Blackwell

☆ Richard Johnson, Daliah Lavi, Beba Loncar, James Villiers, Sydne Rome, Robert Morley, Maurice Denham, Florence Desmond, Ronnie Stevens

Some Kind of a Nut

US 1969 89m DeLuxe
UA/Mirisch/TFT/DFI (Walter Mirisch)

When a bank teller grows a beard because of an unsightly bee sting, he is thought to be flouting authority and his whole life changes.

Laboured, cliché-ridden anti-establishment comedy, a waste of the talent involved.

wd Garson Kanin ph Burnett Guffey, Gerald Hirschfeld m Johnny Mandel

☆ Dick Van Dyke, Angie Dickinson, Rosemary Forsyth, Zohra Lampert, Elliott Reid, Dennis King

Some Kind of Hero

US 1981 97m Movielab
Paramount (Howard W. Koch)

After six years as a prisoner of the Vietcong, an army veteran returns home to find his life no bed of roses.

Weird mixture of comedy and melodrama which simply doesn't jell, especially when it tries to get earnest.

w James Kirkwood, Robert Boris novel James Kirkwood d Michael Pressman ph King Baggot m Patrick Williams ad James L. Schoppe ed Christopher Greenbury

☆ Richard Pryor, Margot Kidder, Ray Sharkey, Ronny Cox, Lynne Moody, Olivia Cole

Some Kind of Wonderful

US 1987 95m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount (John Hughes)

Girl meets boy, boy meets another girl, boy loses girl, boy gets first girl.

Teen romance pandering to its target audience: all adults are stupid and repressive, and maturity and wisdom are to be found among the young. Its appeal will be limited to the immature.

w John Hughes d Howard Deutch ph Jan Kiesser m Stephen Hague, John Musser pd Josan Russo ed Bud Smith, Scott Smith

☆ Eric Stoltz, Mary Stuart Masterson, Craig Sheffer, John Ashton, Lea Thompson, Elias Koteas, Maddie Corman

'The killer-diller of all swing shows!'

Some Like It Hot

US 1939 65m bw
Paramount (William C. Thomas)
TV reissue title: Rhythm Romance

A sideshow owner runs out of money.

Very mild comedy, one of several which helped to establish Hope's star potential.

w Lewis R. Foster play Wilkie C. Mahoney, Ben Hecht, Gene Fowler d George Archainbaud ph Karl Struss

☆ Bob Hope, Shirley Ross, Una Merkel, Gene Krupa, Richard Denning

'Turned out deliberately to catch the jitterbug devotees ... will satisfy moderately.' – Variety

† The play, The Great Magoo, was previously filmed in 1934 as Shoot the Works.

'The movie too HOT for words!'

Some Like It Hot ★★★★

US 1959 122m bw
UA/Mirisch (Billy Wilder)

Two unemployed musicians accidentally witness the St Valentine's Day Massacre and flee to Miami disguised as girl musicians.

A milestone of film comedy which keeps its central situation alive with constant and fresh invention; its wit, combined with a sense of danger, has rarely been duplicated and never equalled.

w Billy Wilder, I. A. L. Diamond d Billy Wilder ph Charles Lang Jnr m Adolph Deutsch ad Ted Howarth ed Arthur P. Schmidt cos Orry-Kelly

☆ Jack Lemmon (Jerry/Daphne), Tony Curtis (Joe/Josephine), Marilyn Monroe (Sugar Kane), Joe E. Brown (Osgood E. Fielding III), George Raft (Spats Columbo), Pat O'Brien (Mulligan), Nehemiah Persoff (Little Bonaparte), George E. Stone (Toothpick Charlie), Joan Shawlee (Sweet Sue)

'A comedy set in the Prohibition era, with transvestism, impotence, role confusion, and borderline inversion – and all hilariously innocent, though always on the brink of really disastrous double-entendre.' – Pauline Kael

'Most of the time Billy Wilder's new piece – a farce blacker than is common on the American screen – whistles along at a smart, murderous pace.' – Dilys Powell

'Hectic slapstick, smartass movie parodies, sexist stereotyping, crass one-liners, and bad taste galore.' – Time Out, 1984

Orry-Kelly

script; Billy Wilder (as director); Charles Lang Jnr; Jack Lemmon; art direction

Jack Lemmon

Some Like It Sexy

GB 1969 89m Eastmancolor
Donwin (Donovan Winter)

aka: Come Back Peter

A butcher's boy dreams of a series of sexual conquests, changing his personality to suit each woman.

Dull, though slickly made, exploitation film, which could have done with more variation in its interminable scenes of unadventurous love-making.

wd Donovan Winter ph Ian D. Struthers, Gus Coma ed Donovan Winter

☆ Christopher Matthews, Yolande Turner, Valerie St Hélène, Annabel Leventon, Penny Riley, Erika Bergmann, Maddy Smith, Mary and Madeleine Collinson, Nicola Pagett

† The version released in the cinemas ran for 65m.

Some Mother's Son 6

US/Ireland 1996 112m colour
Rank/Castle Rock/Turner/Hell's Kitchen (Jim Sheridan, Arthur Lappin, Edward Burke)

In Northern Ireland, a schoolteacher is drawn into political activism when her son is arrested by the British and put in prison, where, following the lead of Bobby Sands, he is among those who go on hunger strike.

A bleak drama, based on the events in 1981 when ten men starved themselves to death; that reality overwhelms this fiction, which does no more than recreate the tragedy through the reactions of two mothers.

w Terry George, Jim Sheridan d Terry George ph Geoffrey Simpson m Bill Whelan pd David Wilson ed Craig McKay

☆ Helen Mirren, Fionnula Flanagan, Aiden Gillen, David O'Hara, John Lynch, Tom Hollander, Tim Woodward, Ciaran Hinds

'The action is dominated by the realities of domestic violence, prison life and a prolonged hunger strike, all of which rate as box office negatives.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Some People

GB 1962 93m Eastmancolor
Vic Films (James Archibald)

Troublesome teenage factory workers are helped by a church organist and become model citizens.

Bland propaganda for the Duke of Edinburgh's Award scheme for young people, quite acceptably presented, with pop music ad lib.

w John Eldridge d Clive Donner ph John Wilcox m Ron Grainer

☆ Kenneth More, Ray Brooks, Annika Wells, David Andrews, Angela Douglas, David Hemmings, Harry H. Corbett

Some Voices ★

GB 2000 101m colour
FilmFour/Dragon/British Screen (Damian Jones)

Released from psychiatric hospital, a schizophrenic causes problems to his brother and a woman he becomes involved with.

Unambitious small-scale drama concentrating on a fractured relationship between the two brothers; despite the creditable performances, it would seem best suited for the TV movie 'disease of the week' spot.

w Joe Penhall play Joe Penhall d Simon Cellan Jones ph David Odd m Adrian Johnston pd Zoe MacLeod ed Elen Pierce Lewis cos James Keast

☆ Daniel Craig (Ray), David Morrissey (Pete), Kelly Macdonald (Laura), Julie Graham (Mandy), Peter McDonald (Dave)

'Definitely worth seeing, showcases some terrific British talent, and only fails to make the four-star grade by a whisker.' – Mark Wyman, Film Review

Some Will, Some Won't

GB 1969 90m Technicolor
ABP/Transocean (Giulio Zampi)

In order to inherit under an eccentric will, four people have to perform tasks out of character.
Thin remake of Laughter in Paradise (qv); funny moments extremely few.
w Lew Schwartz d Duncan Wood
ph Harry Waxman m Howard Blake
☆ Ronnie Corbett, Thora Hird, Michael Hordern, Leslie Phillips, Barbara Murray, James Robertson Justice, Dennis Price, Wilfrid Brambell, Eleanor Summerfield, Arthur Lowe

Somebody Killed Her Husband

US 1978 96m Movielab
Columbia/Melvin Simon (Martin Poll)

The title tells what happened when an unhappily married young mother falls in love.
Very thin suspense comedy which starts as it ends, uncertainly.
w Reginald Rose d Lamont Johnson
ph Andrew Laszlo, Ralf D. Bode m Alex North pd Ted Haworth ☆ Farrah Fawcett-Majors, Jeff Bridges, John Wood, Tammy Grimes, John Glover, Patricia Elliott

Somebody Loves Me

US 1952 97m Technicolor
Paramount/Perlberg-Seaton

First successful in San Francisco at earthquake time, Blossom Seeley climbs to Broadway success with her partner Benny Fields, then retires to become his wife.
Adequate, unsurprising star musical of the second or third rank.
wd Irving Brecher ph George Barnes songs Jay Livingston, Ray Evans
☆ Betty Hutton, Ralph Meeker, Robert Keith, Adele Jergens, Billie Bird, Sid Tomack, Ludwig Stossel

'She Was Worth Living For ... Worth Killing For...'

Somebody to Love ★

US 1994 103m Foto-Kem
Entertainment/Lumiere/Initial (Lila Cazes)

A dancer in a sleazy Los Angeles club, who hopes to become a film star, has problems with the men in her life.
Confused and unfocused drama of showbiz hopefuls whose ambitions are greater than their talents; there are occasional pleasures to be had.
w Sergei Bodrov, Alexandre Rockwell d Alexandre Rockwell ph Robert Yeoman m Mader pd J. Rae Fox ed Elena Maganini
☆ Rosie Perez, Harvey Keitel, Anthony Quinn, Michael DeLorenzo, Steve Buscemi, Sam Fuller, Stanley Tucci
'Rarely fires on more than one cylinder at a time.' – Variety
† The film was inspired by Fellini's Cabiria (qv) and the character played by Giulietta Masina.

Somebody Up There Likes Me*

US 1956 112m bw
MGM (Charles Schnee)

An East Side kid with reform school experience becomes middleweight boxing champion of the world.
A sentimental fantasia on the life of Rocky Graziano, expertly blending violence, depression, prizefight sequences and fake uplift.
w Ernest Lehman d Robert Wise
ph Joseph Ruttenberg m Bronislau Kaper ad Cedric Gibbons, Malcolm F. Brown
ed Albert Akst
☆ Paul Newman, Pier Angeli, Everett Sloane, Eileen Heckart, Sal Mineo, Joseph Buloff, Harold J. Stone, Robert Loggia
Joseph Ruttenberg; art direction editing

Someone at the Door

GB 1936 74m bw
BIP (Walter Mycroft)

The new owner of a spooky house invents a murder which seems to come true.
Derivative but quite amusing comedy thriller.
w Jack Davies, Marjorie Deans play Dorothy and Campbell Christie
d Herbert Brenon ph Bryan Langley
☆ Billy Milton, Aileen Marson, Noah Beery, Edward Chapman, Hermione Gingold, John Irwin † Remade in 1950 with Michael Medwin, Yvonne Owen and Garry Marsh; directed by Francis Searle; for Hammer.

Someone Behind the Door

France 1971 97m colour
Miracle/Lira Film/Comaccio/SNC (Raymond Danon)

original title: Quelqu'un derrière la Porte
aka: Two Minds for Murder

A brain surgeon takes a psychopathic patient home and tries to make him commit murder.
Adequate but somehow unexciting suspenser.
w Mark Boehm, Jacques Robert novel Jacques Robert d Nicolas Gessner
ph Pierre Lhomme m Georges Garvarentz
☆ Charles Bronson, Anthony Perkins, Jill Ireland, Henri Garcia

Someone Else's America ★

France/Germany/GB 1995 93m
Fujicolour
Film Four/Mact/Intrinsica/Lichtblick/Stefi 2 (Antonie de Clermont-Tonnerre, David Rose, Helga Bähr)

original title: L'Amérique des autres

In Brooklyn, a struggling Spanish bar-owner helps the family of his best friend, illegal immigrants who arrive unexpectedly from Montenegro.
A ramshackle film, set in the gap between life as it is at the bottom of the heap and the American dream, which has a few telling moments.
w Gordan Mihic d Goran Paskaljevic
ph Yorgos Arvanitis m Andrew Dickson ad Wolf Seesselberg ed William Diver
☆ Tom Conti, Miki Manojlovic, Maria Casarès, Zorka Manojlovic, Sergej Trifunovic, Jose Ramon Rosario, Lanny Flaherty
'Sentimental, eccentric and quietly funny.' – Sight and Sound

'A Story About The One That Got Away And The One She Never Saw Coming.'

Someone Like You

US 2001 97m DeLuxe
TCF/Fox 2000 (Lynda Obst)

GB title: Animal Attraction

After an unhappy love affair, a TV researcher moves into a flat with a womanising colleague and develops a theory that men are programmed to be unfaithful.
Illogical romantic comedy that fails to deliver on its promises and offers no compensating surprises.
w Elizabeth Chandler novel Animal Husbandry by Laura Zigman d Tony Goldwyn ph Anthony B. Richmond m Rolfe Kent pd Dan Leigh ed Dana Congdon cos Ann Roth, Michelle Maitlin
☆ Ashley Judd (Jane Goodale), Greg Kinnear (Ray Brown), Hugh Jackman (Eddie Alden), Marisa Tomei (Liz), Ellen Barkin (Diane Roberts), Catherine Dent (Alice), Peter Friedman (Stephen), Laura Regan (Evelyn)
'A romantic comedy as lamely generic as its title...leaves no stone unturned in its attempt to be as conventional and predictable as possible.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Someone to Love ★

US 1987 105m DeLuxe
ICA/International Rainbow/Jagfilm (M. H. Simonsons)

On Valentine's Day, a director throws a party for his single and divorced friends and questions them on camera about their attitudes to love and relationships.
Little more than a succession of turns by various actors and actresses, but intermittently interesting and notable for Welles's final appearance on film, bringing it to an end with a shout of 'Cut!'
wd Henry Jaglom ph Hanania Baer
ed Henry Jaglom
☆ Orson Welles, Henry Jaglom, Andrea Marcovicci, Michael Emil, Sally Kellerman, Oja Kodar, Stephen Bishop, Dave Frishberg

Someone to Watch Over Me ★

US 1987 106m DeLuxe
Columbia/Thierry de Ganay

A New York cop falls for the witness he must protect from a vicious killer.
Lively thriller with slick technicalities.
w Howard Franklin d Ridley Scott ph Steven Poster m Michael Kamen
pd Jim Bissell
☆ Tom Berenger, Mimi Rogers, Lorraine Bracco, Jerry Orbach, John Rubinstein, Andreas Katsulas
'Stylish and romantic ... manages to triumph over several hard-to-swallow plot developments.' – Daily Variety

Something about Love

Canada 1988 93m colour
Allegro/NFBC (Franco Battista, Tom Berry, Stefan Wodoslawsky)

A Hollywood producer returns home to reconcile with his father, who is suffering from Alzheimer's disease.
Mundane domestic drama that never gets to grips with its subject.
w Tom Berry, Stefan Wodoslawsky d Tom Berry ph Rodney Gibbons m Lou Forestieri ad Guy Lalande ed Franco Battista
☆ Stefan Wodoslawsky, Jan Rubes, Jennifer Dale, Ron James, Leonore Zann, Diana Reis

Something Big

US 1971 108m Technicolor
Cinema Center/Stanmore and Penbar (Andrew V. McLaglen)

A retiring cavalry colonel has a last battle with his old enemy.
Wry serio-comic Western in the Ford tradition.
w James Lee Barrett d Andrew V. McLaglen ph Harry Stradling Jnr
m Marvin Hamlisch ad Alfred Sweeney
ed Robert Simpson
☆ Dean Martin (Joe Baker), Brian Keith (Colonel Morgan), Honor Blackman (Mary Anna Morgan), Carol White (Dover), Ben Johnson (Jesse Bookbinder), Albert Salmi (Johnny Cobb), Denver Pyle (Junior Frisbee)

Something for Everyone ★

US 1970 110m colour
National General (John Flaxman)

GB title: Black Flowers for the Bride

A young con man insinuates himself into the household of a widowed Austrian countess.
Unusual black comedy which doesn't quite come off.
w Hugh Wheeler novel The Cook by Harry Kressing d Harold Prince ph Walter Lassally m John Kander
☆ Angela Lansbury, Michael York, Anthony Corlan, Heidelinde Weis
'Nothing much for anyone, actually.' – New Yorker

Something for the Birds

US 1952 81m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)

An elderly fraud is of help to a Washington girl trying to save a bird sanctuary.
Derivative, competent but slightly boring political whimsy on Capra lines.
w I. A. L. Diamond, Boris Ingster d Robert Wise ph Joseph LaShelle m Sol Kaplan ☆ Edmund Gwenn, Victor Mature, Patricia Neal, Larry Keating, Christian Rub

Something for the Boys

US 1944 87m Technicolor
TCF (Irving Starr)

A Southern plantation is turned into a retreat for army wives.
Modest musical, vaguely based on a Broadway success.
w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Frank Gabrielson musical comedy Cole Porter, Herbert and Dorothy Fields d Lewis Seiler ph Ernest Palmer m Cyril Mockridge title song Cole Porter other songs Harold Adamson, Jimmy McHugh ☆ Carmen Miranda, Michael O'Shea, Vivian Blaine, Phil Silvers, Sheila Ryan, Perry Como, Glenn Langan, Cara Williams

Something in the Wind

US 1947 89m bw
U-I (Joseph Sistrom)

A lady disc jockey is mistaken for her aunt, who has been seeing too much for the heirs' liking of a wealthy old man.
Poorish star musical comedy.
w Harry Kurnitz, William Bowers d Irving Pichel ☆ Deanna Durbin, Donald O'Connor, John Dall, Charles Winninger, Helena Carter

Something Money Can't Buy

GB 1952 82m bw
Rank/Vic (Joe Janni)

After World War II a young couple find civilian life difficult and dreary, but finally start a catering and secretarial business.
Weakly contrived comedy which makes nothing of its possibilities and is limply handled all round.
w Pat Jackson, James Landsdale Hodson d Pat Jackson ph C. M. Pennington-Richards m Nino Rota
☆ Patricia Roc, Anthony Steel, A. E. Matthews, Moira Lister, David Hutcheson, Michael Trubshawe, Diane Hart, Charles Victor, Henry Edwards

'She had it all under control. Except her heart.'

Something New

US 2006 95m
UIP/Gramercy Pictures/Homegrown Pictures (Stephanie Allain)

An African-American accountant encounters opposition when she begins to date a white landscape gardener.
A glossy update of Guess Who's Coming To Dinner that does little to justify its rather optimistic title.
w Kriss Turner d Sanaa Hamri ph Shane Hurlbut m Wendy Melvoin, Lisa Coleman pd Mayne Berke ed Melissa Kent ☆ Sanaa Lathan (Kenya McQueen), Simon Baker (Brian Kelly), Blair Underwood (Mark Harper), Alfre Woodard (Joyce McQueen), Mike Epps (Walter), Donald Faison (Nelson McQueen)

'The chemistry between the leads is as unmistakable as the setup is contrived.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

Something of Value

US 1957 113m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

A young African with many English friends is initiated into the Kikuyu.
An attempt to see all sides in the case of the African ritual murders of the fifties; bloodthirsty and unconvincing as well as dull.
wd Richard Brooks novel Robert Ruark ph Russell Harlan m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Rock Hudson, Sidney Poitier, Dana Wynter, Wendy Hiller, Robert Beatty, Juano Hernandez, William Marshall, Walter Fitzgerald, Michael Pate

'Believe in Love. Believe in Life. Believe in Yourself. Believe in Miracles.'

Something to Believe In

GB/Germany 1997 113m colour 'Scope
Warner/Grade/Kirch (John Hough)

A female croupier, given two months to live, goes to Italy in search of a miracle cure, and falls in love with a concert pianist.
Risibly sentimental weepie, extraordinarily old-fashioned in its attitudes and approach.
w John Goldsmith, John Hough d John Hough ph Tony Pierce Roberts m Lalo Schifrin pd Nello Giorgetti ed Peter Tanner
☆ William McNamara, Maria Pitillo, Tom Conti, Maria Schneider, Ian Bannen, Robert Wagner, Jill St John, Roddy McDowall

'Simply defies credulity.' – Guardian
'A movie this stupid could change your life forever.' – Independent

Something to Hide

GB 1971 99m Eastmancolor
Avton (Michael Klinger)

A civil servant has a row with his wife, kills her and buries her body on the Isle of Wight.
Unpleasant and uninteresting melodrama demanding a hysterical performance from its star. Pleasant photography is its only asset.
wd Alastair Reid novel Nicholas Monsarrat ph Wolfgang Suschitzky m Roy Budd, Jack Fishman ☆ Peter Finch, Colin Blakely, John Stride, Shelley Winters, Linda Hayden, Harold Goldblatt

Something to Live For

US 1952 89m bw
Paramount (George Stevens)

A commercial artist member of Alcoholics Anonymous falls for a dipsomaniac actress but refuses to break up his marriage.
Glossy romantic melodrama with some style but no depth; the casting makes it seem like a sequel to The Lost Weekend.
w Dwight Taylor d George Stevens
ph George Barnes m Victor Young ☆ Ray Milland, Joan Fontaine, Teresa Wright, Richard Derr, Douglas Dick

'The victory over alcohol becomes a somewhat woebegone business.' – Penelope Houston

† Completed in 1950, but not released until later.

Something to Shout About

US 1943 93m bw
Columbia (Gregory Ratoff)

A press agent tries to get rid of an untalented star.
Tolerable musical comedy.
w Fred Shiller, Lou Breslow, Edward Eliscu, George Owen d Gregory Ratoff md Morris Stoloff songs Cole Porter
☆ Don Ameche, Janet Blair, William Gaxton, Perry Como ♪ Morris Stoloff; song 'You'd Be So Nice to Come Home To' Something to Sing About ★

US 1937 90m bw
Grand National (Zion Myers)

A New York bandleader decides to take a fling at Hollywood.
Lightweight but reasonably pleasing musical, made by the star as an independent during a rift with his studio, Warner.
w Austin Parker ph John Stumar md Constantin Bakaleinikoff d/songs Victor Schertzinger ☆ James Cagney, Evelyn Daw, Mona Barrie, William Frawley, Gene Lockhart

'A first-class comedy with music; will please everywhere.' – Variety

♪ Victor Schertzinger

Something to Talk About

US 1995 106m Technicolor
Warner/Spring Creek (Anthea Sylbert, Paula Weinstein)

A wife discovers that her husband has been having an affair and throws him out of the house; her mother-in-law follows her example.
Vacuous and glossy romantic comedy which emphasizes that the wealthy also suffer, though in greater comfort than the rest of us.
w Callie Khouri d Lasse Hallström
ph Sven Nykvist m Hans Zimmer, Graham Preskett pd Mel Bourne ed Mia Goldman ☆ Julia Roberts, Dennis Quaid, Robert Duvall, Gena Rowlands, Kyra Sedgwick, Brett Cullen, Haley Aull, Muse Watson

'Bland one moment and barbed the next ... dithers on like compulsive conversationalists who take twice as long as necessary to say what they want to say.' – Variety

Something Wicked This Way Comes ★

US 1983 95m Technicolor
Walt Disney/Bryna (Peter Vincent Douglas)

A sinister carnival with a power over time and age visits a small town in Illinois.
A curious departure for the Disney studio is this grim fairy tale from a novel which was probably intractable. In the cinema, this is the sort of film very lucky to find an audience despite its good qualities.
w Ray Bradbury novel Ray Bradbury
d Jack Clayton ph Stephen H. Burum
m James Horner pd Richard MacDonald
☆ Jason Robards, Jonathan Pryce, Diane Ladd, Pam Grier, Royal Dano, Vidal Peterson, Shawn Carson

Something Wild

US 1961 112m bw
(UA) Prometheus (George Justin)

A girl's life and attitudes change after she is raped, and she moves in with a garage mechanic.
A bit of a wallow, with much method acting but no clear analysis of the central relationship.
w Jack Garfein, Alex Karmel novel Mary Ann by Alex Karmel d Jack Garfein
ph Eugene Schufftan m Aaron Copland ad Richard Day ☆ Carroll Baker, Ralph Meeker, Mildred Dunnock, Charles Watts, Martin Kosleck, Jean Stapleton

Something Wild

US 1986 113m colour
Orion/Religioso Primitiva Du Art (Jonathan Demme, Kenneth Utt)

Two irresponsible young people find themselves on the run from police and criminals.
Unremarkable melodrama with trendy musical trappings.
w E. Max Frye d Jonathan Demme
ph Tak Fujimoto m John Cale, Laurie Anderson ☆ Jeff Daniels, Melanie Griffith, Ray Liotta, Margaret Colin

Something's Gotta Give ★ 6

US 2003 123m DeLuxe
Warner/Columbia (Bruce A. Block, Nancy Meyers)

After a middle-aged playboy is forced to convalesce at his girlfriend's mother's house, he finds himself attracted to the mother.
Overlong romantic comedy that begins well, but soon goes sitcom soggy; Nicholson resorts to his most familiar mannerisms, while Keaton's over-emotional performance makes one wish that she'd act her age.
wd Nancy Meyers ph Michael Ballhaus
m Hans Zimmer pd Jon Hutman ed Joe Hutshing
☆ Jack Nicholson (Harry Sanborn), Diane Keaton (Erica Barry), Keanu Reeves (Julian Mercer), Frances McDormand (Zoe), Amanda Peet (Marin), Jon Favreau (Leo), Paul Michael Glaser (Dave), Rachel Ticotin (Dr Martinez)

'Keaton's overamped girlishness, and the adolescent shenanigans she engages in, make a mockery of this overlong romantic comedy's stance as a celebration of mature love.' – Megan Lehman, New York Post

'Horrifically icky, unspeakably acted film.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

♪ Diane Keaton

Sometimes a Great Notion ★

US 1971 114m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Newman-Foreman

GB title: Never Give an Inch

In a small Oregon township, trouble is caused by an independent family of lumberjacks.
Freewheeling but unsatisfactorily eccentric comedy-melodrama which never quite jells but has flashes of individuality.
w John Gay novel Ken Kesey d Paul Newman ph Richard Moore m Henry Mancini
☆ Paul Newman, Henry Fonda, Lee Remick, Michael Sarrazin, Richard Jaeckel, Linda Lawson, Cliff Potts
♪ song 'All His Children' (m Henry Mancini, ly Alan and Marilyn Bergman); Richard Jaeckel

Somewhere I'll Find You ★

US 1942 108m bw
MGM (Pandro S. Berman)

Brother war correspondents quarrel over a girl and later find her in Indo-China smuggling Chinese babies to safety.
Absurd but satisfactory star vehicle of the second rank, with the theme designed to prepare America for war.
w Marguerite Roberts story Charles Hoffman d Wesley Ruggles ph Harold Rosson m Bronislau Kaper
☆ Clark Gable, Lana Turner, Robert Sterling, Patricia Dane, Reginald Owen, Lee Patrick, Charles Dingle, Rags Ragland, William Henry

Somewhere in England

GB 1940 79m bw
Mancunian (John E. Blakeley)

High jinks among army recruits staging a show.
One of a series of misshapen and badly made regional comedies which afflicted British cinemas in the forties and should be mentioned for their immense popularity, their new-style vulgarity (later to be refined by the Carry On series) and their highly popular stars.
w Arthur Mertz, Roney Parsons d John E. Blakeley ph Geoffrey Faithfull ☆ Frank Randle, Harry Korris, Robbie Vincent, Winki Turner, Dan Young † Subsequently released, or allowed to escape, between 1941 and 1949 were Somewhere in Camp, Somewhere on Leave, Somewhere in Civvies and Somewhere in Politics.

Somewhere in France: see The Foreman Went to France

Somewhere in Sonora

GB 1933 58m bw
Warner

A cowboy goes to the aid of his friend, whose son has been kidnapped by an outlaw gang.
John Wayne once more steps into Ken Maynard's boots in a remake of the silent star's unremarkable 1927 Western.
w Joe Roach novel Somewhere South in Sonora by Will L. Comfort d Mack V. Wright
☆ John Wayne, Henry B. Walthall, Shirley Palmer, Paul Fix, Ann Faye, Billy Franey, Ralph Lewis, Frank Rice, J. P. McGowan

Somewhere in the Night ★

US 1946 111m bw
TCF (Anderson Lawler)

An amnesiac war veteran tries to discover his true identity and discovers he is a crook with much-wanted information.
Overlong suspenser with a tentative film noir atmosphere. A few nice touches partly atone for a tediously conversational plot.
w Howard Dimsdale, Joseph L. Mankiewicz story The Lonely Journey by Marvin Borowsky d Joseph L. Mankiewicz
ph Norbert Brodine m David Buttolph ☆ John Hodiak, Nancy Guild, Lloyd Nolan,

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Richard Conte, Josephine Hutchinson, Fritz Kortner

Somewhere in Time ★

US 1980 104m Technicolor
Universal/Rastar (Stephen Deutsch)

A playwright falls in love with the photograph of an actress, and finds a way back in time to meet her.
Rather a charming variation on Berkeley Square, but hardly a theme to do well in the hardnosed eighties.
w Richard Matheson novel Bid Time Return by Richard Matheson d Jeannot Szwarc ph Isidore Mankofsky m John Barry pd Seymour Klate ed Jeff Gourson cos Jean-Pierre Dorleac
☆ Christopher Reeve (Richard Collier), Christopher Plummer (W. F. Robinson), Jane Seymour (Elise McKenna), Teresa Wright (Laura Roberts), Bill Erwin (Arthur), George Voskovec (Dr Gerald Finney), Susan French (Older Elise), John Alvin (Arthur's Father)
'A charming, witty, passionate romantic drama.' – Variety
Jean-Pierre Dorleac

Somewhere on Leave

GB 1942 96m bw
Mancunian/F. W. Baker and John E. Blakeley

New recruits in the Army go to spend a weekend in a stately home.
Low-budget comedy that switches from some low comedy music-hall routines and anarchic acrobatic fun from Randle to a stilted, badly acted romance by the young leads; it has a few amusing moments.
w Roney Parsons, Anthony Toner d John E. Blakeley ph Geoffrey Faithfull m A. W. Stanbury md Percival Mackey ad W. J. Hemsley ed E. Richards
☆ Frank Randle, Harry Korris, Dan Young, Robbie Vincent, Toni Lupino, Pat McGrath, Tonie Edgar Bruce

Somewhere Tomorrow

US 1983 87m colour
Blue Marble (Robert Wiemer, Glenn Kershaw)

After watching Topper on TV, a girl falls in love with the ghost of a boy killed in a plane crash.
Forgettable teenage romance, over-sentimental for all but the very sweet-toothed.
wd Robert Wiemer ph Glenn Kershaw m Paul Baillargeon ad Richard Hoover, Ruth Ammon ed Peter Hammer
☆ Sarah Jessica Parker, Nancy Addison, Tom Shea, Rick Weber, Paul Bates

Sommaren med Monika: see Summer with Monika

Sommarlek: see Summer Interlude

Sommarnattens Leende: see Smiles of a Summer Night

Sommersby

US/France 1993 113m Technicolor
Warner/Regency/Canal (Arnon Milchan, Steven Reuther)

After the American Civil War, a man who returns home after a gap of seven years is suspected of being an impostor.
Lush costume piece that never comes to terms with the ambiguity of its story.
w Nicholas Meyer, Sarah Kernochan d Jon Amiel ph Philippe Rousselot m Danny Elfman pd Bruno Rubeo ed Peter Boyle
☆ Richard Gere, Jodie Foster, Bill Pullman, James Earl Jones, Lanny Flaherty, William Windom, Wendell Wellman, Brett Kelley
'Fails to generate any sense of tragedy or passion, preferring to remain at a distance to the story, mistaking seriousness for profundity and aloofness for sophistication.' – Jason Drake, Sight and Sound
† It is a remake of the French film The Return of Martin Guerre (qv).

The Son: see Le Fils

Son of a Gunfighter

US/Spain 1964 90m Metrocolor Cinemascope
Zurbano/MGM (Lester Welch)

A young Westerner stalks the outlaw responsible for his mother's death.
Tolerable international Western.
w Clarke Reynolds d Paul Landres ph Manuel Berenguer md Frank Barber ☆ Russ Tamblyn, Kieron Moore, James Philbrook, Fernando Rey

Son of Ali Baba

US 1952 75m Technicolor
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

A cadet of the military academy outwits a wicked caliph.
Routine Arabian Nights hokum.
w Gerald Drayson Adams d Kurt Neumann ph Maury Gertsman m Joseph Gershenson
☆ Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie, Susan Cabot, Victor Jory

Son of Blob: see Beware! The Blob

Son of Captain Blood

Italy/Spain 1962 95m
Eastmancolor Dyaliscope
CCM/BP/Harry Joe Brown

Captain Blood's son routs his father's enemies.
Lively swashbuckler with the original star's son rather unhappily cast.
w Mario Caiano d Tulio Demicheli ph Alejandro Ulloa m Angelo Francesco Lavagnino ☆ Sean Flynn, Ann Todd, Jose Nieto, John Kitzmiller

Son of Dr Jekyll

US 1951 77m bw
Columbia

Dr Jekyll's son worries about developing a split personality, but discovers that his father's supposed friend Dr Lanyon is the spanner in the works.
Irresistibly silly elaboration of a famous story; no thrills but several good unintentional laughs.
w Mortimer Braus, Jack Pollexfen d Seymour Friedman ph Henry Freulich m Paul Sawtell
☆ Louis Hayward, Alexander Knox, Jody Lawrance, Lester Matthews, Paul Cavanagh, Gavin Muir, Rhys Williams

'Searing the screen with new terror!'

Son of Dracula ★

US 1943 80m bw
Universal (Ford Beebe)

A mysterious stranger named Alucard, with a penchant for disappearing in puffs of smoke, turns up on a Southern plantation.
Stolid series entry with a miscast lead; nicely handled moments.
w Eric Taylor d Robert Siodmak
ph George Robinson m Hans Salter
☆ Lon Chaney Jnr, Louise Allbritton, Robert Paige, Samuel S. Hinds, Evelyn Ankers, Frank Craven, J. Edward Bromberg
† The title cheats: he isn't the son of, but the old man himself ...

Son of Flubber

US 1963 100m bw
Walt Disney

An inventor tries out a rain-making machine that goes wrong.
Mildly silly comedy with a couple of amusing moments.
d Robert Stevenson ph Edward Colman m George Bruns
☆ Fred MacMurray, Nancy Olson, Keenan Wynn, Tommy Kirk, Ed Wynn, Charlie Ruggles, Leon Ames, William Demarest, Paul Lynde
† It was a sequel to The Absent-Minded Professor (qv).

'The black shadows of the past bred this half-man, half-demon!'

Son of Frankenstein ★★★

US 1939 99m bw
Universal (Rowland V. Lee)

The old baron's son comes home and starts to dabble, with the help of a broken-necked and vindictive shepherd.
Handsomely mounted sequel to Bride of Frankenstein and the last of the classic trio. The monster is less interesting, but there are plenty of other diversions, including the splendid if impractical sets.
w Willis Cooper d Rowland V. Lee ph George Robinson m Frank Skinner
ad Jack Otterson ed Ted J. Kent
☆ Basil Rathbone (Baron Wolf von Frankenstein), Boris Karloff (The Monster), Bela Lugosi (Ygor), Lionel Atwill (Inspector Krogh), Josephine Hutchinson (Elsa von Frankenstein), Donnie Dunagan (Peter von Frankenstein), Emma Dunn (Amelia), Edgar Norton (Thomas Benson), Lawrence Grant (Burgomaster)
'Rather strong material for the top keys, picture will still garner plenty of bookings in the secondary first runs along the main stem.' – Variety
'The slickness of production gives a kind of refinement to the horrific moments and a subtlety to the suspense.' – Film Weekly

Son of Fury ★

US 1942 102m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

An 18th-century Englishman is deprived of his inheritance, flees to a South Sea island but comes back seeking restitution.
Elaborate costumer which suffers from loss of suspense during the central idyll. Much to enjoy along the way.
w Philip Dunne novel Benjamin Blake by Edison Marshall d John Cromwell
ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman
☆ Tyrone Power, Gene Tierney, George Sanders, Frances Farmer, Roddy McDowall, John Carradine, Elsa Lanchester, Dudley Digges, Harry Davenport, Halliwell Hobbes
† Remade as Treasure of the Golden Condor (qv).

Son of Godzilla

Japan 1967 86m colour
Toho Company (Tomoyuki Tanaka)

Intrepid scientists, experimenting with the weather on a remote island, battle against back projections of spiders and a giant mantis as a motherless son is born to Godzilla.
Standard monster hokum, with actors in rubber suits trampling on model buildings.
w Shinichi Sekizawa, Kazue Shiba d Jun Fukuda ph Kazuo Yamada m Masaru Sato ad Takeo Kita ed Ryohei Fujii
☆ Tadeo Takashima, Bibari Maeda, Akira Kubo, Akihiko Hirata, Kenji Sahara, Yoshio Tsuchiya

Son of Kong ★

US 1933 69m bw
RKO (Merian C. Cooper)

After Kong has wrecked New York, producer Carl Denham flees from his creditors and finds more monsters on the old island.
Hasty sequel to the splendid King Kong; the results were so tame and unconvincing that the film was sold as a comedy, but it does have a few lively moments after four reels of padding.
w Ruth Rose d Ernest B. Schoedsack ph Eddie Linden, Vernon Walker, J. O. Taylor m Max Steiner sp Willis O'Brien
☆ Robert Armstrong, Helen Mack, Frank Reicher, John Marston, Victor Wong
'The sequel to and wash-up of the King Kong theme, consisting of salvaged remnants from the original production ... the punch is no longer there.' – Variety

Son of Lassie

US 1945 100m Technicolor
MGM (Samuel Marx)

A dog follows its young master to the war and helps settle the hash of a few Nazis.
Silly dog story, the first sequel to Lassie Come Home; far too slow to start with, then packed with serial-like action.
w Jeanne Bartlett d S. Sylvan Simon ph Charles Schoenbaum m Herbert Stothart ☆ Peter Lawford, Donald Crisp, June Lockhart, Nigel Bruce, Leon Ames, Nils Asther
'Good old sentimental hokum.' – Variety

Son of Monte Cristo ★

US 1940 102m bw
(UA)

The masked avenger who quashes a dictatorship in 1865 Lichtenstein is none other than the son of Edmond Dantes.
Cheerful swashbuckler of the second class.
w George Bruce d Rowland V. Lee ph George Robinson m Edward Ward ad John DuCasse Schulze
☆ Louis Hayward, Joan Bennett, George Sanders, Florence Bates, Lionel Royce, Montagu Love, Clayton Moore, Ralph Byrd
art direction

Son of Paleface ★

US 1952 95m Technicolor
(Paramount) Bob Hope (Robert L. Welch)

A tenderfoot and a government agent compete for the attentions of a lady bandit.
Gagged-up sequel to The Paleface; much of the humour now seems self-conscious and dated in the Road tradition which it apes, but there are still moments of delight.
w Frank Tashlin, Joseph Quillan, Robert L. Welch d Frank Tashlin ph Harry J. Wild m Lyn Murray
☆ Bob Hope, Roy Rogers, Jane Russell, Trigger, Douglass Dumbrille, Harry von Zell, Bill Williams, Lloyd Corrigan song 'Am I in Love' (m/ly Jack Brooks)

Son of Robin Hood

GB 1958 77m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
TCF/Argo (George Sherman)

Robin's daughter joins with the Regent's brother to overthrow the Black Duke.
Empty-headed romp, more or less in the accepted tradition.
w George George, George Slavin d George Sherman ph Arthur Grant m Leighton Lucas
☆ David Hedison, June Laverick, David Farrar, Marius Goring, Philip Friend, Delphi Lawrence, George Coulouris, George Woodbridge

'Where The Wicked Are Bold...And The Bold Are Beautiful Women!'

Son of Sinbad ★

US 1955 88m Technicolor Superscope
RKO (Robert Sparks)

Sinbad and Omar Khayyam are imprisoned by the Caliph but escape with the secret of green fire.
Arabian Nights burlesque, mainly quite bright, with the forty thieves played by harem girls.
w Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen d Ted Tetzlaff ph William Snyder m Victor Young md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ch Olga Lynn ad Albert s. D'Agostino, Walter E. Keller ed Roland A. Gross cos Michael Woulfe
☆ Dale Robertson (Sinbad), Vincent Price (Omar Khayyam), Sally Forrest (Amcer), Lili St Cyr (Nerissa), Mari Blanchard (Kristina), Leon Askin (Khalif), Jay Novello (Jiddah), Raymond Greenleaf (Simon)
† Kim Novak is among the starlets playing the forty thieves.

Son of the Bride ★★

Spain/Argentina 2001 124m colour
Pol-ka/Patagonik/Jempsa/Tornasol (Adrian Sur, Fernando Blanco, Pablo Bossi, Jorge Estrada Mora, Gerardo Herrero, Mariela Besuievsky)

original title: El Hijo De La Novia

A workaholic restaurant owner attempts to take stock of his life after suffering a heart attack.
Charming, witty and perceptive account of family relationships and disappointments; it is soft-centered without being sentimental and saves one of its best jokes for the end credits.
w Fernando Castets, Juan José Campanella d Juan José Campanella ph Daniel Shulman m Angel Illaramendi pd Juan Vera ed Camilo Antolini ☆ Ricardo Darin (Rafael Belvedere), Hector Alterio (Nino Belvedere), Norma Aleandro (Norma Belvedere), Eduardo Blanco (Juan Carlos), Natalia Verbeke (Nati), Gimena Nobile (Vicky), Claudia Fontan (Sandra)
'A comedy that touches sensitively and truthfully on tragic matters in a kindly, sympathetic way. The performances are uniformly excellent.' – Philip French, Observer
foreign film

'Who's next?'

Son of the Mask

Germany/US 2005 94m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Radar/Dark Horse (Erica Huggins, Scott Kroopf)

A baby is born with the powers of the Norse God of Mischief, transferred by Loki's mask, which was worn by the child's father at the moment of his conception.
Loud, frantic and dismally unfunny farce that relies on computer-generated special effects rather than anything as hand-crafted as an original joke.
w Lance Khazei d Lawrence Guterman ph Greg Gardiner m Randy Edelman pd Leslie Dilley ed Malcolm Campbell, Debra Neil Fisher
☆ Jamie Kennedy (Tim Avery), Alan Cumming (Loki), Liam and Ryan Falconer (Alvey), Traylor Howard (Tonya Avery), Steven Wright (Daniel Moss), Bob Hoskins (Odin), Bear (Otis)
'A truly numbing experience.' – Variety

'Clumsy has a colour all its own.'

Son of the Pink Panther

US 1993 93m DeLuxe
MGM/UA/Filmauro (Tony Adams)

A French policeman, the illegitimate son of Inspector Clouseau, hinders the investigation of the kidnapping of a princess by terrorists.
Benigni, a natural clown with splendidly fractured English, was an ideal choice, if one had to be made, to take over the role of a bumbling policeman in the Pink Panther series – but that had already become lacking in inspiration during Peter Sellers's time and now its condition is terminal; even natural clowns need good material.
w Blake Edwards, Steve Sunshine, Madeline Sunshine d Blake Edwards ph Dick Bush m Henry Mancini pd Peter Mullins ed Robert Pergament
☆ Roberto Benigni, Herbert Lom, Debrah Farentino, Claudia Cardinale, Robert Davi, Burt Kwouk, Graham Stark, Oliver Cotton, Anton Rodgers
'A tired pastiche of recycled sketches and gags.' – Variety

'An eye feast of virile action, colourful settings and glowing climaxes!'

The Son of the Sheik ★

US 1926 74m (24 fps) bw silent (UA)

Ahmed protects a dancing girl from a band of renegades.
Tongue-in-cheek desert romp which was probably its star's best film. He plays a dual role of father and son.
w Frances Marion, George Marion Jnr, Frederick Gresac d George Fitzmaurice m (1934 sound version) Jack Ward
☆ Rudolph Valentino, Vilma Banky, Agnes Ayres
'The very picture for which the world's wife, mother and daughter have been waiting!' – Louella Parsons
'We expect every fan in the country to be saying: It is Rudy's best. We can never forget him.' – Photoplay

Son-in-Law

US 1993 95m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood Pictures (Michael Rotenberg, Peter M. Lenkov)

A girl takes her Californian boyfriend home to the family farm for Thanksgiving.
A sickly, oversweet comedy featuring an antic, unfunny comedian caught in direly predictable situations.
w Fax Bahr, Adam Small, Shawn Schepps story Patrick J. Clifton, Susan McMartin, Peter Lenkov d Steve Rash ph Peter Deming m Richard Gibbs pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Dennis M. Hill
☆ Pauly Shore, Carla Gugino, Lane Smith, Cindy Pickett, Mason Adams, Patrick Renna, Dennis Burkley
'You'd have to dig way back to the likes of Sleep 'n' Eat and the Bowery Boys' Huntz Hall to find a moron-funnyman persona as irksome as Pauly Shore's.' – Variety

Sonatine

Canada 1983 92m colour
Corporation Image/M & M (Pierre Gendron)

Two teenage girls form tentative relationships with older men before joining in a public suicide pact.
Trite tale of teenagers unable to make contact with a wider world than themselves.
wd Micheline Lanctôt ph Guy Dufaux m François Lanctôt ed Louise Surprenant ☆ Pascale Bussieres, Marcia Pilote, Pierre Fauteux, Kliment Dentchev

Sonatine ★

Japan 1993 93m colour
ICA/Bandai/Shochiku Dai-ichi Kogyo (Masayuki Mori, Hisao Nabeshima, Takio Yoshida)

A violent Tokyo gangster, sent to intervene in a gang war in Okinawa, realizes that he has made a mistake and, after relaxing at the seaside with his gang, faces a final showdown.
An odd gangster movie, violent and downbeat, but also veering away from the genre into casual moments of fun and games.
wd Takeshi Kitano ph Katsumi Yanagishima m Joe Hisaishi ad Osamu Sasaki ed Takeshi Kitano
☆ 'Beat' Takeshi (Takeshi Kitano), Aya Kokumai, Tetsu Watanabe, Masanobu Katsumura, Susumu Terashima, Ren Ohsugi, Tonbo Zushi, Kenichi Yajima
'Pic's combo of dry humor, sudden bursts of violence, and world-weary romanticism will take a while to build for first-time viewers of Kitano's movies, and the jigsaw of plot and characters only takes recognisable shape about halfway in.' – Variety

Söndags Barn: see Sunday's Children

A Song Is Born ★

US 1948 113m Technicolor
Samuel Goldwyn

A young academic, one of a group of professors researching the history of music, becomes involved with a nightclub singer.
Flat remake of Ball of Fire (qv), graced by an array of top-flight musical talent.
w Harry Tugend d Howard Hawks ph Gregg Toland m Hugo Friedhofer md Emil Newman songs Don Raye, Gene de Paul ☆ Danny Kaye, Virginia Mayo, Hugh Herbert, Steve Cochran, Felix Bressart, J. Edward Bromberg, Mary Field, Ludwig Stossel, Louis Armstrong, Charlie Barnet, Benny Goodman, Lionel Hampton, Tommy Dorsey, Mel Powell

Song o' My Heart

US 1930 85m bw
Fox

A professional singer looks after the orphaned children of his former love.
A thin story is the excuse for a great tenor to sing eleven songs.
w Tom Barry, J. J. McCarthy d Frank Borzage
☆ John McCormack, Maureen O'Sullivan, John Garrick, J. M. Kerrigan, Alice Joyce
'A simple tale charmingly told ... sitting through it is no hardship.' – Variety

'We're going to see Jennifer Jones again in...'

The Song of Bernadette ★★

US 1943 156m bw
TCF (William Perlberg)

A peasant girl has a vision of the Virgin Mary at what becomes the shrine of Lourdes.
Hollywood religiosity at its most commercial; but behind the lapses of taste and truth is an excellent production which was phenomenally popular and created a new star.
w George Seaton novel Franz Werfel d Henry King ph Arthur Miller m Alfred Newman ad James Basevi, William Darling ed Barbara McLean
☆ Jennifer Jones, William Eythe, Charles Bickford, Vincent Price, Lee J. Cobb, Gladys Cooper, Anne Revere, Roman Bohnen, Patricia Morison, Aubrey Mather, Charles Dingle, Mary Anderson, Edith Barrett, Sig Rumann
PROLOGUE: 'For those who believe in God, no explanation is necessary. For those who do not believe in God, no explanation is possible.'
'A tamed and pretty image, highly varnished, sensitively lighted, and exhibited behind immaculate glass, the window at once of a shrine and of a box office.' – James Agee
'It contains much to conciliate even the crustiest and most prejudiced objector.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
Arthur Miller; Alfred Newman; Jennifer Jones; James Basevi, William Darling best picture; George Seaton; Henry King; Charles Bickford; Gladys Cooper; Anne Revere; Barbara McLean

Song of Ceylon ★★

GB 1934 40m bw
Ceylon Tea Board (John Grierson)

A pictorial, almost sensuous, but not very informative documentary in four sections: 'The Buddha', 'The Virgin Island', 'The Voices of Commerce', 'The Apparel of a God'. Its influence was immense.
m Walter Leigh wd/ph Basil Wright

Song of Freedom ★

GB 1936 80m bw
Hammer (J. Fraser Passmore)

A black London docker becomes an opera singer, then goes to Africa to free the tribe of which he has discovered himself to be the head.
A weird fable but a good star vehicle and a surprisingly smart production for the time.
w Fenn Sherie, Ingram d'Abbes, Michael Barringer, Philip Lindsay d J. Elder Wills ph Eric Cross
☆ Paul Robeson, Elizabeth Welch, George Mozart, Esmé Percy
'The direction is distinguished but not above reproach, the story is sentimental and absurd, and yet a sense stays in the memory of an unsophisticated mind fumbling on the edge of simple and popular poetry.' – Graham Greene

Song of India

US 1949 77m bw
Columbia (Albert S. Rogell)

An Indian prince protects his land against a big game hunter.
Not much singing, but lots of animals and a fight with knives: tolerable programme filler.
w Art Arthur, Kenneth Perkins d Albert S. Rogell
☆ Sabu, Gail Russell, Turhan Bey, Anthony Caruso, Aminta Dyne, Fritz Leiber

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Song of Love ★

US 1947 118m bw
MGM (Clarence Brown)

The story of Clara and Robert Schumann and their friend Johannes Brahms.
Dignified musical biopic which unfortunately falls into most of the pitfall clichés of the genre. Dull it may be, but it looks good and the music is fine.
w Ivan Tors, Irmgard von Cube, Allen Vincent, Robert Ardrey d Clarence Brown ph Harry Stradling md Bronislau Kaper ad Cedric Gibbons piano Artur Rubinstein
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Paul Henreid, Robert Walker, Henry Daniell, Leo G. Carroll, Elsa Janssen, Gigi Perreau

'This is how Brahms and the Schumanns might very possibly have acted if they had realized that later on they would break into the movies.' – Time

Song of Norway ★

US 1970 141m DeLuxe Super Panavision 70
ABC/Andrew and Virginia Stone

A fantasia on the life of Grieg.
Multinational hodgepodge, mostly in the Sound of Music style but with everything from cartoons to Christmas cracker backgrounds. Quite watchable, and the landscapes are certainly splendid.
wd Andrew Stone play Homer Curran stage musical Milton Lazarus (book), Robert Wright, George Forrest (m/ly) ph Davis Boulton md Roland Shaw ad William Albert Havemeyer ed Virginia Lively Stone ☆ Toralv Maurstad, Florence Henderson, Christina Schollin, Frank Porretta, Harry Secombe, Edward G. Robinson, Robert Morley, Elizabeth Larner, Bernard Archard, Oscar Homolka, Richard Wordsworth

Song of Russia

US 1944 107m bw
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

An American symphony conductor is in Russia when hostilities begin, and watches the citizens' war effort with admiration.
A terrible big-budget film which followed the wartime propaganda line but five years later was heavily criticized by the Unamerican Activities Committee (for the wrong reasons).
w Paul Jarrico, Richard Collins d Gregory Ratoff ph Harry Stradling m Herbert Stothart
☆ Robert Taylor, Susan Peters, John Hodiak, Robert Benchley, Felix Bressart, Michael Chekhov, Darryl Hickman

'Film makers have evolved a new tongue – the broken accent deriving from no known language to be used by foreigners on all occasions.' – Richard Winnington
'MGM performs the neatest trick of the week by leaning over backward in Russia's favour without once swaying from right to left.' – Newsweek

Song of Scheherezade

US 1947 107m Technicolor
Universal (Edward Kaufman)

In 1865 naval cadet Rimsky-Korsakov falls in love with a dancer.
Yet another composer takes a drubbing in this dull and unconvincing hodgepodge.
wd Walter Reisch ph Hal Mohr, William V. Skall md Miklos Rozsa ch Tilly Losch ad Jack Otterson
☆ Yvonne de Carlo, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Brian Donlevy, Eve Arden, Charles Kullman, John Qualen, Richard Lane, Terry Kilburn

'One of the world's great love stories comes to the star who can make it live!'

Song of Songs ★

US 1933 89m bw
Paramount (Rouben Mamoulian)

A German peasant girl falls for a sculptor but marries a lecherous baron.
Pretentious romantic nonsense, made fairly palatable by the director's steady hand.
w Leo Birinsky, Samuel Hoffenstein play Edward Sheldon novel Das hohe Lied by Herman Sudermann d Rouben Mamoulian ph Victor Milner m Karl Hajos, Milan Rodern ad Hans Dreier
☆ Marlene Dietrich, Brian Aherne, Lionel Atwill, Alison Skipworth, Hardie Albright

'An ornate and irresistible slice of outright hokum.' – Peter John Dyer, 1966

Song of Songs ★

GB 2005 81m colour
Soda/Wild Horses (Gayle Griffiths)

Returning from Israel to North London to look after her dying mother, a Jewish woman begins a quasi-incestuous relationship with her brother.
Intense, claustrophobic psychological drama that leaves too much unexplained to be entirely satisfying.
w Josh Appignanesi, Jay Basu d Josh Appignanesi ph Nanu Segal pd Erik Rehl ed Nicolas Chaudeurge
☆ Nathalie Press (Ruth), Joel Chalfen (David), Julia Swift (Sarah), Leon Lissek (Rabbi Berg), Félicité Du Jeu (Abigail)

'Creates the impression that one is peeping through the keyhole into a secret world – not so much a religious milieu, but a private, unventilated family hell – the experience of which is fascinating, but far from gratifying.' – Demetrios Matheou, Independent

'From the moment she heard this strange, compelling music of love – she was lost!'

Song of Surrender

US 1949 93m bw
Paramount (Richard Maibaum)

In turn-of-the-century New England, a sophisticated visitor from New York falls for the wife of the museum curator.
Ho-hum romantic drama, well enough presented.
w Richard Maibaum d Mitchell Leisen ph Daniel L. Fapp m Victor Young ☆ Wanda Hendrix, Claude Rains, Macdonald Carey, Andrea King, Henry Hull, Elizabeth Patterson, Art Smith

Song of the Islands ★

US 1942 75m Technicolor
TCF (William Le Baron)

On a South Sea island, the daughter of an Irish beachcomber falls for the son of an American cattle king.
Wispy musical with agreeable settings and lively songs.
w Joseph Schrank, Robert Pirosh, Robert Ellis, Helen Logan d Walter Lang ph Ernest Palmer md Alfred Newman songs various ☆ Betty Grable, Victor Mature, Jack Oakie, Thomas Mitchell, Hilo Hattie, Billy Gilbert, George Barbier

Song of the Open Road

US 1944 93m bw
UA (Charles R. Rogers)

A dissatisfied child movie star goes off to help volunteers to save a tomato crop.
Thin youth drama enlivened by a putting-on-a-show finale.
w Albert Mannheimer d S. Sylvan Simon
☆ Jane Powell, Bonita Granville, Jackie Moran, W. C. Fields, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Sammy Kaye and his orchestra
♪ Charles Previn (music direction); song 'Too Much in Love' (m Walter Kent, ly Kim Gannon)

Song of the Road ★

GB 1937 73m bw
UK Films

Laid off when the firm they work for goes over to lorries, a man and his cart-horse travel through a Britain that is becoming mechanized, looking for work.
Sentimental, idealized account of a country at peace with itself and its institutions; it has a gentle charm in its narrative of a simple, honourable man putting the world to rights.
w Gerald Elliott d John Baxter ph Jack Parker ad John Bryan ed Sidney Stone ☆ Bransby Williams (Bill), Ernest Butcher (Foreman), Muriel George (Mrs Trelawney), Davy Burnaby (Mr Keppel), Tod Slaughter (Dan Lorenzo), John Turnbull (Bristow)

Song of the South ★

US 1946 94m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Perce Pearce)

On a long-ago Southern plantation, small boys listen to the Brer Rabbit stories from an elderly black servant.
Too much Uncle Remus and not enough Brer Rabbit, we fear, but children liked it. The cartoons were actually very good.
w Dalton Raymond d Harve Foster, Wilfred Jackson ph Gregg Toland m Daniele Amfitheatrof, Paul J. Smith, Charles Wolcott cartoon credits various ☆ Ruth Warrick, Bobby Driscoll, James Baskett, Luana Patten, Lucile Watson, Hattie McDaniel

'The ratio of live to cartoon action is approximately two to one, and that is the ratio of the film's mediocrity to its charm.' – Bosley Crowther

♟ song 'Zip-a-Dee-Do-Dah' (m Allie Wrubel, ly Ray Gilbert); James Baskett (special award)
♪ Daniele Amfitheatrof, Paul J. Smith, Charles Wolcott

A Song to Remember ★★

US 1944 113m Technicolor
Columbia (Louis F. Edelman)

The life and death of Chopin and his liaison with George Sand.
Hilarious classical musical biopic which was unexpectedly popular and provoked a flood of similar pieces. As a production, not at all bad, but the script...
w Sidney Buchman d Charles Vidor ph Tony Gaudio, Allan M. Davey md Miklos Rozsa, Morris Stoloff ad Lionel Banks, Van Nest Polglase ed Charles Nelson piano José Iturbi
☆ Cornel Wilde, Merle Oberon, Paul Muni, Stephen Bekassy, Nina Foch, George Coulouris, Sig Arno, Howard Freeman, George Macready

'It is the business of Hollywood to shape the truth into box-office contours.' – Richard Winnington
'This glorious picture is a major event in film history.' – Hollywood Reporter
'As infuriating and funny a misrepresentation of an artist's life and work as I have seen.' – James Agee

♪ original story (Ernst Marischka); Tony Gaudio, Allen M. Davey; Miklos Rozsa, Morris Stoloff; Cornel Wilde; Charles Nelson

Song without End

US 1960 142m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
Columbia (William Goetz)

The life and loves of Franz Liszt.
What worked at the box-office for Chopin failed disastrously for Liszt; famous people are turned into papier mâché dullards. Again, the production is elegance itself.
w Oscar Millard d Charles Vidor, George Cukor ph James Wong Howe md Morris Stoloff, Henry Sukman ad Walter Holscher piano Jorge Bolet
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Capucine, Genevieve Page, Patricia Morison, Ivan Desny, Martita Hunt, Lyndon Brook, Alex Davion (Chopin)
♟ Morris Stoloff, Henry Sukman

Songs From the Second Floor: see Sanger Fran Andra Vaningen

Songwriter

US 1984 94m Metrocolor
Tri-Star (Sydney Pollack)

Adventures of a country-music duo.
Very moderate entertainment which gives the impression of stars doing their own thing.
w Bud Shrake d Alan Rudolph ph Matthew Leonetti m Kris Kristofferson pd Joel Schiller ed Stuart Pappe
☆ Willie Nelson, Kris Kristofferson, Melinda Dillon, Rip Torn, Lesley Ann Warren, Richard C. Sarafian
♪ Kris Kristofferson (for music)

Sono Otoko Kyobo ni Tsuki: see Violent Cop

Sons ★

US 1989 88m DuArt
Pacific (Marc Toberoff)

Three warring brothers take their father, unable to speak or walk after a stroke, to Normandy to find the Frenchwoman he loved when he was a soldier during the Second World War.
Meandering, episodic movie of sibling conflicts with a few flashes of insight and originality.
w Alexandre Rockwell, Brandon Cole d Alexandre Rockwell ph Stefan Czapsky m Mader pd Virginia Fields ed Jay Freund
☆ William Forsythe, D. B. Sweeney, Robert Miranda, Samuel Fuller, Stéphane Audran, Judith Godreche, William Hickey, Jennifer Beals, Shirley Stoller, Bernard Fresson

'The first experiences of a young man in the mysteries of woman!'

Sons and Lovers ★★★

GB 1960 103m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Company of Artists/Jerry Wald

A Nottingham miner's son learns about life and love.
Well-produced and generally absorbing, if unsurprising, treatment of a famous novel.
w Gavin Lambert, T. E. B. Clarke novel D. H. Lawrence d Jack Cardiff ph Freddie Francis m Mario Nascimbene ad Tom Morahan
☆ Dean Stockwell (Paul Morel), Trevor Howard (Walter Morel), Wendy Hiller (Mrs. Morel), Mary Ure (Clara Dawes), Heather Sears (Miriam Lievers), William Lucas (William), Donald Pleasence (Pappleworth), Ernest Thesiger (Henry Hadlock)

'An album of decent Edwardian snapshots.' – Peter John Dyer

'A rare, remarkable and courageous film.' – Daily Herald
Freddie Francis best picture; script; Jack Cardiff; Trevor Howard; Mary Ure; art direction

Sons o' Guns
US 1936 79m bw
Warner
A Broadway dancer in uniform finds himself accidentally enlisted and sent to France.
Among the better comedies of this star.
w Julius J. Epstein, Jerry Wald d Lloyd Bacon
☆ Joe E. Brown, Joan Blondell, Eric Blore, Wini Shaw, Robert Barrat

The Sons of Katie Elder *
US 1965 122m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis (Paul Nathan)
At Katie Elder's funeral, her four troublesome wandering sons find themselves on the verge of further trouble.
Sluggish all-star Western with predictable highlights.
w Allan Weiss, William H. Wright, Harry Essex d Henry Hathaway ph Lucien Ballard m Elmer Bernstein
☆ John Wayne, Dean Martin, Michael Anderson Jnr, Earl Holliman, Martha Hyer, Jeremy Slate, James Gregory, George Kennedy, Paul Fix

Sons of the Desert ****
US 1934 68m bw
Hal Roach
GB title: Fraternally Yours
Stan and Ollie want to go to a Chicago convention, but kid their wives that they are going on a cruise for health reasons.
Archetypal Laurel and Hardy comedy, unsurpassed for gags, pacing and sympathetic characterization.
w Frank Craven, Byron Morgan d William A. Seiter ph Kenneth Peach m/ly Marvin Hatley ed Bert Jordan
☆ Stan Laurel (Himself), Oliver Hardy (Himself), Charley Chase (Himself), Mae Busch (Mrs. Lottie Chase Hardy), Dorothy Christie (Mrs. Betty Laurel), Lucien Littlefield (Dr. Horace Meddick)
'Funny all the way through.' – New York Times

Sons of the Musketeers: see At Sword's Point

The Son's Room: see La Stanza del Figlio

Sophie Scholl: The Final Days  (7)
Germany/France 2005 117m colour
ICA/Goldkind/Broth (Chistoph Mueller, Sven Burgemeister, Fred Breinersdorfer, Marc Rothemund)
original title: Sophie Scholl: Die Letzten Tage
The last six days in the life of a German student, arrested in 1943 for for distributing anti-Nazi leaflets.
Based on the true story of Sophie Scholl, a member of the White Rose resistance group, the film follows her arrest, interrogation and execution by the Nazis, letting the facts speak for themselves.
w Fred Breinersdorfer d Marc Rothemund ph Martin Langer m Johnny Klimek, Reinhold Heil ad Jana Karen ed Hans Funck
☆ Julia Jentsch (Sophie Scholl), Alexander Held (Robert Mohr), Fabian Hinrichs (Hans Scholl), Johanna Gastdorf (Else Gebel), André Hennicke (Richter Dr Roland Freisler)
'Grim, but serious and worthwhile.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
foreign film

Sophie's Choice *
US 1982 157m Technicolor
Universal/AFD/ITC/Keith Barish
In 1947, a Polish girl who has been in a concentration camp finds that her past still haunts her in New York.
Glum romantic drama about guilt and retribution, long and uncinematic as well as rather poorly done; but its intentions are doubtless honourable.
wd Alan J. Pakula novel William Styron ph Nestor Almendros m Marvin Hamlisch pd George Jenkins ed Evan Lottman ☆ Meryl Streep, Kevin Kline, Peter MacNicol, Rita Karin, Stephen D. Newman, Josh Mostel
'Handsome, doggedly faithful and astoundingly tedious.' – Variety
'Not boring, simply unilluminating. By the end, only one question remains: why did Pakula have to make this movie?' – Sight and Sound
Meryl Streep
screenplay (adaptation); cinematography; costume design; music

Sophie's Place: see Crooks and Coronets

Sorcerer
US 1977 121m Technicolor
Universal/Film Properties International (William Friedkin)
GB title: Wages of Fear
Volunteers are needed to drive nitroglycerine to an outpost in the South American jungle.
Why anyone should have wanted to spend twenty million dollars on a remake of The Wages of Fear, do it badly, and give it a misleading title is anybody's guess. The result is dire.
w Walon Green novel Georges Arnaud (and the film by Henri-Georges Clouzot) d William Friedkin ph John M. Stephens, Dick Bush m Tangerine Dream, Keith Jarrett, Charlie Parker pd John Box ☆ Roy Scheider, Bruno Cremer, Francisco Rabal, Amidou, Ramon Bieri sound

The Sorcerers
GB 1967 85m Eastmancolor
Tigon/Curtwel/Global (Patrick Curtis, Tony Tenser)
An old couple find a way of regaining their youth through hypnotizing a young man to do their bidding.
Rather slight but oddly memorable horror film, with an elegant old lady becoming the real monster.
w Michael Reeves, Tom Baker, John Burke d Michael Reeves ph Stanley Long m Paul Ferris ☆ Boris Karloff, Catherine Lacey, Ian Ogilvy, Elizabeth Ercy, Victor Henry, Susan George, Meier Tzelniker

Les Sorcières de Salem: see The Witches of Salem

La Sorella di Satana: see She Beast

Sorok Pervyi: see The Forty First

Sorority Girl
US 1957 61m bw
AIP/Sunset (Roger Corman)
A poor little rich college girl feels alienated from her mother and her contemporaries.
Corman's campus exploitation movie is positively middle-aged in its stodgy approach, with a cast that looks far too old and a script mouldering with aged clichés.
w Ed Waters story Leo Lieberman d Roger Corman ph Monroe P. Askins m Ronald Stein ed Charles Gross Jnr
☆ Susan Cabot, Dick Miller, Barboura O'Neill, June Kenney, Barbara Crane, Fay Baker, Jeanne Wood, Joan Lora

Sorrell and Son
GB 1933 97m bw
B and D/Herbert Wilcox
When his wife leaves them, a man devotes his life to his worthless son.
Fair picturization of a popular novel.
w Lydia Hayward novel Warwick Deeping d Jack Raymond ph Cyril Bristow ☆ H. B. Warner, Hugh Williams, Winifred Shotter, Margot Grahame, Donald Calthrop, Louis Hayward 'Insufficient in action for the average American screen devotee.' – Variety † H. B. Warner played the same role in the silent version of 1927.

Sorrowful Jones
US 1949 88m bw
Paramount (Robert L. Welch)
A racetrack tout unofficially adopts an orphan girl.
Heavy-going sentimental comedy peopled by comic gangsters, a remake of Little Miss Marker with the emphasis changed.
w Melville Shavelson, Edmund Hartmann, Jack Rose story Damon Runyon d Sidney Lanfield ph Daniel L. Fapp m Robert Emmett Dolan
☆ Bob Hope, Lucille Ball, William Demarest, Bruce Cabot, Thomas Gomez, Tom Pedi, Houseley Stevenson, Mary Jane Saunders

The Sorrows of Satan *
US 1926 115m approx bw silent
Famous Players/Paramount
A struggling writer accepts success in the form of a fortune offered to him by a prince who is in fact Satan.
Smooth Faust derivative with a few choice scenes of special effects.
w Forrest Halsey, John Russell, George Hull novel Marie Corelli d D. W. Griffith (who didn't want to do it)
☆ Adolphe Menjou, Ricardo Cortez, Lya de Putti, Carol Dempster, Ivan Lebedeff

Sorry, Wrong Number **
US 1948 89m bw
Paramount (Hal B. Wallis, Anatole Litvak)
A bedridden neurotic woman discovers she is marked for murder and tries to summon help.
Artificial but effective suspenser, extended from a radio play.
w Lucille Fletcher play Lucille Fletcher d Anatole Litvak ph Sol Polito m Franz Waxman ed Warren Low ☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Burt Lancaster, Ann Richards, Wendell Corey, Ed Begley, Harold Vermilyea, Leif Erickson, William Conrad
'The people who made it ... have tried to do just one thing – to thrill. This they have triumphantly done.' – James Monahan
Barbara Stanwyck

Sorstalansag: see Fateless

Sorted
GB 2000 102m colour
Metrodome/Jovy Junior (Fabrizio Chiesa, Mark Crowdy)
A lawyer comes to London to investigate the death of his brother and discovers his involvement with drug-dealing in clubland.
Slick but empty thriller, with a predictable plot and cardboard characters.
w Nick Villiers screenplay Christian Spurrier, Malcolm Campbell story Alex Jovy d Alex Jovy ph Mike Southon m Guy Farley pd Eve Stewart ed Justin Krish cos Ffion Elinor ☆ Matthew Rhys, Sienna Guillory, Tim Curry, Fay Masterson, Jason Donovan, Steven Marcus, Kelly Brook, Sebastian Knapp
'About as enjoyable as an aspirin sandwich.' – Dan Jolin, Total Film

Soshun: see Early Spring

Sotto Gli Occhi Dell'Assassino: see Tenebrae

Le Souffle *
France 2001 77m bw
Metro Tartan/Morgane (Gérard Lacroix)
US title: Deep Breath
A troubled, bored youth, who is spending a summer with his uncle on a ramshackle farm, dreams of escape.
Glum rustic melodrama that focuses on the pent-up aggression of a shiftless teenager who regards drunkeness as a necessary initiation into an adult world of outsize appettes.
wd Damien Odoul ph Pascale Granel ad Hélène Melani ed Gwenola Heaulme
☆ Pierre-Louis Bonnetblanc (David), Dominique Chevalier (Jacques), Maxime Dalbrut (Paul), Jean-Claude Lecante (Jean-Claude), Jean Milord (M'sieur Milord), Stéphane Terpereau (Stef), Laurent Simon (Matthieu)
'It's well done in its way, but you leave the movie feeling pretty rotten about the world.' – Philip French, Observer
† The cast was a non-professional one.

Le Souffle au Coeur ***
France/Italy/West Germany 1971 118m colour
NEF/Marianne Films/Video Films/Seitz (Maurice Urbain)
US title: Murmur of the Heart
aka: Dearest Love
Recovering from an illness at a spa, a 15-year-old boy overcomes his sexual problems after sleeping, almost inadvertently, with his mother.
A witty and observant study of middle-class attitudes to love, sex and adolescent traumas, with incest forming a minor theme.
wd Louis Malle ph Ricardo Aronovich m Gaston Frèche, Sidney Bechet, Henri Renaud, Charlie Parker pd Jean-Jacques Caziot, Philippe Turlure ad Jean-Jacques Caziot, Philippe Turlure ed Suzanne Baron ☆ Léa Massari (Clara Chevalier), Benoit Ferreux (Laurent Chevalier), Daniel Gelin (the Father), Michel Lonsdale (Father Henri), Ave Ninchi (Augusta), Gila von Weitershausen (Freda)
Louis Malle (writer)

Soul Food
US 1997 114m DeLuxe
TCF (Tracey E. Edmonds, Robert Teitel)
A family group, of three sisters and their husbands, begins to disintegrate when their mother sickens and dies.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆Cast in approximate order of importance · †Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

An unimaginative, familiar domestic drama, set around a ritual of Sunday lunches, in which squabbling siblings are finally reconciled.
wd George Tillman ph Paul Elliott
m Wendy Melvoin, Lisa Coleman
pd Maxine Shepard ed John Carter
☆ Vanessa L. Williams, Vivica A. Fox, Nia Long, Michael Beach, Mekhi Phifer, Brandon Hammond, Jeffrey D. Sams, Gina Ravera, Irma P. Hall, Carl Wright
'A rich tapestry of characters and stories deftly woven together to create an engaging and satisfying drama. Colourful, observant and refreshingly free from cliché.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

Soul in the Hole ★
US 1995 99m colour
Metrodome/Asphalt (Lilibert Foster)
In Brooklyn in 1993, an amateur coach leads his street basketball team to some famous victories.
An interesting documentary on a street culture that offers a means of escape from the ghetto.
d Danielle Gardner ph Paul Gibson
ed Melissa Neidich
☆ Kenny Jones, Ed Smith, Gary Sims, Javone Moore, Braheen Cotton, Charles Jones, Dennis Miller

The Soul Kiss: see A Lady's Morals

Soul Man
US 1986 101m Technicolor Panavision
New World (Steve Tisch)
A white student tans his skin to win a black scholarship to law school.
Despite its premise, basically a farce of mistaken identities rather than a treatment of racism.
w Carol Black d Steve Miner ph Jeffrey Jur m Tom Scott pd Greg Fonseca
ed David Finfer
☆ C. Thomas Howell, Rae Dawn Chong, Arye Gross, Melora Hardin, James B. Sikking, Leslie Nielsen, James Earl Jones

The Soul of a Monster
US 1944 61m bw
Columbia (Ted Richmond)
A rich man is saved from death by a female hypnotist, who keeps him under her spell.
Unusual but not very interesting thriller.
w Edward Dein d Will Jason ☆ Rose Hobart, George Macready, Jim Bannon, Jeanne Bates

'The party is nonstop.'
Soul Plane
US 2004 86m DeLuxe
MGM (David Scott Rubin, Jessy Terrero)
A black entrepreneur starts his own airline, NWA, with a stoned pilot who has never flown before.
Weak attempt to produce an Airplane*-style spoof for the hiphop generation. It doesn't fly because they forgot to serve any jokes.*
w Bo Zenga, Chuck Wilson d Jessy Terrero ph Jonathan Sela m the RZA pd Robb Buono ed Michael R. Miller
☆ Kevin Hart (Nashawn), Tom Arnold (Mr Hunkee), Method Man (Muggsy), Snoop Dogg (Captain Mack), K.D. Aubert (Giselle), Godfrey (Gaeman)
'If you're looking for comic insights beyond the well-documented ass differential between whites and blacks, well, golly, you ought to try another carrier.' – Scott Brown, Entertainment Weekly

'The World of the Dead and the World of the Living... are about to Collide.'
Soul Survivors
US 2001 85m DeLuxe
Momentum/Artisan (Neal H. Moritz, Stokely Chaffin)
Following a car crash, a college student is haunted by her boyfriend, who died in the accident.
A 'teen variation on Jacob's Ladder that never gets off the ground.
wd Steve Carpenter ph Fred Murphy
m Daniel Licht pd Larry Fulton ed Janice Hampton, Todd Ramsay
☆ Melissa Sagemiller (Cassie), Casey Affleck (Sean), Wes Bentley (Matt), Eliza Dushku (Annabel), Angela Featherstone (Raven), Luke Wilson (Father Jude), Allen Hamilton (Dr Haverston), Ken Moreno (Hideous Dancer), Carl Paoli (Deathmask)
'A horror movie without horror, a spook pic without spookiness and a metaphysical drama without the slightest spiritual tug.' – Robert Koehler, Variety

'Out of the secret annals of the sea comes the strangest story ever told!'
Souls at Sea ★
US 1937 93m bw
Paramount (Henry Hathaway)
In a 19th-century shipwreck an intelligence officer must save himself, and his mission, at the cost of other lives, and is courtmartialled.
A lively seafaring melodrama produced on a fairly impressive scale.
w Grover Jones, Dale Van Every d Henry Hathaway ph Charles Lang Jnr m Milan Roder, W. Franke Harling md Boris Morros ad Hans Dreier, Roland Anderson
☆ Gary Cooper, George Raft, Frances Dee, Henry Wilcoxon, Harry Carey, Olympe Bradna, Robert Cummings, Porter Hall, George Zucco, Virginia Weidler, Joseph Schildkraut, Gilbert Emery
'First rate slave ship adventure.' – Variety
Milan Roder, W. Franke Harling; art direction

The Sound and the Fury
US 1959 117m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF/Jerry Wald
A once proud Southern family has sunk low in finance and moral stature, and a stern elder son tries to do something about it.
Heavy melodrama with performances to match.
w Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jnr novel William Faulkner d Martin Ritt ph Charles G. Clarke m Alex North ☆ Yul Brynner, Joanne Woodward, Margaret Leighton, Stuart Whitman, Ethel Waters, Jack Warden, Françoise Rosay, John Beal, Albert Dekker
'A fourth carbon copy of Chekhov in Dixie.' – Stanley Kauffmann

The Sound Barrier ★★
GB 1952 118m bw
London Films (David Lean)
US title: Breaking the Sound Barrier
An aircraft manufacturer takes risks with the lives of his family and friends to prove that the sound barrier can be broken.
Riveting, then topical, melodrama with splendid air sequences; a bit upper crust, but with well-drawn characters.
w Terence Rattigan d David Lean ph Jack Hildyard m Malcolm Arnold
☆ Ralph Richardson, Nigel Patrick, Ann Todd, John Justin, Dinah Sheridan, Joseph Tomelty, Denholm Elliott
'The most exciting film about the air that has ever been produced anywhere.' – Daily Express
'A peacetime film as exciting as any wartime one.' – Sunday Dispatch
Terence Rattigan
film; British film; Ralph Richardson

The Sound of Fury: see Try and Get Me

'The Happiest Sound In All The World!'
The Sound of Music ★★★
US 1965 172m DeLuxe Todd-AO
TCF/Argyle (Robert Wise)
In 1938 Austria, a trainee nun becomes governess to the Trapp family, falls in love with the widower father, and helps them all escape from the Nazis.
Slightly muted, very handsome version of an enjoyably old-fashioned stage musical with splendid tunes.
w Ernest Lehman book Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse d Robert Wise ph Ted McCord m/ly Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II md Irwin Kostal pd Boris Leven ed William Reynolds
☆ Julie Andrews (Maria), Christopher Plummer (Capt. Von Trapp), Richard Haydn (Max Detweiler), Eleanor Parker (The Baroness), Peggy Wood (Mother Abbess), Anna Lee (Sister Margaretta), Marni Nixon (Sister Sophia)
'The success of a movie like The Sound of Music makes it even more difficult for anyone to try to do anything worth doing, anything relevant to the modern world, anything inventive or expressive.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'This last, most remunerative and least inspired, let alone sophisticated, of the Rodgers and Hammerstein collaborations is square and solid sugar. Calorie-counters, diabetics and grown-ups from eight to eighty had best beware.' – Judith Crist
'...sufficient warning to those allergic to singing nuns and sweetly innocent children.' – John Gillett † Christopher Plummer's singing was dubbed by Bill Lee, and Peggy Wood's by Margery McKay.
♫ 'The Sound of Music'; 'Morning Hymn'; 'Alleluia'; 'Maria'; 'I Have Confidence In Me'; 'Sixteen Going on Seventeen'; 'My Favorite Things'; 'Do-Re-Mi'; 'The Lonely Goatherd'; 'Edelweiss'; 'So Long Farewell'; 'Climb Every Mountain'; 'Something Good' best picture; Robert Wise; Irwin Kostal Ted McCord; Julie Andrews; Peggy Wood

'Evolve or die.'
A Sound of Thunder ②
US 2005 101m colour
Warner/Franchise/Apollomedia/QI/MFF/Film-Group 111/Coco (Moshe Diamant, Howard Baldwin, Karen Baldwin)
Time-travelling tourists on a trip 65 million years ago to kill a tyrannosaurus make a mistake that changes the present world for the worse.
A B movie trapped in a 1950s timewarp, with cheap effects, a dull hero and no sign of any originality; it offers the usual man against monsters scenario.
w Thomas Dean Donnelly, Joshua Oppenheimer, Greg Poirier short story Ray Bradbury d Peter Hyams ph Peter Hyams m Nick Glennie-Smith pd Richard Holland ed Sylvie Landra
☆ Edward Burns (Travis Ryer), Catherine McCormack (Sonia Rand), Ben Kingsley (Charles Hatton), Jemina Rooper (Jenny Krase), David Oyelowo (Tech Officer Payne), Wilfried Hochholdinger (Dr Andrew Lucas)
'A clunky and cheesy disaster.' – Variety

Sound Off
US 1952 83m Supercinecolor
Columbia (Jonie Taps)
An entertainer is recruited into the army and has predictable difficulties.
Dishevelled service farce with funny moments.
w Blake Edwards, Richard Quine
d Richard Quine ph Ellis Carter
m George Duning md Morris Stoloff
☆ Mickey Rooney, Anne James, Sammy White, John Asher, Gordon Jones

Sounder ★
US 1972 105m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Radnitz-Mattel (Robert B. Radnitz)
During the 30s Depression, black sharecroppers in the deep South endure various tribulations.
Well made liberated family movie ... but not very exciting.
w Lonnie Elder III novel William H. Armstrong d Martin Ritt ph John Alonzo
m Taj Mahal
☆ Paul Winfield, Cicely Tyson, Kevin Hooks, Carmen Mathews, James Best, Taj Mahal best picture; Lonnie Elder III; Paul Winfield; Cicely Tyson

Le Soupirant: see The Suitor

Sour Grapes ★
US 1998 91m Technicolor
Columbia/Castle Rock (Laurie Lennard)
Two cousins fall out after one wins a fruit-machine jackpot with money lent to him by the other.
An intermittently amusing, extended TV sitcom that is visually uninspiring but saved by some clever writing.
wd Larry David ph Victor Hammer
pd Charles Rosen ed Priscilla Nedd-Friendly ☆ Steven Weber, Craig Bierko, Matt Keeslar, Karen Sillas, Robyn Peterman, Viola Harris, Orlando Jones, Jennifer Leigh Warren, Richard Gant, James MacDonald, Sonya Eddy, Philip Baker Hall, Ann Guilbert
'Catch it fast, because it bears all the hallmarks of a future cult classic.' – Alan Jones, Film Review

Soursweet ★★
GB 1988 111m colour
Curzon/First Film/British Screen/Zenith/Film Four International (Roger Randall-Cutler)
A Chinese couple living in London start their own small restaurant.
Affecting drama of immigrant life.
w Ian McEwan novel Timothy Mo
d Mike Newell ph Michael Garfath
m Richard Hartley pd Adrian Smith
ed Mick Audsley
☆ Sylvia Chang, Danny An-Ning, Jodi Long, Speedy Choo, Han Tan, Soon-Teck Oh, William Chow

Sous le Ciel de Paris Coule la Seine

France 1951 111m bw
Regina Filmsonor (Pierre O'Connell and Arys Nisotti)
The adventures of a variety of characters during a day in Paris.
The director is back on his multi-story band wagon, but in this case the stories are undeveloped and the handling less than interesting.
w René Lefèvre, Julien Duvivier d Julien Duvivier ph Nicholas Hayer m Jean Winer
☆ Brigitte Auber, Jean Brochard, René Blancard, Paul Frankeur, Sylvie
'A hotchpotch of familiar story devices, camera tricks and picturesque characterizations and settings, bundled together with an old hand's facility.' – MFB

Sous Le Sable ★★

France 2000 96m colour
Fidelite/Euro Space/Haut &Court,/Arte France
aka: Under the Sand
After her husband disappears, presumed drowned, on their holiday, a university teacher refuses to accept the fact of his death.
Engrossing, emotionally restrained study in grief, loss and guilt; it leaves open the question of whether its central character, an intellectual sometimes unaware of what is happening around her, is haunted, unhinged or ultimately reconciled to the truth.
w François Ozon, Emmanuele Bernheim, Marina De Van, Marcia Romano d François Ozon ph Jeanne Lapoirie, Antoine Heberle m Philippe Rombi ad Sandrine Canaux ed Laurence Bawedin
☆ Charlotte Rampling (Marie Drillon), Bruno Cremer (Jean Drillon), Jacques Nolot (Vincent), Alexandra Stewart (Amanda), Pierre Vernier (Gerard), Andrée Tainsy (Suzanne)
'An intriguing piece, in which Ozon's direction preserves a mood of eerie, reticent calm.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian † See also Time to Leave.

Sous le Soleil de Satan: see Under Satan's Sun

Sous les Toits de Paris ★

France 1930 92m bw
Tobis (Frank Clifford)
A Parisian street singer falls in love with a girl, fights her lover, and proves himself innocent of theft.
Surprisingly serious and darkly lit little comedy-drama which, while well enough directed, hardly seems to merit its classic status.
wd René Clair ph Georges Périnal m Armand Bernard pd Lazare Meerson
☆ Albert Préjean, Pola Illery, Gaston Modot, Edmond Gréville
'Real film fare of quality ... a talker which is intelligible to any country.' – Variety
'It is far more movie than talkie, which exercises the imagination and rests the ear.' – National Board of Review

South ★★

GB 1919 81m bw silent
BFI
Documentary of Sir Ernest Shackleton's expedition to the Antarctic in 1914, when the crew of 28 and 70 dogs were marooned for nine months after their ship was first trapped, and then destroyed, by the sea ice.
Beautifully restored by the National Film and Television Archive, a fascinating report on an ill-fated journey, with some remarkable photography.
† Presenting a wonderful and true story of British pluck, self-sacrifice and indomitable courage displayed by a small party of men who set forth on a voyage of discovery into the hitherto unexplored lands and uncharted seas of the great Antarctic Continent.

The South ★★

Spain/France 1983 94m colour
Connoisseur/Television EspanolaChloe/Elias Querejeta original title: El Sur
A woman recalls her childhood in the late 1950s and her relationship with her unhappy father.
Delicate, poetic account of a child's view of adult experience.
w Jose Luis Lopez Linares story Adelaida Garcia Morales d Victor Erice ph Jose Luis Alcaine ad Antonio Belizon ed Pablo G. Del Amo
☆ Omero Antonutti, Lola Cardona, Aurore Clement, Sonsoles Aranguren, Iciar Bollain, Rafaela Aparicio, Germaine Montero, Maria Caro

South ★★

Argentina/France 1988 127m colour
Cinesur/Pacific/Canal (Sabina Sigler)
original title: Sur
Released after five years, a political prisoner wanders the streets of his home town accompanied by the ghosts of his past.
Dream, fantasy, past and present merge into a powerful, elegaic account of tyranny and oppression, hope and despair.
wd Fernando Solanas ph Felix Monti m Astor Piazzolla pd Fernando Solanas ed Juan Carlos Macias, Pablo Mari ☆ Susu Pecoraro, Miguel Angel Sola, Philippe Leotard, Lito Cruz, Ulises Dumont
† The film won Solanas the award for best director at the Cannes Film Festival in 1988.

South American George

GB 1941 93m bw
Ben Henry/Columbia
An unsuccessful singer poses as a South American opera star.
Not among the star's best.
w Leslie Arliss, Norman Lee, Austin Melford d Marcel Varnel ph Arthur Crabtree ☆ George Formby, Linden Travers, Enid Stamp-Taylor, Jacques Brown, Felix Aylmer

South Central ★

US 1992 99m DeLuxe
Ixtlan/Monument/Enchantment (Janet Yang, William B. Steakley)
GB title: South Central L.A.
A black hoodlum, imprisoned for murder, discovers that his 10-year-old son has joined his old gang.
A well-acted but over-earnest account of a man's attempt to redeem his violent past.
wd Steve Anderson book Crips by Donald Bakeer ph Charlie Lieberman m Tim Truman pd David Brian Miller, Marina Kieser ed Steve Nevius
☆ Glenn Plummer, Byron Keith Minns, LaRita Shelby, Kevin Best, Christian Coleman, Starletta Dupois, Ivory Ocean, Carl Lumbly
'Speaks eloquently to black kids desperately in need of straight talk. A profoundly moving story ... It has the power to save lives.' – Variety

South of Algiers

GB 1952 95m Technicolor
ABP/Mayflower (Aubrey Baring, Maxwell Setton)
US title: The Golden Mask
Archaeologists and thieves search the Sahara for a priceless mask.
Schoolboy adventure story with a straightforward plot and plenty of local colour.
w Robert Westerby d Jack Lee ph Oswald Morris m Robert Gill
☆ Van Heflin, Wanda Hendrix, Eric Portman, Charles Goldner, Jacques François, Jacques Brunius, Alec Mango, Marne Maitland

'A thousand thundering terrific thrills in a fight-swept tropic paradise!'

South of Pago Pago

US 1940 96m bw
(UA) Edward Small (Erle C. Kenton)
Greedy white men seek riches in pearls by cheating and overworking the natives.
Slightly unfamiliar backgrounds and a fair supply of two-fisted action gave this romantic adventure drama plenty of box-office pull.
w George Bruce d Alfred E. Green ph John Mescall m Edward Ward ☆ Victor McLaglen, Jon Hall, Frances Farmer, Olympe Bradna, Gene Lockhart, Douglass Dumbrille, Francis Ford

South of St Louis

US 1948 88m Technicolor
Warner (Milton Sperling)
Before the Civil War starts, Southern farmers are plagued by Union guerrillas.
Pretty good Western with plenty of action.
w Zachary Gold and James R. Webb d Ray Enright ph Karl Freund m Max Steiner ad Leo K. Kuter ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Joel McCrea, Zachary Scott, Victor Jory, Douglas Kennedy, Dorothy Malone, Alexis Smith, Alan Hale
'Distinguished by the fact that all the good men wear bells on their spurs in contradistinction to the bad men. This determines character without benefit of acting, as well as making a jolly noise.' – C. A. Lejeune

South of Suez

US 1940 85m bw
Warner
A diamond miner falls for the daughter of a man he is accused of murdering.
Watchable melodrama with pleasing actors.
w Barry Trivers d Lewis Seiler
☆ George Brent, Brenda Marshall, George Tobias, James Stephenson, Lee Patrick, Eric Blore, Cecil Kellaway

South of Tahiti

US 1941 75m bw
Universal
GB title: White Savage
Four adventurers drift ashore on a tropical island.
Penny-pinching hokum without even the colour to make it watchable.
w Gerald Geraghty d George Waggner
☆ Brian Donlevy, Maria Montez, Broderick Crawford, Andy Devine, Henry Wilcoxon, H. B. Warner

South Pacific ★★

US 1958 170m Technicolor Todd-AO
Magna/S. P. Enterprises (Buddy Adler)
In 1943 an American navy nurse on a South Pacific island falls in love with a middle-aged French planter who becomes a war hero.
Overlong, solidly produced film of the musical stage hit, with great locations, action climaxes and lush photography (also a regrettable tendency to use alarming colour filters for dramatic emphasis).
w Paul Osborn, Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II, Joshua Logan stories Tales of the South Pacific by James A. Michener d Joshua Logan ph Leon Shamroy m/ly Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II md Alfred Newman, Ken Darby ch Le Roy Prinz ☆ Mitzi Gaynor, Rossano Brazzi, Ray Walston, John Kerr, France Nuyen, Juanita Hall
'What a monstrous visual riot! What a din!' – C. A. Lejeune † Rossano Brazzi's singing was dubbed by Giorgio Tozzi, John Kerr's by Bill Lee and Juanita Hall's by Muriel Smith, even though she had sung the role of Bloody Mary in the Broadway production.
Leon Shamroy; Alfred Newman, Ken Darby

South Park: Bigger Longer & Uncut ★★

US 1999 81m DeLuxe
Paramount/Warner/Comedy Central/Scott Rudin/Trey Parker/Matt Stone (Trey Parker, Matt Stone)
After schoolkids sneak into an R-rated movie, featuring two foul-mouthed Canadian comedians, their mothers campaign for a war against Canada.
With humour often as crude as the animation, this is nevertheless a deft and witty demolition of many aspects of modern life, aimed particularly at all those who maintain double standards or tell others what to do and how to behave.
w Trey Parker, Matt Stone, Pam Brady d Trey Parker m Marc Shaiman m/ly Trey Parker, Marc Shaiman ed John Venzon
☆ Featuring voices of: Matt Stone, Trey Parker, Mary Kay Bergman, Isaac Hayes, George Clooney, Brent Spiner, Minnie Driver, Eric Idle
'The funniest, most risk-taking, most incisive movie of the summer.' – Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly
'The most impressively vicious and nasty-minded film satire of the year.' – Andrew Pulver, Guardian
♫ Mountain Town; Uncle Fucka; Wendy's Song; It's Easy Mmmkay; Hell Isn't Good; Blame Canada; Kyle's Mom's a Bitch; What Would Brian Boitano Do?; Up There; I Can Change; I'm Super; Eyes of a Child song 'Blame Canada' (m/l Trey Parker, Marc Shaiman)

South Riding ★★

GB 1937 91m bw
London Films (Alexander Korda, Victor Saville)
A schoolmistress in a quiet Yorkshire dale exposes crooked councillors and falls for the depressed local squire.
Dated but engrossing multi-drama from a famous novel; a good compact piece of film-making.
w Ian Dalrymple, Donald Bull novel Winifred Holtby d Victor Saville ph Harry Stradling m Richard Addinsell
☆ Ralph Richardson, Edna Best, Edmund Gwenn, Ann Todd, Glynis Johns, John Clements, Marie Lohr, Milton Rosmer, Edward Lexy
'Another artistic Korda film ... lacking in a story of popular appeal.' – Variety
'A convincing and dramatic picture of English provincial life.' – Film Weekly

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

South Sea Sinner

US 1949 88m bw
Universal-International
GB title: East of Java

On a South Sea island, a fugitive from justice is blackmailed by a café owner.

Hackneyed elements are strung together without much flair in this routine melodrama.

w Joel Malone, Oscar Brodney d H. Bruce Humberstone ph Maury Gertsman m Walter Scharf ad Bernard Herzbrun, Richard H. Riedel ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Macdonald Carey, Shelley Winters, Luther Adler, Helena Carter, Frank Lovejoy, Art Smith, Liberace

South Sea Woman

US 1953 99m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)

Adventures of a fight-loving marine in the Pacific war.

Unlovable mixture of brawling, romancing and war-winning.

w Edwin Blum play William M. Rankin d Arthur Lubin ph Ted McCord m David Buttolph ed Clarence Kolster

☆ Burt Lancaster, Virginia Mayo, Chuck Connors, Arthur Shields, Barry Kelley, Leon Askin

South West Nine ★

GB/Ireland 2001 98m DeLuxe
Fruit Salad/Irish Screen (Allan Niblo)

aka: S.W.9

A disparate group of people gather in London's Brixton, where a local drug dealer is staging a rave in a derelict church to pay off his debts.

Portrait of the alienated young in a multi-ethnic, working-class community – from poor little rich squatters, to anarchists, sneak thieves, addicts and dealers. Despite the accuracy of observation, the narrative itself is under-nourished.

w Richard Parry, Steve North d Richard Parry ph Graham Fowler m David Bradnum pd Rob Lunn ed Christine Pancott

☆ Wil Johnson (Freddy), Stuart Laing (Jake), Mark Letheren (Mitch), Amelia Curtis (Kit), Orlessa Edwards (Helen), Nicola Stapleton (Sal), Frank Harper (Douser)

'A comedy-thriller with its own two-way get-out clause: the "comedy" excusing the absence of plausible thrills, and the "thriller" acting as an alibi for the lack of laughs.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Defines the temper of our age as vividly as Derek Jarman's Jubilee did all of 23 years ago.' – Alexander Walker, London Evening Standard

'It's The Land Of Hospitality... Unless You Don't Belong.'

Southern Comfort ★★★★

US 1981 106m DeLuxe
EMI/Phoenix/Cinema Group Venture (David Giler)

National Guardsmen on a routine exercise into swampland find themselves involved in a life-and-death struggle with the Cajun inhabitants.

Brilliant, compelling, tightly-constructed thriller that manages also to be an allegory of American involvement in Vietnam.

w Michael Kane, Walter Hill, David Giler d Walter Hill ph Andrew Laszlo m Ry Cooder pd John Vallone ed Freeman Davies

☆ Keith Carradine (Spencer), Powers Boothe (Hardin), Fred Ward (Reece), Franklyn Seales (Simms), T. K. Carter (Cribbs), Lewis Smith (Stuckey)

'As an action director Walter Hill has a dazzling competence. Southern Comfort comes across with such immediacy that it had a near-hypnotic hold on me and I felt startled – brought up short – when it ended.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

'Africa explodes with a thousand surprises!'

The Southern Star ★

GB/France 1968 105m Techniscope
Columbia/Eurofrance/Capitole (Roger Duchet)

In French West Africa in 1912, a penniless American finds a huge diamond which several crooks are after.

Quite a likeable adventure romp, with good suspense sequences and convincing jungle settings.

w David Pursall, Jack Seddon novel Jules Verne d Sidney Hayers ph Raoul Coutard m Georges Garvarentz

☆ George Segal, Ursula Andress, Orson Welles, Ian Hendry, Michael Constantine, Johnny Sekka, Harry Andrews

A Southern Yankee ★

US 1948 90m bw
MGM (Paul Jones)

GB title: My Hero

During the Civil War a Southern bellboy masquerades as a spy and finds himself behind enemy lines.

A rather feeble reworking of Buster Keaton's The General, with some excellent gags supervised by the master himself.

w Harry Tugend d Edward Sedgwick ph Ray June m David Snell

☆ Red Skelton, Brian Donlevy, Arlene Dahl, George Coulouris, Lloyd Gough, John Ireland, Minor Watson, Charles Dingle

'She was his woman! And he was her man! That's all they had to fight with – against the world, the flesh, and the devil!'

The Southerner ★★★

US 1945 91m bw
(UA)

Problems of penniless farmers in the deep South.

Impressive, highly pictorial outdoor drama, more poetic than The Grapes of Wrath and lacking the acting strength.

wd Jean Renoir novel Hold Autumn in Your Hand by George Sessions Perry ph Lucien Andriot m Werner Janssen ad Eugene Lourie ed Gregg Tallas

☆ Zachary Scott (Sam Tucker), Betty Field (Nona Tucker), Beulah Bondi (Granny Tucker), J. Carrol Naish (Henry Devers), Percy Kilbride (Harmie Jerfkins), Blanche Yurka (Ma Tucker), Norman Lloyd (Finlay Hewitt)

'I cannot imagine anybody failing to be spellbound by this first successful essay in Franco-American screen collaboration.' – Richard Winnington

'You can smell the earth as the plough turns it up; you can sense the winter and the rain and the sunshine.' – C. A. Lejeune

† Some sources state that the script was by William Faulkner.

Jean Renoir (as director); Werner Janssen

'Dreams are the only thing worth fighting for.'

Southpaw ★

Ireland/GB 1998 80m colour
Channel4/IFB/Treasure (Paddy Breathnach, Robert Walpole)

aka: Southpaw: The Francis Barrett Story

Two years in the life of an Irish amateur boxer, from a travelling family in Galway, who qualifies for the Atlanta Olympics in 1996.

Interesting documentary of a personable young man overcoming obstacles and prejudice to become a local hero.

d Liam McGrath ph Cian De Buitlear m Dario Marianelli ed James E. Dalton

☆ Francis Barrett, Chick Gillen, Tom Humphries, Colum Flynn, Nicolas Cruz Hernandez, Gerry Callan, Jim McGee, Eamonn Hunt (narrator)

'An easy film to warm to.' – Sight and Sound

† The documentary ends with Barrett hoping to compete in the Sydney Olympics of 2000. Instead, he turned professional, beginning his career in London.

Southwest to Sonora: see The Appaloosa

Souvenir

GB 1987 93m Technicolor
Curzon/Fancy Free/Geoff Reeve Pictures (Tom Reeve, James Reeve)

An elderly German living in New York returns to the French town where he was involved in a massacre of the inhabitants during the Second World War.

Unsuccessful and heavy-handed, it never comes close to exploring the themes of guilt and individual responsibility that it raises.

w Paul Wheeler novel The Pork Butcher by David Hughes d Geoffrey Reeve ph Fred Tammes m Tony Kinsey pd Morley Smith ed Bob Morgan

☆ Christopher Plummer, Catherine Hicks, Michael Lonsdale, Christopher Cazenove, Lisa Daniely, Jean Badin, Patrick Bailey

'Could be a bad joke about the type of international co-production which is made because the money, rather than the audience, can be found for it.' – MFB

Soylent Green ★

US 1973 97m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Walter Seltzer, Russell Thatcher)

In 2022, the population of New York exists in perpetual heat on synthetic foods; a policeman hears from his elderly friend about an earlier time when things were better.

Lively futuristic yarn with a splendid climax revealing the nature of the artificial food; marred by narrative incoherence and by direction which fails to put plot points clearly across.

w Stanley R. Greenberg novel Make Room, Make Room by Harry Harrison d Richard Fleischer ph Richard H. Kline m Fred Myrow

☆ Charlton Heston, Edward G. Robinson, Leigh Taylor-Young, Chuck Connors, Brock Peters, Joseph Cotten

The Space Children

US 1958 71m bw VistaVision
Paramount (William Alland)

Children at a rocket testing site sabotage equipment on the instructions of a strange pulsating object.

Naïve moral fable, not badly done on its level.

w Bernard Schoenfeld d Jack Arnold ph Ernest Laszlo m Van Cleave

☆ Adam Williams, Peggy Webber, Michel Ray, Jackie Coogan

'Space Will Never Be The Same.'

Space Cowboys ★

US/Australia 2000 129m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Village Roadshow/ Pictures/Clipsal/ Malpaso/Mad Chance (Clint Eastwood, Andrew Lazar)

An ageing, retired airforce pilot recruits a team of his contemporaries to go into space to repair a communications satellite.

Affable action movie that gives some familiar actors a chance to strut their stuff and play slightly comic variations on their usual roles.

w Ken Kaufman, Howard Klausner d Clint Eastwood ph Jack N. Green m Lennie Niehaus pd Henry Bumstead ed Joel Cox sp Industrial Light & Magic

☆ Clint Eastwood (Frank Corvin), Tommy Lee Jones (Hawk Hawkins), Donald Sutherland (Jerry O'Neill), James Garner (Tank Sullivan), James Cromwell (Bob Gerson), Marcia Gay Harden (Sara Holland), William Devane (Eugene Davis), Loren Dean (Ethan Grace), Courtney B. Vance (Roger Hines), Barbara Babcock (Barbara Corvin), Rade Sherbedgia (General Vostov), Blair Brown (Dr Anne Caruthers)

'A movie for those who prefer Budweiser and Jack Daniel's to summer wine.' – Philip French, Observer

'Just about passes muster as an action adventure, but as an advert for old age it's pretty hard to take.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times

sound editing (Alan Robert Murray and Bub Asman)

Space Jam

US 1996 87m Technicolor
Warner (Ivan Reitman, Joe Medjuck, Daniel Goldberg)

After Bugs Bunny and other Looney Tunes characters are kidnapped by aliens, basketball star Michael Jordan comes to the rescue.

An unlovely mix of live action and animation, climaxing in a basketball game, which might have been passable had it been 80 minutes shorter. It is little more than a long commercial that, in the process, diminishes its cartoon stars, erasing their quirky individuality in favour of a bland and hectic banality.

w Leo Benvenuti, Steve Rudnick, Timothy Harris, Herschel Weingrod d Joe Pytka ph Michael Chapman m James Newton Howard pd Geoffrey Kirkland ed Sheldon Kahn

☆ Michael Jordan, Wayne Knight, Theresa Randle and also the voices of: Billy West, Bradley Baker, Danny DeVito

'Cute, rambunctious, generally amusing rather than outright funny, this clever mix of live action, highlighted by the unequaled skills of basketball superstar Michael Jordan, and animated Looney Tunes antics will be a must-see for kids.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A lazy, cynical attempt to pitch the Warners characters (and the merchandising derived from them) at pre-teen black, or black-identified, punters. It's a hugely dispiriting film.' – Jonathan Romney, Sight and Sound

† The film was based on a commercial for Nike sneakers.

Space Master X-7
US 1958 71m bw Regalscope
Twentieth Century Fox (Bernard Glasser)
A space probe returns from Mars carrying a deadly fungus.
Dull science fiction, done on the cheap in a documentary style that fails to provide any much-needed urgency; the alien growth resembles an inanimate length of grey felt.
w George Worthing Yates, Daniel Mainwaring d Edward Bernds ph Brydon Baker m Josef Zimanich ad Harry Reif ed John F. Link ☆ Bill Williams, Lyn Thomas, Robert Ellis, Paul Frees, Rhoda Williams, Joan Barry, Carol Varga, Moe Howard

Space Raiders
US 1983 82m colour
Millennium (Roger Corman)
A space mercenary promises to help return a 10-year-old stowaway to his home planet.
Low-budget Star Wars rip-off for juvenile audiences, incorporating footage from Battle beyond the Stars.
wd Howard R. Cohen ph Alec Hirschfeld
☆ Vince Edwards, David Mendenhall, Patsy Pease, Thom Christopher, Dick Miller

'They've shipped everything from square pigs to anti-gravity beer... But now they've got a load of real trouble'

Space Truckers ②
US/Ireland 1996 96m Technicolor
Goldcrest/Peter Newman/Interal/Mary Breen-Farrelly
A maverick space trucker discovers that he is carrying a cargo of killer robots to take over the Earth.
Pulp science fiction of a very old-fashioned kind, done with tongue in cheek; not that that makes it any more enjoyable.
w Ted Mann d Stuart Gordon ph Mac Ahlberg m Colin Towns pd Simon Murton ed John Victor Smith sp Brian Johnson, Paul Gentry; bio-mechanicals: Screaming Mad George ☆ Dennis Hopper, Stephen Dorff, Debi Mazar, George Wendt, Vernon Wells, Barbara Crampton, Shane Rimmer, Charles Dance
'Amiable latenight trash.' – Variety

Spaceballs
US 1987 96m Metrocolor
MGM/UA (Mel Brooks, Ezra Swerdlow)
A ruthless race is out to steal the air supply from the planet Druidia.
Flabby spoof of Star Wars, without any funny ideas.
w Mel Brooks, Thomas Meehan, Ronny Graham d Mel Brooks ph Nick McLean m John Morris pd Terence Marsh ed Conrad Buff IV
☆ Mel Brooks, John Candy, Rick Moranis, Bill Pullman, Daphne Zuniga, Dom DeLuise, John Hurt
'At its worst, it displays a colossal ego at work and humour better left to home movies.' – Daily Variety

SpaceCamp
US 1986 107m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/ABC (Patrick Bailey, Walter Coblenz)
Five teenagers attending a NASA summer camp are accidentally launched into space.
Tolerable entertainment for ten-year-olds, who may enjoy its empowerment of the young, and will be willing to overlook the ordinary special effects that include a rather irritating robot.
w Clifford Green, Ellen Green, Casey T. Mitchell story Patrick Bailey, Larry B. Williams d Harry Winer ph William A. Fraker m John Williams pd Richard MacDonald ed John W. Wheeler, Timothy Board
☆ Kate Capshaw, Lea Thompson, Kelly Preston, Larry B. Scott, Leaf Phoenix, Tate Donovan, Tom Skerritt, Barry Primus, Terry Quinn

Spaced Invaders
US 1989 100m CFI color
Medusa/Smart Egg Pictures (Luigi Cingolani)
A spaceship load of inept Martians mistakenly try to conquer the Earth.
Inane spoof of the current cycle of science fiction films.
w Patrick Read Johnson, Scott Alexander d Patrick Read Johnson ph James L. Carter m David Russo pd Tony Tremblay ed Seth Gaven, Daniel Bross
☆ Douglas Barr, Royal Dano, Ariana Richards, J. J. Anderson, Gregg Berger, Fred Applegate, Patrika Darbo

'The first movie that puts you in outer space.'

Spacehunter: Adventures in the Forbidden Zone
US 1983 90m Metrocolor 3-D
Columbia/Delphi (Don Carmody, Andre Link, John Dunning)
In the 22nd century, a spaceship salvage expert lands on a long-forgotten planet to rescue three Earthwomen from the tyrants of Graveyard City.
Mindless and rather unattractive space fantasy, far less likeable than Flash Gordon.
w David Preston, Edith Rey, Dan Goldbert, Len Blum d Lamont Johnson ph Frank Tidy m Elmer Bernstein pd Jackson de Govia
☆ Peter Strauss, Molly Ringwald, Ernie Hudson, Andrea Marcovicci, Michael Ironside

The Spaceman and King Arthur
GB 1979 93m Technicolor
Walt Disney
US title: Unidentified Flying Oddball
An astronaut and his robot accidentally land themselves back at the court of King Arthur.
Mindless but occasionally funny rewrite of Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee.
w Don Tait d Russ Mayberry ph Paul Beeson m Ron Goodwin
☆ Dennis Dugan, Jim Dale, Ron Moody, Kenneth More, John Le Mesurier, Rodney Bewes, Robert Beatty

Spaceways
GB 1953 76m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Michael Carreras)
A scientist is suspected of killing his wife and her lover and sending their bodies into space in Britain's first satellite.
Trite marital drama in a science-fiction setting, interesting only for its belief that the 1960s would bring the first manned space station.
w Paul Tabori, Richard Landau play Charles Eric Maine d Terence Fisher ph Reginald Wyer md Ivor Slaney ad J. Elder Wills ed Maurice Rootes sp The Trading Post
☆ Howard Duff, Eva Bartok, Alan Wheatley, Philip Leaver, Michael Medwin, Andrew Osborn, Cecile Chevreau

La Spada e la Croce: see The Sword and the Cross

Spanglish ★ ④
US 2004 130m DeLuxe
Columbia/Gracie (James L. Brooks, Richard Sakai, Julie Ansell)
The daughter of a Mexican maid recalls how their employer, a famous Los Angeles chef with a neurotic wife, fell in love with her mother.
An occasionally amusing comedy that takes against mothers, unless they are warm, sensitive, illegal immigrants.
wd James L. Brooks ph John Seale m Hans Zimmer pd Ida Random ed Richard Marks
☆ Adam Sandler (John Clasky), Tea Leoni (Deborah Clasky), Paz Vega (Flor), Cloris Leachman (Evelyn), Shelbie Bruce (Cristina), Sarah Steele (Bernice), Ian Hyland (Georgie)
'Short on real drama and incident and long on tedium.' – Todd McCarthy

The Spaniard's Curse
GB 1958 74m bw
Independent Film Distributors/Wentworth (Roger Proudlock)
A man wrongly convicted of murder pronounces an old Spanish death curse on the judge, prosecuting counsel, foreman of the jury and the killer.
A neat, well-plotted little thriller.
w Kenneth Hyde, Ralph Kemplen, Roger Proudlock story Edith Pargeter d Ralph Kemplen ph Arthur Grant m Lambert Williamson pd Tony Masters ed Stanley Hawkes ☆ Tony Wright, Lee Patterson, Michael Hordern, Susan Beaumont, Ralph Truman, Henry Oscar, Brian Oulton, Olga Dickie, Roddy Hughes, Joe Gibbons

Spanish Affair
US 1958 92m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount/Nomad (Bruce Odlum)
An American architect in Madrid falls in love with his interpreter and is pursued by her lover.
Curiously plotless excuse for a travelogue, lushly photographed but not exactly gripping.
w Richard Collins d Don Siegel ph Sam Leavitt m Daniele Amfitheatrof
☆ Richard Kiley, Carmen Sevilla, Jose Guardiola

Spanish Fly
GB 1975 86m Technicolor
EMI (Peter James, Gerald Flint-Shipman)
An Englishman in Majorca tries to improve a purchase of local wine by putting an aphrodisiac in it, with predictable results.
Crude, tatty comedy by people who should know better.
w Robert Ryerson d Bob Kellett ph Jack Atcheler m Ron Goodwin ☆ Terry-Thomas, Leslie Phillips, Graham Armitage, Frank Thornton, Sue Lloyd

The Spanish Gardener
GB 1956 97m Technicolor Vistavision
Rank (John Bryan)
The British consul in Spain is annoyed when his young son develops a strong friendship with the gardener.
Slow, understated study in human relationships which doesn't come off; any sexual relevance is well concealed.
w Lesley Storm, John Bryan novel A. J. Cronin d Philip Leacock ph Christopher Challis m John Veale
☆ Dirk Bogarde, Michael Hordern, Jon Whiteley, Cyril Cusack, Geoffrey Keen, Maureen Swanson, Lyndon Brook, Josephine Griffin, Bernard Lee, Rosalie Crutchley

The Spanish Main ★
US 1945 101m Technicolor
RKO (Robert Fellows)
In the Caribbean, the fiancée of the Spanish viceroy is kidnapped by a pirate who determines to tame her before marrying her.
Slightly tongue-in-cheek pirate hokum; generally good value for the easily amused.
w George Worthing Yates, Herman J. Mankiewicz d Frank Borzage ph George Barnes m Hanns Eisler md Constantin Bakaleinikoff
☆ Paul Henreid, Maureen O'Hara, Binnie Barnes, Walter Slezak, John Emery, Barton MacLane, J. M. Kerrigan, Nancy Gates, Fritz Leiber, Jack La Rue, Mike Mazurki, Victor Kilian
Ⓐ George Barnes

The Spanish Prisoner ★★
US 1997 112m Technicolor Panavision
Sweetland (Jean Doumanian)
A paranoid scientist does not know whom to trust, among colleagues, friends and FBI, with his valuable formula.
A clever, intriguing game of double-cross and treble bluff that keeps the audience, as well as its characters, guessing throughout.
wd David Mamet ph Gabriel Beristain m Carter Burwell pd Tim Galvin ed Barbara Tulliver
☆ Campbell Scott, Rebecca Pidgeon, Steve Martin, Ricky Jay, Ben Gazzara, Felicity Huffman, Ed O'Neill
'Ingenious but glassily unengaging, like watching a game of chess at a distance of 100 metres.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
'Mamet plays his genre games with such elegant wit that no one should pine for the usual battering from galactic explosions.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

'A Darkly Humorous Suburban Tale Creeping Beyond Normality...'

Spanking the Monkey ★★
US 1995 106m colour
Metro Tartan/Buckeye/Swelter
A medical student is told by his father, a commercial traveller, that he must spend the summer looking after his mother, who has broken a leg in a suicide attempt.
Deft, witty and assured account of confused family relationships and a young man's search for his sexual identity, which leads to an incestuous relationship; it is an often dark work, but one about survivors.
wd David O. Russell ph Michael Mayers m David Carbonara pd Susan Block ed Pamela Martin ☆ Jeremy Davies, Alberta Watson, Benjamin Hendrickson, Carlo Gallo, Matthew Puckett, Judette Jones
'A thought provoking movie that should not be allowed to disappear beneath this year's Dredds and Batmans.' – Empire
† The film won the Audience Award at the 1994 Sundance Film Festival.

Spare a Copper ★
GB 1940 77m bw
Ealing
A police war reservist catches saboteurs.
One of the last good Formby comedies, with everything percolating as it should.
w Roger MacDougall, Austin Melford, Basil

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Dearden d John Paddy Carstairs ph Bryan Langley m Louis Levy
☆ George Formby, Dorothy Hyson, Bernard Lee, John Warwick, John Turnbull, George Merritt

Spare the Rod

GB 1961 93m bw
British Lion/Bryanston/Weyland (Victor Lyndon)
At an East End school, a novice master wins the confidence of tough pupils.
A British Blackboard Jungle, paving the way for To Sir with Love; not exciting on its own account.
w John Cresswell novel Michael Croft d Leslie Norman ph Paul Beeson m Laurie Johnson
☆ Max Bygraves, Geoffrey Keen, Donald Pleasence, Richard O'Sullivan, Betty McDowall, Eleanor Summerfield, Mary Merrall

'Her passion was a caged bird waiting to be set free...'

Sparrow

Italy 1993 106m colour
Rank/Polygram/Nippon (Mario Cecchi Gori, Vittorio Cecchi Gori)
Sent home because of a plague threatening the convent, a nun preparing for her final vows meets and falls in love with a young student.
A moody, period melodrama of a doomed love, given an operatic treatment and hindered by the fact that its leading characters cannot portray the emotional upheavals required of them.
wd Franco Zeffirelli novel A Sparrow's Tale by Giovanni Verga ph Ennio Guarnieri m Claudio Cappani, Alessio Vlad ed Richard Marden
☆ Angela Bettis, Sinead Cusack, Johnathon Schaech, Vanessa Redgrave, John Castle, Valentina Cortese, Frank Finlay, Pat Heywood, Denis Quilley
'Dramatic, grand in scope, and tragic in its tale of unfulfilled love and lives. Unfortunately the plot is almost tortuously slow, and the film ends up neither emotionally nor intellectually gripping.' – Karen Regelman, Variety

Sparrows Can't Sing

GB 1962 94m bw
Elstree/Carthage (Donald Taylor)
Returning after two years at sea, a sailor searches for his wife and threatens vengeance on her lover.
Relentlessly caricatured Cockney comedy melodrama, too self-conscious to be effective, and not at all likeable anyway.
w Stephen Lewis, Joan Littlewood d Joan Littlewood ph Max Greene m James Stevens
☆ James Booth, Barbara Windsor, Roy Kinnear, Avis Bunnage, George Sewell, Barbara Ferris, Murray Melvin, Arthur Mullard

Spartaco: see Spartacus (1952)

'Behold the splendor and fury of a city made with pleasure.'

Spartacus

Italy 1952 92m bw
RKO/Consorzio Spartacus original title: Spartaco
aka: Spartacus the Gladiator; Sins of Rome
After he rejects the advances of the daughter of a Roman general, a Thracian slave becomes a gladiator, and leads a revolt against Rome.
A version that substitutes a love affair and action for historical accuracy; it has good performances and splendid photography to recommend it.
w Jean Ferry, Mario Bori d Riccardo Freda ph Gabor Rogany m Renzo Rossellini ☆ Massimo Girotti, Lumilla Tcherina, Gianni Maria Canale, Yves Vincent, Vittorio Sanipoli, Carlo Ninchi
† The US version ran for 71m.

Spartacus ★★

US 1960 196m Super Technirama 70
U-I/Bryna (Edward Lewis)
The slaves of ancient Rome revolt and are quashed.
Long, well-made, downbeat epic with deeper than usual characterization and several bravura sequences.
w Dalton Trumbo novel Howard Fast d Stanley Kubrick ph Russell Metty m Alex North pd Alexander Golitzen ed Robert Lawrence ☆ Kirk Douglas, Laurence Olivier, Charles Laughton, Tony Curtis, Jean Simmons, Peter Ustinov, John Gavin, Nina Foch, Herbert Lom, John Ireland, John Dall, Charles McGraw, Woody Strode
'Everything is depicted with a lack of imagination that is truly Marxian.' – Anne Grayson
'A lot of first-rate professionals have pooled their abilities to make a first-rate circus.' – Stanley Kauffmann
'One comes away feeling rather revolted and not at all ennobled.' – Alan Dent, Illustrated London News
† The movie's original director, Anthony Mann, was replaced by Kubrick after a fortnight's shooting.
Russell Metty; Peter Ustinov; art direction
Alex North; editing

Spartacus the Gladiator: see Spartacus (1952)

'She's missing.'

Spartan ★

US 2004 107m DeLuxe Panavision
Warner/Franchise/ApolloQuality Int/Signature (Art Linson, Moshe Diamant, Elie Samaha, David Bergstein)
Two government agents investigate the kidnapping by white slavers of the President's daughter from her dorm at Harvard University.
Fast moving thriller of political deception by a cast that has difficulty with Mamet's quickfire dialogue.
wd David Mamet ph Juan Ruiz Anchia m Mark Isham pd Gemma Jackson ed Barbara Tulliver ☆ Val Kilmer (Scott), Derek Luke (Curtis), William H. Macy (Stoddard), Ed O'Neill (Burch), Kristen Bell (Laura Newton), Said Taghmaoui (Tariq Asani), Linda Kimbrough (Donny), Tia Texada (Jackie)
'Continually seems on the verge of genuine excitement but sabotages itself at every turn' – Robert Koehler, Variety
'Is Spartan a perfect, or even a great, movie? Probably not. But in its prickly irascibility and deeply unsettling intelligence, it makes for a very, very good one.' – Michael O'Sullivan, Washington Post

'Born In Darkness. Sworn To Justice.'

Spawn

US 1997 97m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line/Todd McFarlane (Clint Goldman)
An assassinated special agent is brought back to life with supernatural powers on condition that he leads the Devil's army to take over the world.
Exceptionally dreary, noisy nonsense that shows the cinema of mindless sensation at its worst: it makes little narrative sense, displays no imagination in its repetitive action sequences, and is peopled by uninteresting characters.
w Alan McElroy comic book Todd McFarlane d Mark A.Z. Dippé ph Guillermo Navarro m Graeme Revell pd Philip Harrison ed Michael N. Knue sp Robert Kurtzman, Gregory Nicotero, Howard Berger; ILM
☆ John Leguizamo, Michael Jai White, Martin Sheen, Theresa Randle, Melinda Clarke, Miko Hughes, Sydni Beaudoin, Nicol Williamson, D. B. Sweeney
'Gives you the pleasurably junky sensation of living inside an apocalyptic videogame.' – Owen Glieberman, Entertainment Weekly
'If you're looking for a movie to restore your faith in superhero film-making, this sure as hell isn't the one.' – Jason Caro, Film Review

'A love story stormy as raging Arctic seas!'

Spawn of the North ★★

US 1938 110m bw
Paramount (Albert Lewin)
In 1890s Alaska, American fishermen combat Russian poachers.
Solidly carpentered all-star action melodrama, a sizzler of its day. Remade 1953 as Alaska Seas.
w Talbot Jennings, Jules Furthman d Henry Hathaway ph Charles Lang m Dimitri Tiomkin
☆ George Raft, Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour, John Barrymore, Akim Tamiroff, Louise Platt, Lynne Overman, Fuzzy Knight, Vladimir Sokoloff, Duncan Renaldo, John Wray
'The visual features are so realistic and terrifying that audiences will find complete satisfaction in the production.' – Variety
'This film has something which the cinema of bygone days used to supply as a matter of course – action and thrills, the quickened pulse and the lump in the throat.' – Basil Wright
'Rousing old-fashioned spectacle.' – New York Times
Special Award for special effects

Spawn of the Slithis

US 1978 86m Movielab
Paul Fabian/Stephen Traxler
A teacher of journalism investigates deaths in the neighbourhood and discovers a monster lurking in the local canals.
Low-budget shocker that is also bereft of originality or talent.
wd Stephen Traxler ph Robert Caramico m Steve Zuckerman ad Catherine Deeter ed Robert M. Ross ☆ Alan Blanchard, J. C. Claire, Dennis Lee Falt, Mello Alexandria, Win Condict Speak Easily ★

US 1932 83m bw
MGM (Lawrence Weingarten)
A professor inherits a Broadway musical and falls for the lure of the bright lights.
Interesting Keaton talkie at the point of his decline.
w Ralph Spence, Laurence E. Johnson novel Footlights by Clarence Budington Kelland d Edward Sedgwick ph Harold Wentstrom
☆ Buster Keaton, Jimmy Durante, Hedda Hopper

Speaking Parts

Canada 1989 92m colour
Recorded Releasing/Ego Film Arts/Telefilm Canada/Ontario Film Development Company/Academy Pictures/Film Four International
A screenwriter and a hotel maid both fall in love with a gigolo who wants to be an actor.
Curious and ultimately unsatisfactory triangular drama of personalities who connect with each other mainly through the medium of video.
wd Atom Egoyan ph Paul Sarossy m Mychael Danna ad Linda Del Rosario ed Bruce McDonald
☆ Michael McManus, Arsinee Khanjian, Gabrielle Rose, Tony Nardi, David Hemblen, Patricia Collins

Special Agent

US 1935 74m bw
Cosmopolitan/Warner
A special investigator pretends to be a newspaperman.
Routine rough stuff, quite watchable.
w Laird Doyle, Abem Finkel d William Keighley ph Sid Hickox md Leo F. Forbstein ad Esdras Hartley ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Bette Davis, George Brent, Ricardo Cortez, Jack La Rue, Henry O'Neill, J. Carrol Naish 'Indifferent entertainment but Bette Davis may help.' – Variety

Special Delivery

US 1976 99m DeLuxe
TCF/Bing Crosby Productions (Richard Berg)
Three disabled Vietnam veterans rob a bank, and the consequences are complicated.
Unremarkable suspenser which takes itself too seriously.
w Don Gazzaniga d Paul Wendkos ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Lalo Schifrin ☆ Bo Svenson, Cybill Shepherd, Michael C. Gwynne, Vic Tayback, Sorrell Booke, Jeff Goldblum

'Killing Is His Profession. Revenge Is Her Goal. Together They Take On The Battle Against The Underworld Of Miami.'

The Specialist

US 1994 110m Technicolor
Warner (Jerry Weintraub)
A woman seeking revenge infiltrates the gang that murdered her parents and hires an expert in explosives to kill them.
Trashily risible action movie, with the two stars kept far apart for much of the picture, for reasons that only become apparent when they are together.
w Alexandra Seros suggested by 'The Specialist' novels by John Shirley d Luis Llosa ph Jeffrey L. Kimball m John Barry pd Walter P. Martishius ed Jack Hofstra ☆ Sylvester Stallone, Sharon Stone, James Woods, Rod Steiger, Eric Roberts, Mario Ernesto Sanchez, Sergio Dore Jnr
'A pretty silly film. And it is capped by a sex scene involving Stone and Sylvester Stallone that has to be seen to be disbelieved.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Cheesecake meets beeake.' – New Yorker

'Two decades ago we sent a message to space. This is the reply...'

Species ★

US 1995 108m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/MGM (Fred Mancuso Jnr, Dennis Feldman)

Scientists chase a half-human, half-alien girl who escapes from an experimental laboratory, concerned that she intends to mate and breed.
Enjoyable, fast-moving science-fiction thriller; it offers nothing new but presents a familiar tale with some style.
w Dennis Feldman d Roger Donaldson ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Christopher Young pd John Muto ed Conrad Buff sp visual effects: Richard Edlund; 'Sil' design: H. R. Giger
☆ Ben Kingsley, Michael Madsen, Alfred Molina, Forest Whitaker, Marg Helgenberger, Natasha Henstridge, Michelle Williams
'Think of it as Beach Blanket Alien – sure, it's dopey, but it's a guilty-pleasure pig-out.' – Premiere

Species II

US 1998 93m DeLuxe
UIP/MGM/FGM (Frank Mancuso Jnr)

A woman who is part alien tracks down an astronaut on a killing spree who has returned from Mars infected with alien DNA.
A sequel that rings a few welcome changes on the original, and offers more fast-paced entertainment.
w Chris Brancato d Peter Medak ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Edward Shearmur pd Miljen Kreka Kljakovic ed Richard Nord sp Steve Johnson
☆ Michael Madison, Natasha Henstridge, Marg Helgenberger, Mykelti Williamson, George Dzundza, James Cromwell, Myriam Cyr, Sarah Wynter
'A carnival of the absurdly gruesome.' – Philip Strick, Sight and Sound

The Speckled Band

GB 1931 80m bw
B and D/Herbert Wilcox

Sherlock Holmes saves an heiress from a horrible death.
Limp and overstretched version of Conan Doyle's story, interesting only for the actors.
w W. P. Lipscomb d Jack Raymond ph Freddie Young ☆ Raymond Massey (Sherlock Holmes), Athole Stewart (Dr Watson), Lyn Harding (Dr Rylott), Angela Baddeley, Nancy Price

The Specter of the Rose ★

US 1946 90m bw
Republic (Ben Hecht)

A schizophrenic ballet dancer lives his role and nearly murders his wife.
A rather hilarious bid for culture: hard to sit through without laughing, but unique.
wd Ben Hecht ph Lee Garmes m Georges Antheil ☆ Viola Essen, Ivan Kirov, Michael Chekhov

The Spectre of Edgar Allan Poe

US 1972 86m Eastmancolor
Doverton/Cintel (Mohy Quandour)

Poe visits an asylum where his beloved Lenore has been taken to recover from being buried alive and finds himself in a nightmare world of murder and monsters.
An intriguing notion is quickly done to death in an unimaginative production.
wd Mohy Quandour story Kenneth Hartford, Denton Foxx ph Robert Birchall m Allen D. Allen ed Abbas Amin sp Byrd Holland
☆ Robert Walker, Mary Grover, Cesar Romero, Tom Drake, Carol Ohmart

Speechless

US 1994 99m DeLuxe
MGM/Forge (Renny Harlin, Geena Davis)

Two speech writers for rival candidates in a senatorial contest fall for each other.
Pleasant but unmemorable romantic comedy, cynical about politics and sentimental about love.
w Robert King d Ron Underwood ph Don Peterman m Marc Shaiman pd Dennis Washington ed Richard Francis-Bruce
☆ Michael Keaton, Geena Davis, Christopher Reeve, Bonnie Bedelia, Ernie Hudson, Charles Martin Smith, Gailard Sartain, Ray Baker, Mitchell Ryan
'Never achieves the madcap hilarity of the '40s romantic comedies it seeks to emulate, and some of the dramatic moments feel a bit forced.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

'Get ready for rush hour.'

Speed ★★★ (8)

US 1994 115m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Mark Gordon)

A mad bomber attempts to hold a city to ransom by planting a bomb on a bus which will explode if the vehicle's speed drops below 50 mph.
A fast, adrenaline-pumping action-packed thriller that achieves a high level of suspense; it works brilliantly well for the most part, even if the good guys cause more destruction than the bad, although it goes off the rails towards the end.
w Graham Yost d Jan de Bont ph Andrzej Bartkowiak m Mike Mancina pd Jackson de Govia ad John R. Jensen ed John Wright
☆ Keanu Reeves (Jack Traven), Dennis Hopper (Howard Payne), Sandra Bullock (Annie), Joe Morton (Captain McMahon), Jeff Daniels (Harry), Alan Ruck (Stephens), Glenn Plummer (Jaguar Owner), Richard Lineback (Norwood), Beth Grant (Helen), Hawthorne James (Sam), Carlos Carrasco (Ortiz)
'A non-stop actioner that rarely pauses to take a breath. While highly derivative and mechanical in planning and execution, this high-octane thrillathon boasts more twists, turns and obstacles than the most hazardous video arcade road raceway.' – Variety ♟ sound (Gregg Landaker, Steve Maslow, Bob Beemer, David R. R. MacMillan); sound effects editing (Stephen Hunter Flick) ♁ editing
♉ editing

'Rush Hour Hits The Water.'

Speed 2 – Cruise Control (2)

US 1997 125m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Blue Tulip (Jan de Bont)

A psychotic computer expert sabotages a cruise liner, whose passengers include a Los Angeles cop and his girlfriend.
A sequel so contrived and artificial that it swiftly sinks with all hands.
w Randall McCormick, Jeff Nathanson, Jan de Bont d Jan de Bont ph Jack N. Green m Mark Mancina pd Joseph Nemec III ed Alan Cody sp ILM; Rhythm and Hues
☆ Sandra Bullock, Jason Patric, Willem Dafoe, Temuera Morrison, Brian McCardie, Christine Firkins, Michael G. Hagerty, Colleen Camp, Lois Chiles, Bo Svenson
'Has no real logic, or characters or dramatic tension.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian
'Suffers from a slender script, a tedious first reel and a routine villain.' – Variety
† It grossed more than $48m in the US, and $105m elsewhere.

Speed Zone

US/Canada 1989 95m Film House colour
Orion/Ruddy Morgan/Entcorp (Murray Shostak)

aka: Cannonball Fever
When a police chief tries to stop the Cannonball Run by arresting the drivers, substitutes take over.
Dreary comedy, consisting of crude slapstick, tiresome car chases and cardboard characterizations; a few jokes might have helped.
w Michael Short d Jim Drake ph François Protat, Robert Saad m David Wheatley ed Michael Economou
☆ Melody Anderson, Peter Boyle, Donna Dixon, John Candy, Eugene Levy, Tim Matheson, Smothers Brothers, Shari Belafonte, Joe Flaherty, Matt Frewer, Mimi Kuzyk, Jamie Farr, Don Lake, Alyssa Milano, John Schneider and also Brooke Shields, Michael Spinks, Lee Van Cleef
† It is a sort of sequel to The Cannonball Run and Cannonball Run II (qqv).

Speedy ★★

US 1928 90m approx bw silent
Paramount (Harold Lloyd)

A young man saves his girl's grandfather's trolley car business.
One of its star's most stylish comedies, and his last silent film, with a trolley car ride for climax.
w John Grey, Lex Neal, Howard Emmett Rogers, Jay Howe d Ted Wilde ph Walter Lundin
☆ Harold Lloyd, Ann Christy, Bert Woodruff, Brooks Benedict, Babe Ruth ♁ Ted Wilde

The Spell of Amy Nugent: see Spellbound (1940)

The Spellbinder

US 1939 68m bw
RKO

A criminal lawyer full of tricks finds himself on trial for murder.
Contrived courtroom drama tailored to its star.
w Thomas Lennon, Joseph A. Fields d Jack Hively
☆ Lee Tracy, Barbara Read, Patric Knowles, Allan Lane, Morgan Conway
'Average supporter for duals.' – Variety

Spellbinder

US 1988 99m colour
MGM/Indian Neck (Joe Wizan, Brian Russell)

A Los Angeles lawyer rescues a girl from a beating and finds himself confronting a murderous cult of devil worshippers.
Dreary occult drama, lacking any trace of magic, black or otherwise, and with a twist in the plot that will come as no surprise to anyone who has watched The Wicker Man.
w Tracy Tormé d Janet Greek ph Adam Greenberg m Basil Poledouris pd Rodger Maus ed Steve Mirkovich
☆ Timothy Daly, Kelly Preston, Audra Lindley, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Diana Bellamy, Anthony Crivello, Rick Rossovich

Spellbound

GB 1940 82m bw
Pyramid Amalgamated (R. Murray Leslie) aka: Passing Clouds
US title: The Spell of Amy Nugent

A young man is in despair when his fiancée dies, and nearly goes mad when a medium materializes her from the dead.
Very odd, very naïve, but somehow rather winning.
w Miles Malleson novel The Necromancers by Robert Benson d John Harlow ph Walter Harvey ☆ Derek Farr, Vera Lindsay, Frederick Leister, Hay Petrie, Diana King, Felix Aylmer

Spellbound ★★

US 1945 111m bw
David O. Selznick

The new head of a mental institution is an impostor and an amnesiac; a staff member falls in love with him and helps him recall the fate of the real Dr Edwardes.
Enthralling and rather infuriating psychological mystery; the Hitchcock touches are splendid, and the stars shine magically, but the plot could have stood a little more attention.
w Ben Hecht, Angus MacPhail novel The House of Dr Edwardes by Francis Beeding d Alfred Hitchcock ph George Barnes m Miklos Rozsa ad James Basevi dream sequence Salvador Dali
☆ Ingrid Bergman, Gregory Peck, Leo G. Carroll, Michael Chekhov, Rhonda Fleming, John Emery, Norman Lloyd, Steve Geray
'Just about as much of the id as could be safely displayed in a Bergdorf Goodman window.' – James Agee
'Glossily produced and wildly improbable.' – George Perry, 1965
'Bergman's apple-cheeked sincerity has rarely been so out of place as in this confection whipped up by jaded chefs.' – New Yorker, 1976
♟ Miklos Rozsa
best picture; Alfred Hitchcock; George Barnes; Michael Chekhov

'Little kids. Big words. American dreams.'

Spellbound ★★

US 2002 97m colour
Metrodome/Blitz/Welch

Eight children from varying backgrounds take part in the final of the National Spelling Bee, a competition to discover the best young speller in the United States.
Enjoyable documentary of children under the stress of a fierce competition (and often fiercer parents). It takes a slightly satiric approach and is sometimes less than forthcoming on background information, though it does, demonstrate the cost of achieving the American dream.
d Jeffrey Blitz ph Jeffrey Blitz m Daniel Hulsizer ed Yana Gorskaya
'There can be few more honest or heartbreaking squints at the desire for, and the price of, adolescent fame.' – James Christopher, Times

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♁ Academy Award nomination · ♉ BAFTA

Spencer's Mountain ★

US 1963 121m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Delmer Daves)

Life in rural America in the thirties with a poor quarry worker and his family of nine.
Sentimental rose-tinted hokum which later became TV's The Waltons. Expertly concocted, Hollywood style.
wd Delmer Daves novel Earl Hamner Jnr
ph Charles Lawton, H. F. Koenekamp
m Max Steiner ad Carl Anderson
ed David Wages cos Marjorie Best ☆ Henry Fonda, Maureen O'Hara, James MacArthur, Donald Crisp, Wally Cox, Mimsy Farmer, Lillian Bronson

'Outstanding for its smirking sexuality, its glorification of the vulgar, its patronizing tone, its mealymouthed piety.' – Judith Crist

Spendthrift

US 1936 80m bw
Paramount

A millionaire playboy runs out of cash.
Mild romantic comedy.
w Raoul Walsh, Bert Hanlon story Eric Hatch d Raoul Walsh ph Leon Shamroy md Boris Morros
☆ Henry Fonda, Pat Paterson, Mary Brian, George Barbier, Ed Brophy

Speriamo Che Sia Femmina: see Let's Hope It's A Girl

Spetters ★★

Netherlands 1980 115m Eastmancolor
Embassy/VSE (Joop Van Den Ende)

In a small town, three young men, two of them hoping to win a motor-cross biking championship, are all involved with a blonde sex siren who serves food from a mobile kitchen.
High energy melodrama, full of sex and violence, but eminently watchable.
w Gerard Soeteman d Paul Verhoeven
ph Jöst Vacano m Ton Scherpenzeel
ad Dick Schillemans ed Ine Schenkkan
☆ Hans Van Tongeren, Renee Soutendijk, Toon Agterberg, Maarten Spanjer, Marianne Boyer, Hugo Metsers, Kittye Courbois, Rutger Hauer, Jeroen Krabbé

'Terror Can Fill Any Space.'

Sphere

US 1998 133m Monaco Film Lab
Arriflex
Warner/Baltimore/Constant/Punch (Michael Crichton, Andrew Wald, Barry Levinson)

A team of scientists investigate a mysterious alien sphere discovered on the ocean floor.
Like most American science-fiction movies of the 90s, this is merely an excuse for characters to explore their own inner space in an attempt to come to terms with themselves.
w Stephen Hauser, Paul Attanasio story Michael Crichton d Barry Levinson
ph Adam Greenberg m Elliot Goldenthal pd Norman Reynolds ed Stu Linder
adaptation Kurt Wimmer
☆ Dustin Hoffman, Sharon Stone, Samuel L. Jackson, Peter Coyote, Liev Schreiber, Queen Latifah, Marga Gomez

'An empty shell.' – Variety

The Sphinx

US 1933 63m bw
Monogram

A murderer uses his deaf mute brother as an alibi.
Mildly ingenious low-budget thriller.
w Albert DeMond d Phil Rosen
☆ Lionel Atwill, Sheila Terry, Theodore Newton, Paul Hurst, Luis Alberni

'Fair returns are probable if dated properly.' – Variety

Sphinx

US 1980 118m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Orion (Stanley O'Toole)

Archaeologists in modern Cairo find clues to an ancient treasure.
Expensive penny dreadful which lurches about from comedy to horror but is often well worth looking at.
w John Byrum novel Robin Cook
d Franklin J. Schaffner ph Ernest Day
m Michael J. Lewis pd Terence Marsh
☆ Lesley-Anne Down, Frank Langella, Maurice Ronet, John Gielgud, Vic Tablian, Martin Benson, John Rhys-Davies

'A glossily-packaged exercise in random-selection box-office formulae.' – Jo Imeson, MFB

Spiceworld the Movie

GB 1997 92m Technicolor
Polygram/Icon/Fragile (Uri Fruchtman, Barnaby Thompson)

A week in the life of a pop group as they prepare for a concert at the Albert Hall.
Brash, lively movie aimed at the many fans of the Spice Girls, but one that is unlikely to convert others to the cause.
w Kim Fuller, Jamie Curtis d Bob Spiers
ph Clive Tickner m Paul Hardcastle
pd Grenville Horner ed Andrea MacArthur
☆ The Spice Girls (Mel B., Emma, Mel C., Geri, Victoria), Richard E. Grant, Alan Cumming, George Wendt, Claire Rushbrook, Mark McKinney, Richard O'Brien, Roger Moore, Barry Humphries, Meatloaf, Stephen Fry, Richard Briers, Bill Paterson

'A bright and breezy movie that's as timely but evanescent as the Cool Britannia culture it celebrates.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Spicy Rice: see Dragon's Food

The Spider

US 1931 65m bw
Fox

A theatre magician traps a killer.
Rather flat transcription of a play which in its original form took every advantage of the audience and other elements.
play Fulton Oursler, Lowell Brentano
d William Cameron Menzies, Kenneth MacKenna
☆ Edmund Lowe, Howard Phillips, Lois Moran, George E. Stone, El Brendel

The Spider

GB 1939 81m bw
Admiral Films (Victor M. Greene)

A theatrical agent kills his partner on a train.
Barely competent murder thriller.
w Kenneth Horne, Reginald Long novel Henry Holt d Maurice Elvey
☆ Derrick de Marney, Diana Churchill, Cecil Parker, Jean Gillie, Frank Cellier, Allan Jeayes

'The only thing worse than losing your mind... is finding it again.'

Spider ★

Canada/GB/Japan/France 2002 98m colour
Helkon SK/Davis/AIN/Grosvenor Park (David Cronenberg, Samuel Hadida, Catherine Bailey)

A terrible past and an uncertain present merge in the confused mind of a schizophrenic who has been released from a mental institution after twenty years.
Fiennes gives a compelling performance as a shambling man lost in a trauma of sex and violence, but nothing outside his skewed vision is shown so that the result becomes as confused as his mind.
w Patrick McGrath novel Patrick McGrath
d David Cronenberg ph Peter Suschitzky
m Howard Shore pd Andrew Sanders
ed Ronald Sanders
☆ Ralph Fiennes (Spider), Miranda Richardson (Yvonne/Mrs. Cleg/Mrs. Wilkinson), Gabriel Byrne (Bill Cleg), Bradley Hall (Young Spider), Lynn Redgrave (Mrs Wilkinson), John Neville (Terrence), Gary Reineke (Freddy), Philip Craig (John)

'Spider is not a pulse-quickening experience, but Fiennes's art makes it engrossing.' – Stanley Kaufmann, New Republic

'The movie is well made and acted, but it lacks dimension because it essentially has only one character, and he lacks dimension.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

The Spider and the Fly

GB 1949 95m bw
GFD/Maxwell Setton, Aubrey Baring

In 1913 a Parisian safecracker constantly outwits an inspector of the Sûreté, but war brings changes.
Coldly ironic comedy drama which really, regrettably, doesn't work.
w Robert Westerby d Robert Hamer
ph Geoffrey Unsworth m Georges Auric
☆ Eric Portman, Guy Rolfe, Nadia Gray, George Cole, Edward Chapman, John Carol, Maurice Denham

'Not sufficiently exciting for a thriller, not quite sharp enough for a real drama of character.' – Gavin Lambert, MFB

'The Seductive Innocence of Lolita! The Savage Hunger of a Black Widow!'

Spider Baby

US 1964 80m bw
Admit One (Gil Lasky, Paul Monka)

aka: The Liver Eaters

A chauffeur takes care of the family whose members degenerate into cannibals as they grow older.
A low-budget horror with a cult reputation for its general ineptitude, which extends to Chaney singing the rock 'n' roll title song.
wd Jack Hill ph Alfred Taylor m Ronald Stein ad Ray Storey ed Elliot Fayad ☆ Lon Chaney Jnr, Carol Ohmart, Quinn Redeker, Mantan Moreland, Beverly Washburn, Mary Mitchell, Jill Banner, Sid Haig

'A sort of more perverse Addams Family, with genuinely grotesque humour and a unique cheesiness.' – Kim Newman, Nightmare Movies

Spider Woman ★★

US 1944 62m bw
Universal (Roy William Neill)

aka: Sherlock Holmes and the Spider Woman

A female Moriarty kills her victims with spiders so that she can collect on their insurance policies.
Lively episode in the modernized series, which packs in several suspenseful episodes borrowed from a variety of Conan Doyle originals.
w Bertram Millhauser d Roy William Neill ph Charles Van Enger m Hans Salter
☆ Basil Rathbone (Sherlock Holmes), Nigel Bruce (Dr Watson), Gale Sondergaard (Andrea Spedding), Dennis Hoey (Lestrade), Vernon Downing (Norman Locke), Alec Craig (Radlik), Mary Gordon (Mrs Hudson), Arthur Hohl (Gilflower)

The Spider Woman Strikes Back

US 1946 59m bw
Universal (Howard Welsch)

An innocent girl is used as decoy by a conniving female criminal.
Boring crime filler, scarcely a worthy sequel to Spider Woman.
w Eric Taylor d Arthur Lubin ph Paul Ivano md Milton Rosen
☆ Gale Sondergaard, Brenda Joyce, Rondo Hatton, Milburn Stone, Kirby Grant, Hobart Cavanaugh

'With great power comes great responsibility.'

Spider-Man ★

US 2002 121m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Marvel (Laura Ziskin, Ian Bryce)

A high school wimp is bitten by a genetically-altered spider and turns into the superhero Spider-Man, just in time to battle against a mad scientist, who remakes himself as the Green Goblin.
Critic-proof, comic-book entertainment that will trap large audiences with its spin of romance and action, though it could have done with a better (that is, badder) villain.
w David Koepp comic book Stan Lee, Steve Ditko d Sam Raimi ph Don Burgess
m Danny Elfman pd Neil Spisak ed Bob Murawski, Arthur Coburn sp John Dykstra ☆ Tobey Maguire (Spider-Man/Peter Parker), Willem Dafoe (Green Goblin/Norman Osborn), Kirsten Dunst (Mary Jane Watson), James Franco (Harry Osborn), Cliff Robertson (Ben Parker), Rosemary Harris (May Parker), J. K. Simmons (J. Jonah Jameson), Flash Thompson (Joe Manganiello)

'A perfectly serviceable early-summer popcorn picture that will satisfy its core teen constituency and not displease general viewers looking for some disposable entertainment.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'A canny franchise escapade; it gets the job done. But it also leaves you hungry for something more, and I don't necessarily mean the next episode.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly

† It set a new record by taking $115m at the US box-office in its first three days.
visual effects (John Dykstra, Scott Stokdyk, Anthony LaMolinara, John Frazier); sound (Kevin O'Connell, Greg P. Russell, Ed Novick)

Spider-Man 2 ★★

US 2004 127m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia/Marvel/Laura Ziskin

An unhappy superhero thinks of quitting until he is faced with the menace of a mad scientist transformed into a human octopus.
Adolescent angst and some superb special effects combine to lift this comicbook extravaganza, with its moping hero and clanking villain, out of the ordinary.
w Alvin Sargent Marvel comic Stan Lee, Steve Ditko story Alfred Gough, Miles Millar, Michael Chabon d Sam Raimi
ph Bill Pope m Danny Elfman pd Neil Spisak ed Bob Murawski sp John Dykstra, Sony Pictures Imageworks fight choreographer Dion Lam ☆ Tobey Maguire (Spider-Man/Peter

Parker), Kirsten Dunst (Mary Jane Watson), James Franco (Harry Osborn), Alfred Molina (Doc Ock/Dr Otto Octavius), Rosemary Harris (May Parker), J.K. Simmons (J. Jonah Jameson), Donna Murphy (Rosalie Octavius), Bill Nunn (Joseph 'Robbie' Robertson), Willem Dafoe (Green Goblin/Norman Osborn), Cliff Robertson (Ben Parker), Bruce Campbell (Snooty Usher)

'Improves in every way on its predecessor and is arguably about as good a live-action picture as anyone's ever made using comicbook characters.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety sound editing (Paul N.J. Ottosson); sound mixing (Kevin O'Connell, Greg P. Russell, Jeffrey J. Haboush, Joseph Geisinger)

'The battle within.'

Spider-Man 3

★★ (6)

US 2007 138m
Sony/Columbia/Marvel (Laura Ziskin, Avi Arad, Grant Curtis)

Peter Parker is comfortable, even self-satisfied, about Spider-Man's fame and success, but then his character comes under scrutiny when an alien organism morphs itself into a black suit that envelops him.

A decent addition to the franchise, with some nice moments: self-effacing Peter Parker developing a swagger as he enjoys his new-found celebrity, and a terrific new villain, the Sandman, who can turn at will into a fearsome monster made of grains of sand. A couple of other villains could have been excised from the script, but the special effects are often dazzling, and if it seems overlong, the film could be said to represent super-sized value.

w Sam Raimi, Ivan Raimi, Alvin Sargent marvel comic book Spider-Man by Stan Lee, Steve Ditko d Sam Raimi ph Bill Pope m Christpher Young, Danny Elfman pd Neil Spisak, J. Michael Riva ed Bob Murawski sp Scott Stokdyk

☆ Tobey Maguire (Peter Parker/Spider-Man), Kirsten Dunst (Mary Jane Watson), James Franco (Harry Osborn/New Goblin), Thomas Haden Church (Flint Marko/Sandman), Topher Grace (Eddie Brock/Venom), Bryce Dallas Howard (Gwen Stacy), Rosemary Harris (Aunt May Parker)

'The tone is ultimately more subdued than your average superhero movie. Kudos to Raimi for making it feel justified.' – Ben Walters, Time Out

'The main flaw is an over-abundance of villains, a bout of narrative greediness that sees them marching out of their lairs like so many evildoers-on-parade.' – Rick Groen, Toronto Globe and Mail

The Spider's Stratagem

★

Italy 1970 97m Eastmancolor
Radiotelevisione Italiana/Red Film (Giovanni Bertolucci)

original title: Strategia del Ragno

Revisiting the village in the Po valley where his father was murdered by fascists in 1936, our gradually disillusioned hero learns that his father was really a traitor executed by his own men.

Elaborately mysterious puzzle play for intellectuals, with infinite shades of meaning which few will bother to explore. The atmosphere, however, is superbly caught.

w Bernardo Bertolucci, Eduardo de Gregorio, Marilu Parolini story The Theme of the Traitor and the Hero by Jorge Luis Borges d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Vittorio Storaro, Franco di Giacomo

☆ Giulio Brogi, Alida Valli, Tino Scotti, Pino Campanini

Der Spiegel Ayna: see The Mirror

The Spies: see Les Espions

Spies Like Us

US 1985 109m Technicolor
Warner (Brian Grazer, George Folsey Jnr)

Bumbling bureaucrats are mistakenly chosen for a spy mission.

Inept attempts at humour fall flat throughout this dreary venture, which is as though Hope and Crosby had set out on the road to Morocco without a script.

w Dan Aykroyd, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel d John Landis ph Robert Paynter m Elmer Bernstein pd Peter Murton ed Malcolm Campbell

☆ Chevy Chase, Dan Aykroyd, Steve Forrest, Donna Dixon, Bruce Davison, William Prince, Bernie Casey

Spies of the Air

GB 1939 77m bw
British National (John Corfield)

A test pilot turns out to be an enemy agent.

Moderate programmer with an engaging cast.

w A. R. Rawlinson, Bridget Boland play Official Secrets by Jeffrey Dell d David MacDonald

☆ Barry K. Barnes, Roger Livesey, Joan Marion, Basil Radford, Felix Aylmer, John Turnbull, Henry Oscar

The Spikes Gang

US 1974 96m DeLuxe
UA/Mirisch/Duo/Sanford (Walter Mirisch)

Three boys shelter a bank robber and join his gang.

Doom-laden, violent Western with a few comic lines.

w Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jnr novel The Bank Robber by Giles Tippette d Richard Fleischer ph Brian West m Fred Karlin

☆ Lee Marvin, Gary Grimes, Ron Howard, Charles Martin Smith, Arthur Hunnicutt, Noah Beery Jnr

Spin of a Coin: see The George Raft Story

La Spina Dorsale del Diavolo: see The Deserter

Spinout

US 1966 93m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Euterpe (Joe Pasternak)

GB title: California Holiday

A carefree touring singer agrees to drive an experimental car in a road race.

Mild star musical which at least stays in the open air.

w Theodore J. Flicker, George Kirgo d Norman Taurog ph Daniel L. Fapp md Georgie Stoll

☆ Elvis Presley, Shelley Fabares, Carl Betz, Cecil Kellaway, Diane McBain, Deborah Walley, Jack Mullaney, Will Hutchins, Una Merkel

Spinster: see Two Loves

Spiral: see Uzumaki

The Spiral Road

US 1962 145m Eastmancolor
U-I (Robert Arthur)

In 1936 Java, an atheist medical man fights a leprosy epidemic and eventually becomes a missionary.

A long slog through jungle/religious clichés, with a hilariously miscast star and an almost Victorian script.

w John Lee Mahin, Neil Paterson novel Jan de Hartog d Robert Mulligan ph Russell Harlan m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Rock Hudson, Burl Ives, Geoffrey Keen, Gena Rowlands, Will Kuluva, Neva Patterson, Philip Abbott

The Spiral Staircase

★★★

US 1945 83m bw
RKO (Dore Schary)

A small town in 1906 New England is terrorized by a psychopathic killer of deformed girls.

Archetypal old dark house thriller, superbly detailed and set during a most convincing thunderstorm. Even though the identity of the villain is pretty obvious, this is a superior Hollywood product.

w Mel Dinelli novel Some Must Watch by Ethel Lina White d Robert Siodmak ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb ad Albert S. D'Agostino, Jack Okey ed Harry Marker, Harry Gerstad

☆ Dorothy McGuire (Helen Capel), George Brent (Prof. Warren), Kent Smith (Dr. Parry), Ethel Barrymore (Mrs. Warren), Rhys Williams (Mr. Oates), Rhonda Fleming (Blanche), Gordon Oliver (Steve Warren), Sara Allgood (Nurse Barker), James Bell (Constable)

'A nice, cosy and well-sustained atmosphere of horror.' – C. A. Lejeune

Ethel Barrymore

The Spiral Staircase

GB 1975 89m Technicolor
Warner/Raven (Peter Shaw)

Modernized remake of the above using virtually the same script, and apparently determined to prove how badly it can be presented.

w Andrew Meredith d Peter Collinson ph Ken Hodges m David Lindup

☆ Jacqueline Bisset, Christopher Plummer, Sam Wanamaker, Mildred Dunnock, Gayle Hunnicutt, Sheila Brennan, Elaine Stritch, John Ronane, Ronald Radd, John Phillip Law

'I don't think this needless remake is going to set anyone's flesh creeping, except at the vulgar flashiness of the whole enterprise.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News

The Spirit Is Willing

US 1966 100m Technicolor
Paramount/William Castle

A family finds that its holiday home is haunted by the ghosts of a crime passionel.

Overlong, overplayed and witless farce with virtually no opportunity well taken.

w Ben Starr novel The Visitors by Nathaniel Benchley d William Castle ph Hal Stine m Vic Mizzy

☆ Sid Caesar, Vera Miles, John McGiver, Cass Daley, John Astin, Mary Wickes, Jesse White

Spirit of Culver

US 1939 89m bw
Universal

A boy grows up at Culver Military Academy.

Very humdrum flagwaver combined with a last attempt to maintain stardom for two child performers.

w Nathanael West, Whitney Bolton d Joseph Santley

☆ Jackie Cooper, Freddie Bartholomew, Tim Holt, Henry Hull, Andy Devine, Gene Reynolds

'Mild entertainment for duals and kids.' – Variety

The Spirit of St Louis

★

US 1957 135m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner (Leyland Hayward)

In 1927 Charles Lindbergh flies a specially constructed plane 3,600 miles nonstop New York to Paris in 33½ hours.

Impeccably in its period, this needlessly Cinemascoped reconstruction can scarcely avoid dull patches since for long stretches its hero is on screen solo apart from a fly, and his monologues become soporific.

w Billy Wilder, Wendell Mayes book Charles Lindbergh d Billy Wilder ph Robert Burks, Peverell Marley m Franz Waxman

☆ James Stewart, Murray Hamilton, Marc Connelly

The Spirit of the Beehive

★★★

Spain 1973 98m Eastmancolor
Elias Querejeta

original title: El Espiritu de la Colmene

In 1940 in a remote village, two children see a travelling film show of Frankenstein, and their imaginations run riot; or do they?

Sensitive story of childish imagination, reminiscent of Jeux Interdits and yet very much its own vision.

w Francisco J. Querejeta d Victor Erice ph Luis Cuadrado m Luis de Pablo

☆ Fernando Fernan Gomez, Teresa Gimpera, Ana Torrent, Isabel Telleria

Spirit of the People: see Abe Lincoln in Illinois

'Some legends can never be tamed.'

Spirit: Stallion of the Cimarron

★

US 2002 84m Technicolor 'Scope
DreamWorks (Mireille Soria, Jeffrey Katzenberg)

In the 1800s in the Old West, a horse grows up to value his freedom and resist capture by the cavalry.

Simple sentimental tale of horses and Indians with little dialogue but lots of simple, sentimental songs and some nature-loving animation.

w John Fusco d Kelly Asbury, Lorna Cook m Hans Zimmer m/ly Bryan Adams pd Kathy Altieri ed Nick Fletcher

☆ voices of: Matt Damon (Spirit), James Cromwell (The Colonel), Daniel Studi (Little Creek)

'Gooey animation for pony club fanatics.' – James Christopher, Times

'The whole thing is horribly close to Bambi, which doesn't cut it in 2002.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

animated feature

Spirited Away

★★★ (9)

Japan 2001 125m Technicolor
Optimum/Tokuma Shoten/Studio Ghibli/NipponTV/Dentsu/Buena Vista/Tohokushinsha/Mitsubishi (Toshio Suzuki)

original title: Sen to Chihiro - No Kamikakushi

Moving to a new town with her parents, an unhappy girl finds herself stranded in a bathhouse occupied by gods and spirits, where she has to work her way to freedom.

Beautifully animated narrative of a girl discovering self-reliance in a strange world; it is often easier to enjoy than understand.

wd Hayao Miyazaki m Joe Hisaishi

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

ad Yoji Takeshige ed Takeshi Seyama
☆ voices of: Rumi Hiiragi (Chihiro), Miyu Irino (Haku), Mari Natsuki (Yubaba/Zeniba), Takashi Naito (Akio), Yasuko Sawaguchi (Yugo)
'A work of unparalleled genius.' – Jason Solomons, Times
'This uninspired story… is clumsy in execution and lacks the complexity to sustain a film of two hours.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
† The movie was released in two versions, one subtitled and the other dubbed into English. Both versions are on the DVD release.
†† It shared the Goilden Bear award at the Berlin Film Festival in 2002.
animated feature

Spirits of the Dead: see Histoires Extraordinaires

The Spiritualist: see The Amazing Dr X

Spite Marriage ★

US 1929 77m (24 fps) bw silent
MGM/Buster Keaton (Lawrence Weingarten)

A tailor's assistant loves an actress, who marries him to spite someone else.
For a Keaton comedy from his great period, this is remarkably thin on invention, and its pleasures, though undeniable, are minor.
w Richard Schayer, Lew Lipton d Edward Sedgwick ph Reggie Lanning ☆ Buster Keaton, Dorothy Sebastian, Edward Earle, Leila Hyams

Spitfire ★

US 1934 88m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

An Ozark mountain girl believes herself to be a faith healer and is driven from the community.
Curious star melodrama with effective moments.
w Jane Murfin play Trigger by Lula Vollmer d John Cromwell ph Edward Cronjager m Max Steiner ☆ Katharine Hepburn, Robert Young, Ralph Bellamy, Martha Sleeper, Louis Mason
'The veins of the story carry thin milk rather than heavy corpuscles.' – Variety
'The picture would suggest that Katharine Hepburn is condemned to elegance, doomed to be a lady for the rest of her natural life, and that her artistry does not extend to the interpretation of the primitive or the uncouth. That her producers have not bothered to give her a scenario of any interest or quality is another aspect of the situation.' – New Yorker

Spitfire: see The First of the Few (1942)

The Spitfire Grill ③

US 1996 117m DeLuxe
Rank/Turner/Castle Rock/Gregory/Mendocino (Forrest Murray)

aka: Care of the Spitfire Grill
The new waitress at a small-town diner, who served time for manslaughter, precipitates change and tragedy among the locals.
A minor melodrama among the dispossessed, soft at its centre, but strongly performed.
wd Lee David Zlotoff ph Robert Draper m James Horner pd Howard Cummings ed Margie Goodspeed
☆ Alison Elliott, Ellen Burstyn, Marcia Gay Harden, Will Patton, Kieran Mulroney, Gailard Sartain, John M. Jackson
'This view of café-society is too maudlin for its own good.' – Tom Hutchinson, Film Review

Spivs: see I Vitelloni

'You can't cheat an honest man.'

Spivs

GB 2003 94m DeLuxe Panavision
Verve/Carnaby (Hamish Skeggs)

A small time conman gets into trouble with violent gangsters when he hijacks a lorry and finds it full of illegal immigrants.
Unconvincing thriller that wobbles between violence and sentimentality.
w Gary Young, Colin Teague story Michael Loveday d Colin Teague ph Haris Zambarloukos m David Julyan pd Mike Kane ed Eddie Hamilton
☆ Ken Stott (Jack), Nick Moran (Steve), Kate Ashfield (Jenny), Dominic Monaghan (Goat), Linda Bassett (Auntie Vee), Jack Dee (Nigel), Paul Kaye (O'Brien), Rita Ora (Rosanna)
'The Brit gangster comedy rears its empty, Brylcreemed head again.' – Steve Rose, Guardian

'She was the woman of his dreams. She had large dark eyes, a beautiful smile, and a great pair of fins.'

Splash! ★

US 1984 110m Technicolor
Touchstone/Buena Vista (Brian Grazer)

A New York wholesaler on holiday off Cape Cod falls in love with a mermaid.
A kind of updated and mildly sexed-up Miranda: occasionally funny but far too long.
w Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, Bruce Jay Friedman, Brian Grazer d Ron Howard ph Don Peterman m Lee Holdridge
☆ Tom Hanks, Daryl Hannah, Eugene Levy, John Candy, Dody Goodman, Shecky Greene, Richard B. Shull, Howard Morris
'A typically Disney subject trying to be grown up.' – Kim Newman, MFB
'The picture is frequently on the verge of being more wonderful than it is … more lyrical, a little wilder.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
screenplay

Splendor

US 1935 77m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

The son of a once-wealthy Park Avenue family marries a poor girl.
Dated romantic drama.
w Rachel Crothers play Rachel Crothers d Elliott Nugent ph Gregg Toland md Alfred Newman
☆ Joel McCrea, Miriam Hopkins, Helen Westley, Katherine Alexander, David Niven, Paul Cavanagh, Billie Burke, Arthur Treacher
'An unusually good production, but probably too quiet for the lesser spots.' – Variety
'A model of dramatic exposition, but it suffers from inaction and its theme is too commonplace.' – New York Times

Splendor ★★

Italy/France 1988 99m Cinecitta
Warner/Cecchi Gori/Tiger Cinematografica/Studio El/Gaumont/Generale d'Images/RAI (Mario Cecchi Gori, Vittorio Cecchi Gori)

A bankrupt small-town cinema owner remembers past glories.
Charming, gently nostalgic lament for movies as a communal experience.
wd Ettore Scola ph Luciano Tovoli m Armando Trovaioli ad Luciano Ricceri ed Francesco Malvestito
☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Massimo Troisi, Marina Vlady, Paolo Panelli, Pamela Villoresi, Giacomo Piperno, Massimo Bartocini

'Most pictures end in a theatre. This picture ends late at night in your heart.'

Splendor in the Grass ★

US 1961 124m Technicolor
Warner/NBI (Elia Kazan)

Adolescent love in a small Kansas town in the twenties.
Impressive though curiously unmemorable addition to a nostalgic young sex cycle which was already played out; production and performances well up to scratch.
w William Inge d Elia Kazan ph Boris Kaufman m David Amram ☆ Natalie Wood, Warren Beatty, Pat Hingle, Audrey Christie, Barbara Loden, Zohra Lampert, Sandy Dennis
'Less like a high-school version of Summer and Smoke than [like] an Andy Hardy story with glands.' – Stanley Kauffmann
William Inge
Natalie Wood

Splinters

GB 1929 82m bw
B and D (Herbert Wilcox)

Soldiers at the front in 1915 form a concert party.
Easy-going crowd-pleaser of its time.
w W. P. Lipscomb d Jack Raymond ph David Kesson m Carroll Gibbons
☆ Nelson Keyes, Sydney Howard, Lew Lake, Hal Jones, Reg Stone
† Sequels, of roughly the same standard, included Splinters in the Navy, 1931, and Splinters in the Air, 1937; both with Sidney Howard.

The Split

US 1968 90m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM/Spectrum (Robert Chartoff, Irwin Winkler)

A black criminal plans to rob the Los Angeles Coliseum during a football match.
Busy, brutal crime thriller, well enough done but totally unsympathetic.
w Robert Sabaroff novel The Seventh by Richard Stark d Gordon Flemyng ph Burnett Guffey m Quincy Jones
☆ Jim Brown, Diahann Carroll, Ernest Borgnine, Julie Harris, Gene Hackman, Jack Klugman, Warren Oates, James Whitmore, Donald Sutherland

Split Image ★

US 1982 111m Metrocolor Panavision
Polygram Pictures (Ted Kotcheff)

A normal middle-class college athlete becomes involved with a religious cult.
Effective melodrama about brainwashing.
w Scott Spencer, Robert Kaufman, Robert Mark Kamen d Ted Kotcheff ph Robert Jessup m Bill Conti pd Wolf Kroeger ed Jay Kamen
☆ Michael O'Keefe, Karen Allen, James Woods, Elizabeth Ashley, Brian Dennehy, Ronnie Scribner, Michael Sacks, Peter Fonda

Split Second

US 1953 85m bw
RKO (Edmund Grainger)

An escaped convict hides out with four hostages in an Arizona ghost town which has been cleared in preparation for an atom bomb test.
Routine suspenser.
w William Bowers, Irving Wallace d Dick Powell ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb ☆ Stephen McNally, Alexis Smith, Jan Sterling, Keith Andes, Arthur Hunnicutt, Paul Kelly, Richard Egan, Robert Paige

Split Second

GB 1991 90m Eastmancolor
Entertainment/Challenge/Muse (Laura Gregory)

In 2008, in a flooded London, a cop goes after a serial killer who turns out to be a monster.
A gallant, if misguided, attempt to revive the man-in-a-rubber-suit school of horror movies.
w Gary Scott Thompson d Tony Maylam ph Clive Tickner m Stephen Parsons, Francis Haines pd Chris Edwards ed Dan Rae ☆ Rutger Hauer, Kim Cattrall, Neil Duncan, Michael J. Pollard, Alun Armstrong, Peter Postlethwaite, Ian Dury, Roberta Eaton, Tony Steedman
'An extremely stupid monster film, boasting enough violence and special effects to satisfy less discriminating vid fans.' – Variety

Splitface: see Dick Tracy

Splitting Heirs

GB 1993 87m Technicolor
UIP/Prominent Features (Simon Bosanquet, Redmond Morris)

A city businessman, adopted by a Pakistani family, discovering that he, and not his best friend, is really the heir to the Dukedom of Bournemouth, decides to murder his rival.
Sad and trivial comedy, consisting of ineptly performed knockabout routines.
w Eric Idle d Robert Young ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Michael Kamen pd John Beard ed John Jympson ☆ Eric Idle, Rick Moranis, Barbara Hershey, Catherine Zeta Jones, John Cleese, Sadie Frost, Stratford Johns, Brenda Bruce, William Franklyn, Jeremy Clyde, Eric Sykes
'Breezy but lightweight comedy.' – Variety
'The pace and cheerful inanity of the picture may go some way to excusing its lack of wit and subtlety.' – Geoffrey Macnab, Sight and Sound

The Spoilers ★

US 1930 86m bw
Paramount (Lloyd Sheldon)

In Alaska during the gold rush, crooked government officials begin despoiling the richest claims.
Early talkie version of a famous brawling saga.
w Bartlett Cormack, Agnes Brand Leahy novel Rex Beach d Edward Carewe ph Harry Fischbeck
☆ Gary Cooper, William 'Stage' Boyd, Betty Compson, Kay Johnson, Harry Green, Slim Summerville
'Fair for a week in the de luxers, but made to order for the neighbourhoods and grinds everywhere.' – Variety

The Spoilers ★★

US 1942 87m bw
Universal (Frank Lloyd)

Two adventurers in the Yukon quarrel over land rights and a saloon entertainer.
Well-packaged mixture of saloon brawls, romance and adventure, much filmed as a silent.
w Lawrence Hazard, Tom Reed d Ray Enright ph Milton Krasner m Hans Salter ad Jack Otterson, John B. Goodman ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott, John

Wayne, Margaret Lindsay, Harry Carey, Richard Barthelmess, George Cleveland, Samuel S. Hinds

'All concerned have kept their tongues firmly in their cheeks.' – New York Times

art direction

The Spoilers ★

US 1955 82m Technicolor
U-I (Ross Hunter)

Adequate, unmemorable remake of the above.

w Oscar Brodney, Charles Hoffman d Jesse Hibbs ph Maury Gertsman m Joseph Gershenson

☆ Anne Baxter, Jeff Chandler, Rory Calhoun, Barbara Britton, Carl Benton Reid, Ray Danton, John McIntire, Raymond Walburn, Wallace Ford

Spoklenci slasti: see Conspirators of Pleasure

'Bigger. Better. More absorbent.'

The Spongebob SquarePants Movie ★ 6

US 2004 87m DeLuxe
Paramount/Nickleodeon/United Plankton

In the undersea town of Bikini Bottom a sea-sponge and his starfish friend set out to recover the stolen crown of King Neptune, Engagingly silly, deliberately immature, cheerful nonsense though its cheap and stylised approach to animation looks over-stretched on the big screen.

w Derek Drymon, Tim Hill, Stephen Hillenburg, Kent Osborne, Aaron Springer, Paul Tibbitt, story and series Stephen Hillenburg d Stephen Hillenburg ph Jerzy Zielinski m Gregor Nabholz pd Nick Jennings ed Lynn Hobson

☆ voices of: Tom Kenny (SpongeBob), Bill Fagerbakke (Patrick Star), Clancy Brown (Mr Krabs), Rodger Bumpass (Squidward), Plankton (Mr Lawrence), Alec Baldwin (Dennis), Scarlett Johansson (Mindy), Jeffrey Tambor (King Neptune), David Hasselhoff (Himself)

'Bubbles of fun.' – Guardian

Spontaneous Combustion

US 1990 108m colour
Taurus (Jim Rogers)

The son of parents subjected to nuclear experiments discovers that he can set people on fire.

Direly ridiculous horror, a wet blanket of a movie, depressing and unimaginative.

w Tobe Hooper, Howard Goldberg d Tobe Hooper ph Levie Isaacks m Graeme Revell ed David Kern

☆ Brad Dourif, Cynthia Bain, Jon Cypher, William Prince, Dey Young, Melinda Dillon, John Landis

'Silly beyond belief ... a horror pic that literally goes up in flames.' – Variety

Spooks Run Wild

US 1941 65m bw
Monogram/Banner (Sam Katzman)

The East Side Kids are sent, against their will, to summer camp, where a killer is on the prowl.

Lively haunted-house comedy, with Lugosi providing a parody of his Count Dracula.

w Carl Foreman, Charles R. Marion, Jack Henley d Phil Rosen ph Marcel Le Picard ed Robert Golden

☆ Bela Lugosi, Leo Gorcey, Bobby Jordan, Huntz Hall, Sunshine Sammy Morrison, Dave O'Brien, David Gorcey, Angelo Rossitto

Spoorloos: see The Vanishing

Sport of a Nation: see The All-American

The Sport of Kings

GB 1931 98m bw
Gainsborough (Michael Balcon)

A strict JP inherits a bookie business.

Heavy-going adaptation of a stage comedy warhorse, which nevertheless paved the way for many screen farces of the thirties.

w Angus MacPhail play Ian Hay d Victor Saville ph Freddie Young

☆ Leslie Henson, Gordon Harker, Hugh Wakefield, Dorothy Boyd

Sporting Blood

US 1931 80m bw
MGM

A horse passes through various hands and finally wins the Kentucky Derby.

Unremarkable programme fodder.

w Charles Brabin, Wanda Tuchock, Willard Mack story Horseflesh by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan d Charles Brabin

☆ Clark Gable, Ernest Torrence, Madge Evans, Lew Cody, Marie Prevost

'Racetrack romance with a different twist and only name Clark Gable.' – Variety

Sporting Love

GB 1937 68m bw
British Lion/Hammer

Two owners of a bankrupt racing stable try to kidnap their prize horse which has been mortgaged.

Thin musical farce from a stage success.

w Fenn Sherie, Ingram D'Abbes play Stanley Lupino d J. Elder Wills ph Eric Cross

☆ Stanley Lupino, Laddie Cliff, Henry Carlisle, Edna Peel, Bobbie Comber

Spot: see Dogpound Shuffle

'It's the business.'

Spotswood ★

Australia 1991 95m colour
Feature/Meridian/Smiley (Richard Brennan, Timothy White)

An English time-and-motion expert investigates a ramshackle shoe factory.

Pleasant comedy in the Ealing tradition of the little man against uncaring bureaucracy.

w Max Dann, Andrew Knight d Mark Joffe ph Ellery Ryan m Ricky Fataar pd Chris Kennedy ed Nicholas Beauman

☆ Anthony Hopkins, Ben Mendelsohn, Alwyn Kurts, Bruno Lawrence, Angela Punch McGregor, Russell Crowe, Toni Collette

'Glides along with a dry wit, a keen visual sense and a kindly heart.' – Geoff Brown, The Times

Spring and Port Wine

GB 1970 101m Technicolor
EMI/Memorial (Michael Medwin)

A Lancashire family runs into trouble when stern father insists that teenage daughter should eat a meal she refuses.

A popular old-fashioned stage comedy which simply doesn't work on film, partly from being set in a too-real town (Bolton) and partly because of a miscast lead.

w Bill Naughton play Bill Naughton d Peter Hammond ph Norman Warwick m Douglas Gamley pd Reece Pemberton

☆ James Mason, Diana Coupland, Susan George, Rodney Bewes, Hannah Gordon, Adrienne Posta, Arthur Lowe

Spring in Park Lane ★★

GB 1948 92m bw
Imperadio/Herbert Wilcox

A diamond merchant's niece falls for a footman who just happens to be an impoverished lord in disguise.

Flimsy but highly successful romantic comedy which managed to get its balance right and is still pretty entertaining, much more so than its sequel Maytime in Mayfair.

w Nicholas Phipps play Come Out of the Kitchen by Alice Duer Miller d Herbert Wilcox ph Max Greene m Robert Farnon

☆ Anna Neagle, Michael Wilding, Tom Walls, Nicholas Phipps, Peter Graves, Marjorie Fielding, Nigel Patrick, Lana Morris

'A never-failing dream of Olde Mayfaire and its eternally funny butlers and maids, its disguised lords and ladies.' – Richard Winnington

'A gag comedy which absolutely sparkles.' – Picture Show

'The best comedy any British studio has produced for more years than I care to remember.' – News of the World

Spring Madness

US 1938 66m bw
MGM

The romance of a Harvard man and a student in the nearby women's college.

Very thin comedy material, stretched to its tearing point.

w Edward Chodorov play Spring Dance by Philip Barry d S. Sylvan Simon

☆ Maureen O'Sullivan, Lew Ayres, Ruth Hussey, Burgess Meredith, Joyce Compton

Spring Meeting

GB 1940 93m bw
ABPC

In Ireland, an impecunious widow wants her son to marry the daughter of an old flame.

Staid film version of a comedy whose characters turned up again in Treasure Hunt.

w Walter C. Mycroft, Norman Lee play M. J. Farrell, John Perry d Walter C. Mycroft

☆ Nova Pilbeam, Basil Sydney, Henry Edwards, Sarah Churchill, Michael Wilding, Margaret Rutherford, Enid Stamp Taylor, Hugh McDermott

Spring Parade ★

US 1940 89m bw
Universal (Joe Pasternak)

A single baker's assistant falls for a prince.

Pleasing, artificial Austrian frou-frou with star and support in good escapist form.

w Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson story Ernst Marischka d Henry Koster ph Joseph Valentine m Robert Stolz md Charles Previn ch Larry Ceballos

☆ Deanna Durbin, Robert Cummings, S. Z. Sakall, Mischa Auer, Henry Stephenson, Anne Gwynne, Butch and Buddy

Joseph Valentine; Charles Previn; song 'Waltzing in the Clouds' (m Robert Stolz, ly Gus Kahn)

Spring Reunion

US 1956 79m bw
UA/Bryna (Jerry Bresler)

College classmates fall in love all over again at a reunion fifteen years later.

Romantic fiction for the middle-aged, performed with bare competence.

wd Robert Pirosh ph Harold Lipstein m Herbert Spencer, Earle Hagen

☆ Betty Hutton, Dana Andrews, Jean Hagen, Robert Simon, James Gleason, Laura La Plante, Irene Ryan

Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter... and Spring ★★★ 7

South Korea/Germany 2003 102m colour
Korea Pictures/LJ/Pandora (Karl Baumgartner, Raimond Goebel, Kim So-heui)

original title: Bom Yeoreum Gaeul Gyeoul Geurigo Bom

On an island monastery inhabited by an elderly monk, a boy grows to manhood, experiences love and finally becomes the monastery's resident monk, as the pattern repeats itself.

A film that is both lyrical and harsh, transcendent and mundane; it is a Buddhist fable of redemption and cutting wisdom.

wd Kim Ki-duk ph Baek Dong-hyeon m Bark Jee-woong ad Oh Sang-man ed Kim Ki-duk

☆ Oh Yeong-su (Old Monk), Kim Ki-duk (Adult Monk), Kim Yeong-min (Young Adult Monk), Seo Jae-gyeong (Boy Monk), Ha Yeo-jin (The Girl), Kim Jung-ho (Child Monk)

'Visually beautiful, spiritually austere and deeply involving.' – Philip French, Observer

'Conjures a sense of spiritual discipline as suspenseful as it is stunning to watch and exhilarating to contemplate.' – David Sterritt, Christian Science Monitor

Spring Symphony

West Germany 1983 103m colour
Blue Dolphin/Allianz Filmproduktion/Peter Schamoni

original title: Frühlingssinfonie

Biopic of the love affair between the composer Robert Schumann and the pianist Clara Wieck.

Glossy and stolid plod through a decade that relies on the music to maintain interest.

wd Peter Schamoni ph Gerard Vandenberg m Schumann pd Alfred Hirschmeier ed Elfi Tillack

☆ Nastassja Kinski, Herbert Grönemeyer, Rolf Hoppe, André Heller, Bernhard Wicki, Gidon Kremer, Edda Seippel

Spring Tonic

US 1935 55m bw
Fox

An escaped tigress causes various farcical episodes.

Comedy extravaganza on modest lines, like a stretched-out two-reeler.

w Patterson McNutt, H. W. Hanemann play Man Eating Tiger by Ben Hecht, Rose Caylor d S. Sylvan Simon

☆ Lew Ayres, Claire Trevor, Walter Woolf King, ZaSu Pitts, Jack Haley, Tala Birell, Sig Rumann

'Hodge-podge of hokum that offers no hope to distraught exhibitors.' – Variety

'The gun ... the girl ... they made one man the equal of five!'

Springfield Rifle

US 1952 93m Warnercolor
Warner (Louis E. Edelman)

A Union officer gets himself cashiered, joins the Confederates as a spy, and unmasks a traitor.

Stolid Civil War Western with Grade-A production but not much individuality.

w Charles Marquis Warren, Frank Davis d André de Toth ph Edwin DuPar m Max Steiner

☆ Gary Cooper, Phyllis Thaxter, David Brian, Lon Chaney Jnr, Paul Kelly, Phil Carey, James Millican, Guinn Williams

Springtime for Henry
US 1935 73m bw
Fox (Jesse L. Lasky)
A rich man makes a vocation of woman chasing.
Modest version of a play which was toured for many years with Edward Everett Horton in the lead.
w Keene Thompson, Frank Tuttle play Benn W. Levy d Frank Tuttle ☆ Otto Kruger, Nancy Carroll, Nigel Bruce, Heather Angel, Herbert Mundin 'Farcical intent, but only a few snickers.' – Variety

Springtime in a Small Town **
China/Hong Kong/France 2002 116m colour
Artificial Eye/Yang Buting-Li Shaohong/CFG/Beijing Film/Fortissimo/Paradis/Orly (Li Xiaowan, Bill Kong, Ting Yatming) original title: Xiao Cheng Zhi Chun
In 1946, in a rundown provincial town, a sickly landowner and his bored wife are stirred out of their lethargy by a visit from an old friend, a doctor from Shanghai.
Delicately nuanced story of re-awakened love, set at the end of a war in a moment just before revolutionary change.
w Ah Cheng story Li Tianji 1948 screenplay Fei Mu d Tian Zhuangzhuang ph Mark Lee m Zhao Li pd Cheng Guangming ed Xu Jiangping ☆ Hu Jingfan (Yuwen), Wu Jun (Dai Liyan), Xin Baiqing (Zhang Zhichen), Ye Xiaokeng (Lao Huang), Lu Sisi (Dai Xiu)
'A movie of indefinable moods and subtle emotional coloration... among the finest expressions of the Chinese new wave.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

Springtime in the Rockies
US 1942 91m Technicolor
TCF (William LeBaron)
Romances blossom on a mountain holiday.
Flimsily-plotted, studio-bound, absolutely routine musical.
w Walter Bullock, Ken Englund story Philip Wylie d Irving Cummings ph Ernest Palmer md Alfred Newman songs Mack Gordon, Harry Warren
☆ Betty Grable, John Payne, Carmen Miranda, Edward Everett Horton, Cesar Romero, Charlotte Greenwood, Frank Orth, Harry James and his Music Makers

'The ultimate speed freak's tale.'

Spun (2)
US/GB/France 2002 203m colour
Pathé/Muse/Blacklight/Brink/Stone Canyon (Chris Hanley, Fernando Sulichin, Timothy Wayne Peternel, Danny Vinik)
Three drug-filled days in the life of an addict, his dealer and various mindless hangers-on.
Filmed in a bleached-out style, given to jump cuts and odd sound effects to suggest a drugged state of mind, this offers secondhand style without substance, revelling in its own nastiness.
w Will De Los Santos, Creighton Vero d Jonas Akerlund ph Eric Broms m Billy Corgan pd Richard Lassalle ed Leonard Palmestaal, Jonas Akerlund
☆ Jason Schwartzman (Ross), John Leguizamo (Spider Mike), Mena Suvari (Cookie), Patrick Fugit (Frisbee), Brittany Murphy (Nikki), Mickey Rourke (The Cook), Peter Stormare (Cop), Alexis Arquette (Cop)
'Outrageously grungy and whacked-out walk on the wild side' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Competing for the title of worst movie of 2003.' – Philip French, Observer

Spy 13: see Operator 13

Spy for a Day
GB 1939 71m bw
Two Cities (Mario Zampi)
A farm hand is discovered to be the exact double of a spy.
The only screen vehicle for this 'gormless' comedian, and not a bad one.
w Anatole de Grunwald, Hans Wilhelm, Emeric Pressburger, Ralph Block, Tommy Thompson story Stacy Aumonier d Mario Zampi ph Bernard Knowles m Nicholas Brodszky ed David Lean ☆ Duggie Wakefield, Paddy Browne, Jack Allen, Albert Lieven, Nicholas Hannen, Gibb McLaughlin

'It's not how you play the GAME...It's how the GAME plays you.'

Spy Game
Germany/US/Japan/France 2001 126m
DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Beacon (Douglas Wick/Marc Abraham)
On his last day at work, a veteran CIA agent decides to ignore orders in order to save the life of a younger protegee who faces death in a Chinese prison.
Slick, fast-moving spy movie with a paranoid flavour and a sentimental ending.
w Michael Frost Beckner, David Arata d Tony Scott ph Dan Mindel m Harry Gregson-Williams pd Norris Spencer, Chris Seagers, Nina Ruscio ed Christian Wagner cos Louise Frogley
☆ Robert Redford (Nathan Muir), Brad Pitt (Tom Bishop), Catherine McCormack (Elizabeth Hadley), Stephen Dillane (Charles Harker), Larry Bryggman (Troy Folger), Michael Paul Chan (Vincent Vy Ngo), Marianne Jean-Baptiste (Gladys Jennip), Ken Leung (Li), David Hemmings (Harry Duncan), Amidou (The Sheik's Doctor), Charlotte Rampling (Anne Cathcart)
'The movie provides a vehicle for macho romanticism, a fantasy of danger and derring-do for the deskbound... The problem lies in the calculating pretentiousness of using human misery to make shallow entertainment seem serious.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times
'A follow-the-dots bore with only one mild diversion: the opportunity to watch Mr Redford and Mr Pitt try to underplay each other.' – Rex Reed

Spy Hard
US 1996 81m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Hollywood (Rick Friedberg, Doug Draizin, Jeffrey Konvitz)
Special agent WD-40 is assigned to defeat a mad general who threatens to blow up the world.
This scrapes the bottom of a genre that is now beyond satirizing and no longer funny in itself; a ragbag of feeble jokes ineffectually aimed at the Bond films, it doesn't even attempt to hit its target.
w Rick Friedberg, Dick Chudnow, Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer d Rick Friedberg ph John R. Leonetti m Bill Conti pd William Creber ed Eric Sears
☆ Leslie Nielsen, Nicollette Sheridan, Charles Durning, Marcia Gay Harden, Barry Bostwick, John Ales, Andy Griffith, Mason Gamble
'They should have called it Dire Hard.' – Film Review
† Those appearing in cameo roles include Dr Joyce Brothers, Ray Charles, Roger Clinton, Robert Culp, Robert Guillaume, Hulk Hogan, Pat Morita and Mr T.

The Spy in Black **
GB 1939 82m bw
Harefield/Alexander Korda (Irving Asher)
US title: U-Boat 29
In the Orkneys in 1917, German spies don't trust each other.
Unusual romantic melodrama which provided an unexpectedly interesting romantic team.
w Emeric Pressburger, Roland Pertwee novel J. Storer Clouston d Michael Powell ph Bernard Browne m Miklos Rozsa ☆ Conrad Veidt, Valerie Hobson, Hay Petrie, Helen Haye, Sebastian Shaw, Marius Goring, June Duprez, Athole Stewart, Cyril Raymond

Spy in the Pantry: see Ten Days in Paris

The Spy in White: see The Secret of Stamboul

'Real Spies...only smaller.'

Spy Kids *
US 2001 88m CFI color
Buena Vista/Miramax/Dimension/Troubleshooter (Robert Rodriguez, Elizabeth Avellan)
The children of two spies become spies themselves to save their parents and the world from a madman and his robots.
Hyperactive sub-James Bond fantasy for children, full of gadgetry and gimmicks and a few jokes for adults.
wd Robert Rodriguez ph Guillermo Navarro m Danny Elfman, Gavin Greenaway, Heitor Pereira, John Debney, Robert Rodriguez, Los Lobos pd Cary White ed Robert Rodriguez sp Robert Kurtzman, Gregory Nicotero, Howard Berger
☆ Antonio Banderas (Gregorio Cortez), Carla Gugino (Ingrid Cortez), Alexa Vega (Carmen Cortez), Daryl Sabara (Juni Cortez), Alan Cumming (Fegan Floop), Tony Shalhoub (Alexander Minion), Teri Hatcher (Ms Gradenko), Cheech Marin (Felix Gumm), Robert Patrick (Mr Lisp), Danny Trejo (Machete)
'Unashamedly brilliant, a fast and furious fusion of hip references, cute action, dynamic visuals and sheer delight.' – Bob McCabe, Empire

'Huge New Adventure - Slightly Larger Spies'

Spy Kids 2: Island of Lost Dreams *
US 2002 99m DeLuxe
Buena Vista/Dimension/Troubleshooter (Elizabeth Avellan, Robert Rodriguez)
Two rival couples of child spies compete to save the world from a mad scientist.
Another helping of mini-James Bonds, done with considerable verve and enjoyment.
wd Robert Rodriguez ph Robert Rodriguez m Robert Rodriguez, John Debney pd Robert Rodriguez ed Robert Rodriguez sp Robert Rodriguez, Daniel Leduc
☆ Antonio Banderas (Gregorio Cortez), Carla Gugino (Ingrid Cortez), Alexa Vega (Carmen Cortez), Daryl Sabara (Juni Cortez), Steve Buscemi (Romero), Mike Judge (Donnagan), Danny Trejo (Machete), Cheech Marin (Felix Gumm), Ricardo Montalban (Grandfather)
'Children will not feel embarrassed to take their parents and guardians to see it.' – Philip French, Observer

'3rd Mission. 3rd Dimension.'

Spy Kids 3D: Game Over (5)
US 2003 84m colour
Buena Vista/Troublemaker (Elizabeth Avellan, Robert Rodriguez)
A young spy rescues his sister, who has been trapped in a videogame by an evil toymaker.
Unimaginative sequel with unimpressive 3D sequences; virtual reality is no substitute for the fantasy of the first two movies.
wd Robert Rodriguez ph Robert Rodriguez m Robert Rodriguez pd Robert Rodriguez ed Robert Rodriguez
☆ Antonio Banderas (Gregorio Cortez), Carla Gugino (Ingrid Cortez), Alexa Vega (Carmen Cortez), Daryl Sabara (Juni Cortez), Ricardo Montalban (Grandfather), Holland Taylor (Grandmother), Sylvester Stallone (Toymaker), George Clooney (Devlin)
'Its visual thrills are chilly and wearying compared with the other films' quirky humanity. It's not a megamovie; it's a Sega movie.' – Richard Corliss, Time

Spy of Napoleon
GB 1936 101m bw
JH Productions
A dancer saves Louis Napoleon from assassination.
Solidly mounted period piece without much sense of humour.
w L. DuGarde Peach, Frederick Merrick, Harold Simpson novel Baroness Orczy d Maurice Elvey ph Curt Courant md W. L. Trytel
☆ Richard Barthelmess, Dolly Haas, Frank Vosper, Francis L. Sullivan, Lyn Harding, Henry Oscar

'Brace yourself for greatness!'

The Spy Who Came in from the Cold **
GB 1965 112m bw
Paramount/Salem (Martin Ritt)
A British master spy is offered a chance to get even with his East German opponent by being apparently sacked, disillusioned, and open for recruitment.
The old undercover yarn with trimmings of such sixties malaises as death wish, anti-establishmentism and racial problems. As a yarn, quite gripping till it gets too downbeat, but very harshly photographed.
w Paul Dehn, Guy Trosper novel John Le Carré d Martin Ritt ph Oswald Morris m Sol Kaplan pd Hal Periera, Tambi Larsen, Edward Marshall
☆ Richard Burton, Claire Bloom, Oskar Werner, Peter Van Eyck, Sam Wanamaker, Rupert Davies, George Voskovec, Cyril Cusack, Michael Hordern, Robert Hardy, Bernard Lee, Beatrix Lehmann
Richard Burton; Hal Periera, Tambi Larsen, Edward Marshall
British film; Oswald Morris; Richard Burton; art direction

The Spy Who Loved Me
GB 1977 125m Eastmancolor Panavision
UA/Eon (Albert R. Broccoli)
James Bond and a glamorous Russian spy combine forces to track down and eliminate a megalomaniac shipping magnate with an undersea missile base.

Witless spy extravaganza in muddy colour, with the usual tired chases and pussyfoot violence but no new gimmicks except a seven-foot villain with steel teeth.
w Christopher Wood, Richard Maibaum novel Ian Fleming d Lewis Gilbert ph Claude Renoir m Marvin Hamlisch pd Ken Adam ☆ Roger Moore, Barbara Bach, Curt Jurgens, Richard Kiel, Caroline Munro, Walter Gotell, Bernard Lee, Lois Maxwell, George Baker, Desmond Llewelyn, Edward de Souza, Sydney Tafler
'The film, bearing no relation to its nominal source, seems to do nothing more than anthologize its forerunners.' – Tim Pulleine, MFB
Marvin Hamlisch; song 'Nobody Does It Better' (m Marvin Hamlisch, ly Carole Bayer Sager)

The Spy with a Cold Nose
GB 1966 93m Eastmancolor
Paramount/Associated London/Embassy (Robert Porter)
A fashionable vet is blackmailed by MI5 into inserting a radio transmitter into a bulldog.
Rather painful, overacted and overwritten farce full of obvious jokes masquerading as satire.
w Ray Galton, Alan Simpson d Daniel Petrie ph Kenneth Higgins m Riz Ortolani ☆ Lionel Jeffries, Laurence Harvey, Daliah Lavi, Eric Sykes, Eric Portman, Colin Blakely, Denholm Elliott, Robert Flemyng, Paul Ford, Bernard Lee, June Whitfield, Bernard Archard

The Spy with My Face
US 1966 86m Metrocolor
MGM/Arena (Sam Rolfe)
Enemy spies use a double of Napoleon Solo in an attempt to take over the world.
An extended version of an episode from the television series The Man from U.N.C.L.E., no better than the others in the series and more confusing than most.
w Clyde Ware, Joseph Calvelli ph Fred Koenekamp m Morton Stevens ad George W. Davis, Merrill Pye ed Joseph Dervin
☆ Robert Vaughn, David McCallum, Leo G. Carroll, Michael Evans, Sharon Farrell

Spylarks: see The Intelligence Men

S

S*P*Y*S
GB 1974 100m Technicolor
Dymphana/C-W/American Film Properties (Irwin Winkler, Robert Chartoff)
Clumsy CIA agents in Paris come across a list of KGB agents in China.
Surprisingly dull and unfashionable parade of comic spy clichés; the talents involved obviously intended something closer to M*A*S*H.
w Malcolm Marmorstein, Lawrence J. Cohen, Fred Freeman d Irvin Kershner ph Gerry Fisher m John Scott
☆ Elliott Gould, Donald Sutherland, Zouzou, Joss Ackland, Kenneth Griffith, Vladek Sheybal 'Seems to have arrived several years too late to find its true niche.' – Sight and Sound

Squadron Leader X
GB 1942 100m bw
RKO (Victor Hanbury)
A Nazi hero poses as a British pilot but has difficulty getting back home.
Tall war story with dreary romantic trimmings.
w Wolfgang Wilhelm, Miles Malleson story Emeric Pressburger d Lance Comfort ph Mutz Greenbaum (Max Greene) m William Alwyn ed Michael Chorlton ☆ Eric Portman (Erich Kohler), Ann Dvorak (Barbara Lucas), Walter Fitzgerald (Inspector Milne), Barry Jones (Bruce Fenwick), Henry Oscar (Dr Schultz), Beatrice Varley (Mrs Krohn)

The Squall
US 1929 105m bw
First National
A Hungarian gypsy girl attracts all the male members of a farming family, and causes trouble.
Perfectly awful melodrama made worse by early sound techniques.
w Bradley King play Jean Bart d Alexander Korda
☆ Myrna Loy, Alice Joyce, Loretta Young, Richard Tucker, Carroll Nye, ZaSu Pitts, Harry Cording

The Square Circle ★
India 1996 103m Eastmancolor
Blue Dolphin/Gateway (Pravesh Sippy) original title: Daayraa
A beautiful young girl, escaping from a gang of kidnappers, disguises herself as a man and journeys back to her village with the help of a transvestite busker.
A curiosity, but an interesting one – a melodrama about gender, sexual differences and identity done in a crowd-pleasing style.
w Timeri N. Murari, Chitra Palekar, Shashank Shanker, Amol Palekar, Kamlesh Pande story Timeri N. Murari d Amol Palekar ph Debu Deodhar m Anand-Milind pd Prem Pillai ed Waman Bhosle ☆ Nirmal Pandey, Sonali Kulkarni, Faiyyaz, Rekha Sahay, Nina Kulkarni, Hyder Ali
'A welcome and controversial diversion from the hundreds of popular Bollywood movies released each year.' – Empire

Square Dance ★
GB 1986 112m Metrocolor
NBC/Michael Nesmith/Island (Daniel Petrie)
An awkward 13-year-old girl in rural Texas leaves her gruff grandfather for a visit to the mother she dislikes.
Unremarkable but cohesive family drama which most will feel they have seen before.
w Alan Hines novel Alan Hines d Daniel Petrie ph Jacek Laskus m Bruce Broughton pd Jan Scott ed Bruce Green ☆ Jason Robards, Jane Alexander, Winona Ryder, Rob Lowe, Deborah Richter

The Square Jungle
US 1955 85m bw
U-I (Albert Zugsmith)
A conceited boxer gets his come-uppance.
Tailor-made studio co-feature.
w George Zuckerman d Jerry Hopper ph George Robinson m Heinz Roemheld ☆ Tony Curtis, Ernest Borgnine, Pat Crowley, Jim Backus, Paul Kelly

The Square Peg ★
GB 1958 89m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)
An army recruit finds he is the double of a German general.
Slam-bang star slapstick, shorter than usual and with a few jokes that can't fail.
w Jack Davies d John Paddy Carstairs ph Jack Cox m Philip Green ☆ Norman Wisdom, Honor Blackman, Edward Chapman, Campbell Singer, Hattie Jacques, Brian Worth, Terence Alexander

The Square Ring ★
GB 1953 83m bw
Ealing (Michael Relph)
One night at a boxing stadium.
An assortment of anecdotes does not constitute one of Ealing's best films, but the competence level is high.
w Robert Westerby, Peter Myers, Alec Grahame play Ralph Peterson d Basil Dearden ph Otto Heller md Dock Mathieson ad Jim Morahan ed Peter Bezencenet
☆ Jack Warner, Robert Beatty, Maxwell Reed, Bill Owen, Joan Collins, Kay Kendall, Bernadette O'Farrell, Eddie Byrne, Sid James, Alfie Bass

The Squaw Man
US 1931 106m bw
MGM (Cecil B. de Mille)
GB title: The White Man
An Indian maiden saves the life of a British aristocrat, bears his child and commits suicide.
Third outing for a hoary miscegenation drama filmed in 1914 with Dustin Farnum and Red Wing, and in 1918 with Elliott Dexter and Ann Little. This talkie version sank without trace.
w Lucien Hubbard, Lenore Coffee play Edwin Milton Royle d Cecil B. de Mille ph Harold Rosson m Herbert Stothart
☆ Warner Baxter, Lupe Velez, Charles Bickford, Eleanor Boardman, Roland Young, Paul Cavanagh, Raymond Hatton
'Should be generally fair b.o. in the smaller localities and perhaps not so hot for the diffident big-town show shoppers.' – Variety

The Squeaker ★
GB 1937 77m bw
UA/Denham Productions (Alexander Korda)
US title: Murder on Diamond Row
A dangerous diamond fence is unmasked by a discredited policeman.
Typical Edgar Wallace who-is-it, performed with old-fashioned bravura.
w Edward O. Berkman, Bryan Wallace novel Edgar Wallace d William K. Howard ph Georges Périnal m Miklos Rozsa ad Vincent Korda ed Russell Lloyd ☆ Edmund Lowe, Sebastian Shaw, Ann Todd, Tamara Desni, Alastair Sim, Robert Newton, Allan Jeayes, Stewart Rome
† Previously filmed in 1930, directed by Edgar Wallace for British Lion; with Percy Marmont, Eric Maturin, Anne Grey and Nigel Bruce.

The Squeeze
GB 1977 107m Technicolor
Warner/ Martinat (Stanley O'Toole)
An alcoholic ex-cop rescues his ex-wife from kidnappers.
Sleazy action thriller which despite efficient production goes over the top in its search for unpleasant detail.
w Leon Griffiths novel David Craig d Michael Apted ph Dennis Lewiston m David Hentschel ☆ Stacy Keach, David Hemmings, Stephen Boyd, Edward Fox, Carol White, Freddie Starr
'It provides action and moral ambiguity enough to stock a Don Siegel thriller.' – Richard Combs, MFB

Squibs ★
GB 1935 77m bw
Twickenham
A Cockney flowergirl wins a sweepstake.
Acceptable sound version of a series of rather naïve silents which pleased the crowds in the early twenties with the same star: they were Squibs, Squibs MP, Squibs' Honeymoon and Squibs Wins the Calcutta Sweep.
w Michael Hogan, H. Fowler Mear play Clifford Seyler, George Pearson d Henry Edwards ☆ Betty Balfour, Gordon Harker, Stanley Holloway, Margaret Yarde, Michael Shepley

'Joint Custody Blows.'

The Squid and the Whale (8)
US 2005 81m DuArt
Columbia TriStar/Original Media/Ambush (Wes Anderson, Peter Newman, Clara Markowicz, Charlie Corwin)
In Brooklyn in the 1980s, two teenage boys observe the bitter disintegration of their parents' marriage.
Insightful, well-observed, semi-autobiographical account of a messy divorce and its aftermath.
wd Noah Baumbach ph Robert D. Yeoman m Dean Wareham, Britta Phillips pd Anne Ross ed Tim Streeto
☆ Jeff Daniels (Bernard), Laura Linney (Joan), Jesse Eisenberg (Walt), Owen Kline (Frank), William Baldwin (Ivan), Anna Paquin (Lili), Halley Feiffer (Sophie)
'Domestic tragedy recollected as comedy: a film whose catalog of deceits and embarrassments, and of love pratfalling over itself, makes it as (excruciatingly) painful as it is (exhilaratingly) funny.' – Richard Corliss, Time
Noah Baumbach (as writer)

Squirm
US 1976 92m Movielab
AIP/The Squirm Company (Edgar Lansbury, Joseph Beruh)
A power cable cut in a storm turns worms into maneaters.
Revolting shocker with a few funny moments for those who can take it.
wd Jeff Lieberman ph Joseph Mangine m Robert Prince ☆ John Scardino, Patricia Pearcy, R. A. Dow, Jean Sullivan

Stablemates
US 1938 89m bw
MGM
A broken-down vet saves a stableboy's racehorse.
Sentimental comedy vehicle for two masters of the surreptitious tear.
w Reginald Owen, William Thiele d Sam Wood ☆ Wallace Beery, Mickey Rooney, Margaret Hamilton, Minor Watson, Marjorie Gateson

Stacy's Knights
US 1983 95m colour
Crown/American Twist/Golden Gators (JoAnn Locktov, Freddy Sweet)
A female blackjack player sets out to revenge her partner's death.
Mediocre thriller that owes its occasional television screenings to the fact that its cast includes Costner in his first leading role.
w Michael Blake d Jim Wilson ph Raoul Lomas m Norton Buffalo ad Florence Fellman ed Bonnie Koehler
☆ Andra Millen, Kevin Costner, Eve Lilith, Mike Reynolds, Ed Semenza, Don Hackstaff

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

'She was the first of her kind. He was the last of his.'

Stage Beauty

US/GB/Germany 2004 Technicolor Panavision
Momentum/BBC/Qwerty/Tribeca/N1/Artisan
(Robert De Niro, Jane Rosenthal, Hardy Justice)

In 1660, the London stage's leading female impersonator is horrified by King Charles' decision that actresses will be allowed to play women's roles.

Weak and miscast drama of gender confusion that rewrites theatrical history to suggest the triumphant arrival of a modern and naturalistic style of acting to replace what had gone before.

w Jeffrey Hatcher play Compleat Female Stage Beauty by Jeffrey Hatcher d Richard Eyre ph Andrew Dunn m George Fenton pd Jim Clay ed Tariq Anwar

☆ Billy Crudup (Ned Kynaston), Claire Danes (Maria), Rupert Everett (King Charles II), Tom Wilkinson (Thomas Betterton), Ben Chaplin (George Villiers, Duke of Buckingham), Hugh Bonneville (Samuel Pepys), Richard Griffiths (Sir Charles Sedley), Edward Fox (Sir Edward Hyde)

'Heavy handed and adolescently bawdy, it's like something run up by drama students as part of a graduation show.' – Philip French, Observer

'Where Laughter, Love and Heartbreak Meet.'

Stage Door ★★★

US 1937 93m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

Life in a New York theatrical boarding house for girls.

Melodramatic, sharply comedic, always fascinating slice of stagey life from a Broadway hit; the performances alone make it worth preserving.

w Morrie Ryskind, Anthony Veiller play Edna Ferber, George S. Kaufman d Gregory La Cava ph Robert de Grasse m Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase ed William Hamilton

☆ Katharine Hepburn (Terry Randall), Ginger Rogers (Jean Maitland), Adolphe Menjou (Anthony Powell), Gail Patrick (Linda Shaw), Constance Collier (Catherine Luther), Andrea Leeds (Kaye Hamilton), Lucille Ball (Judy Canfield), Samuel S. Hinds (Henry Sims), Jack Carson (Milbank), Franklin Pangborn (Harcourt), Eve Arden (Eve)

TERRY: 'The calla lilies are in bloom again. Such a strange flower – suitable to any occasion. I carried them on my wedding day; now I place them here in memory of something that has died.'

'It is a long time since we have seen so much feminine talent so deftly handled.' – Otis Ferguson

'Zest and pace and photographic eloquence.' – Frank S. Nugent, New York Times

'A rare example of a film substantially improving on a stage original and a remarkably satisfying film on all levels.' – NFT, 1973

'One of the flashiest, most entertaining comedies of the 30s, even with its tremolos and touches of heartbreak.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

best picture; script; Gregory La Cava; Andrea Leeds

'48 stars plus a great love story!'

Stage Door Canteen ★

US 1943 132m bw
Sol Lesser (Barnett Briskin)

How the stars in New York entertained the armed forces during World War II.

Nothing as a film, mildly interesting as sociology and for some rarish appearances.

w Delmer Daves d Frank Borzage ph Harry Wild m Freddie Rich pd Harry Horner

☆ Cheryl Walker, Lon McCallister, Judith Anderson, Tallulah Bankhead, Ray Bolger, Katharine Cornell, Helen Hayes, George Jessel, Alfred Lunt, Harpo Marx, Yehudi Menuhin, Elliott Nugent, Cornelia Otis Skinner, Ethel Waters, May Whitty and also William Demarest, Gracie Fields, Katharine Hepburn, Gertrude Lawrence, Ethel Merman, Merle Oberon, Johnny Weissmuller, Edgar Bergen, Jane Cowl, Lynn Fontanne, Paul Muni, Gypsy Rose Lee, George Raft, etc; Count Basie, Benny Goodman, Xavier Cugat, Guy Lombardo, Kay Kyser and their bands

'A nice harmless picture for the whole family, and a goldmine for those who are willing to go to it in the wrong spirit.' – James Agee

Freddie Rich; song 'We Mustn't Say Goodbye' (m James V. Monaco, ly Al Dubin)

Stage Fright ★

GB 1950 110m bw
Warner/ABPC (Alfred Hitchcock)

A man is on the run for a backstage murder, and his girlfriend takes a job as maid to the great star he says is responsible.

Creaky Hitchcock thriller in which you can see all the joins and the stars seem stuck in treacle; but a few of the set-pieces work well enough.

w Whitfield Cook novel Man Running by Selwyn Jepson d Alfred Hitchcock ph Wilkie Cooper m Leighton Lucas

☆ Marlene Dietrich, Jane Wyman, Richard Todd, Alastair Sim, Michael Wilding, Sybil Thorndike, Kay Walsh, Miles Malleson

Stage Mother

US 1933 85m bw
MGM

The mother of a young actress is not above sacrificing her daughter for financial gain.

Wisecracking comedy-romance, rather similar to the later Gypsy.

w John Meehan, Bradford Ropes novel Bradford Ropes d Charles Brabin

☆ Alice Brady, Maureen O'Sullivan, Franchot Tone, Phillips Holmes, Ted Healy, C. Henry Gordon

'Packed with colour, not a little s.a., and certain of adequate b.o. attention.' – Variety

Stage Struck

US 1936 95m bw
Warner (Robert Lord)

Young people put on a show and become instant hits.

Dim musical oddly shorn of production numbers.

w Tom Buckingham, Pat C. Flick, Robert Lord ph Byron Haskin m Leo F. Forbstein d/ch Busby Berkeley songs Harold Arlen, E. Y. Harburg

☆ Dick Powell, Joan Blondell, Jeanne Madden, the Yacht Club Boys, Warren William, Frank McHugh

Stage Struck ★★

US 1957 95m Technicolor
RKO (Stuart Millar)

A young actress comes to New York intent on stardom …

Careful, slightly arid remake of Morning Glory marred by a tiresome central performance; good theatrical detail.

w Ruth and Augustus Goetz play Zoe Akins d Sidney Lumet ph Franz Planer m Alex North ad Kim Edgar Swados

☆ Susan Strasberg, Henry Fonda, Herbert Marshall, Joan Greenwood, Christopher Plummer

Stage to Thunder Rock

US 1964 89m Techniscope
Paramount/A.C. Lyles

An ageing sheriff takes a bank robber back to jail by stagecoach.

Acceptable lower-berth Western with the producer's usual roster of half-forgotten character actors.

w Charles Wallace d William F. Claxton ph W. Wallace Kelley m Paul Dunlap

☆ Barry Sullivan, Marilyn Maxwell, Scott Brady, Keenan Wynn, Allan Jones, Lon Chaney Jnr, John Agar, Wanda Hendrix, Anne Seymour, Robert Lowery

Stagecoach ★★★★

US 1939 99m bw
(UA)

Various Western characters board a stagecoach in danger from an Indian war party.

What looked like a minor Western with a plot borrowed from Maupassant's Boule de suif, became a classic by virtue of the firm characterization, restrained writing, exciting climax and the scenery of Monument Valley. Whatever the reasons, it damn well works.

w Dudley Nichols story Stage to Lordsburg by Ernest Haycox d John Ford ph Bert Glennon m Richard Hageman, W. Frank Harling, John Leopold, Leo Shuken, Louis Gruenberg md Boris Morros ad Alexander Toluboff ed Otho Lovering, Dorothy Spencer

☆ Claire Trevor (Dallas), John Wayne (The Ringo Kid), Thomas Mitchell (Dr. Josiah Boone), George Bancroft (Sheriff Curly Wilcox), Andy Devine (Buck Rickabaugh), Berton Churchill (Henry Gatewood), Louise Platt (Lucy Mallory), John Carradine (Hatfield), Donald Meek (Mr. Samuel Peacock), Tim Holt (Lt. Blanchard), Chris-Pin Martin (Chris)

'It displays potentialities that can easily drive it through as one of the surprise big grossers of the year.' – Variety

'The basic western, a template for everything that followed.' – John Baxter, 1968

'Grand Hotel on wheels.' – New Yorker, 1975

'A motion picture that sings a song of camera.' – Frank S. Nugent, New York Times

music; Thomas Mitchell best picture; John Ford; Bert Glennon; art direction; editing

Stagecoach

US 1966 114m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF/Martin Rackin

Absolutely awful remake of the above; costly but totally spiritless, miscast and uninteresting.

w Joseph Landon d Gordon Douglas ph William H. Clothier m Jerry Goldsmith

☆ Ann-Margret, Alex Cord, Bing Crosby, Van Heflin, Slim Pickens, Robert Cummings, Stefanie Powers, Michael Connors, Red Buttons, Keenan Wynn

The Stagecoach Kid

US 1949 63m bw
RKO (Herman Schlom)

In order to escape to the big city, a rancher's daughter disguises herself as a cowboy but then falls in love with a stagecoach owner.

Light-hearted Western, a pleasant if unmemorable programme-filler.

w Norman Houston d Lew Landers ph Nicholas Musuraca m Paul Sawtell ad Albert D'Agostino, Feild Gray ed Les Millbrook

☆ Tim Holt, Richard Martin, Jeff Donnell, Joe Sawyer, Thurston Hall, Carol Hughes, Robert Bray

Stagecoach to Dancer's Rock

US 1958 72m bw
Universal/Gray-Mac (Earl Bellamy)

Passengers on a long-distance stagecoach are abandoned in the desert when it is thought that one of them has smallpox.

Unusual minor Western, though it goes full gallop into melodrama rather than the character study it set out to be; Landau is here heavily under the influence of the Method approach to acting.

w Kenneth Darling d Earl Bellamy ph Ed Fitzgerald m Franz Steininger ad Leslie Thomas ed Budd Small

☆ Warren Stevens, Martin Landau, Jody Lawrance, Don Wilbanks, Del Moore, Bob Anderson, Judy Dan, Rand Brooks, Gene Roth Staggered ★

GB 1994 95m Technicolor
Entertainment/Big Deal (Philippa Braithwaite)

Following a stag party, a toy demonstrator wakes up to find himself naked on a Scottish island, with three days to get home before his wedding.

Sporadically amusing, episodic movie that has its moments; it often borders on the obvious, but the acting and direction display a good sense of comic timing.

w Paul Alexander, Simon Braithwaite d Martin Clunes ph Simon Kossoff m Peter Brewis pd Iain Andrews ed Peter Delfgou

☆ Martin Clunes, Michael Praed, Sarah Winman, Sylvia Syms, Virginia McKenna, Griff Rhys Jones, Michael Medwin, John Forgeham, Anna Chancellor

'Sitcom-style humor, peopled by a large gallery of British eccentrics. Produces a steady flow of mild gags, but doesn't build a proper head of steam to go the distance as a feature.' – Derek Elley, Variety

Staircase ★

US/France 1969 101m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Stanley Donen

The problems of two ageing homosexual hairdressers.

Unsatisfactorily opened-out and over-acted version of an effective two-hander play. Oddly made in France, so that the London detail seems all wrong.

w Charles Dyer play Charles Dyer d Stanley Donen ph Christopher Challis m Dudley Moore

☆ Richard Burton, Rex Harrison, Cathleen Nesbitt, Beatrix Lehmann

'The shape is smashed ... no longer a graceful duet, it becomes a waddling tale, spattered with ugliness, that falls into the biggest sentimental trap for homosexual material: it pleads for pity.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Stairway to Heaven: see A Matter of Life and Death

Stakeout

US 1987 115m DeLuxe
Touchstone (Jim Kouf, Cathleen Summers)

One of two Seattle cops engaged in a long stakeout falls in love with a suspect.
Ho-hum policier with insufficient plot for its length.
w Jim Kouf d John Badham ph John Seale m Arthur B. Rubinstein pd Philip Harrison ed Tom Rolf, Michael Ripps
☆ Richard Dreyfuss, Emilio Estevez, Madeleine Stowe, Aidan Quinn, Dan Lauria

Stakeout on Dope Street ★

US 1958 83m bw
Warner (Andrew J. Fenady)

Three young men find a briease containing heroin and are attacked by the gangsters who lost it.
Lively little crime morality, uneven but worth a look.
w Irwin Schwartz, Irvin Kershner, Andrew J. Fenady d Irvin Kershner ph Mark Jeffrey m Richard Markowitz
☆ Yale Wexler, Jonathan Haze, Morris Miller, Abby Dalton

Stalag 17 ★★

US 1953 120m bw
Paramount (Billy Wilder)

Comedy and tragedy for American servicemen in a Nazi prisoner-of-war camp.
High jinks, violence and mystery in a sharply calculated mixture; an atmosphere quite different from the understated British films on the subject.
w Billy Wilder, Edwin Blum play Donald Bevan, Edmund Trzinski d Billy Wilder ph Ernest Laszlo m Franz Waxman
☆ William Holden, Don Taylor, Otto Preminger, Robert Strauss, Harvey Lembeck, Richard Erdman, Peter Graves, Neville Brand, Sig Rumann
'A facility for continuous rapid-fire action which alternately brings forth the laughs and tingles the spine.' – Otis L. Guernsey Jnr
'Raucous and tense, heartless and sentimental, always fast-paced, it has already been assigned by critics to places on their lists of the year's ten best movies.' – Life
♟ William Holden
♙ Billy Wilder (as director), Robert Strauss

Stalingrad ★★

Germany 1992 138m colour
Entertainment/Royal/Bavaria/BA/Perathon (Joseph Vilsmaier, Hanno Huth, Günter Rohrbach)

German soldiers try to escape the horrors of war during and after the battle for Stalingrad.
An impressive, downbeat account, from the viewpoint of a lieutenant and his troop, of an attempt to survive the depredations of the harsh Russian winter and of their own officers.
w Johannes Heide, Jürgen Büsche, Joseph Vilsmaier d Joseph Vilsmaier ph Joseph Vilsmaier m Norbert J. Schneider pd Wolfgang Hundhammer, Jindrich Goetz ed Hannes Nikel
☆ Dominique Horwitz, Jochen Nickel, Sebastian Rudolph, Thomas Kretschmann, Martin Benrath, Dana Vavrova
'A unique movie in that it sticks so closely to its foot soldier heroes, enabling us to see very clearly what happens when a mad leader pushes them too far and too fast.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Stalker ★

USSR 1979 161m colour/bw
Mosfilm Unit 2

In the centre of an industrial wasteland there appears a mysterious zone where all normal laws of life are suspended.
Part political allegory, part personal fantasy, all very fascinating but rather hard tack for anybody in search of entertainment.
w Arkady Strugatsky, Boris Strugatsky story Arkady Strugatsky, Boris Strugatsky ph Aleksandr Knyazhinsky m Eduard Artemyev d/pd Andrei Tarkovsky
☆ Aleksandr Kaidanovsky, Anatoly Solonitsin, Nikolai Grinko, Alisa Freindlikh

The Stalker

US 1992 85m Foto-Kem
Concorde/New Horizons (Mike Elliott)

In the aftermath of a San Francisco earthquake a woman finds herself imprisoned by her neighbourhood psychopath.
Typical product of Roger Corman's company, exploitative and topical, competent but uninspired.
w Mark Evan Schwartz story Rob Kerchner d Louis Morneau ph Mark Parry m Nigel Holton pd Stuart Blatt ed Glenn Garland
☆ Steve Railsback, Erika Anderson, Eb Lottimer, Burton Gilliam, Dick Miller

The Stalking Moon ★

US 1968 109m Technicolor Panavision
National General/Stalking Moon Company (Alan J. Pakula)

An ageing scout escorts home a white woman who has escaped from the Indians, and kills a murderous Apache.
Slow, thoughtful Western with effective moments.
w Alvin Sargent novel Theodore V. Olsen d Robert Mulligan ph Charles Lang m Fred Karlin
☆ Gregory Peck, Eva Marie Saint, Robert Forster, Frank Silvera

Stallion Road

US 1947 97m bw
Warner (Alex Gottlieb)

An outbreak of anthrax threatens a racing stable.
Routine romantic drama with sporting background.
w Stephen Longstreet d James V. Kern ph Arthur Edeson m Frederick Hollander ☆ Ronald Reagan, Alexis Smith, Zachary Scott, Peggy Knudsen, Patti Brady, Harry Davenport, Frank Puglia
'The film, so free and fluent as long as it is talking horses, becomes curiously trite and turgid over the business of mating humans.' – C. A. Lejeune, Observer

Stamboul Quest

US 1934 88m bw
MGM (Walter Wanger)

During World War I, Germany's most notorious lady spy falls for an American medical student.
Modest variation on the true story twice filmed as Fraülein Doktor; standard Hollywood values.
w Herman J. Mankiewicz d Sam Wood ph James Wong Howe m Herbert Stothart
☆ Myrna Loy, George Brent, Lionel Atwill, C. Henry Gordon, Douglass Dumbrille, Mischa Auer

Stamp Collector: see The Big Easy

Stan and George's New Life

Australia 1990 104m colour
Lea/AFC/Margot McDonald, Brian McKenzie

Bored with his life, and his quarrelling parents, a 40-year-old Melbourne barber gets a new job as a clerk in the weather bureau, where he marries into another dysfunctional family.
Drab drama of drabber lives, so low-key as to be virtually comatose.
w Brian McKenzie, Deborah Cox d Brian McKenzie ph Ray Argall m Michael Atkinson ad Daryl Mills ed Edward McQueen-Mason
☆ Paul Chubb, John Bluthal, Julie Forsyth, Margaret Ford, Roy Baldwin, Bruce Alexander, Beverly Gardiner, Shapoor Baltiwallia

Stand Alone

US 1985 90m Metrocolor
Texas Star (Leon Williams)

A grandfather, a hero in the Second World War, is targeted by professional gangsters after he witnesses a murder in his local diner.
Dull and implausible drama, slow-moving, uninvolving and faintly risible.
w Roy Carlson d Alan Beattie ph Tom Richmond, Tim Suhrstedt m David Richard Campbell ad Pam Warner ed Fabien Tordjmann
☆ Charles Durning, Pam Grier, James Keach, Bert Remsen, Barbara Sammeth, Lu Leonard, Luis Contreras, Willard Pugh, Bob Tzudiker

Stand and Deliver ★★

US 1988 104m Foto-Kem
Warner/American Playhouse (Tom Musca)

A maths teacher at a tough high school persuades his class of violent pupils that education is an asset.
Based on facts, the engaging story wins out over the rudimentary cinematic style.
w Ramon Menendez, Tom Musca d Ramon Menendez ph Tom Richmond m Craig Safan ad Milo ed Nancy Richardson
☆ Edward James Olmos, Lou Diamond Phillips, Rosana de Soto, Andy Garcia, Ingrid Oliu, Karla Montana, Vanessa Marquez, Mark Eliot
♙ Edward James Olmos

The Stand at Apache River

US 1953 77m Technicolor
Universal-International (William Alland)

Apaches attack a reservation when the army won't listen to reason.
Conventional Western with sympathy for the Indians.
w Arthur Ross d Lee Sholem ph Charles Boyle m Frank Skinner ☆ Stephen McNally, Julie Adams, Hugh Marlowe, Hugh O'Brian, Jack Kelly

Stand by for Action

US 1943 109m bw
MGM (Robert Z. Leonard, Orville O. Dull)
GB title: Cargo of Innocents

A Harvard graduate learns the realities of war on an old destroyer.
Studio-bound war heroics slurping into sentiment.
w George Bruce, Herman J. Mankiewicz, John L. Balderston d Robert Z. Leonard ph Charles Rosher m Lennie Hayton
☆ Robert Taylor, Charles Laughton, Brian Donlevy, Walter Brennan, Marilyn Maxwell, Henry O'Neill

Stand by Me ★

US 1986 89m Technicolor/DeLuxe
Columbia/Act III

A boys' gang finds the body of a missing teenager.
Less macabre than its source would suggest, the film is mostly concerned with the friendships and tensions within the group; nostalgia for 50s childhood is nicely conveyed.
w Raynold Gideon, Bruce A. Evans story The Body by Stephen King d Rob Reiner ph Thomas Del Ruth m Jack Nitzsche pd Dennis Washington
☆ Wil Wheaton, River Phoenix, Corey Feldman, Jerry O'Connell, Kiefer Sutherland, Richard Dreyfuss
♙ screenplay

Der Stand Der Dinge: see The State of Things

Stand Easy: see Down among the Z Men

'Hail! The conquering hero comes!'

Stand In ★

US 1937 90m bw
Walter Wanger

An efficiency expert is sent to save a Hollywood studio from bankruptcy.
Amusing satire which could have done with sharper scripting and firmer control but is pleasantly remembered.
w Gene Towne, Graham Baker serial Clarence Budington Kelland d Tay Garnett ph Charles G. Clarke m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Leslie Howard, Joan Blondell, Humphrey Bogart, Alan Mowbray, Marla Shelton, C. Henry Gordon, Jack Carson, Tully Marshall
'A joyous and nonsensical Hollywood fantasia.' – Spectator

Stand Up and Be Counted ★

US 1971 99m Eastmancolor
Columbia/Mike Frankovich

An international woman journalist returns to Denver and becomes involved in women's lib.
A glamoured-up flirtation with a fashionable theme, quite nicely done but instantly dated – and sociologically interesting.
w Bernard Slade d Jackie Cooper ph Fred Koenekamp m Ernie Wilkins ☆ Jacqueline Bisset, Stella Stevens, Steve Lawrence, Gary Lockwood, Loretta Swit, Lee Purcell, Madlyn Rhue

Stand Up and Cheer ★

US 1934 80m bw
Fox (Winfield Sheehan)

The new US Secretary of Amusement attempts to shake the country's Depression blues by staging a mammoth revue.
Naïve propaganda, but the whole world was swept away to cloud nine – by Shirley Temple.
w Ralph Spence, Will Rogers, Philip Klein

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♙ Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

d Hamilton McFadden ph Ernest Palmer md Arthur Lange ☆ Warner Baxter, Madge Evans, Nigel Bruce, Stepin Fetchit, Frank Melton, Lila Lee, Ralph Morgan, James Dunn, Shirley Temple, John Boles, George K. Arthur
'Its intrinsic merits do not quite match its pretentiousness.' – Variety
'Impossible to file it away in an ordinary drawer marked "Stinkers". This one is extra, it is super, and it butters itself very thickly with the most obvious sort of topical significance.' – Otis Ferguson
† The original title was Fox Follies.

'They Built a New America with Glory and Guns ... They were MEN that Women Could Love!'

Stand Up and Fight ★

US 1938 99m bw
MGM (Mervyn Le Roy)
A Southern aristocrat comes into conflict with a stagecoach operator used as transportation for stolen slaves.
Superior star action piece with plenty of vigorous brawls.
w James M. Cain, Jane Murfin, Harvey Ferguson d W. S. Van Dyke II ph Leonard Smith m William Axt
☆ Wallace Beery, Robert Taylor, Florence Rice, Helen Broderick, Charles Bickford, Barton MacLane, Charley Grapewin, John Qualen
'An action thriller that will please the muggs more than the dames ... should prove strong at the b.o.' – Variety

Stand Up Virgin Soldiers

GB 1977 90m Technicolor
Warner/Greg Smith/Maidenhead
More sexual adventures of National Servicemen in Singapore in 1950.
The Virgin Soldiers had a certain authenticity behind the fooling; this is a bawdy romp, and not a very efficient one.
w Leslie Thomas novel Leslie Thomas d Norman Cohen ph Ken Hodges m Ed Welch ☆ Nigel Davenport, Robin Askwith, George Layton, Robin Nedwell, Warren Mitchell, John Le Mesurier, Edward Woodward, Irene Handl

'Good cop. Great criminal.'

Stander

Canada/South Africa/Germany/US/GB 2003 112m colour
Momentum/Seven Arts/Gropsvenor Park/The Imaginarium (Julia Verdin, Martin F. Katz, Chris Roland)
Revolted by enforcing the policy of apartheid, a South African police captain in the late 1970s decides to rob banks on the side.
Based on an extraordinary true story, it's a mix of character study and a fast-paced action film with a conscience, though it prefers to print the legend than stick to the facts.
w Bima Stagg d Bronwen Hughes ph Jess Hall m Free Association ed Robert Ivison
☆ Tom Jane (Andre Stander), Dexter Fletcher (Lee McCall), David Patrick O'Hara (Allan Heyl), Deborah Kara Unger (Bekkie Stander), Marius Weyers (General Stander), Ashley Taylor (Cor Van Deventer)
'Political naiveties aside, it's full-throttle stuff.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'The hilarious story of what a girl will do to get her boss a bed in Washington!'

Standing Room Only ★

US 1944 83m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
Hotel rooms being hard to find in wartime Washington, a resourceful secretary hires out herself and her boss as a servant couple.
Moderate romantic farce with a few good laughs.
w Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg d Sidney Lanfield ph Charles Lang m Robert Emmett Dolan ☆ Paulette Goddard, Fred MacMurray, Edward Arnold, Roland Young, Hillary Brooke, Porter Hall, Clarence Kolb, Anne Revere

Stanley & Iris

US 1989 105m DuArt
UiP/MGM/Star Partners II (Arlene Sellers, Alex Winitsky)
A cook who loses his job because he is illiterate is taught to read by a sympathetic widow.
Dull, heavy-handed and sentimental, not even its stars can save it from tedium.
w Harriet Frank Jnr, Irving Ravetch novel Union Street by Pat Barker d Martin Ritt ph Donald McAlpine m John Williams pd Joel Schiller ed Sidney Levin
☆ Jane Fonda, Robert DeNiro, Swoosie Kurtz, Martha Plimpton, Harley Cross, Jamey Sheridan, Feodor Chaliapin

Stanley and Livingstone ★★★

US 1939 101m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)
An American journalist goes to Africa to find a lost Victorian explorer.
A prestige picture which played reasonably fair with history and still managed to please the masses.
w Philip Dunne, Julien Josephson d Henry King ph George Barnes m David Raksin, David Buttolph, Cyril Mockridge, Alfred Newman ad Thomas Little ed Barbara McLean
☆ Spencer Tracy (Henry M. Stanley), Cedric Hardwicke (Dr. David Livingstone), Richard Greene (Gareth Tyce), Nancy Kelly (Eve Kingsley), Walter Brennan (Jeff Slocum), Charles Coburn (Lord Tyce), Henry Hull (James Gordon Bennett), Henry Travers (John Kingsley), Miles Mander (Sir John Gresham), Holmes Herbert (Frederick Holcomb)
'Sound, worthy, interesting.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'Most of the film consists of long shots of stand-ins moving across undistinguished scenery ... Mr Tracy is always a human being, but Sir Cedric is an elocution lesson, a handclasp.' – Graham Greene
'Holds box office promise for socko biz ... it's absorbing and adventurous drama.' – Variety

Stanno Tutti Bene ★★

Italy 1990 125m colour
Erre/Ariane (Angelo Rizzoli)
aka: Everybody's Fine
An elderly Sicilian decides to visit his five adult children living in various parts of Italy and finds that the reality does not live up to his expectations for them.
Bitter-sweet tale of muddling through life, elegantly acted and directed.
w Giuseppe Tornatore, Tonino Guerra d Giuseppe Tornatore ph Blasco Giurato m Ennio Morricone ad Andrea Crisanti ed Mario Morra
☆ Marcello Mastroianni, Michele Morgan, Marino Cenna, Roberto Nobile, Valeria Cavali, Norma Martelli
'Liberally sprinkled with ideas that provide the viewer with periodic payoffs and laughs.' – Variety

La Stanza del Figlio ★★★

Italy/France 2001 87m colour
Momentum/Sacher/Bac/Canal+/RAITelepiu (Angelo Barbagallo, Nanni Moretti) aka: The Son's Room
An apparently happy middle-class family begins to fall apart when the teenage son dies in an accident.
Moving, often humorous, low-key drama of love and loss that achieves its ends without ostentation, but with undeniable truth and power.
w Linda Ferri, Nanni Moretti, Heidrun Schleef d Nanni Moretti ph Giuseppe Lanci m Nicola Piovani ad Giancarlo Basili ed Esmeralda Calabria
☆ Nanni Moretti (Giovanni), Laura Morante (Paola), Jasmine Trinca (Irene), Giuseppe Sanfelice (Andrea), Silvio Orlando (Oscar), Claudia Della Seta (Raffaella), Stefano Accorsi (Tommaso), Sofia Vigliar (Arianna)
'A measured, decorous, at times pat film that manages to be quietly moving because it touches on something real.' – Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times
'Superbly acted, refreshingly direct and blessed with an ingenious, unexpected final act.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† It won the Palme D'Or at the Cannes Film Festival in 2001

'When the star fades, the woman is born!'
'The story of every woman who ever climbed the stairway to the stars – and found herself at the bottom looking up!'

The Star ★

US 1952 91m bw
TCF/Bert E. Friedlob
A once famous Hollywood star is financially and psychologically on her uppers.
A movie apparently tailor-made for its star turns out to be a disappointingly plotless wallow.
w Katherine Albert, Dale Eunson d Stuart Heisler ph Ernest Laszlo m Victor Young ☆ Bette Davis, Sterling Hayden, Natalie Wood, Warner Anderson, Minor Watson
† The role was originally designed for Joan Crawford.
Bette Davis

Star!

US 1968 194m DeLuxe Todd-AO
TCF/Robert Wise (Saul Chaplin)
Revue artist Gertrude Lawrence rises from poverty to international stardom and a measure of happiness.
Elephantiasis finally ruins this patient, detached, generally likeable recreation of a past theatrical era. In the old Hollywood style, it would probably have been even better on a smaller budget; but alas the star would still have been ill at ease with the drunken termagant scenes.
w William Fairchild d Robert Wise ph Ernest Laszlo md Lennie Hayton ch Michael Kidd pd Boris Leven
☆ Julie Andrews (Gertrude Lawrence), Richard Crenna (Richard Aldrich), Michael Craig (Sir Anthony Spencer), Daniel Massey (Noël Coward), John Collin, Robert Reed, Bruce Forsyth, Beryl Reid, Jenny Agutter
† Short version: Those Were the Happy Days.
†† The film cost 14 million and took four.
Ernest Laszlo; Lennie Hayton; title song (m James Van Heusen, ly Sammy Cahn); Daniel Massey

Star 80

US 1983 103m Technicolor
Warner/Ladd (Wolfgang Glattes, Kenneth Utt)
The murder by her husband of Dorothy Stratten, the Playboy centrefold model.
Unappetizing recounting, made less palatable by flashy direction, of a story with no possible moral.
wd Bob Fosse ph Sven Nykvist m Ralph Burns pd Tony Walton ed Alan Heim
☆ Mariel Hemingway (Dorothy Stratten), Eric Roberts (Paul Snider), Cliff Robertson (Hugh Hefner), Carroll Baker (Dorothy's mother), Roger Rees (Aram Nicholas), Lisa Gordon (Eileen), David Clennon (Geb), Josh Mostel (Private detective)
'A mishmash of embarrassments.' – Tom Milne, MFB
'Obviously intended as a cautionary tale for our times, with the beautiful dreamers and ruthless schemers peopling a colour supplement world of success.' – Sight and Sound

The Star Chamber

US 1983 109m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Frank Yablans
Judges get together to retry defendants who have been unjustly freed, and then have them executed by hired assassins.
A bit hard to swallow; also overlong and rather unpleasant.
w Roderick Taylor, Peter Hyams d Peter Hyams ph Richard Hannah m Michael Small pd Bill Malley
☆ Michael Douglas, Hal Holbrook, Yaphet Kotto, Sharon Gless, James B. Sikking, Joe Regalbuto
'Michael Winner territory with a veneer of conscience.' – Sight and Sound
'Small-screen material suffering from crippling inflation.' – Steve Jenkins, MFB

Star Dust ★

US 1940 85m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)
A talent scout discovers a new Hollywood star.
Light, amusing studio comedy, a pleasing addition to Hollywood mythology.
w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan d Walter Lang ph Peverell Marley m David Buttolph
☆ Linda Darnell, John Payne, Roland Young, Charlotte Greenwood, William Gargan, Mary Beth Hughes, Donald Meek, Jessie Ralph

Star in the Dust

US 1956 80m Technicolor
Universal (Albert Zugsmith)
A new sheriff tries to keep the peace between farmers and ranchers when a gunman hired by the cattlemen is condemned to death.
Effective minor Western with its characters caught up in conflicting emotions, though its final resolution is a little hurried.
w Oscar Brodney novel Law Man by Lee Leighton d Charles Haas ph John L. Russell Jnr m Frank Skinner md Joseph Gershenson ad Alexander Golitzen, Alfred Sweeney ed Ray Snyder
☆ John Agar (Sheriff Bill Jorden), Mamie Van Doren (Ellen Ballard), Richard Boone (Sam Hall), Coleen Gray (Nellie Mason), Leif Erickson (George Ballard), James Gleason (Orval Jones), Randy Stuart (Nan Hogan), Terry Gilkyson (Music Man), Paul Fix (Mike MacNamara), Harry Morgan

(Lew Hogan), Stuart Randall (Jess Ryman), Robert Osterloh (Rigdon)

A Star Is Born ★★★

US 1937 111m Technicolor
David O. Selznick

A young actress meets Hollywood success and marries a famous leading man, whose star wanes as hers shines brighter.
An abrasive, romantic melodrama which is also one of the most accurate studies of Hollywood ever put on film.
w Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, Robert Carson story William A. Wellman, based partly on 'What Price Hollywood' (1932) (qv) d William A. Wellman ph W. Howard Greene m Max Steiner ad Lyle Wheeler ed James E. Newcom
☆ Janet Gaynor (Esther Blodgett/Vicki Lester), Fredric March (Norman Maine), Adolphe Menjou (Oliver Niles), Lionel Stander (Libby), Andy Devine (Danny McGuire), May Robson (Lettie), Owen Moore (Casey Burke), Franklin Pangborn (Billy Moon)
'One of those rare ones which everyone will want to see and talk about ... disproves the tradition that good pictures can't be made with a Hollywood background.' – Variety
'Good entertainment by any standards.' – Frank S. Nugent, New York Times
'A peculiar sort of masochistic self-congratulatory Hollywood orgy.' – New Yorker, 1975
'The first colour job that gets close to what colour must eventually come to: it keeps the thing in its place, underlining the mood and situation of the story rather than dimming everything else out in an iridescent razzle-dazzle.' – Otis Ferguson
🏆 original story; Special Award to W. Howard Greene for colour photography 🏆 best picture; script; William A. Wellman; Janet Gaynor; Fredric March

'Fate raised her to fame – and killed the man she loved!'

A Star Is Born ★★★

US 1954 181m Technicolor Cinemascope
Warner/Transcona (Sidney Luft)

A young actress marries the ageing, alcoholic star who helps her to become a success.
Musical version of the 1937 movie, which begins very strongly and has two splendid performances, but suffers in the second half from a lack of writing strength and heavy post-production cutting. The numbers add very little except length.
w Moss Hart d George Cukor ph Sam Leavitt md Ray Heindorf ad Malcolm Bert, Gene Allen, Irene Sharaff
☆ Judy Garland, James Mason, Charles Bickford, Jack Carson, Tommy Noonan, Amanda Blake, Lucy Marlow
'Maintains a skilful balance between the musical and the tear jerker.' – Penelope Houston
'By far the best of all the films about life behind the cameras, the lights, the wind-machines, and the cocktail bars of Hollywood.' – Dilys Powell † Cary Grant and Humphrey Bogart were both sought before James Mason was signed.
†† Ronald Haver's book A Star Is Born (1988) is an account of the making of the film and its 1983 restoration.
♫ 'Born in a Trunk'; 'Gotta Have Me Go With You'; 'Here's What I'm Here For'; 'It's a New World'; 'Someone At Last'; 'The Man That Got Away'
🏆 Ray Heindorf; song 'The Man that Got Away' (m Harold Arlen, ly Ira Gershwin); Judy Garland, James Mason, art direction

A Star Is Born ★

US 1976 140m Metrocolor
Warner/Barwood/First Artists (Barbra Streisand, Jon Peters)

Interminable remake set in the pop world amid screaming crowds and songs at high decibel level; also an insufferable piece of showing off by the star. But some of the handling has style.
w John Gregory Dunne, Joan Didion, Frank Pierson d Frank Pierson ph Robert Surtees md Paul Williams pd Polly Platt ☆ Barbra Streisand, Kris Kristofferson, Paul Mazursky, Gary Busey
'A clear case for the monopolies commission.' – Michael Billington, Illustrated London News
'A bore is starred.' – Village Voice
🏆 song 'Evergreen' (m Barbra Streisand, ly Paul Williams)
🏆 Robert Surtees; Roger Kellaway (music underscoring)

Star Kid

US 1998 101m Foto-Kem
Entertainment/Trimark (Jennie Lew Tugend)

A young boy finds an alien cybersuit – a sort of living armour – which he wears first to punish his bullies, and then to protect the Earth from attack by a monster robot.
Pleasant, infantile science fiction of a familiar kind, offering harmless fantasies for the young.
wd Manny Coto ph Ronn Schmidt m Nicholas Pike pd C. J. Strawn ed Bob Ducsay
☆ Joseph Mazello, Joey Simmrin, Alex Daniels, Arthur Burghardt, Brian Simpson, Richard Gilliland
'Should strike a responsive chord with pre-adolescent boys.' – Variety

The Star Maker ★

US 1939 94m bw
Paramount (Charles R. Rogers)

A songwriter makes the big time by organizing kid acts.
Pleasant minor musical based on the career of Gus Edwards.
w Frank Butler, Don Hartman, Arthur Caesar d Roy del Ruth ph Karl Struss ☆ Bing Crosby, Louise Campbell, Linda Ware, Ned Sparks, Laura Hope Crews, Janet Waldo, Walter Damrosch
'A rollicking filmusical, first-class entertainment.' – Variety

Star of Midnight ★

US 1935 90m bw
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

A New York attorney solves the disappearance of a leading lady.
Wisecracking, debonair murder mystery modelled on The Thin Man.
w Howard J. Green, Anthony Veiller, Edward Kaufman d Stephen Roberts ph J. Roy Hunt m Max Steiner
☆ William Powell, Ginger Rogers, Paul Kelly, Gene Lockhart, Ralph Morgan, Leslie Fenton, J. Farrell MacDonald
'Too bad the title isn't more attractive, but the picture is excellent otherwise and should be a snappy grosser.' – Variety
'It is all suavity and amusement, pistol shots and cocktails.' – Graham Greene
'One of the best sophisticated comedy-mysteries in a period full of such films.' – NFT, 1973

The Star Packer

US 1934 60m bw
Monogram/Lone Star (Paul Malvern)

Investigating the murders of his three predecessors, a new sheriff and his Indian aide uncover the identity of an outlaw known as The Shadow.
Wayne as usual gets his man and the girl in a low-budget Western full of action and some novel stunts.
wd Robert N. Bradbury ph Archie Stout ed Carl Pierson
☆ John Wayne, Verna Hillie, George Hayes, Yakima Canutt, Billy Franey, Ed Parker, Earl Dwire, Tom Lingham

The Star Said No: see Callaway Went Thataway

The Star Spangled Girl

US 1971 92m colour
Paramount (Howard W. Koch)

A sweet old-fashioned girl is fought for by two young radicals.
Unamusingly 'with it' comedy from an unsuccessful play.
w Arnold Margolin, Jim Parker play Neil Simon d Jerry Paris ph Sam Leavitt m Charles Fox
☆ Sandy Duncan, Tony Roberts, Todd Susman, Elizabeth Allen

Star Spangled Rhythm ★★

US 1942 99m bw
Paramount (Joseph Sistrom)

The doorman of Paramount Studios pretends to his sailor son that he is a big producer.
Frenetic farce involving most of the talent on Paramount's payroll and culminating in an 'impromptu' show staged for the navy. A good lighthearted glimpse of wartime Hollywood.
w Harry Tugend d George Marshall ph Leo Tover, Theodor Sparkuhl md Robert Emmett Dolan songs Johnny Mercer, Harold Arlen
☆ Betty Hutton, Eddie Bracken, Victor Moore, Walter Abel, Anne Revere, Cass Daley, Gil Lamb, Macdonald Carey, Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Paulette Goddard, Veronica Lake, Dorothy Lamour, Vera Zorina, Fred MacMurray and also Ray Milland, Lynne Overman, Franchot Tone, Dick Powell, Walter Dare Wahl and Co, Cecil B. de Mille, Preston Sturges, Alan Ladd, Rochester, Katherine Dunham, Susan Hayward
† Veronica Lake's singing was dubbed by Martha Mears.
🏆 Robert Emmett Dolan; song 'That Old Black Magic' (m Harold Arlen, ly Johnny Mercer)

'Resistance Is Futile.'

Star Trek: First Contact ★

US 1996 110m DeLuxe
Paramount (Rick Berman)

Captain Jean-Luc Picard takes his Starship Enterprise back through time, chasing the Borg, a hive lifeform that wants to conquer the Earth by preventing the first contact with friendly aliens.
One for the fans, though it provides more action and excitement, as well as a hint of alien sex, than most of the series.
w Brannon Braga, Ronald D. Moore, Rick Berman d Jonathan Frakes ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Jerry Goldsmith pd Herman Zimmerman ed John W. Wheeler sp Industrial Light and Magic; make-up: Michael Westmore
☆ Patrick Stewart, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, LeVar Burton, Michael Dorn, Gates McFadden, Alfre Woodard, James Cromwell, Alice Krige
'A smashingly exciting sci-fi adventure.' – Variety
'A cheesy B-movie with a second-rate cast and plot and effects only marginally more special than the TV shows.' – Screen International 🏆 Michael Westmore, Scott Wheeler, Jake Garber (make-up)

Star Trek: Generations ★

US 1994 118m DeLuxe
UIP/Paramount (Rick Berman)

A mad scientist is willing to destroy worlds and ally with the Klingons to return to a strange joy-bringing ribbon of energy known as the Nexus.
A movie that will be remembered, if it is remembered, for marking the death of Captain Kirk and the arrival of Picard and other new cast members from the latest TV incarnation of the programme; what it really needs, if it is to appeal to more than the converted, is a better script.
w Ronald D. Moore, Brannon Braga, Rick Berman d David Carson ph John A. Alonzo m Dennis McCarthy pd Herman Zimmerman ed Peter Berger
☆ Patrick Stewart, William Shatner, Malcolm McDowell, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, LeVar Burton, Michael Dorn, Gates McFadden, Marina Sirtis, James Doohan, Walter Koenig, Whoopi Goldberg 'Addressed primarily at cultists, and is not especially well plotted or directed.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent

Star Trek III: The Search for Spock

US 1984 105m Metrocolor Panavision
Paramount/Cinema Group Venture (Harve Bennett)

Admiral Kirk discovers that Spock is not dead but has been reborn as a Vulcan child

Very silly, empty and unamusing follow-up.
w Harve Bennett d Leonard Nimoy ph Charles Correll m James Horner
☆ William Shatner, DeForest Kelley, James Doohan, Walter Koenig, Nichelle Nichols, Robert Hooks, Leonard Nimoy

'The Battle For Paradise Has Begun.'

Star Trek Insurrection

US 1998 105m colour 'Scope
Paramount (Rick Berman)

Captain Jean-Luc Picard discovers that the Federation is behaving unfairly towards a peaceful long-lived race, who face genocide.
A simple tale, of the sort that filled half an hour or less of television time, is here tricked out with special effects and rather more action; but it's still an example of more resulting in less.
w Michael Piller d Jonathan Frakes ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Jerry Goldsmith pd Herman Zimmerman ed Peter E. Berger sp make-up designer: Michael Westmore; Terry Frazee
☆ Patrick Stewart, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, LeVar Burton, Michael Dorn, Gates McFadden, Martina Sirtis, F. Murray

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · 🏆 Academy Award · 🏆 Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Abraham, Donna Murphy, Anthony Zerbe, Gregg Henry, Daniel Hugh Kelly, Michael Welch

'Little more than a glorified television episode.' – New York Times

Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home ★

US 1986 119m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Harve Bennett

GB title: The Voyage Home: Star Trek IV

The Enterprise crew is called home to face trial for mutiny: they find a very alien world.

The best of the series: it isn't saying much, but at least there are shreds of wit in the script.

w Harve Bennett, Steve Meerson, Peter Krikes, Nicholas Meyer d Leonard Nimoy ph Don Peterman m Leonard Rosenman pd Jack T. Collis ed Peter E. Berger

☆ William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, De Forrest Kelley, James Doohan, George Takei, Walter Koenig, Jane Wyatt, Catherine Hicks

Don Peterman; Leonard Rosenman

'A Generation's Final Journey... Begins'

Star Trek: Nemesis

US 2002 117m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Rick Berman)

Captain Picard fights a clone of himself in a battle to save the Earth.

Dull, dull, dull. The cast seem unable to summon up much interest in a script feeble enough to put this series into a suspended animation for all time.

w John Logan d Stuart Baird ph Jeffrey L. Kimball m Jerry Goldsmith pd Herman Zimmerman ed Dallas Puett sp Digital Domain; make-up: Michael Westmore cos Bob Ringwood

☆ Patrick Stewart (Jean-Luc Picard), Jonathan Frakes (William Riker), Brent Spiner (Data/B-4), Levar Burton (Geordi La Forge), Michael Dorn (Worf), Marina Sirtis (Deanna Troi), Gates McFadden (Beverly Crusher), Tom Hardy (Shinzon), Ron Perlman (Viceroy)

'This will test fan loyalty to destruction.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

'Supposed to be edge-of-the-seat stuff, and in a way, for me, it was. My head had come to rest, quite comfortably, on that very spot.' – Anthony Quinn, Independent

'The human adventure is just beginning!'

Star Trek: The Motion Picture

US 1979 132m Metrocolor Panavision
Paramount (Gene Roddenberry)

In the 23rd century, Admiral Kirk resumes command of the Enterprise to combat an alien force.

And a surprisingly boring one. Vast sets and big-screen solemnity hardly make this more enjoyable than some of the TV episodes which got more tricks and philosophical fun into one-third of the length.

w Harold Livingston, Alan Dean Foster d Robert Wise ph Richard H. Kline, Richard Yuricich m Jerry Goldsmith pd Harold Michelson ed Todd Ramsey

☆ William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, De Forrest Kelley, Stephen Collins, Persis Khambatta

Jerry Goldsmith; visual effects (Douglas Trumbull, John Dykstra and others); art direction

'At the end of the universe lies the beginning of vengeance!'

Star Trek: The Wrath of Khan

US 1982 114m Movielab Panavision
Paramount (Harve Bennett)

The crew of the starship Enterprise counter the wiles of an evil genius on a distant planet.

Comic strip capers a long way from the controlled intelligence of some episodes of the TV series; but more entertaining than the first movie.

w Jack B. Sowards d Nicholas Meyer ph Gayne Rescher m James Horner pd Joseph R. Jennings

☆ William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, Ricardo Montalban, De Forrest Kelley, Ike Eisenmann

'A pitiful snack for the eyes with some unappetizing crumbs left over for the mind to chew on.' – Philip Strick, MFB

Star Trek V: The Final Frontier

US 1989 107m Technicolor Panavision
UIP/Paramount (Harve Bennett)

Captain Kirk goes in search of a legendary planet, said to be inhabited by God.

Mystic moments, tamely rendered, that indicate it is long after the time when the series should have been laid to rest.

w David Loughery story William Shatner, Harve Bennett, David Loughery d William Shatner ph Andrew Laszlo m Jerry Goldsmith pd Herman Zimmerman ed Peter Berger

☆ William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, James Doohan, Walter Koenig, Nichelle Nichols, George Takei, David Warner, Laurence Luckinbill

'The battle for peace has begun.'

Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country ★★

US 1991 110m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Ralph Winter, Steven-Charles Jaffe)

Mr Spock attempts to solve the murder of a Klingon peace delegate after Captain Kirk and Dr McCoy are convicted of the crime.

The last voyage of the original crew of the Starship Enterprise turns out to be their finest hour and fifty minutes.

w Nicholas Meyer, Denny Martin Flynn story Leonard Nimoy, Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal d Nicholas Meyer ph Hiro Narita m Cliff Eidelman pd Herman Zimmerman ed Ronald Roose, William Hoy sp Industrial Light and Magic

☆ William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, James Doohan, Walter Koenig, George Takei, Christian Slater, Kim Cattrall, Mark Lenard, Christopher Plummer, David Warner

'A lumbering and self-indulgent picture, dragged down at every turn by the weight of twenty-five years of illogical mediocrity, as if the series' notional science-fiction aspects pre-empted the need for characters, stories or a universe that made any dramatic sense.' –Kim Newman, Sight and Sound

'There are no signs of waning energy here, not even in an Enterprise crew that looks ever more ready for intergalactic rocking chairs.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

'A Jedi Shall Not Know Anger. Nor Hatred. Nor Love.'

Star Wars: Episode II – Attack of the Clones ★

US 2002 143m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Lucasfilm (Rick McCallum)

War breaks out between the Republic and secessionists, while the force of the Jedi diminishes and the dark side grows stronger.

Much computer-generated invention goes to waste here – the battle scenes are so perfunctorily done that it's hard to know which side is which – its chocolate-box romance is dull, and most of the performances are duller; only in a gladiatorial arena does the movie attain an epic excitement.

w George Lucas, Jonathan Hales d George Lucas ph David Tattersall m John Williams pd Gavin Bocquet ed Ben Burtt sp Industrial Light & Magic cos Trisha Biggar

☆ Ewan McGregor (Obi-Wan Kenobi), Natalie Portman (Padme), Hayden Christensen (Anakin Skywalker), Christopher Lee (Count Dooku), Samuel L. Jackson (Mace Windu), Yoda (Frank Oz (voice)), Ian McDiarmid (Supreme Chancellor Palpatine), Pernilla August (Shmi Skywalker), Temuera Morrison (Jango Fett), Jimmy Smits (Senator Bail Organa), Jack Thompson (Cliegg Lars), Anthony Daniels (C-3PO), Kenny Baker (R2-D2)

'The really fun stuff is a long time coming, and it only confirms your suspicion that "Attack of the Clones" is just for kids. Once upon a time – in "The Empire Strikes Back", directed by Irvin Kershner – the tale had stirring mythic undertones that spoke to every generation.' – David Anson, Newsweek

'A technological exercise that lacks juice and delight.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

'It is not really much of a movie at all, if by movie you mean a work of visual storytelling about the dramatic actions of a group of interesting characters.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Star Wars: Episode III: Revenge of the Sith ★★ (6)

US 2005 142m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Lucasfilm (Rick McCallum)

As Supreme Chancellor Palpatine uses the threat of violence to consolidate his power, he persuades Anakin Skywalker to turn his back on his friends and embrace the dark side.

The best of the three prequels to the original trilogy with some splendid set pieces, though the acting remains inert, never giving the impression that momentous events are involved in the decisions taken.

wd George Lucas ph David Tattersall m John Williams pd Gavin Bocquet ed Roger Barton, Ben Burtt sp Industrial Light and Magic

☆ Ewan McGregor (Obi-Wan Kenobi), Natalie Portman (Padmé), Hayden Christensen (Anakin Skywalker), Christopher Lee (Count Dooku), Samuel L. Jackson (Mace Windu), Frank Oz (Yoda), Ian McDiarmid (Supreme Chancellor Palpatine), Jimmy Smits (Senator Bail Organa), Anthony Daniels (C-3PO), Kenny Baker (R2-D2), Peter Mayhew (Chewbacca)

'This is by far the best film in the more recent trilogy, and also the best of the four episodes Mr Lucas has directed. That's right (and my inner 11-year-old shudders as I type this): it's better than Star Wars.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'This isn't great popcorn entertainment; it's popcorn pretentiousness.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times

'What Lucas has devised, over six movies, is a terrible puritan dream: a morality tale in which both sides are bent on moral cleansing.' – Anthony Lane, New Yorker

makeup (Dave Elsey; Nikki Gooley)

Star Wars: Episode IV – A New Hope ★★★★

US 1977 121m Technicolor Panavision
TCF/Lucasfilm (Gary Kurtz)

aka: Star Wars

A rebel princess in a distant galaxy escapes, and with the help of her robots and a young farmer overcomes the threatening forces of evil.

Flash Gordon rides again, but with timing so impeccably right that the movie became a phenomenon and one of the top grossers of all time. Good harmless fun, put together with style and imagination.

wd George Lucas ph Gilbert Taylor m John Williams pd John Barry ed Paul Hirsch, Marcia Lucas, Richard Chew sp Rick Baker, John Dykstra

☆ Mark Hamill (Luke Skywalker), Harrison Ford (Han Solo), Carrie Fisher (Princess Leia Organa), Peter Cushing (Grand Moff Tarkin), Alec Guinness (Obi-Wan Kenobi), Anthony Daniels (See Threepio), Kenny Baker (Artoo-Detoo), Dave Prowse (Darth Vader), Phil Brown (Owen Lars)

'A great work of popular art, fully deserving the riches it has reaped.' – Time

'Acting in this movie I felt like a raisin in a giant fruit salad. And I didn't even know who the coconuts or the canteloups were.' – Mark Hamill

'He intended his film, Lucas confesses, for a generation growing up without fairy tales. His target audience was fourteen years and younger ... It was a celebration, a social affair, a collective dream, and people came again and again, dragging their friends and families with them.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies

'The loudness, the smash and grab editing and the relentless pacing drive every idea from your head, and even if you've been entertained you may feel cheated of some dimension – a sense of wonder, perhaps.' – New Yorker, 1982

'Heartless fireworks ignited by a permanently retarded director with too much clout and cash.' – Time Out, 1984

† The voice of Darth Vader was supplied by the uncredited James Earl Jones.

†† The film was re-released in 1997, with its sound remixed and digital technology used to improve battle sequences and the size of the city of Mos Eisley. Some unused footage from the original was added, together with computer animation, to show a meeting between Han Solo and Jabba the Hutt. It took more than $46m in the first week of its re-release, and became the first film to gross more than $400m at the US box-office.

John Williams; John Barry; editing; costumes (John Mollo); visual effects (John Stears, John Dykstra and others); sound best picture; script; direction; Alec Guinness

John Williams

Star Wars: Episode I – The Phantom Menace

★★ (5)

US 1999 116m DeLuxe
TCF/Lucasfilm (Rick McCallum)

Jedi knights come to the aid of the young queen of a peaceful planet, who is invaded by a powerful trade federation.

Having started the saga in the middle of things with the original Star Wars, there's a lot of static exposition here to explain what came after. The human actors tend to play supporting roles to the often dazzling special effects and computer-generated creatures; at times it seems little more than an illustrated toy catalogue for the 12-year-olds at which it is aimed. It is also the most critic-proof movie ever made.

wd George Lucas ph David Tattersall m John Williams pd Gavin Bocquet ed Paul Martin Smith sp ILM

☆ Liam Neeson, Ewan McGregor, Natalie Portman, Jake Lloyd, Pernilla August, Frank Oz, Ian McDiarmid, Oliver Ford Davies, Hugh Quarshie, Ahmed Best, Samuel L. Jackson, Ray Park, Peter Serafinowicz, Ralph Brown, Terence Stamp and also Brian Blessed, Sofia Coppola

'It is neither captivating nor transporting, for it lacks any emotional pull, as well as the sense of wonder and awe that marks the best works of sci-fi/fantasy.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'Brimming with dazzling special effects but short on dramatic focus.' – John Hazleton, Screen International

† The film set new records by taking $28.5m at the US box-office on its first day. It went on to take $430.4m in the US and a total of $920m around the world.

sound (Gary Rydstrom, Tom Johnson, Shawn Murphy, John Midgley); sound effects editing (Ben Burtt, Tom Bellfort); visual effects (John Knoll, Dennis Muren, Scott Squires, Rob Coleman)

Star Wars: Episode V – The Empire Strikes Back

★★★★ (8)

US 1980 124m Eastmancolor Panavision
TCF/Lucasfilm (Gary Kurtz)

aka: The Empire Strikes Back

The Rebel Alliance takes refuge from Darth Vader on a frozen planet.

More exhilarating interplanetary adventures, as mindless as Star Wars but just as enjoyable for aficionados.

w Leigh Brackett, Lawrence Kasdan story George Lucas d Irvin Kershner ph Peter Suschitzky m John Williams pd Norman Reynolds ed Paul Hirsch

☆ Mark Hamill, Harrison Ford, Carrie Fisher, Billy Dee Williams (Lando Calrissian), Anthony Daniels (C-3PO), Peter Mayhew (Chewbacca), Kenny Baker (R2-D2), Frank Oz (Yoda), Alec Guinness (Obi-Wan Kenobi)

'Slightly encumbered by some mythic and neo-Sophoclean overtones, but its inventiveness, humour and special effects are scarcely less inspired than those of its phenomenally successful predecessor.' – New Yorker

John Williams; art direction

music

Star Wars: Episode VI – Return of the Jedi

★★★★

US 1983 132m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF/Lucasfilm (Howard Kazanjian)

aka: Return of the Jedi

'Episode 6' of the Star Wars serial: our heroes combat Darth Vader and Jabba the Hutt.

More expensive fantasy for the world's children of all ages, especially the undemanding ones.

w Lawrence Kasdan, George Lucas d Richard Marquand ph Alan Hume m John Williams pd Norman Reynolds ed Sean Barton, Duwayne Dunham, Marcia Lucas, Arthur Repola

☆ Mark Hamill, Harrison Ford, Carrie Fisher, Billy Dee Williams, Anthony Daniels, Peter Mayhew, Kenny Baker

'I admire the exquisite skill and talent which have been poured into these films, while finding the concepts behind these gigantic video games in the sky mindlessly tedious.' – Margaret Hinxman, Daily Mail

'An impersonal and rather junky piece of moviemaking.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

'Only the effects are special.' – Sight and Sound

John Williams; art direction

The Star Witness

★

US 1931 68m bw
Warner

An old man witnesses a crime and is threatened by gangsters.

Pacy melodrama with good performances.

w Lucien Hubbard d William Wellman ph James Van Trees

☆ Walter Huston, Chic Sale, Grant Mitchell, Frances Starr, Sally Blane

'Plenty of action, laughs, and a tear.' – Variety

Lucien Hubbard

Starcrash

US 1979 92m Metrocolor
Columbia/AIP/Film Enterprise (Nat Wachsberger, Patrick Wachsberger)

A spaceship pilot and her navigator are released from prison to find a kidnapped boy and, with the aid of a robot, defeat an evil dictator who wants to rule their world.

Science-fiction hokum of the silly kind, directed at a breathless pace and influenced by Star Wars, for its plot, and Barbarella, for its sex appeal.

w Luigi Cossi, Nat Wachsberger, R. A. Dillon d Lewis Coates (Luigi Cozzi) ph Roberto D'Ettorre Piazzoli, Paul Beeson m John Barry pd Aurelio Crugnola ed Sergio Montanari sp Armando Valcauda, Germano Natali, Ron Hays

☆ Marjoe Gortner, Caroline Munro, Christopher Plummer, David Hasselhoff, Robert Tessier, Joe Spinell, Nadia Cassini, Judd Hamilton, Hamilton Camp

'Show me a boy who never wanted to be a rock star – and I'll show you a liar'

Stardust

GB 1974 111m Technicolor
EMI/Goodtimes (David Puttnam, Sandy Lieberson)

The rise and fall of a pop singer.

Unappetizing rehash of Road to Ruin, pop music style.

w Ray Connolly d Michael Apted ph Tony Richmond md Dave Edmunds, David Puttnam

☆ David Essex, Adam Faith, Larry Hagman, Marty Wilde, Rosalind Ayres

Stardust Memories

★

US 1980 88m bw
UA/Jack Rollins, Charles H. Joffe (Robert Greenhut)

An increasingly melancholy comedian attends a retrospective of his work and is plagued by real and imaginary fears.

A plainly autobiographical work which, while amusing and moving in spots, makes it doubtful that the writer/director/star can even now shake off his obsessions.

wd Woody Allen ph Gordon Willis m Dick Hyman

☆ Woody Allen, Charlotte Rampling, Jessica Harper, Marie-Christine Barrault, Tony Roberts, Helen Hanft

'Its posturing pyrotechnics seem more the symptom of a crisis than its controlled expression.' – Gilbert Adair, MFB

Stargate

US 1994 120m DeLuxe
Guild/Canal/Centropolis/Carolco (Joel B. Michaels, Oliver Eberle, Dean Devlin)

An Egyptologist discovers a gateway to another world where an alien intelligence rules over a slave kingdom of inhabitants descended from the ancient Egyptians; the American military goes through to bring them democracy and the atom bomb.

An old-fashioned gung-ho space opera, recycling threadbare themes, which unexpectedly found favour with the public.

w Roland Emmerich, Dean Devlin d Roland Emmerich ph Karl Walter Lindenlaub m David Arnold pd Holger Gross ed Michael Duthie, Derek Brechin sp Kleiser-Walczak Construction Company, Cinema Research Corporation, Available Light; creature effects: Patrick Tatopoulos

☆ Kurt Russell, James Spader, Jaye Davidson, Viveca Lindfors, Alexis Cruz, Mili Avital, Leon Rippy, John Diehl

'The movie, which does have a sort of cheeky energy, goes into narrative and cliché overload once the spacemen start exploring the unnamed planet – shall we call it Lucasland – where they set down.' – Richard Schickel, Time

'What this juvenile adventure has in spades is special effects and picturesque locations. What it lacks is an emotional link to make the Saturday afternoon he-man posturing palatable, or at least bearable.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Starlift

US 1951 102m bw
Warner (Robert Arthur)

Movie stars entertain at Travis Air Base, where the boys are constantly leaving for Korea.

Insipid musical with even more insipid romantic interludes.

w John Klorer, Karl Kamb d Roy del Ruth ph Ted McCord md Ray Heindorf

☆ Janice Rule, Dick Wesson, Richard Webb, Howard St John, Doris Day, Gordon MacRae, Virginia Mayo, Gene Nelson, Ruth Roman, James Cagney, Gary Cooper, Phil Harris, Louella Parsons, Randolph Scott, Jane Wyman

Starlight Hotel

★

New Zealand 1987 90m
Recorded Releasing/Challenge Film Corp/NZ Film Commission (Finola Dwyer, Larry Parr)

Two runaways – one a rebellious child, the other a suspected murderer – team up on the road.

Slight but engaging story, with good period detail.

w Grant Hinden-Miller novel The Dream Monger d Sam Pillsbury ph Warrick Attewell m Andrew Hayes, Morton Wilson pd Mike Becroft ad Roger Guise ed Michael Horton

☆ Peter Phelps, Greer Robson, Marshall Napier, Alice Fraser

The Starmaker

★ (4)

Italy 1994 107m Technicolor Panavision
TCF/Cecchi Gori/Tiger/Sciarlò (Vittorio Cecchi Gori, Rita Cecchi Gori)

original title: L'Uomo delle Stelle

In Sicily in the mid-50s, a travelling con man offers townspeople the chance of stardom if they give him money to make a screen test.

A road movie about people's dreams and disappointments, too schematic to be entirely successful.

w Fabio Rinaudo, Giuseppe Tornatore d Giuseppe Tornatore ph Dante Spinotti m Ennio Morricone pd Francesco Bronzi ed Massimo Quaglia

☆ Sergio Castellitto, Tizana Lodato, Leopoldo Trieste, Nicola di Pinto, Franco Scaldati

'A gorgeously produced tourism commercial for the Italian island, this threadbare tale of a cocky con man's painful comeuppance has very little heart and, consequently, conjures few real emotions.' – David Rooney, Variety

Starman

US 1984 115m MGM Color
Columbia/Delphi (Larry J. Franco)

An alien arrives in Wisconsin and takes human form, falling in love with the widow of the man he impersonates.

Derivative but eccentric science-fiction fantasy with lapses of narrative and a general attempt to make the love story predominant over the hardware.

w Bruce A. Evans, Raynold Gideon d John Carpenter ph Donald M. Morgan m Jack Nitzsche pd Daniel Lomino ed Marion Rothman

☆ Jeff Bridges, Karen Allen, Charles Martin Smith, Richard Jaeckel, Robert Phalen, Tony Edwards

Jeff Bridges

Staroye i Novoye: see The General Line

Stars and Bars

US 1988 94m DuArt/DeLuxe
Columbia (Sandy Lieberson)

Cliché Englishman's encounters with stereotyped Americans in search for long-lost Renoir painting.

w William Boyd novel William Boyd d Pat O'Connor ph Jerzy Zielinski m Stanley Myers pd Leslie Dilley, Stuart Craig ed Michael Bradsell

☆ Daniel Day-Lewis, Harry Dean Stanton, Martha Plimpton, Joan Cusack

'Unhappy mixture of farce and misdirected satire.' – Variety

Stars and Stripes Forever

★

US 1952 89m Technicolor
TCF (Lamar Trotti)

GB title: Marching Along

In the 1890s John Philip Sousa, a bandmaster who wants to write ballads, finds success as a writer of marches.

Low-key musical biopic with predictably noisy numbers.
w Lamar Trotti autobiography John Philip Sousa d Henry Koster ph Charles G. Clarke md Alfred Newman
☆ Clifton Webb, Debra Paget, Robert Wagner, Ruth Hussey, Finlay Currie, Roy Roberts, Lester Matthews

The Stars Are Singing

US 1952 99m Technicolor
Paramount (Irving Asher)
A Polish refugee girl illegally enters the US and becomes an opera star.
Painless Cinderella fantasy in which everybody sings.
w Liam O'Brien d Norman Taurog ph Lionel Lindon md Victor Young ☆ Anna Maria Alberghetti, Lauritz Melchior, Rosemary Clooney, Fred Clark, Mikhail Rasumny
♫ Come-On-A-My-House; Haven't Got a Worry; I Do! I Do! I Do!; Lovely Weather for Ducks; My Heart Is Home; My Kind of Day.

The Stars Fell on Henrietta

US 1995 110m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Malpaso/Butcher's Run (Clint Eastwood, David Valdes)
A woman remembers her childhood in the mid-30s, and the arrival of an eccentric, penniless wildcatter, who was convinced that there was oil on land belonging to her father, a poor Texan farmer.
Pleasant but unremarkable period drama of one man's determined struggle against constant humiliation, and his effect on the lives of others.
w Philip Railsback d James Keach ph Bruce Surtees m David Benoit pd Henry Bumstead ed Joel Cox
☆ Robert Duvall, Aidan Quinn, Frances Fisher, Brian Dennehy, Lexi Randall, Kaytlyn Knowles, Francesca Ruth Eastwood, Billy Bob Thornton, Victor Wong
'A muted character piece of modest ambition and achievement.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Stars in My Crown ★

US 1950 89m bw
MGM (William H. Wright)
A two-gun parson brings peace to a Tennessee town after the Civil War.
Sentimental family Western, quite pleasantly made and performed.
w Margaret Fitts novel Joe David Brown d Jacques Tourneur ph Charles Schoenbaum m Adolph Deutsch
☆ Joel McCrea, Ellen Drew, Dean Stockwell, Juano Hernandez, James Mitchell, Lewis Stone, Alan Hale, Amanda Blake

The Stars Look Down ★★

GB 1939 110m bw
Grafton (Isadore Goldschmidt)
The son of a coal miner struggles to become an MP.
Economically but well made social drama from a popular novel, with good pace and backgrounds.
w J. B. Williams, A. J. Cronin novel A. J. Cronin d Carol Reed ph Max Greene m Hans May ☆ Michael Redgrave, Margaret Lockwood, Edward Rigby, Emlyn Williams, Nancy Price, Allan Jeayes, Cecil Parker, Linden Travers
'Dr Cronin's mining novel has produced a very good film – I doubt whether in England we have ever produced a better.' – Graham Greene
'A splendidly directed portrait of those who burrow for the black diamond in England's northland ... the picture is mounted with exactness of detail and technique.' – Variety

Stars over Broadway

US 1935 89m bw
Warner (Sam Bischoff)
Agent turns hotel porter into radio star.
Unremarkable musical, with unusual talent.
w Jerry Wald, Julius J. Epstein, Pat C. Flick d William Keighley ph George Barnes md Leo F. Forbstein ch Busby Berkeley, Bobby Connolly songs Harry Warren, Al Dubin
☆ James Melton, Jane Froman, Pat O'Brien, Jean Muir, Frank McHugh, Marie Wilson, Frank Fay
'A far from inspired backstage yarn with pleasant dialogue and fancy trimmings.' – Variety

'Since his existence, man has ruled the Earth. In the future, the rules will change.'

Starship Troopers ★★★ (5)

US 1997 129m Technicolor
Buena Vista/TriStar/Touchstone (Jon Davison, Alan Marshall)
In the future, when the miltary rule an Earth facing an invasion from giant bug-like aliens, a group of friends become soldiers to fight the creatures on their own planet.
An uneasy and ambivalent movie: it attempts to subvert the intention of Heinlein's novel, which praises the notion of a military élite, yet remains true to the original's enjoyment of violent battles and military superiority; the cast of bland young actors suggest that individuality is a luxury the future cannot afford.
w Ed Neumeier novel Robert A. Heinlein d Paul Verhoeven ph Jost Vacano m Basil Poledouris pd Allan Cameron ed Mark Goldblatt, Caroline Ross sp Phil Tippett, Scott E. Anderson, Alec Gillis, John Richardson ☆ Caspar Van Dien, Dina Meyer, Denise Richards, Jake Busey, Neil Patrick Harris, Clancy Brown, Seth Gilliam, Patrick Muldoon, Michael Ironside, Rue McClanahan
'A spectacularly gung-ho sci-fi epic that delivers two hours of good, nasty fun.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
'Would Paul Verhoeven kindly stop making movies?' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times
'The crowning achievement of Paul Verhoeven's film-making career to date.' – Andrew O'Hehir, Sight and Sound
† Robert Heinlein had to change publishers in order to get Starship Troopers published in 1959; the book was intended for a juvenile audience.
†† The film took around $55m at the US box-office.
visual effects

Starsky & Hutch (5)

US 2004 101m Technicolor
Warner/Dimension/Riche-Ludwig/Weed Road/Red Hou
Sometime in the 70s, two Californian cops discover that a seemingly respectable businessman has developed a new and undetectable form of cocaine.
Although the two leads complement each other well, and might well be effective in a revival of the TV series, this feature length version of the 70s cop show is overextended, with the emphasis on comic set pieces.
w John O'Brien, Todd Phillips, Scot Armstrong d Todd Phillips ph Barry Peterson m Theodore Shapiro pd Edward Verreaux ed Leslie Jones
☆ Ben Stiller (David Starsky), Owen Wilson (Ken Hutchinson), Snoop Dogg (Huggy Bear), Fred Williamson (Captain Doby), Vince Vaughn (Reese Feldman), Kitty (Juliette Lewis), Jason Bateman (Kevin), Amy Smart (Holly), Carmen Electra (Staci)
'Seldom advances beyond costumes and hairstyling in terms of creativity.' – Brian Lowry, Variety
'What's wrong with this picture? Nothing, as long as you don't expect more than a tossed-off goof.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal
† The TV series, created by William Blinn, ran from 1975-79 and starred Paul Michael Glaser and David Soul.
†† Owen Wilson, Amy Smart and Carmen Electra won the MTV Movie Award for Best Kiss.

Starstruck

Australia 1982 102m colour
Palm Beach Pictures (David Elfick, Richard Brennan)
In a bid to keep open the family pub, a teenage boy makes a star of his young cousin.
Youth musical that does no more than transfer the usual backstage clichés to a punk and working-class setting.
w Stephen MacLean d Gillian Armstrong ph Russell Boyd md Mark Moffat pd Brian Thomson ed Nicholas Beauman ☆ Jo Kennedy, Ross O'Donovan, Margo Lee, Max Cullen, Pat Evison, John O'May, Ned Lander

Start Cheering

US 1938 78m bw
Columbia
An actor's agent has problems when his potential star decides to go to college.
Fairly amusing low-budget musical with some surprises.
w Eugene Solow, Richard E. Wormser, Philip Rapp, Corey Ford d Albert S. Rogell
☆ Jimmy Durante, Walter Connolly, Joan Perry, Charles Starrett, the Three Stooges, Hal Leroy, Ernest Truex, Gertrude Niesen, Raymond Walburn, Broderick Crawford
'Longer on entertainment satisfaction than many of the more formidable pricers.' – Variety

Start the Revolution without Me ★

US 1969 90m Technicolor
Warner/Norbud (Norman Lear)
Two sets of twins get mixed up at the court of Louis XVI.
Historical spoof of the kind subsequently made familiar by Mel Brooks; the script might have suited Abbott and Costello better than these two actors.
w Fred Freeman, Lawrence J. Cohen d Bud Yorkin ph Jean Tournier m John Addison ☆ Donald Sutherland, Gene Wilder, Hugh Griffith, Jack MacGowran, Billie Whitelaw, Victor Spinetti, Ewa Aulin

Starter for Ten ★★

UK/US 2006 96m
Icon/HBO/Picturehouse/BBC Films/Playtone (Tom Hanks, Gary Goetzman, Pippa Harris)
In 1985, a brainy working-class student with a remarkable memory for facts, is offered a place at university.
Amiable comedy, with an appealing young hero: Brian Jackson is gauche, naïve and a compulsive joker. At Bristol University, confronted by the class system for the first time, he is tragically out of his depth in all respects but one: his ability to squirrel away facts helps him sail into Bristol's University Challenge team. A strong cast, alert to comic nuance, carries the film. The story suffers from a harsh plot twist, and its romantic outcome is predictable, if pleasing. A comedy that refreshingly applauds knowledge, rather than the lack of it.
w David Nicholls d Tom Vaughan ph Ashley Rowe m Blake Neely pd Sarah Greenwood ad Ian Bailie, Nick Gottschalk ed Jon Harris, Heather Persons ☆ James McAvoy (Brian Jackson), Alice Eve (Alice Harbinson), Rebecca Hall (Rebecca Epstein), Catherine Tate (Julie Jackson), Dominic Cooper (Spencer), Benedict Cumberbatch (Patrick Watts), James Corden (Tone), Mark Gatiss (Bamber Gascoigne)
BRIAN: 'Epstein? That's a Jewish name, isn't it? I've never met a Jew before. Which is odd, because lots of my heroes.....'
PATRICK: 'Let's quiz!'
'If there are life lessons here, they're harsh ones – although they're taught with a gentle, forgiving spirit.' – Leslie Felperin, Variety
'A surprisingly agile and delightfully warm romantic comedy.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal

Starting Over ★

US 1979 106m Movielab
Paramount/Century Associates (Alan J. Pakula, James L. Brooks)
A divorced man nearly goes back to his wife but finally plumps for a nursery school teacher.
Plain-speaking sex comedy-drama with accomplished stars giving rather more than the script is worth.
w James L. Brooks novel Dan Wakefield d Alan J. Pakula ph Sven Nykvist m Marvin Hamlisch pd George Jenkins
☆ Burt Reynolds, Jill Clayburgh, Candice Bergen, Charles Durning, Austin Pendleton
Jill Clayburgh, Candice Bergen

'The rise and fall of the American dream.'

Startup.com ★

US 2001 108m colour
Artificial Eye/Pennebaker Hegedus Films/Noujaim (D.A. Pennebaker)
Documentary on two school friends who raise $50m to set up in New York an Internet company that failed.
Interesting account of the bursting of one Internet bubble, though too often the cameras stay outside the rooms where the crucial talks take place. It throws a sidelight on US corporate culture: even cutting-edge companies are given over to the chanting of slogans and the singing of company songs.
d Jehane Noujaim, Chris Hegedus ph Jehane Noujaim ed Chris Hegedus, Jehane Noujaim, Erez Laufer
'Acquires the fascination of another Titanic retelling—a movie in which you chew your popcorn and wait almost gleefully for the iceberg that will take these overweeners down.' – David Edelstein, Slate

'When A Film Crew Came To Waterford Fremont, They Shot First And Asked Questions Later.'

State and Main ★

US 2000 106m
Redbus/Fine Line/Filmtown/El Dorado (Sarah Green)

A small New England town is invaded by a Hollywood film crew, complete with ineffectual writer, bad-tempered director, temperamental actress and a star with a liking for underage girls.
Crisp dialogue enlivens an unexpectedly soft-centered comedy of self-interest.
wd David Mamet ph Oliver Stapleton m Theodore Shapiro pd Gemma Jackson ed Barbara Tulliver
☆ Alec Baldwin (Bob Barrenger), William H. Macy (Walt Price), Sarah Jessica Parker (Claire Wellesley), Philip Seymour Hoffman (Joseph Turner White), Rebecca Pidgeon (Ann Black), Charles Durning (Mayor George Bailey), David Paymer (Marty Rossen), Patti LuPone (Sherry Bailey), Julia Stiles

'A surprisingly unpolished piece of work that plays as though it were written for the stage and only slightly modified for the screen' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

State Fair ★★

US 1933 98m bw
Fox (Winfield Sheehan)

Dad wants his prize pig to win at the fair, but the younger members of his family have romance in mind.
Archetypal family film, much remade but never quite so pleasantly performed.
w Paul Green, Sonya Levien novel Phil Stong d Henry King ph Hal Mohr md Louis de Francesco ☆ Will Rogers, Janet Gaynor, Lew Ayres, Sally Eilers, Norman Foster, Louise Dresser, Frank Craven, Victor Jory, Hobart Cavanaugh

'A pungent, good-humoured motion picture.' – Pare Lorentz
'Vigour, freshness and sympathy abound in its admittedly idealized fantasy treatment of small-town life.' – Charles Higham, 1972
Academy Award best picture; script

State Fair ★★

US 1945 100m Technicolor
TCF (William Perlberg)

TV title: It Happened One Summer
The adventures of an Iowa hog farmer and his family at the annual State Fair.
Musical remake of the 1933 movie with an amiable cast and a rousing score.
w Oscar Hammerstein II d Walter Lang ph Leon Shamroy m/ly Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II md Alfred Newman ad Lyle Wheeler, Lewis Creber ed J. Watson Webb
☆ Charles Winninger, Jeanne Crain, Dana Andrews, Vivian Blaine, Dick Haymes, Fay Bainter, Frank McHugh, Percy Kilbride, Donald Meek

'Surely the sort of theme that clamours for movie treatment. But no, say Twentieth Century Fox: let's make the fair look like a night club. Let's look around for stars of pristine nonentity. Let's screw the camera down to the studio floor. The result, "an epic that sings to the skies ... with glorious, glamorous new songs".' – Richard Winnington
'Comes pretty close to being another Oklahoma.' – Motion Picture Herald
† Jeanne Crain's songs were dubbed by Louanne Hogan.
♪ song 'It Might As Well Be Spring' Academy Award Alfred Newman

State Fair

US 1962 118m DeLuxe
Cinemascope
TCF (Charles Brackett)

Dullsville modernized version, condescending towards the rurals and peopled by unattractive youngsters.
w Richard Breen d José Ferrer ph William C. Mellor md Alfred Newman ☆ Pat Boone, Alice Faye, Tom Ewell, Pamela Tiffin, Ann-Margret, Bobby Darin, Wally Cox

State of Grace

US 1990 134m DeLuxe Panavision
Rank/Cinehaus/Orion (Ned Dowd, Randy Ostrow, Ron Rotholz)

In New York, an undercover cop returns to the district where he grew up in order to infiltrate an Irish gang that is about to make a deal with the Mafia.
Dull and plodding gangster movie.
w Dennis McIntyre d Phil Joanou ph Jordan Cronenweth m Ennio Morricone pd Patrizia von Brandenstein, Doug Kraner ed Claire Simpson
☆ Sean Penn, Ed Harris, Gary Oldman, Robin Wright, John Turturro, John C. Reilly, R. D. Call, Joe Vitorelli, Burgess Meredith, Deirdre O'Connell

'One of the more intriguing American thrillers of the year if only because it turns out to be dripping with old-fashioned romanticism as well as new-fangled violence.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

State of the Union ★★★

US 1948 110m bw
MGM/Liberty Films (Frank Capra)

GB title: The World and His Wife
An estranged wife rejoins her husband when he is running for president.
Brilliantly scripted political comedy which unfortunately goes soft at the end but offers stimulating entertainment most of the way.
w Anthony Veiller, Myles Connolly play Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse d Frank Capra ph George J. Folsey m Victor Young ad Cedric Gibbons, Urie McCleary ed William Hornbeck
☆ Spencer Tracy (Grant Matthews), Katharine Hepburn (Mary Matthews), Adolphe Menjou (Jim Conover), Van Johnson (Spike McManus), Angela Lansbury (Kay Thorndyke), Lewis Stone (Sam Thorndyke), Howard Smith (Sam Parrish), Raymond Walburn (Judge Alexander), Charles Dingle (Bill Hardy)

'A triumphant film, marked all over by Frank Capra's artistry.' – Howard Barnes

The State of Things ★

US/Portugal 1982 120m bw Artificial Eye/Road Movies/Pro-Ject/ZDF/Musidora/Film International (Chris Sievernich)

original title: Der Stand Der Dinge
A film director tracks down in Los Angeles the producer who abandoned him and his film crew in Portugal.
A sort of B movie about the making of a B movie and a reflection on the meaning of cinema, within the loose format of a thriller.
w Wim Wenders, Robert Kramer d Wim Wenders ph Henri Alekan, Martin Schafer, Fred Murphy m Jurgen Knieper ad Ze Branco ed Barbara von Weitershausen, Peter Przygodda
☆ Isabelle Weingarten, Rebecca Pauly, Patrick Bauchau, Paul Getty III, Samuel Fuller, Roger Corman, Allen Goorwitz

State Secret ★★

GB 1950 104m bw
British Lion/London (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)

US title: The Great Manhunt
In a Ruritanian country, spies pursue a surgeon, the only man who knows that the dictator is dead.
Hitchcockian chase comedy-thriller which is well detailed and rises to the heights on occasion.
wd Sidney Gilliat novel Appointment with Fear by Roy Huggins ph Robert Krasker m William Alwyn ed Thelma Myers
☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Glynis Johns, Herbert Lom, Jack Hawkins, Walter Rilla, Karel Stepanek, Carl Jaffe

'An admirably fast-moving diversion in the Hitchcock tradition.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'One of the best thrillers a British studio (any studio, for that matter) has made for years.' – Leonard Mosley

The Statement

Canada/France/GB/US 2003 120m DeLuxe
Momentum/Serendipity Point/Odessa/Company (Robert Lantos, Norman Jewison)

In France, a policeman and a judge try to track down a war criminal who has been on the run, with the aid of sympathetic priests, for more than 40 years before he can be assassinated.
An interesting subject, based on a complex novel of guilt and betrayal, is here turned into a straightforward chase movie of a mundane kind.
w Ronald Harwood novel Brian Moore d Norman Jewison ph Kevin Jewison m Normand Corbeil pd Jean Rabasse ed Stephen Rivkin, Andrew S. Eisen
☆ Michael Caine (Pierre Brossard), Tilda Swinton (Anne Marie Livi), Jeremy Northam (Roux), Alan Bates (Bertier), Charlotte Rampling (Nicole), John Neville (Old Man), Ciaran Hinds (Pochon), Frank Finlay (Commissaire Vionnet)

'A seriously high quality production I strongly advise you to see.' – Kevin O'Sullivan, Daily Mirror

State's Attorney ★

US 1932 79m bw
RKO

GB title: Cardigan's Last Case
A prosecuting counsel nearly pays the penalty for arrogance.
Good star melodrama.
w Rowland Brown, Gene Fowler d George Archainbaud
☆ John Barrymore, Jill Esmond, William Boyd, Helen Twelvetrees

'Good programme box office stuff if not particularly smashing.' – Variety

Static

US 1986 93m colour
Necessity Films (Amy Ness)

An unemployed young man invents a device for displaying images of heaven on a television set, but he is the only one able to see them.
A desultory variation on the fable of the Emperor's new clothes, in which it is assumed that eccentricity is interesting and amusing; here, it isn't.
w Keith Gordon, Mark Romanek d Mark Romanek ph Jeff Jur pd Cynthia Sowder ed Emily Paine
☆ Keith Gordon, Amanda Plummer, Bob Gunton, Lily Knight, Barton Heyman, Reathel Bean

The Station Agent ★

US 2003 90m Technicolor
Buena Vista/SenArt/Next Wednesday (Mary Jane Skalski, Robert May, Kathryn Tucker)

After inheriting an abandoned railway station in rural New Jersey, a dwarf moves there to live and meets other lonely people.
Gently unassuming account of stranded lives that is quietly observant about the need for acceptance.
wd Tom McCarthy ph Oliver Bokelberg m Stephen Trask pd John Paino ed Tom McArdle
☆ Peter Dinklage (Finbar McBride), Patricia Clarkson (Olivia Harris), Bobby Cannavale (Joe Oramas), Raven Goodwin (Cleo), Paul Benjamin (Henry Styles), Michelle Williams (Emily)

'Delicate, thoughtful and often hilarious take on loneliness.' – Elvis Mitchell, New York Times
BAFTA Tom McCarthy (as writer)

Station Six Sahara

GB 1962 101m bw
British Lion/CCC/Artur Brauner (Victor Lyndon)

Five men working on a remote Saharan pipeline quarrel over the favours of an American girl whose car crashes nearby.
Raging old-fashioned melodrama with the courage of its lack of convictions.
w Bryan Forbes, Brian Clemens d Seth Holt ph Gerald Gibbs m Ron Grainer
☆ Carroll Baker, Ian Bannen, Peter Van Eyck, Denholm Elliott, Mario Adorf, Jorg Felmy, Biff McGuire

Station West

US 1948 91m bw
RKO (Robert Sparks)

A saloon queen is the secret head of a gang of gold robbers.
Predictable but well-made Western patterned after Destry Rides Again.
w Frank Fenton, Winston Miller novel Luke Short d Sidney Lanfield ph Harry J. Wild m Heinz Roemheld
☆ Dick Powell, Jane Greer, Agnes Moorehead, Burl Ives, Tom Powers, Gordon Oliver, Steve Brodie, Guinn Williams, Raymond Burr, Regis Toomey

'The face was his ... the body was his ... but suddenly, Hello, Charlie!'

The Statue

GB 1970 89m Eastmancolor
Cinerama/Josef Shaftel (Anis Nohra)

A languages professor is embarrassed when his sculptress wife makes an immense nude statue of him – with someone else's private parts.
Strained phallic comedy which doesn't even make the most of its one joke.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♪ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w Alec Coppel, Denis Norden d Rod Amateau ph Piero Portalupi m Riz Ortolani ☆ David Niven, Virna Lisi, Robert Vaughn, Ann Bell, John Cleese, Hugh Burden

'You Can't Stay Between the Living and the Dead.'

Stay

US 2005 98m DeLuxe
TCF/Regency (Arnon Milchan, Tom Lassally, Eric Kopeloff)

A psychiatrist attempts to prevent a student from committing suicide.
Mystifying movie that sets out to discomfort and confuse with its wilful obscurantism; everything is at odd angles.
w David Benioff d Marc Forster ph Roberto Schaefer m Asche & Spencer pd Kevin Thompson ed Matt Chesse
☆ Ewan McGregor (Sam Foster), Naomi Watts (Lila Culpepper), Ryan Gosling (Henry Letham), Janeane Garofalo (Dr Beth Levy), B.D. Wong (Dr Ren), Bob Hoskins (Dr Leon Patterson), Kate Burton (Mrs Letham)
'Features certifiably talented people on both sides of the camera collaborating on a project that probably shouldn't have been undertaken in the first place.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

'It's the game of life and death....'

Stay Alive

US 2006 85m colour
Buena Vista/Hollywood Pictures/Spyglass/Endgame/Wonderland Sound and Vision (Peter Schlessel, James Stern, Matthew Peterman)

Teenagers die after playing a video game possessed by the spirit of Elizabeth Bathory, the countess who murdered girls in 17th-century Hungary.
Lifeless horror movie in which even the shock moments manage to be dull.
w William Brent Bell, Matthew Peterman d William Brent Bell ph Alejandro Martinez m John Frizzell pd Bruton Jones ed Harvey Rosenstock
☆ Jon Foster (Hutch), Samaire Armstrong (Abigail), Frankie Muniz (Swink), Jimmi Simpson (Phineus), Wendell Pierce (Detective Thibodeaux), Sophia Bush (October), Adam Goldberg (Miller Banks)
'What will terrify the audience very early on is the realization that there's better acting in the video game than on the big screen.' – John Anderson, Los Angeles Times

Stay Away Joe

US 1968 102m Metrocolor Panavision
MGM (Douglas Lawrence)

An Indian rodeo rider returns to his reservation, makes several romantic conquests, and helps a government rehabilitation scheme.
Thin if surprising vehicle for a singing star; all rather tedious.
w Michael A. Hoey novel Dan Cushman d Peter Tewkesbury ph Fred Koenekamp m Jack Marshall
☆ Elvis Presley, Burgess Meredith, Joan Blondell, Katy Jurado, Thomas Gomez, Henry Jones, L. Q. Jones

Stay Hungry

US 1976 102m DeLuxe
UA/Outov (Harold Schneider, Bob Rafelson)

The heir to an Alabama estate annoys the locality by assembling a curious bunch of friends and making unexpected use of his money.
Rather obvious and pointless fable; well made but not very stimulating.
w Charles Gaines, Bob Rafelson novel Charles Gaines d Bob Rafelson ph Victor Kemper m Bruce Langhorne, Byron Berline
☆ Jeff Bridges, Sally Field, Arnold Schwarzenegger, R. G. Armstrong, Robert Englund, Roger E. Mosley
'The picture isn't just unsatisfying, it's a mess.' – Stanley Kauffmann

Stay Tuned

US 1992 87m Technicolor
Warner/Morgan Creek (James G. Robinson)

A couple are trapped in a cable television system run by the Devil.
An unsuccessful send-up of obsessive television viewing, mainly because it picks targets, such as Wayne's World, that are beyond parody.
w Tom S. Parker, Jim Jennewein d Peter Hyams ph Peter Hyams m Bruce Broughton pd Philip Harrison ed Peter E. Berger sp Rhythm and Hues Inc.
☆ John Ritter, Pam Dawber, Jeffrey Jones, David Thom, Heather McComb, Bob Dishy
'High class trash ... redeemed by a manic script, good special effects and production values.' – Sheila Johnston, Independent
'A picture with nothing for everybody.' – Variety

'It's five years later for Tony Manero. The fever still burns!'

Staying Alive

US 1983 96m Metrocolor
Paramount/Robert Stigwood/Cinema Group Venture (Sylvester Stallone)

Tony Manero becomes a Broadway dancer.
Fragile sequel to Saturday Night Fever, with some of its frenetic quality but none of its impact.
w Sylvester Stallone, Norman Wexler d Sylvester Stallone ph Nick McLean m Johnny Mandel, Robin Garb, others pd Robert Boyle
☆ John Travolta, Cynthia Rhodes, Finola Hughes, Steve Inwood, Julie Bovasso
'By turns exhilarating and absurd.' – Nick Roddick, MFB
'Stallone doesn't bother much with character, scenes or dialogue. He just puts the newly muscle-plated Travolta in front of the camera, covers him with what looks like oil slick, and goes for the whambams.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

Staying Together

US 1989 91m CFI color
Hemdale (Joseph Fuery)

Three brothers growing up in a small town experience the pangs of requited love.
Exuberant but corny tale of family relationships.
w Monte Merrick d Lee Grant ph Dick Bush m Miles Goodman pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Katherine Wenning ☆ Sean Astin, Stockard Channing, Melinda Dillon, Jim Haynie, Levon Helm, Dinah Manoff, Dermot Mulroney, Tim Quill
'Whips up the clichés and homilies of American small-town melodrama without adding the slightest spice.' – Geoff Brown, MFB

'A tale of kidnapping, computer fraud and Morris Minors.'

The Steal

GB 1994 91m Eastmancolor
Warner/Poseidon (Gary Kurtz, Barbara Stone)

An English lawyer and an American computer hacker join forces to rob a corrupt bank.
A bungled attempt to revive the style of Ealing comedy, with little imagination and no attempt to update the genre to match changing social conditions.
wd John Hay ph Ronnie Taylor m Barry Kirsch pd Phil Robertson ed David Martin ☆ Alfred Molina, Helen Slater, Peter Bowles, Dinsdale Landen, Stephen Fry, Bryan Pringle, Patricia Hayes, Heathcote Williams
'Frighteningly inept and almost completely lacking in humour or thrills.' – Empire

Steal Big, Steal Little

US 1995 134m Technicolor
TCF/Chicago Pacific (Andrew Davis, Fred Caruso)

Twins, one good, one bad, quarrel over the estate left by their adopted mother.
Appalling comedy that gets sillier by the minute, so that by its long-drawn-out conclusion, it is beyond belief; it receives the performances it deserves.
w Andrew Davis, Lee Blessing, Jeanne Blake, Teresa Tucker-Davies d Andrew Davis ph Frank Tidy m William Olvis pd Michael Haller ed Don Brochu, Tina Hirsch
☆ Andy Garcia, Alan Arkin, Rachel Ticotin, Joe Pantoliano, Holland Taylor, Ally Walker, David Ogden Stiers
'With its slapstick morality and cartoon characterisations, what this vastly unentertaining dud resembles most is an interminable episode of The Dukes of Hazzard, complete with the corpulent judges, their weak-minded sidekicks and gold-hearted crooks.' – Liese Spencer, Sight and Sound

'The Most Beautiful Place To Be Is Love.'

Stealing Beauty ★

Italy/France/GB 1995 118m Technicolor
TCF/Fiction Cinematografica/Recorded Picture/UGC (Jeremy Thomas)

A 19-year-old American girl visits her dead mother's artistic expatriate friends in Italy, determined to discover the identity of her biological father, and to lose her virginity.
Much inconsequential talk, determined ogling of Liv Tyler and languorous perambulations in the Tuscan landscape make for a pretty, but empty, film.
w Susan Minot story Bernardo Bertolucci d Bernardo Bertolucci ph Darius Khondji m Richard Hartley pd Gianni Silvestri ed Pietro Scalia ☆ Sinead Cusack, Jeremy Irons, Jean Marais, Donal McCann, D. W. Moffett, Stefania Sandrelli, Rachel Weisz, Liv Tyler, Carlo Cecchi, Joseph Fiennes, Jason Flemyng
'A richly satisfying chamber piece that is both literary and utterly contemporary.' – Variety
'The film is all taste and texture and nothing else. It melts in your mouth and fades from the screen like yesterday's gossip.' – Tom Shone, Sunday Times

Stealing Heaven

GB/Yugoslavia 1988 115m colour
Rank/Amy International/Jadran (Simon McCorkindale)

The dying Heloise recalls her love-affair with Abelard.
Pasteboard reproduction of medieval life and love.
w Chris Bryant novel Marion Meade d Clive Donner ph Mikael Salomon m Nick Bicat pd Voytek Roman ed Michael Ellis ☆ Derek de Lint, Kim Thompson, Denholm Elliott, Bernard Hepton, Kenneth Cranham, Patsy Byrne, Cassie Stuart, Philip Locke, Rachel Kempson, Angela Pleasence, Yvonne Bryceland, Mark Jax

Stealing Home

US 1988 98m Technicolor
Warner/Mount (Thom Mount, Hank Moonjean)

Returning home after the suicide of the woman he loved as a youth, a failed baseball player recalls their relationship.
Drab little domestic drama of unfulfilled hopes and desires.
wd Steven Kampmann, Will Aldis ph Bobby Byrne m David Foster pd Vaughan Edwards ed Antony Gibbs ☆ Mark Harmon, Blair Brown, Jonathan Silverman, Harold Ramis, William McNamara, Richard Jenkins, John Shea, Jodie Foster, Helen Hunt

'Fear The Sky'

Stealth ③

US 2005 121m DeLuxe Panavision
Columbia/Original/Phoenix (Laura Ziskin, Mike Medavoy, Neal H. Moritz)

Three pilots are ordered to bring down a dangerous fighter plane guided by artificial intelligence that develops a mind of its own after being struck by lightning.
A film that fetishizes gleaming guns and high technology, but not intelligence and rationality.
w W.D. Richter d Rob Cohen ph Dean Semler m BT pd J. Michael Riva, Jonathan Lee ed Stephen Rivkin
☆ Josh Lucas (Lt Ben Gannon), Jessica Biel (Lt Kara Wade), Jamie Foxx (Lt Henry Purcell), Sam Shepard (Capt. George Cummings), Joe Morton (Capt. Dick Marshfield), Ebon Moss-Bachrach (Josh Hudson), Richard Roxburgh (Keith Orbit)
'An offense against taste, intelligence and the noise pollution code.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Brought down by repeated bursts of high absurdity.' – Joe Morgenstern, Wall Street Journal
† The film flopped at the US box office. Having cost around $130m to make, it took some $32m.

Steamboat Bill Jnr ★

US 1928 71m (24 fps) bw silent
UA/Buster Keaton/Joseph Schenck

A student takes over his father's old Mississippi steamboat, and wins the daughter of his rival.
Rather flat comedy redeemed by a magnificent cyclone climax.
w Carl Harbaugh, Buster Keaton d Charles Riesner ph J. Devereaux Jennings, Bert Haines ☆ Buster Keaton, Ernest Torrence, Marion Byron

Steamboat Round the Bend ★

US 1935 80m bw
TCF (Sol M. Wurtzel)

A Mississippi steamboat captain defeats his rival and finds evidence to clear his nephew of a murder charge.

Rather heavily-scripted star vehicle which sacrifices fun for atmosphere but is often good to look at.

w Dudley Nichols, Lamar Trotti novel Ben Lucien Burman d John Ford ph George Schneiderman md Samuel Kaylin

☆ Will Rogers, Anne Shirley, Eugene Pallette, John McGuire, Irvin S. Cobb, Berton Churchill, Stepin Fetchit, Roger Imhof, Raymond Hatton

'Will Rogers' final picture ... in the money despite a drab theme.' – Variety

Steamboy ★★

Japan 2004 104m colour
Toho/Steamboy Committee/Bandai Visual/Sunrise (Shinji Komori, Hideyuki Tomioka)

original title: Suchimuboi

In Manchester in the mid 1860s, a boy becomes involved in his family's invention of a new way of harnessing steam power that foreign powers attempt to steal.

Overlong drama with splendid animation, especially of machinery, but a narrative that soon runs out of steam.

w Sadayuki Murai d Katsuhiro Otomo ph Mitsuhiro Sato m Steve Jablonsky ad Shinji Kimura ed Takeshi Seyama

☆ voices of: Anne Suzuki, Manami Konishi, Katsuo Nakamura, Masane Tsukayama, Kiyoshi Kodama

'Consistent in its graphic invention from first to last... it's a sensationally designed piece of work.' – J. Hoberman, Village Voice

† A dubbed version was also released, featuring the voices of Alfred Molina, Anna Paquin and Patrick Stewart.

Steaming

GB 1985 95m colour
Paul Mills/World Film Services/Columbia

Women in a rundown steam bath confide in each other.

Excessively dreary talk piece which apparently seemed crisper on the stage.

w Patricia Losey play Nell Dunn d Joseph Losey (his last film) ph Chris Challis

☆ Vanessa Redgrave, Sarah Miles, Diana Dors, Patti Love, Brenda Bruce

'It cannot be denied that it is very British. The humor is coarse and the outlook grim. It is the work of Nell Dunn and is a shameless feminist and socialist treatise. Whether these qualities rank as vices or virtues is, of course, a matter of taste.' – Quentin Crisp

Steel

US 1979 101m Movielab
Columbia/Panzer/Davis/Fawcett-Majors (Lee Majors)

When a construction boss is killed, his daughter vows to complete his last project.

Flashy, foul-mouthed, but basically old-fashioned hokum climaxing in a race to complete before foreclosure.

w Leigh Chapman d Steve Carver ph Roger Shearman m Michel Colombier pd Ward Preston

☆ Lee Majors, Jennifer O'Neill, Art Carney, George Kennedy, Harris Yulin, Terry Kiser, Richard Lynch, Albert Salmi

Steel

US 1997 97m Technicolor
Warner (Quincy Jones, David Salzman, Joel Simon)

A former army weapons expert devises a steel suit so that he can keep the streets free from teenage hoodlums.

Tepid, preachy action film, missing by miles its target audience of the young.

wd Kenneth Johnson characters created by Louise Simonson, Jon Bogdanove ph Mark Irwin m Mervyn Warren pd Gary Wissner ed John F. Link

☆ Shaquille O'Neal, Annabeth Gish, Judd Nelson, Richard Roundtree, Irma P. Hall, Ray J., Charles Napier

'Too broad and episodic to attract anything other than the most undemanding crowd.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

The Steel Bayonet

GB 1957 85m bw Hammerscope
UA/Hammer (Michael Carreras)

During the assault on Tunis a battle-weary platoon holds a farm against enemy attack.

Dreary cliché-ridden war melodrama, peopled by all the usual types.

w Howard Clewes d Michael Carreras ph Jack Asher m Leonard Salzedo ad Ted Marshall ed Bill Lenny

☆ Leo Genn, Kieron Moore, Michael Medwin, Robert Brown, Michael Ripper, John Paul, Bernard Horsfall

Steel Magnolias ★

US 1989 117m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Rastar/Ray Stark

A group of women, who gather in a small-town beauty parlour, face up to life's vicissitudes.

Slickly made, sentimental account of marriage and motherhood that provides some meaty roles for the assembled actresses.

w Robert Harling play Robert Harling d Herbert Ross ph John A. Alonzo m Georges Delerue pd Gene Callahan, Edward Pisoni ed Paul Hirsch

☆ Sally Field, Dolly Parton, Shirley MacLaine, Daryl Hannah, Olympia Dukakis, Julia Roberts, Tom Skerritt, Sam Shepard

'A lush, excruciatingly elongated emotional wallow.' – Tom Milne, MFB

♀ Julia Roberts

Steel Town

US 1952 84m Technicolor
U-I (Leonard Goldstein)

A steel president's nephew joins the company as a furnace hand.

Routine drama with an unusual background.

w Gerald Drayson Adams, Lou Breslow d George Sherman ph Charles P. Boyle m Joseph Gershenson ad Robert Clatworthy, Bernard Herzbrun ed Ted J. Kent

☆ Ann Sheridan, John Lund, Howard Duff, James Best, Nancy Kulp

The Steel Trap ★

US 1952 85m bw
TCF/Thor (Bert E. Friedlob)

An assistant bank manager steals half a million dollars from the vault but is troubled by conscience and manages to put it back before the loss is discovered.

Solidly competent little suspenser with plenty of movement.

wd Andrew Stone ph Ernest Laszlo m Dimitri Tiomkin

☆ Joseph Cotten, Teresa Wright, Jonathan Hale, Walter Sande

Steelyard Blues

US 1972 92m Technicolor
Warner/S. B. Productions (Tony Bill, Michael and Julia Phillips)

An ex-con and his call-girl friend are an embarrassment to his DA brother.

Bits and pieces of anti-establishment comedy are tacked on to a thin plot; a few of them work.

w David S. Ward d Alan Myerson ph Laszlo Kovacs, Steven Larner m Nick Gravenites

☆ Donald Sutherland, Jane Fonda, Peter Boyle, Howard Hesseman

Stella

US 1990 109m colour
Rank/Samuel Goldwyn Company/Touchstone (David V. Picker)

A waitress makes sacrifices so that her illegitimate daughter can escape from the working class.

Outmoded soap opera that fails to achieve the tears provoked by the two earlier film versions.

w Robert Getchell novel Stella Dallas by Olive Higgins Prouty d John Erman ph Billy Williams m John Morris pd James Hulsey ed Jerrold L. Ludwig, Bud Molin, Lisa M. Citron

☆ Bette Midler, John Goodman, Trini Alvarado, Stephen Collins, Marsha Mason, Eileen Brennan, Linda Hart

'Bette Midler deserves better than this heap of cornball slush.' – John Coldstream, Daily Telegraph

Stella Dallas ★

US 1925 110m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Samuel Goldwyn

An uncouth woman loses both husband and daughter.

Standard weepie complete with 'out into the cold cold snow' ending, but handled here with tact and discretion. A seminal film of its time.

w Frances Marion novel Olive Higgins Prouty d Henry King ph Arthur Edeson

☆ Belle Bennett, Ronald Colman, Lois Moran, Jean Hersholt, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Alice Joyce

'A sad film, but sad with the curious quality of sadness that leaves only happiness in its train. We, watching it, are happy to be so sad. We find here a vicarious courage; a fidelity and a generous understanding that by proxy become ours.' – C. A. Lejeune

"Sure, I Like A Good Time!"

Stella Dallas ★

US 1937 106m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

Fashionable remake with excellent talent; 1937 audiences came to sneer and stayed to weep.

w Victor Heerman, Sarah Y. Mason d King Vidor ph Rudolph Maté m Alfred Newman

☆ Barbara Stanwyck, John Boles, Anne Shirley, Barbara O'Neil, Alan Hale, Marjorie Main, Tim Holt

'A tear-jerker of A ranking. There are things about the story that will not appeal to some men, but no one will be annoyed or offended by it. And the wallop is inescapably there for femmes.' – Variety † Goldwyn's premier choices for the lead were Ruth Chatterton and Gladys George.

♀ Barbara Stanwyck; Anne Shirley

Stella Does Tricks ★

GB 1996 99m Metrocolor
BFI/Channel 4/Compulsive/Sidewalk (Adam Barker)

A Scottish teenage prostitute in London manages to escape from her abusive pimp and begins a relationship with a heroin addict.

Austerely truthful film of masculine exploitation, of people trapped in a cycle of deprivation; it is not without a bleak humour.

w A. L. Kennedy d Coky Giedroyc ph Barry Ackroyd m Nick Bicat pd Lynne Whiteread ed Budge Tremlett

☆ Kelly Macdonald, James Bolam, Hans Matheson, Ewan Stewart, Lindsay Henderson

The Stendhal Syndrome

Italy 1996 119m Technicolor
Medusa/Cine 2000 (Dario Argento, Giuseppe Colombo)

original title: La Sindrome di Stendhal

A serial killer repeatedly rapes the female detective investigating him, who has the habit of fainting when confronted by great works of art.

Risible thriller that becomes increasingly silly; although its quota of gore is low by its director's standards, it has some unpleasant moments.

wd Dario Argento inspired by La Sindrome di Stendhal by Graziella Magherini ph Giuseppe Rotunno m Ennio Morricone ad Antonello Geleng ed Angelo Nicolini sp Sergio Stivaletti

☆ Asia Argento, Thomas Kretschmann, Marco Leonardi, Luigi Diberti, Paolo Bonacelli, Julien Lambroschini, John Quentin

'The film that finally proves beyond any reasonable argument that Dario Argento has finally lost it' – The Dark Side

Step by Step ★

US 1946 62m bw
RKO (Sid Rogell)

The FBI gives chase to a young couple who may or may not have stolen government plans.

Trim second feature melodrama with nice touches.

w Stuart Palmer d Phil Rosen

☆ Lawrence Tierney, Anne Jeffreys, Lowell Gilmore, George Cleveland, Jason Robards

Step Down to Terror

US 1959 76m bw
U-I (Joseph Gershenson)
GB title: The Silent Stranger

A man returns to his home town and is discovered to be a psychopathic killer on the run.

Dismal reworking of Shadow of a Doubt; strictly second feature stuff.

w Mel Dinelli, Czenzi Ormonde, Chris Cooper d Harry Keller ph Russell Metty m Joseph Gershenson

☆ Charles Drake, Colleen Miller, Rod Taylor, Josephine Hutchinson, Jocelyn Brando

Step Lively ★

US 1944 88m bw
RKO (Robert Fellows)

Gleaming musical remake of Room Service (qv); all very efficient if witless.

w Warren Duff, Peter Milne d Tim Whelan ph Robert de Grasse md Constantin Bakaleinikoff ad Albert S.

D'Agostino, Carroll Clark songs Jule Styne, Sammy Cahn
☆ Frank Sinatra, George Murphy, Adolphe Menjou, Gloria de Haven, Anne Jeffreys, Walter Slezak, Eugene Pallette
art direction

Step Lively, Jeeves

US 1937 69m bw
TCF (John Stone)
Two confidence tricksters attempt to persuade an English valet that he is heir to the fortune of Sir Francis Drake.
Broad and raucous farce with a gullible Jeeves who bears little resemblance to P. G. Wodehouse's creation of the imperturbable gentleman's gentleman.
w Frank Fenton, Lynn Root story Frances Hyland d Eugene Forde ph Daniel Clark md Samuel Kaylin ad Duncan Cramer ed Fred Allen
☆ Arthur Treacher, Patricia Ellis, Robert Kent, Alan Dinehart, George Givot, Helen Flint, Franklin Pangborn

'Every second chance begins with a first step.'

Step Up ★ (4)

US 2006 98m
UIP/Summit Entertainment (Erik Feig, Jennifer Gibgot, Adam Shankman, Patrick Wachsberger)
A rich dance student takes the bad boy school janitor as her partner for a crucial showcase number.
Utterly predictable but appealing urban culture-clash fairytale featuring good moves and hip-hop music.
w Duane Adler, Melissa Rosenberg d Anne Fletcher ph Michael Seresin m Aaron Zigman pd Shepherd Frankel ad Laura Ballinger ed Nancy Richardson sp Joe Digaetano ☆ Channing Tatum (Tyler Gage), Jenna Dewan (Nora Clark), Damaine Radcliff (Mac Carter), DeShawn Washington (Skinny Carter), Rachel Griffiths (Director Gordon)
'A pleasant, if unsurprising, confluence of classic ballet with street dance.' – Ella Taylor, LA Weekly

Stepfather: see Beau-Père (1981)

The Stepfather

US 1986 88m CFI color
Jay Benson/Vista/New World
A teenage girl discovers that her new stepfather is a psychopath who may make her his victim.
Well enough done but rather obvious suspenser on the lines of Love from a Stranger.
w Donald E. Westlake story Brian Garfield d Joseph Ruben ph John Lindley m Patrick Moraz
☆ Terry O'Quinn, Jill Schoelen, Shelley Hack, Charles Lanyer
'A one-joke movie, but the joke is wonderfully subversive ... It's not the culture's violence that drives people mad, but its fake harmony – especially the sunny world of TV sitcoms, where every crisis is handily resolved.' – David Edelstein, Village Voice

'There's Something You Should Know About My Past.'

Stepfather II

US 1989 86m colour
ITC (Darin Scott, William Burr)
A mass murderer escapes from an asylum and sets up as a psychiatrist so that he can discover a ready-made family to take over.
A limp sequel that lacks suspense and offers no more than a predictable re-run of the original.
w John Auerbach d Jeff Burr ph Jacek Laskus m Jim Manzie, Pat Regan pd Byrnadette Disanto ed Pasquale A. Buba
☆ Terry O'Quinn, Meg Foster, Caroline Williams, Jonathan Brandis, Henry Brown, Mitchell Laurance
† It was followed by a made-for-TV movie, Stepfather III, which provided little variation on the original plot.

The Stepford Wives ★

US 1974 115m TVC Color
Fadsin/Palomar (Edgar J. Sherick)
A new wife in a commuter village outside New York finds all her female friends too good to be true ... because their husbands have had them replaced by computerized models.
An attractive idea which needs a much lighter and pacier touch but entertains in patches and shows agreeable sophistication.
w William Goldman novel Ira Levin d Bryan Forbes ph Owen Roizman m Michael Small pd Gene Callahan ☆ Katharine Ross, Paula Prentiss, Nanette Newman, Peter Masterson, Patrick O'Neal, Tina Louise, William Prince
'It was hard to tell Katharine Ross playing a robot from Katharine Ross playing a normal housewife.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies
'The first women's lib gothic – hardly the landmark the world had been waiting for.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker

'Make one.'

The Stepford Wives

US 2004 93m DeLuxe
Paramount/DreamWorks (Scott Rudin, Donald De Line)
A high-powered woman quits her job and moves with her husband to a community where all the men have perfect housewives.
A remake that has only its title in common with the original movie, substituting broad and rarely funny comedy for the paranoia that fuelled the story the first time around.
w Paul Rudnick novel Ira Levin d Frank Oz ph Rob Hahn m David Arnold pd Jackson De Govia ed Jay Rabinowitz
☆ Nicole Kidman (Joanna Eberhart), Matthew Broderick (Walter Kresby), Bette Midler (Bobbi Markowitz), Glenn Close (Claire Wellington), Christopher Walken (Mike Wellington), Roger Bart (Roger Bannister), Jon Lovitz (Dave Markowitz), Faith Hill (Sarah Sunderson)
'The decision to play the film for comedy comes at the expense of plot lucidity, but there just aren't enough laughs to distract from the vast fault-lines in the story.' – Wendy Ide, Times

Stephen King's IT

US 1990 180m colour
Lorimar (Matthew O'Connor)
Childhood friends gather after 30 years to rid their home town of a murderous evil spirit.
Overlong, indifferently acted, predictably scripted TV mini-series transferred to video.
w Lawrence D. Cohen, Tommy Lee Wallace novel IT by Stephen King d Tommy Lee Wallace ph Richard Leiterman m Richard Bellis pd Douglas Higgins ed Robert F. Shugrue, David Blangsted
☆ Harry Anderson, Dennis Christopher, Richard Masur, Annette O'Toole, Tim Reid, John Ritter, Richard Thomas, Tim Curry, Olivia Hussey

Stephen King's Thinner

US 1996 92m DeLuxe
Paramount/Spelling (Richard P. Rubinstein, Mitchell Galin)
An overweight lawyer, who is cursed by a gypsy king after he has run over his daughter, begins to get thinner and thinner ...
Tedious little fable that claims to be about 'moral culpability', but simply shows its makers' lack of understanding and imagination.
w Tom Holland, Michael McDowell novel Stephen King d Tom Holland ph Kees Van Oostrum m Daniel Licht pd Laurence Bennett ed Marc Laub sp Greg Cannom
☆ Robert John Burke, Joe Mantegna, Michael Constantine, Lucinda Jenney, Kari Wuhrer, John Horton, Stephen King
'There's nothing particularly fresh in this routinely crafted, banally scripted and directed effort.' – Leonard Klady, Variety

Stepkids: see Big Girls Don't Cry ... They Get Even

'Be There For The Joy. Be There For The Tears. Be There For Each Other.'

Stepmom

US 1998 124m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/1492 (Wendy Finerman, Chris Columbus, Mark Radcliffe, Michael Barnathan)
A divorced mother is scornful of her ex-husband's new girlfriend until she is diagnosed with cancer and needs help.
It is sometimes difficult to imagine what Hollywood scriptwriters would do without a terminal illness to fall back on: it provides opportunity for sentimentality, redemption, reconciliation and big gestures, all of which are too much in evidence here.
w Gigi Levangie, Jessie Nelson, Steven Rogers, Karen Leigh Hopkins, Ron Bass d Chris Columbus ph Donald M. McAlpine m John Williams pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Neil Travis
☆ Julia Roberts, Susan Sarandon, Ed Harris, Jena Malone, Liam Aiken, Lynn Whitfield, Darrell Larson, Mary Louise Wilson
'Tears are jerked with strenuously sincere calculation ... which sees some very talented thesps working over the most mawkish conventions as if they were freshly minted ... not a single cliché of the modern feel-good tragic melodrama genre has gone unturned, resulting in a soggy heart-tugger.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety

Steppin' in Society

US 1945 72m bw
Republic (Joseph Bercholtz)
A judge is caught in a storm and takes refuge in a low club frequented by criminals.
Uncertain comedy which never really works.
w Bradford Ropes novel Marcel Arnac d Alexander Esway
☆ Edward Everett Horton, Gladys George, Ruth Terry, Robert Livingston, Jack La Rue, Lola Lane

'Your dreams are just a step away.'

Stepping Out

US 1991 110m Technicolor
UIP/Paramount (Lewis Gilbert)
A tap-dance teacher attempts to prepare a class of amateurs for a charity performance.
Mundane and old-fashioned drama that lacks precision.
w Richard Harris play Richard Harris d Lewis Gilbert ph Alan Hume m Peter Matz ch Danny Daniels pd Peter Mullins ed Humphrey Dixon ☆ Liza Minnelli, Shelley Winters, Robyn Stevan, Jane Krakowski, Bill Irwin, Ellen Greene, Sheila McCarthy, Andrea Martin, Julie Walters, Carol Woods, Luke Reilly

'The man, the music, the murder.'

Stepping Razor Red X ★

Canada 1992 92m Fujicolour
Feature Film/SC Entertainment (Edgar Egger)
Documentary on the life and violent death, in 1987, of Jamaican Rastafarian reggae singer Peter Tosh, using some concert performances and tapes he recorded, which he intended to use as the basis of his autobiography, to be called Red X, after the cross in red ink he saw after his name on official documents, showing where he should put his signature, but which he interpreted as indicating that he was being singled out.
Interesting, if inconclusive, investigation of the reasons for Tosh's murder: was it a robbery or a politically motivated hit? Tosh's own, often bitter, paranoid and rambling commentary, couched in apocalyptical language, adds another layer of mystification.
wd Nicholas Campbell ph Edgar Egger ed Trevor Ambrose
'For all the stridency of his ideas and of his music, Peter Tosh remains a phantom beyond this film's grasp.' – Sight and Sound

Steptoe and Son

GB 1972 98m Technicolor
EMI/Associated London Films (Aida Young)
Harold gets married, mislays his wife but thinks he is a father.
Strained attempt to transfer the TV rag-and-bone comedy (which in the US became Sanford and Son*) to the big screen. Not the same thing at all.*
w Ray Galton, Alan Simpson d Cliff Owen ph John Wilcox m Roy Budd, Jack Fishman ☆ Wilfrid Brambell, Harry H. Corbett, Carolyn Seymour, Arthur Howard, Victor Maddern † Steptoe and Son Ride Again, which followed in 1973, was even more crude and out of character.

Steptoe and Son Ride Again

GB 1973 99m Technicolor
MGM/EMI/Associated London Films (Aida Young)
Sent out to buy a new horse, Harold spends the family savings on a greyhound that won't run.
Dim, coarse comedy that long overstays its welcome.
w Ray Galton, Alan Simpson d Peter Sykes ph Ernie Steward m Roy Budd, Jack Fishman, Ron Grainer ad Bernard Sarron ed Bernard Gribble
☆ Wilfrid Brambell, Harry H. Corbett, Diana Dors, Milo O'Shea, Neil McCarthy, Bill Maynard, George Tovey, Sam Kydd, Yootha Joyce, Henry Woolf, Geoffrey Bayldon, Frank Thornton
'Retains the trappings but none of the subtlety or intimacy of the original TV series ... sacrificed to the demands of the basic British screen comedy with its emphasis on lavatories, booze, breasts and (curiously enough) the hilarity of death.' – Clyde Jeavons, MFB

The Sterile Cuckoo

US 1969 107m Technicolor
Paramount/Boardwalk (Alan J. Pakula)

GB title: Pookie

A talkative but insecure college girl has her first sexual adventures.

Rather tiresome comedy drama with good scenes; general handling far too restrained.

w Alvin Sargent novel John Nicholson d Alan J. Pakula ph Milton Krasner m Fred Karlin

☆ Liza Minnelli, Tim McIntire, Wendell Burton, Austin Green, Sandra Faison

♫ song 'Come Saturday Morning' (m Fred Karlin, ly Dory Previn); Liza Minnelli

Stevie ★

US/GB 1978 102m Technicolor
First Artists/Grand Metropolitan (Robert Enders)

An account of the uneventful life of poetess Stevie Smith, lived out mainly in a London suburb under the fear of death.

Claustrophobic showcase for a whimsical lady; interesting for some specialized audiences.

w Hugh Whitemore play Hugh Whitemore d Robert Enders ph Freddie Young m Marcus Gowers

☆ Glenda Jackson, Mona Washbourne, Trevor Howard, Alec McCowen

Stick

US 1985 109m Technicolor
Universal/Jennings Lang (Robert Daley)

A hardboiled ex-con goes to Miami's low-life district in search of the man who killed his friend.

Wearisome crime melodrama with too many pauses for the hero's self-examination.

w Elmore Leonard, Joseph C. Stinson novel Elmore Leonard d Burt Reynolds ph Nick McLean m Barry de Vorzon, Joseph Conlan

☆ Burt Reynolds, Candice Bergen, George Segal, Charles Durning

'Plot is of the convoluted kind beloved by exhibitors since patrons can wander out for popcorn and come back without missing anything.' – Variety

'Defy and Conquer.'

Stick It ③

US 2006 103m Technicolor
Buena Vista/Touchstone/Spyglass (Gail Lyon)

A disgraced former gymnast is forced to return to training as a condition of her probation.

Teen movie emphasising individual effort over team spirit that sticks closely to the usual narrative, one that its director used before when writing her cheer-leading movie, Bring It On.

wd Jessica Bendinger ph Daryn Okada m Mike Simpson pd Bruce Curtis ed Troy Takaki

☆ Jeff Bridges (Burt Vickerman), Missy Peregrym (Haley Graham), Joanne Charis (Vanessa Lengies), Nikki Soohoo (Wei Wei Yong), Maddy Curley (Mina Hoyt), Kellan Lutz (Frank), John Patrick Amedori (Poot)

'Spry teenage comedy that gets everything right.' – Nathan Lee, New York Times

'Rarely is a sports movie so inept that it can't even make its central figure likable.' – Kyle Smithy, New York Post

'Defy and conquer.'

Stick It ④

US/Germany 2006 103m
Buena Vista/Spyglass/Kaltenbach Pictures (Gail Lyon)

Rebellious teenage girl is ordered by a juvenile court to attend gymnastics academy, where her attitude initially makes her unpopular.

Inoffensive but hardly distinctive blend of teen comedy and uplifting sports story.

wd Jessica Bendinger ph Daryn Okada m Mike Simpson pd Bruce Curtis ad Chris Cornwell ed Troy Takaki

☆ Jeff Bridges (Coach Burt Vickerman), Missy Peregrym (Haley Graham), Vanessa Lengies (Joanne), Tarah Paige (Tricia)

The Stick Up

GB 1977 101m colour
Backstage (Elliott Kastner, Danny O'Donovan)

In Devon in 1935, an American gives a lift to a café waitress and finds she is a thief on the run.

Numbingly peculiar comedy melodrama which tries too hard to have any chance of succeeding.

wd Jeffrey Bloom ph Michael Reed m Michael J. Lewis

☆ David Soul, Pamela McMyler, Johnny Wade, Michael Balfour

'The worst film of this or possibly any year.' – Barry Took, Punch

'Playing the Shots. Covering the Angles. Waiting for the Big Break.'

Stickmen

New Zealand 2001 96m
Portman/NZFC/Film2/Stick (Michelle Turner)

Three friends try to save the closure of their favourite bar by entering a pool tournament run by gangsters.

Unoriginal comedy thriller under the influence of Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels.

w Nick Ward d Hamish Rothwell ph Nigel Bluck m House of Downtown pd Neville Stevenson ed Owen Ferrier-Kerr

☆ Robbie Magasiva (Jack), Scott Wills (Wayne), Paolo Rotondo (Thomas), Simone Kessell (Karen), Anne Nordhaus (Sara), John Leigh (Dave), Enrico Mammarella (Daddy), Kirk Torrance (Holden)

'A lot less to it than meets the eye... A waste of an attractive young cast bursting with energy.' – Sight and Sound

Sticky Fingers

US 1988 88m DuArt
Virgin/Hightop/Spectrafilm (Catlin Adams, Melanie Mayron)

Two struggling musicians spend a fortune left with them for safe keeping by a drug dealer.

Lacklustre comedy without enough wit to keep it alive.

w Catlin Adams, Melanie Mayron d Catlin Adams ph Gary Thieltges m Gary Chang ed Bob Reitano

☆ Helen Slater, Melanie Mayron, Danitra Vance, Eileen Brennan, Carol Kane, Loretta Devine, Stephen McHattie, Christopher Guest

Stiff Upper Lips

GB 1997 94m Metrocolor
Cavalier/Impact/Chrysalis/Yorkshire (Jeremy Bolt, Gary Sinyor)

An upper-class girl, who falls for a working-class boy, is taken by her aunt on trips to Italy and India.

A joke-stuffed send-up of Merchant Ivory's period dramas that occasionally raises a smile or three.

w Paul Simpkin, Gary Sinyor, Stephen Deitch, Richard Sparks d Gary Sinyor ph Simon Archer m David A. Hughes, John Murphy pd Mike Grant ed Peter Hollywood

☆ Peter Ustinov, Prunella Scales, Georgina Cates, Samuel West, Sean Pertwee, Brian Glover, Frank Finlay, Robert Portal, Richard Braine

'Terrible even as pastiche.' – Gaby Wood, Guardian

'It Will Scare The Hell Into You.'

Stigmata

US 1999 103m colour
MGM (Frank Mancuso)

A Catholic priest investigates when an irreligious Pittsburg hairdresser shows the weeping wounds of Christ on her hands and feet.

A good-looking, though irredeemably silly, horror movie that follows somewhat wanly in the footsteps of The Exorcist.

w Tom Lazarus, Rick Ramage d Rupert Wainwright ph Jeffrey L. Kimball m Billy Corgan, Elia Cmiral, Mike Garson pd Waldemar Kalinowski ed Michael R. Miller, Michael J. Duthie sp make-up: Ve Neill

☆ Patricia Arquette (Frankie Paige), Gabriel Byrne (Father Kiernan), Jonathan Pryce (Cardinal Houseman), Nia Long (Donna Chadway), Thomas Kopache (Father Durning), Rade Sherbedgia (Marion Petrocelli), Enrico Colantoni (Father Dario), Dick Latessa (Father Delmonico), Portia de Rossi (Jennifer Kelliho), Patrick Muldoon (Steven), Ann Cusack (Dr Reston)

'Whips up an entertaining hysteria of stylistic overkill, tittersome dialogue and giddily outlandish situations.' – David Rooney, Variety

Stiletto

US 1969 99m Berkeley-Pathe
Avco/Harold Robbins (Norman Rosemont)

A wealthy playboy racing driver is in fact a Mafia executioner.

Dreary, violent, fashionable Mafioso melodrama with international jet set trimmings.

w A. J. Russell novel Harold Robbins d Bernard Kowalski ph Jack Priestley m Sid Ramin

☆ Alex Cord, Britt Ekland, Barbara McNair, Patrick O'Neal, Joseph Wiseman, John Dehner, Eduardo Ciannelli, Roy Scheider

'Cardboard characters crumpled by a script which deals exclusively in clichés.' – Sight and Sound

Stiletto Dance

US 2001 97m colour
TVA/Chesler/Perlmutter (Robert Wertheimer)

GB title: Gangsta's Paradise

In Buffalo, NY, undercover cops become hired killers after they infiltrate a Russian gang planning to sell nuclear equipment.

Uninteresting drama, marked by gratuitous violence and cliché-ridden dialogue and situations.

w Alfonse Ruggiero d Mario Azzopardi ph Pierre Jodoin m Gary Koftinoff pd Paola Ridolfi ed Glenn Berman

☆ Eric Roberts (Kit Adrian), Romano Orzari (Jay Flowers), Shawn Doyle (Anton Seaberg), Lucie Laurier (Lena), Yaphet Kotto (Captain Rick Sands), Brett Porter (Rolfe), Justin Louis (James Launcher)

'100 watts too loud. 50 pills too many. 20 years too late?'

Still Crazy ★★

GB/US 1998 95m colour
Columbia (Amanda Marmot)

After 21 years away, a rock group of the 70s gets together again for a concert appearance.

Amiable comedy that pokes gentle fun at ageing rockers and their followers.

w Dick Clements, Ian La Frenais d Brian Gibson ph Ashley Rowe m Clive Langer pd Max Gottlieb ed Peter Boyle

☆ Stephen Rea, Billy Connolly, Jimmy Nail, Timothy Spall, Bill Nighy, Juliet Aubrey, Helena Bergström, Hans Matheson, Phil Daniels, Frances Barber, Phil Davis

'Though cinematically unadventurous, this is brilliantly observed and perfectly pitched. Every scene is a joy, every line one to remember.' – Neil Jeffries, Empire

Still of the Night ★

US 1982 91m Technicolor
MGM/UA (Arlene Donovan)

A psychiatrist finds himself in danger when one of his patients is murdered.

Hitchcock-style mystery melodrama with the villain fairly well concealed ... but somehow not very entertaining. The actors all take their characters too seriously.

w Robert Benton, David Newman d Robert Benton ph Nestor Almendros m John Kander pd Mel Bourne

☆ Roy Scheider, Meryl Streep, Jessica Tandy, Sara Botsford, Josef Sommer, Joe Grifasi

'A lifeless and frustrating muddle.' – Steve Jenkins, MFB

De Stilte Rond Christine M: see A Question of Silence

'All it takes is a little confidence!'

The Sting ★★★

US 1973 129m Technicolor
Universal/Richard Zanuck, David Brown (Tony Bill, Michael S. Phillips)

In thirties Chicago, two con men stage an elaborate revenge on a big time gangster who caused the death of a friend.

Bright, likeable, but overlong, unconvincingly studio-set and casually developed comedy suspenser cashing in on star charisma but riding to enormous success chiefly on its tinkly music and the general lack of simple entertainment.

w David S. Ward d George Roy Hill ph Robert Surtees m Scott Joplin (arranged by Marvin Hamlisch) ad Henry Bumstead ed William Reynolds

☆ Paul Newman (Henry Gondorff/Mr. Shaw), Robert Redford (Johnny Hooker/Kelly), Robert Shaw (Doyle Lonnegan), Charles Durning (Lt. William Snyder), Ray Walston (J.J. Singleton), Eileen Brennan (Billie)

'A visually claustrophobic, mechanically plotted movie that's meant to be a roguishly charming entertainment.' – New Yorker

'It demonstrates what can happen when a gifted young screenwriter has the good fortune to fall among professionals his second time out.' – Judith Crist

'A testament to the value of blue eyes and

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

bright smiles.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies

best picture; David S. Ward; George Roy Hill; Marvin Hamlisch

Robert Surtees; Robert Redford

'The con is on – place your bets!'

The Sting 2

US 1983 102m Technicolor
Universal (Jennings Lang)

Lonnegan plots his revenge on the two who stung him in twenties Chicago.

Boring reprise of an overrated movie: though efficiently made, it never catches fire, and the cast is indisputably a second team.

w David S. Ward d Jeremy Paul Kagan ph Bill Butler m Lalo Schifrin pd Edward C. Carfagno

☆ Jackie Gleason, Mac Davis, Karl Malden, Oliver Reed, Bert Remsen, Teri Garr

'The vivid minor characters have been squeezed into lifelessness by the python-like plot.' – Tom Milne, MFB

Lalo Schifrin

Stingaree

US 1934 76m bw (colour sequence)
RKO (Pandro S. Berman)

An Australian outlaw of the eighties falls for a rancher's daughter.

Unexciting but unobjectionable piece of Robin Hoodery.

w Becky Gardiner stories E. W. Hornung d William A. Wellman ph James Van Trees m Max Steiner

☆ Irene Dunne, Richard Dix, Mary Boland, Conway Tearle, Andy Devine, Henry Stephenson, Una O'Connor, Reginald Owen, Snub Pollard, George Barraud

'Should bring medium results. It does not promise to rise to greater heights.' – Variety

Stir Crazy

US 1980 111m Metrocolor
Columbia/Hannah Weinstein

Two New Yorkers heading for California to try their luck are wrongly convicted of a bank robbery but plan escape from prison.

Extended farce giving rather too free rein to its stars' potential for mugging, and polishing up every prison gag in the book.

w Bruce Jay Friedman d Sidney Poitier ph Fred Schuler m Tom Scott pd Alfred Sweeney

☆ Gene Wilder, Richard Pryor, Georg Stanford Brown, JoBeth Williams

'In every mind there is a door that has never been opened.'

Stir of Echoes ★

US 1999 99m colour
TCF/Artisan

After he has been hypnotised, a man begins to experience visions and sees the ghost of a murdered child.

Muddled supernatural thriller that is at its best when concentrating on the normal: the relationship of an unfulfilled working-class man, who is finding it difficult to cope with life, and his concerned wife.

wd David Koepp novel Richard Matheson ph Fred Murphy m James Newton Howard pd Nelson Coates ed Jill Savitt

☆ Kevin Bacon (Tom Witzky), Kathryn Erbe (Maggie Witzky), Illeana Douglas (Lisa), Liza Weil (Debbie Kozac), Kevin Dunn (Frank McCarthy), Conor O'Farrell (Harry Damon), Jennifer Morrison (Samantha), Zachary David Cope (Jake Witzky), Lisa Lewis (Debbie's Mother), Eddie Bo Smith Jnr (Neil the Cop)

'You can do a lot worse on a Friday night than this.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian

A Stitch in Time

GB 1963 94m bw
Rank (Hugh Stewart)

A butcher's boy goes into hospital and falls for a nurse.

Thin star slapstick; all one can say is that it's marginally preferable to Jerry Lewis.

w Jack Davies d Robert Asher ph Jack Asher m Philip Green

☆ Norman Wisdom, Edward Chapman, Jerry Desmonde, Jeanette Sterke, Jill Melford

Stockade

US 1990 97m colour
Entertainment/Movie Group/Northern Lights Media Corporation (Richard Davis)

US title: Count a Lonely Cadence

A young soldier, sent to the stockade for brawling, is persecuted by a bigoted sergeant in charge.

Uninvolving prison drama.

w Dennis Shryack, Martin Sheen novel Count a Lonely Cadence by Gordon Weaver d Martin Sheen ph Richard Leiterman m Georges Delerue pd Ian Thomas ed Martin Hunter

☆ Charlie Sheen, Martin Sheen, F. Murray Abraham, Larry Fishburne, Blu Mankuma, Michael Beach, Harry Stewart

'Predictably staged, glossily performed, erratically edited, and seems unable to conceal a mood of smug optimism.' – Philip Strick, MFB

The Stolen Children ★★

Italy/France 1992 114m Technicolor
Mayfair/Erre/Alia/RAIDUE/Arena/Vega (Angelo Rizzoli, Stefano Munafo)

original title: Il Ladro di Bambini

A young cop travels across Italy to a children's home with an 11-year-old girl, forced to become a prostitute by her mother, and her younger brother.

Tough and compassionate movie that refuses to sensationalize its subject-matter, of adult and official indifference to the sufferings of the young.

w Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli, Gianni Amelio d Gianni Amelio ph Tonino Nardi, Renato Tafuri m Franco Piersanti pd Andrea Crisanti ed Simona Paggi

☆ Enrico Lo Verso, Valentina Scalici, Giuseppe Ieracitano, Renato Carpentieri, Vitalba Andrea, Grignani, Massimo de Lorenzo

'Classical humanist cinema, almost in the neo-realist tradition.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

'Quiet, honest, admirably acted.' – Philip French, Observer

Stolen Face

GB 1952 72m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Michael Hinds)

Via plastic surgery a girl criminal is given another face, which produces a different kind of trouble.

Quickie melodrama which proved fairly popular because of its Hollywood stars.

w Martin Berkeley, Richard Landau d Terence Fisher ph Walter Harvey m Malcolm Arnold

☆ Paul Henreid, Lizabeth Scott, André Morell, John Wood, Susan Stephen, Mary Mackenzie, Arnold Ridley

Stolen Harmony

US 1935 79m bw
Paramount

An ex-con becomes a saxophonist with a band and is suspected of a robbery.

Tedious mix-up of mayhem and music.

w Leon Gordon, Harry Ruskin, Claude Binyon, Lewis Foster d Alfred Werker

☆ George Raft, Ben Bernie, Grace Bradley, Iris Adrian, Lloyd Nolan, Ralf Harolde

'Once under way it provides some exciting entertainment; but the poor beginning isn't easily tossed off.' – Variety

Stolen Hearts: see Two If by Sea

'Its surprise finish will lift you to amazing emotional peaks!'

Stolen Heaven

US 1931 72m bw
Paramount

A boy and girl decide to commit suicide after spending the twenty thousand dollars they've stolen, but neither can go through with it.

A very silly idea, ineptly presented.

w Dana Burnet d George Abbott

☆ Nancy Carroll, Phillips Holmes, Louis Calhern, Edward Keane

'It will range down from moderate figures.' – Variety

Stolen Heaven

US 1938 88m bw
Paramount

Two jewel thieves in love are harboured on the run by an old concert pianist.

Sentimental melodrama which almost works, with its backing of classical piano pieces.

w Eve Greene, Frederick Jackson, Andrew L. Stone d Andrew L. Stone

☆ Gene Raymond, Olympe Bradna, Lewis Stone, Glenda Farrell, Porter Hall, Douglass Dumbrille

'Pleasing entertainment all the way.' – Variety

Stolen Holiday

US 1937 82m bw
Warner

A model marries a fortune hunter to protect him from the law.

Slightly unusual romantic drama based on the career of Alexander Stavisky.

w Casey Robinson d Michael Curtiz

☆ Claude Rains, Kay Francis, Ian Hunter, Alison Skipworth, Charles Halton, Alex D'Arcy

Stolen Hours

GB 1963 97m DeLuxe
UA/Mirisch/Barbican (Denis Holt)

An American divorcee with only a year to live falls in love with her surgeon.

Tired remake of Dark Victory; pleasant Cornish backgrounds.

w Jessamyn West d Daniel Petrie ph Harry Waxman m Mort Lindsey

☆ Susan Hayward, Michael Craig, Diane Baker, Edward Judd, Paul Rogers Stolen Kisses ★★★★

France 1968 91m Eastmancolor
Films du Carrosse/Artistes Associés (Marcel Berbert)

original title: Baisers Volés

An ineffective young man can find neither work nor love.

A pleasing, rather sad little comedy which has almost the feel of a Keaton; but one is not quite sure at the end what its creator intended.

w François Truffaut, Claude de Givray, Bernard Revon d François Truffaut ph Denys Clerval m Antoine Duhamel

☆ Jean-Pierre Léaud (Antoine Doinel), Delphine Seyrig (Fabienne Tabard), Michel Lonsdale (Georges Tabard), Claude Jade (Christine Darbon)

best foreign film

A Stolen Life ★

GB 1939 91m bw
(Paramount) Orion (Anthony Havelock-Allan)

In Brittany, a woman deceives her husband by exchanging identities with her dead twin.

An actress's showcase, quite satisfactorily mounted.

w Margaret Kennedy, George Barraud novel Karel J. Benes d Paul Czinner ph Philip Tannura m William Walton

☆ Elisabeth Bergner, Michael Redgrave, Wilfrid Lawson, Richard Ainley, Mabel Terry-Lewis, Clement McCallin

A Stolen Life ★

US 1946 107m bw
Warner (Bette Davis)

A twin assumes her sister's identity to be with the man she loves.

Enjoyable if slightly disappointing remake of the British 1939 movie with New England backgrounds.

w Catherine Turney d Curtis Bernhardt ph Sol Polito, Ernest Haller m Max Steiner

☆ Bette Davis, Glenn Ford, Dane Clark, Walter Brennan, Charles Ruggles, Bruce Bennett, Peggy Knudsen, Esther Dale

'A distressingly empty piece of show-off.' – Bosley Crowther

'What I'm waiting for is a film about beautiful identical quintuplets who all love the same man.' – Richard Winnington

'He will challenge their traditions. Their traditions will change his life.'

Stomp the Yard ②

US 2007 114m
Sony Pictures/Rainforest Films (Will Packer)

A disadvantaged youth finds his street dancing skills useful when he enrols at a prestigious university.

Choreography takes precedence over story in a disposable rite-of-passage tale with a rose-tinted view of college life.

w Robert Adetuyi, Gregory Anderson d Sylvain White ph Scott Kevan m Sam Retzer pd Jonathan Carlson ed David Checel

☆ Columbus Short (DJ), Meagan Good (April), Ne-Yo (Rich Brown), Darrin Henson (Grant), Harry Lennix (Nate), Brian White (Sylvester)

'Little to recommend it save the raucous intensity of its dance numbers, and even they smack of overkill. It's as if everyone knows the script is lousy and is desperately trying to compensate.' – Simon Braund, Empire

'Drugs, Sex And Murder.'

Stone Cold

US 1992 92m DeLuxe
Columbia TriStar/Stone Group/Mace Neufeld/Yoram Ben Ami/Walter Doniger

A cop goes undercover in Mississippi to investigate a gang of violent bikers who have gone on a killing spree.

Standard action-movie stuff, but done with a little flair, despite its overblown climax.

w Walter Doniger d Craig R. Baxley ph Alexander Gruszynski m Sylvester Levay pd John Mansbridge, Richard

w Nicholas Mosley novel Impossible Object by Nicholas Mosley d John Frankenheimer ph Claude Renoir m Michel Legrand pd Alexandre Trauner ed Albert Jurgenson
☆ Alan Bates, Dominique Sanda, Michel Auclair, Evans Evans, Paul Crauchet, Lea Massari, Vernon Dobtcheff
† The film never received a cinema release.

The Story of a Woman

US/Italy 1969 101m Technicolor
Universal/Westward (Leonardo Bercovici)
A Swedish girl pianist in Rome falls in love with a fashionable doctor, then back in Sweden meets an American diplomat.
Intermezzo-type romantic drama with colour supplement trappings. Tolerable of its kind.
wd Leonardo Bercovici ph Piero Portalupi m John Williams
☆ Robert Stack, Bibi Andersson, James Farentino, Annie Girardot, Frank Sundstrom

The Story of Adèle H *

France 1975 98m Eastmancolor
Films du Carrosse/Artistes Associés (Marcel Berbert, Claude Miller)
In 1863, the daughter of Victor Hugo follows her lover to Nova Scotia.
Surprisingly slow and stilted version of a true story, though with a few of the expected subtleties.
w François Truffaut, Jean Gruault, Suzanne Schiffman d François Truffaut ph Nestor Almendros m Maurice Jaubert
☆ Isabelle Adjani, Bruce Robinson, Sylvia Marriott
♗ Isabelle Adjani

'America's most thrilling story! Of love so great and faith so strong that it inspired this man to endure ridicule, privation and hunger – to achieve the miracle of wings for the human voice!'

The Story of Alexander Graham Bell **

US 1939 97m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)
GB title: The Modern Miracle
The inventor of the telephone marries a deaf girl.
Acceptable history lesson with dullish principals but excellent production.
w Lamar Trotti d Irving Cummings
ph Leon Shamroy m Louis Silvers
☆ Don Ameche, Henry Fonda, Loretta Young, Charles Coburn, Gene Lockhart, Spring Byington, Bobs Watson
'Production will need teasing to get the women.' – Variety

The Story of Dr Ehrlich's Magic Bullet: see Dr Ehrlich's Magic Bullet

The Story of Dr Wassell *

US 1944 140m Technicolor
Paramount/Cecil B. de Mille
The adventures of a naval doctor who heroically saved men during the Pacific war.
Long, slogging, glamorized account of real events which is typical de Mille and very unconvincing physically, but keeps one watching simply as a story.
w Alan le May, Charles Bennett book James Hilton d Cecil B. de Mille ph Victor Milner, William Snyder m Victor Young
☆ Gary Cooper, Laraine Day, Signe Hasso, Dennis O'Keefe, Carol Thurston, Carl Esmond, Paul Kelly, Stanley Ridges
'The director has taken a true story of heroism ... and jangled it into a cacophony of dancing girls, phoney self-sacrifice and melodramatic romance.' – Howard Barnes
'To be regretted beyond qualification. It whips the story into a nacreous foam of lies whose speciousness is only the more painful because Mr de Mille is so obviously free from any desire to alter the truth except for what he considers to be its own advantage.' – James Agee
'Close to the last word in honest understanding and convincing production.' – Motion Picture Herald

The Story of Esther Costello *

GB 1957 103m bw
Columbia/Romulus (James Woolf)
US title: The Golden Virgin
A blind Irish deaf mute girl is adopted by an American socialite and her plight becomes an international cause.
Rich melodrama develops from this unlikely premise and the star enjoys it hugely.
w Charles Kaufman novel Nicholas Monsarrat d David Miller ph Robert Krasker m Georges Auric
☆ Joan Crawford, Heather Sears, Rossano Brazzi, Ron Randell, Lee Patterson, Fay Compton, John Loder, Denis O'Dea, Sidney James, Maureen Delany
'A regular little Titus Andronicus, it abounds in fraud, embezzlement, suicide, murder and rape; all it wants is somebody baked in a pie.' – Dilys Powell
♉ Heather Sears

The Story of GI Joe **

US 1945 108m bw
(UA) Lester Cowan (David Hall)
aka: War Correspondent
Journalist Ernie Pyle follows fighting men into the Italian campaign.
Slow, convincing, sympathetic war film with good script and performances; not by any means the usual action saga.
w Leopold Atlas, Guy Endore, Philip Stevenson book Ernie Pyle d William A. Wellman ph Russell Metty m Ann Ronell, Louis Applebaum
☆ Burgess Meredith, Robert Mitchum, Freddie Steele, Wally Cassell, Jimmy Lloyd, Jack Reilly
'It is humorous, poignant and tragic, an earnestly human reflection of a stern life and the dignity of man.' – Thomas M. Pryor
'A tragic and eternal work of art.' – James Agee
'One of the best films of the war.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
♗ script; music score; song 'Linda' (m/ly Ann Ronell); Robert Mitchum

The Story of Gilbert and Sullivan *

GB 1953 109m Technicolor
British Lion/London Films (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)
US title: The Great Gilbert and Sullivan
In 1875 a young composer named Arthur Sullivan and a librettist named William Gilbert come together under the auspices of Rupert D'Oyly Carte and write the Savoy Operas.
Light, accurate, well-cast and well-produced Victorian musical which somehow fails to ignite despite the immense talent at hand.
w Sidney Gilliat, Leslie Bailey d Sidney Gilliat ph Christopher Challis md Sir Malcolm Sargent pd Hein Heckroth
☆ Robert Morley, Maurice Evans, Peter Finch, Eileen Herlie, Dinah Sheridan, Isabel Dean, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Muriel Aked
'It is like a sound radio scrapbook, combined with a television passing show. It is bright, swift and bitty; faintly sentimental, enormously good-natured.' – C. A. Lejeune

The Story of Louis Pasteur **

US 1936 85m bw
Warner/Cosmopolitan (Henry Blanke)
How the eminent 19th-century French scientist overcomes obstacles in finding cures for various diseases.
Adequate biopic which caused a sensation and started a trend; some of the others were better but this was the first example of Hollywood bringing schoolbook history to box-office life.
w Sheridan Gibney, Pierre Collings d William Dieterle ph Tony Gaudio m Bernhard Kaun, Heinz Roemheld
☆ Paul Muni, Josephine Hutchinson, Anita Louise, Donald Woods, Fritz Leiber, Henry O'Neill, Porter Hall, Akim Tamiroff, Walter Kingsford
'Probably limited b.o. but a creditable prestige picture.' – Variety
'What should be vital and arresting has been made hollow and dull ... we are tendered something that is bright and stagey for something out of life.' – Otis Ferguson
'More exciting than any gangster melodrama.' – C. A. Lejeune
♟ original story; screenplay; Paul Muni
♗ best picture

'Men and their women from the beginning of creation! Never so vast an undertaking!'

The Story of Mankind

US 1957 100m Technicolor
Warner/Cambridge (Irwin Allen)
A heavenly tribunal debates whether to allow man to destroy himself, and both the Devil and the Spirit of Man cite instances from history.
Hilarious charade, one of the worst films ever made, but full of surprises, bad performances, and a wide range of stock shots.
w Irwin Allen, Charles Bennett book Hendrik Van Loon d Irwin Allen ph Nicholas Musuraca m Paul Sawtell
☆ Ronald Colman, Vincent Price, Cedric Hardwicke, the Marx Brothers, Hedy Lamarr, Agnes Moorehead, Reginald Gardiner, Peter Lorre, Virginia Mayo, Charles Coburn, Francis X. Bushman
'A poor excuse to use a batch of available actors in some of the weirdest casting ever committed.' – Newsweek
'The script was bad to begin with and it worsened with daily changes. I remember one puzzled visitor asking Ronnie Colman, "Is this picture based on a book?", and he replied in that beautiful soft diction of his, "Yes. But they're only using the notes on the dust jacket."' – Vincent Price

The Story of Qiu Ju ***

China/Hong Kong 1992 100m colour
Sil-Metropole/Beijing Film Academy Youth Film Studio (Ma Fung Kwok)
The pregnant wife of a peasant appeals to higher authorities to force the village headman to apologize for injuring her husband.
Less flamboyant than the director's previous films, this takes a documentary-style approach to the story of a woman determined that principles must be upheld whatever the cost.
w Liu Heng novel Chen Yuanbin d Zhang Yimou ph Chi Xiaoning, Yu Xiaoqun m Zhao Jiping ad Cao Jiuping ed Du Yuan
☆ Gong Li (Wan Qiu Ju), Lei Laosheng (Wan Shantung, Village Head), Liu Peiqi (Wan Qing Lai, Husband), Yang Liuchun (Meizi)
'This simple, repetitive tale has a mesmerizing quality able to hook audiences from beginning to end.' – Variety
† The film won the Golden Lion award for best film and Gong Li won the award for best actress at the 1992 Venice Film Festival.

The Story of Robin Hood and his Merrie Men

GB 1952 84m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Perce Pearce)
When Prince John starts a ruthless taxation campaign, Robert Fitzooth turns outlaw.
Fairly competent but quite forgettable version of the legend, softened for children.
w Lawrence E. Watkin d Ken Annakin ph Guy Green m Clifton Parker
☆ Richard Todd, Joan Rice, James Hayter, Hubert Gregg, James Robertson Justice, Martita Hunt, Peter Finch

The Story of Ruth

US 1960 132m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)
Ruth becomes the favourite of a pagan king but eventually flees to Israel.
Tedious, portentous bible-in-pictures, of virtually no interest or entertainment value.
w Norman Corwin d Henry Koster ph Arthur E. Arling m Franz Waxman
☆ Elana Eden, Peggy Wood, Viveca Lindfors, Stuart Whitman, Tom Tryon, Jeff Morrow, Thayer David, Eduard Franz

The Story of Seabiscuit

US 1949 98m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)
GB title: Pride of Kentucky
The success story of a racehorse.
Blue grass vapidities, the kind of family entertainment that drove the families away.
w John Taintor Foote d David Butler ph Wilfrid Cline md David Buttolph
☆ Shirley Temple, Barry Fitzgerald, Lon McCallister, Rosemary de Camp, Donald McBride, Pierre Watkin

The Story of Shirley Yorke

GB 1948 92m bw
Nettlefold
A nobleman tries to blame his wife's nurse for her death by poison.
Lethargic version of a play previously filmed as Lord Camber's Ladies (qv).
w A. R. Rawlinson, Maclean Rogers and Kathleen Butler play The Case of Lady Camber by H. A. Vachell d Maclean Rogers
☆ Derek Farr, Dinah Sheridan, Margaretta Scott, John Robinson, Barbara Couper, Valentine Dyall

The Story of Temple Drake *

US 1933 71m bw
Paramount (Ben Glazer)
A neurotic Southern flapper is abducted by gangsters, and likes it.
Deliberately shocking melodrama of its time, restructured from a notorious book later filmed under its own title. Very dated, but interesting.
w Oliver H. P. Garrett novel Sanctuary by William Faulkner d Stephen Roberts ph Karl Struss

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · ♟ Academy Award · ♗ Academy Award nomination · ♉ BAFTA

☆ Miriam Hopkins, Jack La Rue, William Gargan, William Collier Jnr, Irving Pichel, Guy Standing, Elizabeth Patterson, Florence Eldridge

'Under Haysian ban the title of the novel can't be ballyhooed, but any whispering campaign about this is the picture's best b.o. asset. It has little else to commend it.' – Variety

'Some fairy tales are true... some legends are real.'

The Story of the Weeping Camel ★★

Germany 2003 90m colour
HFF Munich/Bayerischer Rundfunk (Tobias N. Siebert)

When a newly born camel is rejected by its mother, a Mongolian family, living in the Gobi desert, try many methods to get her to accept her offspring..

Charming semi-documentary of nomadic life, though it doesn't explain enough to be entirely satisfying.

wd Byambasuren Davaa, Luigi Falorni ph Luigi Falorni m Marcel Leniz ed Anja Poh

☆ Janchiv Ayurzana, Chimed Ohin, Amgaabazar Gonson, Zeveljamz Nyam, Ikhbayar Amgaabazar, Odgerel Ayisch

'One of those magical documentaries that make you wonder how on earth they managed to film it.' – James Christopher, Times

documentary

The Story of Three Loves

US 1953 122m Technicolor
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

Three love stories concerning the passengers on a transatlantic liner.

Three bits of old-fashioned kitsch, one tragic, one whimsical, one melodramatic, all rather slow and dull though well produced.

w John Collier, Jan Lustig, George Froeschel d Gottfried Reinhardt, Vincente Minnelli ph Charles Rosher, Harold Rosson m Miklos Rozsa ad Cedric Gibbons, Preston Ames, Edward Carfagno, Gabriel Scognamillo

☆ Ethel Barrymore, James Mason, Moira Shearer, Pier Angeli, Leslie Caron, Kirk Douglas, Farley Granger, Agnes Moorehead, Zsa Zsa Gabor

art direction

The Story of Us

US 1999 94m DeLuxe
Warner/Castle Rock (Rob Reiner, Alan Zweibel, Jessie Nelson)

After 15 years of marriage and two children, a writer and his wife, a crossword compiler, decide to try a trial separation.

There's little sign of strain in the relationship Reiner shows us, so the ending will come as no surprise; but there's hardly any sign of pleasure, either, so the story is of the soporific bedtime sort.

w Alan Zweibel, Jessie Nelson d Rob Reiner ph Michael Chapman m Eric Clapton, Mark Shaiman pd Lilly Kilvert ed Robert Leighton, Alan Edward Bell

☆ Bruce Willis (Ben Jordan), Michelle Pfeiffer (Katie Jordan), Rob Reiner (Stan), Tim Matheson (Marty), Rita Wilson (Rachel), Paul Reiser (Dave), Julie Hagerty (Liza), Colleen Rennison (Erin), Jake Sandvig (Josh), Jayne Meadows (Dot), Tom Poston (Harry), Betty White (Lillian), Red Buttons (Arnie)

'As an ode to the ups and downs of middle-aged marriage, this arthritic suburban story is enough to make single people want to file for divorce.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle ★★

US 1939 93m bw
RKO (George Haight, Pandro S. Berman)

The story of a husband and wife dance team who had their first success in Paris and became influential international celebrities before he was killed as a flyer in World War I.

Pleasant understated musical with very agreeable dance sequences and a firm overall style. The last of the main stream of Astaire–Rogers musicals.

w Richard Sherman, Oscar Hammerstein II, Dorothy Yost books Irene Castle d H. C. Potter ph Robert de Grasse md Victor Baravalle ch Hermes Pan ad Van Nest Polglase

☆ Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Edna May Oliver, Walter Brennan, Lew Fields, Etienne Girardot, Donald MacBride

'One of the best Astaire-Rogers musicals ... a wealth of nostalgic appeal.' – Variety

† The title was devised and insisted on by Mrs Castle.

The Story of Will Rogers

US 1950 109m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Arthur)

A wild west performer becomes a Ziegfeld star and pop philosopher.

Bland, unshaped biopic of one of American show business's best loved figures, who died in an air crash in 1935.

w Frank Davis, Stanley Roberts d Michael Curtiz ph Wilfrid M. Cline md Victor Young

☆ Will Rogers Jnr, Jane Wyman, James Gleason, Eddie Cantor (as himself), Carl Benton Reid

The Story on Page One

US 1960 123m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Company of Artists (Jerry Wald)

A lawyer undertakes the defence of a woman who with her lover is charged with the murder of her husband.

Long-drawn-out and not very interesting courtroom drama, performed and presented with some style.

wd Clifford Odets ph James Wong Howe m Elmer Bernstein

☆ Rita Hayworth, Tony Franciosa, Gig Young, Mildred Dunnock, Hugh Griffith, Sanford Meisner, Alfred Ryder

Storytelling ★★

US 2001 87m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Killer Films/Good Machine (Ted Hope, Christine Vachon)

Fiction: a creative writing student writes a story, about her seduction by the course's teacher, which her fellow student dismiss; Nonfiction: a would-be documentary director makes a film about a rich teenager and his dysfunctional family.

Part apologia for Solondz's own satiricial methods, part an investigation of the purpose of stories and their relationship with truth, and the way reality can be manipulated, this is a clever, sardonic, if somewhat heartless, pleasure.

wd Todd Solondz ph Frederick Elmes m Belle & Sebastian, Nathan Larson pd James Chinlund ed Alan Oxman

☆ Selma Blair (Vi), Leo Fitzpatrick (Marcus), Aleksa Palladino (Catherine), Robert Wisdom (Gary Scott), Noah Fleiss (Brady Livingston), Paul Giamatti (Toby Oxman), John Goodman (Marty Livingston), Julie Hagerty (Fern Livingston), Lupe Ontiveros (Consuelo), Jonathan Osser (Mikey Livingston), Franka Potente (Editor)

'Worth taking seriously, a task only slightly impeded by the fact that it's awfully funny. And I do mean awfully.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'It's bile, pure and simple. Solondz has devolved from an interesting filmmaker with a wicked sensibility to a bitter, monotonous solipsist bent on convincing the world that growing up in the suburbs is poopy.' – Shawn Levy, Oregonian

'A candidate's private moment can all too quickly become public record.'

Storyville

US 1992 113m CFI color
Spelling/Davis (David Roe, Edward R. Pressman)

A rich young lawyer running for Congress and trying to discover why his father killed himself finds himself caught up in scandal and murder.

Overheated and muddled story of corruption with a narrative that depends on its central character behaving extremely stupidly throughout; an audience with any sense will keep well away.

w Mark Frost, Lee Reynolds novel Juryman by Frank Galbally and Robert Macklin d Mark Frost ph Ron Garcia m Carter Burwell pd Richard Hoover ed B. J. Sears

☆ James Spader, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Jason Robards, Charlotte Lewis, Michael Warren, Michael Parks, Chuck McCann, Charlie Haid, Chino Fats Williams, Woody Strode, Jeff Perry, Piper Laurie

'A straightforward and lacklustre potboiler, composed of disparate elements with little dynamic coherence.' – Sight and Sound

Stowaway ★

US 1936 86m bw
TCF (Earl Carroll, Harold Wilson)

The orphan daughter of a Shanghai missionary stows away on an American pleasure ship.

Very good star vehicle in which Shirley performs some of her best musical numbers.

w William Conselman, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin d William A. Seiter ph Arthur Miller md Louis Silvers songs Mack Gordon, Harry Revel

☆ Shirley Temple, Robert Young, Alice Faye, Eugene Pallette, Helen Westley, Arthur Treacher, J. Edward Bromberg, Astrid Allwyn

'No exhib worrying necessary for this one.' – Variety

Stowaway Girl: see Manuela

La Strada ★★★★

Italy 1954 94m bw
Ponti/de Laurentiis

aka: The Road

A half-witted peasant girl is sold to an itinerant strong man and ill-used by him.

Curious attempt at a kind of poetic neo-realism, saved by style and performances. Masina's delicate, clown-like performance, hovering between laughter and tears, brings true and moving emotion to the film's themes of loneliness and of a woman's suffering redeeming a brutal man.

w Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli d Federico Fellini ph Otello Martelli m Nino Rota ad Mario Ravasco, E. Cervelli ed Leo Catozzo, Lina Caterini

☆ Giulietta Masina (Gelsomina), Anthony Quinn (Zampano), Richard Basehart (Matto "The Fool")

best foreign film

script

Straight on Till Morning

GB 1972 96m Technicolor
EMI/Hammer (Roy Skeggs)

A Liverpool girl in London meets a dangerous psychotic.

Unattractive suspenser, wildly directed.

w Michael Peacock d Peter Collinson ph Brian Probyn m Roland Shaw

☆ Rita Tushingham, Shane Briant, Tom Bell, Annie Ross, James Bolam

Straight out of Brooklyn

US 1991 83m colour
Artificial Eye/Blacks N'Progress/American Playhouse (Matty Rich)

Determined to escape the poverty that has engulfed his hard-working mother and drunken father, a young black man persuades his friends to rob some local hoodlums.

Interesting first feature of ghetto life from a teenaged director.

wd Matty Rich ph John Rosnell m Harold Wheeler ad Walter Meade ed Jack Haigis

☆ George T. Odom, Ann D. Sanders, Lawrence Gilliard Jnr, Barbara Sanon, Reana E. Drummond, Matty Rich, Mark Malone

'Not a glittering debut, but it does have a low-budget, first-time energy which sets it apart from much mainstream work.' – Michael O'Pray, Sight and Sound

'Rudimentary in every way, from writing to acting to camerawork, and covers all-too-familiar ground with no particular flair.' – Variety

Straight, Place and Show ★

US 1938 66m bw
TCF
GB title: They're Off

Three pony-ride proprietors impersonate Russian jockeys to save a race.

Lively, unpretentious vehicle for three zanies, with a further bonus in its lead singer.

w M. M. Musselman, Allen Rivkin play Damon Runyon, Irving Caesar d David Butler

☆ The Ritz Brothers, Ethel Merman, Richard Arlen, Phyllis Brooks, George Barbier, Sidney Blackmer

The Straight Story ★★★

France/US 1999 111m FotoKem 'Scope
Buena Vista/Les Films Alain Sarde/Canal+/Picture Factory (Alain Sarde, Mary Sweeney, Neal Edelstein)

An elderly widower makes a 300 mile trip to see his ailing brother on the only transport available to him, a lawn mower.

A gentle, folksy road movie that takes its time but establishes a mood of quiet enjoyment for simple pleasures, mixed with a little regret for some past events; Farnsworth epitomises a man who knows his own worth and that of the others he meets on his journey.

w John Roach, Mary Sweeney d David Lynch ph Freddie Francis m Angelo

w Nicholas Mosley novel Impossible Object by Nicholas Mosley d John Frankenheimer ph Claude Renoir m Michel Legrand pd Alexandre Trauner ed Albert Jurgenson
☆ Alan Bates, Dominique Sanda, Michel Auclair, Evans Evans, Paul Crauchet, Lea Massari, Vernon Dobtcheff
† The film never received a cinema release.

The Story of a Woman

US/Italy 1969 101m Technicolor
Universal/Westward (Leonardo Bercovici)
A Swedish girl pianist in Rome falls in love with a fashionable doctor, then back in Sweden meets an American diplomat.
Intermezzo-type romantic drama with colour supplement trappings. Tolerable of its kind.
wd Leonardo Bercovici ph Piero Portalupi m John Williams
☆ Robert Stack, Bibi Andersson, James Farentino, Annie Girardot, Frank Sundstrom

The Story of Adèle H *

France 1975 98m Eastmancolor
Films du Carrosse/Artistes Associés (Marcel Berbert, Claude Miller)
In 1863, the daughter of Victor Hugo follows her lover to Nova Scotia.
Surprisingly slow and stilted version of a true story, though with a few of the expected subtleties.
w François Truffaut, Jean Gruault, Suzanne Schiffman d François Truffaut ph Nestor Almendros m Maurice Jaubert
☆ Isabelle Adjani, Bruce Robinson, Sylvia Marriott
Isabelle Adjani

'America's most thrilling story! Of love so great and faith so strong that it inspired this man to endure ridicule, privation and hunger – to achieve the miracle of wings for the human voice!'

The Story of Alexander Graham Bell **

US 1939 97m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)
GB title: The Modern Miracle
The inventor of the telephone marries a deaf girl.
Acceptable history lesson with dullish principals but excellent production.
w Lamar Trotti d Irving Cummings
ph Leon Shamroy m Louis Silvers
☆ Don Ameche, Henry Fonda, Loretta Young, Charles Coburn, Gene Lockhart, Spring Byington, Bobs Watson
'Production will need teasing to get the women.' – Variety

The Story of Dr Ehrlich's Magic Bullet: see Dr Ehrlich's Magic Bullet

The Story of Dr Wassell *

US 1944 140m Technicolor
Paramount/Cecil B. de Mille
The adventures of a naval doctor who heroically saved men during the Pacific war.
Long, slogging, glamorized account of real events which is typical de Mille and very unconvincing physically, but keeps one watching simply as a story.
w Alan le May, Charles Bennett book James Hilton d Cecil B. de Mille ph Victor Milner, William Snyder m Victor Young
☆ Gary Cooper, Laraine Day, Signe Hasso, Dennis O'Keefe, Carol Thurston, Carl Esmond, Paul Kelly, Stanley Ridges
'The director has taken a true story of heroism ... and jangled it into a cacophony of dancing girls, phoney self-sacrifice and melodramatic romance.' – Howard Barnes
'To be regretted beyond qualification. It whips the story into a nacreous foam of lies whose speciousness is only the more painful because Mr de Mille is so obviously free from any desire to alter the truth except for what he considers to be its own advantage.' – James Agee
'Close to the last word in honest understanding and convincing production.' – Motion Picture Herald

The Story of Esther Costello *

GB 1957 103m bw
Columbia/Romulus (James Woolf)
US title: The Golden Virgin
A blind Irish deaf mute girl is adopted by an American socialite and her plight becomes an international cause.
Rich melodrama develops from this unlikely premise and the star enjoys it hugely.
w Charles Kaufman novel Nicholas Monsarrat d David Miller ph Robert Krasker m Georges Auric
☆ Joan Crawford, Heather Sears, Rossano Brazzi, Ron Randell, Lee Patterson, Fay Compton, John Loder, Denis O'Dea, Sidney James, Maureen Delany
'A regular little Titus Andronicus, it abounds in fraud, embezzlement, suicide, murder and rape; all it wants is somebody baked in a pie.' – Dilys Powell
Heather Sears

The Story of GI Joe **

US 1945 108m bw
(UA) Lester Cowan (David Hall)
aka: War Correspondent
Journalist Ernie Pyle follows fighting men into the Italian campaign.
Slow, convincing, sympathetic war film with good script and performances; not by any means the usual action saga.
w Leopold Atlas, Guy Endore, Philip Stevenson book Ernie Pyle d William A. Wellman ph Russell Metty m Ann Ronell, Louis Applebaum
☆ Burgess Meredith, Robert Mitchum, Freddie Steele, Wally Cassell, Jimmy Lloyd, Jack Reilly
'It is humorous, poignant and tragic, an earnestly human reflection of a stern life and the dignity of man.' – Thomas M. Pryor
'A tragic and eternal work of art.' – James Agee
'One of the best films of the war.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
script; music score; song 'Linda' (m/ly Ann Ronell); Robert Mitchum

The Story of Gilbert and Sullivan *

GB 1953 109m Technicolor
British Lion/London Films (Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat)
US title: The Great Gilbert and Sullivan
In 1875 a young composer named Arthur Sullivan and a librettist named William Gilbert come together under the auspices of Rupert D'Oyly Carte and write the Savoy Operas.
Light, accurate, well-cast and well-produced Victorian musical which somehow fails to ignite despite the immense talent at hand.
w Sidney Gilliat, Leslie Bailey d Sidney Gilliat ph Christopher Challis md Sir Malcolm Sargent pd Hein Heckroth
☆ Robert Morley, Maurice Evans, Peter Finch, Eileen Herlie, Dinah Sheridan, Isabel Dean, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Muriel Aked
'It is like a sound radio scrapbook, combined with a television passing show. It is bright, swift and bitty; faintly sentimental, enormously good-natured.' – C. A. Lejeune

The Story of Louis Pasteur **

US 1936 85m bw
Warner/Cosmopolitan (Henry Blanke)
How the eminent 19th-century French scientist overcomes obstacles in finding cures for various diseases.
Adequate biopic which caused a sensation and started a trend; some of the others were better but this was the first example of Hollywood bringing schoolbook history to box-office life.
w Sheridan Gibney, Pierre Collings d William Dieterle ph Tony Gaudio m Bernhard Kaun, Heinz Roemheld
☆ Paul Muni, Josephine Hutchinson, Anita Louise, Donald Woods, Fritz Leiber, Henry O'Neill, Porter Hall, Akim Tamiroff, Walter Kingsford
'Probably limited b.o. but a creditable prestige picture.' – Variety
'What should be vital and arresting has been made hollow and dull ... we are tendered something that is bright and stagey for something out of life.' – Otis Ferguson
'More exciting than any gangster melodrama.' – C. A. Lejeune
original story; screenplay; Paul Muni
best picture

'Men and their women from the beginning of creation! Never so vast an undertaking!'

The Story of Mankind

US 1957 100m Technicolor
Warner/Cambridge (Irwin Allen)
A heavenly tribunal debates whether to allow man to destroy himself, and both the Devil and the Spirit of Man cite instances from history.
Hilarious charade, one of the worst films ever made, but full of surprises, bad performances, and a wide range of stock shots.
w Irwin Allen, Charles Bennett book Hendrik Van Loon d Irwin Allen ph Nicholas Musuraca m Paul Sawtell
☆ Ronald Colman, Vincent Price, Cedric Hardwicke, the Marx Brothers, Hedy Lamarr, Agnes Moorehead, Reginald Gardiner, Peter Lorre, Virginia Mayo, Charles Coburn, Francis X. Bushman
'A poor excuse to use a batch of available actors in some of the weirdest casting ever committed.' – Newsweek
'The script was bad to begin with and it worsened with daily changes. I remember one puzzled visitor asking Ronnie Colman, "Is this picture based on a book?", and he replied in that beautiful soft diction of his, "Yes. But they're only using the notes on the dust jacket."' – Vincent Price

The Story of Qiu Ju ***

China/Hong Kong 1992 100m colour
Sil-Metropole/Beijing Film Academy Youth Film Studio (Ma Fung Kwok)
The pregnant wife of a peasant appeals to higher authorities to force the village headman to apologize for injuring her husband.
Less flamboyant than the director's previous films, this takes a documentary-style approach to the story of a woman determined that principles must be upheld whatever the cost.
w Liu Heng novel Chen Yuanbin d Zhang Yimou ph Chi Xiaoning, Yu Xiaoqun m Zhao Jiping ad Cao Jiuping ed Du Yuan
☆ Gong Li (Wan Qiu Ju), Lei Laosheng (Wan Shantung, Village Head), Liu Peiqi (Wan Qing Lai, Husband), Yang Liuchun (Meizi)
'This simple, repetitive tale has a mesmerizing quality able to hook audiences from beginning to end.' – Variety
† The film won the Golden Lion award for best film and Gong Li won the award for best actress at the 1992 Venice Film Festival.

The Story of Robin Hood and his Merrie Men

GB 1952 84m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Perce Pearce)
When Prince John starts a ruthless taxation campaign, Robert Fitzooth turns outlaw.
Fairly competent but quite forgettable version of the legend, softened for children.
w Lawrence E. Watkin d Ken Annakin ph Guy Green m Clifton Parker
☆ Richard Todd, Joan Rice, James Hayter, Hubert Gregg, James Robertson Justice, Martita Hunt, Peter Finch

The Story of Ruth

US 1960 132m DeLuxe Cinemascope
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)
Ruth becomes the favourite of a pagan king but eventually flees to Israel.
Tedious, portentous bible-in-pictures, of virtually no interest or entertainment value.
w Norman Corwin d Henry Koster ph Arthur E. Arling m Franz Waxman
☆ Elana Eden, Peggy Wood, Viveca Lindfors, Stuart Whitman, Tom Tryon, Jeff Morrow, Thayer David, Eduard Franz

The Story of Seabiscuit

US 1949 98m Technicolor
Warner (William Jacobs)
GB title: Pride of Kentucky
The success story of a racehorse.
Blue grass vapidities, the kind of family entertainment that drove the families away.
w John Taintor Foote d David Butler ph Wilfrid Cline md David Buttolph
☆ Shirley Temple, Barry Fitzgerald, Lon McCallister, Rosemary de Camp, Donald McBride, Pierre Watkin

The Story of Shirley Yorke

GB 1948 92m bw
Nettlefold
A nobleman tries to blame his wife's nurse for her death by poison.
Lethargic version of a play previously filmed as Lord Camber's Ladies (qv).
w A. R. Rawlinson, Maclean Rogers and Kathleen Butler play The Case of Lady Camber by H. A. Vachell d Maclean Rogers
☆ Derek Farr, Dinah Sheridan, Margaretta Scott, John Robinson, Barbara Couper, Valentine Dyall

The Story of Temple Drake *

US 1933 71m bw
Paramount (Ben Glazer)
A neurotic Southern flapper is abducted by gangsters, and likes it.
Deliberately shocking melodrama of its time, restructured from a notorious book later filmed under its own title. Very dated, but interesting.
w Oliver H. P. Garrett novel Sanctuary by William Faulkner d Stephen Roberts ph Karl Struss

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

☆ Miriam Hopkins, Jack La Rue, William Gargan, William Collier Jnr, Irving Pichel, Guy Standing, Elizabeth Patterson, Florence Eldridge

'Under Haysian ban the title of the novel can't be ballyhooed, but any whispering campaign about this is the picture's best b.o. asset. It has little else to commend it.' – Variety

'Some fairy tales are true... some legends are real.'

The Story of the Weeping Camel ★★

Germany 2003 90m colour
HFF Munich/Bayerischer Rundfunk (Tobias N. Siebert)

When a newly born camel is rejected by its mother, a Mongolian family, living in the Gobi desert, try many methods to get her to accept her offspring..

Charming semi-documentary of nomadic life, though it doesn't explain enough to be entirely satisfying.

wd Byambasuren Davaa, Luigi Falorni ph Luigi Falorni m Marcel Leniz ed Anja Poh

☆ Janchiv Ayurzana, Chimed Ohin, Amgaabazar Gonson, Zeveljamz Nyam, Ikhbayar Amgaabazar, Odgerel Ayisch

'One of those magical documentaries that make you wonder how on earth they managed to film it.' – James Christopher, Times

documentary

The Story of Three Loves

US 1953 122m Technicolor
MGM (Sidney Franklin)

Three love stories concerning the passengers on a transatlantic liner.

Three bits of old-fashioned kitsch, one tragic, one whimsical, one melodramatic, all rather slow and dull though well produced.

w John Collier, Jan Lustig, George Froeschel d Gottfried Reinhardt, Vincente Minnelli ph Charles Rosher, Harold Rosson m Miklos Rozsa ad Cedric Gibbons, Preston Ames, Edward Carfagno, Gabriel Scognamillo

☆ Ethel Barrymore, James Mason, Moira Shearer, Pier Angeli, Leslie Caron, Kirk Douglas, Farley Granger, Agnes Moorehead, Zsa Zsa Gabor

art direction

The Story of Us

US 1999 94m DeLuxe
Warner/Castle Rock (Rob Reiner, Alan Zweibel, Jessie Nelson)

After 15 years of marriage and two children, a writer and his wife, a crossword compiler, decide to try a trial separation.

There's little sign of strain in the relationship Reiner shows us, so the ending will come as no surprise; but there's hardly any sign of pleasure, either, so the story is of the soporific bedtime sort.

w Alan Zweibel, Jessie Nelson d Rob Reiner ph Michael Chapman m Eric Clapton, Mark Shaiman pd Lilly Kilvert ed Robert Leighton, Alan Edward Bell

☆ Bruce Willis (Ben Jordan), Michelle Pfeiffer (Katie Jordan), Rob Reiner (Stan), Tim Matheson (Marty), Rita Wilson (Rachel), Paul Reiser (Dave), Julie Hagerty (Liza), Colleen Rennison (Erin), Jake Sandvig (Josh), Jayne Meadows (Dot), Tom Poston (Harry), Betty White (Lillian), Red Buttons (Arnie)

'As an ode to the ups and downs of middle-aged marriage, this arthritic suburban story is enough to make single people want to file for divorce.' – Janet Maslin, New York Times

The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle ★★

US 1939 93m bw
RKO (George Haight, Pandro S. Berman)

The story of a husband and wife dance team who had their first success in Paris and became influential international celebrities before he was killed as a flyer in World War I.

Pleasant understated musical with very agreeable dance sequences and a firm overall style. The last of the main stream of Astaire–Rogers musicals.

w Richard Sherman, Oscar Hammerstein II, Dorothy Yost books Irene Castle d H. C. Potter ph Robert de Grasse md Victor Baravalle ch Hermes Pan ad Van Nest Polglase

☆ Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Edna May Oliver, Walter Brennan, Lew Fields, Etienne Girardot, Donald MacBride

'One of the best Astaire-Rogers musicals ... a wealth of nostalgic appeal.' – Variety

† The title was devised and insisted on by Mrs Castle.

The Story of Will Rogers

US 1950 109m Technicolor
Warner (Robert Arthur)

A wild west performer becomes a Ziegfeld star and pop philosopher.

Bland, unshaped biopic of one of American show business's best loved figures, who died in an air crash in 1935.

w Frank Davis, Stanley Roberts d Michael Curtiz ph Wilfrid M. Cline md Victor Young

☆ Will Rogers Jnr, Jane Wyman, James Gleason, Eddie Cantor (as himself), Carl Benton Reid

The Story on Page One

US 1960 123m bw Cinemascope
TCF/Company of Artists (Jerry Wald)

A lawyer undertakes the defence of a woman who with her lover is charged with the murder of her husband.

Long-drawn-out and not very interesting courtroom drama, performed and presented with some style.

wd Clifford Odets ph James Wong Howe m Elmer Bernstein

☆ Rita Hayworth, Tony Franciosa, Gig Young, Mildred Dunnock, Hugh Griffith, Sanford Meisner, Alfred Ryder

Storytelling ★★

US 2001 87m DeLuxe
Entertainment/Killer Films/Good Machine (Ted Hope, Christine Vachon)

Fiction: a creative writing student writes a story, about her seduction by the course's teacher, which her fellow student dismiss; Nonfiction: a would-be documentary director makes a film about a rich teenager and his dysfunctional family.

Part apologia for Solondz's own satiricial methods, part an investigation of the purpose of stories and their relationship with truth, and the way reality can be manipulated, this is a clever, sardonic, if somewhat heartless, pleasure.

wd Todd Solondz ph Frederick Elmes m Belle & Sebastian, Nathan Larson pd James Chinlund ed Alan Oxman

☆ Selma Blair (Vi), Leo Fitzpatrick (Marcus), Aleksa Palladino (Catherine), Robert Wisdom (Gary Scott), Noah Fleiss (Brady Livingston), Paul Giamatti (Toby Oxman), John Goodman (Marty Livingston), Julie Hagerty (Fern Livingston), Lupe Ontiveros (Consuelo), Jonathan Osser (Mikey Livingston), Franka Potente (Editor)

'Worth taking seriously, a task only slightly impeded by the fact that it's awfully funny. And I do mean awfully.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

'It's bile, pure and simple. Solondz has devolved from an interesting filmmaker with a wicked sensibility to a bitter, monotonous solipsist bent on convincing the world that growing up in the suburbs is poopy.' – Shawn Levy, Oregonian

'A candidate's private moment can all too quickly become public record.'

Storyville

US 1992 113m CFI color
Spelling/Davis (David Roe, Edward R. Pressman)

A rich young lawyer running for Congress and trying to discover why his father killed himself finds himself caught up in scandal and murder.

Overheated and muddled story of corruption with a narrative that depends on its central character behaving extremely stupidly throughout; an audience with any sense will keep well away.

w Mark Frost, Lee Reynolds novel Juryman by Frank Galbally and Robert Macklin d Mark Frost ph Ron Garcia m Carter Burwell pd Richard Hoover ed B. J. Sears

☆ James Spader, Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Jason Robards, Charlotte Lewis, Michael Warren, Michael Parks, Chuck McCann, Charlie Haid, Chino Fats Williams, Woody Strode, Jeff Perry, Piper Laurie

'A straightforward and lacklustre potboiler, composed of disparate elements with little dynamic coherence.' – Sight and Sound

Stowaway ★

US 1936 86m bw
TCF (Earl Carroll, Harold Wilson)

The orphan daughter of a Shanghai missionary stows away on an American pleasure ship.

Very good star vehicle in which Shirley performs some of her best musical numbers.

w William Conselman, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin d William A. Seiter ph Arthur Miller md Louis Silvers songs Mack Gordon, Harry Revel

☆ Shirley Temple, Robert Young, Alice Faye, Eugene Pallette, Helen Westley, Arthur Treacher, J. Edward Bromberg, Astrid Allwyn

'No exhib worrying necessary for this one.' – Variety

Stowaway Girl: see Manuela

La Strada ★★★★

Italy 1954 94m bw
Ponti/de Laurentiis

aka: The Road

A half-witted peasant girl is sold to an itinerant strong man and ill-used by him.

Curious attempt at a kind of poetic neo-realism, saved by style and performances. Masina's delicate, clown-like performance, hovering between laughter and tears, brings true and moving emotion to the film's themes of loneliness and of a woman's suffering redeeming a brutal man.

w Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli d Federico Fellini ph Otello Martelli m Nino Rota ad Mario Ravasco, E. Cervelli ed Leo Catozzo, Lina Caterini

☆ Giulietta Masina (Gelsomina), Anthony Quinn (Zampano), Richard Basehart (Matto "The Fool")

best foreign film

script

Straight on Till Morning

GB 1972 96m Technicolor
EMI/Hammer (Roy Skeggs)

A Liverpool girl in London meets a dangerous psychotic.

Unattractive suspenser, wildly directed.

w Michael Peacock d Peter Collinson ph Brian Probyn m Roland Shaw

☆ Rita Tushingham, Shane Briant, Tom Bell, Annie Ross, James Bolam

Straight out of Brooklyn

US 1991 83m colour
Artificial Eye/Blacks N'Progress/American Playhouse (Matty Rich)

Determined to escape the poverty that has engulfed his hard-working mother and drunken father, a young black man persuades his friends to rob some local hoodlums.

Interesting first feature of ghetto life from a teenaged director.

wd Matty Rich ph John Rosnell m Harold Wheeler ad Walter Meade ed Jack Haigis

☆ George T. Odom, Ann D. Sanders, Lawrence Gilliard Jnr, Barbara Sanon, Reana E. Drummond, Matty Rich, Mark Malone

'Not a glittering debut, but it does have a low-budget, first-time energy which sets it apart from much mainstream work.' – Michael O'Pray, Sight and Sound

'Rudimentary in every way, from writing to acting to camerawork, and covers all-too-familiar ground with no particular flair.' – Variety

Straight, Place and Show ★

US 1938 66m bw
TCF
GB title: They're Off

Three pony-ride proprietors impersonate Russian jockeys to save a race.

Lively, unpretentious vehicle for three zanies, with a further bonus in its lead singer.

w M. M. Musselman, Allen Rivkin play Damon Runyon, Irving Caesar d David Butler

☆ The Ritz Brothers, Ethel Merman, Richard Arlen, Phyllis Brooks, George Barbier, Sidney Blackmer

The Straight Story ★★★

France/US 1999 111m FotoKem 'Scope
Buena Vista/Les Films Alain Sarde/Canal+/Picture Factory (Alain Sarde, Mary Sweeney, Neal Edelstein)

An elderly widower makes a 300 mile trip to see his ailing brother on the only transport available to him, a lawn mower.

A gentle, folksy road movie that takes its time but establishes a mood of quiet enjoyment for simple pleasures, mixed with a little regret for some past events; Farnsworth epitomises a man who knows his own worth and that of the others he meets on his journey.

w John Roach, Mary Sweeney d David Lynch ph Freddie Francis m Angelo

Badalamenti pd Jack Fisk ed Mary Sweeney
☆ Richard Farnsworth (Alvin Straight), Sissy Spacek (Rose), Jane Galloway Heitz (Dorothy), Everett McGill (Tom the Dealer), Jennifer Edwards-Hughes (Brenda), John Farley (Thorvald), John Lordan (Priest), Harry Dean Stanton (Lyle)
'A lyrical poem to America's vast land and country folks.' – Emanuel Levy, Variety
'This must be the strangest road movie ever made, but it is also one of the most lovable.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Times
♗ Richard Farnsworth

'Dreams do come true ... sometimes.'

Straight Talk
US 1992 91m Technicolor
Warner/Hollywood/Sandollar (Robert Chartoff, Fred Berner)
An Arkansas dance teacher goes to Chicago to become a TV agony aunt.
Mundane romantic comedy tailored to the personality of Dolly Parton.
w Craig Bolotin, Patricia Resnick d Barnet Kellman ph Peter Sova m Brad Fiedel pd Jeffrey Townsend ed Michael Tronick
☆ Dolly Parton, James Woods, Griffin Dunne, Michael Madsen, Deirdre O'Connell, John Sayles, Teri Hatcher, Spalding Gray, Jerry Orbach, Philip Bosco
'Glib but sunny romantic comedy should be a B.O. winner.' – Variety

Straight Time
US 1978 114m Technicolor
Warner/First Artist/Sweetwall (Stanley Beck, Tim Zinnemann)
A psychotic parolee fails to go straight.
Unappetizing social melodrama with an irresolute leading performance.
w Alvin Sargent, Edward Bunker, Jeffrey Boam novel No Beast So Fierce by Edward Bunker d Ulu Grosbard ph Owen Roizman m David Shire ☆ Dustin Hoffman, Theresa Russell, Gary Busey, Harry Dean Stanton
'One leaves the theatre hoping the character will die painfully and slowly in a hail of bullets.' – Variety

'A story of blood, money, guns, coffee, and sexual tension.'

Straight to Hell
GB 1987 86m colour
Island/Initial/Commies from Mars (Eric Fellner)
A gang of bank robbers hide out in a desert town inhabited by coffee-addicted eccentrics.
Punk rockers and the like play at spaghetti westerns, not very convincingly or interestingly, on an abandoned film set in Spain.
w Alex Cox, Dick Rude d Alex Cox ph Tom Richmond m The Pogues, Pray for Rain pd Andrew McAlpine ed Dave Martin ☆ Sy Richardson (Norwood), Joe Strummer (Simms), Dick Rude (Willy), Courtney Love (Velma), Zander Schloss (Karl), Del Zamora (Poncho), Jim Jarmusch (Mr Dade), Dennis Hopper (I G Farben), Grace Jones (Sonya)
'Simply a record of aimless behavior, of a crowd of pals asked to dress up like cowboys and mill about on a movie set.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'The weird-for-weird's-sake antics are unexciting and the black comedy is scanty.' – Desson Howe, Washington Post

'Let the Revenge fit the Crime.'

Straightheads ★
UK 2007 79m
Verve Pictures/FilmFour/Lumina Films/Free Range/Screen West Midlands (Damian Jones, Kevin Loader)
Two people who were victims of a brutal assault and rape take horrifying revenge on their attackers.
A stylish suspense drama with violent shock levels raising the tension bar to disturbingly vicious effect.
wd Dan Reed ph Chris Seager m Ilan Eshkeri pd Simon Bowles ad Ken White ed Ewa J. Lind sp Paul Hyett
☆ Gillian Anderson (Alice), Danny Dyer (Adam), Anthony Calf (Heffer), Antony Byrne (Misha), Ralph Brown (Jamie)
'Its mixture of sex, violence and a determination to shock gets more and more like parody as it progresses.' – Derek Malcolm, London Evening Standard

'Just keep saying to yourself – it's only a film, it's only a film!'

Strait Jacket
US 1963 92m bw
Columbia/William Castle
A woman who murdered her faithless husband with an axe is released twenty years later, and more axe murders occur.
Dull and unattractive shocker in which all concerned lean over backwards to conceal the trick ending.
w Robert Bloch d William Castle ph Arthur E. Arling m Van Alexander ☆ Joan Crawford, Diane Baker, Leif Erickson, Howard St John, Rochelle Hudson, George Kennedy

Stranded
US 1935 73m bw
Warner
A woman working for Traveller's Aid meets an old school beau.
Much ado about nothing, the kind of movie that loses stars their reputations.
w Delmer Daves, Carl Erickson, Frank Wead, Ferdinand Reyher d Frank Borzage ☆ Kay Francis, George Brent, Patricia Ellis, Donald Woods, Robert Barrat, Barton MacLane
'Limited chances.' – Variety

Stranded
Canada 1991 88m colour
Libra/Erin (Christian Bruyere)
A woman trying to save her marriage goes to stay with her husband in an isolated lighthouse, near where her sister died mysteriously.
Cheap, nasty and stupid thriller, of no conceivable interest to anyone.
w Boon Collins, Stanley Park, Dan Vining, Deborah Wakeham story Daniel D. Williams d Paul Tucker ph Tobias Schliessler m Michael Conway Baker pd Richard Wilcox ed Jana Fritsch
☆ Deborah Wakeham, Ryan Michael, Stephen E. Miller, Blu Mankuma, Gabrielle Rose, Ric Reid
† The copyright notice on the credits is apposite: 'Erin Features No. 1 Ltd. in Bankruptcy'.

Stranded in Paris: see Artists and Models Abroad

The Strange Adventure of David Gray: see Vampyr

The Strange Affair
GB 1968 106m Techniscope
Paramount (Howard Harrison, Stanley Mann)
A young London policeman finds that his superiors are almost as corrupt as the villains.
Stylishly made melodrama of despair, with a sexy nymphet heroine straight from swinging London. It all leaves a sour taste in the mouth.
w Stanley Mann novel Bernard Toms d David Greene ph Alex Thomson m Basil Kirchin
☆ Michael York, Jeremy Kemp, Susan George, Jack Watson, George A. Cooper

The Strange Affair of Uncle Harry
US 1945 82m bw
Universal (Joan Harrison)
aka: Uncle Harry
A man henpecked by his two sisters plans to murder one of them.
Stilted melodrama from an uninspired stage original, with a cop-out dream ending tacked on.
w Stephen Longstreet, Keith Winter play Thomas Job d Robert Siodmak ph Woody Bredell m Hans Salter
☆ George Sanders, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Ella Raines, Sara Allgood, Moyna MacGill, Samuel S. Hinds, Harry von Zell, Ethel Griffies

Strange Bargain
US 1949 68m bw
RKO (Sid Rogell)
A lowly bookkeeper finds himself accomplice in an insurance swindle.
Watchable second feature suspenser.
w Lillie Hayward d Will Price ph Harry J. Wild ☆ Jeffrey Lynn, Henry Morgan, Martha Scott, Katherine Emery, Richard Gaines, Henry O'Neill

Strange Bedfellows
US 1965 99m Technicolor
U-I/Panama-Frank (Melvin Frank)
An American executive in London nearly divorces his fiery Italian wife.
Frantic sex comedy with picture postcard background; fatiguing rather than funny, but with minor compensations.
w Melvin Frank, Michael Pertwee d Melvin Frank ph Leo Tover m Leigh Harline ☆ Rock Hudson, Gina Lollobrigida, Gig Young, Edward Judd, Howard St John, Arthur Haynes, Dave King, Terry-Thomas
'The grind of predictable situations is further afflicted by considerable lapses in taste.' – MFB

Strange Boarders ★
GB 1938 79m bw
GFD/Gainsborough (Edward Black)
A police detective postpones his honeymoon to book into a boarding house and discover which of the guests is a spy.
Quite engaging comedy-thriller in the Hitchcock mould, with entertaining performances and incidents.
w A. R. Rawlinson, Sidney Gilliat novel The Strange Boarders of Paradise Crescent by E. Phillips Oppenheim d Herbert Mason ph Jack Cox
☆ Tom Walls, Renee Saint-Cyr, Leon M. Lion, Googie Withers, C. V. France, Ronald Adam, Irene Handl, George Curzon, Martita Hunt

Strange Brew
US 1983 90m colour
MGM (Louis M. Silverstein)
Two dim-witted, beer-swilling Canadian brothers visit the Elsinore brewery in search of free drinks and, with the aid of some lunatics, thwart a plan to take over the world.
Offbeat but unamusing comedy, based on two characters from the SCTV Network television comedy series and borrowing much of its plot from Hamlet.
w Rick Moranis, Dave Thomas, Steven de Jarnatt d Dave Thomas, Rick Moranis ph Steven Poster m Charles Fox pd David L. Snyder ed Patrick McMahon
☆ Dave Thomas, Rick Moranis, Max von Sydow, Paul Dooley, Lynne Griffin, Angus MacInnes, Tom Harvey, Douglas Campbell

Strange Cargo ★
US 1940 105m bw
MGM (Joseph L. Mankiewicz)
Eight convicts escape from Devil's Island and are influenced by a Christ-like fugitive.
One of Hollywood's occasional lunacies; one doubts whether even the author knew the point of this cockamamy parable, but it was well produced and acted.
w Lawrence Hazard novel Not Too Narrow, Not Too Deep by Richard Sale d Frank Borzage ph Robert Planck m Franz Waxman
☆ Clark Gable, Joan Crawford, Ian Hunter, Peter Lorre, Paul Lukas, Albert Dekker, J. Edward Bromberg, Eduardo Ciannelli, Frederick Worlock
'Even the most hardened mystics may blush.' – New Yorker, 1978

The Strange Case of Clara Deane
US 1932 60m bw
Paramount
A young mother is unjustly convicted of a crime which she didn't commit and bids a tearful farewell to her child Hilariously inept and theatrical rendering of a very outmoded play.
w Max Marcin play Arthur M. Brillant d Louis Gasnier, Max Marcin ☆ Wynne Gibson, Pat O'Brien, Frances Dee, Dudley Digges
'Strictly for the minors where the clientele is elderly and naive.' – Variety

The Strange Case of Doctor RX
US 1942 66m bw
Universal
A mysterious murderer eliminates criminals whom the law can't touch.
Inept semi-horror which wastes a good cast, as did the same author's Night Monster.
w Clarence Upson Young d William Nigh
☆ Lionel Atwill, Patric Knowles, Anne Gwynne, Samuel S. Hinds, Shemp Howard, Mona Barrie, Paul Cavanagh, Mantan Moreland

Strange Confession: see The Imposter

Strange Conquest: see The Crime of Dr Hallet

Strange Conspiracy: see The President Vanishes

'You know you want it.'

Strange Days ★
US 1995 145m DeLuxe Panavision
UIP/Lightstorm (James Cameron, Steven-Charles Jaffe)
On the eve of the millennium, in the urban

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

war zone that is Los Angeles in 1999, a former cop, who peddles an illegal form of virtual reality to eager customers, searches for his girlfriend, who has left him for a vicious gangster.
A thunderous, over-emphatic thriller of the near-future, when entertainment consists of experiencing other people's reality, from rape to murder; but under all the flash and frenetic activity is a narrative that was old when the world was much younger.
w James Cameron, Jay Cocks d Kathryn Bigelow ph Matthew F. Leonetti m Graeme Revell pd Lilly Kilvert ed Howard Smith sp Digital Domain
☆ Ralph Fiennes, Angela Bassett, Juliette Lewis, Tom Sizemore, Vincent D'Onofrio, Michael Wincott, Glenn Plummer
'Has a dazzling atmosphere of grunge futurism, but beneath its dark satire of audiovisual decadence lurks a naggingly conventional underworld thriller.' – Owen Gleiberman, Entertainment Weekly
'Terrifically hyped-up style will thrill many buffs, sci-fi and head trip elements will appeal to techies, and rough action and heavy racial angle will find a following among young ethnic viewers.' – Todd McCarthy

The Strange Death of Adolf Hitler ★

US 1943 74m bw
Universal (Ben Pivar)
A stage impressionist murders the Führer and takes his place, steering Germany deliberately into losing the war.
One of the more eccentric curios of World War II, especially from a mundane studio like Universal. Once one recovers from the shock of its existence, the thing is moderately well done. See also The Magic Face.
w Fritz Kortner d James Hogan ph Jerome Ash m Hans Salter ad John B. Goodman ed Milton Carruth
☆ Ludwig Donath, Gale Sondergaard, Fritz Kortner, George Dolenz

The Strange Door ★

US 1951 81m bw
U-I (Ted Richmond)
A young nobleman, passing through the one-way door of a castle, finds himself the prisoner of a madman.
Torture-chamber suspenser, adequately if rather tediously developed, with most of its interest reposing in the cast.
w Jerry Sackheim story The Sire de Maletroit's Door by Robert Louis Stevenson d Joseph Pevney ph Irving Glassberg m Hans Salter
☆ Charles Laughton, Boris Karloff, Michael Pate, Sally Forrest, Richard Stapley, Alan Napier

Strange Evidence

GB 1932 71m bw
Paramount/London Films (Alexander Korda)
When an invalid dies, his adulterous wife is suspected.
Mildly interesting quickie whodunnit.
w Miles Malleson story Lajos Biro d Robert Milton ph Robert Martin ed Stephen Harrison ☆ Leslie Banks, Carol Goodner, George Curzon, Frank Vosper, Norah Baring, Diana Napier

Strange Gardens ★

France 2003 97m bw/colour 'Scope
ICE3/UGC (Louis Becker)
original title: Effroyables Jardins
Embarrassed by his schoolteacher father's love of dressing up as a clown, a teenager discovers that the reason for his actions date back to a time when he faced execution by the Nazis.
An odd tale dealing in a light-hearted manner with French attitudes to the German occupation during World War II; the performances are engaging but its appeal is probably limited to its home country.
w Jean Cosmos, Guillaume Laurent, Jean Becker novel Michel Quint d Jean Becker ph Jean-Marie Dreujou m Zbigniew Preisner pd Therese Ripaud, Bruno Margery ed Jacques Witta
☆ Jacques Villeret (Jacques), Andre Dussollier (Andre), Thierry Lhermitte (Thierry), Benoit Magimel (Emile), Isabelle Candelier (Louise), Suzanne Flon (Marie)
'A queasy experience, as embarrassing in its way as Benigni's Life Is Beautiful. It is based on a bestselling novel designed to absolve virtually everyone for anything that happened during the Occupation.' – Philip French, Observer

Strange Holiday

US 1945 61m bw
General Motors/Elite Pictures (Arch Oboler)
A man back from holiday discovers that American Nazis have taken over the country.
Over-talkative fantasy which barely scraped a release, especially since it was made in 1940 but not offered until five years later.
wd Arch Oboler ph Robert Surtees m Gordon Jenkins
☆ Claude Rains, Gloria Holden, Milton Kibbee, Bobbie Stebbins, Barbara Bate, Martin Kosleck

Strange Incident: see The Ox Bow Incident

'A woman suspected! A woman desired! A woman possessed!'
'The film in which you hear the characters think!'

Strange Interlude ★★

US 1932 110m bw
MGM (Irving Thalberg)
GB title: Strange Interval
Problems of an unfulfilled wife and her lover.
Surprising film version of a very heavy modern classic, complete with asides to the audience; very dated now, but a small milestone in Hollywood's development.
w Bess Meredyth, C. Gardner Sullivan play Eugene O'Neill d Robert Z. Leonard ph Lee Garmes
☆ Norma Shearer, Clark Gable, May Robson, Alexander Kirkland, Ralph Morgan, Robert Young, Maureen O'Sullivan, Henry B. Walthall
'Chiefly a reserved seat attraction, dubious for general release appeal' – Variety
'A cinematic novelty to be seen by discerning audiences.' – Film Weekly
'More exciting than a thousand "action" movies.' – Pare Lorentz

Strange Interval: see Strange Interlude

Strange Intruder

US 1957 78m bw
AA (Lindsley Parsons)
A psychopathic ex-POW menaces the children of his dead friend's wife.
Gloomy second feature melodrama, rather well presented.
w David Evans, Warren Douglas novel Helen Fowler d Irving Rapper ph Ernest Haller m Paul Dunlap
☆ Edmund Purdom, Ida Lupino, Ann Harding, Jacques Bergerac, Carl Benton Reid

Strange Invaders ★

US 1983 93m DeLuxe
EMI/Orion/Michael Laughlin (Walter Coblenz)
An Illinois town is taken over by beings from outer space.
Patchy but often amusing take-off of the Invasion of the Body Snatchers genre.
w William Condon, Michael Laughlin d Michael Laughlin ph Louis Horvath, Zoltan Vidor m John Addison pd Susanna Moore
☆ Paul Le Mat, Nancy Allen, Diana Scarwid, Michael Lerner, Louise Fletcher, Fiona Lewis, Kenneth Tobey
'Isn't so much a spoof of '50s sci-fi formulae as it is a running commentary on styles of cultural awareness.' – Richard T. Jameson, Seattle Weekly

Strange Lady in Town

US 1955 118m Warnercolor Cinemascope
Warner (Mervyn Le Roy)
Adventures of a woman doctor in 1880 Santa Fe.
Quaint Western drama which is never any more convincing than its star.
w Frank Butler d Mervyn Le Roy ph Harold Rosson m Dimitri Tiomkin ☆ Greer Garson, Dana Andrews, Cameron Mitchell, Lois Smith, Walter Hampden

'Fate drew them together and only murder can part them!'
'Whisper her name!'

The Strange Love of Martha Ivers ★★

US 1946 116m bw
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis
A murderous child becomes a wealthy woman with a spineless lawyer husband; the melodrama starts when an ex-boyfriend returns to town.
Irresistible star melodrama which leaves no stone unturned; compulsive entertainment of the old school.
w Robert Rossen d Lewis Milestone ph Victor Milner m Miklos Rozsa
☆ Barbara Stanwyck, Van Heflin, Kirk Douglas, Lizabeth Scott, Judith Anderson, Roman Bohnen 'Exciting nonsense.' – James Agate
original story (Jack Patrick)

The Strange Love of Molly Louvain

US 1932 72m bw
Warner
A young mother has gone to the bad through men.
Hoary melodrama which the cast seem forever on the point of sending up.
w Maurine Watkins, Erwin Gelsey play The Tinsel Girl by Maurine Watkins d Michael Curtiz
☆ Lee Tracy, Ann Dvorak, Richard Cromwell, Guy Kibbee, Leslie Fenton, Frank McHugh
'A lightweight yarn which never takes a toehold to deliver a sock.' – Variety

The Strange Mr Gregory

US 1945 63m bw
Monogram (Louis Berkoff)
In pursuit of a murder fraud, a magician feigns his own death and poses as his brother.
Complex but watchable little crime thriller.
w Myles Connolly, Charles S. Belden d Phil Rosen ☆ Edmund Lowe, Jean Rogers, Don Douglas, Frank Reicher, Robert Emmett Keane

The Strange One ★

US 1957 99m bw
Columbia/Sam Spiegel
GB title: End as a Man
A sadistic cadet causes trouble at a Southern military college.
A weird and unsavoury but rather compelling melodrama which unreels like a senior version of Tom Brown's Schooldays.
w Calder Willingham novel End as a Man by Calder Willingham d Jack Garfein ph Burnett Guffey m Kenyon Hopkins ☆ Ben Gazzara, George Peppard, Mark Richman, Pat Hingle, Arthur Storch, Paul Richards, Geoffrey Horne, James Olson
'The film's brilliance is in its persuasive depiction of a highly controversial, artificially organized world; its failure is to make any dramatic statement about it.' – MFB

The Strange Ones: see Les Enfants Terribles

A Strange Place to Meet: see Drôle D'Endroit pour une Rencontre

Strange Planet ★★

Australia 1999 96m colour
Redbus/AFFC/Strange Planet/Premium/Showtime/NSW Film & TV (Stavros Kazantzidis, Anastasia Sideris)
Three young women, who share a house, and three young men, partners in a law firm, all look for love in Sydney.
Engaging comedy, which follows six people from one New Year's Eve to another, though the two sets of friends do not meet each other for most of the year; there is a happy ending, though judging by the relationships that have gone before, it's likely to be a temporary one.
w Emma-Kate Croghan, Stavros Kazantzidis d Emma-Kate Croghan ph Justin Brickle pd Annie Beauchamp ed Ken Sallows ☆ Claudia Karvan (Judy), Naomi Watts (Alice), Tom Long (Sally), Aaron Jeffrey (Joel), Felix Williamson (Neil), Hugo Weaving (Steven), Marshall Napier (Robert)
'An immensely likable romantic comedy.' – Variety

The Strange Woman

US 1946 100m bw
UA/Hunt Stromberg (Jack Chertok)
A scheming woman plays with the lives of three men.
Star wish-fulfilment; otherwise a hammy costume piece.
w Herb Meadows novel Ben Ames Williams d Edgar G. Ulmer ph Lucien Andriot m Carmen Dragon ☆ Hedy Lamarr, George Sanders, Louis Hayward, Gene Lockhart, Hillary Brooke

'Shock by incredible shock this ravaging death overruns the earth ... menacing mankind with overwhelming chaos.'
'When men of different planets unite to combat the most loathsome peril the universe has ever known!'

Strange World of Planet X

GB 1957 75m bw
Eros Films (George Maynard)
US title: Cosmic Monsters
A mad scientist's experiments with magnetic fields cause insects to mutate into huge creatures with a taste for human flesh.
Risible science fiction with a great deal too much talk and the feeblest monsters to be found in any of the giant insect movies of the period.

w Paul Ryder novel Rene Ray d Gilbert Gunn ph Joe Ambor m Robert Sharples ad Bernard Sarron ed Francis Bieber ☆ Forrest Tucker, Gaby André, Martin Benson, Alec Mango, Wyndham Goldie, Hugh Latimer

The Stranger ★

US 1946 95m bw
International (Sam Spiegel)

An escaped Nazi criminal marries an American woman and settles in a Connecticut village.
Highly unconvincing and artificial melodrama enhanced by directorial touches, splendid photography and no-holds-barred climax involving a church clock.
w Anthony Veiller story Victor Trivas d Orson Welles ph Russell Metty m Bronislau Kaper ad Perry Ferguson ed Ernest Nims
☆ Edward G. Robinson, Orson Welles, Loretta Young, Philip Merivale, Richard Long, Konstantin Shayne
'Some striking effects, with lighting and interesting angles much relied on.' – Bosley Crowther
'A film of confused motivations and clumsy effects.' – Basil Wright, 1972
Victor Trivas

The Stranger: see The Intruder (1961)

The Stranger

US/Argentina 1987 83m DeLuxe
Columbia/Tusitala/Michael Nolin (Hugo Lamonica)

aka: Mortifero
Fleeing from witnessing three brutal murders, a woman crashes her car and forgets her identity; then the killers track her down Awkward thriller, acted with no great conviction, and only occasionally suspenseful or entertaining.
w Dan Gurskis d Adolfo Aristarain ph Horacio Maira m Craig Safan pd Abel Facello ed Eduardo Lopez
☆ Bonnie Bedelia, Peter Riegert, Barry Primus, David Spielberg, Ricardo Darin, Julio de Grazia, Cecilia Roth, Marcos Woinski

The Stranger: see Agantuk (1991)

The Stranger: see Butterfly Legend (1999)

A Stranger among Us: see Close to Eden

Stranger at My Door

US 1956 85m bw
Republic (Sidney Picker)

A gunman takes refuge in the house of a preacher who tries to convert him.
Odd, sentimental little Western morality play, not badly presented.
w Barry Shipman d William Witney ph Bud Thackery m Dale Butts
☆ Macdonald Carey, Skip Homeier, Patricia Medina, Louis Jean Heydt

The Stranger Came Home

GB 1954 80m bw
Exclusive/Hammer (Michael Carreras)
US title: The Unholy Four

After being assaulted in the Far East, a financier loses his memory and does not return home until three years later, when murder ensues.
Muddled mystery quickie, only notable as the film which persuaded its star to retire.
w Michael Carreras novel Stranger at Home by George Sanders d Terence Fisher ph James Harvey m Ivor Slaney ed Bill Lenney
☆ Paulette Goddard, William Sylvester, Patrick Holt, Paul Carpenter, Russell Napier, Alvys Maben

The Stranger from Afar: see Marebito

The Stranger In Between: see Hunted

A Stranger in My Arms

US 1958 88m bw Cinemascope
U-I (Ross Hunter)

A test pilot falls in love with his dead friend's widow and helps her face up to her in-laws.
Dreary romantic drama.
w Peter Berneis novel And Ride a Tiger by Robert Wilder d Helmut Kautner ph William Daniels m Joseph Gershenson
☆ June Allyson, Jeff Chandler, Mary Astor, Sandra Dee, Charles Coburn, Conrad Nagel, Peter Graves

A Stranger in Town

US 1943 67m bw
MGM (Robert Sisk)

A supreme court judge on vacation finds himself sorting out crooked local politicians.
Interesting second feature with good cast and production values.
w Isobel Lennart, William Koslenko d Roy Rowland
☆ Frank Morgan, Richard Carlson, Jean Rogers, Porter Hall, Robert Barrat, Donald MacBride, Andrew Tombes, John Hodiak

A Stranger Is Watching

US 1981 92m Metrocolor
MGM-UA (Sidney Beckerman)

A small girl is terrified by the psychopath who raped and murdered her mother.
Unpleasant thriller in the modern manner.
w Earl Mac Rauch, Victor Miller novel Mary Higgins Clark d Sean S. Cunningham
☆ Kate Mulgrew, Rip Torn, James Naughton, Shawn Van Schreiber

The Stranger Left No Card ★★

GB 1952 23m bw
British Lion/Meteor (George Arthur)

A weirdly dressed eccentric comes to a small town and is accepted by the townspeople; but his real purpose is murder.
Smart little trick film which as a novelty has not been surpassed.
w Sidney Carroll d Wendy Toye ph Jonah Jones md Muir Mathieson ☆ Alan Badel, Cameron Hall, Eileen Way

Stranger on the Prowl

Italy/US 1952 82m bw
UA/CPCT (Noel Calef)
Italian title: Imbarco a Mezzanotte
GB title: Encounter

In an Italian port, a stranger helps a boy but is shot by the police.
Ineffective melodrama, a sad comedown for its star.
w Andrea Forzano (Ben Barzman) story Noel Calef d Andrea Forzano (Joseph Losey) ph Henri Alekan m G. C. Sonzogno ad Antonio Valente ed Thelma Connell
☆ Paul Muni, Joan Lorring, Vittorio Manunta, Aldo Silvani
† Both director and scriptwriter worked under a pseudonym owing to Hollywood's black-listing.

Stranger on the Third Floor ★

US 1940 64m bw
RKO (Lee Marcus)

A reporter finds that he was wrong in the well-intentioned testimony which helps convict an innocent man for murder.
Stylish B feature with a striking dream scene and a curious fleeting performance by Lorre as the real murderer.
w Frank Partos d Boris Ingster ph Nicholas Musuraca m Roy Webb
☆ Margaret Tallichet, Peter Lorre, John McGuire, Charles Waldron, Elisha Cook Jnr, Charles Halton, Ethel Griffies

'Harold Crick isn't ready to go. Period.'

Stranger than Fiction ★ (7)

US 2006 112m
Sony Pictures/Columbia Pictures/Mandate Pictures/Three Strange Angels (Lindsay Doran)

A mild-mannered tax agent hears voices in his head that lead him to suspect he's a fictional character in someone else's novel.
Amusing, reality-bending comedy with an existential bent; comparable to screenwriter Charlie Kaufman's work, though more sentimental than cerebral.
w Zach Helm d Marc Forster ph Roberto Schaefer m Britt Daniel, Brian Reitzell pd Kevin Thompson ad Craig Jackson ed Matt Chessé
☆ Will Ferrell (Harold Crick), Maggie Gyllenhaal (Ana Pascal), Dustin Hoffman (Professor Jules Hilbert), Queen Latifah (Penny Escher), Emma Thompson (Kay Eiffel), Tom Hulce (Dr. Cayly)
'The irritating tic about Forster's film is that it keeps reminding you of more interesting fights between manipulative gods and their victims: The Truman Show, Adaptation and Being John Malkovich.' – James Christopher, Times
'The season's must-see film for discerning audiences.' – Mike Goodridge, Screen International † All the characters are named after famous scientists, engineers and artists.

Stranger than Paradise ★

US/Germany 1984 90m bw
Grokenberger/Cinesthesia/ZDF (Sara Driver)

The small adventures in America of a young Hungarian immigrant, her cousin and his friend.
Filmed in bleached-out black and white and not edited in the conventional sense – each take is shown complete and followed by a brief blackout before the next shot is shown – it focuses upon grungey lives in which nothing happens – and if it should, no one would notice: but it exerts a slight charm by its very waywardness.
wd Jim Jarmusch ph Tom DiCillo m John Lurie ed Jim Jarmusch, Melody London
☆ John Lurie, Eszter Balint, Richard Edson, Cecillia Stark
'To think Stranger than Paradise was a knockout of a movie you'd have to tune in to its minimalism so passively that you lowered your expectations. The film is so hemmed in that it has the feel of a mousy East European comedy; it's like a comedy of sensory deprivation.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'Full of a quirky character and irony that makes its central theme of American alienation seem extremely entertaining.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

A Stranger Walked In: see Love from a Stranger

'For him death has two faces – and he faces them both, alone!'

The Stranger Wore a Gun

US 1953 83m Technicolor 3-D
Columbia

An honest adventurer finds that the man who once saved his life has become a stagecoach robber.
Routine Western with many objects hurled at the audience to show off the 3-D process.
w Kenneth Gamet novel John M. Cunningham d André de Toth ph Lester White md Mischa Bakaleinikoff
☆ Randolph Scott, George Macready, Claire Trevor, Joan Weldon, Lee Marvin, Ernest Borgnine, Alfonso Bedoya

Strangers: see Voyage to Italy

Strangers All

US 1935 70m bw
RKO

A mother tries to keep the peace while her three unsuccessful sons – a shopkeeper, an actor and a political activist – quarrel about the worth of their callings and her daughter abandons her wealthy fiancé to marry a lawyer.
Sentimental family comedy-drama, enjoyable enough in its old-fashioned way if somewhat abrupt in its sudden ending.
w Milton Krims play Marie M. Bercovici d Charles Vidor ph John W. Boyle md Roy Webb ad Van Nest Polglase ed Jack Hively
☆ May Robson, Preston Foster, Florine McKinney, William Bakewell, James Bush, Samuel Hinds, Leon Ames

The Stranger's Hand

GB 1953 85m bw
Independent Film Producers/John Stafford, Peter Moore

aka: Mano della Straniero
A schoolboy is due to meet his father in Venice, but the father is kidnapped by enemy agents.
Rather tentative suspense thriller with a vague plot which seems to defeat an excellent cast.
w Guy Elmes, Giorgio Bassani story Graham Greene d Mario Soldati ph Enzo Serafin m Nino Rota
☆ Trevor Howard, Richard O'Sullivan, Francis L. Sullivan, Alida Valli, Eduardo Ciannelli, Richard Basehart, Stephen Murray

Strangers in Good Company: see The Company of Strangers

Strangers in Love

US 1932 68m bw
Paramount

A ne'er-do-well has some difficulties when he tries to step into his dead twin's shoes.
Predictable comedy-melodrama, quite well acted.
w Grover Jones, William Slavens McNutt play The Shorn Lamb by William J. Locke d Lothar Mendes
☆ Fredric March, Kay Francis, Stuart Erwin, Juliette Compton, George Barbier, Sidney Toler
'All the qualities that bespeak wide appeal.' – Variety

Strangers May Kiss

US 1931 82m bw
MGM

A sophisticated wife takes love and fidelity lightly.
Dated romantic drama.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

w John Meehan novel Ursula Parrott d George Fitzmaurice ph William Daniels ☆ Norma Shearer, Robert Montgomery, Neil Hamilton, Marjorie Rambeau, Irene Rich
'Outstanding money picture. It'll sell itself.' – Variety

'It begins with the scream of a train whistle – and ends with screaming excitement!'

Strangers on a Train ★★★
US 1951 101m bw
Warner (Alfred Hitchcock)
A tennis star is pestered on a train by a psychotic who wants to swap murders, and proceeds to carry out his part of the bargain.
This quirky melodrama has the director at his best, sequence by sequence, but the story is basically unsatisfactory. It makes superior suspense entertainment, however.
w Raymond Chandler, Czenzi Ormonde novel Patricia Highsmith d Alfred Hitchcock ph Robert Burks m Dimitri Tiomkin md Ray Heindorf ad Ted Haworth ed William Ziegler
☆ Farley Granger (Guy Haines), Robert Walker (Bruno Antony), Ruth Roman (Anne Morton), Leo G. Carroll (Sen. Morton), Patricia Hitchcock (Barbara Morton), Marion Lorne (Mrs. Antony), Howard St John (Capt. Turley), Jonathan Hale (Mr. Antony), Laura Elliot (Miriam)
BRUNO (ROBERT WALKER): 'Some people are better off dead – like your wife and my father, for instance.'
'You may not take it seriously, but you certainly don't have time to think about anything else.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'The construction seems a little lame, but Hitch takes delight in the set pieces.' – Time Out, 1985
† Remade 1970 as Once You Kiss A Stranger.
Robert Burks

The Stranger's Return
US 1933 89m bw
MGM
An old farmer disapproves of his granddaughter's affair with a married man.
An American view of Cold Comfort Farm country, too heavy to click at the box-office.
w Brown Holmes, Phil Stong d King Vidor
☆ Lionel Barrymore, Miriam Hopkins, Franchot Tone, Beulah Bondi, Stuart Erwin, Irene Hervey

Strangers When We Meet ★
US 1960 117m Technicolor Cinemascope
Columbia/Bryna (Richard Quine)
A successful architect starts an affair with a beautiful married neighbour.
Beverly Hills soap opera with lots of romantic suffering in luxury. Lumpy but generally palatable.
w Evan Hunter novel Evan Hunter d Richard Quine ph Charles Lang Jnr m George Duning ☆ Kirk Douglas, Kim Novak, Ernie Kovacs, Walter Matthau, Barbara Rush, Virginia Bruce, Helen Gallagher, Kent Smith

The Strangler
US 1963 80m bw
AA
An obese lab technician murders nurses who help his hated mother.
Modest, lively shocker.
w Bill S. Ballinger d Burt Topper ph Jacques Marquette m Marlin Skiles ☆ Victor Buono, David McLean, Ellen Corby, Diane Sayer

The Stranglers of Bombay
GB 1960 80m bw MegaScope
Columbia/Hammer (Anthony Nelson-Keys)
In 1826 travellers are waylaid and sacrificially killed by a cult of stranglers.
Semi-historical parade of atrocities, repellent but scarcely exciting.
w David Z. Goodman d Terence Fisher ph Arthur Grant m James Bernard ad Bernard Robinson, Don Mingaye ed James Needs, Alfred Cox
☆ Guy Rolfe, Allan Cuthbertson, Andrew Cruickshank, Marne Maitland, Jan Holden, George Pastell, Paul Stassino

Strapless
GB 1988 100m Technicolor
Virgin/Granada/Film Four International (Rick McCallum)
Two sisters assert their independence after unsatisfactory relationships with men.
Uneasy blend of unbelievable romance and politics.
wd David Hare ph Andrew Dunn m Nick Bicat pd Roger Hall ed Edward Marnier
☆ Blair Brown, Bruno Ganz, Bridget Fonda, Alan Howard, Michael Gough, Hugh Laurie, Suzanne Burden, Rohan McCullough

Strategic Air Command
US 1955 114m Technicolor Vistavision
Paramount (Samuel J. Briskin)
A baseball player is recalled to air force duty.
Sentimental flagwaver featuring the newest jets of the fifties.
w Valentine Davies, Beirne Lay Jnr d Anthony Mann ph William Daniels m Victor Young ☆ James Stewart, June Allyson, Frank Lovejoy, Barry Sullivan, Alex Nicol, Bruce Bennett, Jay C. Flippen, James Millican, James Bell original story (Beirne Lay Jnr)

The Stratton Story
US 1949 106m bw
MGM (Jack Cummings)
An amateur baseball enthusiast becomes a famous professional, but suffers an accident which involves the amputation of a leg.
Mild sentimental biopic, well made but not very interesting.
w Douglas Morrow, Guy Trosper d Sam Wood ph Harold Rosson m Adolph Deutsch
☆ James Stewart, June Allyson, Frank Morgan, Agnes Moorehead, Bill Williams
† Van Johnson and Donna Reed were originally cast in the leading roles.
original story (Douglas Morrow)

Strauss's Great Waltz: see Waltzes from Vienna

'The knock at the door meant the birth of one man and the death of seven others!'

Straw Dogs ★★★
GB 1971 118m Eastmancolor
Talent Associates/Amerbroco (Daniel Melnick)
In a Cornish village, a mild American university researcher erupts into violence when taunted by drunken villagers who commit sustained assaults on himself and his wife.
A Western transferred to the far west of England, where it fits uneasily. Yet this drama of a man redeemed by violence is well-made, full of tension and its release, as well as showing Peckinpah at his most misogynistical.
w David Zelag Goodman, Sam Peckinpah novel The Siege of Trencher's Farm by Gordon M. Williams d Sam Peckinpah ph John Coquillon m Jerry Fielding pd Ray Simm ad Ken Bridgeman ed Paul Davies, Tony Lawson, Roger Spottiswoode
☆ Dustin Hoffman (David Sumner), Susan George (Amy Sumner), Peter Vaughan (Tom Hedden), David Warner (Henry Niles), T. P. McKenna (Maj. Scott), Colin Welland (Rev. Hood)
'Before the end you will have gasped and shuddered through an orgy of detailed rape, slaughter, arson and wanton destruction.' – Cecil Wilson, Daily Mail
'A magnificent piece of red-raw, meaty entertainment.' – Ernest Betts, The People
Jerry Fielding

'Distant Dreams and Passionate Lovers.'

Strawberry and Chocolate ★★
Cuba/Mexico/Spain 1993 111m colour
Metro Tartan/ICAIC/IMC/Telemadrid/Co. Tabasco (Miguel Mendoza) original title: Fresa y Chocolate
In Havana, a naïve and conformist university student, a Communist Party member, reluctantly becomes friends with a cultured homosexual, who is persecuted for his subversive views.
The first Cuban film to show homosexuality in a positive way is also concerned with more important matters than being gay; it is a playful attack on hidebound attitudes and prejudices and on a revolution that has gone stale, and a passionate plea for cultural diversity.
w Senel Paz novel El Lobo, el Bosque y el Hombre Nuevo by Senel Paz d Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Juan Carlos Tabío ph Mario Garcia Joya m José Maria Vitier ad Orlando Gonzalez ed Miriam Talavera, Osvaldo Donatien
☆ Jorge Perugorria, Vladimir Cruz, Mirta Ibarra, Francisco Gattorno, Joel Angelino, Marilyn Solaya
'This new comedy from Cuba is a gem. Filled with malicious swipes against the Castro regime, it's a provocative but very humane comedy about sexual opposites.' – David Stratton, Variety † Juan Carlos Tabio helped with the direction when Alea became ill with cancer.
best foreign language film

The Strawberry Blonde ★★
US 1941 97m bw
Warner (William Cagney)
A dentist in turn-of-the-century Brooklyn wonders whether he married the right woman.
Pleasant period comedy drama, a remake of One Sunday Afternoon (qv).
w Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein d Raoul Walsh ph James Wong Howe m Heinz Roemheld
☆ James Cagney, Olivia de Havilland, Rita Hayworth, Alan Hale, George Tobias, Jack Carson, Una O'Connor, George Reeves
'It not only tells a very human story, it also creates an atmosphere, recreates a period.' – New York Sun
'A blithe, sentimental, turn-of-the-century buggy ride.' – Time
† It was remade in 1948 as One Sunday Afternoon (qv).
Heinz Roemheld

The Strawberry Statement
US 1970 109m Metrocolor
MGM/Robert Chartoff, Irwin Winkler
Student rebels occupy a university administration building.
One of a short-lived group of student anti-discipline films of the early seventies, and about the most boring.
w Israel Horovitz novel James Simon Kunen d Stuart Hagmann ph Ralph Woolsey m Ian Freebairn Smith
☆ Bruce Davison, Kim Darby, Bud Cort, Murray MacLeod

Stray Dogs ★
Iran/France 2004 92m colour
Artificial Eye/Makhmalbaf Film House/Wild Bunch (Maysam Makhmalbaf) original title: Sag-haye Velgard
After their parents are imprisoned, two small children struggle to survive on the streets of Kabul.
Shot in a documentary style, a film that brings home the suffering and resilience of children caught in terrible conflicts, though it tries too hard ot make its point.
wd Marziyeh Meshkini ph Ibrahim Ghafouri m Mohammad Reza Darvishi pd Akbar Meshkini ed Mastaneh Mohajer
☆ Gol-Ghotai, Zahed, Agheleh Rezaii, Sohrab Akbari, Jamil Ghanizadeh 'Sentiment turns saccharine and the images, while as strong as ever, are disturbingly obvious in trying to provoke a reaction from the audience.' – Deborah Young, Variety

Stray Dogs ★ (5)
Iran / France 2005 92m
Artificial Eye/Makhmalbaf Film House/Exception/Wild Bunch (Meysam Makhmalbaf)
Iranian title: Sag-haye velgard
Two young children are left to fend for themselves on the streets of Kabul as American troops rumble through the streets. They rescue a terrier from a crowd of boys who want to burn it to death and take it with them to the prison where their mother is jailed.
Although the images are disturbing the director has a tendency to sentimentalise and to opt for the obvious. Despite this, as a foray into post-Taliban Afghanistan's poor and dispossessed it will linger and disturb, and has echoes of de Sica's Bicycle Thieves (qv).
wd Marziyeh Meshkini ph Ibrahim Ghafouri m Mohammad Reza Darvishi pd Akbar Meshkini ed Mastaneh Mohajer
☆ Gol Ghotai (Daughter), Zahed (Brother), Agheleh Rezaii (Mother), Sohrab Akbari (Atef, the guard), Jamil Ghanizadeh (Angry guard)

Strayed ★★
France/GB 2003 95m Technicolor
Soda/Fit/France 2/Spice Factory (Jean-Pierre Ramsay Levi) original title: Les garés
Fleeing the Nazis in 1940, a widowed schoolteacher and her children are helped by an illiterate teenage boy.
Small-scale drama of survival and a need for love.
w Andre Techine, Gilles Taurand book The Boy With Grey Eyes by Gilles Perrault d Andre Techine ph Agnes Godard m Philippe Sarde pd Ze Branco ed Martine Giordano ☆ Emmanuelle Beart (Odile), Gaspard Ulliel (Yvan), Gregoire Leprince-Ringuet

(Philippe), Clemence Meyer (Cathy), Jean Fornerod (Georges), Samuel Labarthe (Robert), Eric Krekenmayer (Officer)
'The movie delicately lays out fundamental conflicts: between survivalist and bourgeois perspectives; between wartime and peacetime expectations; between habitually clinging to family values and fending for yourself.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times

Streamers
US 1983 118m Movielab
Rank/Streamers International (Robert Altman, Nick J. Mileti)
Tensions mount at a training camp for the 83rd Airborne Division.
Claustrophobic photographed play about generally worthless people.
w David Rabe play David Rabe d Robert Altman ph Pierre Mignot pd Wolf Kroeger ed Norman Smith
☆ Matthew Modine, Michael Wright, Mitchell Lichtenstein, David Alan Grier, Guy Boyd, George Dzundza

'A thing of beauty is a joy for ever...'

Street Angel ★
US 1928 101m bw part-talkie
Fox
An unwilling prostitute becomes a circus artiste.
A sentimental and tawdry tale becomes a vehicle for good typical work by director and stars.
w Marion Orth play Lady Cristallinda by Monckton Hoffe d Frank Borzage
ph Ernest Palmer, Paul Ivano ad Harry Oliver ☆ Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, Henry Armetta, Guido Trento
Janet Gaynor
Ernest Palmer; Harry Oliver

Street Corner
GB 1953 94m bw
Rank/LIP/Sydney Box (William MacQuitty)
US title: Both Sides of the Law
Days in the lives of the women police of Chelsea.
Patter-plotted female Blue Lamp; just about watchable.
w Muriel and Sydney Box d Muriel Box
ph Reg Wyer m Temple Abady
☆ Rosamund John, Anne Crawford, Peggy Cummins, Terence Morgan, Barbara Murray, Sarah Lawson, Ronald Howard, Eleanor Summerfield, Michael Medwin

'If you've got to fight... fight dirty!'

The Street Fighter
Japan 1974 92m Eastmancolor
Actionscope
Toei
original title: Gekitotsu! Satsujin Ken
Hired to kidnap an heiress by the Yakuza and the Mafia, a tough mercenary changes sides and wreaks vengeance.
Very violent gangster movie that made an international star of Sonny Chiba, who grimaces with great gusto as he decimates the opposition.
w Koji Takada, Steve Autrey d Shigehero Ozawa ph Ken Tsukakoshi m Toshiaki Tsushima ad Takatoshi Suzuki martial arts director Masafumi Suzuki wrestling director T. Harada & Reggy Jones kick boxing director Ken Kazama
☆ Sonny Chiba (Takuma Tsurugi), Waichi Yamaha (Ratnose), Yakuta Nakajima (Sarai), Tony Cetera (Jadot)
† The movie exits in many versions, many cut by various amounts. It was released in the US in a dubbed version that ran for 75m.

Street Fighter
US 1994 102m DeLuxe
UIP/Capcom (Edward R. Pressman, Kenzo Tsujimoto)
Street fighters set out to rescue hostages held by a mad dictator.
A popular video game is transferred to the screen with all its slam-bang excitement missing; it is presumably aimed at an easily satisfied audience of kids too young to play the game.
wd Steven E. de Souza ph William A. Fraker m Graeme Revell pd William Creber ed Dov Hoenig, Anthony Redman, Robert F. Shugrue, Ed Abroms, Donn Aron
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Raul Julia, Kylie Minogue, Damian Chapa, Ming-Na Wen, Simon Callow, Roshan Seth, Wes Studi, Byron Mann
'Noisy, overblown and effects-laden and lacks sustained action or engaging characters.' – Variety
'I enjoyed making it but when I saw it, it was so bad both my wife and I walked out.' – Roshan Seth

Street Fleet: see D. C. Cab

Street Gang
US 1982 90m TVC Color Panavision
Film Ventures/Vigilante (William Lustig, Andrew Garroni)
aka: Vigilante
After his son is killed by a Puerto Rican gang, a factory worker joins a vigilante group to clean up the streets.
An unpleasant movie of rough justice that follows in the footsteps of Death Wish.
w Richard Vetere d William Lustig
ph James Lemmo m Jay Chattaway
pd Mischa Petrow ed Lorenzo Marinelli
☆ Robert Forster, Fred Williamson, Richard Bright, Rutanya Alda, Willie Colon, Joe Spinell, Carol Lynley, Woody Strode, Joseph Carberry

Street Mobster
Japan 1972 88m colour
Toei
original title: Gendai Yakuza: Hito-Kiri Yota
The tough leader of a street gang becomes a yakuza, but is too undisciplined and independent to survive.
Violent account of gang warfare, with a bunch of street thugs taking on the leaders of organised crime, who had moved into more legitimate business actitivities. It doesn't glamorise the gangster life, but is not averse to melodrama.
w Yoshihiro Ishimatsu, Kinji Fukasaku d Kinji Fukasaku ph Hanjiro Nakazawa m Toshiaki Tsushima ad Shuichiro Nakamura
☆ Bunta Sugawara (Isamu Okita), Kyosuke Machida, Mayumi Nagisa, Asao Kioke, Noboru Mitani, Nobuo Yana

Street of Chance
US 1930 78m bw
Paramount (David O. Selznick)
A New York gambler gets his come-uppance.
Dullish family melodrama with gangsters as dei ex machina.
w Howard Estabrook, Lenore Coffee
d John Cromwell ph Charles Lang
☆ William Powell, Kay Francis, Regis Toomey, Jean Arthur
'Strong exploitation can cinch this one. Strongly hints at recent murder of well-known gambler.' – Variety
script

'Where women came to forget – one man came to remember!'

Street of Chance ★
US 1942 74m bw
Burt Skelly/Sol C. Siegel/Paramount
An amnesia case discovers that he is wanted for murder.
The plot was fairly original at the time, and the treatment maintains interest.
w Garrett Fort story Cornell Woolrich
d Jack Hively
☆ Burgess Meredith, Claire Trevor, Sheldon Leonard, Jerome Cowan, Frieda Inescort, Louise Platt

Street of Shadows
GB 1953 84m bw
Anglo Amalgamated/Merton Park (William H. Williams)
US title: Shadow Man
A Soho club-owner and his society girlfriend become mixed up in murder when the corpse of his mistress is discovered in his office.
Run-of-the-mill melodramatic thriller, with a better cast than it deserves.
wd Richard Vernon novel The Creaking Chair by Laurence Meynell ph Phil Grindrod m Eric Spear
☆ Cesar Romero, Kay Kendall, Simone Silva, Edward Underdown, Victor Maddern, John Penrose, Eileen Way, Bill Travers

Street of Shame ★
Japan 1956 85m bw
Daiei (Masaichi Nagata)
original title: Akasen Chitai
Stories of women in a Tokyo brothel.
Unremarkable material executed with the style expected of the director.
w Masashige Narusawa d Kenji Mizoguchi
ph Kazuo Miyagawa m Toshiro Mayazumi
☆ Machiko Kyo, Ayako Wakao, Aiko Mimasu

Street of Women
US 1932 59m bw
Warner
A property developer is torn between his wife and his mistress.
Choppily developed drama which starts haltingly and gets nowhere.
w Mary McCall Jnr novel Polan Banks
d Archie Mayo
☆ Kay Francis, Alan Dinehart, Roland Young, Marjorie Gateson, Gloria Stuart
'Just a programme picture.' – Variety

Street People: see Sicilian Cross

Street Scene ★
US 1931 80m bw
Samuel Goldwyn
In a New York slum street on a hot summer night, an adulterous woman is shot by her husband.
Slice-of-life drama from an influential play; never much of a film, and very dated.
w Elmer Rice play Elmer Rice d King Vidor ph George Barnes m Alfred Newman
☆ Sylvia Sidney, William Collier Jnr, Max Mantor, David Landau, Estelle Taylor, Russell Hopton
'Whenever the camera starts to focus on two or three characters, the plot thickens and Street Scene flies out the window; petty domestic tragedy supplants the original slice-of-life conception.' – National Board of Review
'As a commercial proposition it will cause talk and reap honours, but whether it will prove an exceptional box office attraction remains to be seen.' – Variety

The Street Singer
GB 1937 85m bw
British National
A musical comedy star is mistaken for a beggar by a girl with whom he falls in love.
Rather tiresome star vehicle.
w Reginald Arkell d Jean de Marguenat md Lew Stone
☆ Arthur Tracy, Margaret Lockwood, Arthur Riscoe, Hugh Wakefield

Street Smart
US 1987 95m TVC Color
Cannon (Menahem Golan, Yoram Globus)
A top journalist turns in a story that gets him involved with pimps and prostitutes.
Unpersuasive crime melodrama in which the star seems surprised to find himself.
w David Freeman d Jerry Schatzberg
ph Adam Holender m Robert Irving
pd Dan Leigh ed Priscilla Nedd
☆ Christopher Reeve, Kathy Baker, Mimi Rogers, Jay Patterson, Andre Gregory, Morgan Freeman
Morgan Freeman

The Street with No Name ★
US 1948 93m bw
TCF (Samuel G. Engel)
An FBI man goes undercover to unmask a criminal gang.
The oldest crime plot in the world, applied with vigour to the documentary realism of The House on 92nd Street and built around the Kiss of Death psychopathic character created by Richard Widmark.
w Harry Kleiner d William Keighley ph Joe MacDonald m Lionel Newman
☆ Richard Widmark, Mark Stevens, Lloyd Nolan, Barbara Lawrence, Ed Begley † Remade 1955 as House of Bamboo.

A Streetcar Named Desire ★★
US 1951 122m bw
Warner/Elia Kazan (Charles K. Feldman)
A repressed Southern widow is raped and driven mad by her brutal brother-in-law.
Reasonably successful, decorative picture from a highly theatrical but influential play; unreal sets and atmospheric photography vaguely Sternbergian.
w Tennessee Williams play Tennessee Williams d Elia Kazan ph Harry Stradling
m Alex North ad Richard Day
☆ Vivien Leigh, Marlon Brando, Kim Hunter, Karl Malden
† Two television versions followed, one in 1984 starring Ann-Margret and Treat Williams, and one in 1994 starring Jessica Lange and Alec Baldwin.
Vivien Leigh; Kim Hunter; Karl Malden best picture; Tennessee Williams; Elia Kazan; Harry Stradling; Alex North; Marlon Brando; Richard Day Vivien Leigh

The Streetfighter: see Hard Times

Streets of Fire

US 1984 94m Technicolor
Universal/RKO/Hill-Gordon-Silver (Lawrence Gordon, Joel Silver)

A rock singer is kidnapped and a professional trouble shooter takes on the job of recovery.
Violent melodrama with an unsuccessful comic strip approach which fails to raise the material into the realm of myth.
w Walter Hill, Larry Gross d Walter Hill ph Andrew Laszlo m Ry Cooder pd John Vallone ed Freeman Davies, Michael Ripps
☆ Michael Paré, Diane Lane, Rick Moranis, Amy Madigan, Willem Dafoe Streets of Gold ★

US 1986 95m DeLuxe
TCF/James G. Robinson/Ufland-Roth

A disenchanted immigrant finds an unexpected road to success as a boxing coach for two streetwise kids.
Unappealing variation on the Rocky movies, good to look at but devoid of content.
w Heywood Gould, Richard Price, Tom Cole d Joe Roth ph Arthur Albert m Jack Nitzsche pd Marcos Flaksman ed Richard Chew
☆ Klaus Maria Brandauer, Adrian Pasdar, Wesley Snipes, Angela Molina

Streets of Laredo

US 1949 92m Technicolor
Paramount (Robert Fellows)

Two of three bandit friends become Texas Rangers.
Adequate star Western, a remake of The Texas Rangers.
w Charles Marquis Warren d Leslie Fenton ph Ray Rennahan m Victor Young ☆ William Holden, William Bendix, Macdonald Carey, Mona Freeman

Streets of New York

US 1939 72m bw
Monogram

The teenage owner of a newsstand studies law at night school.
Unconvincing street-life drama, an obvious vehicle for a boy star.
w Robert Andrews d William Nigh
☆ Jackie Cooper, Martin Spellman, George Cleveland, Dick Purcell

'Should do all right if not pointed too high.' – Variety

The Streetwalker: see La Marge

Strictly Ballroom ★★★

Australia 1992 94m Eastmancolor
Rank/M&A/Australian Film Finance Corp (Tristam Miall)

A would-be champion ballroom dancer, who incurs the wrath of the establishment by improvising his own steps, searches for a new partner in tune with his ideas.
Exuberant, charming, witty romance acted and directed with style and verve.
w Baz Luhrmann, Craig Pearce play N.I.D.A. stage production devised by its original cast story Baz Luhrmann, Andrew Bovell d Baz Luhrmann ph Steve Mason m David Hirschfelder ch John 'Cha Cha' O'Connell, Paul Mercurio pd Catherine Martin ed Jill Bilcock ☆ Paul Mercurio (Scott Hastings), Tara Morice (Fran), Bill Hunter (Barry Fife), Pat Thomson (Shirley Hastings), Gia Carides (Liz Holt), Peter Whitford (Les Kendall), Barry Otto (Doug Hastings), John Hannan (Ken Railings), Sonia Kruger (Tina Sparkle), Kris McQuade (Charm Leachman), Antonio Vargas (Rico), Armonia Benedito (Ya Ya)

'Bright, breezy and immensely likable musical-comedy.' – Variety
♈ David Hirschfelder; Catherine Martin

Strictly Confidential: see Broadway Bill

Strictly Dishonourable

US 1951 94m bw
MGM (Melvin Frank, Norman Panama)

A young girl falls in love with a rakish Italian opera star; he is such a sentimentalist that he marries her.
Emasculated sentimental version of the sharp Preston Sturges comedy.
wd Norman Panama, Melvin Frank
ph Ray June m Lennie Hayton
☆ Ezio Pinza, Janet Leigh, Millard Mitchell, Maria Palmer
† Previously filmed in 1931 by Universal, with Paul Lukas, Sidney Fox and Lewis Stone.

Strictly for Pleasure: see The Perfect Furlough

Strictly Unconventional: see The Circle

Strike ★★★

USSR 1924 70m approx (24 fps) bw silent
Goskino/Proletkult

A 1912 strike of factory workers is brutally put down by the authorities.
Brilliant propaganda piece with superbly cinematic sequences.
wd Sergei M. Eisenstein ph Edouard Tissé, Vassili Khvatov ad Vasili Rakhals ☆ Grigori Alexandrov (Factory Foreman), Maxim Strauch (Police Spy), Mikhail Gomarov (Worker)

Strike It Rich: see Loser Takes All

Strike Me Pink ★

US 1935 104m bw
Samuel Goldwyn

A timid amusement park owner is threatened by crooks.
Acceptable star comedy with music.
w Frank Butler, Walter de Leon, Francis Martin d Norman Taurog ph Gregg Toland, Merritt Gerstad m Alfred Newman songs Harold Arlen, Lew Brown
☆ Eddie Cantor, Sally Eilers, Ethel Merman, William Frawley, Parkyakarkus

'At the box office both here and abroad the take will be big.' – Variety

Strike Up the Band ★

US 1940 120m bw
MGM (Arthur Freed)

A high-school band takes part in a nationwide radio contest.
Rather tiresomely high-spirited musical with the stars at the top of their young form.
w Fred Finklehoffe, John Monks Jnr ph Ray June m Roger Edens d/ch Busby Berkeley ly Arthur Freed ☆ Judy Garland, Mickey Rooney, Paul Whiteman and his Orchestra, June Preisser, William Tracy, Larry Nunn
♫ 'Our Love Affair'; 'Do the Conga'; 'Heaven Will Protect the Working Girl'; 'Nobody'; 'Nell of New Rochelle'; 'Drummer Boy'; 'Strike Up the Band'
♗ Georgie Stoll, Roger Edens; song 'Our Love Affair' (m/ly Roger Edens, Georgie Stoll)

'They shouldn't have put him in the water, if they didn't want him to make waves.'

Striking Distance

US 1993 102m Technicolor
Columbia (Arnon Milchan, Tony Thomopoulos, Hunt Lowry)

A hard-drinking maverick cop tracks down the serial killer who murdered his father.
An unoriginal mix of car chases, tough cops and fist fights providing undemanding entertainment for the unthinking.
w Rowdy Herrington, Martin Kaplan
d Rowdy Herrington ph Mac Ahlberg
m Brad Fiedel pd Greg Fonseca
ed Pasquale Buba, Mark Helfrich
☆ Bruce Willis, Sarah Jessica Parker, Dennis Farina, Tom Sizemore, Brion James, Robert Pastorelli, Timothy Busfield, John Mahoney

'An OK action movie until it sinks under the weight of implausible plotting and over-the-top direction.' – Brian Lowry, Variety

The Strip ★

US 1951 85m bw
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

A band drummer is accused of the murder of a racketeer.
Minor mystery melodrama intriguingly set on Sunset Strip, with jazz accompaniment.
w Allen Rivkin d Leslie Kardos ph Robert Surtees m George Stoll
☆ Mickey Rooney, Sally Forrest, William Demarest, James Craig, Kay Brown, Louis Armstrong, Earl Hines, Jack Teagarden
♗ song 'A Kiss To Build a Dream On (m/ly Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby, Oscar Hammerstein II)

'Today's army needs men of courage – honesty – integrity – ambition. Instead, they got John Winger...'

Stripes

US 1981 106m Metrocolor
Columbia (Ivan Reitman, Dan Goldberg)

Sergeant Hulka tries to train a platoon of misfit volunteers.
Ancient army wheezes dressed up with fashionable black comedy and sex, but no funnier than Carry On Sergeant.
w Len Blum, Dan Goldberg, Harold Ramis d Ivan Reitman ph Bill Butler m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Bill Murray, Harold Ramis, Warren Oates, P. J. Soles, John Larroquette, Sean Young

The Stripper ★

US 1963 95m bw Cinemascope
TCF (Jerry Wald)

GB title: Woman of Summer
An ageing beauty queen returns to her Kansas hometown and has an affair with a 19-year-old garage hand.
Downbeat character melodrama typical of its time and its author; competent but sterile and rather tedious.
w Meade Roberts play A Loss of Roses by William Inge d Franklin Schaffner
ph Ellsworth Fredericks m Jerry Goldsmith ☆ Joanne Woodward, Richard Beymer, Claire Trevor, Carol Lynley, Robert Webber, Louis Nye, Gypsy Rose Lee, Michael J. Pollard

Stripper ★

US 1986 90m colour
Arnon Milchan/Visionaire (Jerome Gary, Geof Bartz, Melvyn J. Estrin)

Strippers congregate in Las Vegas in 1984 to compete for the Golden G-string Award.
Interesting and saddening documentary on strippers, who talk of their art and pride in what they are doing, before performing their dispiriting routines in tacky clubs.
d Jerome Gary ph Edward Lachman
m Buffy Sainte-Marie, Jack Nitzsche
ed Geof Bartz, Bob Eisenhardt, Lawrence Silk

'Some people get into trouble ... No matter what they wear.'

Striptease

US 1996 117m Technicolor
Rank/Castle Rock/Turner (Mike Lobell)

Investigating a murder involving a corrupt Congressman, a detective enlists the help of a single mother, who is working as a stripper to gain custody of her child.
Unsuccessful adaptation of a slick, witty thriller, fatally compromised by the casting of Demi Moore, whose requirements as a star run counter to the demands of the narrative.
wd Andrew Bergman novel Carl Hiaasen
ph Stephen Goldblatt m Howard Shore
pd Mel Bourne ed Anne V. Coates
☆ Demi Moore, Burt Reynolds, Armand Assante, Ving Rhames, Robert Patrick, Paul Guilfoyle, Jerry Grayson, Rumer Willis

'Sub-soft porn masquerading as a television custody drama – with jokes. Unfortunately it has no idea of how to bring off this generic ménage à trois.' – Linda Ruth Williams, Sight and Sound

Striptease Lady: see Lady of Burlesque

Stroker Ace

US 1983 96m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Warner (Hank Moonjean)

A top racing car driver is sponsored by the owner of a chain of fast-food restaurants.
Tediously leering comedy, with Reynolds repeating his over-familiar role as a macho ladies' man.
w Hugh Wilson, Hal Needham novel Stand On It by William Neely, Robert K. Ottum d Hal Needham ph Nick McLean m Al Capps ad Paul Peters
ed Carl Kress, William Gordean
☆ Burt Reynolds, Ned Beatty, Jim Nabors, Parker Stevenson, Loni Anderson

Stromboli

Italy 1949 107m bw
RKO/Be-Ro (Roberto Rossellini)

A Lithuanian refugee accepts the protection of marriage to an Italian fisherman, but resents the barrenness and hostility of her life, especially when the local volcano erupts.
Sloppy melodrama with pretensions, interesting but not even attractive to the eye.
w Roberto Rossellini and others d Roberto Rossellini ph Otello Martelli m Renzo Rossellini
☆ Ingrid Bergman, Mario Vitale, Renzo Cesana
† The international version was cut to 81m

'From the coolest city on the planet comes the hippest film of the year.'

Strong Language

GB 1999 80m bw/colour
Rumleyvision (Simon Rumley)

A group of twenty- and thirty-something Londoners discuss their lives, loves, likes and dislikes, and the event that links them together.
Fuzzily photographed confessions from a disparate group, given to the sort of monologues a barman might overhear on a bad night.
wd Simon Rumley ph Armando Smit m David Conway, Laurence Elliot-Potter pd Joanna Cross ed Simon Rumley, Sasha Austen, Rick Moore
☆ David Groves (Narrator), Paul Tonkinson (Danny), Tania Emery (Zoe), Stuart Laing (Mark), Ricci Harnett (Nathan), Kelly Marcell (Phillipa), Robyn Lewis (Corinne), Julie Rice (Tatty), Al Nedjari (Peter), Ruth Purser (Jane)
'Absorbing and revealing as it heads to its conclusion and carves another notch in British cinema's innovative bedpost.' – Film Review

The Strong Man ★

US 1926 75m approx (24 fps) bw (colour sequence) silent
First National/Harry Langdon

A war veteran returns and searches the city for his female penfriend.
Quite charming star comedy, probably Langdon's best.
w Frank Capra, Arthur Ripley, Hal Conklin, Robert Eddy d Frank Capra ph Elgin Lessley, Glenn Kershner
☆ Harry Langdon, Gertrude Astor, Tay Garnett

Stronger than Desire

US 1939 82m bw
MGM

A lawyer's wife gets into trouble and lets him try an innocent man for her crime.
Fast remake of Evelyn Prentice; a good half-bill.
w David Hertz, William Ludwig d Leslie Fenton
☆ Walter Pidgeon, Virginia Bruce, Ann Dvorak, Lee Bowman, Rita Johnson, Ilka Chase

Stronger than Fear: see Edge of Doom

The Strongest Man in the World

US 1976 92m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Bill Anderson)

An accident in a science lab gives a student superhuman strength.
Formula comedy for older children.
w Joseph L. McEveety, Herman Groves d Vincent McEveety ph Andrew Jackson m Robert F. Brunner
☆ Kurt Russell, Joe Flynn, Eve Arden, Cesar Romero, Phil Silvers, Dick Van Patten, Harold Gould, William Schallert, James Gregory, Roy Roberts, Fritz Feld, Raymond Bailey, Eddie Quillan, Burt Mustin Strongroom ★

GB 1961 80m bw
Bryanston/Theatrecraft (Guido Coen)

Two car breakers plan a once-for-all bank robbery but get involved with potential murder when their hostages get locked in.
Suspenseful second feature with gloss and pace.
w Max Marquis, René Harris d Vernon Sewell ph Basil Emmott m Johnny Gregory ☆ Colin Gordon, Ann Lynn, Derren Nesbitt, Keith Faulkner

Stroszeck ★

West Germany 1977 108m colour
Werner Herzog/ZDF

A crook, a prostitute and a friend move from Germany to what they hope will be the freedom of a mobile home in the United States; but everything goes wrong and they part company.
A simple narrative – described as 'a ballad' by its director – of a failed search for individuality and the exchange of one prison for another.
wd Werner Herzog ph Thomas Mauch, Ed Lachmann, Wolfgang Knigge, Stefano Guidi m Chet Atkins, Sonny Terry ed Beate Mainka-Jellinghaus
☆ Bruno S, Eva Mattes, Clemens Scheitz, Burkhard Driest, Alfred Edel, Norbert Grupe

The Struggle ★

US 1931 88m bw
UA/D. W. Griffith

A New Yorker goes to the bad on bootleg liquor.
The director's last film reveals many of his old skills allied to a Victorian tract.
w Anita Loos, John Emerson d D. W. Griffith ph Joseph Ruttenberg ☆ Hal Skelly, Zita Johann, Charlotte Wynters, Jackson Halliday
'A dull and sodden rendering with old-time ranting and little drama ... just dull when it isn't in the highest degree maudlin.' – Dwight MacDonald
† It was based on The Drunkard by Emile Zola.
†† The picture failed and was re-released as Ten Nights in a Bar-room.

Stryker

US/Philippines 1983 86m colour
New World/Cirio H. Santiago

In a world turned to desert by nuclear holocaust, gangs battle for water (though guns, ammunition, petrol and leatherwear remain in apparently endless supply).
Cheap and incompetent rip-off of Mad Max (qv).
w Howard R. Cohen d Cirio H. Santiago ph Ricardo Remias m Ed Gatchalian, Susan Justin pd Pol Dimalanta ed Rudy Cabrales ☆ Steve Sandor, Andria Savio, William Ostrander, Michael Lane, Julie Gray, Monique St Pierre, Ken Metcalfe

Stuart Little ★★

US 1999 92m DeLuxe
Columbia/Franklin/Waterman (Douglas Wick)

Promising their young son a little brother, a New York couple adopt a mouse, which annoys the family cat.
Clever, occasionally witty children's movie, seamlessly marrying live action and animation.
w M. Night Shyamalan, Greg Brooker book E.B. White d Rob Minkoff ph Guillermo Navarro m/ly Alan Silvestri pd Bill Brzeski ed Tom Finan sp John Dykstra; Jerome Chen ☆ Geena Davis (Mrs. Little), Hugh Laurie (Mr Little), Jonathan Lipnicki (George Little), Brian Doyle-Murray (Cousin Edgar), Estelle Getty (Grandma Estelle), Julia Sweeney (Mrs. Keeper), Dabney Coleman (Dr Beechwood) and also voices of: Michael J. Fox (Stuart Little), Nathan Lane, Chazz Palminteri, Steve Zahn, Jim Doughan, David Alan Grier, Jennifer Tilly, Bruno Kirby
'Sustains a lovely balance between enchantment and playfulness.' – Stephen Holden, New York Times visual effects (John Dykstra, Jerome Chen, Henry F. Anderson III, Eric Allard)

'A Little Goes A Long Way'

Stuart Little 2 ★

US 2002 78m DeLuxe
Columbia (Lucy Fisher, Douglas Wick)

A mouse, who is the adopted child of a New York couple, becomes involved with a bird.
Lively children's movie, full of innocent, good-hearted fun.
w Bruce Joel Rubin story Douglas Wick novel Stuart Little by E. B. White d Rob Minkoff ph Steven Poster m Alan Silvestri pd Bill Brzeski ed Priscilla Nedd Friendly ☆ Geena Davis (Mrs Little), Hugh Laurie (Mr Little), Jonathan Lipnicki (George Little), Anna Hoelck/Ashley Hoelck (Martha Little), Marc John Jefferies (Will), voices of: Michael J. Fox (Stuart Little), Nathan Lane (Snowbell), Melanie Griffith (Margalo), James Woods (Falcon), Steve Zahn (Monty)
'Aimed squarely at moppets with piddling attention spans.' – Variety

'You'll laugh because it's not your family. You'll cry because it is.'

Stuart Saves His Family

US 1995 95m colour
Paramount/Constellation (Lorne Michaels, Trevor Albert)

A self-help guru has to help himself when his public access TV show is cancelled and his family takes to drink and drugs.
Based on a Saturday Night Live sketch, this would be overstretched at a quarter of its length; it is the kind of maudlin movie that loses its audience in its first simpering thirty seconds and never gets it back.
w Al Franken book I'm Good Enough, I'm Smart Enough, and Doggone It, People Like Me, Daily Affirmations with Stuart Smalley by Al Franken d Harold Ramis ph Lauro Escorel m Marc Shaiman pd Joseph T. Garrity ed Pembroke Herring, Craig Herring
☆ Al Franken (Stuart Smalley), Laura San Giacomo (Julia), Vincent D'Onofrio (Donnie), Shirley Knight (Stuart's Mom), Harris Yulin (Stuart's Dad), Lesley Boone (Jodie), John Link Graney (Kyle), Julia Sweeney (Mea C)
'It isn't good enough, it isn't smart enough, and, doggone it, most people won't like Stuart Saves His Family.' – Joe Leydon, Variety

'Whatever happens to the boys, one thing is certain. Nothing will ever come between them.'

Stuck on You

US 2003 118m DeLuxe Panavision
TFC/Conundrum (Bradley Thomas, Charles B. Wessler, Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly)

Siamese twins move to Los Angeles so that one of them can try to become a Hollywood actor.
Feel-good comedy about brotherly love that revels in slapstick, but is short of jokes.
w Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly d Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly ph Dan Mindel pd Sidney J. Bartholomew ed Christopher Greenbury, Dave Terman
☆ Matt Damon (Bob), Greg Kinnear (Walt), Eva Mendes (April), Wen Yann Shih (May), Pat Crawford Brown (Mimmy), Ray 'Rocket' Valliere (Rocket), Seymour Cassel (Morty O'Reilly), Cher (Herself)
'What starts out as a conventional celebration of physical difference ends up as a familiar swipe at Hollywood, with few laughs in between.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'Hits a new low... remains resoundingly unfunny' – David Rooney, Variety

The Stud

GB 1978 90m colour
Brent Walker/Artoc (Edward D. Simons)

A millionaire's wife installs her lover as manager of a discotheque, but he becomes bored and wants a place of his own.
Life among the unpleasant rich. A surprise box-office success, richly undeserved.
w Jackie Collins novel Jackie Collins d Quentin Masters ph Peter Hannan m Biddu ☆ Joan Collins, Oliver Tobias, Sue Lloyd, Mark Burns, Doug Fisher, Walter Gotell
'Watching it is rather like being buried alive in a coffin stuffed with back numbers of Men Only.' – Alan Brien

The Student Prince

US 1954 107m Anscocolor Cinemascope
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

A prince studies in Heidelberg and falls for a barmaid.
Ruritanian operetta, lumpishly filmed, with Mario Lanza providing only the voice of the hero as he got too fat to play the part.
w William Ludwig, Sonya Levien play Old Heidelberg by Wilhelm Meyer-Foerster operetta Dorothy Donnelly d Richard Thorpe ph Paul C. Vogel m Sigmund Romberg md George Stoll
☆ Edmund Purdom, Ann Blyth, John Williams, Edmund Gwenn, S. Z. Sakall, John Ericson, Louis Calhern, Betta St John, Evelyn Varden
† Without the music, the play had been filmed at MGM in 1926, with Ramon Novarro and Norma Shearer under Ernst Lubitsch's direction.

Student Tour

US 1934 80m bw
MGM

A professor of philosophy chaperones a world tour by collegiates.
Very thin comedy yarn with songs.
w Ralph Spence, Philip Dunne d Charles F. Reisner
☆ Jimmy Durante, Charles Butterworth, Maxine Doyle, Phil Regan, Douglas Fowley, Betty Grable, Nelson Eddy
'Long, slow, and of mild entertainment appeal.' – Variety

The Studio Murder Mystery

US 1929 62m bw
Paramount

An actor is murdered on a film set.
Primitive talkie comedy mystery now interesting only for its studio backgrounds.
w Frank Tuttle serial the Edingtons d Frank Tuttle
☆ Neil Hamilton, Florence Eldridge, Warner Oland, Eugene Pallette, Fredric March, Doris Hill, Chester Conklin

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Studs Lonigan
US 1960 95m bw
Longridge (Philip Yordan)

The growing up of an unlettered Chicago Irishman in the twenties.
Rough-and-ready version of a celebrated novel, not a bad try but insufficiently detailed to be any kind of classic.
w Philip Yordan novel James T. Farrell
d Irving Lerner ph Arthur Feindel
m Jerry Goldsmith
☆ Christopher Knight, Jack Nicholson, Frank Gorshin

A Study in Scarlet
US 1933 71m bw
KBS

Sherlock Holmes solves a mysterious murder.
Rather emaciated version of a spirited yarn.
w Robert Florey story Sir Arthur Conan Doyle d Edwin L. Marin ☆ Reginald Owen, Warburton Gamble, Anna May Wong, June Clyde, Alan Dinehart, Alan Mowbray
'Okay for secondary houses.' – Variety

A Study in Terror ★
GB 1965 95m Eastmancolor
Compton-Tekli/Sir Nigel (Henry E. Lester)

Sherlock Holmes discovers the identity of Jack the Ripper.
A reasonably good Holmes pastiche marred by a surfeit of horror and over-riotous local colour; quite literate, but schizophrenic.
w Donald and Derek Ford novel Ellery Queen d James Hill ph Desmond Dickinson m John Scott ad Alex Vetchinsky
☆ John Neville, Donald Houston, John Fraser, Robert Morley, Cecil Parker, Anthony Quayle, Barbara Windsor, Adrienne Corri, Judi Dench, Frank Finlay, Barry Jones, Kay Walsh, Georgia Brown

The Stuff
US 1985 93m Technicolor
New World (Paul Kurta)

A monstrous yogurt-like goo eats people from the inside out.
Messy comedy-horror without benefit of much plotline.
wd Larry Cohen ph Paul Glickman
m Anthony Guefen
☆ Michael Moriarty, Andrea Marcovicci, Paul Sorvino, Scott Bloom, Danny Aiello, Alexander Scourby

The Stunt Man ★
US 1980 129m Metrocolor
Melvin Simon (Richard Rush)

A Vietnam veteran on the run from the police finds refuge as a star stunt man for a sinister film director.
Overlong, curious, but sometimes compelling melodrama which entertains on the surface while its actual aims are harder to fathom.
w Lawrence B. Marcus novel Paul Brodeur
d Richard Rush ph Mario Tosi
m Dominic Frontière
☆ Peter O'Toole, Steve Railsback, Barbara Hershey, Allen Goorwitz, Alex Rocco, Sharon Farrell
'It's like one of those sets of Chinese boxes, each one with another box inside, growing smaller and smaller until finally there is nothing left at all.' – Roger Ebert
Ⱥ screenplay; Richard Rush; Peter O'Toole

Stunts ★
US 1977 90m colour
New Line (Raymond Lafaro, William Panzer)

The brother of a murdered stuntman takes his place in order to investigate the death.
Slick action thriller which capitalizes on the attraction of daring stunts.
w Barney Chen, Dennis Johnson story Michael Harpster, Raymond Lafaro, Robert Shaye d Mark L. Lester ph Bruce Logan m Michael Kamen ed Corky Ehlers
☆ Robert Forster, Fiona Lewis, Joanna Cassidy, Darrell Fetty, Bruce Glover, James Luisi

Stupeur et Tremblements: see Fear and Trembling

The Stupids
US 1995 94m Technicolor
Rank/Savoy/New Line/Imagine (Leslie Belzberg)

The dim father of a dimmer family tries to discover who is stealing his garbage.
Based on the characters from a successful series of children's books, this manages to be no more than a succession of crudely laborious slapstick jokes.
w Brent Forrester books James Marshall, Henry Allard d John Landis ph Manfred Guthe m Christopher Stone pd Phil Dagort ed Dale Beldin
☆ Tom Arnold, Jessica Lundy, Bug Hall, Alex McKenna, Mark Metcalf, Matt Keeslar, Christopher Lee
'Not quite bad enough to be laughable.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian † Directors making mercifully brief appearances include Mick Garris, David Cronenberg, Costa-Gavras, Robert Wise, Atom Egoyan, Norman Jewison and Gillo Pontecorvo.

Su Zhou He: see Suzhou River

The Subject Was Roses ★
US 1968 107m Metrocolor
MGM (Edgar Lansbury)

A young war veteran finds he can't communicate with his parents, and vice versa.
Photographed play notable for its performances.
w Frank D. Gilroy play Frank D. Gilroy
d Ulu Grosbard ph Jack Priestley
☆ Patricia Neal, Jack Albertson, Martin Sheen, Don Saxon, Elaine Williams
Jack Albertson
Patricia Neal

Submarine Command
US 1951 87m bw
Paramount (John Farrow, Joseph Sistrom)

A submarine officer who considers himself a coward becomes a hero in Korea.
Very routine soul-searching actioner.
w Jonathan Latimer d John Farrow
ph Lionel Lindon m David Buttolph
☆ William Holden, Don Taylor, Nancy Olsen, William Bendix, Moroni Olson, Peggy Webber

Submarine D1
US 1937 93m bw
Cosmopolitan/Warner

Adventures of recruits to the naval submarine service.
Standard flagwaver of no intrinsic interest.
w Frank Wead, Warren Duff, Lawrence Kimble d Lloyd Bacon
☆ Pat O'Brien, George Brent, Wayne Morris, Frank McHugh, Doris Weston, Ronald Reagan, Henry O'Neill, Regis Toomey, Broderick Crawford
'An instructive and illuminating document ... film waves its own flag, the best on earth, and with some exhibitor push it should do business.' – Variety

'Youth ... Eager, Vital ... Offers Its Life ... Glorifies Its Ardent Love ... In The Greatest Adventure Of The Great War!'

Submarine Patrol
US 1938 93m bw
TCF (Darryl Zanuck)

Recruits learn to handle sub-chasing boats at Annapolis.
Cheerful propaganda comedy-drama with familiar faces on hand and some good thrill sequences.
w Rian James, Darrell Ware, Jack Yellen book Ray Milholland d John Ford
☆ Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Preston Foster, George Bancroft, Slim Summerville, John Carradine, Henry Armetta, Warren Hymer, Elisha Cook Jnr, E. E. Clive, Ward Bond, George E. Stone
'Surefire film entertainment directed by a veteran who knows all the tricks.' – Variety

Submarine X-1
GB 1967 90m Eastmancolor
UA/Mirisch (John C. Champion)

A submarine commander in World War II trains men to attack the Lindendorf in midget submarines.
Belated quota quickie, routine in every department.
w Donald S. Sanford, Guy Elmes story John C. Champion, Edmund North
d William Graham ph Paul Beeson
m Ron Goodman ad Bill Andrews
ed John S. Smith
☆ James Caan (Commander Bolton), Norman Bowler (Sub Lt Pennington), David Sumner (Lt Davies), Rupert Davies (Vice Admiral Redmayne), William Dysart (Lt Gogan), Brian Grellis (CPO Barquist), Paul Young (Leading Seaman Quentin), John Kelland (Sub Lt Willis)

Submarine Zone: see Escape to Glory

'Doing What Is Right... Could Cost Him Everything.'

The Substance of Fire
US 1996 97m colour
Miramax (Jon Robin Baitz, Randy Finch, Ron Kastner)

A holocaust survivor loses control of his mind and publishing business in a dispute with his children, opposed to his overbearing and controlling ways.
Wordy, and not particularly illuminating, drama about a man who loves books more than people.
w Jon Robin Baitz play Jon Robin Baitz
d Daniel Sullivan ph Robert Yeoman
m Joseph Vitarelli pd John Lee Beatty
ed Pamela Martin
☆ Tony Goldwyn (Aaron Geldhart), Sarah Jessica Parker (Sarah Geldhart), Ron Rifkin (Isaac Geldhart), Gil Bellows (Val Chenard), Ronny Graham (Louis Foukold), Elizabeth Franz (Miss Barzakian), Debra Monk (Martha Hackett), Roger Rees (Max), Eric Bogosian (Gene Byck), Timothy Hutton (Martin Geldhart)
'Goes through all the motions with proper style and casting but is curiously devoid of emotional impact.' – Lisa Nesselson, Variety

The Substitute
US 1996 103m Foto-Kem
Live Entertainment/Dinamo/H2 (Morrie Eisenman, Jim Steele)

When his girlfriend, a teacher, is beaten up by drug dealers involved with her school, a commando-turned-mercenary substitutes for her and sorts out the trouble with the aid of some old friends.
Proficiently made but empty drama composed of third-hand and fourth-rate elements that hardly warrant repetition: a deprived school, young hoodlums, large men with big guns, and a narrative with more holes in it than its many dead. The explosive finale illustrates the maxim that in order to save the school, it was necessary to destroy it.
w Roy Frumkes, Rocco Simonelli, Alan Ormsby d Robert Mandel ph Bruce Surtees m Gary Chang pd Ron Foreman ed Alex Mackie
☆ Tom Berenger, Ernie Hudson, Diane Venora, Glenn Plummer, Marc Anthony, Raymond Cruz, Cliff de Young, Richard Brooks, William Forsythe
'A throwback to the mid-80s, when many films as tawdry as this used to get a cinema release.' – Sight and Sound

Subterfuge
GB 1968 86m Eastmancolor
Rank/Intertel (Peter Snell)

In London a CIA agent becomes involved with the wife of a British double-agent.
A routine retread of standard spy stories, crippled by its inexplicable narrative.
w David Whitaker d Peter Graham Scott ph Roy Garner, Albert Tolley m Cyril Ornadel ad Ron Fouracre ed Bill Lewthwaite
☆ Gene Barry, Joan Collins, Richard Todd, Tom Adams, Suzanna Leigh, Michael Rennie, Marius Goring, Colin Gordon
'A sad waste of several very capable players.' – Brenda Davies, MFB

'We are the new Bohemians!'

The Subterraneans
US 1960 89m Metrocolor
Cinemascope
MGM (Arthur Freed)

The love affairs of San Francisco bohemians.
A boring oddity with lashings of eccentric behaviour and sexual hang-ups; MGM venturing very timidly outside its field.
w Robert Thom novel Jack Kerouac
d Ranald MacDougall ph Joseph Ruttenberg m André Previn
☆ George Peppard, Leslie Caron, Janice Rule, Roddy McDowall, Anne Seymour, Jim Hutton

'He's an intergalactic Super Hero whose quest is to rid the Universe of evil-doers and combat the forces of darkness ... But sometimes you gotta come down to Earth.'

Suburban Commando
US 1991 90m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line (Howard Gottfried)

An alien bounty-hunter takes a holiday on Earth and lodges with a suburban family.
Amiable, juvenile, low-brow comedy of no particular originality or distinction.
w Frank Capello d Burt Kennedy
ph Patrick J. Swovelin pd Ivo Cristante, C. J. Strawn ed Sonny Baskin sp creature effects: Steve Johnson's XFX Productions
☆ Hulk Hogan, Christopher Lloyd, Shelley Duvall
'A sort of sickly lovechild of Star Wars

(whose effects are reproduced on the cheap, and whose music is repeatedly plagiarized) and Kindergarten Cop.' – Adam Mars-Jones, Independent

'Why would a nineteen-year-old girl kill her own father?'

Suburban Mayhem ★ ④

Australia 2006 89m
Contender/Film Finance Corporation Australia/New Doll/NSW Film and Television Office (Leah Churchill-Brown)

A vampish teenage girl has a documentary made about her and becomes a celebrity.
Darkly comic, bracing and intermittently funny, but lacking a sense of vulgar style appropriate for its trashy heroine.
w Alice Bell d Paul Goldman ph Robert Humphreys m Mick Harvey pd Neil Hanson ad Jane Parker ed Stephen Evans
☆ Emily Barclay (Katrina Skinner), Steve Bastoni (Detective Andretti), Laurence Breuls (Danny), Michael Dorman (Rusty)

Suburbia ★

US 1983 99m colour
Suburbia Productions (Bert Dragin)

aka: The Wild Side
A gang of rebellious teenagers leave home to set up their own community, arousing the antagonism of their parents.
Uncompromising account of unlovely LA punks and unlovelier adults that makes something personal out of standard teen-rebellion material.
wd Penelope Spheeris ph Timothy Suhrstedt m Alex Gibson ad Randy Moore ed Ross Albert
☆ Chris Pederson, Bill Coyne, Jennifer Clay, Timothy Eric O'Brien, Wade Walston, Mike B. The Flea, Maggie Ehrig, Grant Miner, Christina Beck

SubUrbia ★★ ③

US 1996 121m Technicolor
Carlton/Castle Rock/Detour

The return of a rock star to his home town precipitates a crisis among the three high-school friends he left behind.
Set in the car park of a convenience store, among disaffected twenty-or-so-year-olds, a darkly compelling take on stranded lives being thrown away.
w Eric Bogosian play Eric Bogosian d Richard Linklater ph Lee Daniel m Sonic Youth pd Catherine Hardwicke ed Sandra Adair ☆ Jayce Bartok, Amie Carey, Nicky Katt, Ajay Naidu, Parker Posey, Giovanni Ribisi, Samia Shoaib, Dina Spybey, Steve Zahn
'Truly great film-making combined with a truly great play.' – Alan Jones, Film Review

'An underground story where lives intertwine.'

Subway

France 1985 104m colour
CinemaScope
Gaumount/Films du Loup/TSF/TFI

An eccentric hero on the run from thugs takes refuge overnight in the Paris Metro.
Oddball melodrama with more style than substance.
w Luc Besson and others d Luc Besson ph Carlo Varini m Eric Serra ad Alexandre Trauner ☆ Christophe Lambert, Isabelle Adjani, Richard Bohringer

Subway in the Sky

GB 1958 87m bw
Orbit (John Temple-Smith, Patrick Filmer-Sankey)

A Berlin cabaret star finds her landlady's ex-husband, a deserter, hiding in her apartment and sets out to prove his innocence of drug smuggling.
Tedious photographed play with precious few points of dramatic interest.
w Jack Andrews play Ian Main d Muriel Box ph Wilkie Cooper m Mario Nascimbene ☆ Hildegarde Neff, Van Johnson, Katherine Kath, Cec Linder, Albert Lieven, Edward Judd

Success at Any Price

US 1934 74m bw
RKO

A young man climbs to great business heights by crushing those around him, then attempts suicide when the crash comes.
Slackly handled drama with an unsympathetic hero.
w John Howard Lawson, Howard J. Green d J. Walter Ruben ☆ Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Genevieve Tobin, Frank Morgan, Colleen Moore, Edward Everett Horton, Nydia Westman, Henry Kolker
'Episodic, unreasonable and anything but audience proof.' – Variety

Success Is the Best Revenge

GB/France 1984 91m Technicolor
De Vere/Gaumont (Jerzy Skolimowski)

A Polish theatre director in London stages a symbolic show but alienates his son.
Another study of Polish exiles to follow Moonlighting, but this time with surrealist elements.
w Jerzy Skolimowski, Michael Lyndon d Jerzy Skolimowski ph Mike Fash m Stanley Myers, Hans Zimmer
☆ Michael York, Joanna Szczerbic, Michael Lyndon, Jerry Skol, Michel Piccoli, John Hurt, Anouk Aimée, Jane Asher

A Successful Calamity

US 1931 75m bw
Warner

A millionaire discovers the true worth of his family when he pretends to be poor.
Good star vehicle which pleases despite its predictability.
w Maude Howell, Julien Josephson and Austin Parker play Clare Kummer d John G. Adolfi
☆ George Arliss, Mary Astor, Evalyn Knapp, Grant Mitchell, William Janney

Succubus

West Germany 1967 91m colour
Border/Trans American/Aquila (Adrian Hoven)

original title: Necronomicon – Geträumte Stünden
aka: Necronomicon
A mysterious woman, who performs a night-club act that involves sex and sadism, is haunted by a past she cannot quite remember and fantasizes scenes of love-making and death.
An unholy mix of cut-rate surrealism, pretentious dialogue and incomprehensible narrative which has a vague connection with the legend of Faust; it will not bear close examination.
w Pier A. Caminneci d Jess (Jesús) Franco ph Robert Gaffron m Friedrich Gulda md Jerry Van Rooyen ad Karl Heinz Mannchen ed Frizzi Schmidt ☆ Janine Reynaud, Jack Taylor, Howard Vernon, Nathalie Nort, Michel Lemoine, Pier A. Caminneci, Adrian Hoven
'An absurdly hit-or-miss affair, with scenes that have a certain bizarre appeal (shop window dummies coming to life) juxtaposed with others of crushing banality.' – David McGillivray, MFB
† The British release was cut to 81m.

Such a Gorgeous Kid Like Me: see Une Belle Fille Comme Moi

Such a Long Journey ★

Canada/GB 1998 113m colour
Optimum/Long Journey/Amy (Paul Stephens, Simon McCorkindale)

In Bombay during the 1970s, a Parsi bank clerk copes with family and other problems.
This saga of one man losing control of his life provides some intermittently interesting moments before it gives way to melodrama and sentimentality.
w Sooni Taraporevala novel Rohinton Mistry d Sturla Gunnarsson ph Jan Kiesser m Jonathan Goldsmith pd Nitin Desai ed Jeff Warren
☆ Om Puri (Ghulam), Roshan Seth (Gustad Noble), Naseeruddin Shah (Jimmy Bilimoria), Sam Dastor (Dinshawji), Kurush Deboo (Tehmul), Vrajesh Hirjee (Sohrab Noble), Shazneed Damania (Roshan Noble), Ranjit Chowdhry (pavement artist), Soni Razdan (Dilnavaz Noble)
'Heartfelt, humane and comic.' – Empire

Such a Pretty Little Beach: see Une Si Jolie Petite Plage

Such Good Friends ★

US 1971 102m Movielab
Paramount/Sigma (Otto Preminger)

A successful man has a mysterious illness and his wife enlists help from his friends.
Satirical parable which alternates between sex comedy and medical exposé; generally heavy-going but with good moments.
w Elaine May novel Lois Gould d Otto Preminger ph Gayne Rescher m Thomas Z. Shepard
☆ Dyan Cannon, James Coco, Jennifer O'Neil, Nina Foch, Laurence Luckinbill, Ken Howard, Burgess Meredith, Louise Lasser, Sam Levene, Rita Gam, Nancy Guild

Such Men Are Dangerous

US 1930 83m bw
Fox

A crooked financier undergoes plastic surgery and leads a new life.
Phoney melodrama with slow pace and unconvincing details.
w Ernest Vajda, Elinor Glyn d Kenneth Hawks
☆ Warner Baxter, Catherine Dale Owen, Albert Conti, Hedda Hopper, Claud Allister, Bela Lugosi
'Will bore intelligent fans and impress even the gullible with its implausibilities.' – Variety

Such Men Are Dangerous: see The Racers (1955)

Such Women Are Dangerous

US 1934 81m bw
Fox

Through circumstances an innocent man about town is accused of murder.
Mild drama which fails through slack handling.
w Jane Storm, Oscar M. Sheridan story Odd Thursday by Vera Caspary d James Flood ☆ Warner Baxter, Rosemary Ames, Rochelle Hudson, Mona Barrie, Herbert Mundin, Henrietta Crosman
'Just fair screen amusement.' – Variety

Suchimuboi: see Steamboy

Sudba Cheloveka: see Destiny of a Man

'Action Goes Into Overtime.'

Sudden Death ★

US 1995 110m DeLuxe Panavision
Universal/Signature/Baldwin Cohen (Moshe Diamant, Howard Baldwin)

A fire marshal deals with a gang who take the Vice-President hostage and demand a $1.7 billion ransom during an ice-hockey game.
Fast-paced action movie; it is mindless entertainment, but efficiently delivers the requisite thrills and spills.
w Gene Quintano story Karen Baldwin d Peter Hyams ph Peter Hyams m John Debney pd Philip Harrison ed Steven Kemper
☆ Jean-Claude Van Damme, Powers Boothe, Raymond J. Barry, Whittni Wright, Ross Malinger, Dorian Harewood, Kate McNeil, Michael Gaston
'A whipcord-taut actioner that's bigger and better than its main star.' – Variety
'Tripe, but hard not to enjoy' – Empire

Sudden Fear ★★

US 1952 111m bw
RKO/Joseph Kaufman

A playwright heiress finds that her husband is plotting to kill her.
Archetypal star suspenser, glossy and effectively climaxed.
w Lenore Coffee, Robert Smith d David Miller ph Charles Lang Jnr m Elmer Bernstein
☆ Joan Crawford, Jack Palance, Gloria Grahame, Bruce Bennett, Mike Connors
♙ Charles Lang Jnr; Joan Crawford; Jack Palance

'Go on – make his day!'

Sudden Impact

US 1983 117m Technicolor
Warner/Malpaso (Clint Eastwood)

San Francisco detective Harry Callahan goes after a lady killer of men who raped her.
Unattractive and overlong cop show featuring an increasingly tired Dirty Harry.
w Joseph C. Stinson d Clint Eastwood ph Bruce Surtees m Lalo Schifrin pd Edward Carfagno
☆ Clint Eastwood, Sondra Locke, Pat Hingle, Bradford Dillman, Paul Drake
'Eastwood presumably takes credit for such gems of authorial self-awareness as replacing the orang-outang of the Which Way films, with a farting dog.' – Paul Taylor, MFB
'To all those cowboy movies we saw in our youth, all those TV westerns and cop dramas and war movies, Dirty Harry has brought a great simplification: A big man, a big gun, a bad guy, and instant justice.' – Roger Ebert

Sudden Terror: see Eyewitness (1970)

Suddenly: see Tan de Repente

Suddenly ★

US 1954 75m bw
UA/Robert Bassler

Gunmen take over a suburban house and plan to assassinate the President who is due to pass by.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Moderately effective minor suspenser with rather too much psychological chat.
w Richard Sale d Lewis Allen ph Charles G. Clarke m David Raksin
☆ Frank Sinatra, Sterling Hayden, James Gleason, Nancy Gates, Kim Charney

'What she doesn't know about spring – neither does Cupid!'

Suddenly It's Spring

US 1947 87m bw
Paramount (Claude Binyon)
A WAC captain comes home to find that her husband wants a divorce.
Tired romantic comedy with no fizz at all.
w Claude Binyon d Mitchell Leisen
ph Daniel L. Fapp m Victor Young ☆ Paulette Goddard, Macdonald Carey, Fred MacMurray, Arleen Whelan, Lillian Fontaine, Frank Faylen, Victoria Horne

Suddenly Last Summer ★

GB 1959 114m bw
Columbia/Horizon (Sam Spiegel)
A homosexual poet's young cousin goes mad when she sees him raped and murdered by beach boys.
Arty flashback talk-piece from a one-act play, padded out with much sub-poetic mumbo jumbo; it takes too long to get to the revelation, which is ambiguously presented anyway.
w Gore Vidal play Tennessee Williams d Joseph L. Mankiewicz ph Jack Hildyard m Buxton Orr, Malcolm Arnold pd Oliver Messel
☆ Katharine Hepburn, Elizabeth Taylor, Montgomery Clift, Albert Dekker, Mercedes McCambridge, Gary Raymond
'A short play turns into a ludicrous, lumbering horror movie.' – New Yorker, 1978
'I loathe this film, I say so candidly. To my mind it is a decadent piece of work, sensational, barbarous and ridiculous.' – C. A. Lejeune, Observer
'A wholly admirable rendering into film of a work at once fascinating and nauseating, brilliant and immoral.' – Arthur Knight
♗ Katharine Hepburn; Elizabeth Taylor; art direction

'Driven By The Love Of Two Women ... He Tore Continents Apart That Ships Might Sail The Desert!'

Suez ★

US 1938 104m bw
TCF (Gene Markey)
The career of French engineer Ferdinand de Lesseps, who built the Suez Canal.
Superbly mounted but rather undramatic fictionalized biopic.
w Philip Dunne, Julien Josephson story Sam Duncan d Allan Dwan ph Peverell Marley m David Raksin, David Buttolph, Cyril Mockridge md Louis Silvers ☆ Tyrone Power, Annabella, Loretta Young, J. Edward Bromberg, Joseph Schildkraut, Henry Stephenson, Sidney Blackmer, Maurice Moscovich, Sig Rumann, Nigel Bruce, Miles Mander, George Zucco, Leon Ames, Rafaela Ottiano
'It's a big film in its attempt, but it misses out on its epic aims.' – Variety
♗ Peverell Marley; Louis Silvers

Sugar Cane Alley: see Rue Cases Nègres

Sugar Hill

US 1994 123m DeLuxe
TCF/Beacon/South Street (Rudy Langlais, Gregory Brown)
Two brothers, successful drug dealers in Harlem, have a gang war on their hands, but one of them decides to give up the life that has made them rich because he has fallen in love with an actress.
Trite melodrama with flashbacks – to the death of his mother from an overdose of heroin, the shooting of his drug-dealing father by gangsters, and to his own academic prowess – designed to elicit sympathy for its guilt-ridden, thuggish protagonist; but he remains a blank and uninteresting one.
w Barry Michael Cooper d Leon Ichaso
ph Bojan Bazelli m Terence Blanchard
pd Michael Helmy ed Gary Carr
☆ Wesley Snipes, Michael Wright, Theresa Randle, Leslie Uggams, Larry Joshua, Sam Bottoms, Joe Dallesandro, Clarence Williams III, Abe Vigoda, Ernie Hudson
'At every level, this is a film falling short of conviction.' – Sight and Sound

Sugarbaby ★★

West Germany 1984 87m colour
Electric/Pelemele film/BMI/Bayerischen Rundfunks (Eleonore Adlon) original title: Zuckerbaby
A fat woman pursues a handsome, married train driver whom she loves.
Enjoyable and witty romantic comedy.
wd Percy Adlon ph Johanna Heer
m Dreier, Franz Erlmeier, Fritz Köstler, Paul Würges Combo pd Matthias Heller
ed Jean-Claude Piroue
☆ Marianne Sägebrecht, Eisi Gulp, Toni Berger, Manuela Denz, Will Spindler, Hans Stadlbauer

Sugarfoot

US 1951 80m Technicolor
Warner
TV title: Swirl of Glory
Two men meet on a train for Prescott, Arizona, and each determines to make the town his own.
Unusual but fatally sluggish Western.
w Russell Hughes novel Clarence Budington Kelland d Edwin L. Marin ph Wilfred Cline m Max Steiner
ed Clarence Kolster
☆ Randolph Scott, Raymond Massey, Adele Jergens, S. Z. Sakall, Robert Warwick, Arthur Hunnicutt

'The true story of a girl who took on all of Texas ... and almost won.'

Sugarland Express ★★★

US 1974 110m Technicolor Panavision
Universal (Richard Zanuck, David Brown)
A convict's wife persuades him to escape because their baby is being adopted, and they inadvertently leave behind them a trail of destruction, ending in tragedy.
Mainly comic adventures with a bitter aftertaste, very stylishly handled.
w Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins
d Steven Spielberg ph Vilmos Zsigmond
m John Williams ad Joe Alves ed Edward Abroms, Verna Fields ☆ Goldie Hawn (Lou Jean Poplin), Ben Johnson (Capt. Tanner), Michael Sacks (Officer Slide), William Atherton (Clovis Poplin)
'Ace in the Hole meets Vanishing Point.' – Sight and Sound

The Suicide Club: see Trouble for Two

Suicide Squadron: see Dangerous Moonlight

Suite 16

GB/Belgium 1994 100m colour
Feature Film/Corsan/Theorema (Paul Breuls)
A wealthy voyeur in a wheelchair hires a young gigolo to seduce a woman and kill her while he listens.
A slick but hollow account of decadence and power, not far removed from the staple of Soho cinema clubs in its emphasis on sex.
w Charles Higson, Lise Mayer
d Dominique Deruddere ph Jean-François Robin m Walter Hus ed Kant Pan ☆ Pete Postlethwaite, Antonie Kamerling, Geraldine Pailhas, Tom Jansen, Bart Siegers
'A pretty silly film from a director who has enough talent to stop farting about with semi-porn.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

The Suitor ★

France 1962 85m bw CAPAC
original title: Le Soupirant
A nervous young man makes several attempts to get married.
The most successful feature of Pierre Etaix, a student of Tati: his jokes are more polished but in the end his own personality seems rather lacking.
w Pierre Etaix, Jean-Claude Carrière
d Pierre Etaix ph Pierre Levant m Jean Paillaud ☆ Pierre Etaix, Laurence Lignères, France Arnell

The Sullivans ★

US 1944 111m bw
TCF (Sam Jaffe)
reissue title: The Fighting Sullivans
Five sons of the same family are killed in World War II.
Inspirational true story which had a wide appeal.
w Mary C. McCall Jnr d Lloyd Bacon
ph Lucien Andriot m Alfred Newman
☆ Anne Baxter, Thomas Mitchell, Selena Royle, Edward Ryan, Trudy Marshall, John Campbell, James Cardwell, John Alvin, George Offerman Jnr, Roy Roberts
♗ original story (Jules Schermer, Edward Doherty)

'There's no speed limit and no brake when Sullivan travels with Veronica Lake!'

Sullivan's Travels ★★★★

US 1941 90m bw
Paramount (Paul Jones)
A Hollywood director tires of comedy and goes out to find real life.
Marvellously sustained tragi-comedy which ranges from pratfalls to the chain gang and never loses its grip or balance.
wd Preston Sturges ph John Seitz m Leo Shuken ad Hans Dreier, Earl Hedrick
ed Stuart Gilmore
☆ Joel McCrea (John L. Sullivan), Veronica Lake (The Girl), Robert Warwick (Mr. Lebrand), William Demarest (Mr. Jones), Franklin Pangborn (Mr. Casalais), Porter Hall (Mr. Hadrian), Byron Foulger (Mr. Valdelle), Eric Blore (Sullivan's Valet), Robert Greig (Sullivan's Butler), Torben Meyer (The Doctor), Jimmy Conlin (Trusty), Margaret Hayes (Secretary)
DEDICATION: 'To all the funny men and clowns who have made people laugh.'
'A brilliant fantasy in two keys – slapstick farce and the tragedy of human misery.' – James Agee
'The most witty and knowing spoof of Hollywood movie-making of all time.' – Film Society Review
'A deftly sardonic apologia for Hollywood make-believe.' – New York Times
'Reflecting to perfection the mood of wartime Hollywood, it danced on the grave of thirties social cinema.' – Eileen Bowser, 1969
† A Region 1 DVD release includes a documentary on Preston Sturges and commentary by Kenneth Bowser, Noah Baumbach, Christopher Guest and Michael McKean.

'27,000 nuclear weapons. One is missing.'

The Sum of All Fears

US 2002 124m DeLuxe Panavision
Paramount (Mace Neufeld)
An American secret agent prevents a nuclear war between the US and Russia.
Bombastic hokum that uses the destruction of Boston by nuclear bomb solely to show off the gung-ho attitude of its hero, dourly played by the uncharismatic Affleck; it never recovers from this miscalculation.
w Paul Attanasio, Daniel Pyne novel Tom Clancy d Phil Alden Robinson ph John Lindley m Jerry Goldsmith pd Jeannine Oppewall ed Neil Travis sp Rhythm & Hues
☆ Ben Affleck (Jack Ryan), Morgan Freeman (DCI William Cabot), James Cromwell (President Fowler), Liev Schreiber (John Clark), Bridget Moynahan (Dr Cathy Muller), Alan Bates (Dressler), Ciaran Hinds (President Nemerov), Philip Baker Hall (Defense Secretary Becker), Ron Rifkin (Secretary of State Owens), Colm Feore (Olson)
'One whale of an exciting action blockbuster.' – Rex Reed, New York Observer
'Trite espionage thriller without the thrills but with a lingering measure of nausea.' – Michael Atkinson, Village Voice

'Not your typical father and son story.'

The Sum of Us

Australia 1994 95m colour
Southern Star/AFFC (Hal McElroy)
A widowed father and his gay son both search for other relationships.
Engaging performances are not enough to compensate for the longeurs in this small-scale, earnest and sentimental drama of male bonding and homophobia.
w David Stevens play David Stevens
d Kevin Dowling, Geoff Burton ph Geoff Burton m Dave Faulkner pd Graham (Grace) Walker ed Frans Vandenburg
☆ Jack Thompson, Russell Crowe, John Polson, Deborah Kennedy

Summer: see The Green Ray

A Summer Affair ★

France 1977 84m Eastmancolor Panavision
Gala/Renn Productions/Société Française de Production (Pierre Grunstein) original title: Un Moment D'égarement
aka: One Wild Moment
A middle-aged man begins an affair with his best friend's teenage daughter when the two families go on holiday together.
Occasionally witty examination of the generation gap.
wd Claude Berri ph André Neau
m Michel Stelio ed Jacques Witta
☆ Jean-Pierre Marielle, Victor Lanoux, Christine Dejoux, Agnes Soral, Martine Sarcey

† In 1984, the film was remade by Stanley Donen as Blame It On Rio.

'Bold ideas ... bolder people!'

Summer and Smoke

US 1961 118m Technicolor Panavision
Paramount/Hal B. Wallis

In a small Mississippi town in 1916, the minister's spinster daughter nurses an unrequited love for the local rebel.
Wearisome screen version, in hothouse settings, of a pattern play about earthly and spiritual love.
w James Poe, Meade Roberts play Tennessee Williams d Peter Glenville ph Charles Lang Jnr m Elmer Bernstein ad Walter Tyler
☆ Geraldine Page, Laurence Harvey, Una Merkel, John McIntire, Pamela Tiffin, Rita Moreno, Thomas Gomez, Casey Adams, Earl Holliman, Lee Patrick, Malcolm Atterbury
Elmer Bernstein; Geraldine Page; Una Merkel

A Summer at Grandpa's **

Taiwan 1984 102m colour
Marble Road (Chang Hwa-Kuen) original title: Tung-Tung-te chia-ch'i

When his mother becomes seriously ill, a 12-year-old boy is sent with his small sister to stay with his grandfather in the country.
An episodic film of some charm, in part nostalgic for the idle pleasures of a holiday, and in part a comment on the world of adults as seen through the eyes of the disinterested young. The family is the bedrock of society, remarks a notary marrying a reluctant couple, but the family depicted here seems on the point of disintegration, surviving only by absorbing some antisocial behaviour.
w Chu Tien-Wen, Hou Hsiao-Hsien d Hou Hsiao-Hsien ph Chen K'un'hou m Edward Yang
☆ Wang Qiguang, Zhou Shengli, Gu Jun, Mei Fang, Lin Xiuling

'live fast., die young'

Summer City

Australia 1977 83m colour
Avalon Films (Phil Avalon)

aka: Coast of Terror

Four friends set out for a weekend of surfing and fun.
Disjointed, semi-improvised movie celebrating an intensely masculine culture of booze and birds, of interest only as a glimspe of Gibson's inauspicious beginning.
w Phil Avalon d Christopher Fraser ph Jerry Marek m Phil Butkis pd Jann Harris ed David Stiven
☆ John Jarratt (Sandy), Phil Avalon (Robbie), Steve Bisley (Boo), Mel Gibson (Scollop), James Elliott (Caroline's Father), Debbie Forman (Caroline), Abigail (Woman in Pub), Ward 'Pally' Austin (Himself)
'It was never finished. All the leading actors fell into a serious argument with the producer and refused to continue working on the project. I never expected to see it on the screen.' – Christopher Fraser, IMDB
'An abomination.' – Mel Gibson
† Mel Gibson was paid $20 for his role.

Summer Holiday **

US 1948 92m Technicolor
MGM (Arthur Freed)

Life for a small-town family at the turn of the century.
Musical version of a famous play: excellent individual numbers, warm playing and sympathetic scenes, but a surprising lack of overall style.
w Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Ralph Blane play Ah Wilderness by Eugene O'Neill d Rouben Mamoulian ph Charles Schoenbaum md Lennie Hayton ch Charles Walters songs Harry Warren, Ralph Blane
☆ Walter Huston, Mickey Rooney, Frank Morgan, Agnes Moorehead, Butch Jenkins, Selena Royle, Marilyn Maxwell, Gloria de Haven, Anne Francis
† The film was finished in 1946 and held back because it seemed unlikely to succeed.

Summer Holiday *

GB 1962 109m Technicolor Cinemascope
ABP/Ivy (Kenneth Harper)

Four young London Transport mechanics borrow a double-decker bus for a continental holiday.
Pacy, location-filmed youth musical with plenty of general appeal.
w Peter Myers, Ronnie Cass d Peter Yates ph John Wilcox md Stanley Black ☆ Cliff Richard, Lauri Peters, Melvyn Hayes, Una Stubbs, Teddy Green, Ron Moody, Lionel Murton, David Kossoff

Summer Interlude *

Sweden 1950 97m bw
Svensk Filmindustri (Alan Ekelund)

original title: Sommarlek

A prima ballerina remembers a happy summer she spent with a boy who was tragically killed.
Melancholy romance quite typical of its creator but with less density of meaning than usual.
w Ingmar Bergman, Herbert Grevenius d Ingmar Bergman ph Gunnar Fischer, Bengt Jarnmark m Erik Nordgren
☆ Maj-Britt Nilsson, Birger Malmsten, Alf Kjellin

Summer Lightning: see Scudda Hoo, Scudda Hay

Summer Lovers

US 1982 98m Technicolor Panavision
Orion (Mike Moder)

A young man on holiday on a Greek island persuades his girlfriend that he needs a local girl as well.
A movie with little dialogue and less intelligence, just attractive locations, through which the three principals romp inanely to bubble-gum music. It might just pass muster on the level of a tourist brochure.
wd Randal Kleiser ph Timothy Galfas, Dimitri Papaconstandis m Basil Poledouris pd Bruce Weintraub ed Robert Gordon
☆ Peter Gallagher, Daryl Hannah, Valerie Quennessen, Barbara Rush, Carole Cook

Summer Madness: see Summertime

Summer Magic *

US 1963 104m Technicolor
Walt Disney (Ron Miller)

Children help their widowed mother in 1912 Boston.
Amiable remake of Mother Carey's Chickens, irreproachably presented.
w Sally Benson d James Neilson ph William Snyder m Buddy Baker songs the Sherman Brothers ☆ Hayley Mills, Burl Ives, Dorothy McGuire, Darren McGavin, Deborah Walley, Una Merkel, Eddie Hodges, Michael J. Pollard

Summer Manoeuvres: see Les Grandes Manoeuvres

Summer of '42 *

US 1971 103m Technicolor
Warner/Mulligan-Roth (Richard Alan Roth)

Adolescents make sexual explorations on a New England island in 1942.
Well-observed indulgence in the new permissiveness.
w Herman Raucher d Robert Mulligan ph Robert Surtees m Michel Legrand ☆ Jennifer O'Neill, Gary Grimes, Jerry Houser, Oliver Conant, Lou Frizzell
Michel Legrand
Herman Raucher; Robert Surtees
Michel Legrand

The Summer of Aviya *

Israel 1988 95m colour
Mutual/HSA (Eitan Evan, Gila Almagor)
original title: Hakayitz Shel Aviya

A young girl's unhappy relationship with her disturbed mother comes to a head during a summer holiday.
Affecting, semi-autobiographical account of suffering in the aftermath of the Second World War.
w Eli Cohen, Gila Almagor, Chaim Buzaglo novel Gila Almagor d Eli Cohen ph David Gurfinkel m Shem-Tov Levi ad Yoram Shayer ed Tova Ne'eman
☆ Gila Almagor, Kaipo Cohen, Eli Cohen, Marina Rosetti, Avital Dicker, Dina Avrech
'Eli Cohen transforms the horror and trauma of the past and its excesses into a measured, assured and humane expression of what can be achieved in the face of evil.' – MFB

'NYC '77. Disco In The Clubs Panic In The Streets '

Summer of Sam *

US 1999 142m Technicolor
Downtown/Touchstone/40 Acres and a Mule (Jon Kilik, Spike Lee)

A gang of Italian-Americans in the Bronx try to solve the mystery of a serial killer in the neighbourhood, during the hot summer of 1977.
The point of this shapeless ensemble piece seems to be a remark by a black woman that if the killer known as the Son of Sam had been black, there would have been riots in New York. Otherwise, it deals in minor panic and mishaps among stereotypical would-be mobsters; but not even the period detail is right.
w Victor Colicchio, Michael Imperioli, Spike Lee d Spike Lee ph Ellen Kuras m Terence Blanchard pd Therese DePrez ed Barry Alexander Brown cos Ruth E. Carter
☆ John Leguizamo (Vinny), Adrien Brody (Ritchie), Mira Sorvino (Dionna), Jennifer Esposito (Ruby), Anthony LaPaglia (Det Lou Petrocelli), Bebe Neuwirth (Gloria), Patti LuPone (Helen), Ben Gazarra (Luigi), Joe Lisi (Tony Olives), Michael Badalucco (Son of Sam), Michael Rispoli (Joe T), John Savage (Simon), Spike Lee (John Jeffries)
'A great little movie that has real heart and intelligence.' – Cosmo Landesman, Sunday Times
'An enormously energetic, flavourful film.' – Kim Newman, Empire

Summer of the Seventeenth Doll

US/Australia 1959 94m bw
UA/Hecht-Hill-Lancaster (Leslie Norman)
US title: Season of Passion

Two cane-cutters on their annual city lay-off have woman trouble.
Miscast and unsatisfactory rendering of a good play; the humour has evaporated.
w John Dighton play Ray Lawler d Leslie Norman ph Paul Beeson m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Ernest Borgnine, John Mills, Angela Lansbury, Anne Baxter, Vincent Ball

A Summer Place

US 1959 130m Technicolor
Warner (Delmer Daves)

Romantic summer adventures of teenagers and their elders on an island off the coast of Maine.
Sex among the idle rich: a routine piece of Hollywood gloss, bowdlerized from a bestseller.
wd Delmer Daves novel Sloan Wilson ph Harry Stradling m Max Steiner
☆ Richard Egan, Dorothy McGuire, Sandra Dee, Arthur Kennedy, Troy Donahue, Constance Ford, Beulah Bondi

Summer Rental

US 1985 93m colour
Paramount (George Shapiro)

An accident-prone air traffic controller takes his family on a holiday where everything goes wrong.
Broad, lively comedy that relies too heavily on the skills and charm of Candy, though he almost manages to carry the picture.
w Jeremy Stevens, Mark Reisman d Carl Reiner ph Ric Waite m Alan Silvestri pd Peter Woolev ed Bud Molin
☆ John Candy, Richard Crenna, Rip Torn, Karen Austin, Kerri Green, Joey Lawrence, Aubrey Jene, John Larroquette

Summer School

US 1987 98m Technicolor
Paramount (George Shapiro, Howard West)

A reluctant sports teacher, forced to give lessons in remedial English to even more reluctant students at summer school, makes a deal with his class.
Slight comedy that may amuse teenagers with nothing better to do with their time.
w Jeff Franklin, Stuart Birnbaum, David Dashev d Carl Reiner ph David M. Walsh m Danny Elfman pd David L. Snyder ed Bud Molin ☆ Mark Harmon, Kirstie Alley, Robin Thomas, Patrick Laborteaux, Courtney Thorne Smith, Dean Cameron, Gary Reilly

Summer Stock *

US 1950 109m Technicolor
MGM (Joe Pasternak)

GB title: If You Feel Like Singing

A theatre troupe takes over a farm for rehearsals, and the lady owner gets the bug.
Likeable but halting musical with the star's weight problems very obvious.
w George Wells, Sy Gomberg d Charles Walters ph Robert Planck m/ly Saul Chaplin, Harry Warren, Mack Gordon md Johnny Green ch Nick Castle
☆ Judy Garland, Gene Kelly, Gloria de Haven, Carleton Carpenter, Eddie Bracken, Phil Silvers, Hans Conried

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

† June Allyson was to have starred, but became pregnant.
♫ 'If You Feel Like Singing, Sing'; 'Dig-Dig-Dig-Dig for Your Dinner'; 'Mem'ry Island'; 'You, Wonderful You'; 'Friendly Star'; 'All For You'; 'Happy Harvest Howdy Neighbor'; 'Heavenly Music'

Summer Storm ★
US 1944 106m bw
(UA)
In 1912 Russia, a provincial judge falls for a local mancatcher.
One of Hollywood's occasional aberrations, an attempt to do something very European in typical west coast style. An interesting failure.
w Rowland Leigh story The Shooting Party by Anton Chekhov d Douglas Sirk
ph Archie Stout md Karl Hajos
☆ George Sanders, Linda Darnell, Edward Everett Horton, Anna Lee, Hugo Haas, John Philiber, Sig Rumann, André Charlot
'There are bits of acting and photography which put it as far outside the run of American movies as it laudably tries to be. But most of it had for me the sporty speciousness of an illustrated drugstore classic.' – James Agee
♗ Karl Hajos

A Summer Story
GB 1988 97m colour
Warner/ITC (Danton Rissner)
A lawyer recalls his love for a working-class country girl.
Stiff upper lip romance, pretty to look at but providing little else.
w Penelope Mortimer story The Apple Cart by John Galsworthy d Piers Haggard ph Kenneth MacMillan m Georges Delerue pd Leo Austin ed Ralph Sheldon ☆ James Wilby, Imogen Stubbs, Ken Colley, Sophie Ward, Susannah York, Jerome Flynn

Summer Vacation 1999
Japan 1988 90m Eastmancolor
New Century/CBS-Sony (Yutaka Okada, Eiji Kishi)
original title: 1999 – Nen No Natsu Yasumi
Three adolescent boys spending the summer at an otherwise deserted school think their friend has returned from the dead when they are joined by a fourth boy who exactly resembles him.
Slow-moving, self-consciously poetic and finally ridiculous tale of repressed love and teenage angst, not helped by the fact that the boys are played by girls.
w Rio Kishida d Shusuke Kaneko
ph Kenji Takama m Yuriko Nakamura ad Shu Yamaguchi
☆ Eri Miyajima, Tomoko Otakara, Miyuki Nakano, Rie Mizuhara

Summer Wishes, Winter Dreams ★
US 1973 88m Technicolor
Columbia/Rastar (Jack Brodsky)
A neurotic New York housewife goes to pieces when her mother dies but finds a new understanding of her husband when she accompanies him on a trip to the World War II battlefields.
Menopausal melodrama, well observed but disappointingly wispy and underdeveloped.
w Stewart Stern d Gilbert Cates ph Gerald Hirschfeld m Johnny Mandel
☆ Joanne Woodward, Martin Balsam, Sylvia Sidney, Dori Brenner, Win Forman ♗ Joanne Woodward; Sylvia Sidney ♈ Joanne Woodward

Summer with Monika ★
Sweden 1952 97m bw
Svensk Filmindustri (Allan Ekelund)
original title: Sommaren med Monika
A wild, restless girl defies her parents and goes off with her boyfriend for an island holiday. Her subsequent pregnancy and motherhood don't in the least suit her, and the father is left alone with the baby.
Probably truthful but rather glum and unsophisticated drama of young love; not among Bergman's most interesting films.
wd Ingmar Bergman novel Per Anders Fogelstrom ph Gunnar Fischer m Erik Nordgren ☆ Harriet Andersson, Lars Ekborg

Summerfield
Australia 1977 91m Eastmancolor
Clare Beach/AFC/Victorian Film (Patricia Lovell)
A new schoolteacher arrives in an isolated community to find he faces hostility from the locals and a mystery concerning the fate of his predecessor.
A slick mystery story, although too slow and predictable to be engrossing.
w Cliff Green d Ken Hannam ph Mike Molloy m Bruce Smeaton ad Graham Walker ed Sara Bennett ☆ Nick Tate, John Waters, Elizabeth Alexander, Michelle Jarman, Charles Tingwell, Geraldine Turner

A Summer's Tale: see Conte d'été

'She Came To Venice As a Tourist And Went Home a Woman!'

Summertime ★★★
US 1955 99m Eastmancolor
London Films/Lopert Productions (Ilya Lopert)
GB title: Summer Madness
An American spinster has a holiday in Venice and becomes romantically involved.
Delightful, sympathetic travelogue with dramatic asides, great to look at and hinging on a single superb performance.
w David Lean, H. E. Bates play The Time of the Cuckoo by Arthur Laurents d David Lean ph Jack Hildyard m Sandro Cicognini ad Vincent Korda ed Peter Taylor
☆ Katharine Hepburn (Jane Hudson), Rossano Brazzi (Renato Di Rossi), Isa Miranda (Signora Fiorina), Darren McGavin (Eddie Jaeger), Mari Aldon (Phyl Jaeger), André Morell (Englishman)
'The eye is endlessly ravished.' – Dilys Powell
♗ David Lean; Katharine Hepburn

Summertree
US 1971 88m Eastmancolor
Warner/Bryna (Kirk Douglas)
A bored student learns about life and becomes a Vietnam casualty.
Well-made, rather tedious character study; good social observation.
w Edward Hume, Stephen Yafa play Ron Cowen d Anthony Newley ph Richard C. Glouner m David Shire ☆ Michael Douglas, Brenda Vaccaro, Jack Warden, Barbara Bel Geddes

The Sun Also Rises ★★
US 1957 129m Eastmancolor
Cinemascope
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)
In Paris after World War I an impotent journalist meets a nymphomaniac lady of title, and they and their odd group of friends have various saddening adventures around Europe.
Not a bad attempt to film a difficult novel, though Cinemascope doesn't help and the last half hour becomes turgid. The Last Flight (qv) conveyed the same atmosphere rather more sharply.
w Peter Viertel novel Ernest Hemingway d Henry King ph Leo Tover m Hugo Friedhofer
☆ Tyrone Power, Ava Gardner, Errol Flynn, Eddie Albert, Mel Ferrer, Robert Evans, Juliette Greco, Gregory Ratoff, Marcel Dalio, Henry Daniell

The Sun Never Sets
US 1939 98m bw
Universal (Rowland V. Lee)
Two brothers in the African colonial service prevent a munitions baron from plunging the world into war.
Stiff upper lip melodrama, very dated.
w W. P. Lipscomb d Rowland V. Lee ph George Robinson m Frank Skinner md Charles Previn ad Jack Otterson, Richard H. Riedel ed Ted J. Kent ☆ Basil Rathbone, Douglas Fairbanks Jnr, Virginia Field, Lionel Atwill, Barbara O'Neil, C. Aubrey Smith, Melville Cooper
'Confusing script and poor direction relegate this to lower duals ... brightest thing is the title.' – Variety

The Sun Shines Bright ★★
US 1953 92m bw
Republic/Argosy (John Ford, Merian C. Cooper)
Forty years after the Civil War, the judge of a Kentucky town still has trouble quelling the Confederate spirit.
Mellow anecdotes of time gone by, scrappily linked but lovingly polished; a remake of a Will Rogers vehicle Judge Priest.
w Laurence Stallings stories Irwin S. Cobb d John Ford ph Archie Stout m Victor Young ☆ Charles Winninger, Arleen Whelan, John Russell, Stepin Fetchit, Milburn Stone, Grant Withers, Russell Simpson
'Passages of quite remarkable poetic feeling ... alive with affection and truthful observation.' – Lindsay Anderson

Sun Valley Serenade ★
US 1941 86m bw
TCF (Milton Sperling)
The band manager at an Idaho ice resort takes care of a Norwegian refugee.
Simple-minded musical which still pleases because of the talent involved.
w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan d H. Bruce Humberstone ph Edward Cronjager m Emil Newman songs Mack Gordon, Harry Warren
☆ Sonja Henie, Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, John Payne, Milton Berle, Lynn Bari, Joan Davis, The Nicholas Brothers, Dorothy Dandridge
♗ Edward Cronjager; Emil Newman; song 'Chattanooga Choo-Choo' (m Harry Warren, ly Mack Gordon)

Suna no Onna: see Woman of the Dunes

Sunbonnet Sue
US 1945 89m bw
Monogram/Scott R. Dunlap
In the 1890s, a Park Avenue matron objects to her niece singing in a Bowery saloon.
Old-fashioned family movie for the innocent-minded.
w Paul Gerard Smith, Bradford Ropes d Ralph Murphy
☆ Gale Storm, Phil Regan, Minna Gombell, George Cleveland, Raymond Hatton, Alan Mowbray
♗ Edward J. Kay (music)

Sunburn
GB/US 1979 98m Technicolor
Hemdale/Bind Films (David Korda)
An insurance investigator hires a model to act as his wife while he trails a suspected murderer in Acapulco.
All sun and skin and swirling cameras, this entire movie is a seventies cliché, but it provides some fitful amusement.
w John Daly, Stephen Oliver, James Booth novel The Bind by Stanley Ellin d Richard C. Sarafian ph Alex Phillips Jnr m John Cameron ☆ Farrah Fawcett, Charles Grodin, Art Carney, Joan Collins, William Daniels, John Hillerman, Eleanor Parker, Keenan Wynn

The Sunchaser
US 1996 122m Technicolor Panavision
Warner/Monarchy/Regency (Arnon Milchan, Michael Cimino, Larry Spiegel)
An ambitious doctor is kidnapped by a teenage convict, dying from cancer, and forced to travel to Arizona to find a Navajo medicine man.
Heavily symbolic road movie, travelling through photogenic landscapes but imbued with a second-hand mysticism.
w Charles Leavitt d Michael Cimino
ph Doug Milsome m Maurice Jarre
pd Victoria Paul ed Joe D'Augustine
☆ Woody Harrelson, Jon Seda, Anne Bancroft, Alexandra Tydings, Matt Mulhern, Talisa Soto, Richard Bauer, Victor Aaron
'A conceptually bold tale marked, in its execution, both by visceral intensity and dramatic sloppiness.' – Variety

'It's about three decent people. They will break your heart!'

Sunday, Bloody Sunday ★★★
GB 1971 110m DeLuxe
UA/Vectia (Joseph Janni)
A young designer shares his sexual favours equally between two loves of different sexes, a Jewish doctor and a lady executive.
Stylishly made character study with melodramatic leanings, rather self-conscious about its risky subject but, scene by scene, both adult and absorbing, with an overpowering mass of sociological detail about the way we live.
w Penelope Gilliatt d John Schlesinger ph Billy Williams m Ron Geesin pd Luciana Arrighi ad Norman Dorme
ed Richard Marden
☆ Glenda Jackson (Alex Greville), Peter Finch (Dr. Daniel Hirsh), Murray Head (Bob Elkin), Peggy Ashcroft (Mrs. Greville), Maurice Denham (Mr. Greville), Vivian Pickles (Alva Hodson), Frank Windsor (Bill Hodson), Tony Britton (George Harding), Harold Goldblatt (Daniel's Father)
'This is not a story about the loss of love, but about its absence.' – Roger Ebert
† Ian Bannen was originally cast as Dr. Hirsh, but developed viral pneumonia after shooting began and had to be replaced by Peter Finch.
♗ Penelope Gilliatt; John Schlesinger; Glenda Jackson; Peter Finch ♈ best picture; John Schlesinger; Peter Finch; Glenda Jackson

'Their eyes met! Their lips questioned! Their arms answered!'

Sunday Dinner for a Soldier *

US 1944 86m bw
TCF (Walter Morosco)

A poor family living on a derelict Florida houseboat scrape together enough money to invite a soldier for a meal.

Sentimental little flagwaving romance, quite sympathetically presented and agreeably underacted.

w Wanda Tuchock, Melvin Levy d Lloyd Bacon ph Joe MacDonald m Alfred Newman

☆ Anne Baxter, John Hodiak, Charles Winninger, Anne Revere, Connie Marshall, Chill Wills, Bobby Driscoll, Jane Darwell

'Simple, true and tender, the best propaganda America has put out in the current year.' – Richard Winnington

Sunday in August: see Domenico d'Agosto

Sunday in New York *

US 1963 105m Metrocolor
MGM/Seven Arts (Everett Freeman)

Complications in the love life of a brother and sister, each of whom thinks the other is very moral.

Fresh, fairly adult sex comedy with New York backgrounds.

w Norman Krasna play Norman Krasna d Peter Tewkesbury ph Leo Tover m Peter Nero

☆ Cliff Robertson, Rod Taylor, Jane Fonda, Robert Culp, Jo Morrow, Jim Backus

Sunday in the Country

Canada 1975 92m colour Panavision
Quadrant/Impact (David M. Perlmutter)

A righteous farmer decides to take the law into his own hands when three gun-happy bank robbers arrive at his home.

Uninteresting, brutal rural melodrama, done without finesse, and with both Pollard and Borgnine providing over-the-top performances that emphasize the pervading lack of reality; a sentimental title song is no help, either.

w Robert Maxwell, John Trent story David Main d John Trent ph Marc Champion m William McCauley, Paul Hoffert ad James Milton Parcher ed Tony Lower

☆ Ernest Borgnine, Michael J. Pollard, Hollis McLaren, Cec Linder, Louis Zorich, Vladimir Valenta, Al Waxman, Tim Henry, Murray Westgate

Sunday in the Country **

France 1984 94m Eastmancolor
Sara Films/Films A2/Little Bear (Alain Sarde)

original title: Un Dimanche à la Campagne

An elderly artist enjoys a Sunday visit from his family.

Delightful, slight and moving sketch for a drama, which gives nothing but pleasure yet is hard to recapture.

w Bertrand and Colo Tavernier novella Pierre Bost d Bertrand Tavernier ph Bruno de Keyzer m Gabriel Fauré

☆ Louis Ducreux, Sabine Azema, Michel Aumont, Geneviève Mnich, Monique Chaumette, Claude Winter

Sunday Too Far Away

Australia 1977 94m colour
South Australian Film Corporation

Itinerant sheep shearers become involved in an industrial dispute.

Almost the archetypal Australian outback movie, good to look at but hard to care about.

w John Dingwall d Ken Hannam

☆ Jack Thompson, Max Cullen, Reg Lye, John Ewart

Sundays and Cybèle *

France 1962 110m bw Franscope
Terra/Fides/Orsa/Trocadéro (Romain Pinès)

original title: Cybèle ou les Dimanches de Ville d'Avray

An amnesiac ex-pilot strikes up a friendship with an abandoned 12-year-old girl, but the relationship is misunderstood and ends in tragedy.

A fashionable film of its time which now has little to offer: its director's reputation sagged alarmingly when he went to Hollywood.

w Serge Bourgignon, Antoine Tudal novel Bernard Echasseriaux d Serge Bourgignon ph Henri Decaë m Maurice Jarre

☆ Hardy Kruger, Nicole Courcel, Patricia Gozzi, Daniel Ivernel

'Studied charm and a creakingly melodramatic dénouement take the place of any serious attempt to probe the characters or situation … the film is so busily preoccupied with being as attractive, visually and sentimentally, as it possibly can, that it never has time to consider what it is being attractive about.' – Tom Milne, MFB

'Uneven but highly meritorious … a near-triumph of the intelligently mobile camera.' – John Simon

best foreign film
script; Maurice Jarre

Sunday's Children **

Sweden 1992 120m colour
Sandrews (Katinka Farago) original title: Söndags Barn

During a summer holiday, an eight-year-old boy observes the difficulties of his parents' marriage; as a middle-aged man, he is forced to confront his relationship with his father.

Perceptive, delicately observed study of the tensions within family relationships, full of repressed emotion; it is a sort of sequel to The Best Intentions (qv).

w Ingmar Bergman d Daniel Bergman ph Tony Forsberg m Rune Gustafsson pd Sven Wichmann ed Darek Hodor

☆ Thommy Berggren, Lena Endre, Henrik Linnros, Jacob Leygraf, Anna Linnros, Malin Ek, Birgitta Valberg, Börje Ahlstedt

'Daniel Bergman gives this rambling memoir a shimmering, lyrical clarity, and his direction of the actors is extraordinary.' – Terrence Rafferty, New Yorker

Sundown

US 1941 91m bw
Walter Wanger

The adopted daughter of an Arab trader assists British troops in Africa during World War II.

Artificial-looking romantic actioner with good cast.

w Barre Lyndon d Henry Hathaway ph Charles Lang m Miklos Rozsa ad Alexander Golitzen

☆ Gene Tierney, Bruce Cabot, George Sanders, Harry Carey, Joseph Calleia, Cedric Hardwicke, Carl Esmond, Reginald Gardiner

'I can never resist bosh if it is delirious enough.' – James Agate, Tatler

Charles Lang; Miklos Rozsa; Alexander Golitzen

The Sundowners **

GB/Australia 1960 133m
Technicolor
Warner (Gerry Blatner)

In the twenties an Irish sheepdrover and his family travel from job to job in the Australian bush.

Easygoing, often amusing but lethargically developed family film with major stars somewhat ill at ease. Memorable sequences.

w Isobel Lennart novel Jon Cleary d Fred Zinnemann ph Jack Hildyard m Dimitri Tiomkin

☆ Robert Mitchum, Deborah Kerr, Glynis Johns, Peter Ustinov, Michael Anderson Jnr, Dina Merrill, Wylie Watson, Chips Rafferty

'For all Zinnemann's generous attention to character, the hints of longing, despair and indomitable spirit, the overall impression remains one of sheer length and repetition and synthetic naturalism.' – Richard Winnington

best picture; Isobel Lennart; Fred Zinnemann; Deborah Kerr; Glynis Johns

'In a world gone mad – a love story!'

Sunflower

France/Italy 1970 101m Technicolor
Champion/Concordia

A man and wife are separated during World War II.

Sudsy romantic drama, partly shot in Moscow but with no other redeeming feature.

w Tonino Guerra, Cesare Zavattini, Georgiy Mdivani d Vittorio de Sica m Henry Mancini

☆ Sophia Loren, Marcello Mastroianni, Lyudmila Savelyeva

Henry Mancini

Sunny *

US 1930 81m bw
Warner

A showgirl falls for a rich young man.

Tinny early musical notable for its star.

w Humphrey Pearson, Henry McCarthy musical play Otto Harbach, Oscar Hammerstein II, Jerome Kern d William A. Seiter ph Ernest Haller

☆ Marilyn Miller, Lawrence Grey, Jack Donahue, Mackenzie Ward, O. P. Heggie

Sunny *

US 1941 97m bw
RKO/Imperator (Herbert Wilcox)

Adequate remake of the above.

w Sig Herzig d Herbert Wilcox ph Russell Metty m Anthony Collins

☆ Anna Neagle, Ray Bolger, John Carroll, Edward Everett Horton, Frieda Inescort, Grace and Paul Hartman

Anthony Collins

Sunny Side Up *

US 1929 115m bw ('Multicolor' sequence)
Fox

A slum girl falls for the son of a rich Southampton family.

Typical early musical of the softer kind; rewarding for those who can project themselves back.

d David Butler ph Ernest Palmer w/m/ly B. G. de Sylva, Lew Brown, Ray Henderson

☆ Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, El Brendel, Marjorie White, Sharon Lynn

Sunnyside *

US 1919 27m approx (24 fps) bw silent
First National/Charles Chaplin

The overworked odd job man at a country hotel has a pastoral dream.

Very mildly funny star comedy which was intended as a satire on the D. W. Griffith/Charles Ray type of rural drama then popular. It doesn't work in this vein either.

wd Charles Chaplin ph Rollie Totheroh

☆ Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Tom Wilson, Albert Austin, Henry Bergman

Sunrise ****

US 1927 97m (24 fps) bw silent
Fox

A villager in love with a city woman tries to kill his wife but then repents and spends a happy day with her.

Lyrical melodrama, superbly handled: generally considered among the finest Hollywood productions of the twenties.

w Carl Mayer novel A Trip to Tilsit by Hermann Sudermann d F. W. Murnau ph Karl Struss, Charles Rosher m (sound version) Hugo Riesenfeld ad Rochas Gliese ed Harold D. Schuster

☆ Janet Gaynor (The Wife), George O'Brien (The Man), Margaret Livingston (The Woman From the City), Bodil Rosing (The Maid), J. Farrell MacDonald (The Photographer)

OPENING TITLE: 'This story of a man and his wife is of nowhere and everywhere, you might hear it anywhere and at any time.'

'It is filled with intense feeling and in it is embodied an underlying subtlety … exotic in many ways for it is a mixture of Russian gloom and Berlin brightness.' – Mordaunt Hall, New York Times

'Not since the earliest, simplest moving pictures, when locomotives, fire engines and crowds in streets were transposed to the screen artlessly and endearingly, when the entranced eye was rushed through tunnels and over precipices on runaway trains, has there been such joy in motion as under Murnau's direction.' – Louise Bogan, The New Republic

'The story is told in a flowing, lyrical German manner that is extraordinarily sensual, yet perhaps too self-conscious, too fable-like, for American audiences.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

Karl Struss, Charles Rosher; Janet Gaynor; Unique and Artistic Picture
Rochas Gliese

Sunrise at Campobello *

US 1960 143m Technicolor
Warner/Dore Schary

The early life of Franklin Roosevelt, including his battle against polio and return to politics.

Static filming of a rather interesting Broadway success and of a memorable performance.

w Dore Schary play Dore Schary d Vincent J. Donehue ph Russell Harlan m Franz Waxman ad Edward Carrere

☆ Ralph Bellamy, Greer Garson, Ann Shoemaker, Hume Cronyn, Jean Hagen

Greer Garson; art direction

Sunset

US 1988 107m Technicolor Panavision
Columbia/Tri-Star/ML Delphi (Tony Adams)

In Hollywood as an adviser to a studio making a film of his life, Wyatt Earp teams up with cowboy star Tom Mix to solve a murder.

A comedy-thriller that misfires.
wd Blake Edwards story Rod Amateau ph Anthony B. Richmond m Henry Mancini pd Rodger Maus ed Robert Pergament
☆ Bruce Willis, James Garner, Malcolm McDowell, Mariel Hemingway, Kathleen Quinlan, Jennifer Edwards, Patricia Hodge, Richard Bradford, M. Emmet Walsh, Joe Dallesandro

'It happened in Hollywood ... a love story ... a drama real and ruthless, tender and terrifying!'

Sunset Boulevard ★★★★

US 1950 110m bw
Paramount (Charles Brackett)

A luckless Hollywood scriptwriter goes to live with a wealthy older woman, a slightly dotty and extremely possessive relic of the silent screen.
Incisive melodrama with marvellous moments but a tendency to overstay its welcome; the first reels are certainly the best, though the last scene is worth waiting for and the malicious observation throughout is a treat.
w Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, D. M. Marshman Jnr d Billy Wilder ph John F. Seitz m Franz Waxman ad Hans Dreier, John Meehan ed Arthur Schmidt, Doane Harrison ☆ Gloria Swanson (Norma Desmond), William Holden (Joe Gillis), Erich von Stroheim (Max von Mayerling), Fred Clark (Sheldrake), Nancy Olson (Betty Schaefer), Jack Webb (Artie Green), Lloyd Gough (Morino), Cecil B. de Mille (Himself), H. B. Warner (Himself), Anna Q. Nilsson (Herself), Buster Keaton (Himself), Hedda Hopper (Herself)
JOE: 'You're Norma Desmond. You used to be in silent pictures. You used to be big.'
NORMA: 'I am big, It's the pictures that got small.'
'That rare blend of pungent writing, expert acting, masterly direction and unobtrusively artistic photography which quickly casts a spell over an audience and holds it enthralled to a shattering climax.' – New York Times (T.M.P.)
'Miss Swanson's performance takes her at one bound into the class of Boris Karloff and Tod Slaughter.' – Richard Mallett, Punch
'A weird, fascinating motion picture about an art form which, new as it is, is already haunted by ghosts.' – Otis L. Guernsey Jnr, New York Herald Tribune
'The most intelligent film to come out of Hollywood for years; lest the idea of intelligence in the cinema should lack allure, let me say that it is also one of the most exciting.' – Dilys Powell
† Montgomery Clift was to have played the role taken by William Holden, but decided against it at the last moment, because his real-life affair with an older woman, Libby Holman, was too close to the situation in the film.
♟ script; Franz Waxman; art direction
♙ best picture; Billy Wilder (as director); John F. Seitz; Gloria Swanson; William Holden; Erich von Stroheim; Nancy Olson; editing

Sunset Grill

US 1992 103m Foto-Kem
New Line/Movie Group (Faruque Ahmed)

An alcoholic ex-cop uncovers a trade in body parts when he investigates the murder of his estranged wife.
Bloody, over-ambitious thriller with a complex back-story that manages to dissipate most of the suspense and muddle of the narrative.
w Marcus Wright, Faruque Ahmed story Chip Walter d Kevin Connor ph Douglas Milsome m Ken Thorne pd Yuda Ako ed Barry Peters ☆ Peter Weller, Lori Singer, Stacy Keach, Alexandra Paul, John Rhys-Davies, Michael Anderson Jnr

Sunset in Vienna

GB 1937 73m bw
Herbert Wilcox
US title: Suicide Legion

An Italian cavalry officer finds that his wife's brother is a spy, and shoots him.
Dated romantic melodrama with music.
w Florence Tranter d Norman Walker
☆ Lilli Palmer, Tullio Carminati, John Garrick, Geraldine Hislop

'Three generations. One dream.'

Sunshine ★

Austria/Canada/Germany/Hungary 1999
180m colour
Alliance/ISL/Kinowelt/Screen Ventures/DOR (Robert Lantos, Andras Hamori)

A Hungarian-Jewish family in Budapest survives through more than a hundred turbulent years, including periods of Austrian, Nazi and Stalinist domination.
A movie with an epic sweep, in which Fiennes plays three roles of successive heads of the family, men eager for success even if it means compromising religion and morality; unfortunately, the detailed narrative exposition tends to overwhelm any character development.
w István Szabó, Israel Horovitz d István Szabó ph Lajos Koltai m Maurice Jarre ad Atilla Kovacs ed Dominique Fortin, Michael Arcand cos Pedro Moreno
☆ Ralph Fiennes (Ignatz Sonnenschein/Adam Sors/Ivan Sors), Rosemary Harris (Valerie Sors), Rachel Weisz (Greta Sors), Jennifer Ehle (Valerie Sonnenschein), Molly Parker (Hannah Wippler Sors), Deborah Kara Unger (Carola), James Frain (Gustave Sonnenschein), John Neville (Gustave Sors), Miriam Margolyes (Rose Sonnenschein), David de Keyser (Emmanuel Sonnenschein), Mark Strong (Istvan Sors), William Hurt (Andor Knorr), Bill Paterson (Minister of Justice), Rudiger Vogler (General Jakofalvy)
'The resulting dish is slightly stolid. Near the end of our epic journey we learn, "the purpose of life is... life itself", and the sense of anti-climax is palpable.' – Julian Graffy, Sight and Sound

'If the sun dies, so do we.'

Sunshine ★★ (8)

2007 107m
TCF/Fox Searchlight/DNA/Ingenious (Andrew Macdonald)

In the mid-21st century, a team of astronauts goes on a mission to save Earth by launching a bomb at the dying sun, thus reviving it. A first mission had failed seven years earlier. But it is unclear whether the new team can achieve their objective and return safely.
For two-thirds of its length, a first-class piece of science-fiction, with interactions between the crew on this uncertain mission astutely portrayed. A remarkable collaboration between production design, photography and model work combines to convey the sun's deadly beauty. The script, too, has a stubborn logic, with real tension generated around these characters' fates. But things go badly wrong in the final act, with a plot twist that seems directly lifted from Alien (qv), and it degenerates into something near slasher-movie territory.
w Alex Garland d Danny Boyle ph Alwin Kuchler m John Murphy, Underworld pd Mark Tildesley ad Gary Freeman, Stephen Morahan, Denis Schnegg, Kate Grimble sp Tom Wood ☆ Cillian Murphy (Capa), Michelle Yeoh (Corazon), Rose Byrne (Cassie), Benedict Wong (Trey), Troy Garity (Harvey), Cliff Curtis (Searle), Chris Evans (Mace), Hiroyuki Sanada (Captain Kaneda)
'It's in the relationship between the crew and the sun that Sunshine really shines.' – Ben Walters, Time Out
'A thrilling sensual spectacle.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
† Sunshine was shot almost entirely at 3 Mills Studios in London's East End.

'For the price of a movie, you'll feel like a million!'

The Sunshine Boys ★

US 1975 111m Metrocolor
MGM/Rastar (Ray Stark)

Two feuding old vaudeville comedians come together for a television spot, and ruin it.
Over-extended sketch in which one main role is beautifully underplayed, the other hammed up, and the production lacks any kind of style. The one-liners are good, though.
w Neil Simon play Neil Simon d Herbert Ross ph David M. Walsh md Harry V. Lojewski ☆ Walter Matthau, George Burns, Richard Benjamin, Carol Arthur
'It's just shouting, when it needs to be beautifully timed routines.' – New Yorker
'They feud with ill-matched resources, and the movie's visual delights vanish with the title sequence.' – Sight and Sound
† George Burns stepped in when Jack Benny became ill and died.
†† In 1996 it was remade as a TV film starring Peter Falk and Woody Allen.
♟ George Burns
♙ Neil Simon; Walter Matthau

'Take a vacation with John Sayles'

Sunshine State ★★★

US 2002 141m CFI
Columbia/Sony Classics/Anarchists' Convention (Maggie Renzi)

Residents of a small Florida seaside town resist attempts by property companies to redevelop the town.
A sprawling account of some unsatisfactory lives, of dreams gone wrong and futures to be avoided, that also manages to reflect the problems and momentary pleasures of a larger society.
wd John Sayles ph Patrick Cady m Mason Daring pd Mark Ricker ed John Sayles ☆ Edie Falco (Marly Temple), Angela Bassett (Desiree Perry), Jane Alexander (Delia Temple), Ralph Waite (Furman Temple), James McDaniel (Reggie), Timothy Hutton (Jack Meadows), Mary Alice (Eunice Stokes), Bill Cobbs (Dr Lloyd), Mary Steenburgen (Francine Pickney), Miguel Ferrer (Lester)
'If there's a more acute film about 'community' in America, it's yet to be made.' – James Christopher, Times
'You can feel the heat that ignites this gripping tale, and the humor and humanity that root it in feeling.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone † Region 1 and 2 DVDs include commentary by John Sayles.

Sunshine Susie

GB 1931 87m bw
Gainsborough

A banker pretends to be a clerk in order to court a typist.
Viennese-set comedy which worked at the time but quickly dated.
w Angus MacPhail, Robert Stevenson, Victor Saville, Noel Wood-Smith play The Private Secretary by Franz Schultz d Victor Saville ☆ Renate Muller, Jack Hulbert, Owen Nares, Morris Harvey, Sybil Grove

Sunstruck

Australia 1972 92m Eastmancolor
Immigrant (Jack Neary, James Grafton)

A shy Welsh schoolmaster emigrates to the Australian outback.
Simple-minded, uninspired, predictable family comedy for star fans.
w Stan Mars d James Gilbert ph Brian West m Peter Knight
☆ Harry Secombe, Maggie Fitzgibbon, John Meillon, Dawn Lake

Suor Omicidi: see Killer Nun

Suor Omicidi: see The Killer Nun

'The judge sentenced slumlord Louis Kritski to six months in his own building. He would have been better off in jail.'

The Super

US 1991 85m colour
Largo/JVC (Charles Gordon)

A New York landlord is forced to live in one of his slum properties.
A misfiring movie, comic when it should be serious, and sentimental the rest of the time.
w Sam Simon d Rod Daniel ph Bruce Surtees m Miles Goodman pd Kristi Zea ed Jack Hofstra ☆ Joe Pesci, Vincent Gardenia, Madolyn Smith-Osborne, Ruben Blades, Stacey Travis, Carole Shelley, Paul Benjamin
'A lesson, perhaps, that those movies that fail to get a theatrical release do, with the occasional exception, deserve the direct-to-video treatment.' – Empire
† The film was released direct to video in Britain.

The Super Cops

US 1974 94m Metrocolor
St Regis Films/UA

Two New York cops are suspended for breaking too many rules, but wage their private war on crime.
Low-life crime melodrama which plays effectively enough as a lighter-hearted Serpico.
w Lorenzo Semple Jnr book L. H. Whittemore d Gordon Parks ph Dick Kratina m Jerry Fielding ☆ Ron Leibman, David Selby, Sheila Frazier, Pat Hingle, Dan Frazer

Super Fuzz: see Supersnooper

'This Ain't No Game.'

Super Mario Brothers

US 1993 104m Technicolor
Entertainment/Lightmotive/Allied/Cinergi (Jake Eberts, Roland Joffé)

The Mario brothers, two plumbers, rescue a princess from a universe in another dimension, where reptilian humanoids, descended from dinosaurs, plan to rule both worlds.

An attempt to transfer a best-selling Nintendo video game to the screen; it doesn't work.
w Parker Bennett, Terry Runté, Ed Solomon, based on characters and concept created by Shigeru Miyamato, Takashi Tezuka d Rocky Morton, Annabel Jankel ph Dean Semler m Alan Silvestri pd David L. Snyder ed Caroline Ross sp Christopher Francis Woods, Patrick Tatopoulos
☆ Bob Hoskins, John Leguizamo, Dennis Hopper, Samantha Mathis, Fisher Stevens, Richard Edson, Rona Shaw, Dana Kaminski, Lance Henriksen
'There are plenty of gags, but not one laugh.' – Variety
'One and a half square miles of plywood went into the making of Super Mario Brothers, and that was just for the performances.' – Sight and Sound

'A film of epic portions.'

Super Size Me

US 2004 98m colour
Tartan/The Con (Morgan Spurlock)

A man tests McDonald's claim that its food could form part of a nutritious diet by eating nothing else for a month and never refusing an offer of 'supersize' portions.
Effective, entertaining and cautionary documentary in which, on a diet of fast food, Spurlock goes from the peak of health to an overweight person with high cholesterol and liver problems.
wd Morgan Spurlock ph Scott Ambrozy m Steve Horowitz, Michael Parrish ad Joe the Artist ed Stela Gueorguieva, Julie 'Bob' Lombardi
☆ Morgan Spurlock
'It's one of the blackest comedies to hit the screen since Dr Strangelove. Spurlock proves himself a supersize talent; he makes you choke on every laugh.' – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone † McDonald's withdrew their Super Size option following the release of the documentary.
documentary

'Altered State Police'

Super Troopers

US 2001 103m colour
TCF/Jersey Shore/Cataland/Broken Lizard (Richard Perello)

In a Vermont town, a group of state troopers try to porove they are better cops than the local police force.
Broken Lizard, an American troupe, display their lack of comic skills while wasting the talents of rather better actors in this lazy, crude comedy.
w Broken Lizard d Jay Chandrasekhar ph Joaquin Baca-Asay m 38 Special pd Ben Conable ed Jacob Craycroft, Jumbulingam, Kevin Heffernan
☆ Jay Chandrasekhar (Thorny), Kevin Heffernan (Farva), Steve Lemme (Mac), Paul Soter (Foster), Erik Stolhanske (Rabbit), Brian Cox (Capt. John O'Hagan), Daniel Von Bargen (Chief Grady), Marisa Coughlan (Ursula)
'I can't quite recommend it--it's too patched together--but I almost can; it's the kind of movie that makes you want to like it.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
'Bad and tasteless. You laugh neither with it nor at it but rather sit counting the minutes while the movie laughs, for no good reason, at itself.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Superdad

US 1974 95m Technicolor
Walt Disney

A lawyer is determined to rule the life of his teenage daughter.
Bumbling farce with frenzied and unattractive characters.
w Joseph L. McEveety d Vincent McEveety ph Andrew Jackson m Buddy Baker ☆ Bob Crane, Barbara Rush, Kurt Russell, Joe Flynn, Kathleen Cody

Superfly

US 1972 98m Technicolor
Warner (Sig Shore)

The New York adventures of black cocaine peddlers.
'Sensational' comedy with violence in which the pushers exit laughing. Tedious and deplorable.
w Philip Fenty d Gordon Parks Jnr ph James Signorelli m Curtis Mayfield ed Bob Brady
☆ Ron O'Neal (Youngblood Priest), Carl Lee (Eddie), Sheila Frazier (Georgia), Julius Harris (Scatter), Charles McGregor (Fat Freddie)
'It suggests that New York is now nothing more than a concrete junkieyard.' – Philip Strick

Supergirl

GB 1984 124m colour
Panavision
Cantharus/Ilya Salkind (Timothy Burrill)

A Krypton power source falls into the hands of a power-hungry witch, and Supergirl is sent to retrieve it.
Playful comic strip spectacular which entertains in Wizard of Oz style for most of its way but was savaged by the critics.
w David Odell d Jeannot Szwarc ph Alan Hume m Jerry Goldsmith pd Richard MacDonald
☆ Helen Slater, Faye Dunaway, Peter O'Toole, Mia Farrow, Brenda Vaccaro, Peter Cook, Simon Ward, Marc McClure, Hart Bochner, David Healy

The Supergrass

GB 1985 105m colour
Recorded Releasing

The police unwisely believe that a boaster can lead them to a drug ring.
For those who enjoy the somewhat remote satirical humour of Channel 4's The Comic Strip.
w Pete Richens, Peter Richardson d Peter Richardson ph John Metcalfe m Keith Tippett ☆ Adrian Edmondson, Jennifer Saunders, Peter Richardson, Dawn French, Keith Allan, Robbie Coltrane, Alexei Sayle

Superman

US 1948 bw serial: 15 eps
Columbia

The man from Krypton who poses as mild-mannered Clark Kent combats The Spider Lady.
The subject makes this serial fairly lively – livelier in fact than the multi-million-dollar 1978 film.
d Spencer Bennet, Thomas Carr
☆ Kirk Alyn, Noel Neill, Tommy Bond, Carol Forman, George Meeker

'You'll believe a man can fly!'

Superman

US/GB 1978 142m colour
Panavision
Warner/Alexander Salkind (Pierre Spengler)

A baby saved from the planet Krypton when it explodes grows up as a newspaperman and uses his tremendous powers to fight evil and support the American way.
Long, lugubrious and only patchily entertaining version of the famous comic strip, with far too many irrelevant preliminaries and a misguided sense of its own importance.
w Mario Puzo, David Newman, Robert Benton, Leslie Newman d Richard Donner ph Geoffrey Unsworth m John Williams pd John Barry ed Stuart Baird sp various ☆ Christopher Reeve, Marlon Brando, Margot Kidder, Jackie Cooper, Glenn Ford, Phyllis Thaxter, Trevor Howard, Gene Hackman, Ned Beatty, Susannah York, Valerie Perrine
'Though one of the two or three most expensive movies made to date, it's cheesy-looking, and the plotting is so hit or miss that the story never seems to get started; the special effects are far from wizardly and the editing often seems hurried and jerky just at the crucial points.' – New Yorker
'It gives the impression of having been made in panic – in fear that style or too much imagination might endanger its approach to the literal-minded.' – Pauline Kael, New Yorker
'The epitome of supersell.' – Les Keyser, Hollywood in the Seventies
† Reprehensible records were set by Brando getting three million dollars for a ten-minute performance (and then suing for a share of the gross); and by the incredible ½ -minute credit roll at the end.
†† Tiny roles were played by Noel Neill, who was Lois Lane in the TV series, and by Kirk Alyn, who was Superman in two serials.
John Williams; editing; sound; visual effects

Superman II

US 1980 127m Technicolor
Panavision
Warner/Alexander Salkind (Pierre Spengler)

Three renegade Kryptonians threaten Earth with a space bomb.
Half the first episode was devoted to a creaky and unnecessary setting up of plot and characters. This sequel is all the better for diving straight into action, but a classic it isn't, even of the comic strip kind.
w Mario Puzo, David Newman, Leslie Newman d Richard Lester ph Geoffrey Unsworth, Robert Paynter m Ken Thorne ☆ Christopher Reeve, Gene Hackman, Ned Beatty, Jackie Cooper, Sarah Douglas, Margot Kidder, Valerie Perrine, Susannah York, Terence Stamp, Jack O'Halloran, E. G. Marshall

Superman III

GB 1983 125m colour
Panavision
Dovemead/Cantharus (Pierre Spengler)

Synthetic Kryptonite warps Superman's character, but his conscience is reawakened by a plea from a small boy.
Sometimes humorous but overwritten and overacted variation on a tired theme. The special effects are the thing, but there's too much padding in between.
w David Newman, Leslie Newman d Richard Lester ph Robert Paynter m Ken Thorne pd Peter Murton ed John Victor Smith
☆ Christopher Reeve (Clark Kent/Superman), Richard Pryor (Gus Gorman), Jackie Cooper (Perry White), Marc McClure (Jimmy Olsen), Annette O'Toole (Lana Lang), Annie Ross (Vera Webster), Pamela Stephenson (Lorelei Ambrosia), Robert Vaughn (Ross Webster), Margot Kidder (Lois Lane), Graham Stark (Blind man)

Superman IV: The Quest for Peace

GB 1987 89m colour JDC widescreen
Cannon

Superman determines that the world shall lay down its nuclear arms.
Stolid dialogue and poor technicalities are evident throughout what will surely be the last of the series.
w Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, Christopher Reeve d Sidney J. Furie
☆ Christopher Reeve (Clark Kent/Superman), Gene Hackman, Jackie Cooper, Marc McClure, Sam Wanamaker, Mariel Hemingway, Margot Kidder

Superman Returns

US 2006 154m
Warner/Legendary Pictures/Bad Hat Harry Productions (Jon Peters, Bryan Singer, Gilbert Adler)

The Man of Steel returns to Earth after a lengthy absence to battle once more with criminal mastermind Lex Luthor.
Nostalgic reprise of the 1978 Superman (qv), recreated on an epic scale with a star clearly cast for his resemblance to the late Christopher Reeve. The director's love and respect for the character are evident but hardly excuse a running time that is both exorbitant and self-indulgent.
w Michael Dougherty, Dan Harris comic book Superman by Jerry Siegel, Joe Shuster d Bryan Singer ph Newton Thomas Sigel m John Ottman, John Williams pd Guy Hendrix Dyas ad Hugh Bateup ed John Ottman, Elliot Graham sp Neil Corbould, Dave Young ☆ Brandon Routh (Clark Kent/Superman), Kevin Spacey (Lex Luthor), Kate Bosworth (Lois Lane), James Marsden (Richard White), Frank Langella (Perry White), Eva Marie Saint (Martha Kent), Parker Posey (Kitty Kowalski), Kal Penn (Stanford)
'The boy from Krypton comes bathed in nostalgia, reverence and oodles of religious symbolism. The result is that most beatific of superhero's most magnificent screen incarnation yet.' – Ian Nathan, Empire
'Beyond super. It's superb.' – Richard Corliss, Time
'A glum, lacklustre movie in which even the big effects sequences seem dutiful instead of exhilarating.' – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times
† The film incorporates footage of Marlon Brando shot for the 1978 Superman film.
†† Bryan Singer pulled out of directing the third X-Men movie for Twentieth Century Fox to make Superman Returns for Warner. Brett Ratner, previously linked to the Superman project, was hired to replace him.
visual effects

'Her heart cried out for love – yet her hands reached out to destroy!'

Supernatural ★

US 1933 67m bw
Paramount (Victor and Edward Halperin)

A girl is possessed by the soul of a dead murderess.
Mad doctor nonsense, interestingly but not very successfully styled.
w Harvey Thew, Brian Marlow d Victor Halperin ph Arthur Martinelli ☆ Carole Lombard, H. B. Warner, Randolph Scott, Vivienne Osborne, Alan Dinehart

'A 65-minute ghost story that dies after the first half-hour.' – Variety

'In The Farthest Reaches Of Space Something Has Gone Terribly Wrong.'
'Terror Times Infinity.'

Supernova

US 2000 90m DeLuxe Super 35
MGM/Screenland/Hammerhead (Ash R. Shah, Daniel Chuba, Jamie Dixon)

The crew of a deep-space medical-rescue ship answer a distress call from a mine on a distant planet and discover that they have an alien aboard.
Dreary and confusing science-fiction story that recycles Alien to little effect.
w David Campbell Wilson story William Malone d Thomas Lee (Walter Hill) ph Lloyd Ahern II m David Williams pd Marek Dobrowolski ed. Michael Schweitzer, Melissa Kent sp makeup fx: Patrick Tatopoulos cos Bob Ringwood
☆ James Spader (Nick Vanzant), Angela Bassett (Kaela Evers), Robert Forster (A.J. Marley), Lou Diamond Phillips (Yerzy Penalosa), Peter Facinelli (Karl Larson), Robin Tunney (Danika Lund), Wilson Cruz (Benj Sotomejor), Eddie Rice Jnr (Flyboy), Vanessa Marshall (Sweetie)

'An intriguing and frequently gripping deep space thriller with considerable sexual edge.' – James Cameron-Wilson, Film Review

† Director Walter Hill had his name removed from the credits because of 'creative differences' with the producers. Francis Ford Coppola was an uncredited editor.
†† The film cost $65m.

Supersnooper

Italy/US 1981 94m Technicolor
Columbia/Trans-Cinema TV (Maximilian Wolkoff)

aka: Super Fuzz

A Miami cop develops superhuman powers after being exposed to radiation.
Stolid comedy with poor special effects.
w Sergio Corbucci, Sabatino Giuffini d Sergio Corbucci ph Silvano Ippoliti m La Bionda pd Marco Dentici ed Eugene Ballaby ☆ Terence Hill (Mario Girotti), Ernest Borgnine, Joanne Dru, Marc Lawrence, Julie Gordon, Lee Sandman

'Dare to dream.'

Superstar

US 1999 82m DeLuxe
Paramount/SNL Studios (Lorne Michaels)

An optimistic Catholic high school girl, who dreams of becoming a superstar, sets out to win her school's talent contest..
Based on a character from the TV series Saturday Night Live, a sporadically amusing comedy that does not travel well beyond the confines of the USA.
w Steven Wayne Kore d Bruce McCulloch ph Walt Lloyd m Michael Gore pd Gregory Keen ed Malcolm Campbell ☆ Molly Shannon (Mary Katherine Gallagher), Will Ferrell (Sky), Elaine Hendrix (Evian), Harland Williams (Slater), Mark McKinney (Father Ritley), Glynis Johns (Grandma), Emmy Laybourne (Helen)

'A comedy with several good laughs but no convincing cohesion.' – Anita Gates, New York Times

Supervixens

US 1975 105m colour
Films International/September 19 (Russ Meyer)

Accused of the murder of his girlfriend, a garage mechanic goes on the run, pursued by a homicidal cop.
Inept, amateurish wallow in Meyer's simple-minded world of big-breasted nymphomaniacs and cuckolded men; film is, unfortunately, not one of Meyer's interests, but merely a means to what obsesses him.
wd Russ Meyer ph Russ Meyer m William Loose ad Michael Levesque ed Russ Meyer ☆ Shari Eubank, Charles Napier, Uschi Digard, Charles Pitts, Henry Rowland, Christy Hartburg, Sharon Kelly

Support Your Local Gunfighter

US 1971 92m DeLuxe
UA/Cherokee/Brigade (Bill Finnegan)

A con man jumps a train at a small mining town and is mistaken for a dreaded gunfighter.
Disappointing sequel to the following; just a couple of good jokes.
w James Edward Grant d Burt Kennedy ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Jack Elliott, Allyn Ferguson
☆ James Garner, Suzanne Pleshette, Joan Blondell, Jack Elam, Chuck Connors, Harry Morgan, Marie Windsor, Henry Jones, John Dehner

Support Your Local Sheriff ★★

US 1968 92m Technicolor
UA/Cherokee (William Bowers)

Gold is found near a Western village, and the resulting influx of desperate characters causes problems for the sheriff.
Amusing comedy, drawing on many Western clichés.
w William Bowers d Burt Kennedy ph Harry Stradling Jnr m Jeff Alexander ☆ James Garner, Joan Hackett, Walter Brennan, Jack Elam, Henry Morgan, Bruce Dern, Henry Jones

'It rejuvenates a stagnating genre by combining just the right doses of parody and affectionate nostalgia.' – Jan Dawson

Suppose They Gave a War and Nobody Came

US 1969 114m DeLuxe
Engel – Auerbach/ABC (Fred Engel)

Three accident-prone PROs try to give the army a good name in a town which wishes it would go away; they eventually cause panic by arriving at a dance in a tank.
Muddled farce which may have hoped to be satire.
w Don McGuire, Hal Captain d Hy Averback ph Burnett Guffey m Jerry Fielding ☆ Tony Curtis, Brian Keith, Ernest Borgnine, Ivan Dixon, Suzanne Pleshette, Tom Ewell, Bradford Dillman, Arthur O'Connell, Robert Emhardt, John Fiedler, Don Ameche

El Sur: see The South

Sur: see South

'She taught him good manners, he taught her bad ones.'

Sur Mes Lèvres ★★★

France 2001 118m colour
Pathé/Sedif/Cine b/France 2 (Jean-Louis Livi, Philippe Carcassonne)

GB and US title: Read My Lips

A hard-of-hearing secretary, who can lip-read, becomes involved with a petty criminal and they take advantage of each other's abilities.
Clever thriller of a manipulative woman's descent into darkness and self-realisation.
w Tonino Benacquista, Jacques Audiard d Jacques Audiard ph Mathieu Vadepied m Alexandre Desplat ad Michel Barthelemy ed Juliette Welfling
☆ Vincent Cassel (Paul Angeli), Emmanuelle Devos (Carla Behm), Olivier Gourmet (Marchand), Olivia Bonamy (Annie), Olivier Perrier (Masson), Bernard Alane (Morel), Céline Samie (Josie Marchand), David Saracino (Richard Carambo)

'A breathless and rather audacious study in the sexiness of a nonsexual relationship.' – David Denby, New Yorker
'To be viewed and treasured for its extraordinary intelligence and originality as well as its lyrical variations on the game of love.' – Andrew Sarris

The Sure Thing

US 1985 94m DeLuxe
Roger Birnbaum/Monument/Embassy

Two uneasy couples travel west to California for Christmas.
Slightly unsettling youth comedy which, in the form of It Happened One Night, seems to be saying that friendship is more important than sex.
w Steven L. Bloom, Jonathan Roberts d Rob Reiner ph Robert Elswit m Tom Scott
☆ John Cusack, Daphne Zuniga, Anthony Edwards, Boyd Gaines, Tim Robbins, Lisa Jane Persky, Viveca Lindfors

'Two sounds clash: old wine being poured into new bottles, and familiar barrels being scraped.' – Philip French, Observer

Surf Ninjas

US 1993 87m DeLuxe
Entertainment/New Line (Ezven Kolar)

Two Californian surfers discover that they are the rightful heirs to an island kingdom in the South China Sea, ruled by an evil dictator.
Jokey action film aimed at an audience too young to enjoy the real thing.
w Dan Gordon d Neal Israel m David Kitay pd Michael Novotny ed Tom Walls
☆ Leslie Nielsen, Ernie Reyes Jnr, Rob Schneider, Tone Loc, John Karlen, Ernie Reyes Snr, Kelly Hu

'Brain-dead though this film is, it has a certain goofy charm that's almost endearing.' – Sight and Sound

The Surfer

Australia 1988 94m colour
Night Flight (James M. Vernon, Frank Shields)

When a beach bum investigates the killing of a friend, he finds himself framed for murder, and embroiled with gangsters, crooked politicians and cops.
Low-budget thriller, directed with a certain nervy style but running out of energy before the end.
w David Marsh story Frank Shields d Frank Shields ph Michael Edols m Davood Tabrizi ed Greg Bell
☆ Gary Day, Gosia Dobrowolska, Rod Mullinar, Tony Barry, Gerard Maguire, Kris McQuade, Stephen Leeder

The Surgeon: see Exquisite Tenderness

Surprise Package

GB 1960 100m bw
Columbia/Stanley Donen

An American gangster is deported to the same Mediterranean island as an exiled European king, whose crown gets stolen.
Flat and feeble comedy which defeats its stars.
w Harry Kurnitz novel Art Buchwald d Stanley Donen ph Christopher Challis m Benjamin Frankel ☆ Yul Brynner, Noël Coward, Mitzi Gaynor, Bill Nagy, Eric Pohlmann, George Coulouris, Warren Mitchell

Surrender

US 1931 69m bw
Fox

A French soldier in a German prison camp falls in love with a German girl at the nearby castle.
Flabby drama which seems constantly about to make symbolic points.
w S. N. Behrman, Sonya Levien play Axelle by Pierre Benoit d William K. Howard ☆ Warner Baxter, Leila Hyams, Ralph Bellamy, C. Aubrey Smith, William Pawley, Alexander Kirkland

'Anaemic picture product, not for A houses in big towns.' – Variety

Surrender

US 1987 95m TVC Color
Cannon (Aaron Spelling, Alan Greisman)

A writer with a history of unsatisfactory relationships with women falls for an artist who has had similar experiences with men.
Lacklustre attempt at a romantic comedy, taken at a snail's pace and with dialogue that fails to sparkle.
wd Jerry Belson ph Juan-Ruiz Anchia m Michel Colombier pd Lilly Kilvert ed Wendy Greene Bricmont
☆ Sally Field, Michael Caine, Steve Guttenberg, Peter Boyle, Jackie Cooper, Julie Kavner, Louise Lasser

Surrounded by Women: see Between Two Women

Survive

Mexico/US 1976 86m Technicolor
EMI/Robert Stigwood-Allan Carr/Conacine/Productora Filmica (Rene Cardona Jnr)

After a plane crash high in the Andes, surviving members of a rugby team resort to cannibalism in order to survive.
Unpleasant low-budget film, based on a true story and concentrating on the grislier aspects.
wd Rene Cardona Snr (English adaptation Martin Sherman) book Clay Blair Jnr ph Luis Medina m Gerald Fried ad A. L. de Guevara ed Marshall M. Borden ☆ Hugo Stiglitz, Norma Lazareno, Luz Aguilar, Fernando Larranaga, Lorenzo de Rodas, Luz Ma

'In its original form this low budget Mexican production clearly had little to offer: a sketchy script, feeble performances and scenes cloaked in fog which conveniently disguised polystyrene snow. Having been doctored in America for universal consumption, and fitted out with Dragnet-style commentary and limply banal dialogue, it is quite unbearable.' – David McGillivray, MFB

† The event was also the basis of the 1992 Hollywood movie Alive (qv).

'Share the warmth'

Surviving Christmas

US 2004 91m colour
UIP/Tall Trees/LivePlanet (Jenno Topping, Betty Thomas)

A lonely advertising executive offers a family $250,00 to let him spend Christmas with them.
A turkey if there ever was one.
w Deborah Kaplan, Harry Elfont, Jeffrey Ventimilia, Joshua Sternin d Mike Mitchell ph Peter Collister, Tom Priestly Jnr m Randy Edelman pd Caroline Hanania ed Craig McKay
☆ Ben Affleck (Drew Latham), James Gandolfini (Tom Valco), Christina Applegate (Alicia Valco), Catherine O'Hara (Christine Valco), Josh Zuckerman (Brian Valco), Bill Macy (Doo-Dah), Jennifer Morrison (Missy Vangilder)

'Even for Ben Affleck, this desperately unfunny yuletide non-comedy is a brand new low.' – Peter Bradshaw, Guardian
'Absolutely awesome in its relentless mediocrity.' – Desson Thomson, Washington Post

Surviving Picasso

US/GB 1996 125m Technicolor
Warner/Merchant Ivory (Ismail Merchant, David L. Wolper)

Françoise Gilot, an art student, becomes the mistress of Picasso and bears him two children before their relationship founders.
Dull biopic that wades through all the usual clichés of artistic life without once suggesting that it is dealing with characters of flesh and blood.
w Ruth Prawer Jhabvala book Picasso: Creator and Destroyer by Arianna Stassinopolous Huffington d James Ivory ph Tony Pierce-Roberts m Richard Robbins pd Luciana Arrighi ed Andrew Marcus ☆ Anthony Hopkins, Natascha McElhone, Julianne Moore, Joss Ackland, Peter Eyre, Jane Lapotaire, Joseph Maher, Bob Peck, Diane Venora, Joan Plowright

'A winner.' – Variety
'A film for middle-aged, middle-class people who know nothing about art.' – Tracey Emin, Neon

Surviving the Game

US 1994 96m DeLuxe
New Line/David Permut

A homeless man turns the tables on six wealthy men who hunt him for sport.
This is yet another remake of Richard Connell's The Most Dangerous Game – and one that lacks drive or suspense as it strolls through very familiar territory.
w Eric Bernt d Ernest Dickerson ph Bojan Bazelli m Stewart Copeland pd Christiaan Wagener ed Sam Pollard ☆ Ice T, Rutger Hauer, Gary Busey, Charles S. Dutton, F. Murray Abraham, John C. McGinley, William McNamara, Jeff Corey

'Threadbare chase movie, which almost makes surviving the screening its own endurance test.' – Variety

The Survivors

US 1983 102m Metrocolor
Columbia-Delphi-Rastar-William Sackheim

An executive and a gas station attendant, both potential victims of a hit man, take refuge in the snowy mountains of Vermont.
Bewilderingly unfocused black comedy with some pleasant barbs along the way.
w Michael Leeson d Michael Ritchie ph Billy Williams m Paul Chihara pd Gene Callahan ed Richard A. Harris
☆ Walter Matthau, Robin Williams, Jerry Reed, James Wainwright, Kristen Vigard, Annie McEnroe

Susan and God ★

US 1940 117m bw
MGM (Hunt Stromberg)

GB title: The Gay Mrs Trexel
A flighty society woman gets religion but fails to practise what she preaches.
Unusual comedy-drama for MGM to tackle, but a fairly successful one for high-class audiences.
w Anita Loos play Rachel Crothers d George Cukor ph Robert Planck m Herbert Stothart
☆ Joan Crawford, Fredric March, Ruth Hussey, John Carroll, Rita Hayworth, Nigel Bruce, Bruce Cabot, Rita Quigley, Rose Hobart, Constance Collier, Gloria de Haven, Marjorie Main

'It's not a good comedy, but it has a certain fascination, because the theme is such an odd one for Hollywood to have attempted at all.' – Pauline Kael, 70s

'Thrill to them together!'

Susan Lenox, Her Fall and Rise ★

US 1931 76m bw
MGM (Paul Bern)

GB title: The Rise of Helga
A farm girl flees to the city when her father tries to marry her off to a brute.
Moderate star melodrama with the star somewhat miscast.
w Wanda Tuchock novel David Graham Phillips d Robert Z. Leonard ph William Daniels ☆ Greta Garbo, Clark Gable, Jean Hersholt, John Miljan, Alan Hale

'A torrid romance that will fascinate the femmes.' – Variety
'If you like your romance spread thick, your passions strong and your Garbo hot, don't miss this.' – Photoplay

† The author of the book had been shot by a crank who disapproved of his treatment of women.

Susan Slade

US 1961 116m Technicolor
Warner (Delmer Daves)

An engineer brings his family back to San Francisco from Chile, and his teenage daughter runs into problems of the heart.
Stilted, busy sudser.
wd Delmer Daves novel Doris Hume ph Lucien Ballard m Max Steiner ☆ Connie Stevens, Troy Donahue, Dorothy McGuire, Lloyd Nolan, Brian Aherne, Natalie Schafer, Grant Williams, Bert Convy, Kent Smith

Susan Slept Here

US 1954 98m Technicolor
RKO (Harriet Parsons)

The Hollywood scriptwriter of a film about youth problems agrees to look after a delinquent teenage girl.
Skittish, would-be piquant comedy; quite unattractive.
w Alex Gottlieb d Frank Tashlin ph Nicholas Musuraca md Leigh Harline songs Jack Lawrence, Richard Myers
☆ Dick Powell, Debbie Reynolds, Anne Francis, Glenda Farrell, Alvy Moore, Horace MacMahon ♪ song 'Hold My Hand'

Susannah of the Mounties ★

US 1939 78m bw
TCF (Kenneth MacGowan)

A little girl who is the only survivor of a wagon train massacre is looked after by the Canadian Mounties.
Adequate star action romance, Shirley's last real success.
w Robert Ellis, Helen Logan d William A. Seiter ph Arthur Miller md Louis Silvers ☆ Shirley Temple, Randolph Scott, Margaret Lockwood, J. Farrell MacDonald, Maurice Moscovich, Moroni Olsen, Victor Jory

'Strictly for the juvenile trade ... illogical situations make it no more than a moderate fairy tale.' – Variety

Susan's Plan

US 1998 85m Foto-Kem
Kushner-Locke (Leslie Belzberg, Brad Wyman, John Landis)

A nursery teacher and her salesman lover hire two incompetents to kill her former husband so she can collect on his insurance.
Fast-paced but dreary farce, too bland in its approach to get any amusement from its theme of murder and greed.
wd John Landis ph Ken Kelsch m Peter Bernstein pd Stuart Blatt ed Nancy Morrison ☆ Nastassja Kinski, Billy Zane, Michael Biehn, Rob Schneider, Lara Flynn Boyle, Carl Ballantine, Thomas Haden Church, Bill Duke, Lisa Edelstein, Sheree North, Dan Aykroyd

'His was a strange secret! Hers was a strange love!'

The Suspect ★

US 1944 84m bw
Universal (Islin Auster)

A henpecked husband kills his wife and is blackmailed.
Efficient studio-bound suspenser with theatrically effective acting.
w Bertram Millhauser novel James Ronald d Robert Siodmak ph Paul Ivano m Frank Skinner
☆ Charles Laughton, Henry Daniell, Rosalind Ivan, Ella Raines, Molly Lamont, Dean Harens

'High marks for tension, local colour, story.' – William Whitebait

Suspect ★

GB 1960 81m bw
British Lion/The Boulting Brothers

Government research chemists find a traitor in their midst.
Entertaining but fairly routine spy melodrama, shot on an experimental low budget but confined to lower berth bookings.
w Nigel Balchin novel Sort of Traitors by Nigel Balchin d Roy and John Boulting ph Max Greene md John Wilkes ☆ Tony Britton, Virginia Maskell, Peter Cushing, Ian Bannen, Raymond Huntley, Donald Pleasence, Thorley Walters, Spike Milligan, Kenneth Griffith

'A better standard of second feature film is badly needed, but the way to do it is not by making pictures which look as though they have strayed from TV.' – Penelope Houston

'No matter the cost. No matter the danger. They will find the truth.'

Suspect ★

US 1987 121m colour
Columbia/Tri-Star (Daniel A. Sherkow)

A public defender, with the aid of a member of the jury, uncovers high-level corruption when she defends a deaf-mute tramp accused of murder.
Despite its many implausibilities, a thriller that engages the attention.
w Eric Roth d Peter Yates ph Billy Williams m Michael Kamen pd Stuart Wurtzel ed Ray Lovejoy cos Rita Ryack
☆ Cher, Dennis Quaid, Liam Neeson, John Mahoney, Joe Mantegna, Philip Bosco, E. Katherine Kerr, Fred Melamed, Lisbeth Bartlett, Paul D'Amato

'Who's next?'

Suspect Zero ②

US 2004 100m DeLuxe
Paramount/Intermedia/Lakeshore/C/W (Paula Wagner, E. Elias Merhige, Gaye Hirsch)

An obsessional FBI agent and his former lover investigate a killer who uses extra-sensory perception to track and murder other serial killers.
Tired and familiar exploitation movie that is tricked out with curious camera angles and luridly-coloured flash-forwards so as to suggest that it offers something new and interesting; it doesn't.
w Zak Penn, Billy Ray d E. Elias Merhige ph Michael Chapman m Clint Mansell pd Ida Random ed John Gilroy, Robert K. Lambert
☆ Aaron Eckhart (Thomas Mackelway), Ben Kingsley (Benjamin O'Ryan), Carrie-Anne Moss (Fran Kulok), Rick Charleton (Rick Charleton), Kevin Chamberlin (Harold Speck)

'Finally, a serial-killer movie so preposterous, so garnished with accidental laugh lines and absent essential narrative logic it may actually put a permanent kibosh on this tediously overworked crime subgenre.' – Manohla Dargis, New York Times

Suspected Person

GB 1943 78m bw
Associated British

Thieves fall out and are tracked by police.
Slightly bitter crime drama which adequately filled half a bill.
wd Lawrence Huntington ☆ Clifford Evans, Patricia Roc, David Farrar, Robert Beatty

'Unmasking a beautiful woman's secret and unholy desires!'

Suspense

US 1946 103m bw
Monogram (Maurice and Frank King)

A tough guy crashes an ice palace and makes a play for the boss's skating star wife.
Heavy melodrama with skating interludes; remarkably similar in plot to the more famous Gilda. Chiefly remarkable as Monogram's most expensive film.
w Philip Yordan d Frank Tuttle ph Karl Struss
☆ Belita, Barry Sullivan, Albert Dekker, Bonita Granville, Eugene Pallette, George E. Stone, Leon Belasco

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · ♫ Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Suspicion ★★

US 1941 99m bw
RKO (Alfred Hitchcock)

A sedate young girl marries a playboy, and comes to suspect that he is trying to murder her.
Rather artificial and stiff Hitchcock suspenser, further marred by an ending suddenly switched to please the front office. Full of the interesting touches one would expect.
w Samson Raphaelson, Alma Reville, Joan Harrison novel Before the Fact by Francis Iles d Alfred Hitchcock ph Harry Stradling m Franz Waxman
☆ Joan Fontaine, Cary Grant, Nigel Bruce, Cedric Hardwicke, May Whitty, Isabel Jeans, Heather Angel, Leo G. Carroll

'The fact that Hitchcock throws in a happy end during the last five minutes, like a conjuror explaining his tricks, seems to me a pity; but it spoils the film only in retrospect, and we have already had our thrills.' – William Whitebait, New Statesman

Joan Fontaine best picture; Franz Waxman

Suspicious River

Canada 2000 93m colour
Metro Tartan/Suspicious (Michael Okulitch, Raymond Massey)

A motel receptionist, who also provides sex to customers, begins an affair with a man who rapes her.
A depressing drama in two parts, interspersing a woman's current humiliations with her relationship to her younger self, observing similar abuses in her own family; but it remains hermetic and unilluminating.
wd Lynne Stopkewich novel Laura Kasischke ph Gregory Middleton m Don MacDonald pd Don MacAulay ed Allan Lee ☆ Molly Parker (Leila Murray), Callum Keith Rennie (Gary Jensen), Joel Bissonette (Rick Schmidt), Deanna Milligan (Millie), Mary Kate Welsh (Young girl)

'A succession of heavy-handed symbols (the title among them) and it fails equally as a case history, as a moral fable or as a pitiful account of a woman's destruction.' – Philip French, Observer

'The only thing more terrifying than the last twelve minutes of this film is the first eighty!'
'Once you've seen it you will never again feel safe in the dark!'

Suspiria ★★

Italy 1976 97m Eastmancolor Technovision
Seda Spettacoli (Claudio Argento)

A young American dance student arrives at dead of night at a continental academy where murder is the order of the day.
Psycho meets The Exorcist, with no holds barred: a genuinely scary thriller with gaudy visuals and a screaming sound track. A pyrotechnic display for those who can take it.
w Dario Argento, Daria Nicolodi d Dario Argento ph Luciano Tovoli m Dario Argento, Goblin
☆ Jessica Harper, Alida Valli, Joan Bennett, Stefania Casini, Udo Kier

'Thunderstorms and explicitly grotesque murders pile up as Argento happily abandons plot mechanics to provide a bravura display of his technical skill.' – Time Out

Sutter Kodtid Winyan: see The Shutter

Sutter's Gold

US 1936 75m bw
Universal

During the California gold rush an immigrant has to fight for his rights when a strike starts on his land.
Patchily arresting Western which by costing much more than it should started the exit of Carl Laemmle from the chairman's office.
w Jack Kirkland, Walter Woods and George O'Neil d James Cruze
☆ Edward Arnold, Lee Tracy, Binnie Barnes, Katherine Alexander, Addison Richards, Montagu Love, John Miljan
† Most of the action footage was reused in a 1939 quickie, Mutiny on the Blackhawk.

'A thriller where nothing is black and white.'

Suture ★

US 1993 96m bw
ICA/Scott McGehee, David Siegel

A poor man suffering from amnesia after being injured in an explosion is mistaken for his wealthy half-brother and assumes his personality.
A stylish thriller, less concerned with the mechanics of a crime than questions of identity. Its main trick, as irritating as it is clever, is to have the two physically similar half-brothers played by very dissimilar actors, one white and the other black.
wd Scott McGehee, David Siegel ph Greg Gardiner m Cary Berger pd Kelly McGehee ed Lauren Zuckerman
☆ Dennis Haysbert, Mel Harris, Sab Shimono, Michael Harris, Dina Merrill

'An exceedingly smart and elegant American indie feature in a very unusual vein.' – Variety

Suzhou River ★★

China/Germany/Netherlands/Japan/France 2000 83m colour Artificial Eye/Coproduction Office/Essential/Dream Factory (Nai An, Philippe Bober)

original title: Su Zhou He

A motorcycle courier, who loses the girl he loves through an act of betrayal, meets a nightclub dancer years later who he is convinced is the same woman.
Hitchcock's Vertigo has been shanghai'd and transformed into a delicate tale of double identity, love and loss.
wd Lou Ye ph Wang Yu m Jorg Lemberg ad Li Zhuoyi ed Karl Riedl
☆ Zhou Xun (Moudan/Meimei), Jia Hongsheng (Mardar), Yao Anlian (Boss), Nai An (Mada), Hua Zhongkai (Lao B)

'A seductive and atmospheric conundrum that works pleasingly as an exercise in storytelling.' – Lizzie Franke, Sight and Sound

Suzy ★

US 1936 95m bw
MGM (Maurice Revnes)

A French air ace of World War I marries an American showgirl; they then find that her former husband, thought dead, is still alive.
Proficient star comedy-drama with romance, action, comedy and a complex plot. A showcase for its stars.
w Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, Horace Jackson, Lenore Coffee novel Herbert Gorman d George Fitzmaurice ph Ray June m William Axt ☆ Jean Harlow, Cary Grant, Franchot Tone, Benita Hume, Lewis Stone song 'Djd I Remember' (m Walter Donaldson, ly Harold Adamson)

Svart Lucia: see The Premonition

Svengali ★★

US 1931 81m bw
Warner

In 1890s Paris, a hypnotist turns a girl into a great opera singer but she does not reciprocate his love.
Victorian fantasy melodrama with a great grotesque part for the star and interesting artwork.
w J. Grubb Alexander novel Trilby by George du Maurier d Archie Mayo ph Barney McGill ad Anton Grot
☆ John Barrymore, Marian Marsh, Luis Alberni, Lumsden Hare, Donald Crisp, Paul Porcasi

'A slow and old-fashioned melodrama.' – Variety
'Barrymore never needed occult powers to be magnetic, but interest flags when he's offscreen.' – New Yorker, 1978

Barney McGill; Anton Grot

Svengali

GB 1954 82m Eastmancolor
Renown/Alderdale (Douglas Pierce)

Flatulent remake which does have the virtue of following the original book illustrations but is otherwise unpersuasive.
wd Noel Langley ph Wilkie Cooper m William Alwyn ad Fred Pusey
☆ Donald Wolfit, Hildegarde Neff, Terence Morgan, Derek Bond, Paul Rogers, David Kossoff, Hubert Gregg, Noel Purcell, Alfie Bass, Harry Secombe

S.W.A.L.K.: see Melody

Swallows and Amazons

GB 1974 92m Eastmancolor
EMI/Theatre Projects (Richard Pilbrow)

In the twenties four children have adventures in the Lake District.
Mild family film, great to look at but lacking in real excitement or style.
w David Wood novel Arthur Ransome d Claude Whatham ph Denis Lewiston m Wilfred Josephs
☆ Virginia McKenna, Ronald Fraser, Simon West, Sophie Neville, Zanna Hamilton, Stephen Grendon

'I have never read the Arthur Ransome classic but, if it is as dull as the film, I doubt I ever will ... Everyone is frightfully prissy and well behaved.' – Ken Russell, Fire over England

The Swamp: see La Ciénaga

Swamp Fire

US 1946 68m bw
Paramount/Pine-Thomas

The rehabilitation of a war veteran bar pilot in the treacherous waters at the mouth of the Mississippi.
Routine romantic melo, notable only as its star's only screen appearance in long trousers.
w Geoffrey Homes d William Pine ☆ Johnny Weissmuller, Buster Crabbe, Virginia Grey, Carol Thurston, Edwin Maxwell, Pedro de Cordoba

Swamp Thing

US 1981 91m Technicolor
UA/Swamp Films (Benjamin Melniker, Michael E. Uslan)

A scientist, turned by accident into a cross between a man and a plant, battles against an evil colleague who wants to take over the world.
Less a horror pic, or a big-screen comic strip, more a sentimental story of vegetable love, it is about as interesting as watching grass grow.
wd Wes Craven ph Robin Goodwin m Harry Manfredini ad David Nichols, Robb Wilson King ed Richard Bracken sp William Munns
☆ Louis Jourdan, Adrienne Barbeau, Ray Wise, David Hess, Nicholas Worth, Don Knight
† It was followed by a sequel, Return of The Swamp Thing (qv).

Swamp Water ★★

US 1941 90m bw
TCF (Irving Pichel)
GB title: The Man Who Came Back

A fugitive holds out for years in the Okefenokee swamp, and affects the lives of the local township.
A strange little story, not very compelling as drama but with striking photography and atmosphere. Remade more straightforwardly as Lure of the Wilderness (qv).
w Dudley Nichols story Vereen Bell d Jean Renoir ph Peverell Marley m David Buttolph
☆ Walter Huston, Walter Brennan, Anne Baxter, Dana Andrews, Virginia Gilmore, John Carradine, Eugene Pallette, Ward Bond, Guinn Williams

'So bad it's terrific.' – Otis Ferguson

The Swan ★

US 1956 108m Eastmancolor Cinemascope
MGM (Dore Schary)

In 1910 Hungary, a girl of noble stock is groomed to marry the crown prince.
Interesting chiefly for a typical Hollywood reaction to a news event; about to lose their top star to a real life prince, MGM dusted off this old and creaky property for her last film. The star cast can't make much of it and the treatment is very heavy.
w John Dighton play Ferenc Molnar d Charles Vidor ph Robert Surtees m Bronislau Kaper ad Cedric Gibbons, Randall Duell
☆ Grace Kelly, Alec Guinness, Louis Jourdan, Agnes Moorehead, Jessie Royce Landis, Brian Aherne, Leo G. Carroll, Estelle Winwood, Robert Coote

'Balancing between artificial comedy and a no less artificial romantic theme, the film ultimately requires considerably greater finesse and subtlety in the handling.' – Penelope Houston

The Swan Princess

US 1994 90m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/International Nest/Rich Animal (Richard Rich, Jared F. Brown)

A wicked magician kidnaps a princess and turns her into a swan to force her to marry him.
Pleasant but unmemorable animated film, much in the Disney manner – its director is a former Disney animator – but lacking both charm and polish.
w Brian Nissen d Richard Rich m Lex de Azevedo m/ly David Zippel, Lex de Azevedo ad Mike Hodgson, James Coleman ed James Koford, Armetta Jackson-Hamlett
☆ Featuring the voices of: Jack Palance, Howard McGillin, Michelle Nicastro, John Cleese, Steven Wright, Steve Vinovich, Mark Harelik, James Arrington, Sandy Duncan

'Given the essential sentiment of the genre, it's decent value for the kids – not too frightening but possessed at least with a sense of magic and mystery in its better moments.' – Derek Malcolm, Guardian

Swanee River ★★

US 1939 84m Technicolor
TCF (Darryl F. Zanuck)

The life and loves of Stephen Foster.
Attractive, unsurprising family film in rich early colour, sparked by Jolson as E. P. Christy.
w John Taintor Foote, Philip Dunne
d Sidney Lanfield ph Bert Glennon md Louis Silvers
☆ Don Ameche, Al Jolson, Andrea Leeds, Felix Bressart, Russell Hicks

'An unimpressive story: will hit profitable but not big b.o.' – Variety

Louis Silvers

'A murder ... A lie ... A secret shared.'

Swann ★

GB/Canada 1996 95m colour
[illegible]
(Ann Scott, Christina Jennings)

In a small Canadian town, an American feminist arrives to research the life of a local poet, whose reputation is guarded by the librarian.
Teasing biographical mystery, given a heavy-handed treatment that obscures some of its meaning.
w David Young novel Carol Shields
d Anna Benson Gyles ph Gerald Packer
m Richard Rodney Bennett pd John Dondertman ed Robin Sales ☆ Miranda Richardson, Brenda Fricker, Michael Ontkean, David Cubitt, Sean McCann, John Neville, Sean Hewitt

'A gripping, affecting, deeply-felt film, wittily and compassionately scripted and superbly acted.' – Philip Kemp, Sight and Sound

Swann in Love ★★

France 1983 111m colour
Gaumont/FR3/SFPC/Bioskop/Films du Losange
(Margaret Menegoz)

original title: Un Amour de Swann

An elegant Jew in 19th-century Paris society becomes obsessed by a beautiful demi-mondaine.
Reasonably successful attempt to film part of an unfilmable book. Comparisons with Letter from an Unknown Woman are inevitable.
w Peter Brook, Jean-Claude Carrière, Marie-Hélène Estienne, from the works of Marcel Proust d Volker Schlöndorff
ph Sven Nykvist m Hans Werner Henze
☆ Jeremy Irons, Ornella Muti, Alain Delon, Fanny Ardant, Marie-Christine Barrault, Anne Bennent

'A film of more taste than vision.' – Gilbert Adair, MFB
'If you've read the original, forget it.' – Volker Schlöndorff
'A failure, maybe, but one that deserves to be seen.' – Observer

The Swarm

US 1978 116m Technicolor Panavision
Warner (Irwin Allen)

African killer bees menace the US.
Very obvious all-star disaster movie with risible dialogue. A box-office flop, probably because several TV movies had already tackled the same subject.
w Stirling Silliphant novel Arthur Herzog
d Irwin Allen ph Fred J. Koenekamp
m Jerry Goldsmith sp L. B. Abbott, Van Der Veer, Howard Jensen
☆ Michael Caine, Katharine Ross, Richard Widmark, Richard Chamberlain, Olivia de Havilland, Fred MacMurray, Ben Johnson, Lee Grant, José Ferrer, Patty Duke Astin, Slim Pickens, Bradford Dillman, Henry Fonda, Cameron Mitchell

'You could pass it all off as a sick joke, except that it cost twelve million dollars, twenty-two million bees, and several years of someone's life.' – Guardian
'The story is of a banality matched only by the woodenness of the acting.' – Barry Took, Punch

Swashbuckler ★

US 1976 101m Technicolor Panavision
Universal/Elliott Kastner (Jennings Lang)

GB title The Scarlet Buccaneer

Rival pirates help a wronged lady.
Uninspired reworking of some old Errol Flynn ideas; the idea was pleasant, but the old style is sadly lacking.
w Jeffrey Bloom d James Goldstone ph Philip Lathrop m John Addison pd John Lloyd
☆ Robert Shaw, James Earl Jones, Peter Boyle, Geneviève Bujold, Beau Bridges, Geoffrey Holder

'This tacky pastepot job can't make up its mind whether it's serious, tongue-in-cheek, satirical, slapstick, burlesque, parody or travesty; but be assured it is all of the above.' – Variety
'The talented cast is left to play living statues, immobilized by dumb dialogue and awkward action.' – Judith Crist

'Even cops dial 911'

S.W.A.T. ④

US 2003 116m DeLuxe Arriflex widescreen
Columbia TriStar/Original/Camelot/Chris Lee
(Neal H. Moritz, Dan Halsted)

The LAPD's Special Weapons and Tactics team guard a drug dealer who has offered $100m to anyone who frees him.
Unexciting thriller with lacklustre action.
w David Ayer, David McKenna characters created by Robert Hammer story Ron Mita, Jim McClain d Clark Johnson
ph Gabriel Beristain m Elliot Goldenthal pd Mayne Berke ed Michael Tronick sp Pixel Magic
☆ Samuel L. Jackson (Sgt Dan 'Hondo' Harrelson), Colin Farrell (Jim Street), Michelle Rodriguez (Chris Sanchez), LL Cool J (Deacon 'Deke' Kaye), Josh Charles (T.J. McCabe), Jeremy Renner (Brian Gamble), Brian Van Holt (Michael Boxer), Olivier Martinez (Alex Montel)

'Formula is now the name of the game, although a steady diet of stunts and shootouts ensures that the audience is never bored.' – Alan Morrison, Empire
† The movie is based on the US TV series that ran from 1975-1976, starring Steve Forrest as 'Hondo' Harrelson, Robert Urich as Jim Street, Rod Perry as 'Deacon' Kaye, and James Coleman as McCabe.

Swedenhielms

Sweden 1935 90m bw
Svensk Filmindustri

A brilliant but spendthrift scientist, who has equally extravagant children, hopes that their troubles can be ended by his winning the Nobel Prize.
A domestic saga that never quite escapes from its theatrical origins; a superior soap opera kept buoyant by its performances.
w Stina Bergman play Hjalmar Bergman
d Gustav Molander ph Ake Dahlquist
m Eric Bengtson
☆ Gösta Ekman, Björn Berglund, Hakan Westergren, Tutta Rolf, Ingrid Bergman, Sigurd Wallen, Nils Eriksson, Karin Swanström

Sweeney! ★

GB 1976 89m Technicolor
EMI/Euston (Ted Childs)

Scotland Yard's Flying Squad investigates a suicide and uncovers an elaborate political blackmail scheme.
Enjoyable big screen version of a pacy, violent TV cop show.
w Ranald Graham d David Wickes ph Dusty Miller m Denis King
☆ John Thaw, Dennis Waterman, Barry Foster, Ian Bannen, Colin Welland, Michael Coles, Joe Melia

Sweeney 2

GB 1978 108m Technicolor
Euston Films (Ted Childs)

The flying squad discovers that a series of armed bank robberies is being committed by a gang of expatriates who return from a luxurious Malta development for each caper.
Silly, sluggish and violent extension of thin material which would scarcely have made a good one-hour TV episode. There isn't even an exciting climax.
w Troy Kennedy Martin d Tom Clegg ph Dusty Miller m Tony Hatch ad Bill Alexander ed Chris Burt ☆ John Thaw (Insp Jack Regan), Dennis Waterman (Sgt George Carter), Barry Stanton (Big John), Denholm Elliott (Jupp), Nigel Hawthorne (Dilke), John Flanagan (Willard), David Casey (Goodyear), Georgina Hale (Switchboard girl), Lewis Fiander (Gorran), Derrick O'Connor (Llewlyn), Anna Gael (Mrs Hill)

Sweeney Todd, the Demon Barber of Fleet Street ★

GB 1936 68m bw
George King

A barber kills his customers and makes them into 'mutton pies' for sale at the shop next door.
Decent version of a famous old melodrama; stilted as film-making, but preserving a swaggering star performance.
w Frederick Hayward, H. F. Maltby play George Dibdin-Pitt d George King
ph Jack Parker ad Percy Bell ed John Seabourne ☆ Tod Slaughter, Bruce Seton, Eve Lister, Stella Rho, Ben Soutten, Johnny Singer, Eve Lister

Sweepings ★

US 1933 77m bw
RKO

An ambitious Chicago merchant finds that his sons do not wish to emulate him.
Curious family melodrama based on fact; interesting but not exactly inspiring.
w Lester Cohen novel Lester Cohen
d John Cromwell ph Edward Cronjager
m Max Steiner
☆ Lionel Barrymore, Alan Dinehart, Eric Linden, William Gargan, Gloria Stuart, Gregory Ratoff

'Nothing to interest the women and a subject too sombre to interest the men.' – Variety

Sweet Adeline

US 1934 85m bw
Warner (Edward Chodorov)

In the 1890s, the daughter of a beer garden owner attracts the attention of a composer and becomes a Broadway star.
Unexceptionable, and quite forgotten, adaptation of a pleasant, old-fashioned Broadway musical.
w Erwin S. Gelsey play Jerome Kern, Oscar Hammerstein II, Harry Armstrong, Dick Gerard d Mervyn Le Roy ph Sol Polito
m/ly Jerome Kern, Oscar Hammerstein II
ch Bobby Connolly ad Robert Haas
☆ Irene Dunne, Donald Woods, Ned Sparks, Hugh Herbert, Wini Shaw, Louis Calhern, Nydia Westman, Joseph Cawthorn

'As a production in the bigtime musical class, but strictly on merit it rates no better than fair.' – Variety

Sweet and Lowdown ★★

US 1999 95m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Sweetland/Magnolia (Jean Doumanian)

In the 1930s, a self-obsessed jazz guitarist enjoys fame and misfortune.
Done in the style of a biopic, this is a delightfully inventive comedy, in love with the period and its music and able to communicate that emotion to its audience; the central performances of Penn, as the musician destructive of himself and others, and Samantha Morton, as his mute admirer, are excellent.
wd Woody Allen ph Zhao Fei m Dick Hyman pd Santo Loquasto ed Alisa Lepselter cos Laura Cunningham Bauer
☆ Sean Penn (Emmet Ray), Samantha Morton (Hattie), Uma Thurman (Blanche), Brian Markinson (Bill Shields), Anthony LaPaglia (Al Torrio), Gretchen Mol (Ellie), Vincent Guastaferro (Sid Bishop), John Waters (Mr Haynes), Constance Schulman (Hazel), Kellie Overbey (Iris)

'Woody Allen's most delightful film in perhaps ten years.' – Angie Errigo, Empire † Howard Alden dubbed Sean Penn's guitar playing.
Sean Penn; Samantha Morton

'A Promise Of Heaven. A Journey Into Hell'

Sweet Angel Mine

GB/Canada 1996 88m colour
Optimum/HandMade/Mass Productions/ImagexBritish Screen/Telefilm Canada/NSFDC/Statescreen/Picture Palace (Sam Taylor, Christopher Zimmer)

A Londoner, who goes to Novia Scotia to search for his long-lost father, stumbles across a remote farm occupied by three women.
Feeble horror with unconvincing characters, far-fetched narrative contrivances, and, after its slow-moving first half, a frenetic, gruesome finale.
w Sue Maheu, Tim Willocks screenplay Love's Executioners by Tim Willocks d Curtis Radclyffe ph Witold Stok m John McCarthy pd Maria Djurkovic ed Anne Sopel ☆ Oliver Milburn (Paul), Margaret Langrick (Rauchine), Anna Massey (Mother), Alberta Watson (Megan)

'Isn't bad enough to be real fun and isn't good enough to convince on any level except the plain silly.' – Derek Elley, Variety

'He used love like most men use money!'

Sweet Bird of Youth ★

US 1962 120m Metrocolor Cinemascope
MGM/Roxbury (Pandro S. Berman)

A Hollywood drifter brings an ageing glamour star back to his home town, but runs into revenge from the father of a girl he had seduced.

Digital Video Disc Region 2 · Digital Video Disc Region 1 · Soundtrack released on compact disc · ☆ Cast in approximate order of importance · † Points of interest · Notable songs · Academy Award · Academy Award nomination · BAFTA

Emasculated version of an overwrought play with the author's usual poetic squalor; comatose patches alternate with flashes of good acting and diverting dialogue, but the wide screen and heavy colour don't direct the attention.
wd Richard Brooks play Tennessee Williams ph Milton Krasner m Harold Gellman md Robert Armbruster
☆ Paul Newman, Geraldine Page, Ed Begley, Mildred Dunnock, Rip Torn, Shirley Knight, Madeleine Sherwood
Ed Begley
Geraldine Page; Shirley Knight

'Love is what it's all about!'

Sweet Charity ★

US 1969 149m Technicolor Panavision 70
Universal (Robert Arthur)

A New York taxi dancer dreams of love.
A revue-type musical bowdlerized from Fellini's Le notti di Cabiria accords ill with real New York locations, especially as its threads of plot come to nothing; but behind the camera are sufficient stylists to ensure striking success with individual numbers.
w Peter Stone play Neil Simon d Robert Fosse ph Robert Surtees m Cy Coleman md Joseph Gershenson ly Dorothy Fields
☆ Shirley MacLaine, Ricardo Montalban, John McMartin, Chita Rivera, Paula Kelly, Stubby Kaye, Sammy Davis Jnr
'The kind of platinum clinker designed to send audiences flying towards the safety of their television sets.' – Rex Reed
Cy Coleman (as music director)

Sweet Dreams

US 1985 115m Technicolor
Tri-Star/HBO/Silver Screen (Bernard Schwartz)

The effect on her marriage of the rise to success of folk singer Patsy Cline.
Pleasant, muted, unremarkable modern biopic.
w Robert Getchell d Karel Reisz
ph Robbie Greenberg m Charles Gross ☆ Jessica Lange, Ed Harris, Ann Wedgeworth, David Clennon, James Staley Jessica Lange

'The Story Of Two Women's Struggle For Survival, Self-Respect And Hard Currency.'

Sweet Emma, Dear Böbe ★

Hungary 1992 78m Eastmancolor
Objektiv/Manfred Durniok Filmproduktion (Lajos Ovari, Gabriella Groz)

original title: édes Emma, Drága Böbe – Vazlatok, Aktok
Two young female teachers move to Budapest to work, sharing a tatty room together.
A well-made, engrossing study of glum lives.
w István Szabó, Andrea Veszits d István Szabó ph Lajos Koltai m Richard Schumann pd Attila Kovacs ed Eszter Kovacs
☆ Johanna Ter Steege, Eniko Börcsök, Peter Andorai
'The realities of day-to-day life in post-Communist Hungary are vividly brought to life in this compassionate, memorable film. Though the settings and narrative are understandably bleak, the treatment throbs with life and love, resulting in a most satisfying film.' – Variety
'The best movie to date about the way ordinary Central Europeans are experiencing the cataclysmic changes following the collapse of Communism.' – Philip French, Observer

Sweet Hearts Dance

US 1988 101m Technicolor
Columbia TriStar/Bright Star/Tri-Star ML Delphi Premier Productions (Jeffrey Lurie)

A small-town couple experience marital problems.
A drama of small incidents that never builds into a coherent whole.
w Ernest Thompson d Robert Greenwald
ph Tak Fujimoto m Richard Gibbs
pd James Allen ed Robert Florio, Janet Bartells
☆ Don Johnson, Susan Sarandon, Jeff Daniels, Elizabeth Perkins, Kate Reid, Justin Henry, Holly Marie Combs, Heather Coleman

'There is no such thing as the simple truth.'

The Sweet Hereafter ★★★ (8)

Canada 1997 112m colour Panavision
Electric/Speaking Parts/Alliance/Ego (Camelia Frieberg, Atom Egoyan)

A lawyer arrives in a small town to persuade parents, who are grieving over the deaths of 14 children killed in a school bus accident, to let him represent them.
A complex and compelling retelling of a tragic event, flashing back and forward in time to present the details of intertwined lives on the brink of disaster.
wd Atom Egoyan novel Russell Banks ph Paul Sarossy m Mychael Danna pd Philip Barker ad Kathleen Climie
ed Susan Shipton
☆ Ian Holm (Mitchell Stephens), Maury Chaykin (Wendell Walker), Gabrielle Rose (Dolores Driscoll), Peter Donaldson (Schwartz), Bruce Greenwood (Billy Ansell), David Hemblen (Abbott Driscoll), Brooke Johnson (Mary Burnell), Arsinée Khanjian (Wanda Otto)
'The cumulative impact is, by this director's standards, disappointingly uni-dimensional and almost banal.' – Sheila Johnston, Screen International
'A film of great scrupulousness and restraint, with few false notes.' – Richard Williams, Guardian
Atom Egoyan (as director and as writer)

'Sometimes What You're Looking For Is Right Where You Left It.'

Sweet Home Alabama

US 2002 109m Technicolor Panavision
Buena Vista/Touchstone (Neal H. Moritz, Stokely Chaffin)

A Manhattan fashion designer re-discovers small-town values when she returns to her Alabama home to divorce her husband so that she can marry a New York socialite.
Sugary confection that promises to be a sophisticated screwball comedy but turns into a romance in love with the simple life.
w C. Jay Cox story Douglas J. Eboch
d Andy Tennant ph Andrew Dunn
m George Fenton pd Clay A. Griffith
ed Troy Takaki, Tracey Wadmore-Smith cos Sophie de Rakoff Carbonell
☆ Reese Witherspoon (Melanie Carmichael), Josh Lucas (Jake), Patrick Dempsey (Andrew), Candice Bergen (Kate), Mary Kay Place (Pearl Smooter), Fred Ward (Earl Smooter), Jean Smart (Stella Kay), Ethan Embry (Bobby Ray)
'As predictable as the menu for a Southern picnic and not nearly as tasty.' – Todd McCarthy, Variety
† The movie cost $18m and took more than $127m at the US box-office.

Sweet Kitty Bellairs

US 1930 60m Technicolor
Warner

A romance of stagecoach days set in Bath.
A decided curiosity to come from this studio in Little Caesar days, and not a successful one.
w Hermann Harrison play David Belasco novel Agnes and Egerton Castle d Alfred E. Green ☆ Claudia Dell, Ernest Torrence, Walter Pidgeon, June Collyer, Perry Askam, Lionel Belmore, Flora Finch 'Artistic achievement, but weak on fan pull.' – Variety

Sweet Liberty

US 1986 107m colour
Universal/Martin Bregman

A college professor is disgusted as he watches the Hollywood filming of his historical novel.
A good idea surprisingly wasted: the plot turns to tedium before the half-way mark.
wd Alan Alda ph Frank Tidy m Bruce Broughton pd Ben Edwards ed Michael Economou
☆ Alan Alda, Michael Caine, Michelle Pfeiffer, Lillian Gish, Bob Hoskins, Saul Rubinek, Lois Chiles, Lise Hilboldt

The Sweet Life: see La Dolce Vita

Sweet Lorraine ★

US 1987 91m colour
Autumn Pictures (Steve Gomer)

The owner of a rundown hotel in the Catskills has her granddaughter spend the summer working for her.
Gentle and charming film, strong on character.
w Michael Zettler, Shelly Altman d Steve Gomer ph Rene Ohashi m Richard Robbins pd David Gropman ed Laurence Solomon ☆ Maureen Stapleton, Trini Alvarado, Lee Richardson, John Bedford Lloyd, Freddie Roman

Sweet Music

US 1934 100m bw
Warner

An orchestra leader and a girl singer spar a lot but finally make it up.
The slimmest of stories stretches over a few good numbers and some snappy dialogue; but it's all too long.
w Jerry Wald, Carl Erickson and Warren Duff d Alfred E. Green ☆ Rudy Vallee, Ann Dvorak, Ned Sparks, Helen Morgan, Allen Jenkins, Alice White, Robert Armstrong

Sweet November

US 1968 113m Technicolor
Warner Seven Arts (Jerry Gershwin, Elliott Kastner)

An English tycoon in New York meets a girl who takes a new lover every month because she hasn't long to live.
Irritating exercise in eccentric sentimentality, not helped by twitchy stars.
w Herman Raucher d Robert Ellis Miller
ph Daniel L. Fapp m Michel Legrand
☆ Anthony Newley, Sandy Dennis, Theodore Bikel, Burr de Benning

'She Just Needed A Month To Change His Life Forever.'

Sweet November

US 2001 119m Technicolor
Warner/Bel Air/3 Arts (Erwin Stoff, Deborah Aal, Steven Reuther, Elliott Kastner)

A harassed, conventional advertising executive falls for a free-spirited woman, suffering from a fatal disease, who takes a new lover every month.
Soft-centered weepie romance, a remake of the Sandy Dennis-Anthony Newley movie of the 60s; time has not improved the story, nor does this more attractive cast raise it above the mundane.
w Kurt Voelker screenplay Herman Raucher d Pat O'Connor ph Edward Lachman m Christopher Young pd Naomi Shohan ed Anne V. Coates cos Shay Cunliffe
☆ Keanu Reeves (Nelson Moss), Charlize Theron (Sara Deever), Jason Isaacs (Chaz), Greg Germann (Vince), Liam Aiken (Abner), Lauren Graham (Angelica), Michael Rosenbaum (Brandon), Robert Joy (Raeford Dunne), Ray Baker (Buddy Leach), Frank Langella (Edgar Price)
'The woozy weightlessness of the story has a near-narcotic effect. You can almost feel the brain cells dying.' – A. O. Scott, New York Times

Sweet Revenge: see Dandy the All-American Girl

The Sweet Ride

US 1967 110m DeLuxe Panavision
TCF (Joe Pasternak)

